Notes for George Gruner:

The fate of the former furniture factory at 109 East Madison, a key building in the debate over the use of local floodways, has been delayed. The present owner, the University of Michigan, tried to sell it but took it off the market after failing to receive any offers that were close to its appraised value. Built in 1883, it is a classic three-story brick building, with subtle detailing and large windows. But visions of turning it into condos for downtown's hot housing market ran into a seemingly insurmountable problem: the building is in the Allen's Creek floodway. Although normally hidden in an underground pipe, the creek reappears during a "hundred-year flood" (the kind of flood that has a 1 percent chance of occurring in any given year; see "Storm Warning" in the November Observer). In such a flood, 109 East Madison not only would get wet, but would receive the full force of the flowing water.

There was no regulation of floodway construction in the late nineteenth century, when cabinetmakers George Gruner and George Kuebler decided to go into business for themselves. Gruner and Kuebler built their factory on the corner of South Fourth Avenue and East Madison, nestled into a bend of Allen's Creek--the creek passed along the building's Fourth Avenue side and then curled around the back. Gruner and Kuebler's equipment was steam driven, so they didn't need the creek's waterpower; more likely, they chose the site to be near their labor market, the skilled craftsmen who lived on what is now known as the Old West Side. In 1899, after Kuebler died and Gruner moved to Cincinnati, Charles Sauer bought the property. Sauer was born in Canada to German parents and learned carpentry from his father before moving to Ann Arbor at age twenty. He worked as a draftsman and as a contractor before forming Sauer Lumber with his two brothers, Adam and John.

Notes for Johann Martin Breining:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Ionia and Montcalm Counties Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago - Biographical Company, 1885:

JOHN M. BREINING, a retired farmer and old settler of Michigan, now resides on twelve acres of finely improved land within the city limits of Edmore, Montcalm County. His parents, Jacob and Barbara (Reidemiller) Breining, both natives of Wurtemberg, Germany came to America in 1836 and located in Freedom Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. The father was a cooper by trade, and followed that line of work in the old country, but here he took a farm of one hundred and twenty acres in the forest and proceeded to clear it of timber. Both parents resided on this farm, living honest, conscientious lives, and being members of the Lutheran Church until they were called from earth.

The subject of this sketch was the eldest of eight children, and was born in Guelstein, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1829. He was seven years old when they left the old home, and undertook the passage from Havre to New York. They were upon the ocean thirty-three days. In 1854 he began to work for himself and bought sixty acres in Lodi Township, Washtenaw County. Having cultivated this land for a few years, he sold it and removed to Adrian, where he farmed until 1865, when he went to Douglas County, Illinois. In the year 1868 he removed to Omaha, Nebraska, working on a farm and in a gristmill until 1877. In February of that year he came to Ingham County, this State, and worked near Okemos, and then bought an improved ten acres adjoining the Agricultural College, and did teaming for the college. In 1887 he took a contract to carry the mail for four years between the college and Lansing, but sold out this contract in 1890, and on October 15th of that year came to Edmore and bought the Whittlesey place, a well-improved place having good buildings upon it. Here he carries on general farming on a small scale.

Mr. Breining's first wife was also a native of Wurtemberg. They were married in October, 1859, in Washtenaw County, where Mrs. Breining died after having become the mother of three children - Jacob, James and Mary. The present Mrs. Breining is the daughter of Jacob Koch, who was a farmer of Wurtemberg, Germany, whence he came to America in 1854 and located in Fredonia, New York. Here as above stated, his daughter Regina, was united to the subject of this sketch. Mr. Koch died in Lodi Township at a very advanced age. His wife died in Freedom Township. They were members of the Lutheran Church, and were the parents of six children, of whom the wife of our subject was the fourth in order of birth. She was born in Kirkentellinsfurth, Germany, January 20, 1837. After her emigration with her parents to this country, she supported herself in New York City. She is the mother of nine children, six of whom are living: Lena, Frederick, Katie, Ella, Minnie and George. They are devout members of the Lutheran Church, and Mr. Breining is a Democrat in principle, and casts his vote with the party. He is universally respected for his integrity, and forwards any movement that will enhance the prosperity of the township.

Notes for Johann Michael (Luz) Lutz:

History of Bay County, Michigan. Publisher: H.R. Page & Company - Chicago; 1883. Page 161:

John M. Lutz was born in Germany, February 5, 1823. In 1854 he came to Bay City and built a large boarding house and saloon on Jackson Street, which he continued up to the time of his death, which occurred September 28, 1879. Mr. Lutz was crossing the Third Street Bridge; the swing was open, and he being near-sighted, walked off into the river. Every effort was made to restore him to life, but in vain. He left a wife and one child to mourn his loss. He was married in 1850 to Sarah Christina Thauer, of Germany. His wife continues the business at the old place.

Notes for Jacob Lutz:

The Pleasant Lake Inn - Jacob Lutz – Builder and First Owner

The land on which the Pleasant Lake Inn sits was originally purchased by Henry Griffin, one of the earliest Freedom Township settlers, and elected its first supervisor in April 1834. Griffin owned and farmed the land through the early 1860s, when it was sold to William Hanky, who constructed a steam-powered saw mill on the north shore of the lake and harvested lumber for making logs. This land and business were located on what was originally named "Lodi Road", first surveyed and built in 1834 along an existing Native American trail to connect Lodi Township and Ann Arbor-Saline Road with several township "centers" heading west. It thus became a major route for travelers and freight moving between Ann Arbor and points west.

By 1874, the land is owned by Jacob Lutz, as the immigration of Germans peaked, making Freedom Township almost 90% German-owned. Jacob was born in Kirchentellinsfurt, Germany in 1822, and emigrated in 1848. He initially began as a fur trader and tin ware dealer, then moved into the railroad business, before ending up in Freedom Township by 1858. Jacob and his second wife Regina Hegge had five children.

The first "Pleasant Lake House" was constructed by Lutz in 1880, up from the lake and near the road, to attract travelers coming down the road. The two-story home had a saloon and grocery store in the front sections, with the family rooms in the back portion. The building came under the general term of "roadhouse", a rural stopping place along a road for refreshments or for overnight stays. A barn was also constructed across the street where the parking lot for the Inn now sits. Lutz descendants told stories of travelers staying overnight, including a travelling circus with wagons and elephants during the summer months. The Pleasant Lake House became known as the place to socialize and relax in Freedom Township. Jacob's son, Henry, continued to farm the land and provide food for the grocery store.

Jacob Lutz died in 1903 and is buried in the Bethel Church cemetery. Shortly before his death, he sold the Pleasant Lake House to David Schneider.

- 2668 iv. Emma Barbara Margaretha Stollsteimer, born 21 Nov 1883 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 18 Feb 1986 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Edward Charles Armbruster 01 Oct 1902 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan; born 28 Sep 1871 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 22 May 1946 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Emma Barbara Margaretha Stollsteimer:

"Life-long Salinian." Emma Armbruster brings new meaning to this old expression. It's remarkable enough that Emma will turn 100 years old November 21, 1983. But she has lived her whole life within half a mile of her birthplace on Brassow Road. For the last 37 years, Emma has lived right next door to the place where the old farmhouse once stood. She lives with her sister, Mary Waar — who at 97 is nearing the century mark herself. That's Emma on the right and Mary on the left. The two still cook and keep house and take care of themselves. Until a few years ago, they even cut their own lawn with push mowers!

Emma was born in 1883, one of five children of George and Anna Stollsteimer. She received her schooling at the little one-room Lodi Plains schoolhouse which stood at the end of the road. When Ed Armbruster came courting, it was with a horse and buggy. Ed and Emma were married in 1902 and lived on a farm on Maple Road. Armbruster passed away in 1946, and Emma came to stay with Mary, who in the meantime had married Ed Waar. Waar died in 1958, and the two sisters have been on their own ever since. "I've always enjoyed having her with me," Mary said of Emma. "We've worked together really well and never had an argument worth mentioning." Perhaps that's what has kept them looking so lovely all these years!

