3130. Marjorie Mildred¹³ Fear (Daisy Bell¹² Catt, Charles Martin¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 22 Feb 1918 in Willow Hill, Jasper Co, Illinois, and died 19 Sep 2012 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Norman Ross Scott 06 Apr 1950 in Champaign, Champaign Co, Illinois. He was born 15 May 1918 in Brooklyn, Kings, New York, and died 30 Aug 2018 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Marjorie Mildred Fear:

Marjorie M. Scott - In the early morning hours of September 19th, 2012, after a long and wearying illness, Marjorie left us quietly to be with her Lord. She is profoundly missed by her adoring family and her many friends. Private memorial services will be followed by interment of her ashes in the Scott family plot at Kensico Cemetery, New York. Marjorie was born on February 22, 1918, in rural Jasper County, Illinois. She won her county's scholarship to the University of Illinois and graduated there with a major in English literature, having achieved Phi Beta Kappa status by her junior year. She taught school for a year, before joining the WAVES in 1941. She was quickly selected as one of the first group of thirty WAVES to receive officer training, becoming first an Ensign and then rising to Lieutenant JG and ultimately to Lieutenant. Upon leaving the Navy from her last post in Hawaii at the war's end, she took a staff position at General MacArthur's occupation army headquarters in Tokyo for two years. There she not only saw war devastated Japan, but met and befriended many wonderful Japanese people who remained lifelong friends. She returned to her Illinois roots via returning troop ships that stopped at Singapore and then at Port Said before dropping her off for six months of exploring war ravaged Europe. Home again in Illinois, she did further graduate studies, receiving her MA degree. There she met and married Norman in 1950 and they came together to Ann Arbor in 1951, where they lived ever since.

Besides her devoted husband, she leaves behind daughter Mari Ross Scott Miyashita, son-in-law Keiichi Miyashita, grandson Tomonari Scott Miyashita, son George Norman Scott, daughter-in-law Cynthia, grandson Andrew Brendan Scott, son Ian MacLeod Scott, and son Charles Alastair Scott. Marjorie will be remembered by the intensity she devoted to her every activity, whether it was lobbying in Lansing for farm workers' rights, pressing at home for open space preservation and against commercial development, or simply trying to stamp out the invasive garlic mustard. She was a real doer. She is remembered, too, for her knowledge of poetry and her facility at coming up with the next several lines, given only the hint of a few words. As Robbie Burns said, "Wha's lak her? Nane!"

Notes for Norman Ross Scott:

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Norman Ross Scott, 100, died peacefully at home on Thursday, August 30, 2018. Private memorial services will be followed by interment of his ashes in the Scott family plot at Kensico Cemetery, New York. Norman was born in New York City on May 15, 1918 to Scottish immigrants George Norman and Lillias B.H. (Ogg) Scott. Growing up in White Plains, New York, he showed an early interest in amateur radio and electronics, which he pursued in the attic of his grandparents' house. He attended MIT, where he received both B.S. and M.S. degrees in Electrical Engineering in 1941. During World War II, Norman spent five years in the Army working on radar countermeasures and rising to the rank of Major. He received his Doctorate in Electrical Engineering at the University of Illinois in 1950 and married his wife Marjorie in Champagne-Urbana, Illinois the same year. In 1951, Norman moved to Ann Arbor, Michigan to take up an appointment as an assistant professor of electrical engineering at the University of Michigan; he was promoted to full professor in 1957. He remained at U of M until his retirement, and was named Professor Emeritus of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science in 1987. At the University of Michigan, Norman Scott introduced the first courses in digital computer engineering in 1952. Over the course of his career he became internationally recognized for his work on digital computer logic and design, publishing three books and numerous journal articles on the subject. He was a Fellow of the IEEE. At U of M he also served as Associate Dean of the College of Engineering and Dean of the Dearborn campus. In 1958 Norman Scott was a member of the first western team to tour Soviet computing centers. He served on the Math and Computer Science Research Advisory Committee of the Atomic Energy Commission (1961-65) and did research, taught, lectured and traveled extensively in Germany, China, and Japan, where he spent two sabbatical leaves.

During his 36 years as a faculty member at the University of Michigan, Professor Scott was known for his outstanding capabilities as a teacher, mentor, and graduate advisor. He was highly regarded for his knowledge of theory and practice and fostered in his students enthusiasm, curiosity, and a desire to excel. His understanding of and willingness to communicate with students was widely recognized. On four separate occasions, Eta Kappa Nu, an honorary society for electrical engineers, selected Norman Scott as Professor of the Year for outstanding performance in teaching and student-faculty relations. With his dear wife, Marjorie, Norman led an active life, filled with travel abroad, sailing his own sailboat on the Great Lakes (and twice to the Bahamas), walks in the beautiful natural settings of Michigan, reading the works of Joseph Conrad, daily journaling, and weekly family Sunday dinners. He swam well into his 90s at the U of M North Campus Recreation Building, and continued to work out on the machines there every day until it closed for renovation. Not to be deterred, he became a regular at the Washtenaw County Recreation Center, where he was appreciated for his determined spirit and beautiful smile. His last visit to the gym was on Friday, August 24, less than a week before he passed away in the same home he and his loving wife Marjorie had built in 1960 and in which they raised their four children. Norman will be deeply missed as a pillar of the Scott family and a wise elder to his adoring clan of children, grandchildren, cousins, nieces, and nephews. He was devoted to his family and his many friends. He will be remembered for his kindness, gentleness, and optimism, as well as for his brilliant mind.

Norman leaves behind daughter Mari Ross Scott Miyashita, son-in-law Keiichi Miyashita, grandson Tomonari Scott Miyashita, son George Norman Scott, daughter-in-law Cynthia Luna Scott, grandson Andrew Brendan Scott and wife Mar Patricia, son Ian MacLeod Scott, and son Charles Alastair Scott. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Marjorie (Fear) Scott in 2012 at the age of 94. Norman often quoted these lines by Scottish writer Robert Louis Stevenson: Here he lies where he long'd to be; Home is the sailor, home from the sea... Now he is home.

Notes for Donald Fredrick Catt:

After living a life of kindness and faith, Donald Fredrick Catt went to his heavenly home on October 10, 2025, at Good Samaritan Hospital in Vincennes, IN. Born December 17, 1923, west of Robinson, he was the 11th child of Lester and Emma (Fear) Catt. The family moved to the Port Jackson area, west of Oak Ridge Church, when Don was about three. His boyhood was spent taking care of chores on the family land and attending Oak Ridge Grade School, but he much preferred spending his time mushroom hunting, wading through the blackberry briars, or playing in the crick.

After graduating from Robinson High School in 1942, he worked on construction crews, including helping to build George Field, the military airfield near Lawrenceville. By 1945, he had moved back home, where he married the love of his life, a spirited Port Jackson neighbor, Mary Christine "Chris" Legg, on June 1, 1946. For their honeymoon, Don and Chris took a trip to Paris — not the one in France, but Paris, Illinois, — a lighthearted start to a lifetime of love and laughter. They built their home in 1947, and for the next 78 years, it was filled with faith, family, and warmth. It was there they raised their three children, hosted countless holidays, and carried on the cherished tradition of Sunday dinners throughout Don's life.

Retiring in 1988 after working as a caster at Briggs Pottery for 42 years, Don found the adjustment to a life of leisure more difficult than expected. Thanks to Chris's persistence, his relaxing days were short-lived, and soon he found a renewed passion for his hobbies. He enjoyed cultivating best-of-show vegetable entries in the county fair, mushroom hunting, and anything that kept him outdoors. He especially loved attending the endless sporting events for the grandkids and generally following wherever Chris led. Retirement also allowed a newfound talent to emerge: writing. Don was a man of few words, but through his writing, his friends and family learned so much more about his early life. Interest in his childhood stories grew, and eventually, people all around the community looked forward to his tales about "the good ol' days" in his weekly column, "I Remember When...", which was featured in the Argus newspaper. After reading his stories, it's amazing that he lived past 10 years old, let alone to over 100. He even tried his hand at a novel, which he titled "Willie".

To celebrate his and Chris's 50th wedding anniversary, his children presented him with a bound version of his stories titled "Life on the Ambraw". Friends and family will continue to cherish these books as a way to remember Don and the life he loved. A lifetime member of Oak Ridge Church, his faith was an essential part of his life. The church was the foundation of his servant's heart and played a central role in many family celebrations and gatherings through the years. Next to his steadfast faith, the most important person in his life was his beloved wife, Chris. They were blessed to be married for 78 loving years until her passing on August 23, 2024.

Don is survived by his three children, Michael (Anita) Catt, Kay (Raymond) Sanders, and Mark (Linda) Catt; six grandchildren; and twelve great-grandchildren, along with many special nieces, nephews, and extended family. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lester Alvernes Catt and Emma Loubrady (Fear) Catt; brothers Earnest Melvin, Ralph Emerson, Irvin Alvernes, William Day, Lester Albert, and Walter Leroy; sisters Madge Evelyn, Mary Louise, Anna Lenora, Winnifred Ellen, Audrey Lea, and Lois Irene; and his granddaughter, Gina Lynn Catt.

A time of visitation will be held from 4:00-7:00 p.m. on Monday, October 13th, at the Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson. A funeral service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, October 14th, at Oak Ridge United Methodist Church. Memorial contributions may be made to "Oak Ridge United Methodist Church", with envelopes available at both the funeral home and church. Burial will be in the Port Jackson Cemetery.

Notes for Mary Christine Legg:

Mary Christine (Legg) Catt, 98, of Flat Rock, Illinois, went to be with her Lord and Savior on August 23, 2024, at her home. She was born on Christmas Day, December 25, 1925, at her grandfather's home west of Oak Ridge Church near Port Jackson, Illinois. Named Mary Christine because it was the closest her parents could come to "Merry Christmas," she was a true Christmas gift to her parents, Pearl (Enola) Rich & Everett "Ab" Legg. Christine lost her mother at the tender age of five during childbirth. Her mother's final wish was for Ab to keep the children together, and that he did. Growing up as a farm girl, Christine helped with the wood cutting, crops, and even the detested task of raising tobacco. The values of family, hard work, and responsibility would be mainstays throughout Christine's life.

On June 1, 1946, she married the love of her life, Donald Catt, and together they recently celebrated 78 years of marriage. Chris and Don built the house that they would make a home for the rest of her life - a warm, welcoming place where kids, grandkids, friends, and strangers would be invited in and made to feel loved. Family dinners would find so many people at their table that there was barely room to sit everyone, but there was always plenty of delicious food for all. Her mashed potatoes and noodles, sweet corn, and tea were unmatched, and although she tried to teach us how to make them ("just a pinch" of this or that), we know that ours just won't taste quite as good.

Her life was one of simple abundance, filled with joy right up until her last breath. One of her greatest joys was watching her grandkids and great-grandkids participate in one of their many activities. She was one of their biggest fans, and hearing her voice cheering them on from the stands will be missed. In her later years, she joined the Singing Seniors at Lincoln Trail College and entertained folks around the county. A talented quilter, she left her family numerous beautiful quilts to cherish as a memory of her love. Chris utilized her crafting skills to create Pound Puppies, Cabbage Patch dolls, and more throws and quilts than you could fit in your house. All her children and grandchildren have quilts that she cut out and pieced together, sometimes with help from Don. To say that she was the backbone of the family would be an understatement. She taught us the true meaning of love, loyalty, dependability, perseverance, and hard work. A lifelong member of Oak Ridge United Methodist Church, Christine's life was a testament to her faith. The church was her second home, where she served in many capacities: Sunday School teacher, secretary, song leader, custodian, and more. She made sure that her children were raised in the church and was there whenever the doors were open. Christine organized and hosted countless celebrations, quilting clubs, holidays, and activities at the church, making a lifetime of memories for her family and community.

Her passing leaves a huge void in our lives, but we know that on Friday, she was greeted with the words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Although the hole left in our hearts is immense, we rejoice in knowing that Christine was welcomed with open arms by her Savior, Jesus Christ, flanked by family and friends who have gone before her. Heaven likely just got a little louder, with Chris and Lizzie raising their voices, either in laughter or fussing at each other. Words like "spark plug," "force of nature," and "one in a million" best describe our beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend. She truly lived a good life and was loved by all who knew her.

Left behind to continue her legacy is her devoted husband of 78 years, Donald Catt; her children & their spouses, Michael & Anita Catt (Robinson, Illinois), Kay & Raymond Sanders (Flat Rock, Illinois), and Mark Catt & Linda Ryan-Catt (Palestine, Illinois); her grandchildren & spouses, Angela Catt, Patrick & Melissa Sanders, Jeremy & Lisa Sanders, Valerie & Brian Weck, Mary Ann & Dallas Kidwell, Charles Catt; her great-grandchildren & spouses, Caleb Buettmeyer, Ethan Buettmeyer, Alison & AJ Wright, Drevin Sanders, Paige Sanders, Landon Sanders, Addeline Sanders, Harper Weck, Cameron Sanders, Landry Weck, Mason Weck, and Eleanor Kidwell; her nieces & nephews, Ron Legg & Sandy Dilger, Janet Legg, Charlene & Randy Bachelor, Glynn Legg, Duane & Norvita Legg, and her special niece and neighbor, Gaythel Wesley; along with several great-nieces & nephews and extended family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ab & Pearl Legg; her sister, Elizabeth; her brothers, Otis, Ray "Chubb," and Charles and their spouses; her granddaughter, Gina Catt; her nephew, Terry Legg; her niece, Connie Legg; her great-nephew, Bradley Legg, and several other cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A time of visitation will be held from 4:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 29th, at the Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson. A funeral service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, August 30th, at Oak Ridge United Methodist Church, with Rev. Nathan Jeffries officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to "Oak Ridge United Methodist Church", with envelopes available at both the funeral home and church. Burial will be in the Port Jackson Cemetery.

Notes for Connie Mae Dunlap:

Connie Mae Rich, a loving, funny, and spirited soul, passed away peacefully on April 30, 2023, in the comfort of her home, surrounded by her beloved family. Born in Crawford County, Illinois, on January 17, 1947, her 76 years with us exuded a zest for life and was filled to the brim with love for her family and friends. Connie's formative years saw her attending Oblong High School, where her irrepressible spirit and love for life began to blossom. This love for life would continue throughout her career, as she first worked at Tempco Products for many years. She left the area for a time to accompany her husband, Stephen D. Rich, who was serving in the Army, and was able to obtain employment with Marriott while he was stationed. Eventually, the Riches returned to Crawford County and Connie found work at Quail Creek Country Club before health constraints prompted an early retirement.

Possessing a warm and engaging heart, Connie was ever the social butterfly. She held membership with the Flat Rock American Post #132 Ladies Auxiliary and cherished the time she spent socializing with her fellow members. In her younger days, the great outdoors beckoned, as she reveled in searching for arrowheads, fishing, mushroom hunting, and ginseng gathering. As time marched on, her interests expanded to include shopping, playing Bingo, and trying her luck at the riverboat slot machines. Connie's love for adventure was rivaled only by her devotion to her family. With her kin firmly by her side, she explored this vast world we inhabit through trips to Mount Rushmore, the sandy shores of Florida, and cruises that whisked her away to the exotic locales of Cozumel and Jamaica. Throughout her enchanting journey through life, Connie's distinctive personality shone brightly, with ever-changing hair colors and a growing penchant for tattoos that lasted well into the twilight of her years! Her family frequently marveled at her unique spirit, often wondering, "What is she up to now?" Yet, our hearts were ever full of love for this remarkable woman who infused light and laughter wherever she tread.

In every aspect of her life, be it work, play, or family, Connie Mae Rich shone as a beacon of love and vivacity. Her legacy will forever be etched into the memories of all who were fortunate enough to know her, just as her unforgettable and irreplaceable spirit so richly deserves. And so, we bid adieu to this loving, funny, and spirited soul, a true force of nature whose presence will continue to grace our days through the echoes of laughter and love she leaves in our hearts.

While the hearts of her family ache with loss, they are comforted by the knowledge that Connie now rests with those who have gone before her, including her husband of nearly 32 years, Steve Rich; her parents, Kenneth & Marjorie Dunlap; her great-grandson, Lukas Bradberry; her brothers and sisters, Gary & wife Carol Dunlap, Larry Meeks, Lana Dunlap, Janice Stephens, and Gary Rich; and her special friend and the father of her children, Larry Baud.

Burial will be in the Shire-Prier Cemetery, rural Oblong, Illinois.

For over 20 years, Lois volunteered at the United Methodist Village in Lawrenceville. She was a longtime and active member of the Otterbein United Methodist Church in Robinson.

She was, by all accounts, an avid quilter, and longingly fashioned countless pieces for her friends and family. Following the passing of Chester in 1989, she made a point to have family dinners at her house every Friday night. This brought the family closer together and provided her with a new name: "Good Food Grandma", a title she wore proudly for the rest of her life. Lois will forever be remembered for her heart of service and for the love she gave to her family and church family. She will sadly be missed, but we celebrate her homegoing.

