Notes for Samuel Kiess:
Mr. Kiess has quite a rare collection of bric-a-brac, which is of very great value to a lover of relics as he is. He has a Bible, the former property of a German in New York, that was printed in the year 1668, and for which he has been offered $3,000, refusing to take that amount. It is about 16" long x 10-1/2" wide x 6" thick, and is bound in what is supposed to the leather made from the skin of a hog, with heavy brass corners and clasps, and was printed in Frankfort, Germany. He also has a fine collection of ancient coins and currency, among which is a three cent piece issued by the West Branch Bank of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on the first of January 1863; a ten-cent piece from the Williams County, Ohio, and also some from the State Bank of Ohio, bearing an early date.

Oct. 24, 1973 - Lysock View's newest residents are believed to be the first set of twins to have lived at the county operated home. They are 92-year-old sisters, Lura May McClarin and Mrs. Lella May Marquardt, formerly of the 2200 block of West Fourth Street Mrs. Marquardt is the widow of William Marquardt. The sisters have lived together for many years. An official at Lysock said the sisters are the “pets of the place” with other guests. They enjoy visiting other resident and took their favorite chairs to the home. The official also commented that the sisters lived for many years with another sister, Ida, who died at the age of 97. Currently, there is one way to easily tell the twins apart Miss McClarin’s right arm is in a cast as a result of a fall last July. Both are former silk mill workers. Notes for Christian Wurster, Jr.:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1149:

Another foreign-born citizen of western Richardson County who has been successful in our land of many opportunities and has been enabled to retire from active life is Christ Wuster, of Dawson, Grant Township, Richardson County. He was born in Germany, May 13, 1848, a son of Christ and Rosanna (Likes) Wuster, natives of Germany. The father was born on December 14, 1821, and died on February 1, 1885. The mother was born on February 19, 1823, and died in January, 1888. They were parents of nine children, eight of whom are living.

The Wuster family remained in their native land until 1851, when they immigrated to America, locating in Pennsylvania, in which state the parents spent the rest of their lives, and there their son Christ, Jr., grew to manhood, attending the common schools, and for several years worked on a farm in Lycoming county. After his marriage he came to Nebraska in 1890, and located on a farm four miles north of Dawson, in Porter precinct, paying ten dollars an acre for his land, which he improved and tilled with success until 1904, becoming one of the leading general farmers and stock raisers of Porter precinct. He then retired from active life and moved to the village of Dawson, where he bought a home and there he has since resided. While on the farm he made a specialty of breeding Shorthorn cattle.

On September 25, 1873, Mr. Wuster was married to Martha Marquardt, who was born on January 31, 1850, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. She is a daughter of Fred and Rosanna (Keiss) Marquardt, both natives of Germany, from which country they came to America with their respective parents and located in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the father being only ten years old when they crossed the Atlantic. They grew to maturity in the old Keystone state and were married there. Mrs. Martha Wuster was reared and educated in her native state. The following children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wuster: Anna, who is the wife of Walter Kirk and they live on the Wuster home farm in Porter precinct; Charles, who is also living on the home place; Clara, wife of Charles Perry, now living in California; Henry, who lives in California; Thomas Frederick, who lives on a farm one mile north and one-half mile east of Dawson; David E., deceased; John A., who lives in California, and Mrs. Mary Dillon, also of California.

Christ Wuster, Jr., deserves a great deal of credit for what he has accomplished since coming to Nebraska, for he then had but six hundred dollars. He went in debt for his farm of three hundred and twenty acres, but worked hard and managed well and success eventually crowned his efforts. For several years he hauled his wheat to Salem Mills and exchanged it for flour. He lived in the old log cabin on his land for some time, or until he was able financially to build a better residence. There was considerable native timber on his land, and he got from his own woods most of the lumber with which to build his barn and other buildings. There was an apple orchard on his place, which for some time was the only one in Richardson County. This orchard brought him large returns, his apples being in great demand at fancy prices. Politically, he is a Democrat. He and Mrs. Wuster belong to the Evangelical church.

She was born 01 Jul 1858 in Warrensville, Eldred Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 29 Mar 1935 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Emanuel Ulmer:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1068:

Emanuel Ulmer, one of Richardson County's well-known and progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine farm in the vicinity of Dawson, in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has lived in this county since 1881 and has therefore watched the wonderful development that has been made in this region since pioneer days. He was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, March 8, 1856, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both of whom were born in that same county, of German parentage, and the former of whom died there in 1870, leaving his widow with a considerable family of children. In 1884 she came to Nebraska with her younger children and established her home on a farm in Grant precinct, this county, in the neighborhood of the home her elder son, the subject of this sketch, had established there two or three years previously, and there he spent the remainder of her life, her death occurring in 1903. Having been but fourteen years of age when his father died, Emanuel Ulmer early began to "hustle" for himself and grew up earnest, sober and self-reliant. He was trained as a farmer and in the fall of 1881 came to Nebraska with a view to establishing his home on a farm out here in the beautiful valley of the Nemaha, of which he had heard much from other Pennsylvanians who had settled here earlier. He bought a tract of land from Jacob Heim, a Lycoming County, (Pennsylvania) man, who had settled here in 1874 and had made heavy investments in farm lands, and after his marriage a few months later to one of Mr. Heim's daughters, established his home on that farm and has ever since made his residence there. For the unimproved quarter section he originally bought he paid three thousand dollars and as he developed that place and prospered in his affairs he gradually added to his holdings until he became the owner of four hundred acres of fine land, but has since sold a quarter section to his sons and now holds but two hundred and forty acres, his original home quarter section and an “eighty” to the south. He has two houses on his home farm and excellent farm buildings, the entire farm plant being operated along modern and up-to-date lines. In addition to his general farming Mr. Ulmer has given considerable attention to the raising of livestock, with particular reference to Shorthorn cattle and Poland-China hogs, and has done very well, long having been regarded as one of the most substantial farmers in his neighborhood.

On December 29, 1881, just a few months after coming to this county, Emanuel Ulmer was united in marriage to Sarah Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 1, 1858, daughter of Jacob and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of that same county, who came to Nebraska in 1874 and became early recognized as among the most influential and useful pioneers of the Dawson neighborhood. Elsewhere in this volume there is set out at considerable length something of the history of the Heim family in this county, together with biographical sketches of several members of the family. Jacob Heim, the pioneer, died at his home in Grant precinct in April, 1914, at the age of eighty-two years, and his widow is now-making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer.

To Emanuel and Sarah (Heim) Ulmer six children have been born, namely: Mary, who married Charles E. Wuster, of Porter precinct, this county, and has two children, Orville and Miriam; Norman, who married Merdeth Miller and lives on the farm adjoining that of his father; Edna, who is at home; Walter, who is attending the Evangelical College at Le Mars, Iowa, and Reuben, who is farming with his brother, Norman, and who married True Stratton and has one child, a daughter, Evelyn, and Nelson, at home. Mrs. Ulmer and the children are members of the United Evangelical Church and Mr. Ulmer, who was reared a Baptist, attends the same, the family taking a proper part in all neighborhood good works, as well as in the general social activities of the community in which they live. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat, but on local issues is inclined to cast his vote independent of party lines, preferring to recognize personal fitness rather than party allegiance as a qualification for office. Mr. Ulmer is a contributing member of the local chapter of the Red Cross Society.

165. Martin Daniel[7] Ulmer (Martin[6], Johann Leonard[5], Christina Margaretha[4] Gohl, Michael[3], Isaac[2], Jerg[1]) was born 13 Sep 1861 in Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 19 Jan 1942 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Sophia Heim 05 Dec 1893 in Richardson Co, Nebraska, daughter of Jacob Heim and Regina Gross. She was born 19 Jul 1868 in Warrensville, Eldred Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 31 Jan 1951 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Martin Daniel Ulmer:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 908:

Martin D. Ulmer, one of Richardson county's best-known and most progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has been a resident of this county since 1884 and has thus been a witness to and a participant in the development of this region during the past thirty years and more. He was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, September 13, 1861, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both natives of that same county and both of German descent, the latter of whom became a pioneer of Richardson county and here spent her last days, having come here as a widow in 1884.

Martin Ulmer was the son of Leonard Ulmer, a native of Germany, a son of Leonard Ulmer, Sr., who was a son of Thomas Ulmer. The junior Leonard, the first of his family to come to this country, married Marie Stump in his native land and in 1804 came to the United States, settling in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he and his wife established their home and where they reared their family. Their son, Martin Ulmer, grew to manhood on the home farm in that county and there married Catherine Shaefer, a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Guinter) Shaefer, also natives of Germany, who had emigrated to the United States in 1804 and had settled in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, neighbors to the Ulmers. After his marriage Martin Ulmer established his home on a farm in his native county and there spent the rest of his life, his death occurring in 1870. In 1884 his widow disposed of her interests in Pennsylvania and with her children came to Nebraska and settled in Richardson County. She bought a quarter of a section of land just across the highway from the farm owned by the subject of this sketch and Nyhich he bought at the same time, and there she lived until 1894, when she moved to Dawson, making her home with a son and daughter, her death occurring in 1903, she then being seventy-five years of age. She was the mother of five children, those besides the subject of this sketch being Henry (deceased), Israel, of Dawson, this county; Emanuel; of Grant precinct, and Sarah E., of Dawson. Emanuel Uhner married Sarah Heim and has six children, Mary, Norman, Edna, Walter, Reuben and Nelson. Mary Ulmer married Charles Wuster and has two children, Orville and Miriam. Norman Ulmer married Merdeth Miller. Reuben Ulmer married True Stratton and has one, child, a daughter, Evelyn.

As noted above, it was in 1884 that Martin D. Ulmer came to Richardson County, accompanying his widowed mother from Pennsylvania. He bought a quarter of a section of land in the precinct of Grant, the place he ever since has occupied, right across the road from the quarter section his mother bought. When he bought the place it had but slight improvements on it, a little one-room house, a tumble-down barn and a decrepit corncrib, but he went to work with energy and it was not long until he began to get results, soon having one of the best improved farms in that neighborhood and he ever has made a point of keeping his place up to standard. His fine residence occupies a commanding site on a beautiful rise and the surrounding grove of evergreens and the adjacent vineyard lend picturesqueness to the spot. The large barn and well-ordered farm buildings are in keeping with the central establishment, the entire farm plant bearing the unmistakable imprint of its owner's progressive and up-to-date methods of doing business. Upon buying that place Mr. Ulmer found it necessary to incur a considerable indebtedness, but he soon got that paid off and has prospered in his operations. In addition to his general farming he has paid considerable attention to the raising of high-grade livestock, with particular attention to Black Angus cattle and Poland China hogs, and has done very well. He and his sister now own the farm their mother formerly owned and rent the same to advantage. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat and has ever given a good citizen's attention to local political affairs, but has not been a seeker after public office.

On December 5, 1893, Martin D. Ulmer was united in marriage to Sophia Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 19, 1868, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of Pennsylvania, who came to this county in 1874 and settled on a farm one mile north of Dawson, becoming early, recognized as among the most substantial and influential pioneers of that neighborhood. Jacob G. Heim, further and fitting reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, died in April, 1914, he then being eighty-two years of age, and his widow is still living in this county, now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emanuel Ulmer. Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer have had three children, Erma, born on May 22, 1896, who is a graduate of the Dawson high school class of 1913, and who is still at home; Wallace H., born in 1903, who died in 1904, and Mildred, born on February 15, 1909. The Ulmers have a very pleasant home and have ever taken an interested part in the general social and cultural activities of their home neighborhood and of the community at large, helpful in many ways in promoting agencies having to do with the advancement of the common welfare. Mr. Ulmer was reared a Baptist and Mrs. Ulmer is a member of the United Evangelical church, both taking a proper part in neighborhood good works. Every member of this family has contributed liberally to the Red Cross movement and Mr. Ulmer has shown his patriotism by buying Liberty Bonds.

544 v. Ruth Evelyn Ulmer, born 11 Jul 1907 in Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania; died 25 Jan 2009 in Ashland, Boyd Co, Kentucky.

Notes for Ruth Evelyn Ulmer:
Williamsport Sun Gazette, January 27, 2009;

Ruth Evelyn Ulmer, (II Tim. 4:7: "...I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.") of Ashland, Kentucky, went to be with her Lord on January 25, 2009. She was born on July 11, 1907 in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of the late Thomas L. and Ida Jane Waltz Ulmer. Ruth grew up on her parent's farm near Balls Mills, Pennsylvania.

Born again into God's family at the age of 10, she was baptized and accepted into the membership of Hepburn Baptist Church, Cogan Station, Pennsylvania in 1917. She graduated from Philadelphia School of the Bible, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1930 and attended Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1931 also in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Upon completion of her schooling, Ruth served the Lord at Green Pasture Jewish Mission, Brooklyn, NY and then in the youth ministry of the local church at Mehoopany, PA. In 1932, from deep in the mountains of eastern Kentucky, there came a call for help. A missionary had to leave her field of service due to illness. Would someone please come and take over her work? So, Ruth like Abraham, "went out by faith, not knowing wither (s)he went" (Hebrews 11:8), Virgie, Kentucky was not even on the map; but the Lord was leading and she followed. There was no promise of support so she stood firmly on Philippians 4:19; God promised he would provide. She had nine wonderful, thrilling, years sharing his word with the people of Virgie. Through the years, there followed other areas of service: Printer, Kentucky for 10 years, at Volga, Kentucky for 27 years and finally at Ashland, Kentucky, working in the local church in Sunday School work and visitation ministry. All who knew Ruth were impressed by her gentle spirit. From time to time, she would come back to Pennsylvania, where she was always invited to speak at churches in the local area. She told of different experiences that revealed her love for God and the people she served.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Nelson W. Ulmer and T. Theodore Ulmer and her sisters, Florence A. Gehr and Gertrude E. Paulhamus.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, January 29 at the Summit Church of the Nazarene, with Pastor Tim Daniels officiating. Burial will follow in Coalton Cemetery. Funeral arrangements by Steen Funeral Homes.