Naturally Emma has seen many changes in Saline during 100 years. "It's altogether different now," she said. "It used to be the only streets were uptown — the others were dirt roads. It was all swamp along E. Michigan Avenue. "We always went to town on Saturday nights to walk around, shop a bit, and meet the neighbors," Emma continued. "There wasn't much else to do for fun then," Mary noted. Emma always has attended St. Paul Church, and has helped at Pittsfield Grange activities. She crocheted and did many kinds of fancywork until her sight worsened in the last few years. She also made her own clothes — including the dress she's wearing in the photograph. An open house for Emma's 100th birthday will be held Sunday, Nov. 27, from 2-5 p.m. in the Fellowship Room of St. Paul UCC. It will be hosted by nieces and nephews of Emma and Mary — Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stollsteimer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stollsteimer, and Eunice Buss.

Emma Armbruster of Brassow Rd. reached that age last Thursday Nov. 21, 1985. She enjoyed the day in good health and good spirits, in the company of good friend and she looks forward to more of the same in the years to come. One secret of her long life and her serene outlook is her skill at accommodating, developed through years of practice. "When I was young, I wanted to clerk in a store, more than anything else," Emma recalled on her birthday. "But then in 1892, at age 19, Edward Armbruster and I got married. I never did clerk in a store. We settled on the Armbruster farm, on Maple Rd., and there was no time for clerking." But Emma accommodated happily.

She and Ed had been classmates at the old one-room Lodi Plains School and life with him was good. After Armbruster died, Emma and her young sister May Wahr who'll be only 100 next May took up housekeeping together at their present home on Brassow Rd. They have devotedly looked after each other, ever since joining forces in 1946. "We never have a cross word. Maybe a little difference of opinion, now and then, but hardly ever," they agree. Fun and happiness for Emma and May are still very real present-day things. "We enjoy it the most when young friends and neighbors come to visit." And with the couple as alive and alert as they are, company and visits are almost daily happenings. Most appreciated is the help that the two ladies accept from nieces, nephews and neighbors.

Until recent years, Emma and May were proud to take care of everything at their home. But now they are happy to accept assistance with the heavier chores. They especially offer thanks to Cliff Olson, who "does almost everything for us." And Emma, born the week before Thanksgiving, sums up her 102 years on a note of deep gratitude. "The more the years go by, the more I have to be thankful for," she smiles.

Emma S. Armbruster, who celebrated her 102nd birthday last November, died Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1986 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born November 21, 1883 in Saline, the daughter of George and Anna Gruner Stollsteimer. A Saline resident her entire life, she was married to Edward Armbruster October 1, 1902; he preceded her in, death May 22, 1946. A friend of St. Paul United Church of Christ in Saline, Mrs. Armbruster farmed and lived off Maple Road until her husband's death. A member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Armbruster is survived by: her sister, Mrs. Mary Wahr of Saline; two nephews, Frederick Stollsteimer and his wife Katie, and Glen Stollsteimer and his wife Pat of Saline; one niece, Mrs. Eunice Buss of Pinckney; dear friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olson of Pinckney; and several great-nieces and great-nephews. She was preceded in death by one sister, Mrs. Ida Hawker, and three brothers, Oscar, George, and Fred Stollsteimer.

Funeral services for Mrs. Armbruster will be held this Thursday, Feb. 20 at 1 p.m. from the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial will follow in Lodi Township Cemetery. Visitation is scheduled for Wednesday evening from 7-9, at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to the Saline Evangelical Home.

Notes for Veit Georg (Frederick) Mayer:

Today, Feb. 13, 1941, marks the 90th birthday anniversary of one of Saline's oldest and most loved residents, Fred Mayer. Mr. Mayer was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, Feb. 13, 1851, and came to this country with his parents when he was five years old. The family came directly to Saline upon arriving in America and settled on a farm in Lodi Township. Here Mr. Mayer grew to manhood seeing the country change from a semi-wilderness with wolves howling in the woods, to the country as we know it today. Good roads, telephones, automobiles, have made their advent wince he came to this vicinity and have transformed the living habits of the community.

He married Miss Clara Laubengayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich Laubengayer, also of Lodi, and they went to live on a farm in Pittsfield Township on Crane Road. Three children were born to the Mayer's; Miss Amanda, who makes her home with her father; Herman who lives in Findlay, Ohio; and William, who lives in Roseville near Detroit. In 1912 Mr. Mayer and Miss Amanda came to Saline to live. Mrs. Mayer died while the children were small. For some time Mr. Mayer was a city employee and since he retired has taken great pride in his garden each summer. The vegetables seem to respond to the love and care he bestows on them and he has a garden which would delight the heart of an artist and please the palate of a king. He is a member of St. Paul's Church. About Christmas he had influenza and has not felt quite like his usual self since. His many friends congratulate him on the milestone he has reached and wish him many more years of happiness.

Miss Amanda Mayer entertained at a family dinner Friday Feb. 13, 1942 honoring her father's 91st birthday anniversary. Mr. Mayer, who was born in Wurttemberg, Germany, has spent most of his life in this county, coming here with his parents when he was only five years old. He has been a highly respected citizen and has hosts of friends both in Saline and the surrounding territory who have enjoyed and appreciated his acquaintance and fellowship during the years and hope he will be with us for many more. His garden is as beautiful as any flower garden that ever grew. The plants seem to respond to the loving care they receive as if they knew what he expected and did their best to produce it. Mr. Mayer's sons, Herman, of Findlay, Ohio, and William, of Roseville were here to help him celebrate the event.

Wednesday, February 13th, 1946, marked the ninety-fifth birthday anniversary of one of Saline's grand old men; Fred Mayer who lives, with his daughter, Miss Amanda Mayer, at the corner of Russell and Lewis Streets. The day was to be celebrated quietly at his home. Mr. Mayer was born in Germany and came to this country with his parents. In his earlier years he was engaged in farming and resided for many years on Bemis Road, for the past 34 years has lived in Saline. He has two sons William of Roseville, and Herman, who is in Florida this winter. Mr. Mayer is a charter member of St. Paul's Church and until the winter months made it difficult for him to attend, he was a regular attendant, and usually walked to church each Sunday morning. In spite of his age, Mr. Mayer is still alert mentally and able to be up and around his house, although he is recovering from an attack of influenza which he contracted a few weeks ago. The entire community congratulates Mr. Mayer and hopes that he may reach his centennial anniversary.

Frederick G. Mayer, 96, Saline's oldest citizen, passed away early Thursday morning Sept. 4, 1947 at the Saline General Hospital after a short illness. Mr. Mayer suffered a stroke on Monday afternoon and on Tuesday afternoon was removed to the hospital for medical care. He was born February 13th, 1851 in Wurttemberg, Germany and when he was five years old came to the United States with his parents and two brothers and a sister. The family settled on a farm in Lodi Township. On February 18, 1880, he married Clara Laubengayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich Laubengayer, also of Lodi, and they made their home in Pittsfield Township on a farm located on Crane Road. Mrs. Mayer preceded him in death in 1889. In 1912 Mr. Mayer and his daughter, Miss Amanda, moved to 200 Russell Street, Saline, where he enjoyed working in his garden every summer, including this summer. He was employed by the city of Saline the first 10 years of his residence here. Mr. Mayer, with an ox team, helped his father clear his farm land and watched civilization, as marked by material things, advance from the simplicity of farm life in the middle of the nineteenth century to the swift pace of today. He was one of four charter members left of the St. Paul's Church.

