Notes for Friederika Mathilda Keck, twin:

Oct. 31, 1963 - Mrs. George Klink, a Chelsea area resident for more than 50 years, recalled yesterday that it was exactly 60 years ago, on Oct. 30, 1903, that she arrived in America from her native Germany. Accompanied by two other young girls - Rose and Lena Reule - she came here from Wildbad, in Wuerttemberg, where she and the other two girls had been employed in one of the famous German sanitariums near there. The ocean trip, in the ship known as the Rhine, took 17 days because of delay caused by storms. Mrs. Klink, whose maiden name was Mathilda Keck, remained in New York for eight years before coming to Chelsea. The other two girls came directly to Chelsea, Rose Reule later marrying Michael Kappler. They lived north of Chelsea for many years. Several years after his death Mrs. Kappler married Fred Boos and lived at Whitmore Lake. Since his death she makes her home with a daughter, Mrs. Richard Springman, at 207 North Seventh St., Ann Arbor. Her sister, who married a man named Thelen, made her home in Toledo until her death 27 years ago. Mrs. Klink's husband came to the United States 20 years before she did. In 1883, but it happened, he had traveled on the same ship on which Mrs. Klink arrived when she came in 1903. They met and married in Chelsea after she came here from New York. Mr. Klink died in 1944.

Sedalia, Missouri, August 27, 1925 - An article in last night's Democrat stated that John W. Keck who alleges an assault by R. F. Pollard Saturday, was taken to police headquarters by Officer Oscar White with Pollard. Mr. Keck says he was not taken to the police station but was taken home by an employee of the Missouri Pacific. He said that Pollard used a piece of angle iron instead of an axle as stated in the article. Pollard is out on a $1,000 bond for his appearance in the court of Justice of the Peace D. N. Yount Saturday morning.

Sedalia, Missouri, August 30, 1925 – R. F. Pollard, employed in the Missouri Pacific round-house, arrested recently for striking his foreman, John Keck, with an iron bar during an altercation, pleaded guilty to common assault before Justice of the Peace D. N. Yount Saturday and was assessed a fine of $10, and costs. Originally the charge was felonious assault but after questioning the defendant Prosecuting Attorney Roy W. When the two young men drove into Mr. Keck's station about 8:30 o'clock in the evening, ordered gas and oil, Mr. Keck gave them service. When he was replacing the hood on the car one of the two pulled a gun on him. There was a wrestle, Mr. Keck attempting to obtain possession of the gun, which fell to the ground. The companion shoved a gun in Mr. Keck's back, but in the meantime he had been working his way toward the house, at as he opened the door his wife handed him a shot gun. He fired a couple of times, and one of the two fell as he ran. Whether he was hit or whether he stumbled and fell, Mr. Keck could not say, but the two would be robbers made their escape through a cornfield, leaving the car behind.

Marriage Notes for Julius Walker and Emma Jedele:

In honor of the 25th, wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Walker, 50 immediate relatives and friends pleasantly gave them a surprise at their home Saturday evening, March 17, 1934. While they were waiting for their son, Erwin, and wife to spend the evening with them, the relatives and friends walked in and showered congratulations on them. They were presented al silver buffet set, the rose bowl containing 25 sweet peas and snapdragons symbolizing the past years. Several other gifts and cards of congratulations were received from friends. The dining table was centered with a beautiful three tiered wedding cake.

A splendid program was opened by Miss Ellen Theurer of Ann Arbor with Miss Lucille Theurer of Saline at the piano, after which Rev. Adolf Lederer of Saline gave a short address, using as his theme the words that had been spoken to the couple 25 years ago by his father, the late Rev. C. A. Lederer, at the wedding ceremony. Miss Lucille Theurer sang "Because," with Rev. Lederer accompanying at the piano. Little Harold Renz a nephew of the couple, sang several selections, which were enjoyed immensely. Miss Ellen Theurer gave a short recollection of the weeding 25 years ago. Guests were present from Ann Arbor, Saline, Lodi and Clinton. A brother, Herman Walker, and family of Elgin, Illinois, as well as several other near relatives, were unable to be present. Light refreshments were served after which the guests departed, congratulating the couple and wishing them 25 more happy and prosperous years.

Notes for Ernest Gottlieb Mann:

December 14, 1988 - In 1915, when the Bridgewater Elevator was built by Charles Schurer and William Rentschler, Bridgewater was a bustling community that boasted a church, post office, bank, and railroad depot. The train stopped their daily to pick up passengers, produce, milk, and other materials in demand around the nation. Schurer and Rentschler were businessmen who bought and sold wool. They also started the Bridgewater Bank, which operated in the tiny village for many years before it became a tavern and then a restaurant. In 1919, the Elevator was purchased by area farmers who took stock in the company and changed its name to the Farmers Produce Company, Schurer remained as manager.

In 1927, Ernest G. Mann sold his Freedom Township farm and moved to Bridgewater to manage the cooperative. In 1938, Mann and his sons, Earl and Willard, bought the cooperative from Rentschler after Rentschler and August Henes bought out the stockholders. Mann forged a partnership with his sons and started E. G. Mann & Sons at the old Bridgewater Elevator.

"oats were 48 cents a bushel, corn was 65 cents a bushel, and soy oil meal was $1.75 for a hundred pounds. Today, oats are $2 a bushel, corn is $2.39 a bushel, and meal is $15.85 for a hundred pounds. Feed salt was $1 for a hundred pounds then; today it's $9.90," says Glen Mann. Glen, grandson of Ernest, has been working in the family-owned elevator and agricultural supply business since 1962 with his brother, Vic, and mother, Billie. In 1940, Mann bought the Manchester mill from William Blaess and Willard Mann moved to Manchester to manage it. Ernest became ill in 1952 and sold his interest in the company to his sons. He died in 1955. By 1962, Earl and his wife, Billie, and Willard and his wife, Dorothy, incorporated the partnership and became the principal stockholders. Earl died in 1968 and Glen and Vic were taken on as stockholders along with Willard son, Ron. Willard retired in 1976 and sold his stock to his sister-in-law and her sons. Glen and Vic took the reins of E.G. Mann & Sons in Bridgewater and Ron assumed ownership of the Mann Feed Mill in Manchester. As corn and oats are food staples, the Elevator has been a staple for the area's agricultural community. Mann's buy, sell, and store corn, oats, soybeans, and wheat; maintain a grain bank; spray fields with herbicides and fertilizers; and sell fertilizer, herbicides, livestock and pet feeds, bird seed, and salt pellets.

Over the years, the Mann's have added to the elevator operation. Now, they boast a 70,000-bushel capacity with a grain dryer and grain cooler. "Grain out here comes into the elevator wet. It carries about 20-30 percent moisture. We put it into the grain dryer at 220 degrees and then cool it before storing. If you store wet grain, it will mold in three days," Glen explains^ While 70,000 bushels seems like a huge operation, Glen notes that the Anderson facility near Stockbridge has a 10 million-bushel capacity; Most of the crops stored at E. G. Mann are products of local farms although the oats now stored there came from Argentina. "It was a bad oat crop this year so we had to buy some," he says. The elevators range from 45-105 feet high; from the peak of the highest elevator you can see the water towers of Saline and Manchester. In days past, grain was hand weighed and hand loaded. Now, machines do much of the heavy labor. There are machines that load grain, machines that grind grain, and machines that weigh grain. For example, a semi can park under the bin and, in 5 minutes, have a 1,000 bushel load in the trailer. The grist machine grinds wheat and other grain as well as livestock feed blends. With the reduction in the oat crop, many farmers now use an oat substitute for cattle and horse feed.

Since its 1938 founding, E.G. Mann & Sons has expanded and expects to serve the agricultural community for many more years. There are hopes it will remain "all in the family." "My son will graduate from Michigan State this month and he plans to come to work here," says Glen. "I've always been in this business. I've never worked in a shop or anything. It's a job somebody has to do."

Funeral services were held Sunday August 7, 1955 for Ernest G. Mann, 69, at the Lockwood Funeral Home in Saline, Mann was a widely known Washtenaw grain elevator operator who retired from business in 1952. He died at his home at 116 W. Michigan Ave., Saline, after a long illness. Mr. Mann was a co-partner with two of his sons in the ownership and operation of grain elevators at Bridgewater and Manchester. The former they bought on March 1, 1927 and the later on July 1, 1940. Mr. Mann was active in several Masonic orders including the Meridan Chapter 48 of Manchester, the Saline Masonic Lodge, Ann Arbor Council 86, Knights Templar 13 of Ann Arbor and Zal Grotto of Ann Arbor. He was a member of the Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church of Manchester and the Saline Rotary Club. He was born September 23, 1885, in Freedom Township, the son of Gottlieb and Mary Rentschler Mann and was married on Aug. 16, 1911 in Saline Township to Laura A. Feldkamp who died on February 12, 1948. He was married in February, 1950, to Mrs. Anna- Fosdick in Saline.

May 6, 1948 - In memory of our dear husband and father, Ruben C. Feldkamp, who passed away May 6th, 1947. He bid, me not a last farewell; he said good bye to none. His loving heart had ceased to beat, before we knew it, he was gone. He did not fail to do his best; his heart was true and tender; he worked, hard for those he loved and will ever be remembered. No one knows the silent heartache. Only those who've lost can tell. Sadly missed by his wife and children.

Notes for Heinrich Albert Wenk:

As remembered by Carol Wenk Morgan:

Of the five children of Joseph and Olive I remember Albert, but sadly, not very well. We visited Uncle Al and his last wife, Marion, about once or twice a summer. I remember playing with Uncle Al's kids. Karen and I were about the same age; Roger was kind of a nuisance. He liked to play with us, but we didn't want to be tied to a five year old.

Al, Bender and Grandpa used to go hunting together at the cabin. At one time I believe Al owned part of the cabin property. They always dressed in red and black plaid woolen hunting suits and each had their own "stump" to hunt from. I remember that Marion also had a stump.

Uncle Al apparently was quite the ladies' man. He had several wives and I remember the family gossip too. When Al and Marion married, the family was taken back cause he was nearly twice her age. As far as we know, Marion was a good wife and mother to the kids. Roger could tell more about this.

She was born 17 Jun 1908 in Grand Ledge, Eaton Co, Michigan, and died 19 Jul 1988 in East Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for William G. Keck:

Painted Post, New York - William G. (Bill) Keck passed away April 22, 2002 in Painted Post, New York. Born November 1, 1905 to the late Emanuel and Frederica (Geil) Keck, this humble man led a life epitomized by selflessness and service. He married Zelda Divine on September 3, 1935 and they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary prior to her death in 1988.

Bill is survived by his son Donald, daughter-in-law Ruth, by two grandchildren, Lynne Ann (Richard) Vaia of Dayton, Ohio and Brian William (Molly) Keck of Lake Elmo, Minnesota, and a great-granddaughter Annika Clare Vaia.

He grew up in Utica, Michigan and was valedictorian of his high school class. He graduated with a BS in physics from Michigan State University in 1929 and, until the depression, worked for Pure Oil as a geophysicist. For a time he taught physics at Michigan State before leaving to obtain a doctorate in physics from University of Michigan in 1941. For the next several years he studied geophysical methods applied to ground water hydrology which would later become his career. During World War II he applied his physics knowledge with the Naval Ordinance Laboratory to invent several anti-submarine detection devices that were deployed in the war effort. After the war he returned to East Lansing, Michigan where he formed a ground water hydrology consulting firm, W. G. Keck & Associates. He led this company to perfect a series of ground-water instruments sold throughout that industry as well as to provide consulting services to help municipalities and industries find sufficient water for their needs. He sold his company and retired in 1970 after receiving the medal of distinction from the American Groundwater Association for his years of service.

Always thinking about others, his life was filled with service. He helped found Edgewood United Church and taught Sunday School for many years. He was a ctive with the Scouting movement, serving as a troop and district leader. He became involved with and loved Rotary International whose motto "service above self" echoed his philosophy. He served the Okemos, Michigan club as secretary for more than a decade.

Upon moving to Corning, New York in 1989, he joined and supported the Corning Rotary Club. He was a Rotary international Paul Harris Fellow. At age 88 he became a driving force that helped found the Southeastern Steuben County Habitat for Humanity.

Over the past decade he became known in the Corning area for his marquetry skills. He taught classes in this art at the Corning Senior Center, later in conjunction with Corning Community College. His "Habicrafters" sold their marquetry work for the benefit of Habitat for Humanity. A voracious reader, Bill could speak with wisdom on most any subject. His love of fishing honed his gift of patience. His humbleness was an inspiration to all. His deep and abiding faith provided a source of strength to himself and countless others.

The funeral service and committal will occur in East Lansing, Michigan on Saturday, April 27, 2002. A memorial service will take place in Corning, NY at a later date. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Southeastern Steuben Habitat for Humanity or First Congregational UCC - Corning, in his name.

