Notes for Charlotte Lydia Stabler:
Houston, Texas - Puzzled Harris County officers hunted clues today in the mystery death of Miss Charlotte L. Stabler seventy-one-year-old La Porte woman. The woman's body was found Saturday March 10, 1951 in Clear Lake. An autopsy showed that she died from a brain concussion and not by drowning as first suspected. Justice of the Peace Calder Ewing of La Porte said he wanted more evidence in the case before returning a verdict. The body was found floating face-down about six yards from shore. Miss Stabler's automobile was found nearby, but the keys were missing. Her spectacles and the hearing aid which she habitually wore were found at her home, eight miles away. Friends theorized Miss Stabler could not have driven her car eight miles without her glasses. Capt. Lloyd D. Frazier, who is investigating the death, declined to say whether he thought the death was a murder, but other officers said there was a possibility she was killed at her home and taken to the Lake. Sheriff Buster Kern said a locked safety deposit box in the South Texas National Bank, which he hoped to see opened today, n hold the secret of the death. The dead woman was one of La Port's pioneer citizens.

La Porte, Texas, March 12, 1951 - Foul play was hinted today in the strange death of a 72-year-old La Porte woman who was found in Clear Lake. An autopsy revealed that Miss Charlotte Stabler died of concussion, caused by a blow on her head. The not drowning. Authorities believe she fell against something hard or was hit with a blunt instrument. Justice of the Peace Ewings said he wants more evidence before he returns a verdict. Miss Stabler lived alone at her home in La Porte. Her automobile was found near Clear Lake but her dentures and a $100 check she received in a deal to sell her home were missing.

Baytown, Texas, March 13, 1951 - Averdict of accidental death from unknown causes was found today in the death of Miss Charlotte L. Stabler, 71, whose body was found floating in Clear Lake Saturdaymorning. Justice of the Peace Calder Ewing of La Porte returned the verdict after Miss Stabler's purse was found andhersafe deposit box at a Houston bank was examined by Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern. Any suspicions investigators had of foul play disappeared when the purse was foundin the sand near the point where the body was found. In the purse was $147 in cash, proving that she was not killed in a robbery, officers said. Her car was parked on the road near the lake and her keys were in the purse. Also, in the handbag was a key to her safety deposit box which contained a will and several bonds. The will bequeathed $500 each to two cousins in Michigan and left the rest of her estate to Faith Home.
Investigators said Miss Stabler had been seriously ill for a long while. They theorized that shearose early after a sleepless night and sent for a drive. They believe that she stopped he car and suffered a dizzy spell or tripped and fell, striking her head on some posts piled nearby. She probably fell at the edge of the water, and when the tidy came in her body was swept toward the bank, she said. She was seen on her porch by neighbors about 6 a.m., investigators found. They believed she died about an hour later. Funeral services were to be at 2 p.m. today in the La Porte Community Church, with Dr. John Eichorn officiating. Burial will be in Forest Park Cemetery in Houston.

Notes for Louis Emerson Neller:
Lansing - Louis Neller, 72, general contractor and real estate man and onetime legislator and alderman, died about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning Oct. 9, 1945 at his home, 501 Sunset Lane, East Lansing. He had been in ill health since he fell and broke a leg early this year. A native of Clinton County, where he was born September 10, 1873, Mr. Neller served in the house of representatives for one term, 1913-1914, and held position on some of the more important committees. Later he was elected alderman from Lansing's fifth ward, serving four years as a member of the council. Although he dealt extensively in real estate during his early years as a resident of Lansing, Mr. Neller had engaged chiefly in the building business in recent years. He erected some of the city's finest structures, including the Michigan Avenue Methodist church. Civic and religious affairs also occupied much of Mr. Neller's attention. A member or the central Methodist church, where he was active, he formerly served as trustee of the Mt. Hope, Michigan Avenue and Potter Park Methodist churches. He was a director of the Y.M.C.A. for eight years and was active in the boys' work program. He also was a member of the Gideons and the Business Men's Bible club.

He is survived by the widow, Rosa; a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Robert, also of East Lansing, and two sons, Alvin A. Neller, local attorney, and Louis E. Neller, Jr., recently discharged from the United States navy and who was associated with his father in the construction business.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel, with Rev. D. Stanley Coors officiating. Burial will be in Ever green cemetery.

Lansing - The city council Monday night June 21, 1948 accepted an invitation from the board of cemetery and public park commissioners to attend a dedication ceremony at Stabler park, three blocks south of Kalamazoo Street on Allen Street, at 1 :30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The park property was given to the city by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stabler. 412 West Ottawa Street, in 1937 as a memorial to their only son, Milburn E. Stabler, who with his two children, was drowned in a motor boat accident in 1931 at Morrison Lake. The gift was made by the Stabler's with the provision that it be developed into a park and that a recreation building be erected on the site, with a tablet dedicated to their son. The Stabler's also recently donated $1,500 and five lots adjoining the park for further development. Mayor Ralph Crego will give the dedication address, and Dr. D. Stanle Coors, pastor of Central Methodist church, will give the invocation. The tablet will be unveiled by Catherine I. Dale, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dale, 152 Chesterfield Parkway, East Lansing, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler. The two grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler will be unable to attend the ceremony, as the one, Robert C. Dale is attending college in Denver, Colorado, and the other, James C., is vacationing in the upper peninsula. Ernest Gibbs, president of the park and cemetery board, will be chairman of the dedication program, and other members of the board will be present.

Lansing - Christian E. Stabler, 95, one of Lansing's early residents and a key figure in the preliminary growth of the city, died Wednesday Jan. 26, 1955 at his home, 413 W. Ottawa St. With the exception of but a few years spent in Minnesota, Mr. Stabler had lived in the Lansing area since he was seven-year-old. He was the founder and senior partner of the C. E. In 1887 and 1888 he bought and timbered 405 acres of land, the bulk of it in the area now known as Waverly park. In 1892, forced to find larger quarters, he moved the Stabler coal company to 636 E. Michigan Ave.

Later, he sold the Waverly park property and purchased the old Bush farm of 183 acres. He cut the timber, but left enough standing for a park to be built and after sale of the property to J. H. Moores, Francis park and the Lansing Country club were established on the site.

Mr. Stabler retired tram the coal and wood business in 1938, leaving it to a son, Milburn, and son-in-law, Clarence Dale, but still remained active in real estate and was treasurer of a company that bought the Cameron farm, east of Holmes St. In 1930, he donated five and a half acres of that property to the city for Stabler park, in memory of his son and two grandsons who had drowned in MorrisonLake.

Mr. Stabler was a member of Central Methodist church and had assisted on its official board for many years. He was a life member of Capitol Lodge No. 66, F. and A. M., CapitolChapter No. 9, R.A.M., Lansing Commandery No. 25, Knights Templar, and a member of Arbutus Chapter No. 45, O.E.S.

August C. Sack, 95, of 904 N. Walnut St., died Tuesday night August 12, 1958 at a local hospital, where he had been admitted a few weeks earlier. He had been a resident of Lansing for 51 years. Death was due to the infirmities of old age. Mr. Sack, who marked bis 95th birthday July 2, came to America with his family in a windjammer at the age of 8. Born in Germany in 1863, the son of a French and a German father, he learned to speak three languages, English, German and French. His earlier years in this country were spent in Chesaning, Chicago and Detroit, where he attended school. Mr. Sack was a builder by trade and erected churches and houses in many communities of the area before he retired 30 years ago. He also was employed by the city service department for several years and as a supervisor in the pattern shop of the Olds Motor works. He was the oldest member of the Emanuel First Lutheran church of Lansing. Friends and relatives feted him on his 95th birthday earlier this summer but his greatest thrill of the day was a birthday card sent by air mail from President Eisenhower.

Notes for Johann Martin Stabler:
Portrait and Biographical Album of Ingham and Livingston Counties, Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago

- Biographical Company, 1891.

Martin J. Stabler. The future of our great commonwealth depends upon the stability and integrity of the young people of today, and among those who are contributing to the general progress is the gentleman whose name introduces these paragraphs and whose life thus far has been crowned with success. One of the young and enterprising agriculturists of Lansing Township, Ingham County, his pleasant estate is located on section 7, where he is the fortunate owner of seventy-six acres of fine land. He has embellished his farm with a commodious residence of modern style of architecture, and elegantly furnished with everything that can contribute to the comfort of the household. Mr. Stabler devotes considerable attention to the breeding of stock and has large barns and good stabling, as well as other outbuildings which a progressive farmer now deems essential to the proper management of his estate.

Mr. Stabler is now in the early prime of life, having been born January 28, I860. His parents. Charles and Barbara (Roller) Stabler, were natives of Germany, and possessed those qualities of thrift and energy which are prominent characteristics of that nation. About the year of 1848 they emigrated to America, and immediately after landing proceeded to Michigan and settled in Ann Arbor. That city then bore but few indications of its present high development and was only a little hamlet in the midst of uncultivated surroundings. After residing there three years the parents removed to Lansing, where Martin J., of this sketch, was born. He is proud to claim the capital city as his birthplace and now ranks among the most influential native-born citizens of Ingham County.

At the age of three years our subject accompanied his parents in their removal to Clinton County, where he was reared to manhood. He received a good education of which he is making practical use, and keeping thoroughly posted upon all events of interest he ranks among the well-informed men of the community. Until he was twenty-four years of age he worked for his father, in the meantime acquiring habits of thrift and prudence. On October 4, 1883, he was happily married to the lady who now gracefully presides over his household. She bore the maiden name of Mary L. Burke and is the daughter of John and Klenora Burke, natives of Germany. In that country Mrs. Stabler was born September 3, 1861, and thence at the age of four years she accompanied her parents to the New World. They sojourned in Ohio until 1872, when they removed to Clinton County, Mich., where they still reside. One child has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Stabler, a daughter, Florence E. who was born May 16, 1887.

Always interested in every movement calculated to advance the general welfare of the county, Mr. Stabler feels that the best interests of the commonwealth are subserved by the Republican Party and his vote and sympathies are usually with the candidates pledged to the principles of that party. Realizing his ability his fellow-citizens have often called upon him to aid in the carrying on of public affairs and these duties he has always discharged to the satisfaction of all. He was Treasurer of Lansing Township two years and was there as elsewhere faithful to the trust reposed in him. He and his amiable wife are members of the German Methodist Church and enjoy the esteem of those who have been associated with them since they first located on section 7.

May 29, 1923 - Martin J. Stabler, 63, of 508 . . .afternoon following a week's illness. Mr. Stabler was born in Lansing, January 28, 1860, and lived here all his life. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. For several years he had followed the occupation of a building contractor.

He leaves a wife, Charlotte B. Stabler, one daughter, Mrs. Fred Hunnell of Lansing and two grandchildren; one brother, Jacob Stabler of Sebewaing, Michigan; and three sisters, Mrs. Gus Wahnes of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Theo. Stoll of Watertown; and Mrs. Herman Roy of Lansing.

Funeral services will be held from the home at 2:00 o'clock, Thursday afternoon. Interment will be at Mt. Hope cemetery.

402 iii. Richard Franklin Rey, born 17 Nov 1898 in Michigan; died 07 Oct 1933 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Richard Franklin Rey:
Oct. 20, 1933 - Six lives have been lost, five of them directly as a result of construction of the Logan street viaduct, and one apparently an indirect result of the bridge job. Five bridge workers were killed in collapse of a cofferdam when the bridge was being built and Richard F. Rey, city bridge engineer during the construction project, ended his own life recently. It was believed that he had worried over testifying in the case although it was said that he had been cleared-of any blame. The city was represented in the federal court suit by Raudabaugh and Alva M. Cummins, prominent Lansing attorney. The bridge company was represented by the Lansing law firm of Shields, Silsbee, Ballard & Jennings.

Richard F. Rey, 34, former city bridge engineer, committed suicide at his home, 311 West Maple Street, shortly before 11 o'clock Saturday morning Oct. 7, 1933. He took his life with a .12-gauge shotgun, shooting himself in the head. Mr. Rey's act was attributed to the fact that he was cue to take the stand in the suit of the Folwell Engineering company against the city. As bridge engineer he designed the Logan Street bridge and grade separation, which were built by this firm. During the construction a cofferdam collapsed, five men losing their lives. Mr. Rey had been at the trial for six weeks, but had not been called to the witness stand. He had, according to Richard Raudabaugh, city attorney, who is handling the case, been cleared of any responsibility or negligence in planning the structure. He was to take the stand Friday, but on Thursday Collins Thornton, employed in the city engineer's office and another witness at the trial, which is being heard in federal court in Detroit, noticed that Rey was not himself and spoke to Mr. Raudabaugh about it. Mr. Raudabaugh said that he went to Rey's room and went over the case with him, and at the conclusion of their talk said that there was nothing to cause the witness to worry. Shortly before noon Friday, however, Rey said that he could not testify during the afternoon, and court was adjourned with Rey due to take the witness stand next Wednesday. He rode home with Mr. Raudabaugh and Mr. Thornton, with Thornton driving, and said that he felt all right when he reached Lansing. He had previously said that he would be able to take the stand when court resumed again. City officials and employees were shocked by the tragedy, as Mr. Rey had long been associated with the city engineer's department. When the staff was reduced some time ago, with no bridge construction planned immediately, he lost his employment with the city, but had been employed recently by the state highway department.

According to Coroner Ray Gorsline Mr. Rey got up Saturday morning, went downstairs to the kitchen, and then returned to his room, where he kept his shotgun and the ammunition for the gun. The sound of the shot soon followed. Mr. Rey was a graduate of Central high school and Michigan State college. Mr. Rey is survived by his father, Herman Rey, and a brother, Clarence, both living at the Maple Street address.

He was born 15 Aug 1850 in Wolfsoelden, Ludwigsburg, Wurtemberg, and died 27 Oct 1908 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Regina (Rachel) Staebler:
It has pleased Almighty God in His divine providence to call from this world Mrs. Regina Gall, nee Stabler. She was born in Freedom Township, Michigan, July 24, 1860. April 29, 1879 she was married to Gottlieb Gall. To this union eight children were born, four sons and four daughters. Since the death of her husband, which occurred in 1908, Mrs. Gall made her home with her children, and during the last two years she leapt house for her son, Otto.

Mrs. Gall was a devoted Christian and a faithful member of St. Paul's Church, and also of the Ladies Aid. After an illness of about six weeks she passed peacefully away January 31, 1920, and because of her Christian faith we have reason to hope she has entered into the rest prepared for the people of God.

The time of her earthly pilgrimage was 59 years, 6 months and 3 days. She leaves to mourn for her four sons, four daughters, seven grandchildren, two brothers and four sisters.

Her trials and her griefs are passed, A blessed end is her's at last. She bore Christ's yoke and did it well. And the she died, she liveth still, well.

Notes for Friedrich Carl (Fritz) Horning:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Frederick C. Horning, deceased, was the first German child brought into Washtenaw County, and reared to manhood here he eventually became actively interested in farming pursuits and at the time of his death was a prosperous agriculturist of the locality in which he had so long resided. He was born in Germany, September 21, 1829, his parents being Charles Frederick and Catherine Horning, both of whom were natives of the fatherland, whence they came to America in 1830. They did not tarry on the Atlantic coast but made their way at once into the interior of the country and took up their abode in Freedom Township, this county, being among the pioneer settlers here. The father purchased land from the government and cleared a small farm, while eventually he became the owner of a large and valuable tract of land in the same township, carrying on agricultural interests up to the time of his death. Both he and his wife died in that locality and their loss was deeply, deplored by many friends for they had become recognized as worthy citizens of their community, Mr. Horning being held in high esteem because of his business success and his many excellent personal traits of character.

Frederick C. Horning of this review was reared amid the wild scenes of frontier life and the environments common on the frontier. He acquired his education in the public schools of Freedom Township and studied both English and German. When not occupied with the duties of the schoolroom he aided his father in the labors of the home farm and subsequently he purchased a threshing machine, which he operated in various parts of the county, doing all kinds of threshing. For ten years he followed that business and then with the profits he had acquired he purchased a tract of land in Pittsfield Township and began farming on his own account.

While living in Freedom Township Mr. Horning was united in marriage to Miss Barbara Cook, a native of that locality, born October 3, 1839. She was the first white child born in -this county, her parents being John George and Catherine Cook, who were natives of Germany, the former born on the 4th of July, 1813, and the latter on the 2nd, of February, 1816. They emigrated to America in 1831 and landed in New York city, whence they made their way to Buffalo and on to Cleveland. As the father's supply of money gave out at that point he had to leave his family there while he came on by wagon to Washtenaw County, arriving here on the 19th of April, 1831. He then borrowed the money to send for his family and he took up his abode upon a small farm of forty acres. It was covered with timber but he at once began to clear away the trees and brush and in due time the land was ready for cultivation. He purchased a yoke of oxen and built a log house. At one, end of the room was an immense fireplace with a spacious chimney and over this fire the cooking was done. His wife would walk to market at Ann Arbor, a distance of seventeen miles, in order to dispose of butter and eggs and other farm products and buy the necessary supplies for the family. Hardships and privations were born in those early days but eventually prosperity crowned the efforts of the family, who in the course of years purchased another farm of one hundred and sixty acres in Freedom Township. A few years later Mr. Cook removed to Lodi Township, where he owned several farms, his landed possessions aggregating over four hundred acres. Here he lived for seven years and then removed to Pittsfield Township, where he purchased a large farm, making his home thereon for six years. On the expiration of that period he took up his abode in Ann Arbor, where he lived retired until his death, enjoying a rest which he had truly earned and richly deserved. He was a man of marked industry and enterprise in his business affairs and his prosperity resulted entirely from his own well directed efforts for he came to America empty-handed but eventually became one of the substantial residents of Washtenaw County. He passed away August 7, 1902, at the very advanced age of eighty-nine years, while his wife died in November, 1900, at the age of eighty-four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Horning became the parents of six children: Martha, now the wife of Julius Bliss, of Lodi Township; Samuel, who married Anna Heinzelman and lives on the old Cook farm in Pittsfield township, that he purchased from his mother; Lydia, the wife of Alfred Sites, of Lodi Township; Emma, the wife of E. T. Alber, who is living at St. James Hotel in Ann Arbor; Mary, the deceased wife of Charles Bliss; and Nathan, who married Katie Roth and also lives in Ann Arbor, where he and his brother-in-law, Mr. Alber, conduct the St. James Hotel. Following his marriage Mr. Horning continued to carry on general farming in Pittsfield Township and was thus closely associated with agricultural interests up to the time of his death, which occurred on the 17th of December, 1884. In all his work he was practical, realizing how to use his advantages in the best possible way and so improving his opportunities that he gradually advanced on the high road to prosperity and at his death left an excellent property. In politics he was a democrat, while Mr. Cook was a republican in his political affiliation. Both were gentlemen of genuine personal worth and no history would be complete without mention of them because of their close identification with pioneer life and the agricultural progress of the county. Mrs. Horning is a member of the Zion Lutheran Church of Ann Arbor. Following her husband's death she sold the farm to her son and removed to this city, where she has since lived, owning a nice brick residence at No. 525 South First Street. She has a nephew residing with her, William Horning, a painter by trade, who is now twenty-seven years of age. She has in her possession a very interesting family relic, a record of the Cook family and also of Washtenaw county prepared by her father when he first came to this county in 1831. It is a document of considerable historic value. Few people are so closely connected with two prominent families as Mrs. Horning, who was the first white child born in this county, while her husband was the first German child brought to the county. In her memory are many pictures of frontier scenes and pioneer experiences and she can relate many interesting reminiscences of the early days when the work of improvement and progress seemed scarcely begun here, when the land was untilled, the forests uncut and the rivers unbridged. Great changes have occurred and in the agricultural progress of this part of the state the Horning and Cook families have taken a most active and helpful part.

Notes for Erhard Theodore (Aaron) Alber:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Erhard Theodore Alber, the senior partner of the firm of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel, is a native son of Washtenaw County and in his business career has displayed the enterprise which has been the dominant factor in the up building of the great Middle West. He was born in Lodi Township on the 25th of August, 1866. His father, John George Alber, became a resident of this county when eighteen years of age and settled upon a farm in Lodi Township, where for many years he was identified with general agricultural pursuits. At the time of his arrival this was largely an unsettled district in which the work of improvement and progress had scarcely been begun and he entered from the government a claim of eighty acres, to which he has since added as his financial resources have increased until he is now the owner of a valuable farm of one hundred and thirty-six acres, which under his careful supervision and cultivation has become very productive. In religious faith a Lutheran, he is an active worker in the church, doing all in his power to promote its growth and extend its influence. In his political allegiance he is a democrat. He married Miss Marguerita Metzger, who died in 1899, leaving seven children, as follows: Charles Michael, a resident farmer of Saline, Michigan; John George, who also makes his home at Saline; John August, a contractor residing in Ann Arbor; Fred Erhard, who is living in Perry, Lodi Township; William Henry, who is engaged in general farming near Saline; and Emanuel Gottlob, who is engaged in painting at Saline.

Erhard T. Alber, the other member of the family, was reared upon the old homestead farm in the usual manner of lads of the period and when about six years of age he began his education in the district schools of his native township. He pursued his studies through the winter months and in the summer seasons worked upon the home farm until about twenty years of age, when thinking that he would find other occupation more congenial he left the parental roof and began learning the carpenter's trade. Subsequently he spent five years in the employ of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, working in the line of his trade and on the expiration of that period he began contracting and building on his own account, in which he continued for five years. In 1891 he took up his abode in Ann Arbor and he is now engaged in the hotel business as a partner of Nathan Horning, under the firm style of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel. They conduct a strictly modern hostelry of twenty-five rooms heated with steam and there is a barber shop and buffet in connection. Mr. Alber is popular with the patrons of the hotel and receives a liberal patronage from the traveling public. Everything possible is done for the comfort and convenience of the guests and the hotel is conducted along the most modern lines, so that it would be a credit to a city of much larger size than Ann Arbor.

