Marriage Notes for Dorothy Abbott and John Osborne:

One hundred and fifty friends and relatives witnessed the Sunday afternoon June 19, 1949 marriage of Miss Dorothy Jean Abbott and John Thomas Osborne in the St. Paul's Lutheran church in Albion. The bride is the daughter of Lawrence Watson Abbott, 329 Kedzie Drive, East Lansing, and Mr. Osborne's father is Robert Lewis Osborne of Mountain View, New York, formerly of Royal Oak. Rev. Adolf G. Spiegel of Albion, and Rev. Philip Schroeder of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church. performed the double ring service.

The bride's white nylon marquisette gown was trimmed with Chantilly lace. It featured a bustle back over the cathedral length train. Her fingertip veil was caught at each side with blush pink tea rosebud. Matching rosebuds topped the white Bible she carried, and her only jewelry was an heirloom locket. Miss Barbara Johnson of Havelock, Iowa, was honor attendant, and wore a full skirted gown of pink Swiss dotted marquisette. It had a bustle back, and she carried an arm bouquet of white daisies and blue delphinium. A matching floral band was in her hair. Little Dolores June Abbott was her sister's flower girl, and wore a blue gown made like the maid of honor's. Pink cornflowers were entwined in her long braids, and she sprinkled rose petals before the bride.

Charles Osborne of Detroit attended his brother, and ushers were: Raymond Pearson Marshall Wood, and Richard Hersch of Royal Oak. Miss Emma Pahl was organist, and Miss Mary Hobus of Jackson sang. Greeting the guests at the reception in the church parlors were Mrs. L.D. Abbott, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Frederick, great-aunt of the bride. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ray Pearson, Mrs. Henry Larzelere, Mrs. Ernest Schneider, Mrs. L.D. Abbott, Miss Marguerite Nearnberg, Miss Joan Combs, Miss Marilyn Bresein. Miss Kathleen Klever. Miss Carol Pearson, Miss Rosalie Kelley, Miss Marian Schmidt of Chicago, Illinois, Mrs. Charles Osborne of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rathfoot and Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Bielinski. The newlyweds are honeymooning in New York city and upon their return they will make their home near Mason.

Notes for Doris Deann Waffle:

Doris D. (Waffle) King, 88, passed away on Sunday, August 21, 2022 at her home in Marshall, Michigan. Visitation will be held at Lighthouse of Tekonsha, 616 N. Main St., Tekonsha on Wednesday, August 24, 2022 from 3:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M and again on Thursday from 10:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M., also at Lighthouse of Tekonsha. Funeral services will be held on Thursday, August, 25 at 11:00 A.M. with her nephew, Troy Waffle, officiating. Burial to follow with graveside services at the Riverside Cemetery in Tekonsha.

Doris Diann was born to Ernest and Dorothy (Aldrich) Waffle on October 10th, 1933, at the family farm near Tekonsha. She was the first daughter after four boys. She attended Windfall School and later attended Tekonsha High School, where she graduated in 1951. While growing up she was active in 4-H and was a high school cheerleader for all four years. She married Howard King in Coldwater, Michigan on June 2, 1951. They lived at the Chanute Air Force Base in Rantoul, Illinois until his discharge in 1953. After that they lived in both Girard and Milan, and in Holly, Michigan from 1968 to 1989. While living in Holly, they ran Triple K Ranch, a show cattle operation that was involved with Angus, Simmental, Maine - Anjou, Limousin and Chianina cattle over the years. She was proud of the cows she owned herself and enjoyed raking hay on the farm. She was known for the meals she would cook for the hired help and vets that would stop in. She also kept the books for the entire operation. She clerked many cattle sales over the years and helped score livestock judging contests. Doris and Howard raised five girls who were all active in showing cattle and 4-H. She was an adult advisor for the Michigan Junior Angus, Simmental and Chianina Associations over the years. As well as a 4-H leader for 25 years. Outside of the farm she enjoyed her bowling league, gardening (especially her Iris), getting her hair done and reading. Upon "retirement" in 1990, she and Howard moved to Durand where they continued to manage a small cow herd and she worked at Sam's Club in Flint for 11 years. Howard passed away in 2009 and she moved back to Marshall.

