Marriage Notes for Letha Fill and Dwight Edwards:

Lansing, Feb. 26, 1982 - Letha and Dwight Edwards today celebrate 65 years of a marriage that began with a resolve never to go to bed with an argument unresolved. "It's give and take that makes a marriage last; I think that's probably the best way you could put it. You can't always agree on things. But, if you argue, make up before you go to sleep," Edwards said. "You have to give a lot and take a lot," his wife agreed, when they were asked why their marriage lasted as it did. Edwards believes his wife's good cooking helped, but wasn't the most important thing. "The problem today," Edwards said, "is it's so damed easy for young people to fight a little bit and get a divorce. Seems like back at the time we were married, if you had an argument, you made it up. People (nowadays) don't know how to overcome their differences. You have to learn to talk it out."

He was 20 and she 19 when they were married in 1917 in the Lansing home of her parents, Ed and Lydia Fill. Edwards will be 85 on March 11 and his wife will be 85 on July 14. "We've seen an awful lot of change. Actually, we've gone from the horse and buggy days to the airplane," Edwards said, reflecting on their 65 years. "Oh, there's been so many improvements. It's been quite a transformation. Everything today is tied to machines, computers. Even farmers are using computers." Edwards was a farmer until he and his wife retired and moved to Grand Ledge in 1957. She was a saleswoman in the J.C. Penney and J.W. Knapp department stores. Asked what kind of a farmer he was, Edwards replied with a laugh, "A darned good one!" He said he raised milk cows before he turned to purebred Hereford cattle. "When we gave up raising cattle, we got the third highest price in the state the year we sold them," he said with pride. They lived in the Willow Highway farmhouse that had been home for Edwards since he was 10.

They have three daughters Frances Chapman of Houghton Lake, Ruth Kaylor of Eaton Rapids and Martha Eveleth of Lansing; eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. Edwards includes Ronald Lundeen who married great-granddaughter Shelli Shortz in Portland last summer.

Marriage Notes for Florence Stoll and Fred England:

Lansing - Among the many social affairs given in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Florence Stoll, was the dinner at which Miss Irene Dale was hostess, Thursday evening, Feb. 16, 1922, at her home on N. Capitol Ave. A bowl of sweet peas centered the table and a boutonniere of the same blossoms was at each place. The guest of honor received a large bouquet of sweet peas. The evening was spent informally. Mrs. Clifford Foster, of Grand Rapids, formerly Miss Sarah Kirby, of Lansing, was an out-of-town guest.

Lansing - Florence Stoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Howe, and Fred England, Jr., of Detroit, spoke their marriage vows Saturday evening Feb. 25, 1922 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 212 W. Hillsdale St., with Rev. G. W. Simon of the First Presbyterian church officiating at the ceremony. The Howe home was decorated with palms ferns, and tall standards of Columbia roses. The greenery was banked in the sun parlor to form the altar, while on either side were wicker baskets filled with pink roses and ferns. Smilax was wound about the staircase and in the archways, forming almost a bower of green through the lower part of the house. The bride wore a gown of white canton crepe with net overdress heavily embroidered in iridescent sequins, the design outlined with seed pearls. Her long tulle veil was arranged in cap effect, and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Columbia and sunburst roses, with orchid and white sweet peas, arranged in a huge colonial bouquet and held with a shower of lover's knot fashioned from narrow chiffon ribbon.

Attending the bride was Mrs. W. J. Clark, who wore a white satin gown, en train, and carried a colonial bouquet of roses, freesia, and sweet peas in pink and white, Little Miss Mary Jane MacKichan, who attended the door, wore a simple little frock of black pannevelvet, with black Bilk socks, and carried a quaint colonial bouquet of narcissus and roses. Robert MacKichan, the ring bearer, carried the ring in a pink Columbia rose. He wore a suit of black panne velvet and white silk crepe. Ralph England, of Detroit, attended his brother as best man. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Stoll, assisted by Miss Anna Bayha.

Following the ceremony and reception a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was laid in the dining room. It was centered with a low bowl of early spring blossoms, and lighted by pink candles, whose holders were bowed with pink tulle. The other guests were served in the rooms on the second floor where small tables were arranged, each bearing lighted candles in pink and white. During the ceremony and afterward through the reception hour, Harry Baumgras furnished harp selections. Mr. and Mrs. England left immediately after the ceremony for Chicago, and when they return will live at the Porter. Mr. England has accepted a position with the Durant Sales Co., of Lansing.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred England, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph England, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boerth, Howard Cook, Grant Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Foster, all of Detroit; Miss Louise Clemens of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John Moss of Indianapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carpenter of Clinton.

1187. Dr. Arthur Eugene¹³ Staebler (Eugene Immanuel¹², Johann Georg¹¹, Johann Friedrich¹⁰, Christina⁹, Christina⁸ Stollsteimer, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 03 May 1915 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 05 Mar 2007 in Clovis, Fresno Co, California. He married Helen Marquardt Williams 25 Jun 1940 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Robert Williams and Whilamine Marquardt. She was born 23 May 1916 in Columbus, Franklin Co, Ohio, and died 14 Apr 2007 in Sanger, Fresno Co, California.

Notes for Dr. Arthur Eugene Staebler:

Arthur E. Staebler (1948-1954) became the third director of the W.K. Kellogg Bird Sanctuary as the nation was recuperating from World War II. He repaired and upgraded much of what had fallen into disarray due to the lack of funds from the war years. Much of the restoration was done to areas that saw heavy visitor traffic and needed mending, not only for the visitors' sake but to stop erosion and further damage to the habitats of the birds as well. He was also able to create a new attraction; filling the empty cages that once housed non-native exotic birds with native quail, grouse and pheasants. During his time at the Sanctuary, Staebler was able to adapt a form of wing clip for use with ducks and geese and experimented with various traps and bird tags in order to increase the number of waterfowl that were banded and advanced the research studies of those involved. His techniques assisted in the development of new restrictions for hunting and fishing in the area.

Jan. 24, 1954 - One of those big, silent-flying snowy owls that periodically invade Michigan in search of food has been sighted by Dr. Arthur Staebler, director of the Kellogg bird sanctuary at Wintergreen Lake. The large white bird has appeared in the area of the lake twice in a two-week period. Dr. Staebler said. A winter migration of snowy owls from their arctic feeding grounds has occurred every four years since 1926, except in 1938 when the interval was three years. They usually turn up when there's a shortage of the mouse-like lemming, a rodent which serve as their main diet.

Captive Bird Died - Dr. Staebler said the sanctuary-had a live specimen of the imposing bird captured during the 1949 migration, but that it died last summer. Because our summers are too hot for them they are very difficult to keep in. captivity, he explained.

The white owls have had little experience with man and are quite unafraid, often coming into cities to perch on buildings and poles while searching for rats and mice. Since they make an easy target and are unprotected in Michigan by law, many of them are shot before they can return to their northern haunts. The National Audubon Society has asked all groups interested in wildlife conservation to help publicize the migration in the hope that the killing of the spectacular birds can be reduced. And two Michigan groups the Michigan Audubon Society and the Michigan United Conservations Clubs are working jointly on a state law to take hawks and owls off the predator list.

Dangerous to Capture - According to Dr. Staebler the snowy owl hunts for its food by day, unlike most owls, so that they are seen more often than those which roost in secluded spots during the daylight hours. "We would appreciate another live specimen," he said, but added that he did not "recommend walking up to one and grabbing it. Their talons are very sharp and they could be dangerous."

"The Foothill Advocate" Summer 2008:

In 1955 Dr. Art Staebler and his wife Helen moved to Fresno from Michigan with their three children (Bruce, Ann and Susan). Art taught ornithology and just about everything biological at Fresno State until his retirement in 1980. Two years after moving to Fresno, Art and Helen's youngest son Chad was born. The family moved onto 100 acres on the west slope of Black Mountain and that's where the children grew up. Health problems forced Art and Helen to move to a home in Clovis after his retirement, but they kept 60 of their original 100 acres.

Services for Dr. Art Stabler will be held on Saturday, March 17 at 11am at the United Japanese Christian Church located at 136 N. Villa, Clovis, California 93612. Dr. Stabler, emeritus profess of biology had just celebrated his 91st Birthday.

Arthur Eugene Staebler, who joined the AOU in 1935 and became an Elective Member in 1955, died on 5 March 2007 at the age of 91, at home, in Clovis, California. The oldest of three children, art was born on 2 May 1915 in Detroit and moved to Birmingham, Michigan, at the age of four. In highschool, he learned the natural sciences by collecting insects and birds for the Cranbrook Institute of Science. He graduated high school in 1933. Art majored in Zoology (B.A., 1938) at the University of Michigan (U of M), then immediately entered the graduate program there. He spent six months with a team of scientists in Chiapas, Mexico, where he collected animal specimens, many of received an M.S. in 1940.

Art met Helen Williams, of Columbus, Ohio, while at the U of M, and they married in 1940. Caught up in Art's love of nature, the day after the wedding, they traveled and honeymooned at the boys' camp, where he worked as a nature counselor. In 1943, they had twin girls, Ann and Susan. Their fourth child, Chad, was born in 1957 in Fresno, California. Helen, his wife of 67 years, outlived Art by about a month.

In November 1943, Art was commissioned as a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Public Health Service and was stationed in Miami, Florida. His assignment was tenure that alien insects that might pose public health or environmental risks would not enter the country. At the end of the war, Art was discharged and returned to U of M to pursue this Ph.D. in Ornithology. In 1949, he became director of the W.K. Kellogg Bird Sanctuary in Augusta, Michigan. Concurrently, he completed his doctorate, with a dissertation comparing the life histories of Downy and Hairy woodpeckers. IN 1955, Art became an Assistant Professor of Biology at Fresno State College (now California State University, Fresno). Until retiring in 1980, he taught courses in biology, ornithology, advanced ornithology, vertebrate natural history, vertebrate zoology, and vertebrate paleontology. He also developed and taught concentrated intersession classes in museum specimen preparation, waterfowl management, and desert ecology. During the turbulent 1960s and against a resistant administration, Art championed faculty personnel decisions based on qualifications and performance. Starting in the 1970s, he began a survey of vertebrate fossils, mostly in the hills west of the San Joaquin Valley. Ten, as an emeritus professor, he expanded this interest and discovered new species of mosasaurs and plesiosaurs.

Art was a captivating instructor. Students eagerly anticipated each new topic introduced with his trademark: "Imagine, if you will . . ." Flexible and generous with his time, Art was happy to administer students' independent studies. He chaired committees for 11 graduate students, whose work covered a wide range of subjects – regional floras, estuarine fish, freshwater fish, Great Blue Herons, White-crowned Sparrows, Sierra Nevada meadow avifauna, American Dippers, and food habits of deer and range cattle. In retirement, he chaired two committees for master's theses of paleontological subjects. Even late in life, at an assisted living facility, Art continued teaching by taking the other residents on field trips and otherwise sharing his knowledge and joy for living.

Art's participation in numerous projects and organizations was extraordinary. In addition to membership in the AOU, he also held memberships in the Wilson Ornithological Society and Cooper Ornithological Society. Among his many achievements in ornithology, he helped to develop and design a cannon-net trapping system for waterfowl and a waterfowl banding-identification system, and encouraged coordinated banding programs to address regional questions. He helped establish the Fresno Junior Museum (later "Te Discovery Center") and develop a bird sanctuary at Fresno's Woodward Park. Art's passion for the natural world will continue to be felt through the actions of the many educators and agency biologists he touched.

The following tribute is from Dr. Dick Haas, professor emeritus biology:

Arthur Staebler, emeritus professor of Biology died 5 March after a brief bout with pneumonia following a long battle with lymphoma. I spoke to Art a month or so ago when he called to discuss with me our views and knowledge about the nature of animal communication and how it differs from human language. I last saw him at the annual Christmas pot luck in the Biology Dept where we recalled the many times my students and I accompanied him in the field, often for many days at a time. Those days were in the 70's, to the both high and low Mojave deserts and to tree line meadows in the Sierra studying amphibians, reptiles, rodents and always any feathered creature we could observe. I learned from Art how to catch birds with "mist nets", band them, record their weights and measurements and release them with the hope of recapturing them in subsequent years. Or better yet, hearing from another bird biologist far away who had captured the same bird and noted it had been banded here in Fresno County. Later on his interests grew to include Mesozoic reptiles whose fossils were to be found in the Pinoche hills of the Valley's west side. On those field trips Art basked in his son Chad's special gift in spotting the smallest exposed bit of fossilized bone that betrayed the presence still hidden in the earth of fossils of ancient marine reptiles. The remains of such a fossil, a Mosasaur, discovered by Chad and Art and excavated by a crew of students and other faculty resides now as important specimens in the Museum of Zoology at UC Berkeley.

Art's long career as ornithologist and general all round field biologist included years as director of a major bird sanctuary in his home state of Michigan and long weeks collecting and banding birds in Mexico. Art came to Fresno State College in 1955 and in the beginning of his years here he was obliged to teach in areas of biology not his first love because faulty his senior had those classes sewn up. He took being relegated to such subordination with characteristic good humor, but when finally having the opportunity, he flew with his classes in ornithology and mammalogy.

Art was a kind, gentle, thoughtful teacher, one of those everyone in the department respected and admired. He seemed to be incapable of harboring any thoughts critical of any youngster in class or colleague in the coffee room. In the field he was indefatigable. I especially remember him scampering up and down the Pinoche hills as if in defiance of gravity with the rest of us groaning in his wake. He was inspirational and I thought he would live forever.

Art spent his last years as a resident of an assisted living facility in Fresno. The call to me to speak of animal communication was prompted by his continuing as a teacher even in that facility. He regularly held sort of senior citizen seminars there on topics such as biology of birds, ancient reptiles of California, animal reproduction and communication and what evolution is really about. To the end he was a teacher eager to share with others his love of our quest to understand how the natural world works. It was good to have known this fine man.

Notes for Helen Marquardt Williams:

Helen Marquardt Staebler - Together Again We miss you Mom and Dad, but find comfort in knowing you are again together. Both of you taught us so much in appreciating the world around us; we are grateful. Helen Marquardt Staebler was born on May 23, 1915, in Columbus, Ohio and died on Saturday, April 14, 2007, in Clovis, California. She was the daughter of Carl J. and Wilhelmine C. Kessie. After her father's death in 1916, her mother married Robert B. Williams. In addition to a new father, brothers, Robert M. and John M. were born in 1920 and 1924, respectively.

Helen was interested at a young age in wildlife and kept a collection of pet animals in boxes under her bed, including snakes and frogs. She attended Ohio State University and was accepted in medical school. Financial limitations of The Depression resulted in a change of her major and she earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree and Masters Degree in Parasitology. While at Ohio State she was a lab assistant and tutored students in biology, including Jesse Owens. In the fall of 1938 she went to the University of Michigan to pursue her PhD in Human Physiology. There she met Arthur Staebler.

They shared a love of the outdoors and the natural world, which would become a staple of the Staebler household. Their marriage was in June of 1940. Art was a counselor at a boys' camp run by his uncle, so Helen spent time during their honeymoon fly fishing with Mike, an English Setter, who was a wedding gift. While Art was completing his PhD after World War II, Helen worked in the placement office at the university. In 1955 they moved to Fresno, California where Art accepted a position as Assistant Professor of Biology at Fresno State College. Helen was active in the Faculty Wives Club and was a member of the Wolters Elementary School Board. After the family moved to Tollhouse she was president of the Sierra Elementary Mothers' Club and substitute taught classes K-12 in the Sierra Joint Unified School District. She was also active in voter registration in both Fresno and Tollhouse, and also recorded college textbooks for the blind. After Art's retirement they enjoyed trips to Germany, Austria, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand, Tahiti and Hawaii. The family is grateful for the loving care she received at Clovis Quality Care and from Saint Agnes Hospice staff. Helen was pre-deceased in March 2007, by Arthur E. Staebler her husband of 67 years.

She is survived by her children, son Bruce and his wife Kathy; daughter Susan; daughter, Ann Pardini and her husband Bob; son Chad and his wife Dianne; brothers and sisters-in-law, Robert and Marjorie Williams of Florida, and John and Judi Williams of Ohio, and their families; her grandchildren, Karen Calvert and her husband Jeff, Kris Anson and her husband Scott, Gary Staebler and his wife Christy, Richard Alex Staebler, and Christopher Staebler; great-grandchildren, Zachary Calvert, Hannah Calvert, and Tyler Anson. A Memorial Service will be held at the United Japanese Christian Church, 136 N. Villa Avenue in Clovis, California on Friday, May 4, 2007, at 10:00 a.m. Remembrances may be made to donor's favorite charity. NEPTUNE SOCIETY of Central California Cremation - Memorial Chapel.

1192. Theodore James (Ted)¹³ Heusel (Talitha Amanda¹² Staebler, Johann Georg¹¹, Johann Friedrich¹⁰, Christina⁹, Christina⁸ Stollsteimer, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 26 Dec 1920 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 27 Apr 2007 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Nancy Ann Born 28 Dec 1955 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 23 May 1931 in York, Pennsylvania, and died 12 Nov 2023 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Theodore James (Ted) Heusel:

Heusel, Ted Ann Arbor, MI Ted was victoriously resurrected through the promise of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in the early morning of April 27, 2007. Although Ted had courageously turned away cancer for the last seven years, it never personified the man he was. Called by many, "Mr. Ann Arbor", for his numerous contributions to the town he loved, Ted was also a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and friend to all who had the joy of talking with him.

Born on December 26, 1920 to Fred and Talitha, and the youngest of three brothers (Dick and Sherwood), Ted inherited the family commitment to community involvement. In his early years, Ted and his "Dewey Gang" spent many days playing ball and learning important lessons of friendship and community that would bind them together for the rest of their lives. Ted always remembered his early days in Ann Arbor with great fondness. Whether it was sleeping on the screened porch and listening to the sounds of the Glen Miller Band fill the air from the Intramural Building, stealing cookies from the family's bakeries downtown, or impressing the girls at Ann Arbor High with his dramatic flare and baritone voice that would become a hallmark of his later professional life, Ted loved Ann Arbor and Ann Arbor grew to know and love Ted.

It was in college at Michigan Normal (EMU today), however, where Ted discovered his passion for the theater. Never tiring, Ted also found time to play varsity basketball and lead trombone in a big band. In 1948, Ted began working part-time as a radio disc jockey at WPAG while attending graduate school in Theater and Speech at The University of Michigan. After earning his Masters, and while taking courses for his Ph.D. in 1952, Ted was offered a job as a full-time radio broadcaster at WOIA. Not content to be another disc-jockey, one day Ted asked visitors to call in and express their opinions regarding a presidential poll. On that day, talk radio was born, and Ted would later refine the format and become the longest running talk show host in America - a career that would span 55 years on radio stations WOIA, WPAG and WAAM and earn him induction into the Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame.

His guests would include some of the most colorful and notorious people of the time, including his famous prison interview with James Earl Ray. Ted, however, always tried to keep his program focused on the community's concerns by bringing local public figures into the studios for interviews and to answer questions from the listeners. As he would often point out, "this was the only place that any person of any color, nationality or creed could express their views and complaints." Ted also used his public platform to achieve much good in the community. Throughout the 1990s, Ted's annual holiday drive raised over 15,000 Teddy Bears for local children. Even after being diagnosed with cancer in 2000, Ted would continue his program through all of his treatments and surgeries right up until the last few weeks of his life. Even after his most recent battle, Ted could be heard from his hospital bed with his cherished friend Lucy Ann Lance. Ted also contributed enormously to Ann Arbor's drama community. With his wife Nancy, to whom he was married for 52 years, the couple became quite a dramatic team. Nancy, a young professional actress from Washington D.C., and Ted, a more mature director of various professional theater programs soon fell in love and shared their love of the theater together producing shows for the Saline Mill Theater, the Ann Arbor Civic Theater, Ann Arbor Drama Season, The University, St. Andrew's Players and countless other groups they lent their talents. They would continue their love of the theater throughout Ted's life.

Ted was also greatly involved in civic activities, serving on numerous commissions, committees, and boards, including serving as President of the Ann Arbor Public Schools Board of Education during the turbulent early 1970's. One of Ted's lasting legacies from his Board of Ed. days was that he insisted that Pioneer and Huron compete on the athletic field - an idea that was controversial at the time. In his honor, the annual Pioneer/Huron football game was renamed "The Ted Heusel Bowl".

Despite all of his public achievements in life, and beyond all else, Ted would always tell you that his greatest achievements were his children, Michael, who preceded him in death (Cindy), Lydia Sattler (Lynn), Jennifer (Ken), and Mark (Trish), and his grandchildren, Nisha, Sara, Ben, Giselle, David, Quinn, Thye, and Marin. Ted also had countless family members and friends that will remember him as not only "Mr. Ann Arbor", but a man who loved what he did, loved the community that afforded him such wonderful opportunities, and most of all, loved his family. The public is welcome to join the family in celebration of Ted's life on Sunday, April 29, from 4 p.m. - 8 p.m., Monday, April 30, from 5 p.m. - 8 p.m., at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, and services at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church on May 1 at 2 p.m.

Notes for Nancy Ann Born:

Nancy Heusel of Ann Arbor, Michigan peacefully passed into eternal life through the promise of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in the early evening of November 12, 2023. Known throughout her life as possessing an energetic passion for the theater, as an actress and director, Nancy shared her love of (as she described it) "play-making" with her husband Ted for over 50 years. Never allowing herself to be typecast on the stage or in life, she continuously pushed boundaries and created sympathetic ingénues, devious protagonists, revered heroes, and even an anchoress. Nancy remained on the stage well into her 80's. Her final call is best described by her favorite poet, Emily Dickinson, who wrote: "Because I could not stop for Death – He kindly stopped for me."

Born in the spring May 23, 1931 to Hilda and George Born, Nancy grew up in York, Pennsylvania with her parents, older sister (Madeline) and countless aunts and uncles, whose ancestors settled along the east coast in 1633. Nancy's talents as an actress and pianist were discovered at an early age and encouraged by her mother. The Born family relocated to Washington, D.C. after World War II broke out; a city Nancy would always love and remember as the most exciting place to be during those years. Nancy earned her Actor's Equity Card at the young age of 18 doing summer stock, and she pursued another adventure when she chose to attend the University of Michigan as a theater major. It was there that she met Ted, who had cast her in one of his professional shows, and this began a partnership on and off the stage that would span 6 decades. Nancy left for Broadway shortly after graduating from UM, but Ted was able to lure her back to Ann Arbor with the promise of an exciting opportunity in a new summer theater in Saline. They married in 1954, the same year they did their first show together for the Ann Arbor Civic Theater; a community theater group that was very important to Nancy throughout her life and where she was honored with a lifetime achievement award in 2019. Ted's and Nancy's theater careers ran in parallel and were always connected by the love they shared for their 4 children, who caught the "theater bug" early in life. Nancy's enduring legacy, however, will be remembered not for the countless roles she played, but for the fierceness in which she loved her children (Michael (Cindy), Jennifer, Lydia (Lynn) and Mark (Trish)), 10 grandchildren (Sara (Brian), Ben (Tina), David, Giselle, Quinn, Thye (Taylor), Nisha, Marin, Samuel and Lincoln), and 8 great grandchildren (Bethany, Michael, Brandt, Ruby, Sunny, Rhyelle).

In addition to her family, Nancy would have considered her greatest contributions to be her decades' long relationships with Greenhill's School, where she shared her gifts with drama students for over 40 years, and St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, where she served as the Director of Christian Education for over 45 years and introduced a theatrical ministry. Ted and Nancy began attending St. Andrew's in the early 1950's and remained lifelong members. They founded a theater program in the 1980's known as the St. Andrew's Players, where they brought in notable actors to perform liturgical dramas in the sanctuary. Nancy continued to direct and produce shows for the theater program until she was nearly 90. Nancy was always in the hunt for a performance venue, whether it was summer stock in Maine, Arts Theater, the Trueblood, Lydia Mendelson, the Power Center, the Michigan Theater, Performance Network, the Arthur Miller Theater, or the Michigan League Dinner Theater, which she organized as a fundraising opportunity to support the continuing legacy of the Michigan League, a place very close to her heart: if a stage could be erected, Nancy would create a captivating experience. And, so she was in her life, to her children and the scores of people she inspired. Nancy was preceded in death by her son, Michael and husband, Ted. The public is welcome to join the family in celebration of Nancy's life on Sunday, November 19, from 3 p.m. – 7 p.m. at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, and services will be held at St Andrew's Episcopal Church on Monday, November 20, at 11 a.m.

Marriage Notes for Theodore Heusel and Nancy Born:

York Pennsylvania - Nancy Ann Born became the bride of Theodore James Heusel, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, on Dec. 28, 1955 at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Ann Arbor. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hilda I. Born, 729 West Princess Street, and the late George Martin Born. The double ring ceremony was by candlelight and followed a Christmas motif, and the bride's brother-in-law, Dwight Roger MacNaughton, Detroit, gave her in marriage. Mrs. Heusel's bridal gown was of white Chantilly lace of waltz length, and her shoulder-length illusion veil was held by a bonnet headdress. She carried a cascade of white roses and pompons. Attending her was her sister, Mrs. MacNaughton. Her ballerina-length gown was of white net and red taffeta, and she wore an ivy headpiece and carried red poinsettias. Richard Heusel, Ann Arbor, was best man for his brother, and ushers were Richard Heusel, Jr., the bridegroom's nephew, and William Taylor, both of Ann Arbor. Mrs. Born attended the ceremony in a blue nylon dress with white trim and a white beaded hat. Mrs. Fred Heusel, the bridegroom's mother, chose a pink and, gray dress with a pink hat. Both mothers had pink camellia corsages.

The bride was graduated from University of Michigan. Her husband is an alumnus of Michigan State Normal college, and received a master's degree from the University of Michigan. He is director of the Ann Arbor Civic theater, and the couple will reside in Ann Arbor.

He married Beverly Joan Buckingham 31 Jul 1946 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 22 Jul 1927 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 04 Feb 2001 in Jackson Co, Michigan.

Notes for Frederick Gustav Spiess:

This year marks the 75th anniversary of The United States' entrance in to World War II. The six million Depression Era American men and women who fought in this war are dwindling fast. They are rightly called the “Greatest Generation”, and on May 20, 2016 we lost another one of the Greats: Frederick Gustav Spiess, age 93, resident of Manchester passed away at Henry Ford Allegiance Health. He was born on January 18, 1923 in Dexter, Michigan the son of Herman and Amy (Keen) Spiess. He was raised on the family farm West of Ann Arbor on Spiess Road (named after Herman). Fred loved telling his children about growing up on the family farm with humorous stories about the necessity of “making do” during the Depression. Fred would reminisce that he never plowed with a tractor during those hard-economic times, only with horses, and liked to show visitors the horse drawn plow he received on his 14th birthday and had kept throughout the years. He also enjoyed giving humorous and descriptive accounts of his neighbors and fellow students from the one-room schoolhouse he attended. Fred was drafted into the Army in 1942, shortly after the attack on Pearl Harbor, and served in Europe. He was about 20 miles outside Berlin, Germany when the war in Europe ended. After the war, Fred returned to Ann Arbor and married Beverly Buckingham who preceded him in death in 2001 after 54 years of marriage.

Fred spent most of his working career at various factory jobs, including Ford Motor Company where he eventually retired from in 1985. He also spent many years working at Double A Products in Manchester.

Throughout his life Fred loved buying old cars, machinery and clocks that didn’t work, taking them apart and repairing them. He almost always found a way to give them new life. Fred enjoyed the history of his antiques as much as the actual tinkering, and was able to recite detailed facts about his toys. He also loved giving life to a good story and making people laugh. He would often say, with a twinkle in his eye and his classic silly grin, “Never let the facts get in the way of a good story.” Fred’s great joy was providing for his family. We had horses to ride instead of work with, we went on cross country camping trips, and Mom sometimes drove convertibles. There were bicycles, motorcycles, go carts and boats to play with, hardly ever new, but more meaningful because they ran by the grace of mechanical ability and skilled hands.

Fred is survived by his sons: Roger, Mickey, Dan and Tim, their wives, Cathy, Joyce, Susie and Kathy; 5 grandchildren: Jeff, Donna, Ann, Katie and Tressy, 9 great grandchildren; and brother: Louis Spiess. Fred leaves a legacy of humor, kindness, cheerfulness and love. His memory will live on the hearts of his family. Fred will be remembered as a truly “Great Man.”

Fred’s family greeted friends on Thursday, May 26, 2016 at the Borek Jennings Funeral Home, Legacy Event Center, Manchester. Gathering continued on Friday at the funeral home beginning at 10 am until the time of service at 11 am with the Reverend David Bucholtz officiating. Interment Norvell Township Cemetery. In Fred’s honor, memorial donation may be shared with the Cardiac Universal Bed Unit, c/o Henry Ford Allegiance Health Foundation, 205 N. East Avenue, Jackson, Michigan 49201.

Notes for Steven Lee Diuble:

Sept. 9, 1994 - Trigger is at the top of his game. No Australian terrier has won more in the United States this year than he has. Champion The Farm's Trigger Happy, a 3-year-old owned by handler Steve Diuble of Saline and breeder Sheila Dunn of Grass Lake, beat 14 champions in breed at the Westminster Kennel Club Show at Madison Square Garden in February. Trigger, who stands 11 inches tall and weighs 18 pounds, is competing Saturday in the Saginaw Valley Kennel Club All-Breed Dog Show & Obedience Trial and Sunday in the Livonia Kennel Club All-Breed Dog Show & Obedience Trial. Diuble can't say enough about the blue and tan terrier: "Trigger's an ambassador for the breed. He's got a wonderful temperament. He's very loving and affectionate, outgoing and sensible. He's a fun show dog, He's very animated in the ring, but not hyperactive." Trigger's also being worked in obedience by Dunn, and Diuble said he will compete for a Companion Dog obedience title next year.