In the year of his removal here Mr. Alber was married to Miss Emma K. Horning, who was born in Pittsfield Township. A Mason, he belongs to Fraternity lodge, No. 262, A. F. & A. M. and is in hearty sympathy with the principles of the craft. His political allegiance is given to the Republican Party and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran church. His entire life has been passed in the county of his nativity and his deep interest in its welfare is manifest in the public spirited support which he gives to various measures for the general good. He is recognized as a man of good business qualifications, of keen foresight and unfaltering enterprise and his success is the merited reward of his persistent labor.

Notes for Heinrich (Henry) Paul:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Henry Paul. Among the most valued and prominent farmers of Pittsfield Township, we name with pleasure the successful agriculturist just mentioned. He is a 'native of Washtenaw County, his birth taking place in Scio Township, June 3, 1840. His parents were Jacob and Mary (Zender) Paul, both natives of Wurtemberg, Germany. His father was by occupation a weaver but followed farming most of his life coming to this country in 1828 and locating in the State of New Jersey, where he remained for a period of two years before coming to the then Territory of Michigan. When he came to Detroit in 1830 he found no means of conveyance in this county except "shanks ponies," and he therefore walked hither prospecting and back to Detroit, following Indian trails through the woods. He took up his place from the Government locating on section 22, Scio Township. The educational advantages of our subject were exceedingly limited, as his father claimed his time whenever there was work for him to do upon the farm and he also found it necessary to work for others in order to earn money to purchase his books. Neither did he have teachers who were sufficiently learned to teach such advanced studies as grammar and geography. Upon reaching his majority he began working for his father for wages and was soon able to buy the home farm which he did in 1862. Here he lived until 1866 when he sold out his property and removed to Ann Arbor, where he spent twelve years and was engaged in various lines of industry, carrying on a lime kiln, selling goods for merchants and assisting in building the factory of the Michigan Furniture Company, of which lie was then the proprietor. In 1877 lie purchased the place where he now resides and removed his family onto it, the marriage with our subject with Miss Catherine Koch, of Lodi Township, took place May 29, 1862, and this union has been blessed by the birth of three children, Alfred J., born March 24, 1867; Emelia, August 15, 1870, and Augustus, June 7, 1874. The daughter is now married and makes her home in Ann Arbor, and the oldest son has charge of the farm. The parents of our subject have passed to the other world, the mother dying in 1862 and the father in 1875. The political principles of our subject bring him into alliance with the Democratic Party and he has held the office of Supervisor of his township, and for the past thirteen years has been the able Director of Schools for his district. Both le and his wife are active and useful members of the German Lutheran Church and in every department of life they h1ave made themselves felt as helpers in every good work.

Notes for Jakob Ulrich (Jacob) Laubengayer:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Jacob Laubengayer. Among the leading business men of Ann Arbor, the subject of this sketch takes a prominent place, having from small beginnings reached his present strong, financial position, through hard work, perseverance and pluck. He was born in Scio Township, this county, July 13, 1840. His parents, John G. and Barbara (Kock) Laubengayer, were both natives of Germany, having been born in Wittenberg. They emigrated to the United States in 1832, locating at once in Scio Township upon a farm, which Mr. Laubengayer cleared and put on some good buildings proving a successful farmer until his death, which took place in 1868 in his sixty-second year. His wife is still living at present making her home in Ann Arbor and is now in her seventy-third year. They were the parents of three sons, Jacob, our subject; John G. residing in Philadelphia in the dry-goods business and Henry a resident of Ann Arbor.

Jacob, the subject of our sketch was educated in the district schools, receiving such advantages as one can from that source; he worked on the farm until his twentieth year, when he entered the employment of Katz & Kenchley, butchers, and remained with them for about four years, when he left them and worked for Mr. Coly for one year. Feeling desirous of making a change he went to Cleveland, Ohio, remaining there however only one year which he spent in Schots Packing House. He was not satisfied there, however, and returned to Ann Arbor, where he entered into business on his own account, starting a market on Huron Street remaining there six years in partnership with William Rayer, under the firm name of Rayer & Laubengayer. This partnership lasted six years when it was dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Laubengayer then started a market at his present stand at No. 55 South Main Street. He has a fine brick storeroom, 18x65 feet in dimensions. Mr. Laubengayer keeps a first-class stock of meats, buying them from the farmers of this county, packing all of his own meats, and has all the latest appliances necessary for conducting a first-class meat-market successfully.

The gentleman of whom we write this life record was married in 1868 to Miss Mary Luick, daughter of David Luick. She was born in this county. Her parents were formerly from Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Laubengayer have but one child, Olga B. who is a graduate in the High School, and in politics Mr. Laubengayer is a Democrat. They have a comfortable residence in the rear of the market.

369. Milburn Eppley[8] Stabler (Christian Emmanuel[8], Johann Jacob[7] Staebler, Johann Georg[6], Margaretha[5] Koch, Johann Michael[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 06 Mar 1891 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 17 May 1931 in Boston, Ionia Co, Michigan. He married Martha Galbraith Draper 21 May 1918 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, daughter of Frank Draper and Eleanor Galbraith. She was born 29 Oct 1893 in Michigan, and died 17 May 1931 in Michigan.

Notes for Milburn Eppley Stabler:

Lansing - State police Monday afternoon still were dragging the waters of Morrison Lake, in Ionia County, for the bodies of Lawrence Stabler, 11, and Grenfall Stabler, 9, who with their father, Milburn E. Stabler, 40, Lansing coal dealer, were drowned shortly after noon Sunday May 17, 1931 when the motor boat Mr. Stabler was piloting, capsized. The body of Mr. Stabler was recovered during the night, after police had dragged the lake for approximately 12 hours. A detail of state police was ordered to the lake Monday morning to relieve the officers who had worked during the night. The new detail continued the search for the bodies of the two children. Edward W. Roe, teller in the South Lansing branch of the American State Savings bank, a brother-in-law of Mr. Stabler, who was with him and the two children in the boat, was rescued by L. F. Phillips of Grand Rapids.

At noon Monday six boats manned by state police and officers of the Ionia county sheriff's department, were dragging the lake, but at I o'clock no trace of the bodies of the two children had been found. When the tragedy occurred, Mr. Stabler was testing a speed boat that he purchased last fall and had planned to enter the motor boat events to be held July 4th at Spring Lake near Grand Haven. Mrs.

Stabler and Mrs. Roe who were at the lake were invited to accompany their husbands in the test but declined to go out on the lake.

Witnesses asserted that Mr. Stabler attempted to rescue the two children and was clutching them when they disappeared below the surface of the water. Mr. Roe clung to the overturned boat while Mr. Phillips who had witnessed the accident from his cottage was rowing to the scene directly in front of the cottage but nearly a half mile from the shore. When he reached the ill-fated boat, Mr. Stabler and his sons had disappeared from view.

Mr. Stabler was interested in Morrison Lake Gardens club, an organization consisting of prominent Grand Rapids, Ionia and Lansing resident which sponsored entertainment for the cottagers. He had planned to attend a meeting of the entertainment committee late Sunday afternoon to consider a program of motor boat events to be held later in the spring or early summer. Deputy Sheriffs Edward Good of Saranac and William McKendry of Ionia were called to the accident and took charge of the search for the bodies. Later state police officers, Segriest and Arnett of the East Lansing post, were ordered to the lake.

Long a resident of Lansing, Mr. Stabler, was associated with C. E. Dale in C. E. Stabler and company, 638 E. Michigan Avenue. The business was established by Christian E. Stabler, his father, who later retired and now resides at 115 North Chestnut Street. The two boys were the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn E. Stabler. His marriage to Miss Martha Galbraith Draper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Draper, 230 Rumsey Street, was the first naval wedding in Lansing during the World war. The event took place while Mr. Stabler was awaiting orders to report at the Great Lakes naval station where he had enlisted. He was a graduate of Lansing high school and of Carroll college. Wisconsin. Mr. Stabler was a past master of Capital lodge No. 66. S.O., and was a member of Lansing Commandery No. 25, Knights Templar and Capital chapter No. 9 R.A.M.

Surviving relatives besides the widow and mother, Mrs. Martha Draper Stabler are Mr. Stabler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian E. Stabler and a sister, Mrs. Erma Stabler Dale, wife of Clarence E. Dale, all of Lansing.

Lansing - Tall wicker vases filled with rose-tinted gladioli, the favored flower among the brides of the late summer, with a background of ferns which banked the fireplace, formed a garden-like setting for the wedding of Miss Irma Stabler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Stabler to Mr. Clarence Dale, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dale which was solemnized today at high noon August 30, 1920 at the home of the bride's parents, 115 Chestnut St. As the bride and her attendant, Miss Irene Dale, a sister of the groom, descended the stairway, the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Mr. Milburn Stabler, a brother of the bride. Miss Stabler wore a lovely bridal gown of white georgette and lace and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and swansonia showered with narrow satin ribbons. The. bridesmaid was gowned in pale pink crepe de chine and her flowers were pink roses and snapdragons, showered with pink ribbons. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John C. Lansing, June 2, 1951 - A short - lived windstorm, hitting with mixed fury in scattered locations in the Lansing; area, resulted in one fatality and rendered extensive damage to suburban and rural homes, barns, utility lines and trees Friday night June 1, 1951 but soared the capital city itself. Killed during the storm, which struck shortly before 9 p.m., was Mrs. Ruth Whiting, 31, of 4872 Justamere St., Holt. State police said she was riding with her husband, Herman, on Aurelius Rd., when a large wild cherry tree was uprooted by the high wind and fell on their automobile. Mrs. Whiting was crushed in her seat and died instantly, according to Coroner Ray Gorsline. Wrecking crews were forced to pry thecar apart before removing her body. Mr. Whiting was in critical condition in Edward W. Sparrow hospital, suffering from a possible skull fracture, internal injuries and severe cuts and bruises. Mrs. Whiting, a bride of a little more than one year, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kussmaul, 2331 Forest Rd. The couple had lived in Holt since their marriage. Mrs. Whiting had been an employee of Melling Forging company for 15 years, and had left her job recently. She was an expectant mother in July, according to relatvies.

A survey early Saturday morning showed that at least six barns in the Lansing vicinity were blown down by sudden wind gusts, one was destroyed by fire resulting from lightning, the second story and root of a suburban home was blown off, other homes were damaged by wind and falling trees, and four house trailers were tipped on their sides. In addition, electric and telephone poles were toppled in several rural sections mostly around Holt and Leslie with service over wide areas being disrupted tor hours during the night.

Lansing - Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Ruth Whiting, 31, of 4872 Justamere Rd., who was crushed to death by a falling tree during Friday night's wind storm, were delayed today due to the condition of her husband, Herman W., who was seriously hurt. Mr. Whiting, who suffered possible internal injuries and skull fracture, was reported "Improved" by attendants at Edward W. Sparrow hospital. His condition was given as "fair." Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kussmaul, 2331 Forest Rd., put off making funeral plans pending runner improvement of their son-in-law, according to a spokesman for the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home. Mrs. Whiting's body was removed there after being cut from the automobile crushed by an uprooted wild cherry tree about 9 p.m. Friday on Aurelius Rd.

Notes for Dr. Austin Frederick Burdick:
History of Michigan, Volume 4, by Charles Moore. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company, 1915.

Austin Frederick Burdick, A.B., M.D. The medical profession of Michigan is worthily and capably represented at Lansing by Dr. Austin Frederick Burdick, whose comprehensive training, inherent ability and high achievements have placed him in a foremost position among the men of his honored calling in this state. Doctor Burdick is a native son of Lansing, born March 23, 1878, and is descended from two Michigan pioneer families. His father, Ichabod Burdick, was born at Allen's Prairie, Michigan, November 15, 1833, a son of Ambrose S. Burdick, a native of New York state, born February 9, 1807. The grandfather came to Michigan during pioneer days, taking up government land, but in later life removed to

Lansing. His wife, Margaret G., whom he married in New York, was born in the Empire state, December 19, 1808. The mother of Doctor Burdick bore the maiden name of Mary Yeiter, and was born in Ohio, February 17, 1840, a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Brock) Yeiter, natives of Germany, the former born July 1, 1811, and the latter May 5, 1817. They were married in the United States, were early settlers of Ohio, and came to Lansing in about the year 1850. The parents of Doctor Burdick were married at Lansing, March 26, 1857, and seven years ago celebrated their fiftieth, or Golden, anniversary, and both are still living and enjoying the best of physical health and unimpaired mental faculties. The father learned the furniture maker's trade in his youth, and was engaged at this occupation until the outbreak of the Civil War, at which time he enlisted in Company A, Twentieth Regiment, Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He saw some very active service and at one time was taken prisoner by the enemy and confined for five months in Salsbury Prison. At the close of hostilities Mr. Burdick returned to the peaceful pursuits of his trade, was very successful in his business ventures, and of late years has concentrated his energies upon looking after his property interests. a department store, and china and glass dealers everywhere have to contend against the keen competition of these general stores. For this reason, where a successful individual business of this kind is found, its very existence and prosperity are a splendid tribute to the energy and commercial judgment of its proprietor.'

Dr. Austin F. Burdick secured his early education in the Lansing public schools, and was graduated from the high school here in 1896. He was president of his class in both sophomore and senior years, and in his junior year was chairman of the Junior Exhibition Committee, which committee was the founder of the plan to hold the junior exhibition in the opera house, and which has since become an annual event of much importance to the students and interest to the general public. After leaving high school Doctor Burdick spent one year in the drug store of his brother-in-law, Dr. Turner, at Webberville, Michigan, but in 1897 resumed his studies as a student in the University of Michigan, taking the full course of six years in one year less than that time, and was graduated with the class of 1901, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He was graduated from the medical department of the same school with the class of 1902, receiving the degree of Doctor of Medicine, and at once entered practice at Webberville, there spending one year. Following this he was located at Perry, Michigan, for three months, and next went to Beloit, Wisconsin, where he was engaged, in a special practice in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, until May, 1912, when he returned to his old home at Lansing. Here he has firmly established himself in his profession as a specialist. Doctor Burdick has never ceased to be a close and assiduous student. He has taken post-graduate work at the New York City Eye and Ear Infirmary, at the Chicago Polyclinic, at the Royal London Ophthalmic Hospital and at the Central London Nose and Throat Hospital, London, England. At this writing (June 20, 1914), he is preparing to attend the annual meeting of the American Medical Association, at Atlantic City, New Jersey, following which he will go abroad to London, England, to pass the balance of the summer at the two institutions above named. It is his intention also to attend the clinical congress of North American Surgeons, to be held in London.

Doctor Burdick is a member of the Ingham County Medical Society, the Michigan State Medical Society and the American Medical Association. His fraternal connections include membership in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. On June 10, 1903, Doctor Burdick married Jessie Stabler, who was born in Clinton county, Michigan, daughter of Charles and Carrie (Goodrich) Stabler, and they have two children: Arlene Adell and Elgeva June, aged respectively, nine and four years.

Dr. Austin F. Burdick, 81, S. River Rd., Grand Ledge, former Lansing resident, died Monday evening Jan. 4, 1960 at a Perrinton convalescent home following an extended illness. Born in Lansing March 23, 1878, Dr. Burdick was long prominent in the medical profession. A graduate of the University of Michigan medical school in 1902, he commenced practice at Beloit, Wisconsin, returning to Lansing in 1912 where he continued his specialty practice in eye, ear, nose and throat. He undertook advanced study in London, England prior to the outbreak of World War I. Before his retirement in 1941 he was a member of the Eaton County Medical Society, a senior member of the Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology, Southwestern Michigan Triological society, and American Association for the Advancement of Science. For a period of 10 years he served as an associate editor of the Michigan Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, a monthly publication.

Surviving are his widow, Jessie S., two daughters, Mrs. Arlene Sevener of Napa, California, and Mrs. Elgeva Hall of Los Altos, California, a son, Dr. Bruce Burdick of Topeka, Kansas, and seven grandchildren. Funeral services will be announced later.

+ 743 i. Jane Ann[10] Stabler, born 31 Oct 1911 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan; died 28 Nov 1995 in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

744 ii. Virginia Lou Stabler, born 13 Mar 1913 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan; died 27 Sep 1937 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan. She married Dr. John Stuart Swanton 14 Sep 1936 in East Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan; born 04 Oct 1911 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan; died 03 Jan 1997 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Virginia Lou Stabler:
Mrs. Virginia Swanton, wife of Dr. Stuart J. Swanton, was found dead by her husband Monday night Sept. 27, 1937 when he returned from his office to their apartment, 106-1/2 Island Avenue. Mrs. Swanton, who had suffered a nervous breakdown and who had been ill for months, had taken her own life during a period of extreme despondency. Mrs. Swanton, 24, was born in Lansing and was a graduate of Central high school. Following her graduation, she entered Michigan State college but due to a nervous condition was advised by her physician to discontinue her studies, so left college after her first year. Mrs. Swanton, formerly Miss Virginia Stabler, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Stabler, 423 West Grand River Avenue. She was popular socially in Lansing and was married to Doctor Swanton a year ago. The nervous affection recurred several months ago and Mrs. Swanton went to the University hospital, Ann Arbor, for treatment and was later a patient at Mercywood hospital there.

When Mrs. Swanton returned to her home in Lansing, she was apparently greatly improved. Later, however, there was a recurrence of the nervous trouble and Mrs. Swanton suffered from extreme despondency. She had declared to her husband and to her parents that there was no hope that she would ever regain her health. It is believed that Mrs. Swanton took her own life some time before noon Monday, hanging herself by a rope attached to a Murphy bed in the apartment. Doctor Swanton did not return to the home for luncheon and for this reason the discovery was not made until the doctor had closed his offices and had returned home in the evening. Coroner Ray Gorsline was called. It was learned that Mrs. Stabler, the young woman's mother, had called her daughter by telephone before noon Monday but had received no response. This fact, however, caused no apprehension as Mrs. Swanton had said that she might visit a relative during the day.

Besides the husband, Dr. Stuart J. Swanton, and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stabler, Mrs. Swanton leaves a sister, Mrs. Robert Kraft, a grandmother, Mrs. Joseph H. Bard, within other relatives who live here. Declaring services, which will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the parents, 423 West Grand River Avenue. Interment will probably be in Deepdale cemetery.

Notes for Dr. John Stuart Swanton:
Stuart J. Swanton, D.D.S. of East Lansing, born October 4, 1911 in Lansing; died January 30, 1997 at the age of 85. Dr. Swanton was a life-long resident of the Lansing area; a graduate of Michigan State University and the University of Michigan Dental School. He established his dental practice in Lansing in the 1930s. During World War II he served as a Captain with the United States Army Dental Corp. At the end of the war he returned to Lansing and reestablished his dental practice which he maintained until his retirement in 1980. During his college years, he played piano in a local dance band and continued to enjoy the piano throughout his life. He was an active participant in many organizations. An avid sportsman, ne hunted and fished in Northern Michigan. He held great affection for the Slagle Trout Club where he maintained second home. He was a past member of the Slagle Trout Club Board of Directors and had served as President of the Club. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Virginia, and his second wife, Velma, to whom he was married for 49 years.

Dr. Swanton is survived by his daughter, Velma Ann and her husband, Robert F. Rought of Farmington Hills; 2 grandsons, Scott and Stuart and a great-granddaughter.

A graveside service will be conducted by the Rev. Lynn A. DeMoss of Central United Methodist Church at 12 noon, Saturday, February 1, 1997 at Mt Hope Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the West Bloomfield Hospice. Arrangements by the Estes-Leadley Greater Lansing Chapel.

The tea table was set with a blue damask cloth and centered with a bouquet of ivory and yellow gladioli arranged in a silver bowl; Mrs. Rey, mother of the bride-elect, presided at the silver tea service. Yellow hearts surrounding the centerpiece directed the guest of honor to the hiding place of her gifts. About 35 guests attended the tea.

Seventh Day Adventist church was the scene Sunday evening Sept. 24, 1944 at 8 o'clock of the wedding of Miss Marilyn Jean Rey and Kenneth Raymond Davis of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Her fingertip length veil fell from a Juliet cap of white net, trimmed on either side with pearl orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, gladioli, and glamellias. Miss Mary Ellen Blincoe, as maid of honor, wore a frock of pink net over taffeta, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. John Davidson of Berrien Springs, and Miss Elizabeth Jones of Battle Creek, wore gowns of aqua net over taffeta. Little Donna Lee McElmurray was flower girl, and her frock was made similar to those of the other attendants in white net over yellow taffeta. Little Walker Evans was Bible boy.

The candlelight ceremony was performed in a setting of palms and white gladioli. Mrs. James Eaton of Berrien Springs, organist, and Mrs. Richard Nation, violinist, played background music during the ceremony. Miss Norma Lou Gregg sang "I Love You Truly," and Earl Robbins sang "Because." For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rey chose a gown of all black crepe trimmed in matching satin embroidery and black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a green costume suit with black accessories.

A reception was held in the parlors of Central Temple house following the ceremony. Music for the reception was furnished by Miss Bethel Rice, Mrs. Robert Warner, and Miss Marjorie Brooks, violinist, and Earl Robbins sang "Oh, Promise Me." The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the bridal cake and groom's cake flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. Notes for Marion Elizabeth Rettig:

Marion Elizabeth Kuebler passed away on January 10, 2023. She was born on August 25, 1932 in Detroit, Michigan along with a twin sister, Marlene Ida Rettig. They were the only children of Ewald and Ida Rettig. From a young age they were both trained in music and art and during grade school had advanced to playing in the Detroit City Youth Orchestra. Marion played the viola and Marlene played the cello. In addition, they were piano students of Helen Weber. At 13 years of age, Marlene died of tubercular meningitis. Marion lost interest in continuing viola performances but kept her interest in piano and organ. At age 16, Marion's piano teacher retired as organist at Marion's church, but had primed her to take over as organist. She filled that position several years and it is where she eventually met Melvin, who became her husband on May 31, 1952.