Notes for Harry E. Potter:

Harry E. Potter - Born Feb. 10, 1901 Manistique, Michigan and Died Oct. 26, 1980 Muskegon, Michigan

A graduate of Manistique High School in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Harry Potter pursued a college career at Western Michigan University (then called Western State Normal). In the mid 1920s Harry was a three sport star at Western in football, basketball and baseball (his favorite sport). His teammates at Western included future Muskegon-area coaches C. Leo Redmond and Oscar "Okie" Johnson. Redmond had signed on as football coach at Muskegon High School and persuaded Potter, his college teammate, to come to Muskegon as an assistant coach in 1927.

Between 1927 and 1942, Potter handled the football and basketball second-team coaching duties at Muskegon High School, compiling an 84-14-3 mark on the gridiron and a 154-62 record on the cage court.

In 1943, he moved up to the varsity basketball position, posting a 36-26 record in three seasons, before succeeding Redmond as head coach of the Big Red football squad in 1947. His 1951 team, under the direction of quarterback Earl Morrall, went undefeated and was named Class A state champions. Potter guided the Big Reds to a 57-24-8 mark and three Southwestern Conference crowns in his 10 years at the helm.

But possibly Potter's proudest personal achievement at Muskegon was the establishment of a baseball program in 1937 to represent the Port City in Southwest Conference competition. He coached the Big Red baseball team for 30 years, including a then-record streak of 55 consecutive victories between 1941 and 1945. Potter remained as athletic director at Muskegon until his retirement in 1966.

She was born 11 Jan 1914 in Grass Lake, Jackson Co, Michigan, and died 21 Nov 2005.

Notes for Norman Frederick Grosshans:

During the 1930s, 1940s, 1950s, 1960s and into the 1970s, for a total of 39 years, "going down to Norm's" was almost a daily experience for many of the residents of Grass Lake. Not only did Norm dispense gasoline, motor oil, tires, and other automotive necessities, he also carried a line of pop, candy, and gum. Just before meal time it was easy to run "down to Norm's" to get that loaf of bread or gallon of milk that was needed.

For newcomers to our village, Norm Grosshans owned and operated that service station at the north-west corner of Michigan Avenue and Mt. Hope Rd./S. Union Street. Not only was he a member of the business community, he was a friend and neighbor. Even today, when our family is together and the pop supply is exhausted, Uncle Jim, accompanied by his nephew or one or more nieces, will go "down to Norm's" to replenish the supply. The business has changed hands twice since Norm was the proprietor, but that corner always will be "Norm's corner" to our sons. Dozens and dozens of boys and young men, maybe even hundreds, were employed by Norm during their high school years or until their financial needs demanded a more lucrative source of income.

Norm's was a place where the windshield was washed, the water in the radiator was checked, the oil supply was checked, and the air in the tires was checked, too, if necessary. Car washes were done there, too, and tires were repaired. During the lean years Norm "ran a tab" for many of his customers. Then on payday he would get his money. Like so many others who "trusted" customers for forthcoming payment, I suppose there were times when Norm didn't get paid, too. Norm's was a fixture of the community and one that was expected to go on and on forever. Then came the day more than fifteen years ago when Norm retired. He and Evelyn have a place in Bradenton, Florida, that has become a second home to them. They can escape the cold of Michigan winters and I don't think Norm ever missed going out of the comfort of the station to wait on customers in all kinds of weather.

The years have been good to them. A Florida home with plenty of activity during the winter months and always the comfortable home on Michigan Avenue in Grass Lake to come back to in the spring time to renew old friendships. It was going to be that way again this year, but, several days before the appointed day, Norm was felled in his yard by a massive stroke. Five, six weeks in the hospital have exacted a toll on his family. Linda came home from Texas, her daughter (Norm's granddaughter) from Chelsea, Ron and Ruth from Grand Ledge have tried to help Evelyn cope with this frightening and frustrating interruption in their lives.

Until last week there had been no indication that Norm was aware of the presence of his family. Then he opened his eyes for a couple of days and seemed to follow the direction of Evelyn's voice and the voice of a special nurse who always goes the extra mile to stimulate him. Then infection set in and gave him a setback. Norm's family and his doctor remain cautiously optimistic. Evelyn is so grateful for the calls, cards, and letters that have helped them through these very difficult days.

This is a love letter to Norm's family. Evelyn, Ron, Linda: were member all those years when Norm was at this corner. You may not hear from us often, but be assured that not a day goes by that we don't offer prayers for, Norm and for you. Your Grass Lake "family" cares. And That "family" includes not only present residents, but also all those who "used to be."

Notes for Clarence Edwin Haarer:

Feb. 19, 1953 - Clarence Haarer was born and raised in Manchester. He operated a meat market in Manchester for six years, and for two of those years, he also operated a meat and grocery market in Tecumseh. In spite of his varied business activities, Haarer found time to serve six years on the Village Council in Manchester. In 1930, Haarer came to Saline and opened the Hearer's Quality Market at 106 W. Michigan. Since coming to Saline, he has continued to take an active part in civic activities. He served three terms on the Saline City Council and was Mayor pro-tem for two of those terms. Haarer is now serving his ninth year as a member of the Board of Education for Saline High School. He has always been an active member of the Saline Community Fair, and has been a Board member ever since it was organized. He served for two years as Vice-President of the Fair, and in 1945, he went to Marshall, Michigan, and purchased 18 steer club calves. The Saline Junior Livestock Association was started with these 18 calves. They were purchased by Haarer with the hopes that they would start a steer club. His hopes were realized, for the club developed into the present active organization, and began the ground work for our present successful Community Fair. In addition to his other activities, Haarer has been a member of the Saline Rotary for ten years, and has served as President in- 1948 and 1949. Haarer is a member of St. Paul's Church. He is married and has two sons, Gerald, 18, who is presently attending Michigan State College, and Neil 11, who is a student at Saline High.

Art was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church. He served in the United States Navy during World War II aboard the USS Zeilin as a Petty Officer Second Class. Art was first and foremost an outspoken supporter of his country and the men and women who did battle to protect it. He served as National Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), for an unprecedented two-year term due to the death of the previous commander.

While serving as commander, he traveled to various countries around the world, speaking to veterans groups. He was on the Golan Heights in Israeli-occupied Syria the day Israel annexed the area. He met with Afghan Freedom Fighters at the Khyber Pass. He visited Latin America to talk with civilian and military leaders and was thought highly of by the Taiwanese veterans groups for his support. As a past commander, he was still sought after as a speaker and distinguished guest at many veterans-related events. Art Fellwock lived a life of devoted patriotism.

Art is survived by his daughters, Debbie (Fred) Haton of Mt. Notes for Douglas Donald Downing:

Patrolman Douglas D. Downing had been gunned down. Downing, an Ann Arbor native, was killed as he stepped through the rear door of the National Bank of Ypsilanti branch at 200 E. Michigan Ave. He had his service revolver drawn and apparently struggled briefly with one of the bandits before he was fatally wounded, Sgt. Daniel Hiliker said. Downing, a seven-year veteran of the Ypsilanti police Department who just turned 37 Thursday, was responding to a silent alarm triggered during a robbery at the bank about 1:40 p.m. Friday. He was shot three times in the chest from close range. Downing is believed to be the first Ypsilanti police officer in recent history killed in the line of duty.

His wife, JoAnn, is an employee in the accounting department at The Ann Arbor News. The couple had no children.

He married Barbara Grace Geiger 06 Jul 1957, daughter of Karl Geiger and Lydia Fiegel. She was born 01 Aug 1936 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Luther John (Luke) Schaible:

Luke and Barbara Schaible, Manchester: Luke and Barbara were both born and raised on farms. In 1957 they married and purchased a farm on Fletcher Road, 2 miles from his homestead. They raised five children, 2 sons and 3 daughters. The dairy cows were sold in 1967 to focus on sheep and market lambs. Their sons now manage the bulk of the lamb operation. When Luke was 9 years old he begged his parents for an accordion. He formed a dance band in 1964 and continues to play for various community functions, weddings and other ethnic celebrations. We are blessed with eleven grandchildren and most of them play a musical instrument. The farm fence at the entrance to the farm reads "Trohlich Spielen & Singing." Translated, that means "Happily playing and singing." That's been our story for the last 45 years! During our lifetime we witnessed many changes- from the one room schoolhouse in the country to consolidation in town, from farming with horses to tractors- from feeding with 5-gallon pails to computer controlled mechanization.

Luther John Schaible, 90, of Manchester, Michigan passed away peacefully on Saturday, December 19, 2020 with his family by his side. Luther was born on March 13, 1930 to the late Herman and Magdalena (Girbach) Schaible. On July 6, 1957 he married Barbara (Geiger) Schaible. Luther is survived by his wife Barbara and five children, Daniel (Julie) Schaible of Manchester, Jane (Robert) Braem of Caro, Joan (Robert) Meagher of Ann Arbor, Michael (Diane) Schaible of Manchester and Carol (Steven) Wahl of Clinton, 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren (soon to be 14 in June). Luther was preceded in death by his parents and a sister-in-law Mary Pfaus.

Luther was a lifelong grain and livestock farmer. He felt blessed to have his sons continue to grow and expand the family farm. Luther was well known in the area for his band and accordion playing. He was especially known for German songs, polkas and square dancing. He provided music and square dancing for many weddings and local events. He would often break into song wherever he would go. Luther was a lifelong member of St. John's Lutheran Church teaching Sunday School and serving on various boards. He was active in the community with Farm Bureau and local township and county organizations, and was also a well-known and respected seed salesman.

The family would like to thank the staff of Our Family Friend agency for the care he received at home. The family will receive friends on Wednesday, December 23, 2020 from 10:00 A.M. until 12:00 Noon at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline. Capacity will be limited and masks will be required. There will be a private family memorial service later that day. Memorial contributions in his name may be made to St. John's Lutheran Church, PO Box 13, Bridgewater, Michigan and envelopes will be available at the funeral home.

He married Margaret Emma (Maggie) Heim 07 Mar 1901 in Richardson Co, Nebraska, daughter of Jacob Heim and Regina Gross. She was born 31 May 1880 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 04 May 1951 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Thomas Frederick Wuster:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 927:

Thomas F. Wuster, one of the best-known and most substantial farmers in the precinct of Grant, this county, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, January 24, 1878, son of Christ and Martha (Marquard) Wuster, who came to this state in June, 1879, and became pioneers in Porter precinct, Richardson County. Further and fitting reference to the Wuster family in this County is made elsewhere in this volume.

Reared on the home farm in Porter precinct, he having been but two years of age when his parents settled there, Thomas F. Wuster received his schooling in the schools of that neighborhood. He began working out at the early age of eleven years and worked constantly from the time he was fourteen years of age. In the spring of 1900 he began farming for himself. For one year he rented the Strunk farm and then in 1901 he bought his present place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, and there established his home and has ever since resided there, he and his family being very comfortably situated.

His house, built in 1908, is one of the best in that neighborhood and the general farm buildings are in keeping with the same, the place being looked upon as one of the best-improved farms in that part of the county. In addition to his general farming Mr. Wuster gives considerable attention to the raising of live stock, with particular reference to sheep and hogs. He has a flock of more than one hundred and twenty head of sheep and in 1916 fed more than four hundred head of sheep for the market.

On March 7, 1901, Thomas F. Wuster was united in marriage to Margaret Heim, who was born on a pioneer farm in the precinct of Grant, Richardson County, May 37, 1880, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, prominent and influential pioneers of this county and further and extended reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, and to this union seven children have been born, namely: Minerva born on December 28, 1901; Ruth, November 6, 1903; Frederick, July 3, 1905; Dorothy, December 31, 1906; Joseph, September 11, 1909; Milton, July 18, 1912, and Dwight, April 23, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Wuster are members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and take a warm interest in church affairs, as well as in the general good works of the community in which they live, helpful in many ways in promoting such agencies as are designed to advance the common welfare thereabout. Mr. Wuster is independent in his political views, preferring to keep himself free to vote for the most competent candidate for public office without regard to party affiliations. He not only is a progressive and wide-awake farmer, but a public spirited citizen and tries to do his part in advancing the interests of the community of which he has been a resident since the days of his early childhood.

Falls City, Nebraska, June 22, 1933 - County Attorney J. H. Falloon said charges of attempted blackmail probably will be filed against 16-year-old Howard Wuster of Dawson in connection with an extortion note received by Mr. and Mrs. Israel Ulmer of Dawson. Falloon said he would defer formal action until after conferring with the youth's foster parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wuster of Dawson. The attorney said the action was decided upon when the youth confessed attempting to extort $50 from the Ulmers. Ulmer is a retired farmer, and the Wusters live on a farm. The note threatened the Ulmer home would be burned if the money was not paid. The youth was taken into custody after he crawled along a fence to get a bottle containing $5. The youth told officers he wanted money to finance a radio invention.

Ethel's (Bruestle-Haist) Stories....

