Notes for Erhard Theodore (Aaron) Alber:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Erhard Theodore Alber, the senior partner of the firm of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel, is a native son of Washtenaw County and in his business career has displayed the enterprise which has been the dominant factor in the up building of the great Middle West. He was born in Lodi Township on the 25th of August, 1866. His father, John George Alber, became a resident of this county when eighteen years of age and settled upon a farm in Lodi Township, where for many years he was identified with general agricultural pursuits. At the time of his arrival this was largely an unsettled district in which the work of improvement and progress had scarcely been begun and he entered from the government a claim of eighty acres, to which he has since added as his financial resources have increased until he is now the owner of a valuable farm of one hundred and thirty-six acres, which under his careful supervision and cultivation has become very productive. In religious faith a Lutheran, he is an active worker in the church, doing all in his power to promote its growth and extend its influence. In his political allegiance he is a democrat. He married Miss Marguerita Metzger, who died in 1899, leaving seven children, as follows: Charles Michael, a resident farmer of Saline, Michigan; John George, who also makes his home at Saline; John August, a contractor residing in Ann Arbor; Fred Erhard, who is living in Perry, Lodi Township; William Henry, who is engaged in general farming near Saline; and Emanuel Gottlob, who is engaged in painting at Saline.

Erhard T. Alber, the other member of the family, was reared upon the old homestead farm in the usual manner of lads of the period and when about six years of age he began his education in the district schools of his native township. He pursued his studies through the winter months and in the summer seasons worked upon the home farm until about twenty years of age, when thinking that he would find other occupation more congenial he left the parental roof and began learning the carpenter's trade. Subsequently he spent five years in the employ of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, working in the line of his trade and on the expiration of that period he began contracting and building on his own account, in which he continued for five years. In 1891 he took up his abode in Ann Arbor and he is now engaged in the hotel business as a partner of Nathan Horning, under the firm style of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel. They conduct a strictly modern hostelry of twenty-five rooms heated with steam and there is a barber shop and buffet in connection. Mr. Alber is popular with the patrons of the hotel and receives a liberal patronage from the traveling public. Everything possible is done for the comfort and convenience of the guests and the hotel is conducted along the most modern lines, so that it would be a credit to a city of much larger size than Ann Arbor.

In the year of his removal here Mr. Alber was married to Miss Emma K. Horning, who was born in Pittsfield Township. A Mason, he belongs to Fraternity lodge, No. 262, A. F. & A. M. and is in hearty sympathy with the principles of the craft. His political allegiance is given to the Republican Party and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran church. His entire life has been passed in the county of his nativity and his deep interest in its welfare is manifest in the public spirited support which he gives to various measures for the general good. He is recognized as a man of good business qualifications, of keen foresight and unfaltering enterprise and his success is the merited reward of his persistent labor.

Notes for Johann August Alber:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

John August Alber, who, as a member of the firm of Stadel & Alber, is conducting a large business as a contractor and builder in Ann Arbor, was born in Lodi Township, Washtenaw county, August 24, 1855, his parents being John George and Margarita (Metzger) Alber, both of whom were natives of Germany, born in Wurtemberg. The father was one of the oldest settlers in this county, having crossed the Atlantic to the United States and made his way westward to Michigan at an early period in the development of this part of the state. A farmer by occupation, he became the owner of eighty acres of land, and as his financial resources increased he added to, the property until he had one hundred and sixty acres. His death occurred in Town in 1893, when he was sixty-three years of age, while his wife passed away in 1898, at the age of sixty-seven years.

The member of their family were as follows: John August, of this review; Charles Michael, a resident farmer of Saline township; Erhardt Frederick, who follows farming in Perry county, Michigan; William Henry, a farmer of Lodi township; Gottlieb Emanuel, a painter of Lodi; John Christian, a farmer living in Saline, and Erhardt A., proprietor of the St. James Hotel at Ann Arbor. At the usual age John August Alber entered the district schools of Lodi Township, where he continued his studies until sixteen years old. When a young man of eighteen years he began learning the carpenter's and builder's trade, and previous to this he assisted his father in the work of the home farm, early becoming familiar with the duties of field and meadow. For two years he served as an apprentice to a contractor in Lodi. He built George Page's barn, forty by seventy feet, one of the largest in the county, and in 1888 he came to Ann Arbor, where he worked at his trade in the employ of others until the spring of 1895, when he entered into partnership with Samuel Stadel. He has since been engaged in house building in this city and in surrounding districts and has been accorded a number of important contracts, while on all sides are seen evidences of his handiwork and skill in the substantial homes of Ann Arbor. He is thoroughly conversant with the builder's art, both in principle and detail, is prompt and faithful in the execution of a contract, and his honorable methods have brought to him a liberal patronage.

On the 30th of April, 1880, Mr. Alber was united in marriage to Miss Jacobina Blumhardt, a daughter of John G. and Wilhelmina Blumhardt, natives of Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Alber now have three children:

Wilhelmina, born April 9, 1884; Christian William, born April 6, 1888; and Gertrude Elsie, born September 26, 1893. The parents hold membership in Zion Lutheran church, and they occupy a magnificent new residence which Mr. Alber has recently completed at No. 552 Third Street.

He had joined the sheriff's department during the administration of the late Sheriff Jacob Andres and most of the time had served on the 12 to 8 "mid-night" shift as desk sergeant. He was born in Saline 52 years ago and attended the Saline High School. In 1917 he enlisted in the U. S. Army Signal Corps, a served overseas for about a year. He had never married.