Notes for Jane Ada (Jennie) Brindle:

Mrs. Jane Ada Ulmer, widow of the late Engineer J.B. Ulmer, died April 1910 at her home, 243 Spruce Street, this morning, it is presumed by inhaling gas which escaped from the stove while she was preparing breakfast for her son. Mrs. Ulmer got up between five and six o'clock to get breakfast for her son, Howard. About eight o'clock when the son got up, he found his mother dead, leaning over the gas stove. The jet was open and the room was filled with the deadly fumes, but there were no indications that the gas had been lighted. It is believed that Mrs. Ulmer was seized with a fainting spell while in the act of lighting the gas and fell on the stove, her death resulting from inhaling the fumes.

The deceased, was aged about 57 years and is survived only by her son Howard. Her maiden name was Brindle and she has a host of friends who deeply regret her demise. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Dr. David Theodore[8] Kiess (Samuel[7], Leonard[6], Dorothea[5] Ulmer, Christina Margaretha[4] Gohl, Michael[3], Isaac[2], Jerg[1]) was born 03 Aug 1867 in Valley View, Williams Co, Ohio, and died 09 Nov 1952 in Montpelier, Williams Co, Ohio. He married Bertha Laura Twichell 10 Sep 1900 in Steuben Co, Indiana, daughter of George Twichell and Laura Scoville. She was born 03 Sep 1877 in Jackson Twp, Steuben Co, Indiana, and died 25 Aug 1957 in Montpelier, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Dr. David Theodore Kiess:
A standard history of Williams County, Ohio. By Chalres A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company – Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 251:

David T. Kiess. - An enumeration of those men of the present generation who have won honor and success for themselves, and at the same time by their lives have honored the locality to which they belong, would be incomplete were there failure to make mention of the one whose name forms the caption to this sketch. He has sustained a very enviable reputation in business circles and today is numbered among the progressive and enterprising citizens of Montpelier. David T. Kiess was born at Edon, Williams County, on August 3, 1867, and is a son of Samuel and Sarah (Burkhart) Kiess, both of whom were born and reared near Williamsport, Pennsylvania. They came to Williams County, Ohio, with their respective parents and here met and were married. After their marriage they located in Edon, where Mr. Kiess engaged in the boot and shoe business, having been a shoemaker by trade. Sometime later he sold this business and for a time was engaged in farming. Later in life they went West, locating in Nebraska, where their deaths occurred. They were the parents of five children, three of whom are now living, namely: D. W., a contractor in Los Angeles, California; David T.; the subject of this sketch; and Lizzie, the wife of Ora Eyster, a farmer in Williams County.

David T. Kiess received his education in the district schools of Williams County and in Nebraska. He then entered the Chicago Horological School and the Chicago Opthalmic School, where he was graduated in 1893. He then was employed as jeweler and optician at various places for fifteen years, but then located at Edon, where he engaged in the jewelry business, in which he met with good success. In 1914 Mr. Kiess came to Montpelier and opened a jewelry and optical goods store, to which he has given his personal attention, though he also still operates the store at Edon. Thoroughly qualified by training and experience both as a jeweler and optician, Mr. Kiess has met with a well-deserved prosperity and is considered a thoroughly reliable and trustworthy man in every respect, and that is as much as can be said of the best of men.

Mr. Kiess was married to Bertha L. Twichell, of Orland, Indiana, but who was born in Steuben County, Indiana. She received a good education, being a high school graduate, and prior to her marriage she was engaged as a school teacher. To this union have been born five children, namely: Reginald, who is a graduate of the Montpelier High School; Kenneth, Elinore, Esther and Robert, who are in school.

Mr. Kiess and family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and, politically, he gives his support to the Republican Party, having served seven years as treasurer of Edon Village. Fraternally he is a member of the Free and Accepted Masons, in which he has taken the degrees of the Blue Lodge, Chapter and Council. He and his wife are members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Among those who know him best, Mr. Kiess bears a reputation of a man of sound judgment, good business ability and an expert in his special lines of effort. He has pronounced views, keeping himself well informed on all matters pertaining to the public welfare, and because of his genial disposition and excellent qualities of character he enjoys the confidence and good will of all who know him.

She was born 31 May 1880 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 04 May 1951 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Thomas Frederick Wuster:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 927:

Thomas F. Wuster, one of the best-known and most substantial farmers in the precinct of Grant, this county, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, January 24, 1878, son of Christ and Martha (Marquard) Wuster, who came to this state in June, 1879, and became pioneers in Porter precinct, Richardson County. Further and fitting reference to the Wuster family in this County is made elsewhere in this volume.

Reared on the home farm in Porter precinct, he having been but two years of age when his parents settled there, Thomas F. Wuster received his schooling in the schools of that neighborhood. He began working out at the early age of eleven years and worked constantly from the time he was fourteen years of age. In the spring of 1900 he began farming for himself. For one year he rented the Strunk farm and then in 1901 he bought his present place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, and there established his home and has ever since resided there, he and his family being very comfortably situated. His house, built in 1908, is one of the best in that neighborhood and the general farm buildings are in keeping with the same, the place being looked upon as one of the best-improved farms in that part of the county. In addition to his general farming Mr. Wuster gives considerable attention to the raising of live stock, with particular reference to sheep and hogs. He has a flock of more than one hundred and twenty head of sheep and in 1916 fed more than four hundred head of sheep for the market.

On March 7, 1901, Thomas F. Wuster was united in marriage to Margaret Heim, who was born on a pioneer farm in the precinct of Grant, Richardson County, May 37, 1880, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, prominent and influential pioneers of this county and further and extended reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, and to this union seven children have been born, namely: Minerva born on December 28, 1901; Ruth, November 6, 1903; Frederick, July 3, 1905; Dorothy, December 31, 1906; Joseph, September 11, 1909; Milton, July 18, 1912, and Dwight, April 23, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Wuster are members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and take a warm interest in church affairs, as well as in the general good works of the community in which they live, helpful in many ways in promoting such agencies as are designed to advance the common welfare thereabout. Mr. Wuster is independent in his political views, preferring to keep himself free to vote for the most competent candidate for public office without regard to party affiliations. He not only is a progressive and wide-awake farmer, but a public spirited citizen and tries to do his part in advancing the interests of the community of which he has been a resident since the days of his early childhood.

Notes for Howard E. Wuster:
Falls City, Nebraska, June 22, 1933 - County Attorney J. H. Falloon said charges of attempted blackmail probably will be filed against 16-year-old Howard Wuster of Dawson in connection with an extortion note received by Mr. and Mrs. Israel Ulmer of Dawson. Falloon said he would defer formal action until after conferring with the youth's foster parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wuster of Dawson. The attorney said the action was decided upon when the youth confessed attempting to extort $50 from the Ulmers. Ulmer is a retired farmer, and the Wusters live on a farm. The note threatened the Ulmer home would be burned if the money was not paid. The youth was taken into custody after he crawled along a fence to get a bottle containing $5. The youth told officers he wanted money to finance a radio invention.

477. Charles Edward[8] Stoltz (Mary Ann[7] Ulmer, Isaac L.[6], Johann Leonard[5], Christina Margaretha[4] Gohl, Michael[3], Isaac[2], Jerg[1]) was born 23 Apr 1870 in Cogan Station, Lycoming Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 22 Jun 1944 in San Antonio, Bexar Co, Texas. He married Anna Margaret Heim 1894, daughter of Johann Heim and Rosina Heim. She was born 11 Feb 1869 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 03 Oct 1961 in San Antonio, Bexar Co, Texas.

Notes for Charles Edward Stoltz:

Charles E. Stoltz, for years a well-known and successful farmer, living in Franklin precinct, this county, has recently disposed of his fine farm consisting of one hundred and sixty acres of prime land, all in an excellent state of improvement; however, he is still the owner of forty acres of land in Texas, in the irrigated section of the Rio Grande. He was born on April 23, 1870, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of William and Mary (Ulmer) Stoltz, also natives of the same county and state. William Stoltz was a son of Jacob Stoltz, a native of Germany. Mary Ulmer was the daughter of Isaac Ulmer and wife.

William Stoltz came to Richardson County from Pennsylvania in 1886 and located between Dawson and Stella, where he bought one hundred and sixty acres of raw prairie land. He moved his family to the farm the following spring and began the task of clearing the ground for cultivation. William Stoltz was born in 1847 and died on March 20, 1915. His wife, Mary Ulmer, was born on May 31, 1849, and died on January 11, 190l. They were the parents of the following children: Charles E., the subject of this sketch; Jacob F., who lives in Aurora, Illinois; Isaac H., of Onaga, Kansas; Samuel, who lives in Chicago; William F., who lives on the home farm; Ezra W., of Jerome, Idaho; Daniel, who died in 1878; Martin, who died in 1896; Mrs. Clara Bobbitt, who lives in Jerome, Idaho, and Hattie, who lives in Porter precinct. Of these children, Charles E. was educated in the Lycoming county schools, Pennsylvania, and Jacob was graduated from the Stella high school and from the University of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. William Stoltz were married on June 22, 1869.

Following his education, Charles E. Stoltz assisted his father in building up a home and continued in this way up to the time of his marriage in 1893. In the latter year he rented his father's farm for four years and later bought out the home place, subsequently selling it. In 1904 he moved to Dawson and for two years was engaged in the hardware and implement business and then sold out. In 1906 Mr. Stoltz bought an improved farm near Holdridge, Phillips County, Nebraska. He was the second man to pay fifty dollars an acre for land in that locality, and sold his holding at an enhanced price of seventy-five dollars an acre. He then moved to Franklin precinct, this county, and bought the farm which he vacated about twelve months ago, paying one hundred dollars an acre for the same in 1908. This tract of one hundred and sixty acres he parted with in 1916, obtaining one hundred and seventy-five dollars an acre for the land.

On February 9, 1893. Charles E. Stoltz was united in marriage to Anna Heim, who was born in Lycoming county-, Pennsylvania, on February 11, 1869, daughter of John J. and Rosina Heim, also natives of that state. Further mention of this branch of the Heim family will be found in another part of this work in a sketch relating to Israel Heim. To Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz four children have been born, as follow: Esther, born on June 23, 1895: Iva, December 27, 1900; Carl, December 30, 1904, and Mildred, October 20, 1908.

Mr. Stoltz is a Democrat, but has never sought public office. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias and of the Modern Woodmen, and in the affairs of both organizations he takes a warm interest. He and his wife and family are members of the United Evangelical church.

Notes for William F. Stoltz:

Among the well-known and progressive farmers of Porter precinct, Richardson County, is William F. Stoltz, owner of three hundred and twenty acres of land of prime quality in section 35. He was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, on October 20, 1878, the son of William and Mary (Ulmer) Stoltz, also natives of the same county and state. William Stoltz was a son of Jacob Stoltz, a native of Germany. Mary Ulmer was the daughter of Isaac Ulmer and wife.

William Stoltz came from Pennsylvania to Richardson County in 1886 and located between Dawson and Stella, where he bought one hundred and sixty acres of raw prairie land. He moved his family to the farm in the following spring. William Stoltz was born in 1847 and died on March 20, 1915. His wife, Mary Ulmer, was born on May 31, 1849, and died on January 11, 1901. Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz were married on June 22, 1869.

William F. Stoltz, the subject of this sketch, was seven years old when his parents came to this county from Pennsylvania. He attended the district schools and later went to the high school of Stella. When he had completed the latter course, he attended the Lincoln Business College. Thus equipped by preparatory training he began working for himself. He started to work as a farm hand in 1901 and continued for one year, and in 1902 he rented his present farm from his father and from his maternal uncle, Daniel Ulmer. In 1908 he bought one hundred and sixty acres of excellent land and later, when the estate was settled in 1916, he bought out the other heirs. In 1905 he erected a substantial well-planned house and here he and his family make their home, comfortably situated.

On October 2, 1904, William F. Stoltz was united in marriage to Effie Tolly, daughter of R. J. and Julia (McQueen) Tolly, natives of Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Tolly were among the early settlers of Richardson County and are now living near Stella on a farm. Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz are the parents of one child named Carroll, born on September 21, 1905. 515. Reuben Lauren[8] Ulmer (Emanuel[7], Martin[6], Johann Leonard[5], Christina Margaretha[4] Gohl, Michael[3], Isaac[2], Jerg[1]) was born 24 Feb 1893 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 30 Jul 1973 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Marian True Stratton 16 Jun 1915 in Brownville, Nebraska, daughter of Clarence Stratton and Mary Heim. She was born 11 Nov 1895 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 16 Nov 1991 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Reuben Lauren Ulmer:

Reuben Ulmer (1893-1973) bought from his father, Emanuel Ulmer, 80 acres of treeless untilled land, bordered on three sides by farms of brothers and a sister, Reuben never traveled outside Richardson County until he went to Brownville to marry True Stratton (1895) in 1915.

Osage orange hedges were planted as fences and windbreaks which, when grown, provided fence posts and firewood (cut by axe) an grew again to posts and firewood.

Reuben built a barn and outbuildings and helped build the house. (In retirement he was a carpenter.) He and True landscaped the house area with elm and maple trees around a curving drive to the house and dreamed of when there would be enough shade for their children to play in: Marian (Leatherman) and Evelyn of Dawson; Lorraine (Shorney), Plattsmouth; Sylvia (Anderson), Springfield, Missouri; Ernest, New York City; and Nadine (Hill), Gresham, Oregon.

Reuben and True contributed much to the Dawson Evangelical Church, including as choir director, pianist and organist, and as musicians for funerals. True was a piano teacher for many years. The children all played musical instruments, encouraged by Ruby Brown, who involved nearly every Dawson school pupil in the music program. Ernest went on, following service in World War II, to a career as concert pianist and professor at the Manhattan School of Music in New York.

