Notes for Konrad Adam Bissinger:
Michigan Pioneer & Historical Collections:

Early German Settlers in Ann Arbor. The honor can scarcely be denied to Conrad Bissinger of being the first German to arrive in this place and one of the first to take up land in this vicinity. Mr. Bissinger arrived on the ground September 1, 1825. (comment by Terry Stollsteimer is that this may be wrong, he feels it is referring to America not Washtenaw County). He remembers well that in the month after his arrival on the site of the future city, Dewitt Clinton, governor of New York, made his triumphal trip from Albany to Buffalo and back, taking with him on the return a keg of Lake Erie's water, which he poured into the bay of New York, symbolically setting forth the union of salt water of the ocean with the fresh water of the Great Lakes. He remembers well the unprecented excitement causes in 1826 by the abduction of William Morgan in western New York and subsequent murder. Mr. Bissinger was born in Mannheim, the largest city of the Grand Duchy of Baden, where he learned the baker's trade.

On his arrival at Ann Arbor there was nothing in the place for a baker to do. A few log houses, with the stumpy clearings made by settler's axes marked the site of the city, and keeping the place in mind as that of his probable future settlement, he set out for parts where he might earn money by his trade. He went to Charleston, South Carolina, there remained three years and earned enough to buy government lands. Without coming on himself he bought land in the neighboring township of Scio. The purchase was made in 1828. The patent bears the name of Andrew Jackson. Mr. Bissinger did not like Calhoun's doctrine of nullification, which was then already rife in South Carolina, and he left for the north. His first vote was cast for Andrew Jackson as president of the United States, doubtless for his second term, and he thinks that if the country had had such a president at the time of the Civil War this would never have come. He remained in the east and did not arrive to take possession of his property until 1831. He was 92 years old in January last and shows nothing to suggest that he may not survive for several years. His memory holds a fund which it is indeed delightful to draw upon. Mr. Bissinger had a near relative who was a minister of the state in Munich, the capital of Bavaria.

Obituary: Translated by Werner Gross - Bad Tatzmannsdorf, Austria:

Conrad Bissinger: Seldom an information about the death of a German citizen has caused such a common participation in German groups and has spread as a running fire as the information about the deceasement of a highly estimated and venerable aged Mr. Conrad Bissinger. The deceased was a real German honorable man, and he was given by the lord the seldom high age of 94 years, without being pressed down by the load of age. He stood during all his life as a German oak tree within the storms of life, and has spread out his boughs far in all directions, because our lord granted him a favor of having a lot of children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. How to see on the following described course of life, the deceased was one of the earliest settlers and perhaps the oldest man in Washtenaw County. He came over the ocean being a young and energetic man and put his steps on the ground of this rich and expectant area, when very few ways and paths lead through the wilderness, and the jungle was not cultivated and populated by wild animals. He was one of the bravest of the early trailblazers, and he was intensively busied, when changing the vast jungle to pretty fields. He has seen all his fellows and friends to be worn out to the town of death, all these honorable men, who together with him during their time of youth did their best to build up and save Washtenaw County. He has passed through glad tidings as well as harms, and he was in every case an absolute honorable gentleman, without being envy when his neighbors were very successful too. He detested hypocrisy and craftiness. And as he passed his life always being a gentlemen he died a gentlemen. A rich and active life has ended now, a brave and upright citizen has deceased. His modest way of life should be an example for the youth and all following generations. And for he was good Christian and a true member to the Bethlehem Parish, to which he always did his words of gospel: "Welcome, true servant, in the aptment of eternity. You have hold intrust the confided pledge truly. But Conrad Bissinger was not only well known as a Christian, but also as an upright citizen, true friend, honorable neighbor, loving husband and father and sympathetic man. All people who were acquainted with him, esteemed him very much, and his family were in love to him. Therefore a big funeral procession with heart field people is awaited for tomorrow to see him on his last way. Conrad Bissinger died on the 18th of February (1896) at two o'clock. Peaceful as his whole life was his deceasement too. Lucky Old Man, brave man, you are no longer with us, but people well remember you for a long time. Rest in peace beneath the Cypresses of your loved County Washtenaw. Farewell, your pilgrimage is done! Mr. Conrad Bissinger was born in 1802 in Mannheim, Grand Duchy, Baden, Germany (today Mammheim belongs to Rheinland-Pfalz as political area) and had a great education in school in this town which has its position besides the river Rhine. When he was 23 years old he put in motion to America in 1825 as many young men did, to find there his big chance. After working in different areas in the 'New World' he came in 1832 to Ann Arbor, which was at that time only a small market-town, because there were only a few houses in the middle of the jungle. Still in the same year the acquaintance of Miss Catharine Paul, a clever and charming young lady, and he entered an alliance with her for a lifetime. In a long time of happy marriage his wife gave birth to 11 children, and one of them Mrs. Christiane Baruerle (Bauerle) died some years before him. And his brave wife left him some years ago into a country, where tears exist no longer and all sorrows come to an end. Following children, except grandchildren and great-grandchildren, cry about the deceasement of their loved father. Mrs. A. Feldkamp - Saline Twp; Mrs. Chas. Clements - Lima Twp; Mr. Gottfried Bissinger - Kansas; Mrs. Adam Seyler - Ann Arbor; Mr. Jakob Bissinger - Ann Arbor; Miss Dorothea Bissinger - Ann Arbor; Mrs. Henry Feldkamp - Ann Arbor; Mr. Johann Georg Bissinger - California; Mr. Wilhelm Henry Bissinger - California; Miss Helene Bissinger - Ann Arbor. Till the end of his life, the old man, who's physical and intellect was well preserved, was taken care fore lovefully by all his children. The burial procession of the morel frame of the deceased will start tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the afternoon beginning at the house of number 75 West Liberty Street, where the Pastor Johannes Neimann will hold the funeral service. The well-known silver haired appearance will be missed by many people. The one who heals all wounds, will appease the aches of the children too. Notes for Gerhard Lambert Heinrich (AaronLambert) Feldkamp:

Aaron L. Feldcamp, a prominent German of Saline Township, was born in Westphalia, Prussia. Aug. 17, 1829. His parents, Henry and Anna Feldcamp, were natives of the same place, and the former distinguished himself as Corporal, under Gen. Blucher, during his six years service in the French Revolution. He was in several principal engagements; Waterloo, Moscow, and was present at the surrender of Napoleon Bonaparte in Paris. He came to America in 1836, and settled in Freedom Township, Washtenaw County, where he died Aug. 4, 1846. His birth occurred July 10, 1784. Oswego, Kansas - The reaper of death has been in our midst and taken home Godfrey Bissinger, one of the early settlers of this country, living five miles south of here. He had been ill for several months first having typhoid fever but about eleven weeks ago a cancer on liver developed and from that time until his demise, December 5, 1912, deceased gradually grew weaker. He had lived to a ripe old age of 73 years. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and ten children. Funeral services were conducted at the home Friday morning by J. L. Notes for Heinrich Bernhard Feldkamp:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Henry B. Feldkamp, who since 1880 has resided on his present farm in Ann Arbor Township, was born in Freedom Township, this county, in 1854. His parents were Lambert and Katherine Feldkamp, both natives of Germany. The mother came to Michigan with her parents in 1836 and the father arrived in this state about 1838. According to the laws of his native country he had rendered military service as a member of the German army for three years. On crossing the Atlantic he located first in the state of New York, whence he afterward came to Michigan and was employed as a farm hand for several years. When his labor had brought to him sufficient capital to justify his purchase of a farm he became owner of eighty acres of land in Freedom Township, to which he afterward added a tract of forty acres. He then continued the further cultivation and improvement of his one hundred and twenty-acre farm until 1866, when he sold that property and removed to Saline Township, where he bought two hundred and fifty acres. He had the usual experience of pioneer farming, but as the years passed brought his land up to a high state of cultivation and became one of the prosperous agriculturists of his community. He voted with the democracy and was quite active in support of the party. His death occurred in 1871, while his wife survived until 1896. In their family were seven children: Frederick; William; Carrie, the wife of W. M. Clements, of Lodi, Michigan; Henry B.; Sarah, the wife of Christian Weidmayer, of Lodi; Lydia, the wife of Frederick Brennion, also of Lodi; and Dinah, the wife of George Weidmayer, of Lodi Township.

Henry B. Feldkamp, of this review, pursued his early education at Rogers Corners and afterward continued his studies in Saline Township. He remained upon the home farm until twenty-two years of age, during which time he became familiar with all the work that falls to the lot of the agriculturist. He was afterward employed as a farm hand for several years, and in 1880, with the money he had saved from his own earnings, he purchased one hundred and forty-five acres on section 1, Ann Arbor Township. He added to this in 1890 a tract of one hundred and twenty-five acres and later bought eighty acres additional, so that he now has a valuable and extensive farm of three hundred and fifty acres, all in one body. In 1904 he built a fine home containing twelve rooms, at a cost of thirty-five hundred dollars. It is finished in oak, which he sawed from timber on the farm, and it is one of the attractive residences of this part of the county. In 1888 he built a good barn thirty-four by one hundred and fourteen feet and he has a horse barn twenty-eight by thirty-eight feet. Here he carries on general farming, feeding all of his grain to his stock except his wheat crop. Two hundred and ninety acres of his land is improved, while sixty acres is covered with timber.

On the 30th of March, 1880, Mr. Feldkamp was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Bissinger, a daughter of Conrad Bissinger, of Scio Township, who spent his last days in Ann Arbor, where he died at the venerable age of ninety-four years. Mr. and Mrs. Feldkamp have four children: Cora, Edwin, Emma and Edna. In politics Mr. Feldkamp is an earnest democrat, and his fellow townsmen, recognizing his worth and ability, have frequently called him to public office. He has served on the school board, on the board of review and as road commissioner and justice of the peace and in all of these offices has discharged his duties with promptness and fidelity. He belongs to the Bethlehem Evangelical church and has lived an honorable and upright life. Moreover, he is entitled to praise for what he has accomplished. He started out for himself as a farm hand and has steadily worked his way upward, overcoming many difficulties and obstacles, yet persevering in his labor until he is now the owner of one of the finest farms of the county and is classed with the substantial citizens of Ann Arbor Township.

28. Carrie[5] Clements (Anna Maria[4] Bissinger, Konrad Adam[3], Johann Daniel[2], Johann Georg[1]) was born 10 Mar 1862 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 24 Dec 1943 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Russell Parker, Jr. 10 Aug 1887 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, son of Russell Parker and Hannah Corrin. He was born Bet. 22 Feb 1843 - 1845 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 05 Apr 1935 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Russell Parker, Jr.:
Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Russell Parker. A noble class of men have built up the agricultural interests of Lima Township and have made it a garden spot in the great commonwealth of Michigan. Among those who have been active and efficient in the work is he whose name stands at the head of this paragraph. His father, Russel Parker, Sr., was a native of Otsego County, New York, and the son of the Rev. Timothy Parker, whose birth was in Massachusetts, but who came to New York and there spent the remainder of his days. He was a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The father of our subject came to Washtenaw County, Michigan, when a young man and took up two hundred and forty acres of Government land in Lima and Scio Townships. He was married in Pittsfield, Michigan, to Hannah Cowen of New York, and to them were born seven sons and four daughters. The mother died in Lima Township and subsequent to that sad event the father married Rosetta (Brown) Williams of Oakland County and she became the mother of four sons and one daughter.

Russel Parker, Sr. came, to the Territory of Michigan in 1825, and was thus one of the first pioneers in the days when deer, wolves and bears abounded. He was the first Supervisor of Lima Township in the years, 1834-35 and 1836 and was also the first Justice of the Peace. He was a hardworking man and left his impress upon the county in those early days as he cleared and broke a great deal of land.

Our subject was born February 22, 1845 in Lima Township and has since resided in the county. He remained at home until he attained his majority, working on the farm and afterward rented the farm belonging to Charles Clements and since 1879 has resided upon that fine tract of two hundred and sixty acres. The marriage of Russel Parker and Carrie Clements was solemnized August 10, 1886. This lady is a daughter of Charles and Mary (Bisenger) Clements of whom further mention is made elsewhere in this work. Charles Clements is one of the best known men in Lima Township, as he is a native of the township and here spent his whole life. The fine farm of two hundred and sixty acres which is now owned by his widow came to him by inheritance. He was a Master Mason. Mary Bisenger is a daughter of Conard Bisenger, a native of Germany, and an early settler of Scio Township, where he resided for many years. He now resides in Ann Arbor, and is a well-to-do man and a retired farmer, having reached the age of ninety years. He was a pioneer of Scio Township and he and his good wife who died in that township reared a large family. The father of Charles Clements was Samuel Clements, a native of Pennsylvania, who came to Michigan in 1826, and taking up about six hundred and forty acres of land, here continued throughout the remainder of his life time.