Marriage Notes for Edward Alber and Lydia Klein:

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alber, 101E. McKay St., Milan, will be observed, Saturday evening, Dec. 28 1957, with a reception from 6 to 9 o'clock in the basement of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church for the immediate family and near neighbors. Members of that church, they were married on that date in 1907 at the parsonage by the late Rev. Carl Lederer.

The bride's sister, Emma, later Mrs. Emma Smith, recently deceased, was maid of honor, and the best man, was the groom's brother, Herman Alber, Saline, who will be present at the golden anniversary. Also attending the reception will be Mrs. Alber's sister. Mrs. Minnie Bock, Ann Arbor, and Miss Lucille Myers, Detroit, who lived in the Alber home and, attended school in Saline. Besides his brother, Herman, present will be Mr. Alber's sisters, Mrs. William Kuebler, Bridgewater, and Mrs. Helen Finkbeiner, Ann Arbor, and their nieces, and nephews. Mrs. Alber is the daughter of late John Adam Klein, who owned and operated the historic Schuyler Mill for many years. She was born in the large house across the street from the mill on the present W. Michigan. Ave. Mr. Alber's parents were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michael Albert, Who lived near Bridgewater on the present Austin Rd.

Mr. Alber had learned the miller's trade at the York Mill when S. M. Bixby owned and operated it, and after their marriage; the couple went to Eureka, Kansas, where he worked in a mill. Ten for a short time they lived in Encio, New Mexico, and Davenport, Iowa. They returned to Saline in 1911 when brothers Edward and, Herman purchased the York Mill, south of town. After a, few years Herman sold his interest to Jacob Theurer, and in 1930 Ed, as he was familiarly called became sole owner and proprietor until 1944, when he sold the mill and retired. Mr. Alber could not remain inactive, so has been custodian at the Citizens Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Alber lived in the big house, near the mill and closer to the road, with their only child, Louise Clarine, who was a traffic fatality in 1932 at the age of 12, when playing with schoolmates on N. Ann Arbor St. Mr. Alber was expert miller and products bearing the York Mills label were widely known and sold.

That section was known for its beautiful scenery. The Alber property was well kept, the mill race overhung with trees and the pond in winter was the favorite skating place. For many years the road was narrow, home drawn buggies and wagons could barely pass each other, and the hill on the south was much steeper. The pond side of the road was lined with huge willow trees, between which a view of the pond could be seen as one drove past. This was changed when the road became county maintained and was widened. The mill, which was a large three story building, was a landmark for many years and was razed only a few years ago. The property is known as the . . .

Notes for Louise Clarine Alber:

Louise Clarine Alber, 12-years-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alber, was instantly killed about 9 o'clock Saturday evening April 30, 1932, while playing hide and seek with a group of playmates on North Ann Arbor Street, when she ran in front of a car driven by Walter S. Harris, son-in-law of Alfred Young, residing on US-112 a few miles west of Saline. Harris was returning to Saline from Ann Arbor accompanied by his wife, Miss Marjorie Young, 15, and Miss Waneta Milhan, 13. All stated that they did not see Miss Alber until the car struck her.

A jury appointed by Coroner E. C. Ganzhorn of Ann Arbor, composed of A. A. Kalder, foreman, Arthur Armbruster, Samuel Lambarth, Adolph Lindemann, Frank Dieterle and Walter Armbruster, returned the following verdict in which they held the accident unavoidable, exonerated the driver and urged parents to caution children not to play in the streets: "We, the undersigned coroner jury, find as follows in regard to the death of Louise Alber. She came to her death as a result of an unavoidable accident by being struck by an automobile about 9 o'clock p.-m; on North Ann Arbor Street, Saline, Saturday, April 30. No blame is attached to the driver. The jury feels that parents should caution their children about playing in the streets." Dr. Charles O. Woodbridge, who was called to the scene of the accident, stated that the girl was dead when he arrived. He reported that death came as a result of injuries to the spine, chest and face. According to witnesses the Harns car was moving at a moderate rate of speed. Officer Melvin Alber stated that he had tested the brakes and found them in normal condition.

Miss Alber was active in the Trinity Lutheran Church, the Campfire Girls and was a pupil in the sixth grade. The funeral was held Wednesday, afternoon with Rev. Adolf Lederer in charge. Burial was made at Oakwood Cemetery.

As most anyone who knew her could tell you, she was an avid bridge player. She was ready to play at the slightest hint of a bridge game and was known to organize impromptu games wherever she happened to be. True to being a teacher, she also liked teaching beginners how to play bridge.

She and Gordon had one child, Susan, who lives in Ventura with her husband, Victor. She is also survived by three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Notes for Raymond Edwin Alber:

July 4, 1984 - Lots of little boys think they want to be firemen when they grow up. Ray Alber says he wasn't y one of them. "Oh, sometimes some of us kids would hear the siren and go to the fires, but I never gave it any special thought," he said. Things certainly changed. For most of his adult life; Alber went to every fire in town and had to think about them a great deal. He was a member of the Saline Fire Department since 1949, and fire chief since 1977. But Ray Alber officially retired from the department June 30. "I have arrived at 65 years of age, and have served on the department for 35 rewarding years," was the simple explanation in his resignation. "He'll be greatly missed," said Lodi Township Supervisor Erwin Frederick, president of the Saline Area Fire Board. "Not only by the Board, but by the other firemen. He was a good faithful member of the department." We want him to stay on," said Rolie Goltz, who's been on the Saline Fire Department for 40 years. "But we couldn't talk him into it. He said when he got to be 65, it was time to retire. "He was a real good guy to work with, and a real good chief. He was easy going and stayed calm through all the emergencies. Everyone liked him." Born and raised in Saline, Alber said he was working as a mechanic at Steeb Dodge when then chief Tony Schild asked him to become a volunteer fireman. The force was short of men, and they especially needed "guys that were in town during the day to go to the daytime fires," he recalled. Alber didn't have to undergo the 66 hours of extensive training that today's volunteers must go through. "There weren't as many problems then as there are now," he explained. "Back then, there were no smoke masks. We used to go right in and stay as long as we could—it wouldn't hurt us. "Now buildings contain so many plastics, giving off toxic fumes. Even most carpets are plastic. It's much more dangerous today." In 1949, the fire hall was located where Little Caesar's Pizza is today. The Police Department was on the upper floor and the Fire Department below. So there was no need of the traditional "fire pole" to slide down. Of course there never was a need for one in Saline since the force was always comprised of volunteers. "No one ever slept up there," Alber patiently explained. "We never had a need for a Dalmatian either!"