A progressive conservationist, Reuben planted many trees and in the 19305 an acre of hackberry trees, which did not survive the drought and were replaced by Chinese elm. The drought years of the 1930s were hard for the family and for scores of destitute men and even whole families plodding down the highway in summer, for whom Reuben and True provided food and shelter.

After 1940 the county gave support to the Stratton Cemetery near Verdon, which had been started by True's paternal grandmother – interesting because the Heim cemetery in Dawson was started by True's maternal grandparents.

Reuben and True's married life spanned changes from breaking sod by single horse-drawn walking plow to tractors; from kerosene lamps to electricity by Delco generator to the Rural Electrification Administration, with its aim of bringing electricity to every farm (Reuben was instrumental in bringing it to the county), with refrigerators replacing the old cooling method of lowering containers of food into the well by ropes anchored to a well box; from travel by horse and buggy with a heated soapstone for warmth in winter, to seeing by television man on the moon.

Marian and Wayne Leatherman now own Reuben and True's farm, where they raised five children, and brought modern equipment and methods to the farm. Their daughter Linda was the first fourth generation graduate of Dawson High School in 1964, being the great-granddaughter of Mary Heim Stratton, who graduated in 1891 in Dawson's first graduating class of five persons.

Reuben L. Ulmer, 80, Dawson, died Monday July 30, 1973 at Falls City. Survivors: wife, True: son, Reuben, New York City; Daughters, Evelyn, Mrs. Allen (Lorraine) Shorney, both Plattsmouth, Mrs. Dale (Sylvia) Anderson, Springfield, Missouri, Mrs. Wayne (Marian) Leatherman, Dawson, Mrs. Ron (Nadine) Hill, Gresham, Oregon, sisters, Mrs. Mary Wuster, Edna, both Humboldt; 13 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren.

Ernest R. Ulmer age 90 of Lincoln, formerly of Dawson, NE. Passed away Saturday, February 25, at the Gateway Senior Living Center in Lincoln, Nebraska. A funeral service for Ernest Ulmer will be held Saturday, March 3, at 10:30 a.m. at the Methodist Church in Humboldt, Nebraska. Burial will follow at the Hiem Cemetery near Dawson, Nebraska. Military Graveside Honor will be provided by the Humboldt American Legion Honor Guard and the Army National Guard Honor Guard. No viewing or visitation is scheduled for Ernest Ulmer.

Ernest Ulmer was born May 18, 1921, in the home of Reuben and True Ulmer north of Dawson, Nebraska. He began his study of piano at the age of three with his mother and the study of violin at age 7 with his father. He attended Peru State College with his two sisters in 1938 for one year.

The following year he stayed home. In 1940, he began piano studies under Earnest Harrison at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln. While there he also studied violin and organ. He obtained a bachelor's degree in abstentia, graduating two months early so he could go to the Army.

He was drafted into the Army in March of 1943 and attended basic training at Camp Roberts in California before being transferred to Ft. Custer, Michigan. In January of 1944 he was sent overseas, serving in France, Germany, Belgium and England for two years, landing on Normandy Beach 6 days after D-Day. Following the war, he studied at Trinity College in London with Nicolas Medtner and Marguerite Wolfe while awaiting passage to the United States. He was honorably discharged in 1946 from the Army.

When he returned to the States, he attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and received his Masters' degree in 1947. Subsequently in 1947 under the GI bill, he studied at Manhattan School of Music in New York under Harold Bauer and Dora Zaslavsky, and in Paris during the summer of 1948 with Robert Casadesus and at the Paris Conservatoire in 1948-1949. While at the Conservatoire, he was awarded a Premier Prix in piano. In Paris he also studied privately with Nadia Boulanger, the distinguished harmony, counterpoint, piano and composition teacher whose other students included such distinguished American composers as Aaron Copland and Elliott Carter. With Boulanger, Ernest pursued a rigorous course of study in harmony and counterpoint as well as examining a vast repertoire ranging from Monteverdi madrigals through the Bach cantatas to the music of Debussy, Ravel, and Stravinsky. After Boulanger's death, a collection of Ernest's letters to Boulanger were privately published in France with the title, "Spet lettres de Ernest Ulmer a Nadia Boulanger, 1959-1979." He also made frequent appearances with the conducting class of Eugene Bigot. He returned to New York in 1949 as a student at Manhattan School of Music, and received his Masters' Degree prior to teaching there. He became a professor of piano at Manhattan School of Music in 1956 and served as Co-Coordinator of the Piano Major Department starting in 1965. He taught there for 34 years prior to his retirement in 1990. In 1991 he received a Distinguished Faculty Citation from the school.

His debut performance in New York City was in 1950 and throughout his career he played numerous concerts in New York City at Manhattan School of Music, Town Hall (initially in 1954, "the place" to perform solo in New York City at that time), Kaufman Auditorium, two concerts at Carnegie Recital Hall, as well as concerts in the major capitals of Europe (1957-1958) and in southeast Nebraska. On March 9, 1960, the New York Times described his performance of the night before as "brilliant," "meticulous as to detail and performed with much grace." His playing was also described as "quite delightful." He was also invited to perform concertos with various local and regional orchestras during a period when every city in the United States of any size had a first rate orchestra.

In addition to his tours as a soloist, Mr. Ulmer toured the United States with chamber ensembles and the Robert Shaw Chorale (1951-1952). He was an accompanist for Ruggiero Ricci, Cleve Genzlinger, Carol Feurer, and Mrs. Ruth Lloyd (mother of actor Christopher Lloyd and Sam Lloyd). He made ensemble appearances with Camilla Wicks and the Manhattan Trio, of which he was a founding member in 1952. The two other members were Manhattan School colleagues, violinist Oliver Colbentson and cellist David Wells. The Trio regularly performed live concerts on the radio in the 1950's.

His favorite composer was Claude Debussy and he recorded the Debussy Violin Sonata with Oliver Colbentson for Concert Hall Records and in 1979, Ernest recorded his only solo album, a complete recording of Debussy's two books of Preludes for piano solo on Protone records. Stereo Review described the latter recording as "a major contender among the fine recordings of these works." He also received a rave review from Harris Goldsmith in High Fidelity magazine.

In 1988, the Vantage Press published Ernest's book on piano technique, A New Approach to Piano Technique for the Serious Musician.

In 1993-1994 he traveled to Japan, where he taught piano at Kobe College for Women for a year before returning to the United States.

Ernest was known as a French specialist, frequently performing the music of Debussy and Ravel, but his favorite composers included the three B's, Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms. Like many other musicians, Ernest was dazzled by Bach's compositional technique and he studied the contrapuntal writing in the two books of Bach's The Well-Tempered Clavier in microscopic detail. He also arranged some of Bach's organ compositions for the piano.

In the summers of the early 1980's, he traveled throughout Spain, Italy, and Switzerland with his good friend Don Edman, another American pianist trained in Paris. They met in Manhattan in the early 1950's. They were lifelong friends. Ernest's friends included artists, musicians, writers, and intellectuals who met at the home of painter John Koch and his wife, Dora Zaslavsky, a noted piano coach under whom Ernest studied. Ernest indicated he became acquainted with this couple through his friend, Mrs. Lloyd. Ernest was actually featured in several of Mr. Koch's paintings, one of which hung in his own living room for many years. In 2007 he donated this painting to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. The paintings he owned at one time were featured in a showing at a New York gallery in the late 1990's, and in a book published about Mr. Koch. He also collected paintings by Jean Minard and Maurice Grosser.

In addition to art, he collected matchbooks, stamps and coins from all over the world. He took numerous pictures while traveling in Europe. Ernest moved to Florida in 1995 to enjoy his retirement years, continuing to perform when requested for friends. He returned to Nebraska in 2003 to be closer to family. His family frequently requested performance of "The Canary," a piece he composed, as well as many others. After being in ill health for several years, Ernest died peacefully in his room at Gateway Senior Living in Lincoln, Nebraska on February 25, 2012. Ernest was preceded in death by his parents, and two sisters Evelyn Ulmer and Lorraine Shorney.

He is survived by his sisters Sylvia Anderson of Sprigfield, Missouri; Marian Leatherman of Dawson, Nebraska; Nadine Hill of Gresham, Oregon; nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

The days are long but made much shorter knowing you in my heart. Just as the days of a flower are spent in preparation, growing deeper so the blossom can be even more beautiful-just for you. The footprint you placed in my soul brings joy that can never be taken away. And now that distance separates, makes the past so much more precious bringing life into my soul. Counting the ways as each step is taken toward THE DAY of our rejoicing!

Notes for Nelson Howard Ulmer:

Nelson Howard Ulmer, born May 16, 1896 and died March 18, 1972, was one of six children born to Emanuel and Sarah Heim Ulmer on a farm two miles north of Dawson. Following graduation from Dawson High School in 1914 Nelson farmed for his father and completed a course in agriculture at the University of Nebraska then purchased eighty acres of farmland from his father. On August 20, 1918 he was drafted into the Motor Transport Corps of the Army and sent to France to serve in the Army of Occupation. His time in service was difficult, having suffered mumps, tonsilitis and diptheria. The one bright spot was playing cornet in an orchestra that accompanied a vaudeville troupe touring the occupied territory of Germany. He was discharged September 23, 1919 and returned to farming. Soon he met Cecelia Caroline Smith, born March 17, 1900 and died May 29, 1967, an orphan from Brooklyn, New York, who was brought to Richardson County by train with her four brothers and a sister in 1915. The younger children were placed in foster homes but Cecelia at the age of fifteen worked for her keep in homes wherever help was needed. She completed eighth grade at Grand Avenue country school.

On March 23, 1921, Nelson and Cecelia were married at the Emanuel Ulmer home at the north edge of Dawson by W.W. Underkoffler, pastor of the Evangelical Church where both the bride and groom had been and continued to be active members the remainder of their lives. Three daughters were born to this union: Genevieve Mae on February 8, 1922; Dolores Irene on May 4, 1923 and Caroline Ruth was stillborn on July 8, 1924.

Genevieve attended school in Dawson from kindergarten through graduation in 1940 and was hired as secretary to the school superintendent that fall. In May 1942 she accepted a Civil Service position in Washington, D.C. where in 1946 she met and on September 13 married Herbert Lee Young who was born November 8, 1920 in West Virginia. They made their home in the D.C. area for thirty-two years. Their children are Ray Nelson born August 26, 1947, Charles Edward born December 17, 1949 and Wayne Cortland born September 14, 1956. Following graduation from the University of Mary land, Ray and Charles found employment and settled in California. Ray married Nancy Josephine Goudie on June 22, 1949 in San Francisco. Charles married Deborah Marie Calafat on January 27, 1979 in Pasadena. Their two daughters are Darlene Marie born September 16, 1982 and Crystal Joy born May 10, 1984.

Following his retirement from government service, Herbert, Genevieve and Wayne moved to Humboldt in 1974. Wayne was graduated from Peru and Northwest Missouri State Colleges. On May 16, 1980 he married Dee Ann Dettmer and they live in Lenexa, Kansas where he has employment.

The ancestry of the Ulmer and Heim families is recorded in Edwards History of Richardson County.

Notes for Rev. Arthur Albert Schade:
Taken from Arthur A. Schade: His Life and Ministry, self-published in 1992, written by Sarah M. Elsesser (his daughter):

Mrs. Schade was born on December 5, 1885, the identical date on which her husband was born, she in Lycoming County, near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, he in the vicinity of Herring, Kansas. Her father was the Rev. Thomas J. Schaefer and her mother was Sarah Margaret Schaefer, born Ulmer. She emanates from an ancestry which settled in Pennsylvania 1812 onward, making the journey from Philadelphia to Williamsport, a distance of approximately 140 miles, on foot. There they cleared the dense forest and established a sort of a colony of the Dunkard Faith. Her father grew up on the farm, attended normal school, as was the fashion those days, and became a country school teacher. After being married and establishing a family on the farm, he heard the call to become a Minister of the Gospel and attended an academic and theological school in Rochester, New York. After graduation he accepted a missionary appointment to South Dakota and became minister of Baptist churches in Parkston and a neighboring town. They lived in the city of Yankton at the time of his death from typhoid tever in February 1895.

The widow moved back to Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and supported the family through farming operations. Emma, the second oldest of the five daughters, followed her father in attending Normal School and becoming a country school teacher. After three years she decided to dedicate her life to Christian work and entered the Baptist Christian Training Institute in Philadelphia. The summer before she entered, Arthur A. Schade accepted an invitation to serve as assistant pastor of the country church to which she belonged, the Hepburn Baptist Church in the Blooming Grove Valley, becoming acquainted with Emma Schaefer. The acquaintance developed into a courtship and resulted in their marriage on August 4th, 1910, after Arthur had completed his theological course and Emma her training course.

The Schades pastored three churches over a period of eighteen years, 1910 to 1928, seven years in Cincinnati, Ohio, four years in Kankakee, Illinois, and seven years in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. After another for years during which time Arthur held a position as Secretary of Young People's Work and Christian Education, they moved to Rochester, New York, where he held a position as professor at his alma mater, the Rochester Theological Seminary, for a period of twelve years.

The Schade couple moved to South Dakota January 1, 1946, where Arthrr served as the Executive Secretart of the South Dakota Council of Churches. During this time he came across the tragic need for retirement and nursing homes to minister to tte needs of the aged. On January 1, 1951, they moved to the town of Faulkton, South Dakota, where Mr. Schade held the position of administrator of the newly built Hill-Burton, Faulk County Memorial Hospital. At the same time they rented what had served as a hospital for a period of thirty-five years, the old Morse Home, and opened a nursing him with a view to getting first-hand experience in the operation of such a facility. Mrs. Schade was the hostess and superintendent in one person. It was during this period that they received the idea of retirement homes after the pattern of the David M. Dorsett Home. Having developed the plans for the home, it finally found realization in the first of the Pioneer Memorial Manors, the David M. Dorsett Home.

