Notes for Johannes (Kebler) Kuebler:

The State Journal - Sunday, July 25, 1976 (Michigan newspaper) by Yolanda Alvarado, Staff Writer. The destruction, terror and agony of the 1848 German revolution was fresh in the mind of Johannes Kebler, 63, of Wurtemberg. And now, in 1854, there was talk of another war. Germans were afraid that their country would eventually be drawn into the battle between Russian forces and the allied armies of England, France, Turkey and Sardinia (The Crimean War, 1853-1856).

Kebler loathed that thought. His wife was gone, but he had an only son, Christian, his son's wife, Elizabeth Catherina, three grandsons and a fourth grandchild on the way. So on Oct. 27, 1854, Kebler and his family boarded a ship headed for America.

The pain of their revolution of 1848 and the political struggle resulting in the Crimean War was dominating the lives of the Kubler family in the small village of Pfalzgrafenweiler, Wurtemberg, Germany.

The 1854 passport for the family lists Johannes (1791-1878) with his only son, Christian (1825-1916), Christian's wife, Elizabeth Katherine Schleh (1827-1899) and three young sons. Elizabeth's brothers preceded them to the Ann Arbor area and west to Minnesota. Rohrer and Bohnet cousins were migrating to Michigan, too. After weeks crossing the ocean in a small sailboat and a brief stay in Ann Arbor, the family acquired land in Ingham County and settled down to farm living.

The census of agriculture enumerated in 1860 records two working oxen, 3 milch cows, 7 other cattle, 6 swine valued at $200, were assets on 20 improved and 20 unimproved acres. The land was valued at $1,000. The name was now written Kebler. The growing family moved to a farm on the Grand River Turnpike in section 26 of Eagle Township, 3 miles north of Grand Ledge and 10 west of Lansing. Here grandfather John lived out his days and taught the young children their prayers in German.

The family included Christian Jr. born 1850; Johannes (John) born 1851; Johan Adam (Adam) born 1853; Christina born 1854; Martin born 1857; Johan Georg (George) born 1859; Anna Maria Catherina (Mary) born 1861; Heinricha (Ricki) born 1865; Friedrich (Fred S.) born 1865; Wilhelm (Will D.) born 1868; Heinrich (Henry B.) born 1869.

The log house was replaced by a white brick one, there was an orchard, a vineyard, a smokehouse for sugar-cured meats, and out buildings typical of Michigan farms of the era. The children attended the Kebler School on the corner of what would become M-100 and U.S. 16 (Grand River Avenue). Christian Jr. and John operated a blacksmith shop in Grand Ledge until John moved to a farm in Montcalm County and Christian Jr. purchased a farm near Grand Ledge. George moved to a farm in Mecosta County. Adam and Martin operated farms in Eagle Township and Will purchased the homestead. Fred became a teacher and merchant. Henry was a shoe merchant for 52 years in north Lansing. Christina married William Goodno and lived near Remus in Mecosta County. Ricki married Henry Lorenz and lived on Wood Road near north Lansing. Mary, a widow after three short months of marriage to Myron Goodrich, remained at the homestead with Will and senior members of the family. Will took his aged father and sister Mary with him to the house he built in 1911 in Grand Ledge. He returned to the farm c 1930 with his wife, Myrtie Howe and children, Elizabeth M. Vaughn and Geneva.

A portion of the original farmstead remains in family ownership. The family held its 60th annual reunion at the farm home of George and Geneva Kebler Wiskemann in Watertown Township in 1979. The family record is recorded in the Michigan State Library's special collections of Michigan Pioneer Record and Michigan Centennial Families.

Michigan Special Collections of Pioneer Families:

The voyage across the ocean took six weeks, by sail-boat. Great grandfather was very ill on the ocean and in later life became blind. When they first arrived in Michigan, they lived a couple weeks in Ann Arbor and then moved to Chandler Swamp, near E. Lansing. They owned forty acres which they sold to Mr. Klotz and moved to their future home near Eagle.

Uncle Fred was the first child born here in 1865. A grandmother of the family was married three times, the last time to Mr. Buzzard who died and his wife married Mr. Reider. They had one child, Christina, who they always called "old aunt." The grandfather was born in 1791 and died in 1878 - 87 years. Rev. Gergensmeir was the minister at this time who came from Woodland to hold services in Grand Ledge. (Lutheran Church). Our grandfather Kebler was the only son.

He married Margaretha Reule 1847 in on board ship, daughter of Johann Reule and Anna Wolf. She was born 01 Aug 1822 in Hornberg, Calw, Wurtemberg, and died 06 Jan 1889 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johannes (John B.) Schaible:

Detroit, Sept. 28, 1875 - Back on the Schaible estate in Wittenberg, Germany, 28-year-old John Schaible had been forbidden to marry Margareta, a mere family maidservant. So, determined to find personal independence and religious freedom, he brought her to America, and 127 years ago, built a log cabin on 120 acres of land near Saline. The couple was married on board ship on their way over. Pastor Frederick Schmidt, a young freelance minister who founded the Lutheran Evangelical Church in Scio and many other churches in Michigan, helped the Schaible's buy the land. The minister had apparently taken option on much land in Washtenaw County from the government in order that newcomers from Germany might settle more quickly.

Once settled in their cabin in Lodi Township, the Schaible's had seven sons and one daughter and began a farming tradition that has prevailed to the fifth generation. It took 27 years of work and planning before they built the brick home in which the Schaible's still reside. "I don't think we can possibly appreciate what has been done for us," says Gerhardt Schaible, 51, who is fourth generation. "They suffered all the hardships and sacrifices that make possible what we have today." But Gerhardt does appreciate it as does his son David, 25, who now works the land. Although farming has gotten easier with each generation, it is still a hard life and despite mechanized production, it still has that unmechanized reward. "There's always a feeling of a miracle taking place," Gerhardt says. "You plant a seed. It grows. It's like a new birth." Even so, mechanization has made vast changes. The house, built in 1848, has been completely remodeled. The cows are fed by machines and milked by them. A Tel Farm computer at Michigan State University is fed information, helps with the bookkeeping, and feeds back reports and analysis that aid the farm in its business-oriented operation.

Former generations would have been astounded. Eighty-four-year-old Julius Schaible, Gerhardt's father, says his father and grandfather "would have seen the modern techniques as miracles." Julius remembers his grandfather, John, the founder, as a strong, quiet, deeply religious man. Indeed, religion has played an important role in the lives of all the Schaible's. The church became a nucleus for them. The Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church in Scio, built in 1833, is known today as the cradle of Lutheranism in Michigan. Every American-born Schaible has been educated in the same two-room parochial school within the church's walls. Suffering from a heart condition, Gerhardt can no longer do physical labor. He handles the bookwork for his son, David, who bought the livestock and machinery from his father and rents the land in order to farm it. Someday the farm will be David's, Gerhardt promises. The farm now produces 300 gallons of milk daily, and its crops feed its 69 milk cows and 154 head of cattle. David says in front of his grandfather, Julius, that he would not give up farming, unless, say, he won the state lottery. Julius, in his wisdom, says, "You're gambling, anyway, when you're a farmer."

Gerhardt agrees, remembering well the gambles of borrowing money for machinery, of borrowing to buy more land, and the most recent gamble, introducing pollution control to their farm. This meant closing off previously-used drains that took refuse from the farmyards to the fields and beyond and putting in a new system to trap those wastes. There's a confidence in the future evident among the Schaible's, as they speak in order from the eldest to the youngest. "Farming is born in you; it's in your blood," says Julius. "There are great innovations yet to come," adds Gerhardt. And David, the only one of eight children to go into farming, concludes, "I am a farmer at heart and nothing I can see could take me away from it."

Notes for Rev. Matthaues (Matthew) Schaible:

Rev. Matthew Schaible of Washtenaw County, Michigan, was now called to the pastorate, (St. George's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Genoa, Livingston Co, Michigan 1878-1879). He began his work under favorable auspices and labored zealously for the up building of Zion. He also preached near Leroy, now Webberville, and to make his appointments braved all kinds of weather. During one of his wintry trips he contracted a severe cold, from which he did not recover. Having hardly served a year, he was called to his reward. He was able to confirm one class of catechumens, besides two adults, Rudolf and Marie Bremer. Rev. Schaible's death occurred November 7, 1879, at Freedom Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan.

Notes for Elisabetha Katharina Schleh:

Mrs. Elizabeth Katherine Kebler, wife of Christian Kebler, died at the old homestead in Eagle on Sunday last, September 24, aged 71 years, 10 months and 11 days.

