After graduating, he joined his mother (the first women automobile dealer in the United States) working at Ann Arbor Buick Service Company. The business was started by his father in 1923. The dealership was located where the bus depot now stands on Huron Street in downtown Ann Arbor. Two years later it moved a block west to the corner of Huron and Ashley into a three story Italianate building. The first floor was the showroom and parts department. Cars had to be brought up into the second floor to the service and repair departments by a giant elevator. Problems with the downtown building became acute in 1958 when the new Buick Roadmaster Limited proved to be too big to fit into the elevator. General Manager then, he began construction at a new location, 3165 Washtenaw, which opened in 1964, now the location of the Whole Foods Market shopping center. He sold the franchise back to General Motors in 1998 having participated in operating the business for nearly 75 years. The business was his life and he often took his only vacation to the National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA) or Michigan Automobile Dealer Associations (MADA) conventions. A winner of numerous awards and sales achievement records he began travelling around the world in receipt of those contests and gained a great love of travel and foreign culture.

He continued to travel in retirement having returned from a trip to Russia and northern Europe just one month ago. He served in the military as a veteran of the Korean War, being honorably discharged in 1960. As an avid golfer he often spent summer afternoons at Barton Hills Country Club where he was a life member having lived most of his life in Barton Hills Village. He was also a dedicated University of Michigan sports fan despite having graduated from Michigan State. He rarely missed a U of M football Saturday as a season ticket holder. He was a member of the Lion's Club, Bethlehem United Church of Christ and the Victor's Club. Walter was beloved by his many friends and was known for his generosity, kindness and humor throughout the community. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

The Visitation will be Tuesday, October 23rd from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, 403 S. Fourth Ave., Ann Arbor, Michigan and again Wednesday, October 24th at 10 a.m. at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, 432 S. Fourth Ave., Ann Arbor, Michigan. Steven Donald Eisele of Cadillac passed away Friday morning, June 25, 2021 at his home with his wife Nancy and his mother, Gert by his side. He was 67. Steven was born on January 6, 1954 in Ann Arbor, Michigan to Richard H. & Gertrude J. (Porter) Eisele. Steven loved to entertain and performed his solo act "Steven D and The Keys" at festivals, car shows and other community events. He was a talented musician and vocalist and was known for his ability to delight both young and old audiences with his interactive theatrics and toys to handout for the younger crowd. Steven's other passion was his love of the woods. He retired after 25 years as a Forest Technician with the Michigan DNR. He led a life of adventure, heading out west on his motorcycle after graduation, where he resided for 15 years fighting forest fires, working in the mountains and playing in rock and roll bands touring as far away as Alaska. Steven played many roles: as dedicated, loving husband, wonderful son, brother, uncle, Steven D the musician and "POPS" by his grandchildren. He battled cancer courageously for 14 years since his initial diagnosis; returning to work, pursuing his music and spending time with the love of his life, Nancy.