The availability of the Dorsett Legacy for the construction of a home for the aged in the city of Spearfish led to their moving to Spearfish in the fall of 1954, where they labored together to secure the funds for the construction of the home. She was receptionist and a sort of housemother until her health necessitated her complete retirement. She was still able with her husband to take a trip abroad during the summer of 1960 in recognition of their golden wedding anniversary. Since that time her condition slowly became worse until the summer of 1962, when she became a patient in the nursing home.

She expired peacefully on November 24, 1962, in the Dorsett Home at the age of 76 years, 11 months and 20 days, and is survived by her widowed husband, with whom she labored so intimately in such a wide range of service to their generation: three sons, Arthur Thomas, born on Christmas morning 1911, a very important person in the Electronics Division of General Electric Company, Liverpool, New York; Rev. Paul Gerhardt Schade, Chaplain in the United States Air Force, presently stationed at Wright-Patterson Air Base, Dayton, Ohio; Robert August Schade, born on their seventh marriage anniversary, connected with Republic Steel Works, and living in Youngstown, Ohio; two daughters, Emma Clara Klein, wife of Rev. Ernst E. Klein, minister of Old Cambridge Baptist Church, Cambridge, Massachusetts; and Sarah Margaret Elsesser, wife of Rev. Alex Elsesser, minister of the Community Baptist Church, Manchester, Connecticut; and seventeen grand-children.

Mrs. Schade was blessed with an amiable disposition and knew the secret of living harmoniously with people. Her husband pays her the tribute of never in all her public relationships or family relationships having given occasion for tensions of any kind.

Interment is to take place in the ancestral burial ground where her ancestors of several generations are resting, the burial ground of the Dunkard log meeting hose dating back approximately two centuries, located some nine miles from Williamsport, Hepburnville Townhip, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. A memorial service to be held in the Spearfish Congregational Church with the Rev. Westwood in charge, and in the Dunkard Church, Blooming Grove, with the Rev. Arthur Weisser, minister of the Andrews Street Baptist Church, Rochester, New York, officiating.

She was Director of Nursing Education at Sister Kenny Institute and taught for 17 years as an associate professor in the School of Public Health at the University of Minnesota. She authored many professional articles, ten textbooks in the field of nursing, and a pioneering textbook on long term care administration co-authored with her husband, Ken. For several years she wrote a monthly column, "Decisions in Aging" for the St. Paul Pioneer Press. Ruth's many friends and colleagues remember her as spirited, direct, hardworking, witty and bright, and deeply loyal to her friends and to her causes. Her work included offices with the New Century Club, the Minnesota chapter of the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America, and the Stratis Health Board. She served on the Board of Trustees at Unity Church Unitarian, being its first female Board Chairperson.

In retirement combined her lifelong enthusiasm for dogs and her writing skills in "Magic Dog," a biography of Ken and Ruth's first beloved golden retriever. George Kenneth Gordon was born February 26, 1932 in Buffalo, New York. He died September 26 at Episcopal Homes. His parents and two sisters were born in Scotland and immigrated to the United States in 1928, making Ken the only Yankee in his family. He is predeceased by his first wife, Esther, his parents, John and Mary, and two sisters, Maisie and Isabella. Ken attended Westminster College in New Castle, Pennsylvania where he found an emerging call to the ministry. After graduation, he volunteered as a missionary for three years in Egypt where he taught English and basketball at a boys' school. Returning home, he attended Pittsburgh Xenia Seminary where he found intellectual stimulation in a field that was close to his heart. After graduation, he was the minister for Presbyterian parishes in Guernsey and Fort Laramie, Wyoming. He found that community problems were spilling into the churches requiring additional skills so he received his doctorate degree in education from Indiana University where he then served on the faculty. He also served as Chief of Literacy at the Indiana Women's Prison System leading a one-year pioneering literacy project. His second pioneering project came when he joined the faculty of the Program in Hospital Administration at the University of Minnesota. Here he headed the Center for Long-Term Care Administration, one of six centers in the U.S. funded by the Kellogg Foundation when legislation mandated licensure of nursing home administrators. This required the development of a curriculum to transform this work into an academically based profession. He co-authored the first textbook in the field which went into four editions. Ken served on the Board of Unity Unitarian Church, received the 1994 Education Award from the American College of Health Care Administrators, and both the St. Paul and Roseville clubs of Rotary International recognized him for his active role in their world-wide polio eradication program. Ken loved to fish, play tennis and golf. He also loved classical music and played the piano beautifully, mainly 30s-50s songs. He and his wife, Ruth, spent ten winters in Puerto Vallarta, many summers at their home in Marine-on-St. Croix and enjoyed traveling to various countries in Central America and Europe.

Charlie's impact extended far beyond his professional endeavors; he was deeply involved in his community, serving on numerous boards and commissions. His contributions to the Lycoming County Planning Commission, Lycoming County Board of View, and Loyalsock Township Zoning Board showcased his commitment to local development and his desire to see his community thrive. His love for his alma mater was evident through his service on the Lycoming College Board of Trustees, and he also lent his expertise to the Ross Club, Central Oak Heights, a place near and dear to his heart, Williamsport Rotary Club, Blooming Grove Historical Society, Eureka Lodge 335 F.&A.M., and the Scottish Rite Valley of Williamsport, where he was honored as a 33rd degree Mason. Charlie's commitment to his community was unwavering. As a member Emeritus of the Salvation Army Williamsport Board of Directors and Advisory member of the American Rescue Workers, he played an instrumental role in establishing thrift store shops and locations, ensuring those less fortunate had access to essential goods and services. He was the recipient of numerous community honors and service awards, a reflection of his generous spirit and dedication to the well-being of others.

An active member of Pine Street United Methodist Church, Charlie's faith was the cornerstone of his existence. In addition to the various roles he served at Pine Street, he also served in many different capacities for the United Methodist Conference. Charlie lived his beliefs through every action and interaction, from the way he conducted himself in business to his volunteer work. Charlie's interests were as diverse as his contributions to the community. He enjoyed golfing, boating, and spending time with friends at the Laurel Lodge Hunting Club. He had an innate ability to make everyone he met feel valued and important. His warm smile and kind words were a soothing presence that will be missed by many.

Charlie leaves behind his wife of 70 years, Shirley A. (Solomon) Springman, the love of his life and steadfast companion. Charlie's love for Shirley was the kind of love that inspired all who were fortunate enough to witness it. He is also survived by two sisters, Virginia Springman and Eleanor Mutchler, both of Cogan Station and three nieces whom he cherished, Sharon Taylor (Paul), Barbara Willier (Bruce), and Jane Zarker (Doug), as well as six great-nieces and nephews.

She married Rev. Alex H. Elsesser Bef. 1963. He was born 02 Mar 1918 in Winnipeg, Canada, and died 14 Jul 2009.

Notes for Sarah Margaret Schade:
Sarah Margaret Elsesser, formerly of Manchester, beloved wife of the Rev. Alex H. Elsesser, passed away peacefully Tuesday (December 4, 2007), at home in Penney Farms, Florida. She was 84. Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, she was the youngest of five children of the Rev. Arthur A. Schade, former professor at Rochester Divinity School and a nursing home pioneer, and Emma (Schaefer) Schade, a descendant of the German Baptist Dunkard community in Pennsylvania's Blooming Grove Valley. Sarah, who enjoyed playing piano, met her future husband when she was asked by her father to accompany the divinity school student as he played the musical saw on a visit to the professor's home. She and Alex went on to make touching music together during 64 years of marriage. Besides being a devoted partner in Rev. Elsesser's ministry in Meriden; Dayton, Ohio; and at Community Baptist Church in Manchester, Sarah also became a librarian and media specialist for the town of Manchester, working in the elementary schools. She wrote and published teaching materials on library skills and, later, family biographies and essays. The Sarah M. Elsesser Media Center at Robertson Elementary School in Manchester is named in her honor.

Her passion for music extended to stints as a church organist, including at Memorial Baptist Church in Hartford, and various choirs, including the Manchester Chorale. Sarah was a tough competitor, not only in the many games she loved, especially mah-jongg and Scrabble, but in life as well, confounding doctors with her stoic resolve in overcoming one medical adversity after another in her later years. Many who came to know her were inspired by her selflessness, her always-positive outlook and her view of time as a precious gift, to make music, to sew, to write, to read -- right to her dying day.

Besides her husband, she leaves four children, Ruth E. Elsesser of Cottonwood, Arizona; Lois J. Elsesser and her husband, Joseph F. Nunes, of West Hartford; Paul H. Elsesser and his wife, Kathy, of Glen Ellyn, Illinois; and John A. Elsesser and his wife, Holly, of Coventry. She also leaves five cherished grandchildren, Alexandra R. Elsesser and Sarah Cortney "Cori" Elsesser of Glen Ellyn; Sarah Rose Nunes and Daniel J. Nunes of West Hartford; and Jenna E. Elsesser of Coventry; two step-grandchildren, Jesse Nunes of Boston and Derek Freedline of Framingham, Massachusetts; a sister, Clara Gallup of Brookline, Massachusetts; and many nieces and nephews and their families, including Marjorie and David Nelson of Newtown.

A memorial service will be held December 27 at 10 a.m. in Memorial Church at Penney Farms. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Commons Library at Penney Farms Retirement Community, Penney Farms, FL 32079.

Notes for Rev. Alex H. Elsesser:

The Rev. Alex H. Elsesser, formerly of Manchester, an American Baptist minister who served in Ohio, Connecticut and Western Massachusetts over 40 years, died peacefully Tuesday, (July 14, 2009) at home in Penney Farms, Florida. He was 91. Born March 2, 1918, in Winnipeg, Canada, Alex was the youngest of three children of Heinrich and Katherine Maier Elsesser, religious pacifists of German heritage who had fled Russia in 1912 in the face of the Bolshevik Revolution. The family eventually settled in Milwaukee, where Alex was raised and developed lifelong electrical skills at Boys' Technical and Preparatory High School. Instead of pursuing an electrical engineering degree, Alex followed a path to the ministry at Rochester (New York) Theological Seminary. A consummate lifelong learner, he graduated from Wesleyan University in Middletown, Hartford Seminary, Andover Newton Seminary in Boston and the University of Connecticut at Storrs. As a young seminarian, he mastered the lost art of playing the musical saw. While looking for an accompanist on piano, he knocked on a professor's door and met his future wife and love of his life, Sarah Schade Elsesser. Alex and Sarah were wed a week before his ordination in July 1943, and they went on to make joyous music together during 64 years of marriage, until her death in December 2007. Alex's Christian ministry began at Liberty Street Baptist Church in Meriden, where he served as pastor for four years before becoming pastor of the new Shroyer Road Baptist Church in Dayton, OH in 1947. The church enjoyed much growth under Alex's leadership, and he left at the end of 1955 to become director of Christian education for the Ohio Baptist Convention. In that capacity, Alex's achievements included developing two year-round youth camps from the ground up. In 1960, with the family having grown to include four children, Alex returned to Connecticut to become pastor of Community Baptist Church in Manchester, where an effective outreach program again generated steady growth. A stint as chairman of the Connecticut Baptist Convention's camping program led to his becoming minister of Christian education for the American Baptist Churches of Connecticut in 1965. In that role, Alex helped expand Camp Wightman in North Stonington, revitalized church curriculums, developed seminars on marriage enrichment and church stewardship, and often served as pastor to the pastors. After completing his work with ABCConn in 1977, Alex became area minister for the American Baptist Church of Massachusetts, working with 63 churches in Western Massachusetts for whom he served as a resource person, consultant and spiritual adviser before retiring in 1983. As a proverbial jack of all trades, Alex routinely provided a helping hand to parishioners and friends that often went beyond the spiritual plane. Many older vintage garage-door openers in the state likely still bear his fingerprints. After moving to Penney Farms in 1992, Alex continued his ministry in different ways, working with Habitat for Humanity, serving as chaplain at the nursing-care center and singing with the Shuffle-Aires. As colleague George E. Daniels wrote in honor of Alex in 1977, "It is...the unselfish giving of himself in sharing God's gift of Good News that grips his heart and compels him to act and be, clearly marking what he is-a Teacher of the Faith."

Alex leaves four children, Ruth E. Elsesser of Cottonwood, Arizona, Lois J. Elsesser and her husband, Joseph F. Nunes, of West Hartford, Paul H. Elsesser and his wife, Kathy, of Glen Ellyn, Illinois, and John A. Elsesser and his wife, Holly, of Coventry.

He also leaves five beloved grandchildren, Alexandra R. Elsesser and Sarah Cortney "Cori" Elsesser of Glen Ellyn; Sarah Rose Nunes and Daniel J. Nunes of West Hartford; and Jenna E. Elsesser of Coventry; two step-grandchildren, Jesse Nunes of Abington, Massachusetts and Derek Freedline of Southborough, Massachusetts; sister-in-law, Clara Klein Gallup of Brookline, Massachusetts; several nieces and nephews, including Marjorie and David Nelson of Newtown and Janet Klein of Peabody, Massachusetts; and many close friends and their families, including Wilda Stratton Loughead of Penney Farms.

A memorial service and burial will be held at the convenience of the family at Penney Farms. Contributions in his memory may be made to Community Baptist Church, 585 E. Center St., Manchester, CT 06040-441. Helm Funeral Home, 1811 Idelwild Ave., Green Cove Springs, FL is handling arrangements.

Notes for Orville Junior Schmidt, Jr.:

Never one to acquire or take stock in material possessions or the riches of many, Orville Schmidt enjoyed the simple pleasures in life. A hard working man, he provided well for the family he loved deeply in his own quiet way. With a faith filled heart, he served his community while his keen sense of humor added much to the days of those around him. Sadly missed, he will be long remembered in the hearts of those he leaves behind. Orville's story began in the year 1925 as a sense of joy filled the air. Charlie Chaplin flicks and Babe Ruth baseball was all the rage while the Roaring Twenties brought forth the Charleston and the infamous flapper. Not only was America experiencing a time of rapid growth, a young couple from Portland, Indiana was as well. Raymond and Marie Schmidt were blessed with the birth of their first child, a son they named Orville on April 21, 1925. Hard working farmers, Orville was a welcome addition to their lives.

