Notes for Eunice Florence Wilson:

Eunice Florence Catt died on 8 June, 2025, 30 days before turning 103 years old. She preferred her middle name Florence and was known by it. Florence was a Kansas and Oklahoma farm girl, born to Marian and Nellie Wilson in Mulhall, Oklahoma. She is preceded in death by her husband and three of her children. She married Isaac E. Catt, Sr. in 1941 with whom she had eight children: Eunice Jeanette Ragsdale, Delverta Ann Smith, Evelyn Deloris Catt, Isaac Edward Catt, Jr., Benjamin Thurman Catt, Gary Lee Catt, Robert Dewey Catt, and Richard Quinten Catt.

We who mourn her passing do so in admiration and respect for her stamina, courage, and resilience in the face of many adversities, some personal and familial and other stresses imposed from the outside such as the Great Depression, WWII, the Korean and Vietnam Wars and crises that perpetually follow. Born on 8 July, 1922, she saw the birth of road systems for automobiles, airline passenger service, the invention of jet aircraft, televisions, men walking on the moon, computers, the internet, and the perils of climate change.

Florence took pleasure telling stories based in her wealth of experiences. It is said that a library dies with the passing of each person, but she lives on in our memories.

Notes for James Oliver Catt:

James Oliver Catt was born on July 5, 1925, in Wabaunsee County, Kansas to Benjamin and Tressie Catt. He entered the presence of his Lord, Jesus Christ, on December 16, 2023, in Medford, Oregon where he was surrounded by his family. Merchant Marine, US Navy Sailor, business owner, and mechanic were a few of Jim's jobs before starting his career as a police officer. Jim started out walking the beat in Havre as a new police officer, and after 20 years of service, he retired as Chief of Police. Always a productive man, Jim started his next career at Burlington Northern Railroad the day after he retired from the police force! He was a railroad brakeman for 10 years.

While in the Navy, he married the love of his life, Maxine Wilson Catt, in April 1945. It was love at first sight when he met her. Moments after meeting Maxine, Jim said to his Navy buddy, "I'm going to marry that girl!" And he did, 4 short months later. They were married for 67 years, until Maxine died in 2012. Jim and Maxine were blessed with 6 children. They raised their children to be hospitable, hard-working, and to have good character. Jim and Maxine practiced what they preached.

Retirement years were filled with trips to see his children and grandchildren and snowbirding in Arizona. Generosity, positivity, humor, hard work, and love for all people are qualities for which James will always be remembered. Also, James had many memorable expressions like: "Get a bigger hammer!" "A man is only as good as his word." "That's the way it is!" "You bet!" and "I'll give you a holler in a few!"

Jim was preceded in death by his wife Maxine, grandson Bobby Vernon, and several siblings. He is survived by all 6 of his children: Larry (Pam) Auge, Arizona; Allan (Lydia)Auge, Arizona; Dennis (Pat) Eldridge, Washington; Myrna Catt (Robert) Vernon, Oregon; James (Laurie) Catt, Oregon; and Cindy Catt (David) Heaney, North Dakota. Additionally, he is survived by 14 grandchildren, many great grandchildren, three siblings, nieces, nephews, and countless friends! He was loved and will be missed by so many!

Jim was a member of the Messiah Lutheran Church, Havre, Montana where his funeral will be held, Thursday, December 28, at 1 p.m. Burial will follow in Highland Cemetery. Memorials in Jim's honor may be made to a charity of the donor's choice or to The Wounded Warriors Project at WoundedWarriorsProject.org or Wounded Warrior Project, PO Box 758516, Topeka, KS 66675. He married Ann Farley 08 Mar 1958 in Trinity, California. She was born 29 May 1936 in San Francisco Co, California, and died 12 May 2019 in Weaverville, California.

Notes for Ann Farley:

Ann Farley Crane, 82, of Weaverville, passed away May 12, 2019, with her husband of 61 years by her side. She was born to the late James and Agnes Farley, on May 29, 1936 in San Francisco and soon located to Trinity County where she would spend most of her life. Ann graduated from Trinity High School at the age of 16 in 1952, received a BA in Education from the University of California – Davis in 1956, and obtained a Teaching Credential from California State University Chico. She married Keith Crane in 1958, and they lived in Weaverville until her death. Ann is survived by five children: Julie Ciruli of Green Valley, Arizona; Margaret Crane of Davis; Amy Munger of Pasadena; Brian Crane of Redding; and Michael Crane of Pleasant Hill. She is also survived by 11 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Ann's Trinity County and Irish heritage was important to her. She was the great granddaughter of Eliza Todd who came to Weaverville from Ireland in 1851, impressively hiking the last Old Shasta to Weaverville stretch carrying her newborn baby and her husband's boots. In addition, Ann's Uncle Charlie (Creamer) was the stage coach driver on the stage that was held up by Black Bart on Trinity Mountain, her step Uncle Buck (Montgomery) was the Weaverville Stage Wells Fargo guard that was shot and killed by the Ruggles Brothers along Middle Creek near Old Shasta, and her Uncle Jock (Todd) tended the LaGrange Ditch from Emerald Lake to Bridge Camp along Stuarts Fork. In Ann's early years she could be seen belly up to the bar for meals at the family owned New York Hotel & Saloon, teaching swimming lessons in the Trinity River near Steel Bridge Road, or on horseback traveling to and from Morris Meadows in the Trinity Alps.

Education and Adventure were also an important part of Ann's life. Following her mother's Trinity High School teaching footsteps, Ann was a school teacher for 30 years at Weaverville Elementary School and instilled in a couple generations of Weaverville youth the importance of education including, but certainly not limited to, her five children who all graduated from four-year California universities. Ann also mixed education and adventure leading her family in a VW Bus (mostly) 8-month trip across United States and Western Europe in 1970 (not entirely what you think...), twisting her kids arms to join her on annual Ashland Shakespeare trips and plays at the Curran in San Francisco, mandating annual family pack trips all over the Trinity Alps, and immersing herself in the culture of people all over the Americas, Europe, Asia, and Australia. In her later years, Ann could be seen reading a good mystery novel on the deck of her Weaverville home, walking with good friends on the roads and trails around Weaverville, leading tours of historic downtown Weaverville, picking spring bouquets of Mountain Irises and Shooting Stars, and hounding her grandkids to pick some Trinity County blackberries so she could make her infamous blackberry jam and cobbler.

Ann was buried at Weaverville Cemetery following a family funeral mass at St. Patrick's Catholic Church on May 17th. The family will have a Celebration of Life Brunch open to the public on July 3rd at the Lewiston Hotel in Lewiston, California from 10 am to 1 pm. The family requests that people make donations to either the Trinity County Friends of the Library or the Weaverville Cemetery Association in lieu of flowers or other gifts.

Glen served part of the war in Australia and was fortunate to visit there again later in life. After the war Glen moved to Los Angeles and pursued one of his dreams with photography school. Marriage Notes for Sandra Ingle and Ronald Thompson:

At 2 p.m. Sunday June 18, 1955 in St. John's Lutheran Church, the Rev. Otto H. Friedman united in marriage Miss Sandra Jean Ingle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ingle of Kokomo R.R. 4, and Ronald Morey Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wiza of Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Otto Friedman, organist, and Albert Kindig, soloist, presented nuptial music preceding the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Friedmann played "Song to the Evening Star," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," "Largo" and "Lord Who at Cana's Wedding Feast." Mr. Kindig's selections were "Oh, Perfect Love" and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" at the conclusion of the rites. Yellow tapers in seven-branch candelabra, with yellow streamers tied to the standards, and a standard of Madonna lilies, with palms in the background, formed the setting for the nuptials. Flowers and greenery were tied with yellow ribbons to the family pews.