In 2012 she married Don Day and they were together until his passing in 2015. Doris is survived by her daughters; Carol King of Jackson, Nancy (Matt) Verhelle of Fenton, Donna (Kevin) Doneth of Durand and Linda King of Maquoketa, Iowa; grandchildren; Christy (Rainier Galinato) King, Ryan (Sarah) Verhelle, Jon (Crystal) Hodges, Kylie (Jon) Rush, Kelly (Brad) Cesal, Kurt (Kalli) Doneth, Kimberly (Brad) Deyarmond and Deven (Charlie) Wilson. She also had 17 great- grandchildren and another on the way. She is also survived by her brother Ernie Waffle and sister Vicki Enwright. Doris is proceeded in death by her husband of 58 years, Howard, daughter Marcia King, four brothers, and Don Day.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, Tennessee 38105 or the Riverside Cemetery Fence Fund, c/o Tekonsha Township, PO Box 91, Tekonsha, Michigan 49092.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, January 21, from 2-8PM at Dutcher Funeral Home and again on Thursday, prior to the service, beginning at 10AM. Burial will follow at Riverside Cemetery in Tekonsha. Howard Allen King was born April 3, 1928 in Tekonsha, Michigan. He was the son of Ellery and Mildred (Hall) King. He graduated from Coldwater High School in 1946 and later graduated from the Animal Science Short Course Program at Michigan State University. Howard served in the United States Air Force from November 27, 1950 until November 30, 1953, serving 3 years and 3 days. He was a staff sergeant and meat inspector. He married Doris Waffle on June 2, 1951 in Coldwater. They lived in Girard and Milan, before residing in Holly, from 1968 to 1990 and then moving to Durand to enjoy retirement. Mr. King worked in agriculture all his life. He made his living raising beef cattle. He loved to be at cattle shows and enjoyed the competition. Over the years he was involved with Angus, Simmental, Maine-Anjou, Limousin and Chianina cattle and held many offices with their organizations. He was also a 4-H leader and very involved with the beef show at the Michigan State Fair for over 40 years. He received many honors over the years, but being honored to judge the Chi sale bulls in Denver at the National Western Livestock Show two years in a row meant the most to him.

Howard was preceded in death by his parents; grandparents; and his mother and father in-law Ernest and Dorothy Waffle. Mr. King is survived by his wife, Doris of Durand; daughters, Marcia King of Jackson, Carol Lynne King of Jackson, Nancy and her husband Matt Verhelle of Linden, Donna and her husband Kevin Doneth of Durand, Linda and her husband Troy Helms of Lansing; granddaughters, Christy King, Kylie (Verhelle) and Jon Rush, Kelly and Brad Cesal, Kimberly Doneth, Ciana Hodges-King, Deven King, Alexandra Helms; grandsons, Ryan Verhelle and Sarah, Jon Hodges, Kurt Doneth; one great-grandson Blake Koesel; one great-granddaughter, Rylee Verhelle; sister, Shirley Sechler of Union City; sister-in-law, Vicki Enright of Okemos; brothers-in-law, Ernest (Billie) Waffle of Tekonsha, Bob Waffle of Tekonsha. 116. Leroy Arthur⁸ Taylor (Olive Mabel⁷ Mitchell, Harvey Arthur⁶, Louise Friederike (Lucy)⁵ Seiler, Gottfried Friederich (Sailer)⁴, Johann Gottfried³, Georg Friederich², Georg Leonhard¹) was born 17 Oct 1929. He married Barbara Jean Johnson 26 Jun 1953 in Tekonsha, Calhoun Co, Michigan. She was born Aft. 1927.

Marriage Notes for Leroy Taylor and Barbara Johnson:

Tekonsha – In a candlelight ceremony on June 26, 1953 in the Union church, Miss Barbara Jean Johnson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson of Route 2, Homer, became the bride of Leroy Arthur Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor of Route 1, Tekonsha. The double ring service, witnessed by the immediate families, was performed by the Rev. J.S. Shull, at eight o'clock before an altar adorned with basket of mixed white flowers, ferns and candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of nylon lace and net over taffeta. Her illusion fingertip veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and lace. She carried an orchid on a white Bible, a gift of the groom. Miss Ilan Blackfield was maid of honor. She chose a strapless gown of mint green nylon tulle over taffeta and wore a matching stole and headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds, carnations and daisies. Donald Taylor, brother of the groom, served as best man. Mrs. Edward Vosheen was the organist. The bride mother wore a Bemberg print dress and the groom's mother wore a beige dress. Each had white accessories and matching corsages of rosebuds and carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom was made by the brides' mother and served with ice cream and ice tea. For their honeymoon, the young couple traveled to Niagara Falls and Washington, D.C.

Notes for Donald Jacob Taylor:

Donald Jacob Taylor, age 87, of Marshall passed away peacefully of natural causes Thursday evening, April 30, 2020, in the presence of family, at Lakeland Regional Hospital, in Lakeland, Florida. Mr. Taylor was born on January 14, 1933 in Tekonsha, Michigan to Roy Frederick and Olive Mabel (Mitchell) Taylor. He was a lifelong resident of this area and was a graduate of Tekonsha High School. He continued his education attending college and trade schools where he earned several insurance certifications. Starting in 1950, Don served most of his working career at the State Farm Regional Offices in Marshall. He held many management positions there and retired as Superintendent in 1995. He served State Farm Insurance Company for over 45 years.

On May 22, 1954, he married the former Patricia Agnes Flynn in Marshall. Together they have five children. Donald was an active member of the St. Mary Catholic Church in Marshall where he sang in the choir and taught religion classes. He also had been involved in the Knights of Columbus. Don had always been a very energetic and active person. He was a member of the Marshall Country Club. He enjoyed spending time outdoors, fishing and hunting and was an avid supporter of the University of Michigan and the Detroit Tigers. Don and Pat enjoyed square dancing and belonged to several area dancing clubs. They also had many fun evenings attending dinners and other social activities at the Marshall Moose Lodge.

