Notes for Jakob (Jacob Friedrich) Mahrle:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Calhoun County, Michigan. By Charles Chapman; Chapman Bros. - Chicago; 1891. Page 606:

Jacob Mahrle. A large and fertile tract of land in Fredonia Township is owned by this gentleman, and is the scene of his industrious and well directed labors as an agriculturist. Its possession is due to his continued efforts, thrifty management and wisdom in investment, and shows that poverty in youth is not necessarily followed by poverty in maturity. The career of Mr. Mahrle is but an added example of what may be accomplished by a young man of determined spirits and good habits, and is deserving of the consideration of all such.

The Kingdom of Wurtemberg, Germany, is the place of nativity of Mr. Mahrle and his natal day was September 4, 1830. His father was Jacob M. Mahrle, and his mother, whose maiden name was Luthart, died when the son was but seven years old. Their children were six in number, and Jacob was the second son. After the death of the mother, the father contracted a second matrimonial alliance, and having come to America in 1846, died here in 1867. Our subject came across the ocean when about fourteen years old and remained with his father until he was of age, then starting out in life for himself.

Mr. Mahrle began his career as a laborer by the month, and worked thus and by the year nine years, after which he was able to buy a farm in Washtenaw County. From it he finally came to his present location, where he has two hundred and three acres, one hundred and seventy of which is under the plow. The rest is devoted to pasturage and timber culture, and the minor purposes of rural life. In the meadows eighty-eight sheep graze and other stock in proportionate numbers. Excellent crops of various kinds are raised and Mr. Mahrle has no reason to be dissatisfied with the results of his toil and care.

At the head of the home affairs in the dwelling of Mr. Mahrle is a lady who was formerly known as Miss Mary R. Gans. She was born in Germany and was about eighteen years old when she came to America. She has borne her husband nine sons and daughters, who are now scattered over the country, one being in California, another in Chicago and the rest in various localities. They are named respectively, Lucy, Victor, Josephine, Harriet, Libbie, Augusta, Frederick, Ida and Jacob. The last named died when but six weeks old.

Mr. Mahrle is fortunate in being able to read both German and English, as this gives him business opportunities and social pleasures that are beyond the reach of those who speak but one tongue. He keeps well informed regarding events at home and abroad. He is Path master for the township, and his son, Victor, was once Treasurer. A Democratic ballot is always cast by Mr. Mahrle. He and his worthy wife belong to the Lutheran Church and are well-respected members and useful in their circle of acquaintances.

One of Fredonia's Oldest Residents Passed Away Early Sunday Morning.

Jacob Mahrle, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Fredonia, died about 3:00 o'clock Sunday morning, after an illness of six weeks at the home of his son, Frederick Mahrle, in Fredonia, aged eight-one. Mr. Mahrle had been suffering from a general breaking down in health, due to old age and an attack of the grip provide fatal.

The deceased was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, June 6, 1830, and came to America with his father in 1844. He remained with his father until 1851, when the son started out for himself. He worked until he was able to purchase a farm in Washtenaw County, and he finally came to Fredonia where he purchased a farm of two hundred acres. He was married to Miss Mary R. Gans, who died seven years ago. Deceased is survived by six daughters and two sons, Mrs. Rudolph Yaudes, of Fredonia; Mrs. Lucy McCushion, of San Bernardino, California; Mrs. G. A. Briegle, of Marshall; Mrs. Frank Kiefer, of Chicago; Mrs. John Kiefer, of Sherwood; Mrs. R. A. Chipman, of Oregon; and Victor and Frederick Yaudes, of Fredonia.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock at the house, and at 11:00 o'clock, at the Lyon Lake Cemetery. Rev. Fred Randall of Tekonsha will officiate.

He and his wife planned to acquire a trailer home for temporary shelter. They stayed last night with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jacks Thompson, who live across the road. Mrs. Good, who was at home at the time the fire broke out, about 1:10 p.m. and checked on the clothes drier in a room next to the bedroom. She found flames around it and called the Fredonia Fire Department. Mrs. Good is well known as the only woman competitor in corn picking contests.

When the original Junge Biscuit Company was dissolved in 1952 with the sale of the large baking plant at Junge boulevard and Maiden Lane, Mr. Sharp formed his own firm, Four-States Biscuit Company, doing business as the Junge Biscuit Company. Although his entire career in Joplin was devoted to the baking industry, Mr. Sharp had a wide variety of other interests, both civic and social. Locally, he was a past president of the Joplin Kiwanis Club and a past district governor of Kiwanis International. He was a past president of the Joplin Chamber of Commerce. A baseball fan, Mr. Sharp was at one time president of the Joplin Miners.

At the height of his career, he held membership on the directorates of 18 separate organizations. Among these were Freeman hospital, the Chamber of Commerce and the Y.M.C.A. A few years ago, the latter organization conferred on Mr. Sharp an honorary life membership in view of some 30 years' service he had given the Y. M. C.A. He also was a member of the First Community church, Joplin lodge No. 335, A.F.&A.M. and a Shriner. He was a 32nd degree Mason.

Notes for Stella Josephine Kozbiel:

Stella J. Shellenberger, age 84, of Marshall, died peacefully at her home on Tuesday, April 3, 2007. Stella was born on March 19, 1923 at 5 AM at her parent's home in Albion to Daniel and Helen (Gavolin) Kozbiel. Both Stella's parents had immigrated here from Poland, and instilled a strong work ethic in Stella that stayed with her throughout her life. She grew up in Albion and attended Albion Schools until graduating from Washington Gardner High School. Stella then worked in Albion and Homer grocery stores, mainly as a cashier.

In the mid-1940's, Stella was married to Robert F. Anderson. Their marriage ended in divorce in 1958. She lived in Albion and Homer over the years until 1960. On May 21 of that year, she married Lewis P. Shellenberger and moved to Marshall where she has made her home since. Stella was a Stanley Home Products dealer for 46 years. Her husband, Lewis P. Shellenberger, had worked with her until his death on Oct. 16, 2000.

They had Stanley booths at both the Calhoun County and Hillsdale County fairs for many years. Stella had a widespread and loyal customer base because of her dedication to her clients and her service as a saleswoman and dealer. She won numerous awards from Stanley for her sales, and enjoyed her work to this day. In 1977, Stanley Home Products appointed her as District Sales Manager. She was very active in the Marshall community. Stella was a former member and past president (in 1967) of the Marshall Business and Professional Women. She was a steadfast member of Zion Lutheran Church and volunteered with their former Walter League, working with church youth.

Stella was a dedicated volunteer with area youth over the years, something she enjoyed very much. She started as a recreation and photography leader in 1957. She served a number of years as Acting Administrative Leader for the 4 Leaf Clovers 4-H Club. She resigned from that position in 1977, but continued her work as a leader in her areas of photography and recreation. She structured her photography groups to start with children when they were 10, and taught them different skills until they graduated from high school. Over the many years, she only had two children that started in the group that did not finish all of it. Stella loved family holidays and gatherings. No matter how sick she may have been as she battled health problems, she insisted on organizing and being at those special events.