The deceased was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, November 13, 1827, and was married to Christian Kebler, May 14, 1849. They came from Germany to American in August, 1854, and located in Lansing Township. After a residence there of ten years they moved to Eagle in 1864, on to the farm where they have since resided. Eleven children have been born to them, eight boys and three girls; all have been reared to manhood and womanhood and occupy respectable and useful positions in society. All were present at the funeral Wednesday forenoon, at the old homestead. The golden wedding of this couple was celebrated last spring, all the children being present at that time. The funeral services were attended by a remarkable large concourse of people, forty carriages following the remains to the Niles cemetery. The obsequies were conducted by Rev. Holler, of Nashville, assisted by Rev. Vanberger of Victor, Advent Christians, of which denomination deceased was a faithful and consistent member. She was a good wife and mother, and performed well her duties in the home and in her neighborhood; her memory will long be revered by all.

Notes for Johannes (John) Rauschenberger:

Written by John Rauschenberger (self autobiography):

I was born August 2, 1833 Unterwaldach. Healthy and eager to learn, I started to school when I was 5-1/2 years old. We also received religious instruction, and at Easter 1847 we were confirmed by our pastor, Laux, My consecration saying was: "Conduct you life always mindful of God; Take whatever comes as a well-intentioned gift." The saying that was selected for me has always been in my memory, and has been a concolation in joy and sorrow, good fortune and bad fortune.

Late in 1847, I entered an apprenticeship to learn the blacksmith trade from master Mathaeus (Matthew) Hirtle in Salzstetten, in the district of Horb. I was under contract to work for 3 years without pay. He was a good master. There was enough to eat and drink, but there wasn't any lack of work either. In one respect he was very strict: at 4 o'clock in the morning he would call, "Johann, Get up!?" But he was himself the first on as well as the last one at work, as when we sometimes worked until 9 PM. After my 3-year apprentice period was over, I took my examination in the county seat of Horb in presence of the guild. I passed it with a good grade and received my certificate as a journeyman blacksmith, signed by the President and Secretary of the guild.

After spending a few weeks at home, I went with my guardian on June 21, 1851 to the courthouse in Freudenstadt. There I received my travel document under the guarantee of my guardian that I would appear for compulsory military service when I was 21 years old.

With staff in hand and knapsack on my back, I undertook my journeying and quite soon found employment. I worked several places in Stuttgart, and then in Esslingen with master blacksmith Swegter. Also in the machine works (Car & Locomotive Works), which I enjoyed very much. I learned a lot and made good money. But because the time for military service was drawing near, I came after mature deliberation to decision to emigrate to America and not to devote the best time of my adult years to military service. Early in 1852 I made ready for the trip and worked for a few weeks for my old master Hirtle. He said, "Johann, you stay here as long as it takes to get your trunks all ready, because ship chests have to be well made and reinforced with iron."

In the company of my guardian I then went to the county court in Freudenstadt and renounced my citizenship. In keeping with that, he was released as a guarantor for me and I received an emigration visa for myself and my youngest sister, Margaretha, who wanted to emigrate to America with me.

We made a contract with the sailing "Carolus Magnes" (Charles the Great or Charlemagne) which sailed to New York. On May 1, 1853 we departed from the home, traveling through Baden and France to LeHavre. The route was: arrived in Strasbourg May 3 and left there May 5, arrived in Paris May 6 at 4 AM and left there the same day at 9 PM, arrived in LeHavre May 7 at 7 AM. Now it was a matter of getting ready for the ship journey, for which we had to provide our own bedding and food. We brought a mattress and provisions to supplement the food that we had brought from home. On May 9 we boarded the ship.

On the whole, the voyage was pleasant, although the majority of the passengers became seasick. Our party was not excluded from this. There were 25 to 30 of us young people who came from the same area and perhaps had known each other in school. There were both boys and girls, acquaintances and relatives. We amused ourselves as a family would. Since I was only one who escaped seasickness, I had to look after the cooking. It was an unfamiliar task for me, but with the help of the girls I did pretty well at cooking noodle soup. When the seasickness was gone and good appetites had returned, the girls took over most of the cooking, although we boys helped. The kitchen was always full, and it often took arguments and even blows to get room to hang our kettles over the fire. But we brought good food and drinks from home; hams, sausage, eggs, lard, and bread. We also had wine and all sorts of liqueurs. We had a few storms, and most of the time the weather was warm and pleasant on the deck. We amused ourselves with music and singing. We had good musicians and also singers. We made up a mixed chorus and let our school and folk songs resound, like brothers and sisters of a family. We all were of one faith, educated and brought up in the Evangelical Church.

After a voyage of 33 days we landed in New York in good shape at noon on June 13. All of us made ready for the journey to our destinations, where we had friends and acquaintances. My sister and I went with friends of ours, the Gottlieb Blickley family, to Detroit, where he had two married brothers. Our route was: left New York June 15, by steamboat to Albany, then by railroad to Buffalo, arrived in Buffalo 4 PM, June 16. Left that evening by steamboat for Detroit. Arrived in Detroit June 17, 1853. We were received very kindly, and the family found a service job for my sister. I found work with a blacksmith who worked on steamboats, and Englishman named Blair. It was a hard beginning for me, in that I didn't know English and it was always necessary for someone to interpret. My wages were small and I was always low on cash, when I needed money for my board. Mr. Blickley would give me a check for sugar or coffee or the like, but no cash. Often I thought of the good job I had had in Esslingen in the Car &

Locomotive Works. But my friend Blickley cared about me. One evening when I came in, he spoke to me about work in Michigan City.

Arrived at Michigan City, Indiana, Jly 1853. Taken out my citizen paper in Laporte, Laporte Co, Indiana, in 1859, being a citizen of Indiana over 60 years.

John Rauschenberger (1833-1923) arranged for various family members to join him here in America. IN 1854, he made travel arrangements for his mother to join him in just one year after arriving in the States himself.

In October 1879, John arranged for his nephew, also named John, and two nieces to immigrate to the United States. All were the children of John's brother Georg who remained in Germany to look after the family saw mill in Unterwaldach. Newpew John (1863-1931) also worked as a blacksmith and owned a small farm in Butler, Butler Co, Pennsylvania. The property held two houses, and a barn large enough to keep a few milk cows and supplied the neighborhood with fresh cream for a price. The small house on the back of the property remains in the family and was occupied by members of the Rauschenberger, grandson of John, lived in the home after marriage. Curt, grandson of Floyd, great-great-grandson of John, and his wife Joyce Rauschenberger lived for the first five years of their marriage.

Of the nieces, Mary married John Hoehn and lived in Butler, Pennsylvania. (It was while visiting his sister that nephew John met his future wife.) Catherine (1864-1884) was unmarried and died of homesickness, or so the story goes.

Notes for Michael Friederich Kern:

History of Allen and Woodson Counties, Kansas: Edited and Compiled by L. Wallace Duncan and Chas. F. Scott. Iola Registers, Printers and Binders, Iola, Kansas: 1901; page 195:

Michael F. Kern, of Humboldt Township, Allen County, was born in the province of Wurtemberg, Germany, July 2, 1833. He was a son of John Adam Kern, who emigrated to the United States in 1859 and settled in the state of Michigan. In Washtenaw County his parents died, the mother in 1869 and the father ten years later. Eight children were born to this worthy couple, four of whom survive, viz: Lena, who, married Carl Haddock and resides in Lawrence, Kansas; Catherine, wife of Andrew Reule, of Ann Arbor, Michigan; John M. and Michael F. Kern.

The subject of this sketch resided five years in Michigan and then set out for the frontier. He came down into Allen County during the war and preempted the land upon which he has since resided. He was acquainted with the methods of successful farming and began at once to devote himself thereto. The improvement of his premises also received his attention and in his thirty-five years of citizenship he has expanded and developed materially to the extent of a substantially improved, high-cultivated and exceedingly productive two hundred and forty acre farm.

As a feeder and grower of cattle and other marketable stock Mr. Kern is well known in southern Allen County. For many years his farm has furnished a market for much surplus grain of the community and his extensive interests demand the employment of labor throughout the year. His home presents the appearance of neatness and cleanliness. Everything has its proper place and, when not in use, is found in its place. He planned his improvements for convenience and the arrangement of his barns, sheds and fences indicate the perfection he attained.

Michael F. Kern was married in October 1865 to Sarah W. Schmidt, whose father, Henry Schmidt, was born in Hanover, Germany. Mrs. Kern was born in Lafayette County, Missouri.

During the war Mr. Kern belonged to the state militia, doing guard duty along the border, and upon several occasions was called into the field to drive out the invading rebels and bushwhackers. In politics he has been without aspirations. While he has been interested in all political controversies it has been the interest of a citizen and not of a candidate. He affiliates with the Republicans and is regarded in some measure as a controlling influence in local elections.

Notes for Jacob Schweitzer:

May 12, 1938 – This community, like all others has its empty houses. Perhaps one of the most interesting is the old Schweitzer house across from the Drake homestead in Lodi Township. Today it is crumbling into ruins, birds nest in the rafters that once were part of a substantial house. A frame dwelling, an upright and a "lean-to", well planned, a comfortable kitchen with spacious cupboards, the old stairway, a sagging door, a rotted window sill, a cellar yawning where the floor has caved in, all these are what the visitor today will see should he visit the place.

