Notes for Johann Heinrich (John H.) Landwehr:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Henry J. Landwehr, proprietor of a meat market in Manchester, is a native of Prussia, born in 1854. His father, Henry Landwehr, was also a native of the same country and died in 1902 at the age of seventy-six years. He came to the United States in 1864 and located near Freedom on a small farm. He was a tailor by trade, but after coming to the United States confined his attention to agricultural pursuits and was recognized as a hard-working, industrious and frugal man, who's carefully directed labors at length made him well-to-do. He held membership in the Evangelical Lutheran church and gave his political support to the democracy. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Anna G. Schlicht, was born in Germany and is living upon the old home farm at the age of seventy-seven years. She, too, is a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church. In their family were six children: Henry J.; Olive, the deceased wife of Barney Bertkie; Carrie, the wife of Jacob Hinderer, a farmer of Lima, Washtenaw County; John, who is farming in Saline Township; Lydia, the wife of Frank Feltkamp, a farmer of Lima Township; and Bernard, who resides upon the old homestead.

Henry J. Landwehr was reared upon his father's farm and attended the district schools. He continued to assist in the operation of the fields on the old homestead until 1895. He was married March 20, 1880, to Miss Harriet Davidter, who was born in Freedom Township in 1857 and was a daughter of Justus and Catherine (Meyer) Davidter, natives of Germany, who came to Washtenaw county at an early day. Her father was a farmer by occupation and in the family were twelve children, Mrs. Landwehr being a twin. Unto our subject and his wife have been born three children: Julia, Elmer and Helen. The parents are members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and Mr. Landwehr is a valued representative of several fraternal organizations, including the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Modern Woodmen of America and the Mutual Benevolent Association. In his political affiliation he is a democrat and he served as treasurer and as highway commissioner of Sharon Township. While residing there he had a farm of one hundred and thirty-five acres which he cultivated for eighteen years. In 1895 he came to Manchester and opened a meat market, which he is still profitably conducting, being recognized as one of the enterprising business men of the village. Since taking up his abode here he has been active in community affairs and in 1901 was chosen supervisor of Manchester Township, since which time by successive re-elections he has continued to fill the office. He is a member of the village council, serving for the past six years, and at the present writing is president pro tem. In his life record he displays many of the sterling characteristics of his German ancestry, including the perseverance and diligence which have ever been strong features in the Teutonic race. He is, however, thoroughly American in thought and feeling and has a deep and sincere attachment for the stars and stripes.

Notes for Wilhelm (William) Koebbe:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

William Koebbe. This prominent business man of Manchester was born in Freedom Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, November 15, 1856. His father, J. H. Koebbe, was a native of Prussia, Germany, and came to Michigan at the age of twenty-one, making his home in Freedom Township, when there was nothing upon the farm which he took except a log house without doors or windows, so that he had to hang blankets up for protection, and as there was no floor they trod upon the earth. He had only twenty-five cents when he came into the State, and he and his family lived for fifteen years in this primitive log house, which they had made more comfortable, and where our subject was born.

The father of our subject remained upon this farm until his death, which occurred at the age of fifty-eight. He was an intelligent student of American affairs and felt it incumbent upon him as a citizen of his adopted country to be at the polls upon every election day and to help in guiding the affairs according to his best judgment. In his political views, he was in sympathy with the Democratic Party. He was well-known as an honest, hard-working man and was a consistent member of the German Methodist Church, in the work of which he took an active part and held offices of responsibility. He was a liberal contributor to the work both of the church and the Sunda3r-school, and superintended the school for a number of years.

The mother of our subject bore the maiden name of Mary Davidter and she also was a Prussian by birth, but was not united in marriage with Mr. Koebbe until after her migration to Michigan, as they had never met in the old country. She is still living and resides at the old homestead, and is now about sixty-five years of age. To her were granted three daughters and four sons: John F., Sarah (deceased), William, Frank H., Sophia (deceased), Sarah (2d), and Calvin A. John resides in Saline Township and Frank H., Sarah and Calvin are at home with the mother.

