Notes for Regina (Rachel) Staebler:

It has pleased Almighty God in His divine providence to call from this world Mrs. Regina Gall, nee Stabler. She was born in Freedom Township, Michigan, July 24, 1860. April 29, 1879 she was married to Gottlieb Gall. To this union eight children were born, four sons and four daughters. Since the death of her husband, which occurred in 1908, Mrs. Gall made her home with her children, and during the last two years she leapt house for her son, Otto.

Mrs. Gall was a devoted Christian and a faithful member of St. Paul's Church, and also of the Ladies Aid. After an illness of about six weeks she passed peacefully away January 31, 1920, and because of her Christian faith we have reason to hope she has entered into the rest prepared for the people of God.

The time of her earthly pilgrimage was 59 years, 6 months and 3 days. She leaves to mourn for her four sons, four daughters, seven grandchildren, two brothers and four sisters.

Her trials and her griefs are passed, A blessed end is her's at last. She bore Christ's yoke and did it well. And the she died, she liveth still, well.

Notes for Samuel J. Gall, Jr.:

June 21, 1945 - T. Cpl. Samuel Gall, Jr., is spending a 45-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gall, the first furlough he has had since he went into service 31 months ago. After four months of training in Texas was sent landed at Casablanca on March 9, 1943. He went through the African campaign, being stationed at Bizerte. From there he was sent to Sardinia with his outfit, Hdq. Battery, 533rd AAA Bn., AWM for harbor installations and airfield protection, for 11 months. He reached Marseilles, France 15, 1944, and then went to the front lines at Aydoille for artillery protection.

They crossed the Siegfried line at Wiesenberg and thence to Offenbach, Mutlerstadt and to Heidelberg, the University City. From Heidelberg he went to Dallau where he visited one of Germany's underground factories. This particular factory was hidden in the side of a mountain and camouflaged with shrubbery. He states that it was absolutely invisible to any passerby. Motors for airplanes were made there From Dallau they went to Kochersteinfeld, to Mainhardt, Goppingen and Winterreiden. He left his outfit at Fussen near the Austrian border on a detachment furlough on April 30 to begin his trek homeward. They went by truck from Essen through the Black Forests to Saarburg, France. Then a three-day train trip to Marseilles where he was on V-E Day in camp awaiting embarkation. He spent the next 21 days coming through the Straits of Gibraltar and though the South Atlantic, and was told upon arrival in New York on June 2 that this was the last convoy to cross the Atlantic in the blackout, which accounted for the long voyage. The convoy made up 37 ships, have four non-casualty troops to arrive in New York from the European front. His boat was the "Moses Austin." The last night before reaching the States was a sleepless one for all men aboard. They knew they would reach the mainland during the night or early morning and paced the decks all night watching for the first sight of the Statue of Liberty, and "The Old Lady" was finally caught sight of about 5 in the morning by one of the men who gave the alarm and the boys swarmed the decks half-dressed or in whatever state the alarm overtook them.

While in action he states that he averaged about seven warm meals a month and never milk, which he particularly craved. They would become so exhausted that they could sleep amid any amount of noise or falling debris. Cpl. Gall will report again for duty at Fort Sheridan on July 2, and since this is a detachment furlough begun before V-E Day he faces the possibility of being sent back to join his outfit. He has been awarded the Bronze Medal for shooting down a plane with one shot while on the Rhine.

81. Katrene Diane⁷ Gall (Albert Erwin⁶, Herman Frederick⁵, Gottlieb (Jacob)⁴, Gottlieb³, Andreas², Jakob¹) was born 23 Nov 1944. She married Robert Lynn Starling, Jr. 22 Jun 1963 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Robert Lynn Starling, Sr.. He was born 12 May 1942.

Notes for Katrene Diane Gall:

Another family name that has thrice been represented on the long list of Miss Saline winners is the Starlings. Katrene Gall Starling won the Miss Saline title in 1961 when, as she states, "there were only three things for girls to do and competing to be Miss Saline was one of them." Katrene notes that her family was deeply involved in the Saline Fair beginning with her father, Albert Gall, who served as president of the Fair Board for a number of years. This, she says, could be a reason why the Miss Saline Pageant is so important to them. DeeDe Starling Bormann, Katrene's daughter, wore the Miss Saline crown in 1981 and she also recalls the fairas being an important part of her formative years in Saline. "I feel like I've grown up at the fair," claims DeeDe. "She remembers taking Stacey's baby picture to the fair and entering it in a competition."

Stacey, 'DeeDe's sister, captured the Miss Saline honor two years later in 1983. She and Beth Vogel were friends who attended the Wendy Ward modeling program sponsored by Montgomery Ward. According to Dorothy Vogel, the classes taught the girls poise and modeling techniques. "The girls all loved fashion from an early age," says Dorothy. According to their mother, Katrene, "Stacey always said she wasn't going to compete to be Miss Saline. However, as fate would have it, she didn't have a basketball game, in which she was the captain, scheduled for the Friday of the pageant, so she decided to enter." Stacey wrote a fashion show for her talent, according to Katrene. She made her gown along with four other outfits that some of her friends modeled. DeeDe's talent was a ladies lead with wool, where she sewed a purple wool suit and showed a sheep.

Katrene reflected on the night that her girls won the crown: "We were extremely proud. They were two wonderful evenings and even my father was able to be there with us." Katrene doesn't recall if she was nervous on the night she was named Miss Saline 1961, however, she says her daughters remained calm and collected. "Everything they had done them for the competition.

Their involvement in 4-H, meeting people, making friends, playing sports; everything they had done, helped them to not be nervous." The Saline Fair has been woven in the fabric of the community for years and Katrene recognizes it as a "great place to go as a family and see the agriculture side of Michigan." "Michigan still generates products we use every day and sometimes we forget just how much this state produces," says Katrene. She adds, "The fair is one of the few places where families can introduce their kids to animals." Overall, Katrene, who serves as chairperson for the Former Miss Saline Association, viewed the pageant on Sept. 2 as a success. "It was great. It was like putting on two pageants at a time," says Katrene.

The event marked the 55th anniversary of the Miss Saline Pageant and many of the Former Miss Saline winners were on hand for the festivities. "We were very pleased to see how it came together," says Katrene. Starling acknowledges that being named Miss Saline is exciting to the girls because they are able to represent the community that they hold so dearly to their hearts.

That's exactly what Nicole Stegenga said on the night she was named Miss Saline 2003. In our newly elected Miss Saline's words, "I am very excited to represent my community, visit other communities and act as a role model for the youth of Saline." Nicole was awarded Miss South Central Michigan Teen USA in July 2003, which qualifies her to compete for the title of Miss Michigan Teen USA. The competition will be held the weekend of Sept. 25-27 at the McMorran Place Theater in Port Huron. Nicole, the daughter of Jerry and Laurie Stegenga, is a junior at Saline High School. She is a majorette in the Saline High marching band, a member of the National Honor Society, Saline Twirlettes, Future Leaders, and SADD. She also is a gold honor roll student at SHS and is an AAU gold medalist in twirling. Friends are welcome to attend the pageant to support Nicole.
