He married Nancy Ann Melvin. She was born 25 Jun 1964 in Syracuse, Onondaga Co, New York, and died 18 Nov 2003.

Notes for Kip Paul Taylor:

Major Kip Taylor was excited about the coming months for two reasons very dear to him: the birth of his second child in late October and a promotion in November. Now, his wife, Nancy, and family are gathered in his McLean, Virginia, home waiting to receive word that Taylor's remains have been recovered. Taylor, among those missing at the Pentagon, had been stationed there for about three years, said his brother, U.S. Army Lt. Col. Dean Taylor. "He was the poster boy for the U.S. Army," Taylor said. The son of a career Army officer, Kip Taylor enlisted after graduating in 1985 from Northern Michigan University. At the time of the attack, Taylor, 38, worked in the adjutant general's corps and was a key aide to Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, who is also missing. Taylor was soon to become Lt. Col. Taylor, his brother said, but delayed the ceremony until late November so relatives could attend. They also would see his new baby. "It was going to be a meaningful thing," his brother said.

Lieutenant Colonel Kip Paul Taylor's 16-year ascent through the Army ranks began when he received his commission from the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Northern Michigan University, a unit run by his father, Don. A few months after graduation, Taylor was shipped to a base in Nuremberg, Germany, where he served for 3 1/2 years. The Michigan native returned stateside at the end of 1989 for a 15-month stint as an instructor at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. He was again sent on a foreign tour in 1991, this time as an adjutant for a task force in Honduras. After that five-month assignment, he rose to commander of a troop brigade back in Indiana, where he remained until the summer of 1994.

Taylor moved from base to base for four years before arriving at the Pentagon as executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel in July 1998. The 38-year-old career serviceman -- who enjoyed running, basketball and golf in his free time -- was serving as a military assistant in that office when he was killed September 11, 2001. "His office was on the outside ring and took a direct hit," Taylor's sister, Ann Zaenglein, was quoted as saying in USA Today. "There was nothing left of his office." A Major at the time of his death, Taylor was posthumously promoted to Lieutenant Colonel. He is survived by his wife and son.

The joys and trials of new fatherhood were on Kip Taylor's mind. At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, 2001, he e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon about how his life had changed since the birth of his son, Dean, almost two years earlier. He was happily anticipating the birth of his second son in a month. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home' wrote the U.S. Army Major. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

At about 9:40 a.m., Taylor, 38, was killed when American Flight 77 hit the Pentagon. "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," said his wife, Nancy. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." The Taylors were happy because they had achieved something that earlier seemed impossible. After their attempts to conceive had failed, the couple turned to medical science to help them have children. Dean was the result of in vitro fertilization, as was Luke, born October 25.

The babies are a great source of comfort. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband," Nancy Taylor said. So, when her husband's friends and admirers started asking where they could donate money in his memory, the answer seemed obvious. Nancy Taylor started a charity for infertile military couples and called it the Kip P. Taylor Fund. She explained that there are only two military facilities worldwide where in vitro fertilizations are performed, one in Washington, D.C., and one in Texas, making it difficult for military couples stationed abroad or elsewhere in this country to receive the subsidized treatment. The fund will help couples offset the cost of traveling to the clinics and paying for lodging and food. Its Web site, www.kiptaylorfund.com, estimates that couples pay up to $5,100 out of pocket for treatments. Donations from family, friends and neighbors have brought the fund to $40,000 to date. "It's a lot," Nancy Taylor said. "But it's not enough to sustain this."