A floor-length gown was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her father. The strapless bodice was topped with a jacket of Chantilly lace, closed down the front with self-covered buttons and designed with Queen Anne collar and long sleeves ending in bridal points. Alternating panels of lace and nylon net coned the billowy skirt. The bride's chapel-length veil of French illusion was caught to a crown of sequins and pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, belonging to Mrs. Mark Garrison, a family friend, and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. and carried a lace-covered Bible crested with a purple-throated white orchid.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Wayne Moss who was gowned in a ballerina-length dress of yellow net over taffeta. The strapless bodice was lace with a shoulder stole and the skirt was fashioned of alternating lace and net ruffles. with a pleated net inset in front. She wore a picture hat of mint green nylon with a green bow and streamers and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Hahn and Miss Joyce Condo. Their gowns, hats and bouquets were identical to the matron of honor's. Serving as best man was Kenneth Wiza Rantoul, Illinois, and ushers were Robert Fisher and Michael Corcoran, Detroit, Michigan. A navy-blue lace dress with blue and white accessories and a white carnation corsage was chosen by the mother of the bride. The bridegroom's mother selected gold princess-style dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The parlors of the church were the scene of the reception for 150 guests. The four-tier cake, iced in mint green and adorned with a small bride and bridegroom was the centerpiece for the table. The green satin cloth was topped with white tulle. Nosegays of yellow mums with green ribbon ties marked the corners and were caught in folds of the skirt. Yellow tapers in five-branch ceramic bride and bridegroom holders flanked the cake and the rose-shaped mints also were in yellow and green. Huckleberry in which nestled yellow mums wreathed the cake and punch bowl. Assistants in serving were Mrs. Thomas Pratt, Mrs. Mark Garrison, Mrs. Ronald Rich, Mrs. Richard McCain and Miss Dolly Wiza.

After a few days stay in Chicago, the couple will be at home in Mt. Clemens, Michigan when the couple left for their honeymoon, the bride was wearing a navy-blue linen suit. pink accessories and an orchid corsage. The new Mrs. Thompson was graduated from Northwestern High School in 1953 and has been bookkeeper for Dean Motors Inc. Mr. Thompson is serving with the Air Force at Selfridge AFB, Mt. Clemens. He was graduated from Mackenzie High School, Detroit, in 1949. Marriage Notes for Marlene Catt and William Pruet:

Baskets of white delphinium and palms interspersed with four seven-branch candelabra formed an appropriate background for the wedding of Miss Marlene Joan Catt and William Lowell Pruet which was solemnized in the New Salem Methodist church Sunday afternoon June 17, 1951 at 3:30 o'clock. The Rev. R.E. Badger, district superintendent, used the double ring ceremony in confirming the vows. The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Catt of Andersonville and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Pruet of near New Salem are the parents of the bridegroom.

Miss Wilma Jo Schroeder, pianist, played "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life" and "At Dawning" to open the bridal music. Gene Clarkson of Arlington sang "Oh Promise" and "I Love You" accompanied by Miss Schroeder who used the traditional wedding marches for the entrance and recessional. At the close of the service, Mr. Clarkson sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white Chantilly lace and marquissette. The fitted lace bodice was accented by a small collar and long sleeves ending in bridal points over the hands and the bouffant marquissette skirt fell into a cathedral train. Her two-tier fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a lace half-hat adorned with seed pearls and pleated illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with a yellow throated white orchid arranged with ribbons and carnation tufts. She wore a double stand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

N=Mrs. Mary Ann Favors of Knightstown, a child classmate of the bride, wore a gown of yellow marquissette over taffeta with matching headdress and mitts. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white rose buds. Misses Ruth Stevens of Orange and Charlotte Richardson of Glenwood, senior classmates of the bride, were bridesmaids in gowns of Nile green organdie with embroidered flower motifs over taffeta. They carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations. The flower girl, Judith Kay Frazier of Greensburg, was dressed in yellow marquissette over taffeta. She carried a basket of flower petals. Stanley Allen Murphy of Greensburg, as ring bearer, wore a navy suit and carried a white satin pillow with the rings in a lily. Both were cousins of the bride.

William Switzer of New Salem was best man and ushers were Don Meyers, Darrell Brooks and Dale Kinder, classmates of the bridegroom in 1950. For the daughter's wedding, Mrs. Catt wore navy marquissette over taffeta with accessories of navy and white and a red rose bud corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a printed sheer dress, white accessories and a corsage of red rose buds.

Following congratulations at the church, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Pruet, grandparents of the bridegroom. A three-tier wedding cake, tapers, white carnations and greenery adorned the serving table. Miss Sharon Davison, Miss Bertie Lou Bush, Mrs. Robert Long, Mrs. Dwight Griner and Mrs. Duane Wilson assisted. Guests were present from Greensburg, Knightstown, Anderson, Indianapolis, Brookville, Connersville, Metamora, Andersonville, and Rush County. The couple left on a wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains, the bride traveling in a white suit, orchid accessories and the orchid from her Bible. They will reside in their newly furnished home on Rural Route 1, Glenwood.

Marriage Notes for Janet Williams and James Crider:

A wedding of interest to local residents took place Friday evening Sept. 1951 in the South Side Church of the Nazarene, Indianapolis where Miss Janet Williams became the bride of Private James W. Crider. Parents of the bride, Rev. and Mrs. L.S. Williams, reside on Randall Street, Indianapolis, where the Rev. Mr. Williams is pastor of the Edgewood Church of the Nazarene. Formerly he was the pastor of the West Side church of the Nazarene here. The bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Marcellus Crider of Evansville. The Rev. Mr. Crider is pastor of the Nazarene at Evansville.

Fathers of the bridal couple officiated at the marriage rites in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. Background for the candelabra, holding tall white lighted tapers, were potted palms and ferns. Bouquets of white gladioli were arranged at the altar for the pretty candlelight wedding. Marking the family pews were bows of white satin ribbons. Nuptial music was presented before and during the ceremony by Miss Ruth Gates of Evansville, organist, and James Smith of Clarksville, Mississippi, vocalist. Their program included a number of traditional bridal selections and the processional and recessional marches.

Miss Ruth Harter of Richmond attended the bride as maid of honor. Her sister, Miss Sara Williams was bridesmaid. Private Cecil Hollis of Indianapolis, who is stationed at Fort Custer, Michigan, served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Robert Stout of Richmond and James Hayden of Evansville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and Chantilly lace. Insets of lace from the neckline to the hemline, accented Princess lines of the gown. Tiny covered buttons fastened the front of the bodice and the long-tapered sleeves. The skirt fell in a cathedral length train. Holding a lace-edged fingertip tiered illusion veil in place as a crown of seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a wrist watch, the bridegroom's gift. She carried a cascade arrangement of white pompons and gladioli with white satin ribbons.