Lois married Chester Hout on Friday, October 17, 1952, and he preceded her in death on Thursday, November 9, 1989. Notes for Norma Jean VanWinkle:

Mrs. Jean Sprague Catt, 88, of Oblong, Illinois, died June 21, 2021, at Crawford Memorial Hospital in Robinson, Illinois, after several months of declining health. She was born March 7, 1933, in Flat Rock, Illinois, the daughter of Arthur & Eva (Brashear) VanWinkle. She married William Sprague of Robinson, and they had three children. Bill was killed in a semi-truck accident in 1973. At that time, Jean had been attending nursing school but had to give up her dream of becoming a nurse to support her family. However, this didn't stop her from taking care of people. She worked at the hospital and nursing homes as a nurse's aide and then became a sitter for the elderly in their homes. Jean was never afraid of hard work and always kept busy doing the things she loved: hunting mushrooms, fishing, camping, sewing, and crocheting. Her family was important to her, and she loved being with them. She married Dale "Dick" Siverly from Oblong, and they enjoyed many good years together fishing at the river, spending time at the cabin, and gardening. After his death, Jean began to help serve and deliver meals at the Senior Citizens Center in Oblong. There, she met and eventually married Edward Catt of Oblong. She and Ed were involved in their church and met many people camping for years until his death.

In addition to her parents (Arthur & Eva VanWinkle) and her husbands (Bill Sprague, Dick Siverly, and Ed Catt), she was also preceded in death by her brothers & sisters-in-law, John & Mary VanWinkle, Frank VanWinkle, and Bill & Rita VanWinkle, and by her sisters & brothers-in-law, Juanita Shipman, Irene & Tom Newlin, and Shirley Pippin.

She is survived by her children, Doug & Dana (Twigg) Sprague (Robinson, Illinois), Mike & Terri (Hoadley) Sprague (Gosport, Indiana), and Diane Sprague (Olney, Illinois); by her step-daughter & step-son-in-law, Lisa (Catt) & Rick Tarpley (Olney, Illinois); by her grandchildren, Laycie (Sprague) & Steve Eskoz (Wauconda, Illinois), Dustin & Toni (Barnes) Sprague (Robinson, Illinois), Mindy (Sprague) & Raymond Richards (Oblong, Illinois) and Keegan Tarpley (Olney, Illinois); by her great-grandchildren, Calvin Eskoz, Fitz Eskoz, Elsie Eskoz, Kensley Sprague, Maylee Robb, Eli Robb, and Carter Robb; as well as several nieces and nephews.

A time of visitation will be held from 1:00-2:00 p.m. on Friday, June 25th, at the Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson. Following the visitation, family and friends are invited to join in procession to the Macedonia Cemetery (rural Cumberland County, Illinois), where a graveside service will be officiated by Pastor Mike Root. Memorial contributions may be made to "Cornerstone Church", with envelopes available at the funeral home.

3189. Larry Alton¹³ Catt (Forest Dean¹², Walter Leroy¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 03 May 1932 in Longview, Cowlitz Co, Washington, and died 01 Apr 2021 in Oregon. He married Joyce Marie Swanson 14 Jun 1958. She was born 27 Dec 1935.

Notes for Larry Alton Catt:

Larry Catt peacefully passed away April 1, 2021, after a short illness with pancreatic cancer. Larry was surrounded by his wife of nearly 63 years, Joyce Catt, and his daughter, Lisa Marshall, when he passed. He was born in Longview, Washington, May 3, 1932, and is also survived by his brother, Art Catt; his sister, Donna Cox; and his son-in-law and Lisa's husband, Elliott Marshall. Larry's oldest daughter Karla passed away in 2007.

After Larry graduated from high school in 1951, he joined the US Naval Reserve and travelled to Hawaii on a Destroyer, but he was seasick the entire trip to Hawaii and back. Deciding a life at sea was not in the cards for Larry, he enrolled in Lower Columbia Community College and graduated in 1953. Larry thereafter transferred to the University of Washington (go Huskies!!) and graduated in 1961 with a degree in Business Administration. Larry began working for the Boeing company as a draftsman in 1957 and continued his employment with Boeing after graduating from the University of Washington. Larry was promoted to Materiel Manager for the AWACS (Airborne Warning and Control System) and was able to travel the world until he retired from Boeing in 1990.

The defining themes in Larry's life were his love of his family and cars. Larry married Joyce June 14, 1958, and Larry's oldest daughter Karla was born in 1960. Karla was born with Downs Syndrome, and at that time people with Downs Syndrome were not expected to live long. Larry and Joyce made the courageous and loving decision to raise Karla at home in as normal an environment as possible. Larry and Joyce welcomed their second daughter, Lisa, in November 1962. Karla's role in the family was pivotal because she created a family unit of unconditional love, patience, and a reverence for all life. Through Karla's life, Larry and Joyce became outspoken advocates for people with physical and intellectual challenges. Lisa, an attorney, credits Karla for teaching Lisa about empathy and devotion to children who come into the world with challenges.

Larry's love of cars began in high school when Larry and friends participated in legally sanctioned drag races on abandoned air strips. Larry's racing career continued into college and he happily repaired and restored a 1940 Mercury; a 1946 Ford; 1941 Buick; a 1929 Lincoln; and a 1965 Mustang. Larry and his restoration partner Lauren Matley (pictured at right, below) were invited to showcase their 1929 Lincoln at the 1996 Pebble Beach Concours D'Elegance. Larry and Lauren were honored to receive an award at that event for an impeccable restoration of the Lincoln, and were invited to drive the Lincoln over the awards stage.

Larry died as he lived; his sense of humor is widely known and was present and intact until the day he died. He taught his family the importance of hard work, honesty, humor, responsibility, and integrity. He would want all of his loved ones to know he is at peace.

Notes for James A. Dillman:

James A Dillman of Cocoa Beach - On October 12, 2021, after a short illness, my father passed away at 88 years of age. Dad was born on December 4, 1932 in Olney, Illinois to Virgil and Lela (Dugan) Dillman. Somehow Dad managed to graduate from high school without taking a math course. After marrying Mom he joined the Navy. Following his enlistment, he brought his family back to Illinois where he worked (briefly) at a steel mill. After a co-worker's bloody encounter with some of the machinery, Dad decided he was going to enroll in college. With some tutoring and a lot of persistence, he graduated with a degree in Physics. Following graduation, he went to work for General Electric in Pittsfield, Massachusetts and then transferred to Cape Canaveral to work on the Trident Missile Program until retiring at age 58. After becoming bored, frustrated with golf, and completing most of his "honey do list", he and a couple of others started a software company. This was followed by a few other milestones such as a tandem parachute jump in his 60's, obtaining his pilot's license in his 70's, and driving an open-wheel Indy type car in his 80's.

Dad is predeceased by his parents, Virgil and Lela Dillman, his wife of 49 years, Beverly, and his older brother, Ted. He is survived by his son, Michael, daughter-in-law, Merry Pat (Misiak) Dillman, grandchildren, Rachel (Nik) Schroth and Evan Dillman, and great grandson, Tanner Schroth along with numerous nephews and nieces. In addition, he is survived by his longtime partner, Florence Staton, her daughter Maribeth (Rick) Leaman, and their daughter Lizzie Leaman.

Dad was a wonderful father, father-in-law, husband, grandfather, great grandfather, partner and friend. His wisdom and particularly his sense of humor will be greatly missed by everyone. There will be a private celebration of life for family members.

Child of James Dillman and Beverly ? is:

+ 6368 i. Michael Lee¹⁴ Dillman.

They all enjoyed seeing her smile.

Notes for Shirley Ann Leslie:

Shirley Ann Catt (nee Leslie), January 10, 1930 to April 7, 2016 It is with great sorrow that we report our devoted mother and loving grandmother, Shirley Ann Catt, passed away peacefully in her sleep on April 7 after a brief illness. She was 86 and a "cradle-to-grave" Roman Catholic. She was born Shirley Ann Leslie on January 10, 1930, to Walter Scott Leslie, a rock Island Railroad engineer, and Magdaline Helen Leslie, a former school teacher in Valley Junction (West Des Moines) Iowa. Shirley was the fifth of six children born to the Leslies. She was baptized at Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Valley Junction in March 1930. When she was two years old, Shirley and her family moved to Manly, Iowa. The Leslies joined Sacred Heart parish and it was here that Shirley was confirmed (Mary as her Confirmation Saint). She attended Sacred Heart Catholic School from kindergarten until her junior year in high school, and then attended Manly High School. At Sacred Heart Shirley was involved in numerous parish activities and she was especially fond of her teachers, the Sisters of Charity- Blessed Virgin Mary (BVM). While at Manly High School, Shirley participated in Chorus, Y-Teen, Pep Club, lettered in varsity basketball and softball, was a member of the Lettermen's Club, and was art editor for the school yearbook and paper. Her nickname at Manly High School was "Les." Following graduation from Manly High School on May 20, 1948, Shirley fulfilled her dream of becoming a registered nurse after graduating in May 1952 from St. Joseph College of Nursing in Mason City, Iowa. According to her college roommate and lifelong friend, Vivian McAltoon, "Shirley was the epitome of the devoted nurse, often going above and beyond to ensure patient care." Shirley then joined the United States Navy and was commissioned as ensign in September 1952. After her initial training at St. Albans Naval Hospital, New York, she joined the nursing staff of the Naval Hospital at Camp Pendleton, California. It was here that she met Daniel A. Catt, the love of her life. Dan and Shirley Catt were married on October 15, 1955. Shirley left the Navy in 1955 and spent the next 25 years as a registered nurse with the Veteran's Administration. During her career with the VA, she served primarily as a chief pediatric nurse and surgical nurse. Her final duty was with the Danville VA, where she retired in 1978. Shirley spent many happy hours reading, attending mass at St. Paul's Catholic Church (she was a parishioner since 1974), traveling the world with Daniel after he retired and enjoying time with her family and friends. Her parents, Walter and Helen; husband, Daniel; brothers, Raymond, Allen, Curtis; sister, Dorothy, all preceded her in death.

She is survived by her brother, Loy Leslie; son, Michael (Susan) Catt of The Woodlands, Texas; daughter, Tracy Bryant (Harvey L.) of Westfield, Indiana; son, Patrick (Dr. Karyn) Catt of Normal, Illinois; grandchildren, Jeffrey of Chicago, Illinois, Daniel of Houston, Texas, Courtney of Spokane, Washington, Tyler of The Woodlands, Texas, Elizabeth of Normal, Illinois; Zachary of The Woodlands, Texas, Ethan of Normal, Illinois; and many nieces and nephews.

The little boy wandered away from his home in Hancock County near the Shelby County line and was found by two fishermen following a three-hour search. The boy was discovered missing around 4 p.m. and he was found about 7 p.m., a quarter-mile from the spot where he apparently went into the water. Sheriff's officers said two fishermen who were not a part of the searching party saw the boy's body floating in the water, and they pulled him from the water.

Notes for Ethel Mayme Worthington:

Ethel W. Williams, longtime Richland resident, passed away early Thursday morning at Lakeridge Care Center in Moses Lake where she had been living for the past six years. Ethel was born to Delmer and Nella Worthington in Green County, Iowa, on June 23, 1914. After moving to Missouri, she met and married John Willard Williams on June 26, 1932. They moved to Richland with their three children in late 1944. Preceding her in death were her husband Willard and her daughter Barbara Armstrong. She is survived by two sons, John and wife Ann of Benton City, and Lee and his wife Lynda of Moses Lake, eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Ethel's garden flourished and she loved sharing her produce with her family and friends. She took pride in the years she worked at Battelle, her talented sewing skills and her homestyle cooking. She gave of herself in many ways and always had a big smile for you. We, her children and grandchildren, honor her memory and her love to each of us. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Richland Baptist Church, 1632 George Washington Way, or to the Alzheimer's Society of Washington, P.O. Box 4104, Bellingham, Washington 98227-4101. Dorothy Bradford passed away on Nov. 22, 2016. Dorothy Florence Catt Synnott Jackson Bradford, better known as mom. Mom was born on Nov. 1, 1921 in Fort Scott, Kansas to Charles and Florence Packenham Catt. She was the eighth of 10 children in this farm family and, following the passing of her mother, she was adopted by the Synnott family in Fort Scott. After graduating from high school, Mom moved to Topeka, Kan. to work during World War II. It was there that she met Captain W.W. Jackson, DVM, a veterinarian in the Army. They married in 1942 and, following the war, moved to Southern California with their two young children in 1946. They subsequently divorced and Mom married Joseph Bradford in 1949, a union that produced her third child. Mom worked hard all of her life and really found her niche working for the U.S. Post Office. After she and Brad divorced in 1962, Mom moved to San Jose, where she found distinction as the first female supervisor in the San Jose post office district and retired in 1981 after serving as a postmaster of both Boulder Creek and Soquel, Calif. Upon retirement, she moved to Florida and returned to California in 2007, where she happily lived out her days in Beaumont with her daughter, Vicki.

Mom was an avid reader, traveled the world, played bridge well into her 90's and was a proud and independent soul who was an incomparable role model to her family. She highly valued honesty, loyalty and working for what you get. She was greatly loved by all who came in contact with her, as evidenced by the large turnout for her surprise birthday party when she turned 90 in 2011.

Mom is survived by her three children: Terry (Kathy Jackson, Vicki Jackson and Diana (Craig) Burke. She is also survived by four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, with her youngest great-grandchild being born just two hours before Mom passed on Nov. 22, 2016. Notes for Eunice Florence Wilson:

Eunice Florence Catt died on 8 June, 2025, 30 days before turning 103 years old. She preferred her middle name Florence and was known by it. Florence was a Kansas and Oklahoma farm girl, born to Marian and Nellie Wilson in Mulhall, Oklahoma. She is preceded in death by her husband and three of her children. She married Isaac E. Catt, Sr. in 1941 with whom she had eight children: Eunice Jeanette Ragsdale, Delverta Ann Smith, Evelyn Deloris Catt, Isaac Edward Catt, Jr., Benjamin Thurman Catt, Gary Lee Catt, Robert Dewey Catt, and Richard Quinten Catt.

We who mourn her passing do so in in admiration and respect for her stamina, courage, and resilience in the face of many adversities, some personal and familial and other stresses imposed from the outside such as the Great Depression, WWII, the Korean and Vietnam Wars and crises that perpetually follow. Born on 8 July, 1922, she saw the birth of road systems for automobiles, airline passenger service, the invention of jet aircraft, televisions, men walking on the moon, computers, the internet, and the perils of climate change.

Florence took pleasure telling stories based in her wealth of experiences. It is said that a library dies with the passing of each person, but she lives on in our memories.

He married Ann Farley 08 Mar 1958 in Trinity, California. She was born 29 May 1936 in San Francisco Co, California, and died 12 May 2019 in Weaverville, California.

Notes for Ann Farley:

Ann Farley Crane, 82, of Weaverville, passed away May 12, 2019, with her husband of 61 years by her side. She was born to the late James and Agnes Farley, on May 29, 1936 in San Francisco and soon located to Trinity County where she would spend most of her life. Ann graduated from Trinity High School at the age of 16 in 1952, received a BA in Education from the University of California – Davis in 1956, and obtained a Teaching Credential from California State University Chico. She married Keith Crane in 1958, and they lived in Weaverville until her death. Ann is survived by five children: Julie Ciruli of Green Valley, Arizona; Margaret Crane of Davis; Amy Munger of Pasadena; Brian Crane of Redding; and Michael Crane of Pleasant Hill. She is also survived by 11 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Ann's Trinity County and Irish heritage was important to her. She was the great granddaughter of Eliza Todd who came to Weaverville from Ireland in 1851, impressively hiking the last Old Shasta to Weaverville stretch carrying her newborn baby and her husband's boots. In addition, Ann's Uncle Charlie (Creamer) was the stage coach driver on the stage that was held up by Black Bart on Trinity Mountain, her step Uncle Buck (Montgomery) was the Weaverville Stage Wells Fargo guard that was shot and killed by the Ruggles Brothers along Middle Creek near Old Shasta, and her Uncle Jock (Todd) tended the LaGrange Ditch from Emerald Lake to Bridge Camp along Stuarts Fork. In Ann's early years she could be seen belly up to the bar for meals at the family owned New York Hotel & Saloon, teaching swimming lessons in the Trinity River near Steel Bridge Road, or on horseback traveling to and from Morris Meadows in the Trinity Alps.