Diuble and Dunn also own Trigger's dad, Champion The Farm's Free Style, the nation's top Australian terrier in 1989-90. Freebie, 9, has sired 25 champions. "This is a big dog in a small package," Diuble said of the breed. "They're very adaptable. They can live in an apartment or on a farm. They require minimum grooming and are a very sturdy, healthy breed on the whole. They live 12 to 16 years." The standard was established in 1896 in Australia, where it is a working breed. "They controlled rodents and killed snakes there," said Diuble, who is publicity chairman of the Ann Arbor Kennel Club and the accounting manager for First of America Bank. Australian terriers were recognized by the American Kennel Club in 1960 and are judged in the Terrier Group. American Kennel Club statistics show only 36 dogs and 17 litters were registered in 1994.

1289. Doris Blaess¹³ Smith (Emma O.¹² Blaess, Martha Maria Dorothea¹¹ Horning, Friedrich Carl (Fritz)¹⁰, Christina Katharina⁹ Stollsteimer, Jakob Friedrich⁸, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 31 Mar 1925 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 04 Apr 2021 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Howard J. Buettner 22 Jun 1946 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of William Buettner and Hattie ?. He was born 20 Aug 1921 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 18 Jan 1984 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Doris Blaess Smith:

Doris Blaess (Smith) Buettner passed away on Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021, at her residence with her daughter at her side. Doris was born in Saline, Michigan on March 31, 1925 to Carl and Emma Smith. Doris graduated from Saline High School. Her parents preceded her in death as well as her brothers, Harold (in infancy) and John. She was raised in the Lutheran faith at Trinity Lutheran Church and was currently a member at Redeemer Evangelical Church in Ann Arbor.

Doris married Howard J. Buettner in 1946 and together they welcomed two daughters, Pamela and Trudy. Doris's greatest tragedies were the loss of her husband and daughter, Trudy.

Most of her life Doris was a homemaker whose clean house was always sparkling and the food was extremely delicious. She was also an avid vegetable gardener. Howard was employed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Doris joined with other wives in a group called the Fish Wives for years. Howard and Doris were founding members of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Doris finally convinced Howard to travel and they made trips to Europe and Hawaii. After Howard's passing, Doris made it a point to continue her worldly travel by joining the Jackson Trippers and a Pittsfield Township senior group to see the world. Much appreciation goes to Lucinda and Karen Fleckenstein for working out the ability of their bridge group bunch to meet for many years: Francis Spelman, Barb Rolfe and Lucinda who was the self-appointed chauffeur as the women aged. Additional thanks to Doris's next-door neighbor on Agincourt, DJ Johnson, who took care of her home maintenance and looked out for her. And lastly, special thanks to the Brookhaven staff and the Arbor Hospice team who provided help and guided the family to the end.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, April 14, 2021 at 3:30 pm before the funeral service at 4:00 pm at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 1360 Pauline Blvd, Ann Arbor, MI 48103. Light refreshments will be served in the next door building prior to the service. Masks and social distancing will be observed. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, attendance limitations may apply as the church can have up to 50 people. Memorial contributions may be made in Doris's honor to Redeemer Lutheran Church or to Arbor Hospice. In sadness, Doris will not be able to see her beloved magnolia tree bloom this year nor will her daughter, Pamela continue to receive the daily call to double check that she is okay.

He later coached wrestling and taught at Pioneer High, before buying Stein and Goetz Sporting Goods, which would later become the M-Den. Two of Doug's greatest loves were softball and golf. He played fastpitch softball for a number of years before devoting himself to coaching his daughters and countless others. In 1997, Doug was named to the Michigan ASA Softball Hall of Fame for his meritorious service. His love for the game continued into his retirement years as he gained yet another softball family playing near his home in Florida. He loved golf, and spent much of his time on the course with family and friends, whether it was in Ann Arbor, or on his beloved yearly golf trips with his closest friends in Las Vegas. Though his life and business revolved around sports, the true center of his being was his family and friends. He was a man of integrity and generosity, always devoting himself to others. Notes for Barbara Ann Horning:

My name is Barbara (Horning) Shannon and we are distant cousins. My brother is David Horning and we both live in the Atlanta, Georgia, area (and both work at Emory University--David in the Hospital and myself in the College of Arts and Sciences--Biology Department), but we grew up in Ann Arbor. I have been using your information in the published volumes of our German ancestors, which is very interesting, as I am in the process of assembling my own ancestry books (which are turning into photo albums). I was stationed twice in Germany (I am retired U.S. Army, SSG/E-6) but did not have this information at that time, or I would have looked up our relatives! Thank you very much for all of your work in putting that together, as well as your history of the German settlers in the Ann Arbor area. Also very interesting.

My father, Norman Julius Horning, passed away at age 93 on October 24, 2016, after an unexpected medical condition (aortic aneurism, successful surgery, and then succumbed to CDIF and Sepsis infections). He is the son of Martha (Furthmueller) (Horning) Hoeft and Julius Horning, if you would like to update your information. David and I were in Ann Arbor in mid-July, as we had my father's burial (at Washtenog Memorial Park, next to my mother, Gena Irene (Inman) Horning) on July 14th, a graveside service for him on July 15th which included a 21-gun salute (he was a World War II Veteran and participated in the Battle of Normandy) by the Washtenaw County Honor Guard, and a celebration of life (in conjunction with our annual family reunion at Murray Lake in Ann Arbor) for my father, his sister Doris (Horning) (Stevenson) Bowling (who passed away in April of 2016), and Aunt Esther (Stevenson) Agner (not blood related to us but has always been part of the family and is Aunt Doris's first husband Lester's (Bud) twin sister and Doris's best friend). I also saw Edward Gebhardt (my cousin and GodFather; his wife Virginia passed away a few years ago) and Joan Gebhardt while in Ann Arbor (the wife of Fred Gebhardt who also passed away unexpectedly in the same 8 month time period, in addition to our cousin Nancy Lutz (can't think of her married name). Joan also has an ancestry book of her own, in addition to your published volumes, so your material is being put to good use, even though you did all of the hard work! Well, I just wanted to say hello and to connect with you via FaceBook. I hope you will accept my friend request. Sincerely, Barbara Kathryn Louise Kean, 83, of Dansville died July 16, 2017. Arrangements by Skinner Funeral Home, Lansing Chapel. Private family services will be held at a later date.

July 20, 2017 - Townsend - A fire at a horse farm Sunday that claimed the life of an employee and destroyed a barn has prompted the creation of three web pages seeking donations. The mother of Shala Kean, the 32-year-old victim who died in the fire at Friesians of Majesty Farm, is seeking funds to bring her daughter home to Michigan for burial. And an employee at the horse farm where the fire occurred is hoping to rebuild the barn, which was uninsured and estimated to be worth $1 million.

"Today my mother Kay Kean passed way in [Michigan] and a few hours later the police were at my door to inform me that my daughter Shala Kean was in a fire and did not survive in Vermont," Kimberly Kean Petrie wrote on a GoFundMe page on Monday. "This all happened within hours of each other. I am at a loss for words." Detective Sgt. Larry Smith of Vermont State Police Fire Investigation Unit, said Shala was living at the farm and was an employee at the time of her death. "She was not living in the barn that caught fire but in the main residence," Smith stated in a press release. "The cause of death and fire are still being investigated and any updates will be forthcoming."

Shala had been working at Friesians of Majesty since the spring, according to owner Robert Labrie. Petrie said her daughter was an "avid horse person" who graduated from Colorado State University after studying animal science and equine production. "Her life revolved around horses," "She loved animals and now she is with Bucket, her boxer that she had to put down two months ago." Petrie said she needs to bring Shala back to Michigan so Shala can be buried with her grandparents. Shala did not have any savings, according to her mother. Within two days, the goal of raising $5,000 had been surpassed. By noon Wednesday, 103 people had donated $5,305. Comments of support were pouring in. "I'm so sorry for all the pain you're going through," wrote Michelle Grogan. "Wish there were words that would take away the sorrow you are going through," wrote Johnny and Maryann Walker. "Our prayers are with you all." "May Shala's family feel the love and comfort from the community," wrote Brenda Young.

Barn rebuilding efforts are underway. The barn, which was used for breeding purposes, held about $25,000 worth of supplies and equipment, all of which was destroyed, according to Labrie. Jo Bunny, a massage therapist, created a page at gofundme. The goal is to raise $500,000 for the purpose of rebuilding the barn. Another page, set up by Friesians of Majesty employee Aneliese Gibson, can be found at gofundme.com. About $2,700 had been donated to this page by noon on Wednesday. The money is to be used on supplies needed to care for the horses. "The staff at Friesians of Majesty is devastated, but we need to stay strong and take care of the 100 horses that still rely on us every day," Gibson wrote. "As an employee of the farm, it's been difficult to keep up with the needs of the horses with our limited supplies."

Labrie told the Reformer no hay had been stored in the barn at the time of the fire. He said neighbors had been generous with water and other items were donated from supporters, and that volunteers were helping out on the property. About nine fire departments had responded to the fire, bringing about 30 tanker trucks to help supply water at the scene. The call came in at about 12:30 a.m. Sunday, according to Townshend Fire Chief Doug Winot, who lives roughly 200 yards from the farm. "When I got on scene, I went to a second or third-alarm and within three minutes, we struck a five-alarm," Winot had told the Reformer at the fire. Donations can also be sent directly to the farm to the owner Robert Labrie, Friesians of Majesty, 185 Maggie Ladd Rd., P.O. Box 527, Townshend, Vermont 05353.

Notes for Harlan Lowell Whipple:

Delta Twp. July 17, 1999 - The Anderson Dairy Barn stands as a symbol of the past, but it soon will be part of Woldumar Nature Center's future. This fall the center will use the barn to help children understand where the food on grocery-store shelves comes from. "We have everything here to teach about the history of agriculture and its importance today," Lori McSweeney, Woldumar executive director, said Friday.

The late Gladys Olds Anderson gave 188 acres of land and buildings to the Nature Way Association, Woldumar's founder, for use in environmental education and preservation. Just five miles west of downtown Lansing on Old Lansing Road, the nature center offers five miles of hiking and cross-country ski trails, wetlands, rivers, a forest and new pond, indoor displays and environmental education programs for children, adults and organizations. The Anderson Dairy Barn is the first project identified on a new plan for the center's continued growth. Barn restoration work, set at $15,000 in private donations, labor and materials, is under way. A new roof for the barn and attached bull pen should be finished Tuesday. "This is an old plank-frame barn and one of the straightest barns I have ever worked on it was built right," said Harlan Whipple of Harlan Whipple Construction Co. of Mason. Whipple knows a good barn when he sees one. He rehabilitates 30 to 40 barns a season and has for the past 45 years.

General Motors Corp. job bank workers are re-creating barn doors and closing up holes around the foundation to keep wildlife out. Once a fire-retardant paint is on the walls, the building will change from a storage building to classrooms with special demonstration and reception areas. With 14,000 school children visiting Woldumar from September to June and 600 enrolled in the summer Camp Discovery, the new barn space is needed. Bill Kimball, a founder of the Michigan Barn Preservation Network and a barn rehabilitation expert, remembers well when the Anderson Barn was a working dairy operation in the 1950s.

"What makes this barn special is its gambrel roof with two slopes in the roof line," he said. "This type of construction provides more room for hay storage." Kimball describes Michigan's disappearing barns as icons of our agricultural heritage. "Today barns can serve many purposes, including commercial, residential and public uses," he said. Woldumar follows this trend.

Notes for Russell Wayne Whipple:

Mason, Dec. 23, 2006 - A fight at a popular bar has resulted in criminal charges against City Councilman Russell Whipple and his father. The most serious charge is against Whipple's father, Dennis Whipple, who is accused of trying to strangle a woman. Mason Jar Pub and Grub owner Ron Sheele said he believes the charges against Dennis Whipple resulted from a misunderstanding at his bar. "He was just a guy who tried to break up a fight, and he ends up with the bad end of the stick," Sheele said. "I've known him all my life. He would never hurt a lady."

This is what happened the night of Dec. 8, according to a written statement that Mason police issued late Friday: When police arrived at the Maple Street bar, witnesses and participants told them a fight between two women that began inside the bar had ended up outside. During that fight, Julie Powers of Mason assaulted the other woman. Dennis Whipple, a longtime Mason volunteer firefighter, intervened and tried to strangle Powers. As police tried to calm things down and interview participants, the statement said, Russell Whipple a former Mason mayor, and Dennis's son threatened one of the women. Russell Whipple is charged with the misdemeanor of interfering with a police investigation. His father is charged with felony assault.

Russell Whipple declined to answer questions Friday, saying "It's an open police investigation, an open court case I can't comment." A woman answering the phone at Dennis Whipple's home referred requests for comment to his attorney, who was out of town. Powers is charged with misdemeanor assault and battery. She did not return a message left Friday at her home. On Friday, police would not answer questions about the incident. Mason police Sgt. Ed Hude said the information was not released earlier because prosecutors had been deciding whether to file charges.

Notes for Paul Owen Malewski:

Eaton Rapids - The city elected a new mayor Tuesday. Unofficial election results from the city's three precincts show former Eaton Rapids Police Chief Paul Malewski, 59, received the highest number of votes at the polls. Malewski, who retired in 2013 after 30 years with the police department, received 498 votes, according to results reported by the Eaton County Clerk's office Tuesday night. Malewski said he couldn't have asked for a "better opponent" than Platte, who he said ran a kind and fair campaign. Malewski said his first order of business as mayor will be to meet with city department heads to determine what kind of support and help they need. "I think that's important right at the start, to ask them what we can do to help them serve residents," Malewski said.

She married Robert Lee Daniels 21 Dec 1950 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Warren Daniels and Gertrude Storms. He was born 10 Mar 1929 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 01 Sep 2012 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Margaret Jane (Marjorie) Ferguson:

Marjorie Daniels, 84, is a lifelong Resident of Chelsea. She has decided to close her antique store on Main Street after 25 years. An auction of her merchandise will begin at 10 a.m. May 28. Marj, as she likes to be called, is the widow of Chelsea Lumber owner Bob Daniels and the mother of actor Jeff Daniels.

The couple lived in New Jersey, staying in Bayonne and Woodbury, before the Navy transferred Bob to Athens, Georgia. Life was good there as Bob was an instructor at the Supply Corps School. When his discharge came, they thought about staying in the south, but the call from Chelsea was too much for them. The couple came back to town as Bob worked for the lumber business and Marj became a homemaker. "We liked it here," Marj said.

Marj said she saw the potential Chelsea had and organized many fundraisers that involved bringing the first fashion show, first home tours and a 4-H club the Fair Acres, to town. The young couple began to take an active role in the affairs of the community.

In 1961, Bob, at 31 years old, was the mayor. During this time Marj entered the Mrs. Michigan contest and came in second. She was told she lost because her family was so young at the time (Jeff (the actor) was 5, Jody was 2 and John 1); the winner's children ranged in age from 8 to 18. During those years she was judged on her homemaking talents, community involvement and what kind of marriage she had. Marj maintained her community involvement and when the Chelsea Community Hospital opened in the 1960s, she was a buyer for the gift shop for nearly 12 years. After that she worked with a friend who owned her own antique store. "I put two and two together and decided to open my own shop," Marj said.

Son John had purchased the former Sylvan Building which had fallen into disrepair. He renovated the building, transforming what had once been home to the Sylvan Hotel into a mix of retail space and professional offices.

Her family's impact on the community is well known with Jeff opening the Purple Rose Theatre to Chelsea as well as helping with the Chelsea Center for the Arts. Husband Bob and a friend are credited with bringing Craig Common from his job as a corporate chef in Ann Arbor to opening a restaurant downtown. "He was only going to stay 13 years, but he's been here for 27," Marj said. Chelsea has always possessed a progressive streak and it has kept that spirit alive today, she said. She appreciates the growth and new buildings that are popping up all over town.

But that meant an active and involved local government. "There isn't a street without a curb today," Marj said, crediting the village and city councils for keeping the town's appearance up. "They do a really good job." The local schools are another feather in the town's cap as it reflects the area's forward-thinking tendencies, she said. "We have always been progressive, never going backwards," Marj said. Don't expect to find Marj at the auction. "It would bother me to see items for less than I paid for it," she said.

Notes for Robert Lee Daniels:

Robert L. Daniels age 83, died unexpectedly Saturday, September 1, 2012 due to natural causes. He was born March 10, 1929 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, the son of Warren R. & Gertrude E. (Storms) Daniels. Upon his return, he began working at Chelsea Lumber in April, 1955, and worked there full time until his death.

Bob was Mayor of Chelsea in 1961 at the age of thirty-one. He served on the Chelsea School Board for five years where he was President for two years. He was President of Chelsea Lumber Company from 1970 to the present, an active member of Chelsea First United Methodist Church, instrumental in fundraising for the Chelsea District Library, and was a founding member of the Chelsea Community Foundation. Bob was a visionary who saw how to get things done. He helped to keep downtown Chelsea vibrant, working countless hours with organizations and individuals who sought out his advice and counsel.

On December 21, 1950, he married Marjorie J. Ferguson in Chelsea, and she survives. Other survivors include three children, Jeffry (Kathleen) Daniels of Chelsea, Jodi Kay Daniels of Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina, John (Jami) Daniels of Chelsea; and nine grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a brother, Jim Daniels.

He married Lois E. Hoffman 20 Jun 1959 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan, daughter of Vincent Hoffman and Luella Cline. She was born 01 Jul 1937 in Michigan.

Notes for Norman Wayne Ginebaugh:

Norman Wayne Ginebaugh, 75, son of Gilbert and June Ginebaugh (deceased) and brother of Phillip (deceased), passed away Saturday, January 26th, 2013. He is survived by his loving wife, of 53 years, Lois; his children, Gregory and Kathy Ginebaugh, Charles and Sarah Ginebaugh, James and Amy Ginebaugh; his grandchildren, Deborah, Shawn and Andy Smith, David, Brian, Andrew, Collin, Jordan, Scott and Geoffrey.

Norm graduated from South High School in Grand Rapids and Western Michigan University with a degree in business. His entire career was in the financial service industry. While in his fifties, Norm retired and began his second career, following a calling to serve others, particularly children in need. In his later years, Norm focused his efforts upon benefiting Kids Food Basket, St. John's Home and local food pantries, logging thousands of hours picking up donated food and delivering it to the hungry. Norm was frequently recognized for his outstanding volunteerism and was the recipient of several awards including: Daily Points of Light, Booker T. Washington Volunteer Award, and the Humana Star Light Award. An active member of the North Grand Rapids Kiwanis Club, Norm enjoyed golf, gardening and cooking.

Every Christmas, he loved dressing as Santa and delighting the children of St. John's Home. "Grandpa Norm" was a favorite of his grandchildren, both natural and "adopted". He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends for his generosity, humor and love of life.

Visitation will be held Friday, February 1 from 4 - 7 P.M. and again on Saturday, February 2 from 11 AM - 2 PM at the Heritage Life Story Funeral Home, Van Strien - Creston Chapel, 1833 Plainfield N.E. A private family service will be held. For those who wish donations may be sent to Kids Food Basket or D. A. Blodgett/St. John's Home.

Norman Ginebaugh will be remembered for his plentiful gardens and bread made from scratch, his unwavering work ethic and his complete devotion to his family, but what will be his lasting legacy is the way he selflessly gave so much of himself for the benefit of others. Whether he was delivering food to those in need, donating blood, or handing out gifts as Santa Claus, he reached so many in the community he called home throughout much of his life. Norm loved being a husband and father, but perhaps it was becoming a grandfather that was his greatest gift. A blessing in every sense of the word, he will be deeply missed while the impact he made in the lives of countless others continues to multiply in amazing ways.

Although the Great Depression covered our nation like a wet blanket throughout the 1930s, a young couple from Lyons, Michigan, was filled with unspeakable joy as they welcomed their son, Norman W., into their hearts and home on March 9, 1937, in Lansing. He was the first of two sons born to his parents, Gilbert and June (Prichard) Ginebaugh, and his father worked in the sawmill industry.

As a student Norm began his education at an elementary school in Lyons, and it continued at Sheldon Elementary School in Grand Rapids when his family moved there when he was seven years old. In school he was known as someone who was outgoing and friendly, and as a student at Grand Rapids South High School he was known as the class flirt. Right after graduating from high school in 1955, Norm went on to Grand Rapids Junior College and then transferred to Western Michigan University where earned his bachelor's degree in business.

Not to be forgotten during Norm's years in high school was his introduction to the young woman who would later steal his heart. Her name was Lois Hoffman, and although they didn't date in high school they did begin dating after he stopped in at the telephone company where she worked while he was a college student. They were married at Second Congregational Church in Grand Rapids in 1959 just a week after Norm graduated from Western Michigan University. Norm's strong work ethic began during his earliest years in the workforce when he began working in gas stations and doing other odd jobs as a young teenager. He even put himself through college selling diamonds and pots and pans. As a young newlywed Norm worked at Old Kent Bank and Trust Company before settling in at GE Financial where he remained for 13 years.

After learning the ins and out of his career in Farmington, Norm and Lois returned to Grand Rapids where they settled into a home on N. Park Lane Dr. N.E.. It was there that they raised their three sons: Gregory, Charles, and James. Norm made one final career move to a firm that was a division of Xerox Corporation. He enjoyed a successful career there as the local office manager. Norm and Lois joined Second Congregational Church where they were actively involved over the years.

Being with his family was always a priority in Norm's life. He was an active father who was involved in the Boy Scouts when his boys were in the program, and he was also there for their school activities as well. Summers often found them camping in a travel trailer as a family to places throughout Northern Michigan and also to other locations around the country like Yellowstone National Park, Mt. Rushmore, and Florida. As a family the Ginebaughs enjoyed golfing on the course at the Elks Country Club where they were members, and it was not uncommon for the family to gather around the campfire that Norm often made in the backyard.

Throughout his life Norm was a man of many interests. His family appreciated his cooking, especially his mac and cheese, and his neighbors fully appreciated his abundant vegetable garden. Norm liked fishing and took several fishing trips up North, and he also liked cross country skiing. After he retired at the age of 55 he and Lois headed to Alabama for a month during the winter in their motor home or fifth wheel. Norm also had more time for the game he loved - golf. He was an active Kiwanian and was awarded the honor of "Kiwanian of the Year". He was known for concluding the Kiwanis meetings with a bit of wisdom or encouragement called "A Notable Quotable".

Norm's life was forever changed when he heard a voice tell him to spend his time helping others while he was driving home one day. His efforts began by bringing joy to the patients at DeVos Children's Hospital where he was known as Grandpa Norm or Santa at Christmas time. Norm also worked as a volunteer at Lincoln School where he sponsored a pancake breakfast to help bring some added money into their fund for school furnishings. During this time he also began collecting surplus food to distribute to places in need such as Other Way Ministries with his fellow Kiwanian, Frank Churchill. In 1999 Norm began delivering food to St. John's Home and he also worked with the kids who lived there. Grandpa Norm is how he was usually known there as well, and as Santa during the holidays he always made sure that every child received a gift. A day of service typically found him leaving the house shortly after breakfast and heading to local grocery stores that had surplus food waiting for him. Norm then spent a good part of the day delivering the food to various pantries and ministries in the community. Norm also donated a total of more than 21 gallons of blood over the years.

Although Norm was always a humble man, his efforts didn't go unnoticed. He was awarded with the Family Futures Booker T. Washington Volunteer Award for his service to children as well as the Humana Starlight Award for his volunteer work with Access of West Michigan, Kids food Basket, and the Salvation Army's Booth Family Services and the Daily Points of Light. Norm was a finalist in the Senior Volunteer of the Year race for the 2012 Governor's Service Awards. Life became more difficult for Norm and his loved ones when he was diagnosed with cancer just this past spring, but his faith, courage, and optimism never wavered. A generous, compassionate, and vibrant man, Norman Ginebaugh was a treasure in the lives of those too numerous to count. His family, whether through bloodlines or heart strings, was his greatest gift. The timeless legacy Norm leaves behind will be carried on by the loved ones he cherished most.

born 09 Oct 1916 in Anderson, Livingston Co, Michigan, and died 04 Sep 2011 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Elaine Jeanette Schmidt:

Elaine Jeanette Boyce of Ann Arbor, age 93, died Monday, February 17, 2020, at her daughter's home. She was born December 18, 1926, in Chelsea, the daughter of Norman Harold and Lenore Eva Margarita (Kalmbach) Schmidt. She was a graduate of Chelsea High School, class of 1944. She earned her RN from Deaconess Hospital. She was a nurse for both Dr. Joseph Fisher and Dr. Charles Krausse for many years. Elaine was a longtime member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Elaine married Ellis Boyce on March 11, 1961. At that time, she had a son, Charles Fredette. Ellis had two sons, Alan and Floyd Boyce. After Ellis and Elaine joined the families, they were blessed with two daughters, Kimberly Ann Boyce and Carol Lisa Boyce. Kim and Carol lovingly cared for both parents for many years. For that gift our families are eternally thankful. Thanks also to Ronen Sherman, Kim's husband, for his assistance with Ellis and Elaine. Ellis and Elaine loved spending time at their Betsie River Cottage and mushrooming. They also enjoyed traveling together. They made two trips together to Omaha Beach for D-Day anniversary events. They also attended events at the D-Day Museum in New Orleans (Ellis was a D-Day survivor). Elaine was a diehard Michigan fan (that's an understatement!)

Elaine is survived by five children, Charles (Barbara) Fredette of Chelsea, Alan Boyce of Dexter, Floyd (Mary) Boyce of Gregory, Kimberly (Ronen) Sherman of Ann Arbor, and Carol Boyce of Ann Arbor; sister, Eleanor Hall of Pinckney; 8 grandchildren, Shannon Fredette, Aaron Fredette, Lindsay Boyce, Jordan Boyce, Rachel Boyce, Samuel Boyce, Joel Boyce and Elizabeth Boyce; 4 great-grandchildren, Marissa Fredette, Brer Boyce, Cecelia Boyce, Theoan Boyce; and many nieces and nephews. Notes for Ellis Carlton Boyce:

Ellis Carlton Boyce of Chelsea, age 94, passed away September 4, 2011 surrounded by his family. He was born on October 9, 1916 in Anderson (just west of Pinckney), Michigan. He was the first child of Floyd and Florence (Noah) Boyce. His parents were both descendants of Washtenaw County's pioneering homesteading families; their families and homesteads both predated Michigan's 1837 statehood. His younger sisters were Dorothy (Stanley) LaSovage, Ruth (Erle) Stewart and Elizabeth (Wilber) Worden, all now deceased. As a child, Ellis plowed his grandparents' North Lake farm fields with a team of horses. He quickly realized that farming just wasn't his "cup of tea". He did, however, love the pleasure of simple visits to his grandparents farm home during the Great Depression. As World War II approached he entered Officers Candidate School. On June 6, 1944 (D-Day) Lieutenant Ellis Boyce landed at what was called the "Easy Red" Sector of Omaha Beach in Normandy, France. His Joint Assault unit sustained 80% casualties. He was wounded in battle and later received the Purple Heart. He also received the Silver Star medal due to his bravery exhibited in battle. Later in the war he was involved in the invasion of the Philippines (Luzon). There his unit sustained 90% casualties and again Ellis was a survivor. After World War II Ellis was honorably discharged at the rank of Captain.

On September 18, 1948 Ellis married Lois Hollis. Together they had two sons, Alan and Floyd Boyce. Lois died in 1953. He married Elaine Schmidt on March 11, 1961. Elaine brought a son, Charley Fredette, into the family. Ellis and Elaine then had two daughters, Kimberly and Carol Boyce. Ellis worked with his great friend and uncle, Holton Knisely, at K & E Screw Products in Dexter. He became Vice-President and part owner before retiring in 1980. Ellis and Elaine enjoyed several European trips including the 50th D-Day Anniversary. They also enjoyed vacationing at their Betsie River cottage with their children and grandchildren near Frankfort, Michigan. Especially memorable were mushrooming outings, trout fishing, tubing down the river and making apple dumplings. Ellis was known as the best fisherman along the "Old Grade Crossing" stretch of the Betsie River. Chickadees would often sit and wait on his fishing rod and even on his eyeglasses waiting for a handful of sunflower seeds, which he kept in his pocket while fishing. In 1993, Ellis completed a massive family history record which dates back to the Middle Ages. He was very proud of his ancestry, his family and his historical research. It took him years to complete the family history book. He was also proud of his correspondence with the late American author and historian Stephen Ambrose. In his twilight years his daughter, Kimberly and her husband, Ronen Sherman cared for him in their Ann Arbor home. Ellis was truly blessed in those years.

He leaves behind Elaine, his loving wife of 50 years; his children, Charley (Barbara) Fredette, Alan (Virginia) Boyce, Floyd (Mary) Boyce, Kimberly (Ronen) Sherman and Carol Boyce. He also had the joy of 11 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

The family would also like to thank Lindsay, Kathy, Rhonda and Cindy from Great Lakes Hospice and PJ from Synergy Home Care. The family will receive friends at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home on Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. A memorial service will take place on Thursday from the funeral home at 11:00 am with Tony Dickerson officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to the National World War II Museum or Covenant Church. His life was good, our memories are rich and we will miss him. We thank him for everything.

More About Kenneth Licht and Virginia Buell:
Marriage: 21 Aug 1951, Pontiac, Oakland Co, Michigan

Children of Virginia Buell and Kenneth Licht are:

- + 2488 i. Christopher Reed¹⁴ Licht, born 21 Jun 1952.
- 2489 ii. Jeffrey Licht, born 12 Mar 1954.
- 2490 iii. Cynthia Ellen (Sam) Licht, born 25 May 1957.

