Notes for Samuel David Catt:

July 31, 1972 - A two-year-old Hancock County boy was drowned Saturday afternoon in Blue River just north of the Shelby County line. His body was recovered in the river about a quarter mile south of his home. According to the Hancock County sheriff's Department, Samuel David Catt, 2, Rt. 1, Morristown. Evidently wandered from his home located on CR 550S on the river. His parents Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catt Jr. missed the boy about 3:30 or 4 p.m. Saturday and called the sheriff's office at 5:15 p.m. The body was recovered in some rapids in the river about quarter mile south of his home shortly before 7 p.m. by Albert J. Jones, Indianapolis, who was fishing with his son.

The child was born in Shelby County, Feb. 16, 1970. Surviving besides the parent are three brothers, Gregory, Michael and David Catt. Graveside service will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Park Cemetery. Friends may call at the Pasco Memorial Mortuary after 7 p.m. Monday.

The Morristown Messenger Thursday, August 3, 1972

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Samuel David Catt, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Catt Jr., Rt. 1, Morristown, who drowned Saturday night in a deep portion of Big Blue River. The little boy wandered away from his home in Hancock County near the Shelby County line and was found by two fishermen following a three-hour search. The boy was discovered missing around 4 p.m. and he was found about 7 p.m., a quarter-mile from the spot where he apparently went into the water. Sheriff's officers said two fishermen who were not a part of the searching party saw the boy's body floating in the water, and they pulled him from the water.

Services were held at the Pasco Memorial Funeral Home in Greenfield, and graveside rites were held Tuesday. Surviving besides the parents are three brothers, Gregory, Michael and David Catt, all at home.

Marriage Notes for Leland Crane and Constance Evans:

The marriage of Miss Constance Bayne Evans of Tacoma, Washington and Leland Teddy Crane II of Seattle took place last Saturday afternoon May 19, 1962 in Christ Episcopal church in Tacoma. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Teddy Crane of 2854 Fairfield, Eureka. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Bradford Evans of Tacoma. Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Father John Lockerby, Episcopal rector.

The bride's father escorted her along an aisle marked by bouquets of white gladioli and gave her in marriage before an altar banked with baskets of white stock and iris. Mrs. James B. Pierson, organist, provided the nuptial music.

The bride wore a gown of Schiffl embroidered organza over blue taffeta, Satin binding edged the circlet neckline, the dropped waistline and the three-quarter length sleeves. Horizontal bands of satin were used on the full sweeping skirt which ended in a chapel-length train. An organza rose held a bouffant butterfly veil to her hair. She carried a bouquet of bouvardia and baby orchids.

Miss Vicki Morie Beaudry of Seattle was maid of honor and Mrs. Loren Gilbertson of Seattle and Miss Margaret Studham of San Francisco were attendants. They were identically gowned in romance blue silk linen sheaths with matching horsehair picture hats trimmed with blue flowers around the open crowns. They carried bouquets of white iris. Keith D. Crane of Weaverville was his brother's best man. John Hemini was head usher with Victor F. Ritchie of Fremont and Raymond D. Tanner of Edmonds, Washington, as other ushers.

The reception was held in Wells Hall of the Episcopal church immediately following the ceremony. Close friends of the couple assisted at the reception. For the wedding trip the bride changed to a yellow sheer wool suit with which she wore black accessories and a flowered picture hat. The bride was graduated from Stadium High school in Tacoma and attended Washington State University and was graduated from there. She was a member of Theta Sigma Phi, Gamma Alpha Chi, Beta Rho Tau, the senior honor roll and a student staff member of the university radio station. The groom is a graduate of Eureka high school and of Oregon State college where he majored in engineering. He has served in counter-intelligence work for the government and now is employed as salesman for the Moore business forms company of Seattle. He is affiliated with Theta Chi fraternity. The couple will be at home in Seattle after May 26.

Notes for Lloyd L. Long:

Lloyd L. Long died last Friday, September 6, 1963, at his Pope Street home, after suffering a heart attack. He was 75 years old. Mr. Lloyd was well known in this area, having been a resident of Napa County for 33 years, for 20 of which he was postmaster at the Veterans Home in Yountville. He was born in Indiana, but in the years of his life in the Valley he identified himself closely with local organizations and activities. A second lieutenant in World War I, he was a member of the Veterans Home Post of the American Legion, a member of the South Bend Lodge of Masons in South Bend, Indiana, and as a past patron of the St. Helena chapter of the Eastern Star. He was an active member, and a former elder, of the First Presbyterian Church.

He was the husband of Mrs. Josephine M. Long, who survives him. Other survivors are two sons, Robert L. Long of St. Helena and Richard D. Long of Kutztown, Pennsylvania; a grandson, Jim Long of St. Helena; a granddaughter, Bernie Long of St. Helena; and a brother, Guy Long of Clear Water, Florida.

Funeral services, at which the Rev. Robert F. Hansen officiated, were held Monday afternoon at Morrison Funeral Chapel. Music at the services was by a trio composed of Mrs. Sylvia Bardes, Mrs. Jean Drouin and Mrs. Janet Hansen. Pallbearers were Gilbert Donaldson, Frank Wood, Harvey Money, Dr. George Wood, Warren Standiford and Kenneth Cairns. For friends who wish to make memorial contributions, the family expressed a preference for the Presbyterian Church as recipient.

Notes for Josephine Mary Rossini:

St. Helena native and lifelong resident Josephine Mary Rossini Long, 94, died Tuesday June 20, 1989 at CareWest Madrone Nursing Center. Mrs. Long was born on Feb. 7, 1895, to Napa Valley pioneers F. and Josephine Poncetta Rossini, who came from the Lake Coma area of Switzerland. Her father and uncle founded one of the earliest wineries on Howell Mountain in 1875, now the Burgess Cellar Winery. She married Lloyd Long in Napa 1934 and they made their home in St. Helena. She and her husband, who was the postmaster of the Veterans Home in Yountville for many years, lived on a small ranch on Pope Street. After her husband died in 1963, Mrs. Long managed the ranch by herself until 1967 when she moved to her Kearney Street home.

Marriage Notes for Lloyd Long and Josephine Rossini:

Napa County, June 2, 1934 – Miss Josephine Rossini of St. Helena and Lloyd L. Long, postmaster at the Veterans Home in Yountville, were married at a simple ceremony at the Presbyterian Church in Napa, the Rev. Josiah Daniel officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Louis King of Vallejo, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Long will establish their home in St. Helena.

He married Hazel Nolte 16 Jan 1914 in Indiana. She was born 11 Nov 1889 in Somerdale, Tuscarawas Co, Ohio, and died 23 Jan 1960.

