Notes for Mary Barbara Koch:

Mrs. Barbara Platz, whose maiden name was Miss Mary Barbara Koch was born at Esslingen, Wurtemberg, Germany on October 12, 1848, and passed away at Albion, Nebraska, on April 21, 1924, at the age of 75 years, 6 months and 9 days. At the age of eighteen years, she came to America with an older brother and made this country her permanent home. Later on, a young brother and two younger sisters came to America to reside. On March 30, 1869, she was united in marriage to F.W. Platz at Burlington, Iowa, where they resided for a number or years. The family lived for a short time at Muscatine, Iowa, and at Bloomington, Illinois, prior to her moving to Schuyler. In 1909, Mrs. Platz moved to Scottsbluff where she discontinued housekeeping and visited with her children until last fall when she and her eldest daughter established a home at Albion.

Mrs. Platz was the mother of twelve children. They are William, of Scottsbluff, Sophie M. Grover of Albion, Bertha A. Rathsack of Chicago, Illinois, Edward Platz, who was drowned in a well when seven years of age, Paul P. Platz of David City, Georg M. Platz, who died of typhoid when eleven years of age, Augusta L. Gray or Scottsbluff, Gustave A. Platz or Lamoni, Iowa, Mary
R. Miller or Humphrey, Lena Odvarka or Clarkson, Olga B. Kibbe of Santa Monica, California, and Grover C. Platz of Eugene, Oregon. There are also twenty surviving grandchildren, two great- grandchildren, two sisters, Lena of Colorado Springs, and Louise of Chicago, besides two sister's and one other brother who reside in Germany.

Mrs. Platz enjoyed good health until about two months ago when she was confined to her bed with an attack of heart trouble which later resulted in a stroke of paralysis. She suffered a gradual decline until the hour when she passed quietly into her last sleep. When a girl, Mrs. Platz was confirmed in the Lutheran church and during her entire life she has loved to worship and listen to good sermons. She placed special emphasis on the spiritual aspects of Christianity. She heartily appreciated good music, literature, art, nature and life. Hers was a life filled with loving service and her last years were crowned with the satisfaction which comes from the praise of the Master of the vineyard saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lawrence Horning Wednesday afternoon of last week at two o'clock at the McVay funeral home in David City. Interment was made in the Schuyler cemetery, where rest the remains of the husband who died September 8, 1901.

Notes for Paul Peter Platz:

Sept. 1937 - 'Citizens of David City were greatly shocked and grieved Friday morning at news of the sudden accidental death of Paul P. Platz, druggist In David City for the past 25 years, as a result of falling down the basement stairs at the rear of his store, striking his head. He had gone to the store to open It early, as was his custom. About 7 o'clock W.C. Schaumburg stopped In the store, and finding both doors open and the sweeping partly done, concluded Mr. Platz had stepped out, so he went into the Bennison grocery store and was accompanied back to the Platz store by Lee Smith. The two men looked around the store and called, but receiving no answer, Mr. Schaumburg went on to the post office and Mr. Smith went back to the Bennison store and called Mrs. Platz, still thinking Mr. Platz had gone out, and knowing the store should not be left open with no one in charge. Mrs. Platz and her daughter, Miss Mildred, on arriving at the store, went to the basement and discovered Mr. Platz's lifeless body.

Funeral services were held at the McVay funeral home at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. William Richards of the congregational church. Mrs. Raymond Bock, with Mrs. Frank Maule at the piano, sang "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" and "Abide With Me." The pallbearers were Dr. James Albright, D.D. Davis, F.H. Notes for Brantley Vernon Rahn:

Brantley Vernon Rahn, of Islandton, entered into his eternal rest on the afternoon of June 7, 2011, in Charleston, after an extended illness. He was the owner of Rahn Farms and was the husband of the late Mrs. Sara Lillian Bazzle Rahn, to whom he was married for thirty-eight years at the time of her death in 1998. Mr. Rahn was born August 27, 1936, in Islandton, and was a son of the late Marvin Franklin Rahn and the late Myrtie Marie Sineath Rahn.

Vernon served his country faithfully in the South Carolina National Guard. He was a life long farmer having partnered as an owner with his brother to operate and manage the family farm, Rahn Farms, that his grandfather the late Mr. Jesse Polk Rahn founded in 1925. He devoted his life to farming. He shared the love, talent, and skill he possessed for his trade with others of the Islandton community by sharing much of the farm's harvest of sweet corn and watermelon with family, friends, and the neighbors.

In 1968, when the partnership with his brother Larry began, they planted the four hundred acres of land their late grandfather also dedicated his life too, and upon his retirement in 2000, Rahn Farms was successfully planting and harvesting four thousand acres. This landmark accomplishment along with his strong work ethic and unweaving dedication to his career and providing for his family allowed him to be recognized on many levels. Among some of these distinguished awards; in 2000, he along with Larry was awarded "Conservation Farmer of the Year" and also that same year he was awarded for "Outstanding Achievements in the Field of Conservation", including good farm management and productivity.

