Notes for Jakob Birkle:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

JACOB BIRKLE. Our subject is a fair example of many young Germans who are generously endowed by nature, and ambitious to grow to their fullest possible height in this land of great possibilities and chances, and although he has had some serious drawbacks that might have discouraged a less constant nature, he has gone on undaunted in his career and undoubtedly there is a future before him of successful enterprise and pleasing results in both public and private life. Mr. Birkle was born in Lodi Township, this county, June 5, 1862. He is a son of John G. Birkle, of German birth and ancestry, who came to America in 1852, and settled in this county where he worked out for several years.

Our subject's immediate progenitor purchased his present farm in Lodi Township, where he has since lived and reared his family. His mother was in her girlhood days Miss Elizabeth Schaible. She was a native of Germany and came to this country early in the '50s. Our subject is one of eight children born to his parents, five of whom survived childish diseases and the ills that human flesh is heir to. The one in whom we are particularly interested, received the advantages of a district-school education and then attended the Union school at Saline. When a child of eleven years, he met with a very serious accident. While working about a feed cutter, his right arm was caught in the machinery and was cut off at the shoulder. He has always lived on his father's farm, and has farmed the place on shares in partnership with his elder brother.

Mr. Birkle is a Democrat in politics, and has been elected by his friends in the party to which he belongs to several local offices. He has been School Inspector for two years, and Treasurer for two years, and is now serving his third term as Township Clerk. He was advanced at the last Democratic convention as nominee for County Treasurer, and made a fine showing. He has a large following of enthusiastic friends who believe him to be the man for that office, and think that he will get it.

Mr. Birkle is a member of the German Lutheran Church, and a young man of excellent qualities' and of much promise. His morals and manners are irreproachable, and he has a desire to advance the interests of his constituents in the true sense that commends him favorably to all right-thinking.