Notes for Arley Enis Catt:

June 1952 - Warning to catfish in Indiana lakes: Stay clear of the bait of any fisherman named Catt, especially 62-year-old Arley Catt of 1615 N. Jay Street. Catt, a Dirilyte Company of America, Indiana, foreman, doesn't have any trouble when it comes to landing catfish. Each time he goes out he catches a bigger one. But they don't come much bigger than the one he caught on Lake Freeman Saturday night with his friend John Reddick who lives at Walnut Gardens on Lake Freeman.

After 20 minutes the two men landed a 63-pound Mississippi catfish measuring four feet long. Then it took another 20 minutes to bring it in. Fishing enthusiasts around Kokomo wasted little time in getting a peek at the whopper when they learned Catt would have it on display at Snepp & Fager Sporting Goods store Monday and Tuesday.

Just a year ago Catt snared a 2-pound catfish on Lake Freeman. But he says that was just a “baby” compared to his latest catch. Last year Catt also snared a 56-pound catfish near his cottage in Walnut Gardens.

“I used a small sunfish for bait on this one and it sure gave us a struggle. It really made some bubbles in the water and rocked the boat plenty,” Catt recalled Monday. “There still was a small piece of chair dangling from the mouth of the catfish. It broke away from an Indianapolis fisherman three weeks ago after being boated,” Catt said he had been told.

Daniel Franklin¹² Cross (Rebecca Josephine¹¹ Catt, Daniel C.¹⁰, Samuel⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 23 Apr 1887 in Henry, Henry Co, Indiana, and died 08 Jan 1940 in Kansas City, Wyandotte Co, Kansas. He married Hazel Ellen Crandall 10 Sep 1908 in New Castle, Henry Co, Indiana. She was born 08 Mar 1889 in New Castle, Henry Co, Indiana.

Notes for Rev. Daniel Franklin Cross:

Rev. Daniel F. Cross, of Kansas City, formerly a pastor of the First Christian church in Emporia, died Monday evening Jan. 1940 at 8 o'clock in the Bethany hospital in Kansas City, following an appendectomy. For the past 11 years, Mr. Cross had been pastor of the Central Christian church in Kansas City. Mr. Cross would have been 53 years old in April. Funeral services will be Thursday afternoon. Rev. John P. Zimmerman, of Topeka, secretary of the Kansas Christian Missionary society, will preach the sermon. The body will be taken to Newton for burial Friday.

Mr. Cross was pastor of the First Christian church here from 1924 until December, 1928. Rev. Claude G. Large, present pastor of the church, took over the pastorate in March 1929. The First Christian church parsonage, 612 Market, was built and paid for during the pastorate of Mr. Cross in Emporia. After Mr. Cross went to the church in Kansas City, the membership increased to more than 1,000. The small church building became inadequate and plans were made for a new church building and construction started. The new $125,000 church building is nearing completion. Mr. Cross's doctor said the pastor had overworked and did not have the strength needed to undergo the operation Sunday morning.

Mr. Cross had been a minister for 33 years. It is said his death closes the longest Protestant pastorate in Kansas City, Kansas. He was a past president of the Ministerial Alliance, president of the Council of Religious Education, dean for eight years of the Leadership Training school and a member of the board of directors of the Y.M.C.A. He was president for the second time of the Kansas Christian Missionary Society and was instrumental in aiding establishment of the Axtell Christian hospital at Newton. Born in Henry County, Indiana, Mr. Cross received schooling in Butler university, where he received a degree of doctor of divinity. His first pastorate was at Dunreith, Indiana, in 1907, and he held successive charges at Tabor, Indiana, and Turon, Greensburg, Lyndon. Lyons and Emporia. He was a thirty-second degree Mason and a past president of the Club President's roundtable. He also was a member of the Lions club and the Odd Fellows.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Hazel E. Cross; two daughters, Mrs. Richard O. Colvin, of Kansas City, and Mrs. George S. Wilson, of Eureka; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin S. Cross, and two sisters, Mrs. Earl Graham and Mrs. Everett Dingle, of Newcastle, Indiana, and three brothers, Earl S. Cross, of Michigan Center, and John S. Cross and Howard E. Cross, of Newcastle.

Notes for Leland Whitsell Catt:

Nov. 6, 1934 – Officers today held three Terre Haute youths for questioning in connection with a gun fight between Herbert Rhodes, Riley garage owner, and a gang of hoodlums which resulted in the death of one of their companions yesterday. The dead youth was identified late Monday as Harold Clark, 20 years old, of Terre Haute. Sheriff William Baker arrested Jess Morris, 20, Leland Catt, 20, and Emery Pierce, 26, after he learned they were companions of the youth.

Rhodes and his wife were returning to Riley from Terre Haute early yesterday and saw several men carrying gasoline cans through the streets. He told police the men fired several shots as he approached them. Rhodes got a .22 caliber rifle from home and returned, only to find the youths driving away. He said he fired one shot before he turned the corner. Several hours later the body of Clark was found by the roadside a mile away, clad in a jacket stolen from a car at Riley.

He married (2) Edna Carylon Underwood 18 Dec 1971 in Indianapolis, Marion Co, Indiana.

Marriage Notes for Trevor Oaldon and Carol West:

Marriage vows were repeated Saturday, March 18, 1961 at 2:30 p.m. at the First Nazarene church in Noblesville by Miss Carol Jean West and Trevor Oaldon, both of Indianapolis. The bride's parents are Mr. Virgil West of New Miami, Ohio, and Mrs. L. N. Andrew of Indianapolis. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aldred L. Oaldon of Melbourne, Florida. Reverend Wayne E. Welton read the double ring vows before an altar decorated with a basket of white gladioli, flanked by two seven branch candelabra. Mrs. Robert S. Davis, organist, presented a program of nuptial selections and accompanied Miss Donna Light as she sang "I Love You Truly," "Becausue," "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the white satin covered prayer bench.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Virgil West, wore a white floor length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta featuring a Sabrina neckline trimmed with iridescents and pearls. The full skirted hoop skirt was highlighted in the front with an apron effect of tiered lace. Her embroidered linger-tip veil of illusion was attached to a Crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with white rosebuds tied with white satin streamers.

Mrs. David Anderson of Indianapolis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Mary Ann Pierce of Noblesville, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. They were dressed in lime green silk organza over taffeta with scoop necklines. The embroidered bodices were styled with cap sleeves and they wore flower headbands. They carried nosegays of white carnations tied with white satin streamers. Lighting the candle were Dale Donaho and Don Dickman of Indianapolis. Ronnie Oaldon of Indianapolis, brother of the groom served him as best man. The groomsman was Arthur Skibbe Jr., of Indianapolis. Seating the guests were Bill Oaldon of Melbourne, Florida, brother of the groom, and Dale Doneho and Don Dickman. The bride's mother wore a lime green linen sheath with lime green and bone accessories. Mrs. Virgil West was dressed in a two-piece silk with a beige hat and brown accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Rainbow Club. The all-white cake decorated with sugar bells and roses and topped with a bride and groom. The cake, lime punch, mints and nuts were served the guests by Mrs. Omer Dawson, Sr., Mrs. Paul Beam and Virginia Andrew's. The register was in charge of Mrs. Arthur Skibbe of Indianapolis.