Notes for Cynthia Ellen (Sam) Licht:

La Crosse, Wisconsin, March 6, 1984 - When Cynthia Licht picked up a 108-pound, stuffed dummy and slung it over her shoulders La Crosse firefighters looked a little shocked. But she said they were supportive of her efforts to be the first female firefighter in the city. "What their reaction will be if I get on may be another story." Although she still is awaiting word from the fire department, she admits her chance of becoming a firefighter may not be good because she has poor, uncorrected eyesight. But the 147 pound, 5-foot 4-inch Ms. Licht had no problem passing the fire department's physical agility test because she is a weightlifter. She spends six days a week lifting barbells and working out on. Nautilus equipment working on her legs and lower body one day and her upper body the next. In addition, she plays racquetball, swims and attends exercise classes.

On a recent day at La Crosse Ironworks, a weightlifting club at 312 S Fourth St., Ms. Licht was working on her upper body. She was wearing blue sweatpants and a yellow T-shirt that said, "Women - you can't beat 'em. After loosening up a bit, she started on the bench press with 10 repetitions of lifting 85 pounds. She eventually worked up to five reps (repetitions) of 125 pounds and then finished with 10 lifts of 100 pounds. At the end of the set I can do 15 reps of 100 but it's not in my routine. The most she has cleanly lifted on a bench press is 140 pounds. She has placed in several women power weightlifting meets third at the Wisconsin State Fair, fifth in Dubuque, Iowa, and first at last year's La Crosse Oktoberfest.

Ms. Licht, 26 has been weightlifting ever since she wanted to gain strength for another favorite pastime of her's wrist wrestling. The Evanston, Illinois, native started in that sport while bartending at Poor Richard's, a tavern in suburban Chicago where wrist wrestling was popular. When she started attending the University of Wisconsin La Crosse, she began lifting weights to prepare for a national wrist wrestling tournament in Cudahy. But her training was for naught. Every match I was in, I got beat," she said. Still, she finished well in many state wrist wrestling competitions. After joining the track team at UW-L for the shot put, she continued to lift weights. She then began working out at the YMCA/YWCA and got a part time job as a weight training and Nautilus instructor at the YWCA. When La Crosse Ironworks opened last year, she joined and started working out there on a regular basis. She alternates between free weights at the Ironworks and the anchored Nautilus equipment at the YWCA. She said she enjoys weightlifting and the increased strength and flexibility that comes with it. It makes me look better and feel better. At first, some of the male weightlifters resented her for intruding on their territory, she said. But that soon changed. They realize I'm serious I'm not here to pick someone up or to look at good legs. She admits, however, she does not fit society's concept of what a woman is supposed to be. "I'm kind of unorthodox, she said I like it that way."

La Crosse, Wisconsin, July 27, 1989 - Cynthia Licht is a massage therapist. Touching and healing people is what she plans to do for the rest of her life. But on Sunday, the 32-year-old Licht, who is also a weightlifter, leaves La Crosse on a flight to New York City and then on to Russia for the International Powerlifting competitions to be held in Leningrad and Krasnoyarsk. Licht, who works out at the La Crosse YWCA, is one of eight women among the 47 powerlifters and a handful of reporters making the trip. She's the only one from Wisconsin.

The trip is one of several during the year by the Association for International Cultural Exchange Programs in Quebec, Canada. Athletes are invited to attend but either have to pay their own way or find hometown sponsors. She figures the trip will cost her about $3,000. That will put quite a dent in her savings, she admits. "But I was thinking, at 32, if I'm going to compete, I should do it now." About $150 was raised in pledges and donations Saturday during a two-hour lift-a-thon. Donations to help Licht pay her expenses on 6 I was thinking, at 32, if I'm going to compete, I should do it now. Cynthia Licht the trip will be accepted until Friday noon at the YWCA. About two months ago, Licht received a letter telling about the competition in Russia. At first, she didn't consider going. But she gives a great deal of credit to a 79-year-old Sparta woman who encouraged her. "I work in the women's Nautilus center here and she drives in from Sparta a couple of times a week," said Licht. Ruby Bacon said: "Sure I encouraged her. She's a lovely little gal and I like to see young people get ahead."

Just what is powerlifting? Licht explains. "What you see on TV is usually Olympic lifting. In many ways, powerlifting is almost exclusive to America. In some ways the Soviet Union is still exploring this kind of lifting. They had this powerlifting thing in Russia last year and the audience just went nuts." The lifter does three lifts: the squat, the bench press and the dead lift. Licht has lifted a total of 630 pounds for all three lifts. She can lift 225 pounds in the squat; 150 in the bench press and 255 in the dead lift. "That's where you try to lift the weight off the floor and stand erect with it." "That's how you win a meet... by your total," she said. Judges then use a formula that takes into account your body weight, (hers is 143 pounds), to come up with your total, she said.

"Charming name, huh?" asks Cynthia after she completes "the squat" and has lifted 135 pounds. But first there is the preparation. She wraps what looks like Ace bandages around her knees for added support. Then she buckles on a thick leather belt to support her spine. On a bar which is on a rack nearby she places a metal disc weighing 45 pounds on each end of the bar. She takes a moment or two to psyche herself up. When she's ready, she gingerly takes her place under the bar. She straightens up, lifting the bar off the rack and onto her back. She's now holding 135 pounds across her back.

She lowers herself into a squatting position. She exhales, blowing air like a blowfish. Cheeks puffed. Exhaling in short pants. Or, at other times, in one long puff. She rises, then bends and lowers herself in a squat again before replacing the bar back on the rack. She's used to remarks, like the one made the other day by a male observer. He watched her demonstration of powerlifting, then said: "Well, I guess I'd never want you to get mad at me." Her reaction to comments such as that? "A lot of it is teasing and the usual stereotype of the woman weightlifter," she said. "As a massage therapist, I'm a very gentle, caring person. Just because I lift weights doesn't make me some macho, steroid football maniac. I think that's what a lot of people think of when they think of powerlifting."

La Crosse, Wisconsin, March 24, 2003 - Cynthia "Sam" Licht is joining Sue Kolves Salon and Day Spa" as a full-time massage therapist. She brings fifteen years of experience providing massage therapy to the La Crosse area, promoting its benefits through teaching, lectures and presentations. She has been an active advocate for improved licensing and regulation both locally and at the state level. Cynthia is a graduate of the Boulder, Colorado School of Massage Therapy and is a member of the American Massage Therapy Association. She continues her education by expanding her skills through workshops in Neuromuscular Therapy, Sports Massage and Yoga, accruing close to 2,000 hours of additional training. Prior to her massage career, she was as accomplished competitive power lifter and traveled to the Soviet Union to represent the United States in team competition. Cynthia used her years of exercise experience to teach strength training, employing both free weights and Nautilus equipment. Her background also includes providing patient care as a physical therapist aide, administering hydrotherapy, range of motion and treatment modalities.

Sue Kolve says, "We're delighted to have someone with Cynthia's experience, expertise and enthusiasm joining our team. People interested in scheduling an appointment with Cynthia can call. Sue Kolve opened her first salon in a converted downtown La Crosse duplex in 1985 with 300 clients and no employees. Over the years, the business outgrew its 1800-square-foot space. In May 2002, Sue opened a brand new 6,500-square-foot salon and day spa in Onalaska. Subsequently, the business has grown to a staff of 30. She was the news editor in Atlanta during the 1996 Summer Olympic Games, overseeing the Associated Press staff covering host city news and participating in coverage of a terrorist bombing during the Games. One of the AP reporters she supervised in Atlanta, Joan Kirchner, now chief of staff for U.S. Sen. Johnny Isakson, once wrote that Anne was "a smart, tough editor who knows how to turn a good story into a great story." Anne later worked as a business desk editor at The Atlanta Journal-Constitution and a copy editor at the Providence Journal before joining Habitat for Humanity International as a copy editor in 2011. She was most at home in a copy editor's role, cutting excess words and polishing stories until their meaning was clear.

Anne FitzHenry was born on November 8, 1955. She was born and raised in South Bend, Indiana. She was a proud graduate of St. Joseph High School in South Bend and graduated with a Communications Degree from the University of Evansville in 1978. Anne was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer last year and had been at the Emory Health Systems in Atlanta until returning to South Bend in July.

She is survived by her sister, Rosemary Zirille, and her devoted friends Chuck Niemier, Sean Coleman, Katherine Shea and Renee Kosanovich.

She was not convinced that there is an after-life. But if there is, she hopes to reunite with her father, John F. FitzHenry, and her two dogs, Gemma and Ushi. Anne was an enthusiastic international traveler and an avid cook. Anne was an avid reader and valued child music instruction. Donations in her memory may be given to your local library system, the St. Joseph High School Class of '74 or any charity for abused dogs and cats or to benefit young readers and musicians. Palmer Funeral Home - Hickey Chapel, and Southlawn Cremation Services are assisting the family with arrangements.

1555. Arthur Frederick¹³ Gakle (Edward Elmer¹², John Nikolaus¹¹, Louisa Carolina¹⁰ Ukele, Christina Barbara⁹ Stollsteimer, Johannes⁸, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 06 Jan 1925 in Sabetha, Nemaha Co, Kansas, and died 27 Sep 2005 in Greenville, Plumas Co, California. He married Loana Constance Casper 12 Dec 1957 in Quincy, Plumas Co, California. She was born 22 Jan 1932 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 19 Feb 2009 in Greenville, Plumas Co, California.

Notes for Arthur Frederick Gakle:

Arthur Frederick Gakle was born to Edward and Elsie Gakle, the youngest of three boys, which included Willis and Paul. After his father died when Arthur was 6 months old, Elsie moved her family to Chico, where she became a Registered Nurse for Enloe Hospital specializing in private care. Arthur, as well as Willis and Paul, worked from a young age to help the family make ends meet. Arthur's first job, at the age of 7, was as a paperboy in downtown Chico. While in high school, he worked at Diamond Match Company, Miller's Market and on a ranch as a wrangler.

Upon graduating from Chico High School, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He trained to be a signalman specializing in visual communication, blinker, semaphore flag and flag hoist. He was promoted continually throughout World War II and received an honorable discharge. Arthur returned to his hometown of Chico and enrolled at Chico State College to begin pre-veterinary studies. He transferred to UC Davis briefly before lack of finances forced him to reconsider his career choice. He then decided to pursue a B.S. in biological sciences while returning to Chico State College, and then finally completed his degree at San Jose State. After this, he again returned to Chico State College to earn a general secondary teaching credential and administrative credential. He would now begin what evolved into a 30-year teaching career in high school science.

His first position was at Fort Bragg for one year. He then transferred to Tamales High for the next four years. In 1956, his childhood friend and backyard neighbor, Jack Rubke, who was the Greenville High School music teacher at the time, suggested Arthur apply for the recently vacated science position at GHS. Wanting to return closer to home, and being quite familiar with Indian Valley and Lake Almanor in his youth, he applied and got the job. He had been at GHS only one year when he met his future wife, Loana, a recent Ithaca College graduate from New York and new GHS social studies and English teacher. They were married three months after their first meeting on the first day of school. So, on December 19, 1957, they became husband and wife and enjoyed a Hawaiian honeymoon which was the first of many trips the couple would take over the years, including trips to China, Portugal, Spain, England, France and Tahiti, as well as many Christmases on the Hawaiian Islands and Easters in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Twelve years later their only child, Kathleen Elizabeth Ann, was born. Arthur spent many hours as a devoted father building a strong relationship with his daughter. He often took her to Clear Creek Park, played with her, let her play beauty shop on him, chauffeured her everywhere, helped out in her classroom, taught her how to ski and golf, and took her sailing after school. He always was a strong support by effortlessly guiding her whether it be an algebra problem, choice of attire or advising her on life's inevitable lessons we all must learn. His natural teaching ability was evident not only as a father but as an educator.

During his tenure at Greenville High, teaching biology, chemistry, physics, earth and life sciences, Arthur received many honors, including being selected to attend the Mineral Industry and Society Summer Institute at the Mackay School of Mines, the National Science Foundation Award and several invitations in the summers to be a guest lecturer and professor of geology at Chico State. Also, while employed for Plumas Unified School District, Arthur earned a master's degree in geology from the University of Oregon. His master's thesis was on the geology of Keddie Ridge, a place he particularly enjoyed.

His lifetime appreciation for the outdoors was clearly evident upon his retirement from teaching in 1980. At this time he was able to embrace a life free of deadlines, commitments and time constraints. He fished, skied, golfed, camped, traveled, hiked, explored, hunted and sailed to his heart's content for the next 25 years. As well, he was an active longtime member of the Chester Lion's club, holding the office of secretary and receiving the honor of Lion of the Year. This past June he was also honored for his dedication to educational excellence at Greenville High school by being selected, along with Loana, as Alumni Emeritus.

In his later years, Arthur enjoyed reading and relaxing in his Lake Almanor home, often spending hours looking out to the lake and soaking in the serenity. He took great pleasure in getting to know his son-in-law, Robert, and was elated with the birth of his only grandchild, Chloe Spencer Copeland. He delighted in her squeals, giggles, chattering and walk, often commenting of her milestones and smiling. Arthur has been married to his wife, Loana, for 48 years; he has a daughter, Kathleen Elizabeth Ann Copeland; a son-in-law, Robert McLeod Copeland; and a granddaughter, Chlo? Spencer Copeland. His brother Paul Spencer Gakle lives in Ohio with his wife, Ginny. His nephew David Gakle lives in the Bay Area, and his niece Sandy Farowich lives in Maui, Hawaii with her husband, Dana. Other loved members of his family include brother and sister-in-law Bill and Jane Saunders of Yorba Linda; sister-in-law Mary Ellen Rybarcyk of San Diego; niece Jacqueline Oberle and husband, Donny, of Corona; nephew Dennis Saunders and wife, Melinda, of Chino Hills; and grandnieces Priscilla, Amanda, Raelene and Taryn.

A celebration of Arthur's life was held Monday, Oct. 3, 2005, at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with burial following at the Greenville District Cemetery, in Greenville. The family requests that donations in Arthur's memory be made to the High Sierra Animal Rescue, PAWS or the Chico Cat Coalition, c/o of Fehrman Mortuary and Crematory, P.O. Box 803, Greenville, CA 95947

Marriage Notes for Kenneth Wymore and Beverly Weindorf:

Los Angeles - Two pieces of paper brought to domestic relations court by her estranged parents yesterday Feb. 27, 1947 made no difference in the life of Christine Rae Wymore, 3. Her mother, Mrs. Beverly Ruth Wymore, 36, was there with a writ of habeas corpus designed to wrest possession of the child from her father, Kenneth Arnold Wymore, 30, former Seabee. However, Wymore had a slip of paper of his own in the form of an order from San Bernardino Superior Court, where his divorce is pending. It was a temporary order restraining Mrs. Wymore from taking the child. Superior Judge Fred Miller, who reminded, the couple and their attorneys that undivorced parents have equal rights in the matter of custody, denied the writ, because, the San Bernardino court has jurisdiction. Without favoritism little Christine Rae hugged her parents. She kissed her weeping mother good-by and was carried away by her father. At present she lives with him and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wymore, in Ontario.

Notes for Lee Fred Ukele:

Holton, Kansas — A Kansas man is the fourth member of his family to die from injuries suffered in a crash that happened more than a year ago as they returned home from watching the man's sons play in a state high school football championship, according to a prosecutor and funeral home. Lee Fred Ukele, 60, a farmer from Sabetha, died last Wednesday at the University of Kansas Hospital, according to Popkess Mortuaries. Funeral services are scheduled for this Wednesday.

He was critically injured in a November 2017 crash that killed his 42-year-old wife, Carmen Ukele; his 11-year-old daughter, Marlee Ukele; and his 62-year-old brother, Stephen Ukele. Jackson County Attorney Shawna Miller said Monday that Lee Ukele was placed in a rehabilitation facility after the crash because injuries to his head and other parts of his body were so severe.

The family was returning home from watching two of Lee Ukele's sons, Tanner and Carson Ukele, win the championship in Hutchinson, Kansas, with their Sabetha High School teammates when the crash occurred. Authorities have said that Maria Perez Marquez, 49, of Omaha, Nebraska, struck the family's minivan head-on while trying to pass another vehicle on U.S. 75 north of Holton, about 70 miles (112 kilometers) west of Kansas City. Coach Garrett Michael said at the time that Lee Ukele's sons were pulled off the football team bus after a celebratory dinner. A trooper later told them their father, himself a former football player, had been hurt and the others had died.

Marquez is scheduled to be sentenced in June on three misdemeanor counts of vehicular homicide and one felony count of aggravated battery. Miller said that "unfortunately" she can't file additional charges against Marquez because she already pleaded guilty in the case as part of a plea deal. She had originally been charged with three felony counts of involuntary manslaughter. But she said the judge could consider Lee Ukele's death when making a sentencing decision. "Obviously, myself and the family will ask for the jail time because of all the loss in this case," the prosecutor said.

Lee Fred Ukele, well known Sabetha farmer, age 60 passed away Wednesday, May 8, 2019 peacefully surrounded by his family at University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas. Lee was born on August 22, 1958 in Sabetha, Kansas to Marshall and Geneva (Brigham) Ukele. He attended Excelsior Country School, Sabetha Elementary School, Junior High School and High School and graduating in 1976. He participated in football, wrestling, 4-H and FFA. He attended Highland Community College and graduated in 1978. He also attended Kansas State University taking classes in agri-business. He returned to farm with his brother, Stephen on the Ukele family farm around the Berwick area. They created a diversified grain crop and commercial livestock business. He married Carmen Kay Baumgartner on March 27, 1999. To this union three children were born, Tanner Marshall, Carson Samuel and Marlee Geneva. Lee was a loving husband, father and devoted uncle. He was well known for his true business savvy and work ethics at farming operations, remarkable memory for facts and figures and ways to achieve success and having fun with family and friends. He had a sunny disposition and genuine concern for the well-being of others. Lee and family attended NorthRidge Church in Sabetha. He was on the board of directors for the United Bank and Trust, the Nemaha County FSA Community Committee, and several social committees. His family was always the top of his list. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents; his loving wife, Carmen Kay; his daughter, Marlee Geneva; his brother, Stephen Marshall; his uncles, Fred Ukele and Gerald Summers; his aunt, Dorothy Summers; and his cousins, Jim Summers and Kim Summers.

Lee is survived by his sons, Tanner Marshall and Carson Samuel both of Sabetha; his sisters, Pamela Day Ukele of Hannibal, Missouri and Paula Sue Miller (Alan) of Shawnee, Kansas; a sister-in-law, Pamela Sue Ukele of Sabetha; numerous nieces and nephews; and Lee's family extended to the Leonard Baumgartner family and cousins, Beth Mazzola Summers, Gary and Sylvia Summers, Jeri and Janice Summers, Jon and Janet Summers, Kirk and Stefni Summers, who loved Lee like a brother.

Funeral service will be Wednesday, May 15, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at the North Ridge Church in Sabetha. A visitation will be Tuesday, May 14, 2019 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the North Ridge Church in Sabetha. The interment will be made in the Sabetha Cemetery. Notes for Carmen Kay Baumgartner:

Saturday should have been a day of celebration for Sabetha, Kansas, after the high school in the town of about 2,600 residents won a state football championship. But tragedy muted the joy. Carmen Ukele was driving back to Sabetha Saturday night after watching her sons, starting offensive linemen Tanner and Carson, win the Class 3A state football championship in Hutchinson. On U.S. 75 north of Holton, Kansas, in northern Jackson County, on a stretch of road locals complain about for its frequency of accidents, Ukele crashed head-on into another vehicle that was trying to pass traffic on the two-lane highway, according to the Kansas Highway Patrol's report.

Ukele died, and so did two of her three passengers: Marlee Ukele, the football players' 11-year-old sister, and their uncle, Stephen Ukele, 62. The players' father and Ukele's husband, Lee Ukele, was seriously injured. Condolences are pouring into the town and team from neighboring communities and sports opponents alike.

Holton, Kansas — A Nebraska woman has been sentenced to more than four years in prison for a November 2017 head-on crash in northeastern Kansas that killed four members of a Sabetha family who were returning home from a state championship football game.

The Capital-Journal reports that 49-year-old Maria Perez Marquez, of Omaha, Nebraska, was sentenced Friday to four years and one month in prison. She pleaded no contest to aggravated battery and three misdemeanor counts of vehicular homicide for the crash that killed 42-year-old Carmen Ukele, her 11-year-old daughter, Marlee Ukele, and her brother-in-law, 62-year-old Stephen Ukele. Carmen Ukele's husband, 60-year-old Lee Ukele, initially survived the crash but died last month of his injuries.

Investigators say the family was returning home from watching the Sabetha High School football team win the state championship when Perez Marquez crashed into their minivan while trying to pass another vehicle. At the time, two of Lee Ukele's sons played on the team.

Earlier in the day of her passing, she celebrated with her two sons the excitement of winning the 3A Kansas State Football Championship.

1619. Mark Robert¹³ Shaffer, twin (Margaret Louise¹² Watson, Francis Margaret¹¹ Ukele, Jakob Friedrich¹⁰, Christina Barbara⁹ Stollsteimer, Johannes⁸, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 18 Aug 1968 in Denver, Colorado, and died 08 Apr 2023 in Bellevue, Washington.

Notes for Mark Robert Shaffer, twin:

Mark Robert Shaffer, 54, arrived in this world on August 18, 1968 in Denver, Colorado. Born August 18, 1968 to Margaret Louise and Robert Dennis Shaffer, Mark was the "older" twin by four minutes with his brother Arthur following closely in his footsteps. While still a baby, Mark's parents relocated back to his mother's home state of Kansas, settling briefly in Lawrence and finally in Kansas City, Missouri. Mark and Arthur were inseparable as young children, continually going on adventures and getting into mischief. Moving on from those early years and Boone Elementary, the boys graduated from Center High School. From there, Mark attended Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg, Missouri, and earned his Baccalaureate.

Throughout Mark's youth, he was immersed in scouting. Growing up, he eagerly looked forward to his summer camp at the Bartle Reservation near Clinton, Missouri. When he was old enough, he even worked for a number of years at H. Roe Bartle Boy Scout summer camp as a swim instructor and eventually achieved Scouting's highest honor, Eagle Scout. He enjoyed summer camp and participated in the honor scouting program of Mic-O-Say. Mark embraced many of the lessons he learned on his scouting journey, including always helping others. After graduating from college, Mark spent time in Kansas City and Santa Fe, New Mexico. He learned more about his craft by working for a nationally renowned photographer and then branching out on his own as an independent photographer. Shifting gears in his late 20s, Mark decided to pursue a career in telecommunications and technology, working first at Sprint in Overland Park, Kansas, and then at HCL and Microsoft in Seattle, Washington.

A couple of years ago, Mark shifted his focus once again, this time pursuing a career in cybersecurity. Recently appointed as a principal at CliftonLarsonAllen (CLA), Mark was exuberant about his "dream job." He loved everything about his job, especially his co-workers. During his time in Seattle, Mark developed a great love for the beautiful outdoors and explored the open road on his Harley Davidson. Supporting the Seattle Mariners was also a favorite pastime although he never missed an opportunity to see his favorite hometown teams when he visited family in Kansas City, the Kansas City Royals and Kansas City Chiefs.

Above all other things in life, Mark was a devoted father to his nearly five-year-old daughter Zoey Shaffer. Although Zoey's time with her father was cut way too short, she should have no doubt about her father's love for her. He loved to spend time with her watching cartoons, going to the park, playing games or simply hanging out. She was the light of his life.

Mark never met a stranger. He exuded confidence and filled every room he entered with his larger-than-life personality and infectious laugh. Mark saw the best in everyone and was eager to help anyone in need—whether they needed a meal, a warm coat or simply a friend. His friends were many. Mark experienced the highs and lows of life. Mark valued his support and friendships, especially his long-time friend Jim who loved him like a brother. Mark always saw the good in people and never hesitated to volunteer to help others achieve their true potential. Mark was a proud member of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross in Redmond, Washington, where he sang in the choir. In addition, Mark embraced his family heritage through the Sons of the American Revolution and spent many weekends volunteering with the Kairos Prison Ministry Foundation.

Mark is preceded in death by his grandparents, Arthur and Frances Watson, and his mother Margaret Nygren. He is survived by his daughter Zoey Shaffer, father Robert Shaffer, twin brother Arthur Shaffer (Linda), Logan, Victoria, Uncle Fred (Mary) Watson.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions to Eastside Intergroup. Please indicate that your donation is in memory of Mark Shaffer.

Notes for Dana Jean Hungerford:

Dana "Jean" Wildt, 97, died Friday, September 25, 2015 in Spring Arbor, Michigan. Jean, a beloved and life-long Concord, Michigan resident was born April 28, 1918. Jean was born in Concord Township to Dana and Alberta Hungerford. She attended school in a one-room schoolhouse in Concord Township before marrying and moving to Concord where she raised a family. Prior to her passing, Jean was the oldest living member of her 1935 graduating class.

Jean lived her life devoted to her family and the town that she served. Jean was the Concord Township Clerk, serving in this position for 42 years, a record of the longest-serving township clerk in Jackson County. While serving in the clerk position, she also served as the treasurer for the village of Concord. It was not uncommon to see Jean at various Concord events, such as the Christmas Reception at the Hubbard House, or the Fireman breakfasts. A friend to all, she would often make time to chat with friends and fellow residents of Concord at the now-closed Shannon's Market, the Post Office, the Cadet or the M-60 Grill.

In addition to being a township and village servant, Jean was a mother and is survived by three sons, Bob (Sue) Beals, Tom (Penny) Beals, and Lynn (Mickie) Wildt as well as one daughter Ann (John) Novak and their families. She has 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren who will all remember her fondly as a caring, selfless, loving woman who was quick to laugh at their jokes and was always interested in what they had to share.

Jean had many hobbies throughout her life. She loved cross-stitching and knitting, and taught many of her granddaughters how to do both. Her homemade dish clothes were always a gift that members of her family looked forward to receiving. Jean also loved to do fill-in word puzzles and read romance novels. Many of the cabinets at her house were filled with her collections of both, and she would often give her books to the many friends who would stop by and visit her.

Jean was very family oriented, often holding holiday dinners at her house, especially Fourth of July picnics. Family members would shoot off fireworks every year, after Jean had notified the police to "make sure you don't patrol Union St. between 9 and 10 PM!" She made her legendary deviled eggs at family gatherings and would always have plenty of card games like Skip-Bo and Uno that she and her family members would enjoy. Jean was a loving mother and grandmother and would often have her grandchildren spend time during the summer at her house, where she would take them to downtown Concord, the cemetery, and drives in the country.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Alvin Beals, and her second husband, Harold Wildt, her parents, Dana and Alberta and her brother Frank. Not only does she leave her family behind, but several friends, including Star Clark and Rosemary Beals, neighbors, and cousins.

The family would like to thank the staff of Arbor Manor for providing such wonderful and loving care to "Jeannie" over the past 4 years. A special thank you to Toni and Amy, two her her main caregivers over the years. We would also like to thank all of the wonderful family and friends in the Concord area. Our mother would have never been able to remain as independent as she was if it had not been for all of you who elected her to office for 42 years and watched over her. All of you knew her patterns and if she wasn't out bugging all of you on a regular basis, you were checking on her! She would often say "I have to report in before I leave town, or the police will be calling you."

A memorial celebrating Jean's life and accomplishments will be held on Saturday, October 17, 2015 at the Universalist Church, 200 Hanover St., Concord. Family will receive guests starting at 1PM with the service to follow at 2PM. A luncheon will be served at the Hubbard House, 317 Hanover St., immediately following the service. All donations can be made to the Hubbard Memorial Museum Foundation. PO Box 463, Concord, Michigan, 49237.

Notes for Jason Lee Ukele:

August 6, 2018 - An employee of Showalter Fireworks was seriously burned in a flashover fire Monday morning while disposing of powder from old fireworks at the business site west of Inman. Jason Ukele, 39, of Salina, was airlifted from the scene off North Plum to the St. Francis Medical Center burn unit in Wichita, where he was listed in critical condition Monday afternoon. He suffered burns to his right leg and right hand, said business owner Steve Showalter, who is Ukele's father-in-law.

"We were destroying powder and it went wrong," said Showalter, who has operated the firework business in McPherson County, less than a mile north of the Reno County line, for 32 years. "We were just doing a few pounds of loose powder," Showalter said. "We were lighting it in small batches, of 3 to 4 ounces at a time. We do this routinely. This one flashed instead of burned. I have no idea why it did what it did." Ukele was igniting the powder with a flare attached to a four-foot pole, Showalter said. They were the only two at the burn pit and Showalter was not hurt. "This is something we'd done for 30 years -- destroying fireworks that are not serviceable," he said. "It's a safety thing for our customers, rather than put these products out to the public. This time it didn't work."

Notes for Waldo Benjamin (Wally) Steinaway IV:

Waldo B. "Wally" Steinaway IV of Waterloo Twp., Michigan, age 35, passed away at home while holding his wife's hand on Wednesday, Dec. 31, 2014. He was born on Oct. 31, 1979, in Ypsilanti, Michigan, the son of Waldo B. and Cheryl (Manier) Steinaway III. On March 23, 2013, he married Carrie L. Harris in Grass Lake, and she survives. Wally had battled fiercely for two years with cancer. Numerous rounds of chemo, radiation, and trial drugs never kept him down. He always said that at the end of his battle he wanted to do something that would make a difference, whether that meant being a police officer, firefighter, or paramedic, but in the end he chose to donate himself to science in the hope of finding a cure for the late relapse of cancer that he experienced.

Wally graduated from Chelsea High School in 1999. He liked working on computers, trying to fix them. He loved working on cars and his favorites were Chevys. He also loved working on projects around the house. He was one who couldn't sit still. He was the biggest kid at heart and this was reflected through his love for Optimus Prime from his favorite childhood cartoon, Transformers. Wally had worked as a binder operator for Malloy, which is now Edwards Brothers Malloy. He was a very likable guy and a good friend to all he met. He was helpful and giving, never turning away anybody who asked for help. He was a jack of all trades, the handy man. He was a fighter, hero, and angel for his family. He was a good brother and son, and a loving husband and father.

