Notes for John Michael Braun:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

John M. Braun - The attractiveness of Washtenaw county as a place of residence is indicated by the fact that many of its native sons have spent their entire lives here, content with its opportunities and privileges and enjoying the many advantages afforded in this part of the state. To this class belongs John M. Braun. He was born in Ann Arbor, August 16, 1843, his parents being John and Anna Maria (Eberhardt) Braun. The father was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and came to America in 1836. By trade he was a mason and he worked in Ann Arbor in that line for fourteen years in partnership with a Mr.

Shoemaker. They were contractors and erected many of the leading buildings of Ann Arbor at that day. In 1852, however, Mr. Braun withdrew from building operations and purchased eighty acres of land in Scio Township, whereon he resided for eight years, when he sold that property and in 1860 became the owner of one hundred and eighty acres on section 5, Ann Arbor Township. To that tract he afterward added sixty acres, so that he became the owner of two hundred and forty acres of rich and productive land. He was a prosperous agriculturist, carrying on general farming in a capable manner that resulted in the acquirement of a comfortable competence. He died January 9, 1876, while his wife, who had come from Germany to America in 1837, passed away March 1, 1894.

John M. Braun pursued his education in the schools of Ann Arbor and Scio Township. He assisted his father in the operation of the home farm and there remained up to the time of his marriage, which was celebrated April 17, 1879, bliss Caroline R. Kapp becoming his wife. She was a daughter of Christian Kapp, of Northfield Township. This marriage has been blessed with one child, Athniel J., who was born February 18, 1885, and is assisting his father in tile farm work. Mr. Braun purchased one hundred and forty acres of land on section 5, Ann Arbor Township, in 1875, and as his financial resources increased lie added to the property until he now owns two hundred acres, a small part of which lies across the boundary line in Northfield Township. He has carried on general farming and feeds his grain to his stock. In 1893 he started his orchard and at the present time he has three thousand pear trees, eight hundred apple trees, one hundred pear trees and fifty cherry trees. His is a splendidly improved property. He has a fine residence upon the place and large barns, one of which is sixty eight by thirty-eight feet and the other forty by twenty feet. He also has a shed eighty by twenty feet and there is a tenant's house upon the place, for he employs a man throughout the year to aid him in the work of the farm. In all that he undertakes he is thorough, systematic and practical and is recognized as one of the most successful farmers of the locality.

In his politics Mr. Braun is an earnest Democrat, but liberal in his views, having given his support to that party since age gave to him the right of franchise. He has served as justice of the peace for sixteen years, filling the office at the present time for the fourth term. He has also been a member of the school board for eighteen years and is greatly interested in religious work, holding membership in the Zion Lutheran church of Ann Arbor, of which he is now one of the elders. His life has been honorable, his actions manly and sincere, and in the county where he has always lived he has won the favorable regard and friendship of many with whom he has come in contact.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

John Michael Braun. Among the native sons of the city of Ann Arbor who have made their work felt in the up building of the township on agricultural and commercial lines, we find him whose name we have just written, who was born August 16, 1843, being the third in order of age in his father's family. He was in his ninth year when the family moved on to the farm and about seventeen when he made his home on what is now known as the homestead. As his father died when he was twenty-three years old he remained at home until the year 1875. At the time he left there he signed over to the other heirs his interest in that property but now has a beautiful farm of one hundred and ninety-six acres which was long known as the Abram Moe farm.

Upon the farm just named our subject has lived ever since leaving home which is some sixteen years. This property Mr. Moe cleared from timber and settled upon in 1826, making his home here for a full half century. One of his sons, Orville Moe, still lives in Ann Arbor but the father died six ago in Adrian. Upon this property Mr. Braun is carrying on general farming and raises a large crop of grain, having generally from eight hundred to one thousand bushels of wheat. He also devotes considerable attention to fine stock, having excellent specimens of Short-horn cattle and a flock of fine wool sheep.