Education and Adventure were also an important part of Ann's life. Following her mother's Trinity High School teaching footsteps, Ann was a school teacher for 30 years at Weaverville Elementary School and instilled in a couple generations of Weaverville youth the importance of education including, but certainly not limited to, her five children who all graduated from four-year California universities. Ann also mixed education and adventure leading her family in a VW Bus (mostly) 8-month trip across United States and Western Europe in 1970 (not entirely what you think...), twisting her kids arms to join her on annual Ashland Shakespeare trips and plays at the Curran in San Francisco, mandating annual family pack trips all over the Trinity Alps, and immersing herself in the culture of people all over the Americas, Europe, Asia, and Australia. In her later years, Ann could be seen reading a good mystery novel on the deck of her Weaverville home, walking with good friends on the roads and trails around Weaverville, leading tours of historic downtown Weaverville, picking spring bouquets of Mountain Irises and Shooting Stars, and hounding her grandkids to pick some Trinity County blackberries so she could make her infamous blackberry jam and cobbler.

Ann was buried at Weaverville Cemetery following a family funeral mass at St. Patrick's Catholic Church on May 17th. The family will have a Celebration of Life Brunch open to the public on July 3rd at the Lewiston Hotel in Lewiston, California from 10 am to 1 pm. The family requests that people make donations to either the Trinity County Friends of the Library or the Weaverville Cemetery Association in lieu of flowers or other gifts.

Glen Spaur, born April 13, 1925, passed peacefully from this earth on March 3, 2022 just shy of his 97th birthday. He was the last of seven siblings of a hard-working single mother whom they all loved unconditionally and later in life referred to as "Saint Mabel!" Their father, Lloyd, passed in a C.C.C. camp during the "Great Depression." Glen was preceded by Leonard, Irene, Louise, Laurabelle, Clair (Slick), and Bill. They grew up in a small Colorado town in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. It was so small that later the grandchildren could address mail to: Grandma Spaur, Lyons Colorado and it would reach its intended destination just fine! During World War 2 all four brothers served in the US Navy and sent home part of their pay to help Mabel. Glen served part of the war in Australia and was fortunate to visit there again later in life. After the war Glen moved to Los Angeles and pursued one of his dreams with photography school. He took many memorable photos with his "Speed Graphic," camera which was cutting edge at the time.

In 1951 He married Patricia Ann Stevens, and together they had three daughters, Debra 1954, Glenna 1956 and Cheryl 1957. With his passing he leaves the legacy of eight grandchildren, Chelsea, Meagan, Caitlin, Alexandra (Alex), Addison (Addie), Alissa, Samantha (Sam) and Nicholas (Nick) and eight great-grandchildren, Colbie, Kinley, Luke, Harper, Lane, Jahvan, Kian, and Raphael (Ralphie).

Notes for Flora J. Abetya:

Flora A. Ault, a lifelong resident of San Pedro, passed away on September 14, 2017 from complications of peripheral vascular disease. A homemaker most of her married life, she was thrust back into the workforce to run her deceased husband's business after his untimely death on September 7, 1992. For the next six years along with her two children, they ran John's Service Station in Ranchitos. She took to her responsibility with enthusiasm and dedication. Her strength and determination were never more apparent than when she was diagnosed with Stage 3 cancer in 2008. Though told she had a 1 in 3 chance of surviving the treatment, much less the cancer, she bravely persevered and until her passing remained in remission. For the last few months due to progressively ill health, she was making frequent trips to the ER. She would make her last visit on August 14th, this time never to return home. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her for her friendliness to everyone she met, sense of humor and loyalty to family and friends. Though not one to visit, she kept in touch with regular phone calls. Flora was preceded in death by her husband, Grover "John" Ault, parents, Santiago & Maria G. Abeyta of San Pedro and brother, Ramon Abeyta of Taos.

She is survived by her daughter, Anna and husband Walter Montoya of Fairview, their son, Jonathan and wife Jamie, and their sons, Jeremy & Jacob Montoya of Dallas, Texas, son Kenny Ault of Ranchitos and his Son, Ryan Ault of Albuquerque. Her eldest brother Arensio Abeyta of Yacaipa, California, sisters

Vera Jones of Lakewood, California & Susie Perea of La Cienga, New Mexico, her dear nephew Leonard Abeyta of Espanola who was raised by her parents, and many other relatives and close friends.

A rosary followed by a funeral mass was held on Tuesday, September 19th at 12 noon. She was laid to rest on Wednesday, September 27th at 11:15 am at the National Cemetery in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The family would like to thank the pallbearers, Kenny & Ryan Ault, Walter & Jonathan Montoya, Angelo Moya and Richard Martinez. A special thank you to Margie Montoya and Leo Gallegos for praying the rosary, Fr. John Plans for his officiating at the mass, acolyte Gene Montoya, musician Melissa Salazar-Porter, and eulogist Walter Montoya for their participation in the funeral mass. We would also like to thank DeVargas Funeral Home, especially Stephanie Martinez for her expertise and cooperation toward fulfilling our requests, Espanola Valley Nursing & Rehab and Ambercare for making our mother's last days comfortable, and caring for her and our family. We will also be forever grateful to all of you that cared about her and supported us in this most sorrowful time. May God bless all of you abundantly in return. The family of Flora A. Ault has entrusted the care of their loved one to the DeVargas Funeral Home & Crematory of the Española Valley.

and Management of her hometown store for many years. Then took on another major role in retail in Garden City whilst making many new lifelong friends.

Although she was such a hard worker, she was even more of an amazing mother, and extraordinary wife to her husband Larry. They were married October 11, 1987; just a few days after her birthday. Notes for Clarence (Slim) Selby, Jr.:

Clarence "Slim" Selby Jr., aged 93, a cherished father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and friend, passed away peacefully on December 30, 2023, in his hometown of Washington, Indiana—the very place where his story began on November 24, 1930. Slim, as he was affectionately known by all, lived a life rich in music, craftsmanship, and devotion to his loved ones. Slim graduated from Washington High School in 1948, after which he skillfully channeled his keen eye for detail into a fulfilling career in upholstery. Beyond his professional pursuits, Slim's heart belonged to the rhythms of music. His hands, adept at restoring antiques to their former glory, also strummed the guitar with passion in a band, sharing melodies that are now fond memories.

He was a steadfast member of the Central Christian Church, where his faith and fellowship were as integral to him as his love for his family. Slim leaves behind a legacy of love and melody, survived by his son, Scott Lane Selby (Alice); daughter, Diana Marie Brewster; his cherished six grandchildren; and 6 precious great-grandchildren. Preceding him in death are his companion, Mary Alford; his parents, Clarence Selby Sr. and Verna Viola Jones-Selby-Dillin and stepfather Benjamin Dillin; and a son-in-law, Kenneth Brewster.

Slim's life was a tuneful journey that touched many, and he will be profoundly missed and lovingly remembered by those who knew him. There will be a visitation on Saturday, January 6, 2024 from 11:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M. at Fredrick and Son-Gill Funeral Home with dismissal following. Fredrick and Son-Gill Funeral Home is honored to be entrusted with Mr. Selby's arrangements. In lieu of flowers please make memorial contributions to Central Christian Church, 10 W. Notes for Carl Leon Catt:

Carl Leon Catt left this earthly plain to start another journey on December 26, 2022, at his home with his daughter Rebecca, son-in-law Neil and grandson Kaiden. He was born July 30, 1949, in Fort Wayne, Indiana to Carl and Ruth Catt. There are not enough words in this world to describe what an amazing man he was. He lived a great life and had some great stories to tell. He was a veteran, serving in the Army, and fought in the Vietnam War from 1967-1969. He married only once, to Kathy Cline. They had three children together: James Catt, Rebecca Sampson, and Michael Catt. He was an amazing mechanic, he loved working on cars and especially loved vintage automobiles. He could tell you what year and model every car was just by looking at them. Going to car shows was something that he really enjoyed doing, and he even owned a few older cars in his days. He was a trucker for a few years of his life and loved the open road. He finally settled down in Arizona to take care of his mother Ruth until her passing.

After his mother's death, he moved to Montana with his daughter Rebecca, where he settled in and began his amazing writing career. He wrote under the pen name R. L. McCallum. Since he always had a way with words, and loved a good ghost story, it was no surprise that writing gothic fiction was a great fit for him. He also wrote some wonderful poetry. Up till his death, he had written and published over 24 titles. Carl loved his coffee, donuts, watching his train videos online and he never turned down an adventure.

He is survived by his brother Kenny Catt, daughter Rebecca Sampson, sons James Catt, Michael Catt and grandson Kaiden Sampson. He is preceded in death by his mother Ruth Catt, father Carl Catt, ex-wife Katherine Cline, sister Dorothy Park, brother David Catt and grandson Lucas Sampson.

Service will be held on January 11th at 2pm at the Riverview Cemetery in Hamilton, Montana.

Notes for Regina Kaye Walton:

Regina "Kaye" Meier, 73, of Linton, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on Tuesday evening, February 17, 2026, at Ascension St. Vincent Hospital in Indianapolis. Born on May 19, 1952, in Linton to Douglas J. and Joanna "Ruth" (Kirkman) Walton, Kaye grew up with a bright spirit and a kind heart that would touch everyone she met. She was a proud graduate of Linton-Stockton High School's class of 1971. Just a few weeks after graduation, she married her high school sweetheart and the love of her life, Robert "Bob" Meier, on June 19, 1971 - beginning over five decades of partnership, laughter, and unconditional love.

Kaye spent much of her life serving her community through her work in food service - whether it was greeting customers with a smile at the Lyons Townhouse Restaurant, making biscuits that became a local favorite at Hardee's, or chatting warmly with friends and neighbors at Chuckles Gas Station. In her later years, Kaye found her true calling as a cook at Dugger Union Community School, where her caring nature earned her the affectionate title "Lunch Lady." She poured her heart into every meal, every hallway wave, and every child she met.

Outside of work, Kaye loved to crochet, cook for her family, and take spontaneous shopping trips. Her greatest joy, though, came from time spent with her grandchildren - silly stories, and quiet moments that will forever live in their hearts. She had a special friendship and connection with her twin brother, Danny, and enjoyed their short road trips together. She attended the Linton Assembly of God Church, where her faith and compassion shone brightly.

Kaye is survived by her three beloved children, Julie Ann (Bryan) Ketchem, David R. (Amy) Meier, and Amanda (Ronnie) Copeland; five cherished grandchildren, MaKayla (Jacob) Hall, Matthew Ketchem, Ian (Allee) Frank, Victor Copeland, and Lilly Copeland; and her dear twin brother, Danny Walton.

She was welcomed into heaven by her husband, Bob; her parents; infant grandchildren, Kaitlyn Ketchem, Ruth Meier, and Isaac Meier; and her siblings, Allan Brown, Donnie Brown, Judy Alderson, Jerry Brown, and infant Jimmy Brown.

A funeral service to celebrate Kaye's life will be held at 6:00 PM on Thursday, February 26, 2026, at Welch & Cornett Funeral Home in Linton of Walton Funeral Service. Visitation beginning at 4:00 PM until the time of service. Her family will remember Kaye for her contagious laughter, her warm hugs, and the way she made everyone feel right at home - whether in her kitchen or in her heart.

A lover of music, dogs and sports, Tom was a loyal Purdue football fan and longtime season ticket holder at Ross-Ade Stadium. His favorite place to be was by the water, spending many happy years "pontoon putzing" at his house on Lake Freeman in Monticello and vacationing in St. Thomas, U.S.V.I., where he married his second wife on a sailboat.

Tom is survived by his son, Tim Sukits; sister, Margaret Trent; brother, Joseph Sukits; and ex-wife Debra Sukits. In addition to his parents, Tom was preceded in passing by his first wife Marcia Wykoff.

There will be a Celebration of Life for Tom held at The Filling Station on Tuesday, November 21, 2023, featuring live music and an open mic for memorials and stories. Contributions in Tom's name may be made to the Mary T. Klinker Veteran Resource Center or your local Humane Society.

Marriage: 14 May 1957, Marion Co, Indiana

Notes for Marvis Eugene Lane:

Marvis Eugene Lane, 80, passed away on August 30, 2021, at Bridge Pointe Health campus surrounded by his family. Marvis was born on December 25, 1940, in Iona, Indiana the son of Farrell and Clara (Halter) Lane. He married Dorothy Anne (Dottie) Catt on April 20, 1963. Marvis was a 1958 graduate of Decker High School and went on to be employed with Indiana Bell telephone in 1965, later becoming AT&T. He retired from there with many memories of work with fellows who became best friends. The "AT&T Group" would meet every Tuesday and Thursday mornings for coffee and stories. Marvis was always a farmer at heart, raised on his family farm near Iona, and very proud of his service with the United States Army as a military policeman. A flag never passed in front of him without his standing and saluting. If his family or friends needed something built, remodeled, or fixed, Marvis was there for the "projects". He also donated many hours of time and talent to his churches, never complaining, working hard. Marvis bought and remodeled old homes into rental housing for his community, while teaching his sons the art of dry-walling, wiring, and other carpenter skills. He was a long time Board Member and coach at the Vincennes Cub League, drafted by his father-in-law, Gail Catt, and friend Joe Bilskie. They built two new diamonds and the first concession stand. Marvis coached his sons in Cub League and Colt League. When the boys began high school sports, Marvis was in the bleachers, or at the scorer's bench-everyone remembers him at baseball games with the official book on his lap. Marvis found enjoyment in many ways, but one of his family's favorites was his talent for smoked turkeys, after days of brining, and ultimately, his famous turkey salad. He looked forward to his sons or friends needing a "project" fixed and was ready to load his pickup truck with tools and head their way. He also enjoyed euchre, poker, and rum. Marvis was also a CWA President and received the Brute Award from his church. He believed in stewardship and giving back to those in need.

Marvis is survived by his wife, Dottie Lane of Vincennes, his sons and daughters-in-law, Eric and Linda of Washington, Indiana, Ethan and Kim of Greensboro, NC, Marc and Lisa of Lawrenceville, GA and Jason and Amy of Vincennes; his grandchildren, Adam Lane and his wife Leah, Mallory Lane, Dr. Audra Parrett and her husband Chad, Carrie Lane, Sydney Helton and her husband Jonathan, Sophia Lane, Austin Lane, Elizabeth Lane, Isaac Lane, Catherine Lane, Amelia Lane and great granddaughter, Erin Lane. Marvis is also survived by sisters-in-law Patricia Lane (John) and Kathy Lane (Wayne), as well as his sisters, Martha Ann Davis (David), Shyla Ford, Millie Greentree, Betty Murry and Erma Barnes, and brothers-in-law David Roche and David Davis. Marvis is preceded in death by his parents, brothers, John and Wayne and a sister, Judy Roche.

Friends may visit with Marvis' family from 5-8 pm on Friday, September 3, 2021, at St. John's Catholic Church, 803 Main St., Vincennes, Indiana. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:00 am on Saturday, September 4, 2021, at St. John's Catholic Church with Rev. Tony Ernst celebrating. Marvis will be laid to rest in Mt. Calvary Cemetery and the All-Weather Firing Squad will conduct military honors. Marvis' family would like to extend a special thank you to Good Samaritan Hospice for the compassionate and professional assistance during a very difficult time. The Lane family has requested contributions be made to Good Samaritan Hospice or the donor's choice of a local church or charity.

Notes for Mildred Catherine Goodrid:

Mildred Catherine "Goodrid" Rice, a cherished and vibrant soul, passed away on August 20, 2025, in Wheatland, Indiana, at the age of 84. Born on July 30, 1941, in Washington, Indiana, Mildred was a pillar of love and creativity to all who knew her. A woman of deep faith, Mildred was a long-standing member of the Our Lady of Hope Catholic Church and served with dedication in the Women's Catholic League in Washington. Her commitment to her faith was ever-present and guided her through life's many chapters. Mildred was a lifelong learner. Though her formal education culminated in some college after high school, she never stopped seeking knowledge and engaging with the world around her. Her career was diversified and full of meaning; she retired from Crane and continued to serve her community as the Town Clerk of Wheatland until her passing. In her personal life, Mildred knew both love and loss. She married her first husband, Donald French, in January 1963. She found love again with her second husband, David Rice, whom she married in October 1989.

Mildred's legacy lives on through her devoted children, Mary "Katie" Catherine Davis (Randy) and Rosemarie "Mimi" Murray (Larry), her caring brother, George Ronald Goodrid (Diana Jane), and a lineage that includes numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren, and many cousins. Her family, who were all her pride and joy, will remember her with great fondness.

Mildred adored her cats, Callie, Zander, and Fancy, who brought her companionship and joy. They were not mere pets but members of her family, often found basking in her love and curled up beside her at every moment. Her creative spirit will be missed by all, as she was an artist at heart. Mildred had a passion for reading, sewing, crocheting, and the delicate care of her flower gardens. Her hands were rarely still as she created crafts, painted beautiful scenes, and composed touching poetry. Each creation was a testament to her belief in the beauty of expression and the joy of sharing with others.

Preceded in death by her parents, George and Rose "Delaney" Goodrid, her son David French, and daughter Sarah, and her husbands Donald French and David Rice, Mildred's passing marks the end of an era for her family and friends. Yet, her memory and influence will continue to resonate. She was a loving, creative soul who left a mark, a life story written through acts of kindness, the warmth of her spirit, and the beauty she created and left behind in the world.

