168. Martin Arthur⁶ Hoehne (Dorothy Jule (Jewel)⁵ Myers, John Martin⁴, Johann Jakob³ Maier, Jacob (Mayer)², Hans Jerg¹) was born 06 Aug 1926 in Burlington, Calhoun Co, Michigan, and died 05 Feb 2013 in Vicksburg, Kalamazoo Co, Michigan. He married Velda Viola Buckmaster 27 Jun 1948 in Vicksburg, Kalamazoo Co, Michigan. She was born 23 Jun 1930 in Vicksburg, Kalamazoo Co, Michigan, and died 13 Jan 2012 in Vicksburg, Kalamazoo Co, Michigan.

Notes for Martin Arthur Hoehne:

Martin Hoehne loved sports, practical jokes, and the great outdoors. Most of all, however, Martin loved his family, and he devoted his life to providing for those who depended on him. A courageous soldier, a hard worker, and a devoted family man, Martin lived a life of strength, dedication, and honor. He was truly a member of the "greatest generation," and his life stands as both an inspiration and a cherished memory in the hearts of all those he leaves behind. In the United States, the 1920s were a time of economic prosperity and changing social values, including new rights for women, the popularization of radio, and increasing consumerism. Martin was born in the midst of this tumultuous decade on August 6, 1926, to proud parents George and Dorothy (Myers) Hoehne. Their firstborn child, Martin was followed six years later by a younger brother, Earl. The Hoehne family lived in Burlington, Michigan, a village in the southwestern part of the state. The years sped by, and before long Martin was a student at Comstock High School. A talented athlete, Martin played on the football, track, baseball, and basketball teams. He loved sports of all kinds, and also enjoyed fishing and hunting. Martin came to be known by the names "Mart", "Marty", "Bruce", and "Old Timer" throughout his life.

Martin graduated from high school in 1945, but was not able to receive his diploma in person (his mother accepted the diploma in his place). He was already overseas, having joined the United States Navy in early February of the same year. The nation had been plunged into World War II, and Martin was doing his part to protect his country. He served on the USS Wilkes Barre, and was stationed off the shore of Japan on August 6, 1945 – his birthday, and the day the atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima. His ship was also part of the fleet stationed in Tokyo Bay for the signing of Japan's formal surrender document on September 2, 1945. During the course of his courageous service in the Navy, Martin was awarded six battle ribbons and two battle stars. Newly home from the Navy, Martin met a young lady named Velda Buckmaster on the very first day of his life as a civilian. They met at a local dance hall (now the Long Lake Roller Rink), and hit it off immediately. Martin and Velda soon fell in love, and were married on June 27, 1948.

In the years to come, Martin and Velda were blessed with two daughters, whom they named Tracy and Guila. Martin was a devoted family man, and worked hard to support his family. He first worked at Lee and Cady, and then went on to National Waterlift (now Parker Hannifin Abex), where he was a loyal employee until his retirement. Martin enjoyed taking his family on fun outings, and made many happy memories camping and speed boating. Martin loved the outdoors, and his favorite place to be was on a family camping trip. Martin was active in the community, and belonged to both the VFW and the Lions Club. He loved kids, and donated his time for a number of years as a youth football coach. Martin was also a faithful Christian, and belonged to the Vicksburg United Methodist Church.

In 1987, Martin retired early from National Waterlift due to medical concerns. He made the most of his golden years, and enjoyed traveling with family and friends. Martin and Velda found they preferred the balmy Southern weather to Michigan's harsh winters, and wintered in Florida for 22 years. At home in Michigan, Martin enjoyed watching sporting events and working on his woodworking projects. He spent a lot of time with family, and treasured the time he spent with his grandchildren, Kasey, Kyla, Troy, and Senika. Martin also loved animals, and had a special place in his heart for pets Duchess, Morris, Stubby, and Norton. Opinionated, fun loving, and kindhearted, Martin was a devoted husband, a loving father and grandfather, and a loyal friend. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by his many friends and family members.

