Notes for George John Bohnet:

George J. Bohnet, 86, who built Lansing's first steam automobile and became recognized as the city's first automobile salesman, died Thursday July 20, 1961 at his cottage at Eight Point Lake in Clare County. He divided his time between the lake and his home at 1025 N. Chestnut St. Mr. Bohnet, who assembled his first car by hand and made many of the parts by hand, had been a resident of Lansing for 67 years. He came here from the little settlement of Francisco in Jackson County, near Chelsea. While working in the bicycle department of Holmes & Son music store, long since removed from the local scene, Mr. Bohnet assembled his first steam car. He sold it for less than $1,000 to a DeWitt physician and then built another on order for William Lansing, then affiliated with the Capital Electric company. His first job here was with the E. Bement son's stove works, which occupied the former State Journal site at Grand Ave. and Ottawa St., but often recalled that the late W. K. Prudden offered him a job as his secretary. He didn't know anything about shorthand, so the job went to the late Harry Harper. Harper put together the Prudden company and Auto Wheel and Gier Steel to form Motor Wheel.

Later Mr. Bohnet became affiliated with Mr. Prudden in the Capital Automobile company. He left that company in 1932, when his interests were purchased. He was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, and a charter and life member of Lansing Lodge No. 196, B. P. O Elks.

Surviving are three brothers, William F., Ernest H. and Herman C. Bohnet, all of Lansing, and two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Turner of Lansing and Mrs. Emma Spathelf of Big Rapids.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Monday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel. Rev. R. E. Eshmeyer of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Victor Spathelf, Harold Walter, Kenneth Bohnet, Gale Adams, Ronald Bohnet and James Walter.

Notes for William Frederick Bohnet:

William F. Bohnet, 83, founder of the electrical company bearing his name at 331 N. Washington Ave., Lansing, Michigan, died at 1 p.m. Friday August 11, 1961 at Edward W. Sparrow hospital after a short illness. He lived at 1408 W. Washtenaw St. At his bedside was his daughter, Mrs. Harold (Helen) Walter, of 3234 S. Cambridge Rd. She had cut short a European trip, rushing home by airliner from Rome to be with her father. Mr. Bohnet died of an ailment diagnosed by his family doctor as multiple myeloma, a bone disease, with which he was stricken in May. He was hospitalized May 28, released June 27 and rushed back to the hospital on Aug. 3, when he suffered a relapse. A resident of Lansing for 66 years, Mr. Bonnet came here as a lad with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bohnet, from Jackson County. He was born there. From E. P. Kinney, who operated an electrical company, he learned the electrician trade. He also met his future wife, then Phebe Crofts, at the Kinney company. She worked there as a bookkeeper. Three years before establishing his own electrical company (1906) he married Miss Crofts in the brick house that still stands on the northwest corner of Saginaw and Chestnut Sts. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Crofts. She died in 1953. Establishing their home at 521 N. Walnut St., Mr. Bohnet and his wife lived there until about 1945 when they moved to 1408 W. Washtenaw St.

Founding his electrical firm in the 100 block of E. Ottawa St., in the vicinity of the site formerly occupied by Barker-Fowler, Mr. Bohnet later took into the company his brothers, Ernest and Herman. Herman left the firm to open his own business. Since Mr. Bohnet retired in 1947, the business has been operated by Ernest and his son, Ronald. Later, Mr. Bohnet moved the electrical company to 326-327 N. Washington Ave. before locating at 331 N. Washington Ave. With his brother, George, who preceded him in death by three weeks, Mr. Bohnet assembled the city's first steam car to be successfully operated, shortly after the turn of the century. Unassuming about his accomplishments, Mr. Bohnet usually devoted his thoughts and efforts toward the future. Occasionally, he did reminisce telling about the wiring of the county building at Mason and the Shiawassee County building at Corunna. Affiliations included the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church and Lansing Lodge 196, B. P. O. Elks.

Besides the daughter, he is survived by two grandsons, James F. Walter of Lansing and Gordon E. Walter of Holland; two brothers, Ernest H. and Herman C. Bohnet, both of Lansing; and two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Turner of Lansing and Mrs. Emma Spathelf of Big Rapids.

The body was removed to the Estes-Leadley funeral home, where funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Monday in the Colonial chapel. Rev. R. E. Eshmeyer, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, who cut short a vacation, will conduct the rites. Burial will be in Mt. Hope cemetery. Pallbearers will be nephews, Ronald E. Bohnet, Kenneth C. Bohnet, Victor F. Spathelf, Harold C. Crofts, William G. Crofts and Elver Ostrom.

