Notes for Jacob Ulrich Singer:

Among the early settlers of Stewart County was John Singer and his wife, Temperance Singer, who were the first members of the Singer family to live in this county. John Singer was born in Rohr, Oberant Stuttgart, Germany, October 29, 1784. As a young man in Germany he served in the Prussian Army, fighting against Napoleon. When he came to Georgia, he lived in Bibb County where he owned farm land.

He was married to Temperance Carr Oct. 26, 1818, probably in Hancock County. She is said to have been half Indian. John Singer moved from Bibb County to this county about 1833. He bought land on the Pleasant Valley Road in the 23rd district of Stewart County. Four children:

1. John Singer.
2. William Singer, who married Mary A. Bell, Jan. 28, 1853.
3. Susan Singer, who married Charles A. Bell, Jan. 12, 1840.
4. Obedia Singer, who married Augustus Baldwin.

John Singer died in Lumpkin, Georgia, Aug. 17, 1855 and is buried in East Side Cemetery under a stone of native rock. After his death, his widow and sons moved to Butler, Alabama.

Some years later John Singer came to the United States, he was followed by two nephews, Johan George Singer and John Singer II, sons of John Singer (1786-1824) and Barbara Singer (1782-1859), natives of Stuttgart, Germany.

John II came first, coming to Lumpkin about 1836. In 1843 he returned to Germany and brought to Lumpkin with him his widowed mother and two sisters, Mary and Barbara Singer. These two sisters married and settled in Eufaula, Alabama. Mary Singer (1824-1906) was married to Jacob Ramser, a Swiss, Jan 1, 1846. Barbara Singer married John Hartung, a German, Oct. 12, 1858 in Stewart County, Georgia.

97. Johann Georg⁴ Singer (Johannes³, Maria Barbara² Zizmann, Jakob¹) was born 07 May 1814 in Rohr, Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, and died 17 Jan 1874 in Lumpkin, Stewart Co, Georgia. He married Louisa Messner 30 Sep 1838 in Baltimore, Baltimore Co, Maryland, daughter of Mathew Messner and Dorothy Bachmeyer. She was born 04 Jan 1816 in Baden, and died 27 May 1916 in Lumpkin, Stewart Co, Georgia.

Notes for Johann Georg Singer:

Brother J. G. Singer was born in Rohr, Kingdom of Wertemberg, Germany, May 7th, 1811, and died in Lumpkin, Georgia, Jan. 17, 1874. He emigrated to America in 1885, resided a short time in Baltimore, and then removed to Lumpkin, where he remained until the day of his death. He professed religion and joined the Methodist Church in 1889; and the same energy which made him so successful in business, made him a zealous and efficient member of the Church. He was reared in the Lutheran faith, but regarded the Methodist Church as an ample substitute for the Church of his fathers. He had a well stored mind, was a critical Bible reader, and a fine judge of preaching. He was remarkably fond of conversing upon the scriptures, and a zealous and able Sunday school worker. While in class-meeting, about one month before his death, he spoke of his own religious condition with deep emotion, saying, "My hope is in God - my trust is in Christ, - pray for me." His place in the house of God was filled by him, morning and evening, the last Sabbath he spent on earth. And as he talked to his family of the services or the day, he wept. Thus he passed away, leaving a large family and many friends to mourn their loss, but with the hope that it is his eternal gain.

The Singer Company, Georgia's oldest hardware store, was founded in 1838. Ownership has remained in the Singer family for 5 generations. Johan George Singer, who emigrated from Germany initially to Baltimore, Maryland, arrived in Lumpkin, Georgia in 1838 and established his shoe and boot making business. During the Civil War, the company provided boots for the Confederate Army. The first building was originally located just north of the Lumpkin Town Square. It was a two story wooden building with the shop on the ground floor and living quarters above. This building has been moved to Westville, Georgia where it has been restored and serves as an exhibition boot shop. Later the business was moved to the northwest corner of the town square and operated by one of Johan George's older sons, John G. Singer, who also operated a tanning yard at another location.

In 1894 the business was moved to its present location on the southeast corner of the Lumpkin

Town Square and operated by Johan George's youngest son, Fred Sam Singer and later Fred's sons, Jess and Julian. After their deaths, Julian's son Sam became president of the company.

Over time the business evolved from boot and shoe making to groceries and mercantile items and finally added hardware and farm supplies.

Notes for Louisa Messner:

Lumpkin, Georgia, Dec. 18, 1916 – Mrs. Louise Singer, of Lumpkin, will on January 4, 1916, claim the unusual and distinct privilege of celebrating her 100th birthday. Born in Germany in 1816, she came to America at the age of nine, where she was a resident of Baltimore, Maryland, until 1836. Coming from the place to Georgia, where she has since been a loved and useful citizen, rearing a family of eleven children, six of whom are Messrs. J.G. and F.S. Singer, Mrs. A.L. Raleigh, Misses Carrie and Alice Singer of Lumpkin, and Mrs. J. M. McNab, of Eufaula, Alabama. All we known citizens of this section.

She remembers a time when our country had no railroads and witnessed the running of the first railroad locomotive which was run between Baltimore and Washington, D.C. Healthy, bright and contented she enjoys life with the best of us. Miraculous would seem the progress that has come to pass. The unthought of accomplishments that she has lived to witness.

Notes for Anna Maria Singer:

Eufaula, July 23, 1906 - Mrs. Jacob Ramser, one of the oldest residents of the city, died at her home here Saturday, July 21, 1906, where she has continuously resided for the past half a century. She was over eighty years old. She was born in Europe and came to this country when she was quite young. Her husband, who preceded her a good many years ago was one of the most prominent and influential merchants of Eufaula. She was the mother of eight children – four daughters survive her and she has numerous grandchildren.

Notes for Jacob Ururs Ramser:

In the 80th Year of his Age This old Landmark of Eufaula's Growth Passes Peacefully Away - Mr. Jacob Ramser, one of Eufaula's oldest and most honored citizens, died at his residence on Barbour Street yesterday afternoon Sept. 14, 1892 at 1:30 o'clock. He was in the eightieth year of his age. He had been sick for about ten days from typhoid fever, and his condition became alarming on Tuesday. It was soon evident that from his age and the severity of the attack, he could not survive.

Mr. Ramser was a native of Switzerland and came to America in 1835. He located at Lumpkin, Georgia, married there, and resided there until 1852 when he moved to Eufaula where he has lived since then. He established a furniture and undertaking business here which he successfully conducted, amassing a comfortable fortune. Because of his age, he sold out his business to two of his sons, who have conducted it under the firm name of Jacob Ramer's Sons. Mr. T. J. Ramser is the only survivor of that firm. Mr. Ramser was a good citizen and highly esteemed by his fellow citizens. He was Mayor for a short while and was a member of the city council for many years. He also served as City Superintendent of Education.

He leaves a wife, two sons, Messrs. T.J. and M.L. Ramser, and six daughters, Mrs. Bowers and Mrs.

Trippe of Texas; Mrs. McNeil of Columbia; Mrs. Blair and Mrs. Crawford of Eufaula, and Mrs. Bell of Americus. Also surviving are two sisters, one in Switzerland and one in Indiana, and a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

His funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, corner of Barbour and Forsyth Streets.

Kimbrell v. Rogers. - Hill in Equity for Foreclosure of Mortgage.

1. Limitation of appeal.—When an appeal is claimed within the statutory period (Code, §3619), and security for the costs is lodged with the clerk or register, the right of appeal is perfected, without regard to the issue or service of a citation.

[Kimbrell v. Rogers.]

2. final decree.—Under a bill for the foreclosure of a mort is (toil gage, the existence of any indebtedness being denied, a decree which declares that the complainant is entitled to relief, and has a lien on the land for any balance that may be found due on a statement of the account by the register, which is ordered, is interlocutory only; and the decree which, on the coming in of the register's report ascertaining the balance due, confirms the report, and orders a sale of the land for the satisfaction of the indebtedness, is the final decree.

3. Assignments of error, on appeal from final decree.—On appeal from the final decree in a chancery cause, errors may be assigned on all previous interlocutory decrees, but not on orders or decrees subsequently rendered, such as awarding a writ of assistance, or confirming the register's report of sale.

4. Husband and wife as parties to bill.—Since the passage of the statute now in force, February 28th, 1887 (Code, §§2341-51), the husband is not a necessary party defendant to a bill which seeks to charge or subject property belonging to the wife's separate estate; but, when the bill seeks to foreclose a mortgage on lands, in which the wife joined with her husband, in the form required for her relinquishment of dower, she is properly joined as a defendant, in order to bar her rights.

5. Description of lands in mortgage.—A mortgage conveying "the following described tract or parcel of land, to wit, the property known as Kimbrell's grist and saw mill and gin, together with all the privileges and appurtenances belonging thereto, is sufficient to convey two acres of land, on which the mill and gin were situated, which had always been used in connection therewith, and shown to be necessary to the enjoyment thereof.

6. Adverse possession by widow, ax against heirs.—When a widow remains in possession of her husband's lands, her dower not having been assigned, holding in recognition of the title of the heirs, and claiming only as widow, she cannot assert a title by adverse possession against an alienee or grantee of the heirs.

7. Errors prejudicial to some of appellants only.—When the final decree in a chancery cause injuriously affects the rights or interests of some of the defendants only, but they all jointly appeal, and join in the assignment of errors, such errors are not available to work a reversal: the parties injured should assign errors separately as to those matters.

Appeal from the Chancery Court of Marengo.

Heard before the Hon. Tuos. W. Coleman.

The bill in this case was filed on the 26th March, 1887. by William I). Rogers against Roland Kimbrell and his wife, Mrs. Sallie Kimbrell; and against Edward B. Rentz, Riehani E. Rentz, and Mrs. Alice MetJehee, a married woman, who were the children of Mrs. Kimbrell by a former husband; and sought to foreclose a mortgage which said Kimbrell and wife had executed to the complainant. The mortgage was dated August 7th, 1883, and purported to secure an indebtedness of said Kimbrell and wife to Rogers, evidenced by several promissory notes, aggregating $700; and it was signed and re^u larly acknowledged by Kimbrell and his wife. The property conveyed by the mortgage was therein described as follows: "The following described tract or parcel of land, to wit: the [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] property known as Kimbrell's grist and saw mill and gin, together with all the privileges and appurtenances belonging thereto, situate, lying and being in the county of Marengo." The bill sought to condemn, as the property conveyed, two acres of land on which the mill and gin were erected, particularly describ^ed by metes and bounds, on the ground that they were "ordinarily used in connection therewith, and are necessary to its proper use."

The mill was built on a tract of land containing about 133 acres, which had belonged to Benjamin Rentz, who was the first husband of Mrs. Kimbrell, and who was killed at the battle of Chickamauga, in September, 1863; the other defendants being their children. At the time of the death of said Benjamin Rentz, his wife and infant children were living on the tract of land, and they continued afterwards to occupy it as a homestead; but there was no allotment of a homestead, nor any assignment of dower to the widow. In 18<>7 Mrs. Rentz married said Roland Kimbrell, and he built the mill and gin a year or two afterwards, occupying the land with his wife and her children. On the 12th April, 1880, the three children, E. B., R. E. and Alice Rentz, the latter being then a minor, conveyed their interest in the tract to said Roland Kimbrell, by deed duly acknowledged on the same day, which was in these words: "Know all men by these presents, that in consideration of the sum of $<><> to us in hand paid by R. Kimbrell, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, we do grant, bargain, sell and convey to said Roland Kimbrell, the following described real estate, containing 133 J acres," describing it; "to have and to hold to the said R. Kimbrell, his heirs and assigns forever. Witness our hands and seals," &c. During the year 1880 Kimbrell formed a partnership with W. D. Rogers, the complainant, in carrying on the business of the mill and gin; and on the dissolution of the partnership in August, 1883, the notes and mortgage were given to secure the balance ascertained to be due to complainant.

The defendants jointly demurred to the bill, on the grounds, (1) that Mrs. Kimbrell was improperly joined as a defendant, and (~2) that the husband of Mrs. Alice McGehee was a necessary party; but the chancellor overruled the demurrer, on each ground. Separate answers were filed by the defendants. Kimbrell and wife denied any indebtedness to Rogers at the time the notes and mortgages were executed, and assailed their validity on the ground of fraud and misrepresentation on the part of Rogers; and each denied that the mortgage was intended to convey any part of the land. Kimbrell asserted that he had no interest in the land, and intended only to con [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] vey the mill and appurtenances which he had erected; and Mrs. Kimbrell alleged that she refused to sign the mortgage until assured by the justice of the peace, before whom it was acknowledged, that it did not convey any land whatever; "that no land was mentioned on it;" and she also alleged that she had been in possession of the land, under claim of ownership, since September, 1803; and pleaded her coverture in defense against any personal liability on the notes. The other defendants, in their answers, each asserted their mother's possession of the land, and claim of ownership, from their earliest recollection; and as to their said conveyance to R. Kimbrell, dated April 12th, 1880, alleged that it was without consideration, and that it was procured at the instance of the complainant, who was then scheming to get the property; and Mrs. Alice McGehee alleged that she was a minor when she signed the instrument.

On hearing on pleadings and proof, the chancellor rendered a decree, January 18th, 1888, " that the complainant is entitled to relief, and has a lien upon the property described and conveyed by the mortgage, and is entitled to have said property sold to satisfy his said debt, or the balance due thereon ;" and he ordered an account to be stated by the register, to ascertain the balance due. On the 28th March, 1888, the register having made his report, showing a balance of $(547.18 due to complainant, the chancellor confirmed the report, and rendered a decree for the sale of "the following parcel of land," describing it by metes and bounds, "containing two acres, more or less, with the mill located thereon, and all the privileges and appurtenances unto said mill belonging." From this decree the present appeal was prosecuted, by all of the defendants jointly, and they here assigned it as error, together with the decree on the demurrer to the bill, and the decree of January 18th, 1888. The appeal was sued out March 28th, 1889.

The record shows, also, that the register sold the land on the 4th June, 1888, the complainant becoming the purchaser, at the price of $500, which he paid to the register; that the complainant, as purchaser, made application for a writ of assistance, the defendants having refused to surrender the possession on demand; that the chancellor granted the writ, by order dated July 2d, 1888, against the objections of the defendants; and that on the 16th October, 1888, the register's report of the sale was confirmed, the defendants' exceptions thereto being overruled, and a personal decree was rendered against R. Kimball for $333.37, the balance due on the decree with costs, after deducting the proceeds of sale. Errors were assigned on each of these decrees; [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] but the appellee submitted a motion to strike them out, and also to strike out the assignments founded on the decree, of January 18th, 1888.

Eugene Mccaa, for appellants. Tayloe & Johnston, contra.

McCLELLAN, J.—The decree appealed from was rendered on the 28th day of March, 1888. The respondents below prayed the appeal, and executed security for the costs thereof, on the 28th day of March, 1881). The undertaking to secure costs was approved and filed in the office of the register on that day. The citation of appeal was not issued, however, until the following day, March 29th, 1881); and not served until April 2d, 1880. Upon this state of facts, it is insisted that the appeal was not taken within a year from the rendition of the decree, is consequently barred by the statute, and that appellee's motion to strike out the assignment of errors should be granted.

We cannot concur in this view. An appeal is "taken," within the meaning of our statute, when the party desiring to prosecute it has complied with the conditions upon which the law gives the right. The only condition precedent in this case was the filing with the register, within one year from the rendition of the decree, a sufficient undertaking to secure costs. This was done, and the right fully perfected within the time limited. Whatever else remained to be done, in effectuating a review of the case by this court, depended upon the discharge of duty by a public officer, and not upon any act of the appellants. The appeal having been taken on March 28th, it, became the register's duty to cite appellee to its defense in this court, and make out and file here a transcript in the cause. The citation is no part of, nor does it constitute any step in, taking the appeal. Section 3631 of the Code demonstrates that it issues only after the appeal has been taken, and accomplishes its office, if it carries notice of the appeal to the appellee ten days or more before the day on which the appeal is returnable. The duty of the officer is fully performed, if the citation is issued in time to accomplish this purpose, as was done in this case.—Moore v. Spier, 80 Ala. 121).

The decree from which the appeal is prosecuted, was the final decree in the cause. That of January 18th, 1888, was interlocutory. It adjudged that complainant was entitled to relief; that he had a lien on the land for the payment of any sum still due on the note and mortgage; and that for the sat [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] satisfaction of such balance he was entitled to have the land sold. Whether there was anything due on the mortgage, was a disputed question in the case. The indebtedness claimed was denied by the answer of R. Kimbrell. The issue thus presented involved one of the equities upon which complainant's right to relief depended. This issue of indebtedness vel non was not determined by the decree of January 18th, but was by that decree referred to the register, and the essence of the relief prayed—the sale of the land for the satisfaction of the mortgage—could not be, and was not granted, until after the coming in of the register's report, ascertaining indebtedness under the mortgage; the confirmation thereof, and the decree of sale of March 28th, 1888.—Earnest v. Pruitt, 32 Ala. 13. The January decree was, therefore, interlocutory—it did not settle all the equities between the parties, nor fully adjudge the relief for which complainant prayed. That of March was final, and the appeal brings it and all previously rendered interlocutory decrees up for review.—Walker v. Crawford, 70 Ala. 567.

There was no error in the decree overruling demurrers for non-joinder and misjoinder of parties. Under the act of February 28, 1887, which was of force when the bill in this case was filed, the husband was not a necessary party defendant to a bill filed against a married woman, seeking to subject or charge her separate estate.—Marshall v. Marshall, 86 Ala. 38.3. The theory of the bill is, that the lands embraced in the mortgage belonged to Roland Kimbrell. The conveyance having been executed by his wife, in the manner prescribed by the statute for the relinquishment of her inchoate right of dower, she was a proper party defendant to the suit to foreclose the mortgage, and cut off that right by a sale of the fee. Sims v. Nat. Com. Bank, 73 Ala. 248; McGehee v. Lehman, Burr & Co., 65 Ala. 320.

The mortgage in terms conveys "the following described tract or parcel of land, to-wit: the property known as Kimbrell's grist and saw mill and gin, together with all the privileges and appurtenances belonging thereto, lying in Marengo county," &c. It was in evidence, that two acres of land, upon which the mill and gin were situated, had always been used in connection therewith, and was necessary to the enjoyment thereof. This land, we think, is embraced in the descriptive words of the conveyance, as "the tract or parcel of land known as the Kimbrell grist and saw mill and gin property."* But, were this otherwise, the land manifestly is appurtenant to the mill and gin, and essential to their reasonable use; and while, ordinarily, land cannot be said to pass as appurtenant to land, [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] if the land expressly granted does not admit of reasonable enjoyment without certain adjacent land, which has been constantly used with the land granted, it will also pass.—Woodman v. Smith, 53 Me. 81; Biddle v. Littlefield, 53 N. H. 508; Voorhees v. Burchard, 55 N. Y. 102; Euty v. Currier, 98 Mass. 502; Allen v. Scott, 21 Pick. 25.

The contention of appellants, that the mortgage is void, proceeds upon the assumption, that the land in controversy belonged to the statutory separate estate of Mrs. Kimbrell. The proof fails to support this assumption. On the contrary, there is no dispute but that the property belonged to her first husband, and passed to his heirs, who are defendants to this bill. Her claim to have acquired title by adverse possession, cannot be allowed. The evidence is free from conflict, that she at no time claimed to hold otherwise than as the widow of Benjamin Rente, and in recognition of the title of his heirs. Her only right, therefore, was to have dower assigned out of the land, and to occupy it until that could be done. This right lies in action only, and constitutes no estate in the premises. Beeves v. Brooks, 80 Ala. 26.

Whether her right to dower was barred by the lapse of twenty years from the date at which it might have been asserted (Barksdale v. Garrett, 44 Ala. 280), or whether, if still subsisting, it was, or could have been made, available in resisting the present bill, are questions which are not presented by this record, as will be seen further on, in such way as that we can consider them.

The land in controversy was sold and conveyed, in April, 1880, by the heirs of Benjamin Rentz, deceased, to the respondent, Roland Kimbrell. Two of the three grantors in that conveyance were of full age at the date of its execution. The third, Alice Rentz, now Alice McGehee, was a minor. That part of the purchase-money which belonged to the adults was paid. This deed, it is very clear, vested all the right, title and interest of the adult heirs in the respondent, Roland Kimbrell. The mortgage executed by the latter and his wife, it is equally clear, passed all his estate in the land conditionally, into the complainant. The decree foreclosing the mortgage, and ordering a sale of the land for its satisfaction, is certainly free from any taint of error which could prejudice or impair any right or interest of the adult heirs or their grantee, the defendant, Kimbrell. The plaintiff was, beyond question, entitled to have their interests foreclosed, and their estates in the property subjected to the payment of his debt. It may be conceded, that the undivided one-third interest of Alice McGehee did not pass by the deed of 1880 to Roland Kimbrell, because [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] of her disability of infancy, which is pleaded in this case, and that, of consequence, this interest did not pass by the mortgage to the complainant. It may also be conceded, without affecting the result of this appeal, that there was some outstanding property right in Mrs. Kimbrell, resulting from her survivorship of her first husband, which the mortgage was not efficient to convey. And as a deduction from these concessions, the decree may be admitted to be erroneous, in that it forecloses and orders to be sold the property rights of Alice McGehee and Mrs. Kimbrell. Yet, manifestly, the error in this regard affect only these two respondents. They alone have a right to complain of it, and to ask this court to reverse the action of the Chancery Court by which their rights are prejudiced. The error, if any, is without injury to the other appellants, and no reversal on account of it can be had at their instance.—Norwood v. M. d C. R. R. Co., 72 Ala. 603; Gilman v. Jlr. O. d S. R. R. Co., lb. 566; Walker v. Jones, 23 Ala. 448.

This appeal is taken and prosecuted by all the defendants below. The assignments of error in this court are made by them jointly. The decree appealed from involves no error injurious to the appellants, E. B. Rentz, R. E. Rentz, or Roland Kimbrell. If it involves error working injury to the rights of the other appellants—an inquiry which it is not necessary to enter upon—they should have severed in the assignment of it. The former adjudications and settled practice of this court impel us to disregard assignments of error, made jointly by all the appellants, as to matters which are available, if at all, to some of them only.—McGehee v. Lehman, Burr d Co., 65 Ala. 320.

Those assignments which are directed against the decrees of July 2d, 1888 (ordering petition for writ of assistance), and October 16th, 1888 (confirming report of register), must be stricken out in response to motion of appellee. The record shows that no appeal was taken from either of these decrees. Atkinson v. C. d N. Railway Co., 34 X. W. Rep. 63; Horn v. Volcano Water? Co., 18 Cal. 142; Bortheimer v. Baldwin, 38 Oal. 671.