The groom attended Arsenal Technical High School in Indianapolis and is employed by Bookwalter's Printing Co., in Indianapolis. The bride attended Broad Ripple High School and is employed in the office of Van Camp Hardware and Iron Co., in Indianapolis. For their wedding trip, the bride changed to a two-piece silk dress and coat ensemble with bone accessories. She wore the corsage from her wedding bouquet. Their at home address is 7338 E. 46th Street, Indianapolis. The bride formerly resided in Noblesville in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pierce.

Marriage Notes for Jane Adams and Cordell Williams:

The wedding of Miss Jane Ellen Adams and Cordell C. Williams Jr. was solemnized on Friday, Oct. 19, 1962 at 6 p.m. in the Hillcrest church of Christ with Pual Galyan officiating at the double-ring service. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Adams, 1201 W. 5th Street, and Edith Williams, 1815 Walton Street, and Cordell Williams Sr., this city. Marvin W. Lowe, brother-in-law of the bride, sang bridal airs preceding the ceremony. White mums and snapdragons decorated the altar for the candlelight ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of illusion net and lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice of lace had long sleeves which came to bridal points over her hands and a small stand-up collar. The lace motifs on the gown were studded with iridescents. Her fingertip veil of illusion net fell from a teardrop Gara of pearls and iridescents. She carried a lace-covered Bible topped with a single orchid.

Sarah Ann Hiday, the bride's only attendant, wore a street-length gown of light blue chiffon with light blue accessories. She wore a matching tiara and carried a blue and white nosegay. George Krall acted as best man, and ushers were John Hadley, Jerry Wilson and Jerry Ward.

A reception followed at the church. A tree-tiered wedding cake centered the serving table. Servers were Jo Ann, Betty and Janet Williams, cousins of the groom. Guests were registered by Miss Judy Orr, of Muncie, cousin of the bride. The gift table was in charge of Misses Nancy Custer and Paula Mecker. The cake and mints were made by John Hammon, a friend of the couple.

For a short wedding trip to Tennessee, the bride changed to a light brown fitted suit with dark accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. The couple now is residing there at 1024 W. 5th Street, and in Flint, Michigan, while the groom attends General Motors Institute. Mrs. Williams graduated from Anderson High School in 1961 and attended Ball State. She now is a student of art instruction. Her husband also was graduated from Anderson High School in 1961.

Notes for Charles Noble Clark:

Charles Noble Clark, 35, of 26 East Portland, was recovering from injuries at the Good Samaritan hospital Tuesday suffered about 9:25 Monday night June 1941 when he drove his automobile into the side of a moving Pennsylvania railroad locomotive at Eleventh and Main Streets. His injuries were reported not serious. The automobile driven by Clark crashed into the driving wheels of the locomotive which was pulling the passenger train into the Main street crossing. The car was bounced back by the impact. Clark was removed from the car and rushed to the hospital. The train was in charge of J.A. Lawrence, engineer, W.C. Booth, fireman and H. N. Leibel, conductor. Lawrence reported after the crash that he saw two automobiles speeding east on Main Street, just ahead of the locomotive. One car, he said, cleared the engine, but the Clark car, crashed into side of the locomotive. The train was traveling at a slow rate of speed, and stopped almost immediately.

She married Robert Knepper Seed 17 Jan 1942 in Georgia. He was born 12 Feb 1916 in Billett, Lawrence Co, Illinois, and died 02 Jun 1997 in Merritt Island, Brevard Co, Florida.

Notes for Anna Christine Wilkes:

Anna Christine Wilkes Seed Ann left this life at St. Joseph's Home in Springfield, Illinois for a better place on August 9, 2018. She was 101 years young. She was born on November 14, 1916 in Vincennes, Indiana to Margaret Thompson Wilkes and Milton Siviah Wilkes. She had one sister, Dorothy May Wilkes Wittenmeyer; six brothers, Dale, Pete, Jiggs, Bill, Earl, and PeeWee Wilkes, all of whom preceded her in death.

She had two daughters, Lynne (Lynna Rae) Seed Price and Judy Ann Seed Myles (deceased); seven grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. She also had a multitude of nieces and nephews. Ann grew up in Vincennes and worked at Dumes until she met and married Robert (Bob) K. Seed of Lawrenceville, Illinois on January 17, 1941 in Georgia just before Bob was sent overseas during WW II. She was a gentle, caring mother, and a great Army wife, living in many states and in Japan twice. They retired to Florida and after Bob's death in 1997, Ann moved to Branson, Missouri and then to Springfield, Illinois. She was full of life and loved learning about new things; she enjoyed fresh cut flowers and loved to read. She treasured each and every one of her family.

It was her wish that her death and burial not be a somber occasion, but that it be celebratory in nature and that there be no place for sadness, only joy and love. Visitation will be Sunday, November 18, 2018 from 1 pm until 3 pm at the Emmons-Macey & Steffey Funeral Home in Lawrenceville, Illinois. She will be buried immediately afterward at Zion Cemetery, south of Lawrenceville. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to St. Joseph's Home in Springfield, Illinois.

Marriage: 17 Jan 1942, Georgia

Child of Anna Wilkes and Robert Seed is:

- 6294 i. Judy Ann¹⁴ Seed, born 02 May 1950 in Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan; died 28 Jul 2013 in Ozark, Christian Co, Missouri. She married Michael Myles 26 May 1976; died 1997.

Notes for Judy Ann Seed:

Judy Myles age 63 of Ozark passed away July 28 2013 at Cox South. She was the daughter of Robert and Ann Seed and born May 2, 1950 in Tokyo, Japan. Her father preceded her in death in 1997. She lived throughout the Midwest before moving to Ozark in 1986. She married Michael Myles on May 26, 1976. Mike preceded her in death in 1997. Judy was a member of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church in Ozark where she had been active in different church capacities including the Parish Council and teaching Parochial School of Religion. Judy enjoyed being outdoors and was most happy when she was on the lake or in a stream. She had a love for Labrador retrievers and loved her dogs, Bear and Trooper. She could play a good joke on someone now and then as well like telling her sons that she got a tattoo which she knew would make them crazy. She loved gardening and keeping her home and yard. She also enjoyed traveling, Motown music and most of all being with her friends and family, especially her grandchildren. Her bucket list was very simple.