Miss Harter was gowned in a floor length yellow satin dress. A sheer net yoke accented the high neckline and the sleeves were bracelet length. She wore a bandeau of yellow satin with a shoulder length yellow net veil. Miss William's gown, similarly styled, was in pale blue. She wore a blue headband with a shoulder length veil. Each carried a cascade bouquet of yellow pompons.

Eighty guests were entertained at a reception in the central Youngs Women's Christian association immediately after the wedding. A miniature bridal couple, with the bridegroom in military uniform, ornamented the two-tiered wedding cake. The couple plans a live at Augusta, Georgia, where the bridegroom is stationed at Camp Gordon with the U.S. Army. For travel the bride wore a blue crepe dress with black velvet accessories.

Mrs. Crider graduated from Richmond high school in 1949. While she lived here she was a dental assistant for Dr. E. A. Wysong. The bridegroom is a graduate of Trevecca Nazarene college high school at Nashville Tennessee.

Notes for Flora J. Abetya:

Flora A. Ault, a lifelong resident of San Pedro, passed away on September 14, 2017 from complications of peripheral vascular disease. A homemaker most of her married life, she was thrust back into the workforce to run her deceased husband's business after his untimely death on September 7, 1992. For the next six years along with her two children, they ran John's Service Station in Ranchitos. She took to her responsibility with enthusiasm and dedication. Her strength and determination were never more apparent than when she was diagnosed with Stage 3 cancer in 2008. Though told she had a 1 in 3 chance of surviving the treatment, much less the cancer, she bravely persevered and until her passing remained in remission. For the last few months due to progressively ill health, she was making frequent trips to the ER. She would make her last visit on August 14th, this time never to return home. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her for her friendliness to everyone she met, sense of humor and loyalty to family and friends. Though not one to visit, she kept in touch with regular phone calls. Flora was preceded in death by her husband, Grover "John" Ault, parents, Santiago & Maria G. Abeyta of San Pedro and brother, Ramon Abeyta of Taos.

She is survived by her daughter, Anna and husband Walter Montoya of Fairview, their son, Jonathan and wife Jamie, and their sons, Jeremy & Jacob Montoya of Dallas, Texas, son Kenny Ault of Ranchitos and his Son, Ryan Ault of Albuquerque. Her eldest brother Arensio Abeyta of Yacaipa, California, sisters Vera Jones of Lakewood, California & Susie Perea of La Cienga, New Mexico, her dear nephew Leonard Abeyta of Espanola who was raised by her parents, and many other relatives and close friends.

A rosary followed by a funeral mass was held on Tuesday, September 19th at 12 noon. She was laid to rest on Wednesday, September 27th at 11:15 am at the National Cemetery in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The family would like to thank the pallbearers, Kenny & Ryan Ault, Walter & Jonathan Montoya, Angelo Moya and Richard Martinez. A special thank you to Margie Montoya and Leo Gallegos for praying the rosary, Fr. John Plans for his officiating at the mass, acolyte Gene Montoya, musician Melissa Salazar-Porter, and eulogist Walter Montoya for their participation in the funeral mass. We would also like to thank DeVargas Funeral Home, especially Stephanie Martinez for her expertise and cooperation toward fulfilling our requests, Espanola Valley Nursing & Rehab and Ambercare for making our mother's last days comfortable, and caring for her and our family. We will also be forever grateful to all of you that cared about her and supported us in this most sorrowful time. May God bless all of you abundantly in return. The family of Flora A. Ault has entrusted the care of their loved one to the DeVargas Funeral Home & Crematory of the Española Valley.

Mary Jean¹⁴ Woodard (Frankie Lenora¹³ Lemmon, Sophia Elizabeth¹² Prestridge, Malissia Haseltine¹¹ Reeves, Laura Susanna¹⁰ Catt, John James (Boss)⁹, George W.⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 20 Jan 1927 in Ringgold, Bienville Parish, Louisiana, and died 24 Aug 2014. She married John Dewey Gregory, Jr. 31 May 1947 in Louisiana. He was born 13 Oct 1922 in Wallace, DeSoto Parish, Louisiana, and died 04 Sep 1988 in Pleasant Hill, Sabine Parish, Louisiana.

Notes for Mary Jean Woodard:

Mary Jean Woodard Gregory (Mary) was born January 20, 1927 in Ringgold Louisiana to the late Frankie and Arthur Woodard and was eldest sibling of Margie Kunce, the late Elsie Downs, and Zach Woodard. Mary married J.D. Gregory Jr. in May 1947, shortly after graduating from Northwestern State University. Both teachers, they lived and taught in Noble, Louisiana, then in Negreet, Louisiana, and in 1964 moved to Pleasant Hill, Louisiana when J.D. became principal. Both continued their education, receiving Masters +30. They were devoted and loving parents to their daughters Jean and Susan, providing a loving Christian home and a life rich in travel, encouragement, and adventure. Mary retired in 1980. J.D. passed to eternity in 1988.

Mary Gregory was born with a heart for people and was a treasured friend and light of Christ for all who knew her. She loved the people of Pleasant Hill (her home for 50 years) and the people of Sabine Parish. She loved being a Louisiana native. She loved the color purple! She loved to learn. She loved organizing, planning, record keeping leading, and keeping her calendar! She quietly served her church, her community, her family, her friends, and her God all the days of her earthly life. She was a lover of birds and nature and was an advocate for the preservation of the environment. She traveled all over the world with her friends and family, visiting every state in the U.S. and many foreign countries. She told her daughters a short time ago, "I have done everything I've wanted to do and seen all I've wanted to see in my life, and some things I've done two or three times". She served many organizations in Sabine parish including Library board, Delta Kappa Gamma, Council on Aging, and Family & Community Educators (for 50 years) -- to name a few. Quilting was her passion and weekly enjoyed her friends at the Tuesday "Busy Hands" group at First Baptist church and on Friday's enjoyed the Toledo quilters group. She was surprised and honored to be inducted into the Sabine Parish Hall of Fame, in April 2013. Accepting the award with the words, "I give all credit to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and I'm thankful for all that he has let me be a part of."

Mary enjoyed her daughters and their spouses, 16 grandchildren (including spouses), and 10 great-grandchildren. Always interested in their life and activities, she remembered every birthday with a card and made each a quilt. She loved and valued her nieces, nephews, her siblings and her sisters and brother-in-laws.

Mary never complained and never wanted to burden anyone. Even on her difficult days she would find something positive to say. She considered herself receiving three miracles. Brain surgery at age 70 for two tumors only slowed her down for a few weeks. Breast cancer at age 80 was a brief pause in her journey - driving herself to chemo and never getting sick. When diagnosed with metastasized cancer in October 2013 in her bones and liver she had no pain. She kept up her calendar and lived her life fully with her friends and family until only a few days before she went to her Lord. Mary passed peacefully at home with her daughters, Jean and Susan, friend Nell, brother Zach, niece Judy, and sister-in-law Mary Nell by her bedside.

Mary was a daughter, a sister, a wife, a mother, a grandmother, a friend, a life-long student and life-long teacher. A faithful servant of God! She will be missed! Her memory and legacy treasured for seasons to come. The family will receive visitors at First Baptist Church Pleasant Hill on Tuesday August 26, 2014 from 5:00-7:00 p.m. and the church will remain open for visitation throughout the night. The celebration and remembrance of Mary's life will be at First Baptist Church Pleasant Hill at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday August 27, 2014. Pallbearers are Dustin Tatem, Bob Tatem, Ron Hathorne, Jimmy Downs, Jimmy Jenkins, and Blake Gregory.