He is also survived by his children: Kara M., Haile R., Alex B., and Ryleigh L. Steinaway; his parents, Waldo (Beth) Steinaway III and Cheryl Steinaway; his sisters, Susan (Joe) Martinez and Sabrina Booth; and his in-laws, Michael and Constance Harris (Carrie's parents).

A Gathering of Family and Friends will be held at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, Chelsea, on Friday, Jan. 9, 2015, from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to the family.

Notes for Kenneth Lee Stollsteimer, twin:

Kenneth Lee Stollsteimer and his twin sister were born on April 25, 1948 in Huntington Park, California. He was the 3rd child and only son of Kenneth Leland Stollsteimer and Vera June Porterfield Stollsteimer. He grew up there, playing in the excelsior plants where his father and mother worked, until his family moved to Arizona in 1953. They built a home that Ken still lived in at the time of his death. In Phoenix, Ken attended R.E. Simpson Elementary and West High, where he met the love of his life, Susan Rae Erb in 1965. They dated until he graduated in 1966. They were engaged a few months later and were married on June 1 1968, in the same church where his funeral will be held. Ken and Susan had three daughters. Jennifer was born in 1970, Angela in 1973, and Lorie in 1979. Ken worked as a carpenter and contractor all of his life. When he wasn't at work, he was usually working on a project for a friend or family member. Later in life those skills were put to use assembling swing sets, basketball hoops, and trampolines for his grandchildren. In 2002, Ken was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and he and his wife were sealed in the Mesa Arizona Temple on September 27, 2003. Ken served as a temple ordinance worker and as Bishop of the Osborn Ward.

Mrs. Pocock, the former Gloria Lippold and a '54 graduate, and her husband were here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lippold of Jeffersontown. They've gone on with sons, Jimmy and Johnny, to East Lansing, Michigan, to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bryant Pocock.

Jan. 24, 1991 - With a change of coat and tie in his Lansing office, Ingham County Friend of the Court James Pocock becomes U.S. Army Reserve Brig. Gen. James Pocock. The military Pocock, wearing a uniform bedecked with medals, said Wednesday that one of his command units arrived in Saudi Arabia this week to set up a camp for 12,000 future prisoners of war. But Pocock won't be on the firing line in this war. The 56-year-old Okemos resident and decorated Vietnam veteran will stay home. His feelings are mixed, Pocock said. "I would like to participate, particularly with my friends and fellow soldiers with whom I've worked many years." But as a combat veteran, Pocock said he knows the ordeal and sacrifice which would fall on his family if he went to war once more. In a Pentagon meeting Tuesday, Pocock learned that he and his Inkster-based, 125-member headquarters unit of the 300th Military Police Command are staying put. Other units in Pocock's 2,400-person command are bound for the Mideast. So far, with the war largely a test of planes and missiles, only about 20 Iraqi troops have fallen into the hands of allied forces in the Persian Gulf region. But the U.S. Army is setting up several camps to handle more than 60,000 Iraqi war prisoners, Pocock said. When he's not administering military police training for thousands of U.S. Army reservists in the Midwest, Pocock enforces child custody and support orders of the Ingham County court. A West Point graduate, Pocock served in the Army from 1957 to 1969. He later worked for a life insurance company until his 1973 appointment as Friend of the Court. The biggest problem ahead in keeping thousands of Iraqi war prisoners may lay in the logistics shipping prisoners and supplies across the deserts, Pocock said. The prisoner camps may be havens for battle-shocked Iraqis. They will be fed, clothed, allowed to worship in the Islamic ways, and given some training on U.S.-style democracy, Pocock said. "I hope they live better in our camps than in their own army, which would be an indication that their army is in bad shape," Pocock said.

Jan 24, 1991 - James Pocock, age 56, home Okemos, Michigan, education: Bachelor of military science from the U.S. Military Academy, master's degree in communications from Michigan State University. Presently work at Ingham County Friend of the Court.

May 25, 2005 - James Pocock, age 70, home East Lansing, married, four grown children, 10 grandchildren; retired Ingham County friend of the court; retired major general in the U.S. Army Reserve. His education: East Lansing High School graduate, undergraduate work at Princeton University and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, master's degree in communications from Michigan State University.

May 25, 2005 - As an American soldier in the 1960s, James Pocock patrolled the barbed wire border between East and West Germany. "I always wondered what life was like on the other side," said Pocock, former Ingham County friend of the court and a retired major general in the U.S. Army Reserve. He got the chance to find out during a visit to the reunified country several years ago. "I had a lot of contact with the German people there, and the experience got me thinking," he said. The result: "Across the Barbed Wire," Pocock's self-published first novel, which came out in January and has earned high praise.

It's a fictional story of a mother and her young son who are separated while trying to escape from East Germany and the mother's 30-year quest to discover what happened to him. The story also deals with the American servicemen who help her, following them through the Vietnam War and Desert Storm and showing the sacrifices their families make. And the story illuminates life in East Germany, where the son grows up to become a communist and member of the secret service. "It has something for the military buff, it is a love story (or two), it is packed full of action, it has great characters that pull you into their lives, and it even educates the reader about the Cold War without trying to be a history book," said reviewer Jim Vahle.

Gisela Schild, a neighbor of Pocock's who shares a first name with his heroine, said the book brought back memories of growing up on the western side of the border. "I was stunned," she said. "Parts of the book were like having my life laid out in front of me. It puts you right there." Pocock said he refined the story in discussions with his wife, Gloria, during drives to see her mother in Kentucky. Pocock relied on several sources to make the book historically accurate, including his 38-year military career, information from people on both sides of the border and research. The book took four years to complete. "I had to fit all the different elements covering a 30-year span from the Cold War through Desert Storm into a sequence that made sense," he said.

Pocock said his purpose in writing the book had to do with his family. "I wanted to tell the story so my children and grandchildren understand better what I went through in the Army and Army Reserve," he said. Three of Pocock's 10 grandchildren, one in Okemos and two in Colorado, already have taken the book to school as part of history class studies of the Cold War. "I'm gratified that my grandchildren who have read it are asking questions," he said.

The couple is planning a May wedding.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Lewis O'Mara were at home this week at their Russell street residence, after a week's honeymoon trip through Kentucky and Indiana. On their way back, they spent Memorial Day at the Indianapolis Speedway where Pete rooted the now-famous Lotus-Ford into second place in the record breaking race. "He would have been first if he hadn't had brake trouble," said Pete, who knows Fords. After driving 1200 miles on their trip, they predict that they'll "still be living in Saline on our 25th anniversary. The trip made us more enthusiastic than ever about Saline." Their next planned trip: hunting in November.

The couple were wed Saturday evening, May 25, 1963, in a ceremony conducted by the Rev. H. L. Engel at Trinity Lutheran Church. The bride is the former Doris Herter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herter, of Saline. Having graduated from Saline High School and attended Eastern Michigan University, she is now employed at Parke-Davis & Co., Ann Arbor. The groom, son of Mrs. Fred Arend, of Saline, graduated from Saline High School and is employed at Community Ford Sales, in Saline. Bridesmaids at the wedding were Mrs. Larry Finkbeiner of Saline; Miss Sandra Merritt of Manchester; and Miss Judy Leverett of Ypsilanti. Best man was Luther Nagel, of Ann Arbor; and ushers, all from Saline, were Larry Finkbeiner, Roland Guenther, and Richard Weisenreder.

A reception at the American Legion hall followed the ceremony; hostesses included Mrs. Orrin Girbach, Mrs. Norman Wiedmayer, Mrs. Lorrin Jedelev, of Saline; Mrs. John Arend and Miss Ann Arend of East Lansing; Miss Merrilie Harvey, Miss Abigail Young, Mrs. Loren Bersuder and Mrs. Robert Harvey, of Saline.

- 2914 ii. Jason Elliott Stollsteimer, born 22 Apr 1978 in Southfield, Oakland Co, Michigan. He married Andrea Corrin Wehenkel 16 Aug 2003 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan; born 12 Aug 1978.

Notes for Jason Elliott Stollsteimer:

1978 – Imagine the anxiety and jubilation of a new grandchild - then multiply it by three. No, it's not a set of triplets, but three grandchildren have expanded the family of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stollsteimer of Dearborn in the last month, each to a different son or daughter.

An eight pound eleven-once baby boy, Jason Elliott, was born to Terry and Lynne M. (Simowski) Stollsteimer of Plymouth. Jason arrived April 22 at 5:28 a.m. in Providence Hospital, and measured 20-1/2 inches.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Simowski of Dearborn Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McNeil, also of Dearborn Heights, are proud great-grandparents. Jason will be a new brother to Eric, age two-and-a-half years.

Lynn G. and Helene (Stollsteimer) DeFrance of Haslett, Michigan had their first child in the person of Jeffrey Lynn, born at 2:26 p.m. May 10 in Sparrow Hospital in Lansing. Jeffrey weighed in at eight pounds, nine ounces, and was 21 inches from top to bottom. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George DeFrance of Battle Creek.

The third Stollsteimer descendant is Jennifer, born to Michael A. and Janis (Stollsteimer) Germani of Detroit. Jennifer made her debut on May 13 at 1:56 a.m. in the Bi-County Hospital in Warren. She weighed six pounds, five ounces, measured 19-1/2 inches and is the Germani's first child. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andre Fournier of Compiegne, France.

Jason Stollsteimer (born Jason Elliott Stollsteimer on April 22, 1978 in Southfield, Michigan) is an American musician who was the vocalist and guitarist for the indie rock band The Von Bondies, which disbanded in 2011. Stollsteimer also was the main songwriter and producer of the Von Bondies. He released three studio albums with The Von Bondies and currently is working on his first full length album with The Hounds Below.

Musical career

Lack of Communication - His debut album, Lack of Communication, was released in 2001 on Sympathy for the Record Industry. Jason toured the states with the first incarnation of The Von Bondies featuring longtime friend Carrie Smith on the bass, Don Blum on drums and Marcie Bolen (Silverghost, Slumber Party) on Guitar. Over ten U.S. tours were done in order to help promote the record. The group shared the stage with The Cramps, on their 8th US tour. Jason and The Von Bondies also played several shows in the U.K. and Europe and a live performance on the Later... with Jools Holland in London.

Raw & Rare - In 2003 the Von Bondies released a live record that consisted mostly of recording from live BBC recordings from the John Peel.

Pawn Shoppe Heart - In 2004, Stollsteimer released his second studio album, Pawn Shoppe Heart, and toured extensively in the US, UK, and Europe

"C'mon C'mon" was the first single and reached the UK Top 25 for the first time (peaking at #21), and also generated some huge buzz for Stollsteimer.

One other single was released from the album. "Tell me what you see" which reached number 43 in the UK charts. Almost every track from the album has appeared in numerous commercials, Movies and TV shows. One song in particular (c'mon c'mon) was used more than all the others combined. From uses in local radio commercials/adverts to the main theme song of the hit F/X television show Rescue Me. While touring this record

Stollsteimer played the Reading and Leeds Festivals, Glastonbury Festival and Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival

Love, Hate and Then There's You - Jason Stollsteimer's last release with the Von Bondies, "Love, Hate and Then There's You," has gone through a long process of discovery and change before coming to its current polished form.

In early 2006, a handful of demos were posted on the Von Bondies Myspace page. Later the band posted more songs on the MySpace page including "Shut Your Mouth," "Pale Bride," and "Only to Haunt You." Don Blum played drums on these recordings with all other instruments played by Jason. Love, Hate and Then There's You was the first time Stollsteimer ever collaborated songwriting with anyone. The songs "This is our perfect crime" and "Accidents will Happen" were co-written with Butch Walker who also produced some songs on the album. The songs "blame game" and "Earthquake" were co-written with longtime drummer Don Blum. The album was eventually released in 2009 on Majordomo Records.

The Von Bondies is an American alternative rock band. Its current members are Jason Stollsteimer on vocals and lead guitar, Christy Hunt on rhythm guitar and Leann Banks on bass guitar.

The original line-up formed at the 1997 Cramps/Guitar Wolf show by Stollsteimer and Marcie Bolen. They went through a variety of member changes and band names, including The Baby Killers, before settling on 'The Von Bondies' in 2000. Don Blum joined the band around 1999 after attending numerous Baby Killers shows, while Leann Banks was picked via an audition. The Von Bondies got their break by playing a New Year's Eve show in Detroit, MI in 2000. In attendance at the show was Long Gone John, owner of the Sympathy for the Record Industry label. This led to Sympathy releasing the band's debut album "Lack of Communication" in 2001.

In 2003, the band released the live "Raw and Rare" through Dim Mak Records, which was followed by their 2004 breakthrough release, "Pawn Shoppe Heart", on Sire Records. Met with glowing reviews, "Pawn Shoppe" was produced by Jerry Harrison of Talking Heads and co-produced by singer Jason Stollsteimer.

The album reached a peak of #36 in the UK and #8 on Billboard's Top Heatseekers chart and stayed in the chart for eight weeks. The big single from this release was "C'mon C'mon," which reached #25 on the Billboard Singles chart and garnered national radio play for the band.

A shortened version of "C'mon C'mon" is the theme song to the TV series "Rescue Me" and is performed live by the band in Michael Winterbottom's film "9 Songs". MLB Network also uses a brief clip of the song as the opening of their new show "30 Clubs in 30 Days".

In 2008, the band signed with indie label Majordomo Records, joining label mates The Airborne Toxic Event and Earlimart. Their label debut, "Love, Hate and Then There's You", was released in February 2009 featuring the single "Pale Bride."

Known as a touring act, The Von Bondies have headlined tours of the United Kingdom/Europe, Australia, and the United States, taking along supporting bands like The Kills, Kasabian, Franz Ferdinand, Moxie, Lemon, SSM, The Subways, The Stills, Hot Panda and The Donnas. They have also appeared on "Late Show with David Letterman", "Last Call with Carson Daly" and "CD:UK".

The Von Bondies song "C'mon C'mon" was announced to appear as a downloadable track for the music video game series "Rock Band" on March 31, 2009.

The Hounds Below - Stollsteimer is also the leader of The Hounds Below. The group's debut album is set to be recorded in early 2012.

Early life - Stollsteimer was born in Southfield, Michigan. His mother was a nurse, and his father an architect. He grew up in the Detroit suburbs of Plymouth, Michigan with his one brother, Eric. As a child, he went to school at Plymouth-Canton Educational Park. He later lived in Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti, where in 1997 he became friends with his new schoolmate at College, Marcie Bolen, who would become his band's first guitarist. A year later, while studying at Washtenaw Community College, Stollsteimer met Don Blum who would eventually become his drummer in the band The Von Bondies.

Jason Stollsteimer readies new band Ponyshow (Band made of former Von Bondies will make a Blowout debut)
By Brett Callwood

It's been a year and a half years since we put Jason Stollsteimer on the cover of MT, alongside his Hounds Below bandmates and the headline "The Von Bondies were a hit. Can Jason Stollsteimer do it again with the Hounds Below?" As the singer and guitarist prepares for his set at Blowout 17 with another band, Ponyshow (he prefers the name to be written in all-caps), the answer to that question from October '12 has to be "No."

Not that the Hounds Below (or the Von Bondies, for that matter) has necessarily broken up; Stollsteimer insists that both projects are there to be reanimated whenever he and perhaps the other members involved are feeling it. He simply became tired of a persistently shifting Hounds Below lineup, a change in sound or two, and an album that, while brilliant, he feels went to waste because the band didn't tour enough after its release.

For many musicians, the changing sound of a band is part of its evolution, part of the creative process. Not for Stollsteimer. "The first time you hear [Ponyshow], that will define us for the rest of your life," he says. "That's the way it should be. The change of sounds is where every band goes wrong. If we want to change sounds a few years from now, we'll just do a new band."

So Ponyshow is a new band, fair enough. It's interesting though, because the trio is completed by two more former Von Bondies — drummer Don Blum and later-era bassist Leann Banks. It seems entirely natural that, when forced to admit that the Hounds Below wasn't going to be making any great strides anytime soon, Stollsteimer would turn to two people that he refers to as "great friends." A Von Bondies reunion was never in the cards though, and, with Banks still a member of Amy Gore's Valentines and After Dark Amusement Park, and with Blum having removed himself from music altogether for a couple of years, this is a band that has to be content with baby steps for the time being.

We meet with Stollsteimer and Banks at the WAB in Ferndale on a quiet Wednesday afternoon. Stollsteimer is, unusually for him, sporting facial hair due to his imminent appearance in a music video for New York band the Cold Blood Club. The two of them live in Ferndale (Banks works next door at the Emory), so this is home base for them.

"Doing this band, I feel for the first time like I'm going back to the reason I started listening to music, not even just writing music," Stollsteimer says. "I grew up with the Pixies and Pavement, and I always wanted to be in a band like that. When Leann joined the Von Bondies, she was a replacement and I've always wanted to do a band with her from scratch. From Day One, it's these three people. The band will break up the first time somebody leaves. I don't want to break up, but I'm just saying. I played with Don for eight years. I missed Don and, besides music, this is a good excuse for me to see two of my best friends. Whatever comes of it comes of it."

The fascinating thing about Stollsteimer is that he will insist Ponyshow is a "band," it's an equal three-way split. But the man is so talkative, it's so in his nature to lead, that Banks struggles to get a word in. That's no slight on either of them; it's just the way things naturally lie. Back when we interviewed the Hounds Below in '12, Stollsteimer insisted that he wanted it to be a real band and not just his band, but that was never going to be the case, given the ages and personalities of those involved (the other members of that band were significantly younger than the singer). With Ponyshow, he's at least grouped himself with two people that he trusts completely, of a similar age, who have the confidence to push their thoughts forward when they need to. Stollsteimer is a big personality and he needs that. Craves it, even.

The references to Pavement and the Pixies are valid. Ponyshow has a sound that is rooted in the '90s — simple bass lines and guitar work providing the framework for dual male-female vocals and Blum's melodic drumming. "I've played with a few drummers and they were all amazing, but with Don it's the weirdest thing," says Stollsteimer. "It's different. Every kick drum hit is on. It's amazing. Leann has the ability to play very difficult bass lines without breaking a sweat, but with this band, it's not what we do. It's like the Motown thing, where they used great jazz musicians who found it easy to play the Motown songs."

Banks was in her early 20s when she joined the Von Bondies, and, in retrospect, that band was starting to wind down. Now 30, she's a lot more experienced and confident. "The only band I'd ever played with before I joined the Von Bondies was Ghost City (with Electric Six's Chris Tait)," says Banks. "It only lasted a year or so — our last show was actually our CD release party. Then I joined the Von Bondies, and I was such a newbie. It took me a minute to find my thing that was me. I'm 30 and I'm still only just coming into what I feel is me. I didn't listen to the Von Bondies before I joined. It was heavy and dark, and I was very into pop — Sloan and the Beatles. But sometimes it's fun to play a couple of notes and really just put it out there and have fun with the whole thing."

It'll be interesting to see how Ponyshow evolves, and you'll get a chance at a first glimpse when the band plays Blowout. Don't expect any Von Bondies tunes, but do expect something interesting from three musicians who are very in tune with each other.

"I always looked at the Blowout as a way to discover bands that you've heard about, and see them live," Stollsteimer says. "Leann's first show with Amy Gore was at Blowout. So if you wanted to see what Leann or Amy or Jackson [Smith] was doing next, you had to go to that show. Now, this will be Ponyshow's first show in Michigan."

Notes for Gary Alvin Weidmayer:

Farming a family tradition Weidmayers worry about future of small farms

By Alana West, Special Writer - PUBLISHED: August 2, 2007

Gary Weidmayer of Bridgewater Township is a farmer, born and bred, and almost always has been. He plants corn, winter wheat and soybeans, raises cattle, and sells hay to stable owners for their horses on a farm that his father bought in 1940. But his family ties to the Manchester area go back further than that. His relatives have lived there since at least 1840, when they helped establish and build Bethel United Church of Christ.

"My great-great-grandfather worked on that," said Weidmayer, who said the ancestors of his wife, Karen, also worked on the project. "They were the Kueblers. It was the Kueblers and Weidmayers who built the church," said Karen Weidmayer, who is a secretary at Manchester High School. Both Gary and Karen have attended Bethel church all of their lives.

The family owns 380 acres and rents 750 acres more. Their large, white farmhouse sits on a slight hill amid numerous outbuildings and barns, with two silos tucked behind. He only has two exceptions to his life's work in the farming industry – a three-month stint at a factory and three weeks in the National Guard during the 1967 riots. "I know where I was 40 years ago," he said last week. "I was down there two weeks setting up communications with the 156 signal corps. There was mass confusion. ... After that, everybody needed riot control training."

Something he finds satisfying about farming is taking a tour of his fields on his tractor, especially with his loyal companion, Sparky, the couple's Border Collie, at his side. "That dog will ride the combine, a tractor, the pickup. When the pickup goes down the road, it had better have the dog in it. She will sit and wait for him, or go look for him at the neighbor's," Karen Weidmayer said. Baling hay was on the agenda last Monday, and Gary Weidmayer was a bit discouraged at lunchtime about the decreased amount of hay because of a lack of rainfall. "The last six weeks have been really dry. We don't have irrigation. We don't have enough acres (of hay), so we can't justify digging a well," Weidmayer said, adding that irrigation would not solve the problem, since that would make the ground too wet in some circumstances to grow hay. "We were hoping for rain, but we get just enough," said Karen Weidmayer. Her husband agreed, remembering the drought of 1988, which ended in mid-July with downpours the rest of the growing year.

Their corn is growing and looks green in the field; however, if there is no rain, the ears may not develop. "The soybeans look good, but if they don't get rain when they're podding up, the pods don't grow," Karen Weidmayer said. She expected the roots of the corn would grow deeper to find water. "Corn is probably our biggest crop here," she said. "It's expensive to grow because of the cost of the fertilizer." The Weidmayers sell the corn to Global Ethanol, a new company in Riga that converts corn to diesel fuel. Weidmayer bought stock in the company because he believes in the future of it as a fuel source, and to help boost the price and demand for corn. Weidmayer said the company uses 50,000 bushels of corn a day, and was getting more efficient at making the product. It sells the by-products as livestock feed, so there is little waste, he said.

Weidmayer is concerned about the future of farming. He foresees a continual decline in the small farm because of the cost of equipment, and the money invested in livestock and crops. "What I look at is, there will be more big farms, not as many small farms," he said. "You plant corn in April or May, and you don't get your money until October or November, and maybe you don't sell it all at once. All of that money is invested. You need to borrow when you need it, and pay it back when you can."

Weidmayer tries to buy and sell cattle every month. He gets double what he pays for them, but he feeds and cares for them for a year before he sells them. It is a big investment, so it helps to have some money coming in every month. Weidmayer served for 14 years on the Farm Credit Board, a board that lends money to farmers, so he knows the bind farmers get into with credit. He knows they need a good banker who knows what they need. During his term on the board, he saw a number of farm foreclosures.

Weidmayer said he used to run a dairy farm, but he and his son, Greg, who had been helping him on the farm, needed to expand and update to make it feasible. They decided to discontinue the dairy side of the business, so Greg got a full-time job with Manchester Village. He helps his father after work, maintaining the farming equipment. The Weidmayer's said they both hope that someday, their son will take over the farm.

The Weidmayer's enjoy the close bond of both of their children living nearby. Their daughter, Amy, and her family live diagonally across the field, from them, with Gary's mother, Irma, on the same road. Greg and his wife, Melanie, are a few houses down. Melanie owns the Manchester Bakery, and Amy was recently elected to the Bridgewater Township Board.

She married Thomas Leonard Cartwright 24 Oct 1987 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Thomas Cartwright and Helen Harper. He was born 26 Feb 1960 in Muskegon, Muskegon Co, Michigan.

Marriage Notes for Sara Borders and Thomas Cartwright:

Mr. and Mrs. Norman O'Connor of North Lake have announced July 1, 1987 the engagement of their daughter, Sara Borders, to Thomas Cartwright of Muskegon, son of Helen Cartwright of Stone Mountain, Georgia. Sara is a 1981 graduate of Chelsea High School and graduated in 1986 from Central Michigan University. She is a substitute teacher in Orchard View School System of Muskegon. Thomas Cartwright graduated from Orchard View High School in 1978 and Central Michigan University in 1983. He is a recreational therapist at Child and Family Services in Muskegon. An Oct. 24 wedding is being planned.

Sara Lynn Borders of Muskegon, formerly of Chelsea, and Thomas Leonard Cartwright of Muskegon were married Oct. 24, 1987 at St. Paul United Church of Christ in Chelsea. The bride is the daughter of Erma and Norm O'Connor of North Lake. The bridegroom is the son of Helen Cartwright of Stone Mountain, Georgia, and the late Thomas Cartwright. The Rev. Erwin R Koch performed the ceremony before 225 guests. Best man Terry Ireland sang, "The First Time Ever Saw Your Face," and "The Wedding Song."

The bride wore a dress of satin with a modified scoop neck, long sleeves which came to a point, and a chapel train which ended in tiers of ruffles. The bodice and sleeves were accented with lace and seed pearls. Her headpiece was designed of seed pearls with a fingertip-length veil attached. She completed her costume with an antique strand of pearls. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white roses, white carnations, and pale yellow freesias. Dawn Borders, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a tea-length, peacock blue, baroque satin dress and carried a bouquet of pale yellow miniature carnations and baby's breath. Barb Davis and Patti Sweeny, both of Chelsea, and Vikki Kirk of Muskegon were bridesmaids. Their dresses and bouquets were the same as those of the maid of honor. Flower girl Andrea Hulett of Byron, wore a dress similar to that of the bridesmaids and carried a miniature bouquet to match the bridesmaids. She wore a halo of baby's breath. Nicholas Hulett, brother of the flower girl, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow. Best man was Terry Ireland, friend of the bridegroom from Muskegon. Friends of the bridegroom, David Farrell and Jay Allen of Muskegon, and Greg Aerts of Ann Arbor served as ushers. The mother of the bride wore a raspberry tea-length dress. The bridegroom's mother chose a periwinkle blue tea-length dress. Both mothers wore white rose corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Grass Lake Lions Club. Julie Sundling attended the guest book. Michelle Clark and Nancy Heller cut the wedding cake. Hope Sieradski and Jo Thompson poured punch. After a one-week honeymoon trip to Chicago, the couple are making their home in Muskegon. The bride is a 1986 graduate of Central Michigan University and is at present a swim coach and a substitute teacher for Muskegon schools. The bridegroom graduated from Central Michigan University in 1983 and is a recreational therapist with Child and Family Services in Muskegon.

He married Dawn Marie Willard 15 Sep 1990 in Jackson, Michigan, daughter of Ronald Willard and Joyce Conlon. She was born 24 Jul 1968 in Jackson, Michigan.

Notes for Mark Alan (Chow) Moehn:

South Bend - Mark Alan "Chow" Moehn, born on March 11, 1960, to Donna and Arthur Moehn, passed away suddenly from a cardiac event on January 28th, 2014. He lived in Jackson, Michigan, most of his life and for the last fourteen years lived in South Bend, Indiana. Mark was past President of Art Moehn Chevrolet. He began working there when he was old enough to carry a broom and worked every position from scrubbing cars at 14 years old to CEO at 30 years old. He married the love of his life (Dawn Marie Willard) on September 15, 1991, and had an amazing son on March 5, 1992 (Arthur James Moehn). He was a beloved son, brother, father, uncle, and great-uncle to many members of all of his extended family. Mark attended Frost Junior High and Parkside High School in Jackson, Michigan, where he played on the tennis team. He received his B. A. from Northwood Institute in Midland, Michigan. During the years he was in school he was an avid snow skiing and water-skiing competitor. He spent most of the winter weekends at Schuss Mountain and the summers at Wampers Lake and Clark Lake in Michigan, and Diamond Lake in Michigan outside of South Bend. As CEO of Art Moehn Chevrolet, he was very involved in community activities including the Soap Box Derby, Junior Achievement and Rotary. In 1994, he was stricken with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma which he courageously defeated after 2 years at the University of Michigan Hospital. After many setbacks and downfalls caused by the brain damage, he sustained from his cancer treatments, he moved to South Bend, Indiana, to be closer to his sister and her family. He surprisingly succeeded to a new life in South Bend, Indiana; he volunteered extensively with Granger Community Church and at Walt Disney School. He worked out at Knollwood Country Club and was a frequent (and I mean frequent) visitor at Putt-Putt Golf & Games. His family will be eternally grateful for the love and support of his Putt-Putt family. He served as an inspiration to everyone that he met by being outgoing, loving, and never worrying about himself. He had a smile that could light up an entire room, possibly even a building. He was always independent and was always too proud to ask for help, even after multiple medical issues disabling him from doing what he loved to do.

Mark is survived by his ex-wife, Dawn Willard Moehn; his son, Arthur James Moehn of Traverse City, Michigan; his sisters, Deborah (David) Tuttle of Granger, Indiana, Jacqueline (John) Kudner of Clark Lake, Michigan; nieces and nephews, Elizabeth (Derek) Kruas of Boulder, Colorado, Chris (Latisse Kudner), Courtney (Joel Bennett) Scott of South Bend, Indiana, Joe (Allison Hauflaire) Tuttle of Granger, Indiana; and great-nieces, Olivia Tuttle of Granger, Indiana, and Navi Kudner of Clark Lake, Michigan.

Mark's family will be receiving visitors on Tuesday, February 4th, in the evening from 7 to 9 at the Knollwood Country Club in Granger, Indiana. The Funeral Services will be held in Jackson, Michigan. The family is especially grateful to the staff at Tanglewood Trace Assisted Living for their support and care, and to Mark's special friends, Stacey Wickham, Sharon Kaseman-Munoz, Debbie Walton, Sue Miller, Gary Sisk, John and Sue Rice, and his many friends at his favorite place, Putt Putt Golf. Welsheimer Family Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.

