Notes for Albert Hoeft:

"How to Live to, be 100." That's what the banner said on the Saline Area Senior Council bus, which followed Albert Hoeft in the Community Fair-parade Saturday afternoon. Get involved and stay active was the message Hoeft was giving—and has been living for a century now. He celebrated his 100th birthday Sunday, Sept. 8. "I don't have any special secret," he said, "only that the Lord's been with me. I'm still here, that's all!" Despite failing eyesight, Hoeft maintains a busy schedule. Last week, for example, he attended a potluck lunch at the Senior Center on Wednesday, and played cards there on Thursday. Friday he went to the Fair, where he entered (and won) the bid Settler Contest, receiving special recognition from the Fair Board. After the parade Saturday, he went to the American Legion hall for hotdogs, corn, and a "good-sized" birthday cake as well.

But Sunday was an especially big day for Hoeft. Family and friends took him out to dinner and then to a party at the senior center. "I couldn't tell you how many people were there," Hoeft said, "but we all had a wonderful time." They shared old photographs, some 70 years old, and of course Hoeft was showered with presents. One unique gift was a board on which 100 dimes were affixed. Hoeft was born in 1885 in Lodi Township, and grew up in Ann Arbor. For many years, he and his wife Laura farmed 160 acres on Waterworks Road. They later sold the farm and moved to Ann Arbor.

After Laura's death six years ago, Hoeft moved to Mills Road in Saline, where he "batched it" for about five years. He now lives in Clinton with his son, Albert Jr., and daughter-in-law Kay. The active centenarian didn't even slow down after his birthday party. Monday he showed up at the senior Center, and Tuesday found him playing bingo at McDonald's. "Live and let live," he smiled.

Marriage Notes for Albert Hoeft and Laura Jedele:

Some people just love to buck tradition and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoeft, Mills Rd., must be a couple of this individualistic breed. Instead of keeping tradition by letting their family and friends arrange a big celebration for the Hoeft's on their 60th wedding anniversary on May 20, 1969, Albert and Laura took the whole clan out to dinner themselves. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hoeft are life-long residents of Washtenaw County. Albert was born in Ann Arbor, while Mrs. Hoeft, the former Laura Jedele, was reared in Lodi Township. They were married on May 20, 1909. Three children resulted from their marriage. Albert, Jr.

and Owen are Saline residents, while Mrs. Robert Jewell, the only daughter, lives in Milan. The Hoeft's now have 11 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. The Hoeft's farmed on Waterworks Rd. for most of their married life, before retiring and moving to Mills Rd. in the mid-1960s. He now works part-time as a custodian at the Houghton School. The children at the school honored him and his wife by singing them an anniversary song. Many people in the Saline area, and especially the Houghton children, know the Hoeft's for their daily rite of patriotism. Every morning they raise the American flag on a pole in front of their home. The word must be getting around about their love of country, since even more "distant" people have been writing to congratulate them on their anniversary. The letter of one of these more "distant" acquaintances follows:

The White House May 17, 1969 Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hoeft: Mrs. Nixon and I were most pleased to learn that you are celebrating your Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary. We appreciate the joy that must be yours as you reflect on the many years and countless happy moments you have shared. May God, bless you, and may the future bring you the joy and contentment you so richly deserve. Sincerely, Richard Nixon.

Marriage Notes for Mildred Hoeft and Robert Jewell:

At a wedding impressive in its simplicity Mildred Hoeft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoeft of Saline, became the bride of Robert M. Jewell, son of John Jewell of Milan, Saturday afternoon October 16, 1937 in the home of the bride's parents. Baskets of bronze dahlias before a fireplace covered with evergreens, with groups of white tapers, formed a background for the ceremony performed by Rev. Adolf Lederer of the Trinity Lutheran church. The ceremony opened with a violin solo" played by Donald Hack, accompanied by his sister Dorothy at the piano, after which to the strains of Lohenglin's wedding march the bridal party took their places.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in white cut velvet cut on molded lines in Moyer age effect with a sweeping train, small buttons down the back, the sleeves wrist length and a rhinestone clip at the neck. White satin sandals completed the costume She carried a colonial bouquet of Johanna Hill roses with baby mums tied with French chiffon, and a cluster of gardenias in her hair, Miss Doris Hack, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a floor length gown of rust chiffon velvet made in the Joan of Arc fashion with which she wore gold sandals and carried a colonial bouquet of talisman roses. The bride's younger brother, Alfred, Jr., carried the ring concealed in a white satin pillow. Ivan Jewell was his brother's best man. Mrs. Hoeft chose for her daughter's wedding a simple frock of black crepe with which she wore a shoulder bouquet of yellow baby mums and rosebuds.

A three course dinner was served to about 40 relatives and friends after the ceremony. Tall tapers in silver candelabra on both ends of a tiered wedding cake with wreaths of smilax decorated the table. After the reception the couple left for a trip to Wanatosa, Wisconsin, and will return a by way of Bowling Green, Ohio, where they will visit relatives of the groom. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jewell are high school graduates. They received many lovely gifts, and will be at home to their friends after November 1st in the Bredernitz apartments on Harris Street.

Notes for Edward Theodore Neff:

Neff's Bait House at 712 N. Main St.; Ann Arbor, Michigan - By Jacqueline Stickney Oct 25, 2022 - In 1952, after our parents' divorce, my infant sister, Bonnie, and I went to live with my Uncle Ed, Aunt Louise, and their four children in a two-story house on N. Main St. A stately old elm tree shaded the house, one of many that canopied Main all the way up the hill to Kingsley. Across the street was the city yard, where all the heavy equipment was stored. My dad worked for the water department, and I'd wave when I saw him coming or going in his beat-up Jeep and Stetson hat.