In 2005, Vernon was honored as "Colleton-Bamberg Young Farmers Friend of Agriculture Award"; this was prompted by his passion for young children and helping their understanding and development in farming. He did this by sharing with young people such as: Jacob and Courtney Polk and Matthew Williams his love of farming by visiting and sharing farm books, miniature tractors, and treats. He served on numerous state and local Farm Bureau Boards, served on the local county committee of Farm Service Agency (FSA), and was a member of the American Agricultural Movement. Vernon worked in more areas than just the farm life. He was a true servant of the people. He was a founding member of the Islandton Volunteer Fire Department and was extremely instrumental in the founding of Andrew Jackson Academy. He gave great dedication to his service of God.

Vernon was a lifelong member of Rice Patch Christian Church, Disciples of Christ, in Islandton. At his church, he served many terms throughout his life as an Elder and Deacon, was a Board Member of numerous years, and willingly and unselfishly served in many other aspects of the church's work. He was a Master Mason, holding his membership at Hudson Lodge, No. 373 - Ancient Free Masons where he was a Past Master and had been recognized as a life member. He was also a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Chapter No. 1998 in Walterboro as well as the Loyal Order of Moose in Walterboro. A common joke among many of his friends was his graduation from the renowned LIT (Lodge Institute of Technology). Vernon Rahn's mission and life's work will carry on through the many of the young men the farm employed that he instilled those virtues he held in high regard. The many dinners he co-hosted at the "Back 40 Shed" will be cherished memories among those who shared in those fellowships along with the highlight of his social life which were his visits to Fit Life will always be a fond recollection to the memory of his family and friends.

Surviving are: his son, Kenneth Franklin "Kenny" Rahn and wife Martha Jo "Sissy" Rahn of Sniders; a daughter, Nancy Lou Rahn Crosby and husband Jimmy Crosby of Hunters Chapel Community (Bamberg County); a brother, Larry Lamar Rahn and companion Dorothy Polk of Islandton; and two sisters, Barbara Ann Rahn Smith and husband Orba Lee Smith of Asheville, North Caolina and Loretta Rahn Harriett and her husband Billy Harriett of Lodge. One of the biggest joys of Vernon's life was having his two grandsons, Justin and Joe Crosby, on his farm riding the tractors and combines; there is also a step-granddaughter, Joanna Dubose of Sniders; two step-great grandchildren, Jenna and Jessica Dubose; and his special friend, Mrs. Troyce Crosby of the Black Creek community. He is also survived by an uncle, R. Arnold Sineath and wife Sharon of Islandton; an aunt, Henrietta Sineath Floyd of North Carolina; three sisters-in-law, Martha Ann Bazzle of Varnville, Alice Gibson and husband Bobby of Hampton, and Linda Thomason and husband Joe of Tifton, Georgia; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins, to include a special cousin, Edith Mae Rahn Polk of Islandton. He had two special friends who dedicated their time to Vernon, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hershel and Betty Polk of Yemassee; and a caregiver, Patsy Hartley of Islandton.

Funeral services will be conducted 10 AM June 10, 2011, from Rice Patch Christian Church, Disciples of Christ, Islandton, with The Reverend Larry Smith officiating. Interment with Masonic Rites will follow on the family plot in the churchyard. Serving as casket bearers will be: his two grandsons, Justin Crosby and Joe Crosby; as well as a few of those who worked on the family farm in their younger years, Kipp Polk, Gabriel Polk, Jared Polk, Eric Polk, Ralph Polk, Brian Polk, Josh Montgomery, and Michael McCormick. The family has also requested that attending masons serve as honorary escorts.

Father Petlach performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the mass. Gerald Miller, brother of the groom, played the marches and accompanied Mrs. R. Her finger-tip length veil was of pink tulle which fell from a halo cap trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore a borrowed string of crystals and matching sandals. The bridal bouquet was of talisman roses and baby breath which carried out the adage, "Something new, something old, something borrowed, something blue."

The maid-of-honor, Miss Marie Dubsky, Schuyler, a cousin of the bride, wore a blue satin gown, redingote style, with matching halo band and sandals. Her wrist corsage was of yellow roses and sweet peas. The flower girl, Theresa Dubsky, niece of the bride, wore a short blue satin dress and carried a bouquet of delphiniums. The groom was attended by William Mayberger, a friend, of Humphrey.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to about thirty guests at the home of the bride's parents, northwest of Clarkson. The dining table was centered with a beautiful three tier wedding cake, ornamented with a miniature bride and groom, made by Mrs. James Zoubek of Stanton. The remainder of the day was spent in a social manner. Both, bride and groom, are splendid young people and enjoy a large circle of friends. was on staff with Brighton Center for Recovery. During his career Chuck was also the volunteer Medical Director at Hemophilia Camp of Michigan, a Member of the Board of Directors of Dawn Farm, member of the session at Calvary Presbyterian Church in Ann Arbor and First Presbyterian Church in Tecumseh, and president of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club. He was involved with the development of Huron Oaks Chemical Dependency Facility, the Hemophilia Camp of Michigan, HVPA, and served as a monitor of impaired medical students at MSU and WSU Medical Schools.

