Notes for Emma Weitbrecht:

Oct. 5, 1932 - Forty years ago this very moment Howell was a bedlam of excitement. "Fire, Fire" was the word upon every lip. The local fire department was struggling heroically to conquer the flames. Lansing was rushing firefighting equipment to Howell on a special train. Fowlerville rushed chemicals and equipment. Hundreds of citizens carried water, or aided in the removal of goods from the stores threatened by flames. Fire broke out about 1:15 P.M. in the basement of the building now occupied by W.O. Richards on East Grand River. Despite all that could be done the flames licked their way west and the entire block from the building now occupied by Newcomb's Shoe Store was a smoking mass of ruins. In the midst of conflagration, the people of the community gasped as it was discovered that two of Howell's prominent men had perished when the floors of the buildings had caved in, and a half a score of people had narrowly escaped the same fate.

At one o'clock great volumes of smoke burst from the basement of the Cooperative Store in charge of Wm. Holden (Isaac Bush owned the stock of goods). The department responded promptly and hundreds of men leaped to assist in fighting the flames and carrying out the merchandise stocks. Goods from H.C. Briggs Jewelry Store and E.K. Johnson Drug Store were carried to the court house square. The property in Ed Daniels Saloon was arranged for removal at a minutes notice, as were the goods in the Goodnow & Hickey Store. The Herald printing plant and other nearby property was filled with smoke. At 2:30 the flames gained in volume and were masters of the situation. Goods from the Democrat office in the rear of the burning block were removed. Merchandise from the Goodnow & Hickey store was removed. It was evident that the whole block of the six best stores in Howell was in grave danger. Lansing was called for aid and at 3 o'clock an engine was on its way. The streets were now thronged with people. Every person, and conveyance from wheelbarrow to wagon was pressed into service. Flame burst from the Daniels, Saloon and in creditable time from the Goodnow store.

Suddenly as people were removing the goods from the Goodnow & Hickey store the second floor crashed in. Mrs. Hickey, Carrie and Emma Weitbrecht were caught in the crash and rescued with difficulty. Then the first floor gave way plunging the panic-stricken people into the basement. Charles Goodnow, Al. Cook, Ora Beach and John Culver were caught. A rift in the smoke revealed Mrs. Hickey caught in the debris calling for aid. Frank Bailey and John Martin barely escaped when the second floor collapsed. At four o'clock a report gained headway that Frank Hickey was buried in the debris. Later E.D. Wines was found missing. The crowd became panic stricken as the news spread. At 4:15 the walls of the Greenaway building fell in toward O.J. Parkers. At 4:30 the Lansing engine arrived. But the whole block was a mass of smoking ruins, only the one building at the east end of the block remained standing. The loss was placed at $50,000.00. The same block had been destroyed by fire but without loss of life five years before.

Two of Howell's prominent men had perished in the flames. A pale of sorrow hung over the community as people whispered about the sad fate of Frank Hickey and E.D. Wines. The stores and business places of the city were closed the following Saturday as the entire population of the community paid tribute at the biers of the deceased. Death and disaster had visited the community. But new Howell was to rise on the ruins.

In the window of W.E. Beach's insurance agency will be found a group of pictures of the conflagration taken by Mr. Beach. The cut we publish is from Mr. Beach's collection and was taken from the outside steps on the east side of the building now occupied by the McPherson Bank. A horde of men were busy pouring water on the roof and sides of the building as the picture was taken. Wet carpets hung over the windows. But let some of the boys tell the personal story of this cruel day in Howell.

Notes for Roland Karl Schuhholz:

Roland Karl Schuhholz of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 95, died Tuesday, January 25, 2000 at the University of Michigan Medical Center. He was confirmed at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Indian Village, Detroit and was a very active member there for most of his life; in recent years he was a member at Historic Trinity Lutheran Church, Detroit. Mr. Schuhholz travelled all the continents of the world during his lifetime, including extensive study of European architecture, many trips under the leadership of Reinhardt Whittke Professor Emeritus at Eastern Michigan University, and several round-the-world freighter trips. Mr. Schuhholz is a graduate of the University of Michigan College of Architecture and Urban planning and Wayne State University, as well as holding a Master's degree from the Graduate School of Design, Department of Architecture at Harvard University. He is a member of the University of Michigan's President's Club and The Woodward Society at the Detroit Medical Center, Wayne State University. Mr. Schuhholz made a career of teaching, spending two years at Clemson University and 38 years at Cass Technical High in Detroit where his expertise was focused on teaching perspective drawing, art history, and providing faculty direction for the Triangle. The priceless gift he gave to his students was his ability to teach them to discover their own hidden potential and to bring their special talents to fruition. He taught them to see the absolute "beauty" in those hallways and stairways at Cass and in the simple yet elegant lines of a plain white pitcher. He taught them discipline and pride in their craft. He was a hard taskmaster, highly respected and admired by his students and colleagues alike. He made a significant and lasting impact on two generations of students at Cass as well as the area of art education and the art community of Detroit. That is teaching at its highest level. He will be sorely missed.

He is survived by his beloved lifelong friend Josephine D. Campbell of Temple, Texas, her daughter the Rev. Jacqueline A. Campbell of Houston, Texas, and his godson R. Jay Campbell, Jr. of Dallas, Texas. Also surviving are cousins: Madeline Bastian, Ypsilanti, Michigan, Donald Staebler, Ann Arbor, Michigan, Helen Staebler Kranish, Merced, California, Ruth (and Walter) Staebler Hileman, Tucson, Arizona, Stella Jo Staebler, Centralia, Washington, special friends: the Severance's, Lucille, Mary (Znlnsky), Eric and Hugh; Anjanette Stoltz, Rebecka Andress, Clara and Randy Blackard, "Millie and Mr. Millie", Margie Enforth, Mary Metzger, Jack Ragels, Bill Cline, Harold and June Wark, Emily Scott, many travelling companions and other friends too numerous to list.

Roland is preceded in death by his parents, S. Christopher Schuhholz and Matilda Staebler Schuhholz, cousins Lloyd Staebler, Northeast, Pennsylvania, George Staebler, Centralia, Washington, Melvin Staebler, Orange, California and friend Joseph Zninsky, Traverse City, Michigan.

Notes for Donald George Staebler:

Donald Staebler, Ann Arbor: The Staebler family settled the Staebler Farm at 7734 Plymouth Road in 1912. By the year 1925 six children had been born to the household. All the children attended the Frains Lake one room school, Ypsilanti High School and all graduated from college, a forester for Weyerhaeuser, an electric engineer, a registered nurse and three school teachers. I was one of the teachers. After the disruptions of World War II the children of the family moved to many parts of the country but my wife, Lena, and I elected to buy the farm and keep it going. At this time I also held an off the farm job in mechanical research and gave considerable time to the Planning and Zoning Commissions in my community. Lena, my helpmate on the farm, passed away in 1991. The farm has been a typical general farm operation with cash crops of corn, wheat, oats plus dairy cows, hogs, chickens and draft horses. At 90+ years, I continue as a beef farmer, feeding and caring, sometimes, for as many as 50 Angus cattle. The excavation for M-14 freeway fill created a large pond on my land. My neighbors were thrilled when my picturesque farm with its woods and beautiful pond was sold for a county park.