Surviving are her daughter, Kathleen Sue (Michael) Hewitt of Marshall; her step-sons, Lewis H. Shellenberger and Larry L. Shellenberger both of Marshall; 2 grandchildren, Derrick L. Wirebaugh of Homer, and Todd R. Wirebaugh of Fremont; 6 great-grandchildren, Travis, Kimmy, Amber, Justin, Rebecca and Mikenna; 2 sisters, Helen Anulevich and Sophia Pelsinski both of Jackson; nieces and nephews. Children of Louis Shellenberger and Bernice Anderson are:

- 550 i. Lewis H.¹¹ Shellenberger, born 08 May 1936 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan; died 28 Apr 2015 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He married Linda M. Whittington 1989 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan; born 19 Sep 1947 in Hagerstown, Washington Co, Maryland; died 04 Mar 2014 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Lewis H. Shellenberger:

Lewis H. Shellenberger, age 78, of Marshall, died at Oaklawn Hospital on Tuesday, April 28, 2015 after a lengthy illness. Lewis was born on May 8, 1936 to Lewis P. and Bernice (Slate) Shellenberger. He attended Marshall Schools and was a member of the Marshall High School graduating class of 1955. His interest in the fire service started as a youngster when he was a frequent visitor to the Marshall Fire Department. He would catch the back step of the fire engine as the firefighters left on a call. He started his career as a volunteer firefighter with Marshall Fire Department during his senior year in high school, in 1955.

In March of 1957 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He served as an aircraft crash and rescue specialist, as well as serving on base fire equipment as a structural firefighter. Lewis returned to Marshall in April of 1960, rejoining Marshall Fire Department as an auxiliary firefighter. He became a career member of the Battle Creek Fire Department that same year. He served at Station 1 on the Rescue Squad for 3 and ½ years. An opening for a career firefighter came up at Marshall Fire Department and he earned that position when he was hired on October 24, 1962 by Chief Bruce O'Leary. He served as a Captain and department training officer. On July 10, 1970 he was promoted to Assistant Fire Chief by then Chief Chester Travis. On February 4, 1974 he was again promoted by City Manager Richard Chesney and became Marshall's Fire Chief. He served until his retirement on April 24, 1993. After his retirement he enjoyed working for many years at the National House Inn until ill health prevented him from working.

During his career he served as Assistant Civil Defense Director for Marshall, and was appointed in March of 1974 as Chief of Fire Services in Calhoun County under Calhoun County's Coordinator of Emergency Services Joseph Liebherr. His professional memberships included International Association Of Fire Chiefs, Michigan Fire Chief's Association (and served as a board member), Michigan State Firefighter's Association, Michigan Chapter of International Association of Arson Inspectors, Charter Member of National Police and Firefighter's Association, Charter Member of Fire Service Section of National Fire Protection Association, member and Past President of Calhoun County Firefighter's Association. For many years he volunteered the majority of the week during the Calhoun County Fair when the County Firefighters Association provided gate, parking and security services.

Lewis enjoyed antique fire apparatus. He owned a 1929 LaFrance fire engine. He participated in many fire musters in Michigan, including some he helped organize in Marshall. He was a member of the Society for the Preservation and Appreciation of Antique Motor Fire Apparatus and was a charter member of Greenfield Village International Antique Fire Apparatus Association. He was a former member of the Marshall Optimist Club and a member of Christ Lutheran Church. In the mid 1960's, Marshall's funeral homes went out of the ambulance business. The City of Marshall attempted to run a service for a period of time, but was unsuccessful. Lewis reacted personally to the need for emergency care in Marshall's extended community and founded Marshall Ambulance Service in 1967. He owned and operated this until 1974 when he sold it. He also formerly owned and operated a Marathon Service Station and Wrecker Service at the corner of W. Michigan and Fountain Street in the later 1960's. He served the city as a Reserve Police Officer for many years.

Lewis was well known for his skills in the kitchen! The fire crews enjoyed wonderful meals he enjoyed cooking, and the Fire Department Christmas and family parties all benefited from his ability to create great meals for large groups of people. He will be remembered for mentoring many young people who he saw have an early interest in serving their community in the fire service and/or emergency medical field. Lewis gave them opportunities while still teen agers that resulted in many of them serving even today.

Surviving are his partner of 34 years, John Seiler, his brother Larry (Phyllis) Shellenberger; step-sister Kathleen Sue Hewitt and nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at Craig K. Kempf Family Funeral Home, Marshall on Thursday from 6 PM-8 PM. Services to celebrate his life will be held at the funeral home on Friday, May 1, at 1 PM with Rev. James Codde officiating. Interment will follow in Oakridge Cemetery. Following interment, friends and family will gather back at Kempf's Fellowship Hall at the funeral home for snacks and fellowship. The family suggests you remember Lewis with memorial contributions to Marshall Firefighters Ambulance or Marshall Fire Department. Assistance with memorials is available at Kempf Funeral Home.

Notes for James Frederick Semark:

James Semark departed his earthly shell sometime during the first week of December, 2010; his death due to a possible heart attack or complications from an allergic reaction to antibiotics—something we will never know as an autopsy was never done. The coroner's office explained it as "death by natural causes." He was found alone at home with the front door left unlocked; perhaps to not trouble anyone by having to break it down. His body was discovered by the Ferndale police several days after he died.

James Semark was a poet, musician, composer, cosmic communicator, organizer and creative spirit born in Toledo, Ohio who moved to Detroit as a student at Wayne State University in 1959. His interests were diverse; from meditation and macrobiotics to technology, green-economics, jazz, urban renewal and theosophy. James pioneered a type of early proto-rap form that he called the rhythm ballads. These late 50s and early 60s compositions were "investigative verse" works; long tripped-out epic poems set to music that undertook the study and description of jazz legends John Coltrane, Charlie Parker and even a judgment day "jazz-poem in heaven" of Edmund Zwiny, an imaginary be-bop star. He began to put the ballads to syncopated sound beats around 1964, inspired by a jazz drummer that practiced in a basement room next to his own, in the John Lodge Artist Workshop "Castle".

James studied music at Wayne State University under his mentor Harold McKinney. McKinney's idea of community and the "World Stage" would remain a major influence for Semark. He was also mentored by jazz greats Yusef Lateef, Elvin Jones and Eric Dolphy. In the mid-1960s Semark collaborated with Lyman Woodard, The DC5, MC5, Charles Moore and John Sinclair. James was tall, quiet, even-tempered and soft spoken. Suddenly and spontaneously, he could ignite an audience with blazing rhythmic oration and fiery live performances. James was equally influenced by occult writings and world religions as he was by beat poets and jazz artists. He took on cosmic topics, questions about space, time, the universe; the origins of mankind, drugs and illusion. He was a founding member of the Detroit Artists Workshop and his poetry found an audience through publications by the DAW press.

Semark's The Book of Humors—was the first manuscript published by the AWS press, and one of the oddest and rarest books they made, illustrated with graphics by artist-filmmaker Larry Weiner (founder of the Red Door Gallery). The book is a collection of Jim Semark's concrete poetry and essays: wild, other-worldly, twisted rants; "for by the fireside or at the dinner table, companion piece to the medieval Book of Hours."