William F. Bohnet of 1408 W. Washtenaw St., Lansing, age 83 years, died Aug. 11, 1961 at a local hospital. He had been a resident of Lansing for 66 years and was the founder of the Bohnet Electric company, retiring several years ago. He married Phebe A. Crofts in 1903 and she preceded him in death in 1953. He was a member of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed church and member of the B.P.O.E. No. 196.

Survivors are 1 daughter, Mrs. Harold F. Walter of Lansing; 2 grandsons, James F. Walter of Lansing and Gordon E. Walter of Holland, Michigan; 2 brothers, Ernest and Herman both of Lansing; 2 sisters, Mrs. Pauline Turner of Lansing and Mrs. Emma Spathelf of Big Rapid, Michigan.

Bohnet Electric company, died Sunday afternoon June 14, 1953 in a local hospital. Mrs. Bohnet's death was the culmination of an illness dating back to the early spring when she suffered a stroke and was hospitalized for several weeks. Notes for Victor Franz Spathelf:

Big Rapids - Victor F. Spathelf is retiring this year as president of Ferris State College, a job he has held for the past 18 years. In a letter to the school's Board of Control, the 60-year-old Spathelf said he will retire Dec. 15 with the thought in mind that "the college is once again in a forward momentum." In an apparent reference to scattered racial incidents which flared on the Ferris State campus during the early months of 1969, Spathelf said he would have retired earlier "were it not for the unforeseen interim developments which I felt challenged the well-being of the institution."

During Spathelf's tenure, which began only two years after the college became a state institution, Ferris' enrollment grew from 700 students to a predicted 9,000 for this fall. He had also seen the school receive full accreditation and its campus, the center of this West Michigan community, expand from 19 to 470 acres. Spathelf, who held various administrative posts at Wayne State University in Detroit before coming to Ferris, said his retirement plans include "taking a vacation to recharge my batteries."

Victor Franz Spathelf, son of Eugene H. Spathelf and Emma Rae (?), was born on 29 March 1911 in Benton Harbor, Berrien County, Michigan. He lived with his parents, Emma and Eugene, in 1920 at 308 Harrison Avenue in Elkhart, Elkhart County, Indiana. In 1928 he ran on Wayne State University's mile relay team. Victor Franz Spathelf was employed by principal of Madison High School at Royal Oak and athletic director; superintendent of schools for District 19 in Royal Oak Township and assistant superintendent of Highland Park schools. Victor Franz was Director of Student Affairs from 1946 to 1952 at Wayne State University, Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan.

Victor Franz was as president from 9 July 1952 to 15 December 1970 at Ferris College, Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan. When his track coach at Wayne State University, David L. Holmes, retired in June, 1959, Victor gave him a blanket and plaque commemorating a half century of coaching. The presentation was made at a dinner for Ferris College athletic letter winners.

In March 1969, 250 Ferris students staged a lock-in at the school auditorium. Eighty-five riot equipped state troopers, sent at the request of Victor Spathelf, shattered the main glass door to the building and routed the demonstrators. After the incident he announced a set of "get tough" student conduct rules saying the disorders resulted from irresponsible behavior of a group of students. On June 5 1971 he delivered the commencement address at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan. At that time he received an honorary doctor of laws degree. Victor died on 6 October 1998 in Sarasota County, Florida, at age 87.

The lovely bride, attired in a gown of her own design, was radiant on the arm of her step-father William Boy Hilton, Sr. The exquisite bridal frock was styled with swirling waits length skirts of nylon net over taffeta. Fashion points of the wasp waist bodice were a Peter Pan collar, tiny covered buttons and three-quarter length sleeve. Her shoulder veil of illusion fell from a heart-shaped tiara of filmy nylon net. Elisabeth's bouquet was a formal arrangement of orchids, traditional bridal stephanotis and white gladioli. Mrs. Edward Grabowski of Morrice was her sister's only attendant Her ballerina gown of mint green was fashioned with a fitted bodice of Chantilly type lace. Double skirts of billowing tulle worn over a taffeta petticoat fell gracefully from a cinched waist. With this she wore a Chantilly boo bolero, shoes the same shade of the frock, nylon mitts and a beautiful picture bat of matching color. To complete the costume, she carried an arrangement of coral glamelias and deep red baby roses. Darrell Coffee of Fowlerville served as best man. The base of the round cake was wreathed with sprays of huckleberry, and pink and white sweet peas. The Misses Barbara Warren, Mary Lou Slayton, Mary Lou Gentry and Alice Hibbard served the bride and bridegroom's cakes, the mints, nuts and punch. Mrs. Fred Love cut the cake. Mrs. Jack Garland poured the punch and assisting her was Mrs. John Tomlin. Mrs. Richard St. Onge registered the guests. The Misses Audrey Klekot and Dorothy Hudson opened the wedding gifts. Notes for Margaret Regina (Peggy) Oesterle:

