Notes for Dr. Sylvesta Marie (Sally) Wassum:

Dr. Sally M. Wassum, 91 of Macomb, died at 9:10 am Friday March 17, 2006 at Heartland Health Care Center in Macomb, Illinois. She was born November 26, 1914 in Tekamah, Nebraska to Sylvester A. and Friedericka C. Wisslicen Wassum. She is survived by one sister Dorothy Ellsworth of Dallas, Texas, and several nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by one sister Erma E. Bush.

She was a member of St. George's Episcopal Church, and served as a church director/organist in various congregations during her teaching career. Her educational background included the A.B. degree from Midland College, Master's in Music and Ph.D. from Northwestern University. She was the sixth woman in the United States to obtain a doctorate in music education. Her life-long career of teaching included public school vocal and instrumental supervision in Nebraska, Kansas and Wyoming. She held professorial appointments at the universities of Wyoming, Wisconsin, UCLA and Western Illinois University. Guest lectures and teaching assignments included the universities of Washington, Iowa and Illinois. For ten years, Dr. Wassum was textbook editor and editor in chief at Summy-Birchard Company, producers of the Birchard Music Series as well as publications of piano, choral, and instrumental music.

Post-doctoral research grants from UCLA and WIU enabled her to develop and complete the first longitudinal study of the child voice. The results and data from the study are on file in the Music Educators National Conference archives at the University of Maryland. She was involved in professional activities on a local and national basis, including the Faculty Senate, presidential merit awards committee, distinguished scholar lecturer committee, chairman of music education and the music graduate program. Professional and social memberships include Phi Kappa Phi, Delta Kappa Gamma, Music Educators National Conference, Mu Phi Epsilon, American Association of University Professors, Fortnightly Club, the Red Hat Club, and University Women. She served as state chairman of student MENC chapters. She was an enthusiastic worldwide traveler with special interest in studying art and religion. Her friends appreciated her widespread interests and sense of humor.

A memorial service will be held at 10:00 AM Wednesday at St. George Episcopal Church in Macomb. Father Edward den Blaauwen will officiate. Cremation has been accorded. Memorial Contributions may be made to St. George Episcopal Church of the charity of the donor's choice. Dodsworth-Piper-Wallen is in charge of arrangements.

April 8, 2005 - Sylvesta "Sally" Wassum, who was head of music education at Western Illinois University from 1970 to 1985, was honored Sunday at the Alumni House for her extraordinary work in the field of music education. The ceremony was planned by Western's chapter of the National Association of Music Education and was attended by a large group of Western faculty members and Macomb residents. It is fitting that this organization would honor Wassum as she served as state chair for MENC in 1998. During her time as chair, she helped increase the number of student chapters as well as student membership at Western's chapter by 50 percent.

Notes for Elayne Ada Launer:

Elayne Bloom went home to be with the Lord on April 2, 2018. She passed quietly at her home in Aledo, Texas with her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter in attendance. She was born on April 28, 1924. She was beautiful outwardly and inwardly, gracious and loved people. She treasured visitors and always made them feel welcome. As a young woman in her teens, she loved to sing and was asked to join a travelling band to which her mother wisely said no. She was an executive secretary most of her working life, but developed an interest in real estate sales and changed careers. She had a passion for decorating and creating, so her later years saw her in the business of designing and selling gift baskets to those who wanted "one of a kind". It was a good description of her as well.

She was a loving wife, losing her husband to a crop-dusting accident in 1961. She was a loving mother who stayed ever devoted to her daughter and a doting grandmother to her granddaughter. Active in Calvary Chapel, Simi Valley, California before moving back to Texas in 2017, she shared the wisdom of her years with the ladies of the Bible studies and worked to setup and decorate for events until it was no longer possible for her. Elayne was predeceased by her four brothers and leaves behind her daughter Traci Miller, granddaughter Layne Miller, son-in law Rick Miller and numerous nieces and nephews whom she loved staying in touch with.

Bless you, Mother, you will be missed beyond words. Memorial service will be held at Calvary Chapel Simi Valley, California on May 20th following Sunday service.

He married Julia Marie Price 24 Dec 1946. She was born 05 Feb 1922 in Colony, Kansas, and died 13 Jan 2016 in The Plains, Athens Co, Ohio.