Several of his horses won Top Ten in the AQHA World Championship Quarter Horse Show in Oklahoma. Elwin was a family man and loved his wife, children and grandchildren very much. His favorite recreational activity was RVing. Throughout the years, he took his family across the US and Canada on trips of a lifetime. During retirement, he and Pat enjoyed many trips to Victoria, Texas. There is no other love like the love of a brother. 6015. Sandra¹⁴ Etheridge (James Albert¹³, Syrenus Garrett¹², Martha Ann¹¹ Reeves, Laura Susanna¹⁰ Catt, John James (Boss)⁹, George W.⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 17 May 1941 in Mississippi, and died 17 May 2023. She married Michael Joseph Couvillon 1961. He was born 30 Dec 1940, and died 13 May 2025 in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida.

Notes for Sandra Etheridge:

Sandra Couvillon's chicken salad was absolutely amazing. It was SO good that, for a time in the early 1990s, people paid money to experience the pleasure of eating it. She took great pride in her work and made every batch with love. Like her chicken salad, Sandra was something special. Sandra was born in 1941 in Amite County, Mississippi, the sixth of nine kids. After graduating high school a year early at age 17, she moved to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where she met her husband, best friend, and sparring partner for the next 62 years, Mike Couvillon. The couple married in 1961 and by the mid-1960s had grown their family to include three rowdy little boys - Tony, Al, and Marty. After Mike finished his pilot training and began his Air Force career, the young family moved to several different air bases in various states. With each move, Sandra eased the transition for her husband and kids by joining the local Officer's Wives Clubs, volunteering at each new school, and joining clubs and bowling leagues - all of which ensured the family had a supportive group of friends around them wherever they were - and no matter where they were, it was home as long as Sandra was there.

Her sharp wit, sassy sense of humor, penchant for storytelling, and ability to easily make people laugh kept her welcome at parties. She and Mike greatly enjoyed going to social functions ... and if the collection of fancy gowns in her closet was any indication, they went to a lot! The family moved to Japan in 1975, and to everyone's delight, the family grew by one more - their daughter, Eve. After a few years, the Couvillons moved to their final home in Fort Walton Beach, Florida. Sandra worked as a bookkeeper for several years, and from 1990 to 1996 the family owned a small ice cream shop called Icehus (selling the aforementioned fantastic chicken salad).

Due to the shop's location close to the local air base, many young airmen and women came in the store and found a kind friend in Sandra. Perhaps it was their first time away from home, or that they missed their own mothers, but Sandra was always happy to listen, provide support, comfort, and make them laugh whenever they needed it. Most called her 'Mom' and she was always excited to see one of her 'adopted kids'. She made time to give them her full attention, no matter how much work in the shop still needed to be done. Sandra retired in 1996. She preferred spending most of her time with her grandbabies and great-grandbabies. She enjoyed going to the beach, working in her garden, cooking for anyone and everyone, and Mom-ing all who needed it. She was a ferocious mama bear when she needed to be, and a loving listener always. She loved her kids (related and unrelated) unconditionally and with her whole heart. And without fail, she was ALWAYS happy to put plates of her spaghetti and meatballs in front of them, with an attentive 'so tell me everything'.

These last few years have been rough, following a lung cancer diagnosis in 2016. She and Mike spent more and more time in doctor's offices and at chemo and radiation treatments. Despite what she was going through, she still eagerly looked forward to visiting with her family, neighbors, bible study group, and friends, until she was no longer able to do so.

On her 82nd birthday, Sandra peacefully returned home to Heaven, no doubt to a rather large welcoming party of all her loved ones and friends who passed before her. We feel confident she's catching up with everyone over a pitcher of margaritas and nachos and laughing her loud, glorious laugh for all of Heaven to enjoy. We will miss her tremendously, but we know her love and support will be with us in everything we do. Please join us in celebrating Sandra's life Tuesday, March 23rd at 2 pm, at Emerald Coast Funeral Home in Fort Walton Beach. Brightly-colored, festive attire is encouraged (especially pink). The rosary will be said at 12:30 pm. Viewing from 1-2 pm. Interment will follow at Beal Memorial Cemetery and refreshments at the Parish Life Center at St. Mary Church. In lieu of flowers, donations to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital would definitely get you a high-five from Mom.

Notes for Michael Joseph Couvillon:

Mike Couvillon never met a stranger. He had a big voice, a quick wit, and never told a short story in his life. But he knew how to get a laugh, and by the end of the conversation, you felt like you'd known him forever. He made fast friends with anyone who appreciated a strong opinion, a tall tale, and a drink poured just right. He was born in Marksville, Louisiana in 1940. The youngest of three, he was raised in a loving home with his older brother and sister by an attorney and a nurse. His early years were shaped by family traditions, small-town rhythms, and Catholic school—an upbringing that helped form the kind of character that creates lifelong friends, many of whom he stayed close to until the very end. In their tight-knit Cajun community, he developed strong roots; he was faith-filled, family-centered, and deeply proud of where he came from.

Mike attended LSU in Baton Rouge, where he met his wife, best friend, and sparring partner for the next 62 years, Sandra Etheridge. After graduating in 1963 with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering, he was commissioned through the AFROTC program and attended pilot training in Chandler, Arizona—the first step in realizing his lifelong dream of becoming a pilot. He began his Air Force career in 1964.

And what a career it was—spanning over two decades, multiple continents, multiple aircraft types, and nearly 6,000 flying hours (over 5,000 of which were in the C-130). He first flew into Vietnam in 1965 and served extensively in the combat zone as a C-130E Instructor Pilot in 1967–68, logging nearly 600 combat hours. He then returned to the States to train new C-130 pilots—teaching them not just how to fly, but how to survive in Vietnam. In 1979, he earned the Command Pilot rating and co-piloted a record-setting 29.7-hour endurance flight from Hurlburt Field, Florida, to Andersen AFB, Guam—leading a two-ship formation with four in-flight refuelings as part of a prelude to the Iran hostage rescue attempt. But of all the missions he flew, he was most proud of his role in Operation Urgent Fury, the 1983 campaign over the Caribbean island of Grenada to rescue at-risk U.S. medical students. He would later chronicle the AC-130H Spectre Gunship's involvement in his 2010 book, Grenada Grinder. At the time of the operation, he was serving as the senior Instructor Pilot in the 16th Special Operations Squadron, 1st Special Operations Wing, based at Hurlburt Field. When he retired from the Air Force in 1984, his service had been recognized with the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with seven Oak Leaf Clusters, and numerous other citations and honors.

More importantly, in addition to his accomplishments in the cockpit, Mike and Sandra raised four children together—Tony, Al, Marty, and Eve. Military life meant the family moved often, but Mike was never one to shy away from adventure or the challenges that came with constant change. As a father, he was deliberate, direct, and committed to raising strong, capable adults who were ready to adapt, solve problems, and move forward with confidence. His advice was frequent, his expectations high, and his presence steady. He approached parenting with the same focus and intensity he brought to everything else in his life—striving to provide firm direction and leadership his family could count on. After retiring from active duty, Mike worked for 17 years as a mechanical engineer at the Air Force Research Laboratory (AFRL), continuing to support military innovation from the ground side of things. He was a charter member of Flight 61 of the Order of Daedalians, the national fraternity of military pilots, and remained deeply connected to the flying community even after hanging up his flight suit. In retirement, he happily resumed flying left-handed traffic patterns—though now the cockpit was his riding lawn mower and the mission was to reclaim the yard from unruly patches of grass.