Margaret Regena (nee Oesterle) Girvan; age 89; died peacefully on August 19, 2009, in Eustis, Florida. Margaret "Peggy" was born March 21, 1920, in Chelsea, Michigan. She was the daughter of Frederick Oesterle and Theresa (Gritzner) Oesterle. She was the middle child of 11 children. She moved to Ann Arbor, Michigan, in 1937 to work for King Seeley as an assembly worker. She met Edward Girvan (from Kilbirnie, Scotland) at a dance at the Pittsfield Grange in Pittsfield Township, Michigan. They were married on May 4, 1940, at St. Thomas The Apostle Church in Ann Arbor. Eddie and Peggy raised two children, Grace Margaret and John Edward. She was very committed to volunteer activities. She was the Chairperson of the Red Cross Motor Service (driving disabled children to day camp and transporting donated organs for transplants). She also worked together with her husband, Edward, head of Quality Control at Argus Camera and a professional photographer, to run a portrait printing business in their home.

In 1958, Peggy suffered a tragic loss when her husband, Eddie, age 47, died suddenly in Scotland while visiting his parents and family. She was widowed at the age of 38. After his death, she went to work at The Bendix Corporation as an Executive Travel Agent. In the 1960's, she became involved in Ann Arbor Civic Theatre - working as technical director and as a member of the sound and construction crews on a variety of productions, including "Bell Book & Candle," "Major Barbara" and several other productions. She lived in Ann Arbor until 1991, when she moved to Eustis, Florida, to be close to her son and daughter-in-law, John and Sandra Girvan. She worked with her son and daughter-in-law in their hearing-aid business in Leesburg and Lady Lake, Florida. Peggy also became involved with "Life Changing Ministries" Thrift Stores. She rebuilt and reconditioned broken sewing machines so they could be sold to generate profits for the ministry, which donates free food to the local community in need. In 2007, when she was 87 years old, she was recognized for her volunteer work at the Ministries Family Christmas Celebration. Peggy possessed a strong, independent spirit, a deep work ethic and an outgoing personality able to connect with people (some might call it the "gift of gab"). She was very interested in politics and current events and enjoyed a good debate. She was not shy about expressing her opinions, which endeared her to many. She was also known to be able to fix anything and she enjoyed the challenge of "restoring something to working condition". She loved to travel and enjoyed memorable trips to Hawaii, Scotland, England and San Francisco. She also loved garage sales, thrift shops, golf and doing crossword puzzles. Peggy was immensely proud of her children, her three grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Upon becoming a grandmother, she was fondly renamed "Gommie" and became known by her grandchildren, great grandchildren and all their friends as "Gommie." She was able to describe with great pride their accomplishments and talents and would not miss a chance to share their achievements with others. She was always available for words of encouragement and support and loved to visit with them at every opportunity.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Girvan, who died in Scotland July 16, 1958, and her first great grandchild, Spencer Jeffrey Price, who died February 26, 1996. Jones officiated at the double ring ceremony. Traditional white prevailed throughout the church. The altar was banked with green palms and baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. White candles in brass tapering candelabra and white iron standards lighted the altar. Lighted white candles placed in standing hurricanes and decorated with greens and apricot and white mums marked the family pews. White satin bows with greens marked the guest pews.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Smith played several selections and accompanied the soloist, Miss Ann Stowell as she sang, "One Hand, One Heart" by Bernstein. As the organist sounded the opening notes of the traditional "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin the wedding party approached the altar. Miss Ann Stowell sang "Color My World" by Rankow, before the couple spoke their vows.

Renee, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown designed by Priscilla of Boston of ivory silk-satin, with a princess styled skirt extending into a sweeping fan shaped train. The bodice and sleeves were of imported English net applied with pearled re-embroidered Alençon lace. Pearl tracings accented the yoke, deep satin cuffs and skirt of the gown. The bride wore an heirloom pendant of diamonds and seed pearls and carried a bridal bouquet of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and streamers of trailing ivy. Miss Michelle Smith, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were. Miss Deborah May, Miss Deborah Cardosi and Miss Marlene Garland, sister of the bridegroom. Serving as junior bridesmaids were Miss Laurie Smith, sister of the bride and Miss Marta Garland, sister of the bridegroom. The attendants were gowned in dresses of print chiffon in shades of apricot, blue, green and café au lait with long bishop sleeves and loose, flowing back, accented at the waistline with apricot sashes. In their hair they wore clusters of apricot tea roses and baby's breath. The bridesmaids carried nosegays of apricot tea roses, white mums and baby's breath, accented with café au lait net and apricot streamers. The junior bridesmaids wore, dresses of apricot organza accented with white eyelet sashes which were appliqued and laced with apricot. They carried smaller nosegays, but identical in design.