While just a two-year-old toddler, Orville's family packed up their life in Indiana and headed north to Michigan, settling in the town of Kendall. Over time young Orville became a big brother to four siblings, Pauline, Everett, Richard and Frances. During his youth he occasionally helped his father clean the Kalamazoo Speedway which was an exciting time for him. As the onset of the Great Depression cast a shadow of hardship and struggle for all from coast to coast, Orville's family was no exception. Like many during this time in small rural communities, he attended school in a one room schoolhouse in Kendall before eventually setting out to find work. Before long Orville found himself with a family of his own. He married a young woman named Elsie Like and together they made their home in Plainwell. It was a good place to raise a family, and they were soon blessed with two children, Karen and Jim. Orville supported his family with his work at Allied Paper which he acquired in the 1950s. He began there as a truck loader and then as a mechanic. In time he worked his way into becoming a truck driver for the paper mill and after 38 years of dedicated employment there, he eventually retired. Sadly, his wife, Elsie passed away in 1974.

Often described as a quiet fellow, Orville had quite a sense of humor. He was very personable and enjoyed the company of close friends and family. However, when his sister, Pauline wanted him to meet a friend of hers, Orville simply put aside the phone number of Peggy Rhodes for several weeks before deciding to do anything with it. He did, however, finally make that phone call, and before they knew it they were exchanging vows of marriage. On May 26, 1977 he married Margaret “Peggy” Schmidt in the front room of their home.

At the age of 52, Orville's life turned in an exciting new direction. It was then when he accepted the Lord into his life, was baptized and became a dedicated member of the First Baptist Church of Plainwell. With faith as his guide, Orville found a sense of contentment and new meaning in his life. He worked as a constable for the City of Plainwell police department for a few years, and spent over 50 years volunteering on both the Plainwell and Gun Plain Township fire departments. With a shared love for travel, Orville and Peggy traveled often and nearly each summer enjoyed visiting the state of Pennsylvania. Among his varied interests, Orville liked dancing and was an avid polka dancer. He collected belt buckles and had quite a sweet tooth he fancied satisfying well into his later years. In time health issues overcame Orville and at the age of 86, he passed away on Friday, July 29, 2011. Gone but never to be forgotten, he will be dearly missed.

Orville's family will receive friends Monday, August 1, 2011 from 4-7 PM at the Life Story Funeral Home, 120 S. Woodhams, Plainwell (685-5881). Funeral services will be held Tuesday, August 2, 2011, 11:00 AM at the First Baptist Church of Plainwell. Burial will be at the Hillside Cemetery. Orville’s family includes his wife, Margaret “Peggy”; children: Karen Rocha and Jim (Liz) Schmidt, both of Kalamazoo; two step-children: Daniel (Jan) Rhodes of Portage and Diana (Dale) Curtis of Grand Rapids; nine grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; sister, Pauline Anderson of Plainwell; his brothers: Everett (Pat) Schmidt of Otsego and Richard Schmidt of Plainwell; numerous nieces and nephews. Along with his first wife, Elsie, Orville was also preceded in death by his sister, Frances Pittsley.

Children of Carolyn Metzger and Galen Menne are:

1850 i. Michele Janeen[11] Menne, born 07 Nov 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts; died 19 Mar 2016 in Bowie, Maryland. She married John Forney.

Notes for Michele Janeen Menne:
Michele Janeen Menne Forney, 49, on Saturday March 19, 2016 died of brain cancer at the home of her parents in Bowie, Maryland. Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts, the daughter of Rev. Galen Menne and Carolyn Menne. Mrs. Forney was a beloved media specialist (school librarian) in Prince Georges County Schools. Prior to her illness which began in November 2014, Michele was librarian both at High Bridge Elementary School in Bowie, Maryland and Seabrook Elementary School in Seabrook, Maryland. She previously was a librarian at Anne Arundel County Schools: Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School.Michele graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, Maryland in 1984. She attended Towson University and received a bachelor's degree in mass communications in 1988 and later earned a Master's Degree in library science.
She was a member of Pasadena United Methodist Church, sang in the choir and was elected as president of the United Methodist Women. As a librarian, she was president of the Maryland Association of State Librarians and served on the Black-Eyed Susan Committee to select children's books to be read by children at participating schools. Michele was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she has served as secretary.

Eulogy for Michele Forney-part 1 - Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts to her parents Carolyn and Galen Menne. Her parents moved from Pennsylvania to Ware so that Galen could be a student pastor of the Methodist Church in that town while also being a student at Boston University School of Theology. As many of you know, Michele worked as a school librarian. Since she was always selecting children's books to be part of the Black-Eyed Susan nominations for the year or reading to the children that came to the library, we could not resist reading a child's book that she received this past Christmas. The title is "On the Night You Were Born" and the author is Nancy Tillman. Michele this book is dedicated to you.

On the night you were born, the moon smiled with such wonder that the stars peeked in to see you and the night wind whispered, "Life will never be the same." Because there has never been anyone Like you…ever in the world.So enchanted with you were the wind and rain that they whispered the sound of your wonderful name. The sound of your name is a magical one. Let's say it aloud before we go on. MICHELE!It sailed through the farmland high one the breeze. Who in the world is exactly like you ? Who whowho.Over the ocean and through the trees…Until everyone heard it and everyone knew of the one and only ever you. Not once had there been such eyes, such a nose, such silly, wiggly wonderful toes. In fact, I think I'll count to three so you can wiggle your toes for me.

When the polar bears heard, they danced until dawn. From far away places the geese flew home. The moon stayed up until morning next day. And none of the ladybugs flew away.So whenever you doubt just how special you are and you wonder who loved you, how much and how far, listening for the honking. High in the sky. (They're singing a song to remember you by.)Or notice the bears asleep at the zoo. (It's because they've been dancing all night for you!)Or drift off to sleep to the sound of the wind (Listen closely…it's whispering your name again!)If the moon stays up until morning one day, or a lady bug lands and decides to stay, or a little bird sits at your window awhile, it's because they're all hoping to see your smile.For never before in story or rhyme (not even once upon a time has the world ever known a you, my friend, and it never will, never ever again…Heaven blew every trumpet and played every horn on the wonderful, marvelous night you were born.

Michele entered the world and was cared for by her parents and always surrounded by a loving and caring family of those who were in the church. Five times Michele moved with her family—(from Ware to Peabody, Massachusetts) then (from Peabody to Hagerstown, Maryland,) then from Hagerstown to Lothian, Maryland,) then from (Lothian to Damascus, Maryland,) and lastly (Damascus to Glenn Dale, Md.). Michele was always making new friends at each place she lived, then would leave them and say goodbye and start all over. When Michele grew up she kept on doing what she was good at—making new friends. She has made many, many friends and they stood by her during her illness. They visited her, they cheered her up, they brought food, they brought flowers, they brought gifts and most importantly of all was that they remembered her in their prayers.

Michele had many happy days in her early years. When she was just two years old, her mother would read a book over and over again and soon Michele was able to say the words out loud on one page and know what words to say when the pages were turned. When she was four years old, her brother Jeremy was born. Michele loved her baby brother and as they grew up they played together, Michele especially enjoyed the trips to see her grandparents, aunts and uncles, and cousins in Pennsylvania. She loved the sights and sounds of living in the country and getting to know the farm animals. She went with her family on summer vacations to the town where she was born. Michele and Jeremy would sit in the back seat of the car with the ice chest in between so that they did not fight.

Michele loved going to the library and checking out books. What a joy it was for her when she was able to read books herself. It opened up a whole new world. One assignment she had in elementary school was for her to write a children's book. She did write a book and treasured it. She brought it to her school library one day and showed it to the students. Maybe one day the students that saw her book will write a book too or perhaps even become a school librarian.Michele attended three different high schools- Damascus High School in Damascus, DuVal High School in Lanham, and Eleanor High School in Greenbelt. Michele was an alto and sang in the choirs at each of the schools including the production of the Sound of Music. In addition, she received varsity letters in both cross country and track. Her goal was to get to state competition in each of these sports Michele's first job was at Baskins and Robins dipping ice cream. In 1984, she graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School. Then she went on to Towson University, graduating in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications.

Eulogy for Michele Menne Forney –part 2 - Shortly after completing college, Michele married John Forney, who was a member of the Glenn Dale Church. Michele began a job working for The Baltimore-Washington Corridor Chamber of Commerce in Laurel. Soon her son Colin was born. So she ended her job so that she could take care of him. When he was a couple of years old, she would read books to Colin. From that time on until his teenage years, she made sure that at every birthday party she read a book to all of the children attending. Michele looked forward to family vacations and was a good mother. When Colin was in elementary school Michele encouraged him to participate in activities within his church and school. For a time Colin took lessons at playing the violin and he was in the Cub Scouts.

Things changed for Michele when her marriage ended in divorce. She worked part-time and then went back to school at Towson University. From there, she received a Master of Science degree in library science. She became a librarian in Anne Arundel County Schools—Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele was the fourth generation of school teachers. Later she became a librarian at Prince George's County Schools—Seabrook Elementary School and High Bridge Elementary School. Michele lobbied the school board seeking more money in the school budget for library services.

In the years before her illness, she worked 3 days at one school and 2 days at the other. Michele was a member of the Maryland Association for School Librarians since 2004 and served as president in 2010-2011. She was also a member of the Black Eyed Susan Awards Committee since 2006 and helped nominate the children's books to be read in Maryland elementary schools for each year. At her schools, Michele encouraged students to read these books and then select the book or books that they liked the best. She always planned an ice cream party for all children that participated. Her favorite annual event was to attend the National Book Festivals held in Washington. Michele's biggest thrill was to meet an author of a children's book and then have him or her autograph the book. She would even write to some of the authors telling them how much the children at her school liked the book.

Michele's life changed when a friend introduced her to Michael Morris. They dated, became close friends, and after awhile they became engaged. Michael, Michele and Colin traveled to Florida to visit a friend. While there, Michael became ill, was taken to the hospital, and there he died. Michele went through a rough time in her life. Then someone suggested that she attend a meeting made up of persons who were grieving because of some loss that they had experienced. There she met a woman who would become her closest friend and soon they both were having some fun times not alone but together. Michele always showed ways to care for her friends. She liked to send greeting cards—birthday, sympathy, anniversary, thinking of you—just to name a few occasions. When someone was hurting, she was there to listen.

Michele found time not only to attend her church, but participate in many ways. She attended Baldwin Memorial United Methodist Church and then Pasadena United Methodist Church. She sang in the choir, was the story teller at Vacation Bible School, participated in Christmas plays, helped at Bazaars, and was a member of the United Methodist Women. At Pasadena Church she was president of the United Methodist Women prior to her illness. The summer before she became ill she went with her church work team to Camp Hope. Camp Hope is a project stationed in Frostburg, Maryland which brings together over the summer adult teams of workers to make repairs to the homes of shut-ins and persons with low incomes. Michele enjoyed this outreach program so much and planned on going again.

Michele also experienced some exciting times of travel. In 2003 she and her grandmother went to London, England because her parents were living there that summer. Her grandmother who was in her eighties had never ridden on an air plane before. Michele had so much fun showing her grandmother around. Michele and Colin went on two cruises to the Caribbean. Michele had other interests as well. On Friday nights she would play bunko. She was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she served for a time as secretary.

Michele first discovered that she had brain cancer in November 2014. She moved into the home of her parents in Bowie. She entered into a series of chemo and radiation treatments at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Many friends came to visit. Many friends kept her in prayer even to go as far by putting this prayer request on the prayer list of their church. Many persons kept track of how Michele was doing by going to the internet to a website called "Caring Bridge." And still others dropped by to visit. This past July Michele no longer had the strength to walk. She was confined to a bed. She received help from Hospice.

There was a point in this struggle that Michele could say only a few words. One morning she awoke and spoke two sentences. One sentence was "Can I go to school today." Her friend Karen, who introduced the first song, read the words to it and then shared a portion of the eulogy, came to visit Michele and brought her bunny rabbit. She placed the bunny on Michele's bed and immediately the bunny cuddled under her chin. This time Michele spoke one word. She said "Wow!" And that happened to be the last word that she would speak. God is at work in mysterious ways and is still performing wonders. What an awesome God you and I have—WOW!

Friends, soon, come Sunday, we will add to the one word of WOW. We will hear the words "Christ the Lord is Risen" and we will respond "He is Risen, Indeed." Death is not the end. Because Christ lives, we shall live also.

1253. Joseph I.[10] Hamilton II (Catherine Regina[9] Pepperman, Alice Mary[8] Kiess, Andrew J.[7], John Clement[6], Dorothea[5] Ulmer, Christina Margaretha[4] Gohl, Michael[3], Isaac[2], Jerg[1]) was born 28 Jan 1946 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 28 Apr 2024 in Cogan Station, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania. He married Susan Caputo 1999.

Notes for Joseph I. Hamilton II:

Joseph I. "Joe" Hamilton, II, 78, of Cogan Station, passed away Sunday, April 28, 2024 peacefully at home. Surviving is his loving wife of 25 years, Susan (Caputo) Hamilton. Joe's family is happy to know he is once again enjoying banana splits in Heaven, without the bananas, of course. Born January 28, 1946, in Williamsport, he was a son of the late George W. and Catherine R. (Pepperman) Hamilton. Joe's journey began when he left school early to contribute to the family farm. It was there, amidst the fields and machinery, that he honed his remarkable work ethic and learned the valuable skill of fixing broken things—a talent that would define his life. He was employed at both Sheddy and Sintex and later retired as a Heavy Equipment Operator from the Lycoming County Landfill, retiring in December of 2007.

