Dorothy Bieri Blynn Sting, dedicated educator, loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, passed away on June 9, 2014, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Lucy and Warren Hottle, in Lancaster, Virginia. She lived a long, fruitful life and died a short, peaceful death. Mrs. Sting was born in Saginaw, MI on January 13, 1914 to Gottlieb and Helen Brownrigg Bieri. During her rich and productive life, Dorothy exemplified the strengths of her generation. Her interests spanned a variety of fields, including a distinguished career as a dedicated educator. Mrs. Sting taught in one-room schools before teaching at Saginaw's Stone School and then serving for 18 years as principal of Herig Elementary. She was an accomplished gardener, devoted volunteer and faithful member of Michigan Avenue Baptist Church. She served in leadership roles in International Business and Professional Women and the teacher's honorary society, Delta Kappa Gamma. Right up until her death, Dorothy treasured her deep and continuing friendships with her teachers, professional colleagues and church friends.

Dorothy is preceded in death by her beloved sister, Ethel Bieri Ellsworth; brothers, Glenn and Gottlieb Bieri; sisters-in-law, Donna Meyer Akin and Mildred Blynn Galbraith. Dorothy was married to Howard Adam Blynn, who died in 1945 and to Edgar Sting, who passed in 1986. She lost her beloved daughter, Suzanne Blynn Laman in 1998. Dorothy is survived by her sister-in-law, Marie Bieri; daughter, Lucy Blynn Marsden Hottle; her sons-in-law, Edward N. Laman and Warren P. Hottle and his son, Mark Hottle; her step-son, Roger L. Dorothy was blessed to have known and loved her great-grandchildren and deeply treasured her nieces and nephews and their families.

Dorothy was dedicated to excellence and will be remembered as a rare and unfailing example of both leadership and humility. It was her wish to impart the following message from the Book of Micah 6:8 to those she knew and loved over her lifetime: "...what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God." A celebration of Dorothy's life will be held on August 30th at 11 AM at Michigan Avenue Baptist Church in Saginaw. In lieu of flowers, Dorothy requested that donations could be made to the church's Missionary Society.

Notes for Rev. Dr. Charles Louis Manske:

The Rev. Dr. Charles Manske, founding president of Concordia University Irvine (CUI), Irvine, California, died July 4 from pancreatic cancer. He was 82. A memorial service to celebrate Manske's life and ministry is planned for 11 a.m. Saturday, July 18, in the school's CU Center, 1530 Concordia West, Irvine, California. "Dr. Manske was a man of uncommon vision and determination," said CUI President Dr. Kurt Krueger. "All of us who study, teach and serve at Concordia University Irvine are indebted to Dr. Manske's vision to establish a university dedicated to the values of Lutheran higher education and committed to the Great Commission of Jesus Christ."

Born in Sebewaing, Michigan, Manske grew up in a family of Lutheran school teachers. He considered a career in law but felt called to pursue professional service in the Lutheran church. He attended St. John's College in Winfield, Kansas (A.A. 1952); Concordia College in St. Louis (B.A. 1954); Concordia Seminary, St. Louis (M.Div. 1958); Washington University in St. Louis (M.A. in Sociology-Anthropology); and the University of Southern California, where he earned a Ph.D. in Social Ethics (1979).

After a 10-week summer visit to Southern California in 1953 to work with Lutheran congregations, Manske saw great opportunities for the church because of the region's ethnic diversity. Upon returning to his studies at Concordia Seminary, he wrote a set of life goals. One of them was to "start a new Lutheran college in Southern California." In 1973, during his 15 years of serving as campus pastor at the University of Southern California, Manske was asked by a group of Lutheran leaders in Southern California to help establish Christ College Irvine. Known for his determination and his track record as a campus minister and spokesperson for the church, in 1976, under Manske's leadership, Christ College Irvine launched its first academic year with 36 students in a single building that housed dorms, classrooms and administration offices. Manske served as president until 1979, when he transitioned to a faculty position.

Even though he was the founding president of Christ College Irvine — now Concordia University Irvine — Manske was perhaps best known as a gifted teacher and mentor to students. From 1973 to 1998, he taught on the topics of theology, ethics, world religions and Christian apologetics. He also served as director of graduate programs in the School of Arts and Sciences, establishing the Master of Arts Program in Reformation Theology, and the Ethnic Pastors Certification Program, now called the Cross-cultural Ministry Center, a four year, in-residence seminary curriculum in cooperation with Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

Later in his career Manske developed the television series “Christianity on Trial,” which focused on issues of Christian apologetics, Reformation theology and world religions. The 82-program series ran for six years with Manske serving as producer and host, winning four Angel Awards for excellence in media in international network television. He also produced the TV program “Point of Truth” and served as a member of the LCMS Board for Communication Services. Manske was instrumental in the founding of an LCMS congregation — “the only Lutheran presence and ministry” — in the Cayman Islands, according to Pastor Leif Hasskarl, “and is still fondly remembered here by many of the original parishioners.” Safe Harbour Lutheran Church, formerly Christ Lutheran Church, was started in 2001 “to bring Christ to the residents, expatriate workers and visitors” to Grand Cayman Island, he said.

Concordia University System President Rev. Dr. Dean O. Wenthe said Manske’s “vision for combining rigorous intellectual engagement with an articulate defense of the Christian faith in Lutheran higher education has been a blessing not only to Concordia University Irvine but to the entire church. “His warm, personable and caring manner served to recommend that vision to colleagues and students alike,” Wenthe told Reporter. “As our culture becomes more challenging, the wisdom and foresight of his leadership becomes all the more evident. Throughout his manifold labors and achievements there was a clear witness to Jesus Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life. We give thanks for God’s grace in sending such a servant who now rests in his Savior’s arms.”

Manske is survived by his wife, Barbara, three children — David (Tammy) Manske of Lake Forest, California; Christine (Kristopher) Schneider of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Noël (Michael) Fairchild of Irvine — and eight grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made to the Rev. Dr. Charles & Barbara Manske Scholarship Endowment by contacting Eron Jacobson.

Charles (Chuck) Manske died on July 4th, 2015 - just as fireworks filled the sky over his home—a Heavenly welcome! He was born in Michigan in October 20, 1932 and attended colleges in Indiana and Kansas. His seminary days were spent in St. Louis and Chicago. He moved to California in 1958 where he served for 15 years as Lutheran Campus Pastor at UCLA and USC. Always an academic—he earned his M.A. from Washington University, St. Louis and in 1978 his PhD in Social Ethics from USC.

His family moved to Irvine in 1973 and he served as founding President of Christ College Irvine (later known as Concordia University, Irvine). He later taught as professor of Social Ethics and World Religions and director of Graduate Programs. His involvement in the beginning years of Christ College Irvine brought his greatest joys and challenges. In all his years of ministry, Chuck demonstrated that the Christian faith, when it is vital and robust could engage the world with the joy of truth and knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Chuck was a loving and supportive husband to Barbara for 49 years and a caring father to David (Tammy) Manske, Christy (Kris) Schneider and Noël (Mike) Fairchild. His 8 grandchildren delighted him. He was preceded in death by parents, Carl and Lorna Manske; his brother, Arthur and sister, Alma Denner; and is survived by their 4 children and 13 nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at Concordia University, Irvine at 11:00 am on July 18, 2015. In lieu of flowers, please make a contribution to the Charles and Barbara Manske Scholarship Endowment for Concordia University, Irvine, California.