Newspaper article in Ann Arbor News Sunday, January 21, 2001, entitled "The Land of His Legacy" by Anne Rueter:

Donald G. Staebler shoves open the pump house door. Immediately, in a move he's made tens of thousands of times, he turns on the water to fill a trough in the barnyard. As the water spurts out and cattle start bawling for dinner, traffic sounds from Plymouth Road recede a bit. But you'd never forget the forces of urbanization here. Standing in the mucky barnyard, looking on either side of the calf barn, you see the streaming cars and trucks as rush hour begins: on the left across the fields on M-14, on the right on Plymouth Road. Commuters flash by the barns at 50 mph on Plymouth, on past the signs a bit further west that say "Mystic Forest - lots for sale" and "rolling wooded home sites available." But Staebler, like the 4-foot thick oaks across the creek, has stayed put on this farm nearly all his 90 years, raising cattle and hay as his family farm has become an island in a sea of houses.

And this 87-acre parcel of open fields, creek, 7-acre pond and woods is destined to keep its identity even longer than Staebler stubbornly has. Earlier this month, Staebler sold the farm to the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission. "That land is safe from bulldozers," says Fred Barley, parks and recreation director. "I think that's what Don really wanted to do." Fifteen to 20 years from now, as suburban growth continues in the busy corridor, "that place is going to be a beautiful green island," Barkley adds. The commission envisions preserving the farmstead as a demonstration farm, with fishing and picnicking by Fleming Creek and small ponds in the part of the property north of Plymouth Road. The south portion will remain as it is, and swimming and boating are not part of the plan, Barkley says.

Staebler will have a life lease to stay in the farmhouse. He says he'll keep raising and feeding cattle as long as the county wants him to. The change, though, is monumental. "I've owned it so long," he says. "To lose control all at once is something."

Since the sale became public, he's heard angry voices of neighbors across Frains Lake opposing his decision to sell the land for a park. He's also gotten a dozen letters from people he's never met, praising him for preserving a choice piece of open space for the public and foregoing the higher profits he could have had from selling to a developer. Staebler is selling the land to county for $1.5 million, compared to possibly $2.5 million some estimate he could have gotten from a developer.

"I used to work all that land, and now it's houses," he says of the area south of Frains Lake. He's watched for years as longtime neighbors up and down Plymouth Road have subdivided, finding farm earnings slim and developers' wallets fat. "All the family farms are gone," Staebler says. But houses covering his land? He's not having it. He's pleased his sisters and their offspring, who live out of state, agree. "They're behind me 100 percent," he says about his decision to sell to the county.

Though Staebler wasn't born in the house, his family ties to the area around his home go back 130 years. His father was born in a house across Frains Lakes, the son of a German immigrant who had arrived in the U.S. in 1848. His father was farming rented land and the family was living near Geddes Road when Staebler was born. In 1912, when Donald was 1-1/2, his father was able to buy the Plymouth Road farm, which had an existing farmhouse and barn. Farmed since 1824, the 98 acres included fertile farm land, small frontages on Frains and Murray lakes to the south, and a stand of mature oaks to the north. Fleming Creek bisected the fields behind the barn, and later led to the farm's punning nickname. "Click in the Back Farm," reads a homemade sign as you drive up the driveway.

With one portion sold off, now the farm consists of 86 acres. Staebler has grown corn and hay and raised cattle there virtually all his adult life, taking over the farm from his father in the 1950s. One of six children, he attended close by one-room Frains Lake school. "We could walk down to the lake and skate up to the schoolhouse," he says. Then came Ypsilanti High. At 14, he usually grabbed the wheel first to drive his brothers and sisters there in one of the family's cars. They felt lucky: It was unusual in the 1920s to have two cars. Donald mechanically minded, made sure the 1925 Ford Model T wouldn't start for his older brother, but mysteriously would for him, says Mary Ciminnisi-Staebler, his widowed sister-in-law.

Staebler earned a teaching degree at Eastern Michigan University, the called Michigan State Normal College. He married Lena, his wife of 56 years, whom he met at a church social picnic further down Fleming Creek at the Parker Mill. Lena Staebler died nine years ago. During the Depression, Staebler landed a job teaching shop at a high school in Eaton Rapids. It was a long commute, he says, but for 10 years, the couple returned to the farm each weekend to help out.

He combined farming with other jobs at other times in his life, too. During World War II, he worked nine-hour days, six days a week, teaching soldiers at a school at the nearby Willow Run Bomber Plant how to maintain B-24 bombers. After a six-month stint of more Army teaching in England, Staebler decided to come home to farm full-time as his father's partner. He then hit what he calls the cost-price squeeze all farmers experienced starting in the 1950s. "Our costs went up and our prices didn't." That's been the trend ever since. Beef on the hoof sold for 40 cents a pound then, and only 50 cents today, he says. Like many other area farmers, he looked for ways to earn outside income. He took a job at Eaton Corporation in Southfield while continuing to raise feed and raise cattle. He ended up being the only family member committed to farming. "He stayed put. The rest....scattered to the four winds," says Ciminnisi-Staebler, who cooks and does housekeeping at the farm.

Looking back, Staebler says staying put - planting corn, milking cows season after season - was not a deliberate choice: "It just happened. ... I really didn't see any reason to move, and we didn't." For a man who's always liked to build and repair things, it's been a good fit. All around the farm are the results. The walnut inlaid desk in the dining room that he made in high school. The two vintage tractors, one a 62-year-old John Deere, that he still uses - "Nobody can run them but me." And the camper trailer he built in 1937. He and Lena used it to tour the country on vacations.

Daily chores of feeding suit him fine too. "What would I do if I didn't? I hate television," he says. The big white farmhouse faces three barns across the road. That's where Staebler heads twice a day to feed his herd of 47 red and black angus cattle: two bulls, cows and ever-arriving calves. He strides there, waiting with a trace of annoyance for an opening in the stream of traffic on Plymouth, which was a sandy track with horse and buggies when he was little. Staebler moves like a man 30 years younger. He says his health is good, he's not troubled by arthritis. "I think that's 'cause I keep moving," he says. When Barkley came to see the land, Staebler amazed him by climbing ladders and hopping over fences with ease.

Inside the biggest barn, built by his dad in 1922, furry cattle press tight together, mooing in a rising chorus as Staebler forks hay into feeding racks. He heads to the smaller barn he calls the cattle's "loafing barn." The simple pitched-roof structure was there when the family moved there. He points up to timbers with bark still on, mortised together without nails, marks of construction in the count's early days. Every evening he hooks a few bales of hay and drags them there with an easy motion, so the cows ambling in later will find an after dining snack.

Staebler is pleased that the county parks commission plans to continue a contract Staebler currently has with a sharecropper who grows and harvests corn and hay in the fields by the farmhouse. For now, Staebler plans to keep on feeding about 22 bales of the hay a day to his herd of beef cattle. The heavy snow has kept him from selling some animals, as he normally would, so he feeds a hull house. This winter he had to replace a pump at the barn, a job he did himself and didn't consider a headache.

Over the years, Staebler has let lots of folks catch pike, bass, bullhead and pan fish in the pond north of the barn. But such leisurely pastimes don't appeal to him. "I never fish. It's a waste of time," he says. "I've got more important things to do than give worms fishing lessons." Like the family history on his dining room table, largely put together by him. Its latest pages tell about the farm sale. Soon, one would guess, he'll record the next details of a long consistent life on the farm.