Mr. Haarer, according to information received here, was sitting in his car in front of the Jackson county courthouse when fatally stricken. He had gone to Jackson to check probate court records with John L. Carey, Grand Rapids, special examiner for the tax division. Before leaving Lansing, he complained of "not feeling well" and went to his home at 207 West St. Joseph Street for a time before making the trip.

While in Jackson he complained of a severe headache and someone there planned to drive him back to Lansing. It was reported he went outside to wait in his car and a few minutes later was found dead. Born in Ann Arbor in 1876. Mr. Haarer attended the public schools of that city and then engaged for a time in the insurance business there. Previous to his state connect inn. he served as president of the Ann Arbor city council and he had served in the Spanish-American war, retiring with the rank of major. He had been a captain of Company A, 31st Regiment of Michigan Volunteers. After leaving the state position he became cashier and then executive vice president of the old City National bank and served in that capacity until the institution was merged with the former Capital National bank late in 1931.

Mr. Haarer later served as director of the state accident fund and was for a time connected with the corporation and securities division after its creation a few years ago. He was active in civic affairs and at one time headed the Chamber of Commerce. For many years Mr. Haarer engaged in stamp collecting as a hobby and was prominent in philatelic circles. He had been inactive in this field in recent years but maintained a keen interest in another hobby, that of collecting coins. He was considered one of the leading authorities in the state on old coins and their value. He was an honorary member of the Lansing Kiwanis club and Its former president and was affiliated with Lansing Commandery No. 35, Knights Templar, and the Ann Arbor Blue lodge and Royal Arch Masons.

Notes for Mortimer Weston Spaulding:
History of Colorado, Volume 4; edited by Wilbur Fiske Stone, pages 791-792.
Mortimer Weston Spaulding, attorney at law, was born in Galien, Berrien County, Michigan June 13, 1886. From early colonial days the family has been represented in America. They come of English and Scotch ancestry and the line of descent is traced back to the sixteenth century, when the Spaulding's lived at Spaullington, England. The founder of the family in the new world crossed the Atlantic during the early colonial days and when the colonies attempted to throw off the yoke of British oppression representatives of the name joined the American army and aided in winning independence, going to the front with Massachusetts troops. Members of the family were also prominent in connection with political activity in that state.

Charles Walter Spaulding father of Mortimer W. Spaulding was born in Michigan where his parents had settled in early pioneer times. He became a prominent physician and since 1892 has practiced his profession in Carroll County, Iowa. He was graduated from the Hahnemann Medical College of Chicago and has always kept in touch with the advanced thought and scientific researches of the profession thus making his service of great value and usefulness in checking the ravages of disease. He is a republican in politics and has been somewhat active in support of the principles in which he believes. He married Alice Maude Marion Wooley, a native of Ohio, who belongs to one of the old families of that state, of English origin. Her father was a Civil war veteran and died as a result of disease contracted in the service. Mrs. Spaulding is still living and by her marriage she became the mother of two children, the younger being Charles Walter, who is now a resident of Streeter, North Dakota. He was graduated with the LL. B. degree from the Iowa State University and is now engaged in the banking business in connection with Judge N.C. Young at Fargo, North Dakota.

The elder son is Mortimer W. Spaulding, of this review, who spending his youthful days under the parental roof in Carroll County, Iowa, there pursued a public school education passing through consecutive grades to his graduation from the high school He later entered the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor for a law course and won his LL. B. degree upon graduation on the 13th of November 1908. Prior to this time he had taken up the business of electric wiring and had also studied medicine under the direction of his father for three years. He had given his attention at times to other pursuits, thus earning the money with which he partially paid his way through the university. After his graduation he was admitted to the bar in Michigan and then removed to Colorado, settling at Denver in December, 1908. He arrived here an absolute stranger but he believed that merit would win and opened an office He had studied for a time under the direction of Louis G. Stark and continued with the latter after his admission to the Colorado bar until September 15, 1909. Later he joined Emerson J. Short in organizing a partnership under the firm style of Short & Spaulding and the firm today enjoys a large clientage of a distinctively representative character.

On the 30th of June 1909, Mr. Spaulding was married in Ann Arbor, Michigan to Miss Florence M. Bissinger, a native of that state and a daughter of Jacob Bissinger, a representative of an old and prominent family of Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding have become parents of two children: Charles Weston, born in Denver, February 25, 1911; and Florence Marion born in Denver, February 25, 1915.

In his political views Mr. Spaulding has always been a republican since attaining his majority and has been quite prominent in local political circles. He served as alderman from the eighth ward of the city and county of Denver, having been elected on the 31st of May, 1912, taking the office in June. He served for one year as representative of the citizen's party. Fraternally he is connected with Signet Lodge No. 264 F & AM of Carroll Iowa having been initiated into the order there in 1908 He is also connected with the Knights of Pythias lodge of Denver and is a member of the Cassia fraternity High personal worth as well as marked ability in his profession have brought him to a creditable position in the regard of his fellow citizens. His success is attributable entirely to his own efforts. He started out in the business world empty-handed but was actuated by a laudable ambition that has resulted in persistency of purpose and close study of all questions bearing upon his chosen life work. The thoroughness with which he prepares his cases, his earnestness and tenacity in defending the right as he sees it and his ready recognition of legal principles in their relation to the points at issue have been salient features in his growing success.

He was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant early in July, and has received the Air Medal, several Oak Leaf Clusters, and the Distinguished Flying Cross. He stated that the bomber he and the crew claimed as their own was named “Hard to Get" and lived up to its name. His last mission was made in a Willow Run bomber. After they had completed their missions each member of the crew was presented with a pie on which was writ ten the man’s name and Bill marveled that all the letters in his name could find room on the pastry.

Notes for Ernest Gottlieb Mann:

December 14, 1988 - In 1915, when the Bridgewater Elevator was built by Charles Schurer and William Rentschler, Bridgewater was a bustling community that boasted a church, post office, bank, and railroad depot. The train stopped their daily to pick up passengers, produce, milk, and other materials in demand around the nation. Schurer and Rentschler were businessmen who bought and sold wool. They also started the Bridgewater Bank, which operated in the tiny village for many years before it became a tavern and then a restaurant. In 1919, the Elevator was purchased by area farmers who took stock in the company and changed its name to the Farmers Produce Company, Schurer remained as manager.

In 1927, Ernest G. Mann sold his Freedom Township farm and moved to Bridgewater to manage the cooperative. In 1938, Mann and his sons, Earl and Willard, bought the cooperative from Rentschler after Rentschler and August Henes bought out the stockholders. Mann forged a partnership with his sons and started E. G. Mann & Sons at the old Bridgewater Elevator.

"oats were 48 cents a bushel, corn was 65 cents a bushel, and soy oil meal was $1.75 for a hundred pounds. Today, oats are $2 a bushel, corn is. $2.39 a bushel, and meal is $15.85 for a hundred pounds.

Feed salt was $1 for a hundred pounds then; today it's $9.90," says Glen Mann. Glen, grandson of Ernest, has been working in the family-owned elevator and agricultural supply business since 1962 with his brother, Vic, and mother, Billie. In 1940, Mann bought the Manchester mill from William Blaess and Willard Mann moved to Manchester to manage it. Ernest became ill in 1952 and sold his interest in the company to his sons. He died in 1955. By 1962, Earl and his wife, Billie, and Willard and his wife, Dorothy, incorporated the partnership and became the principal stockholders. Earl died in 1968 and Glen and Vic were taken on as stockholders along with Willard son, Ron. Willard retired in 1976 and sold his stock to his sister-in-law and her sons. Glen and Vic took the reins of E.G. Mann & Sons in Bridgewater and Ron assumed ownership of the Mann Feed Mill in Manchester. As corn and oats are food staples, the Elevator has been a staple for the area's agricultural community. Mann's buy, sell, and store corn, oats, soybeans, and wheat; maintain a grain bank; spray fields with herbicides and fertilizers; and sell fertilizer, herbicides, livestock and pet feeds, bird seed, and salt pellets.

Over the years, the Mann's have added to the elevator operation. Now, they boast a 70,000-bushel capacity with a grain dryer and grain cooler. "Grain out here comes into the elevator wet. It carries about 20-30 percent moisture. We put it into the grain dryer at‘220 degrees and then cool it before storing. If you store wet grain, it will mold in three days," Glen explains^ While 70,000 bushels seems like a huge operation, Glen notes that the Anderson facility near Stockbridge has a 10 million-bushel capacity; Most of the crops stored at E. G. Mann are products of local farms although the oats now stored there came from Argentina. "It was a bad oat crop this year so we had to buy some," he says. The elevators range from 45-105 feet high; from the peak of the highest elevator you can see the water towers of Saline and Manchester. In days past, grain was hand weighed and hand loaded. Now, machines do much of the heavy labor. There are machines that load grain, machines that grind grain, and machines that weigh grain. For example, a semi can park under the bin and, in 5 minutes, have a 1,000 bushel load in the trailer. The grist machine grinds wheat and other grain as well as livestock feed blends. With the reduction in the oat crop, many farmers now use an oat substitute for cattle and horse feed.

Since its 1938 founding, E.G. Mann & Sons has expanded and expects to serve the agricultural community for many more years. There are hopes it will remain "all in the family." "My son will graduate from Michigan State this month and he plans to come to work here," says Glen. "I've always been in this business. I've never worked in a shop or anything. It's a job somebody has to do."

Funeral services were held Sunday August 7, 1955 for Ernest G. Mann, 69, at the Lockwood Funeral Home in Saline, Mann was a widely known Washtenaw grain elevator operator who retired from business in 1952. He died at his home at 116 W. Michigan Ave„ Saline, after a long illness. Mr. Mann was a co-partner with two of his sons in the ownership and operation of grain elevators at Bridgewater and Manchester. The former they bought on March 1, 1927 and the later on July 1, 1940. Mr. Mann was active in several Masonic orders including the Meridan Chapter 48 of Manchester, the Saline Masonic Lodge, Ann Arbor Council 86, Knights Templar 13 of Ann Arbor and Zal Grotto of Ann Arbor. Notes for Clarence Erwin Fritz:

Clarence Fritz and S. F. Carney were injured early Sunday morning, October 29, 1933, when the car in which they were riding collided with another car on the corner of Helen Street and Vernor Highway, Detroit. Armine Westphal, driver of the car, had stopped at the intersection and did not see the other car. As they stated to go they were smashed broadside, completely wrecking the Westpahl car. Westpahl received several bruises while Fritz was cut badly on the face and hands. Carney, the more seriously hurt of the two, was cut about the head and it was thought possible internal injuries. However, he was to be removed from the hospital today and taken to the home of his brother in Detroit, so internal injuries are not probable.

Notes for Robert Eugene Bissinger:

Pendleton, Oregon, July 11, 1958 - More than 750 acres of ranch land were seared Thursday by a rash of range fires in an area northwest of Pendleton. One blaze driven by a brisk, dry wind, whipped the flames over some 500 acres of rich farm land, including 350 acres of unharvested wheat and barley.

The fire for a time threatened the Gene Bissinger ranch located about 20 miles northwest of Pendleton, but frantic efforts by some 75 men and 15 radio control trucks contained the blaze with shovels, water and wet burlap sacks. Two fires in the Despain Gulch area about 10 miles northwest of Pendleton broke out about 1 p.m., but were under control an hour later after charring about 200 acres of stubble and consuming another 60 acres of unharvested wheat and barley. More than 400 acres of unharvested wheat and barley were destroyed by the fires, with an additional 350 acres of barley stubble and rangeland being burned, officials said.

Notes for Frances Irene Skoubo:

Fransces Irene Bissinger was born March 2, 1927, the daughter of two Danish immigrants, Ingvard and Anna Skoubo. She was raised on the family homestead in Boardman, Oregon, along with her brothers Ed and Ralph. She attended school in Boardman, graduating in 1945 from the "old" Boardman High School. Fransces, known to her many friends and family members as "Frannie" or "Fran," attended Oregon State University, taking music classes to improve her voice. She had most beautiful soprano voice. She was the one you would hear in church so clearly and perfectly above others. This was war time, so she returned home to help with the farm after one year. When World War II ended she was married to Russel DeMauro. Together, they raised four daughters: Anna, Donna, Billie and Bobbi. Fransces was primarily a stay-at-home mom, which she loved, because she loved her daughters so deeply.