Affirmed.

Notes for George Washington Rentz:

George W. Rentz Confederate Soldier was born Nov 28, 1838, he died Nov 13, 1921. He enlisted Mar-1862 Linden, Alabama as a private in Company B, 43rd Alabama Infantry. Widow Rhoda Ann Rentz is buried in the Confederate Memorial Park Cemetery Chilton County. He is buried in the Sweetwater Cemetery Marengo County.

Linden - Died at a Selma hospital on Sunday morning, November 13, 1921, after a lingering illness, Mr. G. W. Rentz, aged 83. Burial took place at his home, Sweet Water, Alabama, the funeral being held from the Methodist church, of which Mr. Rentz was a member. The attendance was perhaps the largest ever seen in the community as numerous friends of the deceased came long distances to pay the last tribute of respect.

Surviving him are a widow; one son, Mr. G. A. Rentz, of Myrtlewood, Alabama; two daughters, Mrs. G. F. Nichols, of Nicholville, and Mrs. W. E. Rhodes, of Linden, besides seven children of a deceased daughter, Mrs. M. H. Mayo, also an adopted daughter.

Mrs. McMurphy, of Mobile. The parents of Mr. Rentz were German immigrants who came to this country in pioneer days, settling among the stately pines of South Marengo, where they established a home and reared their family. George Washington grew up a man of sterling qualities who never compromised with wrong or indulged in even questionable transactions, but through a long career led an honest, upright and blameless life. In the Civil War he served in the Confederate army doing his duty as a soldier and sharing the dangers hardships and privations of the men who wore the gray. He was devoted to his church his Sunday school, and his preacher, and never failed to contribute liberally to their support. As a tangible evidence of the esteem in which he was held by the community, a beautiful window was erected as a background to the altar of the church and dedicated to his memory a touching tribute of appreciation tendered while he was yet alive to receive and cherish it. He was an ideal citizen. The world is better for his having lived in it. His works will live after him he is immortal.

Linden, Dec. 29. 1921 - George Washington Rentz was born Nov. 28, 1838, and departed this life Nov. 13, 1921, lacking only a few days of being 83 years old. He was married twice. His first wife was Miss Nancy Miller, to whom he was married on the October 11, 1859. To the union were born four children, his first wife preceded him to the grave several years ago. His second marriage was to Mrs. Rhoda Corgill, April 12, 1906, with whom he lived in perfect peace and harmony until his death on above date. His parents, George and Margarite Akkart Rentz, came from Germany in 1833.

Brother Rentz was converted and joined the church at the age of twelve. He lived a beautiful consistent member of the same ever afterward. He loved his church and her ministers. He was ever alert for the comfort and convenience of his pastor. From early young manhood he served in various official positions in his church, and when he died. He held the offices of Sunday school superintendent, steward, and trustee. He was faithful and efficient in these relations to the church. He never missed any service of his church unless providentially hindered. One sentence of his prayer was for a "gracious revival of true spiritual religion that would result in genuine conversion of sinners, and the building up of the saints in the most holy faith."

He lived to see the manifestation of God's grace to men demonstrated over and over again, and it was especially true last spring whence attended his last revival on earth and saw his church again quickened with revival fires. Brother Rentz lingered several months before the end came. The writer had several talks with him during his illness, always with the assurance that he was prepared for death and ready to meet his Lord. "He sleeps in Jesus that blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep." Bro. Rentz served during the Civil War and was wounded in the battle of Chickamauga, the scar of which he carried with him to the grave.

Besides a number of grand and great-grandchildren, the following; children survive him: Mrs. Annie Nichols, of Nicholville, Alabama; G. A. Rentz, of Myrtlewood; Mrs. Ella Rhodes, of Linden; a third daughter; Mrs. Willie Mayo; preceded him to the other world. We laid him away in the Sweet Water cemetery beside his former wife to await the resurrection of the just. We said "Good-bye;" but we shall see him again. His Pastor, D. L. Folsom.

The Sweet Water Cotton Gin at Sweet Water, Alabama (ginning for over 140 years)
Sources: The Rentz Lewis Family & The Thomasville Times

Sweet Water, Alabama is a small community located on Highway 10 in the southern part of Marengo County. The Sweet Water Cotton Gin has been a large part of the landscape of downtown Sweet Water for many years. Traveling from the east on Highway 10, the cotton gin is the first thing that you see as you enter Sweet Water. There are several large cotton storage warehouses located on the left side of the road and the cotton gin is on the right.

This Sweet Water Cotton Gin has been in operation for over 140 years. William Jefferson Lewis began it on a nearby family farm in 1870. The operation was moved to its current location in 1927. The Lewis family still owns and operates the cotton gin. The ginner after William Jefferson was his son, Norman Lewis, and then his son, Rentz Lewis, and the current ginner is Rentz's son, Will Lewis. Today, the ginning process is a joint effort of the Rentz Lewis family. Will Lewis manages the cotton gin. Sim Lewis, manages the farming operation which includes the planting and picking of the cotton fields. Matt Lewis manages trucking which includes transporting the cotton from the fields to the gin and transporting the finished cotton bales to customers.

The Sweet Water Cotton Gin was upgraded in 1997. This upgrade included the installation of a new metal structure directly over the old 1927 traditional looking tin-covered gin building. A section of the old building extends from the north side of the new building.

Notes for Aaron G. Rentz:

Linden - Wednesday, April 10th, 1918, God saw fit to take from the home of Mr. Aaron G. Rentz his beloved wife, Delia, and Friday afternoon she was laid to rest by the side of her mother in Forest Springs Cemetery near Morvin. Friday morning, April 19th, at 20 minutes to one. Mr. Aaron G. Rentz was called to meet his wife and laid to rest by the side of his wife Saturday afternoon April 20, 1918. Mr. and Mrs. Rentz leave three sons and four daughters: three daughters married and living in various parts of the county, and three sons and one daughter living with them at the time of their death. Mr. and Mrs. Rentz had resided at Lasca for a number of years, but removed to Geneva expecting to farm in the Bigbee swamp with their sons. They have been here only a few months and measles got in the family and the result was the death of both parents. Mr. and Mrs. Rentz had made many friends since coming into our midst, and we very much regret the loss of these good people, but God never garners his fruit till it is ripe. We extend our heartiest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Notes for Mary Barnette Woodson:

Camden, Alabama - This good woman passed way, after a brief illness oi last Wednesday night Nov. 22, 1922, she had been in declining health for some time, but was seriously sick for only a week. Mrs. Rentz was 67 years old and had lived in Camden since girlhood, she was born near Oak Hill, and was the daughter of James W. and Francis Woodson. While yet a girl under twenty she married Mr. E. Q Rentz; their home lite was an unusually devoted and happy one. Mr. Rentz is left very lonely, and sad in his widow-hood, but he has great comfort in the Christian life and the peaceful death of Mrs. Rentz. She was an earnest member of the Baptist church, and was very active in the interests of her denomination. She will be greatly missed in the church and community.

In addition to her husband there are three sisters left, Mrs. Turner and Miss Joe Woodson of Camden and Mrs. D. P. Watts of Caledonia. There are also two sons and three grandsons. One on, Mr. Eugene Rentz lives in Houston, Texas, and one Mr. Joseph Rentz in Staples, Texas.

The funeral was held on Friday, the 17th inst, from the house and was conducted by Rev. B. H. Grier, assisted by Rev. Mr. Rosborough. The sons from Texas came out to be with their father and on Monday Mr. Rentz left, with them for Houston. The sympathy of many friends go out to the bereaved ones.

He was born 06 Mar 1862 in Sweet Water, Marengo Co, Alabama, and died 01 Jul 1944 in Marengo Co, Alabama.

Notes for Fannie Virginia (Jennie) Rentz:

Linden - Mrs. Fannie Virginia Rentz, 79, widow of the late G. A Rentz, passed away at her home at 3:00 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, March 6, 1947, following a stroke which she suffered Monday. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, followed by interment in the Camp Ground Cemetery. The services were conducted by the Rev. H. E. Wilson of Montgomery, the Rev. T. H. Maxey of Linden, and the Rev. A. T. Elsberry of Nanafalia. Mrs. Rentz was a member of the Camp Ground Methodist Church. Pall bearers were Y. K. Lewis, Walter Beshears, Alfred Morgan, Jr., Willie Carter, Willie Greer Young, and Robert Brown.

Mrs. Rentz was the daughter of Godfrey and Lucinda Rentz of Camden. She had been a resident of this county since her marriage to G. A. Rentz, January 21, 1897. During the fifty years that she had lived in this county she had endeared herself to a wide circle of friends, to whom news of her last illness and death brought sorrow, and the large number who attended the funeral services and the many beautiful floral tributes attested the esteem and affection in which she was held.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. D. E. Brkley of Linden, and four sons, W. G. Rentz of Mobile, George, Charles and Echols Rentz of Myrtlewood, RFD; five grandchildren, and two step-grandchildren.

Notes for George Alexander (Sandy) Rentz:

George Alexander was the son of George Washington Rentz & Nancy C. Miller Rentz, passes Saturday Morning.

Concluding a long and well spent life, Mr. George Alexander Rentz, 82, passed peacefully away at his home in the Camp Ground community, Myrtlewood RFD, at 10:35 o'clock Saturday morning, July 1. He had been confined to bed since the preceding Tuesday. For several years past he had been in failing health and at times had suffered severe attacks of illness, but had been blessed by the ministrations of a devoted wife and children who did everything possible for his comfort.

A son of the late G.W. Rentz (Uncle Wash) and Nancy Miller Rentz, G.A. Rentz was born at Sweet Water, March 6, 1862, and spent his childhood and young manhood there. He moved to the Camp Ground community about fifty years ago. On January 21, 1897, he married Miss Fannie V. Rentz of Camden, who survives him. Mr. Rentz in addition to his farming interests was a pecan grower on an extensive scale, and was also interested in the ginning business, having owned and operated gins at Half Acre and Myrtlewood for many years. It is related of him that he started to ginning cotton at the age of four, driving a mule to furnish power. He was also a partner in the Linden Motor Co.

He joined the Methodist Church in early childhood and for many years had served as a steward of the Camp Ground Church. He had been a Mason for fifty-five years and was the oldest member of his lodge, which a few years ago had honored him with life membership.

Surviving, besides his widow, are a daughter, Mrs. D.E. Barkley of Linden; four sons, W.G. Rentz of Mobile, George G, Echols, and Charles E. Rentz, all of Camp Ground; a sister, Mrs. Annie Nichols of Nicholsville; five grandsons, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. The services at the home were conducted by the Rev. R.I. Lawrence, Methodist pastor, assisted by the Rev. A.T. Elsberry, Presbyterian pastor. From the home the body was carried in the Masonic procession to the Camp Ground Church Cemetery where it was interred with the honors of the fraternity by Nanafalia Lodge No. 335 A.F. & A.M., with worshipful Master Luther E. Moore of Thomasville, in charge of the rites. A large throng of friends from far and near joined with the bereaved family and relatives in paying the last tributes of respect to the dead and many beautiful flowers signified the esteem in which he had been held.

Butler Co, Alabama. He married Elizabeth Troutman 1865 in Conecuh Co, Alabama. She was born 1841 in Stewart Co, Georgia, and died in Conecuh Co, Alabama.

Notes for Jesse Gus Baldwin:

July 13, 1910 - Another chapter has been added to Conecuh's already unenviable criminal record, and another good citizen's life has gone out at the hands of a heartless assassin. On last Friday morning July 1910 Jesse Baldwin, a well-known and prosperous citizen residing near Wilcox Station, eleven miles northeast of Evergreen, was found dead in the back yard of his home, with several horrible wounds on his head and body. A blood-stained hoe lying nearby told the silent story of how he met death at the hands of some unknown party, while the balance of the community was in ignorance, supposing he was as usual enjoying the quietude of his home. Inoffensive and without a known enemy, the old gentleman resided all alone and the horrible crime was not known until Friday morning about 11 o'clock when an old negro neighbor went to his home for some purpose, and, failing to get response to his calls, he went in the back yard, and hearing a distressing though hint groan he found his white neighbor and friend prostrate on the ground weltering in his own blood, and where for perhaps many hours he had suffered the agonies death from wounds inflicted by a ruthless assassin, and unable to make an alarm. He was gasping his last breath when the old negro _ached his side. He at once notified white neighbors who hurried to the scene. An examination revealed the fact that several wounds to the forehead, temple and face inflicted by the hoe produced death and the wonder is that he did not die instantly. His right arm was also broken, showing that he endeavored to ward off the blows.

The murderous attack was evidently made while the old gentleman was in his house, as his foot prints at the back door showed that attempted to make his escape overtaken and slain in his yard. An examination of the premises enclosed readily that the murder__ object was robbery. Trunks and dresser drawers had been opened and ransacked and papers scattered around, and if any money was concealed about the premises it was secured. It was generally be__ed in the community that Mr. Edwin had considerable money that he kept it about his premise or on his person. It will probably never be known how much money if any, the murderer secured. Several articles were missing from house, among them a shot gun and an umbrella. After the dis__ry of the dead body it was __ned that a negro of that community, Albert Johnson by name, was seen in Garland on Thursday, in his possession a gun and umbrella which he offered for sale price much less than their value and that he finally sold the gun. __ this excellent clue Sheriff Irwin and several deputies began a __h for the negro. Their __ was augmented on Saturday several hundred determined citizens of the surrounding county from Butler County and the was thoroughly scoured without results. Sheriff Irwin, __ver, received intelligence that bearing the description of __on was put off of a freight __ on Saturday morning near __aton. The negro was thought to be headed for Pensacola and the sheriff left here Sunday night for that place, where he hopes to land his prisoner. Sheriff Irwin recovered the gun which the negro sold in Garland and it has been positively identified as the property of Mr. Balwin. He now has it in his possession.

Mr. Balwin was about 65 years of age. Four children survive him: Mrs. N.S. Darby of Gregville, Mrs. Jones of Birmingham, John W. and Gus Baldwin of McKenzie. His remains were taken to the latter place for interment.

Marriage Notes for George Singer and Ida Sewell:

A lovely wedding of Thursday afternoon, August 19, 1926, was that of Miss Ida Sewell, the daughter of Mrs. James Samuel Sewell, and George Walton Singer, which took place in the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Walton Simmons, of Penn Avenue at 6 o'clock. Rev. Gerald Culberson, of Portsmouth, Ohio, performed the ceremony.

The home was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion with roses and ferns. To the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, played by Miss Bessie Jho Selman, pianist, who was accompanied on the violin by Selkirk Taylor, the bride and groom entered from the stairs and took their places before an altar improvised of palms, with pedestal baskets of roses in relief, over which tall white tapers, burning in cathedral candelabra, cast a soft glow.

The bride's traveling costume was a navy-blue frosted crepe with trimmings of tan crepe. Her hat was of tan felt, banded with navy grosgrain. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses showered with valley lilies.

Mr. Singer is prominent in business circles, being identified with the Southern Ruralist Press. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Singer left for a motor trip to Daytona and other points in Florida and on their return will be at home to their friends on Westwood Avenue.

Notes for Thomas Jefferson Ramser:

Dec, 16, 1902 - Again the death angel visited the home of one of Eufaula's prominent citizens and carried away a loving husband and devoted father. This morning at eight o'clock with opening of the day when the business world was beginning to stir, death invaded the family of Mr. Thomas J. Ramser and called him from time to eternity. He had been sick only one week and two days with pneumonia. It was a sad shock to his relatives and friends who had hoped that the passing might be postponed.

Mr. Ramser was born Dec. 7, 1858, and was 44 years of age. During all that time he had lived in Eufaula, owning and conducting one of the largest furniture establishments in the South. He was educated at Greencastle and Jeffersonville, Indiana colleges, was well fitted for the business and social world, and was much interested in the welfare of the city. He was an ex-alderman and a member of the Board of Education. He was married to Miss Annie Dozier on July 19th, 1893. She was the daughter of Dr. L.P. Dozier of Hatchers, Georgia, Dr. Dozier was one of the most esteemed and prominent citizens of Quitman County.

Mrs. Ramser has been in the Infirmary at Montgomery undergoing treatment, but when the news came that Mr. Ramser was critically ill she came home to be at his bedside. She was unable to sit up and was carried on a cot to and from the depot, but Mr. Ramser had passed the point and the chill hand of death stopped recognition. He never gained consciousness to bid the last sad farewell parting with his loved one and companion.

He leaves a wife and three small children, two boys, Julian and D., and a sister, Mary, and an aged mother. His father passed on at the age of eighty. He was a member of the M.E. Church, united with it in 1893. He will be buried tomorrow at 10 o'clock in Fairview cemetery. The funeral services will be conducted from the home of Mr. E.P. Blair where he died, and the Masons will have charge of the ceremonies.

The death of Mr. Ramser removes the last of the young men of the Ramser family, four boys all dying after reaching young manhood. There are six sisters living today: Mesdames E.P. Blair and B. - Notes for Laurie Vivian (Lollie) Blair:
Death Angel Carries Laurie Vivian "Little Lottie" Blair to Heaven - There is darkness, mourning, and an anguish today in the home where so recent there was naught but joy and gladness. Yesterday morning, March 31, 1901 while the Sabbath bells were ringing, a shadow fell across the threshold of the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Blair. The dark robed messenger of death, cast this shadow, and whispered a command, which called the spirit of this little thirteen-year-old daughter, Laura Vivian, back to "the God that gave it." No pen can picture or words express the grief of the fond parents or the loving sister and little brother as they kiss.
The dear little girl had only been sick a few days, but from the first was seriously ill, and all that science and skilled medical care, along with tender nursing, could not save her life. God knew best and the broken-hearted parents can only carry their sorrow to Him "who doeth all things well." Lollie, as she was lovingly called, was beautiful, bright and winsome. She was a favorite of all, especially her school companions who will so sadly miss her. Mr. and Mrs. Blair have the deepest sympathy of the friends.
The funeral took place from the house this afternoon with Dr. J.A. Peterson officiating. The remains were escorted by the following school mates who acted as flower bearers: Nomia Beach, Martha Long, Ruth Muir, Nellie Ballowe, Florence Schloss, and Mary Comer. A large concourse of sorrowing friends accompanied the remains to Fairview Cemetery where little Lollie was laid to rest.

- 1017 iii. Charles William (Charlie) Baty, born 08 Oct 1898 in Marengo Co, Alabama; died 21 Mar 1924 in Sweet Water, Marengo Co, Alabama.

Notes for Charles William (Charlie) Baty:

Linden, March 27, 1924 - This community was grievously shocked Saturday morning when news reached here that Mr. C. W. Baty had been killed in railway accident the night before, near Union Springs. Mr. Baty was a Linden boy and lived here until the outbreak of the war with Germany when he joined the army. After the war he spent a few months here and then went to Montgomery and from there to Union Springs to enter the employ of the Birmingham Southern Railroad as acetylene welder. He was highly regarded by all who knew him.

The body arrived in Linden Sunday afternoon, accompanied by Messrs. Butler and Dykes, of Union Springs, and was met at the train by hundreds of the citizens of the community and escorted to the home where it was kept until the following morning and then carried to Sweet Water to be interred in the cemetery there. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Tate, assisted by Rev. Clendenin of Sweet Water. The pall bearers were ex-service men. A large number of the friends of the family from Linden accompanied the body to Sweet Water where they were joined at the grave by the citizens of that community, assembled to assist in paying the last tributes of respect to the dead. The funeral offerings were unusually numerous and beautiful. Details of the accident in which Mr. Baty met his death, as given by Mr. Dykes and Mrs. Butler who accompanied the remains from Union Springs were that Mr. Baty had been sent out to repair a steam shovel and was returning to Union Springs, accompanied by Mrs. Baty. A car of long telegraph poles was just in front of the passenger coach. The lurching of the poles alarmed a lady on the train and she left her seat. Mr. Baty laughingly took her place and had been seated only a few minutes when the stanchions on the front of the car of poles broke. The front end of the poles dropped to the ground and several catching on a little bank were thrust back through the side of the passenger coach. Mr. Baty was struck in the stomach and pinned down beneath the poles, the coach being completely wrecked but did not leave the rails as the train was traveling slowly. Mr. Baty lived about two hours pinned under the poles. He never lost consciousness. He talked to those who were at work trying to extricate him, that telling them he was going to die and calmly gave directions as to sending his body home. He was entirely unafraid and ready to go. The conductor of the train suffered a broken leg, and Mrs. Bell, the lady whose seat Mr. Baty had occupied was slightly injured.

Mr. Baty's fellow employees paid a high tribute to his character and the estimation in which he was Sweet Water, Alabama, Feb. 28, 1940 - A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral services of Mrs. Eunice V. Rentz Fortner, 68, on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 25, at two o'clock at the Sweet Water Methodist church. The Rev. D. M. Pearson, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. Julius P. She was the daughter of the late William and Jane Kelly Rentz, of Sweet Water. She was married to Mr. J. N. Fortner June 27, 1903. Three children were born of this union, two dying in infancy. Baty, of Linden; and a large number of nieces and nephews, survive.

Mrs. Fortner, who took an active part in church, school, and community work, will be greatly missed. She was particularly interested in young people and counted many warm friends in that group. He married Fannie Virginia (Jennie) Rentz 21 Jan 1897 in Alabama, daughter of Gottfried Renz and Lucenda Voltz. She was born 14 Jun 1867 in Camden, Wilcox Co, Alabama, and died 05 Mar 1947 in Marengo Co, Alabama.

Notes for George Alexander (Sandy) Rentz:

George Alexander was the son of George Washington Rentz & Nancy C. Miller Rentz, passes Saturday Morning.

Concluding a long and well spent life, Mr. George Alexander Rentz, 82, passed peacefully away at his home in the Camp Ground community, Myrtlewood RFD, at 10:35 o'clock Saturday morning, July 1. He had been confined to bed since the preceding Tuesday. For several years past he had been in failing health and at times had suffered severe attacks of illness, but had been blessed by the ministrations of a devoted wife and children who did everything possible for his comfort.

A son of the late G.W. Rentz (Uncle Wash) and Nancy Miller Rentz, G.A. Rentz was born at Sweet Water, March 6, 1862, and spent his childhood and young manhood there. He moved to the Camp Ground community about fifty years ago. On January 21, 1897, he married Miss Fannie V. Rentz of Camden, who survives him. Mr. Rentz in addition to his farming interests was a pecan grower on an extensive scale, and was also interested in the ginning business, having owned and operated gins at Half Acre and Myrtlewood for many years. It is related of him that he started to ginning cotton at the age of four, driving a mule to furnish power. He was also a partner in the Linden Motor Co.