A life well-lived and a woman well-loved, Mildred Catherine Rice's story will continue in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing her. As we say goodbye, we take solace in the imprints of her love, knowing she is now at peace. There will be a visitation on Tuesday, August 26, 2025, from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at Fredrick and Son-Gill Funeral Home. A Mass of Christian Burial will take place on Wednesday, August 27, 2025, at 11:00 am at Our Lady of Hope Catholic Church, officiated by Father Clint Johnson. Memorial contributions may be made to the Corning Irish Heritage Center. Fredrick and Son-Gill Funeral Home is honored to be entrusted with Mrs. Rice's arrangements.

Robert (Bob) Lucht passed away on June 28, 2013, at home. He was born in Muskegon Heights, Michigan, to Ruth A. Munro and Gordon E. Lucht. He was the eighth of nine children. The family moved to Newburg, North Dakota, in 1945 and lived on a farm. After graduating from Newburg High School, he served two years in the U.S. Army at Fort Hood, Texas, from 1962 to 1964. He married Carol French in Minot, North Dakota on Dec. 31, 1962. The couple recently celebrated their 50th anniversary. While in North Dakota, Bob worked as a plant control operator for Northern States Power. In 1973, he was hired by Pacific Power and Light to work at the Centralia Steam Plant. When he retired after 25 years, Carol and Bob traveled extensively to the Dominican Republic, East Coast, Germany and Italy, and took a Baja Cruise.

Notes for Harold Lee Glass, Jr.:

Harold Lee Glass Jr., a treasured and jovial soul, left this world at the age of 88, on august 21, 2024, in his cherished hometown of Vincennes, Indiana. Born to Harold Lee Glass Sr. and Mary Lucille "Cockerham" Glass on May 12, 1936, in the very city. Harold's life came full circle as he passed peacefully surrounded by the love of his family in Vincennes. Harold's life was marked by unwavering love and dedication. On January 18, 1958, he married the love of his life, Mary "Ryder" Glass, in Bicknell, Indiana.

Their were blessed with laughter, joy, and three wonderful children; Carol L. Halter, John R. Glass, and the late David A. Glass. Harold took immense pride in his family, always providing a firm foundation and extending his warm, fatherly love to his grandchildren - Jeff, Michael, Matthew, Catrina, T.J., Kevin, and Karen -- and his cherished great-grandchildren, Christa, Logan, and Lucy.

A proud graduate of his local high school. Harold served his country in the Navy before embarking on a fulfilling career with Prestolite Battery, eventually retiring from Johnson Controls. His strong work ethic and friendly demeanor left a lasting impression on all who had the pleasure of working with him. Harold's interests painted the picture of a man who embraced life's simple pleasures. His voice was often heard over CB radios; his hands skillfully tended to his garden; and his relaxation found its perfect match in fishing. Country music could always be found playing in the background of memorable family gatherings, where Harold's humor and playful spirit were the heartbeat of joyous celebrations.

A devoted member of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Harold's faith was a guiding light in his life, shaping the loving and funny man known by many. His membership in the American Legion was a testament to his continued commitment to community and brotherhood long after his military service. Harold's journey through life was shared by those he sadly leaves behind: his adoring wife, Mary; his devoted children, Carol and John; his beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and a close-knit community of friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, his dear son, David, and his brothers, Robert David, William Bill, and Russell Keith Glass. In his passing, Harold's cherished traits of love, friendliness, and humor remain alive in the hearts of those he touched. His legacy of laughter, resilience, and affection will continue to inspire and comfort us all. Harold Lee Glass Jr. lived life to the fullest, and for that, he will never be forgotten.

There will be a visitation on Monday, August 26th, 2024 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. at Fredrick and Son McClure-Utt Vincennes Chapel. Service will follow at 1:00 p.m. at the Old Cathedral Catholic Church officiated by Father Garrett Braun. Burial will be at Mount Calvary Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital or the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church.

Notes for Judith Lee Utterback:

Judith Lee Utterback Lowe, age 75, passed at her home in Alexandria, where she had lived for 53 years, on November 28th, 2011. Judy was born in Washington D.C. on January 24th, 1936 to James and Hilda Utterback. She and her younger brother Jimmy were raised by their paternal grandparents, John and Eva Utterback in an historical D.C. neighborhood near the Smithsonian Museums. She was a proud 11th generation Virginian; a member of Fauquier Historical Society and the Germanna Foundation, inspiring her children's interest in family genealogy.

Judy attended Fairbrother Elementary, Jefferson Junior High School, and graduating from Eastern High School in 1953. After graduation she worked in D.C. Public Schools, holding secretarial positions, later moving on to the Department of Agriculture. In 1969, her husband's Air Force career took the family to Japan for two and a half years; while there she became president of the N.C.O. Women's Club. Upon returning, she worked for various Department of Defense organizations, including the Vela Seismological Center, DARPA, and the Strategic Defense Initiative Organization.

She was well known as the 'First Lady of Del Ray,' since she was involved in many civic activities, being a personal aide to Councilman Lonnie Rich, a campaign aide to Congressman Jim Moran, many positions in the Del Ray Citizens Association, and a longtime member of the Alexandria Democratic Committee. As a member of Citizens Against the Stadium in 1992, Judy was instrumental in the fight against the proposed relocation of Redskins' Stadium to Potomac Yard. Judy sacrificed the love for her home team for the love of her neighborhood, a decision she found difficult yet necessary. She was a life-long fan of the Washington Redskins, attending her first game with her father in 1939. She often spoke of being present at the Redskin-Eagles game in Griffith Stadium on December 7th, 1941; having memories of the American generals present being called over the P.A. system to their duty stations. It was no secret that the Lowe household was a Redskins household.

Judy devoted her life to her family, which not only included her husband, children, and grandchildren, but her friends, neighbors, and associates. This devotion was mostly inspired by the tearing down of her neighborhood in 1958 when S.W. went through the redevelopment project due to invoking eminent domain. Not wanting a similar fate to ever befall her beloved Del Ray, she went above and beyond to immerse herself in local civic activities.

Survivors include her husband of 44 years, Lawrence Lowe of Alexandria, her daughters Melanie Radice of Sunrise, Florida, Stephanie Endsley of Alexandria; and her son, Chip Lowe of Bel Alton, six grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, five nephews, many other loving family members and her Japanese Akita mix Casey. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in memory of Judy Lowe to DRCA, PO Box 2233, Alexandria, Virginia 22301

He married Marie Owens 21 Dec 1957. She died 02 Jul 2000.

Notes for Kenneth Dale Evans:

Dale Evans, 96, of Monroe, Michigan, passed away 1:25 p.m. Saturday, December 27, 2025 at Vancrest of St. Marys. He was born on December 22, 1929 in Knox County, Indiana to William O. & Helenia (Cardinal) Evans, who have preceded him in death. On December 21, 1957 he married Marie Owens, who passed away on July 2, 2000.

Survivors include his two children, Kathy M. Neidhardt, of Wapakoneta and Randy D. Evans, of Monroe, Michigan; four grandchildren, Jennifer M. (Brian) Schlosser, of Wapakoneta, Eric D. (Cpt. Raenette, US Army) Neidhardt, of West Point, New York, Andrew J. (Miranda) Neidhardt, of Bowling Green and Rylee G. Evans, of Gibraltar, Michigan; five great-grandchildren, Johnathon T. (Tessa) Schlosser, of Columbus Grove, Broderick M. Schlosser, Jillian M. Schlosser and Joan M. Schlosser, all of Wapakoneta and Jeffrey M. Smith, of Bowling Green; two siblings, L. Max Evans and Lois J. Ruppel; five siblings-in-laws, Roberta Evans, Doris Owens, Alida (W. Harold) Drummonds, Nila Edwards and Claude E. Owens; two step-daughters, who thought of him as a father-figure, Katherine L. (Raymond) Evans-Manchester and Cheryl A. (Michael) Evans-Simasko.

He was preceded in death by eight siblings, W. Paul (Rosemary) Evans, J. Ruth (Elmer) Figg, Ruby O. (Raymond) Sievers, Bernard Evans, H. Wayne Evans, Wanda M. Evans, Marjory F. (Ralph) Ruppel, and H. Clarence Evans; nine sibling-in-laws, A. Donald Ruppel, Z. Myrtle Owens, Albert L. (R. Nadine) Owens, David W. Owens, Bonnie M. Jones Hagewood, James F. "Boots" (Imogene) Owens, S. Cleo (Millard) Berry, Marshall H. "Goldie" (A. Pauline) Owens and Betty Owens; and former wife, Olive Evans.

During eighth grade he went to live with local family friends, the Neals, where he helped them on their farm and was treated as one of their own children. Dale continued to visit home frequently, but considered them his second family. Following his 1948 graduation from Decker High School, Decker, IN, he returned home. After deciding he didn't want to follow in his dad's footsteps and work on a farm, he moved to Monroe, MI, in hopes of better jobs. Dale worked at the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Factory and River Raisin Paper while living with family friends, the Strokotters. It was during that time, on a lunch break, that he met Marie, at her sister's restaurant, The Harmony. Before their marriage, he built their home, where he stayed until he was 95 and a half.

In 1958, he began working at the Clark Gas Station on Telegraph Road before becoming the manager and later the dealer/franchisee of the S. Monroe Street location. The rest as they say, is history. For decades, Dale was a fixture at his gas station, doing every job and talking to all the people. An incredibly hard worker, he took great pride in taking care of his station. When Clark was going to close the location, his son, Randy, purchased it and Dale continued working at their Evans Gas Station. Following retirement (meaning he just showed up later and went home earlier) he spent weekday mornings at the S. Monroe Street McDonald's, where he loved to sit at the "old guys table", sharing stories and senior coffees.

Able to do and fix just about everything, Dale was proud to be the church handyman and groundskeeper at Monroe Primitive Baptist Church, where he attended. When not working at the station or helping at church, he enjoyed his hobby of purchasing homes to remodel and rent. For decades, Dale worked on houses, meeting people and collecting stories along the way. He may also be remembered for his summer activities of selling Indiana watermelons, brought to Monroe by his brother, Wayne. Living directly across from the fairgrounds provided him with the opportunity to park cars during the Monroe County Fair, having many repeat customers year after year. Somehow Dale still found time to travel. He and Marie visited every state, except Alaska, often with family members along for the ride. After Marie's passing, he volunteered for the former Mercy Memorial Hospice of Monroe, where he was volunteer of the year in 2004. Dale never knew a stranger and was an incredibly animated storyteller. He is the true definition of a hard worker, as he'd rather go dig a ditch than sit still. However, he always prioritized his family and was an amazing provider. We aspire to live like Dale... with no regrets, just a long life full of stories, memories and dedication to family.

Family and friends may visit from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, December 30, 2025 at Schlosser Funeral Home & Cremation Services, Wapakoneta. Funeral services will begin at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, December 31, 2025 at the Allore Chapel - Martenson Family of Funeral Homes, Monroe, Michigan. Don attended school at St. Thomas, Central Catholic, Vincennes University, and Christian Brothers College graduating with a degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1962. His first job was with Chrysler Space Division and NASA in Huntsville, Alabama. There he worked on the Saturn Rocket System which now resides in the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum. Troubled times in the South led him to decide that being close to family and working with his hands were more important than sitting at a desk. He and his wife moved back to Vincennes to raise a family. Once back in Vincennes, Don worked for Hamilton Glass/ Gemtron, now Schott, for 43 years primarily as director of the Creative Engineering Group, designing specialized equipment for the company and loved every minute of it. His designs are used throughout the world.

Don was the eleventh of twelve children of Anthony Joseph and Anna Marie (Schlomer) Ruppel. He was preceded in death by his parents, brothers, and sisters, Mary Elizabeth Eddleman, Lillian Ruppel, Antoinette Hedden, Robert, Vincent, Raymond, Ralph, and Edward. Don's grandchildren were always a joy to him. He was always willing to give them something to "ponder". Being an engineer, he never looked at anything like the rest of us. Never wanting to leave something as it is, he always tried to make things more efficient; not only with his machines but with all aspects of life. He was a member of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church for 50 years and also a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Paul K. Edrington, Lt. Col. USAF, Ret., 80, of Punta Gorda, Florida, went to be with his Lord and Savior the morning of Feb. 3, 2011 after a gallant fight against cancer. He lived an amazing life of adventure and service. Born on Dec. 21, 1930 in Spurgeon, Indiana, he grew up as a farm boy with far away dreams to see the world. After graduating from high school in 1948 at the age of 17 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and started a life of service to his country. He served as a radio operator in the Berlin Air Lift, a cryptologist and communications specialist and instructor until 1957 when he went into the reserves. In 1954, he met the love of his life Velta Anne Manning who he married in 1955. While in the reserves he then went to college, got a degree in teaching and started a career alongside his wife as a teacher of History and English. In the fall of 1962 he was called back to active duty during the Cuban Missile Crisis as a first lieutenant. He worked in the Air Logistics Command rising to the rank of Lt. Col and retiring from active duty in June of 1985. He served all over the world including Pakistan, Thailand, Germany, and the deserts of Libya and was awarded many accommodations and awards during his combined 37 years of service. In his retired life he moved to Punta Gorda, a place he would come to love as his home. He joined the Rotary Club of Punta Gorda and continued his life of service. His favorite sight was as he crossed the Peace River looking across at Punta Gorda when he could often be heard saying, just another day in paradise. He never forgot his Hoosier roots but considered himself a Floridian at heart.

He married Marlene Kaer. She was born 11 Dec 1936.

Notes for Dale L. Marlowe:

Dale L. Marlowe, 81 yrs of age, entered into the presence of the Lord on January 20, 2026 after a battle with colon cancer. He was a faithful servant of the Lord and attended Berean Baptist Church since 1993. Dale was born to Melvin (died-2003) and Maxine Marlowe (died-2013) on November 13, 1944 in Goodrich, Michigan. When Dale was 6 yrs of age, he was stricken with Bulbar polio (a form of paralytic poliomyelitis that attacks the brainstem, damaging the nerve centers that control swallowing and speaking) and was in an iron lung for a time. His parents had to stand outside of the hospital to look through the window of his room while they prayed. The entire church they were attending prayed fervently. After a few days of treatment the doctor told his parents he was getting worse. However, the doctor informed them that there was a new vaccine not yet available to the general public. The doctor made arrangements for the vaccine to be flown in from Missouri. The Salk vaccine was given and Dale began to improve. After about 2 weeks Dale was sent home to continue therapy and return for a follow up in 2 additional weeks. Upon returning to the doctor, and after an examination, the doctor turned to Dale's parents and said "Mr. & Mrs. Marlowe, I am unable to find any evidence that this child has ever had polio". His parents dropped to their knees and thanked God for His mercy.

Dale grew up on a farm and learned responsibility early on. He loved to push his younger brother around in a wagon to see the thrill on his face as they travelled. He loved to work hard. He attended Holly High School and later attended college at Ypsilanti Business College as well as Oakland Community College. After graduating, he pursued a career in finance with General Motors and subsequently as a consultant for Electronic Data Systems.

In 1978, Dale met Marlene, a match truly made in heaven. Dale's children are Stephen, Kenneth, and Michelle Marlowe (Lounsbery). Dale & Marlene were almost inseparable and prized each other's company. He was a servant to God, first and foremost. He loved the church and loved sharing the love and warmth of our savior, Jesus Christ, with as many people as possible. He was a helper and encourager to many who were in need and is remembered as a most kind and loving fellow Christian. He participated in many roles in the church over the years.

Dale is survived by his wife, Marlene, and his daughter Michelle Lounsbery (spouse Keith) and two sons, Stephen and Kenneth. Several direct family members also survive him: his brother, Danny, and spouse Inez....his brother, Gayle, and spouse Linda..... his sister, Rose Yahng, and spouse Steve and his other sister, Merry Cookston, and her spouse Joe.

One of Dale's favorite verses was: Isaiah 26:3 KJV "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee". He now rests in the arms of his Savior.

Notes for Jack Dale (Jackie) Catt:

Dec. 19, 2019 – Knoxville, Tennessee - When Jack Catt first walked into the National Museum of American History in Washington, D.C. a few years ago he did so reluctantly. "I was dragging my feet after the family," recalled the now 82-year-old veteran of the war in Vietnam. But that is when a centerpiece of "The Price of Freedom: Americans at War" exhibit caught his eye, a Huey helicopter with a yellow "Robin Hood" hat painted on the nose. "The second thing that caught my (eye) was 0-9-1 and I thought, I've flown that chopper a number of times," said the veteran pilot of two combat tours. Records show that helicopter, which later became the subject of a documentary film, and Jack Catt were both in Vietnam at the same time. Although his old flight records don't list the specific airships he flew at war, the retired colonel is certain he flew a series of missions in that very helicopter. And when he told his 8-year-old grandson about the surprise connection, the questions started to flow in that museum. "He says, granddad, what are these patches in the floor of this aircraft and I told him, I says Jackson, those are bullet holes and we looked at those as band-aids," said the 24-year Army veteran. It marked the first time the Jack Catt started feeling comfortable about sharing his memories of his war years with his family.