Time was when it was a fine home with a drive bordered on with either side with cherry trees, beautiful in season when loaded with their luscious fruit, a bower of shade in the summer heat, a welcome from the dust and heat of the road. The house was in good condition, plastered walls with the customary spring papering greeted the caller. A well filled wood box stood in the corner, the teakettle sang on the hearth. And the pungent odors of home cooking floated round the homestead. Here Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schweitzer lived about 60 years ago. They had three daughters, Caroline, Rose, and Mary. There were two sons, Will who was born in the house which still stands, although crumbling in decay, and Emanuel.

Mary Schweitzer married John Lindemann and still lives on the Pleasant Lake Road across from the Lodi town hall. Caroline married George Bauer and lived in Ann Arbor. Rose married Fred Lambarth. She and Caroline each passed on several years ago. Emanuel lives with the Will Lindemann family on Pleasant Lake Road and Will lives with the Scherdt brothers in Freedom.

Mrs. Schweitzer was Magdalena Keck before her marriage and came from Stuttgart, Germany. Mr.

Schweitzer died before the turn of century and she continued to live in the home and to finish rearing their family. She was friendly soul and a good neighbor. Miss Gertrude Drake, who lived across the road from her, recalls her clearly. After Mrs. Schweitzer died the estate was settled and Fred Hack purchased the farm. No one ever has occupied the house since Mrs. Schweitzer died and what was once not only a comfortable, but a well-cared for home, has become a relic of its former glory. Situated on a knoll, it provided a most satisfying view in all directions. A clump of lilacs still clusters round the door as if hugging the memory of former years.

Notes for Johann Wilhelm Aprill:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

William Aprill - Among the German-American families of Scio Township, none is better known for earnest industry and devotion to duty than that which is represented by the name at the head of this paragraph. Our subject was born on his father's homestead which is situated on section 32, May 26, 1836. His father, Jacob, married Magdalena Schnyder, in New York, in 1832, having come to the United States three years earlier when he was twenty-one years old. During that time he had served an apprenticeship to the shoemaker's trade at the village of Schuyler, in Herkimer County. His wife had a brother Martin Schnyder, who had come to Michigan, and they followed him hither.

When they came to Michigan Mr. Aprill had accumulated about $100, although he had been in debt when he came to this country, and his wife saved $100 from her wages during her time of service, although they were only seventy-five cents a week, he was born in Germany, and came here in her early girlhood. Her brother, M. Schnyder, has three daughters, one of whom is the wife of J. | H. Sperry. In July, 1831, our subject's father secured one hundred and four acres of Government land, and began improvements by building a log cabin. He at once set to work at his trade, exchanging work with the neighbors, and as there was but one shoemaker in Ann Arbor, and none in the country west of that city, he had a good run of custom. His wife assisted at the bench, doing the sewing for him and he followed the trade for fifteen years. Men would come ten miles in those days to get their boots soled, and he had all the work that he could do, although he frequently worked all night.

Mr. Aprill bought up more land and made a farm of about three hundred and forty acres, buying at $16 an acre, and selling at $93. He continued to live on the old farm until June 1, 1889, making fifty-eight years of residence there and an equal length of married life as his faithful and devoted wife passed from earth only nine weeks before his own demise.

Jacob Aprill, Sr., the grandfather of our subject came from Germany about the year 1842, and made his home here until his death at the age of eighty-eight. He had but the one son, Jacob, and his stepsister who came over with him and died here some four or five years ago at an advanced age, having made her home with her step-brother, for many years. Five of the children granted to Jacob Aprill, died in childhood. One son, Jacob who died in September, 1880, at the age of thirty-seven, left a widow and family, who reside near Williamston on a farm. One daughter, Mary, died April 3, 1860, when a young lady of nineteen, and the remaining members of the family are: William George, who lives on the old homestead; and Louisa, who makes her home with him.

Our subject remained at home until he was fully twenty-five years old, and was married April 4, 1861, to Miss Mary Keck, daughter of Martin Keck, of Scio, who had come from Germany when she was about seventeen years of age. Her father died here some ten years since on section 33, and his son, Martin, still lives on the old homestead. Another son, Michael Keck, died last fall. After marriage Mr. Aprill bought land on section 33, and on this ninety-five acres he lived for twenty-two years. He has since added to it until he had at one time five hundred acres, one hundred and forty of which he has now given to his son, and he still keeps fully three hundred and twenty acres. He keeps sheep, cattle and other stock sufficient for farm purposes. In 1883 he built the house and barn, a view of which may be seen elsewhere.

Our subject was Township Treasurer when twenty-one years of age, and served for two terms. He has since filled the offices of Justice of the Peace and Highway Commissioner, and was Superintendent of the Poor for six years, filling that office until 1888. Although his sympathies are with the Democratic Party, he is not much of a politician, as he always looks to the fitness of a man for the office, rather than to the dictum of the party leaders. His father's political views agreed with his. He is ever helpful in church work, and is a member of the German Lutheran Church, and the Fair Association finds an active worker in him. Mr. Aprill has met with heavy reverses, and the loss of thousands of dollars through the perfidy of others whom he had assisted and befriended, yet he stands firm as a rock, and is today one of the ablest men in the county. He has a valuable block of store buildings in Ann Arbor which brings in satisfactory revenue, and his every enterprise has been successful.

The beautiful and tasteful home of our subject is the center of a delightful family life, and the children who have been granted to him and his good wife are as follows: Jacob F., William, John M., Emanuel, Gustaf Edward, Adolph, Mary, Lydia L., Emma G., Caroline and George Robert. John and George have passed from earth; Jacob married Caroline Staebler, and lives near his father; William married Mary Staebler, and carries on the Staebler farm of ninety-three acres; the remaining children are still beneath the parental roof.

Notes for Johannes Keck:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

John Keck, dealer in furniture, and Superintendent of the Keck Furniture Manufacturing Company, at the Ann Arbor. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany 1839. He received his education in his native land. When about 15 years of age his parents emigrated to America, and located in the township of Scio, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, where Mr. Keck remained until he reached his majority, working chiefly on his father's farm. He had, however, worked a little at joiner work, and when of age he came to Ann Arbor and learned the trade of cabinetmaker with Mr. F. Muehlig. He remained with this gentleman but a short time, and entered the employ of Mr. Roller, whom he soon bought out. About six months after making the purchase, his place of business was burned, the stock being saved. He at once opened business again on Washington Street, where he remained until 1869, when he removed to South Main Street. In 1867 he started the furniture manufactory of Keck & Company, and in 1868 this company moved into larger quarters. This company during the hard times that followed employed more men than any other firm or company in Ann Arbor, having from 40 to 50 men at work. Their specialty was fine chamber furniture of their own design and pattern, and their wares were sold all over the United States. In 1879 this was changed to a stock company, of which Mr. Keck owns one-half the stock and is Superintendent. He has served the city as its Treasurer one term, and has done much as a private citizen to promote its welfare.

Ann Arbor the First Hundred Years, by Stephenson, Orlando Worth. Ann Arbor chamber of commerce, 1927. Page 210:

In 1880 the Michigan Furniture Company was begun by John Keck at the corner of West William and Fourth streets. The business was operated under his name until 1886 when the name of the Michigan Furniture Company was given to the organization.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens : history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas.

C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Keck Furniture Company.- In 1879 Mr. John Keck, of Ann Arbor, conceived the idea of forming a stock company to engage in the manufacture of furniture of the latest and most improved style and quality. He immediately went to work and in the same year the stock company was formed, consisting of 15 members, with W. D. Harriman, President; Charles Hiscock, Treasurer; John Keck, General Superintendent; Paul Snauble, Assistant Superintendent, with a capital stock of $25,000. Everything now being in readiness, a plot of ground 126x198 feet on the corner of 3d and streets, was purchased, and the buildings necessary for the enterprise were immediately erected. They consist of a factory 40x 75 feet, and three-stories high. In the basement of this building is located the planing-mill and heavy machinery; in the second story the carving and turning machinery is found; in the third story the furniture is finished and put together. From the factory the furniture is taken to the packing, painting and varnishing room, where it is put into shape for shipment to the different parts of the United States. This last building is 40x20 feet in size and two stories high, while the storage room, only a few feet distant, is also the same size. The company uses about 250,000 feet of lumber annually, consisting of walnut, ash, butternut, sycamore, cottonwood, bass and whitewood, no pine lumber being used for any purpose. The drying kiln has a capacity of 20,000 feet and is always crowded to the utmost. The machinery is run by steam, the engine used being of 35-horse power.

The factory gives employment to 75 men, and the only kind of furniture turned out is bedstead and bedroom sets. The company has increased from 15 to 21 stockholders, and the business has increased so as to make necessary the erection of more buildings, which will be accomplished this year (1881). The furniture manufactured is of the latest, best and most improved styles, and find a ready sale in all parts of the Union-as far east as New York, as far south as St. Louis and Cincinnati, and as far west as Iowa.