Mr. Martin A. Hoehne died on February 5, 2013, at the age of 86. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Velda, in 2012; his daughter, Tracy Bowen; and his parents.

Notes for Velda Viola Buckmaster:

Velda Viola Buckmaster Hoehne (June 23, 1930 – Jan 13, 2012) daughter of Tracy and Lelia [Burr] Buckmaster. Married Martin A. Hoehne, US Navy on June 27, 1948 at Vicksburg, Kalamazoo Michigan. All who knew Velda Hoehne would agree that she was a graceful woman who was as sweet as they come. A lifelong resident of the Vicksburg area, she made a significant impact in the lives of so many around her through her kind and gentle touch. Although she enjoyed many things throughout her long and fruitful life, there was nothing more near and dear to Velda's heart than the family she treasured. She possessed an unwavering faith that served as the compass she used to direct her path throughout her entire life's journey. A beloved wife, devoted mother, and dear friend, Velda will be deeply missed while the brilliant mosaic of memories she leaves behind is forever cherished.

As the thirties dawned in America, we braced ourselves for what was to come as these days were filled with great hardship due to the unrelenting grip of the Great Depression beginning with the crash of the stock market in October of 1929. Despite the harsh conditions around them, a young family from Vicksburg, Michigan, was filled with unspeakable joy to welcome a healthy baby girl into their hearts and home on June 23, 1930. Baby Velda was one of three children born to her parents, Tracy and Lelia (Burr) Buckmaster, and she was raised alongside her sister, Vesta, and her brother V.

In many ways Velda experienced a childhood that was rather typical for the youth of her generation. She attended local schools and went on to graduate from Vicksburg High School in the late forties. New and exciting changes were in store for Velda when she met the young man with whom she would share a lifetime of love. His name was Martin Hoehne and they met one fateful evening at a local dance hall. This was an especially memorable night as it was Martin's first night home from the service. The couple was quickly smitten with one another and a dating relationship ensued. Deeply in love, Velda and Martin became husband and wife in June of 1948. Together they were blessed with two girls, and they were the light of Velda's life. From the moment her first daughter was born Velda completely immersed herself into her role as a mother. The Hoehne family enjoyed spending time together, and there were several memorable family camping trips with friends while the girls were younger. Their travels took them all over Michigan, but some of their favorite camping spots were in Gun Lake and Decatur. Once her girls were in school, Velda reentered the work force. She worked as a legal secretary - first for the Fayling office in Vicksburg and then for Gergeley Law Offices near Schoolcraft. Velda truly found her home, however, when she began working for the Vicksburg Community Schools. For about 13 years she worked as the secretary to the high school principal, and from there she moved over to Sunset Elementary. After 15 years of dedicated service in positions she truly loved, Velda retired from the school system.

Velda most enjoyed many years of family time by their pool. There wasn't a summer day that went by that she didn't get a visit from her grandchildren. She enjoyed many laughs and games with them. For 22 years, Velda and Martin left the cold Michigan winters behind to soak in the warm Florida sunshine in Avon Park, Florida. They always looked forward to visits from their grandchildren and also enjoyed spending time with the large group of friends they established down there. Trips to Cypress Gardens were another activity they always enjoyed, and Velda loved searching for great finds at flea markets and attending Super Bowl parties each year. Next to her family and friends there was nothing of greater importance to Velda than her church home. She was an active member of the Vicksburg United Methodist Church where she served in a variety of ways including as a greeter and as a member of various committees through the years. Their church community was so much more than friends, but was more like family as they truly felt like their church was their second home. When wintering in Florida, Velda and Martin regularly attended the local Presbyterian Church in Sebring. Velda was actively involved in a variety of activities there as well.

In her leisure time Velda enjoyed many things. She was an avid reader, and she also enjoyed going out to the theater, to take in musicals, and most of all to watch concert bands. With a love both for being social and taking an active role in her community, Velda volunteered at the Vicksburg Museum for some time. Throughout her life she was an animal lover and as a result, numerous animals called Velda's house their home where they received plentiful amounts of love and attention. No matter how much she spoiled them, Velda had to accept the fact that the cats were always partial to Martin. As is so often the case, Velda's health began to decline during her sunset years. She never really let her challenges slow her down much and continued to enjoy an active lifestyle.