Surviving Judy are her three children, Bryan Myles and wife Dandy along with their three children Quentin Ray, Lucie Marie, and Bailey Nicole; Kevin Myles; and Jonathan Myles and wife Noelle and their two children Elijah Michael Paul and Gideon Robert. An incredible partner in crime, Kurt Johanning whom she loved dearly and who she could coerce into doing just about anything or going anywhere! She is also survived by her mother, Ann Seed; sister, Lynne Price and partner Dinah Becker of Chatham, Illinois and Lynne's two daughters and their spouses, Christina Woods, spouse Bill and their son Jason and Andrea Bennett and spouse Gary.

She also leaves behind a loving family that includes her father-in-law, Ernest St. Louis; sisters in law and brothers in law, Jackie and Doug St. Louis and their two sons and their families; Dan and Sandra St. Louis and their two sons and daughter; Toni and Kirk Deal and their family; Karen and Rob Young and their family; all from North Carolina; and James Myles. Judy leaves behind her "boys" Trooper and Bear, as well as many dear family members and friends who provided their love and support to Judy and her family.

A memorial service will be held at 10:00 A.M. Friday, August 2, 2013 in St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church, Ozark, under direction of Adams Funeral Home, Ozark. Burial will follow in Weaver Cemetery. Visitation will be from 6-8 P.M. Thursday in the church. Memorial donations may be made to St. Joseph Cemetery, Ozark or PanCan.org Or National Brain Tumor Foundation.

6335 iii. Jacqueline Frances Joffrion, born 03 Oct 1939 in Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana. She married Stanley Enoch Stankus Jan 1960 in Keithville, Caddo Parish, Louisiana; born 11 Dec 1936 in Kearny, Hudson Co, New Jersey; died 26 May 2023 in Richmond, Fort Bend Co, Texas.

Marriage Notes for Jacqueline Joffrion and Stanley Stankus:

Of interest in the area, is the announcement of the marriage in late January 1960 of Miss Jacqueline Frances Joffrion to Stanley Enoch Stankus, which was solemnized by Dr. Robert J. Ledford, pastor, in a double-ring ceremony at the Community Bible Church, Keithville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Joffrion of Keithville. Mr. Stankus is the son of Stanley S. Stankus and the late Mrs. Stankus of Kearny, New Jersey. Attendants in pink organza and crystalline preceded the bride to the altar where the bridal couple pledged their vows following a program of music given by Mrs. Lavelle Kennedy of Sligo, organist, and Mrs. Marvin Robbins of Keithville, vocal soloist.

The attendants were Mrs. Richard Martin, matron of honor, the Misses Millie Joffrion, sister of the bride, and Jerriane Barker, bridesmaids, and little Miss Megan Johnson, flower girl. The latter wore a miniature replica or the bridesmaids' street length dresses, which were of pink organza and crystalline styled with rounded necklines V-shaped in back, cap sleeves, full skirts and waistlines accented by matching cummerbunds and ending with tiny bows down the skirt backs. They all wore matching pink satin slippers, pink mitts and round pink circular veils. Their crescent bouquets were of white feathered carnations. The flower girl carried a pink basket of petals and wore a band of pink flowers in her hair. The Rev. Richard Martin served the bridegroom as best man. Usher-groomsman were Ashton Lafargue and Henry Ledford. Preceding the entrance of the bridal party, the little Misses Libbie Joffrion and Dannie Schule, cousins of the bride, lighted the altar candles.

Escorted by her father who gave her in marriage, the bride was gowned in candlelight peau de soie fashioned on Princesse lines with fitted bodice, portrait neckline and brief sleeves accented with Venetian lace appliques. Lending quaint charm to the very bouffant skirt were tiny bows below the hip line. Her circular tiered veil of French illusion was fingertip length and fell from a Princesse crown of pearls and sequins. She wore long white gloves and carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations centered by a white orchid atop a white Bible.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Joffrion were hosts at a reception in the church reception rooms. Miss Judy Miller of Keithville was in charge of the guest book. The wedding confection was served by Mrs. D. F. Parker, and Miss Jo Ann Joffrion, sister of the bride presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in the serving courtesies was Miss Peggy Holcomb, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Pierce, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom assisted in welcoming the guests. When they left for a wedding trip to San Antonio, Texas the bride was wearing a lightweight wool suit of light forest green, with brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. They will reside in Shreveport.

- 6336 iv. Mildred Odile Joffrion, born 1942 in Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana. She married Bobby Van Norris 01 Jun 1963 in Keithville, Caddo Parish, Louisiana.

Marriage Notes for Mildred Joffrion and Bobby Van Norris:

United in marriage at the Grawood Baptist Church in Keithville on June 1, 1963 at 7:30 in the evening were Miss Mildred Odile Joffrion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Joffrion, and Bobby Van Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Norris, all of Keithville. The altar was decorated with white gladioli, emerald foliage and white tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white silk peau de oie fashioned with a neckline of Alencon lace and with a bell-shaped skirt and chapel train. A veil of English illusion was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white split carnations and a white Bible. Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Jo Ann Joffrion and bridesmaids were the Miss Gwen Whitehead and Patsy Rhodes. They wore waltz-length dresses of white organza over yellow taffeta with bell-shaped skirts. Circlets of ivy were in their hair and they carried yellow gladioli bouquets. George T. Joffrion was best man and usher-groomsman were Miles E. Turner, William C. Gentry Jr., Robert R. Shelton and Harold R. Guin. Lighting the candles were Wendell Smith and Mark Smith and Christy Bonner was flower girl. The bride's parents were hosts at a reception which followed at the church. At the guest book was Miss Judy Miller. Serving were Mrs. Sophia Stevens and Mrs. C.D. Schule, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Elbert Smith and Mrs. Joan Norris, sister of the bridegroom. Rice bags were distributed by Miss Nancy Smith. The bride left for her wedding trip to South Carolina in a red raw silk suit with black patent accessories and an orchid from her bouquet. The couple will make their home in Shreveport.

Marriage: 31 Jan 1959, Natalbany, Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana

- 6385 iii. Delores Ann Mulkey, born 23 Jul 1944 in Natalbany, Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana. She married Carlton G. Wagner 28 Sep 1963; born 18 Nov 1942.

Marriage Notes for Delores Mulkey and Carlton Wagner:

The sanctuary of the Natalbany Baptist church, adorned with white blossoms and candlelight, formed the setting for the impressive double-ring wedding rites uniting in marriage, Miss Delores Ann Mulkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Mulkey, to Mr. Carolton G. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett G. Wagner of Albany. Rev. Aubrey V. Veuleman, church pastor, officiated Saturday night, September 21, 1963 at eight o'clock. Presiding at the organ and presenting a program of nuptial music was Mrs. James R. Jenkins, who also accompanied Mrs. Hazel W. Jacobsen, soloist, as she sang "Because," "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Jenkins also played the traditional bridal march from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn's recessional.