Fransces was thoughtful, caring and kind. She made friends easily, as people could sense that she was such a genuinely good person. She was a strong Christian woman, having never lost that faith. She was also so very proud of her Danish heritage, and referred to herself as a "stubborn-headed Dane." One of her favorite sayings was "You can always tell a Dane, but you can't tell them much." And then she would laugh. She loved to garden. It was her sanctuary. She would converse with the birds and admire the butterflies, while hoeing the weeds and cursing the gophers.

Later in life she found love and married Jim Bissinger. A gregarious soul, they lived happily and peacefully together for many years. They loved having fun together, and friends and family still reminisce about their annual Round-Up parties. Fransces was a long-time member of the Eagles Lodge. In younger years she so enjoyed dancing, dining, and singing karaoke. She was quick to volunteer her time helping with special events and fundraisers. She had a generous heart, and contributed too many charities.

143. Frederick Eugene (Bud)[6] Stein (Lorena Marie[5] Bissinger, Jakob[4], Konrad Adam[3], Johann Daniel[2], Johann Georg[1]) was born 14 Sep 1921 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 27 Mar 2013 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Annabel Virginia Schultz 23 Jul 1948 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Otto Schultz and Alma Schlafer. She was born 05 Feb 1924 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Feb 2024 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Frederick Eugene (Bud) Stein:

Wednesday evening, March 27, 2013, Fred "Bud" Stein passed away peacefully at his home in Ann Arbor at the age of 91. He was preceded in death by his parents, Eugene (Ike) and Lorena (Bissinger) Stein and his sister, Jean Marie (Stein) Raab. Born in Ann Arbor, he was a life-time resident and member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ until retiring to Tarpon Springs, Florida, where he lived during the winters with his wife of 64 years, Annabel (Schultz) Stein. Bud was a graduate of the Ann Arbor High School Class of 1939 (Basketball, Track) and the University of Michigan (Basketball). He served in the Navy in WWII on a PT Boat stationed in New Guinea. He left the Navy as an Ensign after spending a year at Harvard Business School. He worked for his dad at Stein Cleaners then in 1954, opened Stein & Goetz Sporting Goods (currently the M Den) with his cousin, Ward Goetz. They sold Stein & Goetz to Dave Hirth and Doug Horning in 1976 and he continued to work there until his retirement in 1982.

Bud was the consummate community leader and served as a director for The Chamber of Commerce, The United Way, The YM-YWCA (Ann Arbor Y) and the Downtown Business Association, among others. Bud led the successful campaign to establish the Downtown Promenade on Main Street despite mayoral opposition. His presentation to the National Civic League resulted in Ann Arbor being awarded the All-America City in 1965. One of his passions was the Ann Arbor Downtown Kiwanis Club where he was a Past-President and had perfect attendance for 57 Years. He holds that record today. His other passion was the University of Michigan Alumni Association where he was a Board member, Camp Michigania Council member and a Distinguished Alumni Volunteer. He was instrumental in promoting Camp Michigania Switzerland and the Alumni Alpine Adventure. After 40+ trips to Switzerland, he never tired of hiking through the mountains and riding the trains through his beautiful adopted country.

Along with his wife, Annie, he generously shared this passion with their daughter, Cindy and her former husband, Doug Ziesemer and their daughter, Julie Ziesemer. He shared a special bond with his only granddaughter and was fondly known as Bops. Every home football Saturday morning, she traipsed after him through the Michigan Stadium to help raise the stadium's Big Ten pennants as he had done with his dad when he was growing up. In addition to his wife, Annabel; daughter, Cindy (John) Nordlinger; and granddaughter, Julie Ziesemer, he is survived by niece, Mary Jean Raab (John Boyer); nephew, Charles (Betty) Raab; niece, Phyllis Valentine; and nephew, Ken (Pam) Schultz.

There will be no funeral or memorial service. Contributions in his name would be greatly appreciated to The Ann Arbor Downtown Kiwanis Club, 200 S. First St., Ann Arbor, MI 48104 or The University of Michigan Alumni Association: Camp Michigania, 200 Fletcher St., Ann Arbor, MI 48109. The family thanks everyone for their love and prayers.

Notes for Annabel Virginia Schultz:

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Annabel (Annie) Stein passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 14, 2024 only nine days after enjoying a long weekend of celebration for her 100th birthday with family and friends. She is survived by her daughter, Cindy Nordlinger, her granddaughter, Julie Ziesemer, and Julie's husband, Shawn Ashley. Annie was preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, Fred (Bud) Stein; her parents, Otto Schultz and Alma (Schlafer) Schultz; her brother, Neil Schultz and wife Dorothy; and her nephew Charles Raab, whose wife Betty survives. She is also survived by her niece Mary Jean Raab (John Boyer); niece Phyllis Valentine; nephew, Ken (Pam) Schultz, and great grandpuppy, Sunny.

Annie was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan in 1924. She was a member of the first graduating class of Slauson Junior High School. She graduated from Ann Arbor High School and The University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Science degree in actuarial mathematics. She worked as the bookkeeper at her husband's business, Stein & Goetz Sporting Goods Store. Together, they traveled extensively and enjoyed 40+ trips to their adopted country Switzerland. She retired in 1976 when they sold the sporting goods store to Dave Hirth and Doug Horning, who later changed the name to the M Den. She was a lifetime resident of Ann Arbor until 1990 when she and Bud began splitting their time between Ann Arbor and Tarpon Springs, Florida. In 2018 she returned permanently to live out her last years with her family in Ann Arbor.

While in Ann Arbor, she volunteered at Bud's Kiwanis club, her church, and for many of her daughter's activities growing up. She was a member of the U of M Alumni Association's Camp Michigania Camp Council, and she was the first female President of the Ann Arbor YM-YWCA. If you knew Annie, you knew her competitive streak that served her well as an accomplished local bowler, golfer, and tennis player. She still played tennis on her 90th birthday. She never met a card game she didn't win! Four days before turning 100 she won her last game of Mahjongg against dear friends. Annie's pride and joy was her granddaughter Julie who enriched her life for the past 42 years as they traveled and attended Michigan athletic events together. This past November was a very special time for her family. Julie's "Bops," Bud Stein, received an Honorary M athletic letter posthumously from the U of M's Letterwinners M Club. Annie felt overwhelmed that he would finally receive this honor that he missed when he left the university during his junior year to serve in the Navy during World War II.

There will be no funeral or memorial service. Donations in her memory can be made to the Letterwinners M Club, 1000 S. State St., Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109.

Notes for Ellen Viola Feldkamp:

Ellen V. Easudes of Sharon Township, Michigan, age 86, died peacefully Wednesday morning, December 16, 2009 at her home in the company of her daughter-in-law and youngest son. She was born March 24, 1923 in Lodi Township, the daughter of Aaron & Bertha (Finkbeiner) Feldkamp. Mrs. Easudes worked as a nurse in her youth. Her husband, Albert F. Easudes, was a friend of her brother Leon, but she first met Albert when he was brought in on a stretcher as a patient. Their flirtation and companionship during Albert's hospital stay led to marriage on July 21, 1945, after which she ceased working as a nurse and devoted her life to home and family. Those lucky enough to be close to her knew that her no-nonsense manner masked a tender heart.

She and Albert raised three sons, taking them camping and fishing and giving them what her eldest son Steve described as an "idyllic" childhood. Their grandson Jesse feels equally lucky to have been able to spend many wonderful summers with Ellen and Albert while growing up. At Albert's parents' farm, where they lived after his retirement from Ford, Ellen loved watching the wildlife and the changing seasons and feeding the many lucky birds, including her favorites, hummingbirds. She enjoyed planting flowers and making flower arrangements using beautiful wildflowers and lovely blooming weeds. She was very social, enjoying Sunday dinners at the farm with family and friends and Christmas festivities with her sons, grandson, siblings and all their families, and remaining active in her church, Zion Lutheran, for as long as she was able. For many decades Ellen kept meticulous diaries and photo albums documenting her life and the lives of family and friends.

Marriage Notes for Erwin Feldkamp and Hermine Kohler:

An attractive but simple wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kohler Saturday evening August 10, 1940, when their daughter, Hermina, became the bride of Erwin Feldkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Feldkamp, of Saline Township. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Wittbracht. The bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with a lace bodice waist and lace straps across the shoulder. Her veil was shoulder length with lace insets and held in place by a narrow tiara of roses. She carried a colonial bouquet of white rosebuds.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mildred Kohler, sister of the bride wore a floor length gown, of pale blue net and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds.The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Dorothy Kohler a sister of the bride, as the bride ascended the stairs on the arm of her bridesmaid and the entire party formed in from of groupings of palms and baskets of garden flowers Preceding the serve, Miss Hilda Hertler and Mrs. Leland Dicks, aunt of the bride sang “Oh Sweet Mystery of Life” and“I Love You Truly."

She was born 08 Feb 1920 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 24 Aug 2012 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Rudolph Clifford Feldkamp:
December 21, 1944 - Mrs. Rudolph Feldkamp received the Honor Medal of her husband, which was awarded to him for his courage and bravery in saving the lives of 50 men while serving on the Anzia beach head. Pfc. Feldkamp has been overseas 23 months and saw action in North Africa, Sicily, Italy, Anzio Beach head with the 5th Army in Rome, Southern France and is now with the 7th Army in Germany.

May 24, 1945 - Evidence of proof that Saline boys were among the conquerors of Nazi Germany are beginning to arrive in the homes of the community and Mr. and Mrs.Ruben Feldkamp are quite proud of the collection they have already received from their son, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp, of the Anit-Tank Co., 30th Infantry, with the Seventh Army. During the past couple of weeks they have not had a letter from him, but several packages have arrived with interesting contents. Just a few days ago they received one containing a German Gun, a regular shotgun with three barrels, two of which are average size and the third about have as large as the others. The cartridges are contained ina special compartment in the stock. It is complete with carrier strap.

Articles included in other packages were several steins. One was of clear glass with a patriotic crest on the front side. Another was an ornate affair of porcelain, standing almost a foot high including the cover, which was of carved metal on top of which was the replica of a German infantryman. Around the sides of the stein in vivid colors and embossing were pictures of German infantrymen and other battle scenes. An inscription around the top and another around the bottom indicated that it was a souvenir in memory of service granted during a previous war to the Duchy of Hesse and an allied province. On one side was a toast in rhyme to the valor of the German Infantry and on the other side was a toast to the Duke and the Fatherland. One cup of ordinary size had the colored picture of a patriotic crest around which was the inscription: “Wir Deutsche fuerchten Gott und Niemandanders”. (We Germans fear God and no one else). There were two briar pipes of unique shape. One bore the inscription on the bowl, hardly viable, “Heidelburg, SS 1910’’, and the other had a metal plate on the front with the words “ZurErinnerung on meineDienstzeit’’ (In memory of my period of service).

There were numerous other insignia, some presumably dedicator name plates, and fronts of plaques. Several pieces of jewelry, a traveler’s clock, a ring and necklace, bore the trademark of a Frankfurt jeweler. One package had been wrapped in a peculiar leather-like waterproof paper, and the individual articles were wrapped in the magazine sections of a Berlin paper. It is an interesting display and one thought crosses one’s mind when looking at the articles—How deeply engrained in the minds of the German people was the life of militarism and the glories of war that it was even imprinted on their pipes, glassware and earthenware. They never allowed to forget them.

August 23, 1945 – Home with his honorable discharge papers which he received at Indiantown Gap, Mil Res., Pennsylvania, August 12, 1945, Cpl. Rudolph Feldkamp served overseas 30 months during which he took part in many battles. He served with the third division of the Seventh Army in Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggis, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe.

A member of the third division, which had more causalities than any other division I the European Theatre, Cpl. Feldkamp was never injured, although having close calls. A jeep driver all of the time, he had a total of 124 points, taking part in the battles of Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggis, Rome, Arno, Southern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe. His hardest battle was on the Anzio Beachhead. Besides his truck driver’s badge Cpl. Feldkamp wore the Soldier’s Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Distinguished Unit, European, Africa, Middle Eastern Service Medal with eight bronze service stars and five overseas bars. After putting all these ribbons, stars and medals away with his uniform, the civilian now wears a small lapel button which represents his honorable discharge. It took, the corporal just four days from the time he left Casablanca, Africa, to get home and be a civilian again. He returned to the States by plane. A resident of Washtenaw County all his life, he is the husband of the former Margaret Wolf. He was in the armed forces 4 years, 5 months and 20 days. He feels pretty happy to be home again.