COURT OF APPEALS –DECISION - DATED AND FILED

October 1, 1998

Marilyn L. Graves; Clerk, Court of Appeals of

Wisconsin

No.98-0967 STATE OF WISCONSININ COURT OF APPEALS

DISTRICT IV

Fred Eisele and Martha Eisele, Plaintiffs-Appellants, v. Allstate Insurance Company, Defendant-Respondent.

APPEAL from an order of the circuit court for Rock County: Richard T. Werner, Judge. Affirmed. Before Eich, Vergeront and Deininger, JJ.

PER CURIAM. Fred and Martha Eisele appeal a summary judgment order which dismissed their declaratory judgment action for favorable construction of a comprehensive auto insurance policy issued by Allstate Insurance Company. We conclude that the trial court properly determined that the policy at issue did not cover the Eiseles' loss, and we therefore affirm.

Allstate insured the Eiseles' 1981 Corvette under a standard comprehensive coverage policy. In 1996, the Eiseles placed the Corvette with Capitol Corvette for consignment sale. On May 17, 1996, Capitol Corvette sold the vehicle and issued the Eiseles a check in the amount of $10,194.05. Shortly thereafter, however, Capitol Corvette was placed in bankruptcy by its creditors. The bankruptcy trustee eventually obtained a judgment against the Eiseles for the amount of the payment, which was determined to have been a preference. The Eiseles then submitted a claim to Allstate for the loss of the proceeds of the sale of their vehicle. Allstate denied the claim, and the Eiseles sought a judicial determination that the loss was covered by their policy. The trial court granted summary judgment in Allstate's favor.

We are now asked to determine whether the Eiseles' loss was covered. Where, as here, there are no disputed issues of fact, the interpretation of an insurance policy presents a question of law appropriate for summary judgment and de novo review. See Smith v. Atlantic Mut. Ins. Co., 155 Wis.2d 808, 810, 456 N.W.2d 597, 598 (1990). [1] The relevant clause of the insurance policy guaranteed that: Allstate will pay for loss to your insured auto or a non-owned auto not caused by collision. Loss caused by missiles, falling objects, fire, theft or larceny, explosion, earthquake, windstorm, hail, water, flood, malicious mischief or vandalism, and riot or civil commotion is covered. Glass breakage and collision with a bird or animal is covered.

We agree with the trial court that the unambiguous language of the policy limits loss coverage to the automobile itself. We further agree that the undisputed facts show that the Eiseles suffered a loss of money, not a loss to their vehicle. The vehicle had been sold, with the Eiseles' consent, a year before the bankruptcy court ordered the Eiseles to repay the Corvette dealer's estate. Contrary to the Eiseles' contention, we do not believe that a reasonable person in the position of the insured would understand the Corvette to have been an insured automobile under the policy after it was sold to a third party.

Nor are we persuaded by the Eiseles' argument that the term loss should be broadly interpreted to include the loss of proceeds from the sale of a vehicle merely because the list of included losses may have been non-exhaustive. The doctrine of ejusdem generis limits non-enumerated losses to those of the "same kind, class, character or nature" as the given examples. See State v. Ambrose, 196 Wis.2d 768, 777, 540 N.W.2d 208, 212 (Ct. App. 1995); 73 Am. Jur.2d Statutes § 214 (1974). Each of the enumerated types of loss in the Allstate policy deals with some variety of damage to the actual vehicle. The loss of proceeds from the vehicle's sale do not fall within the same category. The trial court properly granted summary judgment in Allstate's favor.

By the Court.—Order affirmed.

Notes for Robert Raymond Reason:

Robert Reason married October 17, 1942 Helen Hepfer of Dimondale, Michigan - Her parents: Mr. & Mrs. William Geisenhafer of Dimondale. [Bob a Private in the Army (Air Force?) at the time of the marriage.] "Staff Sgt. Robert Reason and wife of Hobbs Air Field, New Mexico" ...and, this: "Sgt. Bob Reason, aerial engineer and crew chief of a Flying Fortress, arrived at Selfridge field the other day on a flight. (Selfridge is N of the Detroit area) His dad is Lieut. John Reason, communications officer, Headquarters Group 637, CAP (Civil Air Patrol): here and the sergeant hadn't seen the lieutenant for quite a while.

Sergeant Bob hitch-hiked to Lansing, arriving here about 6 o'clock in the morning. That gave him about an hour with the lieutenant, who said, Don't worry, we'll get you back in plenty of time. Upshot was that Lieutenant Reason flew Sergeant Reason down to Hartung airport, Detroit, three hours later in a 'fliver' plane, got him back to Selfridge in time to return to Hobbs field, New Mexico in a B-17." This was Bob's first marriage which ended in a divorce ...

Bob's last wife, Rosemary Randall, may have been only the second. Rosemary was a close friend of Bob's sister, Jane Lenore. Rosemary was the daughter of a Doctor Randall of Lansing and had been married to someone named Harkness. I notice that the two boys are listed as Jeffery Harkness Reason and David Harkness Reason. The girls don't show Harkness. Were they not from the Harkness marriage? Rosemary had worked in the office at Michigan State University where Elmer O. Peterson was in charge of the Teller Stations where Rosemary worked. Rosemary died a while back in the Harrison area, maybe; she had left Lansing to be near a child or children in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula.

1903. Margaret Louise¹⁴ England (Florence Amelia¹³ Stoll, Clara Lydia¹² Deeg, Rosina Amelia (Emma)¹¹ Staebler, Johann Jacob¹⁰, Christina⁹, Christina⁸ Stollsteimer, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 24 Aug 1923 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 07 Sep 1991 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan. She married Louis

Haynes Andrews 21 Sep 1946 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, son of Louis Andrews and Virginia Maynes. He was born 04 Jan 1922 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 29 Oct 2009 in Sun City, Maricopa Co, Arizona.

Notes for Margaret Louise England:

Lansing, Jan. 31, 1974 - Mrs. Louis H. Andrews Jr., first woman director, of the First National Bank of East Lansing, insists her new role "has nothing to do with women's lib." "What's with this lib thing anyway?" asks Mrs. Andrews. "I've always done my thing. And, besides, what's so unusual about a woman being a bank director when women control huge chunks of finance all over this country?" Born Margaret "Peggy" England, daughter of the late Fred M. England of California and the late Mrs. England, Mrs. Andrews meant every word of doing her thing. "I've always expressed myself and gotten involved," she continued, "from the time I was a little girl." One highlight of her adolescent years was playing a clown in the Hospitaler Circus. "My Dad was the chairman, and it was no trouble at all for him to talk Otto Griebeling, world-famous clown, into making me up and letting me get into the act" Talented in both writing and acting, Mrs. Andrews majored in speech and radio at Christian College and Northwestern University, where she later worked on the theater staff.

When she returned to Lansing she took on two careers simultaneously. She was a society writer for The State Journal and at the same time she shared a radio program with Howard Finch. "Neither media especially liked it that I worked for the other, but it kept things exciting," she said. After she was married in 1946, she resigned from the Journal and kept her part-time talk show with Uncle Howdy." It was during these years that she joined Civic Players Guild and starred in many lead roles. She also appeared in several editions of the Junior League Follies. "From the time we had our children, Ginny (now Mrs. Robert Outwater) and Rick (a student at Eastern Michigan University) I kept to the volunteer jobs I could work out within my family's schedule."

She managed during these years to serve as president of the Junior League, Town Hall Inc., Edward Sparrow Hospital Guild and the Harriet Mifflin Society of the First Presbyterian Church. For sports, she enjoys cross-country skiing and golf. Her hobby is doing original needlepoint designs of scenes and other things that have sentimental meanings for her. Just for kicks, and because she believed in the philosophy when she slimmed down a few years ago, she teaches a Weight-Watchers class three times a week. Will the bank job take much of her time? "I think it will mean monthly meetings and some consulting. I know I'll enjoy it" she said as she sat quietly doing her needlepoint in the sunny living room of her heirloom-filled home on Northgate, East Lansing. "The particularly fun thing ' about the bank directorship," she said, "is that my Dad founded it in 1955. And Andy and I took the children over and opened the first savings accounts. Ginnys was No. 1, Rick's No. 2 and ours No. 3." Fred England co-founded the England-Cook Chevrolet "dealership in 1922 with the late Howard Cook. It was sold in 1970 and now England's son-in-law owns and operates the new Andrews Chevrolet dealership in Mason.

"One reason I've always felt community-minded," reminisced Mrs. Andrews, "is because my family was always into everything. My mother was chairman of Red Cross volunteers during World War II and after, and Daddy was president of the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Downtown Coaches and a number of other civic things. It has always been away of life for us." Mrs. Andrews mother, the late Florence England, died in 1970 and subsequently England married a long-time family friend, the widowed Mrs. Robert Paul whom the Andrews all call "Aunt Mary." She still resides in Carmel, California, although she keeps up her summer home at Ironton where the Andrews family vacations.

Margaret E. "Peg" Andrews of Lansing, age 68, died Saturday, September 7, 1991. Mrs. Andrews was born August 24, 1923 in Lansing. She was a graduate of Lansing Central High School; Christian College, Columbia, Missouri; and Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. Peg was a community volunteer; a past President of E.W. Sparrow Women's Association; honorary member of Sparrow Hospital Board of Directors; member of Sparrow Hospital Foundation; past President of Junior League of Lansing and Sparrow Hospital Guild. She was founder and past President of Lansing Town Hall and a member of Lansing Women's Club. Through the years, she was active in women's activities of First Presbyterian Church and the golf activities at the Country Club of Lansing. She also was active on several community boards and served as a director of First National Bank of Michigan. Her profession included writer for the Lansing State Journal; announcing for WJIM radio; and 18 years as a lecturer for Weight Watchers.

Surviving are her husband of 45 years, Louis H. Andrews; daughter and family, Virginia Louise, Richard Herrmann and granddaughter, Emilie Louise of Poway, California; son, Frederick E. Andrews of Lansing; sister-in-law, Shirley V. Andrews of Okemos; brother-in-law, Robert Andrews of Lansing; several cousins, nephews, grand nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, 11 a.m., in the First Presbyterian Church, 211 N. Chestnut Street, Lansing, with The Rev. David L. Evans, Pastor, officiating, assisted by Joe C. Foster, Jr. Interment will follow in Evergreen Cemetery. Honorary bearers will be James W. Clark, Thomas Culpepper, W. Gordon Dahlberg, William Harrison, Dr. Huston Mallory, Dennis Mosholder, J. Woodward Row, Rex E. Sessions, Theodore Swift, Thomas N. Tabler and Robert Zoeuller.

The soft glow of many tapers in tall candelabra lighted Central Methodist church Saturday night Sept. 21, 1946 for the wedding of Miss Margaret Louise England, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred England, Jr., to Louis Haynes Andrews, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Andrews, 514 Leitram Street. Six hundred guests were present for the ceremony performed at 8 p. m. by Dr. D. Stanley Coors. Quantities of white flowers were used to decorate the church, from the foyer where bouquets and white satin bows were tied to the newel posts at the stairs, at the pews along the white carpeted center aisle, and on the altar. An organ prelude was played by Mrs. Samuel Fredenberg, Jr., of Portland, before the ceremony began. She played accompanying music and Moushagh Alexanian sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." Five attendants, costumed in aqua slipper satin, their headdresses huge, perky bows of aqua faille, and their bouquets each containing a large bronze glamelia and tritoma, interwoven with garlands of bittersweet and colored foliage, preceded the bride to the altar.

The bride was traditionally gowned in white. The skirt of her heavy satin gown was draped from a long, fitted bisque into a circular, chapel length train. Her veil of fine net which had been worn by her mother and also by Mrs. William J. Clark, fell in two tiers from an oval crown rose pointe lace. The heirloom Gross, gift of Mrs. Robert A. Paul whose family had received it from Duchess of Argyle, edged the top flounce of the veil, falling to the shoulders, and the second tier of veiling hung to knee length. The satin gown was made with a bias, draped bertha below a high-necked marquissette yoke, and long, fitted sleeves buttoned at the wrists and pointed over the hands. The bride's bouquet was a shower of white orchids with an orchid corsage as a center. Her pearls were an engagement gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Dorothy Jean Krall of Watervliet was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Swift and Miss Joanne Plasterer of Kansas City, Missouri, formerly of Lansing. Junior bridesmaids were Margaret Bresnan and Margaret Reineke Cook of Owosso. Their gowns, V-necked and with flared, cap sleeves, were made with tight waists, fitted to the hipline, which was emphasized with full, double peplums reminiscent of the frocks of Dresden shepherdesses. The skirts were full, stiffened at the hem, and dipping into a suggestion of a train in back. The headdress bows of stiffened faille, were piped in wide satin bands. They wore gauntlet mits of aqua faille, elbow length, with wide cuffs piped in satin.

Alton D. Ambrose, brother-in-law of the bridegroom was groomsman. Ushers included Robert Boerth of Detroit, a cousin of the bride, Robert Andrews, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Walker, Carlyle Graham, and Samuel Fredenberg, Jr., of Portland. James Clark lighted the altar candles before the service. Mrs. Alton D. Ambrose was mistress of ceremonies for the bridal party at the church.

The bride's mother was gowned in a honey-beige crepe made with cascade drapery at one side of the skirt where it was caught with a bow. She wore long, dark brown gloves, a tiny hat of dark feathers, and a corsage of yellow orchids. Mrs. Andrews, mother of the bridegroom, was in black crepe, with a hat of pink feathers trimmed in sequins, and a corsage of pink orchids.

The entire club floor of the Hotel Oldswas reserved for the wedding reception attended by some 200 guests. At the entrance to the American room where they were received by the bridal couple, who were standing before banks of palms, was a table covered with a madeira embroidery cloth on which were many bags of rice. The reception table, also in the American room, was covered with a pink satin cloth about which trailed garlands of smilax and white satin baby ribbon streamers which fell from the five-tiered cake at its center. Bridal roses at the top of the cake were held in satin loops. Silver candelabra and bowls of bridal roses were at either side of the cake and silver coffee service was at each end of the table. Punch was served in the east room from a horseshoe shaped table covered with a rose-romance satin cloth. The appointments were in white and silver with two crystal bowls and champagne glasses.

Friends who assisted at the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bygrave, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Cook, Mrs. Clyde Fulton of Charlotte, Mrs. Ted Hulett, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Fred Boerth, aunt of the bride from Detroit; Miss Katheryn Leer of South Bend, Indiana, Miss Phyllis Trevellyan, Miss Mary Jane McNamara, Mrs. William Monroe, Mrs. Gross, and Mrs. Ambrose.

Out of town guests were from Akron, Ohio, Chicago, Kansas City, Missouri, Detroit, Grosse Pointe, and Grand Rapids. The bride groom areen route to The Homestead, Hot Springs, Virginia, where they will spend two weeks. For traveling, the bride wore a mint green, tailored gabardine suit, and a brown blouse, kolinsky furs, a small brown hat, and lizagator shoes and bag. At her shoulder were the white orchids from the center of her bridal bouquet.

After October 15, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will be at home at 336 Oak Hill Avenue, East Lansing. The bride is a graduate of Christian college, Columbia, Missouri, and of the school of speech at Northwestern university. Her husband attended General Motors Institute of Technology before becoming a pilot in the army air corps.

Once their children were older, Kathy returned to work at various locations before finding her favorite job as Administrative Secretary for both the Health Sciences Division and Athletic Department at Fresno City College. She thrived while with the Athletic Department, igniting a love for all things baseball. She retired from Fresno City College in 2009.

Notes for Allison Katherine Ginsberg:

Allison Katherine Ginsberg of Gull Lake (Richland), Michigan age 39, died Monday afternoon, June 25th, 2018 at her loving parents' home after battling the beast that is ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) for the past 10 years. In telling her own story, Allison wrote, "My goal is to live each day to the fullest, surrounded by my friends and family." With the help of many friends and her family, she accomplished her goal and inspired all who met her along the way. Allison, the daughter of Steven J. and Elaine M. (Newland) Ginsberg, DVM, was born in Kalamazoo, Michigan on August 17, 1978; was a 1996 graduate of Gull Lake High School and received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 2001. Following graduation, she moved to Chicago where she began her career in pharmaceutical sales with Pharmacia. She moved into the veterinary pharmaceutical field with Intervet and went on to manage a sales force for Schering-Plough (Merck). She was serious and very successful in her work and career and loved her job and the people she came to know. She was eternally grateful to Merck for partnering with NEADS to provide her beloved service dog Chesty, who preceded her in death. Allison was a true lake girl! She loved to be on the water, in the sun, swimming and boating, whether in Michigan on Gull Lake or in Chicago on Lake Michigan. She also loved snow skiing, traveling and great food. She was up for anything if it made for a good story and a good laugh. After moving back to Gull Lake to live with her parents, Allison often laughed about having become part of the 5 o'clock happy hour with her parents' retired group of friends. Anyone who had the opportunity to spend time with Allison was inspired by her spirit.

Allison is survived by her parents, Dr. Steven and Elaine Ginsberg of Gull Lake; her sister, Aimee M. (Brian) Greenfield of Rocky River, Ohio; her brother Nick G. (Wendy) Ginsberg of Grandville, Michigan; her maternal grandmother, Ruth Newland of Kalamazoo; a niece Maia Ginsberg, three nephews, Joe and Ben Greenfield and Parker Ginsberg, and by her service dog Floral.

A memorial gathering to celebrate Allison's life will be held on Thursday, August 16th at 11:00 am with a buffet lunch to follow at Gull Lake Country Club, 9725 W. Gull Lake Drive, Richland, Michigan 49083. Final interment will be in Yorkville Cemetery, Ross Township. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Allison's honor may be directed to NEADS (National Education for Assistance Dog Services). The Farley Estes Dowdle Funeral Home & Cremation Care, Richland Chapel is assisting Allison's family.

1991. Benjamin John¹⁴ Zahn II (Benjamin John¹³, Emma Katherine¹² Spiess, Marie Katharine¹¹ Staebler, Johann Ulrich¹⁰, Johann Friedrich⁹, Christina⁸ Stollsteimer, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 30 Jun 1949 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Barbara Ann Poland 26 Aug 1972 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Georgie Poland and Margaret LaRue. She was born 09 Sep 1951 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Benjamin John Zahn II:

July 20, 2000 - Firefighting's all in the family for this clan 4 generations of Michigan family rise to the rescue - When B. J. Zahn was growing up, he worried a little every time his father left to begin his shift as an Ann Arbor firefighter. Now, it's dad's turn to fret That's because B. J. is following in his father's footsteps, just as his father did and his grandfather before that It's a family affair that spans 84 years. Besides being a fourth-generation Ann Arbor firefighter, B. J. Zahn is also the fourth Benjamin John Zahn to wear an Ann Arbor firefighter's badge. Although having four generations at the same department is unusual, the tradition of father and son firefighters is common across the country, said Michelle Snider, executive assistant with the Michigan Professional Firefighters Union. "I think that as boys and some girls grow up, Daddy is a hero in their eyes and they want to be like Daddy," Snider said. "It's very common in this profession." Ben Zahn Sr. was the first Ann Arbor firefighter in the family. He was hired in 1916 and served as the chief from 1935 until retiring in 1955. Then came Ben Jr, who was hired in 1953 and retired in 1981 as deputy fire marshal B. John Zahn was the third generation when he began working with his father in 1971. He retired in December as an assistant chief. B.J. Zahn picked up the tradition when he was hired in March.

"We're a close-knit family, and we've all been proud of what our fathers did," John Zahn said "I tried to stay out of it for B.J. and just let him make his own decision, and of course I'm proud of the decision he made." Ten current Ann Arbor firefighters are the sons of retired Ann Arbor firefighters. And many more Ann Arbor firefighters have sons on other departments or are the sons of firefighters in different cities. But firefighting sons admit that it can be a little intimidating at first to follow in their father's footsteps. John Zahn remembers that well, which was one reason, he decided to retire as his son was coming on board. John Zahn worked under his father for a decade. "I spent the first 10 years trying not to embarrass my dad. After he left, I was able to be my own person a little more," said Zahn, 50. "It's a little difficult to be compared to your forefathers."

Battalion Chief Tom Schmid was hired on as "Chief Fred Schmid's son" in 1977. He couldn't shake that label for years, even after his father retired in 1985. "We had a little back and forth thing going. I kept telling him, 'One day, I won't be retired Chief Fred Schmid's son. I'll just be me,' " said Tom Schmid, 43. Tom and Fred Schmid both remember that day. Several younger firefighters visited Stadium Hardware one afternoon, where Fred Schmid was working part-time. He was introduced to the group as "Battalion Chief Tom Schmid's dad." He immediately called his son. "I told him right away and he said, Well, it's about time," " Fred Schmid said.

May 9, 2019 – Bloomington, Indiana – You could call them Indiana University's unintentional All-Americans. Except Kelsey and Haley Harris, identical twins from Carmel, did not become who they are by accident. Track and field? OK, yeah, that was an accident. They went into it "kicking and screaming," according to their father, Bill Harris. The twins liked cross-country well enough. Their Carmel teams ran to state titles in all four years of high school. But they were year-round swimmers, and when time allowed, softball players. They didn't race on the track until they were juniors, and even then didn't produce times to lure college recruiters. Such skepticism did not deter them nor Hoosiers coach Ron Helmer. "I think that just mainly motivated us even more," Kelsey said. "Because we knew what we were potentially capable of, and what could possibly happen. I think coach Helmer knew that, too."

The twins will compete in their final Big Ten Championships together Saturday and Sunday at Iowa. Haley, a senior, is moving on to a PricewaterhouseCoopers internship and accounting career. Kelsey has one college season left in cross-country and outdoor track. The twins come from an athletic family. One brother, Trey, is a freshman runner at Butler, and another, Trevor, 16, was on Carmel's freshman basketball team. They also have a sister, Jenna, 9. The twins' father was a swimmer at Michigan, and both grandfathers were athletes there: Billy Harris was a wide receiver who played in the Rose Bowl, and Doug Horning was a Big Ten wrestling runner-up. An aunt, Kym Horning, was a softball pitcher for Wisconsin. The twins made their own history in the Big Ten. Haley and Kelsey ran second and fourth legs, respectively, for the team that won the 3,200-meter relay at the recent Penn Relays. It was the first time the Hoosiers had ever won a women's relay at the 125-year-old event. Fittingly, they won together. "They were always competitive," Bill Harris said. "Just not with one another." Helmer learned to tell the twins apart from hairstyles — Kelsey wears braids — and personality. Kelsey is outgoing, Haley introspective. The coach conceded he has kept them in different races and training groups because he didn't want them "constantly butting heads." As it turns out, he need not have worried.

He has coached many sets of twins, he said, and they are the first "who were genuinely excited for their sibling's success." When they are on the same team, look out. Their former cross-country coach, Mark Ellington, once organized a kickball game at a preseason camp at Lincoln State Park. Teams were divided by classes, and even though they were freshmen, the twins were going for the win. "It was a lot of fun, but man, they took it seriously," Ellington said. "In the heat of it, there was a lot of yelling and screaming and intensity. They just approach everything they do like they're going to dominate it."

The twins were swimmers on the most dominant dynasty ever, considering Carmel has a record 33 straight state championships. Kelsey never swam at state, but Haley was on the 2015 team that was arguably the best in high school history. In her final swim race, Haley was fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. The winner: Lilly King. Carmel swim coach Chris Plumb said the aerobic foundation the twins built in the pool enhanced their performance after concentrating on the track. There were autumn weeks when the Harrises did swimming and running workouts on the same day. "They never complained. They went to work every single day," Plumb said. "That's the one thing I remember." He was not the only one noticing the twins' attitude. Haley was the Mental Attitude Award winner at the 2015 state track meet.

The Harrises started running because cross-country and track were the only sports available to sixth-graders in middle school. Instead of spring track, they played softball, in which they were outfielders. They were so fast, in fact, that the coach persuaded the right-handed twins to bat left-handed and become slap hitters. They were always getting on base. Soon after they quit spring swimming, they finished 1-2 in a mile race in 4 minutes, 58.72 seconds and 4:58.99, respectively. As seniors, Kelsey was third in the state in the 800 in 2:13.10 and Haley sixth in the 1,600 in 4:56.79. Yet on a national scale, such times were "pretty ordinary," Helmer said. Here's the thing: The twins knew it. "I just wanted to work as hard as I could and see where it could go," Haley said. "Because in high school, we never committed full-time to running. I think that helped a lot, just doing one sport continuously." Helmer is convinced Haley has a "big breakthrough 1,500 in her" at the Big Ten meet. Her highest conference finish is fifth in last year's indoor mile.

Haley and Kelsey became All-Americans together on the team that finished seventh in the distance medley relay at March's NCAA Indoor Championships. Kelsey was also seventh in the 800, earning her third All-America designation (she was fourth in the relay in 2018). Kelsey has finished second once and third twice at Big Ten meets, and she ranks No. 4 on IU's all-time list at both 800 and 1,500 meters (2:03.89 and 4:18.23). Drop another second in the 800, and she could qualify for next year's U.S. Olympic Trials. There are other runners with the talent to improve as the twins did, Helmer said, if they would approach as they did: be secure in themselves, accept challenges, "and just get up and keep rolling."

The twins have replied emphatically to those who thought they would not become elite runners nor should attend the same college. They pushed each other more than any coach could have. "I think we've been able to form and be our own person here while also remaining as really close friends and teammates," Kelsey said. "Honestly, I don't regret anything. I would do it all over again. 'I've loved being her teammate for the last four years. I'm sad that's going to end soon.'"

He married Julia Leticia Baroni. She was born 10 Feb 1953.

Notes for Julia Leticia Baroni:

May 28, 2013 - Julia Van Aken recently spoke about her duties as pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs on East Ganson Street in Jackson:

Age: 60

Residence: Grass Lake

Position and Workplace: Pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs, 900 E. Ganson St., Jackson

Length of employment: 36 years as a pharmacist; 12 years at Longe Drugs.

Family: Married to husband Tim for 12 years. Two step-children, Justin, 32, and Jessica, 30; and one step-granddaughter, Raiden, 5

Q. How did you get into this line of work?

A. My dad was a high school counselor. He told me being a pharmacist would be a good job for a woman.

Q. What is your favorite part of your job?

A. Interacting with people; (especially) the people that I work with. We're in such a close proximity ... you have to really love the people you work with. We're shoulder-to-shoulder eight and a half hours a day. We spend more time together than we do with our spouses.

Q. What has been your proudest or most memorable moment at work?

A. There is a particular customer that I have helped a number of times. She's a mental health patient. She's had times where her doctor needed to be contacted and I went out of my way to reach her doctor for her. That's the most rewarding.

Q. Have you had a most embarrassing moment at this job?

A. When (co-workers) bought me a pair of black silk panties that were so big they would have fit a 300-pound man. One of the girls gave them to me all wrapped up nice for some occasion. There were customers standing around and I opened them up. Everyone was in on the joke but me. I put them right on over my pants. It was really funny. I could have fit three of me in them.

Q. If you could change one thing about your job, what would it be?

A. I wish the store were bigger and we had more room.

Q. How do you like to spend your free time?

A. Horseback riding. I've crisscrossed Michigan on a horse. It's a 520-mile ride. I also run. I get up at quarter to four in the morning, run six miles; then come to work. I just started doing that two years ago. I've run 5Ks. I'm usually outside.

Q. If you could have a "dream job," what would it be?

A. Something with horses. I worked at a camp store for awhile. I was like a camp counselor in a horse barn and I really liked that. I don't mind mucking stalls, feeding horses, brushing horses and doing the down-and-dirty work. ... That would be perfect if I could make a living at that.

- 3309 vi. Ryan Matthew Estrada, born 14 Jan 2000 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 09 Dec 2016 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Ryan Matthew Estrada:

Jan 12, 2017 Saline, Michigan - Few would suspect a three-sport varsity athlete to have underlying health concerns, so it came as a shock to Ryan Estrada's friends and family when the Saline High School junior was found unresponsive at wrestling practice on Dec. 9, 2016. Estrada, 16, was in the locker room waiting to weigh in before wrestling practice, his mother Kim Estrada later found out. Having gone right from football season to wrestling, Ryan Estrada was trying to drop 15 pounds to make his weight class. He lay down on the bench in the locker room to wait for his turn on the scale, but when his turn came his friends couldn't rouse him, Kim said.

"Fellow teammates quickly contacted staff who began treatment. EMS arrived at the scene and continued to provide support for Ryan," Saline Area Schools Superintendent Scot Graden wrote in a letter to Saline families after the incident. Ryan was transported to the University of Michigan Hospital, and he died the next day, Dec. 10, 2016. It turned out he had an enlarged heart that resulted in sudden cardiac death, Kim said. The Mayo Clinic says having an enlarged heart is the most common cause of heart-related sudden death in people under 30, and it's the most common cause of sudden death for athletes - although it's still rare overall for young people to die of sudden cardiac arrest.

Pittsfield Township Police Deputy Police Chief Gordy Schick previously told The Ann Arbor News the department would forego an investigation because the circumstances of Ryan's death were not deemed suspicious. "It's something you just don't know, unless you know what signs you're really looking for," said Kim Estrada, who has been married to Ryan's father, Henry Estrada Sr., for 22 years. "He had a headache earlier in the week - that's one sign. He went from football right into wrestling, so he said his upper body was a little sore. But he had that every year - that would be another sign." Henry Estrada Sr. said Ryan had been laughing and joking like he always did the night before his collapse at school, with no indication anything was wrong.

"The morning of it was the usual drag him out of bed," Kim said with a laugh, seated beside Henry Sr. in their Saline home on Tuesday, Jan. 10. "We said, 'Good-bye, love you and have a good day. I'll see you tonight.'" In the void left by the sudden loss of their youngest child, Kim and Henry leaned on their other children - Henry Estrada Jr. and his wife Jessica Clarke-Estrada, Carolyn Estrada and Amanda Estrada - plus their grandchildren - Jonathan, Manuel, Jazlyn and Alexandra - to get through the holiday season. Ryan also is survived by his grandfather Boyd Werner and many uncles, aunts and cousins.