Chuck was a sports fan, especially of the Lions, Tigers and Red Wings teams of his youth. Whenever he attended a Tigers game, which was often, he always kept a scorecard. He loved winter and was an avid snowmobiler. At different times he collected coins, stamps, matchbook covers and postcards, and he enjoyed giving postcard presentations on esoteric topics like the copper mines of the Upper Peninsula and the churches of Detroit. A life-long learner, he was a passionate student of history and earned a master's degree in American history at age 79 from Eastern Michigan University. He regularly wrote letters to the editor and liked to debate the issues of the day. He traveled widely, including trips to Russia, Israel and Sub-Saharan Africa, and took great pleasure in the European river cruises he shared with Sharell.

Besides his wife, Sharell, he is survived by his children, James (Coleen Kelly) Gehrke of Washington, DC, Karl Gehrke of Dexter, Mark (Carolyn) Gehrke of Ypsilanti, Lisa (Raymond) Brown of Ft. Worth, Texas and Cindy (Craig) Coburn of Middleville, Michigan; sister Carole Ann (John) McConnell of Tecumseh; seven grandchildren, Sarah (Mark) Bridle, Matthew Brown, Zachary Brown, Nathan Coburn, Cayla Coburn, Anna Gehrke and Claire Gehrke; and five great grandchildren. He is also survived by his first wife and the mother of his sons, Sue Gaines Gehrke.

In accordance to Chuck's wishes cremation has taken place. A private graveside service will be held for his immediate family at Brookside Cemetery in Tecumseh with Rev. Cathi King officiating. A public memorial service for Chuck will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to Dawn Farm, the Hemophilia Foundation of Michigan - Bold Eagle Camp and the First Presbyterian Church of Tecumseh. Arrangements are under the care of the Tecumseh Chapel of Handler Funeral Homes.

Alberta had stories to tell about living on a farm and knowing the cows by name. She walked to and enjoyed learning in a one room school house. Alberta saw the first automobiles and television sets. Her family survived the depression days, in part, by owning and working a local grocery store/gas station which also offered meals to visitors. She worked at King Sealys and in the kitchen of an elite dormitory at University of Michigan. She married and moved to Grand Haven. Her life then centered around the joy of raising her family of three children and watching her family tree grow to include seventeen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

She grew with the history of Grand Haven, enjoying the beauty of this area. She favored the Musical Fountain, The Coast Guard Festivals, walks in Duncan Woods and the Harbor Boardwalk, Fricano pizza, ice cream cones and the trolley rides become traditions. Also, making seven different houses a home in Grand Haven became an easy task for her. Alberta enjoyed crafts, sewing and writing poetry. She was an expert at growing beautiful, healthy flowers and earned awards in flower arranging contests. She taught Sunday School and Cub Scouts and participated in choirs and entertained by playing the piano and violin.

Besides being a winning contestant in Bake Off entries, special home baked treats, in her immaculate home, were shared with those who lived with her or came for a visit. She always had time to lend an ear over a cup of tea with many who loved her. The neighborhood coffee clutches were always attended and many smiles and stories were shared there by a special group of friends.

Alberta spent many years working at Medallion Instrument, Inc. Robbinswood and several home care and nursing facilities in this community. She was a gifted caretaker and cared deeply about her family, friends and acquaintances around her. She will be missed by many.

Burt Kenneth[10] Lutz (Mathilda[9] Ernst, Christina Catharina[8] Jedele, Gottfried[7], Anna Maria[6] Plaz, Johann Conrad[5], Martin[4] Platz, Martin[3], Bartholomaeus[2], Ludwig[1]) was born 22 Mar 1920 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 11 Dec 1994 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Jan 2009 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Burt Kenneth Lutz:
"When Burt Lutz Jen Main Street, part of Main Street went with him. He was an institution here, a kind man, a gentle man, the eternal optimist, a good counselor, a gentleman. We won't see his kind again." That tribute to the Jong-lime operator of the Quality Bakery at South Main and East William Streets comes from an old friend, Dave Sager, partner in the Fiegel's Men's Store, across the street from the old bakery site. Lutz was 74 when he died Sunday Dec. 11, 1994 at SL Joseph Mercy Hospital after a long illness.

"Burt made tremendous contributions in energy, ideas and money to downtown Ann Arbor," Sager recalls. "He was the nicest, most sensitive businessman I ever knew. He was even-tempered, mild-mannered. And he never let things get to him. I never heard anyone say a negative thing about Burt Lutz. He'd encourage you, show you how to look at the bright side, just convince you by his manner, by his spirit that things would work out. He was a prince of a man. Everyone who ever met him will miss him. And remember him."