In addition to our on-camera conversation about that breakthrough moment, the retired colonel also took the time to answer the following 10 questions about the impact his military service has had on the rest of this life. 10 Questions: Jack Catt

1. What one person influenced you most in life? I have so many people who have influenced my life, but probably my father who taught me the value of hard work and honesty in all you say and do (your word is your bond).
2. Do you feel honored and respected for serving your country? Absolutely yes and have no regrets for having served.
3. How can people thank you for your service? I think the community and local media do a great job of honoring our veterans, as witnessed by the veterans' day parade and several other events. I haven't given it much thought --- I've never felt a need to be thanked.
4. How do you honor your fellow service men and women? Our church class has a number of vets who I keep up with, make hospital visits and visit with veterans at Ben Atchley Veterans Home, and on occasion, present vets with flags (and certificates) that have flown over the US Capitol.

5. How do you think this generation of military men and women is different or similar to yours? I entered the Army through ROTC when the draft was still in effect. The draft provided a lot of young men structure and discipline which was needed. We now have an all-volunteer service of men and women that serves out of a sense of patriotism and love of country. The National Guard and Reserves have been called upon as never before to deploy. Technology has made it easy to stay in communication with loved ones which relieves a lot of stress.

6. What influence did your military service have on the rest of your life? It has given me a better sense of appreciation of having been born in this great country and understanding of the sacrifices that were made to make it great.

7. Does your family have a history of military service? Yes. One uncle was killed in Okinawa, and my earliest memory of the military was the shiny black sedan that came to inform my aunt that he had been killed. Two uncles were severely injured in World War II. Two of my brothers served at the time I was in Vietnam - one in Korea and other in Germany.

8. Would you encourage younger generations in your family to join the service? Yes.

9. How has your opinion of war changed? War has become so politicized that the government loses sight of the objective and our young men and women bear the burden and sacrifice.

10. How did your military experience shape your faith? Jeremiah 29:11: "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope." I look back and see the Lord's Hand directing my life, always for good...even when I didn't think so at the time. Therefore, I trust in Him and am at peace.

Additional Biography Notes Courtesy Jack Catt: COL Retired US Army - I was a captain in 1966 when serving in the 173rd Combat Assault Helicopter unit (known as the Robin Hoods). There were two helicopters that stick in my mind - one was 058 known as a "weak sister" and 091 which was the new and best assigned to our unit. I was not aware of the chopper being on display at the Smithsonian Museum of American History until 2012 when visiting the museum with family. I try not to dwell on those years, but coming face to face with that display brought it back in a flash. I have no records to prove that I flew 091, but it's something you don't forget. I did two tours in Vietnam - 1966-67 and 1969-70. It was a privilege to serve with so many young, dedicated and brave soldiers. It was an honor and privilege to serve our country for nearly 30 years and retired from the Army back to Tennessee Jan 30 Nov 1988.

Notes for Oliver Clayton Stockwell, Jr.:

Oliver C. Stockwell Jr., 71, died Sunday, Aug. 7, 2016, at his Lewiston home. Death was caused by cancer. Stockwell's career spanned five decades as a web printing pressman in newspapers and commercial plants throughout the country. He joined the Lewiston Tribune Jan. 3, 1983, as night press foreman, became press supervisor in May 1993 and then the newspaper's press operations manager. Stockwell was the instigator of the 2008 construction of a new 32,000-square-foot TPC Holdings production center and purchase of a German-made MAN Roland Uniset 75 web press that prints the Lewiston Tribune, Moscow-Pullman Daily News and other publications. He retired June 25, 2009. Stockwell's earlier printing career included Adams Business Forms in Topeka, Kansas, Baxter Bulletin in Mountain Home, Arkansas, St. Joe News-Gazette in St. Joe, Missouri, Montgomery Advertiser in Montgomery, Alabama, Treasure Chest in Tampa, Florida, and Sun Press in Kaneohe, Hawaii, and Tigard, Oregon.

Stockwell was born June 22, 1945, in Valley Falls, Kansas, near Topeka, the son of Oliver C. and Velma Greene Stockwell. He attended high school in Lecompton, Kansas, west of Kansas City. He and Patricia Martin were married May 4, 1979, at St. Joe, Missouri. They celebrated their 37th wedding anniversary three months ago. Junior, as friends and family knew him, was the all-out mountain man. In the spring, you would see him loading his truck with dogs, a cooler and fencing supplies, heading off to help any farmer or rancher along his path. He loved to hunt and fish or just spend the day enjoying nature. When he wasn't in the mountains he was always available to help with any project or offer a "cold one." His dream was to have a cabin in the woods. With time and wonderful friends, he built one from scratch southwest of Winchester, hand drilling a well and managing it all without any debt.

Survivors include his wife, Patricia, of Lewiston; daughters Cathrine Greene of Lewiston, Christine (Keith) Radons of Grandview, Texas, and Joy (Gray) Havner of Benbrook, Texas; sons Joseph Wegrzyn of Clarkston and Glenn (Andrea) Wegrzyn of Lewiston; sisters Enola Mack of Meriden, Kansas, Florence (Gary) Helmick of Grantville, Kansas, and Karen Cosca of Antioch, California; and a brother-in-law, Grover Tillotson of Corning, Kansas. He is also survived by nine grandchildren, Nerissa Greene of Lewiston, Adrian and Erin Radons of Grandview, Texas, Haley, Josie and Kylee Wegrzyn of Lewiston, and Geneva, Sequoia and Ceaira Wegrzyn of Clarkston; and a great-grandson, Blaze Evans of Lewiston.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Velma Helmick; sisters Wilma Tillotson and Ruth Boyles; and a brother, Butch Stockwell.

From becoming the "Godfather of the Pressroom" to the mountain man with his horse and cabin, Junior lived a full life. He loved his family and friends and was always ready to jump in and help anyone. At his request, no funeral service will be held. Mountain View Funeral Home of Lewiston is in charge of arrangements.

Notes for Marilyn Tankersley:

Marilyn Tankersley Taylor, loving daughter of Mary Muchmore Tankersley and William Earl Tankersley, passed on October 15, 2017. She was born in Sapulpa, Oklahoma October 25, 1925. Marilyn was preceded in death by her husband, Charles (Chuck) E. Taylor, Jr. in 1994, as well as her parents, brothers Bill (and his wife Betty), and Dan (and his wife Jamie), and her sister-in-law Betty Corn. She was the last of her generation involving both the Tankersley and Taylor families. Marilyn graduated from Classen High School in Oklahoma City class of 1943, and also attended Hockaday School in Dallas during World War II. She was a graduate of the University of Oklahoma in 1946 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. At OU, she was a proud member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority in which she was an active alum for many years. Marilyn married Chuck in Oklahoma City July 9, 1949. They moved to Tulsa for a short time, then on to Colorado thereafter to start a new life with Chuck being a landman for Shell Oil and Tennessee Gas. All of her children were born in Colorado (Sterling, Denver) and in 1956, the family moved to Lafayette, LA where Chuck opened a land office for an oil/gas firm. Marilyn and Chuck loved living in Lafayette, where both became very involved with the community. Marilyn spent most of her time raising her children and volunteering for several non-profit organizations. She enjoyed working with her children's schools, and was president of PTA several times. She also enjoyed being active in: the Junior League, board member of the Rehabilitation Center of Lafayette, Pink Lady for Lafayette General Hospital, Kappa Alpha Theta alumni, Town House Club of Lafayette, Les Amee', D.A.R., Colonial Dames, Women's Club of Lakeway, and spent countless hours assisting with various Mardi Gras balls and related parades. Unfortunately during the summer of 1969, she was diagnosed with breast cancer (there was no chemotherapy or radiation available during that time). After three major surgeries, she remained cancer free until her passing. In 1979, Marilyn and Chuck moved to Lakeway, Texas where they quickly made many friends and enjoyed entertaining them. In 1997 and after Chuck's passing, she began living with her daughter Mary Anne and her husband for the next 14 years in Austin. During that time, she enjoyed meeting many new friend who lovingly called her "T". After being diagnosed with Alzheimer's in 2010, she resided in assisted living and memory care facilities in Austin for the rest of her life. Marilyn's family thanks the many care givers, med-aids, and others who did so much to keep her relatively comfortable despite this debilitating disease she battled for over 7 years.

Marilyn is survived by her children Mary Anne Hackney (husband Jim) of Austin and J. Scott Taylor (wife Cheryl) of Austin. She has 5 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. Marilyn is also survived by her 6 nieces and nephews from the Tankersley side of the family, along with their children and spouses.

Marilyn Tankersley Taylor will be fondly remembered as a loving mother, wife, friend, great cook, organizational expert, industrious, and being a wonderful person who was appreciated and respected by many. She was very proud of her family, and loved family gatherings, along those with neighbors and friends. Marilyn will be forever missed by her family and those closest to her. Marilyn's family and close friends will celebrate her life from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday November 18th at Weed-Corley-Fish Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be made in Marilyn Tankersley Taylor's honor to American Cancer Society, and Alzheimer's Texas (formerly known as Alzheimer's Association Capital of Texas).

Notes for Barbara May Catte:

Barbara May Harlan, 75, passed unexpectedly from this world to the next on March 2nd 2019 at Cape Coral Hospital. Barbara had been a resident of Cape Coral, Florida for the past 18 years. Barbara was born to the late Bill and Lorene Catte of Terre Haute, Indiana on May 17, 1943. She was predeceased by her loving Husband, Don Harlan of Terre Haute, Indiana and also older brother Bill Catte and sister Eileen Brossman. Barbara is survived by her brother, Butch (Peggy) Catte of Terre Haute, Indiana, son John Shipman also of Terre Haute Indiana, and daughters Dawn (Scott) Leonard of Elkhart Indiana, and Traci (David) Meissel of Terre Haute Indiana.

Family members from Indiana joined Barb's devoted friend and companion, Harold (Ron) Jones, of Cape Coral Florida, at her bedside. She was surrounded by her loved ones. Barb's greatest joy in life was her children and grandkids. She was a proud Mom and Grandmother. Her son, daughters, grandchildren and sons-in-law meant the world to her. Grandchildren Hali, Lindsey, Logan, and Tanner adored her and she loved being involved in all of their activities.

Barb loved living in Florida. Reading a good book in the shade of a palm tree in her lanai was a favorite pastime. Her Hoosier relatives would often receive highly detailed and unsolicited Florida weather reports. Usually just reports of warm temps and pleasant sunshine. Most notably received when a polar vortex or blizzard was settled in over the Midwest. Barb was a special lady who will be missed terribly by those of us who were fortunate enough to know her. It is a great comfort to know that she is now at peace and surrounded by loved ones in heaven.

Visitation will be held from 12 to 2 p.m. on Friday, March 8 at Roselawn Funeral Home. A funeral ceremony will be held at 2 p.m., on Friday, at the funeral home with Pastor Larry Richmond officiating. Barbara will be laid to rest in Roselawn Memorial Park. Notes for Rosabel (Rosie) Catt:

Rosabel "Rosie" Jenkins, 91, of Robinson, Illinois, died on Sunday, January 17, 2021, at Cotillion Ridge in Robinson. She was born on August 23, 1929, in Robinson, the daughter of Rev. Loren Catt & Ruby (Simons) Catt, both of whom preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her infant daughter, Omara Kay in 1953; by her sisters, Donna Whitsel and Nina Stone; by her brothers, Kenny Catt, John Howard Catt (in infancy), and Leo Don Catt (in infancy).

She is survived by her son & daughter-in-law, Steve & Janet Jenkins (Robinson, Illinois); by her daughter and son-in-law, Loretta & Charlie Mouser; by her grandchildren, Chris & Carol Guyer (Palestine, Illinois), Richie & Tiffany Guyer (Mt. Carmel, Illinois), Emily & Ben Rardin (Bloomington, Indiana), Melissa Jenkins (Carol Stream, Illinois), David Jenkins (Lexington, Kentucky), Matthew Jenkins (Champaign, Illinois); by her great-grandchildren, Chance Guyer, Kendra Guyer, and Chase Guyer; as well as several nieces and nephews.

Rosabel grew up in Robinson and was a 1947 graduate of Robinson High School. During WWII, she worked at Woolworth's Department Store and acquired the nickname "Rosie." She was employed at Ettelbrick Shoe Factory, Robinson Transformer, and the Robinson IGA, where she was the night manager for many years. She also cleaned houses for several area families. In 1986, she retired and moved to Panama City, Florida, where she became a district manager for Amity Leather and supervised WalletWorks stores, which required her to travel all over the United States. In 2003, she retired again and moved back to Robinson to be closer to her family and returned to IGA as a sales clerk. After her 3rd retirement, Rosie worked part-time at the Deer Run Golf Course for the next three years until she turned 86 years old. Although she busied herself with work all of her adult life, she took time to enjoy her grandchildren and attended nearly all of their school events, concerts, and performances. Rosie loved to dance. She was an avid square dancer and took line dancing classes at Lincoln Trail College. It could be said that dancing was the cornerstone of her social life and was what kept her young for most of her 91 years. Even as she became physically unable to dance, she still loved listening to music. Rosie lived a productive, unfiltered life at her cadence and on her own terms.

Due to the public safety measures being enforced by the State of Illinois, funeral services will be private. Notes for Loretta Ruth Jenkins:

Loretta Mouser, 76, of Bridgeport, Illinois, passed away on Friday, May 30, 2025, at Regional Hospital in Terre Haute, Indiana. Born on August 17, 1948, in Robinson, Illinois, Loretta grew up with a sense of purpose and a steady stride. After graduating from Robinson High School with the Class of 1966, she went on to Lockyear Business College, where she honed her skills in bookkeeping—a field that came as naturally to her as breathing. Loretta had a gift for numbers, and she put it to work at Victor Dana, Pepsi, and LS Heath & Sons. Wherever she was, her sharp mind and quick wit kept things running smoothly. Life took her and her husband, Charlie, on a journey—each new job bringing them to new places, from Illinois to Georgia to Kentucky. But after a string of corporate buyouts—Potter & Brumfield to Siemens to Tyco—they decided it was time to stop moving and come back home, where Loretta rounded out her career with Golden Rule Insurance.

Fast on her feet and even faster to speak her mind, Loretta never wasted time with half-measures. She could breeze through Walmart like a champion, grabbing exactly what she needed and moving on with that determined glint in her eye. She had an artist's heart, too—drawing cartoon characters that could bring a smile to anyone's face and painting those "happy little trees" that Bob Ross made famous, each brushstroke reflecting her vibrant spirit.

Loretta found joy in the simple, everyday tasks of caring for her home. She loved to work in the yard and tend her garden—strawberries, zucchini, tomatoes, cucumbers—growing each plant with the same selfless care she gave to the people she loved. She was always active, always moving, always putting her family first—especially her grandkids. Chance called her "Grandma," and Kendra and Chase called her "Nana," but to all of them, she was the one who got down on the floor to play checkers and Uno, who let them win just often enough, and who taught them that love isn't just something you say—it's something you do.

Loretta was a spitfire—outspoken, high-spirited, and to the point. You never had to wonder what she was thinking—she'd tell you herself! But underneath that fierce honesty was a well of warmth and an unwavering devotion to those she held dear. In the end, that was Loretta's greatest gift: the fierce, everyday kind of love that made a house a home, and a family something to treasure.

She leaves behind her husband of 38 years, Charlie Mouser; her sons & daughters-in-law, Chris & Carol Guyer and Richie & Tiffany Guyer; her grandchildren, Kendra Guyer, Chance Guyer, and Chase Guyer; and her brother & sister-in-law, Steve & Jan Jenkins. She was preceded in death by her parents, Omer Jenkins and Rosabel "Rosie" (Catt) Jenkins, and by her sister, Omara Kay Jenkins, in infancy.

A private family service will be held in the Oblong Cemetery at a later date. The Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson is in charge of arrangements.

Robin Catt, 58, of Robinson, Illinois, died at 9:10 a.m. Wednesday, February 20, 2019 at his home. He was born on July 19, 1960 in Sullivan, Indiana, the son of Sue (Smith) Catt, who preceded him in death on December 5, 2015. He was also preceded in death by his grandparents, Walter & Dixie Smith. He married Robin Stigler on April 16, 2016, and she survives.