The early days of our subject were passed in the little log home where he was born, and his first schooling was taken at the schoolhouse at Silver Lake. He afterward learned the carpenter's and joiner's trade, beginning it when fifteen years old and following this line of business until he was twenty-eight years old, working for one man, Joseph Kramer. He helped to build many houses and barns in this vicinity, and one can hardly take a drive anywhere through the county without seeing some buildings which he has worked upon.

In 1886 he decided to go into the mercantile business and opened the store where he is now carrying a fine and well selected stock of clothing and gentlemen's furnishing goods. Here he and his partner, Mr. Robinson, are doing an excellent business and have every prospect of success. He was married on the 1st of December, 1888, to Libby Neisley, a native of Saline Township, this county, and to them have been born two sons, Clarence W. and Frederick H. Since last spring Mr. Koebbe has been a member of the Common Council and he is connected with the German Workman's Aid Society of Manchester and is liberal in not only this but all good causes. During the dull season in his regular business he devotes himself to a considerable extent to selling machines and agricultural implements. A quiet, unassuming man and a good citizen, he is respected by his acquaintances and numbered among those who are worthy of regard.

Notes for H. Franklin (Frank) Koebbe:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Frank H. Koebbe, supervisor of Freedom township and an enterprising agriculturist, was born May 10, 1858, in the township which is still his home. His father, John H. Koebbe, was a native of Prussia and in 1846 came to the United States, making his way at once to Washtenaw County. He worked by the month in Freedom Township for a year and then purchased eighty acres of land on section 27. His father, John Koebbe, had died in Germany and the mother, Mrs. Fannie Koebbe, and his two brothers, J. Gearhart and John Bernhart, and two sisters, Ricka and Katherine, came with him to this country and lived with him at the time of the purchase of the farm. His remaining days were devoted to the cultivation and improvement of the property and in the course of years he transformed his land into a very productive tract, carrying on his work along modern lines and being widely recognized as a prosperous and enterprising farmer. He married Miss Annie Mary Davidter, who was born in Prussia and came to the United States with her parents in 1846, the Davidter family being established in Bridgewater Township. Both of her parents are now deceased. In their family were three children: Justus Davidter, who died in Sharon Township; Henry; and Annie Mary, who became Mrs. Koebbe. Unto Mr. and Mrs. John H. Koebbe were born seven children: John F., now a resident of Saline Township; Sarah, who died at the age of five years; William, a carpenter of Manchester; Frank H.; Sophia, deceased; Sarah Katarina, living in Freedom Township; and Calvin Alfred, who resides upon the old homestead farm. The parents were both members of the Evangelical Association and were earnest Christian people, taking an active and helpful part in the church work. Mr. Koebbe served as class leader and trustee. His political support was given to the democracy and he served as school inspector and highway commissioner. Interested in all matters of public improvement, he gave active and helpful co-operation to various plans for the public good and throughout the community he was respected by neighbors and friends, making for himself a creditable name in business and social circles. He died August 14, 1879, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, while his wife passed away November 14, 1891, at the age of sixty-seven years.

Frank H. Koebbe was reared upon the home farm and attended the district schools. The occupation to which he gave his attention in youth he has made his life work. He resides on section 27, Freedom Township, where he owns eighty acres of rich and fertile land that annually returns to him good crops by reason of the care and cultivation which he bestows upon the fields. He is practical in his methods, systematic in all of his business affairs and by reason of his unflinching industry has met with very desirable success.