A friendly, outgoing, and bubbly woman, Velda Hoehne was a joy to know and love. She lived to laugh and to share that laughter with others through her fun-loving sense of humor, and she loved nothing more than spending time with her family and friends. She was known to break out in song, especially famous for her rendition of old advertising jingles. Someone who was content in all things, Velda fully embraced each moment she was given while spreading her warmth to all those within her reach. Her legacy will live on in the lives of those who follow her.

Velda V. Hoehne of Vicksburg died at her home on January 13, 2012. Velda's family includes her husband, Martin; her daughter, grandchildren; brother; and brother-in-law, as well as many other relatives. Velda was preceded in death by her daughter Tracy Bowen in 2007 and her sister Vesta Grinder.

Notes for Alta Louise Hornberger:

Alta Louise (Hornberger) Weimer, age 92, of East Leroy, passed away Sunday, August 19, 2012 at Bickford Assisted Living in Battle Creek, Michigan. She was born January 17, 1920 in Marshall to Herman and Mary (Platz) Hornberger and was one of six children. Alta grew up on a farm in Tekonsha, Michigan, where she also attended school. She was employed by the Chicken Cannery in Tekonsha in her teen years. Alta married Lewis C. Weimer March 1, 1939 in the parsonage of Zion Lutheran Church in Marshall, Michigan. They began their married life in the Tekonsha area renting the "Kelly Farm." In 1944 they purchased a farm on Wheatfield Road now known as 11-Mile Road. Together, they developed their small farm into a successful 372 acre dairy farm. Alta, also raised chickens and delivered eggs to several local markets and individuals. Besides the farm, Alta was a Vanda Beauty Counselor representative for 50+ years, eventually becoming a Regional Manager. Her success with the company earned her and Lewis a trip to Hawaii. She was very active with Harper Creek Community Schools PTA and Band Boosters, a census taker, a longtime volunteer for the Leila Auxiliary, the neighborhood food pantry, and the Sewing Guild at St. Paul Lutheran Church.

From 1981-1989, she and her daughter, Alma, owned and operated the House of Cards Hallmark store in downtown Battle Creek. Besides community activities, Alta was most of all, a wonderful, caring mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. After selling the farm in 1975 they moved to Gull Lake. Alta and Lewis always celebrated holidays with large gatherings at the farm on 11-Mile Road and their home on Gull Lake during the 70's and 80's. They moved back to Battle Creek in 1989. Together, they loved to travel in their motor home, fish, bowl, and golf. Another of Alta's passions was gardening. She not only grew large vegetable and flower gardens, but was also known as the MUM lady for the beautiful display of mums lining her driveway on B Drive N. Every year during the holidays she had a 14-16 foot Christmas tree in her front window that stopped traffic and the trolley and busses going to Binder Park Zoo. Her diligent work from dawn to dusk put her garden in East Leroy in the Battle Creek Garden Tour in 2005. Alta's family was first and foremost. She was a seamstress, quilter, canner, gardener, baker, businesswoman, and a person who taught others through her example of generosity, friendship, and love. Alta was a "lucky" person in family poker games, at the casino, and the lottery. In 2003, she won the Cash Five lottery and proceeded to give it away to charities, church, and family. Alta was a 40 plus year member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Battle Creek and currently was a member of St. Mark Lutheran Church in Battle Creek.