The deaths of his father-in-law, Oscar Laubengayer, and his sister-in-law, Luella, brought Burt Lutz and his wife, Betty, into the bakery business in 1974. Laubengayer had founded the Quality Bakery with a partner, Ferdinand Drebes in 1920 and became sole owner on Drebes' death in 1949. When Oscar Laubengayer died in 1964, his daughter, Luella, took over the business. When she died in 1974, Bert and Betty Lutz became owners and operators. They kept and enhanced the reputation of the Quality Bakery, by putting in crushing work hours with days beginning at 3 a.m. so the freshly baked goods would be ready for the morning crowd. In addition to the walk-ins, Quality Bakery supplied a half-dozen businesses including the University of Michigan.

Notes for Anne Louise Hein:
Anne Louise Gebhardt, age 88, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, went peacefully into the arms of her Lord on February 8, 2015. She passed away after a long illness, still residing in the home built by her loving husband and children. Anne was born Anastasia Constantine Savas on August 6, 1926 in Buffalo, NY to Lazarus K. Savas and Charlotte Ella Hein. As a child the family moved first to Detroit, where her brother G. William Hein (Karel) and sister Victoria Shumaker (Jack) were born. They preceded her in death. Before reaching school age, the family moved to Ann Arbor, where Anne attended Mack and Bach Elementary, Slauson and Tappan Junior High, and finally Ann Arbor High School. The separation and divorce of her parents in 1933 was a traumatic event for her and thrust her into the role of caring for her younger siblings while her mother worked to put food on the table. Together with Bill and Vickie, newly renamed Anne Louise Hein sold papers, delivered laundry, babysat and sold sandwiches at football games to help her mother Lottie maintain the household. Anne was also saddened by a lifelong separation from many of her cousins and relatives on her father's side of the family after the divorce. She was however, delighted to reconnect with her cousins in her later years following the death of her mother. To help support her family, she cut short her senior year in high school and entered the workforce as a telephone operator at Michigan Bell in Ann Arbor. She was President of the Women's Traffic Division of the Union local, and was active during the start of the Communications Workers of America (CWA), attending the first convention in 1947.

She met her husband, Robert G. Gebhardt on a picket line at Michigan Bell on Huron Street during the CWA strike of 1947. They were married on June 26, 1948 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor, MI. Robert preceded her in death in 1993. After the birth of her first son in 1949, she retired from full-time work to raise a family. She continued to work part-time as a telephone operator at the U of M Law Club for a few years but quit when it began to interfere with the children's bedtime rituals. Anne later became very active in the antiques business when necessity and her depression-era frugality started her out finding and refinishing furniture for her home. She frequented garage and estate sales, the Treasure Mart and second-hand shops looking for furniture finds and glass. She eventually became a serious collector and dealer in antique pattern glass and had a booth at the first Ann Arbor Antiques Market and for many years thereafter. Anne loved her children and was a strong advocate for their education, taking part in their schooling and school support organizations. As a good role model, years after her premature departure from high school, she took a night course in History at Pioneer High School to make up remaining credits and received her own high school diploma in the late 1960's. She was also a woman of strong faith and was active at St. Paul's Lutheran Church where she was confirmed on May 25, 1941. Her favorite passage was Isaiah 54:10: "Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the LORD, who has compassion on you. After the death of her husband, she found much comfort and friendship at Peace Lutheran Church, where she loved to attend worship services and special events. Together Anne and Bob imbued their children with the faith, love and respect that they found in their church.

Anne is survived by her sons David R. Gebhardt (Sherry), Thomas A. Gebhardt (Betsy), Bruce G. Gebhardt, daughter Julie A. Gebhardt and one granddaughter Lisa J. Gebhardt. She is also survived by several nieces, nephews, grand-nieces, grand-nephews and cousins on her father's side, whom she had not seen for many years.

Visitation for family and friends will be held on Thursday February 12th from 2:00 -4:00 PM and 6:00 - 8:00 PM at Nie Family Funeral Home, 3767 West Liberty Road, Ann Arbor, MI. A funeral service will be held on Friday February 13 at 11:00AM at Peace Lutheran Church, 8260 Jackson Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48103 followed by interment with her husband at Bethlehem Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Peace Lutheran Church, 8260 Jackson Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48103. Lansing, Feb. 20, 2006- A humble farmer and diligent worker, C. Gerald Haarer helped establish an agricultural empire at Michigan State University. As the first director of the MSU Land Management Department, Haarer oversaw the construction of the MSU Pavilion and enhanced the university's off-campus properties and facilities. Haarer, 71, died of congestive heart failure Friday at a hospital in Naples, Florida. He was surrounded by his wife, Jean, and their children and grandchildren. "His whole life and vision has been in agriculture and farms," said Haarer's daughter, Pam Collins of Windermere, Florida. "I've never met a harder working, humbler man who never wanted credit for anything."