Caroline R. Kapp was the maiden name of the lady whom our subject chose as his life partner and to whom he was united in marriage on the 17th of April, 1879, Her parents were Christian F. and Regina (Schlichteren) Kapp and she was born in Northfield Township, September 14, 1852. Her brothers, Dr .John Kapp of Ann Arbor and Dr. Christian F. Kapp of Manchester, are well-known residents of this part of Michigan, while her parents who were pioneers of this township are well remembered and highly honored by all who know the history of the early days.

Only one child has been granted to our subject and his excellent wife, namely: Athniel John, who was born February 18, 1885. Our subject is a member of the first Lutheran Church where he has long been an official member, having filled the positions of both Trustee and Deacon, and in both capacities having shown his trust and interest and ability. He is a Democrat in his political sympathies but is a man of liberal views and is one of those who can understand and sympathize with those who do not agree with him on matters of importance. Great credit is due to this gentleman, for his early record as his father's death left great responsibilities upon him and the fact that his mother's family was kept together and was educated and cared for is largely due to his efforts and discretion.

Notes for John Michael Stein:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

John Michael Stein. One of the beautiful farms in Ann Arbor Township, richly cultivated and neatly kept, is that which is owned and supervised by Mr. Stein. Although of German parentage, he was born in Scio Township, upon the farm on section 26, where his father settled in 1835, his natal day being June 23, 1842. His parents, Michael and Magdaline (Hornbecker) Stein, were both natives of Wurtemberg, Germany, and the father was born in 1805 and served for three years in the German army. The military service and the disadvantages of continental life roused this worthy man to an appreciation of what life in America might prove to himself and children, and he emigrated to this country in 1835 and settled on what is now the old homestead, taking and clearing up eighty acres of good farming land, to which he later added eighty acres more.

The father of our subject died April 3, 1869, and his good wife survived him for many years and finally passed away at the age of seventy-eight, on the 3d of July, 1888. They had a family of ten children, all but one of whom are now living and in Washtenaw County.

Our subject was reared upon the farm and besides learning what all boys learn, who are thus trained, took the carpenter's trade when he was twenty-one and followed that for seven years* He and his brother Christian bought the homestead upon which they lived together for six years, and then John sold out his interest to his brother and removed to where he now lives, three miles north of Ann Arbor. He has here a handsome farm of one hundred and forty acres, which is in a splendid condition and where he carries on general farming. This farm was settled by James Fellahee, who secured it from the Government and lived upon it for fifteen years.

The 19th of May, 1870, marked an epoch of great importance in the life of John M. Stein, as he was then happily united for life with Katherina Braun, who was born July 28, 1845. The children who have blessed this union are Simeon F., who died at the age of two years; Albert Christian, Who was born August 15, 1873; and Hannah Maria, who was born May 26, 1876. Both children are students at the High School at Ann Arbor. The political views of Mr. Stein have led him to affiliate with the Democratic Party, and his religious belief brings him into active co-operation with the Lutheran Church.

He married Maria Dorothea Andres 17 Jun 1886 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johannes Andres and Katherine Hutzel. She was born 29 Mar 1863 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 02 Oct 1957 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Carl (Charles) Braun:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Charles Braun, interested in general agricultural pursuits in Ann Arbor Township, was born in the city of Ann Arbor on the 29th of May, 1848. His parents were John and Anna Maria (Eberhardt) Braun, both of whom were natives of Germany, but their marriage was celebrated in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The father was born in 1816 and in 1836 crossed the Atlantic to America with a company of young men. In 1837 the mother came with a party to the new world. Mr. Braun was a mason by trade and followed that pursuit in Michigan until 1852, when he purchased eighty acres of land in Scio Township west of Ann Arbor and began farming. He lived upon that place until 1860, when he sold out and bought one hundred and eighty acres of land on section 5, Ann Arbor Township, to which he afterward added until his farm comprised two hundred and forty acres of land, which he brought to a high state of cultivation. He carried on general farming and stock raising, meeting with a creditable measure of success, and his life was characterized by unremitting diligence and energy. He died January 9, 1876, at the age of forty-nine years, while his wife survived him for a long period, passing away on March 11, 1894. His political allegiance was given to the Democratic Party. In the family were eight children: Fred B., who was born in 1840 and died in 1902; John M., born August 16, 1843; Catherine, who was born July 22, 1845, and is the wife of J. M. Stein; Charles, of this review; Christian, who was born February 23, 1850, and died December 16, 1902; Christina, who was born March 23, 1851, and is the wife of Fred Kern; Henry, who was born May 20, 1854; and Simon, who was born February 2, 1857, and died August 3, 1887.