April 1998 - My Engagement

I met my husband when I was 19 years old. We met on a blind date set up by Erwin's sister Lorine and her husband Milton. I knew Milton because he lived with my cousin Ben (Aunt Kay's son) and his wife Lill for a while. Milton was dating Lorine, Erwin's sister. They picked me up in Manchester and we went to a lake. The first gift Erwin gave to me was a cedar chest for Christmas. I still have it today. He had to work really hard by picking apples to save up enough money to buy my engagement ring. I was 21 when he proposed. We were engaged for quite a while. I was 23 and he was 25 when we got married. We had our ceremony at the house of Pastor Brueckner in Freedom Township on April 25, 1931. We had coffee and doughnuts at our house afterwards. That night we stayed at Aunt Ida's and returned the next day. That was the only vacation we ever had.

We didn't go out often because Erwin had to work on the farm. He used to get up around 5 o'clock and brush the horses off then work in the fields until late at night. The only time he wouldn't work was on Sunday because he would always go to church. His whole family were good church people. Erwin's mother was only 47 years old when she passed away in 1930 on Thanksgiving Day. He surely loved his parents. When he was 21 years old they bought him a new brown Buick. (We have the picture)

After we were married we lived with his parents until Milton's house was completed being fixed up. Milton, Lorine and Joyce moved into the house and George, Erwin's father moved down with them. We saw them every day because we had chores down there also. Erwin used to pick apples and sell them to Clark's store. During the winters he froze his feet. We always got our little chickens in March, so we had lots of work to do. One year I was going to work in the garden and I took Kenny. He was about one year old. I set him on a blanket and all at once a large woodchuck came out of the grass and was heading towards Kenny. I was really scared. I took my hoe and hit it over the head. I killed it. It was such a relief to know my boy was safe.

I was real happy with my marriage because Erwin was a real good husband and good father to his children. He never had to get after them. I never saw him mad at anybody even his family. I sure miss him. From the time we were married we had four children. Arlene Martha born Sept. 5, Doris Marie born Feb. 14, Kenneth Erwin born Aug. 8 and Richard George born Nov. 5. We had the misfortune of losing our first baby Duane who was born dead at birth.

When the children got old enough they would help carry in wood, help with the hay and also take care of the sheep and pigs. They all joined the 4-H Club. They had sheep and steers for the fairs, but they never missed their Sunday School. When I mowed the lawn I used to put the children in the high chair and tie them in so they could watch me mow from the window. Some of the time I would find them on the floor when I came in the house.

We had a lot of sickness in those days. When Arlene was 14 years old she had Polio. When Doris was 2 1/2 she had pneumonia and we just about lost her. Kenneth had meningitis and we about lost him too. We surely thank the good Lord. Richard never got real sick. I always took care of my children. I never had a babysitter. My children were real good. They went to the country school which they had to walk a mile to get to. When it snowed they played fox and geese and they liked to slide down the hills. They had a lot of games they played out doors.

August 1998 - The Erwin Haist Farm

The farm originally belonged to Erwin's father, George Haist. He bought the farm about 94 years ago. Erwin was 2 months old when they moved in. His father and mother lived there most of their lives. There were 88 acres but they also farmed for other people. Erwin was only 12 years old when he would run home from school so he could help his father on the farm, which he loved very much. They had very nice neighbors, who lived across the road. Their name was Wagner and the other neighbors were good also.

Erwin's father, George Haist bought another place on South Fletcher Rd, where his daughter Lorine and her husband Milton lived. George lived with them after his wife passed away from Cancer. George lived with them until Lorine passed away with cancer. After that, George moved in with Erwin and I on the farm for three and one half years.

Erwin and I were married on April 25th 1931. We had sheep which were taken to the fairs. We worked 3 farms all together. We also did thrashing and husked corn. My husband and I husked corn in an 8 acre field. All by hand we husked 2800 bushel of corn. We also did a lot of butchering. We used to butcher 5 pigs at a time. The neighbors helped us make sausage, liver sausage and blood sausage. We also took care of a large garden. One year the coon's cleaned out the entire garden. I had 2 ears of corn left after they got done. We finally caught 25 of them and a skunk in a live trap. We also had a lot of haying and plowing to do. We got help with the haying. The children did what they could to help. The children always took sheep to the fairs. They belonged to the 4-H. They also took cattle to the fair. Now, they are all married. We have 13 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. None of them are on farms. My husband passed away July 27th, 1992 at the age of 88.

July 1998 - My Life After Marriage - Written by Ethel Haist, January 2000

I was married April 25, 1934. I immediately joined the Zion Lutheran Church and Ladies Aid. On July 20, 1954 I received a lifetime membership of the Ladies Aid from Washington. I did many jobs throughout my life including caring for the man across the road who had just had a heart attack. I mowed my lawn and worked the gardens, planted the gardens, and washed clothes. I had 250 hens and 500 baby chicks. Once a week I took 60 dozed eggs to be delivered in Ann Arbor and 5 dozen were taken to Chelsea. I did this for 50 years.

I also helped my husband in the fields and on the farm. One of the tasks was to feed lambs with bottles of milk. I helped my uncle bunch beans in the field. After that I worked for Sidney Toroly doing housework. Then I went to Roy Haselschwart to do housework. Then I worked for Mr. Gardener picking strawberries all summer. I did housework in the day time then washed strawberries till 12 o' clock then took them to the market in Detroit.

I also worked at the Hoover Ball factory in Ann Arbor for 5 months. Then I worked for my aunt all summer. Next I worked for Mr. Grant in the market for 4 summers. I also worked for Faith-in-Action for 7 years. I worked for Elmer Myers while his wife taught school.

When my children went to school I cleaned their rooms and did their washing. My husband and I husked all the corn by hand. There was one field where we husked 2,400 bushel of corn. I used to go with him to auction to get cattle for butchering and to sell our cattle.

I also worked at the blood bank in Chelsea several times. I worked at the school during elections. Over the years I worked for Reverend Grabowski and Reverend Pesterman.

When you are working 3 farms there is always lots of work to do. My husband had to quit working the fields on account of a bad foot. He eventually had to have his foot taken off and spent 5 weeks in the St. Joe's Hospital. Towards the end of his life he spent 2 months in the Stockbridge Nursing Home. He sure is missed very much. He couldn't have been a better husband. He was such a good father to his children. We farmed together for 68 years and enjoyed working together.

Life Written by Ethel Haist, December 1997

After my children grew up, I still did housework. I helped my husband as I could although he was in poor health. He had an operation in which he had part of his leg removed because his feet were not getting enough blood. The doctors said he had been working too hard and had to quit farming. We had three farms that we were farming all at one time. We had cattle, eight at a time. We also had lots of sheep, which we always took to the Detroit Fairs. We sold the sheep and rams in Michigan and other places. Our children all took sheep to the fairs through 4-H. They got lots of champions on their cattle and sheep. They also won many prizes.

When Erwin got sick, he was in the hospital for five weeks. When he came home he had to take treatments three times a week in Chelsea. A few years later he had to go to a nursing home in Stockbridge. He was there two months before he passed away on July 27, 1992 at the age of 88. I lived by myself for almost three years, which was very difficult. I knew I couldn't do it form much longer. The children all had their own homes and were afraid for me to be alone. I had a terrible fall and had to go to the hospital. The doctor discovered I had to have a gallstone removed. The children didn't think I was going to make it. I knew the Lord would be good to me.

Right now I am living in the Chelsea Methodist Home. It sure is a nice place to live. I miss my home though. I had lived there for 66 years and I was happy there. The person I miss the most is my husband. He sure was a wonderful man. I sure wish him back again. I have lost a lot of family. My twin sister, my brother and my sister-in-law all past away in the past three years. I sure appreciate what all my dear friends have done for me. I appreciate that they have prayed for me. I also know there is nobody who has done more for me than my own family. I can't praise them enough. I think the world of them.

Ethel Barbara Haist, age 99 passed away January 5, 2008, at Chelsea Retirement Community. Notes for Otto Friedrich Wagner:

Jan. 7, 1987 - Dexter Cider Mill has been sold to a local family, Dick and Katherine Koziski of Chelsea. They purchased the mill from Katherine Wagner, heir of the family that owned the mill for the last 86 years. Mrs. Wagner had other offers, but chose to sell the mill to the Koziskis, who she characterizes as "fine people who will continue the cider mill operation as before." Katherine Staffan Wagner has known Katherine Merkel Koziski all her life, since both come from prominent Chelsea families. When Mrs. Koziski was a teen-ager, she used to babysit for Mrs. Wagner's children. Dexter Cider Mill was built in 1886 by Mr. Tuttle and Mr. Van Etnan and originally produced jelly as well as cider. It changed hands several times in the, first 14 years, but in 1900 was sold to John Frederick Wagner and has stayed in the same family until now. When John Wagner died, his son, Otto took over. In 1935, Otto's son, Frederick, became a partner and the mill name changed to "O. Wagner & Son Cider Mill." In 1937 Frederick, married Katherine Staffan. They lived in Chelsea most of their married life.

The mill operation has remained basically the same for 100 years. In 1953 modern bottling equipment was installed and in 1957 a grill to produce donuts was added. Frederick Wagner died in 1981. Katie Wagner took over the operation with the help of Steve Snay who had already worked for her husband 15 years. Steve will continue as operating manager under the Koziskis' ownership. When Katie Wagner decided she could no longer run the mill, wanting free time to travel and pursue her own interests, her three children were all engaged in successful careers and none could take off three months a year to make cider, although all of them helped when they could. In recent years, granddaughter Kellie Kanten also assisted. Mrs. Wagner's oldest son, Frederick W. Wagner, is chairman of the department of Urban and Regional Planning at the University of New Orleans. Daughter Stephanie Kanten is a second grade teacher in the Dexter Public Schools and a member of the Chelsea village council. John Wagner works for an HMO insurance company in Phoenix, Arizona. The village of Dexter, fearing a future buyer might tear down the mill that is a trademark of their community, attempted to buy it. $1,166.05 in cash was raised and an additional $525 was pledged. 214 people expressed their interest in preserving the mill by contributing money or writing letters of support.

However, village officials came to the conclusion that the only way to raise enough money was either to get a grant from the state or to levy a millage, neither of which could be accomplished by the first of the year, which was the date that Mrs. Wagner wanted to have the matter settled. So about three weeks ago they decided to abandon their efforts. People who contributed money for the mill have the choice of having it returned or contributing it to a Dexter tree fund or for public improvements in the downtown area. If not enough money is earmarked for either of these projects, the money will be returned.

Carl Willoughby, Dexter village manager, was glad to hear of the purchase of the mill by the Koziskis, saying "The village's intent was to continue a tradition and landmark which contributes to the character of the village. If that has been satisfied without the need for the village to be involved, we are very happy." The new owners are also very happy. Dick Koziski has wanted to buy the cider mill for 25 years and says he "feels very fortunate to want something so long and finally get it." He grew up in Massachusetts in the Berkshire Mountains where cider mills abound. When he came to Michigan and courted his wife, Katherine, the Dexter Cider Mill made him nostalgic for home and it was then that he first tried to buy it. He has worked for Ford Motor Co. for 30 years and has moved around the country, but whenever he returned to this area, he always visited the cider mill. The Koziskis have now returned to Michigan for good, settling at Cavanaugh Lake. Katherine Koziski has joined her husband as a Ford employee. The couple have four daughters and two sons-in-law, all of whom also want to help with the mill, so it will again be a family operation. The Koziskis plan to run the mill "exactly as it has been for 100 years, to basically maintain the mill's current operating season, as well as its meaningful historical presence to so many people in the area." Dick describes it as a "romantic setting that doesn't need messing with." The Koziskis will probably take over ownership Feb. 1. One of the first things they plan to do is plant some white birches on the site, thinking white clumps of trees will look beautiful next to the river and the red barn. Meanwhile, Katie Wagner plans to travel, going first to Phoenix and then spending three months in California. But she will return in plenty of time to help the Koziskis get started on their first cider season.

Katie Wagner has sold the Dexter Cider Mill that she helped her husband run for many years and then managed for the last five years after her husband's death. But no one is worried about her being at loose ends with nothing to do since she has always been extremely active in the community. She is probably best known for her involvement in the McKune Library, serving on the board for 36 years, and also for years of service to the Chelsea Woman's Club of which she is a charter member. These two activities are interconnected, since the Woman's Club, which was founded in 1931, founded the McKune Library in 1932. The building that houses the library, the McKune house, was owned by Katie's aunt, Katherine McKune. Fellow board member and cousin, Ann Belser, says Katie was active in all aspects of the Library Board, serving as president and secretary, but that one of her biggest contributions was working with Jean Eaton on setting up the Archives Room which is very much used.