Joe's dream in life was to own a tractor and become a puller. Sue and Joe found a 1937 John Deere tractor one day with a tree growing through it. They decided to buy it and spent the next three months restoring it together. This was how Joe's love of John Deere tractors began. His dream became reality as he often participated in tractor pulls throughout the area a few times a year. Joe was a man who knew how to save money in order to spend it on things he really wanted, such as adding to his collection of toy

John Deere tractors. He was also extremely proud to be one of the founders of the Trout Run Tractor Club, creating the club in 1998, and serving as the current Vice President. He also could be found at other local tractor pull events and participating in parades. Joe's enduring love for John Deere tractors, a theme that ran through his entire life, reflected his appreciation for tradition, excellence, and the simple pleasures of rural life.

Surprisingly, he was a man who loved the beach, enjoying three yearly trips to Chincoteague where he may have been the only man on the beach in long pants and work boots. He relished in the outdoors, from fishing trips with Captain Matt to taking his gun for a walk in the woods. He also enjoyed many outings and excursions with Sue where the destinations were endless, from Bass Pro, to New York, Missouri and beyond. Above all else, Joe was a family man who would do anything for those he loved. He was a caring husband and a loving father and grandfather, often being called “Pappy Put-Put.” The sight of Joe atop a gleaming John Deere was a symbol of joy for his family, and something that he cherished deeply. He and Susan were also proud to plan and run their annual Hamilton family reunion, creating more memories together every single year.

Surviving in addition to his wife are three children, Kendra Brown (Cliff) of South Williamsport, Keri Hamilton and Joseph Hamilton, III, both of Williamsport; two step-children, Mike Bieber, of Montgomery, and Randy Bieber, of Ottumwa, Iowa; five grandchildren, Aaron, Jeffrey, and Joshua Hamilton, Wesley Brown, and Dylan Long; a brother, David Hamilton; two sisters, Shirley Selders, and Mary Albright; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. In addition to his parents, Joe was preceded in death by five brothers, John “Pete”, Donald, LeRoy, George, and William Hamilton; and three sisters, Betty Yarison, Joyce Hamilton, and Alice Tubbs.

A funeral service to honor the life of Joe will be held 11 a.m., Thursday, May 2, at Sanders Mortuary, 821 Diamond St., Williamsport. Burial will follow in Woodward Township Cemetery. A viewing will be held from 10 a.m. until the time of service, Thursday, at Sanders. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Joe’s name to the Trout Run Antique Tractor Pullers Association, 5010 North Way Rd., Williamsport, Pennsylvania 17701.

1277. Rosemary[10] Ulmer (Paul James[9], Watson James[8], Daniel[7], Isaac L.[6], Johann Leonard[5], Christina Margaretha[4] Gohl, Michael[3], Isaac[2], Jerg[1]) was born 17 Oct 1942 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 18 Jun 2020 in Brandy Station, Culpeper Co, Virginia. She married Rev. Roger N. McNamara Aft. 1961. He was born 24 Jan 1942.

Notes for Rosemary Ulmer:
Rosemary Ulmer McNamara, 77, of Brandy Station, Virginia, was promoted from her home to Heaven on Thursday morning, June 18, 2020. Her battle with multiple illnesses ended in triumph as she stepped into the presence of her God and Savior, Jesus Christ. Rosemary was born on October 17, 1942 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania to Paul and Mildred (Smith) Ulmer of Linden, Pennsylvania. After graduating from Williamsport High School in 1960, she earned a three-year diploma at Practical Bible Training School in Johnson City, New York and then graduated from Williamsport School of Nursing in 1964.

While at Practical Bible Training School she became engaged to Roger McNamara of North Colesville, New York, a fellow student at the School. They were wed July 11, 1964 and four days later were accepted by Baptist Mid-Missions of Cleveland, Ohio as missionaries to South America. They served in Mexico, Costa Rica, Venezuela, St. Vincent, West Indies, Canada, Liberia, Africa as well as in the United States before their retirement in 2018 after fifty-two years of missionary service. Rosemary served through teaching children and ladies' classes, being the church pianist for forty years, and by being a friend, hostess and counselor to multiple women, missionaries and pastors' wives. She was her husband's constant helpmeet and encourager.

She and her husband, Roger, had two sons: Shawn David (wife Chris) of Indianapolis, Indiana and Shane Paul (wife Ami) of Georgetown, Texas. Both of their sons are actively involved in church ministry roles. Rosemary had four grandchildren, Faith (with her husband Hudson Steidl), Bethany, Grace and Joshua. She also has two great grandchildren, Tessalyn Elise Steidl and Weston Taylor Steidl.

In John 14:2, Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you that where I am, there ye may be also." On Thursday morning, Rosemary was escorted to her celestial home where the streets are paved with gold and there is no more cancer, no more blood pressure issues, no more pain or suffering, no more weakness, no more lethargy, no more stupor. She is home, safe in the arms of Jesus. She was a good and godly woman, the example of what a mother and Christian wife ought to be. She never wanted to be in the spotlight but preferred to serve in the background. She had a godly parents and grandparents, uncles that were pastors, aunts that were missionaries, and multiple others that were deacons, teachers and church leaders. She learned to serve early teaching children's classes at Anthony Baptist Church on Quenshukeny Road in Linden, Pennsylvania. At Bible School Park she was the girl that all the other girls sought out when they needed a friend or someone to listen to their fears, concerns and heartaches. She followed her husband to the mission fields of Latin America giving up the parents and friends she loved to live in a foreign culture with a language she did not understand. She struggled with the Spanish, but she didn't quit. When she was laid aside with hepatitis shortly after the birth of her first baby, she endured without asking, "Why me?"

She packed up and moved from country to country, from one nationality to the next. She took on the dauting task of teaching her son at home. She loved the students at the Bible College in St. Vincent in the West Indies. Pearl was a special girl who cleaned our home and washed our clothes and did whatever was needed. She married a Vincentian pastor but was called home to heaven a few years later. Then there was Ma Forbes. She was the cook at the Bible College. A simple woman who loved being with the students as well.

For 35 years, while her husband taught in the School of Church Planting, Rosemary served as the unofficial "hostess," the jack of all trades, the go-to girl who welcomed numerous missionaries, pastors, students and church planters from around the world. She greeted them, introduced them to the teachers, herded them to their meals and then back to their classes. She ran countless errands, made copies, coordinated and care for a thousand and one details that go into running conferences. Several people have referred to her as being "spunky" with a mischievous "Can Do" attitude. She loved to joke and tease.

For years, she would accompany her husband to executive meetings in Cleveland, Ohio and while he met in counsel with other field council representatives, she would be back in the finance office opening letters, sorting mail, and enjoying time with "the girls" in the Home Office of Baptist Mid-Missions. For a dozen years, she helped her husband organize and direct the North American field conferences held at Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, Iowa. They would be the first to arrive and the last to leave. They cared for room assignments, coordinated meeting schedules, and made sure food was prepared and ready for the hungry guests. She collected the dorm keys, made sure people who needed a ride to the airport had one, she checked the dorms to make sure the garbage was picked up, and was there when her husband paid the bills from those conferences. If you wanted to know something, you asked Rosemary. The days were long and demanding, but she met them with grace and kindness and determination. She proofread thousands of pages of her husband's writings. Letters, sermon notes, PowerPoints, nearly eighty editions of the Church Planter's Toolbox, multiple book manuscripts, they all fell under her watchful eye and red ink pen. Her husband's writings were better because of her and thousands around the world were blessed as a result.

Rosemary and her husband retired in 2016 after fifty-two years of missionary service, but they found retirement harder than active missionary service. A "servant" knows only one thing – to serve, and when she and her husband stepped down from full-time missionary service, there was a void. It didn't take her long to find something to do. She loved to crochet, work her word search puzzle books, and served as the "gram dame" of the Classic Life Bible Class at her church. She was loved and looked up to by nearly everyone who knew her. Her ready smile, her attention to detail, he willingness to pitch in and help all endeared her to others. Now, she is gone, but not far away. Her husband can hear the sound of her voice in each room of the house, her handiwork is everywhere. Her chair sits empty and her John Deere hat lies on the countertop to be used no more. We miss her, but she lives on in our hearts. She has transcended this life into an even better one in the presence of her Lord and Savior who she served. She now can breathe deep, run and jump with ease. But most of all, she loves to fall at the feet of her loving Savior who died to make it possible for her to be where she is. She leaves behind her a godly heritage. The world is a better place because of her. Her tombstone sums it up best and speaks so eloquently of her when it says for all to behold, "A servant of Christ." She loved plants and flowers, baking, crocheting, word search books, and going to Bible studies. She loved her husband of fifty-six years, her children and grandchildren, her church, her pastor, and her Lord Jesus Christ. She was an example of a godly woman. She came from a long line of godly pastors, missionaries, and church leaders and left behind a heritage of humble service to others.

Rosemary was predeceased by her mother and father, Paul and Mildred Ulmer, a baby brother, Daniel, and a host of aunts and uncles who served in various ministry roles. She is survived by her husband of fifty-six years, Roger, her two sons, Shawn and Shane, four grandchildren, two great grandchildren and a host of cousins, nephews and nieces.

The family will hold memorial services on Thursday, June 25th at 10:00 a.m. at City Light Baptist Church, 1121 Sperryville Pike, Culpeper, Virginia and again on Saturday, June 27th at 10:00 a.m. at Anthony Baptist Church, 4750 Quenshukeny Road, Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania 17740. Burial will be at State Road Cemetery. The only viewing will be a private viewing for the family at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be sent to Baptist Mid-Missions, P.O. Box 308011, Cleveland, Ohio 44130-8011. Final arrangements have been entrusted to Rearick Carpenter Funeral Home, 1002 Allegheny Street, Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania 17740.

Notes for Rev. Kenneth David Bixler:

The Rev. K. David Bixler, affectionately known by many as Pastor Bixler, 73, of Linden, departed this earth suddenly on Monday, January 27, 2025. He entered into the presence of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and was greeted into heaven by loved ones. Born April 13, 1951, in Pikeville, Tennessee, he was a son of the late Rev. Dr. E. W. Bixler and Velma J. (Stephenson) Bixler. Growing up in a loving family who was devoted to serving God, David knew it was his calling to follow in their footsteps. At the young age of 9, David accepted Christ into his heart. He graduated from Lake Central High School in Saint John, Indiana, and attended the Tennessee Temple University, receiving a bachelor's degree in Biblical Studies.

He married Debra M. (Ulmer) Bixler on June 21, 1975, whom he loved unconditionally, worked alongside of, and spent every possible moment with. David was blessed to know the joys of becoming a husband and a father, and later in life, a grandfather, and cherished every moment spent with his family. David spent over 50 years at Emmanuel Baptist Church in Williamsport. In February of 1991, he humbly accepted the role of Senior Pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church, where he served diligently for 34 years, participating in many activities from the bus ministry to being a youth director. He was not only a pastor, but a mentor to many in his community. He was the principal and administrator at the Williamsport Christian School, where he coached basketball for over 25 years. He received two Honorary Doctorate Degrees from Northeast Baptist School of Theology in Downingtown and from Calvary Baptist Bible College and Seminary, King, North Carolina. He loved hunting on his property in Linden, watching the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball and playing softball.

June 3, 1979 - When Dr. Roger Gieschen, Kansas City, Missouri, president of the central States Synod, Lutheran Church in America, arrives to dedicate Fellowship Lutheran Church, 6727 S. Sheridan Road, at 3 p.m. Sunday, he may be surprised at the altar behind which he's expected to stand. Built by Fred Losber, a master craftsman, the altar is of oak with brass inserts – and 4-1/2 feet square.

"It is a little unusual," admitted the Rev. Daniel K. Breunsbach, the parish's founding pastor, "but our worship area is 46 feet square, and we decided it was somewhat biblical to build the altar just a tenth of the size." Besides, Breunsbach said, the altar is on hidden casters, so that it can be placed in front of the faceted glass windows, in the center of a wall or in the middle of the room for different worship patterns - or it can be rolled into a closet so the room can be utilized for other purposes. One of the aims of the Fellowship congregation since the church was begun - in shopping center office space at 6125-C S. Sheridan Road - has been to make their facilities available to community groups. A third medically-related group, the Tuberous Sclerosis Association, recently has begun meeting in the church. The congregation already was host to monthly meeting of the Tulsa chapter of the Oklahoma Lupus Association, and the Feingold Association, a group of parents who devise special diet to help their children overcome hyperactivity.

Another unusual factor about the Fellowship building is that, despite inflation, the 5,200-square-foot structure cost just about what the architects, Ragsdale-Christensen Architectural Collective, estimated when construction began in May, 1978 – approximately $270,000. All of the building's space has been designed for multi-purpose use, so that an assembly room in the educational wing which can be divided into smaller classrooms will also be large enough for fellowship dinners.

Also scheduled for dedications Sunday are . . . . The public will be welcome at all t he services at all churches.

Notes for Rev. Charles Rex Bevins:

Lincoln, June 22, 2002 - When the Rev. Rex Bevins became pastor of Saint Paul United Methodist Church in 1980, he got a letter from a colleague saying, "You have just made the most stupid career decision in your life. The clergy friend predicted that in 10 years Bevins would "feel more like a curator of a museum than the leader of a downtown church." Bevins said he took that letter as a challenge. He definitely proved his friend wrong. By the early 1990s, the Saint Paul congregation was charting its future as a strong and vital downtown church. Now, as Bevins prepares to retire June 30, the church has a major new addition with a gymnasium, offices and classrooms, a completely remodeled sanctuary and a fine new organ. Bevins, who turned 70 in May, is far from ready to retire. But United Methodist rules require that ministers step down at that age.