Charles Braun of this review was reared in the usual manner of farm lands, early becoming familiar with the duties and labors that fall to the lot of the agriculturist, and his education was acquired in the public schools. After all the children were grown he purchased their interests in the farm, thus coming into possession of the old homestead property, on which he carried on general farming until 1893. He then concentrated his energies upon agricultural pursuits and is today one of the best known fruit raisers of this part of the state, having a peach orchard of twenty acres, while nine are planted to apples. He has also bought and fed stock. The farm is a well improved property on which are two good barns, one fifty-six by thirty-eight feet, the other sixty by thirty-eight feet, together with good buildings for the shelter of the grain, stock and farm machinery. The residence was erected in 1867.

Mr. Braun was married in 1887 to Miss Mary Andrews, a daughter of John Andrews, of Scio Township. They have had three children: Sylvia Maria, who was born March 10, 1888; Carl William, born June 27, 1889; and Simon Walter, born June 19, 1891. All are now attending school. Mr. Braun is recognized as one of the stalwart advocates of democracy in Washtenaw County and is active in the work of the party. He has served for three years, from 1892 until 1895, as supervisor and again filled the office from 1898 until 1902. In the fall of the latter year he was elected county treasurer for a term of two years and in 1904 was defeated for that office in the great republican landslide. In positions of public trust he is ever faithful, his course being marked by an unfaltering patriotism and devotion to the general good. He holds membership in the Zion Lutheran church of Ann Arbor and has a wide and favorable acquaintance in the city and throughout this part of the state by reason of his energy and success in business life and his activity in political circles. Since 1892 he has been secretary of the German Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Charles Braun. Among the families who have been residents of Washtenaw County ever since the old Territorial days, we are pleased to name the one represented by our subject. John Braun, his father, was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1816, and in his youth learned the brick and stone-mason's trade, emigrating to America in 1836, and settling in Ann Arbor, where for a number of years he followed his trade. While living in that city, he married Anna M. Eberhardt, like himself a native of Wurtemberg, and in 1851 he took up his residence on a farm of eighty acres in Scio Township, for which he paid the sum of $1,100. Eight years later he removed to a farm in Ann Arbor Township, where his death ensued in January 9, 1866. He had accumulated a handsome property by industry and integrity.

Our subject was born in the city of Ann Arbor, May 29, 1848, and is the fourth in his father's family, his brothers and sisters being: Frederick B., born October 20, 1840, in Ann Arbor Township; Johanna, who died in infancy; John Michael, born August 16, 1843; Catherine, July 28, 1845; Charles; Christian, born February 7, 1850; Christiana, November 23, 1851; Henry, May 20, 1854; Simeon, February 2, 1857. The last named died August 3, 1887. Frederick and Christian are living near Ann Arbor on the Dixboro Road, and John lives on an adjoining farm; Catherine is Mrs. John Michael Stein; and Christina is Mrs. Fred Kirn, of Ann Arbor; Henry is on the old Doty farm; and Charles and Simeon had worked the home farm together after Henry married and left the home some ten years since, and continued thus until a few months before Simeon's death, which was the result of consumption, following inflammation of the lungs. This is the only case of consumption in this circle, as it is not a family tendency.

Charles Braun has two hundred and seven acres which is part of the tract which his father originally located. In his youth he attended the Union school, and afterward took a course in the Ann Arbor Business College, and at twenty began to teach in the district school, which he continued for two winters. Upon the 17th of June, 1886, he was married in Scio Township, to Miss Mary D. Address, daughter of John and Katharina Address, the latter being still a resident of Scio Township. This lady was born in that township, March 29, 1863, and to her have been granted three children: Sylvia Maria Katharina, born March 10, 1888; Carl William, June 27, 1889; and Simeon Walter, June 19, 1891.