He joined the Methodist Church in early childhood and for many years had served as a steward of the Camp Ground Church. He had been a Mason for fifty-five years and was the oldest member of his lodge, which a few years ago had honored him with life membership.

Surviving, besides his widow, are a daughter, Mrs. D.E. Barkley of Linden; four sons, W.G. Rentz of Mobile, George G. Echols, and Charles E. Rentz, all of Camp Ground; a sister, Mrs. Annie Nichols of Nicholasville; five grandsons, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. The services at the home were conducted by the Rev. R.I. Lawrence, Methodist pastor, assisted by the Rev. A.T. Elsberry, Presbyterian pastor. From the home the body was carried in the Masonic procession to the Camp Ground Church Cemetery where it was interred with the honors of the fraternity by Nanafalia Lodge No. 335 A.F. & A.M., with worshipful Master Luther E. Moore of Thomasville, in charge of the rites. A large throng of friends from far and near joined with the bereaved family and relatives in paying the last tributes of respect to the dead and many beautiful flowers signified the esteem in which he had been held.

Notes for Fannie Virginia (Jennie) Rentz:

Linden - Mrs. Fannie Virginia Rentz, 79, widow of the late G. A. Rentz, passed away at her home at 3:00 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, March 6, 1947, following a stroke which she suffered Monday. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, followed by interment in the Camp Ground Cemetery. The services were conducted by the Rev. H. E. Wilson of Montgomery, the Rev. T. H. Maxey of Linden, and the Rev. A. T. Elsberry of Nanafalia. Mrs. Rentz was a member of the Camp Ground Methodist Church. Pall bearers were Y. K. Lewis, Walter Beshears, Alfred Morgan, Jr., Willie Carter, Willie Greer Young, and Robert Brown.

Mrs. Rentz was the daughter of Godfrey and Lucinda Rentz of Camden. She had been a resident of this county since her marriage to G. A. Rentz, January 21, 1897. During the fifty years that she had lived in this county she had endeared herself to a wide circle of friends, to whom news of her last illness and death brought sorrow, and the large number who attended the funeral services and the many beautiful floral tributes attested the esteem and affection-in which she was held.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. D. E. Brkley of Linden, and four sons, W. G. Rentz of Mobile, George, Charles and Echols Rentz of Myrtlewood, RFD; five grandchildren, and two step-grandchildren.

Marriage Notes for Moses Baldwin and Hettie Lee:

Evergreen, Oct. 17, 1907 – The marriage of Miss Hettie Acton Lee and Mr. Mose Baldwin which was solemnized at the methodist church Wednesday, was one of the prettiest weddings of this season. The altar was beautifully decorated with ferns, smilax and cut flowers. Preceding the arrival of the wedding party, Mrs. Joseph Lundy sang "Oh, Leave Me Not."

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Farnham at the organ and Mr. Charles Reid with the violin. The bride with her maid of honor, Miss Nellie Riley, was joined at the altar by the bridegroom and his man, Mr. Wil Newberry, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. C.S. Tally of the Methodist church.

The bride was beautifully attired in a rust brown traveling suit, with hat to match, and carried an arm cluster of bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Nellie Riley, was attired in a cream wool suit trimmed in real lace, and carried white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. left for Atlanta, where they will spend several days, and will then return to Evergreen and will make this their home.

Notes for Charles A. Raleigh:

Oct. 28, 1973 – The company receptionist doesn't answer the phone. He announces the arrival of visitors with a bark-natural, since his name is Trixie, and he's part-Chihuahuas, part-French poodle. The company does not have an official name. There's a hand-lettered sign tacked to the front of the building which says, "woodcraft – Retired Club, Repair and Refinishing." It is signed "Russell M. Fogt and C.A. Raleigh." The long, shed – like building about 20 feet wide by 70 feet long, was built more than 50 years ago to house chickens and pigs.

E.G. Ricks Sr., 85, is the owner of the building and the originator of the business which he began around 1960 when he had to retire from the real estate business because of health. "But," he says, "I had to do something." So he swept out the barn and the adjoining garage, white-washed the walls, bought and studied a Popular Mechanics magazine and proceeded to make a set of furniture for the yard. "Before that, I never even made a rabbit box," he said. He began to get requests from neighbors and friends to repair and refinish household items, and the business grew so that Ricks was unable to take care of it all.

He called on his friend C.A. Raleigh who had retired after 10 years in the furniture business. "He was sitting over yonder . . ." Ricks Says. Raleigh, 83, is the oldest of the three. "But he's also the youngest," Ricks claims. "He works on the floor, can get up and down and is just as limber as he can be." Raleigh is the owner of Trixie and the little dog is especially protective of his master.

Fogt, 72, agreed to come "help out" for a few months about five years ago at a point when Rick's health was deteriorating and when he had to have an operation. Fogt has retired from Robins Air Force Base where he was a specialist in technical data. But he has been doing furniture refinishing and repair all his life. "I made a dried corn evaporator for my mother when I was 9," he says. . . . "Ricks," says Fogt, "can mix stains and colors and match any piece that comes in."

Ricks himself no longer works except for "some little things." He has heart disease, emphysema and asthma and cannot work around varnish remover and spray materials without having an attack. "That's why I gave the shop to Fogt and Raleigh. I didn't want to close it down. . . .

791. Jefferson Davis (Jeff)⁶ Singer (Frederick Samuel⁵, Johann Georg⁴, Johannes³, Maria Barbara² Zizmann, Jakob¹) was born 14 Mar 1888 in Lumpkin, Stewart Co, Georgia, and died 09 Nov 1945 in Stewart Co, Georgia. He married (1) Mary Lena Humber 17 Jan 1912 in Stewart Co, Georgia. She was born 26 Jan 1890 in Stewart Co, Georgia, and died 06 Nov 1924 in Sumter Co, Georgia. He married (2) Mary Fleeta Benton 03 May 1931 in Georgia. She was born 25 Sep 1909, and died 23 Oct 1978 in Muscogee Co, Georgia.

Notes for Jefferson Davis (Jeff) Singer:

Death came suddenly at one o'clock Thursday morning, November 8th, at Patterson Hospital, Cuthbert, to Mr. J. D. Singer, 57. Mr. Singer was apparently in good health and his death, which followed only a few hours after a severe heart attack came as a great shock. He became ill while visiting at the home of friends near Cuthbert and was carried immediately to the hospital.

Jefferson Davis Singer was born in Lumpkin, March 14, 1888, son of the late Anna Hightower Singer and Fred Samuel Singer. He was the grandson of Johan and Louisa Messner Singer, who came to the state, from Germany, arriving in Lumpkin in the year 1838 to make their home. In January 1912 he was married to Miss Marilena Humber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Humber, who died in November 1924 leaving one son, Jeff D. Singer, Jr. On May 3, 1931 Mr. Singer was married to Miss Fleeta Benton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Benton, of Mansfield. She, with their four children, Fred, Bill, Mary and Buck, survive. Mr. Singer is also survived by two grandchildren, Martha and Marlan Singer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Singer, Jr.

One brother, Julian H. Singer, of Lumpkin; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Turpin and Mrs. Annie Cato, of Americus; two aunts, Miss Carrie Singer, of Lumpkin and Mrs. Lizzie Raleigh, of Atlanta, and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Mr. Singer was a member of the company of Singer and Singer, of Lumpkin and was a leading financier and businessman of southwest Georgia. He had served his community well, having been mayor of Lumpkin, a member of the city council and a public-spirited citizen who was always interested in the progress and advancement of his town and county. He was a quiet, unassuming person, often lending a helping hand to those who needed a friend, but always without show or publicity. The news of his death was received with great sorrow by everyone who had known him. A beautiful tribute was paid him by an old darky when he was told of the death of his white friend, "I don't know what I'll do now that Mr. Jeff is gone."

Funeral service was held at the Lumpkin Methodist Church, Saturday afternoon, 3:30 o'clock with his pastor, Rev. C. A. Morrison, assisted by Rev. J. L. Brown, Rev. J. N. Shell, of Columbus and Rev. W. W. Whaley, of Metter, officiating. Mrs. A. B. Hamilton, organist, of Dawson, played favorite old hymns of Mr. Singer during the service. A beautiful display of floral offerings, the overflowing church and the grief-stricken relatives and friends spoke of the place that this man had made in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. The ideal of his life was summed up by Rev. Morrison in the tribute he paid when he said that Mr. Singer wanted "To be a friend to man."

Active pall bearers were E. J. Tucker, E. E. Humber, J. M. Deason, E. H. Peavy, Jr., G. W. Overby, J. K. Perry, L. B. Geeslin, of Lumpkin and G. W. Matthews, of Cuthbert. Notes for Paull Whiting Saffold, Jr.:

Paull W. Saffold, Jr. (July 11, 1919 - March 13, 2007) and Jean Compton (March 23, 1925 - April 18, 2004) married February 24, 1941. He was born in Montgomery, Alabama he married Alma Jean Compton from Thomaston, Alabama. At the time they met dad was working as an engineer for the Alabama Highway Department in the area of Thomaston. He joined the Alabama National Guard in August 1936 as an enlisted soldier and was discharged in August 1939. One month after the attack on Pearl Harbor he re-enlisted in the Army and was accepted as an aviation cadet in November 1942. After finishing flight school, he was transferred to England where he flew ninety-six combat missions in a P-47 from Duxford England in the 8th Air Force, 78th Fighter Group. During that time he took part in the first daylight bombing of Berlin and numerous other bomber escort and low level strafing missions. To his disappointment, he was sent home for R&R just prior to the D-Day invasion. He spent a total of twenty-six years on active duty, retiring in May 1964 as a colonel in the United States Air Force. Prior to having children mom worked for a while as a secretary having obtained a position that both she and her former English teacher had applied for although she had not finished high school. She spent her time raising two sons after they were born until we moved out.

When he learned to fly, he had a flat tire on the nose wheel of my airplane. Being Sunday, no one was there to fix it so he had to get mom and dad to pick me up at the Council Bluffs airport. While waiting for them, several people were getting ready to sky dive. They tried to get him to go with them but he told them that he should wait for my parents. On the way home he told dad about the invitation. He gave me one piece of advise that he never forgot. "Son, there is no reason to practice something that you only have to do once."

THE MILITARY CAREER OF PAULL W. SAFFOLD JR. 1936 to 1964

Alabama National Guard August 1936 to August 1939

My first experience in the military was in the Alabama National Guard. I enlisted as a Private on August 22, 1936 at the age of 17. I attended drill regularly and made two summer camps at Fort McClellan Alabama as a private in HQ CO 167th Infantry. In WWI it was part of the Rainbow Division. I served until August 1939. After the second year I informed my Company Commander, Johnny Snider, a WWI veteran, that I had taken a job with the Alabama Highway Department in Abbeville and could no longer attend drills. I was placed on the inactive list and remained there until the expiration of my three-year term August 21, 1939. Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941

Jean and I were attending a movie in the Paramount Theater when it was flashed on the screen that the Japs had attacked Pearl Harbor. We went to Mother's home on Holcombe Street and listened to the news for several hours (no TV in those days) before returning to our home in Clanton Alabama. I was with the Alabama Highway Department when I learned that the Army Air Corps was accepting applications for Aviation Cadet training from married men. Two weeks after Pearl Harbor I spent a full day at Maxwell Field taking mental and physical exams and returned to Jean in Clanton who approved what I had done. I had wanted to be a pilot for a long time. Especially an Army Air Corp pilot. I had been taking lessons at the small airport in Clanton from Charlie Wade who was the fixed base operator. I had about four hours ($6 per hour dual) in a 13 Piper Cub when I received a telegram about January 15 to report to Maxwell Field for enlistment. Jean had to sign a paper that she was not dependent on me for a living, Being the good wife, as she always had been, she signed the paper. When I enlisted I was never asked if I had previous military experience. It was found while processing for retirement that I had three years in the Alabama National Guard that I had not applied for longevity. This added three years to my retirement. I was told that I could file a claim for longevity pay that I had been entitled to so I did. About six months later I received two checks, one from the Army and one from the Air Force. The two amounted to about $4,000. It had taken about six months for the two services to calculate this claim.

Aviation Cadet 1942

There were twelve of us at Maxwell to be sworn in as Aviation Cadets in January 1942 .. One was William May who was a classmate and became a member of the 78th Fighter Group and a good friend. After several weeks of preflight training at Maxwell I was sent to Lodwick Aviation Military Academy at Avon Park Florida for primary training in the PT -17, Stearman (a bi wing trainer) then on to Greenville, MiSSissippi for another 60 hours in the BT-13 (Vultee Vibrator) While in Greenville, Jean and a friend Virginia Crew, came over on a bus and stayed a couple of weeks. Virginia's husband Jeff and I had alternate open post. We only had open post every two weeks when we could leave the base. Boy was it hot in Greenville. No one ha air conditioning in 1942.

After 60 hours in Greenville I was sent to Craig Field, (Air Force Bases were called Fields at that time) Selma, Alabama, for advanced training in AT -6s. I felt lucky since three out of five cadets had been washed out. I started training in the class of 42-I but was hospitalized for about a week with an infected hand. So I finished with the class of 42-J and was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant on November 10, 1942. The last 10 hours of flying was in a P-36, about 3 or 4 flights. This was not recorded in the 60 hours of advanced flight training. I thought I was a hot pilot then.

Operation Training in P-40s November 1942 to January 1943

I was sent to Pinellas Field at St Petersburg Florida for operational training, mostly formation, acrobatics, and gunnery practice. I received about 40 hours in the Curtiss P-40. Jean and Nita came down for about two weeks and had a room in St Petersburg, near Tampa, while I trained and waited orders to go overseas. Archie Hill's mother and father were there for a while and we went to dinner with them several times at their expense. Mr. Hill was the Chevrolet dealer in Huntsville Alabama and when they left Tampa to go home they dropped Jean off in Montgomery. I thought we were going to be sent to the Pacific since P-40s were in combat over there. While at Pinellas we were issued parachutes, a Colt 45, a gas mask and clothing impregnated with a horrible smelling oily substance that was to be used in case of a gas attack. Pinellas had one runway, a small wooden building used for administration and operations, and squad tents for those who lived on base. It is now an International airport.

Port of Embarkation

Near the end of December we boarded a train bound for Fort Hamilton New York, which was a port of embarkation. It was about a thirty-minute subway ride to Manhattan on the Sea Beach Express. I was in Times Square New Years Eve on January 1, 1943. That was an experience I will never forget. I had a little too much to drink and went to sleep on the subway and must have made three or four trips between Manhattan and the Fort Hamilton before waking up. I was among about twelve 2nd Lieutenants who boarded the Queen Elizabeth three days before departing for England for instructions to help the troops find where they were to be quartered when they boarded. American and Canadian troops started boarding after dark and continued all night. About 12,000 boarded from 5 or 6 gangplanks. The ship sailed before daylight without escort. Officers were crowded twelve to a stateroom. Accommodations for the enlisted men were atrocious. We had two meals a day. Could not smoke on deck day or night. Anything thrown overboard could leave a trail for the enemy. Lt Col Hub Zemke was the senior Air Force commander and was accompanied by all of his Officer and enlisted personnel of the 56th Fighter Group. As senior officer he commanded all of the Air Force personnel on board. One thing I remember was he allowed only one canteen of water per day per man. We had to bath in salt water so we didn't bath very often. The 56th Group had trained in P-47s for more than a year at Bridgeport Connecticut and had the most experienced pilots ever to fly in the 8th Air Force. They produced more aces than any group. Men like Bob Johnson, Francis Gabreski, Walter Beckam, Jerry Johnson and many more. I was headed for England as a replacement pilot to be assigned to a group later. We arrived in the Firth of Clyde in Scotland on January 9 and I was in a group that boarded a train. The next morning we arrived at Stone, a small town in northwest England. Stone was where we waited for our next assignment. I was there about a week before being sent to Shrewsbury in Wales, another place to wait for assignment. We made up our flying time flying J-3 Cubs while there. I was there about three weeks before receiving orders to be 78th Fighter Group located at Goxhill.

78th Fighter group at Goxhill

Goxhill was located on the south side of the Humber River with the large seaport city of Hull on the north side. German aircraft frequently came over at night and dropped mines in the river. The 78th arrived in England after training in California in P-38s. The P-38s were soon transferred in February to North Africa with most of their pilots. They were needed in the fighting there. The officers left at Goxhill were the group, squadron and flight commanders and the some enlisted men. P-47s were flown in from Ireland by ferry pilots. A few at a time. I had never seen a P-47 until then. Ferry pilots checked out most experienced pilots who in turn checked out the rest of us. We trained at Goxhill in gunnery over the North Sea. Gunnery consisted of firing at a long canvas sleeves about 8 feet tall and 20 feet long towed by a long rope behind a British Lysander. Four P-47s participated in each practice flight with ammunition in two guns, which made a colored mark on the target. The rest of the guns were empty. The target was dropped on the airfield and the colored marks were counted to determine the score of each pilot. This method was also practiced in Florida over the Gulf of Mexico. I did not do very well in gun practice which showed later in combat. I missed a few enemy aircraft that I should have shot down. After about 15 hours of training at Goxhill the 78th with its three squadrons left Goxhill for Duxford in April 1943.

Duxford 1943 and 1944

Duxford airfield was built in 1919 during World War I. Located near Cambridge 50 miles north of London it was used by Spitfires and Hurricanes during the Battle of Britain. The British turned the base over to the 78th Fighter Group in April 1943. I was assigned to the 84th squadron. I flew on the third mission flown by the group. My first mission, on April 29 I was wingman for my squadron commander, Major Eugene Roberts. A Fighter squadron consisted of three flights of 8 or 10 pilots and a Fighter Group consisted of three squadrons. The first mission I flew was a fighter sweep (rodeo) over northern France. We made landfall near Calais and then over Abbeville hoping to entice Adolf Galland and his experienced pilots to come up to meet us. They didn't come up. Abbeville was heavily defended with anti-aircraft guns so we didn't go down to strafe. We were up only one hour and thirty minutes. We didn't get belly tanks until later. On May 4 we flew fighter support for bomber diversion over Dunkerque and other French towns at 28,000 feet. Heavy flak but otherwise uneventful. Up 17:45 down 19:10.

On May 13 we flew an escort mission over northern France. Up at 15:33 and down 17:15.

On May 15 we staged at Horsham, an advanced base, for refueling and on to Amsterdam. One hour thirty minutes. No belly tanks yet:

May 19, I flew my first bomber escort mission. It was a bomber diversion mission. We crossed into Holland at 30,000 and returned to the English coast at Oxfordness. The mission was uneventful except for heavy flak. The mission lasted one hour and twenty minutes. At 30,000 we were indicating 189 mpg but true airspeed was more than 300 mph. There were only a few bomb groups in England at this time. About 4 or 5. They could put up on1y about 200 bombers. Bombers would usually take off before daylight and form up to cross the enemy coast in line with the other groups. Eighth fighter command would schedule the fighter groups to takeoff at different times to rendezvous with its assigned bomb group at the proper time for escort. The fighters would fly one or two thousand feet above the bombers and make s-turns to stay with them because we could not fly as slow as the bomb groups. As more fighter and bomb groups became available an escorting group could be relieved by another flight group and if we had enough fuel we could go down and look for targets of opportunity such as enemy airfields, trains, barges, trucks and anything valuable to the enemy.

From May 19 to November 26 I flew many missions but I think November 26 was the first with belly tanks. This was an escort mission over France. Jack Price leading Red flight shot down a ME 109 and an FW 190. Bombers were attacked by at least 30 enemy aircraft, mostly 109s. We lost my good friend Wayne Dougherty just north of Paris, hit by a ME 109. The mission lasted 3 hours. Wayne was flying number 4 in Price's Red flight.

As I approached 200 hours which was the normal tour in combat I thought the invasion would soon take place because of the strafing and bombing we were doing on the French coast. I wanted to take a part of the invasion. So on March 17, 1943 I submitted a request to fly additional missions. This had to be approved by the squadron flight surgeon, the squadron commander, the group commander, and through channels all the way to 8th Fighter command headquarters.

The Luftwaffe was almost decimated by then. They had lost most of their experienced pilots. They were still building fighter aircraft and flying them with pilots that had only a few hours of flying time .

After my retirement the Air Force sent me my Mission Summary Reports and my AF Form 5s that are a complete record of my military flying time.

To write about all of the missions I flew is just too lengthy. Anyone so inclined can find the details in the Mission Summary Reports. They are contained in a large brown envelope along with the AF Form 5s that are a monthly record of my flying hours. These 96 Mission Summary Reports are on flimsy brittle second copy typewriter paper located in my office for anyone so inclined to review.

After flying 50 missions I had received the Distinguished Flying Cross and 4 Air Medals. Air Medals were awarded for each 10 missions. I later received two more DFCs but no more Air Medals. I guess 8th Fighter Command decided not to give more. The commendations for the additional two DFCs have been lost but they are recorded in my retirement Form 214 and in newspaper reports in my scrapbook. I flew 96 missions and somewhere in my files show that I had 252:15 combat hours.

While Paull and I were in London we visited Duxford home of the Imperial War Museum a branch of the Imperial War Museum in London we also visited. We also visited the American Air Museum on the same airdrome with the Duxford museum. I told an attendant at the American Museum that I had been a pilot at Duxford during the war and wanted to meet the director of the museum. He gave me directions to his office, which turned out to be the building that housed the 78th Group headquarters. We proceeded there and were met by two women, the Director was not there, who greeted us and gave us a copy of the dedication of the American Museum, which took place one month earlier. They also had a copy of the Duxford Diary and wanted me to autograph it. They also suggested that we visit the Officer's club across the road, which we did. On the way back to the Imperial Museum we met two men who were very anxious to meet me. They took us to their office, which was in the hanger that had housed our briefing room. They brought out a large photo album of pictures of pilots and ground personnel and wanted me to provide names. Many of the pictures were of me. After spending about an hour with them they provided a vehicle and driver to take us to the train station in Cambridge . Lets leave Duxford for a little recreation.