RUDY CELEBRATED HIS 63RD BIRTHDAY on November 16, 1980. Two days earlier, as a young man of only 62 years, Rudy Feldkamp reached another milestone that set him apart from practically everyone in this self-centered world. As he has done for many, many years, he gave another pint of blood at die Saline Red Cross Bloodmobile Clinic—and with that gift, Rudy Feldkamp became a 10-gallon giver. Red Cross officials declare that such a record is almost unheard-of anywhere. Young Rudy plans to keep adding to it, with more gifts of life. And he has a lot of helpers. Nephew Luther Marion in photo below with nurse and volunteer helper Mrs. Ed Barrett is building his pint-total just as Rudy did. Also noted as a special helper: Cathy Suiter Hills, who traveled over 100 miles to her former hometown and gave her pint here in Saline.

Rudolph C. (Rudy) Feldkamp of 8400 Weber Road, Saline 72, died suddenly February 9, 1990 in Dundee while unloading hay. He was born November 16, 1917 in Pittsfield Township, the son of Reuben and Amanda (Geisel) Feldkamp. Rudy had been a Saline area resident all of his life. He was a member of the United States Army serving in World War II. On April 3, 1942 in Tacoma, Washington, he married Margaret Wolfe of Saline and she survives. He was a member of the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom Township, and had served on the church board and cemetery committee for several years. He dedicated his life to his family and farming and had been a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and the Arnold Lake Farm Bureau Group.

Survivors in addition to his wife include: one daughter, Eleanor Feldkamp Beitelshees and her husband Terry of Saline; three beloved grandchildren, Kevin, Scott, and Kristen; two brothers, Glen Feldkamp and his wife Lucille of Saline, LeRoy and his wife Blanch of Dexter; four sisters, Mrs. Clarence (Loretta) Roehm of Saline, Mrs. Louell (Erma) Roehm of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Raymond (Alice) Wiedmayer of

Notes for Donald Richard Feldkamp:
LOCAL FAMILY IS ONE OF 22 MILLION AMERICANS CARING FOR A LOVED ONE AT HOME

Donald Feldkamp, 70, refused to let his wife become isolated and separated from a life they shared for so many years. Donald is a caregiver. The family farm is still in operation after nearly thirty-six years of ownership. It is a place where his wife, Elizabeth Feldkamp, 70, spent countless hours tending the neat rows of corn and soybeans and, in the early days, raising steers and pigs. Now, when she looks out onto this 80-acre site in Saline, she leans unsteadily on the support of her husband, Donald. A fear of falling and a confused mental state caused by Alzheimer's has made her reluctant to go anywhere, but Donald refuses to let Elizabeth become housebound and isolated. This has become more of a challenge for him since he suffered a setback of his own, with heart surgery in September and a follow-up regimen of physical therapy.

Donald is not alone. It is estimated that one in four homes in America has a caregiver responsible for most of the needs of someone in poor health fifty years or older and that figure is expected to increase. On March 1, the Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross will launch a new program -Family Care giving. This is a nine-part program of one hour classes that help participants provide better care and gain an understanding of several different care giving issues, such as safety, nutrition, general care, legal and financial issues. Classes can be taken singly and in any order.

When asked, how he manages caring for his wife when he has his own health concerns, he responded, "At the moment I am limited by what I can and should do around the house and farm, but my duties and love for my wife never falter. We are up by seven, washed, dressed and breakfasted by 8:15 when my daughter picks up my wife and takes her to Help Source an adult day care center."

He goes on to say that not all days run that smoothly. "When the barometer drops it is terrible. It takes her over. The brain just doesn't function. She is unable to walk, and I worry about her falling, and she has fallen. Those are not good days," Donald explained.

If you are caring for a parent, spouse or friend at home, you know that ensuring a safe environment and providing even the most basic care can be overwhelming. Family Care giving offers a helping hand. The first classes will be offered in March. For more information about these classes or to register for a class call the Red Cross at (734) 971-5300. Through special arrangements, Help Source will provide respite care for caregivers who wish to attend a class but need assistance with their loved one during their absence.

Donald Feldkamp passed away on July 6, 2018 in Saline. Michigan. He was born September 23, 1933 in Saline, Michigan to Omer and Meleda (Finkbeiner) Feldkamp. Donald was Baptized and a Confirmed member at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Saline, Michigan his entire life. On July 20, 1955, he married Elizabeth May Marion at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Saline. Donald was an active member of the church and served on many church boards over the years. Donald was a member of the IBEW Local #252 and had worked at Arrow Electric before retiring to be the devoted care giver for the love of his life Elizabeth, during her later years with Alzheimer's. Donald was a Korean War Veteran and a very proud farmer in Saline for over 50 years.

Donald is survived by three children; David (Linda A.) Feldkamp of Ann Arbor, Linda S. Feldkamp of Saline, and Patricia (David) Eck of Saline; four grandchildren; Andrea (Adam) Raymo, Leah Feldkamp, Brandon Feldkamp & Justin Eck; two brothers Frederick Feldkamp and Earl (Ellen) Feldkamp. He is also survived by close brother and sister-in-laws; Mary (Luther) Nagel, Carolyn (Glenn) Eschelbach and Margaret Marion.

In addition to his parents and wife Elizabeth, he was preceded in death by one brother Eldean Feldkamp and two sisters, Betty Fiegel and Irene Schneider.

Visitation will be held on Monday, July 9, 2018 from 2-8pm at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Saline, Michigan. Funeral Service will be held on Tuesday, July 10, 2018 with visitation at 10am until time of service at 11 am at the church with Rev. Mark Smith officiating. Burial will take place at a later date. Notes for Earl Gerald Mann:
EARL GERALD MANN:
FOCUS - Mill's history spans the 20th century
By Nancy Hebb, Special Writer
In 1988 when E.G. Mann and Sons threw a picnic party to celebrate 50 years of the family's service to area farmers, more than 600 customers and friends joined the Mann's for food and fun. Back then, the future looked bright, with the family's fourth generation entering the business as Eric Mann graduated from Michigan State University. This past week, customers and friends came to the E. G. Mann and Sons mill and store on Boettner Road in Bridgewater to commiserate, reminisce, and buy. It was the last chance to get bulk fertilizer and other field applications, feeds, and farming essentials from the historic business, whose doors closed at the end of September.

Glen Mann, the family historian, talked to farmers outside the store as Vic Mann wrote out bulk fertilizer orders and Glen's wife Pat and their daughter Kerry Mann McGuire took care of customers looking for everything from bird feeders to cat toys. Kerry's brother Eric moved between store and mill, doing whatever needed doing. More than a few older men in farm boots hung around, the smiles on their faces bittersweet.

The closing of E. G. Mann and Sons marks the passing of an era that actually began in 1915. Back then, when Bridgewater was a daily stop on the New York Central rail line, Charles Schurer and William Rentschler built the first Bridgewater Elevator. Schurer and Rentschler were farmers, wool buyers and sellers, and entrepreneurs. They started the Bridgewater Bank, and Schurer continued to manage the elevator after 1918 when it became a farmers' cooperative, The Farmers Produce Company, consisting of 80 farmer stockholders.

Ernest G. Mann, Glen and Vic's grandfather, started working at the co-op in 1926. By 1927 he was the manager, so devoted to the mill and elevator operation that he moved from his farm, located in Freedom Township where Hickory Sticks Golf Course now stands, to Mr. Schurer's house in Bridgewater. By 1938, Mann was eager to branch out from bulk grains and standard milling operations. He proposed selling bagged feeds, but met with resistance from the other shareholders. August Henes and Ray Rentschler bought out the other elevator stockholders that same year. With a view to the future, and unbeknownst to the co-op shareholders, Mann rented the old dance hall located further north on Boettner Road, bought a new truck, and sent his son Earl (Vic and Glen's father) to Ohio for a load of bagged feeds. "When the guys at the mill saw Earl driving by in that new truck, they asked Ernest what Earl was doing," Glen said with a grin. "When my grandfather told them he was opening a feed store in the old dance hall, they said 'Come inside, we need to talk.'"

Ernest opened his feed store in the dance hall on Feb. 7, 1938. A week later, together with his sons Willard and Earl, he purchased Farmers Produce Co. and moved the bagged feed business to the company's current office and store location next to the elevator. So began the history of E. G. Mann and Sons. At that time, farmers were getting 88 cents a bushel for wheat; Mann & Sons charged 62 cents a bushel for corn and 48 cents a bushel for oats. Chicken feed was $2.10 for a hundred pounds, 16% protein dairy cow feed cost $1.90 for a hundred pounds, feed grade livestock salt was $1.10 for a hundred pounds, and a five-seater Ford car could be bought for $600-$700, about the same amount a Model T cost in 1915 when the elevator was built. After only two years, the Mann's bought the Manchester Mill from William Blaess. Willard became the manager in Manchester, and took an active role in the business there until he retired in 1976.

In 1952, Ernest sold his portion of the business to his grandsons Glen and Vic. Willard's son Ron also became a shareholder. The company incorporated in 1963 with Earl and his wife Billie, and Willard and his wife Dorothy, as principal stockholders. When Earl died in 1968, Glen, Vic and their cousin Ron took over more shares.

Willard retired in 1976, and his stock in E.G. Mann and Sons was bought out by Billie, Glen and Vic. Ron Mann became owner of the Manchester Mill, running it as Mann's Feed Mill. "Mom did a lot of the bookkeeping and paperwork," Glen said. "She was here almost every day and was an important part of the business," just as Glen's wife Pat and their children, Eric and Kerry, became. "Mom and I work really well together," Kerry Mann McGuire proclaims. Together, they hope to open a retail and service business in Bridgewater, taking the king-of-the-counter cat, Waffles, to their new establishment. "He'll enjoy basking in the sun as well there as here, I imagine," Pat hopes.

While Vic Mann plans on managing a bagged feed and animal supplies business for Bridgewater Lumber, the other Mann's aren't sure what their future holds. Right now, Glen and Eric are looking forward to hunting season. "It's economics," Glen said in summary when explaining the family's decision to close now. Not only is the number of farms decreasing, but farm commodities themselves haven't kept pace with the rest of the country's economy. While land values and taxes increase, farm equipment prices rise, seed and fertilizer increase in cost, but the value of what the farmer produces hasn't risen proportionately.

In 1988 when spirits were high and the 50th anniversary picnic took place, oats were $2 per bushel compared to 48 cents in '38, corn was $2.39 per bushel compared to 62 cents fifty years before, and feed grade salt was $9.90 for a hundred pounds, compared to $1.10 when the company began.

On September 19, as the family contemplated the close of their four-generation mill, elevator, and store, corn was $2.42 a bushel, just three cents more than 15 years before or just under four times the 1938 price; wheat was $3.84 a bushel compared to the 88 cents it brought in '38, and oats were $1.78 a bushel, just three and a half times the value 65 years ago. Putting that into perspective, if car prices rose at the same pace as grain, we would be able to buy a five-person car for somewhere between around $2,000 to $3,000 today.

With so much agricultural land now converted to smaller parcels and residential tracts, the need for a 70,000-bushel capacity elevator and bulk fertilizer and field applications in the immediate area has diminished almost as significantly as the price of automobiles has inflated. Unless someone takes over the elevator and mill with an eye to continuing the services E. G. Mann's provided, farmers will have to go further to fill their bulk grain and field application needs.

But, "there just aren't as many farms needing our services," Glen concludes. While the equipment and buildings that comprise E. G. Mann and Sons may fall under the auctioneer's gavel soon, the family's pride in servicing the farm community for 65 years and four generations will not be so easily disbursed. The Mann family has earned a crucial place in the agricultural history of the area.

Notes for Erwin C. Feldkamp:

April 23, 1953 - Mr. Erwin Feldkamp, Supervisor of Production Control at the Ford Manchester Plant, resides in Bridgewater. Mr. Feldkamp has been a resident of this area all of his life. He graduated from Saline High School in 1935. Prior to his ten years of service with the Ford Motor Company, Mr. Feldkamp was employed at Goodyear's. He is the father of three children and served as director of the Bridgewater Station School.

Lifelong Bridgewater resident and 37-year Ford Motor Company employee, Erwin Feldkamp, 63, will retire February 29, 1980 from his position as-Superintendent of Material Handling at the Saline plant — and as fate has it, Erwin is working a day extra, this being Leap Year Week! "Ford has been real good to me; it's a good company to work for," Erwin says. Throughout Erwin's years at Ford, his wife Esther and their family have been an important part of his life. "My wife, Esther Wackenhut before we were married, is a local girl and we've known each other our whole lives," Erwin says. "We were married in 1939 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater." In 1943 Erwin quit a job with Goodyear Department Store as home furnishing salesman and installation man — he tiled the basement of the Curtiss Mansion as his first job -- to join Ford. He took a considerable pay cut. "I decided that to get into Ford Motor Co. would be better for the future," Erwin explains. The day after Erwin quit Goodyear's and was hired by Ed Hering at the Ford Soybean Mill (now Weller's), he started as astock handler.