Notes for Dr. George Roger Klare:

George R. Klare was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of George C. Klare, and Lea L. (Launer) Klare. He served as senior class president in North Bend High School in North Bend, Nebraska and graduated from that school in 1940. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska, where he studied before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942. He then took more college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following military and flight training, Klare served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England. On Dec. 31, 1944, he was shot down over Germany. He spent the rest of World War II in German POW camps. He was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably discharged as a First Lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

Klare later recounted his experiences as a prisoner of war in a chapter entitled "Questions" in Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment, published by Springer in 2004. In this extraordinary account, Klare tells how he narrowly escaped death three times on January 3, 1945. While on a railroad car en route to the Luftwaffe Interrogation Center, Klare survived a friendly-fire bombing in the rail yard in Fulda, Germany, the target on this third mission one week earlier. Klare and his crew were ordered by a German guard to remove packages from the Fulda freight station that was on fire from the Allied bombing. The guard then ordered the men out of the burning building just before it collapsed. A crowd of angry German civilians soon gathered near the collapsed freight station. The German guard, who was an English-speaking Luftwaffe captain, was armed only with a pistol. Yet he managed to hold off the mob and take Klare and his crew to a safe building. "I owe my life to him," Klare wrote. "He was the bravest man I ever saw."

After World War II, Klare earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947, and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After working for The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. It was during that period, he published, with Byron Buck, Know Your Reader: The Scientific Approach to Readability. This work introduced to the public the extensive research behind the popular readability formulas of the likes of Rudolf Flesch and Robert Gunning. The book showed the average reader in America was an "adult of limited reading ability," with half the population reading below the 9th-grade level. The readability formulas could be used to select and create literature and texts of different reading levels. Without appropriately graded texts, people will not read or improve their reading skill. His other books include Elementary Statistics (with P. A. Games), A Manual for Readable Writing, How to Write Readable English, and The Measurement of Readability. He also published 85 articles and book chapters.

Klare won a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. He also won the Best of Show award in the Journal Article Competition of the International Technical Communication Conference in 1978 and the Oscar S. Causey Award for Outstanding Contributions to Reading Research in 1981, and was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame of the International Reading Association in 1997. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as The Literary Dictionary. He is listed in Who's Who in America and was listed in the Fourth Edition of Who's Who in the World. In 1978, he was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959 to 1963, as acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1965–66 and in 1984–85, and as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966 to 1971. He was also acting associate provost for graduate and research programs from 1986 until his retirement in 1987.

Klare, and the late Lee L. (Launer) Klare. A 1940 graduate of North Bend, (Neb.) High School, he served as senior class president. Notes for Carol H. Watt:

Resident of San Mateo - Carol Watt Parker, age 81, passed away peacefully Saturday evening, April 25, 2009, with her four daughters by her side. Born in New York City in 1927, she grew up in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, and attended Carnegie Tech, where she met and married her husband of 37 years, Norman F. Parker. They moved to southern California in 1949, where she attended UCLA to finish her degree in chemical engineering. From Whittier, the family moved to Michigan for 2 years, then to Woodside in 1968. Carol was always involved in community activities, from Girl Scouts, PTA and Children's Home Society when her children were young, to worldwide organizations involved in exploring and preserving nature later in her life. She loved the outdoors, traveling extensively to see places throughout the world. She hiked and camped with enthusiasm. Her adventures included sports car rallies, skiing, and whitewater rafting. Never idle, even indoors, she was an accomplished seamstress, knitter, and pottery maker. She enjoyed both bridge and Yahtzee. Her biggest love, though, was horses. She was active in most of the local equestrian groups, both as a rider and a volunteer. She was known in the San Mateo County Horseman's Association, the Los Altos Hunt, Los Viajeros Riding Club, the Woodside Town Trails Committee, the Woodside Trail Club, Jack Brook Horse Camp and the Folger Stable project, for her lively participation and her strong support. Carol took life in stride and rose above many obstacles along her way. Alzheimer's was her biggest challenge- she retained only fragments of herself as the disease progressed. Her cheerfulness and her polite behaviors, as well as her enjoyment of music and her great fondness for ice cream, were the last to go and will be long remembered by those who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters and their husbands- Leslie and Al Sasuga of Bishop, California, Kerry and Rick DeBenedetti of Woodside, Sandy and Henry Garbowski of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Noel and Art Ortiz of Twain Harte, California, and 6 grandchildren and their spouses- Miles and Beth (Obenour) DeBenedetti, Alan DeBenedetti, Torey (Sasuga) and Carson Beach, Cabe Sasuga, Liana Garbowski and Michael Garbowski.

The family would like to thank everyone at Canyon House in Menlo Park, for their years of kindness and care. No memorial service is planned; Carol may be remembered through contributions made in her name to the Alzheimer's Association of Northern California.