London

About once a month we were given a three-day pass and we usually went to London with a couple of friends. We did not stay at the Red Cross club where the accommodations were meager. We stayed at the better hotels such as the Strand Palace, the Mount Royal or the Park Lane. London was blacked out at night and I mean black. Prostitutes were everywhere. Mostly around the streets of Piccadilly Circus. You couldn't walk fifty feet without being propositioned. Many were refugees from France, Poland and other occupied countries as well as the English. Men trying to sell condoms would approach us. We wore blue patches under our wings to show we were combat pilots. That was supposed to give us priority in bars, hotels, train stations and so on but I don't think it worked very well. We usually met friends from other stations while in London. I remember meeting Grover Hall of the Montgomery Advertiser and Sam Perry Dixon, a B-17 pilot and son of the Alabama Governor, as well as many flying school classmates while in London. We also took advantage of visiting many of the historical sites. Many buildings were damaged or destroyed. Barrage balloons and anti-aircraft guns were everywhere. Hyde park was full of them. The Germans would send a few airplanes over London at night. They were known as nuisance raids. They would be caught in several searchlights and the anti-aircraft guns were fired at them. It was a sight to see until you had to take cover from the flack falling from the British guns. The British bars were allocated different kinds of liquor. They would run out of scotch and gin and if you wanted a drink late at night you would have to settle for a terrible rum drink.

Return to the Zone of the Interior

On May 8, 1944 Quince Brown and I received orders from VIII Fighter Command to return the States for thirty days rest and recuperation. We were flown in the group's U-78 to Blackpool. The commanding officer there was Colonel W. A. Gale. Col. Gale, a WWI veteran, had been a popular mayor of Montgomery for many years. I went to his office and introduced myself as a native of Montgomery and learned that he knew my mother and father from years ago. He greeted me warmly and invited me to have my meals at the table reserved for him and his staff, this saved me from waiting in a long chow line. Colonel Gale arranged to have his adjutant drive me to Blackpool to visit many of the nightclubs. We had a ball. After a few days we boarded the SS Argentina. One of about 2 ships in a convoy for a long voyage to New York. About four navy destroyer escort ships escorted us.

Every 3 or 4 nights they would weave through the formation and drop depth charges. We never knew if they were for enemy subs or practice. We had boat drills about twice a day. We had to don life preservers and go to a designated place near a lifeboat. We were at sea about two weeks. When we landed in New York we spent about an hour on board before disembarking being questioned by some men, the FBI, I think. They were mainly wanted to know how the P-47 performed against enemy fighters. I saw my first bubble canopy P-47 on a ship in the harbor. Quince and I checked in at the Commadore Hotel and left by train our homes. An overnight trip. Jean and Nita (my mother) met me at the station. Jean had made reservations at Greystone Hotel where we spent the night after a short visit at home. Nita had a nice party for us at the club at Maxwell. We spent some time at Johnnie's cabin on lake Martin. After meeting many pilots at Maxwell who said they wished they could be assigned overseas I became disillusioned about returning to England.

Anyway, we had a nice stay at home and two pilots at Maxwell volunteered to fly me to New York in a C-45. We landed at LaGuardia airport, which was the only airport in New York at the time. We checked in at the Commadore and I was having a drink at the bar when I walked Quince Brown wearing Major insignia. Quince was an ace with several victories. He had received word of his promotion to Major and was celebrated by a Quince Brown day in his hometown of Bristow Oklahoma. He returned to the 84th and shot down 3 or 4 to bring his total to 13. I read in the Eagles of Duxford that he was shot down by flack and crash-landed Germany. Quince was shot and killed by a German civilian. The German was tried after the war by the War Crimes trial and was executed.

Quince and I left New York by train for Atlantic City. The Air Force had taken over the Ritz-Carlton hotel for a redistribution center. Since my birthday was in July I was due for an annual physical exam. Doctors at the center did this and I was told I had severe combat fatigue. I was sent to a convalescence center at SL Petersburg Florida. The center was the Don Cesar Hotel. Jean came down to be with me and since I did not have to stay overnight at the hotel we rented a nice motel on the beach within walking distance of the hotel. I had to check in at the hotel every morning for treatment. When I was released for duty I was sent to Chanute Field to be trained as an Aircraft Engineering officer. They must have seen on my records that I had been a highway engineer. It was a good thing for me as it turned out. The course was nearly a year. We lived in Champaign Illinois about 10 miles from the base.

I was then transferred to Mitchell Field NY. I didn't like it there on Long Island and told the Colonel I was to work under that I was looking forward to being closer to home. He picked up the phone and called the base commander at Richmond VA, Colonel Hughes, and asked if he could use a fighter pilot trained as an Aircraft Engineering Officer and the answer was yes. So I left that very day for Richmond. I was pleased because it was closer to home and I did not like Long Island at all.

My first duty at Richmond was a flight test engineering officer. Richmond was a training base for P-47 pilots. I flew several times a day testing aircraft that had just been through periodic inspections. I was later made flight line maintenance officer to supervise maintenance of aircraft needing repair. I stayed at Richmond until the war with Japan ended September 2, 1945. Paull was born April 16, 1945 and my commanding officer gave me permission to fly a P-47 to Montgomery to see my son and wife. The Germans surrendered May 7, 1945. The P-47 was quite an attraction at Maxwell. Few people had seen it. Jean joined me later at Richmond and shortly after we were ordered to Shaw Field where we were when I was relieved from active duty in December 1945.

CIVILIAN LIFE AGAIN

I received a letter from the Director of the State Highway Department congratulating me for serving my country and offering my old job back. I rejected it because of the low pay. I later accepted a job with Eastern Air Lines in Montgomery as assistant station manager. It didn't pay much either. I later went back in the Air Force when I learned that ex officers could enlist with the grade of Master Sergeant. The pay was much better. About $300 a month. I had a nice job in base operations. Bobby was born December 17, 1947. With the Korean War looming I was recalled to active duty October 1947 with my old rank of Captain and sent to Bergstrom Field at Austin Texas.

BACK TO AIR FORCE LIFE

I was assigned to the 313th Troup Carrier Group an aircraft maintenance officer. We were equipped with C-47s for a few months then we began getting C-82s. The C-82 was a nice troop carrier aircraft. We could carry 40 paratroops and tow two gliders. We provided support for the 101st Airborne Division at Ft Campbell, KY and the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft Bragg, NC. The United States Air Force became a separate branch of the service in 1947. It was previously the Army Air Corps.

HAWAII

In May 1950 I received orders to proceed to Hickham AFB. Jean and our two boys accompanied me. We departed San Francisco on an army troupe ship for a seven-day voyage to Honolulu. I was assigned to the 1500 Maintenance and Supply Group as an aircraft maintenance officer. Hickham was equipped with two squadrons of C-54s and one squadron of C-97s. We had several C-47s for support and I flew supplies to about seven units on the outlying islands such as Maui once a week. I was called to the office of Major Busby, chief of maintenance, and was told that I was needed to replace the maintenance office on Johnston Island and was given the choice of going there or staying at Hickham in the Inspector General Office. I chose to go to Johnson Island. I didn't want to have any part of the Inspector General. I went to Johnson Island with my family who was very unhappy about my decision.

JOHNSTON ISLAND 1950 1951

The Korean War started in 1950 and there was a lot of traffic thru Johnson Island, a refueling base. The tour there was 12 months. Maintenance personnel were kept very busy refueling and providing maintenance on aircraft that needed it. I did get a chance to go to a maintenance conference in Tokyo. Conditions were very poor there since they were recovering from the war. Life on Johnston was miserable for Jean but Paull and Bobby seemed to enjoy it. I didn't mind it because it kept me busy and I had the use of the only Jeep on the island. The fishing was very good. We used the rescue boat when available. When my tour was up I received orders in March 1952 to return to Chanute AFB and assigned to the 1114th Special Air Mission Squadron. The mission was to provide VIP transportation for the 2nd Army in Chicago. While at Chanute I received a phone call from Group Headquarters in Washington offering me the job as commander of the 231st Special Air Mission Squadron at Dobbins AFB. I had been promoted to Major while at Chanute. I accepted the job and moved to Marietta with my family in March 1953.

DOBBINS AIR FORCE BASE

I enjoyed my job as squadron commander and flew as much as any pilot in the squadron. We were providing executive transportation for the 3rd Army that covered seven southeastern states. I flew personalities such as General Mark Clark and Werner Von Braun. While at Dobbins I received a call from Air Force Headquarters in August 1957 that I was to attend Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell APB. I considered this an honor since I had not applied for it.

COMMAND AND STAFF COLLEGE

Command and Staff College was a great experience for me. We had students from many nations. They left during the break for Christmas. After Christmas we got into a lot of top-secret stuff I flew C-45s for flying time. I qualified for Command Pilot while there. I had previously qualified for Senior Pilot while at Dobbins. I graduated on 12 June 1958 and was assigned to 1st Missile Division, Strategic Air Command at Vandenberg APB where I was working with the Titan I missile. I worked with a group that did all of the missile staff work for SAC

STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND HEADQUARTERS

In September 1960 SAC decided to transfer the staff work to SAC headquarters and many of the officers I worked with were transferred to SAC headquarters. I was a project officer on Titan I and Titan II. I worked under Major General James Wilson. I got my flying time in C-47s flying staff members to various SAC bases. One of the C-47s was equipped with compartments to train navigators. One of the navigators who flew with me was a Lt Colonel who dropped the atomic bomb on one of the cities in Japan. I was promoted to Colonel shortly before I retired in July 1964. This was the end of a wonderful and rewarding career.

Notes for Henry Routon Shows:

Henry Routon Shows of Luverne, Alabama married Merle Compton of Marengo County, Alabama. She is the daughter of Samuel William Compton, a teacher, lawyer, farmer and cattleman, and Ella Boozer. Merle attended Judson College and intended to become a teacher. She did teach for two years after graduation but did not enjoy that profession. She accepted a position as Director of Child Welfare in Luverne, Alabama in 1931. It was while working in this position that she met Henry Routon Shows. He was the bank president and successful widower about town and she the new and bright young lady from Tennessee. Merle said that she and a girlfriend with whom she worked would visit a local drugstore at noon each day to get a cup of coffee to go with their sandwiches for lunch. She said that Routon would "siddle up to the car" and try to talk to her. She "never paid him much mind" but several months later they were married.

It was about this time that the bank failed. The depression was hard in Luverne and the bank was suffering. A Dr. Ford, local physician and major depositor in the Bank of Luverne, decided to remove his money from the bank. Merle said that Routon came home that day, fell across the bed and cried like a baby. No amount of talk could persuade Dr. Ford to keep his money in the bank. It was then that several of the members of 6 the board decided that a merger with a second bank in Luverne would be the best way to go. When this merger was completed, the second bank dumped their debt on the Bank of Luverne and it folded. Routon and his brother Taylor were too poor to carry the bank by themselves so they went into other ventures. Taylor and Routon had a falling out and Taylor left the area. His young son Thomas didn't want to leave the area so Merle and Routon took him in. Routon died an early death in 1947. Merle raised young Tom and is well respected in the community. She was unaware that the Shows families in Rutledge were directly related to Routon but she was instrumental in getting some of them accepted to colleges in the south. One of those was to Judson, her Alma Mater.

Merle has managed the Shows interests in Luverne for the last 53 years after Routon's death. She made the rounds in the early days and collected the rents from the tenant farmers. She sold the cattle and horses and made all the decisions for a 2,000-acre estate. So, while Routon was certainly an outstanding Shows man, Merle has been the one to stand in the breach for the last half century and built an outstanding estate. As told to Ron Shows by Merle and placed here with her permission.

Irvin Gray (Erwin)⁷ Rentz (George Godfrey⁷, George Alexander (Sandy)⁶, George Washington⁵, Johann Georg⁴ Renz, Jacob Fridrich³, Christina Catharina² Zizmann, Jakob¹) was born 29 Sep 1927 in Sweet Water, Marengo Co, Alabama. He married Joan Magahee 11 Jun 1950. She was born 16 May 1931, and died 25 Oct 2014.

Notes for Irvin Gray (Erwin) Rentz:

MOBILE, Alabama — The history of Meadowbrook subdivision has been one of respect for tradition coupled with preparation for the future. In 1951, Meadowbrook was developed from pasture land purchased from Graf Dairy near Grant Street (later replaced by Airport Boulevard) in what was considered “west” Mobile at that time.

Westlawn Elementary School, a Mobile County Public School established in 1947, was already in operation. In 1954, the Catholic Diocese of Mobile (now Archdiocese) bought land fronting Sage Avenue to break ground for Pius X Catholic Church and, in 1957, St. Pius X School.

Now the neighborhood is in Midtown Mobile, with easy access to the malls and I-65. The subdivision is bounded on the east by Florida Street (except for one later section across Florida) and the Pathway Apartment complex outside Meadowbrook; on the west by Sage Avenue; on the north by the Walton Avenue area; and on the south by Jennings Drive (in two parts, bordering Airport Boulevard), according to resident Patricia Rhinehart.

Current resident Artie McGowan composed this pledge in a “Meadowbrook History” in 2004 to present and future residents alike: “We respect the dignity and worth of our neighbors and value the diversity of culture, heritage, and history within our community. We pledge to strive to improve the quality of life of all our residents by working together to assure all of our neighbors a clean, safe, economically viable and progressive community that is responsive to changing needs.” Residents of Meadowbrook tend to settle in and stay for long periods of time, and their offspring sometimes return to live there also.

The civic club sponsors a number of annual activities designed to pull neighborhood people together and keep the neighborhood up, Rhinehart said. Popular events include the rolling Santa tour at Christmas, in which a vehicle with Santa and carolers aboard drives through the subdivision, picking up children along the way. Neighbors come out to wave, enjoy the music and grab candy thrown by Santa. Parents with children have pictures taken at the end of the ride. The neighbors also enjoy an annual Halloween supper and an Easter egg hunt. The civic club is also a Mobile Community Action Group, which meets with Mobile Police Department representatives and stays in touch with other critical services, such as the fire department. Designated block captains keep their area informed with emails, event flyers and a new resident greeting service.

Original owners Irving and Joan Rentz had their home built in 1953 when Rentz worked for a local building supply company. The plans (1,296 square feet with three bedrooms and a bath) and price of $8,800 were agreed upon through a handshake and verbal commitment between homeowner and contractor. The interior walls were (and still are) covered with plaster because wallboard was not then in use, Rentz said.

As their five children came along, they added on instead of moving any further west, which was too far out in the country, Rentz said with a laugh. The Rentz family has never left home during a hurricane. Even during Hurricane Frederic in 1979, they “had a ball with their neighbors,” staying on the front porch through most of it because Meadowbrook was centered in the eye of the storm. During 13 days without power afterward, the neighbors “ate like kings and queens” to dispose of their refrigerated and frozen food before it spoiled, Rentz remembered. “We love the neighborhood and enjoy living here. It is still to us a private little neighborhood and yet convenient to everything. I don’t where we would want to move today,” Rentz said.

1175. Virginia Inell Gavin⁷ Rentz (Charles Edward⁷, George Alexander (Sandy)⁶, George Washington⁵, Johann Georg⁴ Renz, Jacob Fridrich³, Christina Catharina² Zizmann, Jakob¹) was born 10 Jul 1941 in Butler Co, Alabama, and died 24 Mar 2012 in Selma, Marengo Co, Alabama. She married William Herbert McGee 02 Jun 1963. He was born 25 Jan 1937 in McNairy Co, Tennessee, and died 27 Nov 2006 in Selma, Marengo Co, Alabama.

Notes for Virginia Inell Gavin Rentz:

Virginia Inell Gavin Rentz McGee, age 70, of Selma, Alabama, died at her residence on March 24, 2012, after a courageous battle with colon cancer. She was surrounded by her family in death as she was in life. Inell was born on July 10, 1941, in Butler, Alabama, to Wittie (Carlisle) and Charlie Rex Gavin. Charlie Gavin died when Inell was three years old, and Wittie married Charles Edward Rentz of Myrtlewood, Alabama, who raised Inell as his own daughter. Charles Rentz died in 1986, and Wittie Rentz died in 2006.

On June 1, 1963, Inell married William Herbert McGee of Selmer, Tennessee, her college sweetheart and a celebrated athlete at Huntingdon College. They were married until his death on November 27, 2006.

Inell is survived by three children: Stan McGee (John Finley IV), Boston, Massachusetts; Dr. Monica McGee Decker (Dr. Bill Decker), Marion, Ohio; Gavin McGee (Rebecca Huizinga), Phoenix, Arizona; and two grandchildren, Benjamin Decker and Rachel Decker of Marion, OH. Inell is also survived by her two sisters, Charlene Meadows (Don), Wetumpka, AL, and Sherry Hill (Steve), Alabaster, AL, plus many nieces and nephews. Inell was also blessed to have many friends throughout her life, many with whom she still visited until very recently.

In 1959, Inell graduated from Linden High School, where she was both the homecoming queen and class valedictorian. She attended Judson College from 1959-1960 and then transferred to Huntingdon College where she participated in many activities – among others, she was a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma, Treasurer of the SGA, member of the Huntingdon Choir, and was voted Miss Charming. She graduated from Huntingdon in 1963 with a degree in Home Economics. Juggling work and family commitments, Inell later attended Livingston University where she received her Masters of Education in 1980.

Inell began her teaching career in 1963 in Tuskegee, during the first year of desegregation of the public schools there, and then moved to Selma and taught 6th grade at Byrd School from 1964-1968. She taught at Potter Station (7th-9th grade) from 1970-1971 and then moved to Southside High School where she taught English for two decades. She retired from teaching in 1993 but was called out of retirement in 1997 and taught one year at Morgan Academy.

Inell was very proud to be a school teacher because she knew she was making a difference in the lives of her students. She taught them how to speak well, read well, and write well. In many students, she instilled a life-long interest in learning and introduced them to the literary classics. She knew these skills would help her students throughout their lives. She loved her students as if they were her own children and took great pride in their many accomplishments and successes.

Inell was also an accomplished musician throughout her life. She was a pianist for her country church before her feet could even reach the pedals. Inell continued to play for enjoyment throughout her life. One of the many highlights in Inell's life was in 1992 when she was awarded a National Endowment for the Humanities scholarship to study Mozart in Vienna. She was one of 15 participants selected from the United States to receive this honor. Inell treasured the lessons and the life-long friendships she made on this trip, the first of several trips she would make to Europe.

Inell was extremely creative, not only in writing, but also with sewing, interior decorating, and with craft projects. She designed the house that she and Herb built in 1971 and re-designed and renovated it in later years even after her cancer diagnosis. She considered yard work and gardening to be therapeutic and loved to be outside and in her greenhouse tending to her many flower beds and citrus trees. From early on, Inell adored and was surrounded by many loving pets. Inell also loved to read and usually had a few books she was reading at any time. She was intellectually curious and used books as a means to travel to places outside Alabama well before she actually did. As anyone who ever sat next to her on a plane during one of her many trips could attest, she took tremendous pride in the accomplishments of her children and those included, among many others, a son who was a Rhodes Scholar, a daughter who was Girl of the Year, and a son who is a mechanical engineer and test driver for Ford Motor Company.

Inell was a member at Church Street United Methodist Church, where she was also a member of the choir. Inell was also a member and former President of Delta Kappa Gamma (International Honorary for Women Educators) and was active with Selma's Ossian Club and the Reading Group at the Selma Public Library.

Visitation will be at the Lawrence Brown-Service Funeral Home in Selma, Alabama, from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Tuesday, March 27, 2012. On Wednesday, March 28, 2012, there will be a brief graveside burial service at the New Live Oak Cemetery followed by an 11 AM memorial and celebration of life service at Church Street United Methodist Church led by The Reverend Fred Zeigler. All attendees are asked to stay, enjoy refreshments and visit with Inell's family following the service. Pallbearers will be Andy Meadows, Rev. Tim Meadows, Brian Hill, Michael Naro, Charlie Lucas, Bill Tate and Edwin Wilson. Honorary Pallbearers will be Steve Hill, Ralph Hobbs, Don Meadows, Billy Rentz, Dean Wilcox and the Linden High School Class of 1959. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Delta Kappa Gamma "Girl of the Year" Scholarship Fund (c/o Donna Wiltsie, 2110 Delanie Drive, Selma, AL 36701), Church Street UMC or Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama. Inell requested that all of her former students wear a small white ribbon so that her family can see all those she taught throughout her career. These ribbons will be available at the visitation and at the memorial and celebration of life service.

Notes for William Herbert McGee:

William Herb McGee died on Monday, November 27, 2006, at Warren Manor in Selma, Alabama, after an extended illness. Before his retirement in 1994, he was Director of Child Nutrition and Transportation for the Dallas County Schools and a cattle farmer in Summerfield. He was born January 25, 1937, in McNairy County, Tennessee, and grew up near Selmer, Tennessee. The National Jr. College Basketball Tournament brought him to Alabama where he was recruited by Coach Neal Posey of Huntingdon College in Montgomery. In 1960, Herb became the first pitcher on Huntingdon's first baseball team and a forward on Huntingdon's basketball team. In 1993, he was named to the Athletic Hall of Fame at Huntingdon.

Coach McGee came to Selma in 1964 and coached years at Parrish High School later Selma High School. In 1969, he was named All-Star Coach in both baseball and basketball. After getting his M. Ed., he moved from coaching to assistant principal at Southside High School and then later to principal. He was a avid fisherman and hunter in addition to his administrative duties and his work as a cattle farmer.

He is survived by his wife, Inell Gavin Rentz McGee, three children: Stan McGee (John H. Finley, IV) of Boston, Massachusetts, Dr. Monica Decker (Dr. Bill Decker) of Marion, Ohio, and Gavin McGee (Becca Huizinga) of Phoenix, Arizona, and two grandchildren, Benjamin and Rachel Decker. He is also survived by two brothers, John Ernest McGee of Madison, Alabama, and Bennie McGee of Alamo, Tennessee, and two sisters, Joyce Brooks of Selmer, Tennessee, and Doris Robinson of Memphis, Tennessee, along with numerous nieces and nephews. Friends who want to remember Mr. McGee are encourage to contribute to Church Street United Methodist, Huntingdon College Athletic Hall of Fame, the Diabetes Foundation or to a personal charity of their choice.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, November 30, 2006 at 11:00 a.m. at Church Street United Methodist Church. Visitation will be on Wednesday from 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Marriage: 02 Jun 1963

Children of Virginia Rentz and William McGee are:

- 2171 i. Carl Stanley⁸ McGee, born 09 Mar 1969. He married Rev. John Huston Finley IV 12 Nov 2005; born 15 Jun 1970.