Above all else, Mike loved his family. His devotion to Sandra, their children, and later their grandchildren, was the foundation of everything he did. He showed that love through time spent together—especially around the dinner table, which he insisted was never too small to seat everyone, no matter how crowded it got. He passed on the traditions he'd valued since childhood, making sure his family knew not just where they came from, but how to carry it forward. His sharp wit—equal parts sassy, playful, and unapologetically opinionated—stayed with him to the very end. He peacefully returned home to heaven almost exactly two years after Sandra, no doubt finding her, his parents, his sister, and other friends already gathered at the table, beheading boiled crawfish and washing them down with cold cocktails. Although we will miss him dearly, we are comforted by the thought that he's still up there, just flying at a higher altitude. Safe and clear all guns, Major - return to base.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday, May 20, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Emerald Coast Funeral Home. A Funeral Mass will follow on Wednesday, May 21, at 11:00 a.m. at Saint Mary Parish, with interment at Beal Memorial Cemetery and a reception immediately afterward at the Saint Mary Family Life Center. He will receive full military honors at the cemetery. In lieu of flowers, Mike requested donations be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Michael Joseph Couvillon, age 84, of Fort Walton Beach, Florida, passed away Tuesday, May 13, 2025. A Funeral Mass will be held Wednesday, May 21, 2025, at 11:00 AM at St. Mary Catholic Church with Monsignor Doug Halsema officiating. Interment will follow at Beal Memorial Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Tuesday, May 20, 2025, from 5:00 PM until 7:00 PM. A complete obituary will follow. 6109. Rev. Dr. Michael Cameron¹⁴ Catt (Grover Hickman¹³, Ernest Vaiden¹², James Lafayette¹¹, John James¹⁰, John James (Boss)⁹, George W.⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 25 Dec 1952 in Pascagoula, Jackson Co, Mississippi, and died 12 Jun 2023. He married Terrell (Terri) Payne 10 Aug 1974. She was born 31 Jul 1955.

Notes for Rev. Dr. Michael Cameron Catt:

Michael Cameron Catt saw his Savior face to face on Monday, June 12, 2023, after a 5-year battle with prostate cancer. He was surrounded by his family who are grieving, but are not grieving without hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13). Born in Pascagoula, Mississippi on Christmas Day 1952, he was adopted by Grover & Winnie Catt. Growing up, he worked in his father's drug store, Catt Pharmacy, and was actively involved at Calvary Baptist Church. At the age of 18, at the height of the Jesus Movement, he realized his need for a personal Savior and surrendered his life to Christ at a revival service. Soon after he was called by God to full-time ministry alongside his then-girlfriend and love of his life Terri Payne. Michael always considered Terri his better half and equal partner. It was clear from their first date that they were always going to choose each other. On August 10, 1974, Terri and Michael were married in Moss Point, Mississippi at the First Baptist Church, and she has been by his side ever since. After graduating with a degree in biblical studies from Mississippi College in 1975, he attended Midwestern Seminary and received his Master of Divinity at Luther Rice Seminary and Doctor of Ministry at Trinity Theological Seminary.

Michael was the proud resident of a "girls dorm," as he and Terri have two accomplished and independent daughters whose lives are a reflection of his own passions for movies and ministry. Their eldest daughter Erin Bethea works in the film industry as an actor, producer and owner of an acting studio, and is married to Drew Waters. Their youngest daughter Hayley Catt is an adoptive mom and serves in ministry as a social media manager. He will be missed by all of his girls, including his three newest "dorm mates" granddaughters Preslee and Ella Waters and Paisley Catt whom he loved dearly. After 15 years of serving in student ministry at churches in Oklahoma, South Carolina, Georgia and Texas, Michael became the Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church Ada, Oklahoma. From there, he was called to be the Senior Pastor at Sherwood Baptist Church in Albany, Georgia.

Michael served as pastor of Sherwood from 1989 through 2021, when he retired to Gatlinburg, Tennessee. In his over 31 years at Sherwood, the church grew into a multi-generational congregation with members from more than 20 nations. Michael led the church to establish numerous Crisis Pregnancy Centers, launched a Biblical Counseling Center, built a 100-acre Legacy Sports Park, and repurposed an old Coca-Cola bottling plant into a ministry center for the underserved of Albany. Michael had a heart for pastors and spent his life believing God for revival, which led him to establish the ReFRESH conference in 2003. Held annually at Sherwood and in various locations across the nation — from Pennsylvania to Alaska — these conferences not only brought Michael great joy but also formed a brotherhood of pastors and leaders who sought God's face together.

Referred to by Christian filmmakers as "The Godfather of Christian Film," Michael helped shape the future of faith-based media with one simple question. "Why not?" opened the door for the creation of Sherwood Pictures, where he served as Executive Producer on "Flywheel" (2003), "Facing the Giants" (2006), "Fireproof" (2008), and "Courageous" (2011). He was also Executive Producer of "Woodlawn" (2015) a film about football and the Jesus Movement, two of his favorite topics. Recognizing the history and residual effects of painful race relations in Albany, Michael led Sherwood to partner with Mount Zion Baptist Church and Pastor Daniel Simmons, to reach their city together with the gospel. Through their efforts, Michael was a recipient of the Martin Luther King Award, the MLK Unity Award, and a Georgia Senate resolution in recognition of his work in racial reconciliation.

Because he longed to change the world from Albany, Georgia, Michael's impact extended far beyond the pulpit. He was the author of over a dozen books and Bible studies, led multiple trips to see Scripture come to life in the Holy Land, spoke at conferences and training centers, and held positions of leadership within the Southern Baptist Convention. Michael's legacy will live on and continue to inspire and impact generations to come, as he intentionally disciplined and mentored dozens of men and women in ministry, just as so many great men had done for him. He truly lived out his belief that "Whoever wants the next generation the most will get them."

Those who knew him best will remember him for his sense of humor and his love of golf, Pancake Pantry, Walt Disney, a great worship service, Andy Griffith, the mountains, funny socks, history, Truth concerts, Edd's chili cheeseburgers, a good quote, and oldies music. When he loved he loved deeply. When he gave he gave generously. And when he spoke he spoke boldly. He was a brother, friend, and second father to many. According to his dearest friends and intercessors, Michael was quick to laugh or cry, longing to encourage, driven to excellence, and a guardian of Truth. He was a visionary leader and a maverick who always challenged the status quo. Ultimately, he lived to make Him known. "For we do not preach ourselves but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your bond-servants for Jesus' sake." 2 Corinthians 4:5 The family welcomes donations to the International Mission Board and North American Mission Board as an expression of sympathy instead of flowers.

He married (2) Susan Jane Joseph 09 Sep 1967 in Los Angeles Co, California. She was born 15 May 1947 in Los Angeles Co, California.