Having children is a challenge for military couples, she said, with being stationed in various places, long absences and combat service. But children play just as important a role in military families as they do in any other community, she said. "The military community does really rally around its children." To Taylor, balancing his work with a home life was essential. Though the 6-foot-5 Major cut an imposing figure in uniform, he was just as happy in jeans, cooking on his outdoor grill, building a deck on the couple's McLean, Virginia, home or tending to the lawn. But most of all, his wife said, he loved fatherhood and couldn't wait to someday coach his sons' Little League teams and attend their music recitals. Without him, his wife said, she tries to enjoy the "blessing" of her sons. But it's hard. She has not yet felt ready to return to her job as the editor of a medical newsletter. "At first I was getting by hour to hour," she said. "Then it was day to day. Now it's week to week. I hope some day it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

Six weeks after losing her husband Sept. 11, their second son was born

As Nancy Taylor endured the physical pain of childbirth October 25, 2001, at Bethesda Naval Medical Center, Maryland, she also struggled with powerful emotions and memories. Just six weeks earlier, her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip Taylor, was killed in the September 11 attack on the Pentagon. "It was hard," Taylor said. "I had been there at Bethesda less than two years before, when I had Dean. I kept recalling what it was like when Kip was there." Kip's sister and sister-in-law were with her during the delivery, which was a comfort. But still, "It didn't seem right that Kip wasn't there," she said. "It was horrible."

The approaching anniversary of the attacks has been an emotional time. She often thinks about what she, Kip and Dean were doing a year ago, including a trip to the beach a few weeks before September 11. When she looks at Dean, who turns 3 on December 28, 2003, she sees his resemblance to Kip. Baby Luke, who just started crawling, looks more like her. "The kids are my saving grace," she said. "They keep me busy. It's not that I don't think of Kip every day, because I do."

Kip Taylor was the military assistant to the Army deputy chief of staff for personnel, Lieutenant General Timothy Maude, who also was killed in the attack. Taylor decided the best way to honor her husband's memory was to help military families like hers who need fertility treatments to conceive. Both her boys were conceived through in vitro fertilization at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington.

She has established a fund to help military couples with travel and lodging expenses while they receive fertility treatments at Walter Reed or at Wilford Hall Medical Center in Texas. The Web address is <http://www.kiptaylorfund.com>. The fund has paid the expenses for five couples so far, she said. At least one of the five has been successful in getting pregnant. The Kip Taylor Memorial Fund covers some expenses for ROTC students at Northern Michigan University in Marquette, which Kip attended on ROTC and basketball scholarships.

Taylor collects letters, pictures and other memorabilia from generals, drill sergeants and others who worked with Kip and from schoolchildren who wrote to her after September 11. She has been overwhelmed by the generosity of those who wrote and sent gifts, many of them strangers. She has tried to respond to everyone. She points to a picture of President Bush embracing her September 17, 2001, at the Pentagon as he toured the rubble. It was a chance encounter - she was there only to pick up Kip's car from the parking lot. As her escort officer walked her through the building, Bush, who was there for a memorial service that had just concluded, appeared in the hallway with his large security entourage.

"We were told to move to the side of the hallway," Taylor said. "Everyone lined up started applauding, and he stopped and began shaking hands." Taylor approached, holding a picture of her husband that she was carrying, and told Bush that Kip had been at the Pentagon on September 11 and was still missing. Bush talked to Taylor for "a good two minutes," then embraced her and urged her to take good care of herself and her baby. Now, almost a year later, she finds that the biggest changes in her life are "the littlest things."

"Kip's absence is constantly evident," she said. "It's so different, not having him here to call and talk to during the day. Not seeing him in the house, not hearing his voice is just a huge void. It's an unspeakable loss." It has changed her perception of time. "I think time passes quickly when you have something to look forward to. Not that I don't have something to look forward to, but I guess my life is just not normal," she said. "Having no contact with Kip for a year, I feel like I haven't talked to him in years." Looking ahead, she focuses on her boys and their view of their father. She talks to her children about him often, showing them his picture. "I hope they think about their dad in a happy, positive way, and not let the sadness overcome his memory," she said. "I'm trying to overcome that myself. At night, we pray for daddy, mommy and the whole family."

In the first year of Dean's life, she put together a time capsule for him that includes audiotapes with messages from Kip and other family members. She hasn't listened to Kip's tape. When he was recording it, he asked, "You're not going to listen to this, are you?" she said. She knows he would want his children to be aware of how much he loved them: "He wanted them to be happy and have a good life." Now she's gathering items for a time capsule for Luke. But that effort is moving slowly. "I find it hard to ask people," she said. "There has been so much sadness in the family." That sadness lingers. These days, Taylor can think of Kip and find herself smiling. "But more times, I'm crying."