Notes for Carl Stanley McGee:

2005 - When informed of their son's decision to take up with Carl Stanley McGee, a lawyer from Alabama, the family of John Huston Finley IV, a Bostonian, was dismayed, but not about the fact he was in a serious relationship with another man. "My parents were far more upset that Stan was a Hilary Clinton-supporting Democrat than they were about us," Mr. Finley said. "I remember them asking Stan a lot of 'coming out' type questions: 'Maybe you didn't have a good Republican experience? Have you told your parents how you feel?' " They were introduced by a mutual friend nearly 10 years ago. "Our first date was at a monastery," said Mr. McGee, who is 36 and known as Stan, recalling their meeting at a service at the Society of St. John the Evangelist in Cambridge, Massachusetts. "Stan thought it was a very bizarre gay date, but we were both interested in theology," said Mr. Finley, now 35 and a candidate for ordination in the Episcopal Church. "When the monk came by with the holy water I saw Stan take what I assumed was a deep and profoundly pious bow. Later I realized it was because he was wearing a suede waistcoat which he didn't want to get stained."

The affably preppy Mr. Finley, who is also the founder and the director of the Epiphany School, a private, tuition-free middle school in Boston for children of poor families, has a classic New England pedigree, which includes a degree from Harvard, where his grandfather was a master of Eliot House. His family, he said, was staunchly Republican "until the second Bush administration." The bespectacled Mr. McGee is a Harvard Law School graduate and a former Rhodes scholar who now works as a junior partner in the Boston offices of WilmerHale. He has a serious mien, a booming drawl and a shock of prematurely white hair. His passion for Democratic politics is rooted in the Deep South, and he has long been interested in the "pernicious connection" between church and state, he said.

"John had more of a sense of faith being a positive force," Mr. McGee said. Yet, of the two, he says Mr. Finley "is more impetuous, more Gestalt, more big picture." He added, "We're more yin-yang, more complementary, than opposites. John's all sugar and I'm all lemon zest." Religion, the Constitution and confectionery ingredients notwithstanding, the day after their first date Mr. McGee sent Mr. Finley a dozen red roses; Mr. Finley sent Mr. McGee two dozen. A month later, while driving down Storrow Drive in Cambridge, they first spoke of their feelings for each other. "It felt right from the very beginning," Mr. Finley said. "The affection I felt radiated back to me." Mr. McGee agreed: "There was a sense of completeness I felt with John that I'd never experienced before."

Eventually their relationship came to include a weekly visit with the Finley family in Brookline. "Stan's mother had dinner at our house once," recalled Mr. Finley, who, unlike Mr. McGee, had revealed his leanings to his family at age 13. "Everyone but her knew at that point that Stan was gay. When we walked into the dining room where a portrait of my grandmother hangs, she turned to me and said: 'Your grandmother is very beautiful.' I said, 'With a fur and pearls I could look just as beautiful.' From behind the bar came a crash; Stan had dropped a tray of oysters." Politics aside, both families were never anything but fully accepting of the relationship, Mr. Finley and Mr. McGee both said. "My mother was the first of her circle to send out a Christmas card with a gay partner included," Mr. Finley said. In time they were sharing an apartment in Boston and making plans to wed under Massachusetts law.

"Stan and John are deeply conservative and old fashioned and traditional in every way," said Jennifer Bradley, a college friend of Mr. McGee's. So a civil marriage ceremony paired with a religious service was planned at the Church of the Redeemer in Chestnut Hill, the Episcopal parish where Mr. Finley's family are longtime members. On Nov. 12, 2005, their wedding day, the couple greeted guests in front of the church. Friends and family watched from candlelit pews as Mr. Finley and Mr. McGee walked down the aisle holding hands.

State Senator Jarrett T. Barrios, who received permission from the state to officiate, led the civil ceremony, pronouncing to thunderous applause that the couple were "fully and legally married." The Right Rev. M. Thomas Shaw, the bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, then presided over the Eucharist. That the couple decided on a wedding in the classic mold came as no surprise to those who know them. Neither did the black-tie reception at the Brandegee House, an estate they had rented in Brookline. After a dinner for 250 in an elaborately decorated and heated tent on the grounds, guests filed into the mansion's ballroom, and danced as a 14-piece orchestra played swing. Somehow everything old seemed new again. As Ms. Bradley said of the marriage, "Seeing people who have been locked out of it makes you appreciate it more."

Feb. 7, 2008 - A top official in the Patrick administration has been placed on unpaid leave because he was arrested in Florida and charged with sexually assaulting a 15-year-old male in a steam room at a $500-a-night Gulf Coast resort. Carl Stanley McGee, 38, assistant secretary for policy and planning, is scheduled to be arraigned next week for sexual battery in Lee County, Fla. McGee helped draft Patrick's casino bill, life sciences legislation, and his plan to bring broadband Internet service to the farthest reaches of the state.

According to police reports, McGee was arrested Dec. 28 and accused of performing oral sex on the 15-year-old, who was a guest at The Gasparilla Inn & Club, a 95-year-old hotel and championship golf course in Boca Grande. McGee was held overnight on a $300,000 bond. Few state employees were aware of the arrest. An account had appeared in the local newspaper, the Boca Beacon. McGee's co-workers said they had been told he was out sick. McGee, whose annual salary is approximately $150,000, could not be reached for comment. His lawyer, Charles Rankin, did not return phone calls from the Globe.

Kofi Jones - spokesman for McGee's direct supervisor, Secretary of Housing and Economic Development Daniel O'Connell - issued a brief written statement saying, "Mr. McGee was placed on administrative leave effective January 7, pending the outcome of the matter." McGee, a former Rhodes scholar and Harvard Law School graduate, was previously a corporate lawyer at the law firm Wilmer Hale. He was instrumental in the movement seeking to defeat efforts to overturn legalization of same-sex marriage, serving as director of the civic and business outreach efforts of the advocacy group MassEquality.

A year after same-sex marriage became legal in Massachusetts in May 2004, McGee's wedding to John Finley IV was highlighted in the "Vows" section of The New York Times. Former state senator Jarrett T. Barrios officialated. Known for his shock of platinum hair, McGee was named one of The Boston Globe's 25 most stylish Bostonians in November. In the article, he described his style as "traditional, but it's also subversive and ironic." "You cannot wear pinstripe suits and have my hair color," McGee said. Friends and supporters in state government were stunned by the news of McGee's arrest and said they do not believe the charges. "I know it didn't happen," said one official, who asked for anonymity because she was not authorized to speak on the matter.

According to a probable cause statement filed by the Lee County sheriff's office, an "unknown white male" approached the alleged victim the day before the alleged assault, striking up a conversation with him in a bathroom. The next day, the alleged victim was in a steam room when the same man, later identified as McGee, entered the room and sat beside the teenager. McGee is accused of masturbating and performing oral sex on the teenager. An officer from the Lee County sheriff's special victim's unit tried to interview McGee that day, but he refused to answer questions without a lawyer present, according to the probable cause statement. Later that day, another officer spotted McGee, who voluntarily went with the officer.

The alleged victim then "positively identified the individual as the person who sexually battered him," the probable cause statement said. McGee's arraignment on the charges was scheduled for Jan. 28, but was postponed until Feb. 11, according to Lee County court records. Two days after his arrest, he was stopped for speeding in the same Florida county and assessed a $181.50 fine. According to county records, he is due back in court for a traffic hearing Feb. 13.

May 6, 2012 - Carl Stanley McGee (he goes by "Stan"), a top aide to Massachusetts Governor Deval Patrick, has been hired as interim director of the new Massachusetts Gambling Commission. Unfortunately for McGee and for the commission, McGee was charged with sexual assault on a 15-year-old boy in Florida four years ago. Although most people involved are claiming this no big deal, some—including the boy and his family—are raising objections.

McGee, who is originally from Alabama, was a Rhodes Scholar and holds a degree from Harvard Law School. Before being hired by Governor Patrick, McGee worked for the Wilmer Hale law firm. In 2004 McGee was actively involved in the effort to keep gay marriage legal in Massachusetts. In 2005, McGee and his partner John Finley IV married, and they even featured in the trendy and exclusive New York Times Vows column.

An excerpt: The affably preppy Mr. Finley, who is also the founder and the director of the Epiphany School, a private, tuition-free middle school in Boston for children of poor families, has a classic New England pedigree, which includes a degree from Harvard, where his grandfather was a master of Eliot House. In 2007 he was named one of the Globe's 25 most stylish Bostonians. In the accompanying interview, he described his style as English traditional with an Alabama twist. I am not someone who is always chasing fads or trends. I spent a fair amount of time at Oxford on a Rhodes fellowship. My style wasn't created there, but I think it was reinforced. Many would call it traditional, but it's also subversive and ironic. You cannot wear pinstripe suits and have my hair color.

ALLEGED SEXUAL ASSAULT - From The Boston Globe, February 7, 2008:

A top official in the Patrick administration has been placed on unpaid leave because he was arrested in Florida and charged with sexually assaulting a 15-year-old male in a steam room at a $500-a-night Gulf Coast resort. McGee helped draft Patrick's casino bill, life sciences legislation, and his plan to bring broadband Internet service to the farthest reaches of the state. According to police reports, McGee was arrested Dec. 28 and accused of performing oral sex on the 15-year-old, who was a guest at The Gasparilla Inn & Club, a 95-year-old hotel and championship golf course in Boca Grande. McGee was held overnight on a $300,000 bond. The Globe reported that McGee's co-workers were surprised to learn of the charges, because they had been told he was out sick during that time.

Here's a little more detail about the alleged assault. McGee...met the boy, who police said is between 12 and 16 years of age, in a bathroom at the resort a day earlier where they engaged in small talk, according to the police report. The boy told police he ran into McGee again the next day in the resort's steam room. McGee sat next to him, removed his towel, rubbed the boy's back and shoulders and performed oral sex on him, according to the police report. The boy's father contacted police, who spotted McGee at the resort based on a description from the boy.

In March the Lee County prosecutor decided not to press charges even though the police investigator disagreed. ...[A] child abuse investigator asked by the Florida governor's office to review the case told the Cape Cod Times Thursday he found the boy's story credible. He urged prosecutors to reconsider criminal charges, he said. "The child reported it immediately, he identified (McGee) from the backseat of a police car, and he gave a good statement to police," Terry Thomas, a special agent with 27 years of experience investigating child abuse cases with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, said Thursday. Then he reiterated something he wrote in his report: "I have seen cases successfully prosecuted with less evidence than this case."

There was just one more little bump in the road before McGee could breathe a sigh of relief and return to his glamorous life and brilliant career. When the prosecutor declined to move forward with charges, Boston attorney Wendy Murphy filed suit in 2009 against McGee on behalf of the boy and his family and the case was settled in a confidential agreement in 2011, she said Thursday. Hmmm...sounds McGee had to pay a few bucks to get out of his little scrape, doesn't it? I wonder how his husband reacted to all this? I checked and they were still married as of this year.

CURRENT CONTROVERSY - Fast forward to May 2012. After the hiring was reported in the Globe, some people started asking questions. But the gaming commission wasn't worried.

Stephen Crosby, gaming commission chairman, said commissioners reviewed the incident and were convinced it should not be a factor in whether to hire him. "Two of us had looked into it quite a bit and everyone we talked to from the state attorney in Florida, to his employer at the time Dan O'Connell, to Gov. Deval Patrick — everyone came to the same conclusion that there was zero substance to these charges," Crosby said. "Given that there is zero substance to the allegations, to hold that against him would be inappropriate. He's a superstar. He's very intelligent and a first-rate public servant." A superstar who likes to take advantage of underage boys. But so what, "there is zero substance to the allegations" even though Stan settled a civil suit by the boy's family. Today, the Globe reported that the gaming commission didn't actually investigate the incident or contact Florida law enforcement or prosecutors. In fact the chairman of the commission felt really sorry for poor Stan and probably couldn't imagine him doing such a thing. The chairman of the state's new gambling commission last week called Carl Stanley McGee's record pristine, saying he had reviewed the 2007 sexual assault charges against McGee in Florida and found them warrantless and meritless. "He went through this horrendous experience of being accused of a sexual harassment charge several years ago in Florida," chairman Stephen Crosby told his colleagues Tuesday, according to a transcript of the meeting posted on the agency's website, before they voted to name McGee interim executive director. But today, Crosby admitted to the Globe that he didn't really bother to order an investigation, he simply relied on what he read in "news reports." "I did not do any independent analysis of the state attorney's work, nor do I believe that would be appropriate," he wrote in an e-mail to the Globe Friday. "Stan is presumed to be innocent of the allegations."

The Globe reported last week that law enforcement officials in Florida had believed the alleged victim, who was 15 but looked younger, and had urged the local prosecutor to bring charges against McGee soon after the alleged attack. They described a teenager who was scared but credible, providing consistent accounts of the incident. Crosby claimed he had been assured by the Patrick administration that the charges were "meritless," but according to the Globe that would have been impossible because the Patrick administration never investigated the charges either.

The alleged victim in the case, now a 20-year-old college student, reacted angrily Wednesday after reading that McGee's former boss — Daniel O'Connell, formerly secretary of housing and economic development in the Patrick administration — had called the allegations false when interviewed by the Globe about McGee's selection. The family then released the results of a 2008 investigation by Florida child welfare officials recommending that McGee be prosecuted. The state investigation was conducted after the family complained to the Florida governor's office about the local prosecutor's decision not to press charges. An investigator for the Florida Department of Law Enforcement subsequently recommended that the prosecutor reconsider the charge of sexual battery on a child under 16 and add a second charge of lewd and lascivious acts upon a child under 16. But the prosecutor still refused to press charges, and the family filed suit and won a settlement from McGee with the help of Massachusetts victim rights attorney Wendy Murphy.

And that's the whole sordid story so far. I decided to tell it in detail, because I think this is probably typical of what happens when a successful, powerful person is accused of an offense against a child. Why do Americans place so little value on the lives of children? And so another child predator goes free. Raise your hand if you think this was the only time Stan took advantage of a young boy. Perhaps another victim will come forward after all the publicity.

Awarded for actions during the World War II - The President of the United States of America takes pride in presenting the Silver Star (Posthumously) to Private First Class James H. Contacting a large force of Japanese troops occupying well-concealed positions during the later stages of the fierce hostilities following our invasion of this strategic enemy base, Private First Class Rentz fearlessly risked his life to engage the Japanese, forcing his attack with determined aggressiveness and waging a bitter fight in an effort to crush the stubborn pocket of hostile resistance. Farmer, businessman, mayor, preservationist Bill Singer dies at 82

William Benton "Bill" Singer, a former three-term mayor of Lumpkin, Georgia, died Monday morning at the Columbus Hospice House on his 82nd birthday. A memorial service will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Lumpkin United Methodist Church. Singer, a lifelong resident of Lumpkin, started school in Lumpkin, but graduated from Darlington School in Rome, Georgia, and Emory University with a history degree. After graduation from Emory, he returned home to Lumpkin where he was a successful businessman, preservationist and peanut and cotton farmer. "He told people he was just a dirt farmer from southwest Georgia, but he was a lot more than that to the people of his community,” said his son-in-law, Gary Bruce, a Columbus attorney. His on-again, off-again political career span more than a half century. He was first elected mayor in 1960s after he returned home from college. He last elected mayor in 2008, but could not complete the term due to health concerns.

Falling back on his love of history, Singer was involved in many historical pursuits in Lumpkin and the region. Notes for Sara Staton:

She was born on April 20, 1937 to Dr. and Mrs. Torrence Ripley Staton (Marian Eisenbrown) in Atlanta, Georgia. She graduated from Emory University as part of the first inaugural women's class where she met William "Bill" Benton Singer. They married in 1958 and made Lumpkin, Georgia their home for 60 years. Sara taught school for more than 40 years at Lumpkin Elementary School and Brookstone School and made learning come alive by bringing her students to Stewart County to learn about fossils, flowers, creeks, and farms. She was known for her wildflower gardens, as well as being a well-prepared host and constant community volunteer. Her family knew her for her love of the outdoors, hikes in the North Carolina mountains, crawling through underground passages in Tennessee caves, and when required, using pruning shears to snip the head off a rattlesnake in her garden shortly before a family wedding.

Sara and Bill found joy in the finding the first bloodroot of spring in the farm's woods and, with her dear friend, Rhoda, enjoy the mountain laurel at Shady Grove. She loved people. She stayed in touch with her dear Emory friends each year and made meaningful connections with her students, family and friends. She was a leader. She served Lumpkin and Stewart County working on historic preservation, beautification and educational opportunities, including acting as a founding member of both the Stewart County Historical Commission and Historic Westville, Inc.

Sara is survived by her sister, Deborah Staton Cook (Mrs. Sid) and her four children and their spouses, Rip and Linda Singer (Columbus), Mary Deborah and Gary Bruce (Columbus), Marian and Michael Rose (Wellfleet, Massachusetts), and Julian Singer and Chandler Collins (Columbus). Her grandchildren include Will Singer (Molly), Tory Singer (Casey), Sara Carolyn Bruce, Benton Bruce, Garrett Rose, Neilly Rose, Evie Rose, James Rose, Wes Bruer, and Warren Bruer. She also is survived by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Fred (Jeanne) Singer and Mrs. Buck (Dot) Singer, many nieces and nephews whom she loved, and her dear friend Rhoda Ingram Averett. She is predeceased by her husband, Bill, and by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Torrence Ripley Staton, and by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. (Nora McNeil) Theodore Logine Staton. Sara loved her family and we loved her.

Due to the current Covid-19 crisis and with a desire to keep everyone as safe and healthy as possible, Sara's funeral will be attended by family only. The family so wishes that we could be with everyone who loved and will miss Sara, to share your stories, and fellowship. Should you wish to make a donation in her memory, two organizations that were meaningful to Sara were the Lumpkin United Methodist Church (P.O. Box 188 Lumpkin, Georgia 31815) and Historic Westville, Inc. (3557 S Lumpkin Rd, Columbus, Georgia 31903). 1632. Marilena (Mary)⁷ Singer (Frank Schley⁶, Frederick Samuel⁵, Johann Georg⁴, Johannes³, Maria Barbara² Zizmann, Jakob¹) was born 14 Dec 1927 in Stewart Co, Georgia, and died 26 May 2017. She married Wallace Reid Andrews, Jr. 20 Nov 1949 in Lumpkin, Stewart Co, Georgia. He was born Aft. 1922, and died 2005.

Notes for Marilena (Mary) Singer:

Marilena Singer Andrews passed away peacefully on May 26, 2017. She was born December 14, 1927, the proud daughter of Thelma Shierling Singer and Frank Schley Singer of Lumpkin, Georgia. The third of four siblings, she was preceded in death by her brother, Frank Singer, Jr. and her two sisters, Anna Stark and Barbara Redmond. After graduating from high school in Lumpkin, Mrs. Andrews attended Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, and Brenau College in Gainesville, Georgia, where she graduated with a degree in history in 1948. She then taught high school history in Cuthbert, Georgia, where she was introduced by her dear friend Anne Connelly Cheney to a local farmer and World War II veteran, Wallace Reid Andrews, Jr. of Carnegie, Georgia, who would become her husband of 56 years. She was the ever faithful helpmate of her husband through the trials of dry land farming in Calhoun County and through his long years of illness. Mr. Andrews preceded her in death in 2005.

Mrs. Andrews adored her two daughters, Frankie Andrews Hollister and husband, Dr. Dickerman Hollister, Jr., of Greenwich, Connecticut, and Martha Andrews Corrigan and husband, Christopher Corrigan, of Savannah and Edison, Georgia. She was known fondly as "MaLena" to her four grandchildren, Catherine Reid Hollister and Dickerman Hollister III of Greenwich, Connecticut, Thomas Patrick Corrigan of New York, New York, and Mary Wallace Corrigan of Davis, California. A witty, generous, and fiercely loyal wife, mother and grandmother, Mrs. Andrews will be sorely missed by these who survive her and by those many cousins, nieces, and nephews who were always a support and joy to her.

A longtime church pianist at Carnegie Baptist Church, Mrs. Andrews shared her appreciation of music by teaching piano to local children and by playing for the weddings and funerals of friends. A woman of many talents, Mrs. Andrews also shared her love of sewing, making draperies and clothes for friends and family, and delighting many with her counted cross-stitch creations. If not playing or stitching, she was often reading. She served as one of Edison, Georgia's earliest librarians. A speed reader since high school, she often claimed to have read everything "worth" reading in the library many times over. Outside of her quieter pursuits, Mrs. Andrews could often be found laughing with family and friends on the golf course or at the bridge table or planning a party to satisfy her love of entertaining others.

All who knew her are invited to join her family in celebrating her life at the visitation at Lunsford Funeral Home on Saturday, May 27 at 5:30pm or at funeral services at Edison Baptist Church at 2pm on Sunday, May 28, 2017 with interment to follow in the Carnegie Baptist Church.

Notes for Elise Dearman:

Elise Dearman Mapp, a long-time resident of Monroe, Louisiana, passed away at Grace Home in Shreveport, La. on Wednesday, Sept. 22, 2010. Elise was born in Forest, Mississippi on Dec. 12, 1917, to Eula Jane Nordan Dearman and Soloman Abner Dearman. While attending Blue Mountain College, she majored in Bible and Speech. On Dec. 18, 1938 she married Marcus Buford Mapp, her high school sweetheart. They lived for 10 years in Starkville, Miss. before moving back to Forest to open Mapp Florist and Gift Shop. In 1954 they moved to Monroe, Louisiana.

At both Mississippi State University and the University of Louisiana, Monroe, Elise organized Presbyterian Student Groups and served as the Campus Christian Life Director for them. The Westminster House was a place where students lived, studied, and developed a deep Christian faith. She was counselor, confidante, teacher, and sometimes parent for these students and their friends. During this time, Elise also served on the faculty for youth conferences at both Mo-Ranch, Texas, and Montreat, North Carolina.

An avid reader, Elise amassed a library that was enjoyed by her family, friends, and Westminster students. As a reviewer for Doubleday Book Co., she shared her love of books with many civic and church groups in the area. While in Monroe, Elise was a member of First Presbyterian Church. She served as an Elder, chaired the Ministries for Adult Education and Congregational Nurture, and taught both senior high and adult classes. For many of these classes, she developed the curriculum herself. She was a charter member of North Monroe Hospital Auxiliary and served for three years as President. Her leadership afforded the funding for five full-time scholarships at the University for students in the field of health care.

Her talents and variety of interests led her to be an active participant in the Fort Miro Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, the Prairie des Canots Chapter of the Colonial Dames of the XVII Century, the Upper Louisiana Chapter of Daughters of Founders and Patriots, the Twentieth Century Book Club, Chapters AZ and R of P.E.O., Zeta Tau Alpha, and a Life Master of American Contract Bridge. She's the author of a family cookbook, Treasure Tree. In 2006, Elise moved to Bossier City to be near her son Andy and his family. She joined Broadmoor Presbyterian Church and was a positive voice for her friends at Glenview Gardens. In a letter to her Monroe friends, she described Glenview as a beautiful building, painted light yellow with white columns, surrounded with blooming plants, fountains, and porches with rocking chairs. She concluded, "I count my blessings every day."