Prior to the marriage, Marion took 2 months off of all work positions to accompany her parents to Germany to visit their parents they had not seen in 25 years. Upon her return, she had a position saved for her with the Detroit Public Schools administration offices. She continued there until her marriage, later the arrival of her first born, Kim, at which time they moved to Alpena, Michigan. They lived there 14 years before moving to Petoskey in 1967, along with son Kurt and daughter Kristi, having been added to the family. In 1970 Marion began her work with Michigan Department of State, serving 22 years, the last 15 as Manager of local Secretary of State office. In addition, she served as Treasurer of West Traverse Township for several years, 22 years on North Central College Trustee Board, 18 years on NCMC Foundation Board, and 22 years as Music Director of Harbor Springs United Methodist Church and Alanson United Methodist Church. Marion adored playing piano for the weekly church services at Bay Bluffs for the last 23 years, having started the service while her husband resided there. Marion and Mel had a strong faith that helped them through many health difficulties. That faith was constant.

Mel passed away in 1999 after a lengthy illness. Surviving are Marion's loving children, Kim (Betty), Kurt (Marianne) and Kristi (Tony). Grandchildren are Sarah (Tony), Scott (Micaela), Cameron (Nicole), Reilly (Christian), Jordan, Nikolas, Zakary, Peter, Maggie, and Anna. Great-grandchildren, Jude and Bodhi. Granddoggies also have a special place in her heart.

Special friends are too numerous to mention. They also have a special place in her life. They know who they are and how much they added to care and joy they brought. Several years ago a special person appeared and took the place of her lost sister by asking if she could bring her string instrument and play with her at church, it was a "cello" and Marga Eickholt held that special place all these years. In 1997, Marion received a Paul Harris Fellowship award, given by Rotary Club of Petoskey, for "making a difference in the community". In 2012 she was awarded recognition by North Central Michigan College with a Founder's Day award for dedication to the college. Marion also received many letters of recognition of her communication skills when working as Manager of Michigan Secretary of State in Petoskey. On May 6, 2022 Marion received an Honorary Degree from North Central Michigan Collage recognizing her as a lifelong champion of education.

A celebration of life will be held in the spring on Thursday, May 25th with details to follow. In lieu of flowers, Marion asks that you each take your family out to dinner and enjoy looking back on family remembrances. Donations in Marion's honor may be sent to North Central Michigan College or Harbor Springs United Methodist Church.

Notes for Alberta (Bertha) Roller:
April 1923 – "Some people say they should think I'd be glad I haven't a baby to support," murmured Mrs. Bertha Staebler, Friday afternoon, in the office of her attorney. "But, I guess those are the folks who've never had a little baby to live – and lose," she added, tears gathering in her brown eyes Mrs. Stabler was granted an order for separate maintenance by Judge Ormond R. Hunt in circuit court, Friday morning.

The little son Mrs. Staebler has "lost" is Lamont R. Staebler, whose fifth birthday will be July 22, 1923. But, is mother has not seen him since January 29, 1920, when she returned at 1 o'clock in the afternoon from a shopping trip to find that her husband, Ray, his mother, Mrs. Delight R. Stabler, and 18-months-old Lamont, had all done away from their three rooms 234 West Warren Avenue.

Just a few days before this, Mrs. Delight Staebler had moved out, taking her furniture with her. That morning Staebler had given his wife $30 with which to buy all-verware, according to her story. He had said he was sick and wouldn't go to work, but he had offered to take care of the baby while she went downtown. Returning, she found a note from him: "I have gone to mother. Will be back shortly. If you get home first, don't worry – I'll be back."

Obituary in Saline Oberser: Mayor Charles A. Sauer of Ann Arbor - Passed Away Monday Morning December 6, 1915

Charles A. Sauer, well known in Saline for many years and for the past 29 years a prominent contractor and lumber dealer of Ann Arbor, died at the St. Joseph sanitarium Tuesday morning of typhoid fever. Deceased was born in Stratford, Ontario, December 18, 1866, and with his parents came to this village five years later.

In 1892 he was married to Miss Julia Katherine Koch of this village and is survived by the bereaved, widow, four children, Nola, Laura, Karl, and Waldo; also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Sauer of this place, two sisters, Miss Barbara Sauer of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Katherine Vandermark of Clinton, and two brothers, Adam and John Sauer of Ann Arbor. Mr. Sauer had never had any political aspirations until last April, when he was elected mayor of Ann Arbor. He was, however, identified with several orders, the Elks and the Knights of Pythias of Ann Arbor, the Fellow craft club of Detroit and the Sledge club of Toledo. The funeral services were held at the home in Ann Arbor Wednesday afternoon and the remains placed in the mausoleum in Bethlehem Cemetery.

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

C. A. Sauer is the senior member of the firm of C. A. Sauer & Company, manufacturers of lumber, building materials and architectural work, in which connection he has contributed to the commercial and industrial prosperity of the city, in which he resides. A native of Canada, he was born in 1867, and when six years of age was brought by his parents, Adam and Ann (Schank) Sauer, both of whom were natives of Germany. After living for some time in the Dominion they made their way in 1873 to this state, settling in Saline Township, Washtenaw County, where the father has since followed carpentering. Unto him and his wife were born five children, all of whom are living: Barbara, C. A., Kate, Adam and John. C. A. Sauer pursued his education in the public schools at Saline, and in his youth learned the carpenter's trade with his father, becoming familiar with the business both in principle and detail, and he gained considerable skill in that line. He afterward came to Ann Arbor, where he followed his trade on his own account for two years, but before starting in business for himself, he was for two years in the service of George Scott, an architect, whom he represented as draughtsman. He then began general contracting and building, which he continued for twelve years, a liberal patronage being accorded him. He entered upon his varied duties with admirable equipment because of his thorough training under his father; his excellent workmanship, fidelity to the terms of contract and straightforward dealing securing him a constantly growing patronage. When twelve years had passed he was joined by his brothers, Adam and John, in the organization of the lumber firm of C. A. Sauer & Company, and they are now engaged in the manufacture of all kinds of lumber, building materials, supplies and architectural work. They have a well-equipped planning mill in connection with the lumber plant, and are doing an extensive business, their patronage having continually grown in gratifying manner since the organization of the firm in 1899.

Mr. Sauer was married in 1892 in Saline Township, to Miss Julia Koch, a native of Pittsfield Township, Washtenaw County, and a daughter of John Koch. Their marriage has been blessed with four children: Nola, Karl, Laura and Waldo. Throughout almost his entire life Mr. Sauer has remained in this county, and has made for himself an enviable position in business circles. He has always been identified with building or manufacturing interests, and is thoroughly conversant upon everything connected with the builder's trade. He has been watchful of every indication pointing to success, and since the establishment of the present lumber firm, has promoted its interests along modern lines that have resulted in its permanent and substantial growth.

Gruner and Kuebler built their factory on the corner of South Fourth Avenue and East Madison, nestled into a bend of Allen’s Creek--the creek passed along the building’s Fourth Avenue side and then curled around the back. Gruner and Kuebler’s equipment was steam driven, so they didn’t need the creek’s waterpower; more likely, they chose the site to be near their labor market, the skilled craftsmen who lived on what is now known as the Old West Side. In 1899, after Kuebler died and Gruner moved to Cincinnati, Charles Sauer bought the property. Sauer was born in Canada to German parents and learned carpentry from his father before moving to Ann Arbor at age twenty. He worked as a draftsman and as a contractor before forming Sauer Lumber with his two brothers, Adam and John.

The new business offered architectural services and contracting, as well as lumber for all kinds of building. In the early years, the Sauers also still sold furniture, possibly using the same tools and craftsmen who worked for Gruner and Kuebler. They extended the business west, building a small mill in the yard for custom work, and an office at 543 South Main. “They have a well-equipped planing mill in connection with the lumber plant and are doing an extensive business,” Samuel Beakes wrote in the 1906 edition of Past and Present of Washtenaw Country, Michigan, “their patronage having continually grown in a gratifying manner since the organization of the firm in 1899.”

The Sauer brothers built Ann Arbor’s 1906–1907 city hall, kitty-corner from the present one, on the corner now occupied by the Dahlmann City Center Building. Eight years later, Charles Sauer himself moved into the mayor’s office. Sadly, he died just six months into his term, at age forty-nine. On the day of his burial, all business and governmental offices closed from 2 to 3:30 p.m. during the funeral. Although it passed out of family hands, the Sauer Lumber business kept going until the mid-1940s. Colin Fingerle, whose family owned a competing lumberyard nearby, recalls that Sauer’s specialized in doors and windows, making them from scratch.

Notes for Robert Samuel Horning:
Robert Samuel Horning of Largo, Florida Born March 16, 1926 in Ann Arbor to Samuel and Anna Barbara (Hanselmann) Horning, Robert Samuel Horning died June 13, 2019 in Largo, Florida (near Clearwater) at age 93 after receiving injuries during a recent fall. Bob attended Ann Arbor High School; he then served as a rifleman in the Army during World War II, in the 70th Infantry Division, earning two bronze battle stars in European Theater Operations, and was a prison guard in Western Germany. Upon discharge, he worked as a clerk at the U.S. Postal Service for thirty-three years. He loved life, including hiking, traveling, photography, playing cards, collecting coins and stamps. But he would drop those any time for a conversation with friends and acquaintances. He was always reading, could remember tons of trivia, and probably would have done well on Jeopardy. Later in life he became more interested in God and drew closer to him.

Bob's nearest relatives were his nephews and their wives: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy). His brother, Walter, died in 2007.

A committal service will be at Bethlehem Cemetery on Jackson Rd. in Ann Arbor at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 24, 2019.

Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 24 Oct 1950 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Olive Lydia Wheelock 01 Jan 1891 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Emerson Wheelock and Polly Wilson. She was born 23 Apr 1868 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 10 Oct 1932 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Immanuel Heinrich Cook:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

E. H. Cook. Many of the native sons of Washtenaw County have continued their residence within its borders, finding here good advantages and business opportunities, while in the exercise of their native powers they have gained creditable and gratifying success. To this class belongs Mr. Cook, who now follows farming on section 33, Pittsfield Township. He was born in Lodi Township on the 16th of August, 1869, and is of German lineage. His paternal grandfather, John Cook, was born in Germany, and at an early date came to this state, entering land in Washtenaw County and assisting the pioneers in their efforts to reclaim this region for the purposes of civilization.

John Cook's son, Jacob Cook, father of our subject, was born on the old family homestead in Lodi Township, and at the age of twenty-five years was married to Miss Catherine Zahn, who was also born in Lodi Township, while her father, John Zahn, was a native of Germany. As the years passed Jacob Cook engaged quite extensively in farming and stock raising in York Township, where he owned and operated two hundred acres of land. In addition to the tilling of the soil and the production of crops best adapted to the climate he raised stock on a large scale and found this is a profitable source of income. He belonged to the German Lutheran church and he gave his political allegiance to the Republican Party. In his family were two daughters: Mary, the wife of Theodore Feldkamp, by whom he has three children, their family home being in York Township; and Eliza, the wife of Fred Rash, of Ann Arbor, by whom she has three children. E. H. Cook, the only son and the second child, was reared to farm life under the parental roof, giving his father the benefit of his services until eighteen years of age.

He acquired his education in the common schools and afterward worked at farm labor until twenty-two years of age, when he was married to Miss Olive Wheelock, who was born April 23, 1868, and is a daughter of Emmons Wheelock, a native of New York. Her grandfather was one of the pioneer settlers of Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Cook have become the parents of three children: Hazel, born July 25, 1895; Mildred, born April 14, 1900; and Clarence, born September 27, 1904. The home farm is a tract of eighty acres of rich and valuable land devoted to the production of various cereals and also to stock raising. Mr. Cook has recently erected a fine large residence and new outbuildings and in fact has one of the best improved farm properties in his locality. Everything about the place indicates his careful supervision, and he is well known as a practical and progressive farmer, who is winning well merited profit in his labors. In his political views he is an earnest republican, but he has no desire for office. Socially he is a member of Saline lodge, No. 133, A. F. & A. M., and he likewise belongs to Maccabees tent, No. 46, of Saline, in which he has held some offices. He is one of the prominent native sons of the county, his record having ever been in harmony with the history of the family in their identification with the best interests of the county and its substantial growth and improvement.

Emanuel H. Cook, a lifelong resident of this community, died early Tuesday morning Oct. 24, 1950 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Donna Bradbury, of Dexter, following an extended illness. He was born in Scio Township the son of Jacob and Catherine Zahn Cook on August 16, 1869, and on January 1, 1890, he was married to Olive Wheelock, who preceded him in death in October 1932. Mr. Cook was a member of the Methodist church, a life member of Saline Lodge No. 133, F. & A. M., and of Saline Chapter, 0. E. S.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Hoag of Jackson, Mrs. Donna Bradbury of Dexter, and Mrs. Hazel Easton of Saline; one son Arthur; two half-brothers, Fred Koeder of Milan and Theophil Koeder of Illinois; two half-sisters, Mrs. Lida Dierherger of Jackson and Mrs. Amanda Schwartzkopf of Lansing; ten grandchildren and six great grandchildren. One son, Clarence Cook, preceded him in death in 1949. Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 o'clock at the Lockwood Funeral Home with Rev. R. R. Feuell, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery where grave side services will he conducted by members of the Masonic Lodge of Saline.

Notes for Gertrude M. Rundel:

Gertrude M. Cook, 92, died Wednesday, Feb. 23, 2000 at the Evangelical Home of Saline. She was born October 16, 1907 in Pittsfield Township, the daughter of Wilbur L. and Amelia (Chissus) Rundel. She married Clarence E. Cook and he preceded her in death on May 6, 1949. Mrs. Cook was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Saline and had worked at Universal Die Casting for more than 30 years until her retirement. She attended Cleary College.

She is survived by: one nephew, Eugene Leutheuser of Saline; three great-nephews, Roger, Richard, and Mark Leutheuser; one great-niece, Lisa Leutheuser; and several great-great-nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, Feb. 25 at the First Presbyterian Church of Saline with Rev. Judith Shipman officiating. Burial will take place in Oakwood Cemetery, Saline. Memorial contributions may be made to the church. Envelopes will be available at the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home in Saline, where friends may call on Thursday from 5-8 p.m. and at the church on Friday from 10a.m. until the time of the service.

It is simple to remember the first part of a famous quote by 18th-century physician Thomas Fuller: “Charity begins at home.” Regrettably, it seems easier for most people to forget the second half of that phrase which carries the true message, “but, should not end there.”

One long time Saline resident took this saying to heart. Beginning in the 1980s, she worked tirelessly and anonymously through her attorney, Kalian Liston, to set up a series of endowments that touched many. She began her charitable works within the boundaries of Saline and chose to expand her definition of “home” to Washtenaw County, the state of Michigan and even to other parts of the U.S. The woman who worked zealously to keep her identity secret became known as “The Angel” to many local organizations and it was only with her death on Feb. 23, 2000 that people slowly became aware of just how much Gertrude Cook was indeed, “The Angel.” Her story is fascinating; a lesson in love, devotion, frugality, planning, and generosity, driven by a steely sense of purpose. It is also the realization of a dream that was shared by Mrs. Cook and her husband, Clarence.

Linda Ormsby, director of Saline Area Social Service, was a niece of Mrs. Cook and willingly shared some of the family history.

“Aunt Gert was born Gertrude Rundle about 1908,”Ormsby says. “Both she and Uncle Clarence were lifelong Salinians. She was raised on the Rundle Farm the stone house on North Maple just south of Textile (on the east side of the road). She grew up there and that is where she lived while she and Uncle Clarence were courting. Her only sister was Martha Leutheuser, the mother of Gene and grandmother of Roger, the branch of the family associated with the restaurant.”

An early photograph of Mrs. Cook shows an attractive young woman in a serious pose. A short wavy bob haircut frames her face. The expressive eyes gaze thoughtfully into the camera and the set mouth appears to hint equally at the promise of a smile or the reproof of a frown. She is wearing a light-colored dress or blouse with short capped sleeves and a single strand of pearls.This was Mrs. Cook’s favorite portrait.

“Uncle Clarence was the third of five siblings; my mother Donna was the fourth,” notes Ormsby. “They lived first out on Bemis Road and then moved in town into a house on Maple Street, the second or third house north of Michigan Avenue. He was a tall, handsome man with a brush-cut long before brush-cuts were popular.”

Ormsby was uncertain just when or where the couple met, but it is known that they both attended and graduated from Saline High School. They were about the same age. “When they got married, in the late ‘20s or early ‘30s,”notes Ormsby,“they moved into a brand new house on Henry Street and Aunt Gert stayed there until she moved into the Evangelical Home for health reasons. Uncle Clarence worked at the Saline Savings Bank (then located at the four-comers in the building just vacated by the TCF Bank). He began as a teller and later advanced to a position as a bank officer. “They were a wonderful couple,” remembers Ormsby, eyes glistening. “Uncle Clarence and Aunt Gert didn’t have any children of their own but they took care of all the nieces and nephews. They did the right thing at the right time for all the kids.

“There were nine nieces and nephews (in my generation). Aunt Gert and Uncle Clarence always remembered us at Christmas with a gift and each gift was especially chosen for each individual child.”

In the summers, the oldest nieces and nephews were treated to long visits at the Cooks’ home. “The biggest joy of our lives,” Ormsby notes,“was at the end of the day when Aunt Gert allowed us to leave the house and walk up and meet Uncle Clarence on his way home. At times we also got to tour the bank but I didn’t realize until much later that the boys actually were permitted inside the safe! The girls weren’t allowed to do that,” she adds with a smile.

The Cooks were a social couple and had friends throughout the community. Mrs. Cook stayed at home, tending the house and her flower gardens. Mr. Cook was a member of the Masonic Lodge and was a Past Master of that organization. He also served on the Saline Board of Education. At the time, a few people wondered why Mr. Cook would want to be on the school board since the couple didn’t have any children. The simple answer was that Mr. and Mrs. Cook both cared about children, whether they were from the immediate family or the greater community.

Ormsby fondly recalls how the Cooks enjoyed interacting with the nieces and nephews and how they were always on hand to see any performances, music recitals or presentations.

Gertrude and Clarence Cook were members of the Federated Church which is now the First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Michigan Ave. and Hall Street.

Touring the country was also one of the Cooks’ favorite past times. They traveled to Colorado and also throughout the east coast states. “They had one of the first Nash Ramblers with the backseat that was a pull-down bed,” remembers Ormsby. “They drove it on their vacations and we kids loved to climb in the back when they came out to the farm.” The Cooks were frequent visitors to the farm where Ormsbygrew up.“They came out almost weekly to visit and sometimes they brought us gifts and souvenirs,” says Ormsby. “They were just a special, special couple. They were the perfect aunt and uncle. They did so much for us, but didn’t try to replace our parents.”

The Cooks also helped each individual family if they were in need. This did not run to financial support but more to sage advice and emotional assistance that permitted the families to maneuver past and over particular bumps in the road. Once the family was back on track, the Cooks recognized that it was time to step back and let go.

“I remember once,” says Ormsby, “Aunt Gert and Uncle Clarence came out to the farm on a Sunday. After we ate, my dad and Uncle Clarence went into the kitchen and closed the door on the rest of us. Uncle Clarence spent the next hour or so helping my dad prepare to join the Masons.

“When we graduated from high school, we each received a final gift from Uncle Clarence and Aunt Gert.

Again, it was a gift especially chosen for each of us and we knew it would be the last one, but it held special, meaning."This final gift was really a rite of passage that meant each recipient was then considered an adult by the Cooks.

At one point, Clarence and Gertrude Cook left town on what has become known in the family as the "Mystery Trip." No one knew where they had gone or why. When they returned, the family discovered that the Cooks had traveled to another where Mr. Cook had taken classes to become a certified auctioneer. From that point on, they teamed up on weekends to conduct auctions. Mr. Cook was the auctioneer, while Mrs. Cook was the bookkeeper, working behind the scenes. "They did well in the auction business," reports Ormsby "but Uncle Clarence remained at his bank job and (auctioneering) was more of a hobby. Uncle Clarence enjoyed public speaking and was very good. With his ability to work and talk to all types of people, this was a natural position for him."

Suddenly, the Cooks' storybook existence was thrown into chaotic disarray. Mr. Cook was diagnosed with what was then called "malignant hypertension" or uncontrollable high blood pressure. During the 1940s and 1950s the medications and treatments now used to control and manage this disease were not yet available. Unfortunately, the worst occurred and Clarence Cook passed away at the age of 42 leaving Mrs. Cook on her own for the first time in her life.

"Aunt Gert took his death very, very hard," relates Ormsby, "but she wouldn't talk about it. She internalized everything and really became a recluse after Uncle Clarence died. She never changed a thing in the house while she remained there and for the first five or 10 years following his death, she went to the cemetery every single day."

Ormsby notes that the situation was both touching and sad—her loyalty and dedication was heart-warming as well as heart-breaking. Mrs. Cook seemed to withdraw from social acquaintances and activities, even some family gatherings. The relatives were concerned and attempted to involve Mrs. Cook in activities. For the most part all efforts failed. Even telling her that her late husband would not have wanted her to withdraw from the world didn't sway this determined woman. Ormsby likens the situation to that of a person frozen in time. Clarence Cook had been her life; the captain of the team. And now that dynamic team of two became a body of one.

Mrs. Cook was not left independently wealthy and began her working career in her late 30s or early 40s. At a time when many people reach the half-way point in their careers, Gertrude Cook began her journey into the work world. She secured employment at the old Universal Die Cast plant off Monroe St. and remained with the company for the next several years as Universal evolved into Hoover Universal and then Johnson Controls.

According to her nephew, Eugene Leutheuser, those that might remember her today may recall that little, gray-haired lady on E. Henry St. out tending her flowers or getting after the squirrels. Not a leaf came down in the fall but that Gertrude was out there after it. She was a meticulous yard-keeper.

As the surviving team member, Mrs. Cook seemed to focus on a scattering of areas that she had always loved and shared with Mrs. Cook. Children, music, nature and helping people to help themselves became the nucleus of her plan. The lone lady from the little house on Henry Street proved to be a master planner. She planned for the future. The exact amount of time and energy she expended on the development of her endowment fund will never be known, but by the 1980s an overall program had been designed and set into motion. And the watchword for this individual effort was anonymity, with a capital "A."