THE KECK FAILURE

The business and commercial circles of Ann Arbor have been considerably excited the past week over the failure of the great furniture firm of John Keck & Company, of this city and Detroit.

The chattel mortgages tiled in the Recorder's office of this city are:

1st - $15,000 to Wm. Aprill, on Ann Arbor store

2nd - $44,000 to Henry A. Harmon, Trustee, on the Detroit Stocks, for Detroit National Bank, Detroit; Third National Bank, Detroit; Am. Ex. National Bank, Detroit; Wayne County Savings Bank, Detroit

3rd - $36,500 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor Stocks, as endorsers for First National Bank, Ann Arbor; Farmers & Mechanics Bank, of Ann Arbor; Ann Arbor Savings Bank, of Ann Arbor

4th - $5,500 to Charles H. Richmond as Trustee of 1st national Bank of Ann Arbor, on Detroit Stock

5th - $22,150 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor stocks

Total $123,000

The last two mortgages are repetitions, except for one note of $3,500. Deducting the amounts repeated we have $89,600 as the total mortgage liabilities.

The brick block at the corner of Main and Liberty Streets has been deeded to Wm. Aprill, subject to the following mortgages.

One to Theodore Grube for $3,000

One to George C. Fuller for $3,500

One to George Aprill for $3,000

One to Wm. Aprill for $35,000

So it will be seen that Mr. Aprill will have to pay $9,500 before his mortgage of $35,000 can be satisfied.

The new house erected this summer on Fourth Street has also been deeded to Wm. Aprill, who allows $1,500 for the same, subject to a mortgage of $2,500 held by Wm. Wagner.

A glance over the mortgage record book in the Register of Deeds office will disclose the name of Keck very many times within the last few days. The following being a list of the amounts of mortgages filed by various brothers of John Keck;

$7,919 Frederick Keck

$6,100 John Martin Keck

$5,700 Michael Keck

$1,900 John George Keck

$21,689 Total

Miss Salina Bunting, of the Ann Arbor town, has notes of John Keck for $12,300 and has commenced four suits in the circuit court, one against John Keck alone and one each against John Keck with Michael Keck, Martin Keck and Frederick Keck.

County Clerk Robison tells us that there have been from eight to ten suits already commenced in the circuit court growing out of this affair.

It is believed by many that there has been forgery committed in the signing of several notes. Wm. Aprill, we are told, claims that his signatures are not all genuine, and Martin Keck has been sued for $6,000 worth of notes given in Detroit that he claims never to have signed, being sick and unable to attend to business at the time. It is to be hoped that there may be some mistake about this.

There are many people, and poor people, too, who have lent money to this firm who will not be able to realize very much out of their claims. One Lawyer, who is familiar with all the affairs, claims that the assets will pay about 45 cents on the dollar of the liabilities.

The failure of no other man or firm in this city could have called forth more general regret. Mr. Keck has been a man with few enemies and generally well liked. He has been a man who has helped to build up this city. Starting in a small way he brought what is now the Michigan Furniture Factory (better known as the Keck Furniture Factory) from a small concern into a factory employing some 60 or more men. Selling out his factory to a stock company he commenced business in Detroit. His next enterprise in this city was the construction of the fine three story brick clock in which his goods are now located, at the corner of S. Main and Liberty Streets. This he has always kept filled from basement to roof with the very best goods saleable in this market. It was a colossal undertaking for this city, and one that we believe he has always made profitable.

The beginning of Mr. Keck's trouble we informed came from having a partner in the Detroit business. This necessary to buy out, which made quite a load for him to swing through. Then the great increase of business in Detroit demanded larger quarters, and in these Mr. Keck had just become nicely settled. Some of his creditors became uneasy, and demanded security, and so he was forced to give the same by chattel mortgages.

Things look pretty dark now, not only for Mr. Keck, but for all connected with him. Wm. Aprill has taken possession of the store here, and Henry A. Harmon has possession in Detroit.

Mr. Keck went to Detroit Monday and has not returned here since.

Jan. 10, 1880 – The Manufacturing interests are chiefly the Ann Arbor Agricultural Works, the Keck Furniture Company and Henry Krause's boot and shoe manufactory. The Ann Arbor Agricultural Company was incorporated as a stock company about a year ago, and its business extended. Their business during the past six months was fully $15,000 larger than during the corresponding time last year. They employ a force of forty men, which will, next month, be increased to sixty. They manufacture a variety of agricultural implements and do a large business, especially in this State, but also in adjacent and other States. To one house alone in Philadelphia, with which they have a five years' contract, they furnished last year 1,300 plows. They report business as much improved and collections much easier.

The Keck Manufacturing Company was organized but a few months since, when a branch store was opened in Detroit. Before the business had been owned by J. Keck exclusively. The capital stock, all paid in, is 25,000, and will be further increased. They report the retail business here to be $3,000 or $4,000 in excess of the previous years. The business of their new store in Detroit has been fully equal to their expectations. Their trade is largely in this State, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and New York. They employ fifty men, and have all the work they can do. They have manufactured more furniture the past year than during the previous year, but business has been generally better.

Henry Krause has a large tannery where he tans the leather he uses in the manufactory of boots and shoes. During the past year he has opened a retail store, and he finds business good. He tanned 7,000 or 8,000 pieces of leather last year, a considerable increase over the previous year, and his manufactory has a capacity of 300 pairs of boots and shoes a week, keeping fifty or sixty men employed the year around.

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The furniture firm of John Keck & Co., doing business at 225, 227 and 229 Woodward Avenue, filed with the City Clerk yesterday two chattel mortgages aggregating $81,100 on their stock; in their old and new quarters. One of the mortgages runs to Wm. Aprill, Superintendent of the Poor of Washtenaw County, who is a wealthy farmer of the Township of Scio, to secure three notes indorsed by Martin Keck, Michael Keck, Frederick Keck and the mortgagee, held as follows: Ann Arbor Savings Bank, $3,500; Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, of Ann Arbor, $5,000; First National Bank, of Ann Arbor, $28,000.

The other mortgage is given to Henry A. Harmon, of this city, as accommodation indorser with Martin, Michael and Frederick Keck to secure thirteen notes, held by banks in Detroit as follows: Detroit National Bank, seven notes amounting to $21,000; Third National Bank, one note of $3,000; American Exchange National Bank, three notes amounting to $13,000; Wayne County Savings Bank, one note for $1,500.

There will be no halt in the business of the firm, Mr. Keck says that the enormous increase in stock after moving into the new establishment necessitated a large outlay of money which came through the different banks on the indorsed notes. He says that the assets of the firm are sufficient to meet all liabilities and that the filing of the chattel mortgages was merely to secure the banks, which were becoming uneasy, and that no assignment will be made.

Detroit - In September 1886, the firm of John Keck & Co. was succeeded by an incorporated company styled The Keck Furniture Company, with an authorized capital of $100,000, of which $75,000 was claimed to be paid in. At this time John Keck personally assumed the liabilities of the old firm and took the accounts due, transferring his interest in the furniture held by the old concern to the new corporation, accepting stock in payment for the same. His son, George F. Keck, was given stock in the new company, and also W. G. Dieterle of Manchester, Michigan. The change to a corporation was made by Mr. Keck under the impression that new capital could be enlisted and their liabilities, some of which were being pressed for settlement, thus be provided for. At the time of the change the assets of the company were given as $89,000 and the liabilities at $30,000. It is understood that Mr. Keck's plan to place the stock of the new company did not succeed. Their removal to the new Parker building, for which they made a ten years' lease at the rate of $7,200 per annum, was attended by increased expense. The mortgages given today were made by "John Keck, doing business as John Keck & Co."

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The business community was surprised yesterday afternoon to learn of the serious embarrassment of John Keck Co., one of the largest furniture houses in the State, the firm having been doing business on Woodward Avenue. They filed two chattel mortgages today to secure endorsers on $81,000 worth of notes held by the banks here and in Ann Arbor, where the firm have large factories.

The largest creditors are the Detroit National Bank of this city and First National Bank of Ann Arbor. The former holds $25,000 of Keck Co.'s paper, and the latter $28,000, Henry Herman is made trustee for the indorser of the notes held one mortgage, and Wm. A. Prell under the other. Mr. Keck says that the mortgages were given because the indorsers were uneasy, and not because the was about to fail. He says they will pull through without making an assignment.