Achieving a lifelong dream, Haarer saw the construction of the Pavilion for Agriculture and Livestock Education before he retired in 2000. The massive pavilion at Farm Lane and Mount Hope Road, built for $14.5 million, is now a staple of Spartan life, hosting hundreds of rodeos, shows, auctions and tournaments each year. As land management director, Haarer was in charge of research facilities at 44 sites with more than 20,000 acres in 28 counties. He came to Lansing to study at MSU, where he was a member of the livestock judging team, after graduating from Saline High School in 1952.

In 1957, he started a small meat processing plant with his father and brother. He later formed Mahogany Farms, which developed into Premier Cattle Corp., and then Manor Hill Farms, featuring an Angus cattle breeding program and Arabian horses. He became the first land management director at MSU in 1979. "Jerry's great impact was that he saw each of the MSU locations as a reflection of the university," said Roger Wilkinson, the former MSU vice president of finance, who worked with Haarer for 12 years. "He had a major responsibility and was a wonderful man to work with."

Notes for Alta Louise Hornberger:
Alta Louise (Hornberger) Weimer, age 92, of East Leroy, passed away Sunday, August 19, 2012 at Bickford Assisted Living in Battle Creek, Michigan. She was born January 17, 1920 in Marshall to Herman and Mary (Platz) Hornberger and was one of six children. Alta grew up on a farm in Tekonsha, Michigan. where she also attended school. She was employed by the Chicken Cannery in Tekonsha in her teen years. Alta married Lewis C. Weimer March 1, 1939 in the parsonage of Zion Lutheran Church in Marshall, Michigan. They began their married life in the Tekonsha area renting the "Kelly Farm." In 1944 they purchased a farm on Wheatfield Road now known as 11-Mile Road. Together, they developed their small farm into a successful 372 acre dairy farm. Alta, also raised chickens and delivered eggs to several local markets and individuals. Besides the farm, Alta was a Vanda Beauty Counselor representative for 50+ years, eventually becoming a Regional Manager. Her success with the company earned her and Lewis a trip to Hawaii. She was very active with Harper Creek Community Schools PTA and Band Boosters, a census taker, a longtime volunteer for the Leila Auxiliary, the neighborhood food pantry, and the Sewing Guild at St. Paul Lutheran Church.

From 1981-1989, she and her daughter, Alma, owned and operated the House of Cards Hallmark store in downtown Battle Creek. Besides community activities, Alta was most of all, a wonderful, caring mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. After selling the farm in 1975 they moved to Gull Lake. Alta and Lewis always celebrated holidays with large gatherings at the farm on 11-Mile Road and their home on Gull Lake during the 70's and 80's. They moved back to Battle Creek in 1989. Together, they loved to travel in their motor home, fish, bowl, and golf. Another of Alta's passions was gardening. She not only grew large vegetable and flower gardens, but was also known as the MUM lady for the beautiful display of mums lining her driveway on B Drive N. Every year during the holidays she had a 14-16 foot Christmas tree in her front window that stopped traffic and the trolley and busses going to Binder Park Zoo. Her diligent work from dawn to dusk put her garden in East Leroy in the Battle Creek Garden Tour in 2005. Alta's family was first and foremost. She was a seamstress, quilter, canner, gardener, baker, businesswoman, and a person who taught others through her example of generosity, friendship, and love. Alta was a "lucky" person in family poker games, at the casino, and the lottery. In 2003, she won the Cash Five lottery and proceeded to give it away to charities, church, and family. Alta was a 40 plus year member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Battle Creek and currently was a member of St. Mark Lutheran Church in Battle Creek.

Alma was born on May 31, 1923 in Marshall, Michigan. She was raised in Marshall; graduated from Marshall High School and lived and worked in Battle Creek for most of her life. Alma was employed at Bill Knapps and L.W. Robinson's Department Store of Battle Creek in her early life. She then was employed at Kellogg Company on the "snack pack" line until her retirement 1985. Our most cherished memories were visiting Grandma at the plant; taking tours and watching her work on the line by placing toys in the cereal boxes. We always knew that going to Grandma and Grandpa's house meant there would be a bag of cereal toys and sugar coated raisins from the Raisin Bran line! Even at the end of her life, she still spoke of all her friends and memories at Kellogg.

Alma was proud of being crowned "Marshall's Queen of the Movies" in 1940 which was her junior year of high school and thoroughly enjoyed playing the organ. She loved to take road trips with her husband, Jim and their two daughters. Family and work reunions were her favorites because she loved seeing old friends and extended family. Family holidays were always celebrated at Grandma and Grandpa's home. Many fond memories of walking through the patio with all the baked goods and candy that we were normally full before we reached the front door! Unfortunately, Alma passed away with her meatloaf, mac & cheese and strawberry fluff recipes. Although we all tried to duplicate those family favorites, NOBODY could make them like Alma. She loved the Johnny Carson Show and holidays would not be complete without watching the Show!

Alma was united in marriage to James P. Platz in Marshall on December 21, 1941 and he sadly preceded her in death on May 12, 1996. Alma was also preceded in death by her daughter, Joyce E. Trombley in 2013.