Katie's sister-in-law, Katherine Staffan, describes Katie as "always interested in civic affairs." In addition to the library and Woman's Club, Katie works with Chelsea Social Services and is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and St. Paul United Church of Christ. Katie is a life-long resident of Chelsea, the granddaughter of the founder of Staffan Funeral Home (now Staffan-Mitchell). Her grandfather, Frank Staffan, was a building contractor who got into the funeral business because he made caskets. Katie attended the local Chelsea schools and Ypsilanti Normal College, Employment outside the home included working for Dr. Fisher and at the U-M Athletic Department. In 1937 she married Frederick Wagner. They had three children, Frederick W., John, and Stephanie "Sis" Kanten. Katie is an avid bridge player, playing twice a month with the same group that started when she was 15 years old. She also likes to travel, going to many places in the United States and Europe. Her next trip is planned for next spring when she will go with the Chelsea Senior Citizens to Alaska.

- 11582 iii. Nona Mayer, born 1908 in Buffalo, Erie Co, New York; died 23 Jun 1912 in Grand Island, Erie Co, New York.

Notes for Nona Mayer:

Grand Island is located in western New York on Lake Erie. It is the largest island in the Niagara River and 4th largest in the state. Originally settled by the French, it became British after the French and Indian War. The Town of Grand Island was organized in 1852. By the end of the 19th century, it developed into a tourist town for those who wanted to enjoy Lake Erie. Many steamers left Buffalo, New York for the resorts during the summer months. Social organizations chartered these boats, often accompanied by their own bands. Eagle Park is a resort town located 12 miles above Niagara Falls.

On June 23, 1912 1,000 revelers who were members of the fraternal organization International Order of Foresters were stopped at Eagle Park. They had spent the whole day having fun and made the excursion there in 2 trips. Tired, many wanted to get home quickly. After the first group left by steamer the remaining picnickers waited impatiently. When the steamer was spotted coming to pick them up, they all rush onto the pier. As the steamer tied up alongside, the overcrowding and jostling in order to board the boat first was too much for the old pier and it gave way. The center fell first and the rest began to crumple. 250 people went into the water, many caught and mangled in the wreckage of the pier. The current is very strong and several people weighed down by their clothing were carried downstream and it is feared they went over Niagara Falls. This disaster resulted in the deaths of 37 individuals, mostly women and children.

June 2012- Two bodies of victims of the Eagle Park catastrophe were recovered yesterday; those of Gertrude Clark, 18 years old of 134 Rees Street, and Nona Mayer, four years old of 100 Hawley Street. The body of the Mayer child was found swirling in the turbulent waters near the landing of the Maid-of-the-Mist, having passed over the falls, while that of the Clark girl was picked up at Cook's landing less than half a mile north of Eagle Park.

The finding of the two bodies leaves four names still upon the missing list. They are Catherine Wacker, 18 years old of 47 Hollman Street; Lucy Lenz, 28 years old of 55 Gartman Street; Mrs. Bertha Richmeyer, 32 years old of 425 Weast Street; and Edward J. Sheehy, 23 years old of 68 Kail Street. Dragging for bodies was resumed early yesterday morning, half a dozen deputy sheriffs and many volunteers taking part. All the section of the river north of the wrecked Eagle Park dock, to a point just opposite the foot of Burntship Creek was combed over with the grapples and drags, but the searchers were rewarded only by the finding of the Clark girl's body. It was placed for shelter in Capt. Cook's boat house and Deputy Medical Examiner Stocker was notified. After viewing the body, he turned it over to a Buffalo undertaker.

The crew of the Maid-of-the-Mist discovered the body of the Mayer baby just before dark. Pike poles were used to tow it to the landing and Coroner Scott of Niagara County was summoned. He made an examination of the child's body and found about its neck a little gold chain and locket containing its name. Supt. Regan in this city was promptly notified and Arthur Mayer, father of the dead child was told of the finding of the body. He at once made arrangements to have it brought to Buffalo.

Harriett Mayer, mother of the child also perished in the collapse of the dock, and it was upon her death that the inquest held last Thursday by Judge Frederick Fenster of Grand Island was based. Today the searchers will again continue their work of dragging the river with the hope of picking up the four bodies still missing. Many rivermen are expressing the belief that the bodies have now been swept out around the foot of Buckhorn Island and will be found below Niagara Falls.

District Attorney Dudley does not intend to rest the investigation of the dock collapse with the inquest that was held last Thursday. Instead he proposes, so he asserts, to make an exhaustive investigation of the horror and with his facts well in hand, go with the complete evidence before the September grand jury.

Haviland, the two young men who were arrested early Sunday morning June 2, 1912 for the theft of two red lanterns used on the street to warn people of an excavation, have had their hearing before the faculty of the law and engineering departments, of which they were members. Each was suspended from the University of Michigan for a period of one year, the suspension to take place immediately. This means that next year at this time each student may return, finish his freshman work and take the examination. Haviland came from Omaha, Nebraska, and Hildner is an Ann Arbor boy.

Notes for Jonathan Hildner:

Port Townsend, Washington - The father of a 12-year-old boy was charged with criminal neglect of the child today after the death of the boy and his mother from heavy lead poisoning. Pros. Atty. William J. Daly filed the charges against Egmont G. Hildner, 55-year-old former ferry ticket agent at Port Ludlow. The boy, Jonathan Hildner, died June 7, 1950, his mother, Mrs. Adeline Hildner, 56, on Saturday June 10, 1950. Daly said an autopsy conducted by Dr. H. G. Plut, deputy coroner of Jefferson county, revealed traces of heavy lead poisoning in the kidneys of both victims. Jonathan had been ill two days before a doctor was called, the prosecutor said, and was dead when the doctor arrived last Wednesday morning. The charge filed today specifically accuses Hildner of willful neglect in failing to provide the necessary medical care. Mrs. Hildner subsequently became ill and was hospitalized Thursday. The poison, Dr. Plut said, can be taken only through the mouth.

Port Townsend, Washington, June 12, 1950 - Egmont G. Hildner, 55, was charged with criminal neglect today in connection with the death of his 12-year-old son, Jonathan, from heavy lead poisoning. Pros. Atty. William J. Daly said the boy and his mother, Mrs. Adeline Hildner, 56, both died of the poisoning. The father, former ferry ticket agent at Port Ludlow, was held in $10,000 bail. He was charged specifically with willful neglect in failing to provide the necessary medical care for his son prior to the boy's death on June 7.

June 29, 1950 - Authorities of Port Townsend, Washington, are investigating the death there of Mrs. E. G. Hildner and her son, John, former residents of Saline. The deaths of both mother and son are said to have been caused by lead poisoning. Efforts by Washington authorities are being made to locate some of Mrs. Hildner's relatives. She is believed to have two sisters. The prosecuting attorney for Port Townsend has contacted authorities here for information concerning Mrs. Hildner's husband, whom it is said is being held there for investigation. Mr. and Mrs. Hildner and their son lived in an apartment house on Russell Street for almost four years. Hildner disappeared and Mrs. Hildner and her son were evicted from the apartment. Shortly thereafter they left for the west coast.

About a year ago, the Saline Observer received word of the death of Mrs. E. G. Hildner, and her son John who had moved to the West Coast after being evicted from their apartment on Russel Street. Their death was caused from lead poisoning. The outcome was never known until Tuesday morning June 19, 1951 when the following two letters were received in the mail: "Dear Sirs: Thought this letter might be of interest to you and I know many Saline people have wondered as to the outcome of this tragic affair". "Mrs. Hildner and family lived in Saline 4 or 5 years and last year—no, I believe spring of '49 —she went to Washington, in June of '50 she and John were poisoned. I knew her well and so many have asked me if I knew what happened to her, so I wrote there to find out. Sincerely Emma Howard."

Attached to the letter we received from Emma Howard is the answer she received from Washington: "Dear Mrs. Howard: In answer to your letter of May 11, concerning the disposition of the deaths of Addie and John Hildner, the authorities of Jefferson County were unable to obtain sufficient evidence to justify any definite conclusion as to the causes of these deaths, other than that they both died as a result of poison. Every effort was made to determine the source of poison and how it was administered as well as who administered it, but were unable to learn the answers to these questions. "Egmont Hildner was psychiatrically examined to determine his sanity as well as, his possible complicity in these deaths. The truth serum test and lie detector test, to which he submitted, showed no signs of guilty knowledge. A sanity hearing was begun to obtain his commitment to an institution for the mentally unbalanced; however, these proceedings, were dropped for lack of evidence. "I hope this answers your questions satisfactorily. Very truly yours, Shirley M. Geddes, Jefferson County Deputy Prosecuting Attorney."

Notes for George Cleveland Bratt:

Feb. 15, 1932 - George Bratt of San Francisco, who abandoned his wife and four children as they were evicted from their home for nonpayment of rent because he believes it to be society's duty to take care of his family, adopted a spectacular method of declaring his principle that society which deprives a man of his livelihood must house and feed him. but even on that basis he cannot defend what appears to most of us to be a cowardly act. Regardless of what he believes, no man is Justified In leaving his family stranded while he goes out to shift for himself. When a man takes a vow to protect a woman and her children, he is bound to do so. no matter what upheavals society undergoes. He may find other ways of preaching the doctrine of society's responsibility toward the individual or the family than walking out on his dependents, even though he is heartily supported by his wife. In normal times wife desertion is an all-too-common practice. In extraordinary times such as we are living in. a much larger percentage of men abandon their families when the burden of support becomes too great for their small stock of manly courage. George Brett's action, published throughout the nation, will furnish an example for other men who will say: "if an educated chap such as Bratt the actor, walks out, why not I?"

Mr. Hildner, who visited at the Herrnstein home during the spring vacation, made a most favorable impression upon all who met him, not alone by the beautiful quality of his music, but by his attractive personality which won him many warm friends here. He is the son of Professor and Mrs. J. A. C. Hillner of Ann Arbor and is a special student in the University of Michigan School of Music, and has a voice of unusual beauty and promise. He has studied and traveled extensively both in this country and abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Hildner have gone to housekeeping in a very attractive new home at 22307 Vinewood Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Herrnstein expect them to visit here in July, at the close of the special study which Mr. Hildner is taking at the university.

On June 11, 1928 he was married to Martha Herrnstein who survives along with a son, H. Holt Hildner, Route 7, a daughter, Mrs. Byron (Joanne) Magbee, Orange, California, seven grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. George Bratt, San Francisco, California. Mr. Hildner was a member of the First Church of Christ Scientist and the Mother Church of Boston, Massachusetts. He was a member of the board of directors and past president of the church. He was a member and past president of the Chillicothe Rotary Club and a member of the board of directors of the Ross County Welfare Association. Occupation 4: Jacobson's Department Store Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan

Notes for Herbert Friedrich (Seeger) Sager:

Herbert F. Sager's secret to retailing was to treat each customer with the same reverence you would afford to mom. Sager, 91, part owner of Fiegel's Men's and Boy's Wear on Main Street, died Sunday at Glacier Hills. He was 91. "No matter who comes in the front door - a little boy, young and old, black or white - everybody should be treated the same," said David H. Sager of his father's attitude toward customers. "Treat that customer like you would treat your own mother." Sager, who was born on a farm in Chelsea, first worked as a sales clerk at Fiegel's in 1926 with the store's founder, Albert Fiegel. After completing the eighth grade, Sager went to work on the farm until he was about 20. Standing 5-foot-3, Sager didn't feel he was cut out for farming, David Sager said. That's when he went into town. Sager worked at a dimly lit Fiegel's during the Great Depression. David Sager said the shop would turn the lights on when a customer came in the store. The practice was used to conserve energy.

Herbert Sager eventually became a partner in the business, with John Andress and Paul Jedele in 1940, when Albert Fiegel retired. David Sager said he got his start in the 1950s as teenager when his father gave him two options: "You can go to summer camp or go to work (at Fiegel's)," Sager said. He opted to work with his father at Fiegel's. By 1970, both Jedele and Andress had retired from the business, making way for David and his younger brother, Douglas, to become partners with their father. Sager also was active in other areas. He served as an alderman for what was the second ward in Ann Arbor from 1939 to 1945. In addition to David and Douglas, Sager is survived by his wife, Ma be and his son, Dudley, both of Ann Arbor; his sisters, Irene Adair of Phoenix and Marie Brady of Tucson, Arizona; four grandchildren an nieces and nephews.

On August 18, 1945, he married Mary A. Seyfried. Mr. Jahnke served in WWII, from August 1942 until November 1945. He was an MP at Mitchel Field, New York and then in an Ordnance Ammunition Co. for the Army Air Force in England and France. He was very proud of his service.

Mr. Jahnke began playing the drums as a teenager, and although he never had any lessons, or was able to read music, he played in a dance band (first with his brother and sister-in-law Art and Erna Jahnke and then with other local groups, such as Joe Fodor and Eugene Schumann). He also played for 13 years with Luke Schaible's Sounds of Germany Band. He was a member of the American Federation of Musicians and was often called to fill in as a drummer. In 1999, a heart attack forced him to give up playing with the band, but he continued to play short programs, entertaining nursing homes and senior groups, with Eugene Schumann, Luke Schaible and Kenny Volz until October 2001.

