Notes for Rev. George Schwemley:

This week's photograph is a portrait of the Reverend John George Schwemley Jr. John George Schwammle Jr. was born on March 10, 1831, in Ebersbuehl, Baden-Wuerttemberg, Germany. His parents were John George Schwammle Sr. and Maria Katherine (Kuegle) Schwammle. In 1883, at the age of two, young John and his parents came to America, locating on 80 acres in Chatfield Township. There they changed their name to Schwemley and John Jr. learned the carpenter's trade. On October 9, 1856, John Jr. married Mathilda Hesse of New Washington and settled in New Washington. He remained in the carpenter's trade until 1864 when he purchased a 60-acre farm in Chatfield Township. The Schwemley's had eight children, with three children dying as infants. At age 34 Mathilda died in 1870. John Jr. then sold his farm, placed his children with relatives and went to Columbus, Ohio, to study for the Lutheran ministry. Three years later he graduated and moved to a congregation in Hopewell, Ohio, in Mercer County.

There Rev. Schwemley married Caroline Regina Haag and became the father to four more children. Three years later the Schwemley's moved to Homerville, Ohio, in Medina County and in 1879 went to Kansas, settling in Spearville in Ford County. There he preached and farmed a 160-acre farm. In November of 1891, Rev. Schwemley and his wife moved to Grove City, Ohio, where they retired. In April 1898 the Schwemley's moved to Columbus, however, Rev. Schwemley died a month later at age 67. Rev. John George Schwemley was also known for his superior ability as a vocalist and led the singing in his congregations, and also taught music. Reverend Schwemley was buried in the Lutheran Cemetery in Grove City, Ohio.

Notes for Matilda Saloma Schwemley:

Christians have a star of hope in the night of death. They can bid adieu to their loved ones, yea, they themselves can embark on that final voyage with cheerful hearts. The Lord Jesus is their salvation. It is this alone which affords consolation to such sad deaths like the one we are again called upon to chronicle.

Matilda Salome Gottfried, daughter of John Schwemley and wife Anna departed this life Tuesday Feb 7, 1888 at 3:30 a.m. She was born Oct. 29, 1863 in North Liberty, Chatfield township and was baptized shortly afterward by Rev H. F. Belser. In May, 1878, she was confirmed a member of the Ev. Lutheran St. John's church of this place, of which she was a faithful member to the hour of her death. March 3, 1887 she was married to William Gottfried, with whom she has since lived in the vicinity of Bucyrus. Jan. 27, 1888, just ten days before her death, a healthy child was born to them. Their joy, however, was of short duration. Typhoid fever set in and it soon became apparent that the young mother must depart and leave the training of her boy to other hands. She expressly desired and witnessed his baptism, taking great comfort in the knowledge that her little one was dedicated to the Lord.

Deceased reached the age of 24 yrs. 3 mo. and 8 da. She leaves a sorrow stricken husband, a motherless child bereaved parents, two brothers and six sisters, besides many mourning friends. They have the sympathy of all. The funeral took place from the Ev. Lutheran church, a large concourse of people following the remains to the cemetery. The undersigned preached the funeral sermon, based on Luke 10, 20-22. Before her death, Mrs Gottfried chose the following hymn from memory, which she desired the congregation to sing at her funeral:

Jesus! be our guide
 As through life we glide;
 Faithfully in our behavior
 May we follow thee, dear Savior,
 Lead us by the hand,
 Through to Fatherland.
 When the world is cold
 Let us to Thee hold.
 When the cup of sorrow draining,
 May we do so uncomplaining
 For through trials we
 Find our way to Thee.
 Order thou our ways,
 Lord! through all our days;
 Though our path be dark and cheerless
 Jesus with us, we'll be fearless,
 Open, when life's o'er,
 Lord! to us thy door!

Marriage Notes for Albert Church and Zoe Engart:

May 11, 1905 - Miss Matilda Zoe Engart left today at 12:30 for Los Angeles, California, where she will be married Sunday night to Albert Earl Church. The wedding will occur at the home of the groom's brother in that city at eight o'clock on the evening mentioned, and will take place in the midst of only a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The happy couple will immediately go to housekeeping in a home which the groom has prepared for his bride in Los Angeles.

The marriage is the culmination of a romance which had its birth four years ago in Guthrie. Mr. Church moved to California, and became a member of the city's fire department, and since his arrival there the plans were made for the union.

Miss Engart is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Engart of the Shawnee hotel in this city, and is a young woman of whom all the graces and accomplishments of sweet womanliness may be said. She has many warm friends both here and at Guthrie, where she lived with her parents before their coming to Shawnee. Mr. Church is a young man of sterling worth, whose character and integrity are testified to by the many loyal friends of whom he is the possessor. It is therefore needless to say that the soon-to-be-unified couple will start on their journey in double harness with shoers of congratulations and well wishes.