Surviving is her daughter, Judy M. Rutherford of Delton, Michigan; four grandchildren, Cheryl Lindhurst, Cindy Lindhurst, Shannon Trombley and James Rutherford and one great granddaughter, Julie Rutherford.

Private, family interment will be held in Memorial Park Cemetery, Battle Creek where she will be laid to rest with her beloved husband, Jim. The Farley Estes Dowdle Funeral Home & Cremation Care, Battle Creek is assisting Alma's family.

Marriage Notes for Patricia Platz and Richard Hiller:

St. Mary's Catholic Church, David City, was the scene of the Saturday, Oct. 2, 1965, wedding of Miss Patricia Platz of David City and Richard Hiller. The groom is the son of Mrs. Edna Hiller of Bellwood and the late Harry P. Hiller. Two large baskets of deep pink gladioli and chrysanthemums stood next to the altar for the 3 p.m. ceremony performed by Msgr. Alphonse J. Lisko. Paul Platz of St. Thomas Seminary, Denver, Colorado, brother of the bride, was the commentator. The pews were decorated with blue bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and the groom was escorted to the altar by his mother. White bridal peau fashioned the bride's floor-length gown. Re-embroidered Alencon lace motifs were appliqued on the bodice and repeated with venise lace on the dome-shaped skirt. The bodice was styled with long bridal-point sleeves and a portrait neckline. A double panel train banded with lace motifs and venise lace edging added back interest. An elbow-length veil of white bridal illusion, fashioned by the bride, was attached to a steep pearl crown. She carried an arm bouquet of long-stemmed red roses.

Miss Angeline Naiman, former roommate of the bride at Duchesne College, was maid of honor. Miss Margaret Platz of David City, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They were floor-length empire gowns of C'est bleu crepe. They were styled with elbow-length sleeves, slim skirts and floating trains accented by crepe roses at the top. They each carried a single red rose. Attending his brother as best man was James Hiller of Lincoln. Joe Scholz of Bellwood, cousin of the groom, was groomsman. Ushers were Charles Platz, brother of the bride, and Jerry Mick of Bellwood, a friend of the groom.

A buffet style supper was served to 250 guests at St. Peter's Hall in Bellwood. Chrysanthemum bouquets arranged by the groom's mother and a five-tier wedding cake with blue roses and surrounded by a red carnation lei from Hawaii provided the decorations. A huge Marriage in Christ golden symbol was mounted behind the bride's table and was flanked by white bells. Mrs. Ronald Trofholz, sister of the groom, registered the guests. Mrs. A.D. Peck of Ft. Collins, Colorado, aunt of the broom, cut the cake and Mrs. David Hatt of Shelby, cousin of the bride, poured punch. Serving the ice cream was Mrs. Jack Medinger of David City. The bride's classmates unwrapped the gifts. A dance was held that evening at the Oak Ballroom in Schuyler.

The bride was graduated from St. Elizabeth School of Nursing. The groom attended the University of Nebraska and is a graduate of Army Security Agency Training Center, Fort Denver, Massachusetts, and is currently in the army. After a wedding trip through southern Germany and Switzerland, Mr. and Mrs. Hiller will reside at Bremerhaven, Germany.

Notes for Raymond Christian Jedele:
Body found, believed to be missing North Carolina man - By LAUREN KING, The Virginian-Pilot October 10, 2007

A body believed to be that of a missing man was found Tuesday in southern Chowan County, six days after he was reported abducted from his Ahoskie yard. Donald Bradley Smithwick, 33, was reported missing Thursday about 6 a.m. by a 911 caller who said Smithwick was accosted by a man dressed in black and then taken away in his Dodge pickup... Raymond Christian Jedele, 38, of Kill Devil Hills, was charged with first-degree kidnapping and held on a $10 million bond. Smithwick's ex-wife, Janet Denise Harrell 33, of Chowan County, was subsequently charged with being an accessory to a crime after the fact and was being held on a $3 million bond. Both were being held at the Hertford County jail. Jedele, a Kitty Hawk police officer, was placed on disciplinary suspension without pay.

For the respective roles they played in the kidnapping and subsequent murder of Ahoskie resident Donald Bradley "Brad" Smithwick, Raymond Christian Jedele, 41, and Janet Denise Harrell, 36, will now sacrifice their freedom.While some feel their punishment pales in comparison to the nature of the crimes committed against Smithwick, the victim's family members appear to be content with the judgment handed down last week.The Roanoke-Chowan News-Herald has obtained a copy of the statements made by the Smithwick family prior to District 6B Resident Superior Court Judge Cy Grant Jr. handing down the prison terms for Jedele and Harrell. On Nov. 23, Jedele pled guilty to one count of first degree murder for the Oct. 4, 2007 slaying of Smithwick. Jedele, a Kill Devil Hills Police officer at the time of the murder, received a sentence of life without the possibility of parole.Jedele was facing the death penalty if a jury had found him guilty of capital murder. That trial was scheduled for early January 2011, but never made it to that point as Jedele accepted a plea arrangement.Also on Nov. 23, Harrell, Smithwick's ex-wife, pled guilty to second degree murder and received a sentence of 157 to 198 months (13 to 16 years) in the North Carolina Department of Corrections. She was facing first degree murder charges.