Donald G. Staebler, age 106, passed away at the Ball Pavilion of Brevillier Village in Erie, Pennsylvania on Wednesday, March 1, 2017. Donald was born in Superior Township, Washtenaw County, near Ann Arbor, Michigan on August 18, 1910, son of the late Albert J. and Ella (Goodell) Staebler. Until very recently, Donald lived on the family farm in Ann Arbor, beginning in 1912 when he moved in with the family at age 2. Donald was preceded in death by his wife, Lena (Severance) Staebler in 1991. They were married on August 21, 1935 in Grass Lake, Michigan, Reverend Brunger officiating.

Donald attended the Frains Lake one room school house through 8th grade, and afterwards Ypsilanti High School, graduating in 1929. He attended Michigan State Normal College (now Eastern Michigan University) graduating in 1934 with a BS in Industrial Arts, and a life Certificate to teach. He taught industrial arts and was principal at Eaton Rapids High School, MI, after graduation. While there, he was a member of the Eaton Rapids Kiwanis, and served as its president for a year. In 1942, he became a maintenance instructor at the Willow Run Bomber Plant in Ypsilanti, Michigan, working for Ford Motor Company, under a contract with the Army Airforce Technical Training Command. From 1945 to 1946 he was an instructor at the Warton Army Technical School, Lancashire, England, set up to provide technical and industrial training for American servicemen prior to return to civilian life. Upon returning home, he worked with his father on the family dairy farm until 1952, when he purchased the farm.

In 1961, he sold the dairy herd, turned the farm to raising beef cattle, and began a career as a Technician Supervisor at the Eaton Corporation Research Center, Southfield Michigan, retiring in 1975. After retirement, he remained on the farm, raising beef cattle. In 2001 he sold the farm to Washtenaw County for future use as a park, retaining a life lease to live there. In addition, from 1946-1958, Donald taught auto mechanics in the Adult Education Program at Ann Arbor High School 2 nights per week, and from 1948-1978 he served on the Superior Twp. Planning Commission, Board of Review, and Zoning Board of Appeals. For a few years, he was chairman of all three. He was also a long time member of the Dixboro Methodist Church, Ann Arbor, Michigan, and for a while served as Superintendent of Sunday School, and Secretary of the Finance Committee. Donald had a lifelong love of wood working, and continued for many years to make furniture in the shop he built in 1946. He loved to travel, and for many years enjoyed seeing the corners of the United States with Lena in the travel trailer he built. He also was dedicated to preserving the family history, and the history of the farm, writing many stories of his experiences there.

Donald was preceded in death by brothers Lloyd Staebler of Erie, Pennsylvania, George Staebler of Centralia, Washington, and Melvin Staebler of Orange, California, and sisters Helen Kranish of Merced, California and Ruth Hileman of Tucson, Arizona. He is survived by sisters-in-law Stellajoe Staebler of Centralia Washington, and Mary Ciminnisi-Staebler of North East, Pennsylvania, who had been Donald's faithful caregiver for the last 20 years, Mary's extended family who adopted Donald as their own, and Donald's 10 nieces and nephews and their families spread across the country, who knew him fondly as their beloved Uncle Duck.

Interment will be held at the Dixboro Oak Grove Cemetery, and a later memorial service will be held at Dixboro Methodist Church, Ann Arbor Michigan, 11 AM May 13, 2017. In lieu of flowers, tax deductible donations may be made to the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission, which can be abbreviated as WCPARC on the check. Be sure to write "Staebler Farm County Park" on the comment line. Funeral arrangements are being handled by the Dusckas Funeral Home, Inc., 2607 Buffalo Road, Erie, PA 16510.

He married Stellajoe (Stella Jo) English 30 Nov 1943 in Texas. She was born Jun 1916 in Morristown, Hamble Co, Tennessee, and died 21 Apr 2018.

More About George Russell Staebler:

Social Security Number: 286-16-3270

Notes for Stellajoe (Stella Jo) English:

Stellajoe English Staebler was born in Morristown, Tennessee, in 1916, to Jessie Bell Jarnagin and John Calton English. As she had hoped, she died as she slept, on April 21, 2018, just short of 102 years. Stellajoe loved the Great Smoky Mountains, the Pacific Northwest, and the flora of each—leaving thousands of photographs for her daughters to deal with. And she loved her family: her husband of 51 years, George R. Staebler, who preceded her in death by 23 years; daughters Jo Ann, Gretchen, and Rebecca; son-in-law Peter; grandchildren Nicholas, Joanna, Emma, and Joel; granddaughters-in-law Kristy and Wynne, and grandson-in-law Michael; and great-grandsons Max, Ethan, Elliot, and Adrian. Her only regret in dying was to miss those little boys growing up.

Stellajoe was a secretary and bookkeeper for Tennessee Valley Authority when she met George, a happily displaced Michigander. They courted in the Smoky Mountains before he enlisted in the Army Air Corps and entered meteorology training at NYU, far from her for the next year. Following his training, they married and spent six weeks together in Texas before he half-unexpectedly shipped overseas. They were separated for another two and a half years, linked by love poured out in 1000 letters. During their separation, determined to help the war effort and end that “terrible” event, Stellajoe worked for the Civil Service at airfields in Washington, Michigan, and Florida, courageously moving around the country by train. When George returned and was employed by the U.S. Forest Service, they moved west as they had dreamed in their letters, finally settling in Centralia in 1960.

Stellajoe worked as a secretary for the Forest Service until their first child was born and then cared for home, husband, and children for the rest of her life. She sold World Book Encyclopedias door-to-door until she earned a set for her family, hoping to inspire in them a pursuit of knowledge. She sold Community Concert tickets and took her family to every concert as reward. She served many years as a Girl Scout leader and Sunday school teacher, in keeping with her passion for service to others, particularly children and youth. As a nonagenarian, she volunteered at the senior center. A patron of native arts, she befriended and drove basket weavers from the Chehalis Tribe to grass collection sites and purchased their baskets, along with needlework of the Laotian women who lived in Centralia. After her daughters left home, she joined George, who served as Director of Forestry Research for Weyerhaeuser Company, on trips around the country and the world, always collecting handcrafts of the indigenous people. She enjoyed dabbling in art and craft herself—proven by boxes of fabric scraps, jars of homemade dye, and bags of dried wildflowers. When an eye surgery made it difficult to endure sunlight, she became queen of hats, especially those of a local maker.

In her mid-60s she reestablished herself as a quiet activist—begun as a high school senior speaking out against racial segregation in the Deep South. She became involved in world peace efforts, environmental protection, gun control, the Tinnitus Association, and late in life spoke out for marriage equality. At age 100, after moving from her home to Cooks Hill Manor, she joined the resident council, advocating for better food after holding a personal sit-in in the dining room. Born before women had the right to vote, she thrilled at the opportunity to cast her ballot for a woman for president in 2016. She was proud of her appearance in the book, We the Resilient: Wisdom for America from Women Born before Suffrage.

Following George's death, she maintained the family home with the assistance of a cadre of friends and hired help who became friends. She called her 80s her favorite decade. When she was 86, first her youngest daughter and 10 years later the middle one returned home to live with and care for her—though mostly she thought she was caring for them.