Forming a picturesque back ground for the pledging of the vows was a Grecian arch entwined with greenery and bedecked with white gladioli blossoms and wedding symbols. On either side were tall white princess baskets of sunburst arrangements of white gladioli interspersed with emerald leaves. Lending soft illumination to the décor were glowing white candles in seven branched candelabra. Noted in each window was a lighted taper accented with greenery, adding further illumination to the scene. White blossoms and candles adorned the organ, and family pews were marked with sprigs of greenery, white satin bows and white gladioli florets.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked radiantly lovely in her wedding gown fashioned of white bridal satin and Alencon lace. The taut bodice, filmed of lace, featured a scalloped décolletage and long tapering sleeves. Enhancing each scallop was a rosette designed of seed pearls and the repeated pattern was noted on the sleeve points. Giving dainty accent to the sleeves and back bodice enclosures were petite lace over satin buttons. Satin piping lent interest where the lace bodice joined the high princess inspired, panels of the front skirt of satin. A profusion of soft pleats in the back panels, adorned with a large fabric rose, heavily accented with seed pearls, flowed into a chapel train. Her shoes were classic pumps of white satin.

She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was placed on her white Bible, a gift of the Y.W.A., and was fashioned of white feathered carnations centered with a large yellow-throated orchid. Showers of white satin ribbons, tied with love knots, accented the bouquet. In keeping with tradition, the bride carried "something old, new and borrowed" and her detail of blue was a gift from her little miniature bride, Miss Debbie Bertone.

Serving the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Donald Harris of Denham Springs. Bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Harper, her cousin of Hammond; Mrs. Marvin Wagner, sister-in-law of the groom, of Albany; Miss Harvis Ann Dunn of Natalbany, and junior bridesmaid was Miss Carolyn Newman, her cousin of Natalbany. They were in identical attire, wearing sky blue brocaded taffeta frocks designed with fitted bodices featuring low rounded necklines and petite sleeves. The skirts were patterned with a straight panel in front and soft unpressed pleats on side and back. Gown-matching head bands, topped with matching fabric roses and leaves with circular illusion veils, were worn. Their satin slippers were in matching blue and their elbow length gloves wore a necklace enhanced with pearls, gift of the bride.

The matron of honor carried a crescent arrangement of blue carnations, tulle poufs and satin ribbons, while the bridesmaids' bouquets were crescent arrangements, fashioned of white carnations accented with traces of blue, satin bows and tulle poufs. Little Miss Debbie Bertone served as the miniature bride, and was identically attired as the bride. Her bouquets was a replica of the bride's arrangement and she wore a single strand of pearls. Master Joey Mulkey, the bride's brother, served as ring bearer. He carried a white satin pillow, accented with smocking, satin bows and edged in illusion ruffles.

Candlelighters were Miss Nell Young of Ponchatoula and Miss Faye Jones of Natalbany. They wore petal pink brocaded taffeta frocks with sleeveless fitted bodices and bell skirts, white satin slippers and a white carnation corsage. Mr. Grady Wagner, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Wayne Wagner, his brother, Mr. Glenmore Wagner, his cousin, and Mr. Douglas Watts, all of Albany. Mr. Steve Mulkey, the bride's cousin, was junior groomsman. Ushers were Mr. Grant Bankston, of Albany, and Mr. James Morgan, his nephew, of Independence.

Following the solemnities, a reception was held in the social area of the church where a white and blue theme with traces of green prevailed in the décor. Blue and white streamers caught with clusters of white wedding bells and satin bows graced the area, while near the reception live were beauty baskets of white gladioli and greenery with baskets caught with large white parchment bows.

Mrs. Mulkey chose for the occasion a fall sheath dress of turquoise blue. Her pillbox hat of white velvet was complemented with white gloves and her other accessories were black patent. Her corsage was a large lavender purple-throated orchid. Mrs. Wagner chose for her son's wedding, a silk jersey grey print in fall floral toned design and wore black accessories. For floral interest, she also wore a purple-throated lavender orchid corsage. Mrs. Christine Reeves, the bride's grandmother of Baton Rouge, wore an orchid-toned silk print dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Presiding at the guest register table was Mrs. Leslie Mulkey. The table, covered in white cut-work line, was graced with a low arrangement of blue sweet peas with frosted greenery. The bride's table was round and covered in white taffeta, overshadowed with tulle gracefully caught at intervals with lilies of the valley and white satin ribbons. The four-tiered white wedding cake was embellished in fancy scrolls and lacy roping's, sugar roses, and was topped with the traditional bridal couple figurines. The confection was based with fern fronds and white gladioli florets.

The serving table, overlaid in a white linen damask cloth, held the silver punch service and was centered with triple-branched silver candelabra holding glowing white tapers, adding to the table décor of blue and white. Lending interest and beauty to the gift table was a mass arrangement of white gladioli and stock. After the bride and groom cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. Joseph A. Bertone, assisted by Mrs. Aubrey Fendlason, continued to cut and serve. Presiding at the punch service was Mrs. Joe Ray Mulkey, aunt of the bride. They wore white carnation corsages with blue accents. Serving as tea girls were Misses Brenda Braud, Linda McKinght, Geraldine Cockerham, Fay Crawford, Charlotte Peterman, Dorothy Wagner, Joan Kay Wagner and Carolyn Holifield. They all wore white carnation corsages with a detail of blue. For the wedding trip, the bride changed to a three-piece fall suit in loden green, worn with the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Miss Helen as she was known at Billdora, loved making wreaths. She made and sold many wreaths to help the activity group raise money to adopt a needy family at Christmas. She knew and loved every resident and staff member at Billdora. Billdora was her home. We give special thanks to the Compassus Hospice for their care of mom in her last days. We don't have words to express our thanks to every staff member and resident at Billdora Senior Care. We appreciate the kindness and love you gave to our mom. We are forever grateful.

She was preceded in death by her father, Lanie Williamson; mother, Eliza Ballard Williamson; brother, L.J. Williamson; sisters, Pearl Montgomery and Betty Brock; son-in-law, Clay Herring. Survivors include her son, Mike Craft (Lisa); daughters Renea Herring (Bo) and Becky Cochran (Charles); 10 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren, and a host of loving family.

Pallbearers will be Randy Craft, Bryan Rials, James Jenkins, Ben Reid, Tyler Greer, and Jeff Alexander. Honorary pallbearers will be Elijah Jenkins, Cliff Jenkins, Mike Jenkins, Dale Morgan, and Joe Jenkins. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Billdora Senior Care Activity Fund.