The Saline community has been a great source of support since Ryan's death, Kim said. Parents of Ryan's football and wrestling teammates provide them with meals three times a week. Ryan's close friends accompanied him to the hospital that Friday in December, and many of his friends have stopped by the Estradas' house in the past few weeks to visit the family. "They're the same age as him. It just was comforting to have them here," Henry Sr. said. Ryan's teammates signed his No. 79 football jersey and gave it to Kim and Henry Sr. His friends also made a scrapbook for Ryan's parents with photos of Ryan and messages sharing their favorite memories with him. "Ryan was a great kid to be around. He was always positive and kind," said Saline head football coach Joe Palka. "He was well liked by students and appreciated by teammates. He had a great demeanor and a huge smile. He was always enjoyable to be with. He will be missed greatly by all of us."

Ryan's visitation and funeral were held at Saline High School auditorium on Dec. 17 to accommodate the large turnout. University of Michigan football coach Jim Harbaugh sent an autographed football helmet and handwritten card with his condolences to the service.

A GoFundMe account set up to help the family with funeral expenses has raised more than $24,000 to date, exceeding the $15,000 goal set for the campaign. Money leftover after covering the cost of the funeral will go to the Ryan Estrada Saline HS Football and Wrestling Camp Fund his family established. Wrestling teams from other schools also sent cards to the family or made donations to the scholarship fund, Kim said. "I wish I could thank everybody," she said. "I wish I could individually thank everybody, but I'm having a hard time. It's just been so overwhelming."

Ryan was a lifelong University of Michigan football fan, and he had hoped to become a Michigan Man one day. His grandfather is a season ticket holder, so he attended as many games as he could. When Ryan was old enough, he attended summer football camps at U-M. His bedroom walls are covered in U-M memorabilia. Ryan began playing football in middle school, started throwing shot put on the track and field team in eighth grade and picked up wrestling in high school. "He spent most of his life in that gym," Henry Sr. said, recalling picking up Ryan from the high school at 10 p.m. some days after meets or games. "I never heard him complain about too much of anything. ... He was a heck of a good kid, and I'm not just saying that because he was mine. He was just a very quiet, funny kid."

While the 6-foot, 300-pound teenager certainly was a physical presence, Ryan's friends and family remember him most for his sense of humor. He loved comedian Gabriel Iglesias, who has a bit about being "fluffy," not fat. Ryan's friends nicknamed him "Fluffy," and he would wear Hawaiian shirts in imitation of Iglesias' signature style, Kim said. "He was always making people laugh," she said. "Even if it was the stupidest thing, he could make you laugh."

Ryan liked to dance, especially to Michael Jackson and other "oldies" music, his sister Carolyn Estrada said. Kim treasures memories of their family's summer trips to Alanson, Michigan, and making peanut brittle with Ryan at Christmas time.

Saturday, Jan. 14, would have been Ryan's 17th birthday. The family plans to go out for dinner - possibly at Olive Garden, Ryan's usual pick for his birthday - to mark the occasion. The wrestling team planned to pay tribute to Ryan at their first home meet of the season on Wednesday, Jan. 11. They named him an honorary captain this year, and some of the wrestlers carry a bag of Ryan's gear with them to the mat at the start of their dual meets, said Coach Scott Marvin. "He brought to the team a zest for life. He was always very happy. I can say I never really saw him too down," Marvin said. "All the kids enjoyed being around him."

Ryan had a good understanding of his abilities as an athlete, Marvin said, and he was willing to work hard to improve. He recalled their wrestling camp this past summer, when Ryan ran 29 miles over the course of four days even though running typically was a struggle for him. Marvin said Saline High School is planning to rename its annual wrestling tournament this month the "Ryan Estrada Memorial Tournament," and half of the admission sales from the tournament each year will be donated to sports camp scholarship fund in Ryan's name.

Ryan M. Estrada, Saline, Michigan. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Ryan Matthew Estrada. Ryan was taken from us much too soon at the age of 16 on Saturday, December 10th, 2016 at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. He was a life-long resident of Saline, Michigan and a proud Hornet. Ryan was born on January 14th, 2000 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He married Angela June Martone 07 Oct 1995 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 02 Jul 1970.

Notes for Jason Ronald Koch:

On April 23, 2015 - Jackson, Michigan - While a Jason Koch awaited his sentence for a first-degree criminal sexual conduct charge, a prosecutor told the judge there is no number of years that can remedy the damage caused by the his actions. "We already know that whatever you do isn't going to rehabilitate him or fix him, if that weren't already painfully clear based on our own experience his comments make it crystal clear," Jackson County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Kati Rezmierski said. "These kids are never going to be any better. There isn't a magic number of years that you can give him that will make (the victims) any better." Rezmierski's statements were made in response to Jason Koch's claim that, outside of the events the charge stems from, he "had never done anything like this before."

Koch was originally charged with three counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct and three counts of second-degree criminal sexual conduct for sexual assaults against three girls under the age of 13 over several years, according to court testimony. Chief Circuit Judge Thomas Wilson sentenced Koch to 25 to 50 years for the crimes on April 23. During her allocution, Rezmierski said the prosecutor's office was forced to offer Koch a plea deal after the victims were coached by individuals close to the case. In exchange for a guilty plea of first-degree criminal sexual conduct, which Koch entered on March 20, the remaining charges against him were dropped. Wilson said the only "good thing" that he could say about the case was that the victims were spared the pain of testifying during a trial.

Koch's attorney, Brent Leder, told the judge Koch suffers from "significant alcohol problems" but added that he and his client realize there is no excuse for his behavior. Leder also said Koch has shown "genuine" remorse since his arrest and has been cooperative with investigators. Koch apologized for his actions and told the judge "it was all because of alcohol" a claim Wilson said he did not believe. Koch was credited 142 days for time served.

Dr. Jared L. DeForest is a Program Manager for Terrestrial Ecosystem Science programs in the Climate & Environmental Sciences Division of the Office of Biological and Environmental Research within the U.S. Department of Energy's (DOE) Office of Science. He co-manages a portfolio of university and national laboratory research projects to improve the representation of critical terrestrial ecosystem properties and processes in predictive Earth system models (ESM). This includes the Next Generation Ecosystem Experiments (NGEE-Arctic & NEGG-Tropics) and SPRUCE.

Jared is a rotator (IPA) to DOE's Office of Science from the Department of Environmental and Plant Biology at Ohio University. He earned his Ph.D. in Natural Resources and Environment from the University of Michigan in 2004 and his M.S. and B.S. in Forestry from Michigan Technological University in 2000 and 1997, respectively. After his post-doc investigating ecosystem-scale carbon exchange from the University of Toledo, he became a faculty member at Ohio University in 2006 and is currently an associate professor. His teaching portfolio includes Soil Properties and Ecosystem Processes, Restoration Ecology, Plant Ecology (non-majors), and Plants & People (non-majors). His research interests draw from soil biogeochemistry (coupled biogeochemical cycles), ecosystem ecology, microbial ecology, and forestry to understand how soil mediates the structure and function of ecosystems. Specifically, he investigates soil microorganism's influence on the nutrient economy (nitrogen and phosphorus) and how that mediates ecosystem carbon cycling and storage.

Notes for Geoffrey Conrad Glover:

The calls come daily to the Iredell County register of deeds. Same voices. Same question. Grieving families seeking death certificates. Matt McCall's answer is usually the same: Call back tomorrow. McCall, who has been register of deeds four years, became so frustrated over the time it takes to get completed death certificates from the state medical examiner's office that he sent the governor a letter last fall on behalf of one family.

Margaret Glover's 37-year-old son had been dead six months and still no death certificate. She couldn't settle Geoffrey's finances without one, and so every few weeks she would telephone McCall to see if it had arrived. "I just wanted to get things past me," said Glover, of Mooresville. "You have to have the darn piece of paper to do anything financial." If the cause of a person's death is not an issue, a death certificate is usually processed promptly. Most delays occur in cases referred to medical examiners – about 13 percent of deaths in North Carolina, including sudden, accidental or suspicious deaths.

She married Eric Thomas Ruckel 28 Sep 1991. He was born 11 Jun 1970, and died 30 Sep 2022 in Dansville, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Eric Thomas Ruckel:

Eric Thomas Ruckel, 52, tragically passed away after an automobile accident in Dansville, Michigan on September 30, 2022. Eric was born June 11th, 1970 to loving parents Dale and Elaine (Krumrie) Ruckel. Family was always very important to Eric and he cherished many memories of growing up with his two siblings Shelly (Allen) Heaviland and Andy (Jaime) Ruckel. Their family moved to Dansville from Lansing when he was 7 years old. Eric loved to play sports and played football, baseball and wrestled from the time he started at his new school, until he graduated in 1988. It was at Dansville that Eric made life-long friendships, including Eric Bullion and Jason Hall, that began during those early days at little league sports and continued until the day he died.

In 1986 Eric asked his future wife, Melissa (Foster) Ruckel to their Junior Mistletoe Dance, officially becoming a couple. Eric proposed to Melissa in November 1990, and they were married on September 28, 1991 at the age of 21 years old. After those first 6 years of marriage Eric and Melissa had their first child, Sydney Blaine Ruckel, on July 9, 1997. Logan Foster Ruckel followed only a few years later on March 24, 2001. Eric's wife and children meant the absolute world to him, and he always made them feel loved and protected.

Throughout Eric's life he enjoyed many hobbies such as boating & swimming on inland lakes; deer hunting with family and friends; reading novels; working on cars and driving fast cars. Eric was able to pass on his knowledge and passion for cars to his son Logan. In 1991 Eric was accepted into the Apprenticeship for Lansing's Plumbers & Pipefitters Local 388, which lead him to becoming a Journeyman Plumber. Everybody who worked with him saw Eric's skills and how he excelled at his chosen profession. After many years of hard work, Eric went to work for the State of Michigan at the G. Robert Cotton Correctional Facility in Jackson, Michigan, as a Journeyman Plumber in 2015. The job was easier on his body and he made several good friends during the time he worked there.

Through Eric's relationship with Melissa he created a second family that consisted of his father-in-law, Theodore Lee Foster who preceded him in death in 2019; mother-in-law Bonnie (Warner) Foster; sister-in-law's, Michelle (Jeremy) Heberlein and Jennifer (Foster) DePeel. Although Eric was taken much too soon, he will forever be in our hearts and never far from our thoughts. A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, November 12th, 2022 at 1:00 pm at the Church of the Nazarene in Mason, Michigan. The family wishes to extend our sincere thanks to all those who have shown us love, support, and kindness during this difficult time.

He married Jana Lynn Gibson 20 Feb 1982 in Clark Co, Nevada. She was born 16 Mar 1961.

Notes for Kenneth Edward Rhinefrank:

Kenneth Edward Rhinefrank passed away at home in Albany, Oregon on April 25 at age 59. Born and raised in Stockton, California, Ken graduated from local schools, joined the nuclear navy and married the first love of his life, Jana Gibson of Lodi. Ken proudly served eight years in the US Navy's fast-attack submarine fleet while he and Jana raised their beloved son Brian. After leaving the Navy they settled in Oregon where Ken applied his Navy training and his own creative talents working with state-of-the-art automatic control systems, first with Applied Theory in Corvallis and later with Hewlett-Packard. It was while working as a technician at HP that Ken was inspired to resume his formal education. While continuing to work full time at HP he enrolled in the engineering program at Oregon State University and with characteristic energy and determination earned his B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering in 2004 at the age of 41. Continuing with his advanced engineering studies at OSU, he became deeply involved in groundbreaking research on the extraction of ocean wave energy for the generation of electrical power. Profoundly committed to the development of alternative energy sources, he was working on his Ph.D. at OSU while at the same time serving as Vice President of Research and Development at Columbia Power Technologies and spearheading the design and deployment of two large-scale prototype ocean wave-driven power generators. But as his health began to fail and life's difficulties took their toll, Ken suffered a deadly blow last year when his beloved son Brian was struck down in the prime of life by heart disease, and surely they are now together again sharing their lifelong bond of love.

Ken is deeply mourned by his parents Robert and Sandra Rhinefrank; his brother Stephen; sister DeAnna and his many friends. Rest well Son, we will not soon see another like you.

Child of Rebekka Stollsteimer and Barry Kunkel is:

- i. Jayden Marcus¹⁵ Stollsteimer, born 29 Aug 2002.

Notes for Jayden Marcus Stollsteimer:

Barely 21 hours after Jayden was born, the author queried "Grandma Ada" as to where the name Jayden came from. I received the following e-mail reply from Ada, by now sleepless with trips to the hospital and excitement:

"The kids looked and looked for a name but just could not find one that really seemed to "click". Finally, Beckie heard the name Jaydon (movie actor Will Smith has a son by that name) and she loved it. She looked it up in her baby book and found the name Jadon. The book said it was a Biblical name meaning "Johovah (does something, speaks lives, I don't remember, I'm tired!)". Anyway, they went with an alternate spelling to make it more obvious how it was pronounced. Since Beckie chose the first name, she asked John to choose the middle name. After much consideration, he chose Marcus, after his father."

Notes for David Randall (Randy) Shaver:

South Bend, April 14, 1998 - A Rochester man was killed and a state police trooper injured when their vehicles collided Monday near Rochester. Richard L. Smith, 67, of the 2500 block of Barrett Road, died about 2:30 p.m. Monday April 13, 1998 at Parkview Memorial Hospital, Fort Wayne Indiana State Police Senior Trooper Randy Shaver, 44, was in fair condition Monday evening in Woodlawn Hospital, Rochester, with a broken arm and leg injuries, a hospital spokeswoman said.

Police said Shaver may have narrowly escaped a fiery death, thanks to the efforts of Fulton County Sheriff Bruce Baker and passing motorist Tim Hays, a manager at Scotts grocery store. Baker cut off Shaver's seat belt. Police credited the seat belt with saving the troopers life. Smith was not wearing a seat belt, but his airbag did deploy. Police said Shaver was responding to another accident about 9:30 a.m. Monday on Indiana 14, near County Road 1075 East. He was driving his squad car east on Indiana 14 with his siren and emergency lights in operation. Smith, who was driving a pickup truck north on Barrett Road, apparently did not see the on-coming squad car, police said. After stopping at the stop sign, Smith pulled into the intersection and the truck struck the squad car in the passenger side door. Shaver's car flipped over and caught fire. Both vehicles came to rest on the north side of the road.

Rochester, May 26, 2001 - A state police trooper testified that the driver of a pickup truck moved into his path just before a collision that killed the truck driver. The widow of Richard Smith sued Randy Shaver and the state police after the April 1999 wreck, claiming that her husband died because Shaver was driving too fast and did not use enough caution. The wreck occurred on Indiana 14 as Shaver was responding to a traffic accident. He testified Wednesday during the trial in Fulton Circuit Court that he was approaching an intersection when he first saw Smith's truck and braked to slow down. Shaver said he also changed lanes to give extra room between his squad car and the truck.

"I noticed the truck make an extremely abrupt start and an abrupt stop, which led me to believe, since I was over here in the other lane, that he had seen my lights, Shaver said. "I increased my speed, got back into my accelerating, believing he had seen me." Shaver testified Smith continued onto Indiana 14. "Last time I seen him, he was right at the center line," Shaver said. The trooper said he was not able to avoid the collision. Smith was thrown from his truck and died, while Shaver's squad car overturned and caught fire. He broke his right elbow, a wrist and his left knee. He has had four surgeries and was off work 27 months, returning to patrol in late March. An attorney from the state attorney general's office, which is representing Shaver and the state police, asked him why he was driving an estimated 70 to 80 mph & when he did not know whether the wreck he was responding to was serious. State police procedure is to treat unknown wrecks as injury accidents, Shaver said. "It's important to get to the scene, as quickly as you reasonably can," he said.

He married Kathleen Rosemary Treado 13 Jul 1979 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born Aft. 1955.

Notes for Jeffry Warren Daniels:

Actor Jeff Daniels was born Feb, 19, 1955 in Athens, Georgia but raised in Chelsea, Michigan. He is the son of Marjorie J. (Ferguson) and Robert Lee Daniels, who owned The Chelsea Lumber Company and was also mayor of Chelsea. Jeff attended Central Michigan University, but became involved in acting and dropped out to pursue a career as an actor. Daniels made his feature film debut in Milos Forman's Ragtime (1981).

Daniels went on to prove himself to be one of Hollywood's most reliable and versatile actors with roles in successes such as Terms of Endearment (1983), The Purple Rose of Cairo (1985), Something Wild (1986), Arachnophobia (1990), Dumb & Dumber (1994), Pleasantville (1998), The Hours (2002) and Good Night, and Good Luck (2005), to name a few.

Alongside screen work, Daniels has many stage credits to his name and is the founder of The Purple Rose Theater Company in Chelsea, Michigan. He is also a musician and songwriter and has recorded two albums. Daniels is married to his childhood sweetheart, Kathleen Treado and they have three children.

Jeff Daniels said he left Michigan and his hometown of Chelsea back in the mid-1970s because he wasn't sure he could make it in the family lumber business. A few years later, the actor and musician came back because he wasn't sure how long he would last in the entertainment business. His second career path certainly proved to be the right one.

In an interview with the Lansing State Journal, Daniels shared thoughts about leaving Michigan and then returning for good to live and raise his family, and about his upcoming tour of small towns in Michigan, joined by his son and his Ben Daniels Band. Daniels will be in Grand Ledge on Aug. 15 for the third stop on a 14-city tour. "If I were helping my brother run the lumber company, we might be facing bankruptcy," Daniels said. "Fortunately for him and for my dad, and for everyone at the lumber company, though I worked there for four summers, I came out of that, those four summers in high school and college, with even less appreciation of wood than I had going in, so it was obvious that this was not to be." After leaving Central Michigan University in 1976, Daniels left for New York and a few years later learned he could make a living as an actor. "I was 30 years old. And I was in the middle of shooting 'The Purple Rose of Cairo,' and Woody Allen told me I was good," he said.

"And I remember coming back to the apartment in New York and telling (my wife) Kathleen, I said, — I didn't say I'm going to be a big star, now — I looked at her and I said, 'I now know I can make a living in this business. Because if I'm good enough for Woody Allen, I'm good enough for anybody.' And that was the turning point."

'I'll already be home' - Following the success in 1985 of "The Purple Rose of Cairo," he moved back to Michigan, unsure of how long his movie career might last. "I have just always been fatalistic about a movie career, particularly when we moved back to Michigan in 1986," Daniels said. "In a business that's so youth driven. You become old news. ... And it is really a business that doesn't care if you're here on Tuesday. It doesn't care. "So, I said, 'That's more than likely to be the case. I'll last as long as I can. However, when it's over, I'll already be home.' "So that was one reason we moved back to Michigan. And the other was that we understood how to raise our kids there. We didn't understand how to do it elsewhere, and we just decided that's the most important thing, and that's what we decided to do."

He considers the child-raising a success, and talked about touring with his son as one mark of that success. "He's in his 20s. And to have one of your kids speaking to you in (his) 20s, there's a victory in that," Daniels said. "But to have him want to share the stage, to have his talents as a musician, and the band's talents, as a musician over the last seven or eight years have just grown so much. "I can't wait to see what we put on the stage. We've got a whole set list and demos, but we go into rehearsal later this week. And we'll be pounding it out, so that by the time we get on stage, we've got a good show. "The father-son thing will not be lost, nor will it be ignored."

The tour began Aug. 13 in Bay City and ends Aug. 29 at the Marquette Area Blues Fest. In between are stops in Coldwater, Cheboygan, Rockford, Manistee and Ann Arbor, along with stops in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Family time - Daniels attributes some of his family's closeness to life in Chelsea and traveling around Michigan to play hockey. "I'm a big fan of soccer, however, we went hockey and never looked back," he said. "Ben was 8, and Luke was 5 when they started in hockey in Ann Arbor. All those 5:45 a.m.'s on Yost Arena ice on Saturday and Sunday. All the way through the end of high school. "I tell parents now, it's not whether the kid excelled, it's not, 'Why didn't you shoot instead of pass,' 'You've got to work on your slap shot.' It's not that," he said. "It's the drive there and the drive back. And you talk about anything else except about the game. And we believe that the time we spent doing that, and not focusing on pounding your kid to be better at the next game when he's 12 damn years old, is one reason we're so close as a family when the kids are in their 20s."

Living in Chelsea, Daniels has found the space to live the life he looked for. "I don't put myself in a position to be bombarded," he said. "I think the people around town where I live do a great job. They can smell outsiders. "Often it's the case of 'Where does Jeff Daniels live?' and they go, 'We have no idea who you're talking about.' So they're very protective for the most part."

Staying close to home - And for the most part, he and his wife are happy to stay there. "I have a lot of trouble leaving home. I've really set up my home situation where I really don't have to leave for weeks at a time, which drives my wife crazy," he said. "But we live on a lake, and I'm very happy there. Very content there. People, especially during the summer, they go up north, and they go on vacation, and they go wherever, and we kind of look at each other and go, 'We're already there.' "He makes an exception for chances to cross the bridge. "I love the escape. I love Marquette and the kind of majesty that is Lake Superior. It just feels different up there," he said. "That lake is alive, and it's a beast. You stand on the shore in summer, or in January, you respect it. ... Serious nature going on up there." As it turned out, Daniels didn't have to worry about failing in the movie business, appearing in more than 60 films as well as a number of TV productions, most recently the Emmy-award winning "The Newsroom" on HBO. Daniels also founded the Purple Rose Theatre Company in Chelsea, writing 15 of the plays produced there. He has provided the voice for some "Pure Michigan" promotions.

'That creative road' - A lesser known aspect of his life has been as a songwriter and singer, producing five albums to date. The music brought him to New York in the first place, and his acting career followed. He talked about the creative process in acting and writing. "Athletes talk about being in the zone. Creatively, whether that's the muse or whether that's tapping into your imagination," Daniels said. "As an actor, you don't plan everything. You kind of go moment to moment, just bounding down that creative road between 'Action' and 'Cut.'

"On 'The Newsroom,' every day was like that. You come in prepared, you know it, but you're wide open to whatever Emily Mortimer brings to it, or (Aaron) Sorkin brings to it, or that changes it in the middle of a take. That's where the thrill is, the excitement is. "It's the same thing with writing. You can be writing and, yes, there's structure, yes, there is technique and the mechanics of writing the good story. But you wait for the discovery. You wait for that thing that pops up, and then you chase it with your fingers across the keyboard. ...

"And there are days when it ain't there and you've still got to write the 10 pages or you've still got to do four more takes, and that's where the theater technique kicks in, where you're doing it eight times a week. Whether you're feeling it or not, you make the audience feel it. "But the thrill of discovering it, on your feet, in front of the camera, or as you're writing it, that's what you're looking for every day."

Notes for William Leroy Laubengayer:

Sept. 12, 1996 - He creates piece of air-mail history - Giant model plane hangs in Marshall Postal Museum - William Laubengayer would love to fly planes. He can't though, because he has epilepsy. But ever since the Battle Creek resident was 6 years old, he has gotten as close as he can to flying. Over the past 56 years, Laubengayer has made hundreds of model airplanes, the latest and biggest of which is now on display at the Marshall Postal Museum. This (model-building) is my outlet for not being able to fry," Laubengayer said.

After a trip to Smithsonian Institution's National Postal Museum in Washington, D.C., where he saw a huge model air mail plane on display, Marshall Postmaster Mike Schragg decided the Marshall museum needed one. Every year he adds something new to tie museum. "My dream was to get an airplane," said Schragg, who then asked Laubengayer to build it. In April, Laubengayer began work on the model 1918 de Havilland DH4 air mail plane. A hip replacement set him back a little, but Laubengayer finished the plane last week. Overall, it took Laubengayer, who worked from design plans of the actual plane, about three months to complete. Schragg paid for the materials while Laubengayer donated his labor. The plane was hung from the museum's ceiling just in time for the 1996 Marshall Home Tour, the only time the museum is open to the public. (Other times, ifs by appointment) The bright yellow model, which has two sets of wings and an open cockpit, is one-fourth the size of the actual plane. Its wingspan is 10.5 feet and the plane's body is 8 feet long. It weighs about 25 pounds, and could be flown by remote if Schragg wanted. It won't be, though, for fear of harming it, he said. The U.S. Postal Service bought the DH-4 planes after they were used in World War I. It marked the beginning of U.S. air-mail service. The planes, 4,800 of which were built, were flown up until the 1930s, Schragg said.

Laubengayer said building the plane was special for him because he worked for the Postal Service in Ann Arbor, spending five years as a mail carrier while attending Eastern University The retired chemist said it that was his favorite job. "I love the post office. I should have stayed with the post office instead of going to these other jobs. They are never as satisfying as the post office."

Ironwood, Michigan - Miss Judith Rae Blaisdell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blaisdell, 320 E. Cloverland Dr., and William LeRoy Laubengayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Laubengayer, 1400 Normandy Rd., Ann Arbor, were united in marriage at lovely early winter wedding Saturday noon Dec. 6, 1958 at the Salem Lutheran Church. The Rev. Earl G. Gustafson performed the nuptial ceremony. The bride was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by father. She chose a Directoire wedding gown of lustrous silk brocade in a warm candlelight hue. The sculptured bodice was designed a band of self-fabric which defined the crescent neckline. Her fitted sleeves tapered to a graceful bracelet length where they were accented by the tiniest of covered buttons. A small bow emphasized the empire line where inverted pleats fell gently into a belled skirt, covered buttons held the patterned brocade in a chapel train that created aisle resplendent beauty mantilla of imported Belgian lace, webbed in a delicate floral pattern, fell gracefully to a length. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Jann Trethewey was the maid of honor. Colleen Blaisdell, sister, of the bride, and Miss Karen Laubengayer, sister of the groom, Ann Arbor, served as the bridesmaids. Their identically styled ballerina length gowns were an iridescent jewel green taffeta. The bodices were designed with soft folds which enhanced the scooped necklines. Their sleeves tapered to a becoming bracelet length. Pert empire bows held the contoured center princess panniers which held the waist encircling midriffs. Self-cording caught the lustrous silk in deep bouffant folds that added to their recessional charm. They wore ivy garlands in their hair.

James Johnson, Ann Arbor, Dr. A. Trethewey and LaVerne Tattersall, Owosso, were the best man and groomsmen respectively. Serving as ushers were Richard Amdahl, Eau Claire, Wisconsin, of the bride, and Dennis Gates, Big Rapids, cousin of the groom. The acolytes were James Williams and Robert Anderson.

A reception and dinner for 250 guests was served at the National Guard Armory following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. William Laubengayer will reside at 602 E. Main St., Owosso.

Notes for Madison Elswick Eger:

Our Story (told by Madison Eger Ginnebaugh)

Our story started over 10 years ago, when we met while both enrolled in the junior sailing program at the Grosse Pointe Club. We quickly became friends, bonding over the fact that I had been coached by Kevin's brothers for several summers prior. For the next few years, our paths really only crossed during the summer months. We always kept in touch though: frequently picking up the phone to vent to each other about our hectic college course loads and sharing details of our recent sailing ventures.

When I moved back to Grosse Pointe in the spring of 2016, we almost immediately started running into each other pretty regularly. Every time it happened; we would vow to meet up soon. After all, we were finally living in the same state after so many years apart. We were both so busy though; Kevin started medical school that fall and I was still easing into my first real job. The timing was never right. Before we ever got the chance to do anything together, we would be bumping into each other at Costco again, making the same plans we tried (and failed) to make a few weeks before.

This continued for nearly a year until we ended up at the same sailing regatta early in the summer of 2017. Finally! An opportunity to spend time together was laid right out in front of us and we couldn't pass it up even if we wanted to. It was during that weekend that we were reminded of all our shared interests and how much we enjoy each other's presence. Even though our friendship had been long-distance for nearly a decade, it felt like we had hardly spent a day apart. We were (and still are) completely inseparable. By the end of the event, Kevin was already joking about marriage: at one point even getting down on one knee in the Bayview Yacht Club parking lot and proposing with a Coors Light. I wasn't able to give him an answer then, but almost a year and a half later he traded in the beer for a ring and I couldn't say couldn't say yes fast enough.

- 3616 iii. Samuel R. (Sammy) Haun, born 15 Jun 1984.

Notes for Samuel R. (Sammy) Haun:

Samuel Haun grew up in East Texas with a very artistic family. After graduating from Longview High School, he traveled the world as a steel worker building satellite earth stations. In 2001, he joined the United States Navy and served directly in the Joint Task Force Horn of Africa campaign aboard the USS Mount Whitney. After serving in more than 25 cities and in over nine countries, he returned home with an honorable discharge and the desire to put his life experiences towards a new passion of film making.

A self-taught Texas film maker, Haun started his own video production company in early 2006, the same year his son Ayden was born. He directed and produced music videos, documentaries, television commercials and short films for festival circuits. He developed a strong knowledge of how to construct heavy visual environments with the resources around him, and often without the luxury of financial support.

Haun's music video "Firestorm", for the band The Vehicle Reason, was featured by Sennheiser USA as a worldwide premier. "Hank and Jim", his dark comedy short film, premiered at the Blood Bath Film Festival in Dallas, Texas. These projects allowed him to find his own natural style with limited resources and only a few talented crew members. He truly began developing his skills as a Director and Cinematographer by working as a photographer & camera operator on features "Boggy Creek", "Humans VS Zombies", and "Bernie" and as Director of Photography/2nd Unit Director for the independent feature, "Patient Zero". In early 2012, he directed the opening title sequence for William Kaufman's "One in the Chamber", a film starring Cuba Gooding, Jr. and Dolph Lundgren.

Haun's strong networking skills allowed him to work with many great Texas film makers including Richard Linklater and William Kaufman, experiences which inspire Haun to push himself artistically by trusting his instincts to reach his unlimited potential. The end result is ongoing but has produced a new artistic focus through the works of his most excited project and feature length directorial debut in "Project 112."

3620 ii. Seth Taccola, born 2002.

