The bride's gown was fashioned with a French lace bodice, a modified V-neckline, shirring at the waist and a full, heavy white satin skirt extending into a long train. Her full-length veil, that was edged in lace, fell from a diadem of lace and sequins. She carried white gardenias atop a white prayer book.

Miss Mary Ellen Bridges was in attendance as maid of honor. Her gown was of aqua organdy, styled with a peasant neckline, capped sleeves and a bustle. She wore a matching half-hat and mitts. Her flowers were yellow rosebuds. Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Schreiner, the bride's sister, Miss Anne Fuller and Miss Grace Wheatley. Their gowns of orchid organdy were made identical to that of the maid of honor. They had matching half-hats and mitts and carried white and fuchsia roses. Charles Schreiner, brother of the bride, served as best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stefan Wahl, 1013 Herberich Ave. Ushers were Don Oneacre, Calvin Moore and Sam Serves.