Notes for John Stephen Strong:

John Strong's remarkable life was cut short by cancer at 66 years of age on January 21, 2013. He died at home with his wife of 45 years and a friend by his side. As in his life, his passing was marked by struggle and an unwillingness to simply give in to the sentence of death. He wanted even his dying to somehow bring life to others and he shared eloquently and effectively about how to live a victorious life right up to 2 days before leaving us for heaven. John was born in Jackson, Mississippi on June 23, 1946, the first of four children born to Adolph and Marcine Strong. He graduated from Huntington Beach High School, where he met his wife Susan, in 1964. John's earlier life was characterized by a focused application of his significant intelligence and energy towards accomplishing a boyhood dream of becoming an astronaut. That dream formed as he escaped from family difficulties by reading Science Fiction and he developed an abiding love of all things related to the cosmos.

He attended Oregon State University on a full Naval ROTC scholarship. After graduation from OSU in 1968 he was commissioned into the Marine Corps and attended flight school, receiving his wings as a Naval Aviator in 1969. He served on active duty for six years in the Marine Corps as a pilot, first of A-4's, then of KC 130's. He resigned from the Marine Corps as a Captain in 1974. During college John developed significant skill as a marksman, winning numerous shooting matches. That skill was also put to work in the Marine Corps where he shot for the Marine Corps rifle team, competing at such a high level that he was a contender for the 1968 Olympics, receiving a gold medal at the Olympic Trials in Texas. John's faith was put to the test during his service in Viet Nam and he found his heart turned toward wanting to help people find their way to God instead of wanting to go into space.

This resulted in a life course change and the earning of a Masters of Divinity degree from Fuller Theological Seminary in 1980. He served as an associate pastor at Peninsula Covenant Church in Redwood City California, as senior Pastor of Northwest Covenant Church in Mt. Prospect Illinois, and as senior pastor at Redwood Covenant Church in Santa Rosa, California. He labored with intensity to present Biblical truth in such a way that it became alive for the listener. His purpose was that it be heard, understood and then put into practice. During his tenure at Redwood Covenant from 1986-2008 the church experienced remarkable vitality, growing from approximately 100 people to over 1500 in regular attendance. His desire throughout those years was not that the church get big but that the people of God recognize they each had a necessary part to play for God's purposes to be accomplished. He was opposed to hierarchical structure and eventually was unable to function successfully in that model. John retired from organized religion in 2008 and spent the last four years promoting and participating in the emerging home church movement. John was an avid golfer and life long learner who was knowledgeable on an amazing array of subjects from woodworking to Biblical history to rockets. He deeply loved his Lord, his wife Susan and his family and friends.

He is survived by his children Jennifer Birkenes, Nathan Strong, and their wonderful spouses, Erik Birkenes and Jenna Strong, his six dear grandchildren, his three siblings, Alan Strong, Cathy Farrar, and Jim Strong, his mother Marcine Strong, and numerous nieces and nephews. He is greatly missed by them all and by the many he has encouraged in the faith through his years of care and acceptance for all people, especially those broken and hurting.

A Memorial Service in celebration of John's life will be held on Saturday, February 9, 2013, 3:00 p.m., at Redwood Covenant Church, 3175 Sebastopol Road, Santa Rosa. John's ashes will be interred at Santa Rosa Memorial Park in the Veteran's cemetery in a private ceremony, where he will be honored as a veteran in service of his country and of his God. In honor of John's care for those in need the family requests that any generosity expressed be given to Santa Rosa Memorial Hospice or to the Redwood Gospel Mission.

He married Sharon Lilly ? 01 Jun 1963.

Notes for Robert Earl Allen:

Robert Earl (Bob) Allen entered the arms of his heavenly father on November 23, 2014 at the age of 72. He leaves his loving wife, Sharon Lilly Allen to cherish the memories of fifty-one years of marriage. In addition, he leaves his three daughters, Renee Schober (Wil), Lisa Frabbiele (Joseph), and Robyn Foret (Rob). His prized possessions, his grandchildren, will never be able to forget the jokes, lessons, and fun they shared with their Pawpaw. The grandchildren for whom he begged his daughters to bless him are Jacob and Brandon Frabbiele, Jesse Allen, and Julia and Sophia Foret. Bob began his life journey in Magnolia, MS, but spent his early years in Harahan, LA. After moving back to Magnolia, he spent many years enjoying a true "country boy" life complete with milking cows and picking crops. After graduating from high school, he enrolled in the National Guard. This was soon followed by one of his proudest accomplishments-his four years of dedication to the United States Navy. Of course, anyone who has ever seen his service picture wonders how he met the weight requirement. Before his four years of service were completed, he went to a basketball game where he spotted the country girl who would make his life complete. Five months later, they were married and quickly living the life of a sailor in Milton, Florida. Country and military living quickly turned to life in the city when they moved to Jefferson Parish.

In addition to working for the railroad, Continental Can, Smirfitt Stone, and Laitram, his work as a deacon at Rio Vista Baptist Church showed his devotion to his faith. Fishing was what he especially was devoted to, so much so, that if you had a trip planned with him you would find him waiting in the boat for you. The best part of it to him was being able to enjoy a fried fish dinner with something sweet to end the meal. While he loved his three daughters and was the best father anyone could ask for, it was his grandchildren who made him shine in a way he never had. From playing in dirt, shooting, hunting, and riding four wheelers with the boys to having his hair styled and drinking tea with the girls, the grandchildren ruled. Bob will return to his country roots and be back home.

Visitation will be held on Friday, November 28, at Mt. Vernon Baptist Church in Gillsburg, Mississippi. from 11:00 until 1:00. A service led by his favorite pastor, Millard Caulder, will begin at 1:00 with burial at the Stewart Wall Cemetery.

She had the pleasure of becoming a nurse and helping others at a younger age, then as she began to grow her own little family, she took on retail and Management of her hometown store for many years. Then took on another major role in retail in Garden City whilst making many new lifelong friends.

Although she was such a hard worker, she was even more of an amazing mother, and extraordinary wife to her husband Larry. They were married October 11, 1987; just a few days after her birthday. Bettie had 4 wonderful biological children, and took in 3 more by marriage and even adopted 1 more, making her mother of 8, along with later becoming a most important role as a grandmother to even more to come. This woman was the most forgiving and loving woman, and always made sure that everyone was safe, fed, and rested before she would rest. All the way up to the day, she finally decided to rest for herself on August 5th, 2021. She will never be forgotten for she was so important in so many lives. Notes for Clarence (Slim) Selby, Jr.:

Clarence "Slim" Selby Jr., aged 93, a cherished father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and friend, passed away peacefully on December 30, 2023, in his hometown of Washington, Indiana—the very place where his story began on November 24, 1930. Slim, as he was affectionately known by all, lived a life rich in music, craftsmanship, and devotion to his loved ones. Slim graduated from Washington High School in 1948, after which he skillfully channeled his keen eye for detail into a fulfilling career in upholstery. Beyond his professional pursuits, Slim's heart belonged to the rhythms of music. His hands, adept at restoring antiques to their former glory, also strummed the guitar with passion in a band, sharing melodies that are now fond memories.

He was a steadfast member of the Central Christian Church, where his faith and fellowship were as integral to him as his love for his family. Slim leaves behind a legacy of love and melody, survived by his son, Scott Lane Selby (Alice); daughter, Diana Marie Brewster; his cherished six grandchildren; and 6 precious great-grandchildren. Preceding him in death are his companion, Mary Alford; his parents, Clarence Selby Sr. and Verna Viola Jones-Selby-Dillin and stepfather Benjamin Dillin; and a son-in-law, Kenneth Brewster.