Between that first Ford job and the one he has now, Erwin has been transferred to different jobs and plants seven times. Most of the moves have involved promotions, but he had another reason for welcoming the last change, to head of Material Handling at the Saline plant."I like this last job the best because of the people I work 3- with and because the plant's near home. I like being in my oldhome town!" Erwin says.

Erwin was born in 1916 on the farm where he was 3 raised, in Saline Township. After elementary grades in a one-room school, he attended the Saline Public School's original Union School building for one semester and then helped,move fixtures, etc. to the new building - today's UnionSchool."I remember the old school's rickety stairways," Erwinsays.He graduated from high school May 29, 1935. "Saline has changed tremendously since then; I used to know everyone in town ... funny the way it grows," Erwin says. "Now I read names of streets, in the paper, and I don't even know where they are ... So many names of peopletoo, and I don't know them anymore."But no matter how big Saline grows, Erwin will never losetrack of his family and old friends.

Erwin and Esther have three sons and one daughter. They are: Bob, a Millwright, currently full time Union Representative for Skilled Trades, married to Nancy who owns Arbor's Beauty Shop in Tecumseh; James who works in Sales andPricing in Ford's Electric and Electronic Division at the Ford Rawsonville Plant, married to Carolyn who teaches school in Adrian; Dave, the manager of Lenawee Tire and Auto Supply Co. in Adrian, married to Karol, a teacher in Clinton. Their daughter Kathy is a Research Assistant for the Michigan Evaluation and Resource Center in Ann Arbor. Erwin and Esther have seven grandchildren.

Erwin's mother, who will be 88 soon, lives in the-; Evangelical Home, Saline. His brothers and sisters are: Harold of Saline, LeRoy of Adrian, and Arlene Hoeft of Ann Arbor. J Erwin and Esther belong to St. John's Church, where they were married. Through the years Erwin has served his church and community in many ways, as a Director of the old grade school in Bridgewater, Director of the Zoning Board in Bridgewater Township, President of the Church Council; and he is currently serving on the Board of Directors of Saline Community Hospital. He has won the Ford Motor Co. Citizenship Award for his years of community service. "I plan to stay in the automotive business, in the sales end, on a part-time basis," Erwin says for the future. Even so, without a doubt, his buddies at the plant will miss him dearly. Erwin's co-workers have planned a retirement party for him at the American Legion Hall, Friday, March 21.

RETIRING THIS FRIDAY FROM FORD'S, after a 37-year career with the automaker, Erwin Feldkamp reminisces about the good old days. A grouping of Taylor Jacobsen's prints of Old Time Saline, which hangs in the front office at the local Ford Plant, shows some of the buildings that Erwin's life has been involved with. Gordon McKay, Operations Manager at today's Saline Plant, is a willing audience as Erwin points to the shed at the former Soybean Plant [now Weller's] where he-, first worked for Ford. Feldkamp attended the old three-story Union School on McKay and Ann Arbor St. for one year, then helped move into the present-day Union School where he graduated in 1935. He did his banking at the old three-story Citizens Bank and his first job, with Goodyear's Department Store, took him to the Curtiss Mansion for a tiling installation.

Erwin C. Feldkamp of Bridgewater, Michigan, age 88, died Saturday, June 5, 2004 at Saline Community Hospital, as a consequence of congestive heart failure. Mr. Feldkamp was born June 22, 1916, in Bridgewater, MI, son of Clarence and Lillie (Weber) Feldkamp. He had been a resident of Bridgewater all of his life and affectionately known too many as the Mayor of Bridgewater. On June 22, 1939, he was married to Esther Wackenhut and she preceded him in death on April 21, 1998. Erwin was a life member of the St. John's Lutheran Church, also in Bridgewater, Michigan. In his professional life, Mr. Feldkamp was employed by Ford Motor Company for 38 years, retiring in 1980. After retiring from Ford he continued employment at George Underwood Lincoln-Mercury Ford Dealership in Clinton, MI, as a car and truck salesperson.

Erwin's survivors include four children, Robert (Pamela) Feldkamp, James (Carolyn) Feldkamp, all of Tecumseh, David (Karol) Feldkamp of Adrian, Michigan, and Kathy (Randy) Johnson of Scotts Valley, California. Other survivors include twelve grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; one brother, Leroy of Adrian, Michigan; one sister, Arlene Hoeft of Huntington, WV; a sister-in-law, Rena Feldkamp of Saline; and several nieces and nephews. In addition to his wife, Esther; he was preceded in death by one brother, Harold Feldkamp. Erwin was a loving father, grandfather, and husband and will be greatly missed.

Funeral services will be held 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 9, 2004 at the St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater, MI, with Rev Kurt Peterson officiating. Burial will follow in the St John's Lutheran Church cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the St John's steeple/elevator fund, or the charity of one's choice. Notes for John Charles Feldkamp:

May 1985 - Already planning to rebuild their fire-damaged farmhouse, the John Feldkamp's are grateful today that there's anything left to restore. A blaze that began Monday morning, in the large barn a short distance upwind from the Feldkamp farmhouse, came close to destroying the family homestead that dates back more than a century.

The fire was jetting through the barn roof when discovered by Glenn Mann, spraying a nearby field. John Feldkamp and his wife had already left for work—he in Manchester and she in Ann Arbor. Their daughter Tammy was alone in the house. Mann raced to the house, gave her the alarm, and the Saline Area Fire Department was called.

The crew responded quickly, but the entire barn was ablaze when they arrived. The Saline volunteers—plus crews from Pittsfield, Milan, Clinton, Manchester and Dexter, 38 units of equipment altogether—put most of their effort into saving the Feldkamp home. The flames, whipped by a breeze that aimed straight for the house, destroyed several outbuildings around the barn, and the flying sparks and intense heat finally set the upper level of the house afire. But a nearby building that reportedly contained ammunition and explosives was saved. If it had gone, the house would have gone too, and possibly some of the firemen who braved the heat and smoke and danger to keep both buildings well-soaked with water.

The roof of the house was mostly destroyed, and the interior was water-damaged. But the structure was saved, and the Feldkamp's quickly decided to restore it. Friends reported Tuesday that the rebuilding will begin as soon as possible. Loss estimates vary from $50,000 to twice as much. Firemen agreed that the blaze was their worst in a long time. Heat from the barn fire set truck and tractor tires ablaze halfway across the yard. Welding chemicals and propane tanks exploded sporadically. Saline's Engine No. 5 Was threatened for a time when heat and flying sparks ignited a protective tarp and some hose, and also set the engine's carburetor ablaze. But alert crewmen quickly doused the flare-ups. An ambulance stood by during much of Thursday. But Craig Hoeft of Saline was apparently the only one who needed; it. He was treated at Saline Hospital for smoke inhalation, and released. Also on hand was the SAFD canteen, ready with sandwiches, coffee, soft drinks. The volunteer crews fought the fire for seven hot, exhausting hours, and the food and drink helped. Also helpful were the Allie Finkbeiner's, whose gravel pit nearby on Michigan Avenue supplied the water needed to keep the tankers in business. A longer run, to a city hydrant, would possibly have whipped the firemen's efforts. To keep the tankers moving, David Finkbeiner directed traffic, clearing the path onto the highway from their drive.

The firemen were still on hand when the Feldkamp's and friends began the immense cleanup job. Tammy—who plans to marry in August—arid Karl, who is slated to graduate from Saline High in early June—are part of the cleanup team, and the near-disaster at their home won't change their big dates. John Feldkamp's collection of old guns is reportedly saved. The family is staying temporarily with neighbors and friends—the Dennis Perkins, Daniel Hoeft's, and the Cornelius family—and there's a possibility that they'll use a camper for their home during the rebuilding. Help from friends and neighbors, from the Red Cross and the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, was offered even before the heat of the fire died down. And by sundown Monday, friends and neighbors had completely cleaned the interior of the house. "We're so very grateful," Mrs. Feldkamp said.

Notes for Leona Evelyn Rue:

Leona Evelyn Rue Luckhardt of Stuart, Florida, 96, passed away peacefully on Saturday, September 12, 2015. She was born in 1919, the youngest of the two daughters of Charles H. and Lois E. Rue. As a young child Leona (Nonie) lived in Michigan, but by age 5, she and family had moved to Stuart where Charles and his father, Henry Rue, had purchased a confectionery shop on Flagler Avenue (Rue's Sweet Shop). Leona was a lifelong resident of Martin County. One of her treasured memories was of participating with classmates in the 1926 parade celebrating the formation of the county. Her church affiliation was first with All Saints Church in Waveland and then with St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Stuart, where she was a member of its first junior choir in the early '30s.

She graduated from Stuart High School in 1939 and worked as a nurse's aide at the newly opened Martin County Hospital. During World War II Leona was a civilian volunteer for the Aircraft Warning Service, as an observer for enemy aircraft, ships and submarines from a watch tower on Jupiter Island, her residence at that time. By 1948, Leona had moved to the Casa Terrace subdivision in Stuart, where she raised her children and lived for the remaining 67 years of her life. She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, Unity Chapter #37 and participated in The Woman's Club of Stuart and also The Garden Club. As a young adult she worked at the Lyric Theatre, Martin County Hospital, Johnson's Dime Store, St. Onge's Grocery and the Firestone Store. In later years she was manager of the Mayfair Theatre and an index clerk at the court house until her retirement in 1985.

Leona was devoted to her parents and was a caring, much beloved mother to her own three children, Grant, Greg and Elisa. She was regarded as a 'second' mom by many of her children's friends as well as those who lived in her neighborhood, often playing with or joining in the youngsters' games. In the late '50s she was involved with the school Band Boosters Club. Leona had countless friends in the community and in earlier years knew most everyone in town. In the late 1980s she organized a Reunion Cruise for classmates and alumni of Stuart High. Being an animal lover since childhood she had owned many pets, most recently a poodle named Shadow, a constant companion. Leona had a deep affection for music and could remember the entire tune and lyrics of hundreds of songs. She also had an innate artistic sense and received a degree in Interior Design. As a lifetime hobby she especially liked scrapbooking and saved photos, documents, memorabilia and other keepsakes through the years, much of which is related to Stuart's history. Leona was a member of Stuart Heritage Museum and retained a wealth of information about the early community and its citizens. She was a guest speaker at museum programs and also recounted stories of life in Martin County for the "Floridays" series radio broadcast.

She is dearly missed by her loving family. Leona was predeceased by her sister, Leila Rue Komara. She is survived by her children: Dr. C. Grant Luckhardt (Arabelle) of Santa Fe, New Mexico, Greg E. Luckhardt (Alice) and Elisa Austin (Jerry) of Stuart, one granddaughter, Cassandra L. Luckhardt (Marco Spinello) of Amsterdam, the Netherlands and one grandson, Brian Austin (Bridget) of Port St. Lucie.

Inurnment will be held at a later date at a private family ceremony in Fernhill Cemetery, Stuart. Anyone who wishes can make contributions in Leona's name to Stuart Heritage Museum, 161 SW Flagler Avenue, Stuart, FL, 34994.

Notes for Charles Lambert Hoppock:
Charles L. Hoppock, 91, went home to his Savior on July 22, 2018. Memorial service 10:30 am, Thursday, July 26, at Bethel Life Center. He is survived by his wife, Wanda; son, Dr. Kevin (Lori) Hoppock; daughter, Karen (Tate) Smith; brother, Jack (Betty) Hoppock; sister, Regina Nelson; 6 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Charles was born Nov. 8, 1926 in a farmhouse south of Mound Valley in southeastern Kansas. Born to Freeman and Delpha Hoppock, Charles became the fourth generation of Hoppocks to work the farms of the county and learned early how to work hard helping the family get by during the Great Depression. He had two brothers, Gerald and Jack, and one sister, Regina. Although the times were tough, he would always smile as he talked about early life with his siblings. Not so much about the backbreaking work as the hunting and fishing, as well as the school programs that became the social center of the community. Although farm life helped to form him, after receiving an effective technical education in Altamont, he made his way to the aircraft manufacturing plants of Wichita, where he lived and worked before and throughout WWII. He completed an extensive apprenticeship to become a tool and die maker, and when he joined the army, he was sent to Germany to run an instrument repair shop.
He met his wife, Wanda, through mutual friends while working at Beech Aircraft. After a short courtship they were married and began their family, adding Kevin in 1964 and Karen in 1968. Charles left the manufacturing and machining world to pursue an opportunity to start a business of his own. He spent nearly twenty years building and growing a cosmetic franchise. After the business closed, he and Wanda began slowly acquiring property that they rented out. They lived frugally, worked those properties hard, and invested the difference. Through hard work and persistence over many years, they transitioned from generational poverty to relative wealth and diligently instilled those values and principles in their family.
Three organizations that received his very best were the church, through his tireless labor at Calvary Assembly of God; the Boy Scouts, where he earned a Silver Beaver award for leadership and served as assistant district commissioner, fund raiser, and camp inspector; and of course, his family, which he saw as his primary life's calling.
In addition to his six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren (one who is his namesake), Charles leaves a powerful legacy that includes the centrality of family, the value of hard work, and a habitual gratitude for the rich blessings and beauty that surround us all.