Notes for James Travis Alford:

Travis Alford, 83, of Salem, died Feb. 10, 2011, from injuries sustained in an accident. Visitation is 5 to 8 tonight at Salem Baptist Church and continues there 10 a.m. Saturday until services at 11, with the Rev. Billy Murphy, the Rev. Mark Wicker and the Rev. Larry Havard officiating. Burial will be in Boyd Cemetery in Salem. Hartman-Hughes Funeral Home of Tylertown is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Alford was born May 7, 1927, in Walthall County, to Arthur and Margaret Martin Alford. For more years than can be remembered, the Alfords welcomed loved ones to their dinner table for home-cooked Sunday dinners. Even while caring for his late wife during her illness, Mr. Alford continued their cherished tradition. Because family was a priority, he preserved this custom until his death. Having served longer than any other in the State of Mississippi, Mr. Alford was completing his 44th year as county supervisor and was looking forward to campaigning for the next term. He was past president of the Mississippi Association of Supervisors, a director and charter member of the Mississippi Public Entity Workers Compensation Trust, chairman of the executive committee of the Mississippi Association of Supervisors; Walthall County board member of Southwest Mississippi Planning and Development District, and past president of the Walthall County Board of Supervisors.

Besides being a faithful watchdog of the board of supervisors' budget, Mr. Alford was well-known for his knack of stretching a dollar. He continually modeled to his family how to save, repair, or make do; yet, he was generous to anyone who needed a loan or a meal. Each spring and fall he planted an abundance of vegetables in his garden so that he could share with those in need. Even in his busy life, he took great pleasure in attending many Salem School ballgames and especially looked forward to cheering for his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mr. Alford was proud of being an American by serving in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He also was a Mason, a Shriner and member of Varnell Masonic Lodge. Mr. Alford was the current chairman of deacons at Salem Baptist Church and was active in all areas of church life. Walking a long mile to church and back every Sunday and Wednesday symbolized his zest for living to those who knew him.

Mr. Alford was preceded in death by his parents; his wife of 57 years, Louise McKenzie Alford; son, Homer Alford; and brother, Thomas Alford. He is survived by his wife, Helen Craft Alford; a son Troy Alford and wife Kathy Mord Alford of McComb; two daughters, Linda Ingram of Hattiesburg and Sue Alford of Tylertown; a daughter-in-law, Joan Alford of Tylertown; two brothers, Hulon Alford, and Dan Alford and wife Joan, all of Tylertown; two sisters, Mary Thornhill, and Martha Ann Ladner and husband Joe, all of Tylertown; brother-in-law, Cartee and Nancy McKenzie of Hattiesburg; grandchildren, Christina and Larry Joe Rayborn, Molly and Lathyr Lucas, Anna A. and Bill Nelson, Heath Alford, April and Nick Smith, Jessica Alford, Jamie Alford and Savannah Alford; 11 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers are Bruce Boyd, Bob Bracey, Perry Clark, Jack Hartley, Michael Paul McKenzie and Billy Wayne Thornhill. Honorary pallbearers are members of the senior men's Sunday School Class at Salem Baptist Church. Travis Alford's philosophy of life was to love God and serve others by being constantly alert to the needs of those around him. Therefore, the family requests that, in lieu of flowers, memorials be made to Salem Baptist Church Gym Fund, Salem Baptist Church, 886 Highway 27 N., Tylertown, Mississippi 39667.

Notes for Kenneth Harrison Prescott:

Kenneth Harrison Prescott, the second child and only son of Elvira and Barney Prescott, arrived in this world on March 30, 1950, in Greeley, Colorado. He was always full of mischief, throwing Vicki's doll clothes out the car window on trips, getting into paint and covering himself from head to toe with it.

His parents couldn't even spank him without getting "painted." School was not to his liking. After high school, he attended the University of Southern Mississippi for two semesters and could have had his college education free because his mother worked there. However, he decided to join the Navy.

Ken married Janice McNease on February 26, 1977, and they live in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. He is a welder at Mississippi Tank Company and loves his work. His company-sends him all over the U.S. to repair tanks. He has a small welding and fabrication shop at his home where he makes trailers, fire dogs, and barbecue grills. He also volunteers countless favors for his friends.

Janice works as a secretary in the School of Nursing at USM where she uses the word processor machines. She loves animals and they raise German Shepherd puppies. They also have a tiny, tiny white poodle, Mitzie, that weighs about three pounds. Ken is an avid deer hunter, both by gun and bow. He is a member of two hunting clubs, one in Sumrall which has about 10,000 acres leased and one in Port Gibson with about 3,200 acres and a private cabin. He attends the Bow Hunter Jamboree in Jackson, Mississippi, every August. Ken and Janice are both active at Westside Baptist Church where they teach Sunday School.

She married James Drury Lambert. He was born 04 Nov 1944, and died 04 Nov 2016.

Notes for James Drury Lambert:

On November 4, 2016 James Drury Lambert Sr., left this earthy world to go home with God. What he left behind is a legacy nothing short of love. He was a devoted father to his boys Jimmy and Bryan Lambert. His children and grandchildren were truly the light of his life. He was a cherished member of the Catt family and deeply loved for his roll helping to care for his wife Linda's siblings in the event of Dorothy Beachan Catt's untimely passing.

He retired from Georgia Pacific after 25 years and was owner and operator of Lambert's Limousin Cattle. He was a lifelong member of New Hope Baptist Church where he served as deacon for many years. He was a man of few words but he meant every one of them. He loved all and judged none and he will be deeply missed by all who knew him. There will be a time of visitation from 5:00pm to 9:00pm, Sunday, November 6, 2016, at Wilson Funeral Home, Funeral Service will Monday, November 7, 2016 at 2:00pm at Wilson Funeral Home Chapel with the graveside service following at New Hope Baptist Church Cemetery. - 6516 iv. Bonnie Catt.

2907. Alice Ann¹³ Catt (James Leffett (Lonnie)¹², Samuel Luther¹¹, John James¹⁰, John James (Boss)⁹, George W.⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 16 Jun 1951 in Columbia, Marion Co, Mississippi, and died 03 Jun 2022 in Jackson, Hinds Co, Mississippi. She married Bobby Lee.

Notes for Alice Ann Catt:

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Lee will be conducted at 10:00 AM Monday, June 6, 2022, at New Hebron Baptist Church. Interment will follow in Stonewall Cemetery in Simpson County. Reverend Mike Grenn and Reverend Earl Clark will officiate. Mrs. Lee, age 70, entered into the eternal rest of her Lord early Friday morning, June 3, 2022, at the St. Dominic Hospital in Jackson, Mississippi.