Survivors include his daughter, Amanda and son Herman, at home, and another son, William, of Roseville. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Paul's church with Rev. Alvin Siemsen officiating. Interment was made in Lodi Cemetery. Mr. Mayer was a citizen of the United States having taken out his papers about 55 years ago.

Notes for Emanuel Johann Sodt:

The Pleasant Lake Inn - Emannual (Manny) Sodt – Third Owner

Manny Sodt became the third owner in 1925 with the purchase from David Schneider, and installed electricity into the inn. Manny was born in 1890 just west of the Fredonia hamlet. Manny had a career as a motorcycle policeman in Ann Arbor, and accompanied important visitors such as the governor when they visited the area. He was also the equipment manager for the University of Michigan football team. Manny was married to Clara Koch of the hamlet of Jerusalem, daughter of a saloon owner on Fletcher Road, which brought experience into the business. Clara also designed and installed rock and flower gardens to beautify the Pleasant Lake House area.

Manny decided in 1927 the dancehall was too far from the road, and also wanted to expand the lakefront area for more camping facilities. With logs carefully placed under the dancehall, the structure was rolled a few feet at a time, up the hill and onto the road, and then positioned east of the house on a new foundation. He also purchased several used wooden waiting stations from the inter-urban railroad, and placed them as cabins near the lake. Olympic star Jesse Owens is recalled by family members as one summer guest who came to relax. Bear cubs, foxes, porcupines and other unusual animals were housed in stone dens built along the hillside for the benefit of camping guests.

Manny Sodt also enlarged the saloon and restaurant by enclosing the front porch. In the summer, dances would move outdoors, often accompanied by Phil Diamond and the Four Aces. Manny himself played horn with local German bands, and the Ann Arbor Greek community was well known for boisterous parties and good food in the park.

The Sunday afternoon baseball games continued on the baseball field west of the tavern. The Pleasant Lake Tavern team was considered one of the best in the area. Rules included a free beer for every base hit. Even the losers were never disappointed. Fourth of July fireworks displays, which started with David Schneider, continued with Manny Sodt, who had to go to Ohio to buy them, but it brought huge crowds and plenty of business. It was during this period that the Pleasant Lake Fourth of July Boat Parade also started, with boats blaring loud music and plenty of reveling. The prizes for best-decorated boats began soon after. Business increased with the paving of Pleasant Lake Road around 1930. Manny added a gas pump and oil reservoir, and the road construction workers ensured a full house for the inn.

During planning for the Freedom Township 175th anniversary celebration in 2009, the planners investigated what had been done, if anything, to celebrate the township's 100th anniversary in April 1934. Township minutes were found for the April 7, 1934 meeting, held in the old brick Freedom Township hall. It was noted that Board members Schaible, Buss, Kothe and Reno moved and approved a permit to allow "E. J. Sodt" to sell beer off the premises, and to provide $5.00 towards soft drinks and use of the dance hall. The minutes did not state what for, but we presume that a party of some sort was held to honor 100 years of Freedom Township.

Manny's health began declining in the 1940s. He sold the property in September 1943 and passed away a few months later.

Ray Hoener – Fourth Owner

Ray Hoener was a tool and die maker from Detroit, and owned a cottage with his wife Lydia across the lake from the inn. When he heard that Manny Sodt was planning on selling the property, Ray considered it a good investment, and moved his family in late 1943. Lydia took over running the restaurant, and Ray added an enclosure on the back porch to further expand the restaurant and bar capacity. Ray determined to relocate the bar further away from the restaurant, grocery store and his family. He built the 40-foot long bar and walk-in cooler into the west side of the hall, received a beer and wine license in 1944, and opened the new bar for business. Improvements to the lakeside picnic area and indoor toilets for the patrons were also added.

The Hoeners also made several major improvements to the house in terms of heating, new windows, and new plumbing, all of which were becoming costly. Combined with their growing fatigue with running the bar, they leased the bar part of the operation to Floyd Schneider in 1948. The Hoeners did act to increase their property's value by constructing the subdivision and mobile home park on the land where the former dance hall had stood. This mobile home park initially served the workers building the oil and gas pipelines and pumping station in Freedom Township.

In 1959, the Hoeners sold their property, except for the mobile park subdivision, to Louis Brow.

Louis Brow – Fifth Owner

In 1959, Louis Brow renamed the inn as Louie's Bar. The restaurant was converted to a grocery store and soda fountain. Cement blocks were used to build the new storefront with large plate glass windows to display their merchandise. In 1965, the Browns then sold to John and Vicky Weber of Dexter.

John and Vicky Weber – Sixth Owner

The Webers continued the business with an emphasis on fishing and related contests. The Webers directly ran the grocery store and specialized in good butchered meats. Two of their children formed a band called the Clichés, and played in the tavern on Friday and Saturday nights. During the Webers' ownership, the building also housed an antiques shop. The business was considered successful, building upon the inn's heritage as a community socializing center until 1978. In that year, they sold the business to four young enterprising men, who renamed the business and started it on a new era.

A sample quote from the time of the sale came from a former worker: "I learned my diplomacy cracking heads and pouring drinks," he joked. The Webers were deeply rooted in the community, and they attracted a crowd of locals with lunch specials and weekly euchre and pool tournaments. They also sponsored a Pleasant Lake Inn baseball team—most of the players drove beer trucks for a living—that won several championships in the Manchester league."

Richard Dimond, Daniel Arrington, Philip Jones and Donald Yates – Seventh Owner

By 1978, the inn was characterized as old, rambling, somewhat unattractive, but with "potential". Four young men bought the inn in 1978, and renamed it "Aura Inn" – An Unusual Roadside Attraction". These new owners, high school friends from Cass Tech, had been engaged in old home renovations in Ann Arbor. They began by trying a new menu, including chapatis and herb teas in addition to the usual burgers, chips and beer. This was quickly readjusted back to the menus loved by the regulars. Soup was made by Uncle Ole, who crocheted as he drank. The most exotic sandwich was the Pope Burger, a Polish sausage with sauerkraut on Italian bread. The Lewis and Clark Expedition, a country-western band, was popular for an extended period, as well as various rock bands. In the early 1980s, a former worker recalled, the inn was very popular—"There'd be people five deep at the bar"—and too noisy for him to hear customers' orders. "We had to read lips," he said.

The owners also began revamping the waterfront into "Aura's Pleasant Lake Park" offering boat launch and rentals, camping, picnicking, swimming, fishing and sailing. The park was open daily from Memorial Day to Labor Day, with admission 50 cents to a dollar. The idea of a small-scale "family resort" with a concession stand and boat rentals would hopefully resurrect a disappearing institution. As the Manchester Chronicle noted, "There is still that place which captures the spirit and ambiance of an Irish pub, a "Cheers"-kind of camaraderie, a place to go with family and friends". Besides comfortable and cozy upholstered booths, or next to a window with views of the lake and park-like setting around old weeping willows, the Aura Inn featured theme nights like Hawaiian Night and Toga Night. Karaoke, Friday night Fish Dinners and Sunday rotisserie dinners were also highlights.

The Aura Inn welcomed patrons for 20 years, and on Sunday, August 30, 1998 hosted "The End of an Era at the Aura – 20 Years of GOOD times" with a noon to midnight Pig/Beef Roast. Richard Dimond asked patrons to come to the "Pucker Up and Kiss Me Goodbye Party". Richard retired to a different career, and initially the facility was to be sold to Alex DeParry, a contractor from Ann Arbor, who was going to completely renovate the bar/restaurant for use as a banquet facility. However, by May 25, 2000, the new building owner was identified as Paul Parkinson.