Her greatest passion was protecting the forest behind her Seminary Hill home. In 1980, she approached the City of Centralia with a plea and a plan to preserve the area from logging, led a successful signature drive, and cofounded the Friends of Seminary Hill Natural Area (FSHNA). She remained an active member even when she could no longer clean or walk the trails, securing refreshments, making calls, and distributing photo cards. In 2016, on her 100th birthday, the new shelter at the Seminary Hill Natural Area was dedicated to and named for her. In 2017, she was awarded the Rufus Kaiser Award for her work in establishing FSHNA. Fittingly, she slipped earth's bonds hours before FSHNA's annual Earth Day cleanup. Her last request was that her daughters tell her how many came to the workday (34). She will be forever found in the trees and wildflowers on her beloved hill.

A celebration of Stellajoe's life will be held June 9, 2pm, at Centralia First United Methodist Church. Arrangements by Sticklin Funeral Chapel. In lieu of flowers, donations can be mailed to The Stellajoe Staebler Scholarship Fund at the Community Foundation of South Puget Sound, 212 Union Ave SE, Suite 102, Olympia, WA 98501

She married Dr. Walter Thayne Hileman 15 Jun 1941 in Dixboro, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Walter Hileman and Daisy ?. He was born 05 Feb 1917 in Plymouth, Marshall Co, Indiana, and died 20 Aug 2001 in Tucson, Pima Co, Arizona.

Notes for Ruth Marie Staebler:

Ruth Marie Hileman died at Peppi's House in Tucson on October 12, 2016, at peace and surrounded by love. She was born in 1918, one of six children born to Albert and Ella Staebler on their Michigan farm. Ruth graduated from Michigan State Normal College and received her B.S. in home economics in 1940. She married Walter Hileman in 1941, and thus began an extraordinary marriage that endured 60 years. When Walt was sent to Europe during World War II, Ruth stayed at the farm and worked at Willow Run, where the B24 Liberators were manufactured. In 1949, Ruth and Walt moved to Tucson where he was a radiologist at St. Mary's. They had four children, and later welcomed with elation the arrival of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Ruth and Walt traveled extensively and adventurously, around the world as well as closer to home on the backroads of Mexico and the desert southwest. But Tucson was their home, and they loved their house and the desert surrounding it. They were dedicated stewards of the land, and could often be seen walking along the property, picking up litter and maintaining the pathway that ran across it. Ruth had a great appreciation for the arts and crafts of the local indigenous people. She collected many items, often directly from the maker. She was an avid and discerning reader, and loved to discuss the latest book she had read. Above all, Ruth loved her family. She was never happier than when she was holding a baby or two.

She and Walt are survived by their four children, John, Stephen, Edward, and Karen; and by numerous cherished grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother, Donald Staebler and her sister-in-law, Stellajoe Staebler.

A Memorial Service for Ruth will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, December 10, 2016 at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church in Tucson. In lieu of flowers, please contribute to Mobile Meals or the charity of your choice. Arrangements by Adair Funeral Home, Dodge Chapel.

Notes for Huldah Gertrude Huber:

Huldah G. Hirth, age 104, passed away peacefully on April 1, 2011 at The Chelsea Retirement Community. She was born in Ann Arbor on May 24, 1906 one of three daughters to Gottlieb and Lydia Huber. She was married on July 10, 1941 to Fred Hirth, who preceded her in death. She is survived by her son, David (Barbara); and daughter, Carol (Tom) Hanselman; as well as six grandchildren, Scott (Rennae) Hirth, Mark (Lisa) Hirth, Julie (David) Corrin, Jill (Steve) Dunham, Todd (Nichole) Hanselman, and Amy (Brian) Morse; as well as 14 great- grandchildren.

Her life centered on her family and serving her church, Salem Evangelical Lutheran. She much appreciated the many friendships forged during her 25 years of living at Lurie Terrace. Always an intrigued mind, she lamented the late arrival of the computer age so late in her life. The Detroit Tigers have lost one of their most loyal fans, the score of every game being meticulously recorded. All who love her are thankful for the quality of life she enjoyed to the very end. We thank Arbor Hospice and The Chelsea Retirement Community for the loving care. Funeral service took place Tuesday, March 5, 2011 at Salem Lutheran Church. Memorials may be made to Salem Lutheran Church 7474 Scio Church Road, 48103.

Notes for Helen Marie Ahrens:

Helen M. Mast of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 79, died Monday, December 2, 1996 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. She was born October 30, 1917 in Sharon Township, the daughter of William and Anna (Huber) Ahrens. On June 24, 1939 she married Walter E. Mast; he preceded her in death March 3, 1994. Mrs. Mast had been a life-long Ann Arbor area resident. She was a graduate of Manchester High School and a member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ. In 1942, she co-founded Mast Shoes and was currently serving as its President. Survivors include two sons, Thomas (Linda Barnes) Mast and Gregory (Cynthia Crouch) Mast, both of Ann Arbor; six grandchildren, Steven (Karen), Brian, Kevin, Molly, Kyle and Jill; one great granddaughter, Katherine; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by seven brothers and two sisters.

Funeral service will be held 11 a.m. Thursday, December 5 at Bethlehem United Church of Christ with Rev. Dr. Orval L. E. Willmann officiating. Interment will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. Memorial tributes may be made to Bethlehem United Church of Christ. The family will receive friends at the Muehlig Chapel Wednesday 3-5 and 7-9 p.m.

When Walter Mast went off to fight in World War II, his wife Helen stepped in to do what he couldn't.

"When my dad was gone," says their son, Tom Mast, "my mother got their business off ground. Had she not been here, we probably wouldn't have today."

Helen Mast died Monday at the age of 79. At the time, she was president of Mast Shoes, having succeeded her husband after his death in 1994. During the war, the Masts lived above their store at 117 S. Main St. in downtown Ann Arbor, where NBD Bank now is. Helen Mast had friends from high school pitching in as salespeople, but there were times, says Tom Mast, who was an infant at the time, she'd leave him in his swing long enough to dash down and wait on a customer.

The war was a boon to business, says Mast, as leather was rationed and customers quickly snapped up any leather shoes that appeared. After the war, Helen Mast became the company secretary. Sons Tom and Greg currently run the three-store chain. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at Bethlehem United Church of Christ. Burial will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park.

Notes for Walter Erwin Mast:

Walter Erwin Mast Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 81, died Thursday, March 3, 1994 at Naples Community Hospital, Naples, Florida. He was born August 5, 1912 in Ann Arbor, the son of Andrew Phillip and Emma Clara (Seitz) Mast and had been a life-long Ann Arbor resident. In June 1939, he married Helen Marie Ahrens, and she survives. Mr. Mast was a life-long member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ where he served on church council for six years. He was a 1929 graduate of Ann Arbor High School, and served with the U.S. Army during World War II. In 1942, he founded Mast Shoes and served as its President for 52 years. He was a member of Ann Arbor B.P.O.E. #325.

Surviving in addition to his wife are two sons, Thomas (Linda Barnes) Mast and Gregory Cynthia Crouch) Mast both of Ann Arbor; six grandchildren, Steven (Karen), Brian, Kevin, Molly, Kyle and Jill; one nephew, Andrew Mast II; three nieces, Andrea Knoph, Carolyn Gray and Jacqueline Viegel. He was preceded in death by a brother, Andrew II in 1952.

