Notes for Johann Georg Schnirring:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

J. George Schnirring is a farmer owning a fine place on section 22, Freedom Township. He is a son of Michael Schnirring, a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, where he was engaged as a farmer. Our subject's mother was Magdalena (Schrat) Schnirring, a native of the same place as was her husband, where they both died. They were the parents of seven children, three of whom are now living. Of these our subject was the sixth child in order of birth, his natal day being May 15, 1836, and his birthplace being Wurtemberg.

The original of our sketch grew to manhood in his native country and there received a good education, having been a student of a High School in Germany. On reaching his majority he started out from home to engage in the struggle of life for himself and America offering inducements to an energetic young man superior to any other country he cast his lines here, and on arriving in this country proceeded directly to Michigan and settled in Freedom Township where he worked out on a farm by the day. He continued this for a time in order that he might learn to speak English and also to learn the methods of work in this country.

Later Mr. Schnirring became a teacher of German in Lodi and Freedom Townships and was very successful in this work. In 1857 he was united in marriage to Christian Lawrence, a daughter of Henry Lawrence of Wurtemberg, Germany. She was born in 1833 and was well versed in her native tongue and the usual branches as taught in German schools. This union has been blest by the advent of nine children, seven of whom are now living. Of these Riga is the wife of John Monroe and lives in California; Regina married Peter Johnson and also lives in California; William is the husband of Lizzie Scherdt and lives in Bridgewater; Clara, Paulina, Eugene and Minnie are still under the home roof.

Our subject settled upon his present farm twenty-three years ago (1891) and now has one hundred twenty acres, ninety acres of which are improved. He built all the buildings on the place and he has a very pleasant house that is charmingly located on the southeast corner of Pleasant Lake. Since living here he has added greatly to the value of his land by the careful and thorough attention he has given it.

Mr. Schnirring has given his children very good educational advantages and they are able to hold their own both in English and German with the young people of the day. The family is members of the Evangelical Church, of which our subject has been a Trustee for twenty-two years. For the past eighteen years he has been a member of the School Board and for fifteen years has been School Inspector of Freedom Township. Our subject is a Democrat in his political sympathies and has been elected to some local offices by virtue of his loyalty to his party. Mr. Schnirring carries on his agricultural operations independently and devotes himself to general farming, supplementing the products of the soil by raising traded stock. He is an encouraging illustration of what a man may accomplish in America, for like so many others he began life empty-handed, and the fine property which he is now possessed of he has earned by his own individual efforts.

John George Schnirring died at the home of his son, Wm, Schnirring, in Pittsfield, Dec. 10, 1908, at the age of 72. Mr. Schnirring was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, May 15, 1836, and was married to Christiana Lorenz, Oct. 8, 1854, coming to America the same year. To them ten children were born of which four are still living, three daughters and one son. Funeral was held Sunday forenoon at the home of his son, and Dr. Rev. Meyer, of Freedom, officiated in German. The interment was made in Freedom cemetery.

Notes for Harold William Hieber:

The puzzling death of a 45-year-old Saline township man in Pleasant Lake was declared "accidental death by drowning" Monday after an autopsy was performed on the body at University Hospital. Earlier, police reports had indicated that Harold W. Hieber, of 11625 Case Rd., might have taken his own life by diving from the boat in which he was frog hunting, Saturday night.

Funeral services for Hieber, an employee of Klager Hatcheries in Bridgewater for 15 years, were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Bethel E. and R. Church in Freedom Township. The Rev. T. W. Menzel officiated, and burial was in the Bethel Church cemetery. Meanwhile, Sheriff George Petersen declared police were "satisfied" that Hieber's death had resulted from an accidental fall from his boat, and that the cuts and slashes on his face were probably the result of a fall onto rocks along the lake's edge. "There is no indication whatever of suicide," Petersen said, "and our investigation is closed."

Hieber's body was recovered from the lake after an eight hour search by skin-divers from Clinton, Ypsilanti, Bedford, Battle Creek and Jackson State Police posts; and a post mortem was ordered by Dr. William P. Purfield, of Manchester, when he was unable to ascertain the exact cause of death in a preliminary examination at Lockwood Funeral Home here. The search for the missing man had been launched when his empty rowboat drifted in to shore Sunday noon at the Pleasant Lake resort, and Deputy Joseph T. Fitzgerald found a jacket, a billfold, and an upper dental plate in the boat. A flash-light and a fishing spear were also found, under a seat. Several township police agencies and private skin - diving clubs also took part in the concentrated search before Hieber's body was found floating in six feet of water near the shore. Hieber had told his eight year-old son, Fred, that he was going frog-fishing before he left home Saturday night. In addition to the son, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Goldie Hieber, and a daughter, Luinda, 12. Two sisters, Mrs. Martha Draper and Mrs. Pauline Johnson, both of Ann Arbor, also survive. He was born Sept. 15, 1913, in Freedom Township, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hieber.

Notes for Goldie M. Chase:

Goldie M. Hieber, of Saline, 77, died March 14, 1998 at the Evangelical Home in Saline after a brief illness. Mrs. Hieber was born October 31, 1920 in Emmet County, Michigan, the daughter of Julius and Ella (Durgee) Chase. On March 22, 1946, she married Harold W. Hieber in Freedom Township and he preceded her in death in 1959. She was a member of the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom Township.

Mrs. Hieber is survived by: one daughter, Luinda (Michael) Smith of Ypsilanti; one son, Fred (Joddy) Hieber of Ann Arbor; a granddaughter, Kimberly Hieber; several nieces and nephews; and three sisters.

Cremation has taken place. Private graveside services were held at the Bethel United Church of Christ Cemetery with Rev. Richard E. Hardy officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to the church. Arrangements were handled by Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline.