For the last twenty-four years, Donald and Pat wintered in the Winter Haven, Florida area. They made many lifelong friends there and attended St. Ann's Catholic Church in Haines City, Florida. Donald was a self-taught musician, teaching himself to play several different instruments. These included many keyboard instruments such as the piano, organ and accordion. He also could play stringed instruments like the guitar and mandolin.

He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Patricia; children, Steven Edward (Peg) Taylor of Marshall, Julia Ann Taylor of Coeur d Alene, Idaho, Deborah Kay (Leigh) Iobe of Marshall, Greg Alan (Lori) Taylor of Portage and Karen Marie Goudie of Kalamazoo; 13 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren; a brother, LeRoy Arthur (Barbara) Taylor of Tekonsha. Notes for Terry Lee Hampton:

Terry L. Hampton, 69 of Coldwater, formerly Burlington, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family Friday, September 6, 2019. Terry was born on September 18, 1949 to Willard and Dorothy (Hoff) Hampton in Battle Creek. He graduated from Tekonsha High School with the Class of 1968. He then attended college at Kellogg Community College, ITT Tech, and Indiana University – Purdue University in Ft. Wayne where he studied architecture. As a young man he worked for Vincent's Paint Shop in Tekonsha. Painting carousel horses for a traveling carnival led to working with game & food operations on the road. Eventually, Terry's innovative mind & entrepreneurial spirit birthed Hampton Company, building electronic group race games for carnivals and amusement parks. His company shipped equipment all over the U.S as well as other countries such as Mexico, Israel, Egypt, China, Iceland, and Japan. His equipment has been installed in many well-known parks and attractions such as Disney World, Sea World, Dolly Wood, Circus Circus and Treasure Island Casino (Las Vegas). In 1984 he acquired Douglas Corporation (machine shop) in Tekonsha which he ran along with his two brothers.

On March 23, 1974 he married Peggy Groholske. They were married for 17 years and had four children: Tara, Travis, Trevor and Troy. He then met his life partner of 29 years, Karmen Foster. Terry enjoyed vacationing with friends and family in Colorado and Grand Cayman, hunting, fishing, inventing/designing/drawing/sculpting, building his businesses, and spending time at his farm on Vincent Lake.

Surviving are his life partner Karmen Foster of Coldwater; children, Tara Hampton of Kalamazoo, Travis (Alysa) Hampton of Coldwater, Trevor (Chelsey McConn) Hampton of Tekonsha, Troy (Cassie) Hampton of Coldwater, Dylan (Jodi) Foster of Coldwater and Brooke Foster of Coldwater; 9 grandchildren (Courtney, Jayla, Dracyn, Chloe, Olivia, Gavin, Camrynn, Claire and Jackson), brothers, Tom (Linda) Hampton of Tekonsha, Richard (Cathy) Hampton of Marshall, sister Debbie (Jeff) Blair of Eagle River, Alaska, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents.

A memorial service celebrating the life of Terry will be held at 11:00 AM Saturday, September 14, 2019 at Lighthouse Funeral & Cremation in Union City. A gathering of family and friends will take place Friday, September 13, 2019 from 5-8 PM at Lighthouse Funeral & Cremation. Memorial contributions may be made to Lighthouse Funeral & Cremation and will be directed to the Lewy Body Dementia Association.

Notes for Heather Lee McCubbery:

Heather Platz is a native of Detroit, Michigan, and after high school, spent 30 years in the Kalamazoo, Michigan area. She is a graduate of Western Michigan University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. Heather joined IBM shortly after graduation and soon moved into a career as a Systems Engineer providing installation services, training and support for her clients. It was during this time that Heather learned the art of exemplary customer service. After a downsizing, Heather joined a local bank-owned mortgage company where she managed staff in their secondary marketing department and then a group of systems analysts who trained and supported mortgage lending systems. This was her first introduction to the mortgage and real estate industry. After meeting her husband, Lance, she moved to Iowa City, Iowa, where she joined a community bank, starting as the Executive Assistant to the President. Heather quickly took on additional responsibilities as the bank Compliance Officer, Operations Manager and Human Resources Vice President. It was during this time that her husband's parents' health was failing and they made the decision to move back to his hometown, Virginia Beach. Heather's first position in Virginia was as the Executive Assistant to the President at Regent University. Following the resignation of the President, Heather worked as an Executive Assistant to the CEO of a local countertop manufacturer as well as the Executive Assistant to the VP of Finance at a healthcare consulting firm before making the decision to launch a career in Real Estate. Heather brings her extensive experience serving others to her real estate business. You'll be amazed at Heather's attention to detail, her responsiveness to your needs and her caring demeanor. Heather enjoys gardening, golfing and sharing lots of laughs. Heather and Lance are grandparents to four beautiful grandchildren, two in Iowa and two in Washington state.