The Department had two trucks when Alber joined—a 1939 and a 1947 Ford. "We still have them," Alber mentioned. The '47 still can be put in service, though it's been overshadowed by the modern fleet of two pumpers, two tankers, and emergency truck, a grass fighter, and a mini pumper. The '39 is kept by the Fire Association for a parade truck. Inevitably, Alber is asked which were the worst fires he can't remember. He was ready with his answers. "When George's Tavern burned down, in the winter of . . . 1957, I think," he began. "It was at least 15 below zero, and the hoses kept freezing up." George's was located downtown where The Keg is now. The building burned completely and had to be rebuilt. "It used to be two stories—now it's just one story." The adjoining corners of the old Walker's Bakery (where Campbell's now stands) and Wood's Hardware (the site of Wight's Cleaners) also burned in that winter blaze. The cause never was discovered.

Another fierce fire was at Big Daddy's in February, 1978. The restaurant burned "up through the third story"—and it's still not fully repaired. That fire was traced to an employee handling candles near a stove vent. And of course the giant blaze at the Saline Ford plant last May was unforgettable for Alber. He had to coordinate the efforts of about 75 additional firemen who came from 15 other communities to help. "We'd called a few other local units for other fires, but nothing like this," Alber said. No cause ever has been determined for the Ford fire, which destroyed 5,000 racks of scrap plastic at the Michigan Avenue plant.

Alber doesn't know how many fires he may have fought over the 35 years. During the early years, "they didn't keep track as much as they do now," he said. For the last 10 years, the force has averaged 102 calls a year, a figure which includes grass, fires, car fires, and emergency calls. From 1957 until 1979; Alber and his wife Sally lived on E. Michigan Avenue where Tom Mac's Photography is today. He operated Ray's Auto Service from a garage he built, behind the house. The business now is DJ's Auto.

Alber also owns and operates a sawmill on Monroe Street, just across the new bridge. His hobby of restoring steam engines and old tractors and taking them to shows keeps him busy. Ray and Sally have three daughters—Lois in Ann Arbor and Ruth and Marquette out of state—and five grandchildren. "I've been very satisfied with being a fireman in Saline," Alber shrugged modestly. "I always got along well with the Fire Board and with the City before that." Assistant chief Manny Hill is acting as fire chief until the next meeting of the Fire Board. Hill probably will be appointed officially to the job at that time.

Raymond E. Alber of Saline, Michigan, age 85, died on Wednesday, October 13, 2004 at the Saline Community Hospital. He was born February 14, 1919 in Saline, Michigan, the son of Herman and Otila (Kohler) Alber. In 1942 he married Virginia Klueter and she preceded him in death in 1966. He then married Sally Lines in 1966 and she survives. He was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ and also attended St. Andrew's. He was the owner of Ray's Auto Service in Saline; a Saline fireman for 37 years and Chief for several years before his retirement. He spent his retirement running his Port Huron Steam Engine and putting on old fashioned threshing exhibitions. He was a member of the National Threshers Association where he participated for many years in Wauseon, OH. He also had an old Saw Mill in Saline where he cut logs for anyone who brought them in. He enjoyed deer hunting in Northern Michigan and at a friend's farm near Saline. He and his wife Sally spent their winters in Mesa, Arizona for several years.

Survivors in addition to his wife, Sally, include three daughters, Ruth Wier of Wilmington, North Carolina; Lois Gannon of Ypsilanti, Michigan; Marquette Williams of Meeker, OK; grandson Christopher Shankland; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren; two sisters, Luella Drake and Doris Cook; and several nieces, nephews and cousins. On May 15, 1993 he married Margaret K. Egeler who survives. Self-taught as a programmer/analyst, Dave retired from Fingerle Lumber in Ann Arbor after many years. He had previously worked in Chicago for The Great Books Foundation. The cities of Chicago, Seattle, Cleveland, Covington, Roanoke, Clifton Forge, and Richmond, Virginia had the good fortune of hearing Dave's pleasant bass voice on the radio where he worked as a disc jockey under the air names 'Dave Diamond' and 'Rick Shaw'. After many years living the big city life in Chicago, Dave came to love the quiet and slower pace of country life. Dave was a kind and generous soul who loved music, a sharp wit and good food.