Like his father, our subject is a sturdy Democrat in his political views, and is now serving as Township Treasurer. He is an earnest and efficient member of the Lutheran Church, and a progressive farmer. He takes great interest in breeding Short-Horn cattle, keeping several registered animals and breeding Poland-China hogs, besides marketing large crops of wheat.

Notes for Carl Friedrich Braun:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Carl F. Braun, assistant cashier of the Ann Arbor Savings Bank, was born January 26, 1873, in Ann Arbor Township, this county. His grandfather, John Braun, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and came to Washtenaw County, Michigan, in early life. In his family were eight children: Michael, a farmer residing on the Whitmore Lake Road; Charles, who is farming in the same locality; Henry, who carries on agricultural pursuits on the Dixboro Road; Christian, deceased; Mrs. Christine Kirn, of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Caddie Stein, who is living in Ann Arbor Township; Simon, deceased; and Frederick B., the father of our subject. Frederick B. Braun was a native of Washtenaw county, born in October, 1840, and spent his entire life here. His father purchased the Vogel farm west of Ann Arbor when he was twelve years of age, and on selling that property bought a farm on the Whitmore Lake road. In 1869 Frederick B. Braun bought the farm on the Dixboro Road, which was his home up to the time of his death. He became recognized as one of the influential and leading business men of the county and was president of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance Company at the time of his death, which occurred in December, 1902. His success was marked and attributable entirely to his well directed efforts. He was a man of unassailable integrity in his business affairs, was highly respected in all of life's relations, and by his courtesy and kindness he won hosts of friends who hold his memory sacred. He was a republican in his political views, very prominent in the ranks of the party, and held almost every township office. He belonged to the Zion Lutheran church and was a man of upright life and of marked influence, leaving the impress of his individuality for good upon many public movements.

Friedrich Benjamin married Regina Kirn, also a native of Michigan, and to them were born three children: Carl F.; Benjamin N., who is senior engineer in the University of Michigan; and Caddie M., who died in 1887. Reared in the county of his nativity and educated in the public schools, Carl F. Braun is a graduate of the Ann Arbor high school of the class of 1892. He continued to assist his father in carrying on general agricultural pursuits until January, 1894, when he entered the Ann Arbor Savings Bank in the position of collector. He has been successively promoted to bookkeeper, teller and assistant cashier, filling the latter position at the present writing. This bank stands first in Michigan in point of surplus to capital, with total resources of over two million dollars. Mr. Braun has become interested in other business enterprises, being now a director in the Crescent works, where corsets, waists and skirts are extensively manufactured. He and his brother still retain the ownership of the homestead property, which is a fine dairy farm, comprising one hundred sixty-three and a half acres of land.

In October, 1899, Mr. Braun was united in marriage to Miss Marie C. Knapp, of Chicago, and they have one son, Roger K., who is five years of age. Mr. Braun is an independent republican in his political views. For about ten years he has been one of the directors of the Alumni Association and has also been treasurer during that entire time. He is a young man of excellent business ability, who is steadily working his way upward, realizing that capability and close application constitute the basis of all success.

Notes for Albert Fiegel:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Albert Fiegel, a member of the firm of Reule, Conlin & Fiegel, clothiers, of Ann Arbor, was born in Pittsfield Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, December 31, 1873, his parents being John and Kunigunda (Lambarth) Fiegel. The father was a prosperous farmer, who came from Germany to America in his boyhood days, and for over thirty-two years was a resident of Pittsfield Township, where he conducted extensive interests as an agriculturist. He was perhaps the best known farmer of his county, carrying on his business along modern lines of progress and improvement, his place being unsurpassed, because of the care and labor which he bestowed upon it. He held membership in the Zion Lutheran Church, in which he served as deacon, and his life was actuated by principles that neither sought nor required disguise. In his family were nine children, but the eldest died at birth. The others are: Fred C., who is married and living on a farm in Scio Township; Lydia C., the wife of Enoch Dieterle, a prosperous undertaker of Ann Arbor; John E., who is married and lives upon the homestead farm in Pittsfield township; George W., who is married and carries on farming in Scio township; Jacob, deceased; Albert, of this review; Mary C., the wife of John Sauer, of the firm of Sauer & Company, architects of Ann Arbor; and Emma, the wife of Ernest Wurster, of this city.