He was a lifelong member of Bethlehem Church, Men's Breakfast Group, the Senior Group and the American Legion Erwin Prieskorn Post #46. Mr. Jahnke was also a charter member of Hemophilia of Michigan. Shorty retired after 37 years from Washtenaw County Road Commission Surveyors Dept. After retirement he volunteered for 20 years with the American Red Cross Blood Bank, often 2 or 3 times a week at the Center or on Mobil Banks. He also enjoyed traveling with senior groups, especially Pittsfield Seniors, and traveled to nearly all the United States, Canada and England. He ushered at Michigan Foot ball and Basketball games for many years.

Notes for Charles F. (Meyers) Myers:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Charles F. Meyers - It is a noticeable fact that the young men are at the head of leading business enterprises throughout the country, for their ready adaptability, marked energy and laudable ambition have enabled them to occupy positions of trust and responsibility and to carry forward to successful completion whatever they undertake. In this class belongs Mr. Meyers, who is now conducting a fine commercial and job printing business in Ann Arbor, his native city. He was born here on the 10th of March, 1869, being one of the three children of Simon and Christina (Schiltz) Meyers. The father is now engaged in merchandising in Ann Arbor. The younger brother, William, is engaged in the printing business with his brother, while the sister, Emma, died in November, 1895.

Having acquired his more specifically literary education in the public schools, Charles F. Meyers determined to learn the printer's art, and in pursuance of this desire, in October, 1884, obtained employment in the bindery of the establishment then known as the Ann Arbor Register. Two years later he entered the composing room of the same institution, where he worked himself up to the position of foreman. This place he held for several years, until he embarked in business for himself in 1897. His first location with his own printing establishment was at 105 South Main Street. In 1902 he moved to larger and more commodious quarters at 215 South Main Street. Here he is conducting a fine commercial and job printing business, which has reached such profitable proportions as to be one of the leading concerns of its kind in the city. In October, 1904, Mr. Meyers purchased the business block at 309 South Main Street, and to this more desirable location anticipates moving his growing business. He is a member of Ann Arbor Typographical Union and was the first among his competitors to consent to sign the agreement for an eight-hour day.

Mr. Meyers was married in 1900 to Miss Clara Maulbetsch, of Ann Arbor, and they have an interesting little son, Edward Horace, now four years of age. Mr. Meyers belongs to Fraternity lodge, No. 262, F. & A. M., and, having filled various chairs, is now master of that body. He has also taken the degree in the chapter and commandery, has "crossed the hot sands" in Moslem temple of the Mystic Shrine, of Detroit, and is a member of the Eastern Star. He is independent in political matters, holding himself free from party alliances. In matters of citizenship, however, he is interested and has co-operated in many measures for the general good and welfare of his native county. He concentrates his energies largely upon his business, which, conducted along modern lines and in keeping with progress in his art, has made him a prosperous representative of his chosen field of labor in Ann Arbor.

Notes for William Frederick Bohnet:

William F. Bohnet, 83, founder of the electrical company bearing his name at 331 N. Washington Ave., Lansing, Michigan, died at 1 p.m. Friday August 11, 1961 at Edward W. Sparrow hospital after a short illness. He lived at 1408 W. Washtenaw St. At his bedside was his daughter, Mrs. Harold (Helen) Walter, of 3234 S. Cambridge Rd. She had cut short a European trip, rushing home by airliner from Rome to be with her father. Mr. Bohnet died of an ailment diagnosed by his family doctor as multiple myeloma, a bone disease, with which he was stricken in May. He was hospitalized May 28, released June 27 and rushed back to the hospital on Aug. 3, when he suffered a relapse. A resident of Lansing for 66 years, Mr. Bohnet came here as a lad with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bohnet, from Jackson County. He was born there. From E. P. Kinney, who operated an electrical company, he learned the electrician trade. He also met his future wife, then Phebe Crofts, at the Kinney company. She worked there as a bookkeeper. Three years before establishing his own electrical company (1906) he married Miss Crofts in the brick house that still stands on the northwest corner of Saginaw and Chestnut Sts. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Crofts. She died in 1953. Establishing their home at 521 N. Walnut St., Mr. Bohnet and his wife lived there until about 1945 when they moved to 1408 W. Washtenaw St.

Founding his electrical firm in the 100 block of E. Ottawa St., in the vicinity of the site formerly occupied by Barker-Fowler, Mr. Bohnet later took into the company his brothers, Ernest and Herman. Herman left the firm to open his own business. Since Mr. Bohnet retired in 1947, the business has been operated by Ernest and his son, Ronald. Later, Mr. Bohnet moved the electrical company to 326-327 N. Washington Ave. before locating at 331 N. Washington Ave. With his brother, George, who preceded him in death by three weeks, Mr. Bohnet assembled the city's first steam car to be successfully operated, shortly after the turn of the century. Unassuming about his accomplishments, Mr. Bohnet usually devoted his thoughts and efforts toward the future. Occasionally, he did reminisce telling about the wiring of the county building at Mason and the Shiawassee County building at Corunna. Affiliations included the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church and Lansing Lodge 196, B. P. O. Elks.

Besides the daughter, he is survived by two grandsons, James F. Walter of Lansing and Gordon E. Walter of Holland; two brothers, Ernest H. and Herman C. Bohnet, both of Lansing; and two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Turner of Lansing and Mrs. Emma Spathelf of Big Rapids.

The body was removed to the Estes-Leadley funeral home. where funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Monday in the Colonial chapel. Rev. R. E. Eshmeyer, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, who cut short a vacation, will conduct the rites. Burial will be in Mt. Hope cemetery. Pallbearers will be nephews, Ronald E. Bohnet, Kenneth C. Bohnet, Victor F. Spathelf, Harold C. Crofts, William G. Crofts and Elver Ostrom.

William F. Bohnet of 1408 W. Washtenaw St., Lansing, age 83 years, died Aug. 11, 1961 at a local hospital. He had been a resident of Lansing for 66 years and was the founder of the Bohnet Electric company, retiring several years ago. He married Phebe A. Crofts in 1903 and she preceded him in death in 1953. He was a member of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed church and member of the B.P.O.E. No. 196.

Bohnet Electric company, died Sunday afternoon June 14, 1953 in a local hospital. Mrs. Bohnet's death was the culmination of an illness dating back to the early spring when she suffered a stroke and was hospitalized for several weeks. She had returned to her home, apparently well recovered from that illness, when she suffered a severe heart attack seven weeks ago while working among the gardens at her home and was removed to the hospital. A member of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Mrs. Bohnet had served as president of the women's guild and the missionary society, as well as treasurer of the Sunday school. Notes for Victor Franz Spathelf:

Big Rapids - Victor F. Spathelf is retiring this year as president of Ferris State College, a job he has held for the past 18 years. In a letter to the school's Board of Control, the 60-year-old Spathelf said he will retire Dec. 15 with the thought in mind that "the college is once again in a forward momentum." In an apparent reference to scattered racial incidents which flared on the Ferris State campus during the early months of 1969, Spathelf said he would have retired earlier "were it not for the unforeseen interim developments which I felt challenged the well-being of the institution."

During Spathelf's tenure, which began only two years after the college became a state institution, Ferris' enrollment grew from 700 students to a predicted 9,000 for this fall. He had also seen the school receive full accreditation and its campus, the center of this West Michigan community, expand from 19 to 470 acres. Spathelf, who held various administrative posts at Wayne State University in Detroit before coming to Ferris, said his retirement plans include "taking a vacation to recharge my batteries."

Victor Franz Spathelf, son of Eugene H. Spathelf and Emma Rae (?), was born on 29 March 1911 in Benton Harbor, Berrien County, Michigan. He lived with his parents, Emma and Eugene, in 1920 at 308 Harrison Avenue in Elkhart, Elkhart County, Indiana. In 1928 he ran on Wayne State University's mile relay team. Victor Franz Spathelf was employed by principal of Madison High School at Royal Oak and athletic director; superintendent of schools for District 19 in Royal Oak Township and assistant superintendent of Highland Park schools. Victor Franz was Director of Student Affairs from 1946 to 1952 at Wayne State University, Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan.

Victor Franz was as president from 9 July 1952 to 15 December 1970 at Ferris College, Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan. When his track coach at Wayne State University, David L. Holmes, retired in June, 1959, Victor gave him a blanket and plaque commemorating a half century of coaching. The presentation was made at a dinner for Ferris College athletic letter winners.

In March 1969, 250 Ferris students staged a lock-in at the school auditorium. Eighty-five riot equipped state troopers, sent at the request of Victor Spathelf, shattered the main glass door to the building and routed the demonstrators. After the incident he announced a set of "get tough" student conduct rules saying the disorders resulted from irresponsible behavior of a group of students. On June 5 1971 he delivered the commencement address at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan. At that time he received an honorary doctor of laws degree. Victor died on 6 October 1998 in Sarasota County, Florida, at age 87.

Notes for Joyce Marie Finkbeiner:

Joyce Marie Finkbeiner, age 92, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, passed away peacefully on Saturday, December 2, 2023. Joyce was born on January 6, 1931 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, to parents Henry and Ida (Tirb) Finkbeiner and raised in the area with her older siblings, Stanley and Caroline. After graduating from Ann Arbor High School, Joyce enrolled in classes at Eastern Michigan University where she would earn a bachelor's degree in education. She relocated to Saginaw, Michigan to teach at an elementary school for a year, however, returned home to Ann Arbor where she lived with her mother, Ida, and taught in the Plymouth Public School System. While teaching at Smith Elementary, Joyce earned a master's degree in education from EMU. She dedicated her life to growing, developing, and teaching young minds for forty years. Being surrounded by youthful and exciting energy brought her years of joy and fond memories.

During the summer months you could find Joyce enjoying life at her cottage at Black Lake, Michigan. This was a special place for her and she was always eager to welcome her family members for summer visits. Joyce was easily everyone's favorite aunt and could create fun out of anything. She made sure to supply the cottage with crossword puzzles, board games, including competitive games of Scrabble, and kept the arts and crafts supplies well stocked. Just before closing the cottage up in the fall, Joyce would invite her siblings and their spouses up for "fall fishing," where they would fish all day to stock up on perch for the year. She looked forward to this every year.

She was always active and enjoyed many activities such as golf and bowling and even joined local leagues where she made several loyal friends. An avid walker, she found a great sense of peacefulness being outdoors and exploring nature. For many years, Joyce was a dedicated volunteer for The Breakfast Program at St. Andrews where she helped to serve no-cost meals to those struggling to make ends meet in the Ann Arbor area. Joyce was also a lifelong member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ in Ann Arbor, where she created special relationships with members over the years.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Ida Finkbeiner; her brother, Stanley Finkbeiner; as her sister, Caroline Bannan. Joyce will be remembered by sister-in-law, Arlene Finkbeiner; her brother-in-law, Elmer Bannan; her five nieces and nephews, David (Betsy McLernon) Finkbeiner, Linda (Alan) Smith, Margaret (Robert Johnson) Bannan, Brian (Colleen) Bannan, and Greg (Esenija) Bannan; as well as eight great nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, January 6, 2024 at 11:00 am at StoryPoint Saline - 6230 S State Rd, Saline. In lieu of flowers, member contributions can be made to Bethlehem UCC, 424 S. 4th Ave., Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104.

Notes for Dr. Wayne Edward Leshar:

Lansing - Dr. Wayne Edward Leshar passed away peacefully Saturday morning October 17, 2020. Wayne was born on August 8, 1923 in Hillsdale, Michigan the son of Clyde and Della (Mathews) Leshar. The family moved to University Grove area of East Lansing in 1925 with the idea that all the children could easily attend college if they were near campus. He did receive all his degrees from Michigan State including a Bachelors in Civil Engineering, a Masters and Doctorate in Higher and Continuing Education. Wayne's education was interrupted by being called to active duty in the US Army Air Corps. He chose to become a navigator on a B-17 bomber flying out of Italy in the 15th Air Force. Lt Leshar was wounded by flak on a mission, sent to Rome to recover, received a Purple Heart medal and returned to complete the rest of his missions. While recuperating in Rome he had the opportunity to explore the city. He was approached with an invitation to the Vatican for a private audience with Pope Pius XII. It was one of the highlights in his life. In 2018 he was inducted into the Lansing Community College Veterans Memorial.

After the war Wayne returned to complete his education and had many jobs including surveyor, engineer, and teacher at Ferris State University, Lansing Community College, and Grand Rapids Junior College. At Ferris, he was hired to develop curriculum for a degree in surveying. He was most proud of this, as there was very few programs available anywhere in the country. Wayne made it clear in the curriculum that no women were allowed to take these courses. At that time, he did not feel that women should be doing the physically demanding and dirty work that was required on the job. He realized in later years that this was not at all the case. During the war Wayne met a beautiful young woman in Texas and immediately fell in love. Miss California 1945, was a rising hollywood starlet, and placed 5th in the Miss America Pageant that year. Years later, after the war, they were married in California but the marriage ended 2 years later in divorce.