Funeral service will be held at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 8, 1994 at the Bethlehem United Church of Christ with Rev. Dr. Orval L. E. Willmann officiating, Entombment will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. Memorial tributes may be made to Bethlehem Church or the American Heart Association. The family will receive friends at the Muehlig Chapel on Monday 2-4 and 7-9 pm.

After graduating from Ann Arbor High School in 1929, Walter Mast enrolled in a business course at what is now Eastern Michigan University. His academic career was short-lived. "He said he'd rather be in business than study it," said Mast's son, Tom. Walter Mast spent more than 60 years in the shoe business in Ann Arbor. He died Tuesday in Naples, Florida. He was 81.

"He was a people-oriented person," said Tom Mast, who runs the four Mast shoe stores with his brother, Greg. "He continued to work in retail until he was 80 years old because he liked people. "His whole life was going in and talking to the customers, and selling them shoes and getting to know them." Walter Mast was semi-retired. He and his wife, Helen, spent winters in Florida.

He was born in Ann Arbor in 1912. Mast sold shoes at two downtown department stores - the old Mack & Co. store and Jacobson's - before he and Helen opened their first shop on South Main Street in 1942. Soon after, he entered the U.S. Army, leaving Helen to run the store while he served in France and Germany during World War II. Mast's friends had warned him against the business venture because there were already eight shoe stores on Main Street and he had only enough money to carry one line of shoes, his son said.

In the end, Mast Shoes was the lone survivor. There also are Mast stores on East Liberty Street, in the Westgate shopping center and in Cadillac. Tom Mast said his father was proud to have founded a company that endured for 52 years and was entering its third generation as a family business. Some of Mast's six grandchildren are now involved with the company.

Services are at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, where Walter Mast was a lifelong member. Visitation is scheduled from 2-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Monday at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, 403 S. Fourth Ave.

He returned home and attended Ohio University-Athens on the GI bill. While there, he was a walk-on on both the baseball and basketball teams. His senior year he served as captain of both of those teams. In 1956, he received his Bachelor of Education from Ohio University and shortly thereafter was hired by the Portsmouth City Schools. Harry attended Christ's Community Church and he was a former member of the Portsmouth Kiwanis Club and the MRDD Board. He had also played on the former Deemer's Market Baseball team that included other local baseball legends such as Gene Bennett. He was an incredible athlete who also loved playing a fast paced racquetball match against his dear friend, Al Oliver. He was an avid motorcyclist, outdoorsman and loved all motorsports. He was an intense businessman who always found time to have fun. Some of his favorite things were hunting (especially in Alaska), making the annual trip to Sturgis, South Dakota on his Harley, and spending time with his family at Houghton Lake and Siesta Key, Florida. He married Violet Marie Minor 25 Jun 1949 in Frankfort, Benzie Co, Michigan. She was born 27 Nov 1931.

Notes for Frederick Gordon Wilkinson:

Fred Wilkinson was born July 19, 1928 to Harold and Lillian Wilkinson in Detroit, Michigan and went to be with his Lord on Wednesday, November 26, 2014. After his graduation from Cass Tech in 1946, he joined the Coast Guard. In 1949 he was honorably discharged. On June 25, 1949 he married the love of his life, Mickey Minor. They were married for 65 years. Together they raised three children: Fred II, Tammy and Cathy. After his discharge, he enrolled in the University of Michigan and graduated from the school of Business Administration with a BBA degree in 1953. He remained very loyal to his Alma Mater, especially the football program. He had not missed a home game in Ann Arbor for 60 years. After graduation, he worked for a public accounting firm for 5 years and then went into private accounting working for Paul H. Johnson. He retired in 2010. This was not only a business relationship but a wonderful friendship. His love of the "Up North" brought him to buy a home on Long Lake near Traverse City where he spent many wonderful days summer and winter. Besides his love of family and his church, Fred loved to travel. Going to the Passion Play in Oberammergau Germany in 1980, 1990, 2000. Venice, Rome and Ireland were three of the places he enjoyed and talked often of returning. Recently his trips had been cruises. He called them his "hotel at sea." Fred was very civic minded. In 1962 he ran and was elected to the school board in Dearborn Heights - first as a trustee and then Chairman of the Board. After moving to Bloomfield Township in 1968, he served on the Board of Appeals for several years. When we attended Cross of Christ in 1969, we knew we had found our church home. Fred wanted a church that taught the true Gospel of Jesus Christ and in Cross of Christ he found that. Fred became very active in the church serving on several committees and becoming chairman of the congregation. But one of his proudest days was when the cross was raised on the new Sanctuary.

Fred is survived by his loving wife, Mickey; children Fred Wilkinson II, Tammy Wilkinson (Darrell Brink) of Traverse City, Michigan, Cathy Huffman (Mike) of Bellaire, Michigan, 6 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren and a sister Virginia Johnson of Florida. Fred was a loving husband, father, grandfather and brother. He was greatly loved by them in return and all of us.

Notes for Dr. Bruce Erwin DeSpelder:

If it is possible to die from a broken heart, then 93-year-old Bruce Erwin DeSpelder, Sr., did so. After burying his wife of 69 years on the 1st of July, he experienced a massive stroke in the early morning hours of the 4th. Hospice provided comfort care at his home in Bellaire with support for his caregivers until he died on the 7th of July. His stroke and subsequent death affirm that his wish to be with his wife, Dorothy, was granted. Bruce lived his life taking care of Dorothy, especially in his later years. He was known for his dry wit and a twinkle in his eye when he "got you." Bruce Erwin DeSpelder, Sr., Captain USN-R was born on the 19th of April 1918 to Nevene Eva Katz (Tower) and Donald Canby DeSpelder in Detroit. He graduated from Southeastern High School and what later became Wayne State University, where he joined the Arab Fraternity. After earning his B.A., he maintained lifelong contact with his fraternity brothers and their families. On March 9th in 1942 he married Dorothy Jane Roediger while serving in the Navy during WWII. After tours of duty in charge of an oil tanker gun crew, Lieutenant DeSpelder became a blimp pilot hunting enemy submarines off the West Coast. Bruce obtained his MBA at the University of Michigan while becoming tenured as an associate professor of management in the business school at Wayne State. He attained his Ph.D. in 1959 at Ohio State University. His dissertation, Ratios of staff to line personnel in the automotive parts manufacturing industry, is still quoted today. In retirement, his talent and interest in words kept Bruce busy with crossword puzzles. Dawn would find him up and out after the paper and, as sleepy family members awoke, he would be sitting in the living room with his cup of coffee, donut hole, and the daily crossword.

Bruce is survived by his daughter Lynne Ann DeSpelder and son-in-law Albert Lee Strickland of Capitola, California; his son Bruce DeSpelder of New Derry, Pennsylvania; and his grandchildren Matt Strickland and his wife Kelley of Caldwell, Texas, Heather Strickland Krupens and her husband, Doug of Fresno, California, Spencer DeSpelder and his fiancée, Brandi Mroczek of Tempe, Arizona, and Danielle DeSpelder of Dearborn. Bruce outlived his wife, Dorothy, who died suddenly on March 15th, his daughter-in-law Coleen, who died in 2001 after a lengthy battle with cancer; his neighbor Tony Schultz (2009); and all of his generation's Arab fraternity brothers and friends.