Mr. Koebbe was married in 1893 to Miss Mary Huehl, who was born in Freedom Township in 1860 and was a daughter of John Gearhart and Adeline (Schlicht) Huehl. The parents were natives of Germany and came to the United States about 1842, settling in Freedom Township. They had six children: Henry, who is living in Freedom Township; Benjamin, who is connected with the stove factory in Chelsea; John, at home; Lydia, the wife of Henry Voegeding, of Freedom Township; Mrs. Koebbe; and Clara, the wife of Calvin Koebbe, a brother of our subject, and a resident farmer of Freedom Township. Both Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Koebbe hold membership in the Evangelical Association and take an active part in the church work. He contributes generously to the support of the church, is acting as one of its officers and is superintendent of its Sunday-school. In politics he is a Democrat and for thirteen years served as justice of the peace, during which time his decisions were so fair and impartial that he won high encomiums from people of all parties. In 1905 he was elected supervisor of Freedom Township and is now serving on the finance and other important committees. He has been a member of the county democratic central committee and at various times has been chairman of the township committee. He is popular in Washtenaw County, being known as a good neighbor and loyal citizen, manifesting at the same time those traits of character which win warm personal regard.

Charles "Ron" Kuhl, 81, an area Manchester farmer, passed away at the Kuhl Family Homestead, on July 16, 2020. Ron was the fourth-generation to operate the farm that has been in the family since 1873. Farming was Ron's life and career starting at the age of ten years old to help with chores, milking and driving a team of horses. Ron was born on February 21, 1939 at the farm and remained in the home for the rest of his life. He was the son of the late Charles F. and Alta K. Kuhl. His elementary education included attending Rowes Corners School which is adjacent to the farm and was purchased by Ron to be a part of its property many years later. Ron graduated from Manchester High School with the class of 1957. He attended Michigan State University for a variety of short course agricultural studies. During the winter months he did sheep shearing in the Washtenaw County area for many years to come.

(Kelly) Newgord of Austin, Texas and Kurt M. Newgord of Racine, Wisconsin. His great nephews and niece include Marlo, Odin and Soren Newgord.

Ron is survived by many relatives, long-time farming friend Michael Hall, a long list of farming friends and acquaintances from the area and beyond. In later life, after the sale of the dairy cattle, Ron enjoyed traveling to Australia and New Zealand during which time he developed a group of friends that annually gathered at their area Midwest farms to share their farms and local interests. His travels included Alaska, Hawaii, Europe, China, Russia and areas of Central and South America; picking up friends along the way. Community Involvement was also part of his life as a 4-H member, leader and supporter for many years, helping with the Manchester Chicken Broil, Barn Quilts Committee, Manchester Fair, continuing his interest in Historic Barn Restoration and other community events. He was a Michigan state sheep shearing champion and Farm Bureau member.

More About Wilbur Whitworth and Susan Feldkamp:

Marriage: 1982

Children of Susan Feldkamp and Wilbur Whitworth are:

224 i. Sarah Jean⁸ Whitworth, born 19 Apr 1988 in Travis Co, Texas.

Notes for Sarah Jean Whitworth:

April 11, 2011 - Every time local writer Susan Feldkamp looked into her daughter Sarah Whitworth's eyes, she saw a perfect child. Whitworth was part of the school dance team, got straight A's, had a lot of friends and a good relationship with her parents. Feldkamp never anticipated the day when other people would stare at Sarah, not because she was a dancer but because she was starving, her muscles wasted away by severe malnutrition.

At 15 years old, Hays High School student Whitworth was diagnosed with anorexia nervosa and obsessive-compulsive disorder. Feldkamp said when Whitworth lost weight rapidly after a jaw reconstruction surgery in 2003, her family started to suspect she had an eating disorder. Whitworth could not eat much for a few weeks after the surgery and lost about five pounds in recovery, which was normal — the problem was that she kept losing. "There's a pattern with starting to avoid food," Feldkamp said. "You hear things like 'I don't have time to eat, I'll eat later,' or 'I'm going to go to Katie's house; she'll have food over there.'"