Elise was predeceased by her parents, her sisters Myrtice Doty and Marjorie Dearman, her brother William Dearman, her husband Marcus Mapp, and her precious daughter Malise Mapp Russell. She is survived by her son Andrew Franklin Mapp, Sr. and his wife Dianne of Bossier City and her grandchildren: Elise Mitchell and her husband Leon of Wister, Oklahoma; Tatum Russell and his wife Denise of Plano, Texas; Andrew Mapp, Jr. and his wife Lisa of Cumming, Georgia; and Eason Mapp and his wife Tracy of Bossier City. Born in Crenshaw County, Alabama, on Dec. 6, 1922, he was the oldest son of John D. and Victoria McLeod Nichols who preceded him in death.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Dorothy Lee Mayo Nichols. They would have proudly celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary in April of this year. In this capacity he installed some of the first computers in Alabama, often taking up the entire building basements of Alabama state office buildings and local banks. Upon his retirement from Unisys, he began his second career as Building Supervisor at St. James United Methodist Church. He served in this capacity for 28 years, up to his death. He began his career at Texas Instruments in 1969 as an electrical engineer. His work eventually brought him to Singapore where he met his wife Anita. They moved back to Texas in 1996 when Jim retired. His dream was to live by the water, and he spent the last twenty years living that dream.

A passionate woodworker and master craftsman, Jim had a workshop in his garage where he built many heirloom pieces for himself and his family. He was also mechanically inclined and was happiest when figuring out a new engineering project such as NASCAR certified racing Volkswagen Bug. He gutted an old beetle and rebuilt it from scratch ready for the raceway. But his talents didn't stop there, he was a pit master, serving up the finest BBQ, brisket, and smoked meat around.

She grew up in San Antonio and later in Edinburg, Texas. She began playing the piano for church and school functions at age 12. An excellent student, she graduated from Edinburg High School in 1936 and attended Pan American College where she worked for nine cents an hour to pay her tuition. She was a faithful member of the First United Methodist Church of Nixon and served the church with her musical talents for more than 50 years. She took additional college courses and began her civil service career at Brooks Air Force Base as a clerk typist. After retiring, she loved to travel and toured Australia, including Alice Springs, Nixon's sister city. She also visited New Zealand, Fiji, and Mexico as well as many states in the U.S. Dorothy had a lifelong love of reading and helped reorganize and expand the AphnePatillo Library in Nixon. Notes for Richard L. Lepre:

Hackensack, New Jersey - Albert P. Schmidt Construction Co. of Franklin Lakes, an award-winning builder of corporate and industrial buildings in New Jersey for 50 years, has been acquired by Barr & Barr Inc., one of the nation's top builders and construction managers. Established in 1927, Barr & Barr is prominently known for building major projects and restoring landmark buildings from Maine to Florida. In New York, for example, the firm was selected to build the Time-Life Building and Rockefeller Center's Promenade, Skating Rink, and Gardens. In New Jersey, Princeton University has been a showcase for its work on many projects there for 20 years. In announcing the acquisition, Barr & Barr President Donald M. Barr also named Richard L. Lepre as vice president in charge of the Barr & Barr New Jersey office. Lepre, an architect and career construction executive, had also led the A. P. Schmidt Construction team for former owner, McBride Enterprises. In 2000, A.P. Schmidt had projects in excess of $28 million.

Historically, the Barr & Barr name has been the benchmark of quality for new building and modernization of the most prestigious universities and health-care institutions in the nation. Engineering News Record, which reports on the construction industry, currently ranks Barr & Barr as the 40th largest construction manager in the United States. Founded 73 years ago, the firm has third-generation members of the Barr family active in management of the firm today. Main offices are in New York, Boston, Connecticut, and Vermont; the New Jersey office will operate from Franklin Lakes, as did A.P. Schmidt. In recent years, Barr & Barr's New Jersey projects have included the state-of-the-art 220,000-square-foot Saint Barnabas Ambulatory Care Center in Livingston and Princeton University's Fisher Hall and Molecular Biology Lab.

Notes for Charles Otis Cates, Jr.:

The funeral for Charles O. Cates Jr. of Alpharetta, owner and operator of Charlie Cates Realty Co., will be at 1p.m. today at Roswell Funeral Home, Mansell Road Chapel, with burial in Arlington Memorial Park. Mr. Cates, 74, died Monday of pancreatic cancer at home.

Mr. Cates was a real estate agent who owned his company for more than 40 years. An Army veteran of World War II, Mr. Cates returned home and took a job in the Fulton County tax office. His father Charles O. Cates Sr, who was an assistant superintendent for public works in Fulton County, knew that a civil service job was good, stable employment, especially in light of the Depression, said his brother, Goodwyn Cates of Atlanta. "But Charlie soon realized that the money wasn't quite right," said his brother. Mr. Cates then went into business for himself, opening a Shell service station on Roswell Road. The venture earned him a place in Southern literature, compliments of his high school classmate, James Dickey. "Charlie was one of the principal characters in Jim Dickey's 'Buckhead Boys' poem, only Jim changed his name to Charlie Gates," said his brother. "The poem was based on some of the events around that filling station," he said.

Mr. Cates took notice of the large Cadillacs that stopped by for gas, driven by people in the real estate business, according to his son, Charles O. Cates III of Atlanta. Always ambitious, Mr. Cates started working as a real estate agent in the 1950s with Drake Realty Co. in Buckhead before opening his own agency, according to his brother Goodwyn. He was one of the 13 original members of the first Multiple Listing Service and also served, as a past president. Prior to the multiple listing, real estate agencies did not share information on their properties, which was costly and time-consuming for the industry, said his brother. In addition to his business, Mr. Cates was interested in children's welfare issues. "Charlie spent many years in fund-raising for the Old Plantation Manor Children's Home in Conyers," said his brother.

Surviving in addition to his son and brother are his wife, Valerie Leeman Cates; two children, Cindi Cates and Candi Howington of Atlanta; two step-children, Steve Saylor and Sharon Stillwachs of Palm Beach Gardens, Florida; 10 grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

Frankie Ann Andrews Hollister passed away surrounded by her loving family on March 14, 2025, at her home in Edison, Georgia. She was 74 years old. The cause of death was cancer of the bile duct. Frankie, firstborn of the late Wallace Reid and Marilena Andrews, was raised in Edison and educated at Calhoun County schools. She graduated from Randolph Macon Women's College in Lynchburg, Virginia, spending her junior year in England at The University of Reading. After graduation, Frankie studied 19th century Russian literature at the University of Virginia, where she met her future husband and then medical student, Dickerman Hollister Jr. Frankie worked in finance in New York and Atlanta before marrying in 1981. The Hollister's settled in Greenwich, Connecticut, where her husband practiced medical oncology. The couple adopted their two children, Catharine Reid (Reid) and Dickerman III (Dickon), blessings from God. A devoted mother above all else, Frankie never missed Reid's concerts with the Christ Church Greenwich choirs and was always courtside for Dickon's tennis matches.

Frankie served in many community organizations, including two terms on the Vestry of Christ Church Greenwich and as Directress of the Altar Guild. She was a member and later president of The Green Fingers Garden Club, garnered many "best in class" ribbons at national flower shows, and was selected as a Garden Club of America Judge. At The Belle Haven Club one summer, she skippered an Ideal 18 through a squall, earning her the moniker "Fearless Frankie." After Dick's retirement, the Hollister's and their dachshund, Edwin, moved to her family's farm in Edison. There, Frankie tended her vegetable and flower gardens, joined the Albany and Cuthbert, Georgia, garden clubs, and became a certified Master Gardener. She was happiest with her fingers in the dirt planting seeds and tending shoots. Frankie and Dick also traveled worldwide, visiting especially sites of ancient Greece and early Christianity. And there was more: She was an avid reader, a budding watercolorist, and a professional tennis aficionado (Andre, Rafa, & Carlos). Most importantly, Frankie was a devoted parishioner at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Albany, Georgia, and a dedicated volunteer in its soup kitchen, "Ladles of Love."

His grandchildren--Cami, Alaina, Marisa, Joey, Jules and Arline--adored their "Papa Joe." He will be deeply missed by family and many friends, young and old.

As is fitting for a loving and beloved man, Joe was born on Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, 1941, in Little Rock, Arkansas. An outstanding athlete and scholar, Joe was an All-State varsity football player and lettered three years in varsity basketball. A dedicated and trustworthy community activist, Joe served as President, Legal Advisor and Volunteer for the Grassy Knob Fire Department, Emeritus Foundation Director of The Carroll and Madison County Library Foundation, and as a member of the Opera of the Ozarks Guild.

Joe was insatiably curious--a life-long learner. His keen interest in novels, poetry, music and theatre fed his love for world travel. He was also a skilled fisherman. Few could make a top-water lure dance to catch more fish than Joe Luker. He was an ever-loyal Arkansas Razorbacks and Northwestern Wildcats fan.

3289 iii. David L. Compton, born Aft. 1959.

2616. John Michael (Jack)⁹ Compton (Goldby King (Jack)⁸, Samuel William⁷, George Washington⁶, Maria Dorothea⁵ Renz, Johann Georg⁴, Jacob Fridrich³, Christina Catharina² Zizmann, Jakob¹) was born 19 May 1942 in Ohio, and died 18 May 2015 in San Antonio, Texas. He married Leticia (Lety) Laing 10 Dec 1966 in Charlottesville, Virginia. She was born 29 Jul 1945.

Notes for John Michael (Jack) Compton:

John "Jack" Michael Compton went home to be with the Lord on May 18, 2015 at the age of 72. He was born on May 19, 1942 to Dr. Jack and Annie Grey Compton. Jack was raised in Charlottesville, Virginia graduating from Lane High school in 1960. He then went on to Samford University, in Birmingham, Alabama, graduating with a bachelor's degree in Mathematics.

Jack Compton joined the USAF as an officer and went on to pilot training school at Laughlin AFB in Del Rio, Texas. It was there he met his wife, Lety Laing to whom he would be married for 48 years. It was love at first sight between this young fighter pilot and this small-town beauty. Jack and Lety married within a year on December 10th, 1966 just before he was deployed to fight for his country. Jack was an F-4 fighter pilot in the USAF during the Vietnam War and Korean conflict era. Captain Compton was known as one of the brightest and best fighter pilots of his day, flying alongside famous test pilot Colonel Chuck Yeager, who is known for being the first to break the sound barrier. Jack was chosen as lead pilot in the "missing man fly by" formation at President Eisenhower's funeral in 1969 over the U.S. Capital. Jack Compton then spent 35 years at NASA training astronauts and was instrumental in the formation of the Sky Lab, Space Shuttle and Space Station programs. Jack was responsible for mission planning, flight data, and led the astronaut preparation process. Jack is credited for writing the "Astronaut's Bible" during the space Shuttle program.

While Jack Compton could've bragged about his earthly accomplishments, his legacy stands as one of humility, gentleness and servant hood. Jack Compton was the first to serve, always putting others before himself. He loved the Lord Jesus with all his heart, soul and mind. Everyone who was privileged to know Jack immediately felt his unselfish love, caring heart and compassionate spirit. One of his greatest joys in life was serving as an usher and greeter at Compassion Church in San Antonio, Texas, where his son Adrian pastors. While there is a gaping hole here on earth without Jack Compton, angels are rejoicing at his presence in Heaven. We will see him again.

Jack Compton is survived by his loving wife of 48 years, Leticia Laing Compton; Sons John Anthony Compton and Adrian Brian Compton, Grandson John Jr., and Brother Sam Compton.

A Visitation is set for Tuesday, May 26, 2015 from 5:00pm to 9:00pm and a Funeral Service on Wednesday, May 27, 2015 at 12:00pm at Sunset North Funeral Home with a graveside Service at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery to follow. The Compton family will host a reception for all guests immediately after the graveside service at 1050 Harry Wurzbach at Fort Sam Houston Golf Club.

Notes for Dorothy Privott Sledge:

Privott Sledge Stroman grew up in Gadsden, Alabama, where her education began at Episcopal Day School. The school was affiliated with her home parish, Holy Comforter, and her mother, Joan, became the Headmistress. Upon graduating from Gadsden High School, Privott attended Vanderbilt University. Privott lived in Nashville until moving to Clarksville after marrying her husband, Steven in 2003. Her career growth 'officially' began at Camp McDowell, the Camp for the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Alabama. After attending as a camper since childhood, she spent her college summers as a Cabin Counselor, and will tell anyone who has time to listen that Camp McDowell is truly 'God's Backyard' and a place to discover your true spirituality.

Privott is currently the HR Director for CDE Lightband. She also instructs for APSU's Center for Extended and Distance Education, teaching one to two classes a semester. Privott is also very active in SHRM (Society for Human Resource Management) and has received recognition and awards through various Board positions held. She holds a SHRM-SCP, SPHR, Lean Six-Sigma Green Belt, and a Certified Power Executive (CPE) from the Tennessee Valley Public Power Association.

Privott serves on the Trinity Episcopal HR volunteer committee. Her most precious time is spent with her husband, Steven, and daughter, Allison Lee. Steven is the Managing Partner of Invictus, LLC, and Allison Lee is in the first grade at Moore Magnet Elementary.

Plowman Whiddon. She married William Upton Ruddock June 22, 1944 in Ft. Riley, Kansas. She was a member of Emmanuel Fellowship Church. Rae, as she was more commonly known, was faithful to the Lord, loving to her children and as "Momo", she was equally as faithful and loving to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren who will cherish her memory hold their love for "Momo" forever in their hearts.

She is survived by her adoring husband of 64 years, Upton Ruddock of Gonzales; son and daughter-in-law, Terry Lynn and Debbie Ruddock of Gonzales; son-in-law, Tim Allen of Gonzales; brother and sister-in-law, Plowman and Mary Jane Whiddon of Gonzales; grandchildren, Wade and Angie Ruddock, Will and Jennifer Ruddock, Blake and Donna Allen, Renee and Chris Lamb and Becky Allen; great-grandchildren, Roger Beene, Reagan Ruddock, Allen Beene, Kate Ruddock, Peyton Ruddock, J.T. Notes for William Upton Ruddock:

William Upton Ruddock, 93, of Gonzales passed from this life to everlasting life in heaven on Friday, July 12, 2019. Upton was born January 18, 1926 in Gonzales County to Henry and Janie Weston Ruddock. He married Esma Rae Whiddon on June 22, 1944 in Ft. Riley, Kansas. As a young man, he joined the United States Army Calvary during WWII. Notably, this was the last equine Calvary Unit in the United States Army. Upton's unit was sent to navigate through the jungles, mountains, rivers and mangrove swamps of Burma to take the Burma Road back from the forces of Imperial Japan. After honorably serving his country, Upton returned to Gonzales and started Ruddock Vaccinating Service, Inc., a poultry vaccinating service that led him deeper into his love of agriculture. Upton started buying cattle and grew his cattle operation through hard work and a natural business sense. Upton's word and his handshake were more reliable than any contract ever written.

Upton and Rae enjoyed 64 years of marriage and had two children, Terry Lynn and Sheryl Denise. Rae passed away on July 6, 2008. Upton later married Mary Wood and together they lived happily the balance of Upton's life. Upton was a member of the First Baptist Church. Upton loved spending time with his immediate and extended family. He also loved his community and served faithfully on numerous boards and committees. He loved hunting, fishing, throwing horseshoes and washers, playing tennis and dominoes. Upton loved competition. He loved to win, but occasionally "lost" just so his playing partners would come back to play again. Upton loved his family, friends and the outdoors, but first and foremost in his life was his relationship with the Lord. He loved the Lord and lived his life in a way that showed that love to others. He would want to take this opportunity to encourage each of us to do the same and to share the love of Jesus with as many others as we can.

Upton taught his children and grandchildren many valuable lessons in the course of his life, but none more resounding than the manner in which he lived his life. He was a Christian gentleman with unquestioning faith. Certainly, Upton lived by the Word of God and one simple truth from the scripture 1 John 4:16 "God is Love, and he who abides in Love abides in God, and God in him" may well be the cornerstone of that which made Upton Ruddock the caring, conscientious and generous man he was humbly renown.

William Upton Ruddock is survived by his adoring family: wife, Mary Ruddock; son and daughter-in-law, Terry and Debbie Ruddock all of Gonzales; grandchildren, Wade Ruddock (Angie), Will Ruddock (Jennifer), Blake Allen, Renee Lamm (Chris), Becky Young (Randy); and 12 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; an infant sister; two brothers, Weston Ruddock and Mack Ruddock; daughter, Sherry Allen; and wife, Rae Ruddock.

Notes for Emma Connie Attard:

Emma "Connie" Rentz passed away unexpectedly on Friday, July 20, 2018, surrounded by her children and grandsons. Connie was born to Emmanuele and Carmela Attard on November 2, 1936 in Detroit, Michigan. She is survived by her sons, Jerry Rentz and wife Lisa and Kirk Rentz and wife Stephanie; grandsons, Bryan Fischer, Brent Fischer and wife Courtney, Austin Rentz, Reagan Rentz, Devin Rentz, and Carter Rentz; great-grandchildren, Kali Fischer and Alivia Fischer; brother, John Attard; sisters, Melita Grech and Diann Maisel; along with numerous nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her husband, Jerry Rentz; daughter, Karen Rentz; and sisters, Rita Van Zeck, Josephine Langston and Jean Warren.

Connie grew up in Detroit, Michigan in a large happy home. Her parents immigrated from Malta before she was born, and she was very proud of her Maltese heritage. Her father worked hard at Ford Motor Co. where Connie would eventually work as well. Her mother was the matriarch of the family and made sure the children and household were taken care of which is what Connie would later do for her own family. Connie met the love of her life, Jerry, on the beach in Florida where her family spent their summers. Jerry was on leave from the Navy and this is where their love story began. He would eventually ask for her hand in marriage and they later married in Dearborn, Michigan. Together, they lived a military life until Jerry finished his service. After that time, they moved to Texas where they both worked until they started their family. Connie told many stories as to the hard times they faced raising a family and working long hours just to put food on the table. In 1960, Jerry opened Rentz Electric where he and Connie would ultimately work as a team to build a business they would eventually turn over to their sons. Connie and Jerry moved their family from Canyon Lake to Boerne, TX where they remained until their retirement to Rockport, Texas in 1996.

Connie was a devoted Catholic and had a deep faith and relationship with the Lord. She loved her family unconditionally and would go to the ends of the Earth for her family and grandchildren. In her mind, they could do no wrong. Grandma was known to chase the kids down, with medicine in hand, to treat whatever bumps, bruises or scrapes they might have. She was an amazing cook and everyone looked forward to her meals, especially during Thanksgiving and Christmas. Connie was a strong, outspoken, no nonsense lady. There was never a doubt in anyone's mind where she stood on issues and she was not shy about letting you know. She loved the mountains in Colorado, hunting and fishing with Jerry, one arm bandits in Vegas, playing Mahjong, and shopping.

Connie missed her soulmate, Jerry, every day for the remainder of her life. Her family draws comfort in knowing she is in the presence of the Lord and free to enjoy eternal life in heaven. There she was met by her husband, daughter and loved ones. She will be deeply missed.

The Funeral will be held Tuesday, July 24, 2018, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church with Interment following at the Boerne Cemetery. Arrangements with Ebensberger-Fisher Funeral Home of Boerne.

Notes for Kenneth V. Tate:

Kenneth V. Tate or (Poppa Tate as most knew him) turned out the lights and locked up the ball park early Sunday morning January 8th. Poppa Tate first stepped up to the plate in Surgoinsville Tennessee on November 2, 1934. His parents Milburn and Madgie Tate made this possible. Poppa Tate had a passion for sports his whole life with a special passion for baseball and softball. In the first few innings of his life Poppa Tate served our county in the Air Force as a Staff sergeant from 1956-1976. He served an additional 10 years as a Civil Servant. While stationed in Thailand during the Vietnam War, he was the recreation director for soldiers on furloughs. Poppa Tate umpired many leagues, both on and off military bases for many years.

Poppa Tate's love for Sports led him to over 25 years of refereeing and umpiring, High School, College, semi-pro, and professional sports. He was blessed to extensively travel the US while officiating the sports he loved. Poppa Tate was most known for calling them as he saw them. This was true behind the plate as well as in the game we call life. If he saw you walking by, whether he knew you or not, he would call out in his booming umpire voice to get your attention Hey Sis, Hey Boy, Girl, get over here. He never met a stranger, always greeted everyone with a joke and a smile. You could always hear Old Gospel, Country, or Bill Gaither flowing out of his music box, or find him reading his scriptures. These things, and family, are what he valued most with a close second being a good ball game. During the middle innings in life he would be found either working his own convenience store or running one for someone else - he was always serving the public. For that 7th inning stretch you could find Poppa Tate working with Triple D Security where he was entrusted with more money daily than most of us see in our life. Poppa Tate was loved and will forever be in the hearts of all who had the fortune to encounter him, whether at the game or in life.

Kenneth Tate was preceded in death by his wife Melva "Beeson" Tate, Parents, Sisters: Ruth Starnes, Hattie Mae Cox, Bobbie Lou Britton, and Alberta Pyle-Shelton. Brothers: Edison Tate, Milburn Tate JR, George Tate, and Joe Tate. He is survived by Carolyn Lane, Nancy Rhea, and Carlos (Chick) Tate all of Tennessee.

The game that he started goes on with his surviving children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Children: Barry Tate (Patty), Hayes, Virginia, Tammy Tate Arnold (Kevin), Kenneth Allen Tate (Kay) – Victoria. Grandchildren: Kimberly Tate (Barry) of Helena, Alabama, Michael Tate of Hayes, Virginia, Chaz Logan (Lauren) of Spring, Texas, Kennon Logan and Travis Arnold (Katie) of Victoria, Samantha Breeden (Kenneth) of Corpus Christi, Morgan Tate of Calallen. Great Grandchildren, and he would tell you they are great, Brandon Williams, Joseph Tate, Oliver Logan, Haylan Arnold, and Sebastian Breeden.

The family would like to thank Doctors – ChelifJunor, Arun Jain, Andrew Young, Marshall Wiener and the staff of Elm Croft, Brighwater and Victoria Resident and Rehab for their excellent care and kindness they showed Poppa Tate. Tammy and Kevin would like to say a special Thank you to Atzenhoffer Chevrolet and Darren and Renee Bordovsky for their patience and support. Marriage: 30 Jan 1966, Travis Co, Texas

Child of William Towery and Sandra Haas is:

3588 i. William Oliver¹⁰ Towery, born 10 Mar 1967 in Travis Co, Texas.