Albert Fiegel spent his youth upon his father's farm, and in the district schools of Pittsfield Township pursued his early education, while in the period of vacations his time and energies were devoted to the work of the fields. He afterward enjoyed the privilege of instruction in a German school in Ann Arbor, and he entered upon his business career as a clerk in the employ of Wadham, Kennedy & Reule. For five years he remained with that house, gaining an excellent knowledge of the business, both in principle and detail, and working his way steadily upward until he was admitted to a partnership, and is now actively interested in the management and ownership of the business under the firm style of Reule, Conlin & Fiegel.

Mr. Fiegel was married in 1900, to Miss Hannah M. Stein, of Ann Arbor Township, and they have two daughters, Gertrude Christina and Lucile Kunigunda. Mr. Fiegel is an active worker in the Zion Lutheran Church and for many years has been a teacher in the Sunday-school, while of the young peoples' society he is a charter member. His political views accord with the principles of democracy, but he has had no aspiration for public office as a reward for party fealty. His business career is in all ways honorable and commendable. From humble clerkships have come many of our most prominent merchants, and often those whose youth is spent among unfavorable conditions are found in later years in control of the great arteries and exchanges of traffic. Mr. Fiegel is one whose history is indicative of the positions that lie before men in the new world as a utilization of the advantages which surround all have made him one of the representative merchants of Ann Arbor.

110. Charles Fredeick⁶ Braun (Carl William⁵, Carl (Charles)⁴, Johannes³, Johann Michael², Johannes¹) was born 19 Aug 1933 in Ann Arbor Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Apr 2013 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Catherine Ann Fishbeck, daughter of Fred Fishbeck and Harriet ?. She was born 12 Oct 1934 in Michigan, and died 08 Mar 2024 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Charles Fredeick Braun:

Charles F. Braun, age 79, passed away at his home, after a short bout with pancreatic cancer on April 19, 2013, with his family members by his side. He was born on August 14, 1933 to the late Carl and Hilda (Fiegel) Braun in Ann Arbor Township and remained an Ann Arbor Township resident his entire life. After his father died in 1944, Charles, at the age of 10, was thrust into the role of becoming a man and farming the family homestead. Charles attended the Braun one-room school and graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1952. He went on to college at Michigan State University and graduated in the school's Agricultural Short Course. Charles returned to the farm with new and better ideas. He was a deep thinker! He retained a lot of knowledge and his head was full of ideas. Many of these ideas were expounded upon, experimented with, and finally implemented into his farming operation or business ventures. One of these experiments was planting and harvesting cucumbers with the help of migrant labor. He, also, was the first in the area to plant huge fields of pumpkins. Charles was the master-mind; the labor and implantation jobs fell mostly to his three step-sons or his employees in later years. He employed men and women from the surrounding areas with many of them hired from his own neighborhood community.

Charles was a confirmed member of the Zion Lutheran Church. He was a member of the Michigan Christmas Tree Association and was a prominent retailer of Christmas trees for Braun's Tree Farm the last several years at his farm in Ann Arbor Township. He was also a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and a former member of the local Webster Providers Farm Bureau Group. Charles was a noted grower of Michigan Certified Seed throughout the state. Charlie served Ann Arbor Township Fire Department as a volunteer fireman for many years beginning in the early 1950's. He, then, became assistant chief and his dedication to the Fire Department led him later to become Fire Chief for six years in the 1980's. C. F., as he was known by some, formerly owned and operated the 49er Truck Stop located at the near-by corner of North Territorial and Whitmore Lake Roads. He, also, built the C.F. Braun Company farm elevator from the ground up. This was one of the largest grain elevator operations in the county at that time. He had a dealership for the German-made Deutz tractors and sold other farm implements as well. He served local area farmers for years with seed, fertilizer, chemicals, supplies, and purchased their harvested grain. A devastating fire, touched off by a propane gas explosion, consumed and demolished his business in April 1978, but Charles, along with his wife, Catherine, faced the challenge of rebuilding his business and went on to assist the farming community until he sold the business in 1985, after serving the farm community for over thirty years. Charlie was well-known throughout the state for his farming expertise. In April 1963, he was featured on the cover of the Successful Farming magazine with his 2-row corn planter attached to his plow. He implemented this new "plow-plant" system. When he finished plowing the field, he had completed the planting! He was never afraid to try anything new, before unheard of, in farming. He did exactly what he wanted to do in his lifetime, which was farming, and also, helped other farmers attain their goal in farming. At the height of his agri-business days, he had many semi drivers on the road delivering anhydrous ammonia to various areas throughout the state, as well as semis hauling grain to the Maumee, Ohio River elevator where the farm grain was loaded onto boats and shipped around the world.