Paul Parkinson – Eighth and Current Owner

Paul Parkinson and wife Barbara McCoy acquired the Aura Inn from Richard Dimond in May 2000, and renamed it The Pleasant Lake Inn. It is currently listed as owned by "Secure Properties and Investment" of Ypsilanti, Michigan. When Parkinson purchased the property, he noted that the Pleasant Lake Inn was a bar/restaurant with eight acres of lakefront setting, a unique situation in Washtenaw County. He completed a series of internal brightening moves, such as new white ceiling tile and white tablecloths, opening up more windows and cleaning overgrown brush. He also set about rebuilding the deck and stairways, and a boat dock to welcome boaters coming in for a meal. The Pleasant Lake Inn continued to host local patrons, visitors passing down Pleasant Lake Road, and featured bands on weekend nights, focusing lately on local bands such as Risky Brenda from Manchester and Trembling Earth. The property was listed for sale and possible redevelopment as of the date of the fire on February 8, 2015.

As of the date of this article, what is left of the Inn, part of Jacob Lutz's original 1880s home, remains boarded up. Prior to the fire, there had been talk, concurrent with the commercial real estate listing of the inn, that a major new upgrade or building was needed for the site. The real estate listing spoke of bed and breakfast potential, with excellent lake views. After 135 years, we hope that the ninth owner will bring new ideas and vision to this hillside site on the north side of Pleasant Lake. The End of the Inn, February 8, 2015

She married Johann Georg Gall 1858, son of Johann Gall and Margaretha Haefner. He was born 29 Mar 1833 in Affalterbach, Ludwigsburg, Wurtemberg, and died 02 Jul 1907 in DeWitt, Clinton Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Georg Gall:

John George Gall, Parents: John Leo & Mary (Zeeb) Gall (Death Cert. Clinton Co; Michigan. Bk 3, P. 223 (Jul 1907); List his parents as John Leo & Mary (Jeet) Gall. Age at marriage 24 yrs; fathered 8 children, 7 living at the time of his death.) Believed to be buried in the Gunnisonville Cemetery in an unmarked grave.

Clinton County Paper, July 1907: Stated "that he loaded a shot gun with slugs, putting the muzzle in his mouth, and the balls went through the top of his head into the ceiling. On his shirt was a letter written in German, in which he stated that he had worked hard and saved a comfortable amount for his family; that he had given it away and had been thinking of killing himself for several months. He also left a letter sealed and directed to the Judge of Probate in which he asked him to see that his daughter, Louise, was cared for. He had upon his person and in boxes about the home $1015.00 in gold and $401.00 in currency. Slips were attached to or in boxes with some of the money, and various amounts were marked "Lydia, Minnie, Sophia, Maria, Louise". He also had Two certificates in the Lansing State Savings Bank, one for $156.00 and one for $113.00. In May, 1906, he gave a deed of the 80 acre homestead to his son, John G. Gaul, (Clinton County Paper spelling was Gaul, but Court papers have it spelled as Gall.) providing that he and his daughters Louise and Caroline should have a home there during their lifetime. His son and wife were out during the evening, and the death of the father was not discovered until morning. "

John and Mary was born and it appears they were married in Germany. Then came to America and settled in Dewitt Twp, Clinton County, Michigan between 1850 & 1860. They may have came from Affalterbach District of Marbach, Germany.

In 1999, The old homestead became the location for the new Dewitt Twp. Hall. Located: 1401 Herbison Rd; Dewitt, Michigan. 48820,

Notes for Friedrich Jacob Heusel:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Friedrich Heusel- The business interests of Ann Arbor have a worthy and well known representative in Friedrich Heusel, the extent and scope of his operations having made him a successful man. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, May 1, 1850, a son of Friedrich Heusel, Sr., who died in the fatherland in 1900. The mother, who bore the maiden name of Mary Steinmaier, has also departed this life. Friedrich Heusel, reared and educated in his native country, came to America when twenty-three years of age. He located first in New Haven, Connecticut, where for four years he was employed in a machine shop, but the better business opportunities of the west with its greater competition and advancement more quickly secured, attracted him and he made a visit to the Mississippi valley in 1877, spending some time in Chicago, Omaha, St. Louis and other cities. However, at that time he returned to New Haven, where he worked in a large bakery, which he conducted until 1879. That year witnessed his arrival in Ann Arbor and for fourteen years he was employed by the firm of Koch & Haller. In 1894 he established a large bakery at the present site of 206 East Huron street, and is now conducting an extensive wholesale bakery and confectionery business with a well equipped plant, and the excellence of the product secures a very extensive and growing patronage.

In 1883 Mr. Heusel was united in marriage to Miss Mary Niethammer, of Freedom, Michigan, and they have two sons and two daughters: Friedrich J., who is in business with his father: Amanda Paulina; Erwin Carl; Frieda marguerita. Mr. Heusel is a member of the Arbeiter Verein and his political views are in accord with republican principles. He has gained and retained the confidence and respect of his fellowmen and is distinctively one of the leading citizens of Ann Arbor, being the founder and owner of the business which contributes to general commercial prosperity as well as individual success. It is a matter of history that the Teutonic race has been a most important element in the colonization, up building and progress of many lines and the German-American citizenship of America possesses a worth acknowledged by all. Mr. Heusel displays many of the strong and sterling characteristics of the fatherland, which, combined with the enterprise and progressive spirit that dominates the Middle West has made him one of the prosperous residents of his adopted city.

Notes for Samuel Heusel:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Samuel Heusel. Among those who have come from foreign lands to become prominent in business circles of Ann Arbor is Samuel Heusel, well known as proprietor of an extensive bakery. His success in all his undertakings has been so marked that his methods are of interest to the commercial world. He has based his business principles and actions upon strict adherence to the rules which govern industry, economy and unswerving integrity. His enterprise and progressive spirit have made him a typical American in every sense of the word and he well deserves mention in this history. What he is to-day he has made himself, for he began in the world with nothing but his own energy and willing hands to aid him. By constant exertion associated with good judgment he has raised himself to the prominent position he now holds, having the friendship of many and the respect of all who know him.

Samuel Heusel is a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, born October 14, 1860. His father, Fredrick Heusel, also a native of Wurtemberg, conducted an extensive business there in the line of general merchandising but is now deceased. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Mary Steinmaier, was also a native of that kingdom. In their family were six children: Frederick, who is engaged in business as a baker at Ann Arbor; Jacob, who went to the west about twenty years ago and has never been heard from since; Gottlob, who is living in Germany; Samuel of this review; and Mary and Marguerite, who are also living in the fatherland. No event of special importance occurred to vary the routine of Samuel Heusel's life in his youth up to the time of his emigration to America, but he felt the call of the new world with its unceasing business activity and unlimited opportunities and he responded. Landing on American shores he made his way to northern Michigan, spending some time at different places in the Upper Peninsula ere his removal to Ann Arbor in 1893. He has since been a factor in business life of this city, working his way steadily upward through the utilization of opportunity, and by reason of his unfaltering industry and perseverance.

In 1893, he joined his brother Frederick in the bakery business and about 1904 he established a large bakery on his own account at the corner of Liberty street and Fourth Avenue, where his business has grown with such rapidity as to be classed with the mammoth industrial and commercial concerns of Ann Arbor. He ships large quantities of bread out of the city and has a splendidly equipped plant in which are immense ovens built especially for Mr. Heusel at a cost of thousands of dollars. There is machinery operated by steam power for the mixing of dough and in fact the establishment is equipped with all of the latest and most modern devices known to the baker's trade. He occupies a large new building in the conduct of his business and furnishes employment to many men and women. Mr. Heusel fraternally is connected with the Odd Fellows of Ann Arbor and the local German societies and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran Church.