In his book Night-Vision Express, Semark wrote a series of surreal Kafkaesque essays. Many of these reflected on the afterlife. "The Antivalue" is one continuous rant that ends; Guardians of the river Lethe, with their tortured honor and malafied smiles, transport Antivalue to the Tower of Xmea and throw him into the ocean... but it is transformed into the gnarled bones of circumvented lovers. From "Blood Echoes for Allen Ginsberg" — you and i we're lucky / to know about expanded consciousness/ to get this far and not sentenced to "involuntary lobotomy"/ we're lucky in this free / democratic republic/ rally-round-the-flag-boys/ society of ours/ to get by without any kind of "brain job"... Semark's poetry was infused with a kind of dystopian rock 'n roll fever, a Burroughsian "Naked Lunch" stew, finding its home beside quotations from The Tibetan Book of the Dead, Kafka, Zen Buddhism, Sun Ra, Concrete Poetry, Stanley Mouse, Gary Grimshaw and Madame Blavatsky. Semark was a kind of holy saint goof, an architect for the coming psychedelic revolution. He mixed metaphors with dreams, plays, essays and made direct statements, rants and pleas to change mankind. His creativity and process was centered on consciousness. Forms were broken and arranged to fit his vision of expanded awareness, he was Detroit's answer to Wavy-gravy and Allan Watts. He could be over-the-top, extreme and repetitive, reciting, "OH! EYE! OH EYE! YOU!" for pages and it wasn't always easy to digest, but his enthusiasm, humor and eternal conversation with the cosmos and prehistoric monsters were fascinating to watch, and something to be discussed over the next millennium.

After the breakup and political fermentation of the Detroit Artists Workshop in 1966, James struck out on his own, opening his Nova Express inspired "Terminal City" commune in Highland Park. He was "new age" before the term existed, the first to bring the distinguished founder of macrobiotics and the organic/natural foods movement Michio Kushi to Detroit. Semark did his best to spread the word on organic living, publishing the first book by Kushi in English translation. Semark remained a strict vegan through his entire life, convinced of the power of healing through pure foods and meditation.

James maintained a strong interest in metaphysics throughout his life. From his lifelong friendships with Robert Thibodeau and Howard Weingarden to his weekly meetings (for over twenty years) with his metaphysical/theosophy study group, he had an inquisitive and questioning mind. Ever hopeful and on the side of intelligent transformation, James was an inspiration and light for many who sought positive change. He was an early adopter of the Baha'i faith, embracing the idea of oneness in all religions and continued to explore ideas found within the writings of Theosophy and Madame Blavatsky. In the early 1970s James was initiated into the Maharaji Ji Charon Singh's order, and continued daily meditation and 'sound mediation' practices throughout his life. Some of these rituals and practices are known as Radha Soami Satsang Beas or the Science of the Soul. Semark's third book The Sun (1966), is an exceptional and beautiful object/poem broken into two parts. In the first half are quotations from the Baha'i faith, Sufi and Chinese poets, Sun Ra, Michio Kushi, Alice Bailey and Madame Blavatsky, all together forming a thick multi-cultural stew of spiritual truth. This radiant (and surreal) broth became the foundation for the Sun poem which stretches across the second half of the book. It is one of the most beautiful and powerful statements in poetry and art made by Semark. Punctuated by drawings, collages, letterpress embossing, colored and metallic inks and photos, the Sun poem is a cosmic rhythm ballad, a lovely handmade artbook that evolves through many forms and shapes; "When You and I are real, the words have Light." At the end of the book, Semark states that he mixed the book's special-colored inks by his own hand. It remains one of the most powerful, well designed and spiritual books in the Workshop canon.

Another aspect of Semark's character was his disciplined ongoing devotion to the Detroit Artists Workshop. Its community goals and ideals were his own and he maintained these throughout his life, even as he resided outside the state. His return to Detroit coincided with the planning stages for the 40th anniversary reunion in November of 2004. At that time, James took on an enormous responsibility in the preparation and development of the reunion project which led to a continuation of the DAW co-op in the form of meetings, concerts, fund-raising and its online presence as the website for The Detroit Artists Workshop, The DAW website was Semark's baby and he designed and watched over it as a dotting parent.

One of Semark's last projects was Work #6: A 2009 Detroit Artists Workshop Anthology of Generations -an extension of the sixties era workshop, returning to familiar names and writers (Robin Eichle, Bill Harris, Ed Sanders, John Sinclair) and including many new and unheard of writers. He was, "building the reincarnated DAW collective as a vital platform, confident in its future as a world cultural hub."

His epic environmental poem-ballad The Saga of Steely R. Stone (included in Work #6), was an autobiographical self-portrait, a sketch of a man who after loosing his beautiful wife Jenny due to a toxic poisoning, envisions a horrid apocalyptic landscape on the planet, finally causing a nationwide uprising that resounds in the collective chant, "WE'RE GONNA DO SOMETHING FOR OUR WORLD!" The poem was directed toward his lovely wife Judith Janis, a strong supporter of peace, multiculturalism, Trans-Love Energies, and traditional Indian dance – a peaceful and grounded counterpart for James. Judith died of cancer suddenly in 2007.

The Detroit Artists Workshop website Semark worked on, designed and helped to create, was over several hundred pages long. The DAW website, his writings and his deep archive of DAW publications and records were sadly lost soon after his death. A quick auction of his belongings dispersed a major portion of the Workshop writings and artworks. Semark had a visionary approach to language and an unshakeable belief in the Workshop – he saw it as a model and beacon through which future generations could learn and establish their own networks of artistic sharing and growth. It would seem an injustice to Semark and others involved with the DAW to see that legacy disappear.

In 1964, the Workshop was a spiritual foundation for artistic freedom. It was infused with a bohemian ideology similar to the Beat generation and the Black Arts Movement, and became the beginning roots of psychedelia and Punk. It was the definitive key movement of the Detroit counter-culture, whose ideas exploded in the later half of the 1960s and as one of the founders, poets and an elder statesman of that movement and energy, James Semark was a mighty force, a cyclone we barely knew.

In a quotation from his own website chronology, James states, "However long I may live, the endgame will still hold true. You'll notice that, in my 20s, I was a hot shot in the Artists Workshop and I thought I had it together. In my 30s and 40s, I thought I understood the cosmos. In my 50s I had a vision of world transformation. Now, in my later years, I realize I understand only a milli-fraction of what's going on in the universe — it's as though I don't understand anything at all! On the other hand, I see no end to the discovery process — the opportunity to explore greater and greater realms of galactic mind goes on forever. This is the endgame."

Notes for Dale Allen Hendershot:

Dale Allen Hendershot Sr passed away peacefully at home with his loving family by his side on July 3, 2018. He was born in Manchester Michigan on August 5, 1938. He married the love of his life, Bette Louise Schultz, on April 12, 1958. Dale worked for over 30 years as a draftsman and later in sales at Aeroquip Corp. He was a member of the National Guard beginning in 1956 for many years. He stood proud ready to serve his Country. His family remembers their father working 2-3 jobs at the same time to support them. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to those who needed him. Dale is described as a man who loved to work and continued to up until 2 years ago when his illness advanced. He could fix anything and if he couldn't figure it out, he knew who could. He had an amazing memory which was sharp until his last breath. Dale is known for his unending, sometimes lengthy, "stories". His family was privileged to hear them up until the day he passed-most of which they'd never heard. Later in life, he discovered his love of woodworking. He made wooden trucks, backpack guitars & lap harps. His eye for perfection showed in his finished product. He had many acquaintances and could talk to anyone. Dale was kind, gentle, witty & wise. He remained positive through his illness. Most of the time, he was humoring his family who were struggling. He had an ability to accept and endure with grace and courage which will forever be remember by those he leaves behind.