Notes for Nancy Ann Melvin:

Washington - When Nancy Melvin Taylor died of cancer last week (18 November 2003) at the age of 39, it was the final act of a family tragedy that began on the morning of September 11, 2001. When they bury her at Arlington National Cemetery, she will rest in the same grave with her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip P. Taylor, 38, who was killed in the terrorist attack on the Pentagon. Husband and wife will share a simple white marble marker in Section 64.

Two years ago, Kip and Nancy Taylor were living a dream. They'd struggled for years to have a child, and finally through in-vitro fertilization Nancy had given birth to a son, Dean Ross Taylor. She was eight months' pregnant, and their second child was due in October.

At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, in his office in the Pentagon, Kip sent this e-mail to friends about the joy of fatherhood: "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say: Hi honey, I'm home! ... What we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day." At 9:40, terrorists steered American Airlines Flight 77 into the offices of the Chief of Personnel of the Army, killing many of those who worked there, including Kip Taylor. Nancy said: "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life. I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." Six weeks later, on October 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to their second son, John Luke Taylor. While she was in the hospital, bringing a new life to this world, the doctors discovered that Nancy had cancer. Terminal cancer.

Nancy packed as much living as she could into the precious months that were left to her. She established a charity for infertile military couples, helping to pay their way to the only two military facilities where in-vitro fertilizations can be performed. The Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund helps offset travel, lodging and food for military couples traveling to the hospitals. (Donations to: Kip P. Taylor Fund, P.O. Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101.)

She loved and cherished her babies full-time, even as she wrestled with her grief over the loss of Kip Taylor, a 6-foot-5 Michigan native who came into the Army with an ROTC commission at Northern Michigan University in a program run by his father, Don. Nancy said her husband had loved fatherhood and couldn't wait for the day he could coach his sons' Little League baseball teams and attend their band concerts. On October 10 of this year, Nancy was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame. She'd been a regional All-American in field hockey while attending the Nursing School at the university. She was, her coach said, "by far the best offensive player in school history."

What will happen to two little boys, orphaned at ages 4 and 2? Kip's brother Dean and his wife will care for them - and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation will ensure that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations, everything included, in token of the fact that their father served a tour as adjutant of the Army's top-secret Delta Force.

If you're looking for a worthy charity this holiday season, you might consider the Warrior Foundation (www.specialops.org), which was created in 1980 as the Colonel Bull Simons Scholarship Fund (named for Colonel Arthur D. Simons, a legendary special-ops officer who died in 1979) to provide college educations for 17 children of nine American soldiers who were killed or disabled in the Desert One mission to rescue American hostages in Iran. That fund and others supporting Special Ops troops and families merged and became the Warrior Foundation in 1995. Its purpose is "to provide a college education to every child who has lost a parent while serving in the Special Operations Command during an operational or training mission." The Warrior Foundation provides grants, not loans. It covers tuition, books, and room and board. To date, 48 children of Special Ops soldiers have graduated with this help. More than 400 children of 380 Special Ops personnel who have died in service to our country are guaranteed the assistance. That will cost $25 million through 2010. The Warrior Foundation has $3.8 million in the bank.

Nancy Ann Melvin Taylor died on November 18, 2003 at the National Naval Medical Center. She was born in Syracuse, New York on June 25, 1964. She was a graduate of Fayetteville-Manlius High School, University of Rochester Nursing School with B.S. and received an MBA from Syracuse University. Nancy worked as a nurse in Richmond, VA and then in Syracuse, NY while she worked on her MBA. She then moved to Washington where she continued working in the health field. She was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame on October 10, 2003. Her field hockey coach referred to her as "by far the best offensive player in the school's history". She was selected for the first team, All-Mid East Regional All-American. Nancy also enjoyed skiing and more recently golfing. She was predeceased by her husband Lt. Col. Kip P. Taylor, who was killed at the Pentagon on September 11, 2001.