The family extends gratitude to the caregivers who assisted Bruce in maintaining his independent living. Amber Carr of Kalkaska headed a homecare team that included Beth Mason, Paula Davila, and Marvelle DiNofrio of Bellaire, Paul Tate and Sue Luton of Mancelona, and Terry Ryan of Central Lake. In keeping with his Navy service during and after World War II, his private burial with full military honors provided by the Elk Rapids AmVet Post 114, will be in the DeSpelder plot at Eldred Cemetery alongside Dorothy and Coleen. Bruce enjoyed reading, especially the Wall Street Journal from the library. Contributions can be made to the Bellaire Library in his name (post office box 477, Bellaire, Michigan 49615.) Books purchased with donations will carry a bookplate in memory of Bruce and include the donor's name. Contributions also can be made to the Antrim County Commission on Aging (COA) (post office box 614, Bellaire, Michigan 49615). COA's services were essential to his living at home until the time of his death. Bruce DeSpelder loved his country, his community, and his family. In his memory, please take the time to do so yourself.

Notes for Dorothy Jane Rodiger:

Few live to age 92 with a marriage lasting sixty-nine years. Dorothy DeSpelder died suddenly following emergency surgery at Munson Medical Center in Traverse City. Her husband Bruce Erwin DeSpelder Sr., also hospitalized for acute bronchitis, was able to be with her before and after she died. Unable to recover from major surgery, Dorothy died of organ failure in the early hours of the 15th of March. Along with Bruce Sr., Dorothy was supported in her dying by caregivers Amber Carr and Beth Mason along with longtime family friend and neighbor Dee Dee Schultz. Immediate reactions from the community and extended family reminisced about her grace, charm, wondrous smile, and giving nature. Dorothy lived her life with determination, especially in her later years. Dorothy Jane Roediger was born on the 26th of November 1918 to William Leonard Roediger and Edith Edna Parnell in Detroit. She graduated from Central High School and what later became Wayne State University with a degree in elementary education. On March 9th in 1942 she married Bruce DeSpelder before he entered the Navy during WWII. After tours of duty in charge of a tanker gun crew, Lieutenant DeSpelder served as a blimp pilot protecting the West Coast.

Dorothy and Bruce lived in Corona del Mar while stationed in Southern California where their first child, Lynne Ann, was born in 1944. By 1949 they had returned to Detroit where their second child, Bruce Erwin DeSpelder, Jr., was born. Dorothy returned to teaching after her children were in school. She taught first grade in several schools, ending her career at Krolik elementary, where she taught from 1963 until her retirement in 1982. Dorothy's love of teaching extended to her children and grandchildren. Along with Bruce she emphasized the value of education and provided many opportunities for learning. Regular trips across the country along with visits to Europe were a big part of Dorothy's family life. During retirement she and Bruce traveled extensively with good friends and family to Africa, Alaska, New Zealand, Japan, and China. Dorothy's world was large. Skiing and playing golf well into her early 80s, Dorothy enjoyed the "game of life." Above all, she valued helping others. We remember her for all that she gave to her family, community, and church both in Detroit and later when they made Bellaire their permanent home. Her talents for crafts changed over the years from sewing exquisite doll clothes and spectacular formal dresses to knitting, making candles, and Christmas decorations. She later turned to decoupage and finally stained-glass creations. Extraordinary stained glass lighting fixtures were the culmination of her art work. A Michigan girl at heart, her last days were spent on an outing to Sam's club and rooting for the Red Wings.

Dorothy is survived by her husband Bruce of Bellaire; her daughter Lynne Ann DeSpelder and son-in-law Albert Lee Strickland of Capitola, California; her son Bruce DeSpelder of Washington, Pennsylvania; and her grandchildren Matt Strickland and his wife Kelley of Caldwell, Texas, Heather Strickland Krupens and her husband, Doug of Fresno, California, Spencer DeSpelder of Tempe, Arizona, and Danielle DeSpelder of Dearborn. She also leaves six great-grandchildren, Kayla Strickland, Joselyn and Gia Krupens, and Madeline, Cassidy, and Baron Strickland. She is also survived by cousins Joyce and Lyman Wine of Cincinnati, Ohio; Ron and Ruth Woods of Ashville, North Carolina; and Elisabeth Rindskopf Parker and her husband Bob of Sacramento, California. Many lifelong friends include Mary and Don Bogler of Harrison Township; Joann and Marne Homberg of Torch Lake. and Jane Karber of Lake Bellaire. Dorothy outlived her daughter-in-law Coleen, who died in 2001 after a lengthy battle with cancer; her neighbor Tony Schultz (2009); and her computer guru Bob Karber (2010.)

Our family extends gratitude to the caregivers who assisted Dorothy in maintaining her independent living. Amber Carr of Kalkaska heads a team that includes Beth Mason, Paula Davila, and Marvelle DiNofrio of Bellaire; Paul Tate and Sue Luton of Mancelona; and Sue Wagner of Central Lake. Services for Dorothy will begin with a visitation from 6–8 pm on April 8th at Mortensons Family Chapel, 106 Birch Street in Bellaire. Her funeral will take place at 1 pm on the 9th at Church in the Hills, 6401 Shanty Creek Road with Duane Ferris conducting the service. Her body will be cremated and private burial will be in the DeSpelder plot at Eldred Cemetery alongside Coleen. Dorothy was a voracious reader, especially of mysteries and thrillers. Contributions can be made to the Bellaire Library in her name (post office box 477, Bellaire, Michigan 49615.) Books purchased with donations will carry a bookplate in memory of Dorothy and include the donor's name. Contributions can also be made to the Atrim County Commission on Aging (COA) (post office box 614, Bellaire, Michigan 49615). COA's services assisted Dorothy in continuing to live with her husband in their home until the time of her death. Dorothy DeSpelder lived her life thinking of others. In her memory, please take the time to do so yourself.

Notes for David Lloyd Staebler:

David L. Staebler is an American electrical engineer. He received his BSEE degree from Pennsylvania State University in 1962. The following year he was awarded an MSEE degree from the same institution. He became a member of the technical staff at RCA Laboratories in 1963. In 1970, he gained his Ph.D. in electrical engineering from Princeton University. While primarily remaining at RCA, he served as visiting professor at the Instituto de Fisica e Quimica de Sao Carlos, Brazil 1974–1975. In 1979–1980, he was a visiting staff member at Laboratories RCA Limited in Zurich, Switzerland. He was appointed as head of the Kinematic Systems group at RCA Laboratories in 1980. He later worked for Thomson Consumer Electronics and was the manager of the Materials Science Branch at the National Renewable Energy Lab. He serves as a consultant to Nanergy Corporation.

Dr. Staebler has performed research investigations on photochromism in materials, electrochromism, storage of holograms in electro-optic crystals, plus amorphous silicon solar cells produced by discharge. In 1980 he worked with Christopher R. Wronski to study light-induced metastable changes in the properties of hydrogenated amorphous silicon (a-Si:H); now known as the Staebler–Wronski effect.