Surviving are his loving wife of 60 years, Bette Hendershot. His children: Karen (Geoffrey) Cooley, Julie (Scott) Rowdon, Mary Ann (Dennis) Shuster, Dale (Kim) Hendershot II. Grandchildren: Christopher Cooley, Rachel Cooley, Abigail Locke, Mara Cooley, Brie King, Haley Richardson, Ila Hendershot, Dale Hendershot III, Grant Hendershot & Kimberlyn Hendershot. 8 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by their baby daughter, Elizabeth. Parents William & Ethel Hendershot. Brother Neil Hendershot. Baby sister Karen.

A celebration of his life will take place Friday July 13, 2018 at Spring Life Wesleyan Church, 9421 Benn Rd, Parma Michigan 49269, with Pastor Michael Carey presiding. Family will greet friends starting at 10:00 a.m. with service starting at 11:00. Join the family for a luncheon in the Church hall immediately following service. The family extends Heartfelt Thanks & Gratitude to Dale's Hospice Nurse, Roberta and Chaplain Greg for their loving care & friendship. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be directed to charities of your choice.

Notes for Gloria R. Conley:

Oct. 9, 1960 - One of the most enthusiastic horsewomen in the Marshall area is Mrs. Ward (Gloria)

Hoenes of Lyon Lake. As operator of the Buckboard Western Shop, Mrs. Hoenes has watched her hobby grow into a profitable business. The shop located in a two-story garage attached to her home has everything a horse buff needs. The stock includes wearing apparel and riding equipment. The shop, opened in the of 1959, will be reorganized and a new building constructed on US-27 on eight acres of land recently purchased. Mrs. Hoenes cannot remember the day when horses were not a part of her life. The daughter of Viola and the late Frank Conley, she grew up on a farm across from Brooks Field. After graduating from Marshall High School in 1940 she bought her first horse, a chestnut polo gelding named Lee King.

With her first husband, the late Lee Graham, Mrs. Hoenes became known among horse fans throughout the state in helping to organize the Michigan Association of Western Horse Clubs. The association is still in existence and now enjoins most saddle clubs in the state after starting with 11 in 1945. Mrs. Hoenes was the secretary of the association when the first state horse show was held at East Lansing in December, 1945. While still living with her parents on the family farm, Mrs. Hoenes formed the Marshall Saddle Club in 1943. Saddle horses then were quite popular, Mrs. Hoenes recalls, because of gasoline rationing. Statewide attention was focused on the saddle club and their shows held at fairgrounds drew as many as many as 3,000 people. The club, however, was disbanded in 1951 after the death of Mr. Graham, their president in his honor the club contributed about $2,000 for the cost of a room at Oaklawn Hospital.

About two years-later Mr. and Mrs. Hoenes formed the Calhoun County 4-H Tumbleweed Riders Club with the emphasis placed on getting young people interested in horsemanship. At its peak, the club had 65 members. Because their business is taking so much of their time, Mr. and Mrs. Hoenes have transferred leadership of the club to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Karns of Route 2, Marshall. Mrs. Hoenes since 1951 has been the Fredonia Township clerk. She is an employee of the Belcher Realty Co. and also secretary for the district manager of the McMillen Feed Mills. Mr. Hoenes is an employee of Livingston Inc. Janet, the daughter of Mr. Hoenes, is a horsewoman in her own right and has won at least eight trophies in showmanship and other 4-H competition. She spends many hours helping her step-mother care for their three-horse stable. Rinsa, a grade mare, is bred to an Appaloosa, a horse famous for its coloring and usually used in parades. Melba K. Kay, a registered quarter horse has won many trophies for Gloria and last week in Coldwater placed third in the pleasure class.

Gloria (Conley) Hoenes, 70, of Sonoita, Arizona, and formerly of Marshall, died Wednesday, Jan. 27, 1993, in Holy Cross Hospital, Nogales, Arizona. Mrs. Hoenes was born Dec. 9, 1922, in Marshall to Frank and Viola Conley. She attended Marshall schools and graduated from Marshall High School in 1940. She lived in Marshall her entire life until moving to Arizona in the 1980s. In her early years, she enjoyed bowling, horses and horseback riding. In the 1960s and 1970s, she and her husband, Ward Hoenes, owned the Buckboard Western Shop at Lion Lake. He survives. Also surviving are a sister, Mary "Jo" Cummins of Battle Creek, and two step-grandchildren.

Services: Cremation has taken place. No services were held. Arrangements: Adair's Carroon Mortuary, Nogales, Arizona.

Mrs. Sandison passed away quietly Sunday evening Dec. 7, 2008 surrounded by her family, at the Wyoming Medical Center after a brief illness. Jeanne was 94 years old and was born in Whiting Indiana October 20, 1914, to Grace & Herman Trowe. When Jeanne was 4 years old her father moved his family to Casper when transferred with Standard Oil of Indiana to the Casper Standard Refinery. Jeanne and her three sisters and one brother were raised in Casper and attended Jefferson Grade School and NCHS. Jeanne married Thomas I. Sandison, her high school sweetheart, in Hot Springs, South Dakota on January 4, 1935 after attending College in Chicago. They had three sons, Jim, Bob and Tom. Jeanne's husband Tom and his father owned and operated the Tip Top Food Market in downtown Casper.

During World War II while Tom was working at the Casper Air Base and later when serving in the US Maw, Jeanne worked in his place at the store. After discharge. Tom again worked with his father in the market. In early 1952, Jeanne and Tom took a big chance and purchased land at the east end of second street, which at the time was a high hill and gravel pit. In that year Tom began building their dream. In three separate buildings, spread out over the land, the Hilltop Shopping Center was begun. With the help of a few friends they were able to scrape together enough funds to add to the protect a few units at a time. Tom and Jeanne designed, built and operated the Center until Tom's death in 1974. At that time their son, Jim took over the management and Jeanne was a daily visitor to the office. She kept track of everything that was taking place and as she said, "Making sure Jim was coming to work".

Shortly after her husband's death, Jeanne began two new undertakings. First she became a driver for Meals on Wheels that she continued for over 20 years, becoming a Monday Chairman. The second undertaking was making wooden toys. Once she decided that was what she wanted to do, her boys told her that she could not use the power equipment in the basement shop until she learned to use the tools properly. Always ending a challenge, Jeanne went to Casper College and took every class having to do with wood working, which even included a class on house building. As she began designing and building wooden toys, she added equipment to her shop. The shop was one to be envied by any wood worker, Jeanne sold her toys at the Meals on Wheels yearly Craft Fair and by word of mouth. Her toys are in many homes around Casper, throughout Wyoming and several other states. She worked with the Toys until arthritis in her hands made it impossible Jeanne was preceded in death by her husband Tom, her parents, Grace and Herman, two sisters. Beth & Nancy and her brother Bob.