Robin grew up in the Robinson area before serving his country in the U.S. Army for a time. He was proud of his service and would become a longtime member of both V.F.W. Post #4549 and American Legion Post #69. Over his life, he worked for a number of local businesses: he was a mowing foreman at Quail Creek Country Club, a vault professional for Rex Vault in Newton, and even ran his own business, Great Outdoors Lawn Care, for several years. For the last 2 and a half years, he worked for Victor Dana in Robinson, where he worked as a press operator alongside his wife, Robin. Outside of work, much of his time was spent bow in hand, be that as a professional archer shooting in competitions, or out deer hunting. An outdoorsman through and through, he spent countless hours with a fishing pole in hand and rode on several poker runs over the years. Robin will long be remembered as one of those rare men who thrived at whatever he put his heart and soul into. He worked hard and loved fully, and this will live on as his lasting legacy.

Notes for Sherry Deaver:

Sherry Michl-Catt, 84, of Oblong, Illinois, passed away on November 20, 2025, at home, wrapped in the love of the family she poured so much of her life into. Her story began on July 7, 1941, in Anna, Illinois, but her life truly took root in Oblong, where she grew up, graduated from Oblong High School in 1959, and began becoming the woman people would remember: strong, resilient, and full of a spark that never dimmed. Even as a teenager, she carried herself with a kind of joy. She marched as a majorette, baton twirling confidently in hand. Not long after high school, she married Fred Michl and became the mother of three daughters who would become the pride of her heart. Life shifted and changed, as life often does, and eventually, Sherry found love again. On June 13, 1992, she married Robert "Bob" Catt in Oblong, and the next chapter of her story was filled with companionship, shared projects, and sun-warmed winters spent together in Florida near Lake Okeechobee. That season with Bob was one of the great joys of her life.

Work came naturally to Sherry because she loved people and she loved helping them. Insurance became her life's career. She began at Weber Insurance in Robinson, moved to Dorsey Kirk Insurance in Oblong, and eventually created something all her own when she and her friend Sharon Salesman opened Two Sharons Insurance (TSI). Sherry had a gift for making people feel seen and cared for, which is what made her good at her work. She could talk to anyone and made strangers feel like friends. When she eventually retired from the insurance world, her hands didn't slow down. She simply poured her attention into a different kind of work. She joined her daughter Lisa at the Village Stitchery, doing embroidery, stitching samples, and lending her creativity to the shop. She had an eye for detail and a patience for the slow work of making something beautiful one stitch at a time. The same care she brought to embroidery she brought to her yard. Sherry's lawn was her pride. She shaped it, tended it, nurtured it, and made it into something the town noticed. Oblong honored her with the Hometown Pride Award for her landscaping, though the award only captured a fraction of how much sweat and love went into those flower beds.

Sherry believed in community. She believed in showing up. She became a charter member of the Oblong Young Homemakers, poured her energy into the March of Dimes, served a couple of terms on the Oblong Village Board, and gave time and heart to the Oblong Chamber of Commerce. She was a member of the First Christian Church in Oblong, and she led with intention in the Oblong Business and Professional Women's Club as well as the Illinois Xi Lambda Chi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. She was also the senior member of "The Pony Club", which became one of her favorite roles because it meant piling her grandchildren into the car and taking them all over the county to look at horses. Those drives, those conversations, those shared sparks of excitement planted something lasting in them.

Sherry's grandchildren held the softest part of her heart. She would babysit them all at once, filling her home with the happy chaos she loved. She cheered them on. She pushed them to discover what they were passionate about. She showed them what it looked like to be strong, steady, present, and endlessly loving. And she was fun. Very sociable. Always ready to help. Always ready to talk. There was an ornery streak that slipped out just enough to make everyone laugh. But life wasn't always sunshine and smiles. Sherry spent decades navigating cancer, off and on, beginning in her thirties. Yet through every round, every appointment, every storm, she fought with grace. She kept moving forward. She kept caring for others. She kept giving, she kept showing up, and she kept loving with everything she had. That perseverance became part of her legacy, a quiet lesson to everyone who watched her: that life is to be lived with heart, and love is worth giving even on the hardest days. The family would like to offer a special note of gratitude to Becky Earnest, whose tender care in the final months brought comfort and peace to Sherry and to all who loved her.

She is survived by her children, Lori (Eric) Eubank of Willow Hill, Illinois, Lisa (Charlie) Pinkston of Oblong, Illinois, and Lynis Michl (Ken Pollard) of Coolidge, Arizona; by her step-children, Barry (Diana) Catt of Mooresville, Indiana, and Bradley Catt of Edinburg, Virginia; and by her grandchildren, Elliot (Katie) Smith, Kelsey (Brandon) Mounts, Kailyn Pinkston (Cameron Callaway), Breanna Michl, Isaiah Michl, and Ava Northen. She also leaves behind her great-grandchildren, Charly Pinkston, Jackson Smith, Hayden Smith, and Scottie Callaway; many step-grandchildren and step-great-grandchildren; and her brother-in-law, Herb Jones of Oblong, Illinois.

Sherry was preceded in death by her husband, Robert "Bob" Catt, on February 13, 2025; by her parents, Don Gholson & Edith (Weaver) Deaver; and by her sisters, Donna Sue Gholson (in infancy) and Carole L. Jones.

A family-guided time of remembrance will be held from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 26th, at the Family Life Center of the First Christian Church in Oblong. Friends are invited to bring photos or stories to share. Memorials may be made to the Oblong Chamber of Commerce for their Mini Park Project or to Transitions Hospice.

6322. Patricia Nadine¹⁴ Sharon (Mary Louise¹³ Catt, Lester Alvdernes¹², Homer Day¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 02 Aug 1939 in Flat Rock, Lawrence Co, Illinois, and died 09 Dec 2014. She married (1) Frank R. LaSage, Jr. 19 Jun 1956 in Goldendale, Clark Co, Washington. He was born 28 Aug 1939, and died 19 Sep 2007 in Lane Co, Oregon. She married (2) Horace Desmond (Bo) Yates 09 Feb 1991 in Lane Co, Oregon. He was born 02 Mar 1938 in Malvern, Hot Spring Co, Arkansas, and died 30 Mar 2014 in Lane Co, Oregon.

Notes for Patricia Nadine Sharon:

Patricia Nadine Sharon Yates was born in Flat Rock, Illinois, in 1939, at the tail end of the Great Depression. It was the perfect context for a woman who would spend her 84 years plus embracing simplicity. She found rest in her Savior on December 9, literally surrounded by her family, after bladder cancer brought her beautiful life of humility and sacrifice to an end. Patricia grew up the loving daughter of Leonard and Louise Sharon, one of five children, often finding mischief in rural Southern Illinois with her older sister Rosalie, and her younger brother Larry. Her father's need to look over the next hill led the family to Oregon, initially in the mid-1930's, returning permanently in 1955, where Patricia would learn to love the Southern Willamette Valley, raising her family and calling South Eugene home for the better part of 70 years.

Patricia's legacy of compassion and humility lives on in her children: daughter April La Sage of Eugene, daughter and son-in-law, Kathi and Tim Hill of Citrus Heights, California, daughter Renee' La Sage of Cheshire, Oregon, and son and daughter-in-law Mike and Luanne La Sage of McKinney, Texas. Patricia's legacy of grace also lives within her 10 grandchildren: Gary Franks, Josina La Sage, Jesse Taekker, Megan Miller, Courtney Cannon, Ashley Miller, Katrina Ford, Caleb La Sage, Kira La Sage, and Taylor Terry; and finally, through her 12 great grandchildren.

Patricia's sole desire was to positively impact her family. Rarely do we find a person who never subtracts from others; Patricia was that person, adding value to each of her children. "She has always been the model we aspire to be like." Patricia ministered to her "ladies," as she called them, as a hair stylist for more than 50 years, in various shops and personal homes around Eugene and Springfield. She used to say that God had given her every one of those customers to serve, and that's what she did. She traveled through later life with many of them, even to the point of their deaths. That journey was one of the purposes that kept her on her feet well into her 80s. Wherever there was an unwanted, abused pet, or a child questioning her or his worth, Patricia's arms were open. She became a "second mother" to many. Patricia often said, "All I want is for people to see through my life my having done some good for others."

"Mom, your impact on the lives of those you loved will endure for generations." Well done, good and faithful daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, wife, friend, and servant. Enter into the joy of your salvation. A memorial service will be held Saturday, December 16, at 5 p.m., at the Eugene Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1275 Polk in Eugene.

Child of Lisa Catt is:

- 9837 i. Blanca¹⁵ Catt, born 1991 in Mexico.

Notes for Blanca Catt:

August 3, 2010 - Blanca Catt -- smuggled into the U.S. as a toddler, taken from abusive parents and adopted -- faces deportation. Blanca Catt, who at 19 still lives at home, wants to join the military or go to college like many in her Columbia Christian School graduating class. Instead she lives in fear she'll be deported. "I'm petrified," Catt says, sitting next to her mother in the conference room of her attorney in downtown Portland on Monday afternoon. "I don't know what's going to happen."

Catt, born in Mexico and smuggled into the U.S. as a toddler, was seized from abusive parents by the state of Oregon and placed into foster care with the Catts when she was 5 years old. The Catts adopted her three years later and said caseworkers told them their daughter automatically became a U.S. citizen. That was not true. When Blanca tried to apply for a driver's permit at 16, She's been in limbo ever since, unable to apply for jobs or loans, or even fly to Disneyland with her graduating class. Wearing patent leather heels and blue jeans and sipping a caramel frappuccino from Starbucks, Catt says she can't imagine returning to Mexico. She doesn't speak Spanish. She doesn't know any one there. But she has good reason to have nightmares because a Multnomah County judge just tossed out her suit against the Oregon Department of Human Services, ruling that she did not file her suit in time.

"The state's not really denying that DHS messed up," said Mark Kramer, who filed the lawsuit on behalf of Catt and her mother. "The state's position is that because Blanca and Lisa didn't bring suit until October, 2009, it's too late." But Oregon's Department of Justice also says its responsibility for Blanca ended the day the Catts finalized her adoption, regardless of whether her legal status had been resolved at that time. "There's no statute that requires DHS to finalize the citizenship of children in their custody," said Kate Medema, an Oregon Department of Justice spokeswoman.

Ironically, if the Catts had gone to Mexico to adopt Blanca, she would have automatically become a U.S. citizen when she entered the country thanks to the Child Citizenship Act of 2000. However, that federal law does not apply to anyone entering the country illegally. Now Catt is caught in a bind. Since she has turned 19, she faces tough penalties for being in the country illegally. If she is deported, she would have to wait 10 years to apply for re-entry. Lisa Catt, Blanca's mother, is frustrated that state workers never completed the paperwork and then failed to tell Blanca's adoptive family of the omission. "I was just in shock at first," she said. "I just had no idea how complicated the process would be or how long it would take."

Legal back-and-forth aside, last week's ruling has left Catt with few options. She's subject to detention and deportation by the INS. "I can't go back," she says. "I wouldn't survive." Beneath the conference room table where she sits her legs begin to shake. Next to her, her mother stares blankly and sighs. Kramer, her lawyer stands up and brings her a box of tissues. Once Multnomah County Circuit Court Judge Pro Tem Charles Corrigan signs off on his ruling, which should be sometime this week, Catt and her mother have up to 30 days to appeal.

Meanwhile, they've worked with an immigration attorney to apply for a U visa, which grants temporary legal status and work eligibility for immigrants who have been crime victims. Because Catt had been abused by her biological mother she could qualify. A U visa would allow Catt to apply for permanent residence status after three years and citizenship after another five. But only 10,000 people per fiscal year can qualify for a U visa. The earliest Catt could receive one would be in October. She said she can scrape together a little money by baby-sitting or doing chores around the house. She also sometimes helps her father with painting houses. Because she doesn't have an ID, she can't drive, she can't fly, she can't take a bus or a train. She's nearly entirely dependent on her family.

She turns 20 in three months. "For me, one of the hardest things is that Blanca hasn't been able to grow up or do those teenage things" said Lisa Catt. "It's not an option for her to live independently." "Purgatory would be an apt description," said Kramer. "She's neither above ground, nor below ground. She can't move on with her life. She's stuck." Catt can remain hopeful, however. At least for now. "But it's hard to stay that way," she says.

He married Alice Faye Green Dec 1961 in Duval Co, Florida. She was born 16 Oct 1943.

Notes for Bruce Dean Chamblin:

Bruce Dean Chamblin, Sr, age 77, of Freeport, Florida entered into the arms of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on September 30, 2020. He was born in Indianapolis, Indiana on January 3, 1943 to George Mason Chamblin and Precious Maxine Chamblin Phillippe, both of them preceding him in death. His dad George Mason was killed while serving in the U.S. Army during World War II in France while Bruce was still an infant. Bruce, having never known his dad, had spoken recently of his excitement of meeting his dad one day soon in heaven. And he is finally reunited with him.

He is survived by his loving wife of 58 years Alice Faye Chamblin who he met when he was 16 yrs old and she was just fifteen. She was the love of his life and adored her so much. She was his "Little Bit", "Poozie" or "Fayzie" depending on the day. His very last spoken wish was to know that she would be taken care of. He had four children and four "children-in-love" (their spouses); Bruce Dean Chamblin, Jr (Kelley) of Destin, Florida, Richard Mason Chamblin (Amanda) of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida, Cheryl Renee Adair (Kevin) of Ft. Mill, South Carolina and Traci Michelle Hall (Brandon) of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida; his six grandchildren Alexandra Renee Landers (Patrick) of Destin, Florida, Ashlee Renay Frazelli (Tony) Seattle, Washington, Danielle Brooke Willis of Boca Raton, Florida, George Mason Chamblin of Coaling, Alabama who bears the honor of being named after his great-grandfather, Lexi Reagan Hall of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida and Kennedy Alyssa Hall of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida; and one great-grandson Lucas Kenneth Landers of Destin, Florida. He had a brother; David Goodman Phillippe (Sherry) of Gadsden, Alabama, and a sister; Barbara Ann McCollum of Hendersonville, North Carolina.

Bruce graduated from Terry Parker High School in Jacksonville, Florida in 1960 where he sat first chair clarinet in the marching band. He attended University of Florida in Gainesville, Florida from 1960 to 1962. He had a successful career in the automotive industry which included owning two Shell service stations in Jacksonville, Florida and continued in the auto industry until retirement. From a very early age, Bruce had a real passion and love for music being gifted to play several instruments. He also sang tenor in various church and community choirs and the latest being The Ecumenical Choir of Walton County of which he was a current member. He was very community minded and supportive of first responders, serving years ago as the chief commander of the Sheriff's 4 Wheel Drive Posse of Duval County, Florida and as a volunteer firefighter in Northport, Alabama.

He was a loving husband, father, and grandfather and would rather be with his family than anywhere else. He was a godly man of faith, served as a deacon, and lived a life that was an example to many. He was very sentimental and loved deeply while also being deeply loved. He was a man of his word, full of wisdom, strong but gentle, tender-hearted, dependable, always there to help, and the list of his amazing qualities could go on forever. He was the "king" of bringing things back to life instead of getting rid of them. He could sleep standing up, loved chocolate, and loved pork and beans. And all who were close to him loved and appreciated these things because it made him who he was. While we, the family, are so thrilled to know he is in the presence of his Lord, we will sorely miss his love and influence in our lives.

His Celebration of Life service will be held on Sunday, October 4, 2020 at Heritage Gardens Funeral Home & Cemetery. Visitation starts in the Chapel at 1:00 PM with service being held at 2:00 PM. David Phillippe will be leading the chapel service and Pastor Shawn Baker will be closing the service at graveside. Burial will follow.

Notes for Koury Leroy Catt:

Koury Leory Catt 1978-2023 - As I listen to the cacophony of voices in the other room; little ones squealing, the murmur of adult voices, I notice that there is one voice missing. It will now only be heard in our hearts and minds. Koury's voice has been stilled here on this earth but, without a doubt, it is being raised in joyful song in praise to his wonderful Lord and Savior. We will once again hear that laugh, sarcastic wit and kind words of love and care. Until then dear Son, brother, father and "rampa".....You are missed. Psalm 30:5 "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning"

In 1950, she married Victor "Vic" Davis of Newton, where they settled to raise a family. After many years as a florist, DeLoise became the bookkeeper at Wenger Oil Company in Newton, where she retired as Office Manager in 1988.

DeLoise and Vic were regulars at the local Elks Lodge and V.F.W. on weekends, when Vic performed with his combo. DeLoise had also been a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church. What DeLoise loved the most all her life was spending time with and entertaining her family and friends. She also enjoyed, in no particular order: yellow roses, strawberry milkshakes, the Colorado mountains, Dixieland Jazz, skip-bo games with her granddaughters, fettucine Alfredo, the New York Yankees, the California coast, poker games with her girlfriends, Tony Bennett's singing, and a love of travel that was a gift she shared with her family as often as she could. DeLoise's warm, loving nature and wry sense of humor will be missed by all who knew her.