Wayne returned to Lansing where he worked for the State of Michigan and met the true love of his life, Dorothy Below. Dorothy was an educated adventurous woman and loved to travel. She was a woman of very deep faith and encouraged Wayne to become baptized at the age of 48. Wayne shared with her his deep love of the outdoors and communing with nature. He introduced her to fishing and camping and their honeymoon was rustic camping on Isle Royale. Dorothy fed wild animals out of her hands. She learned about geology and rock collecting and she became very good at fishing. Wayne's favorite destinations were northern Michigan, the Upper Peninsula and Canada. He traveled to the UP by the train ferry before the bridge was built and being an engineer, took pictures of the construction on his way across.

Wayne was extremely generous and caring of others. He was invited to share his WWII experiences to the young men of the Christian Service Brigade. This was the very first time Wayne shared his experiences about the war with anyone and he was quite nervous about it. He stated that by doing this the Brigade helped him more that he helped them and continued to do this for over 15 years. Wayne grew up with and loved all cats, but especially his last cat Nicky who probably gave him 2 more years of life. He enjoyed feeding the birds, squirrels and other animals in his yard, gardening in a neck tie, bowling, attending church and bible study, playing the mandolin and harmonica. He did admit he was a bad singer. Wayne was loved by so many neighbors, friends and family and will be greatly missed.

Wayne is survived by his cousin Shirley Butcher and her daughter Kathy Butcher Everhart (David Everhart), 5 nieces and 1 nephew. Kris Engstrom, Karin Lund (Wally Lund), Karel Engstrom (Scott Lankton), Phyllis Hunt (David Lind), Roberta Hunt, Alan Hunt. He also cherished 9 great nieces and nephews and 12 great great nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Dorothy, sister Marjorie Hunt, and sister Audrey Engstrom (Robert Engstrom) and cousin Connie O'Neal (Doyle O'Neal).

Memorial service will be held at St. Stephen Lutheran Fellowship Hall on 2900 N. Waverly Rd in Lansing on Saturday November 21, 2020 at 11am. The Hall is large enough to safely social distance, but please wear a mask. Burial to follow at Bosworth Cemetery in Olivet at 1pm. In lieu of flowers please donate to the charity of your choice. Wayne donated to a multitude of charities and wherever you choose was probably on his list. Arrangements by Tiffany Funeral Home.

Marriage Notes for John Girbach and Carol Uphaus:

On Saturday evening, October 7, 1950, Miss Carol B. Uphaus, daughter of Benjamin Uphaus and the late Mrs. Uphaus of Saline, became the bride of John Stanley Girbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Girbach of Clinton. The eight o'clock candlelight service was performed by Rev. Henry McKenzie at the Federated church in Saline before immediate relatives and close friends. Baskets of white gladioli and palms formed the background for the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Robert Girbach, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was organist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white ballerina length gown of illusion net over taffeta with a bolero jacket and cummerbund of satin. Her shoulder length veil of illusion net fell from an embroidered bonnet. She carried white roses and mums centered with yellow roses. Miss Shirley Ann Uphaus, as maid of honor, was her sister's only attendant. Her ballerina length gown of Nile green was styled similarly to that of the bride and her bonnet and slippers were of the same shade as her gown. She carried yellow pompoms. Harold Girbach acted as best man for his brother and seating the guests were Ralph Uphaus, brother of the bride, and Clarence Girbach, brother of the bridegroom.

Notes for Dean Benjamin Girbach:

Jan. 15, 2004 – It's not official, but Dean Girbach isn't denying that he could run for mayor later this year. The lifelong resident of Saline just wrapped up a 6-year stint on the Saline City Council, and now plans to "stay involved" with various city commissions, as well as acclimating to a new position at the University of Michigan, where he now is administrative manager for the dean of the School of Public Health. A 1981 graduate of Saline High, Girbach earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from Eastern, and later obtained his master's in business administration. He has worked at U-M for 18 years, mostly at the U-M Dental School. "I'm still on some 'alphabet' boards, TIFA, the EDC, and the EDC Trust," he commented. "The EDC (is concerned with) assessing what's going on in economic development and finding ways to keep vitality in the city."

Girbach said of his decision not to seek a fourth term that he felt the need to step back and take stock, look at what is going on in his life and in the city, and reflect on the things he has learned since being elected to city council in 1998. That year, John and Carol Girbach, Dean's parents, sued the city over a condemnation lawsuit, charging that the city "induced" them to accept the city's offer of $40,000 for a 105' x 30' parcel that the city used in the parking lot reconstruction behind Murphy's Crossing.

The case eventually was dismissed by Judge Melinda Morris, but it left its mark on the younger Girbach. He was spurred on to seek a seat on the City Council. "The problem was that the city said it was going to do one thing and then changed the plan to a plaza," Girbach explained. "Part of my concern was I didn't want to see something like that to happen to anyone else without dialogue between the parties involved." Girbach, whose family has owned the buildings now housing Accent Jewelers and Harold's Barber Shop in Saline's downtown for 75 years, also was provoked by what seemed to be the city's dismissal of the "old" for the "new" in the litigation that involved his parents. "Growth is important, but there are people who have here for generations," Girbach said. "When you are talking about redeveloping downtown, you have long-time business and property owners who have committed to the city. You need to make sure that they aren't tossed away in favor of newcomers." Other areas that he would like to see get some attention include developing a joint planning committee with Saline and Lodi townships, and moving forward with the Link Michigan internet connection program. "We also need to be supporting the Rec Center," he said. "The Rec Center and the rec programs need the support of everyone, not just the schools." He added: "I see the CARES millage as the financial support authorized by everyone (for recreation). However, it appears it may not be avail been able to provide support for the Rec Center and its activities. The city needs to decide what kind of center it wants and then figure out how to support it. Preferably through support from the schools(as in CARES), but more likely an independent operating millage approved by the voters."

In the plus column, Girbach said he was very proud to have been part of the council when it authorized televising meetings in 1998. "As much as some people think it's a circus show, peopledo watch it," he said. "The survey of Saline showed that a lot of people watch it. It's our responsibility to get the information out there, and continue to look at what the council can do tomake more people aware of what's going onto better inform them. People would benefit knowing more about what their government is doing."

Other memorable moments include helping get the Sauk Trail Business Park up and running, and the new city hall project. "I was really happy to be part of keeping city hall downtown and bringing the police there, too," Girbach said. One of his worst moments on council, he said, involved the now-defunct skate park. "I think I really jumped too soon and made the decision to close the skate, park," he admitted. "I should have thought it out more and not reacted so quickly." In the last couple of years, Girbach said that he has sensed a shift in priorities for the city council, which is part of the reason he chose to take a step back and assess his public service. "We really need to find ways of getting more input from other groups in our city as it grows," he said. "It's better to have more input and not have decisions made by committee. We need to have options, and we need to figure out how to better approach our priorities." Girbach has been known to oppose virtually every request for zoning variances that have come before the ZBA, which until Jan. 1, was a secondary responsibility of the city council.

"We have zoning ordinances," he commented. "If people are going to be forced to request a variance because of the zoning laws, then those laws need to be changed if they are outdatedor unreasonable. "I think that another issue with that is that we don't hold developers accountable. The expectation is that when a developer makes an agreement or promise, he is going to follow through or else have an extremely good reason for requesting a variance. "There has been no consistency here."

Overall, he said, "the council needs to look at how it best can use (commissions) and get more involvement from commissioners in idea generating. "The council needs to be generating ideas with input from commissions rather than just throwing out its ideas," he said. Running for mayor, he said, "is always an option. "I've been on the City Council for 6 years and I've enjoyed every minute of it. "I know that I've made decisions and voted on issues that maybe people disagreed with and I didn't always make friends, but I did what I thought was best for Saline and would continue to do that in the future."

Notes for Karl Walter Seeger:

Carl Seeger Kicked By Fractious Horse

One of the most painful accidents ever to take place in this vicinity occurred Monday afternoon July 26, 1937. A truck bearing a load of horses broke down near the Matthew Seeger farm and the driver asked the privilege of putting the horses in their barn until he could phone Detroit and have another truck sent out. Permission was given and the animals placed in the stalls. One horse which seemed nervous and more fidgety and temperamental than the rest was placed in the end stall where he would be quieter and not disturb the others so much.

Mr. Seeger and his son, Carl, had just returned from the mill. Cautioning them to keep away from the horses, as they were entirely strange to him, the truck driver left for a neighbor's house to telephone. Carl, having a great love for animals and thinking he could calm the high strung horse, went into the stall to pet and soothe him. The animal kicked him in the hip, knocking him down, then stepped on his arm, breaking it above the elbow; a second kick resulted in a fractured skull. He was rescued from beneath the animal's feet by members of the family. Seriously bruised and injured he was brought to the hospital immediately, where he was given medical and surgical attention.

April 23, 1953 – Mr. Carl Seeger, dairy farmer, resides at 8900 Fosdick Rd. Mr. Seeger is a life-long resident of this area. He attended Dell School and graduated from Saline High School in 1934. Prior to the purchase of his farm in 1950, he was employed at the King Seeley and Argus companies. He is the father of three children. Mr. Seeger served for six years as the treasurer of the Fosdick School District and is a member of the Saline Area Educational Advisory Council.

Carl Seeger, 81, died September 10, 1997 at Saline Community Hospital. Mr. Seeger was born December 21, 1915 in Saline, the son of Matthew and Mary (Wachenhut) Seeger. On January 28, 1939, he married Florence Girbach in Saline and she survives. Carl was a lifelong member of the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Saline, where he had served on many boards and councils. A local farmer, Carl retired from Uniloy in 1979, where he had worked as a machinist.

He was preceded in death by an infant son, Stanley; three brothers, Frederick, Paul and Matthew (Buddy) Seeger; and two sisters, Elsie Bush and Lorena (Pat) Heininger.

April 25, 2002 - By Renee Lapham Collins Associate Editor In its "World Fact Book," the Central Intelligence Agency defines Cambodia as a "land of paddies and forests dominated by the Mekong River and Tonle Sap," with an estimated population of more than 12 million. The Southeast Asia country grabbed headlines in the 1960s and 1970s when U.S. involvement in Vietnam was at its peak, and in 1975 when more than a million people were killed by communist Khmer Rouge forces. After a 13-year war with its Vietnamese neighbors to the east, the United Nations intervened and helped Cambodians bring some sense of order to their chaotic government. Still, Cambodia is considered a third-world nation filled with poverty, disease, and a population with a life expectancy of less than 60 years. Many families, seeking a better life for their children, abandon them at orphanages, where they are sought for international adoption. Such an orphanage currently is the home of a 7-month-old girl that has been adopted by Diane and Richard Alber of York Township. The couple, already the parents of four grown children and grandparents as well, have been waiting since December to pick up the daughter they plan to call Malaya. "We received our approval September 12, and found out that the Embassy in Cambodia had received it," says Diane. "We thought, what a blessing, soon we'd get a referral. And on September 28, we did." But allegations of baby trafficking and reports of Cambodian women having their children stolen for sale internationally shook the INS, which already was reeling from the September 11 fallout, and delayed hundreds of foreign adoptions. "We should have had our decree and been able to go and pick her up since we had our approval long before December," says Diane. "But, things were at a standstill because of the Cambodian Embassy, and December 21, the INS called for a moratorium on U.S. families adopting children from Cambodia." The country is one of the most popular for prospective parents because adoptions reportedly are completed much more quickly than in other countries.

"Since the process isn't that long, we expected to have her soon," says Diane. The Albers are concerned for the health of their adopted daughter. In Cambodia, Diane explains, "once children are 8 years old, if they aren't adopted from the orphanages, they are turned out in the streets to try and make it on their own. "Many of the children in the orphanages are sick, malnourished, and need medical attention," she adds. Diane thought at first it was a case of the "empty nest" syndrome, but, once their four children were grown and on their own, "we had time to do other things besides raising children, but we felt like something was missing in our lives." She and Richard first considered adopting another child in 1998, but found that adopting a child from the U.S. was difficult. "We made many calls to many agencies to adopt, and finally I talked with a person that I knew had adopted a U.S. child," Diane recalls. "She told me that if she considered adoption again, she would pursue an international adoption. "Most of the children in the U.S. are bounced from foster home to foster home before they are placed into adoption. The wait was very long, and the cost overwhelming." Members of Fellowship Baptist Church, the Albers had seen a brochure tacked to the church's bulleting board about a meeting in which they could get more information on adopting a child from China. At that time, they decided the cost was "more than we could afford," but after investigating the possibilities of adopting a U.S. child, they turned again to the international scene. "We decided the Lord was leading us to reconsider China," says Diane. "We searched on the Internet and made many calls, and Finally found an agency." They attended a meeting, put in an application and continued with applying for the I-600-A orphan petition for International Adoption. The process is a long one, but it went smoothly for the Albers. "We didn't know where we would get the money to pursue this, but as time went on, the Lord started to provide income," Diane says. "My son hired me to work as a secretary for his carpet cleaning business, and we gave up our yearly vacation and a new car." As part of the adoption procedure, a social worker had to conduct a home study, and the Albers had to provide proof of income, marriage, birth certificates, and be fingerprinted and investigated by the FBI. "In July 1999, we received our approval to adopt, and our petition was sent to China in August," says Diane. "Then the wait began." Eight months later, the Albers received word that they would be able to adopt a little girl, and in May 2000, they traveled to China to pick up Shiyona, who now is 4. "She runs to every baby she sees," says Diane. "She was raised with a baby in China, and she misses her.