He was married in 1888 to Miss Mary Lilivelt, descended from Holland ancestry, her parents having been early settlers of Michigan. They became the parents of three children: Frederick, who at the age of sixteen years is a high school student in Ann Arbor; Sadie, thirteen years of age, also in school; and Hilda, seven years of age, who has just entered upon her school life. On the 21st of August, 1905, Mr. Heusel was called upon to mourn the loss of his wife who died after a few days' illness of appendicitis. Mr. Heusel deserves great credit for what he has accomplished since crossing the Atlantic. Reaching New York in 1880, he found himself in a new country where the manners and customs of the people were very different from those of the fatherland and he probably often longed for the "little German home across the sea." However, he was brave and determined and faithfully pursued his work and through careful industry and frugal living he succeeded in saving a sum of money which enabled him to engage in business for himself. He wisely chose the west with its almost limitless opportunities as the scene for his labors and the increase of his business from year to year has given him prominence in commercial circles and brought to him a very gratifying competence.

Ann Arbor, Michigan, April 15, 1912 - An apparently poor but honest farmer recently came into Samuel Heusel's store lugging what to all appearance was a crate of eggs. He told a hard-luck story. His father had instructed him to take six crates to a certain grocery store, but he unfortunately forgotten the name of store. He opened up the crate and enough there were rows of strictly fresh eggs and all he asked was 25 cents dozen. Heusel lost no time trying to assist him to remember the name of the grocer whom he had been directed. In speed hustled him out after he had paid for eggs. Later Heusel, gloating over his "find" started to open the other five crates sure enough, there reposed rows of fresh, clean eggs on top of each crate, and if Heusel had stopped there he would have deferred his disappointment longer. Instead, however, he took out the top tray and there found nice rows of black dirt where eggs should have been. The condition was found in all the other tray of eggs, four trays of dirt.

Children: 1900, 4 w/ 4 living

Notes for Joseph Schweikert:

Joseph Schweikert was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, September 17, 1838. His parents died when he was about three years of age. He was reared in Germany where he received his education and such practical instruction as the German system required for its children. He learned the wagon-makers' trade in his native land. At the age of seventeen years he came to America with many others. He was especially attracted to a university town and located at Ann Arbor where he worked at his trade for a year.

The next few years were spent in service upon farms near Ann Arbor. He continued in this way until the breaking out of the Civil War when his zeal was fired by the danger in which he felt his adopted land was placed. He joined the army as a private in Company C., First Battalion, Fifteenth U.S. Infantry. He served with the regiment three years. He was in many of the principal engagements. His term of service expired in Atlanta and he was honorably discharged after which he returned to Michigan. He received a gunshot wound at the battle of Stone River and also contracted rheumatism that he suffered from more or less of the time.

After the war he purchased a farm south of Byron on which he lived until 1902 when he with his wife moved to Byron where they resided until the death of Mrs. Schweikert in 1913. All he possessed was earned by his own efforts. He was modest and retiring of nature an honest and upright in his dealings with his fellowmen. His motto was, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches". He was a member of the G.A.R. G.D. Royce Post No. 117 of Byron, and enjoyed recounting with his comrades the varied experiences of the years spent in the south.

He was married to Miss Margaret Bahnmler of Lodi, Washtenaw County. To this union were born four children: Mary, Charles, Clara and Fred who were with him through his last illness and did all that loving hands could do. He realized he was going and told them not to feel badly. He thanked God for his eighty five years. September 17, 1923 his children and grandchildren were with him to celebrate his eighty fifth birthday. Grandpa Schweikert as so many called him will be greatly missed in Byron. He leaves to mourn their loss, four children, eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren and a host of friends. He died of pleural pneumonia October 15, 1923 at the home of his son, Charles. He was a member of the M.E. Church.

Excerpts taken from Portrait and Biographical Album of Shiawassee and Clinton County Michigan

Joseph Schweikert was born in Germany where he learned a wagon makers trade. He came to America in 1855. Owned a farm in section 26 of Burns Township, Shiawassee County Michigan. Joseph joined the army as a private in Company C, First Battalion Fifteen United States Infantry. He served with this regiment for three years, and was with the Army of Cumberland in the Fourteenth Army Corps, First Brigade and Second Division. He was in many of the principal engagements.

A man who has been through such experiences as the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Perryville, Kentucky, Stone River, Chickamauga, has a story that can be transcended in interest by but few events in any history whatsoever. The gentleman of whom we write was a participant in all these, and was also in all the battles of the Georgia campaign, even the taking of Atlanta. His term of service expired in Atlanta, and he was there honorably discharged, after which he returned to Michigan. He will ever wear an honorable badge of his army service in a wound resulting from a gun-shot at the battle of Stone River. He escaped the bitter experience of being taken prisoner, but contracted rheumatism while in the army, that he has suffered more or less from ever since. His honorable service is recognized by the Government by the payment of a pension of $12 per month.

Notes for Helene Maria Klumpp:

An Open House Sunday at Pleasant Lake School win honor Helen Gross (Mrs. Rudolph Gross, of 7385 Noble Rd.), who retire this year (May 1962) after 41 of teaching. The Open House, for former students, fellow teachers, and friends, is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m., at the school where Mrs. Gross has taught since 1953.

Mrs. Gross graduated from Saline High School in 1921. She taught for half a year at a school in Lima Township, and then went to Jedele school in Lodi Township for three years. She taught at Dold school in Lodi Township for 16 years School, then taught at Kuebler school in Freedom township for a year at Mooreville for a year, and then returned to Kuebler. Along the line in 1931 she graduated from Eastern Michigan. She got married that same year.

She always had time for outside activities, including her own orchestra, "Helen's Orchestra", to play at parties and square dances -- "I'm a fiddler, not a violinist," she says -- travel every summer that has so far taken her to 44 states, and gardening, indoors and out. Just last week, at a PTA function in her honor, she was presented with a floor planter for her famed African violets.

The 41 busy years have left many memories, including the fact that her starting salary was $85 a month, and there was wood to carry in and ashes to carry out, and the ink froze overnight in the winter. She remembers older ways of travel, when parents at Dold brought their children to school in bob sleighs, and she had to shovel her way home every night and out in the morning. "There hasn't been so much snow lately." She remembers the hayrides that were enjoyed by parents and students alike, at Kuebler school, and the many Christmas programs that brought families from miles around. She also recalls vividly a birthday surprise party that really was a surprise to her, at Pleasant Lake school in 1956.

Yes, teaching has changed a great deal, she believes. For one thing, "children have much more freedom now in the school room than they used to"; and "children used to walk to school Now they take busses". For another thing, there are more visiting teachers, these days -- to teach music, art, and even special reading.

She recalls the first school officers she met at each of her schools: at Jedele, it was Albert Frey, George Bohnett and Mark Sweetland; at Dold, it was Lauren Stark, Reuben Bredernitz, Alfred Rentschler. At Kuebler, her first officers were Jake Bihlmeyer, Oscar Staebler, and Christ Kuebler; at Mooreville, Clarence Searfoss, Gus Grams, A. J. Turner; and at Pleasant Lake, Alton Horning, Roy Bihlmeyer, and Nathan Alber. By and large, they are all pleasant memories and she believes she'll "miss it, when fall comes". In fact, says Mrs. Gross, "I may do a little substitute teaching once in a while."

Helen (Klumpp) Gross (b. 15 Mar. 1902 Lodi Twp., Washtenaw Co., Michigan, d. there 5 Mar. 1983) of Lodi Township, Washtenaw County, was a retired teacher. She was the daughter of Jacob and Christina Klumpp who were themselves children of German immigrants. She learned to play from her father, and played for dances; in later years, she regularly played for them at the rod and gun club in Willis. Helen was an influential fiddler from Saline, Michigan. Helen played for dances from her youth and influenced other fiddlers in the area.