Alice Ann Catt Lee was born in Columbia, Mississippi on June 16, 1951 to Lonnie and Dorothy Beacham Catt. After graduating high school, "Miss Alice" enrolled in the Cosmetology Program at Copiah-Lincoln Community College; after Co-Lin, she then served as a teacher's aid. Next, she enrolled in the University of Southern Mississippi where she received her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education. Desiring to reach her full potential as an educator, Miss Alice would go on to earn her Master's Degree from William Carey College. During her career as an educator, she would go beyond state licensure and earn her National Board Certification for Teachers for 2 terms spanning 10 years each term. Miss Alice loved working with children and had a gift for helping children that were challenged learners not only learn to read, but develop a love for reading. Moreover, she also helped many children in the areas of academic achievement, character and leadership by establishing the Beta Club at New Hebron Jr. High School. In addition, Miss Alice was a "coach's wife" for nearly 50 years. From keeping score books and statistics to helping with the coach's lounge, she was the consummate Helpmate to her husband, Bobby. At these games, many happy hours were spent operating the concession stand; serving up tasty treats, including what some would describe as the "best Nachos ever". Some of her students will fondly remember partaking in rolling her yard with toilet paper each Halloween. It wasn't in Miss Alice's nature to become aggravated at the prank; instead, she served the "transgressors" hot chocolate. She was a member of New Hebron Baptist Church. Miss Alice was blessed with the gift of intellectual brilliance, impeccable character and extraordinary determination; but perhaps her greatest God given gift was that of encouragement and mercy. Kind words to the discouraged, a helping hand to the less fortunate and, yes, her own coat given to a cold stranger describes the heart of Alice Lee.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lonnie and Dorothy Catt; 2 sisters Dora Dean Simpton, Linda Lambert and 4 brothers, Hughey Catt, Ray Catt, Johnny Catt and T.D. Catt.

Her memory will forever be cherished by her husband of nearly 50 years, Bobby Lee of New Hebron; 2 daughters, Dawn Lee of Hattiesburg and Cassandra Phillips (David) of Brandon; 2 brothers, Paul Catt of Poplarville, Mike Catt of Jayess; 3 sisters, Mary Case of Loyd Star, Amy Wages of Monticello and Ruthie Stewart of Brookhaven. The legacy of their Mamaw Lee will also live on through her grandchildren, whom she loved very much; Charles Brayson Phillips, Jacob Maxim Phillips and Charlotte Ann Phillips.

The family will receive friends Sunday evening at New Hebron Baptist Church from 5:30 PM until 8:00 PM and also Monday morning, from 9:00 AM until the hour of service at 10:00 AM.

Children of Alice Catt and Bobby Lee are:

- 6548 ii. Sharon Ann Moak, born 21 Sep 1946 in Contra Costa Co, California. She married Morris Lloyd Jordon Barr 05 Jun 1966 in Contra Costa Co, California; born 12 Jan 1941.

Marriage Notes for Sharon Moak and Morris Barr:

A patio buffet dinner at the Concord home of Mr. and Mrs. Hughlon Perry Moak followed the marriage of their daughter, Sharon Ann, to Morris Lloyd Jordon Barr of San Jose. The double ring ceremony was held in the Concord Methodist Church, with the Rev. Edgar H. Bradley officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Two large baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the altar for the afternoon ritual.

Sharon's wedding gown of French scalloped Chantilly lace and peau de sole, designed with a chapel train, was created by her mother. A petal headpiece edged with seed pearls held a 11er elbow length veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a crescent bouquet of ivory baby roses centered with a Phalaenopsis and pearl heart. For her keepsake piece, Sharon chose a white lace handkerchief belonging to her great grandmother. A traditional blue garter and a lucky penny in her wedding slipper completed the bridal attire.

The maid of honor was Barbara Jean Moak of Concord sister of the bride. Completing the bridal party were Darlene Aebersold and Sheri Riekens, both of Concord, and Jackie Kellie of Clayton. They were attired in blue silk chiffon gowns and veils of matching blue. The carried pendant bouquet of white gladioli accented by pale blue ribbon. Cheryl Tompkins of San Francisco, cousin to the bride was in the flower girl role. Her dress was designed by the bride's mother to match the bridal attendants' gowns. She carried a small white basket of white roses and gladioli buds with blue ribbons for color. A band of blue flowers adorned her hair.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander B. Barr, 1273 Blarney Ave., Concord. He attended Texas Agricultural and Mechanical University for two years and received a degree from the University of California, Berkeley in 1964. He is a member of the American society of Civil Engineers and the Arnold Air Society. He has been honored as a distinguished Air Force Cadet. Morris presently is employed by the City of San Jose Public Works Department as a civil engineer. He chose Richard D. Rhoda of San Diego as his best man. Escorting guests were Hiram Feldman of Anderson, James A. Barr of Concord, brother of the groom, and Parviz Nourafchan of Berkeley.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall at the church. Mrs. Moak received in an aqua crepe dress topped by a scallop lace jacket, with matching aqua accessories. Her corsage was ivory Cymbidiums and baby yellow roses. Mrs. Barr chose a coral crepe dress with a contrasting coat of beige lace. Her accessories were of matching coral and she wore a green Cymbidium orchid and Zorina roses. The grandmother, of the bride selected a lace dress in a lavender hue with a lavender Cattleya corsage. Following the party at the bride's home, the newlyweds departed for the airport to be in their trip to Hawaii. After a two-week sojourn, they will establish their home in San Jose.

Marriage Notes for Mary Reed and Leslie Gibson:

The marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Reed and Leslie Elbert Gibson, Jr., was solemnized Saturday Sept. 4, 1966 in St. Richard's Catholic church with the Rev. George E. Uricheck, assistant pastor performing the ceremony. The Rev. L. R. Still, Jr. of Columbus offered the benediction. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cleveland Reed Jr. 105 Robinhood Road, Jackson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gibson of Columbus. The double ring ceremony was performed before the altar banked with 8spring flowers and greenery. Music was provided by Mrs. George Thurber Jr., organist.

Attending the bride as her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Susan Ann Reed and Miss Jane Witherspoon served as bridesmaid. They wore identical knee length dresses of pale-yellow crepe with matching hats trimmed in yellow velvet. Both carried large bouquets of white daisies. Mr. Gibson served as his son's best man. Ushers were William E. Nation, Jim Yonge and J.D. Reed, all of Columbus.