Whitworth remembers having her first abnormal thoughts about food one year before her surgery when she was in eighth grade and on the school dance team. Although she was never a big girl, being in a leotard around her peers made her feel extremely self-conscious. Intent on losing two pounds, Whitworth gave up chocolate for Lent, which started her self-imposed food restrictions. She said the time was particularly hard because her parents trusted her and didn't take action right away. "People would go up to them and say, 'Why are you not doing anything? You're sitting here watching your daughter starve herself,'" Whitworth said. "At the end of the day, it wasn't something they could control, and they couldn't have done a better job than what they did."

Despite the food restrictions, Feldkamp and her husband didn't take Whitworth's behaviors seriously until that summer when, in addition to her restrictions, Whitworth began to run for extensive periods every day in 100-degree weather. Feldkamp tried everything she could to get Whitworth to come inside, including following her in the car and talking to her on the phone while she ran, but nothing worked. Her mother soon learned Whitworth's route and began to leave cups of ice water along her trail so she would not get dehydrated. "I was terrified that I was going to wake up one morning, go into her room and find she was dead," Feldkamp said. "I hated the disease, and I loved her, and I wanted the daughter back that I knew and loved."

At home, Feldkamp said the family was always cautious and constantly worried about Whitworth. Whitworth would eat only one Popsicle after her runs, and the rest of her diet consisted of beef jerky, peanuts, salads, grapes and apples. After visits to a dietician and a therapist produced no improvement, Feldkamp and her husband, Gene Whitworth, took a resistant Sarah Whitworth to see local eating disorders specialist Edward Tyson in 2004. After an electrocardiograph exam, Tyson found that Whitworth's heart was damaged and had shrunk, a sign of severe malnutrition. People with small hearts have abnormal heart rhythms and are at risk for sudden death if the heart stops working.

Feldkamp and Gene Whitworth immediately began to work with Tyson to try to get Sarah Whitworth to accept her disorder and begin eating again to build up her heart muscles. "They were very scared at that point," Tyson said, who has spoken publicly with the family about eating disorders many times. "Their daughter was restricting tremendously and exercising voluminously, [but] they weren't just worried about her losing weight. They were worried about her dying." In the middle of Whitworth's treatment, the family's insurance company told Feldkamp they would no longer cover visits to Tyson because he was out of their Health Maintenance Organization network, a nationwide employer insurance system that sets up and provides a variety of doctors at a reduced price. The company also said it would not cover treatment because in Texas, eating disorders are not listed as a serious mental illness such as depression or OCD. The insurance company instead said it would cover costs for treating Whitworth's OCD, as long as she saw a psychiatrist within the company's network. After failed treatment with the psychiatrist, the family switched back to Tyson and paid for treatment out of pocket. Fueled by her uncontrolled running and restrictions, Whitworth's condition worsened, and in 2004, Whitworth passed out because of low blood sugar levels while driving her father's pick-up truck. She crashed the vehicle with her 11-year-old sister inside.

Gene Whitworth and Feldkamp took out $32,000 from their retirement fund and sent Sarah Whitworth to the Center for Hope, a specialized treatment center in Nevada not covered by their health insurance. Although the car accident convinced Whitworth she needed to get help, she fought the family at their hotel room in Nevada and forced her parents to physically remove her. "Once I got to the center, I told myself, 'Sarah, you're here and your parents are spending $900 a day to have you be here,'" Whitworth said. "Don't waste their money if you're not going to do it." Whitworth said she remembers her mother calling countless politicians, such as former Rep. Patrick Rose, D-Dripping Springs, and insurance companies to try and get coverage for her treatment. She said she felt inspired to recover when she saw her parents' determination.

Whitworth was at the center for 10 weeks and rejoined her family in November 2004. She has since recovered, graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and found a job in Florida. The family fought a long battle to get reimbursed by the insurance company and in the end, got back 15 percent of the $70,000 dollars they spent on Whitworth's treatment. After the reimbursement, Feldkamp went on to the Texas Legislature to fight for insurance coverage for eating disorders. She became an active member of the Austin Foundation for Eating Disorders, talking publicly about her struggles as a parent in hopes of inspiring parents to recognize the symptoms and get help early. "There are so many parents out there who are going down this road, and it's a very lonely road," Feldkamp said. "I want people to know that there is help available and that they should pursue it and not give up, even if the first doctor they go to doesn't know about eating disorders."