Beginning in 2001, the Robert Whitney Newcomb Memorial Fund has endowed an annual lecture in neuroscience and one or more internships per year for high-school students and graduate fellows at the National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS).

The Fund was established by the family of the late Dr. Newcomb. Before his death in 2000 at age 44, Dr. Newcomb was passionately devoted to brain research. He first came to NIH as a junior in high school, and thanks to his mentor, Dr. Claude Klee, he became a protein chemist at the age of 17. Dr. Newcomb received his doctorate from the University of Hawaii and gave up the second year of his Presidential Young Investigator Award to accept his first NIH grant. Dr. Newcomb's association with NIH continued as he later served on NIH study panels. The Newcomb family established this memorial fund because NIH is the most appropriate place to further Dr. Newcomb's work on brain research and the chemical basis of stroke and aging.

This program is only available to Maryland students, who are at least 16 years old and whose home school is either in the Downcounty Consortium, the Northeast Consortium, or Seneca Valley, Watkins Mill or Gaithersburg.

Heather Feldkamp, 44, discovered her Lyme disease infection too late. The Saline resident was a very active soccer player when, in January 2013, her right leg started going numb. "I thought it was sciatica," a pinched nerve condition, she said. "I went to the chiropractor a couple of times. Eventually, my left leg started going numb as well. I was starting to limp. I couldn't play soccer anymore."

Heather Feldkamp was active and athletic before being diagnosed with both breast cancer and Lyme disease. Feldkamp's cancer is in remission, but the Lyme disease has left her permanently disabled. Feldkamp said her primary care physician was baffled and sent her to a neurologist, who conducted an MRI. Then came a spinal tap, and the coincidental discovery that she had cancer. She beat breast cancer within that year, but the tingling and impinged motion continued. Her primary care doctor and oncologist thought the symptoms were somehow related to her cancer, but Feldkamp was skeptical.

She went to a holistic doctor in Ann Arbor, versed in Lyme disease, at her own expense. "She tests me and says, 'You don't have cancer in your nerves; you're full of Lyme,'" Feldkamp recalled. Sharing that news with her other doctors brought pushback, she said. "They told me, 'We don't have Lyme (here),'" she said. A blood test was shipped to a lab in California. Weeks later, Feldkamp received a call from the Washtenaw County Health Department. "Where have you been? Where have you been traveling?" she said they asked. Her test had come back positive for Lyme disease. "I hadn't traveled," she said. "I live on a dairy farm. We've got a lot of trees, a lot of cattle, deer." Feldkamp doesn't recall a tick bite, or the signature bull's-eye rash that often develops after one. "I could have had it for a year. Maybe it laid dormant," she said. "I was told I could have gotten bit on my head, where you never see the bite, because it's covered by your hair."

Feldkamp said she never got her primary care doctor, neurologist, or oncologist to take Lyme disease seriously. "And once I started being vocal about it on Facebook, I started hearing from all these other people suffering from Lyme disease who've had a similar experience with their doctors," she said. According to the Infectious Diseases Society of America, taking certain types of antibiotics for up to three weeks is the best course of treatment when Lyme disease is discovered early. Longer courses of antibiotics, possibly administered repeatedly over several months, are called for when the disease is caught later. More problematic, however, is when tests show the disease is gone, but debilitating symptoms remain, known as post-Lyme disease syndrome.

"There is no well-accepted definition of post–Lyme disease syndrome," a 2006 study published by the Infectious Diseases Society of America stated. "This has contributed to confusion and controversy and to a lack of firm data on its incidence, prevalence and (manner of development)."There's even debate in the medical community about what causes post-Lyme disease syndrome, Foster said. "Some people say it's still the spirochetes" — the spiral shaped, Lyme disease-causing bacterium — "that are still there, gone into cyst form," he said. "Others say the spirochetes are no longer there, but the initial infection is still causing an auto-immune response, and the body is attacking itself."The lack of answers, and outright skepticism sufferers can face from medical professional, have led to passionate responses, Foster said. "They're hurting, they want to get to the bottom of these infections," he said.

Feldkamp remains in remission for cancer, but now needs the assistance of a cane, more than four years later."I walk with a limp, my leg's still numb," she said. "But I'm still alive. It is what it is. I've got to keep moving on."

He married Nancy Jean Haynes 22 Jul 1978 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Roland Haynes. She was born 09 Feb 1952.

Notes for Kenneth George Feldkamp:

Kenneth Feldkamp of Clinton, Michigan age 64, died Tuesday, December 26, 2017, at his home. Kenneth was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan on September 10, 1953 to the late Milton and Margaret (Finkbeiner) Feldkamp. Ken married Nancy Haynes on July 22, 1978 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. In addition to his wife, Ken is survived by his daughter, Amy (Bryan) Marr of Britton, Michigan; son, John Feldkamp of Ypsilanti, Michigan; and grandchildren, Aiden and Allison Marr. He is also survived by siblings Diane (Earl) Horning, Albert Feldkamp, and Janet (Jase) Wholehan, as well as many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents. Ken was a lifelong farmer on the family farm in Saline with his brother, Albert. Throughout their farming careers, the "Feldkamp Brothers" enjoyed raising pigs and crops, as well as going to auctions and farm shows. Throughout his childhood, Ken was a member of the Saline 4-H Farmers, Saline High School Future Farmers of America Chapter, and Saline Steer Club. While in these groups, he participated in showing animals and on judging teams, even traveling to and competing in several State and National 4-H and FFA Conventions. This love of showing animals carried into the rest of his life, as he was proud to help his children, niece, nephew, great-nieces, and great-nephews prepare their own animals, especially their pigs, for 4-H and other local fairs. Ken graduated from Saline High School in 1972, and following his graduation, began a career at Saline Area Schools as a custodian. It was there that he met his future wife, Nancy. "Mr. Kenny" truly enjoyed working with the staff in his various buildings over the years, but his favorite part was spending time with and helping the children who attended his schools. He retired from Saline Area Schools in 2010, after 38 years of service to the district. His family was incredibly important to Ken. The greatest joys of Ken's life were raising his children, Amy and John, and in recent years, being Grandpa to Aiden and Allison and spending time with them whenever he could. Ken was also a lifetime member of St. James United Church of Christ in Saline.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, December 30, 2017 at 11:00 A.M. at St. James United Church of Christ, 11005 W. Michigan Ave., Saline, with Pastor John Deuble officiating. Visitation will be held at St. James United Church of Christ on Friday, December 29 from 2:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. and Saturday, December 30, 2017 from 10:00 A.M. until the time of the service at 11:00 A.M. Burial will take place at the St. James United Church of Christ Cemetery following the service. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. James United Church of Christ and envelopes will be available at the church.

Notes for Ronald Ernest Mann:
The Manchester Enterprise - Thursday, May 14, 2009 - By Daniel Lai, Staff Writer

After 14 years serving as special assessment coordinator for the Washtenaw County Water Resources Commission, local resident Ron Mann is stepping down. I have a lot of things I would like to do and this affords me the ability to take some time for myself," he said. Mann, who was also recently elected to another four-year term as supervisor for Manchester Township, said his retirement from the county will allow him more time to spend in the township.

"I have worked two jobs for the last 20 years and the supervisor position has been a lot more demanding recently," he said. "I wouldn't say I will have more time, but by working one job, I can spend less nights and Saturday mornings in the township office." Mann said over the years he has come to enjoy his responsibilities as a special assessment coordinator. "I enjoy working with the county and local units of government," he said. "I also enjoy working with people."

Mann said his interest in politics and a knack for crunching numbers led him to apply for the position over a decade ago. "With my assessment training in the township, this job fit right in," he said. "I've always been a numbers person and with my background, this jump seemed a logical step for me." However, he said he didn't expect to remain with the county as long as he has.

"I didn't figure I would be here for 14 years," he said. "The average person goes through seven different careers in their life; maybe I have a few more left." As an assessment coordinator, Mann is responsible for determining how to allocate the cost of sewer repairs to the county's 500 drain districts. "Anytime we do work on a drain -- from dredging to clearing out trees – the costs are appropriated to the district that the sewer is located in. It's my responsibility to come up with a fair and equitable system that can work with the township governments," he said.

Each year the Water Resources Commission handles $1.5 to $2 million in sewer work which is spread over 60 to 85,000 parcels of land and 100 districts. "I have enjoyed working at the county and I will miss the people, but I will be around," Mann said. One accomplishment Mann is proud of is the number of interns that have gone on to find jobs across the country. "I've had 54 interns that have worked with me and almost everyone of th said they were able to get a job because of their experience in Washtenaw County," he said. "Real world experience gave them the insight they needed to succeed."

Mann's last official day will be May 21. A special retirement party will be held at noon at the Washtenaw Western Service Center, 705 N. Zeeb Road; Ann Arbor. With more free time, Mann said he looks forward to spending time with his six grandkids and traveling with his wife. He also plans to continue volunteering at the Manchester Chicken Broil and Manchester Fair. "I will definitely be hanging around the community," he said. She was a Washtenaw Co. 4-H Leader for over 45 years and continued to support her Grandchildren and honorary Fair Grandchildren to this day. She loved animals especially her cows, and loved to watch her daughters and granddaughters work with Fair animals on her farm on cool summer evenings. She was an exceptional Wife, Mother, Grandmother and Friend. Debbie will be greatly missed and forever cherished in the hearts of anyone she touched. Debbie's family would like to request that in lieu of Flowers family and friends consider making a Donation in Debbie's name to the Washtenaw Co. 4H Youth Show where she spent over 50 years of her life every Summer, where her encouragement, spirit, and love always "Made the Best Better".

Notes for Margaret Marleen Luckhardt:

Margaret Marlene Comfort 79, of Saline, Michigan passed away peacefully on Monday, June 28, 2021. Marlene went to bed on the night of the 27th, and, after a long and restful nap, found herself with her Lord Jesus in Heaven on the night of the 28th. Any recollection of Marlene's life would be remiss without discussion of what she believed to be her primary calling: that of a Foster Parent primarily (but not limited) to newborn children. It was her joy to provide love and care for these children between the time they were born and could find adoptive parents; a time frame that lasted from days to years for each child. In her later years Marlene trained for and became additionally certified to care for medically challenged children. Over her many years of service in this vocation over sixty children could, for a time, call Marlene "Mom."

Marlene's other interests and talents included arts and crafts (she was particularly known for her tatted cross bookmarks and crocheted blankets for newborns); animals (she was especially fond of Dachshunds and horses), and following the Detroit Tigers. She was a member of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Saline.

Marlene was born on May 12th, 1942, to Leo Luckhardt and Lorena (Kohler) Luckhardt, both of whom precede her in death. She is survived by her sister Loraine (Luckhardt) Harwick; her brother Doug Luckhardt; her two children, George (Janet) Ragle, and Daniel (Beth) Ragle; three grandchildren, Maureen Lauer, Nicole Ragle, and Ashley Ragle; and several nieces, nephews, and great-grandchildren.

Notes for Ronald Elmer Diuble:

Lodi Twp, Michigan, Jan. 27, 2002 - The guys at Diuble Equipment and Peg Diuble, too don't feel like they're on the endangered species list Yes, in 1940 there were 14 farm equipment dealerships ' in Washtenaw County, and now there are three left the kind that sell big tractors and harvesting equipment, not just suburban lawn mowers. It's true that 24,049 acres went out of agricultural production in Washtenaw County between 1987 and 1997. But those statistics don't spell doom to three generations of Diubles (pronounced "Di-blees). With a ready grin, a Diuble Equipment cap pushed slightly back over his white hair, Elmer Diuble, 80, leans on the counter inside the Lodi Township store and repair shop. He looks forward to dozens of familiar faces and the chance to chew the fat about good hay-baling weather, the relatively poor soybean crop, or his view that the U.S. needs to rely on its own farmers for food considering the recent terrorist attacks.