Some experimental results

- Photoconductivity and dark conductivity decrease rapidly at first before stabilizing at a lower value. Interruptions in the illumination has no effect on the subsequent rate of change. Once the sample is illuminated again, the photoconductivity will drop as though there was no interruption.
- Annealing the amorphous silicon at a few hundred degrees Celsius for a few hours reverses the effect. Annealing can also take place at lower temperatures, however the process takes a longer amount of time.
- The use of protocrystalline Si:H has been shown to improve stability but not eliminate it.]

Suggested explanations - Nanocrystalline silicon suffers less from the Staebler–Wronski effect than amorphous silicon, suggesting that the disorder in the amorphous silicon Si network plays a major role. Other properties that could play a role are hydrogen concentration and its complex bonding mechanism, as well as the concentration of impurities.

The exact nature and cause of the Staebler–Wronski effect is still not well known. Historically, the most favored model has been the hydrogen bond switching model. It proposes that an electron-hole pair formed by the incident light may recombine near a weak Si–Si bond, releasing energy sufficient to break the bond. A neighbouring H atom then forms a new bond with one of the Si atoms, leaving a dangling bond. These dangling bonds can trap electron-hole pairs, thus reducing the current that can pass through. However, new experimental evidence is casting doubt on this model. More recently, the H collision model proposed that two spatially separated recombination events cause emission of mobile hydrogen from Si–H bonds to form two dangling bonds, with a metastable paired H state binding the hydrogen atoms at a distant site.

New Columbia - The Staebler family mourns the passing of David Lloyd Staebler, 84, on Jan. 1, 2025. He is survived by Betty Jean Craig Staebler, his wife of 63 years, his daughters Laurie and Lisa; sisters, Judith Holbrook (David) of Prescott, Arizona, and Linda Sensor (Robert) of Erie, PA; in-laws Robert & H. Kathy Spang of Herndon, Pennsylvania; grandchildren Taylor, Michael, Lucas; & many loved cousins, nieces & nephews. He was preceded in death by his father Lloyd A. Staebler & his mother Mary Underhill Staebler.

David was a 1962 Penn State Graduate and played in the Penn State Blue Band. He received his Electrical Engineering degree in 1962 & joined RCA Laboratories in 1963. In 1970, he earned his Ph.D. from Princeton University. He worked in renewable energy, holograms & co-discovered the Staebler-Wronski effect in 1976. David most recently took classes at the Bucknell Institute for Life Long Learning. David was a volunteer with The Buffalo Creek Watershed Alliance, Middle Susquehanna Riverkeeper, Linn Land & Waterways Conservancy & Cape Fear River Watch. He was a member of the Cape Fear Cyclist, North Carolina, & enjoyed race walking, hang gliding, kayaking & running. Most of all he enjoyed time with his wife and family. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to The Buffalo Creek Watershed Alliance. There will be a private interment at a later date. No memorial service is planned at this time.

Notes for Ricky Lee Doering:

Rick Lee Doering, age 65 of Delano, passed away April 2, 2018 after courageously battling cancer with dignity and grace. He truly perceived his diagnosis as a "win-win" situation saying, "I win if I beat the cancer, and I win when I get to go to Heaven". Rick was born to Orlin and Orvella (Bullert) Doering on May 5, 1952 in Cokato, Minnesota. He was baptized on June 1, 1952 at St. James Lutheran Church in Howard Lake, Minnesota. He attended grade school at St. James Lutheran Church and School where he was confirmed on April 3, 1966. Rick graduated from Howard Lake High School in 1970 and Gustavus Adolphus College in 1974. He worked as a manager for Burger King for 5 years before spending 31 years at BFI/Republic Services. Here he was fortunate to hold a variety of jobs: Sales Rep, General Manager, Area Sales Manager, and assisted in Acquisitions. Since retiring from Republic Services, Rick spent several years doing part-time consulting work for Russ Schweih's in environmental services.

Rick was united in marriage to Karen Frey on July 9, 1977 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He loved her with all his heart enjoying every minute of their marriage. Their marriage was blessed with a loving companionship, three wonderful children and a commitment to the Lord. They first lived in Mound and later built their home in Delano in 1984, where they have since resided. Rick was known for his love of food/desserts, sense of humor, pragmatic attitude, and his warm smile. His children and grandchildren were the absolute delight of his life. Spending time and playing with them was always a top priority. Rick never missed an activity or sporting event and was their greatest cheerleader, supporter and advisor. He continued to be the rock of his family until the end. Hours before he passed, Rick awoke and saw his wife and children surrounding the bed. He looked at each, smiled and said repeatedly, "Wow. What a life!", "This has been real special", and "I love my family". Rick willingly gave his time in service to the church. He enjoyed positions of leadership and was honored to serve his Lord in many capacities. At Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, he served as President, Vice President among many other board positions in addition to serving as Treasurer and Chairman at West Lutheran High School. Many often sought his counsel when issues arose as he had a reputation for being fair and honest. He was truly amazing!

Rick was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his beloved wife Karen; children Scott (Lindsay), Julie (Micah) Martin and Krista (Andy) Giefer; grandchildren Chase, Olivia, Josiah, Nora, Mara, and Jonah; sisters Durene (Bob) Rogers and Sheri Doering Fenn and nephews Andrew, Eric, Nick and Michael.

Funeral Services were held at 11 am on Saturday, April 7, 2018 at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church in Delano. Visitation was Friday, 4 – 8 pm and continued Saturday, 10 – 11 am prior to the service, ALL at the church. Interment was in Mt. Olive East Cemetery in Delano. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred.

He married Julia Leticia Baroni. She was born 10 Feb 1953.

Notes for Julia Leticia Baroni:

May 28, 2013 - Julia Van Aken recently spoke about her duties as pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs on East Ganson Street in Jackson:

Age: 60

Residence: Grass Lake

Position and Workplace: Pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs, 900 E. Ganson St., Jackson

Length of employment: 36 years as a pharmacist; 12 years at Longe Drugs.

Family: Married to husband Tim for 12 years. Two step-children, Justin, 32, and Jessica, 30; and one step-granddaughter, Raiden, 5

Q. How did you get into this line of work?

A. My dad was a high school counselor. He told me being a pharmacist would be a good job for a woman.

Q. What is your favorite part of your job?

A. Interacting with people; (especially) the people that I work with. We're in such a close proximity ... you have to really love the people you work with. We're shoulder-to-shoulder eight and a half hours a day. We spend more time together than we do with our spouses.

Q. What has been your proudest or most memorable moment at work?

A. There is a particular customer that I have helped a number of times. She's a mental health patient. She's had times where her doctor needed to be contacted and I went out of my way to reach her doctor for her. That's the most rewarding.

Q. Have you had a most embarrassing moment at this job?

A. When (co-workers) bought me a pair of black silk panties that were so big they would have fit a 300-pound man. One of the girls gave them to me all wrapped up nice for some occasion. There were customers standing around and I opened them up. Everyone was in on the joke but me. I put them right on over my pants. It was really funny. I could have fit three of me in them.

Q. If you could change one thing about your job, what would it be?

A. I wish the store were bigger and we had more room.

Q. How do you like to spend your free time?

A. Horseback riding. I've crisscrossed Michigan on a horse. It's a 520-mile ride. I also run. I get up at quarter to four in the morning, run six miles; then come to work. I just started doing that two years ago. I've run 5Ks. I'm usually outside.