She is survived by her three sons Jim (Judy), Bob both of Casper and Tom (Judy) from Texas and where ever else their motor home takes them. Her sister Janet Fauks of Oklahoma City and three grandsons, David (Laura), Thomas (Maria) and Ty, grandson by marriage and his family Timi and Morgan; four great-grandchildren, Thomas and Isabella in Honda, James and Tyler in New Mexico, Jeanne is also survived by many nieces and nephews. The Family would appreciate memorials made to Meals on Wheels or any charity of donor's choice.

Notes for Dr. William Karl (Bill) Fauks:

Oklahoma City - Quail Creek Golf and Country Club will have an empty seat at a particular card table from now on, and a certain group of gin players will be missing a loyal friend. Dr. William Karl Fauks, Bill, passed away peacefully in his home on Monday, March 27, 2017, after a brief illness. He spent his last few days at home surrounded by family. Bill was just shy of 95 years old. He leaves his college-sweetheart wife of 73 years, Janet (Trowe) Fauks; his beloved son, William (Steve) Fauks and his wife, Caroline; his treasured son, Dr. Michael P. Fauks; and cherished granddaughter, Lensey Fauks. Bill preceded in death by his parents, Carl and Emma Fauks; sister, Frieda Bradshaw; sister, Margaret Fauks; sister, Caroline Snyder; and brother, Paul Fauks. Bill was born on May 15, 1922 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He attended high school in both Pierre, South Dakota and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He graduated from Colorado State University School of Veterinary Medicine in 1944. Bill met his wife, Janet, at CSU and they married on May 1, 1943.

Bill served two tours in the United States Army from 1943 to 1945 and from 1952 to 1954. In his last tour of duty, he was a Captain stationed at Fort Sam Houston and had the distinct responsibility of caring for deceased General Pershing's retired mount. Many of his close friends will remember Bill's story of the "exploding horse" as a particularly memorable, albeit unpleasant, event in his military career! Drs. Bill and Janet opened City Animal Hospital located near the intersection of NW 23rd and May Avenue in Oklahoma City in 1947. Over the next nearly fifty years, the couple raised two amazing sons and cared for the pets of an enormous family of fellow animal lovers. It is said that "Heaven is a place where all the animals you ever loved run to greet you." We all know that Dr. Bill Fauks will be absolutely surrounded! After retiring in 1994, Bill continued serving the community with his "Ask a Veterinarian" columns in The Daily Oklahoman and the Edmond newspapers. A life-long lover of learning and research, he was happy to find this new niche as a way to continue to serve the OKC community. In his own, quiet manner, Bill helped folks in his area for many years by delivering Meals on Wheels.

Bill's photo should be in the dictionary next to the definition of "sports fan." He was definitely an avid golfer, but his love of all sports was well known. The Saint Louis Cardinals held a special place in his heart for many years, and more recently, the OKC Thunder claimed part of his heart too. He was a long-time member of Quail Creek and his absence will leave a big hole in the hearts of his many friends there. He doted on his only granddaughter, Lensey, and never missed her sports events or activities. Bill was also an avid reader (nonfiction please!) and a lover of many music genres. We will all miss his strong opinions, tapping finger, thoughtful arguments and ready grin.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. The family would like to express their thanks to Crossroads Hospice for their tenderness and care. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to Crossroads Hospice, 1301 SE 59th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73129. Great joy and peace can be your gift to the family by sharing your written memories, stories, anecdotes, etc. about your relationship with Bill.

Marriage Notes for Richard Mahrle and Veronica Williams:

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 20, 1951, Miss Ronni Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford D. Williams, and Sergt. Richard C. Mahrle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Mahrle, were united in marriage at the Oakley Methodist church. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. N. Clinton Chasteen. The altar was banked with garden flowers, gladioli, woodwardia fern, palms and candelabra holding burning tapers. Mrs. H. B. Whitsell played a program of organ music and accompanied Mr. Roger Thornton, who sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory blush satin and heirloom lace which had trimmed the wedding gown of her great aunt. The long, tightly fitted satin bodice had an illusion yoke outlined with flower appliques of the lace trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. The same motif was repeated on the front of the bodice and on the long satin sleeves that tapered to points over the wrists. The full gathered skirt lengthened into an aisle-wide train and was accented with wide side panels of the lace. Her finger-tip length veil of illusion fell from a tiny lace bonnet trimmed with pearls and sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Wallace Hoverder was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of orchid marquisette over matching taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice with deep yoke edged with Chantilly lace. The bridesmaids, Miss Rosemary Mahrle, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Wayland Thatch of St. Louis, cousin of the bride, wore gowns of marquisette over taffeta in shades of aqua and toast color respectively. The attendants all wore picture hats to match their gowns and their cascade bouquets were of Talisman roses. Karen Bryan was flower girl and Bobby Thatch, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Mr. Charles Miller acted as best man and Mr. Gene Albertson and Mr. Robert Thornton were groomsmen. Mr. Bill Kester and Mr. Wallace Hoverder ushered. The bride's mother wore a gown of blue Chantilly lace over matching satin, a pink flower hat and pink gloves. The bridegroom's mother was gowned with pink Alencon lace and linen. She wore a pink hat and gloves. Both wore corsages of orchids.

A reception was held at the church. The 3-tiered pale pink cake was trimmed with deeper pink roses and wreathed with pink carnations and fern. For her going away costume the bride wore a light blue suit with navy accessories. Her white lace hat was trimmed with navy velvet ribbon and sequin centered lace flowers and her corsage was of yellow roses. After a honeymoon in the West, the couple will be at home in Balboa, California, Sergt. Mahrle is a graduate of the University of Kansas City and is at present stationed at El Toro marine air base, Santa Ana, California.

504. Angie Pamela¹¹ King (Cora Emma¹⁰ Wolff, Wilhelmina (Minnie)⁹ Bauer, Katharina⁸ Mahrle, Johann Jacob⁷, Abraham⁶, Johannes⁵ Maehrle, Hans Jerg⁴, Hans Jerg³, David², Jerg¹) was born 12 Sep 1914 in Banza Mandeke, Belgian Congo, Africa, and died 04 Mar 2007 in Naples, Collier Co, Florida. She married John William Lederle 1938, son of Emil Lederle and Minnie Shore. He was born 26 May 1912 in Royal Oak, Oakland Co, Michigan, and died 13 Feb 2007 in Naples, Collier Co, Florida.

Notes for Angie Pamela King:

Angie P. Lederle (nee King) born 12 Sep 1914, Democratic Republic of the Congo (then Belgian Congo) while her parents were medical missionaries there. Passed 4 Mar 2007 in Florida.

Notes for John William Lederle:

John W. Lederle, 94, of Naples, Florida, who served as president of the University of Massachusetts from 1960-70, a period of time that saw unprecedented growth both on the Amherst campus and within the university system, died Feb. 13, 2007 at Naples Community Hospital of heart failure. During Lederle's tenure as president, UMass Amherst was transformed from a small, rural campus with fewer than 6,000 students to a major research university. Nearly 50 major buildings were begun or completed on the Amherst campus, student enrollment tripled, and the number of faculty, the total operating budget and number of books in the library quadrupled. The number of faculty grew from 366 to 1,157. Faculty salaries in the advanced academic programs and the overall number of programs doubled, while the number of graduate students increased by nearly 300 percent in this time period. The UMass system was also expanded with the creation of the UMass Medical School in Worcester in 1962 and a Boston campus in 1964.