In addition to his wife Margaret, he is survived by many loved ones: brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and cousins. Dave was cherished by his family and will be sorely missed. Wilma Marie¹² Alber (Julius Oscar¹¹, Johannes Christian¹⁰, Johann Georg⁹, Michael⁸, Blasius⁷, Joerg (Johann Georg)⁶, Joerg⁵, Jerg⁴, Hans Jerg³, Jerg², Peter¹) was born 05 Jul 1928 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 20 Oct 2020 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He was born 20 Jan 1929 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 17 Feb 2018 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Wilma Marie Alber:

Wilma Mynning, of Dexter, Michigan Age 92, died October 2, 2020 peacefully at home after a period of declining health. Daughter of Dorothy (Finkbeiner) and Julius Alber, Wilma was born July 5, 1928 at home on the family farm in Clinton, the youngest of four children. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Florence Harvey, Paul Alber, and Ella May Smith; her husband, Russell J. Mynning; and a son, David R. Mynning. Wilma is survived by a daughter, Rosemary Downer (Thomas); grandson, Paul Roberts (Karen); and great-grandchildren, Janie, Sophie, and William Roberts. Other survivors are her sisters-in-law, Jacqueline McGinn and Dorothy Alber, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Following graduation from Saline High School in 1945, Wilma found employment as a bookkeeper in Ann Arbor. She was living with her sister and brother-in-law, Ella and George Smith, in their home located on Pratt Road, just down the road from a family named Mynning. Whether by design or luck, Wilma met the love of her life when Russ Mynning was hitchhiking, and she stopped to give him a ride home. Russ and Wilma were married on December 27, 1947 at St. Thomas Catholic Church, Ann Arbor, and were together for 70 years until Russ' death in 2018. Wilma was an avid gardener and cook, skilled seamstress, joyful dancer, committed organizer of family events, savvy card shark, and exceptional raconteur. She was kind and generous to her extended family, and a dedicated volunteer for the Knights of Columbus Ladies' Auxiliary and St. Joseph Catholic Church, Dexter. Wilma was a woman of faith, love, determination, and purpose. She often said, "With God, all things are possible," but also, relying on her own fortitude and pluck, "Where there is a Wilma, there is a way!"

Special thanks to: family, for their prayers, support, love, and laughter over the years; Paul and Karen Roberts; Betty Raab, for hands-on assistance, especially in times of need; the good neighbors at The Cedars of Dexter; Father Brendan and parish members from St. Joe's Church; Wilma's caregivers from Our Family Friend; and Arbor Hospice for their kind care. A private memorial service and burial are planned. Donations in Wilma's memory can be made to St. Joseph Catholic Church, 3430 Dover Street, Dexter, Michigan 48130, the Arbor Hospice Foundation, or a charity of one's choice. Arrangements by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, Chelsea.

Notes for Russell Joseph Mynning:

Russell (Russ) Mynning passed peacefully on February 17, 2018 in Dexter, Michigan. Born on January 20, 1929 in Ann Arbor he was the son of Donald and Josephine (Mercier) Mynning, younger brother of YeVonne (Joe) Clisham, Jacqueline (Jack) McGinn, Don Jr. (Margaret) and older brother of Jim Mynning, husband to Wilma (Alber), father of Rosemary (Tom) Downer and David, grandfather to Paul (Karen) Roberts and great-grandfather to Billy, Janie, and Sophie. In addition to his wife of 70 years he is survived by his sisters, children, grandson, great-grandchildren and many nephews and nieces.

Russ's long career in construction began in 1947 when he was employed in the building supply division at Ann Arbor Construction Company. Thirteen years later he accepted a managerial job with Rohde Brick and Supply Company. He retired from The University of Michigan's construction division in 1993. As he moved through the ranks in the construction industry he never lost sight of what it was like to work in the field and never asked his crews to do something he wouldn't do himself. Construction was also a significant part of Russ's personal life starting with the building of his and Wilma's first home in Scio Township and a cottage on Half Moon Lake. A larger house built on family land off Pratt Road replaced those earlier dwellings and was the site of many spirited gatherings for family, friends and neighbors. In 2009 Russ and Wilma sold their home and moved to the Cedars of Dexter.

Russ needed to be out of doors in all seasons. He could be found gardening, mushroom hunting, watching the birds and other wildlife and in earlier years, hunting and fishing. He devoted countless hours during the growing season to mowing six acres of lawn in addition to tending a large vegetable garden. During the winter he could be found behind the wheel of his truck plowing snow in the neighborhood. Russ's involvement in community service started early. At the urging of his father, he began his affiliation with the Knights of Columbus Ann Arbor Chapter when he was 18 years old, transferring his membership to the Dexter Council several decades later. Over the years Russ served as Navigator, Grand Knight, and District Deputy. He was an honorary life member of the Third and Fourth Degree. Russ was an active parishioner at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Dexter chairing the property commission which takes care of the church buildings and grounds. Russ was involved in Christmas in Action (formerly Christmas in April), a nonprofit agency that partners with members of the community to repair the homes of low income and/or disabled homeowners. "Neighbor helping neighbor" is the organization's motto which struck a chord with all who volunteered their time, labor and material. In retirement Russ delivered Meals on Wheels.

When he wasn't working he enjoyed playing card games with friends, attending music festivals and dances at Old German Park, Frankenmuth, Tri-County Sportsmen's League and other locations, but his true passion was woodcrafting. While he sold some of his crafts, most of his creations were given as gifts to friends and family members or donated for charity auctions and fundraisers. From bluebird houses to dollhouses, rocking horses to whimsical animals, model toy trains, planes, cars, and Santa's sleigh and reindeer, he took great pleasure in making and sharing them. Throughout his life Russ demonstrated his faith and values through actions and deeds. He was a quiet Christian, committed family man, proud patriot and most of all a good friend to all.

