Notes for Earl Walter Roller:

Sept. 7, 1948 - The last summer holiday of the year has ended. Most borough residents returned to their carious routines of work today and tomorrow the nearly 3,000 borough school children will go back to school after 10 weeks of vacation. Traffic on highways through the borough was light during yesterday, increasing during the evening and hitting its peak later at night. The Naugatuck Police patrol was active throughout the evening working with State Police patrols.

Five motor vehicle arrests were made here during the weekend, three of them by borough police and one by Sate police. Earl W. Roller, 26, of 310 South Main Street, was arrested Sunday night on a charge of violating the rules of the road after a collision near the Christoforo Colombo Hall on South Main Street, Raymond Cylwik, 21, of 19 Park Place, a passenger in the Roller car suffered a laceration of the scalp and was treated by Dr. Edwin R. Curran. In borough court yesterday morning, Roller was fined $15 by Judge Thomas Neary. Vincent Deschino, 27, of 30 Rose Street, Waterbury, driver of the second car involved in the crash was granted a nolle without payment on a similar charge.

Naugatuck – Mr. Earl W. Roller, 87, of Counselor Drive, unexpectedly passed away on Wednesday, Sept. 29, 2010 at Saint Mary's Hospital. He was the widower of Lillian (Gniadowski) Roller. Mr. Roller was born in Williamsport, Pennsylvania on Dec. 6, 1922, son of the late Harold and Sarah (Williamson) Roller. He was a lifelong Naugatuck resident and a graduate of Naugatuck High School. He retired after 35 years from the Chemical Division of Uniroyal Inc., where he was a foreman. He was a World War II veteran serving in the Army as a surgical technician in the Pacific. He was a communicant of St. Hedwig Church, where he was a eucharistic minister and a member of the Holy Name Society, serving as treasurer. He was also a member of the Catholic War Veterans and the Elks. He enjoyed playing golf. He will be greatly missed.

He leaves a son, Earl A. "Butch" Roller of Scottsdale, Arizona; two daughters, Crystal LaBonte and her husband Ronald of Naugatuck, Sally Shapiro and her husband Peter of Bloomfield; five grandchildren, Matthew, Jordan, Samantha, Kerith and Jesse; and three great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by a daughter, Carol Roller.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, Oct. 2 at 11 am. at the Naugatuck Valley Memorial/Fitzgerald Zembruski Funeral Home, 240 North Main St., Naugatuck. Burial with military honors will follow in St. James Cemetery, Cross Street, Naugatuck. Calling hours will be held at the funeral home on Saturday morning from 10 to 11 a.m. Memorial contributions may be made to the Naugatuck Ecumenical Food Bank, 75 Spring St., Naugatuck, Connecticut 06770.

Notes for Lillian G. Gniazdowski:

Naugatuck –Mrs. Lillian G. (Gniazdowski) Roller, beloved wife, mother and grandmother, age 85, of 187 Lincoln St., died Saturday, Aug. 30, 2008, at her home unexpectedly. She was wife of Earl W. Roller. Mrs. Roller was born July 17, 1923, in Union City, daughter of the late Stanley and Alexandria (Novacinski) Gniazdowski. She was a lifelong resident of Naugatuck. She was a communicant of St. Hedwig's Church where she was a member of the Rosary Society, St. Hedwig's Choir and a member and past president of the Ladies Guild. She was a member of the Naugatuck Food Bank, the Elks Club Ladies Auxiliary and the American Legion Ladies Auxiliary.

Besides her husband, she leaves one son, Earl A. "Butch" Roller and his wife, Jackie, of Scottsdale, Arizona; two daughters, Crystal LaBonte and her husband, Ron, of Naugatuck, Sally Shapiro and her husband, Peter, of Bloomfield; one sister, Lorraine Shanley of Naugatuck; five grandchildren, Matthew, Jordan, Samantha, Kerith and Jesse; three great-grandchildren, Zev, Frances and Jack; and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her daughter, Carol A. Roller; one brother, Stanley Nester; and one sister, Frances Kleinschmidt.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. at the Fitzgerald-Zembruski Funeral Home, 240 North Main St., Naugatuck. Burial will follow in St. James Cemetery, Cross Street, Naugatuck. 96. Mark Arnold<sup>7</sup> Roller (Orrin Albert<sup>6</sup>, John Jacob<sup>5</sup>, Jacob J.<sup>4</sup>, Johann Jacob<sup>3</sup>, Johann Georg<sup>2</sup>, Johann Matthias<sup>1</sup>) was born 03 Aug 1936 in Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 15 May 2024 in Adrian, Lenawee Co, Michigan. He married Lorraine F. Folmer 1958. She was born 10 Jul 1936 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 05 Feb 2021 in Loyalsock Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Mark Arnold Roller:

Mark A. Roller, 87, of Loyalsock Township, passed away peacefully with his family by his side under Hospice care in Adrian, Michigan, on May 16, 2024. He was born on August 3, 1936, a son of the late Orrin and Beatrice (Heim) Roller. In addition to his parents, Mark was preceded in death by his wife Lorraine Folmar Roller. Mark was a member of the Faxon Kenmar United Methodist Church and a graduate of Williamsport High School in 1954, the Pennsylvania State University in 1958, and the University of Michigan in 1961. He served as the Regional Director of the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources, retiring after 30 years of dedicated service. Mark was also the President of the Loyalsock Lions Club for many years and a life member and President of Blooming Grove Historical Society, where he organized their 200th Anniversary. Mark and Lorraine were loyal volunteers with the American Rescue Workers for more than 30 years. They also enjoyed traveling and escorted many trips for AAA including the first Penn State football bus trips and tailgate.

Mark enjoyed attending Penn State football games as well as men's and women's basketball games with his wife, family, and friends, and introducing many to their first PSU game. He and his wife hosted tailgates at football games for more than 50 years. With Lorraine, he enjoyed chairing many High School reunions. Mark was an avid outdoorsman and hunter, including as a member of the Wilt Cabin for more than 60 years, and enjoyed participating in big game hunting trips in his retirement. Having lived in Williamsport most of his life, Mark contributed to the community in many ways, including spearheading the development of the Loyalsock Community Pool. His years of service as a volunteer helped many. Mark was also a marble champion in Junior High School, an early baseball team player in what would become the Little League Baseball World Series, and a High School basketball center holding the current rebound record.

Surviving are his son Mark Jr. (Melissa) Roller of Maryland; two daughters Karen Roller of Colorado and Kim (Peter) Barr of Michigan; a brother Calvin (Susan) Roller; 7 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held on Tuesday, May 28, at 1 pm at McCarty-Thomas Funeral Home, 733 Broad Street, Montoursville, with Pastor Sam Astin officiating. A private burial will be held at the Blooming Grove Cemetery, Hepburn Township. Friends may call from 10 am to 1 pm Tuesday at the funeral home. The family will provide flowers and suggest memorial contributions to the American Rescue Workers, 643 Elmira St, Williamsport, Pennsylvania 17701.

Notes for Lorraine F. Folmer:

Lorraine F. Roller, 84, of Loyalsock Township, passed away peacefully with her family by her side, at her residence on February 5, 2021. She was born on July 10, 1936, in Williamsport, a daughter of the late Andrew and Rita (Williamson) Folmar. Lorraine was a member of Faxon Kenmar United Methodist Church, and a graduate of both Williamsport High School in 1954 and Williamsport School of Nursing. She was an R.N. at the former Williamsport Hospital, a member of Loyalsock Lioness Club, a life member of Blooming Grove Historical Society, and a member of the WHS Class of "54" Reunion Committee. Lorraine was a loyal volunteer with the American Rescue Workers for over 30 years. She and her husband also escorted groups for AAA, including Penn State tailgates. Lorraine enjoyed attending Penn State football as well as mens and ladies basketball games with her husband and friends. She especially enjoyed setting up personal tailgates for football games, which took place for over 50 years.

In addition to her parents, Lorraine was preceded in death by her brother, Robert Folmar. Surviving is her husband of 63 years, Mark A. Roller; a son, Mark Jr. (Melissa) Roller, of Maryland; two daughters, Karen Roller, of Texas; and Kim (Peter) Barr, of Michigan; a brother, Jack (Alice) Folmar, of Lebanon; 7 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

A private family funeral service will be held on Friday, February 12, 2021 2:30 p.m., at Spitler Funeral Home, 733 Broad St., Montoursville, Pennsylvania 17754 with Pastor Sam Astin officiating. There will be a walk-through viewing on Friday, 1-2:30 p.m. at the funeral home. In accordance to Pennsylvania Department of Health Guidelines, indoor gathering restrictions will be followed including masks and social distancing. Burial will be held at the convenience of the family in Blooming Grove Cemetery. A life celebration will be announced at a later date for Spring 2021. The Roller family wishes to thank hospice and all of Lorraine's many caregivers. Special thanks to Judy, Melissa, and Stacy- who helped Lorraine steadily for past years- as well as Christa, Anne, and Missy. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to American Rescue Workers, 643 Elmira St., Williamsport, Pennsylvania 17701.