He founded the company 34 years ago. Now his son Ron Diuble, daughter-in-law Peg and three grandsons, Scott, Mike and Kevin Diuble, run the business. And business is good, they say. Judging by loyal customers such as George Schnierie - he's stopped by to check on the new $135,000 combine he ordered - area farmers, along with more recent country dwellers, are buying enough to keep this venerable family business a going concern. Used tractors in faded oranges and reds stake but the boundaries of the gravel lot around the business. But the gleaming Agco tractors with 6-foot wheels and air-conditioned cabs near the door tell you this place is headquarters for 21st century farmers, not a sentimental resting place for vintage machines.

Looking beyond the tall signs announcing that Bobcat, Hesston, Simplicity and six other lines of agricultural equipment are sold here, you can see the neat white farmhouse where Elmer Diuble has lived and farmed since 1956. He still goes to work daily. Richard Miller stopped in recently to buy $61 worth of baler twine. He lives in Dexter and farms near Grass Lake, but he'll often swing south to the big steel building. "I'll go out of my way to come here for parts, because they'll usually have them," he says. Schnierle's new combine is the fifth he's bought from the Diubles. At 69, Schnierie farms 380 acres and does 900 acres of custom work around Washtenaw County. "They always keep you moving," he says. Take the day he called Diuble 40 minutes before the store's closing time when his equipment broke down. "They brought me the gear to the field," he says. Past filters, oil, generators and riding mowers, customers swivel on three padded stools at the counter, where they can josh with one another as they look for parts in catalogs or plunk down a mower blade needing repair. A lot of information gets swapped here. "I really like these guys," says Mark McCullough, who has a tractor from his landscaping business being repaired. "I don't go anywhere else for the services and products they provide." On this day, he's giving the staff a good-natured hard time: His tractor's not ready. The Diubles are giving him a loaner. "It's like a small-town type of atmosphere," says McCullough.

"We've got over 100 years of experience, total," Elmer Diuble says. He's got 61. In 1940, he began selling farm equipment at Ann Arbor Implement. "I helped sell horse-drawn equipment when I started," he says. Now his youngest grandson, Kevin Diuble, 27, is Diuble Equipment's resident electronics technician for complex, versatile tractors and harvesters' farmers now use. Agco's biggest combines list at $235,000. Diuble sells about four a year. The company also gets an important chunk of its income from the increasing demand for smaller equipment: riding lawn mowers, Bobcat snow sweeper-road scrapers and the like. But its core business still is with farmers. Some come from Lenawee and Monroe counties. Ron Diuble heads the operation. But you'd never know it, says his dad, because he's not tucked away in his cramped office. "We have no dead wood here," Elmer Diuble says. Peg, Ron's wife, has kept the books for the business for nearly a dozen years. But Elmer Diuble says he left it up to his offspring to decide whether they wanted to work in the family business. "They all had a trial job elsewhere," he says. Customers can order "Field-star" on-board computers that measure yields from different parts of the field during harvesting and record differing moisture levels. The information helps farmers tailor fertilizer amounts for next year. Mike Score thinks he knows why the Diubles' business is surviving.

"They focus on building relationships with customers and then maintaining them." Score, the agricultural agent for Washtenaw County-Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service, says Elmer Diuble is one of a handful of veteran farmers who know the farms and families of the area. "He is a walking history book of farming in Washtenaw County." Elmer Diuble was raised about a mile from the business he founded. On the farm that his great-grandfather bought in 1835, Elmer grew up speaking German at home. Almost everyone he knew was part of Lodi's German farm community. ' "I can speak German even today," he says. He learned arithmetic at Blaess School, the one-room schoolhouse that still stands, which the Saline Area Historical Society plans to move and preserve. Diuble enjoys the status of wise community elder, talking at the store counter to sons and grandsons of people he's known all his life. "We talk about anything and everything, the crops and the yields," he says. "We talk about the good and the bad." He comes most days to the dealership because otherwise, he says, "I get bored. The only time I don't get bored is when I'm working on the farm." Soon he'll be harvesting soybeans on his farm next door and on land he leases, except for some help hauling from his 75-year-old brother. Washtenaw County has 150,000 acres in agricultural production. Those acres have soils that won't perk for septic fields, Score says, so they're likely to remain crop and grazing land. "We're not on our deathbed as an agricultural economy, and that's why Diuble is still selling farm equipment."

931 iii. Austin Michael Hoppock, born 06 Feb 1990 in Salina, Saline Co, Kansas. He married ?.

Notes for Austin Michael Hoppock:
Austin graduated from Ft. Hays State University and is currently "the face of Land Title Services" in Salina, Kansas. Every time Michael would travel to Hays to party with Austin, the next day Austin would hide Michael's keys so he would have to spend the entire day looking for them… while Austin watched football. Austin lives in Salina and can often be found surrounded by women… who really want to meet his nephew Beckett.

July 9, 2016 - Austin Hoppock couldn't imagine calling any place other than Salina his home. His passion for seeing his hometown develop into "something great" is what drives him to stay close to home. The 26-year-old works at Land Title Services -- owned by his father, Mike Hoppock, for 15 years -- where he provides title insurance on real estate to individuals buying or selling land or property. He's thought about working in the family business since he was a child. "I always knew I'd be working for and with my dad and that I would become a part of the family business," he said. "I didn't feel any added pressure on me to do so, because my dad was always open to me trying other things or doing whatever I wanted or loved to do. What attracted me to it is just how much he enjoyed his job, how positive and passionate he was about what he did and how successful he has always been."

Hoppock was born and raised in Salina. He graduated from Salina South High School in 2008 and received a bachelor's degree in business marketing from Fort Hays State University. While attending Fort Hays, he worked as a part-time teller at Sunflower Bank. After receiving his degree, Hoppock began working as a branch manager at the Sunflower Bank branch at 2090 S. Ohio. "Although I always knew I'd one day join the family business, I wanted to venture into my own thing before I did," he said. He said the family atmosphere brought him back home to Salina. "There's nothing like the Salina community," he said. "Everyone is so friendly, and it's a place where you feel welcomed. I can't go anywhere in Salina without bumping into someone from work, a family member, a family friend or someone I recently met."

Staying close to his immediate family -- his father, mother, Polly Hoppock, and two older sisters, Erin McCorkle and Amy Hamilton -- is another reason Hoppock loves being in Salina. "My parents have always been great and supported me in anything I wanted to do. I've always been able to talk to my dad about anything business-related and bounce ideas off of him," he said. "My sisters have always shared experiences they've had with me so that I wouldn't make the same mistakes. It's nice to have two older sisters to bounce things off and who are always there for me when I need to talk about life or anything."

Hoppock is a member of the steering committee and vice president of Salina Area Young Professionals, helping to plan local events and activities. Being a lifelong Salinan, he dreams of big things for his hometown. "I want us to have more of a presence on the map. I want this place to grow and have more things to do so that people will stick around or want to visit here," he said. "When I graduated from high school, a majority of my classmates couldn't wait to move and get to somewhere bigger. I want this to be a place people want to spend their entire lifetime." Despite his desire to see Salina flourish, Hoppock doesn't want the city to lose out on what makes it special. "I don't want Salina to grow to the point where it loses that small-city feel or to where there are so many people here, you'll have a hard time knowing who people are," he said. "This place is special because of those things and how everyone here is like a family. We can grow, but I'd hate it if we lost touch of what makes us so special."

Notes for Gerald Milton (Jerry) Luckhardt:

August 2, 1989 - After a one year stint in Saline, Jerry Luckhardt has hit the big time. A 1979 graduate of Saline High School and Saline High Band Director last year, Luckhardt is now the Interim Director for the University of Michigan Marching Band. "I heard of the opening through the grapevine," Luckhardt said. "Eric Becker, who was the director for about 7 years, was leaving. So I applied for the opening and interviewed." Luckhardt found out Thursday, July 27, that he was chosen for the job. Luckhardt was hired in Saline last August to replace John Mason, who was giving up his high school baton to help music head Dave Wolter direct the Middle School bands and run the department. Luckhardt attended Michigan for six years, earning a master's and served as section leader, fanfare band director, and graduate assistant for the marching band. "He was easily the best candidate for the job," said orchestra director Bob Phillips at the time. Luckhardt quickly re-familiarized himself with the Saline band department. "It was great to work with my colleagues—John, Bob and Dave. It was like a homecoming." While director here, Luckhardt became known for his dedicated and emotional teaching style. "Throughout the year, Jerry Luckhardt was Mr. Positive," observed Steve Clark, a senior in Luckhardt's band. "He was not afraid to hold back his emotions. He got us excited to play for every concert." He said that the students all liked his style and his attitude. Luckhardt's enthusiasm proved to be as equally successful, as his marching band and wind ensemble earned first division ratings at district festival. "We were the only band there to get straight I's in our category that night," Clarke pointed out. Luckhardt described the year at Saline as, "Wonderful. I couldn't ask for a better situation to teach under. My colleagues were great; and I had a great time getting to know the students."

However, when the job at U-M came up, it was a chance he could not ignore. “IT'S A GREAT PROFESSIONAL opportunity. If it had been anywhere else, I would have stayed in Saline." Luckhardt is the interim director for now. During the coming year, the music department will search for a permanent marching band director, and Jerry will have to try out all over again. Meanwhile, he says, he needs to organize his staff and make preparations for the fall.The U of M Marching Band has always been one of the best bands inthe country. It's had great tradition. It's as good as it gets." Back at SHS, the marching band is preparing for camp August 14-18. Mason will take care of those reins. "Very busy," is how he described it. "It'll be fine, though. Jerry had it well-organized. It was already set up and ready to go."' Details are still up in the air over who will permanently replace Luckhardt. Originally, the plans called for laying off Luckhardt—if the Headlee Override does not pass—because of his-lack of seniority in the teaching staff. "We decided to keep the position, however," said Assistant Superintendent Ellen Ewing: "We would have given it less fund equity, depending on the election. Now that he left, we're planning on posting for it after the election. We are looking at class sizes and enrollment, and waiting to see what happens on August 14." "He did a wonderful job," Ewing continued. "He's very deserving. It sounds like he has a great opportunity. 'We're sorry to see him go.”

Kim “Kemp” Luchie was tragically gunned down in what investigators are fearing is a case of mistaken identity. Luchie, 25, was at a popular local hang out, The Cabin, near the campus of Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan when Justin Joel Luckhardt, 32, of Shephard, Michigan entered the establishment and shot him multiple times before fleeing the scene. Luckhardt had been to The Cabin two times previously that evening. In one of these visits he is believed to have taken a photo of the victim with his cell phone.

Police were already in the vicinity because Luckhardt, 32, had crashed into a stop sign prior to the shooting. Following the homicide he was pursued by police until he lost control and wrecked his automobile at an intersection. When police approached, they discovered Luckhardt laying next to his vehicle with a self-inflicted gunshot wound. A Glock semi-automatic .357 handgun, ammunition as well as a Kevlar bulletproof vest were found in his car. The handgun is believed to be the murder weapon. Luchie and Luckhardt were both pronounced dead at a local hospital. Further amplifying the tragedy of this event is that investigators suspect Luckhardt mistook Luchie for someone else. Police believe Luckhardt was in the midst of marital problems. Luchie was sitting with Luckhardt’s sister-in-law at the restaurant-bar The Cabin. Mount Pleasant Police Chief Anthony B. Gomez-Mesquita said:

“The sequence of events, while pre-meditated, were not planned well in advance.” “We do not have any information at this time that the suspect and the victim knew one another. We do know the suspect was having marital problems and that at The Cabin bar, within one of the booths were four individuals. These four individuals were friends and work associates. One of the females at the table was the suspect’s sister-in-law.”

July 10, 2010 - Kemp Luchie, the Forest Hills Northern graduate who was killed inside a bar Tuesday night, was sitting with co-workers when he was attacked by a man who may have made an assumption about a relationship with the suspect's sister-in-law, police say. Investigators said today that Luchie, 25, was sitting inside a booth with three friends at the Cabin Restaurant when Justin Luckhardt came to the seat and opened fire, targeting only Luchie. It was Luckhardt's third trip to the establishment in under an hour, at least one of which involved a disturbance, Mount Pleasant Police Officer Jeff Browne said.

Luckhardt, during his first visit to the bar, began taking pictures of his sister-in-law and Luchie sitting together with their friends. He used a camera phone to capture the images before leaving the Cabin. Browne said Luckhardt left, returned, departed again and then came back to fire the fatal shots. "It was pretty much point-blank range," Browne said of the shooting. Browne said it's unclear whether any words were exchanged between Luckhardt and Luchie. Witnesses did not report an argument immediately before the gunfire.

Police believe the murder-suicide may be a case of mistaken identity or a misunderstanding. Luckhardt and his sister-in-law have both been having marital difficulties. Police are exploring whether that may have fueled Luckhardt's misplaced anger and driven him to shoot and kill Luchie. The suspect later killed himself, police say.