Notes for William Oliver Towery:

Dec. 21, 1983 – A strapping 6-4, 200-pounder suited up for every game of the state champion Judson High School football team but did not play this season. William Oliver Towery, 16 last March, hasn't been on the field this year. He was benched this season by leukemia, discovered last July. William is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Haas of New Braunfels, and son of San Antonio Light assistant managing editor William Towery and his wife, Sandra Kay Haas Towery of Live Oak.

William Towery was the subject of a LIGHT front page story Saturday, and of Kevin O'Keefe's column in the San Antonio Express Monday, along with another Judson player who also is an honorary team member this year, John Opdyke, benched by a stroke. "He didn't play a down Saturday (at the state championship game), yet he was as much a part of the victory as any one of the starters," wrote O'Keefe of Towery. He "went bananas" along with the rest, according to O'Keefe. In his personal life, the Judson junior has demonstrated the team credo, "No quitting allowed," the columnist wrote. Of his goal of spring training in 1984, Towery said: "I'm confident I can get there. I'm going to have to work for it, but it's very important to me."

Towery said that having Opdyke with him on the sideline had helped, there was strength in the other benched player's presence. Down to 190 pounds during treatment, William has come back up to 200. His grandmother, who recalls immediately the July 8 date of his diagnosis, said he will undergo further chemotherapy. The youth conceded that he had thought about dying, and there were times during chemotherapy when he wished he would. But one could never give up. "You have to have enough inside not to quit. Like the team Saturday. They had too much character ever to quit," the columnist quoted Towery. William credited the support of family and friends. Towery and Opdyke both were an inspiration to the Judson Rockets, said their coach, Frank Arnold. Learning he was going to be the subject of an item in the 'Herald-Zeitung', Towery called his Grandfather Haas to make sure Opdyke was included in the mention.

3065. James Ralph⁹ Sowell, Jr. (Hazel⁸ Darby, Perry Neal⁷, Emma Elizabeth⁶ Baldwin, Jesse Gus⁵, Obedience (Obedia)⁴ Singer, Jacob Ulrich³, Maria Barbara² Zizmann, Jakob¹) was born 03 Jul 1940 in Canton, Madison Co, Mississippi, and died 04 Nov 2021. He married Gloria Winstead 10 Jul 1966.

Notes for James Ralph Sowell, Jr.:

James Ralph Sowell, Jr., of Jackson, Mississippi, passed away on November 4, 2021, with Gloria, his loving wife of 55 years, and his three beloved daughters, steadfastly by his side. A visitation will be held at First Baptist Church of Jackson on Sunday, November 7, at 1:00 pm, and a memorial service to celebrate his 81 years of life will follow at 2:30 pm. Burial will take place at Parkway Memorial Cemetery.

Ralph was born on July 3, 1940, in Canton, Mississippi, to parents James Ralph Sowell, Sr. and Hazel Darby Sowell. He grew up in Canton and Greenwood, moved to Jackson, and graduated from Murrah High School. Ralph was a member of Troop 24 in the Boy Scouts, where he received Eagle Scout and Explorer Awards and was named to the Order of the Arrow. Ralph attended college at Millsaps. He was the Sports Editor, Political Columnist, and Editor for the Purple and White Millsaps newspaper. He was a member of many social organizations, including Omicron Delta Kappa, Circle K, International Relations Club, and Kappa Alpha fraternity. Ralph was the President of the Baptist Student Union, MS Intercollegiate Council, MS Collegiate Press Assn., and he participated in theater as well. He wrote for the Northside Sun and Jackson Daily News, primarily covering sports events. He graduated with a B.A. degree from Millsaps College in 1962.

While teaching Western Civilization at Mississippi College, he met his future wife, Gloria, who was an English professor at MC. He also worked for an advertising and public relations agency in 1962 and served as campaign manager for Troy Watkins for Lt. Governor in 1963, where he traveled the state of Mississippi, writing speeches and news releases. In 1964, Ralph began a 5-year association with Hinds Junior College as Public Relations Director and Chairman of the Journalism Department. He produced the campus newsletter and yearbook while also serving as the school photographer. Ralph also owned Capital City Advertising and Public Relations.

In 1966, Ralph married his sweetheart, Gloria Winstead. In 1967, he received the Distinguished Service Award as "Young Man of the Year" in Mississippi. Ralph was then elected to the Mississippi Legislature – House of Representatives from Hinds County. He attended law school at the Jackson School of Law, graduated with an L.L.B. in 1969 and passed the Bar exam. Although Ralph had many careers in his lifetime, the most rewarding was probably the printing business that he opened in Jackson, Mississippi, in 1969 – Franklin Printers, Inc. This business provided financial support and stability for his family – a wife and 3 daughters, who were born between 1969 and 1976. Ralph was a perfectionist; as one of his long-time friends recently said, "he never cut any corners." He had pride in his work and was careful in creating impeccable design and layout. Franklin Printers was honored for its outstanding printing and creativity, capturing numerous awards annually (over 400 total) in the Printing Industry Association of the South (PIAS) and other regional graphic arts competitions. In 1980, Franklin Printers earned the distinction of being the "Best Managed Printing Company" in the country among firms of similar size, by the National Association of Printers & Lithographers. Ralph was named the 1988 Man-of-the-Year by PIAS. In 1996, his business received the Outstanding Small Business award by the Metro Jackson Chamber of Commerce. He served as the President of the Creative Printers of America and the Printing Industry of MS, and was also the Chairman of the Board for PIAS. He was a National Honorary member of Phi Theta Kappa and editor of all publications for approximately 10 years.

Ralph has been active in nonprofit and professional organizations, donating his time and energy to serve in any way he can. He has been the president of several organizations, including the Jackson Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mississippi Jaycees, Mississippi Easter Seal Society, MS Mental Health Association, and Multiple Sclerosis of Mississippi. As president, Ralph advanced these organizations through strong leadership and by making innovative changes. For his work, he has received the following awards: Jefferson Davis Award, Outstanding Young Man of Jackson, Outstanding Young Man of Mississippi, and the Hope Chest Award. He was named one of Jackson's Outstanding Volunteers by Saks Incorporated and Goodwill Industries.

Ralph always had a passion for sports. He was a member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum for approximately 7 years, serving on the organizing committee and the original Board of Directors. Ralph was also President of the Mississippi Sports Foundation and Jackson Touchdown Club, and the Chairman of the Sports Hall of Fame Induction. Ralph never really retired from work; he just worked less in the office and more in the garden. In the 2000's, Ralph became very interested in growing flowers. He planted a large garden behind his business and began growing daffodils and hybridizing daylilies. He won hundreds of ribbons in flower and photography competitions. Ralph was a member of First Baptist Church of Jackson for 55 years. He was very active in Sunday School, where he and his wife made lifetime friends. Those friends have provided enormous support for each other throughout the years. Ralph's number one joy was spending time with family. He loved his wife, 3 daughters and 5 grandchildren so much. He was always so proud of every one of them. He called himself "blessed."

Ralph is preceded in death by his two brothers, Darby Sowell and Ronald Sowell. Marriage Notes for James Sowell and Gloria Winstead:

July 1966 - The First Baptist church in Magee was the setting for the ceremony in which Miss Gloria Winstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Trumer Winstead, became the bride of James Ralph Sowell Jr., of Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Sowell of Jackson. Dr. Howard E. Spell, academic dean of Mississippi college at Clinton, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was presented by Mrs. Thelma Winborne, organist, and Charles Dorris, who sang. Vows were spoken before a background of emerald palms and Woodwardia ferns in pyramid formation with wrought iron-tree candelabra holding white cathedral tapers. Basket arrangements were of soft yellow gladioli shading to sun burst gold, with carnations, roses and chrysanthemums. The couple knelt on a white colonial prie dieu, which was decorated with yellow roses.

Escorted by her brother, Joe R. Winstead of Hattiesburg, the bride was lovely in her formal empire gown of organza and English net, highlighted by pearl-embroidered Alencon lace motifs. The embroidered lace, featuring the pearls, formed the bodice overlay, accenting the scalloped neckline. Flowing from the shoulder the Watteau train of organza over taffeta also featured the applique of lace and pearl. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a pillbox of jeweled lace. The bride carried a cascade of carnations, lily-of-the-valley and white orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Fred Howe of London, England, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Mildred James of Hattiesburg, Miss Diane McCullough of Birmingham, niece of the bride and Miss Judy Sowell of Slidell, Louisiana, sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical gowns of seaspray green lace and chiffon. They carried Colonial bouquet of soft yellow shades to golden yellow carnation. The flower girl, dressed in white Empire lace gown, was Cathy Craven, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Craven of Magee and niece of the bride. Ringbearer was the bride's nephew, Hal Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Clark of Water Valley.

Notes for Aaron Dupree Tippin:

Wednesday, April 13, 2005 - A Martin County businessman and father of country music singer Aaron Tippin died Monday after his pickup collided with a tractor-trailer. Willis Emory "Tip" Tippin was driving east on North Carolina 111 in Martin County about 10:40 a.m. when he crossed the center line into the path of a logging truck, according to the state Highway Patrol. The westbound trucker swerved to the right, but Tippin's 2002 Ford collided with the side of the trailer and its wheels, Sgt. Jason Collins said.

The collision caused extensive damage to the driver's side of the pickup and trapped Tippin inside. He died at the scene.

Monday was his 78th birthday. Tippin, who had operated Aaron Tippin's Firearms in Oak City, also was a pilot who flew fighters during World War II. In October, he was awarded the Wright Brothers Master Pilot Award by the Federal Aviation Administration. The ceremony in Goldsboro recognized Tippin for more than 50 years of safe flying. Aaron Tippin helped his dad open the Oak City gun store in the mid-1990s. His first hit was "You've Got to Stand For Something," which reached the top 10 in 1991 during Operation Desert Storm. Other hits include "There Ain't Nothin' Wrong With The Radio," "Working Man's Ph.D.," "That's As Close As I'll Get To Loving You" and "Kiss This." "Where The Stars And Stripes And The Eagle Fly," was released after the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks and made it to No. 2 on the Billboard chart. Aaron Tippin donated proceeds from that song to the American Red Cross.

The truck driver, Timothy Ford, 49, of Rocky Mount was not injured in the wreck. Both vehicles were traveling about 55 mph prior to impact, Collins said. Tippin's vehicle left no brake marks, the trooper said.

Aaron Dupree Tippin (born July 3, 1958) is an American country music singer, songwriter and record producer. Initially a songwriter for Acuff-Rose Music, he gained a recording contract with RCA Nashville in 1990. His debut single, "You've Got to Stand for Something" became a popular anthem for American soldiers fighting in the Gulf War and helped to establish him as a neotraditionalist country act with songs that catered primarily to the American working class. Under RCA's tenure, he recorded five studio albums and a Greatest Hits package. Tippin switched to Lyric Street Records in 1998, where he recorded four more studio albums, counting a compilation of Christmas music. After leaving Lyric Street in 2006, he founded a personal label known as Nippit Records, on which he issued the compilation album Now & Then. A concept album, In Overdrive, was released in 2009.

Tippin has released a total of eleven studio albums and five compilation albums, with six gold certifications and one platinum certification among them. In addition, he has charted more than thirty singles on the Billboard Hot Country Songs charts, including three Number Ones: "There Ain't Nothin' Wrong with the Radio" (1992), "That's as Close as I'll Get to Loving You" (1995), and "Kiss This" (2000), as well as the top ten hits "You've Got to Stand for Something", "I Wouldn't Have It Any Other Way", "My Blue Angel", "Workin' Man's Ph.D.", "For You I Will", and "Where the Stars and Stripes and the Eagle Fly".

Aaron Dupree Tippin was born July 3, 1958, in Pensacola, Florida. He was raised on a farm in Greer, South Carolina, where he went to Blue Ridge High School. In the 1970s, he made a living as a singer, performing in various local bars. By the time Tippin was 20, he was working as a commercial pilot, truck driver and a pipe fitter. In 1986, he moved to Nashville, where he eventually became a staff writer at Acuff-Rose. He competed on You Can Be a Star, a televised talent show on the former TNN (The Nashville Network). This led to him earning a song publishing contract in 1987. During this time he wrote songs for The Kingsmen, David Ball, Mark Collie, and Charley Pride.

1990–1997: RCA Records - Tippin performed his first Nashville nightclub show in 1990, and it earned him a contract with RCA Records Nashville. His first single, "You've Got to Stand for Something", was released in 1990. The song, with its message of standing up for one's personal beliefs, became popular as an anthem for soldiers fighting in the Gulf War at the time, and reached a peak of No. 6 on the Billboard Hot Country Singles & Tracks charts. It was also the title track to his debut album, released in late 1991. Although the album was certified gold in the United States, the next two singles performed poorly: "I Wonder How Far It Is Over You" peaked at No. 40, and "She Made a Memory Out of Me" at No. 54. Brian Mansfield of AllMusic, in his review of the album, said that "This exciting hardcore country comes from a man whose previous blue-collar experience as a farm hand, welder, pilot, and truck driver made him a publicist's dream." Giving it an "A", Alanna Nash of Entertainment Weekly praised Tippin's "humor" and "pointed language".

Tippin's second album, Read Between the Lines, was released in 1992. Its first single was "There Ain't Nothin' Wrong with the Radio", which spent three weeks at No. 1 on the Hot Country Singles & Tracks chart. Also released from this album were the singles "I Wouldn't Have It Any Other Way", "I Was Born with a Broken Heart" (previously a chart single in 1988 for Josh Logan), and "My Blue Angel", which peaked at No. 5, No. 38 and No. 7, respectively, on the country charts. Read Between the Lines became Tippin's first platinum album.

In 1993, Tippin released his third studio album, titled Call of the Wild. It produced three straight Top 40 country hits in "Workin' Man's Ph.D.", the title track, and "Whole Lotta Love on the Line", while "Honky Tonk Superman", the final single, failed to make Top 40. One year later, Tippin released his fourth album, Lookin' Back at Myself, which produced the No. 15 "I Got It Honest" and the minor Top 40 "She Feels Like a Brand New Man Tonight". Tool Box, his fifth album for RCA, produced his second Number One country hit in the ballad "That's as Close as I'll Get to Loving You"; the second single, "Without Your Love", peaked at No. 22, while the album's last two singles both failed to make Top 40. Like Call of the Wild and Lookin' Back at Myself before it, Tool Box also earned a gold certification from the RIAA. Tippin's final release for the RCA label, a compilation titled Greatest Hits... And Then Some, was issued in 1997. This album produced two chart singles which both failed to make Top 40. In 1994 Tippin performed the National Anthem at Starrcade the annual Professional Wrestling Pay Per View Event for World Championship Wrestling.

1998–2005: Lyric Street - In 1998, Tippin moved to Lyric Street Records, then a newly formed subsidiary label of the Walt Disney Company. His first single for the label, the No. 6 hit "For You I Will", served as the lead-off to his 1998 album What This Country Needs and became his first Top Ten hit since "That's as Close as I'll Get to Loving You". Following it were "I'm Leaving" at No. 17, "Her" at No. 33, and the title track at No. 48. 2000 saw the release of the single "Kiss This". Co-written by Tippin with his wife, Thea, the song went to the top of the Billboard country charts, becoming his third and final Number One hit. It served as the lead-off to his second Lyric Street album, People Like Us, and the David Lee Murphy-penned title track reached Top 20 in 2001. People Like Us was also certified gold. In the wake of the September 11, 2001 attacks, he released the patriotic-themed song "Where the Stars and Stripes and the Eagle Fly". His biggest crossover hit, the song reached No. 2 on the country charts and No. 20 on the Billboard Hot 100. It was included on his album Stars & Stripes, which was released in early 2002 (following the release of his Christmas album A December to Remember). Stars & Stripes produced three more singles, including the ballad "Love Like There's No Tomorrow", a duet with Thea. Tippin's last release for Lyric Street was a single, entitled "Come Friday", which was slated to be included on an album entitled I Believed. The single peaked at No. 42 on the country charts, and I Believed was not released; by 2005, he had exited Lyric Street.

2006–2012 - In 2006, Tippin formed his own record label, Nippit Records, in a joint partnership with Rust Nashville. His first release for the album, Now & Then, produced the singles "Ready to Rock (In a Country Kind of Way)" and "He Believed", the latter of which peaked at No. 55 on the country charts. On September 9, 2007, Aaron released a new single called "Drill Here, Drill Now" which was inspired by the "Drill Here" movement led by Newt Gingrich at his American Solutions organization. Tippin signed to Country Crossing Records in 2008. His first album for the label, In Overdrive, was released in February 2009. This album comprises covers of country songs that have truck driving themes.

Musical style - Tippin's singing voice is a baritone, characterized by a heavy, nasal Southern twang. His phrasing has been compared to Hank Williams for "the catch in the throat, followed by a sliding moan", as described by Entertainment Weekly reviewer Alanna Nash in her review of Tippin's debut. Several of Tippin's songs, such as "Workin' Man's Ph.D" and "You've Got to Stand for Something", are mid-tempo anthems that address the working class, and are often patriotic in nature. Occasionally, Tippin records love-themed ballads, such as "That's as Close as I'll Get to Loving You". Other songs of his, such as "There Ain't Nothin' Wrong with the Radio" and "Honky Tonk Superman", are honky tonk-influenced novelties.

Personal life - On July 15, 1995, Tippin married the former Thea Corontzos at a Greek Orthodox ceremony in Nashville. Along with his manager, Billy Craven, Aaron and Thea Tippin created Tippin's company, Tip Top Entertainment. They reside in Dowelltown, Tennessee. The couple has a daughter and two sons. Tippin also opened two hunting supply stores called Aaron Tippin Firearms: one in Smithville, Tennessee, and the other was run by his late father, Willis Emory Tippin, in Oak City, North Carolina. (Willis died in 2005.) According to the Federal Aviation Administration, Tippin is an instrument rated commercial pilot with single and multi-engine ratings. He also has private pilot privileges for rotorcraft-helicopter. He is a certified airframe and power plant mechanic. He is also a longtime bodybuilder. His son, Thomas, has made recordings with his father.

October 1, 2007 – They say lightning doesn't strike the same place twice, but try telling that to pilot, patriot and electrifying country star Aaron Tippin, who has firsthand experience. Indirect lightning strikes twice zapped the future Nashville sensation when he was a child, working with his father and veteran pilot Willis "Tip" Tippin. Tippin's been lucky that all of his subsequent energizing experiences have been the ones he's chosen, playing to millions of fans around the world who treasure his traditional yet exhilarating combination of roots-based country, old-time rock n' roll and heartfelt patriotism. Since he hit the big time with his debut single, "You've Got to Stand for Something," in 1991, commercial success has struck many times over for Tippin, resulting in three #1 singles, dozens of chart hits and sales of more than 6 million albums. What some fans don't know is that Tippin is a highly experienced pilot. "Flying was my total goal in life," Tippin recalled of his early career aspiration. "People in the music business are usually surprised to find out I started out being a professional pilot, not a country singer. I'm the least likely guy to succeed in this business."

Aaron Tippin wasn't quite born on the Fourth of July, but he was close. He entered the world on July 3, 1958, right in the middle of America's baby boom and the heyday of traditional rock n' roll. Although he was born in Pensacola, Florida, Tippin was raised in rural South Carolina on his family's farm near the town of Traveler's Rest. Willis Tippin had been a bush pilot, crop-duster and corporate pilot since serving as a Navy fighter pilot during World War II, dogfighting in the F4U Corsair. When his son was born, the flight instructor was training Air Force cadets in Bainbridge, Ga., in T-38s and T-37s. "He flew a lot of airplanes," Tippin recalled. "I was 4 years old the first time I ever put my hands on the controls of an airplane. It was a DC-3. I remember it like it was yesterday. We were flying along in cruise, and he asked me if I wanted to fly. He stacked every logbook he could find underneath my little butt and slid me up close so I could see the instrument panel. Then he let me put my hands on the wheel. That was it; I was hooked. I'll never forget that moment."

Tippin had a brother and two sisters, but he was the only one who dreamed about flying. "They couldn't give a flying flip about flying," he said. "I was totally consumed with it. In fact, I tried to build an airplane in the backyard. My dad finally made me stop, because it looked like I was going to have something that might fly." His mother was another family member who was unenthusiastic about aviation. "She always thought my dad was a little crazy," he said. After getting out of the service, Willis Tippin worked as a corporate pilot for companies including Liberty Life, Regal Textiles, Greenwood Mills and Stevens Beechcraft. "He flew for many companies around the Greenville area while I was growing up," Tippin recalled.

When Tippin was a teenager, his father took over the fixed base operation in Greenville. Tippin spent a lot of time at Greenville Downtown Airport (GMU), and by the age of 14, he was studying for his private license. "My dad took me up in everything that had wings," he said. "I had multi-engine time before I was a private pilot." With the goal of being an airline pilot, Tippin soloed at 16. By the age of 17, he was flying for his father, Stevens Beechcraft and other corporations in the area. "I already had a multi-engine and was almost instrument rated," Tippin said. "I had my instrument rating by the time I was 18. Dad would send me off to pick up new airplanes. I would fly down to the Piper factory in Florida, or all the way to Denver, to pick up an airplane he traded on. I got a lot of great experience, just me and a portable radio and a credit card. It was pretty cool for a 17-year-old." Tippin's father had gained aerobatic experience from years of combat training, so he taught his son primary aerobatic maneuvers as well. "He taught me to fly a Citabria," Tippin said. "Later, we bought a Great Lakes biplane."

That biplane brought about Tippin's only narrow escape. When the engine started pouring out oil from a broken component, Tippin shut the engine down and glided to a perfect dead-stick landing at the local airport. Along with the best practices of flight instruction, the elder Tippin also instilled a strong sense of God and country into his son. "My dad was a big patriot," Tippin said. "When you talk about Aaron Tippin's patriotism, you're talking about that part of my dad that's in me." Tippin recalled that his father wasn't big on voicing his affection, but Tippin still knew how he felt about his son. "My dad was a great father," Tippin said. "He was about that 'tough love' stuff. He never told me he loved me until I was in my mid-20s, but man, he loved me. I know, because every time he went to an airport, he always made sure to include me. He would be moonlighting or flight instructing, and when he couldn't take me in the airplane, he'd leave me on the ramp. He'd say, 'All right, Aaron, you stay here. I'll be back in an hour.' I'd hang out with the line guys."