Richard decided that the Lord was again speaking to us to adopt another child, and we asked our social worker what she thought. "She said that if we did indeed adopt another child, we needed to choose a younger child since Shiyona is doing so well." ' Richard says he balked at adopting a child at first, because he felt they had raised their children, but soon changed his mind. Says Diane with a smile, "When we talked about adopting a second child, he was the one who wanted to do it and I was the one who was hesitating. Then, when we talked Richard woke me up one night and said that the Lord told him not to worry about his age. Richard felt it would be best for Shiyona to have a sister to grow up with." Since hearing that their decree has been held up, Diane and Richard have been "faxing, e-mailing, and calling our senators and congressmen. "Some of them are members of the adoption coalition," she says. "Senator Carl Levin is one of them. Senator Debbie Stabenow's office also has been involved in trying to help the families proceed to bring their children home to the U.S." Some families are receiving their decrees, including several who were on the waiting list behind the Albers. In particular, Diane points to actress Angelina Jolie, who with, her husband, Billy Bob Thornton, picked up her adopted Cambodian child while on a location shoot for a new movie in Africa. Jolie starred in The Bone Collector and Lara Croft: Tomb Raider. According to an article published by the Associated Press, Cambodia is the ninth largest source of foreign babies adopted by Americans, with upward of 100 children each month being picked up by their new American parents. Diane, who continues to work with their son for Authentic Cleaning, was born and raised in Milan. Her father, Charles Woolcott, was a barber. Richard grew up on a farm in York Township—in fact, the Albers live on property that once belonged to Richard's parents. He graduated from Saline High School with a number of record-breaking performances in track, and now works for Russell Finch and Sons Trucking in Milan. Diane says that she and Richard have a friendly rivalry when the Big Reds and the Hornets face off in prep sports. Three of their children were in the Milan High band program, their youngest attended Saline Schools, and their granddaughters have been involved in Milan swimming. "We really have been blessed," she says. "We love each of our children and grand-children."

The Albers hope to go to Cambodia and bring their new daughter, 7-month-old Malaya, home. children dearly," The Albers have been in touch with a number of other families who are in the same boat—with children awaiting them in Cambodian orphanages. Already, some of them have marched on Washington, D.C. in hopes of expediting the process. In March, the INS announced that dozens of parents who had been waiting for their adopted children could see the paperwork finalized by April. Diane and Richard are hopeful that they will be among those who will finally get their "visa appointment" in Cambodia, the last step before they receive the INS immigration visa for their daughter. A second march is being planned for May, depending on the outcome of the latest announcement. Diane says that she would be willing to go to Washington and be part of the second march because she feels that the INS and state department have not been consistent or fair in determining which children will be allowed to leave the country with new adoptive parents and which will remain behind. "We can only pray that our government is listening to the pleas of other parents and that all the families who are involved in this situation will be allowed to proceed. "The government can change the process later if it needs to be changed, but right now, these children need to be allowed to come home." Diane says she 'and Richard could have adopted another child from China, but age requirements would not allow them to receive a child younger than Shiyona. So they continue to wait. "In our hearts, we feel that these children need families, love, and homes to call their own," says Diane of the Albers' decision to adopt Shiyona and Malaya. "We feel that if we would not have been led to adopt, Shiyona might not have had this opportunity. To hear her say that she loves family and that she has said those words so many times is just awesome. "Having Shiyona has been nothing less than a blessing—we have enjoyed every moment. "The truth is, we are the ones that have received the blessing and our lives would not have seen this kind of joy if we hadn't been led to adopt Shiyona."

Notes for Karl Walter Seeger:

Carl Seeger Kicked By Fractious Horse

One of the most painful accidents ever to take place in this vicinity occurred Monday afternoon July 26, 1937. A truck bearing a load of horses broke down near the Matthew Seeger farm and the driver asked the privilege of putting the horses in their barn until he could phone Detroit and have another truck sent out. Permission was given and the animals placed in the stalls. One horse which seemed nervous and more fidgety and temperamental than the rest was placed in the end stall where he would be quieter and not disturb the others so much.

Mr. Seeger and his son, Carl, had just returned from the mill. Cautioning them to keep away from the horses, as they were entirely strange to him, the truck driver left for a neighbor's house to telephone. Carl, having a great love for animals and thinking he could calm the high strung horse, went into the stall to pet and soothe him. The animal kicked him in the hip, knocking him down, then stepped on his arm, breaking it above the elbow; a second kick resulted in a fractured skull. He was rescued from beneath the animal's feet by members of the family. Seriously bruised and injured he was brought to the hospital immediately, where he was given medical and surgical attention.

April 23, 1953 – Mr. Carl Seeger, dairy farmer, resides at 8900 Fosdick Rd. Mr. Seeger is a life-long resident of this area. He attended Dell School and graduated from Saline High School in 1934. Prior to the purchase of his farm in 1950, he was employed at the King Seeley and Argus companies. He is the father of three children. Mr. Seeger served for six years as the treasurer of the Fosdick School District and is a member of the Saline Area Educational Advisory Council.

Carl Seeger, 81, died September 10, 1997 at Saline Community Hospital. Mr. Seeger was born December 21, 1915 in Saline, the son of Matthew and Mary (Wachenhut) Seeger. On January 28, 1939, he married Florence Girbach in Saline and she survives. Carl was a lifelong member of the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Saline, where he had served on many boards and councils. A local farmer, Carl retired from Uniloy in 1979, where he had worked as a machinist.

She was born 21 Aug 1915 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 23 Oct 1996 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Norman Emanuel Scherdt:

Norm Scherdt, a spry 91, headed uptown to get a haircut one morning last month, carefully driving his blue Ford Taurus to the appointed destination. As was his custom, Mr. Scherdt arrived, early for his date with the clippers, so prompt that Bill's Barbershop wasn't yet open on that snowy Saline morning. While a cup of coffee may have beckoned a few steps, away, Scherdt decided instead that it was high time to get to work. "The sidewalk was covered with snow, so Norm went into his trunk, got out a snow shovel, and began shoveling the walk in front of the barbershop," recalled Kelven Braun, who along with his brother Howard were lifelong friends of Scherdt. "Within a few minutes, he had shoveled the sidewalk and then was ready to get his hair cut. That's the kind of guy he was. He was always thinking of others and he loved to stay busy, right up until the final day."

That day, ironically enough, came on another "snow day" in Saline, when Scherdt died while clearing his drive of the white stuff with his beloved daughter Betsy Marl nearby. "I called him around 6:15 last Thursday morning and he greeted me with a chipper, 'snow day,'" said Marl, a teacher at Houghton School where classes were idled that day by the winter weather. "By the time I got to his house around 7:45, he had already cleared his sidewalk and was working on the driveway. I went into the garage to get a shovel and then I heard the snow blower banging into the wall and saw that he had collapsed. It was difficult to see, but I was so glad that I was there. That's the way he would have wanted to go, or with a rake in his hand or on a lawn mower. He never wanted to be a burden on anyone and he would never have wanted to be hospitalized or in a nursing home."

A native of Lodi Township, Scherdt spent nearly four decades with Ford Motor Co., beginning his career with the giant automaker in rural outposts before retiring from the maintenance department in 1978 at the Ypsilanti Plant. "He worked at the Ford soybean mills and helped build the dams in Manchester and in Saline," recalled Braun. "He never missed a day of work at Ford. I remember one time that he was so sick that when he showed up for work on a Friday his supervisor thought he was drunk. It turned out he had double pneumonia. By the time Monday rolled around, he was back to work. He was an amazing guy, one of a kind. They don't make 'em like Norm anymore."

Scherdt also enjoyed a second career of sorts, assisting Francis Lockwood, Jerry Bahnmitter, and Jim Robison with various duties at the funeral home in Saline during a 45-year span. "Norm was a great employee and an even better friend," said Bahnmitter, who owned the funeral home in Saline for some 20 years. "He always was ready to help and he planned everything down to a T. He died with his boots on, which is the way he wanted to go." During his career in the funeral home profession, Bahnmitter prided himself on running a tight ship, where punctuality was uppermost in mind. "Norm was very meticulous and he had plans for his funeral written out in great detail," said Bahnmitter. "I can remember him telling me, 'Make sure it's started on time.'"

Timeliness and orderliness were Scherdt trademarks, character traits that his many friends and admirers appreciated. "You could set your clock to my Dad's daily routine," said Marl. "He was very precise in everything he did and he did every job to the best of his ability. He also was so grateful to the many people who looked out after him—the Brauns, the Wellers, the Laidlaws, Jerry Bahnmitter, and some of his other neighbors."

Services were held last Saturday at St. Paul United Church of Christ, where he had been a longtime member with his wife of 58 years, Lorena, who died in 1996. Fittingly, Bahnmitter was in the funeral hearse for Scherdt's "last ride" to Oakwood Cemetery where he was buried on a snow-swept January day. But not before he had successfully completed another assignment for his daughter, one of Saline's favorite elementary teachers. "Charlene Stoddard and I have a tradition in our classes each holiday season of giving some small gifts to our students in coffee cans that we specially decorate for the occasion," said Marl. "My Dad would collect coffee cans from his friends and paint them red for us to decorate. When I went into his basement the other day, he probably had about 200 cans lined up, all neatly painted and ready to go, just as I would have expected of him."

Norman E. Scherdt of Saline, Michigan, age 91, died Thursday, January 6, 2005 in Saline, Michigan. He was born February 12, 1913 in Lodi Twp., Michigan the son of Emanuel and Martha (Geisel) Scherdt. He had been a Saline-Lodi Twp. resident all of his life. On May 14, 1938, from her parent's home in Lodi Twp., Michigan he was married to Lorena Wolfe and she preceded him in death on October 23, 1996. Norm was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ of Saline. He had been employed by the Ford Motor Company for over 39 years until his retirement in 1978 and the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline for over 45 years.

Survivors include one daughter, Betsy (Gary) Marl of Saline, Michigan and one grandson, Brian Marl, also of Saline. Other survivors include three sisters-in-law, Margaret Feldkamp, Virginia Hieber, Esther Schaible; and several nieces and nephews.

Marriage Notes for Erwin Feldkamp and Hermine Kohler:

An attractive but simple wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kohler Saturday evening August 10, 1940, when their daughter, Hermine, became the bride of Erwin Feldkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Feldkamp, of Saline Township. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Wittbracht. The bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with a lace bodice waist and lace straps across the shoulder. Her veil was shoulder length with lace insets and held in place by a narrow tiara of roses. She carried a colonial bouquet of white rosebuds.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mildred Kohler, sister of the bride wore a floor length gown, of pale blue net and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Dorothy Kohler a sister of the bride, as the bride ascended the stairs on the arm of her bridesmaid and the entire party formed in front of groupings of palms and baskets of garden flowers. Preceding the serve, Miss Hilda Hertler and Mrs. Leland Dicks, aunt of the bride sang "Oh Sweet Mystery of Life" and "I Love You Truly."

The other attendants were Miss Hertler, as junior bridesmaid, and Maxine Hertler, flower girl both cousins of the bride. Melvin Roehm, a nephew of the groom, carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for the immediate families and friends, and assisting in serving were Miss Wilma Kohler, Florence Kohler and Mrs. Ida Brown. Guests were present from Saline, Clinton and Ann Arbor. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake with miniature bride and groom, flanked by silver candelabra holding tall white tapers. Mr. and Mrs. Feldkamp left on short wedding trip and on their return will be at their home which they recently purchased on the Ann Arbor-Saline Road. A week ago last Saturday a shower was held for the couple by a large group of friends and relatives at the Polar Bear Inn. They received many lovely gifts.

Notes for Rudolph Clifford Feldkamp:

December 21, 1944 - Mrs. Rudolph Feldkamp received the Honor Medal of her husband, which was awarded to him for his courage and bravery in saving the lives of 50 men while serving on the Anzia beach head. Pfc. Feldkamp has been overseas 23 months and saw action in North Africa, Sicily, Italy, Anzio Beach head with the 5th Army in Rome, Southern France and is now with the 7th Army in Germany.

May 24, 1945 - Evidence of proof that Saline boys were among the conquerors of Nazi Germany are beginning to arrive in the homes of the community and Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Feldkamp are quite proud of the collection they have already received from their son, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp, of the Anit-Tank Co., 30th Infantry, with the Seventh Army. During the past couple of weeks they have not had a letter from him, but several packages have arrived with interesting contents. Just a few days ago they received one containing a German Gun, a regular shotgun with three barrels, two of which are average size and the third about as large as the others. The cartridges are contained in a special compartment in the stock. It is complete with carrier strap.