Uncle Ed Neff was tall, over six feet, with dark curly hair and a cigarette always dangling from his mouth. A bulldozer operator for Jim Guenther's construction company, he worked long hard hours to feed his family. We always loved the Saturdays when he would bake bread or, if Aunt Louise asked, make donut holes dripping with vanilla glaze. Hunter, fisherman, provider for his extended family, he was as tough as he needed to be, but never have I known a more loving and kind man. In many ways he became my surrogate father. An ardent U-M fan, he listened to every Michigan football game on the radio. I can still hear him yelling "Michigan! Michigan!" whenever Tony Branoof made a bad pass. Once the games were televised, he and all my boy cousins would be glued to the screen. Aunt Louise, my father's sister, was a short, stout woman who became my mother in all but name. She and Uncle Ed had married right out of high school and stayed together through many good times and some harrowing bad times. They unabashedly loved each other, openly sharing hugs and kisses and holding hands. She had a brain for business and was the force behind the bait shop.

My eldest cousin, Bill, had been drafted to fight in Korea, so Kay, his wife, spent a good deal of time with us. Aunt Louise babysat grandson Teddy-Bill, as we all called him, while Kay worked at St. Joseph's Hospital. Kay was one of the sweetest, most compassionate individuals ever put on this earth. Tommy was my next-in-line cousin. Then came Carole and baby Jimmy—James Lewis, named after my dad, Lewis James. He and I were almost exactly a year apart in age. Both of us towheads, we were so close in height and weight that we were often mistaken for twins. The house was always busy, with kids and their friends coming and going. But somehow Aunt Louise always found room for one more in the tiny dining area just off the even tinier kitchen. We were such a happy family. Poor by today's standards—we just didn't know it.

Out front, a small red-and-white sign announced "Neff's Bait Shop" in black letters. I can recall every detail about the gray shed at the back of the driveway, starting with the fishy, earthy smell. There were three huge cement tanks, four or five feet deep, where different kinds of minnows awaited their fate. A small refrigerator held nightcrawlers, red worms, angleworms, grubs, and other wiggly things that fishermen used to coax that Big One out of the water. If I remember correctly, fifty nightcrawlers were fifty cents. We kids would go outdoors at night after every rain to catch them. Our captives would be incarcerated in a big cement tank just outside the basement entrance. Whenever we enjoyed the best part of a cold watermelon on a hot summer day, my aunt would take the rinds out to the worm pit and offer them as a feast for the critters—recycling at its finest, composting at its best.

Most of our neighbors were African American. The Baxters lived next door in a house with white siding that always looked brand-new. The immaculately groomed front yard was Mr. Baxter's pride and joy. The backyard was fenced, because Mrs. Baxter ran a child care business. The women chatted over the fence, and were so close that Mrs. Baxter called my cousin Carole her "white daughter." A short walk up the hill was Tom's Grocery, where kids burst through the squeaky screened door on quests for candy or a soft drink. All by ourselves, Jimmy and I, age six and five, would race to Tom's to get an ice-cold

Pepsi on hot summer days. The Bedollas lived next door to Tom's. Carole and Patty Bedolla were best friends and later played softball together at Vets Park with my cousin Bill as coach. Further up the hill, just past Kingsley, sat the Greek Orthodox Church; my friend Connie Cristacos lived next door. There was a Marathon gas station at the corner of Depot, and a Texaco station and Tiny's grocery store at Summit. The whole neighborhood enjoyed Tiny's good humor; if we were lucky, Uncle Ed would take me and Jimmy along when he bought his cigarettes and beer.

We attended Jones School, now Community High. Looking at the enormous (to me) brick building from the street, I could see my kindergarten classroom windows, situated to the right of the big front doors on the ground floor. Miss Swanson played piano and sang to us at nap time, and I couldn't wait to make sense of the letters that made words in the books that she read to us each day. Jimmy was supposed to see that I got home from school every day. But once there was a tornado warning, we were sent home early, and Jimmy was nowhere to be found. I hurried in what I thought was the right direction but somehow ended up on the wrong street. A lovely Dutch lady found me, standing in front of her house sobbing. She dried my tears, gave me a cookie, and called my aunt to tell her that she would walk me home.

My sister and I lived with Aunt Louise and Uncle Ed for about two years. When our mother remarried, we moved to a farm outside of South Lyon. But every July, Jimmy would come to the farm for a week or two, and in August I would go stay with Uncle Ed and Aunt Louise, right up until Jimmy joined the Navy and I went off to college.

The elm trees are long gone, along with the gas stations and neighborhood groceries. Neff's Bait House carried on for a while after my uncle's death and my aunt's move to assisted living, but closed in the 1980s. Their house was demolished in 2013, along with half the block, for an affordable housing project that never happened. Nothing remains but a vacant lot—one that, to me, still teems with memories of the diverse group of families who lived, loved, and died there.

Nine days later he was off to basic training for the U.S. Army in the Korean War, being stationed in Germany. Upon return he took a job with the U.S. Postal Service as a rural route carrier for 34 years, retiring at 55. Somehow she managed to check the photography, the references, consult on the manuscript, and in a final surge draw together the loose ends to complete the book." Kay enjoyed reading, baking, dancing, bowling, watching sunsets on Blind Lake, occasional casino wins, and spending time with her many friends and family members. Kay is preceded in death by her parents.