Instead of resting, he's looking forward to new challenges as director of financial development for Encounter With Christ in Latin America and the Caribbean, a mission project of the United Methodist Church; and by starting his own consulting firm, helping churches and non-profit agencies with strategic planning and fund raising. "I know something about that, I think, and I believe I have some expertise to offer," Bevins said. A native of Cedar Rapids, Neb., Bevins said he "struggled with the issue" of becoming a minister for several years before finally making the decision. "I sometimes say I didn't enter the ministry until God had to hit me over the head," he said. While a student at Nebraska Wesleyan University and planning to major in engineering, Bevins attended an evangelistic meeting at the State Fair grounds where he had a religious experience that changed his life. "I suddenly felt the presence of the risen Christ and felt my sins were forgiven, and I trusted in Christ alone for my salvation," he said. The next week he told the director of religious life at Wesleyan that he was considering becoming a minister. "Because I had not been an exemplary student, the poor man almost had a stroke," Bevins recalled. But he went on to try student ministry at a church in nearby Otoe. He started as a substitute, planning to serve two to three weeks, and ended up serving that church for three and a half years. "I learned preaching on the job," he said. "It was a gift I really didn't know that I had. That church gave me a chance to use it Obviously, to this day, preaching is very important to me.

Not only the 1,760 members of Saint Paul, but the many others who listen to his sermons at 11:30 a.m. each Sunday on KFOR-AM radio, can attest to his ability as a preacher. St Paul's services also are carried on KFAB-AM in Omaha and "Worship at Saint Paul" on Time Warner Cable Channel 13. Bevins attended the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, California, serving as youth pastor at a church in Oakland, California, and then for seven years at a church in the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco. When he began that assignment in 1957, the "new community," often called hippies, had not yet begun to move in. But as "flower children" poured into San Francisco from all over the country, Bevins helped design new ministries to reach young people who had run away from home, were experimenting with drugs and seeking a new purpose in life. "It was a wonderful experience because it opened me up to all kinds of new challenges, and to see people in new ways," he said.

From 1964-69 Bevins was pastor of a suburban church in San Carlos, California, where he helped start a teen discotheque to counter the drug problem. "We decided that youths and adults could work together if given a specific task and responsibility," Bevins said, noting that teen-agers got involved in doing drug referral and outreach. Bevins returned to Nebraska, where he was pastor of Warren United Methodist Church from 1969-74, and then executive director of ministries for the Nebraska Conference of the UMC until going to Saint Paul in 1980. Bevins said when he first came to Saint Paul, the congregation was divided because of difficulties with a previous minister. Bevins stayed neutral, seeking to heal wounds and empower the congregation to mold its own future.

In 1992, Bevins was a candidate for bishop but withdrew to support the election of the Rev. Joel Martinez, the first Hispanic bishop in the United Methodist Church, who later became bishop of Nebraska. Bevins also said he wanted to stay at Saint Paul to help the congregation move forward in expanding its ministries. Marilyn Moore, lay leader for the congregation, called Bevins "a very, very fine preacher" as well as an excellent administrator. "It's very challenging to be a vibrant downtown church in these days and times," she said. "Rex has made a huge contribution in bringing Saint Paul to where it is now. She also had warm comments about the Rev. David Lux, who will become senior pastor of Saint Paul on July 1. Lux is well-known to the congregation because he served as associate pastor from 1983-89. "His style is quite different from Rex's, but people are delighted that he's coming," Moore said. An open house reception for Bevins is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited.

Notes for Gary Leon Wuster:

Gary Leon Wuster June 23, 1939 – October 6, 2012 Gary Wuster walked his last fairway in this life Saturday evening after a courageous battle with Alzheimer's and heart disease. He was 73. A celebration of life will be held at Bookcliff Country Club on Thursday, October 11th at 2:00 p.m. A reception will follow. Please come in casual or golfing attire. Gary will be missed by all of those who were blessed to be part of his family and the many others who had the chance to call him a friend.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Milton and Irene. He is survived by his wife of 22 years, Judy; brother, Andy (Marvelyn) of Lincoln, Nebraska; sons, Trent (Beckie) of Fruita; Tracy (Jennifer) of Austin, Texas; Mark Rhyne of Los Angeles, and Ron (Lisa) Rhyne of Pinedale, Wyoming; daughters, Karla (Gene) Coleman of Grand Junction; Julie Kochevar of Grand Junction; grandchildren, Tristan, Tanner, Nickie, Tyler, Jennifer, Curtis, Matt, Ryan and Landon.

He was also blessed to have nieces and extended family in Nebraska and many good friends and golfing buddies who affectionately called him 'Wooten'. Gary was born in Dawson, Nebraska. The family later moved to Lincoln, Nebraska when he was five years old. His memories of this time included growing a large garden and raising rabbits to sell. He later graduated from Northeast High School in 1957. He then attended Nebraska Wesleyan University where he received a degree in business. After graduating, he spent a short time in the Marine Corps Reserves at Camp Pendleton in California. Upon returning to Lincoln, he became an assistant professional at Hillcrest Country Club. Even though his love of and talent for golf eventually would bring him to Colorado, his love for the "Big Red" Cornhuskers never left his heart. After attending the Professional Golfer's Business school in Dallas, Texas, he moved to Colorado to be an assistant golf pro at Hyland Hills. He then came to Grand Junction in 1969, with his wife, Sandy, to become Head golf pro at Book Country Club, having Trent and Tracy a short time later. He spent many years at the club teaching many people to golf and developing lasting friendships. In 1978, he was named PGA Golf professional of the year for Colorado. Gary enjoyed many golf adventures with family and friends in beautiful places across the country and even got the chance to travel and play in golf's birthplace of Scotland. His talents gave him the opportunity to meet many legends including Ben Hogan and Jack Nicklaus and nearly earned him a spot in the U.S. Open. He also held the course record at the Country Club for many years. He was still playing almost weekly up until the time of his passing.

A career change in 1983, led to him to start his lawn care and landscaping business which he didn't completely retire from until just this year. He was meticulous in his work making sure his customers were always happy and that the work was done with care. He was particularly proud of winning The Daily Sentinel's yard of the month last year and of his dazzling and of creating extensive Christmas light displays. Gary's family was blessed to share so many great times with him. He married Judy in 1990, and they enjoyed golfing together and traveling to many great places such as Hawaii and Nova Scotia. Whether it was fishing, playing cards, attending grandkid's sporting events and activities, celebrating holidays and birthdays, or watching golf, he always enjoyed the company of his family and friends. His quick wit and generous spirit will be missed tremendously. We know he is on the course somewhere now telling someone to "hit it straight partner". Gary was instrumental in helping to develop a golf scholarship for local students. Contributions can be made to this organization in his name to the Western Colorado

Golf Foundation, P.O. Box 2415, Grand Junction, Colorado. 81502.

After leaving the service, Gerald worked as a draftsman at Gilbert Associates. By advancing through other positions and firms and completing additional electronics training, Gerald became an electrical engineer in the field of automated control systems. In 1985, along with five other owners, Gerald founded Advanced Automation Associates in Exton. He was the principal software designer for automated control systems that were used by Fortune 500 companies. He retired in 1994. For more than 60 years, Gerald was an avid model airplane enthusiast. He started to build model airplanes at a young age and by the 1940s was designing his own airplanes. Many of his designs were published in national model airplane magazines in the 1950s and 1960s. He was a frequent winner in the model airplane competitions that he attended throughout his flying career, the last 30 years of which he spent flying radio-controlled sailplanes. In 1981, he achieved the highest honor of Level V in the League of Silent Flight, the eighteenth person in the world to do so.

In addition to his wife, Gerald is survived by his children: JoAnn Keosaian, wife of David Keosaian, of Ann Arbor, Michigan; Robert Zeigenfuse, husband of Banjira, of Exton; Edward Zeigenfuse, husband of Judy, of Mohnton; John Zeigenfuse, of Reading; Barry Zeigenfuse, husband of Katie, of Morgantown; Carol Asterino, wife of Joseph Asterino II, of Reading; and David Zeigenfuse, husband of Jennifer, of Reading. He was predeceased by his daughter, Betty Jane.

Also surviving are his grandchildren: Holly Vernay, Justin Zeigenfuse, Tiffany Zeigenfuse, Jack Zeigenfuse, Lynn Hatton, Nina Eidam, Adam Sullivan, Christina Diehl, Joseph Asterino III, Stephen Zeigenfuse, Lily Zeigenfuse, Haley Zeigenfuse; and great-grandchildren: Garret and Griffin Vernay, Chase Zeigenfuse, Ariana Selas, Travis Kennedy, Courtney, Caleb, Colbee and Caylee Hatton, Raelynn and Avery Eidam. Gerald is also survived by his sister, Mary Ann Weidner, of Fleetwood.

Gerald will be remembered for his devotion to his wife and family, his intelligence, his dry sense of humor and all of the things he taught his children. Visitation will be held on Friday, January 19, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. with services beginning at 11:00 a.m. in Lutz Funeral Home Inc., 2100 Perkiomen Ave., Mt. Penn. Interment is private.

Notes for Charles Carter Baker, Jr.:

My Dad, Charles Carter Baker (Chuck, Sonny, Papa Kahn) was born July 26, 1939 to Charlie Carter Baker and Ruth Mildred Boyer Baker. He was their third child and only son. At age six, he fell from a slide, acquiring a head injury that left him with epilepsy. From a very young age, he determined to be a Christian. He shunned wrong doing and devoted his life to church work and godly living. That didn't stop him from being fun loving and adventurous. He had several girlfriends before he met my mother, Carrol Ann Mincks. He has a terrible memory due to his epilepsy and so I don't know his first recollections very well, but I've heard lots of stories. According to my mom, he was engaged once before he met my mother and one stunt he did to impress his "other" girl was to do flips around the bar that extends off a telephone pole. He was a bit wild with his "adventures". He would take any dare. He tried to swim across the rapidly flowing Rogue River, and ended up in the middle of the river with cramps. He did death defying dives. He was party to pranks and other fun loving displays. He terrorized his younger sister, Darlene like his son, my brother David did years later to me.

My dad was named after my grandfather, Charlie Carter Baker. We didn't realize his name wasn't Charles until he passed away and grandma found his birth certificate with Charlie printed on it. Charlie was from Texas. I believe I still have cousins there.

Grandma Ruth was from Pennsylvania. I don't know how she and Gramps met up. I do know that her maiden name was Baer, but her family changed it to Boyer so they wouldn't seem so German after the atrocities were exposed in WWII. Grandma was the only grandmother I knew. She was always busy. She and Grandpa would snore in chorus, one breathing in while the other breathed out. She was brisk and not overly affectionate, but I knew I was loved. She made fudge and other Christmas candies, carrot jello, salisbury steak and always had hard candy available. I loved searching through her drawers and finding treasures. She would give one quick hard hug whenever she greeted us or said goodbye. She would stand on the porch whenever we would leave her home in Grants Pass, Oregon and would wave until we were out of sight. My grandparents both lived to be in their 80's. My aunt Pearl passed away when she was 18 years old in a fatal car accident that took several other lives as well. She was riding with her friend's family as they headed out for a picnic. A dairy truck, causing Pearl, her friend's brother and his wife and a few of their children to die hit them. Her friend, Leta Olsen and her niece, Sharon survived,

I'm not sure who else. Dad doesn't remember his sister much.
Charlie Carter Baker and Ruth Naomi Baker had four children, Neoma Joli, Pearl Baker, Charles Carter Baker, and Darlene Haberman.

Dad and mom were married just a few short years, my sisters Annie and Penny were little girls and Dad wanted healing from his epilepsy. He had prayed over the years for God to intervene and to take away his ailment. He did all he could think to, but never received healing. He was unable to drive a car and wasn't able to do certain jobs. My Dad is a poet and his experience I am going to share with you is best read in his poem, "It was the night before Christmas". I'll have to get a copy of that and type it in. But, in my words, it was the night before Christmas. Dad was tired of trying to get God to heal him. He put his medicine on the chest and just told God how he was feeling. He normally had his seizures at night. That night, he laid down in his bed and he felt that seizure coming on. He has told me that he felt God draw a line, and that seizure never came. I never knew my dad as an epileptic. He is a car hog, hardly ever letting my mom drive their new fancy wheels. His job is crane operator. For years he was the Sunday school bus superintendent, participating and over bus driving schedules.

Marriage Notes for Thomas Stoltz and Dorald Wright:

Pocatello, June 12, 1959 - St. Anthony's Catholic church was the scene last Saturday of a ceremony uniting Dorald Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald C. Wright, and Thomas W. Stoltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stoltz, Jerome. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli and daisies carrying out the bride's color theme, decorated the altar. The 6:30 p.m. double ring rite was performed by the Rev. L.M. Dougherty. Mrs. H.L. Lee was organist.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered nylon organdy over taffeta. It was fashioned with a lifted waistline with round neck-line and short sleeves and featured a short tulle train falling from the back of the neckline. A waist length veil of bouffant illusion sheer was attached to a crown of nylon leaves and pearls. Her cascade bouquet of white daisies was accented with a yellow bow.

Eileen Taney, Blackfoot, maid of honor, and Mrs. Leroy H. Swann, Reseda, California, the bride's sister and Claudette Creger, Torrance California, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns street-length, and in a soft yellow chrome spun, the gowns were designed like the bride's. Ribbon streamers fell from the back of neckline to the hem. They wore headpieces of daisies with ribbon streamers. Mrs. Taney carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies with gold ribbon and the bridesmaids' bouquets were backed with white ribbon. Best man was William Bennett, Carlin, Nevada, and ushers were Harold Stoltz, Jerome, brother of the bridegroom, and Loyd Harris, Twin Falls. The bride's mother selected a light blue boucle empire sheath dress with electric blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose rose lace with a white satin hat and beige accessories. White gladioli corsages complimented their ensembles. Sally Olsen, Mackay, registered the guests.