Charles is survived by his loving wife, Catherine (Fishbeck) Judkins Braun; two daughters, Mary Catherine (James) McCreedy and Pamela Anne Braun; one step-daughter, Linda Judkins (Nick Contompasis); three step-sons, Kenneth Judkins, Richard (Sheri) Judkins, and Bruce Judkins; two grandchildren, Abigail Marie and Justin James McCreedy; six step-grandchildren, Tyler Hartman Knutson, Spencer Truman Knutson, Ashley Suzanne Judkins, Alexandria Renee Judkins, twins, Emily Catherine and Nicole Elizabeth Judkins; one step-great-granddaughter, Bailey Stubbe; his brother, David C. Braun of Grand Rapids, Michigan; cousins, Frieda (Kent) McCullough, John Braun, Mary Pfaus and Barbara (Luther) Schaible. Charlie also leaves behind his cherished dog, "Sadie" and cat "Tip" who will greatly miss his daily attention. The family wishes to thank Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor for their help and excellent care at this difficult time.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, April 24, 2013 from 2-8 PM at the Nie Family Funeral Home, Liberty Road Chapel, 3767 W. Liberty Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, April 25, 2013 at 11:30 AM with an hour of visitation prior to the service at the funeral home with Pastor David Bracklein officiating. Burial will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions in honor of Charles may be made to Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor or the Huron Valley Humane Society.

They sold the home and business on Whitmore Lake Road in 1987 and built their dream home approximately 1 mile away on Warren Road. She and Charlie lived there for the next 26 years until Charlie passed away in 2013. During that time, she and Charlie, with the help of their children and grandchildren, started and operated Braun's Tree Farm, selling Christmas trees.

watching her sons farm. She derived great pleasure in the giving of gifts to her friends and family. Her greatest joy was in spending time with her 8 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. She was born 16 May 1938 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 03 Mar 2024 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Lloyd Ralph Braun:

Lloyd R. Braun, CAI - A popular auctioneer died Tuesday, August 2, 1999, at the age of 60, after a long battle with cancer. Lloyd R. Braun, of Webster Township, was a partner in Braun and Helmer Auction Service Inc. He was inducted last year into the MAA Hall of Fame after more than 20 years of auctioneering. Lloyd was diagnosed with cancer in 1994. He had radiation and chemotherapy treatments and a stem cell transplant. He died at home.

Braun farmed and then worked as a barber in Nickels Arcade in Ann Arbor before he and friend Jerry Helmer decided to go to auctioneer school in the early 1970's. He had a sharp eye, once catching a bidder who signaled by tugging on his pants cuff. The pair sold everything from hair pins to harvesters. Braun would prop a foot on a piece of farm equipment, occasionally plunk a straw hat on his head, prop himself on a yardstick and "push from the diaphragm" like an opera singer, to avoid wear and tear on his voice.

Daughter Diane DeVoogd, who was with her father when he died, said he "was a helping person. He loved to be able to help a person finish a project. He had 10 extra parts of everything, and if someone needed a part for something, he would hate it if they would go to the hardware store without checking with him first." He was particularly close to his only grandchild, almost 3-year-old Kyle DeVoogd, she said. "They were best pals. They would get out an old machinery catalog, and sit for hours, talking about machinery and drawing," she said.