Notes for Seth Taccola:

Oak Forest senior offensive lineman Seth Taccola excels on the field and in the classroom for the Bengals. The first time Seth Taccola put on a pair of shoulder pads was his freshman season at Oak Forest. Up until that point, Taccola had only played flag football. "I was a little nervous at first," Taccola said of playing with equipment. "I wanted to see how I would stack up playing with pads."

As it turned out, Taccola, a 5-foot-11, 215-pound senior offensive lineman, had nothing to be nervous about. Flag football had prepared him well for the rigors of contact football. "Playing flag football was a big help for getting me ready for high school football," Taccola said. "It taught me to play on both sides of the line and to learn plays. I really didn't think it was a big difference playing with pads."

Taccola is part of a senior class that has won a lot of football games at Oak Forest. The class went 8-1 as freshman and 9-0 as sophomores. It hit a little bump in the road last season, finishing 6-4 as juniors. However, as seniors, they've regained their winning form, boasting a 3-0 mark heading into a Friday matchup against rival Bremen. And they don't plan on slowing down any time soon. "I think it's fair to say that," Taccola said when asked if the Bengals were on a mission this year. "There was some friction last year between the seniors and juniors. But we have the band (seniors) back together from our freshman and sophomore years. We want to go undefeated." Taccola has been a major reason for the Bengals' success, providing a steadying influence on the offensive line and in the locker room, according to Oak Forest coach Brian McDonough. "He's a great kid and a wonderful leader," McDonough said. "Seth is an outstanding lineman. He works extremely hard. He's just an all-around great kid." A kid who also cherishes giving back to his community, as he participates in events that enhance the lives of senior citizens. He also excels in the classroom, having amassed a 6.05 GPA and scored 32 on the ACT. A member of the National Honor Society, he currently ranks No. 8 in the senior class.

His older brother, Luke, a sophomore at UIC, played football for four years at Oak Forest. Younger brother Mark is on the sophomore team. "We're pretty competitive," Taccola said of his siblings. "My parents always stressed the importance of academics, ever since I was 6 years old. I've always wanted to be the best in each subject."

While football has provided Taccola with great memories, he's prepared to hang up his cleats after this season. Yes, he enjoys the game. But the combination of working toward a chemical engineering degree and the time demands of playing college football have made the decision to give the game up an easy one. "I love the game, but I don't want it to take over my life," Taccola said. "It's a big commitment at the college level. I have to set myself up for the rest of my life and football isn't going to do that. Getting a good degree and a good job will."

He isn't certain where he'll attend college, though he counts Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Northwestern as top choices. Taccola has been dealing with some injuries the past two seasons. He tore a labrum in his left shoulder last season and has incurred some aches and pains in both knees. However, it's not enough to idle him. There's too much at stake. He wants to help his teammates produce an unforgettable season. "We have a good shot to make some noise in conference and in the 6A playoffs," Taccola said. "We have to stay together and do what we need to do. This is a very unique group. We're pretty confident looking ahead."

3621 iii. Mark Taccola, born 2004.

Notes for Linda Louise Wymore:

Quincy resident Linda Louise Wymore passed from this life unexpectedly, early Wednesday morning November 5th, 2008, at the University of California Medical Center in Sacramento, California, with her loving family at her side. Born July 14th, 1951 to the late Kenneth and Hilma (Berg) Wymore in Pomona, California, the family moved from Pomona to Victorville, California in 1964 where Linda attended Victor Valley High School and graduated as a member of the "Class of 1969". Linda went on to attend Victor Valley Junior College before becoming a pre-med student at San Diego State College. She graduated from San Diego State with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Bio-Chemistry in 1976. On October 18th, 1980 in San Diego, California she married the love of her life and best friend Martin "Marty" Byrne, a handsome young man whom she met while attending Junior College. To this union three sons with hair as firey as their mothers were born. Linda has been a resident of Quincy for the past fourteen and a half years relocating here with her family from San Diego where she had resided for thirteen years prior.

Linda was a devout member of the Quincy Community United Methodist Church and was involved in multiple ministries of the church. She served as a Lay Speaker, Chair of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee and as the Secretary of the Administration Council. Linda loved to study and be a part of the political scene. She was the Plumas County representative to the California Democratic Committee and enjoyed social networking and expressing her views and that of her party. An avid reader, Linda enjoyed a wide range of books, especially those dealing with world events, politics, Native American cultures and extra-terrestrials. Above all Linda had a passion to ensure that the provision of educational services was provided to students with special needs. As the Family Empowerment Coordinator of Plumas Rural Services she was respected for her tenacity in ensuring that these services along with In Home Respite Care services were available to all those in need.

In passing Linda leaves her husband of twenty eight years; Marty Byrne, son and daughter-in-law; Kenny and Aurora Byrne of Concord, California, sons; Tim Byrne, currently attending Western Washington University and Brendan Byrne of Quincy, California, her precious two grandchildren, Anjali and Joseph Byrne along with her sisters, Carol Hanson of San Diego, California and Chris Kelly of Surprise, Arizona.

She will be greatly missed by a vast network of friends and family. Linda will be greeted in heaven by the Lord who she so dearly loves and trusts, by her parents, a brother and other family and friends who have preceded her in passing. A celebration of Linda's life will take place 2:00PM Sunday November 9th, 2008 at her beloved Community United Methodist Church of Quincy, California. An opportunity to express your condolences to the family along with signing the memorial guest register is available online at www.fehrmanmortuary.com. The family suggests any remembrances in Linda's memory be made to either Plumas Rural Services Empowerment Center or their ALIVE Program or the Kiwanis Family House of Sacramento, California, c/o Fehrman Mortuary and Crematory P.O. Box 53 Quincy, California 95971.

Notes for Zana Beth Manche:

My name is Zana DeJong and I am a Kansas native that was transplanted into South Dakota after getting married. I graduated from Kansas State University in 2011 and started working for Goessel High School in June. During my six years at Goessel I served as the agricultural education instructor, FFA advisor, assistant high school volleyball and girls basketball coach, as well as a volunteer summer softball coach. Outside of being at school I was active in volunteering for our county 4-H fair, my local church, and traveling to my home town of Hiawatha Kansas to visit my family. My chapter focused on creating a well-rounded chapter which led us to be a top 10 National Chapter finalists for the last three of my six years. Each proficiency award I took to districts competed at state with one National qualifier. I served as the district FFA advisor for one year, have had two district officers, and multiple top five state teams, and top 10 state individuals. I love to provide unique opportunities for my students to explore what the agricultural industry has, think bigger than our own chapter, and live with a servants heart.

In June 2017, I was blessed to get married to Wyatt DeJong. Wyatt was also an agricultural education instructor in Winner South Dakota where we lived. We worked together with his chapter, local 4-H club, and his family ranch to keep us busy. Wyatt has a distinguished FFA history serving as district, state, and a national officer. He has extensively traveled the world, facilitated many conferences, and prides himself on leadership development both at chapter and state levels. We are overjoyed to be able to work in Wood River and look forward to utilizing his expertise in livestock judging, biotechnology, horse judging, Parliamentary procedure, and vet science CDE's. Wyatt will be working on expanding DeJong Ranch in Nebraska this next year. He enjoys working with show animals and the top tier of the family's herd. You will be able to find him attending many national shows showcasing what the ranch has to offer.

I enjoy being in the classroom and the challenge of finding out how each student learns best. I have developed my curriculum to be very hands-on oriented, challenging, but also very rewarding for students. I will always keep my students best interests in mind, push them to be more than they think, and support them in all of their endeavors.

If I was ever asked where I would end up living, I'm confident that Wood River, Nebraska wouldn't have made the short list. It could be because two years ago I didn't know it even existed. However, as luck, prayer, and faith intervened, Wood River has become our home away from home and I couldn't be happier about that. My name is Zana DeJong, the agricultural education instructor and FFA Advisor. I started off this adventure of life outside of Salem, Nebraska where my family lived on the state line. Due to the proximity to Kansas and my mother being a teacher in Kansas, I never attended school in Nebraska. I grew up participating in 4-H, helping on the family farm, and being watched by my grandparents' dairy where the work ethic, determination, and compassion were instilled in me by my family.

I graduated from Hiawatha High School in 2007 where I had been active in FFA, athletics, band, and many clubs and organizations. I was very thankful to go to a school that provided many opportunities even if that meant I was constantly busy going from one event to the next. After some soul searching and college visits, I landed on a major in agricultural education at The Kansas State University. I was proud to become a Wildcat and have been a proud alumnus since 2011. I am currently a student as I work on finishing my Master's in agricultural education.

From Manhappiness, I began my teaching career in Goessel, Kansas. While at Goessel, I was privileged enough to work with great students and staff that allowed me to receive a few teaching awards, have the 8th best FFA chapter in the state, be a coach of a state champion team in volleyball, and a proud supporter of state winning band and chorus programs.

Then in one crazy summer, I traveled to Maryland for some teacher training where I met Wyatt DeJong. I was the representative from Kansas and Wyatt represented South Dakota. As we bonded over inquiry based learning and our love for agricultural education, we kept in touch over a year where we served as Agricultural Education Ambassadors. After a surprise proposal on a livestock judging trip in the middle of winter, I packed up my life in Kansas and headed north. From there, we were married in June of 2017. We resided in his hometown of Winner, South Dakota for one year where Wyatt was the resident agricultural teacher and I worked on my Masters and tended to our funny farm, while being the Assistant FFA Advisor.

As differences in vision arose, Wyatt and I looked for a new school that could match our vision, and found it at Wood River. I have been the agricultural education instructor for the past two years. Wyatt and I spend most of our time in vehicles traveling to Kansas, South Dakota, and cattle shows across the nation. We love any free time we have spending it working with cattle or on the ranch in South Dakota. We have two puppies, Maisy and Lola that keep us on our toes. Together we have eleven nieces and nephews that we love to spoil and spend time with. Our nomadic life has been full of adventures and we have been blessed to travel across the nation and abroad through FFA and agriculture.

She was born Aft. 1949.

Notes for Mary Marie Wesley:

Mary Marie Wesley, a full-blooded Native American, walked on July 27, 2018. Mary was born on April 6, 1951 in Battle Creek. Her father, Joseph George Wesley was a member of the Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Tribe and mother Irene a member of the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of the Potawatomi Indians. Mary's great-grandfather was the Potawatomi Chief Stephen Pamptopee and her great-great-grandfather was Chief Phineas Pamptopee. Her paternal great-great grandfather was Chippewa Chief Buffalo (Ojibwe: Ke-che-waish-ke/Gichi-weshkiinh) "Great-renewer". Chief Buffalo is memorialized in the U.S. Capitol where two busts are on display and his profile was imaged on the buffalo nickel. Irene was Chair of the first Elders Committee which served as the Judicial Branch of Government for NHBPI. Mary's brother Joseph George Wesley Jr. was Tribal Chairman from 1979 - 1981 and had the reservation updated to a historical status, was the first to start housing and grants, and took the first steps for NHBPI to become a federally recognized tribe. Mary's sister Laura Wesley Spurr, Tribal Chair, led a ten-year campaign to establish FireKeepers Casino near Battle Creek and planned and implemented the construction of office buildings, housing, medical facilities, and tribal ceremonial grounds on the reservation.

Mary graduated from Athens High School as Valedictorian of her class in 1969, and from Kellogg Community College as a Registered Nurse. Her pride was her family and children Robert Keith Potter II, Bradley Stephen Potter, and Sarah Marie Joslyn. Mary worked at the Battle Creek V.A. Hospital for 21 years, the Regional Psychiatric Hospital in Kalamazoo, and tenderly cared for her 95-year old mother and special needs son for 48 years. Mary enjoyed participating in tribal pow-wows, Potawatomi gatherings, and special events involving Indian culture, dances and crafts such as weaving baskets from black ash and preserving and collecting native cultural artifacts. Mary attended the Athens Methodist Church and the Athens Indian Church. She formed lifelong friendships with many townspeople from Athens and the surrounding area.

Mary was well known for her kindness and compassion, and for her honesty and candor. She was not capable of deception, and would always tell you exactly what was on her mind. Mary did not hesitate to speak out against injustice, such as decisions of the tribal government and court orders threatening to evict her then 94 year-old mother Irene from her home on the reservation where she was born in 1922, refusing to acknowledge and honor Irene's legal will, and blocking the family from retrieving their personal household property and treasured relics preserved for generations.

Mary was predeceased by her parents, Joseph George and Irene Wesley, her husband Carl Joslyn, brother Joe Wesley Jr., sister Laura Wesley Spurr, and her beloved daughter Sarah Marie Joslyn. She is survived by her sons Robbie and Bradley, Aunt Millie and her cousins Sharon Kelley, Priscilla Wesley Piowar, Maureen Kisabeth, Georgan Matthews, Brian Wesley, and Penny Honke, brother-in-law Stephen (Joy) Spurr, her friend Donald Watkins, and a large extended family.

Notes for Bradley Stephen Potter:

Bradley Stephen Potter, 47, walked on, on October 5, 2022. Brad was born on February 15, 1975 in Washington D.C. to Mary Marie Wesley. His grandparents were Joseph (a tribal member of the Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa) and Irene Wesley (a tribal member of the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi Indians). Brad graduated from Athens High School and attended Kellogg Community College, studying to become a paralegal assistant or game warden, but instead became a Journeyman Ironworker and qualified rigger in Michigan Ironworkers Local 25. He later enrolled in Wayne County Community College in Detroit to further develop his welding skills.

Brad enjoyed crossbow hunting, stock car racing, National Geographic media events, growing medicinal plants and the music of Pink Floyd. He was an accomplished author with volumes of handwritten notebooks and had a photographic memory. He could hold his own on the TV program "Jeopardy", which he enjoyed with his aunt Joy and uncle Stephen Spurr, Brad's caregivers during the period of his treatment for pancreatic cancer. During his illness, Brad continued to enjoy family vacations, cultural events, museums, parks, and would often go fishing at the Lake St. Clair pier. He particularly enjoyed cruising the neighborhoods of Detroit, where he would occasionally spot coyotes. Most of Brad's lifelong friends lived in Battle Creek or Athens. He took great pleasure in taking their children shopping, surprising them with Christmas gifts, or teaching them outdoor skills that he had learned from his grandmother Irene. Once Brad took a carload of his friends' children to Chicago for a tour of Shedd Aquarium. Brad and his mother Mary valued nature, animals and environmental responsibility highly.

Brad was predeceased by his sister Sarah Joslyn, his mother Mary Wesley, his aunt Laura and uncle Joe, and his grandparents Joseph and Irene Wesley. He is survived by his brother Robbie.

A Celebration of Brad's life will be held on Saturday, November 12th from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. at Baxter Funeral Home Dinner Hall, 375 West Dickman Road, Battle Creek, Michigan 49037. She attended Galesburg-Augusta schools, and graduated from Athens High School in 1996. She studied at Kellogg Community College, and graduated with certifications in corrections, and in landscaping and horticulture. She was married to Lonnie Hendricks on December 1, 2009. Sarah was a member of the Nottawaseppi Band of Huron Potawatomi. She was a direct descendant through her grandmother Irene Wesley of Steven Pamptopee and his father Phineas Pamptopee, both of whom were prominent Chiefs of the Huron Potawatomi. Before federal recognition of the Huron Potawatomi was restored on December 19, 1995, Sarah was a member of the Lake Superior Band of Bad River Chippewa Indians. She was also the great-great granddaughter of Chief Buffalo, the last Chief of that Tribe, whose profile appears on the Buffalo head nickel. Sarah was proud of her Potawatomi heritage, and participated in powwows, gatherings and other Tribal and intertribal cultural events. She was a competitive traditional dancer, and was also highly proficient in Tae Kwan Do. She worked in various positions for her Tribe, and obtained the first federal grant for the Elders' Council, which is now known as the Elders' Committee. Life is a journey and the path is different for everyone, but we all have the choice to either embrace the way marked for us or to shuffle along each path while wishing we were somewhere else. Margaret Garey was one who rejoiced in the promise of each new day, drinking in each and every moment. She lived to reach out to others and loved to prepare both savory and sweet treats for those in her life. Margaret treasured her faith and it was during the sunset of her life that it became the true melody of her life. A true gift to those around her, she leaves behind a treasure trove of memories that will be forever held near to the hearts of those who loved her.

The dawn of the fifties ushered in a generation of great change in America with an increased pace within the civil rights movement, our first taste of space exploration, and the expansion of our nation with the addition of Alaska and Hawaii near the end of the decade. It was during this unprecedented time that David and Gladys Dodson celebrated the birth of their daughter, Margaret, on August 2, 1951. Born in Albion, Michigan, Margaret was one of three girls in her family. She was raised in Albion by two women who were friends of the family, Doris and Iva. The two women basically adopted Margaret, but she visited her parents and sisters from time to time. As a young girl, she loved going to an area lake where she spent time with family. She attended local schools including Albion High School where she played the clarinet in the marching band.

It was while she was in high school that Margaret met the young man who would change the course of her life forever. He was a fellow classmate named Tadd Garey and they began dating while still in high school. Not long after graduating from high school in 1970, Margaret and Tadd were married during the early seventies, deeply in love.

The newlyweds settled in the Coloma area where they were thrilled to welcome three children into their hearts and home: Michael, Mary, and Agatha. Margaret stayed home and cared for the children, watching other neighborhood children as well. She loved cooking for her family and was a fantastic cook, too. Margaret was known for her roast beef, broccoli and cheese soup, breads, cookies, and pies, but she was most famous for her cheesecake that was second to none. She often "paid" people with food – something that was always welcomed by the recipient. As her children grew older, Margaret passed her love for cooking on to them. Margaret was actively involved in the lives of her children including serving as a Scout leader for both her son and her daughters. Their family enjoyed trips to Tennessee where they visited good friends as well as day trips to the beach.

After her marriage ended in divorce in 1993, Margaret started working at Regal Finishing in Coloma where she sorted parts. She later moved to Atlantic Automotive where she met her best friend, Aunt Dar. Aunt Dar took Margaret under her wing and because they complimented each other as total opposites, they were really good for one another. After working at Atlantic Automotive, Margaret began working for Wal-Mart, first in South Haven and when she moved in with Aunt Dar three years ago, she transferred to the Wal-Mart on Ninth Street in Oshtemo. Margaret worked there as a phone operator in customer service and truly enjoyed her work. The people she worked with always liked having Margaret around as well.

There were many things that made Margaret such an extraordinary woman who was so dearly loved. She liked country music the best, although she liked any type of music with a good beat, but dancing was never her forte. Margaret enjoyed reading romance novels, and she also liked sewing and watching Food Network. She treasured the relationship she shared with her special friend, John, over the years. Margaret had a special place in her heart for animals and rescued both a little puppy she named Taffy and a cat she named Leo. She was always around, always giving of herself to others, and she was like a mother to everyone. Faith played an important role in Margaret's life, and she was usually connected to a church wherever she was living. Over the last six months, she became more passionate about her faith through her children.

Margaret Garey was a delight to those around her in each and every way. Her kind and tender touch reached many through the years, yet no one held a more prominent place in her heart than her children and grandchildren. Margaret loved Halloween, complete with her handmade costumes, but it was cooking for others that always brought her the greatest joy. Those who knew Margaret will be forever changed for having loved such a special woman.

Margaret "Miss Daisy" Garey died on August 23, 2010 in Battle Creek. Margaret's family includes her 3 children: Michael (Shannon) Garey, Mary (Tim) Fish and Agatha (Tommy) Cottrell; 10 grandchildren: Nicholas, Mikey, Brionna, Austin, Abigail, Leah, Faith, Tim Jr., Madilyn and Gwendolyn; her mother, Gladys Dodson; sister, Janet (Curtis) Simmons; and many nieces and nephews. Margaret was preceded in death by 2 sisters: Betty Jean and Barbara and by her father, David Dodson. Notes for Marcella Ann (Marcie) Barnes:

Muskegon, Michigan - Marcella Ann Wildt passed away unexpectedly at the age of 66 on April 17, 2020. She was a mother, daughter, nana, sister, friend, and so much more. She was born to Leola M.

Barry and William P. Barnes on May 9, 1953 in Fremont, Michigan. She was youngest of their five children. William Barnes (passed away January 15, 2020), E. Michael Barnes, Mary Vander West, and John Barnes. She was "Mom" to her four children (listed in order of age): Jaime Kim Meekhof (m. to Jamie R. Baeza), Andrew Patrick Meekhof (m. to Angela Meekhof), Paige Traves Wildt, and Sagan Marie Wildt. She had five grandchildren: Brynn and London Meekhof (Andrew's daughters), Greyson and Paisley Shay Evans (Sagan's kids), and Tucker Cearley (Paige's son).

Jaime thought kids were overrated so she got a dog instead. Marcie loved hanging out with her girlfriends over the years. Whether it is was for coffee, antiquing, bonfires, or just hanging out, they all held a special place in her heart. Denise, Kathy, and Sharon were just a few of many. Marcie worked at Wayne's Deli for 14 years so many people knew her from there. You were probably greeted with a smile and a sarcastic greeting of some sort. That meant she liked you. She often complained about being on her feet for long hours but she loved that job and the interactions she had with people on a daily basis! She also worked in some of the local school cafeterias. Nelson was her favorite. She loved her co-workers and all of the children there! She was a humble woman who never asked for much and never wanted to inconvenience anyone. She put up a hard fight and struggle (go figure) up until the very end. She will be dearly missed by her siblings, children, grandchildren, friends, and everyone else's whose life she touched. There will be a memorial at a later date once this crazy world will allow it so we can share memories about this wonderful woman!

Notes for Mathew Martin Wildt:

2011- While many Homer residents are preparing for the 7th Annual Hogstravaganza Aug. 5-6, the Wildt family is preparing for the 163rd Calhoun County Fair, which gets underway a week later. Matt, 17, and his cousins, Lauren, 16, and Morgan, 11, show hogs year-round, including at the fair. They said they are looking forward to the challenge. "It's fun to do," Matt said. "When you go to fair, you show pigs with your friends and you learn a lot of life skills having to get up every day and feed, walk and wash your pigs." For the Wildt children, they said showing hogs is in their blood. "It's a big family thing for us," Lauren said. "We are out here (on the farm) every day for fair and other shows. Our dads are really into it too." Todd Wildt, Matt's father, said for those not in 4-H, it's hard to understand what the experience is like. "Every year it's a big deal for them to go over there and camp and hang out with their friends. It's a good learning experience for the kids."

Lauren said her grandfather, mother, and older sister all showed pigs as well. Matt said he has two older sisters that used to show too. "It's been in the family a long time," Lauren said. "Most of my friends show pigs or livestock." Up until three years ago, the Wildts used to run a pig farm, but they stopped due to the expense of it. "We did it from the time I was 15 until I was 44 and I'm 47 now," Todd said. "The decision to stop was purely financial. We are no different from other dairy farmers, and the fact is they aren't surviving. I still dairy farm because I've always done it. Morally, it's hard for me to say, stop." Even though they gave up pigs, Todd said they still raise dairy beef and farm 1,000 acres of hay, soybeans, wheat and corn.

For Todd, he said he feels that it's important to keep his children and nieces involved in 4-H. "4-H is very important," Todd said. "The kids have to keep records on what they feed the animals, veterinarian practices, cost of bedding - it teaches them how to pay bills. 4-H kids get a good head start on paying bills and learning life." Matt said it's helpful because they can learn if they are making money or losing money, especially with all the shows they take part in.

They have taken part in nine shows this year in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana and in November, and they will be showing at the Calhoun County Fair in August and at the North American International Livestock Festival in Kentucky in November. They participate in the Green and White in January at MSU pavilion in Lansing, the Ohio Buckeye Circuit twice in February and twice in June, the Spartan Classic in June in Lansing, Michigan Livestock Expo in July, and the Calhoun County Fair in August. They also participate in different jackpot shows throughout the year, where the top three winners earn money. "With all that, it kind of gets hard to show another animal because we are so focused on pigs," Lauren said.

Lauren said they discussed showing cows at the fair, but she says because they are only allowed to show one large animal, she doesn't think she could stray away. "If we wanted to, we could switch but we wouldn't want to," she said. "If we wanted to show steer we would have to give up pigs, and I'm like, 'No.'" They purchase 18 pigs for whole year. "We have two sets of pigs, one for the county fair and one for state shows," Lauren said. "We need two sets because of the different weight limits needed. If we used the same pigs, they would be too old or too heavy to go year-round." The Wildts don't show all 18 pigs, but they train all 18. "We don't show them all, but you work with them all just in case," Lauren said. "You never know. We had a pig one year that just before show, stepped on something and couldn't walk. That's why we get extra and train extra just in case." Lauren and Matt have been showing for eight years, while Morgan has been showing for three. "When it comes to show pigs, how well you do depends on what you do at home," Lauren said.

The kids work with the pigs daily, walking them, washing them, feeding them and cleaning their pins. "We wash them every day or every other day because when it comes to showmanship, it's important," Lauren said. "If they are laying around all day, it can stain their skin. Washing them shows the judges that we care." The pigs are fed a blend of food that is good for building muscles and some is more fattening. "It's all about the feed," Lauren said. "We get food that they like, that tastes good to them." The Wildts also walk each of the pigs half a mile each day. "When you walk them, they are building more muscle too," Matt said. "We walk them every day also so they learn to go long distances. It shows the judges you spend time with them when they listen to you." Lauren said when showing the pigs, they can be on their feet for 20 or 30 minutes, and if the pigs get tired they'll "get huffy and puffy" and begin to not listen as well. "You wouldn't put someone who hasn't ever ran in a marathon," Lauren said. "It's the same idea." Overall, Lauren said she thinks they spoil their pigs. "In the summer they are in the barn with fans on them and in the winter, they are in a heated barn," she said. "I think they are pretty lucky." The kids work with all the pigs, but when it comes to showmanship, they pick which pig they will work with so the pigs respond better to that person. "If you train them good enough they'll listen to anyone," Matt said. "When you go to the fair, you can tell who's worked with them and who hasn't. If the pig walks slow by your side you know they've worked with their pig."

But the kids say even though showing pigs is a lot of work, it's worth the reward, especially when it comes to being named Grand Champion. "They (Todd and his brother Doug) try to take turns giving us kids what they think is the best pig in hopes that each of us can win Grand Champion (the best pig at the fair)," Matt said. "Sometimes we don't know until a week before or a few days before who is taking the best pig because it changes." Last year, they gave the best pig to Matt in hopes that he would win Grand Champion. "But it doesn't always turn out the way our fathers want it to," Matt said. Instead, the judges picked Lauren's pig. "Matt was pretty happy for me, but I wanted him to get it," Lauren said. "Hopefully one day, Matt can know what it feels like to get Grand Champion. We don't always know what the judges will think is the best pig." Lauren said they picked a pig they felt was second-best for her and because of that she had to work extra hard with her pig during fair time. "We were in the barn every day, twice a day, because pig wasn't gaining a lot of weight," she said. "We took extra care, and it was a big deal when I won. I cried. It feels so good when you work so hard at something and are rewarded for it. I was in shock."

But that wasn't Lauren's first time winning Grand Champion. She won it in 2005 as well. She also was awarded Grand Champion at the Michigan Livestock Expo on July 17 at MSU and Grand Champion at the Spartan Classic in 2009. Lauren also won at a jackpot a couple weeks ago in showmanship in Ludington. Morgan won Grand Champion in 2009 at the County Calhoun Fair and beginner showmanship class last year. "It means a lot," she said. "It's a big deal when you work so hard." Two years ago, Matt won two of his divisions at the Michigan Livestock Expo and three years ago he got reserve at the fair. "There's a lot of people just like us that work just as hard," Lauren said. "We've been really blessed in what we do and blessed in our family and the friends that we have." After the fair, all pigs have to go to market. The kids said at first, they did grow attachments to their pigs. "For the first couple years we did it, we got really attached to the pigs, but after awhile you learn that that is the way it is and it gets easier," Matt said. Each year, they name their pigs for fair. "We have named pigs every single year, and this is the first year that we haven't named them yet," Lauren said. "Pig people name their pigs. I usually like to wait to name the pigs so I can see their personalities." Lauren said they usually have named the pigs by now, but she said they will be sure to name them before fair.

The Chandler Traditional Academies program was founded on the principle that parents and staff work together as partners to provide an education. Students are to pursue academic excellence to the best of their abilities. With a back to basics curriculum, rigorous pace of studies, specific expectations for academic achievement, and behavior the CTA traditional program develops a solid foundation of fundamental and higher-level thinking skills. Eric Daniel¹⁴ Stollsteimer (Terry¹³, Dale Wilton¹², Oscar Otto¹¹, Theodore Earhardt (Edward Theodor)¹⁰, Johann Erhardt (Aaron)⁹, Johannes⁸, Johann Michael⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Martin⁵, Georg⁴, Hans (Stoll)³, Jerg (Stoll)², Hans Jerg¹ Stoll-Steinmar) was born 05 Jan 1976 in Southfield, Oakland Co, Michigan. He married Annette Gonzalez 17 May 2014 in San Diego, San Diego Co, California, daughter of Ricardo Gonzalez and Blanca Romo. She was born 23 Jan 1976 in Mexico.

Notes for Eric Daniel Stollsteimer:

May 28, 1997 - "Look at this!" Eric Stollsteimer, the fresh-faced proprietor of Boss Guitars is beaming. "I saw this, and I just had to have it." In his hands is an unremarkable-looking Japanese electric guitar from the 1960s. Like so many of its kind, the instrument is a topographic map of chrome and plastic with enough knobs and switches to retrofit a kitchen. His attention is directed to the small print beneath one of the toggle switches. The Japanese manufacturer has misspelled the word "rhythm," offering the player a choice between the lead and "rizm" settings. Apparently, spelling wasn't Job No. 1 on the assembly line, but the liberty taken with the word "rhythm" is what gives this particular guitar its unique charm. "I play rizm guitar," Stollsteimer grins. At 21 years old, Stollsteimer is embarking on a journey that will probably last a lifetime. Like people who are wild about old cars, vintage guitar buffs are lifers. The interest in collecting these instruments has grown steadily over the years into a worldwide phenomenon that shows no sign of waning. For the people involved, it is a passion, a whirlwind romance, which gains momentum with every new discovery.