Dana Garland, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Seating the guests were Norman Dymond of Howell, John Siedel and Andrew Cobb. For her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Smith chose a floor length gown of ivory accordion pleated silk chiffon with long bishop sleeves, high jabot collar and accented by a sleeveless ivory silk organza double breasted blazer. Her corsage of apricot tea roses was pinned to her handbag. Mrs. Garland, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in floor length mint green polyester crepe with empire styled lines, accented with tracings of seed pearls. She wore a corsage of white tea roses.

The reception, was held in the church dining room following the ceremony. A four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a cluster of four satin wedding bells edged with pearls, encircled at the base with greens and apricot and white mums, formed the centerpiece for the bridal table. White candles in silver candelabra were placed on either side. Miss Jeannie Swann, Miss Patricia Hensick, Miss Mary Ann Wieclaw and Miss Jody Barr assisted in serving the cake, coffee and punch. Miss Ann Woodworth had charge of the guest book. - 266 ii. John Robert Oesterle, born 09 May 1964 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan; died 11 Oct 2017 in Franklin, Williamson Co, Tennessee. He married ? 10 Nov 2001 in Mecklenburg, North Carolina; born Aft. 1964.

Notes for John Robert Oesterle:

Oct. 15, 2017 - With heavy hearts the Oesterle family shares their grief in the passing of their beloved John Robert Oesterle, 53, of Franklin, Tennessee. Though his passing was unexpected and much too soon, there is comfort in knowing that John has joined his eternal Father in heaven. Born May 9, 1964, in Lansing, Michigan to Robert Eugene Oesterle and Virginia Ilene Sterle Oesterle, John was the only son in a family of seven children. He grew up on a dairy farm and was involved in the 4H program whereby he and his younger sister, Becky, raised and showed Suffolk sheep. Through Williamston Baptist Church, John received the highest Awana's Citation Award. During his high school years at Williamston High, John was a member of the foot- ball and baseball teams. His magnetic personality touched many people and he was voted president of his junior class. John received his Bachelor of Science degree with honors from Michigan State University. Go Sparty! He then went on and obtained his Doctor of Medicine from Wayne State University of Medicine followed by a residency in anesthesia at Henry Ford Hospital.

John married his true love and "Pearl", Rebecca Jean Martelle, on November 10, 2000, in Charlotte, North Carolina. He was wholeheartedly embraced by Becky's large family and obtained instant brother status. John and Becky were set up on a blind date by Becky's older sister, who's intuition proved correct. John and Becky spent 17 wonderfully blessed years together. John was the recipient of numerous awards throughout his career commending his dedication of excellence to the practice of medicine, his compassion towards his patients, and dependability and approachableness afforded to his peers. One award that John recently attained was Athlete of the Month from D1, where he found great joy and camaraderie. John began his career as an anesthesiologist in 1998 with Physicians Anesthesia Service in Lansing, Michigan. He worked in Charlotte, North Carolina for 16 years with American Anesthesiology (formerly Southeast Anesthesia), and most recently with Anesthesia Medical Group in Nashville, Tennessee.

An avid hunter and adored his hunting dogs: Pete, Nellie, Pearl, Olive, and Hazel, John was frequently seen around town with "the big girls" by his side. As an alum of MSU, John cheered on his Spartans and hung his MSU flag proudly. John had a dream to own a farm where he could raise sheep, cows, and buffalo. He believed he had found the perfect one and was looking forward to riding that John Deer tractor. John was a member of Brentwood United Methodist Church and attended regularly. One of John's favorite memories was being a part of his son's championship team, Hammerdown Football. John absolutely loved being the team doctor. Every day after work John would arrive home and announce to his family, "I did a good job today" to which they responded, "you do good job every day!" with smiles on their faces. John was an "angel on earth". He would look you in the eye and make you feel like you were the most important person in the world.

Preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Virginia Oesterle and sister Renee, John is survived by his wife Rebecca, children Ashlynn and Ethan, granddaughter Bekah, and his siblings Robin (Tim), Rainelle (Carl), Roberta (David), Raecene (Jeff), and Rebecca (Dave). John's fur babies are Pearl, Olive, Hazel, Henni, Gertie, and Elke.

A visitation will be held on Thursday, October 19 from 11-12 at Gorsline Runciman Funeral Homes Williamston Chapel, 205 E. Middle St. Williamston, Michigan. John will be laid to rest at Alchin Farm Cemetery near his childhood family farm in Michigan. Please direct gifts in John's memory to either Support for Students at Michigan State University or for Breast Cancer.