Slim's life was a tuneful journey that touched many, and he will be profoundly missed and lovingly remembered by those who knew him. There will be a visitation on Saturday, January 6, 2024 from 11:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M. at Fredrick and Son-Gill Funeral Home with dismissal following. Fredrick and Son-Gill Funeral Home is honored to be entrusted with Mr. Selby's arrangements. In lieu of flowers please make memorial contributions to Central Christian Church, 10 W. The flower girl dropped rose petals taken from bouquets given the bride from the bridegroom throughout their courtship.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Jeff Ethridge of Cadiz, to be his best man. Groomsmen were Jerry Clayton Ethridge, the bridegroom's brother, and a friend of the couple, Daren "Bubba" Grant, both of Cadiz. Dustin Turner of Cadiz, cousin of the bridegroom, was the junior groomsman. Ushers were the bride's cousins, Jeff and Andy Catt, both of Imperial, Missouri, and David Stallons of Herndon, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Jamus McAtee, cousin of the bridegroom and son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McAtee and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cherry, all of Cadiz, was the ring bearer. The ring bearer's pillow was an Ethridge family heirloom.

Rice bags and favors were distributed by Lauren Fowler, cousin of the bridegroom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Fowler of Cadiz; Stephanie McAtee, cousin of the bridegroom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McAtee and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cherry, and Afton Thomas of Cadiz, a friend of the couple and son of Mr. and Mrs. Greg Thomas. Favors were lace angel Christmas tree ornaments made by the bride's mother. The walkway to the church was lit with luminary bags, and the church foyer was decorated with a nine-foot Christmas tree, covered with hundreds of tiny white lights and gold pine cones, a theme which was repeated at the altar with three more Christmas trees. The guest registry was placed on a lace-covered table, decorated with candles and the engagement picture of the couple. A wicker sleigh held the wedding programs. The family pews were marked with brass hurricane lamp stands which were accented with white bows. Lighted swags of greenery detailed with gold pine cones were placed in the church windows. Red and white poinsettias were positioned in the snow scene beneath the trees at the altar. The six white poinsettias were placed in loving memory of the bride and bridegroom's grandparents. The unity candle, which was created by the bride, was covered with white lace and decorated with satin ribbon and tiny white roses creating a frame for the couple's wedding invitation.

The bride's parents served as hosts of a reception in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony. The bride's table was decorated with a white linen skirt and a white lace overlay. The triple-tiered wedding cake was decorated with red and gold poinsettias and featured a cascading fountain with small floating poinsettias. On each side of the cake was two smaller complimenting cakes featuring the same design. The cake knife was used at the wedding of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Catt, 25 years ago. Assisting at the reception were friends of the bride, Angie Johnson, Tonya Bush Allen, Tara Oakley Rogers and Sara Alexander Ladd, all of Cadiz. Angie Johnson and Tonya Bush Allen, both of Cadiz, kept the guest register.

Prenuptial celebrations included a personal shower given by Becky Stallons, Lynn Ethridge and Donna Ethridge at the Stallons' home in Herndon. The Wallonia Baptist Church held a White Bible Ceremony and household shower in the church fellowship hall. A surprise shower was given by the bride's sophomore and senior English classes at Lyon County High School. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Ethridge, hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Cadiz Restaurant. Mr. and Mrs. James Catt, hosted a brunch the day of the wedding at the Kentucky Smokehouse Restaurant. The bride will receive a teaching certification from Murray State University in December. The groom is the plant manager of Ethridge Plastics Inc. in Cadiz. Wheatley has held several ministries in the Illinois-Indiana area, including churches in Greensburg, Indiana, Arcola and Toledo, Illinois. He ministered for four years in Petersburg, Indiana, prior to his move to Mt. Carmel with his wife, Mercedese, and three children, Yvonne, 14, Lisa, 11, and Nathan, age 2-1/2.

He majored in history and psychology and was graduated from EIU in 1973. Although psychology has been helpful in counseling, he said that preaching receives major emphasis in his ministry. The new Mt. Carmel minister said he is a "gardening nut" and finds the bobby helps him release tension and pressures. 6701. Carl Leon¹⁴ Catt (Carl Leroy¹³, William Alvin¹², John Smith¹¹, Albert C.¹⁰, Phillip⁹, Phillip (Scratch)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 30 Jul 1949 in Ft. Wayne, Allen Co, Indiana, and died 26 Dec 2022 in Hamilton, Ravalli Co, Montana. He married Katherine Roberta Cline 09 Aug 1970 in Idaho Springs, Jefferson Co, Colorado. She was born 15 Jan 1954, and died 23 Jul 2015 in Hamilton, Ravalli Co, Montana.

Notes for Carl Leon Catt:

Carl Leon Catt left this earthly plain to start another journey on December 26, 2022, at his home with his daughter Rebecca, son-in-law Neil and grandson Kaiden. He was born July 30, 1949, in Fort Wayne, Indiana to Carl and Ruth Catt. There are not enough words in this world to describe what an amazing man he was. He lived a great life and had some great stories to tell. He was a veteran, serving in the Army, and fought in the Vietnam War from 1967-1969. He married only once, to Kathy Cline. They had three children together: James Catt, Rebecca Sampson, and Michael Catt. He was an amazing mechanic, he loved working on cars and especially loved vintage automobiles. He could tell you what year and model every car was just by looking at them. Going to car shows was something that he really enjoyed doing, and he even owned a few older cars in his days. He was a trucker for a few years of his life and loved the open road. He finally settled down in Arizona to take care of his mother Ruth until her passing.

After his mother's death, he moved to Montana with his daughter Rebecca, where he settled in and began his amazing writing career. He wrote under the pen name R. L. McCallum. Since he always had a way with words, and loved a good ghost story, it was no surprise that writing gothic fiction was a great fit for him. He also wrote some wonderful poetry. Up till his death, he had written and published over 24 titles. Carl loved his coffee, donuts, watching his train videos online and he never turned down an adventure.

He is survived by his brother Kenny Catt, daughter Rebecca Sampson, sons James Catt, Michael Catt and grandson Kaiden Sampson. He is preceded in death by his mother Ruth Catt, father Carl Catt, ex-wife Katherine Cline, sister Dorothy Park, brother David Catt and grandson Lucas Sampson.

Service will be held on January 11th at 2pm at the Riverview Cemetery in Hamilton, Montana.

Notes for Regina Kaye Walton:

Regina "Kaye" Meier, 73, of Linton, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on Tuesday evening, February 17, 2026, at Ascension St. Vincent Hospital in Indianapolis. Born on May 19, 1952, in Linton to Douglas J. and Joanna "Ruth" (Kirkman) Walton, Kaye grew up with a bright spirit and a kind heart that would touch everyone she met. She was a proud graduate of Linton-Stockton High School's class of 1971. Just a few weeks after graduation, she married her high school sweetheart and the love of her life, Robert "Bob" Meier, on June 19, 1971 - beginning over five decades of partnership, laughter, and unconditional love.

Kaye spent much of her life serving her community through her work in food service - whether it was greeting customers with a smile at the Lyons Townhouse Restaurant, making biscuits that became a local favorite at Hardee's, or chatting warmly with friends and neighbors at Chuckles Gas Station. In her later years, Kaye found her true calling as a cook at Dugger Union Community School, where her caring nature earned her the affectionate title "Lunch Lady." She poured her heart into every meal, every hallway wave, and every child she met.