Weimer, a fanner, will oppose Jon A. Sleeper for the GOP nomination in the Aug. 8 primary in the new 9th which is Emmett Township. Alma was born on May 31, 1923 in Marshall, Michigan. She was raised in Marshall; graduated from Marshall High School and lived and worked in Battle Creek for most of her life. Alma was employed at Bill Knapps and L.W. Robinson's Department Store of Battle Creek in her early life. She then was employed at Kellogg Company on the "snack pack" line until her retirement 1985. Our most cherished memories were visiting Grandma at the plant; taking tours and watching her work on the line by placing toys in the cereal boxes. We always knew that going to Grandma and Grandpa's house meant there would be a bag of cereal toys and sugar coated raisins from the Raisin Bran line! Even at the end of her life, she still spoke of all her friends and memories at Kellogg.

Alma was proud of being crowned "Marshall's Queen of the Movies" in 1940 which was her junior year of high school and thoroughly enjoyed playing the organ. She loved to take road trips with her husband, Jim and their two daughters. Family and work reunions were her favorites because she loved seeing old friends and extended family. Family holidays were always celebrated at Grandma and Grandpa's home. Many fond memories of walking through the patio with all the baked goods and candy that we were normally full before we reached the front door! Unfortunately, Alma passed away with her meatloaf, mac & cheese and strawberry fluff recipes. Although we all tried to duplicate those family favorites, NOBODY could make them like Alma. She loved the Johnny Carson Show and holidays would not be complete without watching the Show!

Alma was united in marriage to James P. Platz in Marshall on December 21, 1941 and he sadly preceded her in death on May 12, 1996. Alma was also preceded in death by her daughter, Joyce E. Trombley in 2013.

Surviving is her daughter, Judy M. Rutherford of Delton, Michigan; four grandchildren, Cheryl Lindhurst, Cindy Lindhurst, Shannon Trombley and James Rutherford and one great granddaughter, Julie Rutherford.

Private, family interment will be held in Memorial Park Cemetery, Battle Creek where she will be laid to rest with her beloved husband, Jim. The Farley Estes Dowdle Funeral Home & Cremation Care, Battle Creek is assisting Alma's family.

Brown played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the wedding party approached the altar. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a recessional. She also played soft music during the service. Miss Spindlow was given in marriage by her brother, Roland Spindlow. Miss Spindlow wore a modish gown of gold alpaca, fashioned with a full, street length skirt, a long, fitted bodice and short sleeves, enhanced with a jet trim. Marriage Notes for George Hindenach and Nellie Owens:

A pretty rural wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Owens, Marshall township, northwest of Marshall, Tuesday evening, June 30, 1925, when their daughter, Miss Nellie Adaline Owens, was united in marriage with George W. Hindenach, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hindenach of Marshall. The rooms were beautifully decorated in the colors of pink and white with many baskets of June lilies and roses. In the living room a bower of green was fashioned with ferns and palms intermingled with baskets of roses and lilies where at 6 o'clock the ring ceremony was read by Dr. C.E. Blanchard, pastor of the Marshall Presbyterian church.

The bridal couple with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owens, and Mr. and Mrs. Hindenach, received the 55 guests. Miss Gladys Hindenach, Marshall, sister of the groom, played "The Wedding March" from Lohengrin as Maxine Nowlin, Albion, in the green voile frock of a flower girl; Gladys Owens, Saginaw, ring bearer, in pink voile, both nieces of the bride, and Miss Bernice Owens, Jackson, maid of honor, sister of the bride, and the bride came from the open stairway pinning Mr. Hindenach, the groom and his attendant, William Owens, Bay City, brother of the bride, at the altar, where the ceremony was read.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a white georgette, trimmed with gold Venetian lace and carried a shower of white bride's roses and swansonias. Miss Owens, maid of honor, wore a pretty green georgette gown with gold lace trimmings. Her bouquet was pink roses and swansonias.

A three-course dinner followed with Mrs. Grantham catering. The table decorations were baskets of roses and pink candles in crystal holders. Mr. and Mrs. Hindenach left immediately for a month's trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco, California, stopping at the National and Yellowstone parks. Mrs. Hindenach traveled in a tan broadcloth suit with tan silk hat to match.

Guests from away were Mr. and Mrs. George Owens and children of Saginaw; Miss Ethel Evans and William Owens of Bay City, and several from Battle Creek, Marshall and Albion.