Ann Arbor, December 9, 1886 - John Keck arrived here from Detroit last evening and went, to his house, where he has since remained. He is not at home to visitors, though a few of his warm personal friends have been admitted to his presence, among them Rev. Neumann, who Keck owes $1,000. He is a thoroughly sick man, sick in mind and body. His face has a haggard look and he is unable to sleep. He has hoped until the last moment to weather the financial storm which has been made. It is believed, however, that such a step will be made tomorrow, as an attorney of considerable prominence has been sent for, for consultation tonight. He believes that he could have managed to get through without failing had his Ann Arbor creditors been as lenient as his Detroit creditors were disposed to be. The charges of forgery made against him are not believed by a majority of the people here, who pronounce John Keck an honest man. Numerous attachments have been issued, but only one has been as yet filed with the Register of Deeds. This is the attachment of Anna Maria Buessler against John and Frederick Keck, filed several days ago. The Michigan Furniture Company today entered suit against John Keck for $560, and within an hour A. W. Hamilton, as attorney for Mr. Keck, had entered his appearance.

The note for $3,500 held by the Savings Bank and to which April's indorsement was claimed to be forged was settled by an assignment of $5,000 of the accounts of the Ann Arbor store. This assignment must have been made with April's consent as he had the keys of the store. United States Marshal Pennell was here today to make further attachments and so was a Detroit attorney, who wished Keck to make an assignment to him. Experts who have seen the notes to which Aprill's signatures were said to be forged unite in the expression of the belief that the signatures have all the peculiarities found in Aprill's signatures. It is not at all probable that any steps will be taken looking towards a criminal prosecution.

John Keck left the city for Ann Arbor at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. On Tuesday he dined with his niece, Mrs. Dieterle, on Spencer Street, and was expected to return to tea, but did not do so, nor was he again seen at the house until half an hour before the departure of his train, apparently desiring an abiding place more secure from reportorial intrusion. He said, before leaving, that several gentlemen were urging upon him the advisability of making an assignment and that he had nearly concluded to do so. These gentlemen accompanied him to Ann Arbor and the assignment may be looked for at any time.

405 Fourth Street; John Keck and Company (Argus Building), 1866-1884. situated in the heart of the Old West Side Historic District, this red-brick building began as a furniture factory. It was constructed in three phases, beginning with a wood-frame building facing William Street built in 1866 by John Keck and Company and now covered with brick veneer. In 1879 additional stock in the company was sold in order to finance a four-story brick building along Fourth Street. More construction followed in 1884 when the company was reorganized as the Michigan Furniture Company and a four-story building was built at the corner of Fourth and William, thus connecting the two older structures.

Keck came to America from Wurtemberg in 1854 at the age of 15 and apprenticed to cabinetmaker and coffin builder Florian Muehlig. By 1866 he was able to establish his own furniture factory with his brothers Frederick, George and Martin. The 1860s and 70s had been decades of rapid mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine had replaced water as a power source and specialization accompanied expansion as machines became more and more specialized. Despite the Depression of 1873, Keck employed 40 to 50 men and became one of the town's major businesses.

By 1879, when Keck formed a stock company, the decision had been made to specialize in bedroom suites (pronounced "suits"). They concentrated on making bedsteads, commodes and dressers and would continue this emphasis until they ceased operations in 1929. Unfortunately for antique collectors, Keck never marked his furniture and thus his products today are, in the words of journalist Mary Hunt, "distressingly anonymous."

Keck's designs were in the then-popular Renaissance Revival style, massive pieces with layers of elaborately carved woodwork, topped by carved pediments. A collection of Keck's drawings, recently discovered in the Grand Rapids Public Museum, gives a sense of the range of designs he produced. In 1884 the prominence of the buildings of the Michigan Furniture Company was noted in a local paper, which asserted that every visitor to Ann Arbor always inquired "What is that large four-story building?" Keck, who was no longer with the company, had opened another factory on Detroit Street in the mid-1880s. His success there was short lived, however, and he spent the rest of his life working in Detroit and Grand Rapids.

After furniture making ceased in 1929, Charles Verschoor acquired the building and began manufacturing his popular Kadette tabletop radios. Never one to sit on his hands, Verschoor traveled to Germany in 1936 to study camera manufacturing. When he returned, he began to mass produce a small 35mm camera -- the famous Argus Model A. The camera was an instant success, selling 30,000 units in its first week on the market. In 1939 the name of the company was changed to Argus and the Argus C-3 camera was introduced. It remained the staple of the company until 1957.

During World War II, Argus received many contracts from the government for telescopes, binoculars, periscopes, and gunsights. However, after the war Argus was unable to compete with Japanese cameras and the company was sold to Sylvania. In 1963 the building was sold to the University of Michigan which used it for various research institutes including an amphibian lab.

The recession of the 1980s prompted the University to sell the building in 1983 to C-3 Partners who undertook the enormous task of restoring and renovating this historic structure in 1986. Quinn/Evans Architects provided the expertise and the newly renovated space preserves the best of the old and the new. O'Neal Construction, one of the C-3 partners along with First Martin Corp., is now headquartered here and their offices feature the original heavy timbers and red bricks walls that characterized these simple factory buildings.

In 1891 the at Ann Arbor asserted that "when the visitor at Ann Arbor is shown about the city . . . he invariably inquires: "What is the large four-story brick building yonder?" That, he is told, is the Michigan Furniture Company.” It is doubtful whether that question was as invariable as the newspaper article suggested. Nevertheless, the 200-foot-long brick factory at 401 Fourth Street was impressive, especially when compared with the university town’s other industries, most of them still in fledgling stages. The company employed 85 men and produced around $100,000 worth of goods a year. In 1866 the factory began as a three-story frame cabinet shop at the same location. John Keck purchased this shop in 1868 and operated it as John Keck & Company until 1879, when a stock company was formed to raise capital for the big main building.

The 1860’s and 1870’s were decades of rapid expansion and mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine replaced the water wheel as the usual power source. Enterprising furniture manufacturers in Grand Rapids designed cost and labor-saving machinery for furniture production which made the city’s name synonymous with mass-produced furniture to many people all over the world. Smaller furniture factories followed Grand Rapids’ lead in techniques, styles and methods of organization. These factories were dotted across the Midwestern hardwood belt that extended south of the virgin pine forests from southern Michigan and Wisconsin through Indiana and Ohio. These firms usually developed from small workshops, and their employees were often skilled craftsmen from Germany and the Netherlands. Mass production brought specialization to the industry, since expensive machines were often designed to perform a single type of wood-working operation very quickly. There was the Sheboygan Chair Company, the Moon Desk Company, the Knoxville Table Company and the Atlas Parlor Furniture Company.

The Michigan Furniture Company decided to specialize in bedroom suites when it expanded in 1879. Its bedsteads, dressers and commodes (with metal lined compartments to hold chamber pots) are today distressingly anonymous to collectors of Ann Arbor memorabilia. The company’s name does not appear on its furniture, so authentication is nearly impossible.

Ann Arbor boosters in 1891 were eager to praise the furniture as some tangible evidence of the city’s belatedly blossoming industrial promise. In the words of the Register reporter, “the great variety of handsome suites, ranging in price from $20 to $60, elegantly finished in all modern finishes of elm, ash, maple, oak and walnut and their unique Sixteenth century finish, forms a pleasing sight indeed.”

Ann Arbor’s retarded industrial development was discussed in the first part of this series. “It had become customary in some quarters to speak of the city in a derogatory manner,” according to the Register, but the furniture factory’s “wonderful business development” and other small industrial successes resulted in an improved attitude. The Register was able to report in 1891, “Today no one speaks of Ann Arbor with the sneering accents so often heard in the olden time.”

The solid growth of the Michigan Furniture Company encouraged local citizens to promote the establishment of more furniture companies in the area. An 1891 Register article suggested how Ann Arbor’s location favored this type of enterprise; “Hardwood forests are not far distant, fuel is cheap, and the markets are easily accessible.” However, no other local furniture factory rivaled the Michigan Furniture Company in size.

The beard of the Michigan Furniture Company, and itself an object of civic pride, was the factory’s “magnificent 100-horsepower Corliss engine” which “keeps up its steady, majestic motion from morning to night, as if it were aware that upon it depended the action of countless wheels and various pieces of machinery above.”

This steam engine was made in Ann Arbor. Hoover’s Ann Arbor Engine Works had been . . .

Property: 1864, section 27 DeWitt Twp, Clinton Co, Michigan

Notes for Anna Katharina (Kate) Kurtz:

Mrs. Katherine Keck, 87, Michigan pioneer and resident of Gunnisonville and Ingham County for the past 71 years, died Friday morning Feb. 29, 1924 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Heeb, 1225 N. Capitol Avenue. Mrs. suffered a broken hip when she fell April 13, 1922, and the injury kept her in practically an invalid condition to the time of death.

Funeral services will be held from the daughter's home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in the Keck family lot in the Gunnisonville cemetery. Besides the daughter at whose home death occurred. Mrs. Keck leaves four other children: Jacob Keck, living near Lansing; Charles, a resident of Wolverine, and Mrs. Eva Andrews, south of Lansing, and Mrs. Agnes Springsteen, a resident of Watertown, Clinton County. Mrs. Keck, whose maiden name was Miss Katherine Kurtz, was born in Hesse, Darmstadt, Germany, Jan. 19, 1837. Her parents died when she was a child. In 1853, when Mrs. Keck was 16 years old, her brother, who had settled near Holt in Ingham County, sent for her.