"Anonymity was so important to Gertrude," recalls Liston, "that special steps were taken to get her projects done, leaving no trail, but taking back to her the responses and the visual satisfaction of seeing through photographs and videos and knowing that things were getting done."

Liston adds: The kids at Mott Children's Liston adds: The kids at Mott Children's Hospital wanted to create a visual image of just who this special person might be, and it was they who came up with the image of the Angel. "The concept fit perfectly, so we used 'The Angel' as a quick reference to the anonymous donor in all the plans and projects."

Through all of her planning, Mrs. Cook never forgot Clarence Cook or the team they embodied. Liston notes in reference to her various donations, "She did not want recognition until after her death and then, she wanted the recognition to include her deceased husband."

Mrs. Cook was both a friend and client to Liston. According to him, she chose to look "...to the community of people at large and pursued interests that satisfied her. She fed people, she made their lives more spiritual or enjoyable, she reached out to many charities and created her own particular plans and had me get them accomplished."

Even when poor health necessitated her leaving her beloved home and moving into the Evangelical Home, Mrs. Cook continued planning the legacy on behalf of herself and Mr. Cook. Progressive illness did not deter this remarkable woman. She worked her plan from her wheelchair and her bed, even to the last.

"When she became physically unable to do things herself, she would give directions and view the results through videos and in other ways at the Evangelical Home," reports Liston with a note of awe and a healthy dose of respect. "And in that way, she remained active and connected with people and the things she wanted to see done, but all the While enjoying her fiercely guarded privacy."

The largest, most visible project financed by Mrs. Cook is how part of the Evangelical Home.

"Gertrude's funding produced the elegant greenhouse/sunroom you see in the F. Wing," Says Liston. "Not only did she build the sunroom, she financed the woodworking you see along the eastern wall. Gertrude's gift also purchased all of the 'stand ftp gardens' which look like little plant beds on rollers and the fountain in the comer. Gertrude was creating a space she could go to use and also for others to enjoy. Many people have been using the sunroom as a place to take their family members to have visits and other things like birthday parties and special events."

Mrs. Cook considered flowers "friendly spirits." Even when she could no longer see flowers, she had them near her and could smell their fragrance. The greenhouse/sunroom allows others to commune with those friendly spirits and perhaps it's not too implausible to believe that a new spirit has joined the others sometime during the last 14 months.

"Trying to get Gertrude to spend money on herself was a chore," remarks Liston. "She denied and refused everything. She repeatedly said that being in the Saline Evangelical Home was a good place to be and they took care of her needs. That was enough; that was all she wanted for herself. There was no forcing this lady."

So it is not surprising that it was Mrs. Cook who funded a small cash gift given to all of the employees at the Evangelical Home. Each gift was accompanied by a printed card. The exact words were not Mrs. Cook's but the context and sentiments were. The note read in part: "Please accept and enjoy this gift to you in the spirit in which it is given; on behalf of the collective spirit of all the residents of the Evangelical Home....You work with us and help us in so many very personal ways. You show us kindness, sometimes even when we are hot being so kind....You try to keep us engaged, involved and active....you give us a measure of dignity and respect." And we do sense that. And we do appreciate that; each of us in our own way. We thank you."This was probably as close as she came to letting anyone know she was involved with the gifts because the card was signed."Your friends," meaning all the residents of EVH.

The Saline Schools were a natural stop along Mrs. Cook's endowment path. After all, the schools involved children, music and an agriculture program. Bob Phillips, Saline orchestras' director and founder of Fiddlers Philharmonic, was one of the staff members consulted at the schools. He and the rest of the music staff were told only that there was an anonymous donor who wanted to fund projects for youth in Saline. In conversations and discussions with Liston, many ideas were examined in an attempt to decide on a project that would touch the greatest number of students. The group finally settled on one of Mrs. Cook's original ideas: the creation of a music library resource that would be available to the entire community. Again, several locations were considered and after talking with the music staff and the Saline Music Parents Association, the school system seemed the ideal place to house such a library.

"Gertrude's contribution put new music resources into the hands of teachers at every public school, at every level," says Liston. "Some of the things were hard items like instruments used in the elementary schools, and some of the things were in the form of music resources that go far beyond anything anyone would expect to see at a middle school or a high school."

Since February of 2000, Saline students have had access to the music library and instruments. However, a portion of the endowment has been put aside to allow for expansion of the library in the future. Eventually Phillips was made aware that Mrs. Cook loved fiddling as well as other forms of music and live performances. The Fiddlers were not strangers to the Evangelical Home, but four or five years ago they received a request to move some of their performances from the center of the building to a certain dining room. At the time, Phillips and the Fiddlers were only told that "the donor" could hear the performances from this location.

The performances were well received and a donation was made to Fiddlers that helped out with projects and travel expenses. A later contribution allowed Phillips to realize a dream to purchase electric, acoustic guitars.

"Well," responds Phillips, this was a dream came true. The guitars are still being used now. They made an incredible difference in being able to amplify the group and keep the acoustic sound!" As an offshoot of the Fiddlers performances, a music outreach program was started.

Using monies provided by Mrs. Cook, Pam Phillips, Bob's wife and Fiddlers' business manager, volunteered to coordinate scheduling and work with the music staff so that groups from the bands, orchestras, choirs and Fiddlers performed at the EVH and Mott Children's Hospital."The various music groups played many times over a two year period for those institutions," notes Pam Phillips. Working with the Saline Music Parents, a state of the art outfit of recording equipment for the school resulted from Mrs. Cook's kindness.

"This is used to record every concert on CD," says Pam Phillips. "Many students also come in to record audition tapes to be sent with applications for music camps, colleges and scholarships."

The Saline High School horticulture Award is also a direct result of Mrs. Cook's largess.

The award was established in 1999. Each year, two seniors receive a check for $1,000 at Senior Awards Night. The qualifications for application are minimal. Because Mrs. Cook so enjoyed nature, "there just has to be a grower element to the Horticulture Award, explains Liston. "This is in recognition of present achievement and accomplishments with horticulture."

According to the attorney, the award is aimed at "those kids who are showing the love of growing things; in particular flowers, but it could be crops, it could be a specialty, it could be ornamentals. "This is not a scholarship; it is an award," he stresses. "There are no strings attached. It doesn't matter what your grade point is. We don't even ask. It doesn't matter what your future plans are: we already know. (The recipients) are going to be out there in the dirt in some capacity for the rest of their lives."

The Saline District Library received funds and according to Director Leslee Niethammer, she and the Library Board decided to divide the amount received in two and earmarked each half for different projects. "We used one half to enhance our music and video collections," notes Niethammer. "It would be impossible to name all of the tapes and CDs that resulted from this generous gift. However, as an example, we purchased two audio series, How to Listen and Understand Great Music and How to Listen and Understand Opera. "We literally added hundreds of CDs of all types of music and many videos including several Broadway shows. The endowment allowed the Youth Department to begin a collection of pop youth CDs and we purchased a multi-media computer with head phones so patrons can come to the Library and listen to music."

The second half of the bequest was used to improve the woodland trails that adjoin the library to the south. "In 1998, we were able to work with a group of students from the U-M School of Natural Resources to improve the trails," reports Niethammer. This included putting up the entrance sign and other markers along the path. The students designed orientation brochures for walkers to use and coloring books for children. Last year, Niethammer and the board called on U-M again. This time it was a different group and a different project.

"The students concentrated on developing trail aids for people with visual difficulties that cover the first half of the trail," says Niethammer. "This time brochures and audio tapes were produced. Using a brochure read by a friend, a person with limited vision can still enjoy the walk through the trail and is told what to 'look' for by feeling, listening and smelling. The audiotapes serve the same purpose.

A plaque on a large, pink-tinged boulder at the entrance of the trail is inscribed: "The Sensory Trail is made possible by the generosity of Gertrude and Clarence Cook."According to Niethammer, m recent months, the Library has been recognized statewide for its innovative woodland trail system. "Without the donation from the Cooks, our trail system would still be in its infancy today," says Niethammer.

Space and privacy does not allow for the publication of every person or organization touched by the generosity of Gertrude and Clarence Cook. Liston compiled a, "summary of gifting" and this six-page document records more than 40 organizations or individuals who received single or multiple gifts during the last 15-20 years. The scope of this team effort is even more staggering when the bottom line is read: the total funds allocated to the various organizations exceeded a half million dollars.

Perhaps the most challenging part of the assignment for Liston was concealing and preserving "The Angel's" secret identity. For the most part he was incredibly successful but in some cases he needed assistance. As a result, a very small group of people, sworn to secrecy, helped Liston facilitate several of Mrs. Cook's projects. Bob and Pam Phillips were members of this elite group. After some of the music programs were started, Liston introduced Bob and Pam to Mrs. Cook. "When the Fiddlers or one of the orchestra groups performed at the EVH, Bob would go to her room arid visit for a minute before or after the performance," remembers Pam Phillips. "As her health worsened, music events were videotaped so she could see them in her room. Once, on a good day, Kalian took Gertrude for a drive and visited with Bob at our home. Just these small things brought a smile to her face. She had proof of what she was helping to accomplish."

About five years before Mrs. Cook's death, Ormsby, as director of Saline Area Social Service, found her organization the recipient of money from an anonymous donor."Every few months, a check for Social Service would arrive from Kalian's office. I didn't know who the donor was. Very few strings came with the checks. The money was to be used to help people where Social Services knew the need existed. No reports or audits were requested."The donor trusted that we would use the funds wisely. Occasionally, a check would come with a specific purpose attached. One check was used to help children with musical needs."That single requirement allowed Ormsby and her staff to purchase instruments, lessons, music books and uniforms where needed.

"I was always amazed at the generosity of this unknown benefactor," smiles Ormsby. "I thought about who this person might be, but I noticed that the checks were issued from a bank in Cincinnati, and I never, connected Aunt Gertrude with an out-of-state bank."Eventually, Ormsby began to have suspicions as to the identity of the donor. "But," she maintains, "I did not know for sure, until the day of her funeral. When it was revealed that Aunt Gert was the person so many of us knew as 'The Angel,' it brought the family closer together."There was not a word of disappointment or reproach from any family member.""Isn't it wonderful," muses Ormsby with a sense of pride, "how someone could be so unselfish when it came to giving?"

And Ormsby was not alone in this discovery. As the chairman of the renovation committee for the First Presbyterian Church, Taylor Jacobsen knew about money that an unidentified donor had given for remodeling and a new organ as well as funds given to the church's Youth Ministry. Liston had worked closely with Jacobsen and his art students who designed the Horticulture Award Certificates. "But honestly," says Jacobsen, "I didn't know who the donor was until the day of the funeral. I still find the number and variety of projects Mrs. Cook supported over the years absolutely amazing."

What a remarkable story about an exceptional couple and an extraordinary woman. It would have been interesting to hear the conversations that took place in that "little house on Henry Street," to know what transpired between this devoted couple. Somewhere a seed was planted; a seed that Mrs. Cook lovingly nurtured for 50 years. That small seed blossomed into a unique legacy that is both a testament to a very special team and a benefit to current and future generations.

"She was out there in the community, working her plans to the last, pulling for a team that hadn't been together as a team for more than 50 years. "On her desk, at her home was a motto," notes Liston. "It went something like this: I'm only one person but I can make a difference. If I make a difference, maybe others will, too."

Notes for Alfred Jonathan Paul:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Alfred J. Paul, one of Ann Arbor's native sons, was born March 24, 1867. His father, Henry Paul, was a native of Scio Township, Washtenaw County, and there his death occurred in December, 1891. He had for many years been actively engaged in business in Scio and later in Ann Arbor. He married Miss Katherine Cook, a native of Michigan, who is now living in this city. and unto this marriage were born a son and two daughters, the latter being Amelia, now the wife of Andrew Reule, of Ann Arbor, mentioned elsewhere in this volume; and Augusta, who died and was buried in the cemetery here. Alfred J. Paul, the eldest of the family, acquired his education in the public schools of this city and on putting aside his text-books went upon his father's farm, being actively engaged in general agricultural pursuits until 1900. He is now in business at No. 109 North Main Street, conducting a fine and splendidly equipped buffet opposite the courthouse.

Mr. Paul was married in 1903 to Miss Emma Gwinner, a representative of one of the old families of Ann Arbor, in which city her birth occurred. Mr. Paul is a Mason, also belongs to the Knights of Pythias lodge and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and he attends the Bethlehem Evangelical church. He represents a pioneer family of the county and he has a wide acquaintance here, where he has maintained his residence from his boyhood to the present. His friends embrace many who have known him from his youth as well as the acquaintances of his later years.

Notes for Leon Thomas Hanselman:
Ypsilanti - Three men were electrocuted Sunday April 13, 1930 after a plane became entangled with high tension wires while attempting a landing at Ypsilanti airport. The dead: Levi Keppler, 24, bank teller, Ann Arbor; Harry Walters, 31, superintendent of the airport; William Clawson, 60, retired farmer of Ypsilanti; Leon Hanselmann, 23, Ann Arbor, owner of the plane and licensed pilot, was injured slightly. According to witnesses, Hanselmann swung the plane too low approaching the field. It struck some high-tension transmission wires, became entangled and remained suspended in the air. A wire came in contact with Keppler, killing him. The plane burst into flames. Walters ran to the plane carrying a fire extinguisher, witnesses said. As he turned on a stream of chemicals, electric current followed the liquid and knocked him to the ground. Clawson tried to assist Walters and was killed. Walters was taken to the university hospital at Ann Arbor, but died before the ambulance reached the hospital. Hanselmann Jumped from the plane, which continued to burn until employees of the Detroit Edison company cut the wires. An Inquest was ordered.

April 17, 1930 - Levi Keppler, 24, Ann Arbor; Willard Clawson, 60, Ypsilanti, and Harry Walters, 28, Ypsilanti, were electrocuted Sunday afternoon when an airplane became entangled in the high tension wires while attempting to make a landing at the Ypsilanti Airport. Leon Hanselmann, 24, of Ann Arbor, pilot, was slightly hurt and taken to Beyer hospital In Ypsilanti for treatment. Hanselmann, who has been an air enthusiast for some time, rents a hangar at the Ypsilanti airport and took his friend Keppler for a ride Sunday and was preparing to land when the accident occurred. Keppler was not injured in the fall but remained imprisoned in his seat in a tangle of high tension wires while rescuers struggled to release him. He died when he rose from his seat to jump, the change in position bringing him into contact with the high voltage.
Walters was killed when he attempted to release Keppler. Clawson, a bystander, was killed when he sought to draw Walter's body away from the wires. It is said that Hanselmann's plane approached the airport from the west, flying low with the motor apparently dead. The ship side-slipped and nearly went out of control before it got to the port. The plane's tail hooked on a high tension wire at the side of the field and burst into flames. The nose fell forward dragging the wires and throwing the pilot to the ground. Keppler, the passenger, remained imprisoned in the ship. Attendants attempted to extinguish the flames but they had gained too great a headway. Most of this was witnessed by Keppler's mother who had to be restrained from rushing into the tangle of highly charged wires.

Marriage Notes for Letha Fill and Dwight Edwards:

Lansing, Feb. 26, 1982 - Letha and Dwight Edwards today celebrate 65 years of a marriage that began with a resolve never to go to bed with an argument unresolved. "It's give and take that makes a marriage last; I think that's probably the best way you could put it. You can't always agree on things. But, if you argue, make up before you go to sleep," Edwards said. "You have to give a lot and take a lot," his wife agreed, when they were asked why their marriage lasted as it did. Edwards believes his wife's good cooking helped, but wasn't the most important thing. "The problem today," Edwards said, "is it's so damed easy for young people to fight a little bit and get a divorce. Seems like back at the time we were married, if you had an argument, you made it up. People (nowadays) don't know how to overcome their differences. You have to learn to talk it out."

He was 20 and she 19 when they were married in 1917 in the Lansing home of her parents, Ed and Lydia Fill. Edwards will be 85 on March 11 and his wife will be 85 on July 14. "We've seen an awful lot of change. Actually, we've gone from the horse and buggy days to the airplane," Edwards said, reflecting on their 65 years. "Oh, there's been so many improvements. It's been quite a transformation. Everything today is tied to machines, computers. Even farmers are using computers." Edwards was a farmer until he and his wife retired and moved to Grand Ledge in 1957. She was a saleswoman in the J.C. Penney and J.W. Knapp department stores. Asked what kind of a farmer he was, Edwards replied with a laugh, "A darned good one!" He said he raised milk cows before he turned to purebred Hereford cattle. "When we gave up raising cattle, we got the third highest price in the state the year we sold them," he said with pride. They lived in the Willow Highway farmhouse that had been home for Edwards since he was 10.

They have three daughters Frances Chapman of Houghton Lake, Ruth Kaylor of Eaton Rapids and Martha Eveleth of Lansing; eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. Edwards includes Ronald Lundeen who married great-granddaughter Shelli Shortz in Portland last summer.

Marriage Notes for Florence Stoll and Fred England:
Lansing - Among the many social affairs given in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Florence Stoll, was the dinner at which Miss Irene Dale was hostess, Thursday evening, Feb. 16, 1922, at her home on N. Capitol Ave. A bowl of sweet peas centered the table and a boutonniere of the same blossoms was at each place. The guest of honor received a large bouquet of sweet peas. The evening was spent informally. Mrs. Clifford Foster, of Grand Rapids, formerly Miss Sarah Kirby, of Lansing, was an out-of-town guest.

Lansing - Florence Stoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Howe, and Fred England, Jr., of Detroit, spoke their marriage vows Saturday evening Feb. 25, 1922 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 212 W. Hillsdale St., with Rev. G. W. Simon of the First Presbyterian church officiating at the ceremony. The Howe home was decorated with palms ferns, and tall standards of Columbia roses. The greenery was banked in the sun parlor to form the altar, while on either side were wicker baskets filled with pink roses and ferns. Smilax was wound about the staircase and in the archways, forming almost a bower of green through the lower part of the house. The bride wore a gown of white canton crepe with net overdress heavily embroidered in iridescent sequins, the design outlined with seed pearls. Her long tulle veil was arranged in cap effect, and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Columbia and sunburst roses, with orchid and white sweet peas, arranged in a huge colonial bouquet and held with a shower of lover's knot fashioned from narrow chiffon ribbon.
Attending the bride was Mrs. W. J. Clark, who wore a white satin gown, en train, and carried a colonial bouquet of roses, freesia, and sweet peas in pink and white, Little Miss Mary Jane MacKichan, who attended the door, wore a simple little frock of black pannevelvet, with black Bilk socks, and carried a quaint colonial bouquet of narcissus and roses. Robert MacKichan, the ring bearer, carried the ring in a pink Columbia rose. He wore a suit of black panne velvet and white silk crepe. Ralph England, of Detroit, attended his brother as best man. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Stoll, assisted by Miss Anna Bayha.
Following the ceremony and reception a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was laid in the dining room. It was centered with a low bowl of early spring blossoms, and lighted by pink candles, whose holders were bowed with pink tulle. The other guests were served in the rooms on the second floor where small tables were arranged, each bearing lighted candles in pink and white. During the ceremony and afterward through the reception hour, Harry Baumgras furnished harp selections. Mr. and Mrs. England left immediately after the ceremony for Chicago, and when they return will live at the Porter. Mr. England has accepted a position with the Durant Sales Co., of Lansing.

Betty Kathryn[10] Race (Alta Dell (Ada)[9] Stabler, Johann Carl[8], Johann Carl[7] Staebler, Johann Michael[6], Margaretha[5] Koch, Johann Michael[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 1916 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 2009 in Florida. She married Lazell John Wall 06 Oct 1936 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, son of Frank Wall and Jessie Lazell. He was born 07 Sep 1907 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 17 Sep 2001 in Vero Beach, Indian River Co, Florida.

Notes for Betty Kathryn Race:

Betty Kathryn Wall - Once upon a time a pretty little 16-year old minx maiden carrying a book bag, skipped past an office building on her way to high school in Lansing, Michigan. Spotted by an older prince, my father, he was besotted with Love sweet love. He watched her many days before finding a suitable person to introduce him, then courted her with beautifully drawn and lettered cards and missives. She was so young. Forced by her evil parents to take at least one year of college before she married, she chafed out the year at Michigan State University as a music major, and soon her beautiful coloratura soprano voice sang all the choir's solos, but she trembled at the limelight. Let me out, let me get married.

After which she sang at her Seventh Day Adventist church and for weddings, ("Oh Promise Me"), and funerals ("Shall we gather at the River" In the Sweet by and by; Blessed assurance"). She was first and foremost a woman whose home was impeccably kept and made. We the next generation didn't want to be our mothers and we spun off into a multitude of jobs, marriages, messy plot lines. The wide world was ours. We thought we didn't need the small stifling role of homemaker/ house keeper. Industrious house keeper she was, making sure the blocks of delivered ice went into the icebox; serving canned baked beans once a week on "pay-off-the-mortgage" night; cranking the mangle to squeeze out the washing water from the laundry load, then carrying the heavy damp linens out to the clothes line, clamping the pins to the wire. The truth is, I've never been truly comfortable since I left her home. I've never slept so luxuriously as in her sunshine dried, freshly ironed sheets. And never was the word "homemaker" more literally true. She designed her homes, laboriously hooked her rugs, quilted her quilts, and spun a multitude of bright paintings out of her imagination. The marriages of her age were long lasting. The husband came always first and for 66 years they were together. My mother was especially happy when her husband retired and his time belonged to her. Chaucer was right. What women want is mastery, but in the end, she was not the master of her own fated demise. As she lay dying, first in the hospital, "Baa baa black sheep have you any wool" pipes over the loud speaker in the hallway. "What's that" asks my mother. "A baby has just been born," smiles the nurse. Coming onto the Earth passes and over takes Going off the Earth. Giving birth, taking death, each is an arduous endeavor in the gyre of life. Generations have trod, have trod, have trod and will trod on hopefully happily ever after. Toward the end it is the gateway-to-heaven Hospice House that accepts our mottled rags and bones. Hospice: Hospitality at the Abyss of that good night, into which she did not go gentle. My mother was of German heritage. She loved potatoes cut in thick fry slices then roasted in olive oil; creamed potatoes with green peas. Her last food request was mashed potatoes. I rushed home to make them, but when I returned, she no longer wanted food. Some advice to the soon to be lovelorn: The last events are rapid ones. Get your love, forgiveness, mashed potatoes in on time. At the end, I sit wrapped in her yellow quilt, the one appliquéd with roses, where she dyed half the cloth to get just the right shadings of color. I listen to the night murmurs, the snaps and crackles of her breath, and hold her hand and feel the mouse twitch of her pulse.