Marriage: 07 Jul 1951

Children of Lillian Roller and LeRoy Simpson are:

- 178 i. Joseph Eugene<sup>8</sup> Simpson, born 17 Jul 1964. He married Laurie Sue Forney Dec 1988 in Danville, Pennsylvania.

Marriage Notes for Joseph Simpson and Laurie Forney:

Dec. 20, 1988 - Laurie Sue Forney and Joseph Eugene Simpson were united in marriage recently in Shiloh United Church of Christ, Danville. The Revs. Robert Paden and Gary Hackenburg officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Judy Weader provided organ selections including "Perhaps Love," "Andante," "Jesu," "Joy of Man's Desiring," "Sheep May Safely Graze," and "O Perfect Love." The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Forney, Danville. The groom is the Son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy E. Simpson, Duboistown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of white taffeta, schiffli and Alencon lace. The shot lantern sleeves were edged at the shoulders with a petal pouf, silk flowers and pearl pics. The V-neckline in front and back and the molded covered in alencon beaded lace, accented a skirt which fell to a cathedral train.

The train was edged with schiffli lace studded with pearls and iridescent. To complete her ensemble the bride chose a V-frame head-piece of iridescents and pearls. Silk flowers and pearl pics accented the pearl-studded triple poof. She carried a striking cascade of calla lilies, yellow and stephanotis with tropical foliages and variegated ivy.

Renee Heeter, Danville, friend of the served as maid of honor. She wore a gown of dark green iridescent taffeta with short puff sleeves, jewel neckline and V-back, accented by a large bow of iridescents. The gathered skirt fell from the V-waist and was floor length. Her headpiece was a green illusion pouf comb embellished with green iridescents. She carried an arm bouquet of black ostrich plumes, sprays of white dendrobium orchids and glamelias accented with emerald sequins and black satin ribbons. Matron of honor was Shelley Stump, Fleetwood, friend of the bride, and bridesmaid was Melissa Straub, Danville, friend of the bride. Their gown, headpieces and flowers were identical to that of the maid of honor. Melissa Anderson, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She carried a white brim basket with baby's breath and yellow sweetheart roses, and wore a halo of matching flowers. Sheila Berninger, niece of the groom, served as ring bearer. Matthew Haag, nephew of the groom, saved as acolyte, while three nieces of the Jessica Geisler, Amy Geisler and Kady Vaughn were greeters. The guest book attendant was Renee Gearhart, cousin of the bride. Andy Groseclose, Florida, friend of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Stuart Schmuck and Michael Haag, both of Williamsport. Mother of the bride wore a tea-length dress of mulberry satin and lace. Mother of the groom wore a mauve tea-length dress.

A reception for 200 guests followed at the Danville Elks Lodge. Out-of-town guests attended from Ohio, New York, Florida and New Jersey. The bride is a 1983 graduate of Danville High School, a 1987 graduate of Lock Haven University and a 1988 graduate of Bloomsburg University with a master's degree in education specializing in reading. She is currently employed by the Danville School District as the athletic trainer. The groom is a 1982 graduate of South Williamsport High School, a 1983 graduate of Williamsport Area Community College and has recently been selected as the head golf professional of the Tioga Country Club, Wellsboro.

The couple honeymooned at Bavaro Beach in the Dominican Republic and will reside in Wellsboro. Bridal showers were given by the bride's great aunts and attendants, and the groom's mother and sisters prior to the ceremony.

Notes for Dorothy Claire Weitzel:

Dorothy Claire (Weitzel) Jordan, age 71 of Lynn, died on Monday June 1, 2020 at Salem Hospital after a brief illness. She was the wife of Thomas Jordan, with whom she shared 45 years of marriage. Born in Lynn, she was the daughter of the late Kathleen (Soucy) Weitzel. She was raised in Williamsport, Pennsylvania and Swampscott and was a graduate of Swampscott High School, class of 1967. She would later earn an Associate's Degree from North Shore Community College. Dorothy had lived in Swampscott for the greater part of her life before moving to Lynn in 2000. For many years "Dot" worked for Advanced Automation, and then for the Lynn Economic Opportunity (LEO) Head Start Program. She always had a passion for helping people (especially children) and her years working at Head Start allowed her to help low-income families improve their child's health, nutrition, and early childhood education. She found this work to be the most challenging, yet most rewarding of her life. A former member of the Boston Church of Christ, Dot was an active member of the Rebekah's and she and her husband for many years helped organize the Odd Fellows Pilgrimage for Youth trip to New York City. They also took great pride in coordinating quarterly lodge newsletters for the IOOF Kearsarge Lodge #217 of Swampscott for more than 20 years. She had a passion for flowers and food, especially sweets and she loved to make people laugh. Her greatest joy came through spending time with her family and her beloved grandchildren, who meant the world to her. As the family matriarch, she would make sure that her children kept connected to the entire extended family.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by 2 sons; Torry Jordan Morris and his wife Melanie of Clinton and Michael P. Jordan and his wife Amy of Peabody, 6 grandchildren; Damian, Laine, Miana, Jag, Meadow, and Owen, a sister Diane Philbrook of Florida, 2 sisters-in-law Patricia McBain and Colleen Jordan, both of Swampscott, and many nieces and nephews, including her two god daughters Christina Jordan of Swampscott and Melissa Re of Peabody. She was also the sister of the late Paul Weitzel.

Adhering to the guidelines of the CDC and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, services are private. Arrangements are under the direction of the Solimine Funeral Homes. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to the NSMC Cancer Walk.

Children of Dorothy Weitzel and Thomas Jordan are:

- 196 i. Torry<sup>9</sup> Jordan.
- 197 ii. Michael Jordan. He married Amy ?.
- + 198 iii. Diane Jordan.

Marriage Notes for Wanda Hummel and Thomas MacAvoy:

June 9, 1980 - Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hummel of Cogan Station, Pennsylvania, announced the engagement of their daughter Wanda L. Hummel, to Thomas W. MacAvoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon, MacAvoy 63 N. Main Street, Shavertown. Miss Hummel is a 1977 gradual of Williamsport Area High School. She is a senior at Susquehanna University, where she is majoring in church music and music education. Mr. MacAvoy is a 1976 graduate of Dallas High School and a 1980 cum laude graduate of Susquehanna University. A business administration major in marketing and management, he has accepted a position with the New Jersey National Bank of Trenton, New Jersey, as a branch manager trainee. Plans are being made for a June 20, 1981, wedding.

Miss Wanda Lou Hummel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hummel, RD 3, Box 364, Cogan Station, and Thomas William MacAvoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon MacAvoy, 65 N. Main Street, Shavertown, exchanged wedding vows June 20, 1981 at 2 p.m. in St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Quiggville. Rev. Peter Fauerbach, officiated. The church was adorned with vases of blue carnations, white pompons and baby's breath.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attired in a gown of silk organza featuring a high neckline of Chantilly lace with an insert of silk illusion highlighted with seed pearls. Slit bishop sleeves were over long tapered sleeves, also enhanced with matching lace. A wide border of Chantilly lace, featured on the circular skirt, gave an apron effect in the back which flowed into a cathedral length train. She wore a juliet cap of Chantilly lace attached to lace trimmed illusion carried a nosegay of white roses, white daisies, light blue baby's breath. Mrs. Kimberly Holdridge of Somerset, Pennsylvania, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She selected a blue gown of silesta knit featuring a scoop neckline, cape sleeves and a blouson bodice. Self-fabric bows accented the shoulders and waistline and the full circular skirt fell from a natural waistline. She wore a cluster of baby's breath and a miniature carnation in her hair and carried a nosegay of white daisies and blue miniature carnations with white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan MacAvoy, of Shavertown, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Judy

MacAvoy, Newport News, Virginia, also sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Gina Green, Renova. They were attired in blue gowns similar to the matron of honor and carried similar bouquets with blue streamers. They also wore floral clusters in their hair. Daniel MacAvoy served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Fred Pfeiffer, Montgomery; Kevin Owens, York; David Holdridge of Somerset, Pennsylvania, brother-in-law of the bride.

A dinner and reception was held at Ascension Parish Hall, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to the Bahamas and Florida. A rehearsal dinner was held at Genetti-Lycoming by parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. MacAvoy graduated from Williamsport Area High School and Susquehanna University, where she received a bachelor of music degree in music education and church music. Mr. MacAvoy, a graduate of Dallas Area High School and Susquehanna University, is a bank officer assistant at New Jersey National Bank. The couple will reside at 1451 Parkside Ave., Trenton, New Jersey.