Notes for Phillip Charles Ross:

Mishawaka - Phillip C. (Phil, Bus) Ross fought the good fight and passed away peacefully in his home surrounded by loving family. Born in Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, Phil was preceded in death by his parents, James and Mary (Skya) Ross; his brother, William "Bill" Ross; and sister and brother-in-law, Shirley and John Rukas, all of Beaver Falls. During WWII, while serving in the U.S. Navy as a Petty Officer-First Class, Phil met his true love, Ruth Ellis. They were married in Frankfort, IN on August 17, 1946. She survives along with their children, Rhonda (Terry) Jackson of Mishawaka and James Ross of Ballwin, Missouri; and their grandchildren, Susan (Michael) Redman of Chicago, IL and Julia (Robert) Wille of Cincinnati, Ohio, Todd (Sarah) Ross of St. Peters, MO and Tristin (Derek) Harper of St. Peters, Missouri. The energy of their eight great-grandchildren, Jackson and Catherine Redman, Avery and Estelle Wille, Ellie and Locke Ross and Sophie and Daphne Harper was a great delight.

Also surviving to cherish his memory are his sister and brother-in-law, Delores "Dee" and Al Tripodi and sister-in-law, Margaret (Luciny) Ross-Dunn all of Beaver Falls, along with numerous cousins, nieces and nephews to whom he will always be "Uncle Bus." A 1936 graduate of Beaver Falls High School, Phil attended Geneva College and was a graduate of The Garfield Business Institute.

After discharge from the U.S. Navy, Phil enjoyed an illustrious career in wholesale and retail management with Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. While following this career path, he and Ruth moved throughout Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Indiana. After retiring from Goodyear, Phil began an entirely new type of career as a certified financial planner with IDS Financial Services which would become Ameriprise Financial. In 1977, they relocated to his hometown where he served his clients for 15 years, finally moving back to Indiana and retiring. Finally, at the urging of his grandchildren he published his memories, at 96, an accomplishment in which he took great pride.

Phil was a member of several fraternal civic organizations, The Wolves, American Legion, The Eagles, The Kiwanis, an honorary life member of The Moose and The Elks and was a Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus. We, his family, wish to thank especially, Mrs. Toni Krakowski and Mr. Gary Murray for their kind, patient care during his last months, along with neighbors, Mrs. Marcie Butz and Mr. Wally Vernasco, and the attending nurses from Center for Hospice.

First Christian Church, Athens, with the Rev. Bill Hauck officiating. Burial will be at Oak Lawn Memorial Park under the direction of Carroll- Lehr Funeral Home. Perk, as he was known to his close friends and family, passed away peacefully from this world into his Savior's arms the evening of August 20, 2011 in Athens, Texas surrounded by the love of his family. Perk was born Oct. 3, 1924 in Washington, Indiana to the late Lucille Moore and Charles Abraham Perkins, Sr. He married Dorothy "Dot" Hickey in 1947 in Odessa, Texas. They were happily married for 55 years.

Perk joined the U.S. Navy at 17 to serve during World War II. After leaving the service he attended Louisiana Tech, and then he was off to Rice University, where he was the shortstop for the Rice Owls. He completed his education at Oklahoma University, where he received his degree in petroleum engineering. He started his career with Gulf Oil Company, and continued practicing engineering with San Juan Exploration and Producing Properties Inc. Following years of working in the field managing drilling projects, he then became a vice-president at Republic National Bank, using his petroleum engineering experience in the oil loan department. He was an elder at East Dallas Christian Church and was very active coaching the men's and women's baseball teams.

All Perk ever wanted was a simple life. So, in 1976, he retired to Athens, buying the ranch of his dreams and, of course, a John Deere tractor. Raising Santa Gertrudis cattle, mending fences and working the land with his dogs by his side was a dream-come-true for Perk. Moving to Athens allowed him to be a constant fan at his grandchildren's sporting events, where he made friends with everyone around him, both young and old. He loved baseball and, of course his beloved Texas Rangers. Life at the ranch provided him with many happy memories of holiday celebrations, Sunday meals, and opportunities for he and Dot to be surrounded by the children and grandchildren they held so dear to their hearts, and loved so very much. After moving to Athens, he became an active member of First Christian Church where he taught Sunday school for 20 years. It was here that he met his lovely wife Betty Tinsley. Together they enjoyed being stewards of the church, as well as entertaining family and friends.

Preceding him in death were his wife of 55 years Dorothy; sister, Ruth Perkins; sons, Kertis Paul Perkins and Frank Keith Perkins. Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife Betty Perkins of Athens; brother, Charles Abraham Perkins, Jr., of Santa Fe, New Mexico, son William Karl Perkins of Dallas; daughter, Kelley P. 7113. Jeanne Theresa¹⁴ Harper (Ruby May¹³ Davidson, Alwilda S. (Wilda)¹² Catt, Josiah Franklin¹¹, John¹⁰, George⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 27 Sep 1918 in Sedgewick, Alberta, Canada, and died 20 Mar 2012 in Brier, Snohomish Co, Washington. She married Carl Ernest Zimmerman 28 Sep 1946 in Isle, Mille Lacs Co, Minnesota. He was born 02 Sep 1922 in Bellevue Twp, Morrison Co, Minnesota, and died 29 Apr 2016 in Provo, Utah Co, Utah.

Notes for Jeanne Theresa Harper:

Jeanne H. Zimmerman passed on peacefully early on the first day of Spring, Tuesday, March 20, 2012. She is survived by her beloved husband of more than 65 years, Carl E. Zimmerman; daughter Freda J. Zimmerman (Ted Griffin); Kathryn M. Gallo (Raymond Sr., deceased); Trina I. Miller (Kory); grandchildren Gwendolyn K. (Stepp) Banchemo, Alice I. (Freist) Moore, Kyle N. Miller (Melese), and Justin B. Miller; and great-grandchildren Thomas K. Banchemo, Sarah E.A. Banchemo and Lily Jeane Miller. Her parents Ruby M. (Davidson) Harper and Eugene O. Harper, and sister Edith O. (Harper) Dauzenroth predeceased her.

Born September 27, 1918 in Sedgwick, Alberta, Canada, young Jeanne Harper grew up in challenging times and circumstances. Only six years old when her mother was widowed (in Spokane, Washington), her mother struggled to keep the small family together during the 1920s. The years of the Great Depression – the 1930s - were even more difficult. After many moves, they finally landed in Seattle.

In spite of extreme poverty, Jeanne grew up in a family which valued learning, literature and culture. Although money was scarce, her mother (Ruby Harper) insisted that Jeanne obtain an excellent education. While attending the University of Washington, Jeanne worked at Suzzallo Library. Later she worked at the old Seattle Carnegie Library in downtown Seattle and at most of its Seattle branches, filling in for librarians during their vacations. In 1940, she graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Washington. She taught in Shelton In 1940-1, in Burlington 1941-42, and in Fall 1942 she returned to Seattle to teach and care for her mother. She was the first school librarian when Nathan Eckstein Junior High opened in Fall 1950. Later she taught in the Edmonds School District from 1961-1963, and enjoyed teaching Sunday School classes for many years.

Mother/Jeanne always said that her childhood dream was to marry a farmer and never have to move again. During a World War II U.S.O. dance, she met a tall red-headed sailor from Minnesota who dreamed of farming when the war was over – Carl E. Zimmerman. On September 28, 1946 Mom and Dad married in Minnesota where his family lived. In 1948 unexpected premature twins changed their plans. They moved back to Seattle in 1949, where Jeanne worked as a teacher and librarian. Carl found land in Alderwood Manor which he cleared; on this acreage he built a poultry farm (South Alderwood Egg Farm). He remodeled a "little brown house" where they moved in 1950, and later he built "the Yellow House" next door where the family moved in 1956. It was in this second home that Mother passed from this earth early on the first day of Spring, in the home she treasured, surrounded by beautiful flowers and trees. Mother anchored the family: vibrant, strong, cheering us on and cheering us up. Dad and all of us will sorely miss her, while holding happy memories of shared good times.

Although Mother prepared for a career and worked as a teacher and librarian for many years, her pride and joy was her family and home, which she improved and beautified in countless ways. Her graciousness and kindness characterized a life of goodness which was an inspiration to all, and which we will always remember.

Notes for Jared Paul Huntley:

Funeral for Jared Paul Huntley will be on Friday, August 4, 2017 at 12:30 PM. at Floral Haven Chapel, 6500 S. 129th E. Ave., Dr. Terence Carey will give the eulogy. He has been Jared's physician since 1992 and is also an ordained minister. Jared would not have been with me this long without the care of such a dedicated physician. Jared died peacefully in my arms at 4:06 AM July 29, 2017. My precious 42-year-old angel son, Jared, crossed over to be with a multitude of waiting family members.

He was predeceased by his sister, Gianna Huntley-Moffatt (OKC) father Ron Huntley (Tulsa) Grandparents: Glenn and Era Lawrence (Owasso) & Harold and Delois Huntley (Tulsa). He is survived by his mother, Joan Carolyn Lawrence (Tulsa), brother-in-law, Matt Moffatt, nieces Lyz & Cait and nephew Will Moffatt (all of OKC). He has 2 uncles, Rick Lawrence and Larry Huntley of Tulsa.

When the nurses told me he was going quickly, I climbed up in his hospital bed and held him as he breathed his last few earthly breaths. Originally, thought not to be able to live past 2 weeks, Jared lived 42.5 years. He was a fighter, a winner...he was his Mom's little "Super Hero". For the majority of his life, it seemed to be just the 2 of us against the world. Those who chose not to know Jared missed out on knowing a very special person. Although he had special needs, he also had special gifts. His smile was like the sunshine breaking through the clouds. He was pleasant and had a sweet loving personality. Those who knew him received a special blessing. He was God's angel on earth. His mission was to bring joy to all who knew him. He carried out his mission valiantly. I am proud to have been the woman chosen to give birth to such a precious child. Jared loved hearing the songs of his toy birds and from an early age enjoyed hearing Elvis sing. Before having to start using tube feedings for Jared's nutrition years ago, he enjoyed eating lemon pudding, but strongly disliked chocolate! He loved to see wrestling on TV. I think it was the noise of the wrestling that fascinated him. Each person born has a soul and is worthy of our love. Some are considered to be "disabled". I, on the other hand, think of them as "differently-abled". I pray that all of you are kind to such precious individuals and know that but for the grace of God, goes you. Due to accident, illness, human error, or genetics, this could be you or a family member. Even though my Jared now has a heavenly address, I will continue for the rest of my life to be an outspoken advocate for those individuals who cannot speak for themselves. Live your life as honorably and bravely as my son Jared and many others like him have done. Even though I am old and tired now, and every night suffer through horrible nightmares (PTSD), I would not change even one thing! I live with the promise of one day standing before the throne and hearing the words, "well done, my good and faithful servant!" Evidently, this was God's plan for my life. From my arms into the arms of Jesus-REST IN PEACE MY BELOVED SON!

Notes for Arlene Ann Day:

Arlene Ann Corliss, the youngest child of Gene and Marie Day, was born in Hebron, Nebraska, on October 19, 1940. She passed away peacefully on March 4, 2017. She attended Hebron Public Schools, where she graduated in 1959. While in high school, she was busy in many activities, including cheerleading. She married Roger Corliss at the age of 18 and they were together for 16 years. They had 4 children, of which their first child, a daughter named Laura, died at childbirth. The town of Hebron was the love of her life. Arlene lived her entire life in Hebron and was happy to raise her children there. She worked various part time jobs before being hired at the assessor's office in the courthouse, which is where she spent the rest of her career. She retired at the age of 68. She enjoyed playing bridge, watching her grandkids in various activities, gardening and making sure all the birds at her house were well fed. However, her favorite past time was going for rides around Hebron or on the river road. It wasn't uncommon to see her tooling around Hebron with her dog Tawny as passenger.

She was preceded in death by her parents, daughter Laura and brother Dean Day. She is survived by her 3 children: Roger (Denise) Corliss of Livermore, Colorado; Rory (Kathy) Corliss of Lavista, Nebraska; and Jody (Brian) Hergott of Ft. She also leaves behind many nieces and nephews.

Notes for Roger Frank Corliss:

Roger Frank Corliss, son of Frank Nathan and Hazel Lorraine (Dutcher) Corliss, was born November 7, 1940, in Hebron, Nebraska. He lost his valiant 20-year battle with multiple myeloma on October 8, 2020, at McKee Medical Center, Loveland, Colorado at the age of 79. Roger grew up in Hebron, Nebraska, with his four sisters, Marjorie, Peggy, Nancy, and Barbara attending Hebron High School where he was a stand-out athlete all through his high school years. He excelled in track and field events, baseball, basketball, and football and was well known in Southeastern Nebraska for his athleticism. His proud mother made a scrapbook filled with newspaper article clippings and saved all his jacket "letters." When crowned Prom King in his senior year, he looked "dashing" in his dirty football uniform at half-time during the game!

In 1959, Roger married Arlene Day and they started their family in Hebron. Sadly, their firstborn daughter, Laura, was stillborn. However, soon they welcomed Roger Wayne, followed by Rory Alan and finally Jody Gaye. A beautiful young wife and budding family focused Roger's attention on developing a career in sales. Using the charm he honed in his high school days, he opened a clothing store in Hebron and appealed to the fashion style of the day. He was involved with the local Jaycees chapter and acted in melodramas to raise money for charities. Staying in one place was not easy for Roger, and he discovered that he had a knack for chatting and visiting with farmers and soon was traveling around Southeastern Nebraska selling electric fences, then subscriptions to farm magazines, and finally insurance. Roger and Arlene divorced in 1972 and he moved to Colorado where he continued his career in sales. The lure of the mountains, hunting, fishing, and something new was all Roger needed to keep his curiosity going.

Roger married Kathleen Lawless in 1977 and soon they welcomed Krista Kathleen to their family. They lived in Sterling and then in Falcon, Colorado where he tried his hand at carpentry and built their home. He continued sales with the Colorado Rancher and Farmer, however, to keep moving and to supplement income. They divorced in 1985.

In 1989 when Roger was living in Fort Collins, he was set up on a blind date with Mary Ann Fisketjon and in 1991 they married and blended their families. Roger continued selling insurance for a while, but then went to work at a bank managing supplies and providing courier services. He was doing this when he was diagnosed with multiple myeloma in 2000. Seeking the best treatment was paramount, and Roger took his doctor's advice and went to Little Rock, Arkansas for it. He received tandem stem cell transplants there in 2003 after which he achieved full remission for 7 years. Again in 2010, he received his final stem cell transplant after which he again achieved full remission for just over 8 years.

During Roger's times in remission he found his "voice" for cancer and a calling to speak. He found that the more he talked about his diagnosis the easier he could cope with it. He spoke to newly diagnosed folks and gave them hope, he spoke to men's groups about the importance of regular check-ups, and he spoke to groups that were experiencing chemo treatment encouraging them there was a light at the end of the tunnel. He was on the advisory committee for the now UCHHealth Cancer Center on Harmony Road. When Roger recovered from his first stem cell transplants, he decided to get back into the track and field events and participate in the Colorado Senior Olympics. He worked out tirelessly, trained with purpose, and participated with determination. He placed 1st or 2nd in the Colorado, Wyoming, and Nebraska state games, the Huntsman World Senior Games in St. George, Utah, throwing the shot put and the discus, and placed 7th in the National Senior Olympic Games in Baton Rouge, Louisiana throwing the discus. He currently holds the Colorado record for throwing the shot put indoors for his age bracket.

Roger enjoyed traveling and he did so extensively. Whether it was to New York for sales meetings, Napa Valley for wine-tasting, New Orleans for food tasting, Europe for sight-seeing, Lake Powell for camping and fishing or Las Vegas for just plain fun, Roger enjoyed it all. He attended as many of the high school class reunions as possible back in Hebron, as he loved staying in contact with these life-long friends. He and his boys planned annual hunting and fishing trips that were as much re-connection as they were for sport. And let no Bronco game get together go without the potluck snack table--Roger's favorite part! No family member will make a chocolate cake or chocolate cookie without thinking of the pleasure these treats brought Roger! Roger discovered he had a knack for working with wood and spent a lot of his time at Jay Warburton's shop developing this skill. He made bowls, candle holders, Christmas ornaments, benches, and many other wooden treasures that adorn not only friends and family homes, but sold quite well in the local Colorado souvenir stores. He branched out into making outhouses that he sold mostly to ranchers and farmers, but a couple found their way into backyards as a fun twist for a flower shed. Roger volunteered with Christ United Methodist Church, Habitat for Humanity, and participated on many Cancer, Diabetes and Alzheimer fund-raising walks. He had a lot of fun with the church softball team and was a football coach with the City recreational league for 12-year-old boys.