Authorities have found no social connections between Luchie and Luckhardt but are performing background checks to see if there are ties. Police have no reason to believe Luchie was the source of trouble between Luckhardt and his wife, or the suspect's sister-in-law and her husband. "It's not making sense right now," Browne said. "We don't know if (Luckhardt) was thinking this was the new man." Police believe Luchie and the sister-in-law, whose name has not been released, were simply co-workers.

Detectives are in the process of obtaining search warrants to review Luckhardt's cell phone records. They also continue to interview witnesses. "Most of the folks that were in there are so traumatized," by what they observed or heard, Browne said. There were several dozen people at the bar, about a half-mile from Central Michigan University's campus, at the time of the 10:45 p.m. shooting. No one else was injured. "This is a tragedy either way, but it could have been worse. There could have been a lot more people harmed."

August 10, 2010 - Justin Luckhardt, left, was in a jealous, race-fueled rage when he shot Kim Luchie, right, at the Cabin bar with a 10-shot Glock semiautomatic handgun he was licensed to carry, then shot himself with the same weapon after crashing his car two miles away. Pure happenstance put Justin Luckhardt and Kim Luchie at The Cabin bar on July 13, sending Luckhardt into a rage that ended in a murder-suicide. Anger had been brewing for months for Luckhardt, who was separated from his wife, convinced she had an African-American boyfriend and was prone to mean and jealous rages when he drank. Luckhardt's anger boiled over when he saw Luchie, a black man, drinking with his sister-in-law. Luckhardt, 32, had split a 12-pack of beer and four shots while golfing with a friend at nearby Riverwood golf course before the pair stopped at The Cabin for more beer that day. "I think he thought he was shooting his sister-in-law's boyfriend," said Mt. Pleasant Detective Dave Tuma.

Between his three stops at The Cabin that night, Luckhardt showed a friend an assault rifle in his trunk, expressed anger enough to kill and left a suicide note of sorts, according to police reports. Luchie died of multiple gunshot wounds to the neck, chest and abdomen, all fired by a .357 Glock semiautomatic pistol with a 10-round clip. Luckhardt had a Michigan concealed weapons permit and had been licensed to carry a gun since 2008. The suicide note left at the home of Luckhardt's parents, where he'd lived after separating from his wife, instructed that his belongings go to his young son; nothing to his wife or her family. "They… have pushed me to this point," he scribbled in a nearly-illegible note. "This has not been premeditated."

Police speculate that Luckhardt wrote the note after his second stop at The Cabin that night, when he shot a photo of his sister-in-law and Luchie, and before he returned a third time and began shooting with the pistol he almost always carried. "Justin had some emotional problems and was getting some help," Tuma said. "He was seeing a counselor and trying to get on antidepressants – but not fast enough, in hindsight." Details of the night's tragic events are layed out in an inch-thick police report, containing interviews with at least 20 witnesses, friends and family members, obtained under the Michigan Freedom of Information Act. Isabella Prosecutor Larry Burdick said the case is closed, the only suspect dead, and no criminal charges will be issued.

Luchie and co-workers from JC Penney, including Luckhardt's sister-in-law, had enjoyed an afternoon tubing on the Chippewa River and reconvened at the bar after changing clothes. Luchie, 25, had a longtime girlfriend in Grand Rapids and was not romantically involved with any co-workers, those interviewed said. Luchie and his friends had noticed Luckhardt casting "dirty looks" and "looking upset" at his sister-in-law even before he approached and shot photos of her and Luchie. Knowing of Luckhardt's suspicions about his wife, at one point the group discussed that Justin might think Luchie was his wife's boyfriend. Police have since discounted that theory. Witnesses detail how Luckhardt's rage grew between the first and second stops at The Cabin that night. His golfing partner provided details. "Justin was mad and was talking that right now he could kill them," the friend said. "And to prove that, he opened up his trunk and pulled a rifle bag out." After a brief argument, the pair left The Cabin for O'Kelly's bar, where Luckhardt dumped him – claiming he had to use the restroom. The friend ordered a beer and some nachos and, eventually realizing he'd been stranded, called for a ride. Later, hearing that Justin had shot someone and killed himself, the friend called police, knowing he was probably the last one to see him before the shootings.

Police initially speculated, because of the rifle and a bulletproof vest in Luckhardt's trunk, that he intended to shoot more than Luchie. Interviews and evidence gathered since then, however, pointed only to the likely intent of a single murder and suicide. Tuma admits the rifle and vest, obtained from a friend in the military, might point to some far-flung idea, but police now believe the rifle was kept in the trunk because of an anti-gun sentiment among Luckhardt's family.

Both originally from the mid-Michigan area, Justin and Lori Luckhardt had returned in May after a stint in South Carolina, where Justin studied to become a golf-pro. Lori told police that jealousy issues began in South Carolina, where she worked at a Wal-Mart and would sometimes go out with friends from work, some white and some African-American. "She stated it got so bad in South Carolina that when she would walk past an African-American male, Justin would ask her if that was her boyfriend," the report said. Things worsened when they returned to Michigan. "Justin was a very jealous person and when he mixed alcohol with that jealousy, he could be very mean," Lori told them.

Eventually, the couple separated – Lori moving in with her mother; Justin with his parents, all in rural Shepherd. Lori's sister-in-law told police that Lori would get text messages from Justin in the middle of the night, indicating he'd driven by her parents' house. There also was an incident where she suspected he had drained the oil from her car. Lori Luckhardt sought a personal protection order against Justin in Midland County, but a judge said there was not enough evidence of a threat and refused to issue. Neither Luckhardt had yet filed for divorce, but Lori told investigators it was imminent.

Just before 10:45 p.m. on the night of July 13, Luckhardt returned to the bar a third time and walked past four off-duty Mt. Pleasant police officers who were there celebrating a promotion. Luckhardt removed a pistol from his pants, and began shooting at Luchie. Off-duty police officers can carry weapons, but not at bars or when drinking. None were armed. All four officers immediately took cover, noted details of the suspect and the weapon, and watched as Luckhardt calmly walked to the exit, turning several times to look at them and Luchie, who was slumped over in a booth.

"I reached for my cell phone to call Central Dispatch while keeping an eye on the suspect," one officer said. "The suspect slowly turned around and walked past our table." While some officers assisted Luchie, others took cover at the doorway and watched Luckhardt, still holding his gun, walk to his Nissan. They tried to get a look at his license plate. Luckhardt left the parking lot and turned south on Crawford Street with one off-duty officer following him. While talking to Central Dispatch on cell phones, the officers saw a marked patrol car turn south on Crawford Road. Off-duty officers confirmed for dispatchers that the on-duty car was behind the suspect, and the chase was on.

Continuing south, Luckhardt sped up at Deerfield Road and ran the stop sign as the patrol unit pursued with lights and siren. At the curve near Millbrook, the patrol car – which had temporarily lost site of the Nissan – came across Luckhardt's wrecked car. Luckhardt was outside the vehicle, on the ground, black handgun in his hand, dying of a self-inflicted gunshot to the head. Besides bequeathing his belongings to his son, his suicide note contained this line: "Please tell Ashton James Luckhardt the truth. I loved him."

Notes for Lillian Diuble:

June 10, 2019 Diuble sisters have a spring filled with honors. Congressman Tim Walberg was in Manchester last Monday to present a special commendation to Abigail Diuble for her work with the Diuble Family Vision Foundation to provide bed-shaking alarms for children with visual or hearing disabilities, during an emergency such as the family experienced when a tornado struck their home in 2015.

Abby and Lilly Diuble, ages 15 & 17, have received multiple awards and recognition this spring for their community service. Abby, who is finishing her freshman year at Manchester High School, and Lilly, who will be a senior at Manchester next fall, are the daughters of Angela and Scott Diuble of Manchester. Abby and Lilly Diuble joined eight other Washtenaw County high school students in being celebrated for outstanding community service as finalists in the 21st annual Young Citizen of the Year scholarship competition. The Robert Bruce Dunlap Memorial Fund, administered by the Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation, provides a $2,000 college scholarship to the Young Citizen of the Year, and nine finalists, including the Diuble sisters, received $1,000 scholarships.

As two of the founders of the Diuble Family Vision Foundation, the girls have both been involved in community service through the school's Leo Club, as Sunday School teachers at Bethel United Church of Christ, and primarily via their extensive involvement in the Foundation Fighting Blindness' annual Vision Walk. Lilly has personally raised more than $200,000 total for the VisionWalk; Abby has also raised $50,000 for her special project, "Warning Hearing Impaired People (WHIP)" that distributes an alarm system to wake hearing-impaired people, especially children, in case of an emergency during the night hours. To date, more than 40 alarms have been distributed through Abby's WHIP program. It was the WHIP program that attracted the attention of Congressman Tim Walberg, who visited Manchester High School on Monday morning to present Abby with a special commendation. He spent time visiting with Lilly and Abby one-on-one about their accomplishments and also conversed with parents Scott and Angela Diuble about insurance issues.

"Not only is Lillian Diuble hard of hearing, she also has low vision," wrote Diuble Family Vision Foundation board member Kelli Ripple in her nomination letter. "She likely has a condition called Usher Syndrome, which is a progressive loss of hearing and sight. Currently there is no treatment or cure for Usher Syndrome; but instead of feeling sorry for herself, Lillian — at the age of 7 — decided to do something not only to help herself, but to help others too," describing Lilly's involvement in the VisionWalk over the past 10 years. Fellow board member Katelyn Schaible stated, "I am impressed with Abigail's maturity, organization, and people skills; and her willingness to improve the lives of others within our community and the world beyond." Abby also serves as Class President of her class of 2022.

Finally, Lilly, a charter member of the WISD Leo Club, the Lions Club youth service branch–which now meets at Manchester High School thanks to Lilly's efforts–received a prestigious award from the Lions' Michigan District 11 and the state of Michigan. "Lilly was nominated to be the club 'Leo of the Year,'" said Barry Allen of the Manchester Lions Club. "This went to our District Governor, along with nominations from the other Leo Clubs, and she was chosen to represent our six-county District. That selection also put her in the running for the Lions Leo of the Year at the state level, and the Council of Governors selected her above the other entries."

Allen introduced Lilly and briefly described the evening the tornado ripped through their rural farm house, then Lilly provided a few words of thanks. As the Michigan "Leo of the Year," Allen explained, Lilly is also in the running for the Lions Clubs International "Leo of the Year" and those results have not yet been announced.

Lillian Diuble, age: 16, Manchester High School junior, parents: Angela Diuble and Scott Diuble. Community service: fundraiser for Foundation Fighting Blindness, including involving her class in her first VisionWalk team and raising more than $200,000 total for the foundation; youth chair on the VisionWalk board of directors; public speaker for Foundation Fighting Blindness, which aims to find cures and treatments for blinding-eye diseases; fundraiser and youth chair of Diuble Family Vision Foundation; founder of scholarship funded by her family's foundation to recognize community service by a Manchester High School graduating senior; charter member of Washtenaw Intermediate School District's Leo Lions Club, who helped move the club to her school this year; and Sunday school teacher.

Nominated by: Kelli Ripple, member of Diuble Family Vision Foundation board of directors "Not only is Lillian Diuble hard of hearing, she also has low vision. She likely has a condition called Usher Syndrome, which is a progressive loss of hearing and sight," Ripple wrote in her nomination letter. Notes for Katelyn Joy (Katie) Daratony:
April 2, 2019 - A massive fire leveled a hay barn at a family-owned equestrian event and training farm in Dexter, Michigan on Saturday. Katie Trinkle, 27, and her sister Jenny Smith, 30, were both helping with preparations for a scheduled horse show between 4:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. at Cobblestone Farms, 6301 Gregory Road, when yells alerted them to the fire in a hay barn. By the time Trinkle made it from an arena to the barn, it was engulfed and threatening the nearby horse barn. "The horses were freaking out," she said. "They were spinning in there." Trinkle noted the situation was particularly difficult, because she couldn't show her panic to the horses. "It was a good thing people came in for the horse show because we had so much help getting the horses out," she said.
Trinkle's father, Jim Daratony, who owns the farm with his wife Darlyn, initially attempted to fight the fire with a hose, but sprained his ankle and burned his arm while doing so, Jenny Smith said. Daratony was not immediately available to speak, but Dexter Area Fire Chief Robert Smith confirmed that two people were treated at the scene for minor injuries.
By the time Kim Trinkle, Katie Trinkle's mother-in-law, arrived after rushing over from her nearby home when she saw smoke, neighbors and those already at the farm were working as a "well-oiled machine" to remove all the horses and make sure all students at the scene were accounted for, she said. "The neighborhood stuck together," she said.