Articles included in other packages were several steins. One was of clear glass with a patriotic crest on the front side. Another was an ornate affair of porcelain, standing almost a foot high including the cover, which was of carved metal on top of which was the replica of a German infantryman. Around the sides of the stein in vivid colors and embossing were pictures of German infantrymen and other battle scenes. An inscription around the top and another around the bottom indicated that it was a souvenir in memory of service granted during a previous war to the Duchy of Hesse and an allied province. On one side was a toast in rhyme to the valor of the German Infantry and on the other side was a toast to the Duke and the Fatherland. One cup of ordinary size had the colored picture of a patriotic crest around which was the inscription: "Wir Deutsche fuerchten Gott und Niemandanders". (We Germans fear God and no one else). There were two briar pipes of unique shape. One bore the inscription on the bowl, hardly viable, "Heidelberg, SS 1910", and the other had a metal plate on the front with the words "Zur Erinnerung on meine Dienstzeit" (In memory of my period of service).

There were numerous other insignia, some presumably dedicatory name plates, and fronts of plaques. Several pieces of jewelry, a traveler's clock, a ring and necklace, bore the trademark of a Frankfurt jeweler. One package had been wrapped in a peculiar leather-like waterproof paper, and the individual articles were wrapped in the magazine sections of a Berlin paper. It is an interesting display and one thought crosses one's mind when looking at the articles—How deeply engrained in the minds of the German people was the life of militarism and the glories of war that it was even imprinted on their pipes, glassware and earthenware. They never allowed to forget them.

August 23, 1945 – Home with his honorable discharge papers which he received at Indiantown Gap, Mil Res., Pennsylvania, August 12, 1945, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp served overseas 30 months during which he took part in many battles. He served with the third division of the Seventh Army in Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggis, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe.

A member of the third division, which had more casualties than any other division in the European Theatre, Cpl. Feldkamp was never injured, although having close calls. A jeep driver all of the time, he had a total of 124 points, taking part in the battles of Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggia, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe. His hardest battle was on the Anzio Beachhead. Besides his truck driver's badge Cpl. Feldkamp wore the Soldier's Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Distinguished Unit, European, Africa, Middle Eastern Service Medal with eight bronze service stars and five overseas bars. After putting all these ribbons, stars and medals away with his uniform, the civilian now wears a small lapel button which represents his honorable discharge. It took, the corporal just four days from the time he left Casablanca, Africa, to get home and be a civilian again. He returned to the States by plane. A resident of Washtenaw County all his life, he is the husband of the former Margaret Wolf. He was in the armed forces 4 years, 5 months and 20 days. He feels pretty happy to be home again.

RUDY CELEBRATED HIS 63RD BIRTHDAY on November 16, 1980. Two days earlier, as a young man of only 62 years, Rudy Feldkamp reached another milestone that set him apart from practically everyone in this self-centered world. As he has done for many, many years, he gave another pint of blood at the Saline Red Cross Bloodmobile Clinic—and with that gift, Rudy Feldkamp became a 10-gallon giver. Red Cross officials declare that such a record is almost unheard-of anywhere. Young Rudy plans to keep adding to it, with more gifts of life. And he has a lot of helpers. Nephew Luther Marion in photo below with nurse and volunteer helper Mrs. Ed Barrett is building his pint-total just as Rudy did. Also noted as a special helper: Cathy Suiter Hills, who traveled over 100 miles to her former hometown and gave her pint here in Saline.

Rudolph C. (Rudy) Feldkamp of 8400 Weber Road, Saline 72, died suddenly February 9, 1990 in Dundee while unloading hay. He was born November 16, 1917 in Pittsfield Township, the son of Reuben and Amanda (Geisel) Feldkamp. Rudy had been a Saline area resident all of his life. He was a member of the United States Army serving in World War II. On April 3, 1942 in Tacoma, Washington, he married Margaret Wolfe of Saline and she survives. He was a member of the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom Township, and had served on the church board and cemetery committee for several years. He dedicated his life to his family and farming and had been a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and the Arnold Lake Farm Bureau Group.

Survivors in addition to his wife include: one daughter, Eleanor Feldkamp Beitelshes and her husband Terry of Saline; three beloved grandchildren, Kevin, Scott, and Kristen; two brothers, Glen Feldkamp and his wife Lucille of Saline, LeRoy and his wife Blanch of Dexter; four sisters, Mrs. Clarence (Loretta) Roehm of Saline, Mrs. Louell (Erma) Roehm of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Raymond (Alice) Wiedmayer of Manchester, and Mrs. Herman (Doris) Marion of Saline; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, Neil, Erwin, Milton, and Lloyd (Shorty) Feldkamp.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Feldkamp was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday evening September 25, 1937 when their daughter, Erma, became the bride of Louell Roehm, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roehm of US-112. Miss Beulah Roehm, sister of the groom, and Milton Feldkamp, brother of the bride, were the attendants. They took their places before an improvised altar banked with palms and flowers. Here Rev. C. H. Wittbracht read the marriage service. The bride wore a floor length gown of white organza with a corsage of pink tea roses held at the waist by a bow of white tulle. The bridesmaid wore green silk with a corsage of dainty rosebuds. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, pink and white being the color scheme, which was carried out in the refreshments.

Ice cream and cake were served to the 32 guests following the ceremony. George J. Feldkamp of Saline, grandfather of the bride, was present and also George Finkbeiner of Dexter, grandfather of the groom. Many lovely gifts were received by the bridal couple. The groom is employed west of town at present and the bride is employed in Ann Arbor.

He married Belva Hazel Robinson 24 Dec 1941 in St. Johns, Clinton Co, Michigan, daughter of Fred Robinson and E. ?. She was born 13 Oct 1915 in Clinton Co, Michigan, and died 23 May 2002 in Eagle Twp, Clinton Co, Michigan.

Notes for Russell Fred Howe:

In this period in history when easy mobility has scattered families over the entire country, there are some residents who have lived their whole lives within a short distance of where they were born, and near the homesteads of their ancestors.

When Russell Howe died in December of 1976, he had lived his entire life in Eagle Township. He was well-known throughout the area as the owner and operator of the Howe Turkey Farm. Russell had started raising a few turkeys while he was still at home with his parents, Lon and Clara Kebler Howe. After his marriage in 1941 to Belva Robinson, they continued raising turkeys. They also did general farming on their farm on State Road. Eventually, the turkey project grew to the point where they had their own dressing plant and freezer. They sold turkeys to stores and to retail customers for many miles around. At one time they marketed about twenty thousand turkeys.

Russell served for many years on the Board of Directors of the Michigan Turkey Growers Association and at one time was president of the organization. The Howes entered turkeys at the annual Turkey Festival, which was held in various localities throughout Michigan. They carried off many trophies during the 1940's and 1950's for the excellence of their product.

Many people were involved in the turkey production on the Howe Farm. In the early days Russell's father, Lon and his brother, Byron and Marvin, shared tools and labor on all four of the Howe farms. Byron and his wife, Leonore Simon Howe, owned and operated a farm on Howe Road. Byron also worked as a carpenter. Marvin and his wife, Mary Lapham Howe, had a dairy farm on Niles Road.

As the turkey business grew, it was necessary to enlist the help of many others. Vernon (Vern) and Mildred Robinson Bendt, a brother-in-law and sister of Belva, worked closely with the Howes during all of this time. Neal Kebler, Russell's cousin, worked with them for a time. Neighbors from all of the surrounding community came at holiday time to help dress turkeys.

The five Howe daughters grew up in the business; and as they became old enough to enter their own turkeys into competition they, too, won prizes, trophies, and scholarships with their turkey projects.

Russell was also known for his community involvement. He served as Eagle Township Supervisor and also held other township offices. He was active in Farm Bureau and was a 4-H leadurkey Farm. He was director of the rural Kebler School before it was annexed to the Grand Ledge District.

Two of the Howe daughters still live on the former Howe Turkey Farm. Lois and her husband, Roger Burghdoff, and their daughter Dana have purchased a large part of the parcel on the north side of State Road. They have built a home there and commute to Lansing, where Roger works at Oldsmobile and Lois is a nursing supervisor at Health Central.

Irene and her husband, Paul Herrera, and their daughter Lindsay live in the farm house and commute to Lansing where Irene works for the State Department of Education and Paul works for Hatzel and Buehler Electric. The Herrera's have purchased the farm on the south side of State Road except for a small lot where Belva lives side-by-side with Vern and Mildred Bendt. Vern commutes to his work at the Brown Corporation in Ionia.

The other Howe girls live farther away. Alice and her husband, Carl Kratochwill, and their children Erik and Hillarie live in Mason. Marguerite and her husband, Bert Levy, and their children Aaron and Shayna are in Louisville, Kentucky. Beverly and her husband, Kevin Anderson, and their daughter Lacey Marie live in Middlebury, Indiana.

Russell's father, Lon Howe, was one of the four children of Fred and Dana Howe. The others were Alta, who was married to Nathan Kebler, the brother of Lon's wife Clara; Bert, who was married to Ethlyn McCrumb; and Myrtie, who married Will Kebler, the uncle of Nathan and Clara. Bert is still alive and active. Ita's sons Robert and Howard and their children.

The descendants of Fred and Dana Howe who are still living in Eagle Township, in addition to Russell's children and grandchildren and his brothers, Byron and Marvin, are Alta's sons Robert and Howard and their children Belva Robinson Howe.

Notes for Elaine Alta Kebler:

Elaine Alta Kruger of Grand Ledge, age 93, completed her life's mission as a wife, mother, teacher, and mentor, on Thursday October 2, 2008. She was born the second child of Alta Rosetta Howe Kebler and Nathan Frederick Kebler on May 30, 1915, on a farm in the Eagle area. Her love for childhood learning began in a two-room rural school. Later after graduating from Grand Ledge High School, she attended Clinton County Normal for one session to become a certified teacher for three years. She returned to a rural school to begin her own career. Over the years, she taught in several local schools, the Watson outside of Grand Ledge, Grand Ledge Junior High, Waverly Junior High, and the Waverly Learning Center. She taught all eight grades in the rural schools and taught English and math in Grand Ledge and Waverly. During her teaching career, she earned both her B.A. and Masters from MSU, specializing in reading. After 41 years of teaching, she retired from the Waverly Learning Center as a learning and reading specialist. Outside of her family, she had a great desire for travel. Upon her retirement, she pursued this passion and traveled abroad to Russia, Europe, and Thailand. Her other interests included working on the family farm, home decorating, needle work and contributing to charitable organizations. She was born 12 Mar 1926 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 21 Nov 2019 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Norman Albert Hinderer:

Norman and Betty Hinderer, Chelsea: I was born in 1918. My parents were German people and spoke little English. When I went to school I spoke only German. Luckily for me some friends helped me to learn English. At the one room school we had to walk to the neighbors to get water. In the winter I went to school early to build the fire. I only went through eighth grade because my father needed me at home. My parents bought the farm on M52 where we still live. Our garage, milk house and two porches are built of stone. Many people stop to look at how they were made. My wife's sister married my brother and we farmed together. We worked 600 acres including corn, oats, wheat and hay. We always had a large garden. Fishing has always been one of my passions. My hobbies now are small woodworking and playing cards. My wife does chair caning. We plan on living on the farm as long as we are able. We love the open spaces and hope our health warrants this. I still speak some German but my buddies have mostly passed on.

Norman A. Hinderer of Chelsea, Michigan, age 90, passed away at his home on Thursday, November 12, 2009 surrounded by his family. He was born on December 22, 1918 in Sylvan Township, the son of Albert and Martha (Horning) Hinderer. On August 17, 1946 he married Betty L. Wahl at Zion Lutheran Church in Chelsea and she survives. Norman was a farmer his entire life and was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church, including time as a former church council board member and cemetery board member. After retirement he enjoyed working at Michigan Livestock in Manchester. Norman was a member of the Wolverine Euchre Club. He enjoyed fishing and hunting and was a member of the Gehrke Hunting club in Hubbard Lake since 1952 and president for 16 years. He was a recipient of the Distinguished Service Award from the Chelsea Kiwanis Club in 1997 and was the 2007 Washtenaw County Farmer of the Year.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Marilyn (Ronald) Mast of Chelsea; five grandchildren, Steven (Krista) Hinderer, Jeffrey (Kate) Hinderer, Susan Hinderer, Michelle (Kirk) Hedding, and Jason (Deborah) Mast; six great-grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Marilyn Hinderer of Caro; three sisters-in-law, Irene Kennedy of Manchester, Virginia Hinderer of Chelsea, and Marjorie (James) Clark of Grass Lake; and one brother-in-law, Clare (Jenny) Wahl of Grass Lake. He was preceded in death by his son, Donald Hinderer; his brother, Loren Hinderer; and his brother-in-law, Douglas Kennedy.