Mass of Christian Burial will be prayed at the St. Joseph Village Church, 3430 Dover St., Dexter, with Fr. Brendan J. Walsh presiding on Friday, February 23, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. Burial will follow at the St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery in Dexter. The family will receive friends at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home on Thursday from 4-8 p.m. with a Scripture Service and Chalice Ceremony starting at 7:00 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Christmas In Action or the charity of one's choice.

April 25, 2002 - By Renee Lapham Collins Associate Editor In its "World Fact Book," the Central Intelligence Agency defines Cambodia as a "land of paddies and forests dominated by the Mekong River and Tonle Sap," with an estimated population of more than 12 million. The Southeast Asia country grabbed headlines in the 1960s and 1970s when U.S. involvement in Vietnam was at its peak, and in 1975 when more than a million people were killed by communist Khmer Rouge forces. After a 13-year war with its Vietnamese neighbors to the east, the United Nations intervened and helped Cambodians bring some sense of order to their chaotic government. Still, Cambodia is considered a third-world nation filled with poverty, disease, and a population with a life expectancy of less than 60 years. Many families, seeking a better life for their children, abandon them at orphanages, where they are sought for international adoption. Such an orphanage currently is the home of a 7-month-old girl that has been adopted by Diane and Richard Alber of York Township. The couple, already the parents of four grown children and grandparents as well, have been waiting since December to pick up the daughter they plan to call Malaya. "We received our approval September 12, and found out that the Embassy in Cambodia had received it," says Diane. "We thought, what a blessing, soon we'd get a referral. And on September 28, we did." But allegations of baby trafficking and reports of Cambodian women having their children stolen for sale internationally shook the INS, which already was reeling from the September 11 fallout, and delayed hundreds of foreign adoptions. "We should have had our decree and been able to go and pick her up since we had our approval long before December," says Diane. "But, things were at a standstill because of the Cambodian Embassy, and December 21, the INS called for a moratorium on U.S. families adopting children from Cambodia." The country is one of the most popular for prospective parents because adoptions reportedly are completed much more quickly than in other countries.

"Since the process isn't that long, we expected to have her soon," says Diane. The Albers are concerned for the health of their adopted daughter. In Cambodia, Diane explains, "once children are 8 years old, if they aren't adopted from the orphanages, they are turned out in the streets to try and make it on their own. "Many of the children in the orphanages are sick, malnourished, and need medical attention," she adds. Diane thought at first it was a case of the "empty nest" syndrome, but, once their four children were grown and on their own, "we had time to do other things besides raising children, but we felt like something was missing in our lives." She and Richard first considered adopting another child in 1998, but found that adopting a child from the U.S. was difficult. "We made many calls to many agencies to adopt, and finally I talked with a person that I knew had adopted a U.S. child," Diane recalls. "She told me that if she considered adoption again, she would pursue an international adoption. "Most of the children in the U.S. are bounced from foster home to foster home before they are placed into adoption. The wait was very long, and the cost overwhelming." Members of Fellowship Baptist Church, the Albers had seen a brochure tacked to the church's bulleting board about a meeting in which they could get more information on adopting a child from China. At that time, they decided the cost was "more than we could afford," but after investigating the possibilities of adopting a U.S. child, they turned again to the international scene. "We decided the Lord was leading us to reconsider China," says Diane. "We searched on the Internet and made many calls, and Finally found an agency." They attended a meeting, put in an application and continued with applying for the I-600-A orphan petition for International Adoption. The process is a long one, but it went smoothly for the Albers. "We didn't know where we would get the money to pursue this, but as time went on, the Lord started to provide income," Diane says. "My son hired me to work as a secretary for his carpet cleaning business, and we gave up our yearly vacation and a new car." As part of the adoption procedure, a social worker had to conduct a home study, and the Albers had to provide proof of income, marriage, birth certificates, and be fingerprinted and investigated by the FBI. "In July 1999, we received our approval to adopt, and our petition was sent to China in August," says Diane. "Then the wait began." Eight months later, the Albers received word that they would be able to adopt a little girl, and in May 2000, they traveled to China to pick up Shiyona, who now is 4. "She runs to every baby she sees," says Diane. "She was raised with a baby in China, and she misses her.

Richard decided that the Lord was again speaking to us to adopt another child, and we asked our social worker what she thought. "She said that if we did indeed adopt another child, we needed to choose a younger child since Shiyona is doing so well." ' Richard says he balked at adopting a child at first, because he felt they had raised their children, but soon changed his mind. Says Diane with a smile,

"When we talked about adopting a second child, he was the one who wanted to do it and I was the one who was hesitating. Then, when we talked Richard woke me up one night and said that the Lord told him not to worry about his age. Richard felt it would be best for Shiyona to have a sister to grow up with." Since hearing that their decree has been held up, Diane and Richard have been "faxing, e-mailing, and calling our senators and congressmen. "Some of them are members of the adoption coalition," she says. "Senator Carl Levin is one of them. Senator Debbie Stabenow's office also has been involved in trying to help the families proceed to bring their children home to the U.S." Some families are receiving their decrees, including several who were on the waiting list behind the Albers. In particular, Diane points to actress Angelina Jolie, who with, her husband, Billy Bob Thornton, picked up her adopted Cambodian child while on a location shoot for a new movie in Africa. Jolie starred in The Bone Collector and Lara Croft: Tomb Raider. According to an article published by the Associated Press, Cambodia is the ninth largest source of foreign babies adopted by Americans, with upward of 100 children each month being picked up by their new American parents. Diane, who continues to work with their son for Authentic Cleaning, was born and raised in Milan. Her father, Charles Woolcott, was a barber. Richard grew up on a farm in York Township—in fact, the Albers live on property that once belonged to Richard's parents. He graduated from Saline High School with a number of record-breaking performances in track, and now works for Russell Finch and Sons Trucking in Milan. Diane says that she and Richard have a friendly rivalry when the Big Reds and the Hornets face off in prep sports. Three of their children were in the Milan High band program, their youngest attended Saline Schools, and their granddaughters have been involved in Milan swimming. "We really have been blessed," she says. "We love each of our children and grand-children."