I her only daughter Judith Olney Smith, my husband Walter, my son Nathan Lazell Olney, her sister Mary Cherne , and her dear Lee will miss and mourn her greatly. The stone labeled Lazell John Wall (1907- 2001) awaits its mate inscribed Betty Kathryn Wall (1915-2009). Paxpacis sweet, fierce little Mommy. Amen

Notes for William Allen Gilbert:
Ann Arbor - William “Bill” Gilbert passed away after a short illness on December 27, 2016. He was born on July 27, 1944 to parents Robert and Margaret Gilbert. He was a lifelong resident of Dexter, Michigan having attended Parker Country School, Bates Elementary and Dexter High School and graduating in 1962. He was baptized and confirmed at St. Andrew's Church in Dexter. As a youth, Bill was actively involved in 4-H raising sheep and enjoying farm life. While on the farm, Bill enjoyed taming barn pigeons as pets. When the family moved down the road to their new house Bill began raising homing and fantail pigeons. The same gentleman who introduced Bill to raising fancy pigeons was the same man who introduced his father to raising dahlias. For many years, Bill enjoyed bowling and won many trophies. He also enjoyed doing small parts assembly at DAPCO, Laser Systems and Raycon. Bill loved to work with his hands and for years made birdhouses and other projects with wood. He also loved the outdoors and took pride in gardening and growing dahlias the last few years. One of his favorite past times was watching the abundant wildlife that frequented their yard and nearby fields. He loved feeding the birds and seeing all the different varieties that would visit. In the last few years Bill also enjoyed his Tuesday morning coffee group of old friends. He looked forward to it every week and loved the social time with his buddies. A very special friend and neighbor, Bob, has been a great support for Bill in the last few months. Bill was preceded in death by his father, Robert Gilbert.
He is survived by his mother, Margaret Gilbert; sister, Kathy Warner (David Gilmore); niece, Robyn (Derek) Lachman and his grand-nephew Camden Lachman with whom he had a very special bond; as well as several cousins.
A funeral will be held at St. Andrews Church, 7610 Ann Arbor St., in Dexter, at 11:00 am on Saturday, December 31, 2016. Visitation will be from 5:00 pm -8:00 pm on Friday, December 30th at Nie Funeral Home, 3767 W. Liberty Rd., Ann Arbor, Michigan and from 10:00 am -11:00 am at the church on Saturday. 808. Lorena O.[10] Wolfe (John Henry (Wolfe)[9] Wolf, Maria A. (Mary)[8] Staebler, Johann Friedrich[7], Johann Michael[6], Margaretha[5] Koch, Johann Michael[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 21 Aug 1915 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 23 Oct 1996 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Norman Emanuel Scherdt 14 May 1938 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Emanuel Scherdt and Martha Geisel. He was born 12 Feb 1913 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 06 Jan 2005 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Norman Emanuel Scherdt:

Norm Scherdt, a spry 91, headed uptown to get a haircut one morning last month, carefully driving his blue Ford Taurus to the appointed destination. As was his custom, Mr.Scherdt arrived, early for his date with the clippers, so prompt that Bill's Barbershop wasn't yet open on that snowy Saline morning. While a cup of coffee may have beckoned a few steps, away, Scherdt decidedinstead that it was high time to get to work. "The sidewalk was covered with snow, so Norm went into his trunk, got out asnow shovel, and began shoveling the walk in front of the barbershop," recalled Kelven Braun, who along with his brother Howard were lifelong friends of Scherdt. "Within a few minutes, he had shoveled the sidewalk and then was ready to get his hair cut. That's the kind of guy he was. He was always thinking of others and he loved to stay busy, right upuntil the final day."

That day, ironically enough, came on another "snow day" in Saline, when Scherdt died while clearing his drive of the white stuff with his beloved daughter Betsy Marl nearby. "I called him around 6:15 last Thursday morning and he greeted me with a chipper, 'snow day,"' said Marl, a teacher at Houghton School where classes were idled that day by the winter weather. "By the time I got to his house around 7:45, he had already cleared his sidewalk and was working on the driveway. I went into the garage to get a shovel and then I heard the snow blower banging into the wall and saw that he had collapsed. It was difficult to see, but I was so glad that I was there. That's the way he would have wanted to go, or with a rake in his hand or on a lawn mower. He never wanted to be a burden on anyone and he would never have wanted to be hospitalized or in a nursing home."

A native of Lodi Township, Scherdt spent nearly four decades with Ford Motor Co., beginning his career with the giant automaker in rural outposts before retiring from the maintenance department in 1978 at the Ypsilanti Plant."He worked at the Ford soybean mills and helped build the dams in Manchester and in Saline," recalled Braun. "He never missed a day of work at Ford. I remember one time that he was so sick that when he showed up for work on a Friday his supervisor thought he was drunk. It turned out he had double pneumonia. By the time Monday rolled around, he was back to work. He was an amazing guy, one of a kind. They don't make 'em like Norm anymore."

Scherdt also enjoyed a second career of sorts, assisting Francis Lockwood, Jerry Bahnmiller, and Jim Robison with various duties at the funeral home in Saline during a 45-year span. "Norm was a great employee and an even better friend," said Bahnmiller, who owned the funeral home in Saline for some 20 years. "He always was ready to help and he planned everything down to a T. He died with his boots on, which is the way he wanted to go." During his career in the funeral home profession, Bahnmiller prided himself on running a tight ship, where punctuality was uppermost in mind. "Norm was very meticulous and he had plans for his funeral written out in great detail," said Bahnmiller. "I can remember him telling me, "Make sure it's started on time.'"

Timeliness and orderliness were Scherdt trademarks, character traits that his many friends and admirers appreciated. "You could set your clock to my Dad's daily routine,' said Marl. "He was very precise in everything he did and he did every job to the best of his ability. He also was so grateful to the many people who looked out after him—the Brauns, the Wellers, the Laidlaws, Jerry Bahnmiller, and some of his other neighbors."

Services were held last Saturday at St. Paul United Church of Christ, where he had been a longtime member with his wife of 58 years, Lorena, who died in 1996. Fittingly, Bahnmiller was in the funeral hearse for Scherdt's "last ride" to Oakwood Cemetery where he was buried on a snow-swept January day. But not before he had successfully completed another assignment for his daughter, one of Saline's favorite elementary teachers. "Charlene Stoddard and I have a tradition in our classes each holiday season of giving some small gifts to our students in coffee cans that we specially decorate for the occasion," said Marl. "My Dad would collect coffee cans from his friends and paint them red for us to decorate. When I went into his basement the other day, he probably had about 200 cans lined up, all neatly painted and ready to go, just as I would have expected ofhim."

Norman E. Scherdt of Saline, Michigan, age 91, died Thursday, January 6, 2005 in Saline, Michigan. He was born February 12, 1913 in Lodi Twp., Michigan the son of Emanuel and Martha (Geisel) Scherdt. He had been a Saline-Lodi Twp. resident all of his life. On May 14, 1938, from her parent's home in Lodi Twp., Michigan he was married to Lorena Wolfe and she preceded him in death on October 23, 1996. Norm was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ of Saline. He had been employed by the Ford Motor Company for over 39 years until his retirement in 1978 and the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home in Saline for over 45 years.

Survivors include one daughter, Betsy (Gary) Marl of Saline, Michigan and one grandson, Brian Marl, also of Saline. Other survivors include three sisters-in-law, Margaret Feldkamp, Virginia Hieber, Esther Schaible; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral Services will be held on Saturday, January 8, 2005 at 11:00 A.M. from the St. Paul United Church of Christ of Saline with Rev. Ron Boldman officiating. Burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery, Saline. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the St. Paul United Church of Christ. Envelopes will available at the funeral home where friends may begin calling on Friday, January 7 from 2-4 and 6-8 P.M. and from the Church on Saturday from 10:00 A.M. until time of service. Notes for Rudolph Clifford Feldkamp:

December 21, 1944 - Mrs. Rudolph Feldkamp received the Honor Medal of her husband, which was awarded to him for his courage and bravery in saving the lives of 50 men while serving on the Anzia beach head. Pfc. Feldkamp has been overseas 23 months and saw action in North Africa, Sicily, Italy, Anzio Beach head with the 5th Army in Rome, Southern France and is now with the 7th Army in Germany.

May 24, 1945 - Evidence of proof that Saline boys were among the conquerors of Nazi Germany are beginning to arrive in the homes of the community and Mr. and Mrs.Ruben Feldkamp are quite proud of the collection they have already received from their son, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp, of the Anit-Tank Co., 30th Infantry, with the Seventh Army. During the past couple of weeks they have not had a letter from him, but several packages have arrived with interesting contents. Just a few days ago they received one containing a German Gun, a regular shotgun with three barrels, two of which are average size and the third about have as large as the others. The cartridges are contained ina special compartment in the stock. It is complete with carrier strap.

Articles included in other packages were several steins. One was of clear glass with a patriotic crest on the front side. Another was an ornate affair of porcelain, standing almost a foot high including the cover, which was of carved metal on top of which was the replica of a German infantryman. Around the sides of the stein in vivid colors and embossing were pictures of German infantrymen and other battle scenes. An inscription around the top and another around the bottom indicated that it was a souvenir in memory of service granted during a previous war to the Duchy of Hesse and an allied province. On one side was a toast in rhyme to the valor of the German Infantry and on the other side was a toast to the Duke and the Fatherland. One cup of ordinary size had the colored picture of a patriotic crest around which was the inscription: “Wir Deutsche fuerchten Gott und Niemandanders”. (We Germans fear God and no one else). There were two briar pipes of unique shape. One bore the inscription on the bowl, hardly viable, “Heidelburg, SS 1910’’, and the other had a metal plate on the front with the words “ZurErinnerung on meineDienstzeit’’ (In memory of my period of service).

There were numerous other insignia, some presumably dedicator name plates, and fronts of plaques. Several pieces of jewelry, a traveler’s clock, a ring and necklace, bore the trademark of a Frankfurt jeweler. One package had been wrapped in a peculiar leather-like waterproof paper, and the individual articles were wrapped in the magazine sections of a Berlin paper. It is an interesting display and one thought crosses one’s mind when looking at the articles—How deeply engrained in the minds of the German people was the life of militarism and the glories of war that it was even imprinted on their pipes, glassware and earthenware. They never allowed to forget them.

August 23, 1945 – Home with his honorable discharge papers which he received at Indiantown Gap, Mil Res., Pennsylvania, August 12, 1945, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp served overseas 30 months during which he took part in many battles. He served with the third division of the Seventh Army in Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggis, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe.

A member of the third division, which had more causalities than any other division I the European Theatre, Cpl. Feldkamp was never injured, although having close calls. A jeep driver all of the time, he had a total of 124 points, taking part in the battles of Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggis, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe. His hardest battle was on the Anzio Beachhead. Besides his truck driver’s badge Cpl. Feldkamp wore the Soldier’s Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Distinguished Unit, European, Africa, Middle Eastern Service Medal with eight bronze service stars and five overseas bars. After putting all these ribbons, stars and medals away with his uniform, the civilian now wears a small lapel button which represents his honorable discharge. It took, the corporal just four days from the time he left Casablanca, Africa, to get home and be a civilian again. He returned to the States by plane. A resident of Washtenaw County all his life, he is the husband of the former Margaret Wolf. He was in the armed forces 4 years, 5 months and 20 days. He feels pretty happy to be home again.

RUDY CELEBRATED HIS 63RD BIRTHDAY on November 16, 1980. Two days earlier, as a young man of only 62 years, Rudy Feldkamp reached another milestone that set him apart from practically everyone in this self-centered world. As he has done for many, many years, he gave another pint of blood at die Saline Red Cross Bloodmobile Clinic—and with that gift, Rudy Feldkamp became a 10-gallon giver. Red Cross officials declare that such a record is almost unheard-of anywhere. Young Rudy plans to keep adding to it, with more gifts of life. And he has a lot of helpers. Nephew Luther Marion in photo below with nurse and volunteer helper Mrs. Ed Barrett is building his pint-total just as Rudy did. Also noted as a special helper: Cathy Suiter Hills, who traveled over 100 miles to her former hometown and gave her pint here in Saline.

Rudolph C. (Rudy) Feldkamp of 8400 Weber Road, Saline 72, died suddenly February 9, 1990 in Dundee while unloading hay. He was born November 16, 1917 in Pittsfield Township, the son of Reuben and Amanda (Geisel) Feldkamp. Rudy had been a Saline area resident all of his life. He was a member of the United States Army serving in World War II. On April 3, 1942 in Tacoma, Washington, he married Margaret Wolfe of Saline and she survives. He was a member of the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom Township, and had served on the church board and cemetery committee for several years. He dedicated his life to his family and farming and had been a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and the Arnold Lake Farm Bureau Group.

Survivors in addition to his wife include: one daughter, Eleanor Feldkamp Beitelshees and her husband Terry of Saline; three beloved grandchildren, Kevin, Scott, and Kristen; two brothers, Glen Feldkamp and his wife Lucille of Saline, LeRoy and his wife Blanch of Dexter; four sisters, Mrs. Clarence (Loretta) Roehm of Saline, Mrs. Louell (Erma) Roehm of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Raymond (Alice) Wiedmayer of Manchester, and Mrs. Herman (Doris) Marion of Saline; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, Neil, Erwin, Milton, and Lloyd (Shorty) Feldkamp.

Funeral services were held on Monday at the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom Township with Rev. Ron Boldman officiating. Burial took place in the Bethel Church Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Bethel United Church of Christ. Envelopes will be available at the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home.

Notes for Samuel J. Gall, Jr.:
June 21, 1945 - T. Cpl. Samuel Gall, Jr., is spending a 45-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gall, the first furlough he has bad since he went into service 31 months ago. After four months of training in Texas was sent landed at Casablanca on March 9, 1943. He went through the African campaign, being stationed at Bizerte. From there he was sent to Sardinia with his outfit, Hdq. Battery, 533rd AAA Bn., AWM for harbor installations and airfield protection, for 11 months. He reached Marseilles, France 15, 1944, and then went to the front lines at Aydoille for artillery protection.

They crossed the Siegfried line at Wiesenberg and thence to Offenbach, Mutlerstadt and to Heidelberg, the University City. From Heidelberg he went to Dallau where he visited one of Germany's underground factories. This particular factory was hidden in the side of a mountain and camouflaged with shrubbery. He states that it was absolutely invisible to any passerby. Motors for airplanes were made there From Dallau they went to Kochersteinfeld, to Mainhardt, Goppingen and Winterreiden. He left his outfit at Fussen near the Austrian border on a detachment furlough on April 30 to begin his trek homeward. They went by truck from Essen through the Black Forests to Saarburg, France. Then a three-day train trip to Marseilles where he was on V-E Day in camp awaiting embarkation. He spent the next 21 days coming through the Straits of Gibralter and though the South Atlantic, and was told upon arrival in New York on Jun e2 that this was the last convoy to cross the Atlantic in the blackout, which accounted for the long voyage. The convoy made up 37 ships, have four non-casualty troops to arrive in New York from the European front. His boat was the "Moses Austin." The last night before reaching the States was a sleepless one for all men aboard. They knew they would reach the mainland during the night or early morning and paced the decks all night watching for the first sight of the Statue of Liberty, and "The Old Lady" was finally caught sight of about 5 in the morning by one of the men who gave the alarm and the boys swarmed the decks half-dressed or win whatever state the alarm overtook them.

While in action he states that he averaged about seven warm meals a month and never milk, which he particularly carved. They would become so exhausted that they could sleep amid any amount of noise or falling debris. Cpl. Gal will report again for duty at Fort Sheridan on July 2, and since this is a detachment furlough begun before V-E Day he faces the possibility of being sent back to join his outfit. He has been awarded the Bronze Medal for shooting down a plane with one shot while on the Rhine.

Notes for Helen Kathryn (Betsy) Hubinger:
Helen "Betsy" Pommerening (November 13, 1920 ~ November 11, 2013) I grew up in a small town in Michigan where we spoke as much German as English. I always wanted to be in medicine and got my wish at the University of Michigan School of Nursing. World War II had me in uniform helping those recover who suffered from war trauma.

I always loved Dr. Bob, and we were married in the mid-1940s. He took me to Seattle where we had five sons - one right after another. His early death forced a major change in my life. I worked for many years in the hospital as the volunteer coordinator. I was bitten badly by the travel bug. For years I led tours all over the world. There are too many countries to count. I watched my boys grow-- watched them lead divergent lives-- accepted who they were without rancor. I aged without regrets. I accepted the life I was given. Losing my oldest son was almost as hard as losing my husband. I waited in peace. God was always a part of my life, and still is.

Notes for Loren Alton Koengeter:

Dorothy and Loren Koengeter, Chelsea: Life on the farm 50 years ago was about the time people started using tractors to do the hard work. We still had horses. I marveled at how good they were to work with. Much of the work was hard and they got very tired. When it was very hot they got very hot but never seemed to not want to work. This was also the time of the one room school, with one teacher for all grades. When I attended there were about 20 pupils. Some schools had 50. We had outside toilets and a pump for water. We'd pump a pail full and everyone dipped from that. In winter we had a large wash boiler placed on an electric plate. Then we warmed pupils' lunches, which they'd brought in glass jars. Farmers didn't go to town often. They mostly went to town on Saturday night so that the whole family could go. We didn't buy many groceries because we raised beef, pork and chickens and canned many jars of fruits and vegetables.

Loren Alton Koengeter of Chelsea, Michigan, age 88, passed away on Thursday, April 12, 2012 at Legacy Assisted Living in Jackson. He was born on June 6, 1923 in Freedom Twp., the son of Wilbert and Elsie (Loeffler) Koengeter. Loren had lived in Chelsea his entire life and was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church, Chelsea, where he was also a Church Council member. He graduated from Chelsea High School in 1941 and was Kiwanis Farmer of the Year in 1989. He was a member of 4-H, the Washtenaw County Livestock Council, and a former Chelsea Fair Board member. Loren exhibited at the Junior Livestock Show at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

She was born 23 May 1916 in Columbus, Franklin Co, Ohio, and died 14 Apr 2007 in Sanger, Fresno Co, California.

Notes for Dr. Arthur Eugene Staebler:
Arthur E. Staebler (1948-1954) became the third director of the W.K. Kellogg Bird Sanctuary as the nation was recuperating from World War II. He repaired and upgraded much of what had fallen into disarray due to the lack of funds from the war years. Much of the restoration was done to areas that saw heavy visitor traffic and needed mending, not only for the visitors' sake but to stop erosion and further damage to the habitats of the birds as well. He was also able to create a new attraction; filling the empty cages that once housed non-native exotic birds with native quail, grouse and pheasants. During his time at the Sanctuary, Staebler was able to adapt a form of wing clip for use with ducks and geese and experimented with various traps and bird tags in order to increase the number of waterfowl that were banded and advanced the research studies of those involved. His techniques assisted in the development of new restrictions for hunting and fishing in the area.

Jan. 24, 1954 - One of those big, silent-flying snowy owls that periodically invade Michigan in search of food has been sighted by Dr. Arthur Staebler, director of the Kellogg bird sanctuary at Wintergreen Lake. The large white bird has appeared in the area of the lake twice in a two-week period. Dr. Staebler said. A winter migration of snowy owls from their arctic feeding grounds has occurred every four years since 1926, except in 1938 when the interval was three years. They usually turn up when there's a shortage of the mouse-like lemming, a rodent which serve as their main diet.

Captive Bird Died - Dr. Staebler said the sanctuary-had a live specimen of the imposing bird captured during the 1949 migration, but that it died last summer. Because our summers are too hot for them they are very difficult to keep in. captivity, he explained.

The white owls have had little experience with man and are quite unafraid, often coming into cities to perch on buildings and poles while searching for rats and mice. Since they make an easy target and are unprotected in Michigan by law, many of them are shot before they can return to their northern haunts. The National Audubon Society has asked all groups interested in wildlife conservation to help publicize the migration in the hope that the killing of the spectacular birds can be reduced. And two Michigan groups the Michigan Audubon Society and the Michigan United Conservations Clubs are working jointly on a state law to take hawks and owls off the predator list.

Dangerous to Capture - According to Dr. Staebler the snowy owl hunts for its food by day, unlike most owls, so that they are seen more often than those which roost in secluded spots curing the daylight hours. "We would appreciate another live specimen," he said, but added that he did not "recommend walking up to one and grabbing it. Their talons are very sharp and they could be dangerous."

"The Foothill Advocate" Summer 2008:

In 1955 Dr. Art Staebler and his wife Helen moved to Fresno from Michigan with their three children (Bruce, Ann and Susan). Art taught ornithology and just about everything biological at Fresno State until his retirement in 1980. Two years after moving to Fresno, Art and Helen's youngest son Chad was born. The family moved onto 100 acres on the west slope of Black Mountain and that's where the children grew up. Health problems froced Art and Helen to move to a home in Covis after his retirement, but they kept 60 of their original 100 acres.

Services for Dr. Art Stabler will be held on Saturday, March 17 at 11am at the United Japanese Christian Church located at 136 N. Villa, Clovis, California 93612. Dr. Stabler, emeritus profess of biology had just celebrated his 91st Birthday.

Arthur Eugene Staebler, who joined the AOU in 1935 and became an Elective Member in 1955, died on 5 March 2007 at the age of 91, at home, in Clovis, California. The oldest of three children, art was born on 2 May 1915 in Detroit and moved to Birmingham, Michigan, at the age of four. In highschool, he learned the natural sciences by collecting insects and birds for the Cranbrook Institute of Science. He graduated high school in 1933. Art majored in Zoology (B.A., 1938) at the University of Michigan (U of M), then immediately entered the graduate program there. He spent six months with a team of scientists in Chiapas, Mexico, where he collected animal specimens, many of received an M.S. in 1940.