Jack M. Wilson, current UMass president, says Lederle played a critical role in creating the UMass we know today. "The entire University of Massachusetts community is saddened to learn of the death of former UMass President John W. Lederle. His leadership of the university brought growth and expansion to the flagship Amherst campus as well as the establishment of UMass Boston and the University of Massachusetts Medical School. The university's current strength as a national educational and research leader is a tribute to his commitment to the University of Massachusetts decades ago."

Lederle, reflecting on his career in 2005, wrote that one accomplishment of which he was very proud was that, "Our progress in the 1960s meant going to the governor and the legislature year after year with larger and larger budget requests for construction and facility expansion, not only in Amherst, but later in Boston and the UMass medical school in Worcester. Once, the Senate president in my presence remarked, I hope facetiously, that I had taken more money out of the state treasury than any other man in history," he said. After his retirement, Lederle said, he was honored for service to the Commonwealth and the university by the same legislators who had supported his funding requests. "What a great surprise! No, I hadn't worn out my welcome." Among the key programs begun during Lederle's tenure are the Polymer Research Institute, the Research Computing Center, the Five College Radio Astronomy Observatory and the Water Resources Research Center, the Labor Relations Research Center, the Committee for the Collegiate Education of Black Students and establishment of overseas programs in England, Germany, Italy, Spain and France. The Lederle Graduate Research Center, a prominent building on campus, was named after him in 1983. Other innovations included the university press, a public radio station, and collaborative arrangements among the local colleges. The university's first endowed professorship was established during his tenure. Attracting federal research dollars, the institutional budget grew by 700 percent to more than $100 million.

Lederle was extensively involved in civic life during his career. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Clarke School for the Deaf from 1975-86; was a member of the executive committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges from 1967-70; a member of the Board of Trustees of Hampshire College from 1965-70; a member of the Massachusetts Board of Regional Community Colleges from 1960-70; a member of the Advisory Board of Higher Education Policy from 1962-65; chairman of the Advisory Commission of the Massachusetts Board of Higher Education from 1966-70; a member of the New England Board of Higher Education from 1961-73, and chairman of the National Conference of Directors of Bureaus of Government Research from 1958-61.

As a lawyer, Lederle was admitted to the Michigan Bar in 1936, working with a Detroit law firm from 1936-1940. He was admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court in 1947; was a staff attorney with the Michigan Municipal League from 1945-48, and was general counsel to the Michigan Municipal League from 1948-51. Lederle was the organizer and first director of the Institute of Public Administration at the University of the Philippines from 1952-53; was Michigan state controller and chairman of the Michigan Commission on Interstate Cooperation from 1953-54; and secretary of the Michigan Governor's Committee on Intergovernmental Relations from 1954-55. He was chairman of the Massachusetts Governor's Committee on Local Government Management Capacity from 1976-78.

He also served as a consultant to the U.S. Senate Campaign Expenditures Committee from 1944-46; was a consultant to the U.S. House of Representatives Special Committee on Campaign Expenditures in 1950; a consultant to the U.S. Senate Committee on Rules in 1952; and was a member of the Special Commission on Non-Profit Hospital and Medical Services Corporations and the Rising Cost of Hospital and Medical Care to the Public in 1962-64. Lederle also wrote many articles on issues in the field of higher education and on national, state and local government politics and administration.

He was born May 26, 1912 in Royal Oak, Michigan, son of the late Emil John and Minnie Louise (Shore) Lederle. His father was the superintendent of schools in Grand Marais, Hastings and Royal Oak, Michigan, and was also superintendent in Oakland County, Michigan. Lederle is survived by his wife, Angie Lederle, a daughter Pamela J. Marro of Florida, a son Thomas Lederle of Pelham, and a grandson, John Lederle Marro.

Lederle earned his bachelor's (1933), master's (1934), law degree (1936) and doctorate (1942) from the University of Michigan. Lederle worked at Brown University from 1941-1944, serving as a professor of political science and assistant dean. He returned to the University of Michigan in 1944, filling a number of professional roles. Lederle remained at the University of Michigan until 1960, when the University of Massachusetts elected him president. He was inaugurated on Sept. 25, 1960. After his retirement in 1970, Lederle was honored with an appointment to the Joseph B. Ely Chair in Government at the university, a post he served in until 1982. He received honorary doctorates from Amherst College in 1963; Hokkaido University in Japan in 1963; Northeastern University in 1964; Boston University in 1965; Holy Cross College in 1963, and Lowell State College 1970.

There are no plans for a memorial service.

Children of Angie King and John Lederle are:

- 831 i. Thomas Paine¹² Lederle, born 27 Jul 1946; died 30 Jul 2016 in Massachusetts.

Notes for Thomas Paine Lederle:

Thomas P. Lederle, 70, of Pelham, passed away July 30, 2016, at Cooley Dickinson Hospital of degenerative heart disease. He is survived by his sister Pamela J. Marro and by his nephew John Lederle Marro, both of Florida. The adopted son of the late John and Angie Lederle, Tom moved with his family from Michigan to Amherst in 1960 when his father was named president of the University of Massachusetts. On his father's retirement in 1970, he moved to North Valley Road in Pelham with the family. Tom graduated from the Winchendon School in Winchendon. He was employed in several different occupations in the Valley and was interested in social issues. He also loved horses and helped his mother with them at home and at the yearly Morgan Horse Show. He was an active area citizen over the years working on election campaigns of local political figures. He was a fixture in Pelham Town Meetings, always seated in the front row, making, speaking to, and seconding motions on warrant articles. He always advocated for school, public works, fire, and police appropriations. He could be counted on to make the final motion of the meeting, one that called for a moment of silence to honor all people, military and civilian alike, who lost their lives in war. He frequently urged the Town to add monuments in Pelham's historic district to honor the veterans of wars since World War II.

When his parents moved to Florida, he acquired the ownership and management of the former Daniel Allen trailer park at the junction of Amherst and North Valley Roads in West Pelham. He defended the trailer park against critics as being an important source of affordable housing in the town, and worked to maintain the costs to residents accordingly. In recent years, in honor of his parent's support of higher education, he publicly awarded scholarship checks during the mid-way recess of Pelham's Annual Town Meeting, to academically top Pelham male and female seniors graduating from the Amherst-Pelham Regional High School. He will be remembered by many as a person who was very generous, sometimes to a fault, to many people in need.

A memorial gathering will be held at Saturday, Nov. 12, at 10 a.m. at Community Hall, 40 Amherst Road, Pelham.

Notes for Russell Lewis Hoenes, Jr.:

Dr. Russell Lewis Hoenes passed away October 27, 2018. He was attended by family, and in the excellent care of hospice and private caregivers. He was 81 years old. Russell Louis Hoenes, Jr. was born to Russell Louis Hoenes, Sr. (1917-1993) and Alice Carpenter Hoenes (1918-2013) in Niagara Falls, New York on September 11, 1937 during the Great Depression. The young family relocated to Michigan not long after he was born. Russell's sister, Judy Hoenes Stewart Hoelscher Thorburn (1943-2014), was born a few years later. Russell Sr. worked for Upjohn Pharmaceutical Company and Alice eventually earned her college degree, followed by a Master of Science degree in Social Work.