The Albers hope to go to Cambodia and bring their new daughter, 7-month-old Malaya, home. children dearly," The Albers have been in touch with a number of other families who are in the same boat—with children awaiting them in Cambodian orphanages. Already, some of them have marched on Washington, D.C. in hopes of expediting the process. In March, the INS announced that dozens of parents who had been waiting for their adopted children could see the paperwork finalized by April. Diane and Richard are hopeful that they will be among those who will finally get their "visa appointment" in Cambodia, the last step before they receive the INS immigration visa for their daughter. A second march is being planned for May, depending on the outcome of the latest announcement. Diane says that she would be willing to go to Washington and be part of the second march because she feels that the INS and state department have not been consistent or fair in determining which children will be allowed to leave the country with new adoptive parents and which will remain behind. "We can only pray that our government is listening to the pleas of other parents and that all the families who are involved in this situation will be allowed to proceed. "The government can change the process later if it needs to be changed, but right now, these children need to be allowed to come home." Diane says she 'and Richard could have adopted another child from China, but age requirements would not allow them to receive a child younger than Shiyona. So they continue to wait. "In our hearts, we feel that these children need families, love, and homes to call their own," says Diane of the Albers' decision to adopt Shiyona and Malaya. "We feel that if we would not have been led to adopt, Shiyona might not have had this opportunity. To hear her say that she loves family and that she has said those words so many times is just awesome. "Having Shiyona has been nothing less than a blessing—we have enjoyed every moment. "The truth is, we are the ones that have received the blessing and our lives would not have seen this kind of joy if we hadn't been led to adopt Shiyona."

For many years at Christmas all of her children and grandchildren received from her a handmade gift, which will be cherished reminders of her.

Oscar (Mike)¹² Alber, Jr. (Oskar Michael (Miles)¹¹, Michael Friedrich¹⁰, Michael⁹, Michael⁸, Blasius⁷, Joerg (Johann Georg)⁶, Joerg⁵, Jerg⁴, Hans Jerg³, Jerg², Peter¹) was born 05 May 1931 in Salem Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 30 Jan 2023 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Joanne (Sue) Pappas 25 Sep 1955. She was born 12 Aug 1936.

Notes for Oscar (Mike) Alber, Jr.:

Oscar Junior Alber "Mike" born May 5, 1931 in Salem Township, the son of the late Oscar and the late Louise (nee' Hertler) Alber, and the younger brother of the late Elberta (Combs) and the late Geraldine (McGarry). Died Jan . 30, 2023. Mike attended Salem Townline a one-room schoolhouse and worked on the farm with his parents, a habit he continued to a lesser degree well into his retirement. He said he "worked as an electrician to support his farming habit"! Oscar "Mike" served in Korea from January 1953 until Jan 1955, as an Artillery Survey Specialist in the 623rd Field Artillery Battalion. At 24 years of age and happy to be home from Korea he met Joanne Pappas, age 19, on a blind date and they were married September 25, 1955, the couple had just celebrated 67 years!

In April of 1957 Mike completed the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Apprenticeship. Mike was a farmer by birth, self-taught mechanic, carpenter, plumber, roofer, beekeeper, wine maker, pilot, storyteller, machinist, welder and engineer. He was an Army-taught surveyor and a Union taught Electrician. He saw what others could not see, from the sky, in the earth, in metal and in wood. Always making and doing things that others said could not be done. While most people are drawn to either ideas, people or things, Mike understood people, and restored, invented and improved things and explained his ideas usually by drawing a diagram on a napkin.

Mike and Sue threw enormous parties from lobster boils to breakfast on the woodstove in a snowstorm. Mike and Sue were members of the Washtenaw Model T club, the "Washten-Naughties" and had fun getting together and joining in parades. They were also members of the BMW Motorcycle family, and the BMW "Airheads" and had years of adventures on their bike, across the country and the continent, and even across Costa Rica (!!) on BMW's with their friends. When it came time to put the bike away they got out their little Airstream Bambi and continued their adventures. Mike had an answer for everything, there wasn't anything he couldn't do, and he always had a project going on! Mike always had a story to tell, with a beer in hand! There were always folks just dropping by, and usually there was a gang in the shop, because that is where Mike was, doing something interesting!

He is survived by his wife Joanne "Sue", his children, David, Carrie (DeJonghe) and George Albercook, 9 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, 2 great-great grandchildren.

Visitation for Mike will be Sunday, February 5, from 4:00 PM until 7:00 PM. A graveside service will be 2:30 PM, Monday, February 6, 2023 at Washtenong Memorial Park with Military Honors under the Auspices of the Veteran's Honor Guard of Washtenaw County.

Notes for Gary Alvin Weidmayer:

Farming a family tradition Weidmayers worry about future of small farms

By Alana West, Special Writer - PUBLISHED: August 2, 2007

Gary Weidmayer of Bridgewater Township is a farmer, born and bred, and almost always has been. He plants corn, winter wheat and soybeans, raises cattle, and sells hay to stable owners for their horses on a farm that his father bought in 1940. But his family ties to the Manchester area go back further than that. His relatives have lived there since at least 1840, when they helped establish and build Bethel United Church of Christ.