She is survived by her two sons, Dean Ross, 4 and John Luke 2; her parents, Merle and Ann Melvin of Manlius, New York; two brothers, Ross D. of Syracuse and John W. of Cazenovia; an aunt and uncle,

May and William Legg of LaFayette, New York; and several cousins.

Calling hours are 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, November 23, at the Arlington Funeral Home, 3901 N. Fairfax Dr., Arlington, Virginia. There will be a memorial service at the Dewitt Community Church in Dewitt, New York on December 5 at 11 a.m. Interment and private graveside services at Arlington Cemetery will take place at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund, PO Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101; or the University of Rochester, New York 14627; or the charity of your choice.

After being diagnosed with terminal breast cancer in 2002, Nancy Melvin-Taylor compiled a "to-do"list:

- Potty train her son, Dean.
- See her infant son walk and talk.
- Get her will in order.
- And return to the University of Rochester, the place of so much glory, for her induction into the Athletic Hall of Fame.

"It wasn't easy for her," says her former coach, Jane Possee. "She wasn't well enough to come in 2002 (when she was first selected), but she came back the next year. She made it." Weeks later, she was gone, a 9/11 widow leaving behind two young sons and a story so tragic it resonates more than a decade later. On Saturday, 12 of her teammates will return to UR for homecoming on Meliora Weekend. They will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the field hockey team's first state and ECAC championships — a team powered by Melvin-Taylor. And they will celebrate having known Nancy.

"Nancy was a phenomenal athlete," says former teammate Christine Mitchell, her close friend since middle school. "But you'd never know it to be around her. She was just this happy-go-lucky person." Possee recruited her along with two teammates from Syracuse's Fayetteville-Manlius High — Mitchell (the former Chris Joor) and Dorie Gostin Massie. But make no mistake. "Nancy was the star," Possee says. "She was the best offensive player I'd ever seen."

The Syracuse native was UR's field hockey All-American and graduated in 1986 as the program's record-holder for game-winning goals in one season (7) and career (19), career goals (50) and career points (114). The four-year starting forward was named to three all-state Division III teams and helped UR repeat as state champs in 1985. Not bad for someone who didn't play the game seriously until high school. "I credit her mom with that," says Nancy's dad, Merle, now 86. "When Nancy was in high school, everyone was playing soccer. Ann thought field hockey would be good for Nancy. And she excelled." She was a star in the classroom, too. She graduated from UR with high honors with a bachelor's degree in nursing and went on to earn an MBA from Syracuse University.

Life in D.C.

Melvin-Taylor met her husband, Kip Taylor, when she was working in medical marketing research in Washington, D.C. They married in 1996, and two years later Kip — the son of a career Army officer — began working at the Pentagon as an executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel. The two struggled to conceive but finally welcomed their first child, Dean, on Dec. 28, 1999, through in vitro fertilization. Two years later, Nancy became pregnant again via IVF. It was, the Taylors said, a miracle. They lived in McLean, Virginia, and loved grilling on their deck and working in their yard. The 6-foot-5 Kip enjoyed running, and playing basketball and golf. He said he dreamed of one day coaching his son's Little League team or attending dance recitals.

Their second child was due in October 2001, and Kip had another reason to be excited: That November, he would be promoted from major to lieutenant colonel. He had asked the Army to delay the promotion so that his family, who would be in town to see the baby, could be there. It was a big deal. The Taylors were on top of the world, but that world was about to be turned upside down. At 8:26 a.m. on Sept. 11, 2001, Kip e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon and poignantly discussed how his life had changed since becoming a dad. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home,'" he wrote. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

Seventy-four minutes later, the 38-year-old Taylor was killed when American Airlines Flight 77 struck the Pentagon during the terrorist attacks on America. His office took a direct hit. Also killed was Kip's boss, Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, with whom Kip was meeting. Maude was the highest-ranking U.S. military officer killed in the Sept. 11 attacks and the most senior U.S. officer killed by hostile action since Lt. Gen.