Russell attended the Seventh-day Adventist school in Kalamazoo, Michigan during the last part of his elementary and middle school years before going to Cedar Lakes Academy, where he graduated with honors. From there, he chose to go to Emmanuel Missionary College (EMC) now Andrews University, where he first majored in Chemistry, changing over to Biology, graduating with highest honors. An athlete, he played on various varsity teams, and did some gymnastics. It was at EMC that he met his future wife, Sally Jo Milhollin, of Muncie, Indiana.

Russell graduated in 1959, and married Sally on August 9 of the same summer. The newlyweds honeymooned by way of a road trip to Loma Linda, California where Russell had been accepted to Loma Linda University Medical School. Sally worked as a secretary to support him through school. And as with all his other endeavors in life, studied hard, competed fiercely, and excelled, graduating in 1963. He took a general internship at Washington Adventist Hospital and Sanitarium, Takoma Park, Maryland, which he completed in 1964.

Shortly before the internship ended, Russell accepted Uncle Sam's invitation to service in the Army, and their son Greg was adopted. Within weeks of this serendipity, the new family was off to Fort Sam Houston for Officers training, then to his permanent post stateside at Fort Douglas, Utah. Russell served his country as both a physician and an Army officer, honorably discharged in 1966 with the rank of Captain.

After Army service, Russell did a residency in Cardio-Pulmonary Diseases at the prestigious Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. It was there that Kari was added to the family in 1968, also joyfully adopted.

752. Linda Lucile¹² Butler (Donna¹¹ Hoenes, Ernest¹⁰, Catharina⁹ Mahrle, Christof Jacob⁸, Johann Jacob⁷, Abraham⁶, Johannes⁵ Maehrle, Hans Jerg⁴, Hans Jerg³, David², Jerg¹) was born 28 Mar 1947 in Michigan. She married Callie Claire Risner Jul 1967. He was born 15 Dec 1944.

Marriage Notes for Linda Butler and Callie Risner:

July 15, 1967, with less than full-throated parental support, Linda Butler and Claire Risner stepped up to a little brick church on the corner of Stillson Road and Dexter Trail to be married. Fifty-one years later, the two are still sharing gentle quips and loving glances. How did this couple weather the bumps that a marriage inevitably encounters? "We just decided we were going to make it," Linda said, "and that was that." Linda grew up in Potterville, Michigan, and in 1964 met Stockbridge native Claire Risner at a teen dance in Mason. Two years after their wedding, they came to settle in the Stockbridge area. "I was a school bus driver for 38 years," Linda explained, "and Claire worked at Kelsey Hayes in Jackson for 32 years."

When asked about children, Linda's face brightened. "We have two daughters, Leanne and Cyndi, and we have two grandsons that we adore." Throughout their busy lives, each has made time to give back to their community. For the past 8 years, Linda has delivered Meals on Wheels to senior citizens in the area. Jo Mayer, the new chair of the Stockbridge Wellness Center, pointed out the Risners' quiet generosity. "Claire and Linda were very instrumental in the renovation of the Wellness Center," Mayer said, and she described how the two pitched in to help from the beginning, back in 2010. What's the secret to a happy marriage? "Have different interests," Claire chuckled. "And dual controls on the electric blanket."

Since Claire's retirement in 1996, he has "run more half marathons than we can count," Linda said proudly, "and 5 full marathons of 26.2 miles each." Claire currently runs 5 miles a day, 5 days a week. His favorite past time is cutting wood to heat their house. "It's good exercise," Claire said. "I like working outside and the steadiness of wood heat." Early mornings, Linda may be seen walking Lakelands Trail with friend Sue Lindemer. Three days a week for the past 12 years, the women have traversed the township. When snow is deep? No problem. They slip into their snowshoes and tramp through the winter wonderland. "And I love to go to estate sales," Linda said.

Claire and Linda share hobbies together, too. Almost every year for the past half century, they have headed east to backpack a section of the Appalachian Trail, camping backcountry in their tent. We've also hiked in Arizona, and all the trails in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, I think," Claire said. Then his expression turned serious. "Carrying the stove slows Linda down." She grinned and formed a small circle with her thumbs and index fingers, signifying a backpacker's ultra-light camp stove. "Oh yes," she mentioned in passing, "I broke my neck one year, and the doctor told me I couldn't hike the Appalachian Trail that summer." Clearly, a hearty vein of resilience and optimism runs through this couple's relationship. Linda smiled. "We've had a very good life."

Notes for Michael Scott Hoenes:

Nov. 25, 2015 - Mike Hoenes does a lot of waiting, and as a patient living with Alport syndrome, there's little else he can do. There's the eight hours a day Hoenes, 57, drags himself to his day job at Duncan Aviation, often working long, tedious shifts after a restless night. Even tougher are the three hours, three times a week, he sits at a dialysis machine, usually accompanied by the idle chit-chat of a nurse and the 30-channel TV playing on the machine. "What's going through my head is "Dr. Phil" at 4, "48 Hours" at 5 and the news at 6. At 7, it's whatever you can find," he said, describing the weekly ritual he's done for almost a year now. "Seriously, that's what it is." This is the way of life for Hoenes, a Battle Creek resident and a Pennfield High School graduate. It's been a foregone conclusion he might reach this point living with a genetic disease that causes progressive kidney damage. The disease has afflicted three o others in his immediate family, including his late-mother, Janet Bedwell.

The solution for Hoenes, as with most touched by the disease, is a kidney transplant. The problem, though, is that he's one of more than 2,800 Michigan residents in need of a kidney, and there are only about 400 kidneys donated each year, according to Gift of Life Michigan. Eighty percent of people in need of an organ in Michigan are waiting for a kidney, the organization said.

He's on the list, but there's no telling how much waiting lies ahead. "I feel miserable because I'm so weak and exhausted," he said. "There's no energy. Just mentally to get up, shower, and go to work, give me two or so hours at work and I'm done. I have nothing left. I go on Tuesdays and Thursdays and most of the time I can go in late on those days for an hour or an hour and a half late -- they allow me to make it up on a Sunday when I feel better."

The National Kidney Foundation said Alport syndrome takes functioning kidney structures and replaces them with scar tissue, which leads to kidney failure. There's no specific treatment used to conquer the disease, and the foundation said it's commonly treated like high blood pressure and other kidney diseases. Those living with the disease generally have two options: multiple weekly dialysis treatments, a process that eliminates waste and water from the blood, or an organ transplant.

Those on the list for a transplant might have to wait months, and in many cases, years to find an organ. The transplant waiting list is re-evaluated constantly based on need. "I was fairly lucky," Bedwell told the Enquirer for a story on her transplant in 2004. "I was surprised when I got the call. But that is how the hospitals do it. When they get a kidney, they call you right up. When I got to the hospital they were waiting for me at the door. "Hoenes' wife of 17 years, Anne, and their son, Myles, 15, are lobbying hard to find a donor. Anne, who works two jobs, advertises the cause daily on the back window of her blue Kia with a message reading, "Husband needs an O-positive kidney" and an email address to contact them. The same message also appears on her husband's vehicle. "You know, when you have a spouse who's in this situation, you'll do anything -- anything -- to get it out there," she said. "So, we figured, let's do it."