Art met Helen Williams, of Columbus, Ohio, while at the U of M, and they married in 940. Caught up in Art’s love of nature, the day after the wedding, they traveled and honeymooned at the boys’ camp, where he worked as a nature counselor. In 1943, they had twin girls, Ann and Susan. Their fourth child, Chad, was born in 1957 in Fresno, California. Helen, his wife of 67 years, outlived Art by about a month.

In November 1943, Art was commissioned as a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Public Health Service and was stationed in Miami, Florida. His assignment was tenure that alien insects that might pose public health or environmental risks would not enter the country. At the end of the war, Art was discharged and returned to U of M to pursue this Ph.D. in Ornithology. In 1949, he became director of the W.K. Kellogg Bird Sanctuary in Augusta, Michigan. Concurrently, he completed his doctorate, with a dissertation comparing the life histories ofDowny andHairy woodpeckers. IN 1955, Art became an Assistant Professor of Biology at Fresno State College (now California State University, Fresno). Until retiring in 1980, he taught courses in biology, ornithology, advanced ornithology, vertebrate natural history, vertebrate zoology, and vertebrate paleontology. He also developed and taught concentrated intersession classes in museum specimen preparation, waterfowl management, and desert ecology. Duringthe turbulent 1960s and against a resistant administration, Art championed faculty personnel decisions based on qualifications and performance. Starting in the 1970s, he began a survey of vertebrate fossils, mostly in the hills west of the San Joaquin Valley. Ten, as a emeritus professor, he expanded this interest and discovered new species of mosasaurs and plesiosaurs.

Art was a captivating instructor. Students eagerly anticipated each new topic introduced with his trademark: “Imagine, if you will . . . “ Flexible and generous with his time, Art was happy to administer students’ independent studies. He chaired committees for 11 graduate students, whose work covered a wide range of subjects – regional floras, estuarine fish, freshwater fist, Great Blue Herons, White-crowned Sparrows, Sierra Nevada meadow avifauna, American Dippers, and food habits of deer and range cattle. In retirement, he chaired two committees formaster's theses of paleontological subjects. Event late in life, at an assisted living facility, Art continued teaching by taking the other residents on ?eld trips and otherwise sharing his knowledge and joy for living.

Art's participation in numerous projects and organizations was extraordinary. In addition to membership in the AOU, he also held memberships in the Wilson Ornithological Society andCooper Ornithological Society. Among his many achievements inornithology, he helped to develop and design a cannon-net trapping system for waterfowl and a waterfowl banding-identi?cation system, and encouraged coordinated banding programs to address regional questions. He helped establish the Fresno JuniorMuseum (later "Te Discovery Center") and develop a bird sanctuary at Fresno's Woodward Park. Art's passion for the natural world will continue to be felt through the actions of the many educators and agency biologists he touched.

The following tribute is from Dr. Dick Haas, professor emeritus biology:

Arthur Staebler, emeritus professor of Biology died 5 March after a brief bout with pneumonia following a long battle with lymphoma. I spoke to Art a month or so ago when he called to discuss with me our views and knowledge about the nature of animal communication and how it differs from human language. I last saw him at the annual Christmas pot luck in the Biology Dept where we recalled the many times my students and I accompanied him in the field, often for many days at a time. Those days were in the 70's, to the both high and low Mojave deserts and to tree line meadows in the Sierra studying amphibians, reptiles, rodents and always any feathered creature we could observe. I learned from Art how to catch birds with "mist nets", band them, record their weights and measurements and release them with the hope of recapturing them in subsequent years. Or better yet, hearing from another bird biologist far away who had captured the same bird and noted it had been banded here in Fresno County. Later on his interests grew to include Mesozoic reptiles whose fossils were to be found in the Pinoche hills of the Valley's west side. On those field trips Art basked in his son Chad's special gift in spotting the smallest exposed bit of fossilized bone that betrayed the presence still hidden in the earth of fossils of ancient marine reptiles. The remains of such a fossil, a Mosasur, discovered by Chad and Art and excavated by a crew of students and other faculty resides now as important specimens in the Museum of Zoology at UC Berkeley.

Art's long career as ornithologist and general all round field biologist included years as director of a major bird sanctuary in his home state of Michigan and long weeks collecting and banding birds in Mexico. Art came to Fresno State College in 1955 and in the beginning of his years here he was obliged to teach in areas of biology not his first love because faulty his senior had those classes sewn up. He took being relegated to such subordination with characteristic good humor, but when finally having the opportunity, he flew with his classes in ornithology and mammology.

Art was a kind, gentle, thoughtful teacher, one of those everyone in the department respected and admired. He seemed to be incapable of harboring any thoughts critical of any youngster in class or colleague in the coffee room. In the field he was indefatigable. I especially remember him scampering up and down the Pinoche hills as if in defiance of gravity with the rest of us groaning in his wake. He was inspirational and I thought he would live forever.

Art spent his last years as a resident of an assisted living facility in Fresno. The call to me to speak of animal communication was prompted by his continuing as a teacher even in that facility. He regularly held sort of senior citizen seminars there on topics such as biology of birds, ancient reptiles of California, animal reproduction and communication and what evolution is really about. To the end he was a teacher eager to share with others his love of our quest to understand how the natural world works. It was good to have known this fine man.

Notes for Helen Marquardt Williams:

Helen Marquardt Staebler - Together Again We miss you Mom and Dad, but find comfort in knowing you are again together. Both of you taught us so much in appreciating the world around us; we are grateful. Helen Marquardt Staebler was born on May 23, 1915, in Columbus, Ohio and died on Saturday, April 14, 2007, in Clovis, California. She was the daughter of Carl J. and Wilhelmine C. Kessie. After her father's death in 1916, her mother married Robert B. Williams. In addition to a new father, brothers, Robert M. and John M. were born in 1920 and 1924, respectively.

Helen was interested at a young age in wildlife and kept a collection of pet animals in boxes under her bed, including snakes and frogs. She attended Ohio State University and was accepted in medical school. Financial limitations of The Depression resulted in a change of her major and she earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree and Masters Degree in Parisitology. While at Ohio State she was a lab assistant and tutored students in biology, including Jesse Owens. In the fall of 1938 she went to the University of Michigan to pursue her PhD in Human Physiology. There she met Arthur Staebler.

They shared a love of the outdoors and the natural world, which would become a staple of the Staebler household. Their marriage was in June of 1940. Art was a counselor at a boys' camp run by his uncle, so Helen spent time during their honeymoon fly fishing with Mike, an English Setter, who was a wedding gift. While Art was completing his PhD after World War II, Helen worked in the placement office at the university. In 1955 they moved to Fresno, California where Art accepted a position as Assistant Professor of Biology at Fresno State College. Helen was active in the Faculty Wives Club and was a member of the Wolters Elementary School Board. After the family moved to Tollhouse she was president of the Sierra Elementary Mothers' Club and substitute taught classes K-12 in the Sierra Joint Unified School District. She was also active in voter registration in both Fresno and Tollhouse, and also recorded college textbooks for the blind. After Art's retirement they enjoyed trips to Germany, Austria, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand, Tahiti and Hawaii. The family is grateful for the loving care she received at Clovis Quality Care and from Saint Agnes Hospice staff. Helen was pre-deceased in March 2007, by Arthur E. Staebler her husband of 67 years.

882. Theodore James (Ted)[10] Heusel (Talitha Amanda[9] Staebler, Johann Georg[8], Johann Friedrich[7], Johann Georg[6], Margaretha[5] Koch, Johann Michael[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 26 Dec 1920 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 27 Apr 2007 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Nancy Ann Born 28 Dec 1955 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 23 May 1931 in York, Pennsylvania, and died 12 Nov 2023 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Theodore James (Ted) Heusel:

Heusel, Ted Ann Arbor, MI Ted was victoriously resurrected through the promise of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in the early morning of April 27, 2007. Although Ted had courageously turned away cancer for the last seven years, it never personified the man he was. Called by many, "Mr. Ann Arbor", for his numerous contributions to the town he loved, Ted was also a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and friend to all who had the joy of talking with him.

Born on December 26, 1920 to Fred and Talitha, and the youngest of three brothers (Dick and Sherwood), Ted inherited the family commitment to community involvement. In his early years, Ted and his "Dewey Gang" spent many days playing ball and learning important lessons of friendship and community that would bind them together for the rest of their lives. Ted always remembered his early days in Ann Arbor with great fondness. Whether it was sleeping on the screened porch and listening to the sounds of the Glen Miller Band fill the air from the Intramural Building, stealing cookies from the family's bakeries downtown, or impressing the girls at Ann Arbor High with his dramatic flare and baritone voice that would become a hallmark of his later professional life, Ted loved Ann Arbor and Ann Arbor grew to know and love Ted.

It was in college at Michigan Normal (EMU today), however, where Ted discovered his passion for the theater. Never tiring, Ted also found time to play varsity basketball and lead trombone in a big band. In 1948, Ted began working part-time as a radio disc jockey at WPAG while attending graduate school in Theater and Speech at The University of Michigan. After earning his Masters, and while taking courses for his Ph.D. in 1952, Ted was offered a job as a full-time radio broadcaster at WOIA. Not content to be another disc-jockey, one day Ted asked visitors to call in and express their opinions regarding a presidential poll. On that day, talk radio was born, and Ted would later refine the format and become the longest running talk show host in America - a career that would span 55 years on radio stations WOIA, WPAG and WAAM and earn him induction into the Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame.

His guests would include some of the most colorful and notorious people of the time, including his famous prison interview with James Earl Ray. Ted, however, always tried to keep his program focused on the community's concerns by bringing local public figures into the studios for interviews and to answer questions from the listeners. As he would often point out, "this was the only place that any person of any color, nationality or creed could express their views and complaints." Ted also used his public platform to achieve much good in the community. Throughout the 1990s, Ted's annual holiday drive raised over 15,000 Teddy Bears for local children. Even after being diagnosed with cancer in 2000, Ted would continue his program through all of his treatments and surgeries right up until the last few weeks of his life. Even after his most recent battle, Ted could be heard from his hospital bed with his cherished friend Lucy Ann Lance. Ted also contributed enormously to Ann Arbor's drama community. With his wife Nancy, to whom he was married for 52 years, the couple became quite a dramatic team. Nancy, a young professional actress from Washington D.C., and Ted, a more mature director of various professional theater programs soon fell in love and shared their love of the theater together producing shows for the Saline Mill Theater, the Ann Arbor Civic Theater, Ann Arbor Drama Season, The University, St. Andrew's Players and countless other groups they lent their talents. They would continue their love of the theater throughout Ted's life.

Ted was also greatly involved in civic activities, serving on numerous commissions, committees, and boards, including serving as President of the Ann Arbor Public Schools Board of Education during the turbulent early 1970's. One of Ted's lasting legacies from his Board of Ed. days was that he insisted that Pioneer and Huron compete on the athletic field - an idea that was controversial at the time. In his honor, the annual Pioneer/Huron football game was renamed "The Ted Heusel Bowl".

Despite all of his public achievements in life, and beyond all else, Ted would always tell you that his greatest achievements were his children, Michael, who preceded him in death (Cindy), Lydia Sattler (Lynn), Jennifer (Ken), and Mark (Trish), and his grandchildren, Nisha, Sara, Ben, Giselle, David, Quinn, Thye, and Marin. Ted also had countless family members and friends that will remember him as not only "Mr. Ann Arbor", but a man who loved what he did, loved the community that afforded him such wonderful opportunities, and most of all, loved his family. The public is welcome to join the family in celebration of Ted's life on Sunday, April 29, from 4 p.m. - 8 p.m., Monday, April 30, from 5 p.m. - 8 p.m., at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, and services at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church on May 1 at 2 p.m.

Notes for Nancy Ann Born:

Nancy Heusel of Ann Arbor, Michigan peacefully passed into eternal life through the promise of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in the early evening of November 12, 2023. Known throughout her life as possessing an energetic passion for the theater, as an actress and director, Nancy shared her love of (as she described it) "play-making" with her husband Ted for over 50 years. Never allowing herself to be typecast on the stage or in life, she continuously pushed boundaries and created sympathetic ingénues, devious protagonists, revered heroes, and even an anchoress. Nancy remained on the stage well into her 80's. Her final call is best described by her favorite poet, Emily Dickinson, who wrote: "Because I could not stop for Death – He kindly stopped for me."

Born in the spring May 23, 1931 to Hilda and George Born, Nancy grew up in York, Pennsylvania with her parents, older sister (Madeline) and countless aunts and uncles, whose ancestors settled along the east coast in 1633. Nancy's talents as an actress and pianist were discovered at an early age and encouraged by her mother. The Born family relocated to Washington, D.C. after World War II broke out; a city Nancy would always love and remember as the most exciting place to be during those years. Nancy earned her Actor's Equity Card at the young age of 18 doing summer stock, and she pursued another adventure when she chose to attend the University of Michigan as a theater major. It was there that she met Ted, who had cast her in one of his professional shows, and this began a partnership on and off the stage that would span 6 decades. Nancy left for Broadway shortly after graduating from UM, but Ted was able to lure her back to Ann Arbor with the promise of an exciting opportunity in a new summer theater in Saline. They married in 1954, the same year they did their first show together for the Ann Arbor Civic Theater; a community theater group that was very important to Nancy throughout her life and where she was honored with a lifetime achievement award in 2019. Ted's and Nancy's theater careers ran in parallel and were always connected by the love they shared for their 4 children, who caught the "theater bug" early in life. Nancy's enduring legacy, however, will be remembered not for the countless roles she played, but for the fierceness in which she loved her children (Michael (Cindy), Jennifer, Lydia (Lynn) and Mark (Trish)), 10 grandchildren (Sara (Brian), Ben (Tina), David, Giselle, Quinn, Thye (Taylor), Nisha, Marin, Samuel and Lincoln), and 8 great grandchildren (Bethany, Michael, Brandt, Ruby, Sunny, Rhyelle).

In addition to her family, Nancy would have considered her greatest contributions to be her decades' long relationships with Greenhill's School, where she shared her gifts with drama students for over 40 years, and St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, where she served as the Director of Christian Education for over 45 years and introduced a theatrical ministry. Ted and Nancy began attending St. Andrew's in the early 1950's and remained lifelong members. They founded a theater program in the 1980's known as the St. Andrew's Players, where they brought in notable actors to perform liturgical dramas in the sanctuary.

Nancy continued to direct and produce shows for the theater program until she was nearly 90. Nancy was always in the hunt for a performance venue, whether it was summer stock in Maine, Arts Theater, the Trueblood, Lydia Mendelson, the Power Center, the Michigan Theater, Performance Network, the Arthur Miller Theater, or the Michigan League Dinner Theater, which she organized as a fundraising opportunity to support the continuing legacy of the Michigan League, a place very close to her heart: if a stage could be erected, Nancy would create a captivating experience. And, so she was in her life, to her children and the scores of people she inspired. Nancy was preceded in death by her son, Michael and husband, Ted. The public is welcome to join the family in celebration of Nancy's life on Sunday, November 19, from 3 p.m. – 7 p.m. at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, and services will be held at St Andrew's Episcopal Church on Monday, November 20, at 11 a.m.

Notes for Walter Frederick Horning:
Horning, Walter F. Died peacefully January 7, at age 96. Born August 15, 1910 on a farm on Ellsworth Rd., Walter (Pork) moved to town as a boy with his German immigrant parents, Samuel and Anna. He learned English in kindergarten and at the YMCA, his second home. He graduated from Ann Arbor High and the U of M, then worked his entire career at King-Seeley/Chrysler. In 1940, Walter married Ruth Mitchell, which, as he liked to tell everyone, was the smartest thing he ever did. She lives on.
The couple has four children: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy); 10 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. Walter's younger brother, Bob, lives in Florida. Athletics were a big part of Pork's life. He played fast pitch softball locally, and twice earned All-America honors in volleyball for men over 35. He was the PA announcer for Pioneer High football games for many years, and worked for the UM athletic department for 58 years, selling and taking tickets for just about every sport, until age 93.

He was an active, life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church. Walter was a great man, loved life, and was a wonderful model for those of us who were fortunate to live with him so many years. Visitation will be at Muehlig's Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 10, 3-7 p.m., and from 12-1 p.m. on Thursday at Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. She was in 4H, the National Honor Society in High School, and attended Cleary College. Ruth worked for Detroit Edison for three years before marrying Walter Horning in 1940. He was a coach for the Pfeiffer fast-pitch softball team on which she played second base, and was state champions in 1942.

Ruth leaves behind four sons, Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy), and a brother, Dwigh Mitchell. Her husband died in 2007, and her older siblings, Bill, Betty, and Tom, have also died. Walter and Ruth have ten grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. She was active at Zion Lutheran Church, taught Sunday School and Bible class, loved gardening, reading, sports, travel, and, most of all, her family. And her family loved her. Better mothers or grandmothers don't exist. She was quietly happy, stable, consistent, hard-working, and witty to the end. Add another hundred positive adjectives and they would all fit. Now add another descriptive - missed.

Notes for Julius Theodore Feldkamp:
Saline, Michigan, Feb. 12, 1932 - A lone robber who held up a Saline grocery store and then marched the proprietor, deputy sheriff and two other per sons up the street and into another grocery store where he staged a second holdup was being sought Friday by Washtenaw county deputies and state police. Shortly after 7 o'clock Thursday night the robber entered the first grocery store and at the point of a revolver ordered the proprietor to throw up his hands. The proprietor, Julius Feldkamp, did so quickly. Turning to the stove in one end of the store, the bandit saw three other men. One was Deputy Sheriff Melvin Alber. The others were Mr. Alber's father, J. A. Alber and a vagrant who had entered the store to get warm.

All four men were ordered to lie down on the floor while the robber scooped about $30 from the cash register. Then he ordered his prisoners to stand up and quietly herded them out of the door and down the street, forcing them to turn into the second grocery establishment. Here he lined the four men and Fred Gruenwald and Waldo Gross, clerks, up against the wall while he emptied the cash register of $25.38. He then turned and walked out of the store and disappeared. He was described as being about 35 years old and about five feet six inches tall.

Marriage Notes for Hazel Cook and Oscar Weber:

Mrs. Hazel Easton and Oscar Weber, both of Saline, were united in marriage Friday evening, Nov. 26, 1954, at the home of the bride's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Bersuder. To the strain of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party took their places before the fireplace, beautifully decorated with yellow and white mums. Harold Easton of Tecumseh gave his mother in marriage. Rev. Alvin Siemsen performed the double ring ceremony. Two songs, "Because" and "The Lord's Player" were sung during the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bradbury of Dexter, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, attended the couple. The bride was beautifully gowned in an antique rose nylon and taffeta street length dress with black accessories. She wore a rhinestone and pearl choker, matching earrings and bracelet and a corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Bradbury wore a teal blue, crepe street length dress with black accessories and a corsage of white mums.

A reception followed the ceremony and the punch was served by Marjorie Bradbury, a niece of the bride. A buffet lunch was served. Mrs. Lee Ormsby, Norfolk, Virginia, another niece of the bride, presided at the coffee service. Mrs. Clarence Cook and Mrs. Martha Dietiker cut the wedding cake. Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. Loren Bersuder and Mrs. Hazel Easton. Linda Kay Easton, granddaughter of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The couple spent a weekend trip in Lansing and Kalamazoo after which they are residing at 109 North Lewis Street. They expect to go South at a later date. Mrs. Weber chose for traveling a light navy blue suit with burgundy accessories and she wore her wedding corsage.

Betty Isakson was a woman ahead of her time. At that time, Chrysler would not allow a woman to own a dealership. She had to sell the dealership, and she started a used car lot. When she married William Isakson, they purchased a Ford dealership in Milan. They ran the dealership for many years until they sold it to their son, Bill, in the 1970s, and moved to Naples, Fla. After moving to Naples, Betty became a successful real estate broker and owned a real estate company, along with two other women, located on Fifth Avenue in downtown Naples. She was active in the real estate business until her mid-80s. Betty had many hobbies that she excelled at throughout her life. She was a "killer" bridge player and an avid reader. She was computer-savvy, and skilled at needlepoint, knitting and sewing. She was also a knowledgeable and faithful college and professional football fan; Michigan was always her favorite team. Betty was a strong woman with a sense of style, who will be greatly missed.

A Milan memorial service is being planned for fall 2018. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Milan Big Reds Athletics at Milan High School, 200 Big Red Drive, Milan, Michigan, 48160.

He graduated from Grass Lake High School in 1940. He served in World War II on an artillery unit in Italy from 1943 until the end of the War. He married Ella Mae Smith in 1946; they were married for 66 years when Ella Mae passed away in July, 2012. He was beloved by several relatives: Dave and Martha Luick, Joan and Jim Hoffmeyer and Joan's son and grandson, Duane and Dale Luick.

Dean was raised on the family farm on East Michigan Avenue which he continued to manage throughout his lifetime. He was elected county commissioner several times and served two terms on the Jackson County Road Commission, retiring in 1992. Grass Lake residents who are now adults may remember him for his years driving a school bus for Grass Lake students. Dean had long working relationships with both the Pierce family and the Wolpert family. We also want to mention the help given by the Low family and the wonderful support given by Kim Miller as well as Dean's nephew, Larry Champney. We want to recognize the long-term friendship Dean had with Phil and Sally Sherwood and their thoughtful assistance in caring for our father on many occasions. He will be remembered as a hard-working, skilled farmer, cooperative with others, generous to his friends, a dedicated member of the United Methodist Church, thoughtful and affectionate to his family, an entertaining story-teller and a gently competitive Euchre player. He loved to travel, visiting countries in Europe and South America. One of his last trips was an ocean cruise around New England with his adult grandchildren. He enjoyed the many family reunions and visiting family around Michigan. He was a regular at VFW meetings and a welcomed participant at coffee gatherings for neighbors, friends, and fellow farmers.