Helen M. Gross, 7385 Noble Road in Lodi Township, died March 5, 1983 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born April 15, 1902 at the above residence where she had lived her entire life, the daughter of Jacob and Tina Stierle Klumpp. On August 3, 1931, she married Rudolph (Butch) Gross in Ann Arbor; he survives. Mrs. Gross was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ and the Ladies Fellowship of the church, the Saline Woman's Club, the Saline Hospital Auxiliary, the Washtenaw Farm Bureau, the Ann Arbor Senior Citizens, the Saline Senior Citizens, the National Retired Teachers Association, the M.R.T.A., and the M.E. A. She taught school in Washtenaw County for more than 40 years. Mrs. Gross enjoyed music and was a musician for many years. She is survived by her husband, Rudolph; one uncle and cousin.

Funeral services were held Monday at Bahnmler Funeral Home with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial followed in Lodi Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul United Church of Christ Building Fund or the Michigan Heart Association.

She married William S. Harwood 1907, son of Sidney Harwood. He was born Aft. 1878.

Notes for Amanda Regina Hertler, twin:

Mrs. Amanda R. Harwood is proud of the many old photos and other mementos she has collected over the years but she's not a lady who lives in the past. The chipper 85-year-old does all her own cooking and housework (her farm home has 11 rooms) and entertains grandchildren and great-grandchildren almost every day. She's as spry as a much younger woman and can boast that she has had to visit a doctor only once since her last child was born, over 40 years ago. Mrs. Harwood lives with her son, Ralph, in the house which her husband Bill built shortly after they were married in 1907. It's located at 285 Textile Rd., four miles east of Saline and has a sunny room off the kitchen which is bedecked with hundreds of snapshots and framed portraits of family, friends and special events, some dating back over a century.

A center of attraction in this room is a sheaf of wheat enclosed in a glass case with a gold frame. The sheaf, which dates from about 1860, has been used to decorate the caskets of many of the Harwood men through the years. It's in perfect condition and as soft as chiffon to the touch, says Mrs. Harwood. She has other family treasures to tell about. A real old-timer is the spinning wheel on display in her dining room, which came from her husband's family. She also has preserved an ankle-length white eyelet gown made by her mother-in-law, dating from the late 1800's. A cherished item is the traditionally-styled baptism dress she wore dress worn by all of her eight of the cast of children. It was made from a as a young girl and was handed down for use by many of her 13 grand-children and her two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Harwood likes to talk most about the family photos which decorate the walls of her home, many of them in beautiful antique frames. Pointing out a portrait of herself at the age of 20, she recalled how she met her husband at a dance held in an auditorium on S. Ann Arbor St. They were married in her family home on Willis Rd. and then boarded the train at the old Urania Station nearby, for a wedding trip to Toledo and Washington, D. C. Fifty years later, on their golden wedding; they made the same trip again.

George and Marie Hertler, who came to this community after emigrating from Germany, were Mrs. Harwood's parents. They had a family of seven girls and six boys who grew up on the Willis Rd. farm and attended the old Grove School in York Township. They have few childhood memories of Saline because a trip to town was a rare occasion for them in their early years.

Mrs. Harwood has a portrait of the Hertler family which bears a remarkable resemblance to a picture which appeared last fall in the Saline Reporter, a photograph a play staged by Saline High School. The play was entitled "Seven Sisters," an appropriate description of the Hertler girls. Nine of the Hertler children are still living. They are Kate, Emma, Herman and Gottlieb, all residents of Ann Arbor; Rudolph of Milan, Lillian of Royal Oak, Bertha and Mary, who live on the Hertler homestead, and Mrs. Harwood. They are a healthy and long-lived family; only one member of the group is under 80. Mrs. Harwood's husband, who died six years ago, was born on the Harwood homestead at 6456 Michigan Ave. He was a prosperous farmer who served as a director of the Citizen's Bank of Saline for 40 years. Their son, Webb, who now lives at the Michigan Ave. address, succeeded his father on the board.

The couple had five boys and three girls, all born on the Textile Rd. farm. Six of them are still living. They include Mrs. Betty Katz of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Helen Sterling of Birmingham; Mrs. Maurine Plettner of Providence, Rhode Island; Sydney, who works on a farm near Ypsilanti; Webb and Ralph. One boy died at the age of three and a second son was killed in World War II.

Harwood of 285 Textile Road, was celebrated at a dinner party on April 7, 1957 at Pittsfield Grange Hall with 61 guests present, including several members of the original wedding party as honor guests. Williams, Ann Arbor and Mrs. Daniel Hertler of Saline, who had assisted at the reception fifty years ago.

Mrs. Harwood the former Amanda Hertler, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hertler of Willis Road, York Township address, and Mr. Harwood's parents were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Harwood of Pittsfield Township, and were among the earliest settlers of this area. Mr. Harwood has been a member of the Citizen's Bank for the past 34 years.

Both, he and his wife have been active in Farm Bureau and Grange for many years, having been farmers all their lives. The Harwood's six children: Webb S, of US-112; Ralph, who lives at the Textile Road address; Mrs. Charles Sterling of Trenton; Mrs. Richard Carrell of Ann Arbor; S. William of Textile Road and Mrs. Stuart Plettner of Evanston, Illinois, were present for the wedding anniversary. There are 13 grandchildren. Two other sons, Harrison and William, are not living. Gottlieb Friedrich¹³ Binder (Christina¹² Luz, Johann Jacob¹¹, Georg Jeremias¹⁰, Georg Jeremias⁹, Anna Maria⁸ Walcker, Johann Jacob⁷, Marx⁶, Marx (Marcus)⁵, Heinrich⁴, Hans Jerg³, Veit², Georg¹) was born 12 Mar 1853 in Wilhelmsdorf, Ravensburg, Wurtemberg, and died 06 Jan 1929 in Columbia City, Whitley Co, Indiana. He married Rebekka Walz 28 Aug 1874 in Whitley Co, Indiana, daughter of Joachim Walz and Anna Nonnenmacher. She was born 18 Aug 1849 in Hochdorf, Calw, Wurtemberg, and died 23 Jul 1915 in Columbia City, Whitley Co, Indiana.

Notes for Gottlieb Friedrich Binder:

1907 Frederick G. Binder – During the years immediately preceding the Civil War six brothers by the name of Binder emigrated to the United States from Germany and settled in various towns in eastern Michigan. As they wrote favorable reports back home, another brother, Jacob U., was tempted to come in 1860, and settled at Ann Arbor, where one of the others lived. He established a butcher shop in connection with stock buying, and became an old style drover, taking cattle to Buffalo and New York. At one time he received an order to send forty yoke of cattle to Lake Superior and after some lively hustling procured the number in two days and drove them to Detroit, for shipment by boat. He brought with him, Frederick G., who was born at Wittenberg, Germany, March 12, 1853, and learned the butcher trade, while with his father in Ann Arbor.

He worked both in Ypsilanti and Detroit, but in 1874 came to Whitley County, Indiana, which was destined to be his permanent home. He first worked with Fred Bush and for eight years for Daniels Brothers, in Columbia City, but being ambitious to enter business on his own account he began at South Whitley, with a capital of two hundred dollars. However, he had a partner by the name of Dickey, whose standing enabled him to get all the needed credit. In 1885 he opened business, at the stand where he now is, though the intervening years have made wonderful changes in his financial condition. His business as a butcher, stock-dealer, and meat merchant grew steadily, through good management, skill and industry until now after twenty years Mr. Binder can consider with pardonable pride what he has accomplished. His annual sales now exceed twenty thousand dollars and he pays to the farmers of Whitley County between ten thousand and fifteen thousand dollars a year for stock. By confining himself strictly to his own business and giving it his undivided attention, he has achieved well merited success. He is now located in the same building in which he worked while employed by the Daniels Brothers, buying it in 1893.