Roger led a busy life, but some of his fondest moments were the quiet times he spent with each of his children and grandchildren, time to reminisce, to tell stories, and to listen. He leaves behind a large family who will miss him dearly, his wife, Mary Ann, his children, Roger (Denise) Corliss, Rory (Kathy) Corliss, Jody (Brian) Hergott, Krista (Andy) Bradley, his stepsons, Joshua (Corinne) Fisketjon, and Matthew (Sarah) Fisketjon. He leaves his sisters Peggy (James) Jones, Nancy Davidson, and Barbara Onnen, and joined his sister, Marjorie Mangham, who passed away earlier this year. His grandchildren, Courtney Corliss, Chance Corliss, Kendall (Nick) Dahlstrom, Colin (Baylee) Corliss, Katy (Benjamin) Sousan, Caleb (Tiffany) Mitchell, Austin (Mariah) Hergott, Landon (Brianna) Hergott, Briana (Andrew) Palmer, Cheyenne Garcia, Paige (Troy) Haigh, Brianna, Eli and Liam Fisketjon, and 12 great-grandchildren with 2 on their way.

Cremation has taken place and Roger's service will be held at Christ United Methodist Church, 301 E Drake Road, Fort Collins, Colorado, Friday, October 16, 2020 at 1 p.m. The masks and social distancing will be accommodated. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Roger's name to the Multiple Myeloma Research Foundation, c/o Christ United Methodist Church.

7243. Dean Willy¹⁴ Day (Eugene Drew¹³, Charles Eugene¹², Mary Ann¹¹ Catt, Jesse Mason¹⁰, George⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 26 Sep 1923 in Hebron, Thayer Co, Nebraska, and died 12 Feb 2003 in Bailey, Park Co, Colorado. He married Winifred Doris Ordway. She was born 30 Mar 1924 in Kansas, and died 02 Dec 2017 in Colorado.

Notes for Winifred Doris Ordway:

Winifred Doris "Wini" Day went to heaven on Saturday, Dec. 2, 2017. To many in the Bailey area, Wini was "Grandma" or "The Organ Lady." Grandma Wini welcomed neighborhood kids into her home always and gave hugs willingly. Although the people Grandma Wini leaves behind are saddened that we no longer have her to talk to, joke with, or laugh at, we know Grandma Wini is happy and where she wants to be. The rest of us will carry her in our hearts always.

Wini was born March 30, 1924, to Guy and Amanda Ordway. Although she was an only child, Wini idolized her dad, a football coach, and their home was filled with team members and eventually an adopted brother. Wini's younger days were spent living in Kansas and then in Hebron, Neb., where she met the love of her life, Dean Day, and on Sept. 15, 1944, they were married. After moving to Bailey, Wini and Dean spent their early years running the Knotty Pine. After that venture ended, Wini taught music at the school, then spent the rest of her working days at the Bailey post office. For many years, on most Sundays Wini could be found playing the organ at Platte Canyon Community Church. In her spare time Wini played the piano for musicals at the high school and judged speech meets.

Wini is preceded in death by her husband Dean; her granddaughter Toni; and her first child, Michael Scott. Wini is survived by her adopted brother Gary Ordway (Dawn); her children Terry Barber, Drue Hatch, and Cory Day (Ruth); as well as grandchildren Tiffany, Rob, Brandon, Brian, Daniel and Ally. Wini was also blessed with five great-grandchildren, Michael, Austin, Hunter, Jayden and our newest addition Dean.

For most of Wini's life in the Bailey area she was a well-known and popular fixture in the community. For anyone wishing to pay their respects and honor Wini's memory, she has a special request: "Please do not mourn my death with a service, but celebrate my life! Take a friend to lunch. Laugh, joke, love, and enjoy each other while you are together." In honoring her wishes, no services will be held. Wini will be cremated. The family asks that any donations being made be done in Wini's name to Mount Evans Home Health Care, Inc., 3081 Bergen Park Drive, Suite 100, Evergreen, Colorado 80439.

Kent Allen¹⁴ Meek (Dorothy D.¹³ Day, Charles Eugene¹², Mary Ann¹¹ Catt, Jesse Mason¹⁰, George⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 05 Aug 1939 in Great Bend, Barton Co, Kansas, and died 27 Nov 2009 in Issaquah, King Co, Washington. He married Anne Bridget Ginnaty 26 Dec 1960 in Cascade Co, Montana. She was born 01 Oct 1940 in Great Falls, Cascade Co, Montana.

Notes for Kent Allen Meek:

Kent A. Meek - After a decade long struggle with Alzheimer's disease, Kent initiated his journey with the Lord on Friday, November 27th. Kent recently celebrated his 70th birthday in August and had been a resident of Issaquah for the past four years. Kent was born August 5, 1939 in Great Bend, Kansas to A. Maxwell and Dorothy Meek. He graduated from Natrona County High School in Casper, Wyoming, in 1957, and began college at the University of Montana that same year. While attending the University of Montana, he married his wife Anne from Great Falls, Montana. Kent moved his family to Washington in 1961, relocating in the Forks area while working as a forestry engineer for the Department of Natural Resources. Kent later moved to Olympia and then Redmond, as a right-of-way manager for Puget Power.

Prior to his retirement in 1997, Kent and his wife moved to Gig Harbor where they lived until moving to Issaquah in 2006. Kent was a devoted family man who spent a majority of his time supporting his children and his wife in football, baseball and soccer activities, often coaching the children's teams to spend more time with them. He was also a caring man who was kind to all who he met, offering to listen and help those who came to him with their problems. His home was often a place of refuge for friends of his children who needed time to get their lives back on track. Kent had an incurable and contagious sense of humor, a trait that not even Alzheimer's could take from him. He lived life each day as if it were a gift, finding joy and happiness in his daily adventures.

Kent is survived by his wife Anne, his son John and daughter Kristin Leffler, and his sister Mary Ann Smith. Kent is also survived by nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Kent's son Clint preceded him in his journey with the Lord. A memorial service will be held for Kent at 1:00 PM on Saturday, December 5th at Issaquah Christian Church.

Marilyn Sanders passed away on Tuesday, February 14, 2012 in Oroville. She was 83 years old. She was born Marilyn Corinne to Bert and Amy Jennings on November 15, 1928 in Albion, Nebraska. She was the fifth of six children. She had fond childhood memories of growing up on a farm in Bartlett, Nebraska. By the time she was ten, she had moved to Washington and had lost both her parents and a brother. Another brother was lost at Java Sea in WWII, only 4 years later in 1942. After attending a one room schoolhouse, Marilyn went on to graduate from San Diego State College with a degree in marketing. She enjoyed San Diego and was involved in many clubs and societies in college.

She married in 1950 in Michigan and moved to California in 1956. She worked part time as a substitute teacher starting in 1957, then full time as a social worker in 1963. Lastly, she spent twenty years or more working for the United States Postal Service. After retirement, she moved from Hayward, CA to Oroville to be closer to family. During her retirement, she enjoyed spending time with her family, reading books from the library, researching family genealogy, searching for bargains at yard sales, playing cards and board games. She was honored to be a member of the D.A.R., celebrating her long American heritage. Recently, she had discovered Facebook and she liked keeping in touch with family and friends on there as well as seeing their photos.

She is survived by her three children - Shawn Ramsey-Davis of Paradise, Leonard Sanders and Kelly Sanders, both of Oroville; their spouses; eight grandchildren; one sister-in-law; seven nieces; one nephew, numerous great nieces/ nephews; numerous cousins, and sixteen great-grandchildren with one more on the way. Her ex-husband and father of her three children, Tom Sanders, and all her siblings passed on before her.

Marilyn's legacy is her mother, Amy's love of reading, which she gave to Marilyn, who then passed it on to her children, who have passed it on to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. There will be no memorial service at her request, however her family members are planning a small private gathering in her honor. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her name to the Literacy Program at your local library.

Notes for Thomas Leonard Sanders, Jr.:

Thomas Leonard Sanders, Jr., April 13, 1930 - June 15, 2008 With a voice that was always heard, and a laugh that filled a room, our husband, dad and grandpa will always be missed. With an unforgettable spirit, we will always remember the lessons taught and the love shared over so many years. So papa, take a deep breath and rest, for we will see you again in Heaven - (By granddaughter, Amy Below)

Tom was born in Durand, Michigan to Rev. Thomas Leonard and Alice (Wright) Sanders and grew to adulthood in various Michigan towns as his parent's pastorate moved from church to church. He served in the Army in the Korean-Conflict, relocated to the San Francisco Bay Area in the 50's, and to Oroville in 1964, where he managed the tire department for Montgomery Wards. Upon leaving Wards, Tom was area rep for General Tire until he bought the General Tire store on Olive Hwy which he franchised with BF Goodrich and later with Big O Tires. Tom had deep faith in God, loved his country, the Sierra Nevada Mountains, and his family.

He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Luella Sanders; children, Shawn Davis (Steve), Leonard (Nancy), Rick (Tammy), Kelly (Bev), Susie Below (Dennis); 11 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and his mother-in-law, Letha Critchfield. He is also survived by his sister, Gloria Telander, and Mike Ramsey (Carroll), the father of three of his granddaughters.

Praise be to God that Tom's cancer brought him no pain, and minimal sick days. At Tom's insistence, there will be no funeral.

Janet Marlene Nicholson, of Greenwood, Indiana, passed away April 7, 2021, at the age of 86. Janet, lovingly called "Nana", was born in New Castle, Indiana on February 6, 1935 and lived most of her life in Greenwood, Indiana. Janet committed her life to being a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother. Janet was the definition of a "book worm", spending most of her childhood with her nose in a book and most of her adulthood working in libraries around Indianapolis. If she was not reading, she could be found at a park, taking in the scenery or at church, singing and praising God.

A lifelong resident of Indiana, she was preceded in death by her husband, Ronald Nicholson, as well as her parents, Willa and Corliss Roth and Otto Catt. She is survived by her son, Brian Nicholson, daughter-in-law, Karen Nicholson, and granddaughter, Kellie Nicholson, of Greenwood, Indiana; her brother, Richard Catt, of Indianapolis, Indiana; and her sister, Karen Cothron, of Greenwood, Indiana.

Being an avid lover of books and libraries, the family requests that memorial donations be made to the Indianapolis Public Library Foundation in Janet's name. There will not be a public calling or service for Janet, as the family wishes to celebrate her life privately.

Friends may visit at the funeral home from 12—8 on Wednesday. John passed away on Sun. Jan. 15th, 2006 after a two-year battle with Leukemia. He was 69. Born in Topeka, Kansas to John and Estel Rhinehart Smith, John was reared and educated in his birth community. As a young boy he never had trouble finding jobs to do or making a friend. At the age of five he sold newspapers in downtown Topeka and later caddied at golf courses, set pins in bowling alleys, worked for Western Union and in the potato fields around Topeka. John also worked for Cooks Paint Company in Topeka with his father.

In 1956, Johnny joined the Army and went to basic training in Fort Hood, Texas. There he continued meeting friends, including one of the most famous ones, Elvis Presley. Johnny spoke fondly of the conversations he had with the King. He then served in Germany as a radio control specialist. After his tour of duty, he came home and went to work for Topeka Blue Print Company. He met DelVerta Ann Catt in 1961 and they married. Johnny worked for Edwards Home Decorating Shop for a while and decided that he wanted a better life for his family, so he joined the Air Force in 1963.

During his service he traveled a lot, saw all of Europe, Korea and Guam. He was stationed in Biloxi, Mississippi where he went to technicians school and received a degree. He was also stationed at Columbus, Mississippi and Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, Colorado where he furthered his education. Johnny spent three tours of duty in Guam and spent 2 more years there with his family. After Guam the family lived in many different places: Offutt Air Force Base at Bellevue, Nebraska, Korea, Minot, North Dakota and Barksdale Air Force Base in Louisiana. In 1981, Johnny retired and moved to Colorado Springs. The couple made their home here for 10 years until they moved to Chelsea and this has been home since. While living in Chelsea Johnny delivered papers for the Claremore Progress. Johnny was an avid sports fan. He never missed a chance to defend his favorite teams, the Oklahoma Sooners and the Kansas Jayhawks. You might say Johnny never met a stranger, he was able to have conversations with anyone he ran into. He was a very friendly and outgoing person. Johnny really cared about other people and his family. He was so dearly loved by so many people.

Johnny leaves so many memories with his treasured family which include his wife DelVerta of their home in Chelsea; children Johnny Smith and wife LouAnn, Ronald Smith and wife Tanya all of Claremore and Teletha Penny and husband Tom of Michigan; siblings George Smith and wife Lois of Topeka, Dean Smith and wife Sharon of Silverlake, Kansas, Geraldine Pruitt and husband Edgar of Alachua, Florida and Helen Turner and husband Warren also of Topeka; his grandchildren Tana Smith, Ronald Smith, Jessica Penny, Jacob Penny, Michaela Smith, Johnny Smith and Leanna Smith and many nieces and nephews. She married John Frederick Naegele 26 Jan 1968 in Bozeman, Montana. He was born 03 Feb 1946 in Helena, Lewis and Clark Co, Montana, and died 07 Apr 2017 in Graham, Pierce Co, Washington.

Notes for John Frederick Naegele:

It is with deep sadness that we must share the news of the loss of a beloved local educator, family man, Lay Minister, and friend, John F. Naegele. John passed peacefully into the arms of Our Heavenly Father on April 7, 2017, surrounded by his loving family. The first of the 5th Generation of Naegele's in Montana, John came into this world Feb. 3, 1946, in Helena, Montana, as the first born son of Jack C. and Lorena J. Naegele (both deceased) and was later joined by younger brother, Tom Naegele, and little sister Jeanne (Michael) Kohal.

John graduated from Helena High School in 1964. It was here that he met Ruth Larimer, his true love, best friend, and partner for the rest of his life. John went on to continue his education at Montana State University, GO BOBCATS! John became a member of the Lambda Chi Fraternity while at MSU. John and Ruth married in January 1968 and, later that year, welcomed their daughter, Kirstin. John went on to earn a BS degree in Zoology and graduated with a Masters of Science in Zoology along with a teaching certificate in 1971. John then embarked on a career in education, moving his family to Superior, MT, where he taught science at the local high school. John and Ruth's second daughter, Jennifer, joined the family in 1973. In the fall of 1976, after moving to Moscow, Idaho, John went on to earn his high school principal certification and served as Assistant Principal until 1981. John then accepted a position as assistant principal at Spanaway Lake High School, then as principal until 1989 which resulted in his family setting their stakes here in Graham, Washington. John and Ruth embraced their new home, made many new friends, and John was in a position to focus on what had become his priorities in life...God, his Family, children and community.

In 1989, John received an assignment as the Community Service Director which included oversight of early education programs. This allowed him to expand early childhood education to include over 450 children. Ten years later, John accepted a position as Early Head Start Director for Pierce County with the Puget Sound ESD. Teaming with parents, ESD child development experts and family service personnel, they developed a comprehensive prenatal to three programs at the Washington Corrections Center for Women. He also provided leadership in the creation of three teen parenting programs and community home visiting programs. During this time, John also served on the Washington State Association for Head Start and ECEAP as Board Secretary and later as Board President. He also went on to serve as Board President for the Washington Association of Early Childhood Education. In 2011 until his retirement in 2014 John was employed by the Children's Home Society of Washington, as the statewide Head Start Director.

God was always in John's life. He was baptized and raised with Christian values and teachings, but his focus was renewed in the early 90's when he joined Spanaway United Methodist Church. As a member, he became active in the church, rose to the level of Lay Leader, was a board member, and participated in sta?/parish relations and several other leadership teams. John took courses to become a Lay Speaker, allowing him to o?er sermons at his home church as well as other churches, and make home and hospital visitations. Under the mentorship of his pastor, he eventually completed courses to become a certi?ed Lay Minister in the Pacific NW Conference of the United Methodist Church.

John's love of children was shown vibrantly through the love of his own daughters and their spouses, Kirstin and Dan Menefee and Jennifer and Torry Iyall. They, in turn, continued that love, ?lling John and Ruth's home with the sound of seven grandchildren. Kirstin and Dan were blessed with Kaitlen (Sam), Donovan, Sydney, and Emily. Jennifer and Torry added to this blessing their children, Jordan (Jonathan), Kerah, and Cody. In more recent years, John and Ruth were delighted at the start of a fourth generation with the arrival of great-granddaughter, Brittan, and news of another great-grandson, Benjamin, on the way.

Good relationships with his own family paved the way for his dedication to helping other families to be successful. His parents were involved in his early childhood and he saw how important family support was to the development of a child into a con?dent, successful adult. John used this knowledge and wisdom in making sure parents were involved in the programs he helped develop for early childhood learning for children prenatal to age 5.

In addition to his wife Ruth, his daughters and their families, and his brother and sister, John is survived by his Mother-in-Law, Sue Larimer, sisters-in-law Nancy (Sam), Elaine and Marge, Uncle Dr. James Macmillan (Laura) and Aunt Catherine Macmillan along with nieces, nephews and cousins across the United States.

The family would like to say a very special thank you to Northwest Specialties and Multicare Hospice for their support and care of John. Services will be held at Spanaway United Methodist Church at 11AM on July 1, 2017. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Children's Home Society of Washington Early Childhood Programs. (Please make certain to note this donation is for Early Learning programs) or to the charity of your choice.