Braun conducted benefit auctions for Chelsea Hospital, Gabriel Richard High School, and the Millie Schembechler Fund, among others. He served as president of the MAA, and was elected into the Hall of Fame in 1998. He also is survived by Joyce, his wife of 35 years, son Brian, and his mother and sister.

Notes for Joyce Mildred Weber:

Joyce Mildred Braun, age 85, of Ann Arbor, Michigan passed away Sunday, March 3, 2024. Joyce was born in Ann Arbor to Raymond and Luella Weber on May 16, 1938. A life-long resident of Ann Arbor, Joyce was raised alongside her sisters, MaryLou and Janet on their family dairy farm. After graduating Saline High School, Joyce's first job was at a bank and then she went to work for the Washtenaw County Clerk Register of Deeds Office. She met Lloyd R. Braun at a local Grange Hall dance and in 1964 they married. Their family was complete with their two children, Brian and Diane. In addition to spending time at home raising their children, Joyce spent over 50 years as part owner and Office Administrator with Braun and Helmer Auction Services.

Joyce loved spending time outdoors, flower and vegetable gardening and then canning and cooking the harvest from her garden. Cooking and feeding family and friends brought much joy to her and she was known for her Lebkuchens, Banana Bread, Chocolate Eclair, Venison Meatballs and Cheesy Potatoes. After many years of supporting the hunters, she harvested her first deer at 75 years old. Any time spent with her family was precious to her. She loved attending any and all of their extracurricular activities and going to 4H, county/state fairs, festivals, and parades. She especially loved holidays spent together at Easter, carving pumpkins for fall, large Thanksgiving gatherings, and Christmas with family and friends. Joyce enjoyed being a member of and attending Huron River Methodist Church. Joyce's faith was a large part of her life and she would find strength reading devotions. Other interests included being a part of the Farm Bureau and Card Club. She also enjoyed Euchre, dominoes with her grandkids, feeding and watching birds, word searches, and attending Lenten fish dinners with friends ("Going fishing with the Webster Widows"). Her warm heart and personality will always be remembered, along with her readiness to always pitch-in to lend a helping hand.

Joyce is survived by her loving children, Brian Braun and Diane (Craig) DeVoogd; cherished grandchildren, Kyle (Alissa Trinkle) DeVoogd, Kevin DeVoogd, and Claire DeVoogd; sister, Janet (Milton) Weidmayer and her children, David, Sarah (Goddaughter), Beth, and Linda; brother-in-law, Marvin Marion and his children, Marlene, Janet and Dan (Godson); sister-in-law, Carol (Max) Ziegler and their children Eric, Evan, and Mark; and Suzanne (Neil) Lindemann, who was like another sister to Joyce. She is also survived by many extended family, colleagues, and friends. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Lloyd R. Growing up, Tyson thoroughly enjoyed skateboarding, backpacking, fishing and hunting. He always appreciated listening to good music. As an adult his game of choice was pool; he was an excellent player and a good instructor as well. Tyson was generous, sharing with and caring for others in ways that would truly help. He genuinely liked people and was hard pressed to remain strangers with them. He possessed a rich sense of humor and had a wonderful smile, which he often displayed. Being a strong advocate for accessibility for the disabled, Tyson worked hard during the initial stages in the establishment of the non-profit organization SLOCO Access. His contribution (as well as others') has served to help many in our community.

Tyson is survived by his devoted mother and best friend, Cynthia Marin, his father, John Anderson (Janice), brother, Joshua Anderson (Michelle), sisters, Karissa Anderson (Kris DeMartini), Altaire Anderson, Annika Anderson, and step-brother, Curran Sanchez. Also, he is survived by his nephew and nieces, maternal grandmother, Ruth Wing, Uncle Steve Wing (Jone), Uncle Carl Anderson (Pat), Aunts Lorene and Carilyn Anderson, and other extended family, along with many friends. Tyson was preceded in death by his sister, Sanora Anderson.

A private memorial gathering is planned to take place at the South Fork of the Kaweah in the Sequoia National Park as it was one of Tyson's favorite places. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to Wilshire Hospice (formerly Hospice Partners) of SLO County or a charity of your choice.