Mrs. Keck after a long voyage in a sailing vessel, reached New York City. Unable to speak the language of this country, she resolutely set for Michigan, her only possession the few clothes she wore since and a feather bed. When the young immigrant reached Erie, New York, her money was exhausted and she was compelled to remain in Erie nearly a year until she could earn money enough to continue her journey to Holt. Mrs. Keck sometimes related how she dreaded to cross Lake Erie, believing it another ocean. Her experiences in coming to America had been harrowing as a number of passengers died en route and were buried at sea. These deaths and burial in lonely waters are impressions she never entirely erased from her mind. When she finally reached Holt in this country, Mrs. Keck remained for a time with her brother, a struggling pioneer. In this small town she met her husband, George Keck and the two were married Jan. 1, 1858. The young couple, urged by the home making and home owning instinct, wanted a farm of their own. Mr. Keck was able to buy some timber land near Gunnisonville. The parcel consisted of 60 acres. Mrs. Keck moved and the young husband started to clear his land and to build a home. Mr. and Mrs. Keck experienced the usual privations of the early pioneers, but patiently made their way in the world without complaining. Mr. Keck died some years ago. About 13 years ago Mrs. Keck began making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Heeb. Ten years ago, she came to Lansing with Mr. and Mrs. Heeb and has her home with them ever since in this city.

Notes for Edward L. Heeb:

Edward L. Heeb, 79, "the grand old man of North Lansing," died unexpectedly Saturday evening April 21, 1951 in his home at 1225 N. Capitol Ave. of a heart attack. Mr. Heeb had been confined to his home for the past week but was not considered seriously ill. He was a resident of Lansing for 71 years. Mr. Heeb retired from the plumbing business several years ago. However, he retained real estate interests until a short time ago. During the past several years he has spent his winters in Florida, however he did not make the trip this year because of poor health. During his varied career in Lansing, Mr. Heeb served one term as city alderman. He also built over 50 homes as a private contractor. Around the turn of the century he was elected president of old Manufacturer's baseball league which played in the state park, present site of the state office building.

He was a life member of the Elks and Eagles and an active member of the I. O. O. P. No. 321. A founder of the North Side commercial he was honored with a life membership in that organization several years ago. His wife, Anna, died in 1946. They had no children. The body was removed to Estes-Leadley funeral home. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Notes for Peter Kalmbach:

Chelsea, Michigan, January 16, 1899 - The Inquest in the Rager case this afternoon shows that Louise Kalmbach and Alva H. Garbet retired at 10 p. m., January 14, 1899, at the home of Peter Kalmbach, locking the bedroom door, but that Rager, who lives at Kalmbach's, according to the testimony of Miss Kalmbach, at 11:45 broke in the door and handed her a letter and then shot himself. He was only in the room one minute. Garbet, on the back side of the bed, claims he did not awaken until after the shooting. He also testified that Rager pushed the lock off the door before the time of the shooting because he wanted to kiss Miss Kalmbach, and placed the door back in position with a screwdriver. The revolver used belonged to Garbet, who claims he left it in his overcoat in the kitchen. Miss Kalmbach claims she was engaged to Garbet and that Rager was jealous. The face is not established whether the letter was in Rager's handwriting. His sister says it is. Rager died at 8:15 Sunday evening Jan. 15, 1899, and the coroner's Jury returned a verdict of suicide. Ward, a country justice, was notified immediately after the shooting and went to the house, but sent for no officers nor did any reach there until after the death of Rager.

Notes for Johann Georg Wurster:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Ionia and Montcalm Counties Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago - Biographical Company, 1885:

George Wurster. This name belongs to the list of energetic and intelligent men who have made of Ionia County what it is today, a thriving agricultural region, whose people are contented and happy, enjoying the best things of modern civilization. Mr. Wurster is located on section 1, Easton Township, where he took possession of a good farm in 1884. His estate which consists of seventy-seven acres, is productive and thoroughly improved, among the buildings upon it being a fine brick dwelling, put up by him the year he came here. In connection with ordinary farming Mr. Wurster pays considerable attention to raising high grade Durham cattle. His citizenship of Ionia County dates much farther back than the year mentioned and he has done much work here, chiefly in Ionia Township, which was his home for nearly a quarter of a century.

Mr. Wurster was born in the historic region known as the Black Forest, in Wurtemberg, Germany, March 18, 1837. He was the eldest son in the family of George and Mary (Kern) Wurster, who were of old German families. His education in his native language was quite good, and since he came to America he has become familiar with English, so that he has been able to keep up with the times in gleanings news in either tongue. He took passage at Havre on the sailing vessel "William Tell" in the fall of 1852, and after a voyage of little more than a month landed in New York City, October 23. He came direct to this State, making Washtenaw County his objective point, and worked there by the month as a farm hand for several years, receiving from $7 to $15 as his wages.

From that county he came to Ionia which has been his permanent abode. For some time he continued the work in which he had previously been engaged and he also clerked in a store for a few months. After his marriage which took place July 5, 1862, he settled upon a farm and lived as do others who are building up their finances, improving his condition from year to year and enlarging his farming operations. It will be seen that he has made good use of his time when we note the fact that he landed in New York with twenty-five cents, and an indebtedness of $15 hanging over him. Self made in the financial sense, he has won his competence by honest industry and the exercise of wise economy. While in Ionia Township he served two terms as Treasurer and two as Supervisor, with credit to himself and his constituents. Since he came to Easton Township he has discharged the duties of Supervisor one year.

The wife of Mr. Wurster was born in Ontario County, New York, March 22, 1828, and is a daughter of Alexander and Grizzle (Chapman) Armstrong. Her father was a native of Pennsylvania and her mother of Connecticut, and the paternal ancestors were Scotch. Her mother's father was a Revolutionary soldier. She remained in her native State until she was eight years old, when she came with her parents to Washtenaw County where Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong died. Mr. Armstrong had been twice married and was the father of seven children but two of whom are now living: Elizabeth, wife of Hiram Mace, in Utah, and Emily J., wife of our subject. The latter grew to maturity in this State and in 1850 was married to M. M. Armstrong who died in 1851, leaving her with four children. Her sons and daughters by that marriage are Alice, now the wife of Charles Castle, of Ionia Township; Adelaide, who married Charles Hoyt and lives in Detroit; Theodore, a resident of Minnesota, and Mathew, whose home is in Ronald Township. Mrs. Wurster has borne her present husband one daughter, Mary E., who lives in Ionia Township and is the wife of Henry Robertson.

Mr. Wurster is convinced of the worth of Republican principles and is their unfailing supporter. He is identified with the Patrons of Industry and takes a genuine interest in such movements as he believes will be for the benefit of society. He contributes to the support of religious institutions, although he is not a church member, but his estimable wife belongs to the Presbyterian Society. She is a lady of more than ordinary intelligence; capable of doing much to advance the social life of the section, and with her husband she is active and esteemed.

Ionia Standard, 10 Jun 1910

George Wurster died at 6 o'clock Friday morning, at the home on State Road, one-half mile north of city. He broke down in November last, and has been gradually failing since. He was born March 18, 1837 in Germany, but had been a resident of Ionia County for half a century. He was a man of more than usual native ability. With little chance for schooling in childhood, he still mastered the essentials for a business life, and filled different positions of public trust with credit, serving several years as supervisor of Easton and also of Ionia Township. He was thoroughly honest and exact in all his dealings.

His age was 73, He was twice married, first to Mrs. Emily Armstrong, by whom he had one daughter, Mary, who was married to Henry Robertson, and who died six years ago. Mr. Wurster was married to Mrs. Caroline Hoover, six years ago, who survives. George Wurster was the eldest of a family of five children, of whom only two survive: Jacob, and Christine, wife of John Koch, both of this city.

Funeral at the home, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, service by Rev. G. Webster Moore; interment, Highland Park.

Notes for Elizabeth (Lizzie) Calkins:

Miss Lizzie A. Calkins was born at Livonia, New York. December 14, 1844 and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Stillman, November 30, 1911. When yet in infancy, she with her parents moved from Livonia, New York, to Ionia, Michigan where she grew to womanhood. She was united in marriage with John Wurster November 25, 1867 at Ionia, Michigan, where they lived about two years, coming to Kansas in the year of 1869, settling at Pardee, at which place they lived for about nine years, moving to Nortonville in 1879, which had been their home ever since, with the exception of about one year when Mrs. Wurster made her home with her children. To this union were born three children: John L. Wurster of Atchison, Mrs. Frank Sullivan and Dorris J. Wurster, who died at the age of seven years.

Mrs. Wurster was a quiet, reserved, home-loving, Christian woman, greatly attached to the members of her household, having lived with her children, alternately, wince the death of her husband, John Wurster, nearly five years ago. Thus ends the life of one who has been a good neighbor, devoted wife and loving mother, but her virtues still live.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at three o'clock from the Christian church, of which she was a charter member. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Nortonville cemetery.