After a reception in the Hotel Bannock Pioneer room, the new Mrs. Stoltz changed to a red striped Madras bolero dress with red accessories and a natural straw hat for a wedding trip to Boise. For the summer, the couple is living at 344 Second Avenue north in Twin Falls where the bridegroom is employed by Ralph Harris Moving and Storage company. This fall they will return here to attend Idaho State college. The bride attended Los Angeles Valley college for two years transferring to ISC where she will be a senior Journalism major. She worked in the college news bureau and was news editor of the college paper. Graduating from Jerome high school, the bridegroom will be a radio and television production senior major at ISC. He was president of the student radio organization at the college.

Notes for Kurt Andrew Stabler:

June 30, 2016 - When Kurt Stabler and his family moved to North Carolina nine years ago, they were unsure as to whether they would continue to farm. Previously, Kurt and his family had lived in Pennsylvania, where they ran a successful, small-scale farm. They moved to Dunn, North Carolina so that they could attend Foundations Bible Collegiate Church and so that their children could attend the academy and college sponsored by the church. Crownview Farm is one of the premier vendors at the WakeMed Farmers Market. They are also unique in that the farm is operated for the benefit of the students it employs from nearby Foundations Bible College. The students who work at Crownview Farm use the money from the sale of their crops to help pay for their college education(s). Owner of Crownview Farm, Kurt Stabler, explains: We're not a nonprofit, but we kind of run [the farm] that way. My wife and I don't make anything off of the farm; it's just for the kids.

History of Crownview Farm -We moved from Pennsylvania about nine years ago, and we were doing some farming (which was small scale) up there; and when we came here, we didn't really know if we were going to continue. We bought Crownview Farm in 2010; and I work at Foundations Bible College, which is right next door to our farm. We have five children that are here in this area. My son, Timothy, actually runs the operations in the field and oversees the other kids who work here. We really embarked on this farm for them [the students]. Originally, we started out with one young man who needed help going to school, and last year, we had about twelve different kids involved.

My mother grew up on a dairy farm in Pennsylvania, so I kind of had something in the background. Also, when I was young, my grandparents had gardens, and we did a little bit. When we were living in Pennsylvania, we bought a small farm. We just started with a garden, and we read and learned. At that point, I was actually working in town, in printing. I'd come home in the afternoon and work with the kids. I had an older son who thought he wanted to farm, and he did it for a couple of years before he changed career paths. So, when he got out, the rest of the family just took it over. We had several children in the early teens back then, and rather than go into town and get a job, we decided – "Well, let's just try to do this and make it work here on the farm." From there, it just kept growing, and it went so well that I finally quit my town job, and we started doing it on a larger scale.

We've been farming now for about 15 – 16 years, and we don't do anything original. We've read and talked to other farmers. For example, we had some really good Amish friends that taught us a lot – and you just read, read, read, and you try things and get better. My kids would tell you that one of my favorite sayings is, "Well, next year…" because you start, and you plant, and you see what happens about 60 days later, and then it's too late for this season. We're not certified organic, but we do an all-natural, chemical-free approach, so we need things that are disease resistant.

We try things all of the time. We buy our seeds from catalogs and online, and it's pretty much commercial seed. Most of what we grow, you wouldn't find the seed packets at Lowes or Walmart. We're also taking things fresh to the local markets, so we want stuff that's tender, that's tasty – and oftentimes, what's at the big stores does well at the store…but you put it in the field, and it may not taste the best. For example, we've tried a dozen different broccoli types to get it to the ones that work best for us, and we've tried a bunch of different lettuce. All of our lettuce is selected to take the heat as well as be flavorful. I know there's a big debate out there whether a natural, chemical-free approach is any safer. All of the chemical industry came out of what they learned in WWII- so for thousands of years, people were farming without chemicals, and they made it work. We're just a throwback to the way it was when my mom was a kid on the farm; we use manures and rock powders, and compost.

My property is about 5.25 acres, and we'll have about 2.5 acres in production. We use every bit of space that's available to us. The timing of the weather is the biggest challenge. We've got to do things when we have a window of opportunity. When we get behind, we get in trouble. Many of our crops are transplanted every week, so you have a continuous batch of stuff. Something like the squash gets planted every three weeks, and it will be harvested over a long period of time – but lettuce? You cut it, and it's gone. So, next week, you've got to have the next batch in there. If we get behind, we could dip at the market and not have something that everyone's looking for…or if the weather is extra warm and things grow quickly, two batches could get ready at the same time, and we might not be able to sell it all.

Most of the kids who come to work at the farm don't know anything about agriculture or farming. However, most of the things that we do are not hard to learn at all. We try to teach the kids not only what we're doing but why we're doing it. We want them to learn the principles behind things so that they understand what they're doing (versus feeling like they're just doing a task). For a lot of kids, this is their first outside-of-the-home job that they've had, so they have to learn how to work, how fast to work, how well to work, etc…and that's a good process. This is a great environment for them to learn in.

This is a biological, living system. Today, farming has gone more towards a business model. Now, you've got to be a businessman to make a living in farming – but you can't treat crops like machines! I worked in printing. It's a lot different to work around printing presses and folding machines than it is crops. Crops are living, and you've got to treat it as such and respond to its needs. The soil for us is everything. We try to take care of that and be in harmony with the way God created it, and it will grow us crops.

This is for these kids. In order for us to make money for them, we've got to produce a really good product that's in demand out there. People are wanting chemical-free stuff, and that's what we do. Crownview Farm is based out of Dunn, NC. You can visit Crownview Farm at the WakeMed Farmers Market, Tuesdays, at the Raleigh Campus from 10am – 2pm throughout the summer.

Lindsay M. Entz, 17, of 161 Ruth Lane, Jersey Shore, went to be with the Angels Thursday, Feb. 5, 2004, as a result of injuries sustained from a motor vehicle crash on Route 44. Born Feb. 6, 1986, in Williamsport, she was the daughter of Eugene D. Entz and the former Michelle C. Stabley. Her mother and father and a brother, Evan D. Entz, survive her. Also surviving are her paternal grandparents, C. David and Donna Entz of Salladasburg; a paternal great-grandmother, Laura Mae Swarthout of Jersey Shore; maternal grandparents, Sam and Helen Lowmiller of Mosquito Valley and Ronald and Linda Stabley of Pine Creek; a maternal great-grandfather, Harry Robison of Avis; and a maternal great-grandmother, Lois Stabley of Jersey Shore.

Lindsay's education started at Salladasburg Elementary School in September of 1991. She attended Jersey Shore Area High School where she would have graduated with the class of 2004. Lindsay's dream was to attend college and become a teacher for special needs children. While attending Jersey Shore schools, Lindsay was involved in many activities, including being a cheerleader for 10 years and a member of the track and field team for four years. She participated in softball and assisted the varsity wrestling team at Jersey Shore High School for three years; filming all the team videos and assisting coaches in any way possible. Lindsay helped to plan the Junior-Senior Prom and the Junior-Senior Girls Powder Puff Football game.

She was a conscientious and energetic worker, having been employed by Crist Farms, The Crest Restaurant, The Gamble Farm Inn and presently by The Restless Oaks. She was also a caring and loving baby-sitter to many area families. More importantly than her school or work activities, Lindsay had a passion for sharing her love of Christ with others. Lindsay had strong feelings and was tender-hearted to both the young and the old. She took pleasure in visiting with her grandmother, great-grandmother and their friends at Manor Care. In her spare time, Lindsay loved spending time with her family and friends, especially her boyfriend, Samuel Eck. Every year, Lindsay looked forward to hunting with her Dad and brother Evan and was very accomplished, having bagged a deer every year. Lindsay also had a special talent for arts, crafts and pottery-making.

She married Shane Eia 22 May 2004 in Pennsylvania. He was born 01 Mar 1981.

Notes for Trena Marie (Trina) Shaffer:

Jan. 2019 - A series of devastating events emotionally pummeled Trina Eia and her young family the first week of November, leaving the 36-year-old mother of four struggling to regain her composure. A Nov. 5 X-ray discovered a 6-centimeter mass in the Paxtonville woman's chest near her esophagus/trachea/heart region. A followup CT scan on Nov. 8 revealed a 3-centimeter mass in her lower right lung.

"That first week was especially brutal. My grandmother, who I was really close to, passed away the Sunday before my masses were discovered. The whole time at her funeral, I kept thinking, 'Am I going to be next?'" said Eia. "I had a hard time sleeping and would wake up crying. I couldn't think about my awesome husband or wonderful children without bawling. I even recorded a message to be played at my funeral." A Nov. 14 bronchoscopy lead to news that she did, indeed, have cancer. On Dec. 6, she met with a team of doctors who shared that her cancer was Stage 3 mucoepidermoid carcinoma of the lung, an extremely rare form of cancer. "Mucoepidermoid carcinoma is usually associated with the salivary gland, and even then it is considered rare," said Dr. Rajiv Panikkar, chair of the cancer institute at Geisinger Medial Center. "Only about 6 to 8 percent of people who have cancer of the head, neck or throat have mucoepidermoid carcinoma, and it is much more rare for it to show up in the lung."

Treatment options for Eia's condition are limited. "At this point, they're pretty sure it is considered low-grade, which means chemotherapy would not work, and I agree with the doctors that surgery would be too dangerous because of where the lymph nodes are placed in relation to the rest of my body," said Eia. "Because of its rarity, they were not 100 percent sure yet if radiation would work." On Dec. 11, Eia had a second consultation at the Envita Medical Center in Arizona and was encouraged by some of the facility's treatment options.

"We had lunch with someone who actually went there and is currently cancer-free and would recommend it to anyone who has cancer," she said. "Because they also do more natural ways of dealing with cancer, a majority of the treatment will not be covered by insurance and the typical range for Stage 3 cancer like this at the facility ranges from $80,000 to $100,000." Despite the numerous potential hurdles, Eia relayed that she is in a much better place emotionally thanks to her faith. "One day in the shower, I felt the overwhelming love of God. I did not know if I would live or die, but I did know at that moment that Jesus Christ loved me very deeply," she said. "Since then, my emotions are a whole lot better. I just keep thinking of how I can best glorify God through this process."

The experience has led to healthier eating for Eia — which has, in turn, helped reduce some of the symptoms she's experienced with chest pain and chronic coughing. "I learned through some research that cancer feeds on sugars, so the day after finding out about the mass in my chest, I cut out all processed and refined sugars," she said. "Now my diet consists of raw vegetables, fruits, nuts and seeds. While I do not enjoy eating this type of food, I feel so much better." Another thing that has helped throughout the dark moments of the process is the outpouring of support the family has received so far. "It has been a truly humbling experience. I feel such love from God and others. People have sent cards, prayed with us, cleaned our house, gave our family Christmas presents, brought meals, offered to babysit, gave money and helped our children transition from homeschooling to taking classes at the Juniata Mennonite School," she said.

Trina and her husband, Shane, are not new to suffering or other's generosity — but have done quite a bit to reach out and help others. After a series of miscarriages and issues with infertility, the family decided to adopt two children from Ethiopia. "We sent our paperwork over to start the process, and found out a month later that I was pregnant," Eia said. "Thankfully, the adoption agency allows us to continue with the adoption." Several months later, they were matched with Zeynu and Fozia, both around 18 months old at the time. "When we brought them home, they were still in 3-6 month clothing. Our son could not handle any textures in his mouth and just started to crawl at that time," she said. "They received a lot of therapy and once again, we were blessed by those around us." Zeynu and Fozia are now each 8 years old, Leif is 7 and the couple's second biological son, Elias, is 5.

"It is a lot easier now that they are older, but when they were 3 and under, it was extremely challenging," Eia said. Despite the dire diagnosis, Eia admitted that God's love and provision through the family's current trials is visible through those who have offered their love and assistance. "It has been very humbling and encouraging to see people's love and kindness to our family," she said. "I really appreciate the prayers and I pray that God would be glorified through this all." A GoFundMe account has been set up to help the family offset Trina's growing medical costs.

On Sunday, April 18, 2021, Trina Eia, incredible wife and loving mother of four dearly loved children, passed away at the age of 38. Trina was born Aug. 9, 1982, in Lewisburg, to David and Marilyn (Ulmer) Shaffer. She graduated from Middleburg High School in 2001 and Lancaster Bible College in 2004 with a bachelor's in social work. On May 22, 2004, she married Shane Eia in a field at her parents' home. We eventually had three sons, Zeynu, Leif and Elias, and a daughter, Fozla.

Being a mother was something she always wanted and enjoyed it greatly. She homeschooled our kids until she was diagnosed with cancer and was unable to do it any longer. We were married just shy of 17 years; she has been a true pleasure to be married to and we will miss her greatly. She loved the Lord and wanted her life and eventual death to bring Him glory. Beyond being active in her church, Christ Church of Beaver Springs, she was passionate about missions and making Christ known. She would often tell me that she didn't want to be remembered as a good person but rather as a sinner saved by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. She had no enemies besides the weeds in her garden. Everyone who knew her will forever remember her smile and she would never let anyone go without a goodbye hug. If you had an ailment, she always had an oil for that. There is much more than could be said, I'm just sorry if you didn't know her, she was a true joy to know and be around.

In addition to her husband and children, she is survived by her parents, Dave and Marilyn Shaffer; siblings, Michelle Moran and husband Ken, Daniel Shaffer and wife Paula, Calvin Shaffer and wife Nichole; in-laws, David and Cindy Eia; brothers-in-law, Caleb Eia and wife Ashley, Andrew Eia and wife Angela; as well as sister-in-law, Amber Ulrich and husband Brent, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She has chosen to donate her body for science so there will be no viewing or funeral. A time of visitation with the family will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. Saturday, April 24, at Christ Church of Beaver Springs, 800 Center Ave., Beaver Springs, followed by a Celebration of Life ceremony at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations are being accepted for a fund to benefit the children when they get older. Donations can be sent to Shane Eia, 2083 Paxtonville Road, Middleburg, Pennsylvania 17842. Arrangements are by the Hummel Funeral Home, 574 Hill St., Middleburg.