"This isn't New York, and it's not California," says Stollsteimer, who opened his shop in Ann Arbor, Michigan, last year. "The prices on vintage gear in those places is outrageous. There's plenty of stuff here, and you can still get it for a reasonable price." Stollsteimer keeps both "budget" and "premium" guitars in stock with price tags ranging from $70 to $2,000. "There are a lot of really nice guitars in circulation in Michigan compared to other parts of the country," says Gordy Lupo, co-owner with wife Marcia of Gordy's Music in Ferndale, Michigan. Lupo credits the many musicians from Detroit's Motown era, the Gibson guitar factory and the popularity of blues and roots music for the abundance of quality instruments in Michigan. "The '50s and '60s were a great time for music in Detroit and a lot of those guitars are still around," he says. "These pieces tend to circulate within the state. I'll sell the same guitar seven or eight times in 10 years. They just keep coming back around." George Gruhn, a Nashville dealer, published a series of newsletters in the early '70s legitimizing vintage guitars as a viable commodity. Gruhn's name has since become synonymous with collecting. Through his newsletter, he assigned a price and value to the instruments, which set off a boom in collecting. This reached a peak in the early '80s when Japanese investors realized the potential for appreciation in American art and artifact. For the first time, people were buying guitars as an "investment." Japanese collectors have continued their interest in vintage guitars. In March, Paul McCartney's custom bass guitar sold for 25 million yen (approximately $200,000) at a Tokyo auction.

Elderly Instruments, in business since 1973 in Lansing, Michigan, publishes a monthly newsletter listing the prices of its extensive collection of used instruments. Anthony Marsala, an appraiser with Elderly for 17 years, cites the late 1930s Martin D-28s as the most collectible acoustic guitars. In mint condition, they can sell for $50,000 and up. Old Fender Telecasters and Gibson Les Pauls from the '50s remain the most sought-after electrics, with mint-condition guitars fetching up to $150,000. This is a far cry from the $200 price tag that swung from their tuners 40-plus years ago. "The stories and mystique behind guitars is part of what drives the vintage market," says longtime collector Brian Delaney. "It's what a personality brings to a specific instrument that makes one guitar more valuable than another. I mean, a Strat (the Fender "Stratocaster") wouldn't be a Strat if it wasn't for Jimi Hendrix. You couldn't give those things away in '66, but after '68 everybody had to have a Strat." (The 1969 Strat that Hendrix played at Woodstock fetched $320,000 at an auction seven years ago. New, the guitar would have cost $200 to $300.) Delaney owns and operates Specialized Guitar Services in Ann Arbor, and has been collecting vintage amps and guitars (as well as repairing them) for more than 20 years. "Guys like Eric (Stollsteimer), have their work, cut out for them," he says. "The days of finding a great guitar in somebody's attic are over." Stollsteimer might indeed have a long road ahead, but that suits him fine. He's worked hard on Boss Guitars and, though just starting out, he is clearly a hopeless guitar nut.

He lived for the game of golf, whether it was watching, playing, or teaching his daughters to play. Jacob loved watching movies and playing poker, including small games with friends and family, or competing in large tournaments. He enjoyed taking his dog Zeke for long walks, attending yoga classes with his best friend Chad, and was passionate about health and fitness. Above all, Jacob loved spending as much time as possible with his daughters, and especially enjoyed attending their sports practices and games, taking them to play mini-golf, and bowling together. He was truly one of a kind, a tender soul with so much love for his friends, his family, and above all, his daughters. He was genuine, kind, and always found a reason to laugh.

Notes for Douglas Alan Welshans:

April 12, 2012 - Lima Township (AP) -- Authorities say a fire destroyed a 150-year-old wooden barn on a family farm near Ann Arbor, killing about 300 animals. The fire broke out Wednesday at the farm in Lima Township, about 12 miles west of Ann Arbor. Owner Douglas Welshans says the dead animals include a horse, a steer, about 200 rabbits, 50 hens and 50 chicks. He says his daughters planned to show some of the rabbits and chickens and the steer at the Washtenaw County 4-H show this summer. The horse was a mare named Tina and was a gift to the girls from another family. Authorities say about 40 firefighters from Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester, Saline and Scio Township battled the blaze for about an hour. Smoke billows from a red-hot barn fire in Lima Township as cattle stand outside Wednesday.

Robin Welshans and other family members huddled together in the driveway Wednesday afternoon wiping away tears and ash from their faces as firefighters unrolled caution tape around the smoldering remnants of their centennial barn. Lying heavily on their hearts was the knowledge that more than 300 animals, including rabbits, chicks, a horse and a steer, had perished in the fast-burning blaze, which reduced the barn and everything in it to a pile of rubble.

The family took comfort in the fact that at least no one was inside the barn, at Scio Church and Parker roads in Lima Township, when the fire broke out. But the loss still hurt deeply. Douglas Welshans said his wife met his daughters, ages 10 and 12, at school to tell them about the fire so they did not discover it when they came home on the bus. They cried, he said. "That's their life. We don't do sports and stuff," Welshans said.

The loss is compounded by the fact that he doesn't have insurance to cover it, Welshans said. The animals and equipment alone were probably worth $50,000, he said. Besides the steer and the horse, the fire killed about 200 rabbits, about 50 hens and 50 young chicks, Welshans said. His daughters had planned to show some of the rabbits and chickens and the steer at the Washtenaw County 4-H show this summer. The horse, a mare named Tina, was a gift to the girls from another family. Besides the animals and barn, which was family-owned for 150 years, Welshans said he lost hay equipment as well as cages and other equipment used to show the rabbits.

The fire was reported, apparently by a neighbor, around 11 a.m. About 40 firefighters from Chelsea, Dexter, Scio Township, Manchester and Saline battled the blaze, which took about an hour to get under control, said Chelsea Fire Chief Jim Payeur. Firefighters were at the scene for about five hours, Payeur said. "With that heavy timber construction ... it's very dense material so it takes a tremendous amount of water to penetrate," he said. The cause of the fire still is under investigation, he said Wednesday evening. He didn't have a damage estimate. As Douglas Welshans pondered the future Wednesday evening, he wasn't sure whether the family would replace the animals. "Possibly," he said. "We haven't really got to that stage yet."

April 16, 2012 - Sisters Madison and Bailey Welshans are back at home and have a new pet show rabbit just days after a fast-moving fire destroyed a large barn on the Lima Township family farm last Wednesday. The girls stayed with friends in the days following the fire, which killed more than 300 animals, as parents Douglas and Robin Welshans began the long process of cleaning up. The girls arrived home Saturday afternoon to find a group of about 16 volunteers - family, friends and strangers - clearing rubble from the site of the fire. In fact, the girls said, they pitched in, moving rocks and other debris as part of the group.

The girls also were surprised over the weekend by the arrival of Carly, a black Mini Rex show rabbit, a gift from an American Rabbit Breeders Association judge. They also have three new fish in a tank in the living room. The girls lost all of their show rabbits and chickens, about 300 small animals in total, as well as a steer, and a horse in the fire. The family farm is about 150 years old. And although the new little bunny can never replace Pumpkin, Frosty, or Skittles, a few of the bunnies that perished in the blaze, Carly's arrival did put a smile on the girls' faces.

Plus, the girls said they are excited about the impending arrival of a pair of lambs, which they plan to show, along with new rabbits and chickens at the 4-H Youth Show in July.

Madison, a fourth-grade student at Wylie School in Dexter, said she'd already picked out a name for her lamb: Lucy. Bailey, a sixth-grader at Creekside, said she hadn't thought about a name for her new pet lamb, but she is looking forward to the arrival of some new chickens and rabbits next month. The girls are getting Speckled Sussex and Columbian Wyandotte chickens, which were ordered before the fire, their father said. The family was joined Saturday by the volunteers who helped them clean up the area where once a 40' X 80' white barn stood. Once the area is cleaned of debris, the family plans to replace the barn, but in the meantime, there is still a lot of work to do. "It's all so overwhelming, the offers of help and the donations," said Douglas Welshans. "We want people to know, family, friends, people from out of town, people we didn't even know, how much we appreciated their help."

In addition to the large barn, several out buildings caught fire, and a small portion of the Welshans' home was charred. "In one day," Robin Welshans said, "Thanks to everyone's help, we got almost one building completely cleaned up." She said about 16 people worked most of the day as part of the cleanup efforts. The family plans two more work days the next two Saturdays beginning at 9 a.m. In addition to the small animals, the family raises cattle, and seven cows and one calf survived the blaze because they were outside in pastures. The family arrived home from church Sunday to find several rabbit cages and chicken laying nests, feeders, bowls and other rabbit and chicken equipment had been dropped off at the farm at the corner of Scio Church and Parker roads while they were gone. The family was worried that more potential sorrow would hit them Sunday after their beloved 8-year-old yellow Labrador retriever Daisy ran away from home. But the family received good news Monday when a Saline resident saw the dog running scared on Scio Church Road. Daisy was "very upset" with all the commotion, the storms that blew through the area Sunday and the fire, Robin Welshans said.

In addition to 4-H competitions, Madison and Bailey show four breeds of rabbits as junior exhibitors at American Rabbit Breeders' Association shows. The sisters raise Californians, Holland lops, Mini Rex and Havana rabbits and said they are looking forward to working with their new bunnies — whenever they arrive and there's a place to house them. Their 4-H leader, Cathie Mason, is working with the rabbit community to find the girls more rabbits in time for upcoming 4-H competitions.

A fund has been set up at Chelsea State Bank to assist the family in rebuilding the barn, which could not be insured because of its age, and to help replace the estimated $50,000 worth of animals and equipment lost in the fire. In addition, a bank account has been set up in Robin Welshans' name at the University of Michigan Credit Union, 4440 Jackson Road, in Ann Arbor or donations can be sent to the Welshans Family, P.O. Box 276, Dexter, Michigan 48130.

Graden has been superintendent of the school district for 13 years. He began his career with Saline Parks and Recreation and started employment in the school district in 1999 with Community Education. He will retire as the third longest-serving superintendent in the 128-year history of the district, according to the statement, authored by Board President Heidi Pfannes. "Superintendent Graden has not only left his mark on the district, but he has positioned Saline Area Schools with leaders who will navigate the transition and hire a new superintendent who will continue moving our incredible school district forward," Pfannes wrote. "Thank you, Scot Graden! We wish you the very best retirement. You certainly deserve to enjoy yourself and know you have served your community well."

Graden was hired in 2008 after serving as interim superintendent following the resignation of Superintendent Beverley Geltner. "You need somebody who can flat out work hard for the district," Graden told the Board of Education during a round of interviews with the board in 2008, according to The Ann Arbor News. The Saline Area Schools district has consistently ranked as one of the top school districts in Michigan and is widely cited as the top reason why people choose to live in the Saline area.

Notes for Kip Paul Taylor:

Major Kip Taylor was excited about the coming months for two reasons very dear to him: the birth of his second child in late October and a promotion in November. Now, his wife, Nancy, and family are gathered in his McLean, Virginia, home waiting to receive word that Taylor's remains have been recovered. Taylor, among those missing at the Pentagon, had been stationed there for about three years, said his brother, U.S. Army Lt. Col. Dean Taylor. "He was the poster boy for the U.S. Army," Taylor said. The son of a career Army officer, Kip Taylor enlisted after graduating in 1985 from Northern Michigan University. At the time of the attack, Taylor, 38, worked in the adjutant general's corps and was a key aide to Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, who is also missing. Taylor was soon to become Lt. Col. Taylor, his brother said, but delayed the ceremony until late November so relatives could attend. They also would see his new baby. "It was going to be a meaningful thing," his brother said.

Lieutenant Colonel Kip Paul Taylor's 16-year ascent through the Army ranks began when he received his commission from the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Northern Michigan University, a unit run by his father, Don. A few months after graduation, Taylor was shipped to a base in Nuremberg, Germany, where he served for 3 1/2 years. The Michigan native returned stateside at the end of 1989 for a 15-month stint as an instructor at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. He was again sent on a foreign tour in 1991, this time as an adjutant for a task force in Honduras. After that five-month assignment, he rose to commander of a troop brigade back in Indiana, where he remained until the summer of 1994.

Taylor moved from base to base for four years before arriving at the Pentagon as executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel in July 1998. The 38-year-old career serviceman -- who enjoyed running, basketball and golf in his free time -- was serving as a military assistant in that office when he was killed September 11, 2001. "His office was on the outside ring and took a direct hit," Taylor's sister, Ann Zaenglein, was quoted as saying in USA Today. "There was nothing left of his office." A Major at the time of his death, Taylor was posthumously promoted to Lieutenant Colonel. He is survived by his wife and son.

The joys and trials of new fatherhood were on Kip Taylor's mind. At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, 2001, he e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon about how his life had changed since the birth of his son, Dean, almost two years earlier. He was happily anticipating the birth of his second son in a month. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home' wrote the U.S. Army Major. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

At about 9:40 a.m., Taylor, 38, was killed when American Flight 77 hit the Pentagon. "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," said his wife, Nancy. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." The Taylors were happy because they had achieved something that earlier seemed impossible. After their attempts to conceive had failed, the couple turned to medical science to help them have children. Dean was the result of in vitro fertilization, as was Luke, born October 25.

The babies are a great source of comfort. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband," Nancy Taylor said. So, when her husband's friends and admirers started asking where they could donate money in his memory, the answer seemed obvious. Nancy Taylor started a charity for infertile military couples and called it the Kip P. Taylor Fund. She explained that there are only two military facilities worldwide where in vitro fertilizations are performed, one in Washington, D.C., and one in Texas, making it difficult for military couples stationed abroad or elsewhere in this country to receive the subsidized treatment.

The fund will help couples offset the cost of traveling to the clinics and paying for lodging and food. Its Web site, www.kiptaylorfund.com, estimates that couples pay up to $5,100 out of pocket for treatments. Donations from family, friends and neighbors have brought the fund to $40,000 to date. "It's a lot," Nancy Taylor said. "But it's not enough to sustain this."

Having children is a challenge for military couples, she said, with being stationed in various places, long absences and combat service. But children play just as important a role in military families as they do in any other community, she said. "The military community does really rally around its children." To Taylor, balancing his work with a home life was essential. Though the 6-foot-5 Major cut an imposing figure in uniform, he was just as happy in jeans, cooking on his outdoor grill, building a deck on the couple's McLean, Virginia, home or tending to the lawn. But most of all, his wife said, he loved fatherhood and couldn't wait to someday coach his sons' Little League teams and attend their music recitals. Without him, his wife said, she tries to enjoy the "blessing" of her sons. But it's hard. She has not yet felt ready to return to her job as the editor of a medical newsletter. "At first I was getting by hour to hour," she said. "Then it was day to day. Now it's week to week. I hope some day it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

Six weeks after losing her husband Sept. 11, their second son was born

As Nancy Taylor endured the physical pain of childbirth October 25, 2001, at Bethesda Naval Medical Center, Maryland, she also struggled with powerful emotions and memories. Just six weeks earlier, her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip Taylor, was killed in the September 11 attack on the Pentagon. "It was hard," Taylor said. "I had been there at Bethesda less than two years before, when I had Dean. I kept recalling what it was like when Kip was there." Kip's sister and sister-in-law were with her during the delivery, which was a comfort. But still, "It didn't seem right that Kip wasn't there," she said. "It was horrible."

The approaching anniversary of the attacks has been an emotional time. She often thinks about what she, Kip and Dean were doing a year ago, including a trip to the beach a few weeks before September 11. When she looks at Dean, who turns 3 on December 28, 2003, she sees his resemblance to Kip. Baby Luke, who just started crawling, looks more like her. "The kids are my saving grace," she said. "They keep me busy. It's not that I don't think of Kip every day, because I do."

Kip Taylor was the military assistant to the Army deputy chief of staff for personnel, Lieutenant General Timothy Maude, who also was killed in the attack. Taylor decided the best way to honor her husband's memory was to help military families like hers who need fertility treatments to conceive. Both her boys were conceived through in vitro fertilization at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington.

She has established a fund to help military couples with travel and lodging expenses while they receive fertility treatments at Walter Reed or at Wilford Hall Medical Center in Texas. The Web address is <http://www.kiptaylorfund.com>. The fund has paid the expenses for five couples so far, she said. At least one of the five has been successful in getting pregnant. The Kip Taylor Memorial Fund covers some expenses for ROTC students at Northern Michigan University in Marquette, which Kip attended on ROTC and basketball scholarships.

Taylor collects letters, pictures and other memorabilia from generals, drill sergeants and others who worked with Kip and from schoolchildren who wrote to her after September 11. She has been overwhelmed by the generosity of those who wrote and sent gifts, many of them strangers. She has tried to respond to everyone. She points to a picture of President Bush embracing her September 17, 2001, at the Pentagon as he toured the rubble. It was a chance encounter - she was there only to pick up Kip's car from the parking lot. As her escort officer walked her through the building, Bush, who was there for a memorial service that had just concluded, appeared in the hallway with his large security entourage.

"We were told to move to the side of the hallway," Taylor said. "Everyone lined up started applauding, and he stopped and began shaking hands." Taylor approached, holding a picture of her husband that she was carrying, and told Bush that Kip had been at the Pentagon on September 11 and was still missing. Bush talked to Taylor for "a good two minutes," then embraced her and urged her to take good care of herself and her baby. Now, almost a year later, she finds that the biggest changes in her life are "the littlest things."

"Kip's absence is constantly evident," she said. "It's so different, not having him here to call and talk to during the day. Not seeing him in the house, not hearing his voice is just a huge void. It's an unspeakable loss." It has changed her perception of time. "I think time passes quickly when you have something to look forward to. Not that I don't have something to look forward to, but I guess my life is just not normal," she said. "Having no contact with Kip for a year, I feel like I haven't talked to him in years." Looking ahead, she focuses on her boys and their view of their father. She talks to her children about him often, showing them his picture. "I hope they think about their dad in a happy, positive way, and not let the sadness overcome his memory," she said. "I'm trying to overcome that myself. At night, we pray for daddy, mommy and the whole family."

In the first year of Dean's life, she put together a time capsule for him that includes audiotapes with messages from Kip and other family members. She hasn't listened to Kip's tape. When he was recording it, he asked, "You're not going to listen to this, are you?" she said. She knows he would want his children to be aware of how much he loved them: "He wanted them to be happy and have a good life." Now she's gathering items for a time capsule for Luke. But that effort is moving slowly. "I find it hard to ask people," she said. "There has been so much sadness in the family." That sadness lingers. These days, Taylor can think of Kip and find herself smiling. "But more times, I'm crying."

Notes for Nancy Ann Melvin:

Washington - When Nancy Melvin Taylor died of cancer last week (18 November 2003) at the age of 39, it was the final act of a family tragedy that began on the morning of September 11, 2001. When they bury her at Arlington National Cemetery, she will rest in the same grave with her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip P. Taylor, 38, who was killed in the terrorist attack on the Pentagon. Husband and wife will share a simple white marble marker in Section 64.

Two years ago, Kip and Nancy Taylor were living a dream. They'd struggled for years to have a child, and finally through in-vitro fertilization Nancy had given birth to a son, Dean Ross Taylor. She was eight months' pregnant, and their second child was due in October.

At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, in his office in the Pentagon, Kip sent this e-mail to friends about the joy of fatherhood: "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say: Hi honey, I'm home! ... What we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day." At 9:40, terrorists steered American Airlines Flight 77 into the offices of the Chief of Personnel of the Army, killing many of those who worked there, including Kip Taylor. Nancy said: "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life. I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." Six weeks later, on October 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to their second son, John Luke Taylor. While she was in the hospital, bringing a new life to this world, the doctors discovered that Nancy had cancer. Terminal cancer.

Nancy packed as much living as she could into the precious months that were left to her. She established a charity for infertile military couples, helping to pay their way to the only two military facilities where in-vitro fertilizations can be performed. The Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund helps offset travel, lodging and food for military couples traveling to the hospitals. (Donations to: Kip P. Taylor Fund, P.O. Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101.)

She loved and cherished her babies full-time, even as she wrestled with her grief over the loss of Kip Taylor, a 6-foot-5 Michigan native who came into the Army with an ROTC commission at Northern Michigan University in a program run by his father, Don. Nancy said her husband had loved fatherhood and couldn't wait for the day he could coach his sons' Little League baseball teams and attend their band concerts. On October 10 of this year, Nancy was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame. She'd been a regional All-American in field hockey while attending the Nursing School at the university. She was, her coach said, "by far the best offensive player in school history."

What will happen to two little boys, orphaned at ages 4 and 2? Kip's brother Dean and his wife will care for them - and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation will ensure that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations, everything included, in token of the fact that their father served a tour as adjutant of the Army's top-secret Delta Force.

If you're looking for a worthy charity this holiday season, you might consider the Warrior Foundation (www.specialops.org), which was created in 1980 as the Colonel Bull Simons Scholarship Fund (named for Colonel Arthur D. Simons, a legendary special-ops officer who died in 1979) to provide college educations for 17 children of nine American soldiers who were killed or disabled in the Desert One mission to rescue American hostages in Iran. That fund and others supporting Special Ops troops and families merged and became the Warrior Foundation in 1995. Its purpose is "to provide a college education to every child who has lost a parent while serving in the Special Operations Command during an operational or training mission." The Warrior Foundation provides grants, not loans. It covers tuition, books, and room and board. To date, 48 children of Special Ops soldiers have graduated with this help. More than 400 children of 380 Special Ops personnel who have died in service to our country are guaranteed the assistance. That will cost $25 million through 2010. The Warrior Foundation has $3.8 million in the bank.

Nancy Ann Melvin Taylor died on November 18, 2003 at the National Naval Medical Center. She was born in Syracuse, New York on June 25, 1964. She was a graduate of Fayetteville-Manlius High School, University of Rochester Nursing School with B.S. and received an MBA from Syracuse University. Nancy worked as a nurse in Richmond, VA and then in Syracuse, NY while she worked on her MBA. She then moved to Washington where she continued working in the health field. She was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame on October 10, 2003. Her field hockey coach referred to her as "by far the best offensive player in the school's history". She was selected for the first team, All-Mid East Regional All-American. Nancy also enjoyed skiing and more recently golfing. She was predeceased by her husband Lt. Col. Kip P. Taylor, who was killed at the Pentagon on September 11, 2001.

She is survived by her two sons, Dean Ross, 4 and John Luke 2; her parents, Merle and Ann Melvin of Manlius, New York; two brothers, Ross D. of Syracuse and John W. of Cazenovia; an aunt and uncle, May and William Legg of LaFayette, New York; and several cousins.

Calling hours are 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, November 23, at the Arlington Funeral Home, 3901 N. Fairfax Dr., Arlington, Virginia. There will be a memorial service at the Dewitt Community Church in Dewitt, New York on December 5 at 11 a.m. Interment and private graveside services at Arlington Cemetery will take place at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund, PO Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101; or the University of Rochester, New York 14627; or the charity of your choice.

After being diagnosed with terminal breast cancer in 2002, Nancy Melvin-Taylor compiled a "to-do"list:

- Potty train her son, Dean.
- See her infant son walk and talk.
- Get her will in order.
- And return to the University of Rochester, the place of so much glory, for her induction into the Athletic Hall of Fame.

"It wasn't easy for her," says her former coach, Jane Possee. "She wasn't well enough to come in 2002 (when she was first selected), but she came back the next year. She made it." Weeks later, she was gone, a 9/11 widow leaving behind two young sons and a story so tragic it resonates more than a decade later. On Saturday, 12 of her teammates will return to UR for homecoming on Meliora Weekend. They will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the field hockey team's first state and ECAC championships — a team powered by Melvin-Taylor. And they will celebrate having known Nancy.

"Nancy was a phenomenal athlete," says former teammate Christine Mitchell, her close friend since middle school. "But you'd never know it to be around her. She was just this happy-go-lucky person." Possee recruited her along with two teammates from Syracuse's Fayetteville-Manlius High — Mitchell (the former Chris Joor) and Dorie Gostin Massie. But make no mistake. "Nancy was the star," Possee says. "She was the best offensive player I'd ever seen."

The Syracuse native was UR's field hockey All-American and graduated in 1986 as the program's record-holder for game-winning goals in one season (7) and career (19), career goals (50) and career points (114). The four-year starting forward was named to three all-state Division III teams and helped UR repeat as state champs in 1985. Not bad for someone who didn't play the game seriously until high school. "I credit her mom with that," says Nancy's dad, Merle, now 86. "When Nancy was in high school, everyone was playing soccer. Ann thought field hockey would be good for Nancy. And she excelled." She was a star in the classroom, too. She graduated from UR with high honors with a bachelor's degree in nursing and went on to earn an MBA from Syracuse University.

Life in D.C.

Melvin-Taylor met her husband, Kip Taylor, when she was working in medical marketing research in Washington, D.C. They married in 1996, and two years later Kip — the son of a career Army officer — began working at the Pentagon as an executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel. The two struggled to conceive but finally welcomed their first child, Dean, on Dec. 28, 1999, through in vitro fertilization. Two years later, Nancy became pregnant again via IVF. It was, the Taylors said, a miracle. They lived in McLean, Virginia, and loved grilling on their deck and working in their yard. The 6-foot-5 Kip enjoyed running, and playing basketball and golf. He said he dreamed of one day coaching his son's Little League team or attending dance recitals.

Their second child was due in October 2001, and Kip had another reason to be excited: That November, he would be promoted from major to lieutenant colonel. He had asked the Army to delay the promotion so that his family, who would be in town to see the baby, could be there. It was a big deal. The Taylors were on top of the world, but that world was about to be turned upside down. At 8:26 a.m. on Sept. 11, 2001, Kip e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon and poignantly discussed how his life had changed since becoming a dad. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home,'" he wrote. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

Seventy-four minutes later, the 38-year-old Taylor was killed when American Airlines Flight 77 struck the Pentagon during the terrorist attacks on America. His office took a direct hit. Also killed was Kip's boss, Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, with whom Kip was meeting. Maude was the highest-ranking U.S. military officer killed in the Sept. 11 attacks and the most senior U.S. officer killed by hostile action since Lt. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner in 1945. "We knew early on that Kip was missing," says Mitchell, a marketing consultant in Boston at the time. "But Nancy thought he might be in a hospital. So many people had been severely injured and hospitalized. But someone from the military came to her house two days later and said he had been in a meeting with Kip just before the plane hit. He said there was no way Kip could have survived based on where he was."

Nancy scheduled a memorial service for her husband at Arlington National Cemetery, less than two weeks before her due date. The Army posthumously promoted Kip to lieutenant colonel. "For a long time, she didn't accept that he was gone," Mitchell says. "They didn't find his body until two days before the service. And that service was something. The place was packed to the gills with all sorts of military personnel, and you could see the Pentagon from the (burial) site. It was still charred." Nancy recounted her feelings in an interview with ArlingtonCemetery.net after the memorial service.

"We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," she said. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." On Oct. 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to another son, Luke. "The babies are a great source of comfort," she said afterward. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband."

A 37-year-old widow with two children, Nancy courageously trudged on and started a charity in her husband's name for infertile military couples. The Kip P. Taylor Fund assisted with travel and lodging expenses for couples who received fertility treatments. Nancy found it impossible to think about returning to her job as editor of a medical newsletter. There were no other family members in Washington. A part-time nanny helped, and friends like Mitchell did their part when they visited. It was a lonely, painful time. "At first, I was getting by hour to hour," she told ArlingtonCemetery.net. "Now it's week to week. I hope someday it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

But time was not on Nancy's side. While nursing 3-month-old Luke in February 2002, she felt pain in her breasts. Doctors assumed it was mastitis, an infection of the breast tissue, and put her on antibiotics. When that didn't work, they did further tests and discovered Nancy had Stage 4 inflammatory breast cancer. She was given two months to live. She initially refused chemotherapy, wanting to maximize her time left with her children. But after being diagnosed with HER2-positive breast cancer, she began taking herceptin, which blocks cancer cells from growing.

"It basically buys time," Mitchell says. Melvin-Taylor packed as much life as she could into her remaining time. She worked on the fund named after her husband. She dealt with the endless paperwork that comes from being a 9/11 widow, even the chore of selling Kip's car. And she ran a gamut of emotions. "I'd go down and we'd have gloom and doom weekends," Mitchell says. "She was very angry. But there were other weekends when she was upbeat, and we'd go apple picking with the kids."

Memory lives on

Nancy died on Nov. 18, 2003, leaving behind her 4- and 2-year-old boys. She was 39. She is buried next to her husband in Arlington National Cemetery, beneath simple white markers. Dean and Luke, who soon will turn 15 and 13, have been raised in Colorado the past 11 years by Kip's brother and sister-in-law, Dean and Donna Taylor. Dean was a lieutenant colonel in the Army, and he retired to raise his brother's children. Dean and Donna did not have any children of their own. The Special Operations Warrior Foundation ensured that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations. "You get through it," Merle Melvin, Nancy's father, says of the tragedy. "You take things as they come." Merle and Ann are divorced. They have four grandsons in all — Nancy's twin, John, lives in Cazenovia and has two boys. But they don't often see Dean and Luke. "It has been a while," Merle says. "I know Luke plays baseball. That much I know."

Nancy held the UR points record for 28 years until junior Michelle Relin broke it last month. UR coach Wendy Andreatta told Relin about Melvin-Taylor's life and death the day before the record fell. "It's humbling," Relin says. "I had no idea she had such a compelling story, and such a moving story. I wish I could have met her this weekend."

Melvin-Taylor remains first in career game-winning goals and third in goals scored. But again, those are just numbers. Her legacy is more about the person she was, the wife and mom she became. "She was an incredibly strong woman," says Possee, now an associate director for athletics at UR who oversees recreation programs. "She wasn't just a great athlete, she was a great person. The story is so very sad."