"After lengthy discussions with the family members of Brad Smithwick and the investigators involved in this case, I allowed the two defendants in this case to plead guilty," said local District Attorney Valerie Asbell. "This was a difficult decision that was made out of deference to the wishes and desires of the family members of Brad Smithwick."The decision to allow Raymond Jedele to receive life without parole was consistent with the family's wishes," Asbell continued. "Smithwick's family members thought that Jedele should spend the rest of his life behind bars so that each and every day he could remember what he did to their loved one. The family felt that life without parole was a more agonizing punishment than the possibility of receiving the death penalty."She added, "The decision made regarding Janet Harrell's case was difficult on all of the family members because everyone felt like she planned the entire crime; however, members of the family wanted to spare the victim's children the trauma of a trial at their tender ages and the possibility of them having to testify against their mother."Asbell noted that in making this decision, "The family, law enforcement officers and I took into account the certainty and finality of the guilty pleas as opposed to the uncertainty of a not guilty verdict based on the evidence against Janet Harrell."I was prepared to go forward with the trial of both of these cases; however, I always try to consider the family members and their wishes because they are truly the only victims left to suffer," Asbell stated. "I agreed with the family members in this case that a certain outcome outweighed the mental anguish of an extended jury trial."

During the sentencing of the defendants, both Sindi Smithwick, the wife of Brad Smithwick, and Connie Smithwick, the mother of the victim, spoke to Judge Grant about their feelings about the two defendants. Sindi Smithwick first read a letter to the Judge that was written by Samantha Smithwick, Brad Smithwick's daughter. Among other things, Samantha wrote, "It is sad that on my birthday, Christmas, or important events that my dad is not there. It's hard to go places and see other kids spend time with their father and not me….I loved my Dad more than anything else but now I have a missing piece out of my life. Just to know that I love my dad and Janet and Ray took that away from me. Janet said she loved me, well it really showed how much she loved me with her actions."After reading Samantha's letter, Sindi made a lengthy statement to the court about her marriage to Brad and also read a letter written by her earlier.Mrs. Smithwick stated, “This man you see in front of you (Jedele), the one that took an oath to serve and protect, was too weak-minded to see through the lies and deceit that caused him to commit such an unthinkable crime. I feel sorry for him. I feel sorry for him because he not only took a life, but is giving up his life based on a lie.”On Janet Harrell, Sindi Smithwick stated, “She had a dark side and a double life that would horrify anyone and that life was exposed as a result of the recent custody battle (over parental rights to two children) that she lost. The sad thing is that Brad knew far too well the truth about her but no one wanted to listen until after his death. Even now, this man beside her (Jedele) is still oblivious to her true self.”“My children will only know what a great man their father was because of the life he lived and gave for them,” she continued. “They will grow up having to live with the fact that the woman that gave birth to them took the life of their father, and all because he refused to give up the fight to get his kids into a stable home.”

In her statement to the court, Connie Smithwick stated, “The instant that trigger was pulled and Brad’s life here ended, he was standing with his father in heaven. The act they (Jedele and Harrell) did was very selfish, hateful and evil…I pray you both think of Brad every day, I hope you have the picture burned in your memories of the last breath he took. I know someday I will have to try and forgive you for taking my son’s life. I will have to answer to God for my decision, and you both will have to answer to God for the decision you made on October 4, 2007.” Before sentencing Harrell, Judge Grant told the Smithwick family how sorry he was for the loss of their loved one. Judge Grant also commented on the plea taken in regards to Harrell’s case by stating to the family that Asbell did a fantastic job and it was an appropriate sentence based on the evidence.“May God continue to bless this family and give them strength in the upcoming months to learn how to live with this senseless and horrible act of violence,” Asbell concluded.

Brad Smithwick, 33 at the time of his death, was abducted from the driveway in front of his home. His body was found two days later in Chowan County. An autopsy revealed he had been fatally shot in the head on the day of his abduction. Jedele was arrested later on the day of the abduction and charged with kidnapping. That charge was changed to murder upon the discovery of Smithwick’s body. Harrell became a suspect in her ex-husband’s slaying after law enforcement officials learned that Brad Smithwick had been awarded custody of his and Harrell’s two children a day before his abduction.

His wife, Sandra, also 27, was also injured in the mishap, and is reported in good condition at the hospital. The driver of the second car, Gary G. Paxton, 22, of Manchester, was released from the hospital on Friday. Exact cause of the accident was not known. Sheriff's deputies said Paxton's car, east bound on Austin Rd. near Parker Rd., apparently veered across the center line and struck the Bihlmeyer car head-on. Because of the severity of Bihlmeyer's injuries, deputies feared that ambulance transfer to the hospital might take too long; they called for the helicopter which is stationed in Wayne County. It arrived at the accident scene within a few minutes. Mrs. Bihlmeyer and Paxton were transported by ambulance.