Aaron Tippin's patriotism comes through loud and clear in his songs. "My dad was a big patriot," he said. "When you talk about my patriotism, you're talking about that part of my dad that's in me." By the time he was 19, Tippin had logged more than 2,500 hours of flight time, was earning a decent living as a corporate pilot and was well on his way to earning his commercial airline transport rating. His path seemed set. "Flying was absolutely out front," Tippin said. "You could've offered me time in a Learjet or a date with Farrah Fawcett, and I'd take the Learjet every time. I was hooked on airplanes. I lived and breathed aviation. It was all I wanted to do." The energy crisis of the mid-1970s changed that. "When I saw Delta furloughing senior captains, I thought, 'Man, I'm not going to make it,'" he recalled. "I decided I'd do something that I liked next best. I thought I'd flown enough. I'd had the chance to do aerobatics and do the kinds of things that most folk don't get a chance to do."

Tippin didn't even consider continuing as a corporate pilot or exploring another area of aviation. "I might have been a spray pilot, if I would've been from someplace in South Georgia or Mississippi," he said. "But I didn't like being a corporate pilot. I didn't like sitting there all day long, waiting on somebody. They might call you and tell you to go get a hotel room, after you sat there all day. Plenty of guys do that and probably better manage their off time than I did. I was a young guy. I wanted to go, go, go. I wanted to build flight time. It just didn't look like it was going to be the future I wanted." In the late 1970s, Tippin said goodbye to the cockpit and his past dreams. "I just dropped the towel and walked off," he said.

Willis Tippin provided his son inspiration in many areas, but not when it came to music. "Dad couldn't carry a tune in a bucket," Tippin laughed. "They let him sing in the church choir, because they were too embarrassed to tell him he couldn't. He was a sorry singer, but his heart was big." Tippin's mother Mary bought him his first guitar lesson. He learned to warble a tune while operating a Ford tractor. "We were part-time farmers," Tippin said. "The hay rights were to Greenville Spartanburg (GSP), and you can imagine how much hay we baled out there. At 9, I was out there cutting hay, from the time the sun came up until the day was done and I was picked up." As he worked, he sang the popular country and pop songs of the day.

"I remember singing 'Silver Wings,' by Merle Haggard," he said. "I sang that one because Eastern Airlines was a big operator at the airport, and I'd see its pilots land that 727. I couldn't believe it had three engines!" Influenced by legendary performers like Jimmie Rodgers, Hank Thompson and Lefty Frizzell, Tippin began playing guitar at the age of 10. "I didn't really appreciate guitar playing at that time," he said. Tippin was in high school when he really started enjoying music. "I started hooking up with the bluegrass guys," he said. "Somebody showed me how to play G, C and D and then said, 'Now you can play a song.'" While he was intent on flying, music was "strictly a minimal pastime." During the time he flew for a living, up until the late 1970s, he spent much of his time off with his bluegrass friends.

"When I quit flying for a living, I said, 'Let's go pick the honkytonks,'" he recalled. "My friends said, 'They won't pay you.' They didn't want bluegrass back then; they wanted country music or rock 'n roll. I was a big fan of country music, so I said, 'Then let's start a country band.' I started playing shows on the weekends and eventually became a house band. I was playing five, six nights a week." While he spent his nights playing country tunes, Tippin worked hard during the day as a welder, roofer, heavy equipment operator, truck driver and farmhand, often picking up other blue-collar jobs to get by. "Being a farm kid is pretty good, because you get a lot of experience in a lot of different things in life," he laughed. In 1986, Tippin competed on the television program, "You Can Be a Star," featured on the Nashville Network. "It was strictly about being a singer," Tippin said of the program. "I was a songwriter, and I performed songs that I had written." He won a daily contest, but when he lost the weekly show, he thought, "Well, that's it. I didn't do too well." One of the judges disagreed. Jeannie C. Reilly had seen star quality in the songwriter. "She came to me afterwards and said, 'Aaron, I know you didn't win, but you ought to think about being in this business. You have a unique sound, and your song was good. You could make it in this town,'" he recalled. "I went home, quit my job and came back."

Once he'd moved to Nashville, Tennessee, Tippin followed the working-class values instilled by his father and worked the midnight shift at Logan Aluminum in Kentucky. He then turned around each morning and drove 60 miles to Music Row, where he spent his days at the legendary Acuff-Rose publishing firm, writing songs for artists like The Kingsmen and Charley Pride. Along with his heartfelt songwriting, Tippin also found time to pursue a sideline as an amateur bodybuilder. "I really got into lifting weights after I came to Nashville," Tippin said. "Becoming 'a star' wasn't working out. I enjoyed the songwriter lifestyle, which allowed me time to work out. I would go to the gym at 6 in the morning, write songs all day, go back to the gym at 3 and then go home and go to bed. I guess I decided I wanted to live past 30—quit drinking so much and start getting into shape." It was a healthy lifestyle, but any country singer can tell you that Nashville can be a lonely place. Tippin, who first started singing in public by joining his church choir, turned to faith to fill the void.

"I really got close to Christ when I was in Nashville by myself," he remembered. "I had friends, but nobody from my family was up there. It wasn't the same as being around the people you love. That's when I realized that the best friend I really had was there and had been there the whole time."

Tippin's hard work paid off after he started pitching his demo tape to record companies. "I didn't have a lot of money back then, so I'd have to sing my own demos," he said. "Finally, somebody at RCA said, 'Who's this guy singing this demo? It's different.' They started asking questions, and then they called my publishing company, found out who I was and asked me to come over and sing a few songs for them." Tippin played his first showcase at a Nashville club in 1990. His dynamic performance earned him a contract with RCA records. His 1991 debut album, "You've Got to Stand for Something," yielded three hits on the U.S. country charts, including the title track that became a top 10 smash. Its patriotic tone resonated with a nation engaged in the first Gulf War. Tippin said his father inspired "You've Got to Stand for Something." He would also inspire the lyrics for "Working Man's PhD," "I Got it Honest" and many other songs.

"My dad's responsible for a lot of the music that I put out," he said. "He gave me the fuel to help me accomplish whatever I needed to in life." Over the next four years, Tippin toured with a cavalcade of country stars, including Brooks & Dunn, Reba McEntire and Hank Williams Jr. In 1990, he went to the Persian Gulf to entertain troops. "I went with Bob Hope; it was his last combat tour and my first," Tippin recalled. "I'm a strong supporter of our troops." In 2002, he went to Afghanistan. He's been making annual visits to Iraq each year since 2003. "I just want to make sure they know they're loved and appreciated," he said. He recently became the spokesman for the Paralyzed Veterans of America.

Throughout the last decade, Tippin played before more than a million fans each year, many of them dressed in hard hats and overalls, proudly embracing their own blue-collar roots. He kept cutting hit records as well. His second album, 1992's "Read Between the Lines," brought the top 10 singles "I Wouldn't Have it Any Other Way" and "My Blue Angel," as well as his first number one hit, "There Ain't Nothing Wrong With the Radio." Subsequent albums showed a rough-and-tumble side of the artist, with songs like "Honky-Tonk Superman" and "Working Man's PhD." "Some people have said I've changed my style, but if you listen to some of my songs, you'll find they're more rockin' than people remember," Tippin said. "I did 'Working Man's PhD' in '92, and it's a rockin' little song."

1995 found Tippin back on the charts with a romantic number, "That's as Close as I'll Get to Loving You." Tippin had experienced his first big romance two decades earlier; at the age of 17, he made a trip to the altar. The marriage lasted less than five years, but resulted in one very bright spot—the birth of his daughter Charla. On July 15, 1995, the singer married Thea Corontzos. They welcomed a son, Theo Emory, in 1997, and his brother, Thomas Aaron, in 2000. Tippin signed with Disney's Lyric Street Records in 1998 and charted with back-to-back hits "For You I Will" and "I'm Leaving," from the album "What This Country Needs." As the new millennium began, he started stretching his creative muscle.

Some of his best writing emerged in the past decade. 2000's "People Like Us" featured a number one smash hit, "Kiss This," co-written with his wife. 2002's "Stars & Stripes," a post-Sept. 11 album, struck a chord once more with an apprehensive nation. Fans across the country pushed Tippin's powerful song, "Where the Stars and Stripes and the Eagle Fly," to number two on the country charts; it also cracked the top 20 on the pop chart. Tippin donated the single's proceeds to the local American Red Cross chapter's Disaster Relief Fund. The song remains his most requested. "Country fans went out and bought the record to help other Americans who needed help at the time," Tippin said. "That's what real country fans are like."

In 2005, Tippin was the first country artist to donate funds to the victims of Hurricane Katrina. Each time he sang "Where the Stars and Stripes and the Eagle Fly" at a concert, the singer would send out five-gallon buckets with the word "Katrina" painted on them. They always came back to the stage overflowing with generosity.

Tippin recently formed his own record label, Nippit Records—that's "Tippin" backwards—as a partnership with Rust Records in Nashville. His latest disc, "Now and Then," provides a dramatic introduction to the breadth of Tippin's work, as well as a poignant recollection for longtime fans. "My voice has changed; it's fuller and more mature," he said. "So I went back and rerecorded the old songs." He did the work in a converted storefront formerly occupied by his now defunct hunting supply store. The 10 rerecorded hits include "I'm Ready to Rock," "Honky-Tonk Superman" and "Working Man's PhD." "The way I do a song now, after 16 years have passed, is very different," he said. "The guys and gals that come to an Aaron Tippin show are more familiar with these songs than the original versions." He added three brand new songs, including "Could Not Stop Myself" and "He Believed," a song that pays tribute once more to Willis Tippin, who passed away in 2005.

"I've got to credit Thea for that song," he said. "We were coming back from his funeral and she said, 'We need to write a song about your dad, because he was such a special guy.' I said, 'Honey, I've written every song I can write about my dad. There's nothing left to write.' She said, 'After being around the people that knew your dad, I've realized that the greatest thing about him was that he was such a believer.' Once he believed in somebody, that was it." Tippin has received a lot of praise for that song and for others that have inspired his listeners. "I appreciate it, because that's exactly what we intend when Thea and I sit down to write songs," Tippin said. "I want the listener to go, 'That's me. That's how I feel.'" Thea recently began recording a gospel album, and Tippin is working on a bluegrass album, due out next summer. A back-to-basics approach has brought many of the singer's early Carolina influences into his music, bringing him even closer to capturing the working-class soul.

"I'm going back to my roots," Tippin said. "It's more about me being totally in charge of the music. No record executives are breathing down my neck, making sure we don't do too much of this —uncorrupted." Now that he has his own label, Tippin says he's also calling the shots on what's done—or not done—in videos. Recent videos reflect a return to his first love. "I'm including a plane in almost every single video," he said. Tippin became involved in aviation again in the mid-1990s. "I thought I didn't care about flying anymore, but then I got to noticing that I was looking up every time an airplane flew over," he said. "I used to be able to tell what kind of airplane it was, just by the sound, but I realized I couldn't do that anymore. I realized I hadn't gotten enough of flying. I still loved it."

One day, the man who ran the local airport recognized Tippin at a hardware store. "He said, 'Aaron, didn't you used to fly?'" Tippin recalled. "I said, 'Yeah, I did.' He said, 'You ought to come out and get current.' I said, 'I might do that.' Sure enough, I went up there, got a biannual flight review and started back flying." The encounter resulted eventually in Tippin buying a Great Lakes biplane. "I went up to Massachusetts and bought it," he said. "I thought it was factory-built, but once I got up there, I realized it was a homebuilt aircraft. I still bought it, and I flew it out of there. That taught me a good lesson." Tippin no longer has that airplane, but since then, he's owned a Super or that, or wondering if a song will be played on the radio. When we go to the studio, it's only me and the players who decide how the music should turn out. That's the way it should be Decathlon, two J-3 Cubs, two Cessna 185s, a Cessna 150 and 172, a Stearman, a Chipmunk and a Wilga (a short takeoff and land aircraft). He's also a helicopter pilot and once owned a Bell 206 JetRanger.

Tippin's spacious log home sits on more than 300 acres of forest near Nashville. The property includes a well-used 2,000-foot grass landing strip and a modest hangar. "It's great," he said. "I'm done with that airport headache stuff. I don't have to listen to any of that griping at the airport anymore. I love it. These days, Tippin's airplane collection includes his Stearman, a Cub, a new Super Decathlon and a Helio Courier he recently acquired. "It's a short takeoff and landing aircraft—single engine," he said. "It has awesome performance. It's a great little airplane for the family. My dad flew one when I was a kid. I knew it was an incredible performer, but I just never realized how great it was until I got my hands on one. He let me fly it five or six hours when I was growing up. Tippin's shown flying his Stearman in the video for "Ready to Rock (in a Country Kinda Way)." "It was a lot of fun doing that video," he said.

The video for "He Believed" was filmed at Upper Cumberland Regional Airport in Sparta, Tenn., and stars Tippin's son Teddy as "young Aaron," flying across the distinctive American landscape. Both of Tippin's sons love to fly. "I dropped a buddy off in the Helio earlier, and Tommy flew it back from a little airport," he recalled. "Teddy can take off in the Cub. He's just getting to where he can reach the rudder pedals. He's getting close to landing." You'll see a T-28, Yak and T-3 in the video for "He Believed." "They all belong to friends of mine who were nice enough to bring their airplanes out to help me with the video," he said.

In "Blue Angel," you'll see Aaron flying an F-18 in the company of the Blue Angels, the Navy flight demonstration team. His interest in airplanes also led to a chance to join in a USAF Thunderbirds flight; flying 9-Gs in an F-16 earned Tippin a special 9-G pin. Tippin can often be found at EAA AirVenture Oshkosh and Sun & Fun. His schedule hasn't permitted him to fly in to AirVenture. "I've usually got to be at a show, so I don't get to stay the full week," he said. "I have to fly the airlines in or have the boys drop me off of the bus. But I did fly into Sun 'n Fun this year." He described his first trip to the Reno Air Races in 2006 as "awesome." He admits that he has thought about racing, but doesn't think it's anything he'll take up. "That's touchy business," he said. "You better know what you're doing, work hard and be great at it, because, boy, that close to the ground and in that choppy air, things can go wrong fast."

Despite his experience "almost" building a flyable aircraft as a youth, Tippin says he hasn't gotten into the homebuilt area. "I'm a big fan of homebuilts, but I haven't had the chance to get into that," he said. "One of my goals is to build a plane totally from scratch with my uncle Billy (B.T.). I look forward to doing that someday—maybe in my retirement years."

Notes for Kevin Mitchell Arnold:

Our world became a lot quieter on April 27, 2019 as Kevin Mitchell Arnold, in the comfort of his home with his family by his side, went to be with his Lord after a valiant battle with Leukemia. While he left us too soon, he never wasted time and made the most of each day. Kevin was born on March 5, 1962 in Victoria, Texas and his parents were Victor H. and Mary Ann Arnold. He was a proud member of the VHS

Class of 1980. He was a loving son, husband, brother, father, Papa and friend. Kevin found the love of his life in Tammy Tate; they were married on January 19, 2002. Kevin never met a stranger and used his outgoing personality in a life of sales beginning at Arnold TV and Appliance Center. His most recent career with Jaco Industrial Supply had him traveling throughout the nation. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus Council 1329 and could be found heading up the bar-b-que teams every March and August. He donated unlimited amounts of time cooking bar-b-que for the OLV Fall Festival and school bar-b-que, frying fish for the youth group fundraisers and still found time to help family and friends with any job that required a "handy man." He gave a lot! Kevin was most proud of his family with a special place in his heart for his grandchildren. He always looked forward to September for the opening of dove and football seasons. When he did find time to relax, it was in the most impressive mancave in Shenandoah where he entertained friends and watched his favorite teams, the Texas Longhorns and Houston Texans. He was the life of the party many times over.

Kevin is survived by his wife and parents; sons, Travis Arnold (Katie), Trevor Arnold (Michelle), Chaz Logan (Lauren) and Kennon Logan; sister, Vicki Pyatt (Ned) and brothers, Michael Arnold (Sarah), David Arnold (Erin), Dan Arnold and Robert Arnold (Nancy); grandsons, Haylen Mitchell Arnold, Oliver and Caston Logan; nieces and nephews, Jordan and Jacob Pyatt, Star Stimmel, Hugh and Alena Arnold; and cousins that he adored more like sisters, Sallie Ann Sullivan, Kellye Sullivan, Mary Sullivan and Amy (Sullivan) Lara; Jarrod Sullivan (Godson), Ethan and Braeden (Goddaughter) Lara. He loved all his many friends that were more of an extended family.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Frank and Hulda Arnold, Frazier and Edith Treadaway.

Honorary pallbearers will be John Hall, Dale Matula, Brad Kraatz, Jeff Tigrett, Carl (Coco) Hubenak, James (Bubba) Wagner and all his Brother Knights. A Rosary will be recited on Thursday, May 2, 2019 at 9:30 am at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Victory. A Christian Funeral Mass will be held at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Victory on Thursday, May 2, 2019 at 10 am with The Very Rev. Gary Janak officiating. He married Lori Leigh Joyner 17 Feb 1989 in McLennan Co, Texas. She was born Aft. 1965.

Notes for Jason Garrick Collins:

Jason Collins passed away Wednesday, June 7, 2017. A memorial service will be at 3 pm, Sat., June 10, doors will open an hour prior to service, at Calvary Chapel Church in Waco, Texas 702 N. 18th St. 76707. Jason was born in Bryan, Texas on Nov. 11, 1966 to Patricia and Bubber Collins. He is survived by his siblings, Jennifer Cowan and Heath Collins; his in-laws, Kris Cowan and Kristina Collins; his children, Tre Fuentes, John and Kelsey Collins, Mallory Campos, and Haylee Iddings; his grandchildren, Sophia Campos, Rachel Delacruz and Elias Jones; and his wife of 15 years, Tina Collins.

Jason was a rockstar in every sense of the word, both on stage and off. He was a staple of the local music community since 1981 when he started his first band Z-Bec in middle school. He played in many other bands over the years the most well-known of which was Flashback. Many will remember them from their nights playing at the Chelsea St. Pub. He once turned down David Koresh for a spot in his band for "not having enough charisma or stage presence." Although he loved being on stage he would chose his family over music every time. He lived for his children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews and treated any child as if they were his own. He touched everyone he knew and never met a stranger. Everyone he met spoke about how sincere and genuinely excited he was to meet you. He was a special soul that naturally drew people to him and brightened the lives of those around him. His sense of humor was also legendary, he was known to call the local rock station on a Saturday night (in the late nineties) and request "Mr. Roboto" over and over with different voices, once actually getting them to play it. Another time he called up the Jerry's Kids telethon and asked how much it was for one of the kids. He will be dearly missed, never replaced and will never be forgotten. Special thanks to Becky, who was his aid of three and a half years. Goodbye Jason, you will be remembered fondly.

There's been an emotional ripple across my Facebook page this morning as news of Jason Collins' death spread to family, friends and the Waco music community. Collins, 50, died Wednesday morning in hospice care at his home, ending a 12-year fight with multiple sclerosis. Collins was known for his involvement with several rock bands over the years, most notably the band Flashback, which he fronted in the 1980s and '90s. The energy and enthusiasm he brought to his music was contagious and more than a few Waco musicians, such as Brian Brown, lead singer for the band Sloppy Joe and a partner in The Backyard, consider him an influence. He's remembered, too, as someone unfailingly positive, with a healthy sense of humor and deep love for his wife Tina, their five kids and two grandkids.

I met Jason back in the late '80s when I first took over the arts and entertainment beat. Flashback was one of the top local bands and a regular at Chelsea Street Pub, the bar and restaurant chain with a Richland Mall location that hosted a healthy amount of the live rock, rhythm-and-blues and pop played in town. He was always upbeat about whatever was at hand — a band gig, a benefit, a reunion show — and I never heard him backbite any Waco band or venue. I did hear a story, however, where he turned down an aspiring rock guitarist because of a lack of charisma. The guitarist? Vernon Howell, better known as David Koresh.

Jason's love for rock and performing started early. He and classmate Jeff Masiongale won their Tennyson Junior High talent show with their band Zbec and created other bands in the years that followed: Paradox, Mad Hatter and then Flashback with Jay Fletcher on lead guitar. When several of Flashback's players moved on, Jason sat in with bands like Whirling Dervish and Third Street Chaos. Then he and Fletcher reunited in Catdaddy-O (sorry, but I can't remember exactly how that was spelled), with Jason later bringing back Flashback with a new lineup. Longtime friend Todd Gibson joined Jason in an acoustic duo that played places like Cricket's and Casa de Castillo.

In 2005 came the news that changed his life: a diagnosis of MS and the start of 12 years of declining health. Jason took it in stride, even as the disease slowly eroded his ability to perform. Typically, he put his experience into a song, "24 Hour Alamo," with the idea that it might help others facing the disease. He was quick to praise those who helped him through this time, friends, support organizations and, most of all, Tina. The two married in 2003, bringing her two kids and his three into a blended family of their own. She was always with him and, when his health kept him largely at home, took him out every Friday night to places where he could either hear live music or eat Mexican food — two things far more enjoyable than the doctor visits and hospital stays that tended to dominate Jason's last months. Jason was in hospice care when he died from complications from MS, with family, friends and music gracing his final hours.

Our pop culture tends to glorify the famous simply because they're famous and not necessarily because they're generous, compassionate, friendly or encouraging. I found myself thinking today of Waco rock guitarist David Zycek, who died a little more than a year ago and was remembered for his personal qualities as well as his considerable musical talent. Jason wasn't famous, but he brightened the lives of those around him, both with his music and himself. "He wanted to be remembered fondly," Tina told me. I think he will.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, June 10, at Calvary Chapel Waco, 702 N. 18th St.

Tallahassee - David Wayne Rayboun, passed away on December 6, 2020 after fighting a long illness. He was born June 20, 1961 and lived most of his life in Tallahassee. David is loved and will be truly missed by his parents, Joe and Becky Rayboun, his son, Harley Rayboun, his sisters, Kathy Smith and her husband Dan, Susie Brown, Jenny Hill and her husband David. David spent most of his working life as a Carpenter. He could build just about anything, and his beautiful work is all over Leon County and beyond. For a while, he owned and operated the "Cobbler Shoe Repair" shop. He took pride in all the different types of work he did, whether building a simple fence, to restoring a pair of shoes. David loved to go fishing, even though he would not keep what he caught, instead he would release back to the water. He had an immense love for all animals. If God gives tasks in Heaven, David's will be to look after them. There will be a private, family Memorial to honor David.