"My great-great-grandfather worked on that," said Weidmayer, who said the ancestors of his wife, Karen, also worked on the project. "They were the Kueblers. It was the Kueblers and Weidmayers who built the church," said Karen Weidmayer, who is a secretary at Manchester High School. Both Gary and Karen have attended Bethel church all of their live.

The family owns 380 acres and rents 750 acres more. Their large, white farmhouse sits on a slight hill amid numerous outbuildings and barns, with two silos tucked behind. He only has two exceptions to his life's work in the farming industry – a three-month stint at a factory and three weeks in the National Guard during the 1967 riots. "I know where I was 40 years ago," he said last week. "I was down there two weeks setting up communications with the 156 signal corps. There was mass confusion. ... After that, everybody needed riot control training."

Something he finds satisfying about farming is taking a tour of his fields on his tractor, especially with his loyal companion, Sparky, the couple's Border Collie, at his side. "That dog will ride the combine, a tractor, the pickup. When the pickup goes down the road, it had better have the dog in it. She will sit and wait for him, or go look for him at the neighbor's," Karen Weidmayer said. Baling hay was on the agenda last Monday, and Gary Weidmayer was a bit discouraged at lunchtime about the decreased amount of hay because of a lack of rainfall. "The last six weeks have been really dry. We don't have irrigation. "We don't have enough acres (of hay), so we can't justify digging a well," Weidmayer said, adding that irrigation would not solve the problem, since that would make the ground too wet in some circumstances to grow hay. "We were hoping for rain, but we get just enough," said Karen Weidmayer. Her husband agreed, remembering the drought of 1988, which ended in mid-July with downpours the rest of the growing year.

Their corn is growing and looks green in the field; however, if there is no rain, the ears may not develop. "The soybeans look good, but if they don't get rain when they're podding up, the pods don't grow," Karen Weidmayer said. She expected the roots of the corn would grow deeper to find water. "Corn is probably our biggest crop here," she said. "It's expensive to grow because of the cost of the fertilizer." The Weidmayers sell the corn to Global Ethanol, a new company in Riga that converts corn to diesel fuel. Weidmayer bought stock in the company because he believes in the future of it as a fuel source, and to help boost the price and demand for corn. Weidmayer said the company uses 50,000 bushels of corn a day, and was getting more efficient at making the product. It sells the by-products as livestock feed, so there is little waste, he said.

Weidmayer is concerned about the future of farming. He foresees a continual decline in the small farm because of the cost of equipment, and the money invested in livestock and crops. "What I look at is, there will be more big farms, not as many small farms," he said. "You plant corn in April or May, and you don't get your money until October or November, and maybe you don't sell it all at once. All of that money is invested. You need to borrow when you need it, and pay it back when you can."

Weidmayer tries to buy and sell cattle every month. He gets double what he pays for them, but he feeds and cares for them for a year before he sells them. It is a big investment, so it helps to have some money coming in every month. Weidmayer served for 14 years on the Farm Credit Board, a board that lends money to farmers, so he knows the bind farmers get into with credit. He knows they need a good banker who knows what they need. During his term on the board, he saw a number of farm foreclosures.

Weidmayer said he used to run a dairy farm, but he and his son, Greg, who had been helping him on the farm, needed to expand and update to make it feasible. They decided to discontinue the dairy side of the business, so Greg got a full-time job with Manchester Village. He helps his father after work, maintaining the farming equipment. The Weidmayer's said they both hope that someday, their son will take over the farm.

The Weidmayer's enjoy the close bond of both of their children living nearby. Their daughter, Amy, and her family live diagonally across the field, from them, with Gary's mother, Irma, on the same road. Greg and his wife, Melanie, are a few houses down. Melanie owns the Manchester Bakery, and Amy was recently elected to the Bridgewater Township Board.

Notes for Ronald Ernest Mann:

The Manchester Enterprise - Thursday, May 14, 2009 - By Daniel Lai, Staff Writer

After 14 years serving as special assessment coordinator for the Washtenaw County Water Resources Commission, local resident Ron Mann is stepping down. "I have a lot of things I would like to do and this affords me the ability to take some time for myself," he said. Mann, who was also recently elected to another four-year term as supervisor for Manchester Township, said his retirement from the county will allow him more time to spend in the township.

"I have worked two jobs for the last 20 years and the supervisor position has been a lot more demanding recently," he said. "I wouldn't say I will have more time, but by working one job, I can spend less nights and Saturday mornings in the township office." Mann said over the years he has come to enjoy his responsibilities as a special assessment coordinator. "I enjoy working with the county and local units of government," he said. "I also enjoy working with people."

Mann said his interest in politics and a knack for crunching numbers led him to apply for the position over a decade ago. "With my assessment training in the township, this job fit right in," he said. "I've always been a numbers person and with my background, this jump seemed a logical step for me." However, he said he didn't expect to remain with the county as long as he has.

"I didn't figure I would be here for 14 years," he said. "The average person goes through seven different careers in their life; maybe I have a few more left." As an assessment coordinator, Mann is responsible for determining how to allocate the cost of sewer repairs to the county's 500 drain districts. "Anytime we do work on a drain -- from dredging to clearing out trees -- the costs are appropriated to the district that the sewer is located in. It's my responsibility to come up with a fair and equitable system that can work with the township governments," he said.

Each year the Water Resources Commission handles $1.5 to $2 million in sewer work which is spread over 60 to 85,000 parcels of land and 100 districts. "I have enjoyed working at the county and I will miss the people, but I will be around," Mann said. One accomplishment Mann is proud of is the number of interns that have gone on to find jobs across the country. "I've had 54 interns that have worked with me and almost everyone of them said they were able to get a job because of their experience in Washtenaw County," he said. "Real world experience gave them the insight they needed to succeed."