Notes for Thomas Dembowski:

August 3, 1961 - The newspaper "Army Flyer" at Fort Rucker, Alabama, carried a recent article on SP/4 Thomas J. Dembowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dembowski of Unionville. Tom, a graduate of Sebewaing High School, Class of 1958, is married to the former Margaret Volz, daughter of Mrs. Florence Volz of Sebewaing. Specialist Dembowski has been in service three years, and he is a mechanic working on helicopters. His three years will be up in October, but he plans on a nine-month extension to learn more about this work, as he is very much interested in it. The article about him reads as follows: Last Friday night the Aviation Board Softball team, behind the strong pitching and hitting of Tom Dembowski, crushed TATSA 9-2. Dembowski who has hit home runs in each of the past four games, continued his torrid hitting streak by slamming a 3-run homer in the bottom of the first inning. Dembowski was hindered by wildness several times, but the tight Board infield pulled out two double plays to keep him from getting in serious trouble.

283. Tracy Lynn⁷ Hoehne (Martin Arthur⁶, Dorothy Jule (Jewel)⁵ Myers, John Martin⁴, Johann Jakob³ Maier, Jacob (Mayer)², Hans Jerg¹) was born 21 May 1955 in Vicksburg, Kalamazoo Co, Michigan, and died 09 Jun 2007 in Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo Co, Michigan. She married Greg Bowen 23 Nov 1974.

Notes for Tracy Lynn Hoehne:

Tracy Lynn Hoehne Bowen was a woman who epitomized unconditional love and pure heart. From the flowers in her garden, to the animals in her yard, to especially the family she adored more than anything, Tracy had room in her heart for everything and everyone around her. Tracy was a loving wife and mother, and truly a gift to all who knew her. Tracy's story began on a warm spring day in 1955, in the charming little town of Vicksburg, Michigan. Those were tumultuous times in much of America, but not for Martin and Velda (Buckmaster) Hoehne, who celebrated the birth of a baby girl on May 21, 1955, a daughter they named Tracy.

Tracy was joined by a little sister in the family's Vicksburg home, and she attended Vicksburg Schools. After graduating from Vicksburg High in 1973, Tracy went to beautician school, though she only worked in the field a short time she was considered to be the "family beautician." When Tracy was attending Junior High, she met a classmate named Greg Bowen, who was a year younger than her. It wasn't until after she graduated, she finally "noticed" Greg and they began dating. It wasn't long before they fell in love, and they were married on November 23, 1974.

The couple was blessed with a daughter in 1984, followed by their son, in 1986. Tracy was a wonderful mother, supportive, attentive and caring, and worked at Vicksburg schools when her kids were attending. A devoted football fan (especially the Michigan Wolverines), Tracy loved watching her son play for Vicksburg High, and always went through withdrawal when the season ended. After her kids were grown, Tracy became a teller at LaSalle Bank. Being so compassionate to everyone, Tracy was also an animal lover, and had 7 cats, Baxter, Chester, Sherman, Claire, Olive, Sophia and Fifi. She also loved wildlife, and would feed all the critters that came in the yard, from opossums to skunks, raccoons, and squirrels. She loved her flower gardens.

Tracy was also a woman of great faith, and had attended Chapman Memorial Church of the Nazarene and Prairie Chapel in Schoolcraft. She was always helping others, which is why, when she took ill a week ago, that she became an organ donor. She would give anyone the shirt of her back, so why in death should she stop?

Sadly, Tracy died on Saturday, June 9, 2007 at Bronson Methodist Hospital, at the age of 52. Tracy was feisty, eccentric, and fun, but more than anything, she was so loving and compassionate, a true gift to all who knew her. She will be so greatly missed. Tracy was preceded in death by her father-in-law Thomas Bowen, and a special friend Mike Green.