Q. If you could have a "dream job," what would it be?

A. Something with horses. I worked at a camp store for awhile. I was like a camp counselor in a horse barn and I really liked that. I don't mind mucking stalls, feeding horses, brushing horses and doing the down-and-dirty work. ... That would be perfect if I could make a living at that.

He married Belinda Tripp. She was born 26 Aug 1958.

Notes for Harold L. Weinbrecht:

At first glance, Harold Weinbrecht seems like just another person from Cary. He's a husband, father, grandfather, and a retired software engineer. He loves to play tennis, work out in the gym, and run. What makes Harold Weinbrecht just a little bit different from the rest of the men in Cary is that he's also the Town's Mayor. But in Harold's family, even being Mayor isn't so unique; Mayor Weinbrecht's uncle was former Mayor Fred Bond. Clearly, service runs in Harold's family.

A native of Augusta, Georgia, Harold has spent most of his life in Cary, coming here first as a child with his family then later as an adult while attending North Carolina State University. Since their marriage in 1987, Harold and his wife, Belinda, have lived and raised their two daughters in Cary. And over these many years, Harold and his family have stayed in Cary because of its charm and sense of place, its natural beauty and its people.

Wanting to keep Cary the wonderful place he's called home for so long, Harold became active in politics in 1997 when he helped start a website called Citizens for Balanced Growth where he wrote about Town government meetings and issues. It was during this endeavor that he discovered that there were many people interested in the same things as he: a slower growth rate; a stronger focus on roads, parks and schools; and an increase in communication between citizens and their government.

In 1998, Harold was chosen as the first chairman of the Town Council's newly formed Information Services Advisory Board, and in 1999, he was named to the Town's Planning and Zoning Board. Harold ran and was elected to the Cary Town Council for the first time in 1999 as an At-Large representative.

Then, and now as Mayor, Harold believes that the role of local government is to maintain a high quality of life for its citizens by providing crucial infrastructure and valuable amenities. And then as now, faith, family and hard work are the things that keep Cary Mayor Harold Weinbrecht grounded and in touch with the real issues Cary citizens face each day. Mayor Weinbrecht remains committed to managing growth, and he also believes in an open government where citizens have a strong and relevant voice.

Harold Weinbrecht (born 1956) is an American computer programmer and politician who has been the mayor of Cary, North Carolina since 2007. Weinbrecht was born in Augusta, Georgia. His family moved to Cary from 1957 to 1967. His uncle was Fred Bond, Jr, the former mayor of Cary. He attended Augusta College and North Carolina State University, receiving a B.S. in both computer science and mathematics. In 1997, amid disputes between developers and citizens, Weinbrecht launched the website Citizens for Balanced Growth where he wrote about local issues and town council meetings. He became the chair of Cary's new Information Services Advisory Board in 1998. In 1999, he was named to Cary's Planning and Zoning Board. That same year, Weinbrecht was elected to an at-large town council seat.

Though his opponent spent six times more on advertising, Weinbrecht was elected mayor of Cary in 2007, winning approval on 58% of ballots cast over incumbent Ernie McAlister. One of the key issues in the election was growth, with Weinbrecht proposing a balanced approach. During his first term as mayor, Weinbrecht formed the Citizen Issue Review Commission and created a town sustainability manager position. Weinbrecht was re-elected as mayor in 2011, 2015, 2019, and 2023. His current term expires in December 2027. Weinbrecht was endorsed by Indy Week in 2007 and 2011. He started his political career as a Democrat, but now considers himself to be an Independent. Weinbrecht is a past president of the Wake County Mayors Association. He has also served on the Wake County's Growth Management Task Force and is chairman of the Capital Area Metropolitan Planning Organization.

In 1994, he became a programmer for SAS Institute. He was previously a simulations engineer. He retired in 2022 after 28 years at SAS.

Weinbrecht married his wife Belinda and moved back to Cary in 1987. They have two children. He is a member of Cary Presbyterian Church where he teaches Sunday school. He exercises two hours each day.

Children of Harold Weinbrecht and Belinda Tripp are:

- 1279 i. Audrey C.<sup>15</sup> Weinbrecht, born 1989.
- 1280 ii. Cara A. Weinbrecht, born 1994.

Notes for Laura Read:

Laura Read Maki of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 60, died peacefully in her sleep Friday April 16, 2010 at Arbor Hospice, after a two-year struggle with peritoneal cancer. Laura was an Ann Arbor 'townie' born here December 6, 1949; graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1968; and lived here the rest of her life. She is survived by her father Merwin F. Read, Jr.; her two children Amilynn (Andy) Annala, and Greg (Laura Langenburg) Maki; her sister Cynthia Read (Les) Miller of Grosse Pointe, her brother Scott (Amanda Stanger) Read of Ann Arbor; and her ex-husband, Gene Maki. She doted on her two granddaughters, Aliisa and Andria Annala. She also had numerous nieces, nephews and cousins in Michigan and elsewhere. She was preceded in death by her mother Shirley Anderson Read who died this year on Easter Sunday.

Laura was a life-long member of the Ann Arbor Figure Skating Club. She skated on the Hockettes in the 1960s and the Debonaires (adult synchronized skating team) from the 1970s until a few years ago. Laura received her judging appointment from US Figure Skating in 1979 and judged her last event in March 2010. Laura was well loved and appreciated for her spirit, her knowledge as a judge, referee and technical panel person, her willingness to share her expertise with clubs in a wide area of the country, always displaying a calm yet passionate approach to the sport of figure skating. She will be sorely missed by many skating communities but especially in Ann Arbor where she has been a stalwart supporter and leader in so many club activities. Laura's last competition was the Finals of the Michigan State High School Figure Skating program - a program that is what it is today because of her work with it - the largest and most successful high school figure skating program in the country. At her request, Laura's body was donated to research at the University of Michigan Hospital and will be cremated at a later date. A Celebration of Life will be held at the Ann Arbor Ice Cube, her 'home away from home,' on May 16th, 3-5 p.m. Bring your skates if you have them, bring your good memories, and be ready to share your favorite Laura story. A big thanks all of Laura's family, friends, 'skating family' and the LiveStrong program at the Ann Arbor YMCA who have all been so supportive for the past two years. Donations can be made to the Laura Maki Memorial Fund (which will honor those who voluntarily serve the skating community off the ice who may also suffer from financial/medical hardships), c/o Ann Dougherty, 6 Northwick Ct, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48105.

Angola, Indiana — Students hugged and consoled one another Monday in front of a makeshift memorial hanging in the windows at Angola High School as they tried to deal with the grief of losing four well-known and popular seniors killed in a collision in Alabama as they returned home from spring break. "Everyone was crying," senior Kyle Jewell said. Students said as hard as it was to go to school Monday, two days after Alexx Bauer, Matthew Roe, Evan Weaver and Riley Zimmer were killed, it helped to be together to comfort one another.

"Hugging and just soft comfort is what a lot of people needed today. And I think it's still going to be needed for a while," senior Alex Dafnis said. The four 18-year-olds were killed in a three-vehicle crash about 3 p.m. Saturday on Interstate 65 just south of Clanton, Ala. Niall McNellis, 21, of Troy, Ala., also died in the crash.