Notes for Henriette Emma Newmann:

The Ionia Sentinel-Standard, Thursday, May 26, 1932

Mrs. J. J. Wurster, 69, of 436 West Washington Street, died at her home early Thursday morning following one week's illness. Mrs. Henriette Emma (Newman) Wurster was born in Germany and came to Ionia with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neumann, when she was 13 years of age. She had resided here continuously since and in the home where she died, for 36 years.

She was confirmed in the Lutheran faith in Germany and had been a continuous worshipper all these years. She and Mr. Wurster were united in marriage December 17, 1880, in St. John's Lutheran church, being the first couple to say their marriage vows in the new edifice. Although devoted to her church she led a quiet life spending her time with her religious activities and in devotion to her home, creating many beautiful touches in it by her own beautiful handicraft.

Mr. Wurster survives. She also leaves three daughters, Mr. E. C. Bowlby, of Benton Harbor; Mrs. Herbert C. Hall, of Chicago, and Mrs. Frank E. Hall, of Ionia, and a sister, Mrs. Florentine Haynor, of Ionia.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon with prayer services at the home at 2 o'clock and services following at 2:30 in St. John's Lutheran Church. Burial will be in Highland Park cemetery. Rev. B. H. Succop will be in charge.

Subsequent Publication: Saturday, May 28, 1932

Funeral services for Mrs. J. J. Wurster were conducted Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home, and at 2 o'clock at the St. John's Lutheran church by Rev. B. H. Succop. Interment was in the Highland Park cemetery. Mrs. Wurster died Thursday morning following a seven-day illness.

In the home where she has resided since her death, her friends and neighbors had tenderly placed many lovely flowers, and Saturday afternoon one side of the living room was one of colorful fragrance, the lavish token of love and esteem held for her. The flowers were in charge of Mrs. Minnie Karnatz and Mrs. Herman Hacker.

Bearers were Frank Hall, Herbert Hall, Clifford Bowlby, Fred M. Cook, F. E. Heim, and Albert Heim.

Among those from out of town attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dean, Remus; Mr. and Mrs. W. Lender, Mt. Pleasant; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook, Detroit; C. G. Neumann and son, Sturgis; Edward Heim and Albert Heim, Mt. Pleasant; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Moon, of Benton Harbor.

Notes for Matthaus (Matthew) Seeger:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Matthew Seeger. A prominent German-American citizen and a farmer who keeps abreast with the progress of the times, and one who has made a record for himself in the annals of his adopted country by running the chances of war, is he whose name is at the head of our sketch. He is a native of Wittenberg, Germany, and was there born February 11, 1839. His parents, Matthew and Christine Seeger, lived in Germany for many years and were there farmers. Our subject's immediate progenitor came to America in 1852, crossing the ocean on a sailing vessel, the voyage taking fifty-two days. After landing in New York he came direct to Ann Arbor and soon after located in Lodi Township, where he lived for fourteen years. He then made his home with our subject until his death, which occurred about 1872, at the age of sixty-two years.

Mr. Seeger was reared under the influences of the Lutheran Church, that being the chosen creed of his parents. His mother died September 9, 1879. She was born in 1815. Four children blessed the union of our subject's parents, of these two are living at the present time. Matthew was thirteen years of age when his parents came to America. He attended school in Germany seven years prior to coming to this country and he afterward attended the district schools in this county to some extent, but soon began the serious business of making a living.

At fourteen years of age our subject began working out as a farm laborer, the first year receiving for his services $3 per month, the second year $4 and so on until he had received $800 in wages. In the time of our country's peril, and when the Southern and lower Middle States were reeking with blood, he enlisted in the army in 1862, joining the Twentieth Michigan Infantry, Company D, and under Col. Williams. He was at the battle of Horse Shoe Bend with Morgan, he was also a participant in the siege of Vicksburg and Jackson, then went to Kentucky and from that point to East Tennessee. In the siege of Knoxville he experienced the dread of threatening famine, his regiment being short of rations for some time. He served through the East Tennessee engagement during the winter of 1863-64. In the spring of 1864 he returned to Annapolis, Maryland, and was assigned to the Army of the Potomac, and was in all the engagements until the end of the war. He fought at Petersburg, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor and in minor engagements. May 12, 1864, he was wounded in the engagement at Spottsylvania by a shot in the breast. Again on July 30, of the same year he was shot in the shoulder at the engagement before Petersburg. He was Corporal in his regiment and at the end of his service received an honorable discharge.

In 1866 Mr. Seeger purchased the farm upon which he at present resides and has since made this his home. That same year he was united in marriage to Miss Christina Hack, who was born in Germany and came to this country with her parents in 1863. Ten children have been born to this interesting couple. They are, Katie, John G., Mary L., Emma L., Louisa D., John F., Matthew, George W., Robert E. and Ann C. Of these two are deceased. A Republican in his political affiliations, our subject has been recognized in the township as a worker. For two years he served as Township Treasurer and for five years acted as Supervisor and for nearly fifteen years has been a School Director. He belongs to the Grand Army of the Republic and to the Arbeiter Society. Both he and his wife are members of the Lutheran Church. Mr. Seeger is the owner of ninety-seven acres of land which he devotes to general farming. He here raises all kinds of cereals and also breeds stock. He started out in life with no means, whatever, and besides bringing up honorably and well a large family of children has acquired a comfortable property. He is one of the directors of the German Washtenaw Mutual Insurance Company, of this county.

Notes for John H. (Boyer) Bayer:

History of Jackson County, Michigan. Chicago, Inter-State Publishing Company, 1881.

John Bayer was born in Waterloo September 3, 1845, and is the second son of Jacob and Katherina (Speedel) Bayer, natives of Germany, who emigrated to America in 1831. Jacob Bayer died July 28, 1877. Mrs. Bayer is still living, a vigorous and intelligent old lady. John was educated in the common schools, and has always been engaged in farming upon the old homestead. He was married August 24, 1876, to Agatha Heselschwerdt, born in Germany Nov 25, 1850; they were the parents of 1 daughter—Matilda Elizabeth, born November 16, 1879, and died July 25, 1880.

Mr. Bayer purchased the interest of the other heirs of his father's estate and is the owner of 200 acres of fertile land. His mother relates many incidents of pioneer life; their first residence in Waterloo was in the log house of Caspar Artz, while their house was being built. The nearest mill was 18 miles distant; wolves were plenty; they were frequently heard in the night. Mrs. Bayer (formerly Mrs. Jacob Hayes) is the mother of 3 children. Mr. and Mrs. B. are members of the Lutheran Church.

Notes for Wilhelm D. (Will) Kebler:

KEBLER-CLARK HOME - 314 Madison Street
1911 Craftsman - Home Tour 2003

This turn-of-the-century home is built in one of the oldest neighborhoods in Grand Ledge. The home is located on lot 6, Block 9 of the original village as it was platted in 1854. The original owner of the land in this area was William Thompson. He located the land in May 1836, and received the land patent from the United States government in 1839. His tract of land consisted of about 151 acres. The house itself on lot 6 was built during the early years of the 20th century, and was a modern home with all of the conveniences of the new century.

The abstract of the property shows that various members of the Esler/Wood family owned the lot for a number of years prior to the building of the home. They were prominent members of the community and were brick masons and merchants in town. They owned a great deal of property in the northwest section of town and lived in the neighborhood. Oliver and Lucy Wright bought the lot in 1902 and in turn sold it to a man named William Kebler in 1906 for $275.

William (Wilhelm) Kebler was the son of Christian and Elizabeth Kebler. The elder Kebler came to this country from Germany in 1854. They spent some time in East Lansing before settling on their homestead farm in Eagle Township, Clinton County. William was born into their large family on the farm on January 8, 1868. Will grew up a farmer, but he was also a cement mason and he built barns, silos, roads, bridges, and several homes on the north side of town.

In 1911, William decided to build a home in town on his lot on Madison Street. Many farmers had homes in town as well as on their farms. William had the talent and the materials to craft a well-built modern home on his lot. As a cement man, he brought his machinery to the lot and made the building blocks on site. The house also had a poured foundation and chimney, unusual touches for the time. There are several photos of the construction in progress, one of which is dated 1911 by the photographer, E.A. Russell, confirming the actual construction date of the home. The Kebler farm provided raw materials the black ash woodwork was made from trees harvested from the family homestead at the corner of M-100 and U.S. 16. Will built the house with modern amenities such as electricity and plumbing. The old-fashioned electrical switches and doorbell are still in the house, and they must have seemed as wonderfully modern then as they seem nostalgic to us today. The house has built-in closets, specifically designed by Mr. Kebler to be spacious by the standards of the time and even by today's standards.

After the house was built, Will decorated and furnished the home and moved in with his father Christian and his widowed sister Mary Kebler Goodrich. They lived in the house and leased the family farm. After their deaths, Will married Myrtie E. Howe and they had their first child, Elizabeth, in 1917.