Marriage Notes for Mary Schermerhorn and Lynn Wolf:

The Faith Lutheran church in Portland set the marriage last Sunday July 16, 1950 of Miss Mary Jane Schermerhorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Schermerhorn of Corvallis, and Lynn Edwin Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Wolf of Portland. The double-ring ceremony took place in the late afternoon amid pastel gladiolas and softly glowing candelabras which decorated the altar. The bride was given in marriage by her father before Rev. Herbert Nottbohn. The ever-popular "Oh Promise Me", was selection chosen by the couple as their memory tune. The formal bridal costume was of white marquisette over a taffeta hoop skirt. Two tiers of white ruffles on the yoke complimented the three tiers on her skirt which down the aisle. Her bouquet was of two purple orchids set on a white Bible. Stephanotis and white ribbon in long strands formed her flowing marker.

Maid of honor, Miss Beverly Joy Kubat of Chicago, Illinois, preceded the bride to the altar dressed in a blue marquisette formal-length dress with a full skirt. She wore matching gauntlets and a heart-shaped bonnet also of blue marquisette. Her flowers consisted of pink gladiola buds interlaced in a white heart-shaped frame. Serving as best man for his brother was Eldon A. Wolf, who came to Portland from his home in Albany, California. The two ushers were Joseph Lakefish and George Parrish, both of Portland. Mrs. Schermerhorn chose for her daughter's wedding a street-length dress of sheer print in black and white. Her picture hat was of black straw and the remainder of her accessories were white. She wore a corsage of variegated shades of pink carnations. The groom's mother also wore street-length dress, but of turquoise crepe; her accessories, black and straw-colored. Her corsage was similar to that of Mrs. Schermerhorn.

Following the tying of the nuptial knot, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Eldon A. Wolf, wife of the best man, took charge of the pouring, while Mrs. Bruce Hahn, of Corvallis, cut the cake. They were assisted by Misses Rosemary Both and Janet Wilson, of Portland and North Powder, respectively. Miss Ruth Sono, also of Portland, attended to the guest book as relatives and friends of the newly-married couple intermingled in the room gayly decorated with pink and white snapdragons on the tables and pink and white gladiolas over the fire place. Candles served as the only lighting.

Dressed for her going-away, the bride later appeared in a suit aqua sharkskin. Her accessories were white; her corsage, two purple orchids. The new Mrs. Wolf was graduated from Calumet High school in Chicago, and is a 1950 graduate of the Oregon State college pharmacy school. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi social sorority and of Lambda Kappa Sigma, a pharmacy sorority. Her husband, a graduate of Benson Technical High school in Portland, is also a 1950 graduate of O.S.C. pharmacy school. Previous to his college entrance, he had served 26 months with the army. He is employed at The Dalles Pharmacy in The Dalles, Oregon, where the honeymooners returned to live.

Notes for Janine Wolf:

Janine Wolf, Dec. 13, 2001 - That's me riding an elephant across the Broadway Bridge in Portland from the train station to the Memorial Coliseum...a stunt for Barnum & Bailey Circus in 1978 for KYTE Radio. Check out the shoes...what was I thinking? After 40+ years on the radio, I have decided to hang up my headphones and retire. I truly didn't think I'd be as emotional about it as I am because I'm ready, but at the same time, I'm letting go of a career that I have loved. How lucky am I that I get to finish my career after eleven years at an amazing radio station, K103. I'm thankful to get to do it on my terms, and grateful for all the wonderful people I've met, worked with, and become life-long friends with because of it. Above all, I'm thankful for the listeners, YOU are the biggest reason I have loved this work so much!

Being on the radio was never my intention when I graduated from PSU in 1976. I tried getting into pharmaceutical sales, thinking it would be lucrative and interesting, and because I thought I'd be good at it since my parents were pharmacists and I grew up working at our neighborhood drug store in North Portland. But after turning down three incredibly good offers, one including a new Cutlass Supreme, I realized it wasn't for me, my heart wasn't in it. A little seed had been planted by the late Les Sarnoff, who at the time, was a part-time disc jockey at KGON, and a substitute teacher, who I ended up working with when I was doing my student teaching at Madison High School. Les was hired to substitute when my mentor teacher faked a physical accident breaking up a fight in the cafeteria, long story, but the guy went to Pebble Beach to be in a golf tournament (and I never told on him). One day after watching me teach, Les said to me, "you know, you'd make a really good disc jockey." It was from out of left field, but it was THAT seed.