159. Mark Alan (Chow)⁷ Moehn (Arthur Frederick⁶, Carl John⁵, Anna Mathilda⁴ Davidter, Jobst Heinrich (Henry)³, Karl Friedrich² Ivengaertner-Davidter, Anton Friedrich¹ Ivengaertner) was born 11 Mar 1960 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 28 Jan 2014. He married Dawn Marie Willard 15 Sep 1990 in Jackson, Michigan, daughter of Ronald Willard and Joyce Conlon. She was born 24 Jul 1968 in Jackson, Michigan.

Notes for Mark Alan (Chow) Moehn:

South Bend - Mark Alan "Chow" Moehn, born on March 11, 1960, to Donna and Arthur Moehn, passed away suddenly from a cardiac event on January 28th, 2014. He lived in Jackson, Michigan, most of his life and for the last fourteen years lived in South Bend, Indiana. Mark was past President of Art Moehn Chevrolet. He began working there when he was old enough to carry a broom and worked every position from scrubbing cars at 14 years old to CEO at 30 years old. He married the love of his life (Dawn Marie Willard) on September 15, 1991, and had an amazing son on March 5, 1992 (Arthur James Moehn). He was a beloved son, brother, father, uncle, and great-uncle to many members of all of his extended family. Mark attended Frost Junior High and Parkside High School in Jackson, Michigan, where he played on the tennis team. He received his B. A. from Northwood Institute in Midland, Michigan. During the years he was in school he was an avid snow skiing and water-skiing competitor. He spent most of the winter weekends at Schuss Mountain and the summers at Wampers Lake and Clark Lake in Michigan, and Diamond Lake in Michigan outside of South Bend. As CEO of Art Moehn Chevrolet, he was very involved in community activities including the Soap Box Derby, Junior Achievement and Rotary. In 1994, he was stricken with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma which he courageously defeated after 2 years at the University of Michigan Hospital. After many setbacks and downfalls caused by the brain damage, he sustained from his cancer treatments, he moved to South Bend, Indiana, to be closer to his sister and her family. He surprisingly succeeded to a new life in South Bend, Indiana; he volunteered extensively with Granger Community Church and at Walt Disney School. He worked out at Knollwood Country Club and was a frequent (and I mean frequent) visitor at Putt-Putt Golf & Games. His family will be eternally grateful for the love and support of his Putt-Putt family. He served as an inspiration to everyone that he met by being outgoing, loving, and never worrying about himself. He had a smile that could light up an entire room, possibly even a building. He was always independent and was always too proud to ask for help, even after multiple medical issues disabling him from doing what he loved to do.

Mark is survived by his ex-wife, Dawn Willard Moehn; his son, Arthur James Moehn of Traverse City, Michigan; his sisters, Deborah (David) Tuttle of Granger, Indiana, Jacqueline (John) Kudner of Clark Lake, Michigan; nieces and nephews, Elizabeth (Derek) Kruas of Boulder, Colorado, Chris (Latisse Kudner), Courtney (Joel Bennett) Scott of South Bend, Indiana, Joe (Allison Hauflaire) Tuttle of Granger, Indiana; and great-nieces, Olivia Tuttle of Granger, Indiana, and Navi Kudner of Clark Lake, Michigan.

Mark's family will be receiving visitors on Tuesday, February 4th, in the evening from 7 to 9 at the Knollwood Country Club in Granger, Indiana. The Funeral Services will be held in Jackson, Michigan. The family is especially grateful to the staff at Tanglewood Trace Assisted Living for their support and care, and to Mark's special friends, Stacey Wickham, Sharon Kaseman-Munoz, Debbie Walton, Sue Miller, Gary Sisk, John and Sue Rice, and his many friends at his favorite place, Putt Putt Golf. Welsheimer Family Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.