Myles, a standout theater student at Lakeview High School, also has contributed to his father's cause by selling "Gift of Life" wristbands to his classmates. He said the wristbands, a part of a group he created called Team Hoenes, have raised about $2,000 to cover various expenses for the family. Myles Hoenes said it's about trying to help when he can, which will become easier when he gets his driver's license in the not-too-distant future.

Outside of the family, others are anxious to track down a kidney, too. Battle Creek resident Melissa Ohrt has been a friend of the Hoenes family for about nine years and her daughter Kylie, 14, does theater at Lakeview with Myles. Ohrt said her family and others try to be hopeful that Hoenes will get a kidney because she said she knows how tough it is for Hoenes to miss anything, especially any of Myles' events. "They never have used the 'poor me' card, do you know what I mean?" Ohrt said. "To me, that means a lot. They are very selfless people. Seeing them go through this and knowing so many things in their lives are on hold. They make plans around dialysis. "You know, a lot of time Mike will miss certain things Myles is involved with because he has to do dialysis."

Hoenes said he's managing the disease, much like his mother, his brother Tim Hoenes and half-brother David Hoenes did before him. What has become difficult, he said, is that he feels the disease has "kind of taken the good times away" from Myles. These good times are lost for him and Anne, too. Before his dialysis treatments, the family was planning a trip to Hawaii with some other theater families at Lakeview; now, he said, "it looks like we won't be going." He still has his sights set on that Hawaii trip -- he said it's one of the first things the family wants to do once he gets the transplant. Until then, though, the wait continues for Hoenes. For now, there's little else he can do.

"The next thing I'm scared about is the transplant situation because, you know, my mom did well, my brother did well, he's having some issues now and my brother David did well," he said "...I'm just scared of what's on the other side. I think it's two ways, either it will be a battle or I'll have a new life because the kidney is doing what it's supposed to do, and that's the way I have to look at it."

Michael Scott "Mike" Hoenes, 63, of Battle Creek, Michigan died due to COVID-19 at Bronson Battle Creek on Wednesday, January 12, 2022. Mike was born March 25, 1958 in Marshall, Michigan the son of Robert and Janet (Trine) Hoenes. Mike grew up in Pennfield and was a 1976 graduate of Pennfield High School. He earned an Associate Degree from Kellogg Community College. At the age of eleven, Mike started working on a dairy farm. His career included 35 years as a Dairy Farmer and 20 years at Duncan Aviation. For many years, he was employed at Crandall Farms in Battle Creek and then for Bruinsma Farms in Climax Scotts. Mike was preceded in death by his father, Robert Hoenes; mother, Janet Trine; his maternal grandfather, Cecil Trine, who was very close to Mike; three brothers, Timothy Hoenes, Doug Trine and David Bedwell.

Mike was an avid University of Michigan football fan. He loved cheering and applauding for his son, Myles, whether it was sports, theater, or whatever activity he was involved in. Mike always worked hard. Even with four hours of Dialysis, three days-a-week, he worked a 40-hour week. He welcomed overtime as he planned for his retirement. Mike will be remembered as "a father who went above and beyond for the love of his son and a man who put family before all."

Notes for Chase Duffell:

Feb. 25, 2009 - It's not that Chase Duffell didn't want to talk about the man he pulled from a burning truck Wednesday. He just didn't want to talk if it meant being late to work. The 17-year old junior at Crescent High School in Iva, a 6-foot-7-inch member of Crescent's varsity basketball team who works two jobs to help with his family's finances, said he "just reacted" as he ran to the scene of an accident Wednesday at S.C. 81 South and Wilton E. Hall Road. The collision involved an Anderson School District 3 school bus, a blue, Chevrolet S-10 pickup truck and a white Chevy sport utility vehicle.

Anderson County firefighters and emergency medical technicians responded to Emergency 911 calls concerning the accident around 3:30 p.m. when the school bus which was carrying 10 Crescent High students and the driver, a woman identified as Kathy Nicholason and the sport utility vehicle slammed into the driver's side of the S-10 when the S-10 pulled in front of both vehicles. There were no injuries reported among the 10 students or the bus driver, Kathy Nicholason, who declined comment. The S-10 driver was transported to AnMed Health Medical Center in Anderson with what appeared to be injuries that were not life-threatening, said Anderson County Fire Chief Billy Gibson and other officials. That driver Harrison Williams, 87, of Iva has been charged with failure to yield right of way, said Lance Cpl. Kathy Hiles of the South Carolina Highway Patrol. Williams was wearing a seat belt and was not traveling with any passengers, Hiles said. The drivers of the other two vehicles involved in the collision are not facing charges, Hiles said. The accident occurred, she said, when the truck was attempting to turn left onto 81 S. from Wilton E. Hall Road.

The driver of the sport utility vehicle and the one passenger in it were transported to AnMed Health Medical Center with minor injuries, Hiles said. The two were not wearing seat belts, and information about their identities was not available as of Wednesday night, Hiles said. Tessa Byrum, 17, a Crescent student and passenger on the bus, said, "We were all screaming. When I saw smoke coming from the back of the bus, I thought the bus was on fire. "According to Byrum, the driver of the S-10 pulled out in front of the school bus, and the bus could not stop in time to avoid a collision. "I couldn't see a lot, because I was in the back of the bus," Byrum said. "The guy was in his car, and he wouldn't get out ... some guy (identified as Duffell by witnesses) from the school got out of his car and got the driver out."

Duffell, who was driving a Ford F-150 roughly 50 yards behind the school bus at the time of the accident, said the bus and the sport utility vehicle collided with the truck at the same time. The force of the impact sent the truck spinning across the road before the vehicle apparently caught on fire, he said. "From what I've been told, the fire (on the truck) was a result of the impact," said Anderson County Fire Chief Billy Gibson. Duffell said, "When I got to the truck, the entire driver's side was on fire, so I went around to the passenger side door, which was locked. I had just taken off my hoody (sweatshirt) and was wrapping it around my hand to break the window when the driver regained consciousness and unlocked the door."

Duffell, a cancer survivor who went through chemotherapy for Hodgkin's disease in 2007, said a Hispanic man unknown to him as well as another man who asked to remain anonymous helped him carry the man from the burning truck to the shoulder of the road. "I made sure the kids on the bus were OK, then I checked on the people in the (sport utility vehicle) to make sure they were OK, and then I waited on the fire department to show up before I headed out," Duffell said. His reason for leaving the scene was simple: "I had blood on my hoody from the gash in the man's head. I had to get home and change before work," Duffell said from a conference room at NHC nursing home in Anderson, where he started work Wednesday in the maintenance department. "I didn't want to be late to work. It's my first day here. "I really don't want anyone to think I'm some kind of a hero or something," he said. "I didn't really know what I was doing. I just did it."

Duffell, a three-year varsity letterman in basketball, said he hopes to attend college on a basketball scholarship and become a history teacher and coach. When asked if he believed his girlfriend, a junior at Wren

High School in Piedmont named Kaitlin Gibson, would be proud when she heard the news of his actions Wednesday, Duffell paused a moment and said, "I don't know. But I definitely want to give a shout out to her, though. "School District 3 Superintendent Hugh Smith said he was not surprised when he heard what Duffell had done. "That sounds like Chase. He's a wonderful kid," Smith said.