After I decided against pharmaceutical sales, I started looking into jobs in journalism, at The Oregonian, and small local newspapers, but it didn't pan out. But while I was waiting in the lobby for an interview for a copywriting job at KOIN TV, a woman I knew from PSU journalism classes, the late Jane Hoyt, who worked in news at KOIN Radio, saw me and asked me why I was there. When I told her she said, "you don't want to do that, come find me when you're done." I found Jane, she took me into a news booth, handed me copy and a set of headphones, and recorded me reading the news. That was it! I found what I was going to love doing for over 40 years.

My career started in Portland, but I was in Los Angeles for 25 years, where I also did a little TV. During my career I got to play Disco when it was brand new, was the first female disc jockey ever at the biggest radio station in Portland, Super 62 KGW, and got to be country when country was cool during the Urban Cowboy faze. I've done Top 40, Adult Contemporary, Rock, Soft Rock, Hot AC, Smooth Jazz, News, co-hosted a nationally syndicated home improvement talk show, co-hosted a national Country count-down show, was a TV booth announcer, Los Angeles Emmy Nominated TV show host and producer, and the voice of Mexicana Airlines, and I don't speak Spanish! Because of radio I've met so many interesting people and celebrities, from Dolly Parton to Cher, Al Gore, Billy Joel, Johnny Cash, Tina Turner, my favorite, John Candy, and so many more. I learned how to ski, drive a motorcycle, ride an elephant, and a mechanical bull because of radio. I got to go to free concerts and events, fly in a Lear Jet, and visit Disney World. Through radio I had the opportunity to work with amazing causes from Komen to Make-A-Wish, The Salvation Army, Pink Lemonade Project and so many more. I have been blessed!

Many people have helped me throughout my career, I'd like to thank a few now, in reverse chronological order:

-God, my parents, and my family.

-You Listeners.

-The entire K103 staff and all of Heart Portland, some of the finest pros I've ever worked with, and my boss, Michael La Crosse for making my last two years, two of the best.

-John Williams, for being an amazing radio partner and forever friend.

-iHeart's Tony Coles, for his integrity, leadership, example, and for hiring me in Portland...twice!

-All the amazing talent and staff that I worked with at Westwood One Radio Networks, Los Angeles.

-Ken Sutherland, for the opportunities and your friendship.

-Melanie Steensland, for helping me get into TV, for always supporting my career, and for your friendship of nearly 40 years.

-Charlie Cook, who changed my life by hiring me at my first job in LA at the legendary KHJ, and for opening so many doors for me, not to mention our 40-year friendship.

-The late Mike Phillips, for hiring me at my first big job at KGW and for telling me that if I physically smiled, I'd always sound happy on the air.

-Kim Hollaway, my radio sister and forever friend.

-The late Ron Allen, for his love and for always being my cheerleader.

-The Portland PD, who after my first time as a disc jockey told me I'd never be good at it...that's all I needed to hear.

-Rich, the Program Director at KUIK, Hillsboro, who gave me my first radio job in 1977 after telling me on a Tuesday, if I got my FCC License by Friday, I'd get the job, never believing I'd get it, but I did and he said, "I've taken that test 3 times and failed, you got the job!"

-Bob Brooks, when he was the Program Director at KGON, for giving me the study guide and telling me to get my FCC License.

-The late Jane Hoyt, who put me behind that mic for the first time.

-The late KISN Good Guy, Pat Pattee, who I fell to sleep listening to on my transistor radio under my pillow every night as a teen...I went through a lot of batteries!

A Facebook friend wrote on my page, "You're not retiring, are you? Don't do it, it's boring." What he doesn't know about me is I'm rarely bored, so no worries!