Outside of work, Kaye loved to crochet, cook for her family, and take spontaneous shopping trips. Her greatest joy, though, came from time spent with her grandchildren - silly stories, and quiet moments that will forever live in their hearts. She had a special friendship and connection with her twin brother, Danny, and enjoyed their short road trips together. She attended the Linton Assembly of God Church, where her faith and compassion shone brightly.

Notes for Jeffrey Alan Bilskie:

Jeffery Alan Bilskie was born on February 23, 1958 to Leonard and Marilyn (Carrie) Bilskie, in Vincennes, Indiana. On Sunday, July 13, 2014, Jeff passed away peacefully with his family by his side. Jeff lived a full life in his 56 years on this earth. He was a hairdresser for over thirty-five years, and his clients quickly became his friends. Jeff never met a stranger and immediately put people at ease; his charm was wide-reaching, and his kindness was felt by all who knew him. Jeff always listened to his clients with an open mind and a positive outlook. It was a joy to sit in his chair and spend time with a man who genuinely cared about his clients and their lives. Even his youngest clients enjoyed their time with him as he treated them with all the respect that any adult would receive. Kids knew that Jeff was genuine and they appreciated his gentle demeanor and loud, friendly laugh. Jeff had an artistic eye and found great joy in decorating his home and shop. He also loved to be outside, surrounded by plants and flowers. Jeff loved to travel, and one of his favorite activities was lounging on the beach in Ft. Myers, Florida - surrounded by sun, sand, surf, and a few margaritas. Family was important to Jeff, and he loved his immensely. He was a devoted son, and he truly loved his folks and brothers. He was close with his aunts and uncles, and he considered his nieces and nephews as his own. Jeff adored and loved the family of his life partner, as well, and was deeply loved by them in return. He spent thirty years of his life with his soul mate and partner, Donnie Harris, and together they enjoyed a thriving business and many memories with their families and friends. Jeff will be missed for his kind and generous spirit, and his ability to bring happiness to those who knew him. He brought a beauty to this world that can't be measured or replicated, and he taught those around him about true kindness, joy, and courage. He was a true gentleman, and he had the inherent ability to bring out the best in others.

Jeff leaves behind his parents, Leonard and Marilyn Bilskie; his partner, Donnie Harris; brothers, Jim (Tami) Bilskie of Bruceville, Indiana, Leonard (Barbara) Bilskie of Vincennes, and Larry Bilskie of Bruceville, Indiana; his aunts and uncles; and several nieces and nephews.

Friends may visit with the family from 4:00 - 8:00 on Wednesday, at Goodwin Funeral Home. A celebration of Jeff's life will be held on Thursday, at 11:00, at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Heart Association or the American Cancer Association.

Notes for Beverly Joyce Carrie:

Beverly Joyce Carrie Preusz, of Bridgeport, Illinois, passed away on Sunday, September 2, 2018, at Regional Hospital in Terre Haute, Indiana. Bev was born in Vincennes, Indiana, August 5, 1948, to James Edward Carrie and Jewell Elizabeth Tewalt Carrie. Bev spent many years as a CNA at Good Samaritan Hospital, and several more managing local bars/eateries in the Iliana area - The Railroad Inn in Vincennes, where she was famous for her tacos, and most recently in Russellville, IL, where she continued the taco tradition as well as fish dinners that brought in large crowds. She was known for her "tell it like is" personality and her unmatched work ethic. She took pride in all her jobs and nobody did them better. She truly enjoyed her customers that became friends and looked forward to seeing them. Crafting was a love of Bev's - especially crocheting, quilting, and most recently cross-stitching. Many family members have been lucky enough to receive one of her quilts, pillows, or afghans, and they will be treasured for years to come. Bev was also an avid reader of Stephen King and Dean Koontz and loved movies and television from the same genre. Anyone who knew Beverly, appreciates how fiercely she loved her family and her loyalty to them above all else. She was the daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend that everyone deserves to have, and her family is forever blessed and grateful for having had her for all those things.

Bev was preceded in death by her parents, Jim and Jewell, and her brothers Jimmy (infant), and Larry "Butch" Carrie, as well as her sister, Marilyn Bilskie, and nephews Jeffery Bilskie and Leonard Bilskie, Jr. She leaves behind her sons, Kurby Brand, and Robert Brand, both of Bridgeport, Illinois, and grandchildren Joshua Brand, of Ft. Branch, Indiana, and Mallory Brand of Vincennes. Her sister and best friend, Dottie Preusz, and her husband Steve reside in Vincennes. Her Godchildren, Stephen C. Preusz of Austin, TX, and Marlo Thorne of Vincennes, are among the many nieces, nephews, and greats that survive her. Bev will be forever loved and missed by those lucky enough to count her as family and friend.

A Celebration of Bev's life will be at Noon, Thursday, August 6, 2018 at Goodwin Funeral Home. Visitation will be from 10:00 am until Noon on Thursday. Goodwin Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Beverly Preusz.

Notes for Gerald James Preusz:

Gerald James "Jim" Preusz passed away peacefully in his sleep in the morning hours of May 30, 2012. An avid cook, he loved food and preparing and sharing it with others. Jim also loved to play golf and he enjoyed watching the Sunday Golf tournaments from the comfort of his couch almost as much as playing it. From that couch, he also enjoyed watching Westerns, as that was the ONLY channel ever on, besides the channel broadcasting the golf tournaments! From 1966 to 1969, Jim proudly served the country he loved so dear with two tours in Vietnam. He was awarded several medals - including the Purple Heart. He loved to talk about his time in Vietnam, and he loved the Vietnamese people and culture as well, and took pride in his ability to understand spoken Vietnamese. He wore his Vietnam Veteran hat with great pride, and on a recent trip to Washington D.C., accompanied by his dad, Gerald L. Preusz, Jim experienced handshakes, hugs, and photo-ops from fellow Americans who were so grateful for his service. That fact, mixed with his undying devotion to his country, was a moving experience for Jim that brought him to tears on many occasions. With his deep voice, Jim was also known for 'lovingly' harrasing his siblings and many, many nieces and nephews through the years with chases and tickles that always ended in a big heap of screams and laughter. "Uncle Jim, Jimmy, or Zimmy," will always be remembered by even his great nieces and nephews as the guy who would, "Catch you and eat your belly, with a deep 'Fee Fy Fo Fum...'" He was a big practical joker and loved to 'torture' his sisters with them on a regular basis. Jim will be remembered for the love in his heart, the love for his family, and the love for his country.

He will be sadly missed by his surviving family - his father and step-mother, Gerald L. Preusz and Sandra Banta Preusz; his brothers Stephen L. Preusz and his wife Dottie, Samuel J. Preusz and his wife Kathy; his sisters Sharon Preusz-Spahr, Debra Preusz Ashmore and her husband Randall Ashmore, Tina Preusz, and Vanessa Parrish. He is also survived by a daughter and three grandchildren, and many, MANY nieces and nephews as well as great-nieces and nephews who knew him and loved him. He is preceded in death by his mother, Rose Marie Yerkes.

Funeral services will be held at Noon Friday, June 1, 2012 at Goodwin Funeral Home with Rev. Rick Grant officiating. Burial will follow in the Memorial Park Cemetery. Friends may call from 10:00 a.m. until service time on Friday.