Simon Bolivar Buckner in 1945. "We knew early on that Kip was missing," says Mitchell, a marketing consultant in Boston at the time. "But Nancy thought he might be in a hospital. So many people had been severely injured and hospitalized. But someone from the military came to her house two days later and said he had been in a meeting with Kip just before the plane hit. He said there was no way Kip could have survived based on where he was."

Nancy scheduled a memorial service for her husband at Arlington National Cemetery, less than two weeks before her due date. The Army posthumously promoted Kip to lieutenant colonel. "For a long time, she didn't accept that he was gone," Mitchell says. "They didn't find his body until two days before the service. And that service was something. The place was packed to the gills with all sorts of military personnel, and you could see the Pentagon from the (burial) site. It was still charred." Nancy recounted her feelings in an interview with ArlingtonCemetery.net after the memorial service.

"We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," she said. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." On Oct. 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to another son, Luke. "The babies are a great source of comfort," she said afterward. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband."

A 37-year-old widow with two children, Nancy courageously trudged on and started a charity in her husband's name for infertile military couples. The Kip P. Taylor Fund assisted with travel and lodging expenses for couples who received fertility treatments. Nancy found it impossible to think about returning to her job as editor of a medical newsletter. There were no other family members in Washington. A part-time nanny helped, and friends like Mitchell did their part when they visited. It was a lonely, painful time. "At first, I was getting by hour to hour," she told ArlingtonCemetery.net. "Now it's week to week. I hope someday it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

But time was not on Nancy's side. While nursing 3-month-old Luke in February 2002, she felt pain in her breasts. Doctors assumed it was mastitis, an infection of the breast tissue, and put her on antibiotics. When that didn't work, they did further tests and discovered Nancy had Stage 4 inflammatory breast cancer. She was given two months to live. She initially refused chemotherapy, wanting to maximize her time left with her children. But after being diagnosed with HER2-positive breast cancer, she began taking herceptin, which blocks cancer cells from growing.

"It basically buys time," Mitchell says. Melvin-Taylor packed as much life as she could into her remaining time. She worked on the fund named after her husband. She dealt with the endless paperwork that comes from being a 9/11 widow, even the chore of selling Kip's car. And she ran a gamut of emotions. "I'd go down and we'd have gloom and doom weekends," Mitchell says. "She was very angry. But there were other weekends when she was upbeat, and we'd go apple picking with the kids."

Memory lives on

Nancy died on Nov. 18, 2003, leaving behind her 4- and 2-year-old boys. She was 39. She is buried next to her husband in Arlington National Cemetery, beneath simple white markers. Dean and Luke, who soon will turn 15 and 13, have been raised in Colorado the past 11 years by Kip's brother and sister-in-law, Dean and Donna Taylor. Dean was a lieutenant colonel in the Army, and he retired to raise his brother's children. Dean and Donna did not have any children of their own. The Special Operations Warrior Foundation ensured that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations. "You get through it," Merle Melvin, Nancy's father, says of the tragedy. "You take things as they come." Merle and Ann are divorced. They have four grandsons in all — Nancy's twin, John, lives in Cazenovia and has two boys. But they don't often see Dean and Luke. "It has been a while," Merle says. "I know Luke plays baseball. That much I know."

Nancy held the UR points record for 28 years until junior Michelle Relin broke it last month. UR coach Wendy Andreatta told Relin about Melvin-Taylor's life and death the day before the record fell. "It's humbling," Relin says. "I had no idea she had such a compelling story, and such a moving story. I wish I could have met her this weekend."

Melvin-Taylor remains first in career game-winning goals and third in goals scored. But again, those are just numbers. Her legacy is more about the person she was, the wife and mom she became. "She was an incredibly strong woman," says Possee, now an associate director for athletics at UR who oversees recreation programs. "She wasn't just a great athlete, she was a great person. The story is so very sad."