Thank you to all of his friends, nurses and doctors who cared for our beloved Dean over the years. A celebration of life service is being planned for the summer at the Grass Lake United Methodist Church. Arrangements are entrusted to Sherwood Funeral Home, Grass Lake.

Robert Edward (Bob)[10] Kalmbach, Sr. (Karl LeRoy[9], Karl Ferdinand[8], Karl (Charles)[7], Barbara[6] Koch, Friedrich[5], Johann Jacob (Hans)[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 19 Mar 1934 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Feb 2001 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Flora May Smith 20 Mar 1954 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Lucian Smith and Elsie Miller. She was born 03 Jun 1932 in Jefferson Co, Alabama, and died 08 Oct 2013 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Robert Edward (Bob) Kalmbach, Sr.:
Bob Kalmbach, a staff photographer for the University of Michigan for decades, has died. He was 66. He died Monday Feb. 12, 2001 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a long illness. Mr. Kalmbach grew up in

Ann Arbor and graduated from Ann Arbor High. He worked as a photo printer at Michigan Photo Services, and after eight years, he became a photographer. He told The Ann Arbor News in an interview last year that he had shot "everything from presidents to pigeon dung."

Robert Kalmbach, University photographer for 47 years, died Feb. 12, 2001 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He was 66. Kalmbach retired from full-time work at the University in July 2000 but continued to work part-time for the Athletic Department. A familiar face-behind-the-camera to many at the University, Kalmbach visually documented visits from politicians and presidents, writers and artists, and the daily events that tell the tale of the University. His photographs have been featured locally and nationally in such diverse publications as The University Record and National Geographic magazine. A variety of his work is displayed in the Founders' Room at the Alumni Association Building.

Among his personal favorites, which he displayed in his darkroom in the Fleming Building, was a portrait of a pensive Arthur Miller and a photo of an elephant performing at Mott Children's Hospital. Over the years, he delighted in telling the story that no one batted an eyelash or registered surprise as the elevator containing the elephant stopped at various floors at Mott. Kalmbach was feted at a Universitywide reception last summer, with remarks offered by President Emeritus Robben W. Fleming, football coach Lloyd Carr, friend Keith Molin, and Joseph Owsley and Julie Peterson, former directors of News and Information Services.

"I'll always remember a conversation we had once when you described an opportunity you had to photograph an actual surgery-in-progress," wrote one individual in a memory book of the occasion. "I was amazed at your willingness to go wherever called and your always inquisitive reporter's approach to every assignment. And with all of the amazing, talented and influential people you have met and photographed in your work, you've always remained real and approachable—and able to capture that real moment for others." Said another, "I have many fond memories of my early days at Michigan. When I called you constantly to photograph a geology grad or help with other LS&A things . . . you never said no, and as a newcomer, it was appreciated and was never forgotten."

Yet another remarked, "If a picture is worth a thousand words, mere words cannot describe your long career of services to this University. Your photos have been appreciated around the world as well as on this campus. They will continue to illustrate the University's life in the future as people seek them out in the Michigan Historical Collections. "While you have worked with negatives for half a century, you are a totally positive person, a friend, an artist and an icon of this University." And in a resolution honoring Kalmbach, the Regents in July noted, "He understands Michigan in ways few of us do."

As noted the July 17 Record in a photo essay of his work, Kalmbach "leaves a rich tapestry of photographic history that captures all of the moments that make the University of Michigan unique."

Kalmbach was born March 19, 1934, in Ann Arbor, the son of Karl and Dorothy (Koch) Kalmbach. He married Flora Smith on March 20, 1954. He loved the outdoors, especially fishing and hunting.

He is survived by his wife, Flora; children, Chryle (Doug) Adams of Chelsea; Robert Jr. "Rusty" (Deborah) of Ann Arbor; Terri Kalmbach of Ann Arbor; and Kim (Diane) Kalmbach of Gregory; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and grandson, Steven Kalmbach.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association or Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. Liberty, Ann Arbor, MI 48104.

Helen married Robert E. Pollman on January 16, 1976 in Roscommon, Michigan. She loved children, grandchildren and animals. She especially enjoyed the grandchildren as "babies". She had many animals over the years, and particularly like the name of Alfie for a pet. She also enjoyed golf, swimming, gourmet cooking, gardening, designing and decorating homes, painting scenery and above all she enjoyed giving parties and entertaining her friends.

She is survived by her husband Bob of 31 years. Notes for Robert Raymond Reason:

Robert Reason married October 17, 1942 Helen Hepfer of Dimondale, Michigan - Her parents: Mr. & Mrs. William Geisenhafer of Dimondale. [Bob a Private in the Army (Air Force?) at the time of the marriage.] "Staff Sgt. Robert Reason and wife of Hobbs Air Field, New Mexico" ...and, this: "Sgt. Bob Reason, aerial engineer and crew chief of a Flying Fortress, arrived at Selfridge field the other day on a flight. (Selfridge is N of the Detroit area) His dad is Lieut. John Reason, communications officer, Headquarters Group 637, CAP (Civil Air Patrol): here and the sergeant hadn't seen the lieutenant for quite a while.

Sergeant Bob hitch-hiked to Lansing, arriving here about 6 o'clock in the morning. That gave him about an hour with the lieutenant, who said, Don't worry, we'll get you back in plenty of time. Upshot was that Lieutenant Reason flew Sergeant Reason down to Hartung airport, Detroit, three hours later in a 'fliver' plane, got him back to Selfridge in time to return to Hobbs field, New Mexico in a B-17." This was Bob's first marriage which ended in a divorce ...

Bob's last wife, Rosemary Randall, may have been only the second. Rosemary was a close friend of Bob's sister, Jane Lenore. Rosemary was the daughter of a Doctor Randall of Lansing and had been married to someone named Harkness. I notice that the two boys are listed as Jeffery Harkness Reason and David Harkness Reason. The girls don't show Harkness. Were they not from the Harkness marriage? Rosemary had worked in the office at Michigan State University where Elmer O. Peterson was in charge of the Teller Stations where Rosemary worked. Rosemary died a while back in the Harrison area, maybe; she had left Lansing to be near a child or children in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula.

1073. Margaret Louise[10] England (Florence Amelia[10] Stoll, Clara Lydia[9] Deeg, Rosina Amelia (Emma)[8] Staebler, Johann Jacob[7], Johann Georg[6], Margaretha[5] Koch, Johann Michael[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 24 Aug 1923 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 07 Sep 1991 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan. She married Louis Haynes Andrews 21 Sep 1946 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, son of Louis Andrews and Virginia Maynes. He was born 04 Jan 1922 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 29 Oct 2009 in Sun City, Maricopa Co, Arizona.

Notes for Margaret Louise England:

Lansing, Jan. 31, 1974 - Mrs. Louis H. Andrews Jr., first woman director, of the First National Bank of East Lansing, insists her new role "has nothing to do with women's lib." "What's with this lib thing anyway?" asks Mrs. Andrews. "I've always done my thing. And, besides, what's so unusual about a woman being a bank director when women control huge chunks of finance all over this country?" Born Margaret "Peggy" England, daughter of the late Fred M. England of California and the late Mrs. England, Mrs. Andrews meant every word of doing her thing. "I've always expressed myself and gotten involved," she continued, "from the time I was a little girl." One highlight of her adolescent years was playing a clown in the Hospitaler Circus. "My Dad was the chairman, and it was no trouble at all for him to talk Otto Griebling, world-famous clown, into making me up and letting me get into the act" Talented in both writing and acting, Mrs. Andrews majored in speech and radio at Christian College and Northwestern University, where she later worked on the theater staff.

When she returned to Lansing she took on two careers simultaneously. She was a society writer for The State Journal and at the same time she shared a radio program with Howard Finch. "Neither media especially liked it that I worked for the other, but it kept things exciting," she said. After she was married in 1946, she resigned from the Journal and kept her part-time talk show with Uncle Howdy." It was during these years that she joined Civic Players Guild and starred in many lead roles. She also appeared in several editions of the Junior League Follies. "From the time we had our children, Ginny (now Mrs. Robert Outwater) and Rick (a student at Eastern Michigan University) I kept to the volunteer jobs I could work out within my family's schedule."

She managed during these years to serve as president of the Junior League, Town Hall Inc., Edward Sparrow Hospital Guild and the Harriet Mifflin Society of the First Presbyterian Church. For sports, she enjoys cross-country skiing and golf. Her hobby is doing original needlepoint designs of scenes and other things that have sentimental meanings for her. Just for kicks, and because she believed in the philosophy when she slimmed down a few years ago, she teaches a Weight-Watchers class three times a week. Will the bank job take much of her time? "I think it will mean monthly meetings and some consulting. I know I'll enjoy it" she said as she sat quietly doing her needlepoint in the sunny living room of her heirloom-filled home on Northgate, East Lansing. "The particularly fun thing ' about the bank directorship," she said, "is that my Dad founded it in 1955. And Andy and I took the children over and opened the first savings accounts. Ginnys was No. 1, Rick's No. 2 and ours No. 3." Fred England co-founded the England-Cook Chevrolet "dealership in 1922 with the late Howard Cook. It was sold in 1970 and now England's son-in-law owns and operates the new Andrews Chevrolet dealership in Mason.

"One reason I've always felt community-minded," reminisced Mrs. Andrews, "is because my family was always into everything. My mother was chairman of Red Cross volunteers during World War II and after, and Daddy was president of the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Downtown Coaches and a number of other civic things. It has always been away of life for us." Mrs. Andrews mother, the late Florence England, died in 1970 and subsequently England married a long-time family friend, the widowed Mrs. Robert Paul whom the Andrews all call "Aunt Mary." She still resides in Carmel, California, although she keeps up her summer home at Ironton where the Andrews family vacations.

Margaret E. “Peg” Andrews of Lansing, age 68, died Saturday, September 7, 1991. Mrs. Andrews was born August 24, 1923 in Lansing. She was a graduate of Lansing Central High School; Christian College, Columbia, Missouri; and Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. Peg was a community volunteer; a past President of E.W. Sparrow Women's Association; honorary member of Sparrow Hospital Board of Directors; member of Sparrow Hospital Foundation; past President of Junior League of Lansing and Sparrow Hospital Guild. She was founder and past President of Lansing Town Hall and a member of Lansing Women's Club. Through the years, she was active in women's activities of First Presbyterian Church and the golf activities at the Country Club of Lansing. She also was active on several community boards and served as a director of First National Bank of Michigan. Her profession included writer for the Lansing State Journal; announcing for WJIM radio; and 18 years as a lecturer for Weight Watchers.

Surviving are her husband of 45 years, Louis H. Andrews; daughter and family, Virginia Louise, Richard Herrmann and granddaughter, Emilie Louise of Poway, California; son, Frederick E. Andrews of Lansing; sister-in-law, Shirley V. Andrews of Okemos; brother-in-law, Robert Andrews of Lansing; several cousins, nephews, grand nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, 11 a.m., in the First Presbyterian Church, 211 N. Chestnut Street, Lansing, with The Rev. David L. Evans, Pastor, officiating, assisted by Joe C. Foster, Jr. Interment will follow in Evergreen Cemetery. Honorary bearers will be James W. Clark, Thomas Culpepper, W. Gordon Dahlberg, William Harrison, Dr. Huston Mallory, Dennis Mosholder, J. Woodward Row, Rex E. Sessions, Theodore Swift, Thomas N. Tabler and Robert Zoeuller.

The family will receive friends at Gorsline-Runciman East Chapel, East Lansing, Tuesday, 7-9 p.m. Friends desiring may make contributions to Foundation of First Presbyterian Church, E.W. Sparrow Hospital Foundation Endowment Fund or charity of one's choice in memory of Mrs. Andrews.

Her veil of fine net which had been worn by her mother and also by Mrs. William J. Clark, fell in two tiers from an oval crown rose pointe lace. The heirloom Gross, gift of Mrs. Robert A. Paul whose family had received it from Duchess of Argyle, edged the top flounce of the veil, falling to the shoulders, and the second tier of veiling hung to knee length. The satin gown was made with a bias, draped bertha below a high-necked marquisette yoke, and long, fitted sleeves buttoned at the wrists and pointed over the hands. The bride's bouquet was a shower of white orchids with an orchid corsage as a center. Her pearls were an engagement gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Dorothy Jean Krall of Watervliet was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Swift and Miss Joanne Plasterer of Kansas City, Missouri, formerly of Lansing. Junior bridesmaids were Margaret Bresnan and Margaret Reineke Cook of Owosso. Their gowns, V-necked and with flared, cap sleeves, were made with tight waists, fitted to the hipline, which was emphasized with full, double peplums reminiscent of the frocks of Dresden shepherdesses. The skirts were full, stiffened at the hem, and dipping into a suggestion of a train in back. The headdress bows of stiffened faille, were piped in wide satin bands. They wore gauntlet mits of aqua faille, elbow length, with wide cuffs piped in satin.

Alton D. Ambrose, brother-in-law of the bridegroom was groomsman. Ushers included Robert Boerth of Detroit, a cousin of the bride, Robert Andrews, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Walker, Carlyle Graham, and Samuel Fredenberg, Jr., of Portland. James Clark lighted the altar candles before the service. Mrs. Alton D. Ambrose was mistress of ceremonies for the bridal party at the church.

The bride's mother was gowned in a honey-beige crepe made with cascade drapery at one side of the skirt where it was caught with a bow. She wore long, dark brown gloves, a tiny hat of dark feathers, and a corsage of yellow orchids. Mrs. Andrews, mother of the bridegroom, was in black crepe, with a hat of pink feathers trimmed in sequins, and a corsage of pink orchids.

The entire club floor of the Hotel Oldswas reserved for the wedding reception attended by some 200 guests. At the entrance to the American room where they were received by the bridal couple, who were standing before banks of palms, was a table covered with a madeira embroidery cloth on which were many bags of rice. The. reception table, also in the American room, was covered with a pink satin cloth about which trailed garlands of smilax and white satin baby ribbon streamers which fell from the five-tiered cake at its center. Bridal roses at the top of the cake were held in satin loops. Silver candelabra and bowls of bridal roses were at either side of the cake and silver coffee service was at each end of the table. Punch was served in the east room from a horseshoe shaped table covered with a rose-romance satin cloth. The appointments were in white and silver with two crystal bowls and champagne glasses.

Friends who assisted at the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bygrave, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Cook, Mrs. Clyde Fulton of Charlotte, Mrs. Ted Hulett, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Fred Boerth, aunt of the bride from Detroit; Miss Katheryn Leer of South Bend, Indiana, Miss Phyllis Trevellyan, Miss Mary Jane McNamara, Mrs. William Monroe, Mrs. Gross, and Mrs. Ambrose.

Out of town guests were from Akron, Ohio, Chicago, Kansas City, Missouri, Detroit, Grosse Pointe, and Grand Rapids. The bride groom areen route to The Homestead, Hot Springs, Virginia, where they will spend two weeks. For traveling, the bride wore a mint green, tailored gabardine suit, and a brown blouse, kolinsky furs, a small brown hat, and lizagator shoes and bag. At her shoulder were the white orchids from the center of her bridal bouquet.

After October 15, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will be at home at 336 Oak Hill Avenue, East Lansing. The bride is a graduate of Christian college, Columbia, Missouri, and of the school of speech at Northwestern university. He married Pearl Catherine Roman. She was born 01 Jan 1939 in Hamtramck, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 22 May 2020.

Notes for Timothy Gordon David Kraft:
Timothy Gordon David Kraft passed away peacefully on October 14, 2021, after a long struggle with Alzheimer's. Tim was born on May 26, 1937, in East Lansing, Michigan to Robert and Jane Ann Kraft. From an early age, Tim knew he wanted to attend the University of Michigan. It was there that amongst the beautifully designed buildings on the Michigan campus that Tim not only obtained his Architectural Degree but also met the love of his life, Pearl (Roman) on a blind date. It only took a few dates, for Pearl to capture Tim's heart, and ultimately became his wife and life partner of 59 years. As a young and inexperienced student, Tim attended an Architectural Conference held in Southern California. Little did he know at the time, but this conference introduced Tim to his future home. Upon graduation, Tim and his new bride, Pearl, joined the migration to the Golden State. They settled in Anaheim and were soon blessed with three children, Debra, Diana, and Cameron. After starting his career with a large Architectural firm in Los Angeles, Tim longed to be his own boss and started his own business where he was best known for designing motels and commercial buildings in the Disneyland area. As his practice grew, Tim soon realized that his true love was designing custom homes. His talents as an artist and draftsmen, along with his colorful renderings of what Tim called, "his pretty pictures" often won him the project. One of Tim's final projects before being stricken with Alzheimer's was designing his own custom home in Anaheim Hills. Tim always found time to play an active role in his children's lives and supported his church and community. He was active in the Rotary Club for many years where he met many life-long friends. Tim and Pearl were also very active in the Krewe of Komus, which was a New Orlean's style social club that held an annual Mardi Gras Ball. It was at the Krewe of Komus, that Tim also discovered he was an accomplished stage set designer. Despite the hectic pace of life, Tim and Pearl still found time to travel the world together, and he always made time to explore and study the architecture of each place they visited. Tim lived a good life, and perhaps, one of Tim's Architectural hero's I.M. Pei once said it best, "Architecture is the very mirror of life. You only have to cast your eyes on buildings to feel the presence of the past, the spirit of the place and the reflection of society".

Tim was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Pearl, and son, Cameron; and is survived by his sister Gina (Klco); daughters, Debra (La Berge) and Diana (Krekel); sons-in-law, Roland, and Phil; and grandchildren, Amanda, Alec, Justin, and Jillian.

The family wishes to thank family friend and caregiver, Jennifer Harrison, the Memory care staff at Oakmont, and the Hospice Team for their loving support during his final days. A Graveside Service will be held at the Holy Sepulcher Cemetery in Orange on Tuesday, November 9, 2021. In lieu of flowers, a charitable donation can be made to the Alzheimer's Association or the American Heart Association.

Notes for Pearl Catherine Roman:

Pearl Catherine (Roman) Kraft passed away to be with our Lord on May 22, 2020. Pearl was born to Sophia and Walter Roman in Hamtramck, Michigan on January 1, 1939. Pearl wanted to be a nurse and she wanted to attend college. She accomplished both of her life's wishes at the University of Michigan. It was at the University of Michigan that Pearl met another fellow "Wolverine" on a blind date, Timothy Gordon Kraft. Tim would later become Pearl's life love and husband for 59 years. The new college graduates soon married and sought a new life in California where they prospered as life-long residents of Anaheim. Soon, Pearl and Tim would be blessed with three children, Debra, Diana and Cameron. World travel became a great part of Pearl's life. So much so, she left nursing to become a Travel Agent. The flexibility of being a Travel Agent allowed Pearl to better balance her family's needs, advance her career, and provide even greater opportunities to travel the world. Pearl was devoted to her family and friends. She loved Bowling, playing Bridge and Bunco, and attending Broadway Plays.

Pearl was preceded in death by her son, Cameron; and is survived by her husband, Timothy, daughters Debra La Berge (Roland), Diana Krekel (Phil), and four grandchildren, Amanda, Alec, Justin and Jillian. In her later years, Pearl was greatly assisted by her family friend and caregiver, Jennifer Harrison.

Due to Covid-19 restrictions and concern for the safety of family and friends, a private burial was held on June 15th. A celebration of Pearl's life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, a charitable donation can be made to the University Of Michigan School Of Nursing, the Alzheimer's Association, or another charity of your choice. McAulay & Wallace Mortuary

1231. Katrene Diane[11] Gall (Albert Erwin[10], Herman Frederick[9], Regina (Rachel)[8] Staebler, Johann Friedrich[7], Johann Michael[6], Margaretha[5] Koch, Johann Michael[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 23 Nov 1944. She married Robert Lynn Starling, Jr. 22 Jun 1963 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Robert Lynn Starling, Sr.. He was born 12 May 1942.

Notes for Katrene Diane Gall:

Another family name that has thrice been represented on the long list of Miss Saline winners is the Starlings. Katrene Gall Starling won the Miss Saline title in 1961 when, as she states, “there were only three things forgirls to do and competing tobe Miss Saline was one of them.” Katrene notes that her family was deeply involved in the Saline Fair beginning with her father, Albert Gall, who served as president ofthe Fair Board for a numberof years. This, she says, could be a reason why the Miss Saline Pageant is so important to them. DeeDe Starling Bormann, Katrene’s daughter, wore the Miss Saline crown in 1981 and she also recalls the fairas being an important part ofher formative years inSaline.“I feel like I’ve grown up at the fair,” claims DeeDe. “She members taking Stacey’s baby picture to the fair and entering it in a competition.”

Stacey, ‘DeeDe’s sister, captured the Miss Saline honor two years later in1983. She and Beth Vogel were friends who attended the Wendy Ward modeling program sponsored by Montgomery Ward. According to Dorothy Vogel, the classes taught the girls poise and modeling techniques. “The girls all loved fashion from an early age,” says Dorothy. According to their mother, Katrene, “Stacey always said she wasn’t going to competeto be Miss Saline.
However, as fate would haveit, she didn’t have a basketball game, in which she wasthe captain, scheduled forthe Friday of the pageant, soshe decided to enter.”Stacey wrote a fashion show for her talent, according to Katrene. She madeher gown along with four other outfits that some of her friends modeled. DeeDe’s talent was a ladies lead with wool, where she sewed a purple wool suitand showed a sheep.

Katrene reflected on the night that her girls won the crown: “We were extremely proud. They were two wonderful evenings and even my father was able to be there with us.” Katrene doesn’t recall if she was nervous on the night she was named Miss Saline 1961, however, she says her daughters remained calm and collected.“Everything they had done them for the competition.

Their involvement in 4-H, meeting people, making friends, playing sports; everything they had done, helped them to not be nervous.” The Saline Fair has been woven in the fabric of the community for years and Katrene recognizes it as a “great place to go as a family and see the agriculture side of Michigan.” “Michigan still generates products we use every day and sometimes we forget just how much this state produces,” says Katrene. She adds, “The fair is one of the few places where families can introduce their kids to animals.” Overall, Katrene, who serves as chairperson for the Former Miss Saline Association, viewed the pageant on Sept. 2 as a success. “It was great. It was like putting on two pageants at a time,” says Katrene.