In politics he is a Democrat and has frequently been honored by his party, while in turn rendering it faithful and judicious service. He was county chairman for two years and has been delegate to the county and state conventions. He was a member of the city council for two years and held the office of city treasurer twelve years in succession. Mr. Binder would not be a German could he not find time for social intercourse and for the enjoyment of the society of friends. He contributes to all influences to develop and improve his adopted city. He is a stockholder in the furniture factory, one of Columbia City's most valuable industries, besides having other real estate and business interests. He is a charter member of the Knights of the Maccabees and has been a trustee ever since the institution of the lodge.

In 1974 Mr. Binder was married to Rebecca Waltz, of Marshall, Michigan, and they have an interesting family of five sons. Fred G., the eldest and namesake of his father, is a printer, Otto S. and Edward C. remain with the father. Walter is clerk with the Providence Trust Company and Homer is in high school.

Fred G. Binder, 75, brother of the late Samuel and Chris Binder, pioneer Butte men, died January 6, 1929 in Columbia City, Indiana, it was learned here yesterday. Mr. Binder visited in Butte several years ago and was known to meat dealers here.

Among survivors are two nephews, Elmer and Ernest Binder Butte men, other relatives in Butte and five sons. Mr. Binder died suddenly after a cold developed into influenza and pneumonia.

Fred G. Binder was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob U. Binder, who emigrated from Germany in 1862 and became a pioneer in the cattle and butcher business in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The son had been in the meat business in Columbia City since 1885.

Notes for Jacob (Johann Jakob) Koch:

Obituary Thursday June 11, 1914 Chelsea Standard Newspaper:

"Accidental Death - Jacob John Koch of Lima Killed by the Cars Monday."

Jacob John Koch, for many years a resident of Lima, was instantly killed at Buron, a suburb of Batavia, New York, by falling from a west bound train No. 13 of the New York Central known as "Wolverine". Mr. Koch was 68 years of age, and was on his way here from an extended visit in Germany. His boat arrived in New York Sunday.

Two of his sons, Chris, who resides on the homestead farm in Lima, and Otto, of Ann Arbor, left Tuesday night for Batavia and reached Ann Arbor this morning with the body. A dispatch from Batavia says: "In the man's pocket was ticket to Chelsea and a memorandum on was written the name Jas. S. Gorman, of Chelsea, who was Koch's attorney. The accident happened at Byron, New York, a small station outside of Batavia. Koch either leaped or accidentally fell from the platform of the train, death resulting instantaneously. Corner Snow, of Genesee County, New York. According to the dispatch, was notified, and at first was in doubt as to whether Koch had come to his death accidentally or whether he had planned self-destruction, but finally gave it as his belief that Koch fell from the platform accidentally."

Chief of Police J.T. Kenny, of Ann Arbor, was notified by telegram from the chief of police of Batavia of the accident and in turn, notified the family of Mr. Koch. There survive ten children: Christian Koch, Mrs. J. Barrels and Albert Koch, all of Lima, and Clara, Emma, George, Otto, Arthur, Oscar and Reuben, all whom make their home with their mother in Ann Arbor. The funeral was held at four o'clock this afternoon in Ann Arbor.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

John Koch, of the firm of Koch & Haller, furniture dealers, was born at Wittemberg, Germany, in 1848. Here he was also educated and learned the business of cabinet and furniture making in all its branches from drafting to the complete finishing of the work. He was also employed at Tuebingen in a very large furniture house. In 1866 he came to America and located at New Haven, Connecticut, remaining there but a short time. In 1867 he came to Ann Arbor, where, during the next three years, he was in the employ of several men. He then went to Columbus, Ohio, where, for a few months, he was employed in a large house. Returning to this county he went into business at Dexter, under the firm name of Costello & Koch, and was there in business two years. At the end of that time he sold out and came to Ann Arbor. The next seven years he was in the employ of John Keck and the Keck Manufacturing Co., of which he is a stockholder. During his employ with the company he was assistant superintendent of the same. In May, 1880, he went into business for himself at Ann Arbor, and in November, 1880, received as partner Mr. Haller.

He married Martha Friederika Stoll 24 Oct 1906 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Stoll and Johanna Mezger. She was born 13 Apr 1880 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Mar 1975 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Junius Jacob (James) Mayer:

Junius J. Mayer married and divorced from Martha Mayer (see reported divorce case, Martha Mayer v. Junius J. Mayer (6 Mar 1934), which reports, in part:

The parties lived together contentedly for about 25 years. Their separation and divorce were caused by the relations of defendant [Junius Mayer] with a woman whom he met in Detroit about two years ago and for whom he was willing to leave his family and home. The parties have one child, a son 26 years old, underdeveloped mentally, able to do much simple farm work but needing direction and personal care. He lives with his mother.

The parties have always lived on a farm. Both are industrious and frugal and, except for defendant's lapse, bear excellent reputations. Defendant also has established a business in sale of tractors and farm implements, which he conducted from the homestead.

The family home is a farm of 150 acres, inherited by defendant. He owns also a farm of 40 acres, a half interest in 140 acres, a house and lot in Ann Arbor, and personal property. The court awarded plaintiff the homestead, some livestock, farm tools and one automobile, together worth from $15,000 to $18,000, and ordered defendant to pay her $50 per month during her lifetime, with the understanding that as long as the son makes his home with plaintiff defendant should not be liable for any additional sum for his support. The property retained by defendant is worth $24,000. He complains that he cannot conduct his tractor business anywhere else than on the homestead and offered to give plaintiff all the rest of the real estate if he could have the home.

Defendant inherited all the land or purchased it with inherited money. However, plaintiff assisted him in conserving it and in acquiring personal property. The property does not admit of ready division upon the basis of values alone. The proportion of worth of the award to the wife is rather more than is usual. But there is no rigid rule of division and the security of a living for the wife is a major consideration. It does not appear that the homestead may be divided conveniently. It does not appear that other property would be as suitable for the wife's livelihood. She ought not to be driven from her home because of defendant's misconduct. Defendant's business can be readily established elsewhere. We think the court reached an equitable result and it should not be disturbed.

Robert Hull 01 May 1943 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 01 Nov 1912 in Blissfield, Lenawee Co, Michigan; died 21 Dec 1978 in Adrian, Lenawee Co, Michigan.

Notes for Klara Maria Lambarth:

Her many, many friends learned of the death of Clara Hull last Saturday Jan 2, 1971 night with mingled feelings of sadness and relief. She had endured through a long illness, and in a small way everyone had endured with her. Clara's courage set an example for the whole community. And there's no doubt that her long losing individual battle against cancer will help hasten the day when the world battle against the disease will be won. Most Salinan's will remember her as the lady with the everyday, all day smile, the lady moving almost at a run to serve the customers at Hull's Grocery. Children will remember her as the lady who - even when the pace of business was most hectic - still took time to help them with their long deliberations and Investment decisions at the penny candy counter. Clara was born April 27, 1918 and raised in the large white farmhouse, a landmark along the Saline-Ann Arbor Rd., which burned down a few years ago, in what is now Lodi Estates.

She was the daughter of Christian and Mary Mayer Lambarth. She married J. Robert Hull on May 1, 1943, in Saline. They made their home for years on Russell St., a place of many flowers each summer and of beautiful Christmas decorations in the holiday season. Prior to their 20 - year ownership and operation of Hull's Grocery, the couple were both employees at Ypsilanti State Hospital for about 15' years. Clara was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Saline.