Mann's last official day will be May 21. A special retirement party will be held at noon at the Washtenaw Western Service Center, 705 N. Zeeb Road; Ann Arbor. With more free time, Mann said he looks forward to spending time with his six grandkids and traveling with his wife. He also plans to continue volunteering at the Manchester Chicken Broil and Manchester Fair. "I will definitely be hanging around the community," he said. Local mother, Deidra Stierle, finds support with cancer battle

Jazzercise instructor says students, staff in her corner

By Alison Marable, Special Writer

PUBLISHED: August 14, 2008

Deidra Stierle's life was the envy of many. She was a healthy, 35-year-old Jazzercise instructor with a good job at a local firm and she had recently returned from a family trip to Disney World. The day Stierle got the call from the hospital, she was a parent helper at her son's preschool. James was a leader at Pooh Corner in Saline because the next day he would be turning 4 years old. Stierle has never forgotten that day in May when the voice over the telephone confirmed that her cells were indeed cancerous. As any mother would, she had to contain herself in front of her son and the other children, finish out the day and then call her husband.

Following her diagnosis of Stage 1 breast cancer, Stierle began a series of four rounds of chemotherapy, to be followed by seven weeks of radiation treatment. As a woman in her 30s, Stierle describes the experience as a "horrible emotional rollercoaster." One doctor told her that she was too young for cancer and that she was simply a "victim of technology." "She was upset by the misleading comments about being a victim of technology," said golfing partner and friend Shelly Butler.

During her first chemotherapy session at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, she looked around the room and noticed that most of the other women were seniors. She noted that some of the hospital staff seemed surprised to be treating someone of her age and were compassionate when they discovered she has such a young child. "I couldn't believe that this could happen to someone as young, active and healthy as Deidra," said close friend Tammy Miller. "It seems like more women in their 30s are being diagnosed and I think it's scary; however, it may be a reflection of better technology and doctors being trained to find it earlier," Stierle said.

Stierle has a master plan in place to keep herself motivated and positive. One step she took to be in control of her situation was to look for information on breast cancer and treatment. "She spent hours on the Internet reading legitimate sites and staying away from the blogs with the horror stories," her husband said. Miller said, "She has extensively researched information about breast cancer and her particular situation so that she is knowledgeable of all the facts, and she is managing her recovery with great fortitude." Stierle is known for her strength and can-do attitude. "She has a fire inside that she channels to help deal with the situation," said her husband. "Her personality is strong, positive and determined," said Miller.

Longtime friend Stephanie McCarthy said Stierle has handled the diagnosis with grace and strength, accepting the side effects that she likely will have from the treatment without one note of self pity. McCarthy will run the Susan G. Komen race for the Cure in Toledo in September and will place the name "Deidra Stierle" on her runner number. "The race will have a more special meaning for me this year," she said.

Stierle credits a large support system for her upbeat attitude. She considers her co-workers at the Saline Jazzercise Center to be family members. "It's more than a place to work out -- we're a sisterhood of sorts," she said. She continues to work and teach Jazzercise, altering her routine to compensate for any fatigue or having other instructors help with classes. "I want her to concentrate on her treatment, work and Jazzercise. The last two are important because it helps her to keep as normal a routine as possible," said Brian Stierle. Her friends at Jazzercise have provided gift cards for iTunes so that she will have new exercise music, items to pamper her during the tough times, comfortable clothes, nutrition cookbooks, and toys for her son. "They are a fantastic bunch and I couldn't ask for more sincere, genuine, caring people than my Jazzercise ladies," Deidra Stierle said.

Stierle has been employed at McNaughton & Gunn for nine years and finds the support at work priceless. Co-worker and friend Terri Conway said, "Here at work she doesn't let this get her down. Her professionalism is still what it has always been and she is on the ball." Stierle offers words of advice to women newly diagnosed with the disease. "Don't panic if you are faced with the word 'cancer' and listen to the doctors and experts rather than well-meaning family and friends," she said. Stierle advises friends and family not to offer unsolicited opinions on what a cancer patient should do or what kind of treatment they should receive. "I think the best thing they can do is offer support, but not advice," she said. Many friends sent cards to her home just letting her know she was in their thoughts. "It's a very simple act, but it means a lot to know people care," she said.

Stierle's parents, Denny and LeeAnne Roberts of Blissfield, her mother-in-law, Barb Stierle of Saline, as well as her 38-year-old sister, Renee Dashner of Blissfield, have been on hand to help with watching and caring for James. Stierle recalls that she and her son have always cuddled while he touched her hair. "To help ease her son into the certainty of losing her hair, she went out and had it cut real short to make the loss a bit less dramatic for James," Butler said. She and her mother also have been making scarves and pins for hats in anticipation of possible hair loss.

In 2006, Stierle's husband underwent surgery for chronic Crohn's disease so he not only had a great role model for being a supportive spouse, but he can now see what it is like to be on the other side. "I understand the worry she went through and I have a greater appreciation for all she did," he said. Their son is too young to know more than the fact that his mother is sick and sometimes won't feel well. Despite his age, he offers his own kind of support. "He is so full of energy that even if she is feeling down, he gets her laughing in an instant and takes her mind off the situation for a while," Brian Stierle said. Deidra

Stierle's future plans include taking a cruise with her husband once the holidays are over and her treatment has come to an end. "I love her with all my heart and plan on growing old with her," said her husband.