The event marked the 55th anniversary of the Miss Saline Pageant and many of the Former Miss Saline winners were on hand for the festivities. “We were very pleased to see how it came together,” says Katrene. Starling acknowledges that being named Miss Saline is exciting to the girls because they are able to represent the community thatthey hold so dearly to their hearts.

That’s exactly what Nicole Stegenga said on the night she was named Miss Saline 2003. In our newly elected Miss Saline’s words, “I am very excited to represent my community, visit other communities and act as a role model for the youth of Saline.” Nicole was awarded Miss South Central Michigan Teen USA in July 2003, which qualifies her to compete for the title of Miss Michigan Teen USA. The competition will be held the weekend of Sept. 25-27 at the McMorran Place Theater in Port Huron. Nicole, the daughter of Jerry and Laurie Stegenga, is a junior at Saline High School. She is a majorette in the Saline High marching band, a member of the National Honor Society, Saline Twirlettes, Future Leaders, and SADD. She also is a gold honor roll student at SHS and is an AAU gold medalist in twirling. Friends are welcome to attend the pageant to support Nicole.

Notes for Gary Alvin Weidmayer:
Farming a family tradition Weidmayers worry about future of small farms
By Alana West, Special Writer - PUBLISHED: August 2, 2007

Gary Weidmayer of Bridgewater Township is a farmer, born and bred, and almost always has been. He plants corn, winter wheat and soybeans, raises cattle, and sells hay to stable owners for their horses on a farm that his father bought in 1940. But his family ties to the Manchester area go back further than that. His relatives have lived there since at least 1840, when they helped establish and build Bethel United Church of Christ.

"My great-great-grandfather worked on that," said Weidmayer, who said the ancestors of his wife, Karen, also worked on the project. "They were the Kueblers. It was the Kueblers and Weidmayers who built the church," said Karen Weidmayer, who is a secretary at Manchester High School. Both Gary and Karen have attended Bethel church all of their live.

The family owns 380 acres and rents 750 acres more. Their large, white farmhouse sits on a slight hill amid numerous outbuildings and barns, with two silos tucked behind. He only has two exceptions to his life's work in the farming industry – a three-month stint at a factory and three weeks in the National Guard during the 1967 riots. "I know where I was 40 years ago," he said last week. "I was down there two weeks setting up communications with the 156 signal corps. There was mass confusion. ... After that, everybody needed riot control training."

Something he finds satisfying about farming is taking a tour of his fields on his tractor, especially with his loyal companion, Sparky, the couple's Border Collie, at his side. "That dog will ride the combine, a tractor, the pickup. When the pickup goes down the road, it had better have the dog in it. She will sit and wait for him, or go look for him at the neighbor's," Karen Weidmayer said. Baling hay was on the agenda last Monday, and Gary Weidmayer was a bit discouraged at lunchtime about the decreased amount of hay because of a lack of rainfall. "The last six weeks have been really dry. We don't have irrigation. "We don't have enough acres (of hay), so we can't justify digging a well," Weidmayer said, adding that irrigation would not solve the problem, since that would make the ground too wet in some circumstances to grow hay. "We were hoping for rain, but we get just enough," said Karen Weidmayer. Her husband agreed, remembering the drought of 1988, which ended in mid-July with downpours the rest of the growing year.

Their corn is growing and looks green in the field; however, if there is no rain, the ears may not develop. "The soybeans look good, but if they don't get rain when they're podding up, the pods don't grow," Karen Weidmayer said. She expected the roots of the corn would grow deeper to find water. "Corn is probably our biggest crop here," she said. "It's expensive to grow because of the cost of the fertilizer." The Weidmayers sell the corn to Global Ethanol, a new company in Riga that converts corn to diesel fuel. Weidmayer bought stock in the company because he believes in the future of it as a fuel source, and to help boost the price and demand for corn. Weidmayer said the company uses 50,000 bushels of corn a day, and was getting more efficient at making the product. It sells the by-products as livestock feed, so there is little waste, he said.

Weidmayer is concerned about the future of farming. He foresees a continual decline in the small farm because of the cost of equipment, and the money invested in livestock and crops. "What I look at is, there will be more big farms, not as many small farms," he said. "You plant corn in April or May, and you don't get your money until October or November, and maybe you don't sell it all at once. All of that money is invested. You need to borrow when you need it, and pay it back when you can."

Weidmayer tries to buy and sell cattle every month. He gets double what he pays for them, but he feeds and cares for them for a year before he sells them. It is a big investment, so it helps to have some money coming in every month. Weidmayer served for 14 years on the Farm Credit Board, a board that lends money to farmers, so he knows the bind farmers get into with credit. He knows they need a good banker who knows what they need. During his term on the board, he saw a number of farm foreclosures.

Weidmayer said he used to run a dairy farm, but he and his son, Greg, who had been helping him on the farm, needed to expand and update to make it feasible. They decided to discontinue the dairy side of the business, so Greg got a full-time job with Manchester Village. He helps his father after work, maintaining the farming equipment. The Weidmayer's said they both hope that someday, their son will take over the farm.

The Weidmayer's enjoy the close bond of both of their children living nearby. Their daughter, Amy, and her family live diagonally across the field, from them, with Gary's mother, Irma, on the same road. Greg and his wife, Melanie, are a few houses down. Melanie owns the Manchester Bakery, and Amy was recently elected to the Bridgewater Township Board.

Notes for Ronald Ernest Mann:
The Manchester Enterprise - Thursday, May 14, 2009 - By Daniel Lai, Staff Writer

After 14 years serving as special assessment coordinator for the Washtenaw County Water Resources Commission, local resident Ron Mann is stepping down. I have a lot of things I would like to do and this affords me the ability to take some time for myself," he said. Mann, who was also recently elected to another four-year term as supervisor for Manchester Township, said his retirement from the county will allow him more time to spend in the township.

"I have worked two jobs for the last 20 years and the supervisor position has been a lot more demanding recently," he said. "I wouldn't say I will have more time, but by working one job, I can spend less nights and Saturday mornings in the township office." Mann said over the years he has come to enjoy his responsibilities as a special assessment coordinator. "I enjoy working with the county and local units of government," he said. "I also enjoy working with people."

Mann said his interest in politics and a knack for crunching numbers led him to apply for the position over a decade ago. "With my assessment training in the township, this job fit right in," he said. "I've always been a numbers person and with my background, this jump seemed a logical step for me." However, he said he didn't expect to remain with the county as long as he has.

"I didn't figure I would be here for 14 years," he said. "The average person goes through seven different careers in their life; maybe I have a few more left." As an assessment coordinator, Mann is responsible for determining how to allocate the cost of sewer repairs to the county's 500 drain districts. "Anytime we do work on a drain -- from dredging to clearing out trees – the costs are appropriated to the district that the sewer is located in. It's my responsibility to come up with a fair and equitable system that can work with the township governments," he said.

Each year the Water Resources Commission handles $1.5 to $2 million in sewer work which is spread over 60 to 85,000 parcels of land and 100 districts. "I have enjoyed working at the county and I will miss the people, but I will be around," Mann said. One accomplishment Mann is proud of is the number of interns that have gone on to find jobs across the country. "I've had 54 interns that have worked with me and almost everyone of th said they were able to get a job because of their experience in Washtenaw County," he said. "Real world experience gave them the insight they needed to succeed."

Mann's last official day will be May 21. A special retirement party will be held at noon at the Washtenaw Western Service Center, 705 N. Zeeb Road; Ann Arbor. With more free time, Mann said he looks forward to spending time with his six grandkids and traveling with his wife. He also plans to continue volunteering at the Manchester Chicken Broil and Manchester Fair. "I will definitely be hanging around the community," he said. Editor Daniel Lai can be reached at 428-8173 or dlai@heritage.com.

Notes for Kathleen Adele Lucas:
Kathleen "Kathy" Staebler passed away on her birthday, February 2, 2018. She was born in Vallejo, California and later moved to Fresno. She graduated from McLane High School and then Fresno City College with a degree in Business Studies. She married her best friend, Bruce, in 1965. Kathy's biggest love was her family. She spent time at home while their three children were young. During that time, she supported her husband in his career as a chef, often encouraging the kids to spend time with Dad at the restaurants he worked at. She also was an avid typist and earned extra income typing thesis and doctoral papers for the students at Fresno State on a manual Royal typewriter. Once their children were older, Kathy returned to work at various locations before finding her favorite job as Administrative Secretary for both the Health Sciences Division and Athletic Department at Fresno City College. She thrived while with the Athletic Department, igniting a love for all things baseball. She retired from Fresno City College in 2009.
She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Bruce. Her daughter Karen (Jeff) Calvert, daughter Kris (Scott) Anson, and son Gary (Christy) Staebler. Her 5 grandchildren, Zach Calvert, Hannah (Jordan) Farewell, Tyler Anson, Rachel Anson and Joshua Staebler. And one great grandson, Jameson Farewell. She is also survived by her sister Carole (Bob) Wing, and niece Meredith (Luis) Belman.

Her family would like to extend their deepest gratitude to the many caregivers who so lovingly cared for Kathy these past 4 years. Especially the staff at Bella Care Home. The care they provided was such a blessing to Kathy and the entire family. Thank you also to the staff at Reedley Golden Living Center who expressed such beautiful compassion in her last few months.

Doris Blaess[11] Smith (Emma O.[10] Blaess, Martha Maria Dorothea[9] Horning, Maria Barbara[8] Koch, Johann Georg[7], Johann Jakob[6], Johann Michael[5], Johann Jacob (Hans)[4], Hans Michael[3], Johannes[2], Blasius[1]) was born 31 Mar 1925 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 04 Apr 2021 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Howard J. Buettner 22 Jun 1946 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of William Buettner and Hattie ?. He was born 20 Aug 1921 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 18 Jan 1984 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Doris Blaess Smith:

Doris Blaess (Smith) Buettner passed away on Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021, at her residence with her daughter at her side. Doris was born in Saline, Michigan on March 31, 1925 to Carl and Emma Smith. Doris graduated from Saline High School. Her parents preceded her in death as well as her brothers, Harold (in infancy) and John. She was raised in the Lutheran faith at Trinity Lutheran Church and was currently a member at Redeemer Evangelical Church in Ann Arbor.

Doris married Howard J. Buettner in 1946 and together they welcomed two daughters, Pamela and Trudy. Doris's greatest tragedies were the loss of her husband and daughter, Trudy.

Most of her life Doris was a homemaker whose clean house was always sparkling and the food was extremely delicious. She was also an avid vegetable gardener. Howard was employed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Doris joined with other wives in a group called the Fish Wives for years. Howard and Doris were founding members of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Doris finally convinced Howard to travel and they made trips to Europe and Hawaii. After Howard's passing, Doris made it a point to continue her worldly travel by joining the Jackson Trippers and a Pittsfield Township senior group to see the world. Much appreciation goes to Lucinda and Karen Fleckenstein for working out the ability of their bridge group bunch to meet for many years: Francis Spelman, Barb Rolfe and Lucinda who was the self-appointed chauffeur as the women aged. Additional thanks to Doris's next-door neighbor on Agincourt, DJ Johnson, who took care of her home maintenance and looked out for her. And lastly, special thanks to the Brookhaven staff and the Arbor Hospice team who provided help and guided the family to the end.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, April 14, 2021 at 3:30 pm before the funeral service at 4:00 pm at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 1360 Pauline Blvd, Ann Arbor, MI 48103. He later coached wrestling and taught at Pioneer High, before buying Stein and Goetz Sporting Goods, which would later become the M-Den. Two of Doug's greatest loves were softball and golf. He played fastpitch softball for a number of years before devoting himself to coaching his daughters and countless others. In 1997, Doug was named to the Michigan ASA Softball Hall of Fame for his meritorious service. His love for the game continued into his retirement years as he gained yet another softball family playing near his home in Florida. He loved golf, and spent much of his time on the course with family and friends, whether it was in Ann Arbor, or on his beloved yearly golf trips with his closest friends in Las Vegas. Though his life and business revolved around sports, the true center of his being was his family and friends. He was a man of integrity and generosity, always devoting himself to others. May 9, 2019 – Bloomington, Indiana – You could call them Indiana University's unintentional All-Americans. Except Kelsey and Haley Harris, identical twins from Carmel, did not become who they are by accident. Track and field? OK, yeah, that was an accident. They went into it "kicking and screaming," according to their father, Bill Harris. The twins liked cross-country well enough. Their Carmel teams ran to state titles in all four years of high school. But they were year-round swimmers, and when time allowed, softball players. They didn't race on the track until they were juniors, and even then didn't produce times to lure college recruiters. Such skepticism did not deter them nor Hoosiers coach Ron Helmer. "I think that just mainly motivated us even more," Kelsey said. "Because we knew what we were potentially capable of, and what could possibly happen. I think coach Helmer knew that, too."

The twins will compete in their final Big Ten Championships together Saturday and Sunday at Iowa. Haley, a senior, is moving on to a PricewaterhouseCoopers internship and accounting career. Kelsey has one college season left in cross-country and outdoor track. The twins come from an athletic family. One brother, Trey, is a freshman runner at Butler, and another, Trevor, 16, was on Carmel's freshman basketball team. They also have a sister, Jenna, 9. The twins' father was a swimmer at Michigan, and both grandfathers were athletes there: Billy Harris was a wide receiver who played in the Rose Bowl, and Doug Horning was a Big Ten wrestling runner-up. An aunt, Kym Horning, was a softball pitcher for Wisconsin. The twins made their own history in the Big Ten. Haley and Kelsey ran second and fourth legs, respectively, for the team that won the 3,200-meter relay at the recent Penn Relays. It was the first time the Hoosiers had ever won a women's relay at the 125-year-old event. Fittingly, they won together. "They were always competitive," Bill Harris said. "Just not with one another." Helmer learned to tell the twins apart from hairstyles — Kelsey wears braids — and personality. Kelsey is outgoing, Haley introspective. The coach conceded he has kept them in different races and training groups because he didn't want them "constantly butting heads." As it turns out, he need not have worried.

He has coached many sets of twins, he said, and they are the first "who were genuinely excited for their sibling's success." When they are on the same team, look out. Their former cross-country coach, Mark Ellington, once organized a kickball game at a preseason camp at Lincoln State Park. Teams were divided by classes, and even though they were freshmen, the twins were going for the win. "It was a lot of fun, but man, they took it seriously," Ellington said. "In the heat of it, there was a lot of yelling and screaming and intensity. They just approach everything they do like they're going to dominate it."

The twins were swimmers on the most dominant dynasty ever, considering Carmel has a record 33 straight state championships. Kelsey never swam at state, but Haley was on the 2015 team that was arguably the best in high school history. In her final swim race, Haley was fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. The winner: Lilly King. Carmel swim coach Chris Plumb said the aerobic foundation the twins built in the pool enhanced their performance after concentrating on the track. There were autumn weeks when the Harrises did swimming and running workouts on the same day. "They never complained. They went to work every single day," Plumb said. "That's the one thing I remember." He was not the only one noticing the twins' attitude. Haley was the Mental Attitude Award winner at the 2015 state track meet.

The Harrises started running because cross-country and track were the only sports available to sixth-graders in middle school. Instead of spring track, they played softball, in which they were outfielders. They were so fast, in fact, that the coach persuaded the right-handed twins to bat left-handed and become slap hitters. They were always getting on base. Soon after they quit spring swimming, they finished 1-2 in a mile race in 4 minutes, 58.72 seconds and 4:58.99, respectively. As seniors, Kelsey was third in the state in the 800 in 2:13.10 and Haley sixth in the 1,600 in 4:56.79. Yet on a national scale, such times were "pretty ordinary," Helmer said. Here's the thing: The twins knew it. "I just wanted to work as hard as I could and see where it could go," Haley said. "Because in high school, we never committed full-time to running. I think that helped a lot, just doing one sport continuously." Helmer is convinced Haley has a "big breakthrough 1,500 in her" at the Big Ten meet. Her highest conference finish is fifth in last year's indoor mile.

Haley and Kelsey became All-Americans together on the team that finished seventh in the distance medley relay at March's NCAA Indoor Championships. Kelsey was also seventh in the 800, earning her third All-America designation (she was fourth in the relay in 2018). Kelsey has finished second once and third twice at Big Ten meets, and she ranks No. 4 on IU's all-time list at both 800 and 1,500 meters (2:03.89 and 4:18.23). Drop another second in the 800, and she could qualify for next year's U.S. Olympic Trials. There are other runners with the talent to improve as the twins did, Helmer said, if they would approach as they did: be secure in themselves, accept challenges, "and just get up and keep rolling."

The twins have replied emphatically to those who thought they would not become elite runners nor should attend the same college. They pushed each other more than any coach could have. "I think we've been able to form and be our own person here while also remaining as really close friends and teammates," Kelsey said. "Honestly, I don't regret anything. I would do it all over again. "I've loved being her teammate for the last four years. I'm sad that's going to end soon."

May 9, 2019 – Bloomington, Indiana – You could call them Indiana University's unintentional All-Americans. Except Kelsey and Haley Harris, identical twins from Carmel, did not become who they are by accident. Track and field? OK, yeah, that was an accident. They went into it "kicking and screaming," according to their father, Bill Harris. The twins liked cross-country well enough. Their Carmel teams ran to state titles in all four years of high school. But they were year-round swimmers, and when time allowed, softball players. They didn't race on the track until they were juniors, and even then didn't produce times to lure college recruiters. Such skepticism did not deter them nor Hoosiers coach Ron Helmer. "I think that just mainly motivated us even more," Kelsey said. "Because we knew what we were potentially capable of, and what could possibly happen. I think coach Helmer knew that, too."

The twins will compete in their final Big Ten Championships together Saturday and Sunday at Iowa. Haley, a senior, is moving on to a PricewaterhouseCoopers internship and accounting career. Kelsey has one college season left in cross-country and outdoor track. The twins come from an athletic family. One brother, Trey, is a freshman runner at Butler, and another, Trevor, 16, was on Carmel's freshman basketball team. They also have a sister, Jenna, 9. The twins' father was a swimmer at Michigan, and both grandfathers were athletes there: Billy Harris was a wide receiver who played in the Rose Bowl, and Doug Horning was a Big Ten wrestling runner-up. An aunt, Kym Horning, was a softball pitcher for Wisconsin. The twins made their own history in the Big Ten.

Haley and Kelsey ran second and fourth legs, respectively, for the team that won the 3,200-meter relay at the recent Penn Relays. It was the first time the Hoosiers had ever won a women's relay at the 125-year-old event. Fittingly, they won together. "They were always competitive," Bill Harris said. "Just not with one another." Helmer learned to tell the twins apart from hairstyles — Kelsey wears braids — and personality. Kelsey is outgoing, Haley introspective. The coach conceded he has kept them in different races and training groups because he didn't want them "constantly butting heads." As it turns out, he need not have worried.

He married Rose O'Connor.

Notes for Lee A. Feldkamp:
Lee A. Feldkamp died in Novi, MI on March 13, 2021 after an 18-year struggle with Parkinson's Disease. Lee was born August 27, 1942, the eldest child of Lee E. Feldkamp, M.D. and Jeanne Girard Feldkamp. During his elementary school years, the family moved to Plymouth where Lee graduated from Plymouth High School. Lee spent his entire college career at the University of Michigan, culminating in a PhD in nuclear engineering. He then joined the Physics Department of Ford Research Laboratory as a staff scientist in 1969 where he remained until retirement in 2008. During the course of his career, Lee co-authored a book, Dynamics of Perfect Crystals, was granted a dozen patents, and had published over one hundred scientific papers. Lee traveled the world presenting papers on micro CT technology, fuzzy logic and neural networks. He was past president of the International Neural Network Society and selected as a Distinguished Graduate of the U of M Rackham School of Graduate Studies. One of Lee's greatest accomplishments was his invention of an algorithm improving the clarity of micro CT images which is still used today in fields as varied as medicine and archaeology. Lee worked with the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in the area of artificial intelligence. He collaborated in the development of a chip at the beginning of the breakthrough of neural network technology, taking it into the mainstream. For Aston Martin, Lee designed a chip which went into production of a luxury vehicle. Also, in the field of neural networks, Lee was a consultant working with AmericaOne, leading United States challenger for America's Cup 2000 in yacht racing, developing new technology in the area of wind prediction. All of these projects were to varying degrees collaborative efforts. Lee was always scrupulous about sharing credit, particularly with the younger members of his team, indicative of his modesty and kindness. Lee loved his work, but in his free time, enjoyed hiking, cross-country skiing and especially tennis. He was a lover of all music, particularly classical, including modern composers. From his childhood, Lee spent many happy summer vacations with his family on Lake Huron near Forest, Ontario. He was a great fan of U of M football and basketball. Lee was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Mary Arbour and brother-in-law, John Thomas.

He is survived by his wife, Rose O'Connor, son, Timothy of Ann Arbor, brother, Robert (Kitty) of Canton, sister, Joan Thomas of Lake Worth, Florida, brother, Gerald (Linda) of Beaverton, Oregon, brother, Gregory (Diane Phelps) of Southlake, Texas, brother, Douglas (Laurel) of Dearborn, sister, Jeannette Schwab (John) of East Tawas, brother, James (Barbara) of Grand Ledge, brother-in- law, Robert Arbour of Westland, sister-in-law, Judy Zakrzewski of Marshall, brother-in-law, Patrick (Kenna) Zakrzewski of Mt. Pleasant, Wisconsin and many nieces and nephews.

Lee was deeply loved and will be greatly missed. The family would like to thank the University of Michigan, Michigan Medicine Neurosurgery DBS Team for enabling the quality of life Lee enjoyed almost until the end. Thanks particularly to Wilma MacKenzie, N.P. and Donna Rossini, N.P. who followed Lee for years in the Geriatric Neurology Clinic. Memorial contributions may be made to the Michigan Medicine Neurosurgery Department, DBS Program, 1500 E. Medical Center Drive SPC 5338, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-5338. A Memorial Service will be held later this year.