Surviving, besides her husband, are: her mother; a sister, Mrs. Theodore (Laura) Stroup, of Milan; a brother, Harold A. Lambarth, of Ann Arbor; and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at Trinity Lutheran Church, Saline, with Rev. J.A. Westendorf officiating. Burial was in Lodi Cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Klara Lambarth and J. Hull:

Miss Clara Mary Lambarth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Lambarth of Milan, became the bride of John Robert Hull, son of Mrs. Alta Hull of Blissfield, Saturday evening, May 1, 1943, at 7 o'clock in the Trinity Lutheran Church in Saline. The altar was decorated with palms, white snapdragons and calla lilies. The marriage service was read by Rev. Hilbert Engle before 150 guests. The wedding march was played by Miss Mildred Ernst of Saline. Mr. Ira Pfieffe of Saline sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "O, Perfect Love," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Otto Gall. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown made on bouffant lines with a tight fitting bodice and full skirt. The only trim on the all slipper satin gown was a yoke of tiny seed pearls and a row of small satin covered buttons extended down the back of the dress. The full skirt extended into a circular train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Theodore Stroup, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor and wore a blue gown made on torso lines and had a sweetheart neckline with an embroidered net bodice and plain net skirt. The sleeves were three-quarter length and she wore a shoulder veil of matching color. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Mrs. Harold Lambarth, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Wilhelmina Gruns of Detroit, a close friend, were her bridesmaids. The groom was attended by his brother, Richard Hull, of Blissfield and the ushers were Harold Lambarth and Edward Hull. Carolyn and Janet Hull, nieces of the groom, were the flower girls. Mrs. Lambarth wore for her daughter's wedding an aqua print dress with tan accessories. Mrs. Hull, mother of the groom, chose a gown of blue with navy accessories. Both wore shoulder corsages of roses.

The reception, in the form of a buffet supper, was held in the church parlors for 120 guests. The table was centered with an arrangement of white roses and daffodils with candelabra on either side. Mrs. Hull is a graduate of Saline High school and is connected with the office of the Ypsilanti state hospital. Mr. Hull is a graduate of Blissfield High School is employed by the Willow Run bomber plant. After a week-end trip the bride and groom are at home with her parents for the present. Guests were present from Detroit, Jackson, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Adrian, Blissfield, Palmyra, Riga, Hudson and Battle Creek.

She was born 06 Oct 1889 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 23 Apr 1972 in Hamburg, Livingston Co, Michigan.

Notes for Ernst David Mayer:

An investigation of the accident which killed Ernest Mayer, retired Lodi Township farmer, this week revealed "no criminal action" on which to bring charges "against the driver of the car, County Prosecutor William Delhey said today. "Mayer, 78, was killed instantly Friday noon Feb. 7, 1964 when he was struck by a car in front of his home at 3600 S. Wagner Rd. He was pronounced dead on arrival at University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Driver of the car was Naudine H. Smith, 22, of 119 E. Henry St., Saline, who was treated by a local physician for shock after the accident. A statement from Mrs. Smith's attorney, Donald Kenney, of Ann Arbor, indicated that she was driving at "a moderate rate of speed" toward Saline and slowed down when she saw Mayer standing in his driveway, and that it was too late for her to stop when he stepped out in front of the car "without looking". Sheriff's deputies said her vehicle went into a skid on the wet road and slewed around so that the farmer was struck by the rear end of the car. Passengers in Mrs. Smith's car were her infant daughter, Christine, and an eight-year-old; son of a neighbor. They were not injured.

Funeral services were held Monday Feb. 10, 1964 in Ann Arbor for Ernest D. Mayer, 78, retired Lodi Township farmer who was fatally injured Friday Feb. 7, 1964 when he was struck by a car in front of his home, 3600 Wagner Rd. With the exception of three years when he lived in Ann Arbor, he has been engaged in farming in Lodi Township. He had lived at the Wagner Road address since 1932. On March 20, 1912, he married Matilda Jedele of Lodi Township.

She survives. Also surviving are a son, Paul E. of Ann Arbor; a daughter, Mrs. Raymond Lambarth of Lodi Township; five grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Ernest (Bertha) Hirth and Mrs. Christian (Mary) Lambarth, both of Saline; and several nephews and nieces. Notes for Christian Reiff:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Christian Reiff is the owner of valuable farming property in Ann Arbor Township and is one of the respected and worthy citizens of Washtenaw County. Like a large majority of the leading men of this part of the state, he is of German birth, the place of his nativity being Wurtemberg and the year of his birth 1856. His parents were Michael and Lizzie (Horning) Reiff, also natives of Germany, where the father is still living. He is a farmer by occupation, his entire life being devoted to the tilling of the soil. In his family were nine children, three of whom crossed the Atlantic to the new world, a brother and sister of our subject being residents of the state of Washington. The brother has been very successful in connection with the salmon fisheries for fifteen years, conducting a profitable business in the line of that industry. In 1873 Christian Reiff, then a youth of sixteen years, came to America, making his way at once to Washtenaw county, where he was employed as a farm hand for fifteen or sixteen years. With the capital he acquired through his own earnings he then bought fifty-four acres of land on section 30, Ann Arbor Township, from Fred Schmidt and in 1895 he bought the ten-acre tract of land upon which he now resides. The entire farm of sixty-four acres has been cleared. There was only six acres cleared when he took possession of the farm and he performed much arduous labor in bringing the place under its present high state of cultivation. He raises the cereals best adapted to soil and climate and in addition he has a fine orchard of fourteen acres planted to pear, peach, apple, plum and quince trees. He also keeps five cows and finds a ready sale on the market for the butter which he produces because of its excellent quality.

In the year 1887 Mr. Reiff was married to Miss Mary Heimerdinger, a daughter of Michael Heimerdinger, of Ann Arbor Township. They have five children: Robert, Oscar, Edwin, Arthur and Alma, all at home, Robert being now employed in Ann Arbor. On coming to America Mr. Reiff took out his naturalization papers and in 1878 became a citizen of this country. Since that time he has exercised his right of franchise in support of the men and measures of the democracy and his fellow townsmen, recognizing his worth and ability, have frequently called him to office. He served as path master for ten or twelve years and in 1905 was chosen township treasurer for one term. No trust reposed in him has ever been betrayed in the slightest degree and on the contrary he is most loyal to every responsibility and obligation that devolves upon him. He holds membership in the Trinity Lutheran church at Ann Arbor and his life is in harmony with his professions. Through many years he has resided continuously upon his farm, which is now a well improved property. He has built there a good barn thirty by forty-four feet and he has two houses upon his farm, one of which he rents. This property is the visible evidence of his life of thrift and enterprise and shows what may be accomplished by determination and purposeful action when guided by sound judgment.

Marriage Notes for Johann Walker and Emma Blaess:

A lovely occasion marked the celebration of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of Manchester Road Sunday April 3, 1938 at their home. With open house to their friends they enjoyed many calls throughout the day. Mrs. Walker was Miss Emma Blaess of Lodi prior to her marriage to Mr. Walker. They were married April 3, 1888 in Lodi Township and came to the farm where they have ever since made their home.

They have two daughters, Mrs. Sam Lambarth of Saline and Mrs. R. E. Jedele of Ypsilanti. There are four grandchildren, Helen and Paul Lambarth of Saline and Luther and Doris Mae Jedele of Ypsilanti. A family dinner was enjoyed at noon and a delicious wedding cake decorated in gold with the words "Fiftieth Anniversary" written across the top, and designs accentuated with gold leaves, was a feature of the occasion. Ice cream and cake were served to callers throughout the day who came to congratulate the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Walker received candy, flowers and cards as tokens of esteem from their many friends and relatives, nearly a hundred of whom called Sunday.