The Kebler family continued to live in their town house throughout the 1920s. Their second and third children were born there, twins Geneva and Vaughan. The Depression arrived with the end of the decade, but being farmers, the Kebler family was luckier than most people. They moved back out to the family farm and rented out their home on Madison Street. William Kebler died on the family farm. His obituary noted that he lived on that same farm where he had been born for sixty-four years of his life. He was described as a quiet home-loving man devoted to his family and friends. He was seventy years old when he died on July 5, 1938. He was buried at Niles Cemetery.

Myrtie Howe and her younger daughter Geneva moved back to the Madison Street home in 1946. Fortunately for them and for us, the house was well maintained during the rental years; the tenants were long-term renters and well-established members of the community. The only major architectural change occurred during the years of World War II when housing was in short supply. The Kebler family created a temporary apartment upstairs in the area of the back bedroom. A kitchen sink was installed and later removed.

Myrtie lived the rest of her life in the house excepting the last few years when she was an invalid and stayed with Geneva. After she died on March 15, 1977, her surviving daughters Elizabeth Kebler Kruger and Geneva Kebler Wiskemann sold the house to Roger and Joan Clark in November of that year.

Roger Clark has fond memories of his twenty-five years in the house where his children grew up. He did some restoration work; the home was in good condition but needed some redecorating and updating when he moved in. The biggest project Roger tackled was updating the kitchen. They fitted the cupboards with custom-made doors, brought in new appliances, stripped the woodwork (this room had the only painted woodwork in the house) and added raised panel doors. Roger recalls being delighted to discover a floor joist signed by Will Kebler himself. In the rest of the house, they stripped old wallpaper from the walls and ceilings and decorated the home to meet the needs of their young family.

David Yehl and Jennifer Kennard purchased the home from Roger Clark in July 2002. They have continued to restore and redecorate the home to meet their tastes and needs. They wallpapered the dining room, replaced the old flooring in the upstairs bath, and converted a small laundry area off the kitchen into a comfortable breakfast nook. The home retains many of the original touches that made it a well-built, classic home in the first decade of the last century. The black ash woodwork and columns still have their original finish, the elegant beveled glass windows draw in the light, and the original doorknobs and hinges are still in place. This lovely home is a combination of old and new, and is as comfortable a family home today as when it was built many years ago.

Notes for Johann Emmanuel Jedele:

John E. Jedele, 68, Lodi Township in Washtenaw County, was killed Saturday night March 23, 1957 when he was struck by a car on a rural road near Ann Arbor.

Funeral services for J. Emanuel Jedele, 68, who was fatally injured when, struck by a car Saturday night March 23, 1957, were held Tuesday at the Lockwood Funeral Home, with Rev. H. L. Engle officiating. Jedele of 2925 Brassow Road, Lodi Township, was walking along Pleasant Lake Road at 9:15 when he was struck by a car driven by Leo A. Schnurstein, 40, of 433 S. First Street in Ann Arbor, according to sheriff deputies. The accident occurred a half mile west of the Saline-Ann Arbor Road. Schnurstein told deputies that he did not see Jedele until too late to avoid hitting him. He said that the victim was walking in the center of the road, and because he was wearing dark clothing it was impossible to see him until too late to avoid the accident. Deputies said that Schnurstein, in swerving his car following the impact of the accident, slid into a five-foot deep ditch.

Walter Lindemann of 4820 Pleasant Lake Road, told sheriff's deputies that he had seen Jedele walking in the center of the road a few minutes before the accident, and that he had to swerve his car to avoid hitting him. Jedele was the sixth fatal accident victim in Washtenaw County during 1957. Survivors include two sisters. Miss Mary and Miss Martha Jedele of Lodi Township. Two sisters and a brother preceded him in death.

Notes for George Blaich:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

George Blaich, in whose life history the familiar but oft misused term of a self-made man finds exemplification, has from the age of ten years been dependent upon his own resources and his utilization of opportunity coupled with unremitting diligence has proved the strong elements in his success. He is a native of the Empire state, his birth having occurred in Fulton, Oswego County, New York, on the 7th of August, 1857. His father, David Blaich, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and was a farmer by occupation. Coming to America in 1852, he was for many years a resident of New York, while his last seven years were spent at the home of his son George in Chelsea, Michigan, where his death occurred on the 21st of February, 1897. He had for fourteen years survived his wife, who bore the maiden name of Frederica Keck. She was born March 8, 1834, and came to this country in 1852, being thirty-eight days upon the water. She arrived in Syracuse, New York, September 18, 1852, and was married February 2, 1854. She died at Onondaga Hill, New York, December 1, 1883. In the family were eleven children, eight of whom are yet living: David, a resident farmer of this county, his home being three miles west of Chelsea; George; Charles, who follows farming in Salem township; Lillie, the wife of Theodore E. Wood, cashier of the Chelsea Savings Bank of Chelsea; William, a merchant of Cleveland, (Ohio: John, a merchant of Syracuse, New York; Mrs. Rosa Garthe, of Syracuse; and Edward, who is with the National Biscuit Company at Cleveland, Ohio.

George Blaich spent his early boyhood in his parents' home but in 1867, when but ten years of age, left the parental roof and has since been dependent upon his own resources for a living. It was an early age for him to start out and fight life's battles but he soon realized the responsibilities of life and valued conditions at their true worth. While working on farms at Onondaga Hill, New York, he also embraced the opportunity that came him to attend school and after a time determined to enter a walk of life demanding intellectuality, close application and special preparation. He worked for Dr. Wheating, with whom he remained for a year, after which he went to Syracuse, New York, where he secured a situation in the grocery store of Thomas Rice. Subsequently he was with the firm of Curtiss & Sandwald, carriage manufacturers, for three years, on the expiration of which period he entered business on his own account and for three years was a factor in commercial life in Syracuse. He then sold out to his partner and entered the oil business, in which he continued for three years, subsequent to which time, on the 6th of April, 1886, he came to Chelsea, Michigan, on a visit. Being pleased with this part of the country, he decided to remain and purchased the grocery store of L. D. Loomis, after which he conducted the business at Chelsea for ten years, when on account of failing health he retired from mercantile life there. After a rest of two and a half years he came to Ann Arbor and on the 18th of October 1897, established a grocery store at No. 1219 South University Avenue. He is still in business at this location, having a large trade in high class groceries and bottled and canned goods of all descriptions. He carries an extensive stock of a fine line of goods and has secured a large and profitable trade.

In May 29, 1888, Mr. Blaich was married to Mrs. Myrta Cornwell, of Chelsea, Michigan. Although their residence in Ann Arbor has covered a comparatively brief period they have gained many friends here and the hospitality of many of the best homes is freely accorded them. Mr. Blaich is prominent in Masonry, holding membership in Golden Rule lodge, No. 156, A. F. & A. M., of Chelsea; Grass Lake chapter, No. 98, R. A. M.; Adoniram council, No. 24, R. & S. M., of Manchester; Olive chapter, No. 108, O. E. S., of Chelsea; and Ann Arbor commandery, No. 13, K. T. He is thoroughly in sympathy with the teachings and tenets of the craft, exemplifying in his life the principles of the fraternity. Prominent in the Baptist church, he transferred his membership to the First Baptist church of Ann Arbor on his removal to the city and has since been closely and helpfully connected with a number of its activities. He has served as treasurer and in other offices and does all in his power for the growth and up building of the church. His political faith is that of the Republican Party, but he is without ambition for office, preferring to give his attention to his business interests, his church activities and his social and home relations. He holds friendship inviolable and is a man of domestic tastes. The permeating influence of his life is shown forth in an upright character, in straight - forward dealing in commercial circles and in allegiance to every trust reposed in him.

Notes for Johann Jacob Rapp:

In 1869 J. J. Rapp established a milling project at Millwood called the Stranger Valley Mills, from which the town of Millwood derived its name. It was more commonly known as "Rapp's Mill." The structural work on this mill was done by Michael Lakner, a millwright, who then lived in Leavenworth but who afterward became a resident of Millwood and for years operated a tavern and store there. He erected some of the best mills in that time in Kansas. The Millwood mill was a large structure of native stone, which was later used in the building of the hospital at Easton.

The mill was operated by both steam and water power. When the writer left Kansas in 1917, remains of the millrace and dam could still be seen. The mill passed into the hands of William Griswold, of DeKalb County, Missouri, after Rapp's death, and from him to the late John Davitz, of Oak Mills, who operated it for about eight years, and then engaged in the milling business at Oak Mills. Davitz finally sold the machinery of the old Millwood mill to Ashby and Son, of Leavenworth, and the mill itself, to Elijah Downing, also of Leavenworth, after which it was torn down. The writer has preserved in his Millwood scrap-book a drawing of the ruins of the old mill, made by Judge Leroy Hand, of Leavenworth, in 1909.