Notes for Harold P. (Zeke) Zilka:

Ballston Spa - Harold P. (Zeke) Zilka, born Nov. 21, 1938, the son of Frank S. and Mary Zilka (deceased), passed away Monday, Jan. 7, 2013. He was the beloved father of his sons, Frank S. Zilka II and his wife, Suzanne, and grandchildren, Katie, Andrew and Jon; and Timothy R. Zilka.
Zeke enjoyed a close relationship with his in-laws, the Mann family of Queensbury. He was predeceased by his wife, Jane Widmayer Flynn, and survived by his stepdaughter, Christine Flynn Curran and her husband, Dr. Joshua Curran.

Zeke graduated in 1956 from Johnstown High School, where he lettered in five sports per year. Prior to high school graduation, he was offered a scholarship to the University of Buffalo for football but chose to attend RIT for baseball and engineering and graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering. As a starter at RIT in baseball, he drew the attention of major league scouts and received no less than seven opportunities in professional baseball.

In 1960, he married Olivette Bunner Williams, his lifelong friend and the mother of their two sons, Frank and Tim. She survives him. His athletic career after college included being an original member in 1962 of the Glove Cities Colonials semi-pro football team. He played semi-pro baseball with the Schenectady Krals through the '60s, and in 1968 he took up the game of golf. His golf career spanned 44 years, having won numerous area golf tournaments. He was a member of Edison Club, Mohawk Club, Glens Falls Country Club and Saratoga National Golf Club. In 1978, Zeke set a modern-day course record at Edison Club. Zeke qualified and played as an amateur in the BC open in Endicott and was low amateur for the tournament. Zeke was an avid skier and a certified member of Professional Ski Instructors of America. He was a member of the West Mountain and Gore Mountain ski schools. Zeke was an avid outdoor sportsman and a member of the Gooley Club since 1962. He received his pilot's license in 1964.

In 1960, he joined Schenectady Chemical Co., and in 1972 he joined Pneutronics Group Inc. as a sales engineer. In 1981, he struck out on his own and incorporated H20 Technology. His sons, Frank and Tim Zilka, joined their father in 1984 as partners and the three grew the business to a multi-state operation. That business was sold in 1992 to Waste Management. In 1993, he incorporated Tech Services International, a pipeline cleaning and consulting company in which he remained active until his passing. He felt that Obama and the present administration were out to destroy small business.

He never missed his sons' athletic endeavors, his granddaughter Katie's ski races or lacrosse games or his grandsons', Andrew's and Jon's, football games. He played golf and hunted with his sons and grandsons until he entered the hospital Dec. 12, 2012. He touched the lives of many people as an athlete, outdoorsman and entrepreneur. He was dearly loved and will be missed by many, including his beloved dogs.

Relatives and friends are invited to a celebration of his life at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 15, 2013, at Saratoga National Golf Club, 458 Union Ave., Saratoga Springs. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations in Zeke's name to Saratoga Hospital Foundation, 211 Church St., Saratoga Springs, New York 12866.

Paul, his parents and newborn sister Elyse moved to Forest Grove, Oregon in 1992 where the family still lives. Brother Ian was born in 1994. The Dehner's home church in Portland was Community Bible Fellowship (now Trinity Baptist Church), from 1987 to 1992. Since then their church family has been First Baptist Church of Forest Grove. Paul was home schooled until he entered the 7th grade at C.S. Lewis Academy in Newberg, Oregon in the fall of 2002. From an early age Paul loved humor, drawing and writing, animation, wordplay and movies. He also enjoyed biking, camping, paintball and electronic games. Paul loved drama and performed in plays at church, school and community theatres in Hillsboro and Forest Grove, including "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory," "The Velveteen Rabbit," "Feather of the Eagle" (all at Theatre in the Grove); "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" and "Cheaper by the Dozen" (C.S. Lewis Academy). Paul had begun to think more seriously about what he wanted to do for a living and considered computer animation, special effects or game design. He planned to continue acting. Paul had a natural musical talent he had learned on the piano and keyboard, and was learning the electric guitar, hoping to eventually form a band with friends. When Paul was five years old he looked at a picture of his parents and was moved to ask Jesus Christ into his heart. Paul was a loving and gentle boy, whose light shined for many to see. He loved to bring fun and laughter to those he cared about. He was funny, creative and inventive. He thought deeply about God and the Christian life. He was a student of the Bible. He loved to express himself in unusual and amusing ways. Paul was a loving son, brother, nephew, cousin and friend, who is fondly remembered and terribly missed. He was growing into a conscientious, sensitive and joyful young man. His life was not cut short. Rather, he had what he knew was eternal life in the presence of his God and Father. He passed into His presence unexpectedly and painlessly, in the arms of Jesus, whom he knows and loves.