Escort to the alter and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of ivory silk with an overblouse of heavy ivory lace featuring a jewel neckline and bracelet length sleeves. Her hat was made of matching lace with a shoulder length veil of illusion. The bride's bouquet was of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Reed chose a mauve silk dress with lace overblouse and matching hat. Mrs. Gibson selected an aqua dress of silk and lace with white accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages. Mrs. William Cleveland Reed Sr., grandmother of the bride was attired in seafoam green silk. Mrs. Louis J. Folse, maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a beige lace dress with blue accessories.

Following the ceremony, the guests were entertained at a breakfast in the Inca Room of Primos Northgate. The bride's aunts, Mrs. J.A. Folse, Motaire, Louisiana, Mrs. W.E. Folse, Collins, and Mrs. J.L. Folse, New Orleans assisted in serving. Miss Agnes Reed, sister of the bride, presided at the guest register. Mrs. J.R. Wadsworth, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, aunt of the bride, greeted the guests.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a lime green costume suit of linen with a lime and white silk blouse and matching lining for the coat. Her original creation hat was in the same shade as the suit, made of woven straw and white accessories. The couple will be at home in Columbus at 815 Fifth Avenue South after their honeymoon. On the eve of the wedding the bridegroom's parents entertained the bridal party with a supper in the dining room at LeFleur's restaurant. Mrs. W.C. Reed Sr., honored the bride with a luncheon in the Mississippi Room of Primos Northgate for her attendant and out-of-town guests on the day before the wedding.

New Jersey; died 17 Mar 2021 in Livingston, Park Co, Montana.

Notes for Robert Leslie (Barefoot) Clarkson:

Robert Leslie Clarkson, 77, of Livingston, Montana passed away April 7, 2013 suddenly and peacefully at his home to be with his Creator and Lord. Bob "Barefoot" Clarkson spent many years later in life with his common law wife Mary Reynolds and will be buried at Mountain View Cemetery at a future date with his beloved Mary. Bob "Barefoot" Clarkson was born along the Kuichak River in Alaska in 1935 to Paul and Era Clarkson. As an adolescent, he moved to Monrovia California. He joined the Army Amadia 7th Arcadia during the Korean War in 1951 in Reconnaissance and fought for our country. He was a spy relaying intel from within enemy lines. He received an honor for leading the commander's men to safety. He was honorably discharged. After the war as a young man he decided to homestead in Alaska a few years. He had a fishing boat, but soon learned working on oil rigs found him financially more rewarding.

Those years, having an incurable wanderlust, he lived in Alaska, Spokane, Montana, North Dakota, and Idaho. Montana he loved best. He lived the Hobo circuit many years hopping trains and changing work as ranch hands, cowboying, migrant worker, and apartment manager. Those years brought him into the work of alcoholism when he was injured in the oil fields of North Dakota. In the early '80s he started to change his life and received his BA education in the field of Alcohol Counseling. He received his education at Western Montana College, University of Minnesota, and thereafter lifelong summer school accreditations for 27 years at the University of Salt Lake Utah. He represented his vocation with utmost respect to the people he counseled and those he didn't counsel. His beliefs in the 12 steps, 12 traditions and the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous were unshakable acquiring over 40 years of sobriety.

While yearly attending many workshops to attain a doctoral status in the National Certification of Addiction and Counseling, II. NAADAC, he worked for many years at the DeerLodge State Prison, as Port of Hope South Clinical Supervisor as well as later in life owning and running his private practice. Bob attained the teachings of International Hypnotherapist with good success. Being of Native American background and of the CIRI Inlet, Bob acquired Shaman honors and continued powwow, sweat lodge and religious ceremonies faithfully. Bob was also a long time member of the Deer Lodge Elks Association, Montana Grand Lodge, AFAM 50 years, ASPCA, Humane Society of the U.S., Natural Resource Defense Council. His affiliations are to Battered Women Shelters, the Human Society and Al Anon and Alcohol Dependency groups. Bob had an affinity for strong work ethic. Instilled in him was a lifelong love of education, and he acquired many friends of the same occupation. He believed in a caring simple and peaceful lifestyle. He enjoyed golf, welding horse shoe statues for his friends, sitting on the deck with his wife Mary, planting flowers for family and friends, and spending time with his kitties and dogs.

Bob was survived in 2013 by his wife, Mary Ann Reynolds of Livingston; step-daughters; Lisa (Tom) Kitts; her children, Derek Pynn and Jasmine (Hall) Pynn and her daughter now of 2015, Addison Reece Hall; Gail Rossi Anderson and Natalie Kern and her daughter Nevaeh Kern. Sister-in-law Shigako, nephew Steve (Chris) Clarkson and children; sister, Patty and many other relatives and friends, Rob Denny, Larry and Ann Lukel. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Era Clarkson; brother Jack and brother George.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made in the name of Robert Clarkson to the ASPEN, 411 E. Callender St., Livingston, Montana 59047. Franzen-Davis Funeral Home and Crematory has been entrusted with arrangements.

Notes for Mary Ann Kampe:

Mary Ann (Kampe) Reynolds, 75, of Livingston, Montana, passed away Wednesday, March 17, 2021, at Livingston Health and Rehabilitation. Cremation has taken place at Franzen-Davis Crematory. A private graveside committal and burial will be held at Mountain View Cemetery at a future date. Mary Ann will be buried with her late beloved husband, Robert Leslie Clarkson.

Mary was born November 8, 1945, in Newark, New Jersey. She was the daughter of Bertha Kulish and Clarence Kampe. Born and raised in New Jersey, she settled in as a deli clerk/manager before moving to Montana in 1981. Raising her three daughters, Lisa and twins Natalie and Gail, she received her Associates Degree in Psychology from the University of Great Falls in the late 1990s. She later found her career working as an office and property manager at Sumner's House of Carpet for 30 years. In 1986, she was united in marriage to Josephus "Bud" Jenkins, until death parted them June 8, 1993. Mary then shared her life with husband Robert "Barefoot" Clarkson until he also passed away on April 7, 2013.

Mary was a very hard worker, fixing her own home and rental properties. She kept busy in numerous projects where she found determination and accomplishment. She had a love for reading, history, and gardening. She mostly enjoyed spending her time with her grandchildren, camping alongside Hebgen Lake, backyard barbecuing with family, attending community events (Christmas Stroll and Fourth of July Parade), "cruising the drag" in her 1988 Pontiac TransAm, and regularly visited Mark's In & Out for a delicious "dawg." She encouraged her children and grandchildren to excel in education and extracurriculars, including attending numerous sports events. She cherished family holidays and get-togethers always sharing traditional Polish foods. She will be greatly missed. Mary was well known in the Livingston Community for her kindness and generosity, often helping those in need. She was an avid animal lover and frequently adopted elderly animals from Stafford Animal Shelter. She was a member of the National Humane Society, Defenders of Wildlife, Farm Sanctuary Rescue, Sierra Club, People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals, and EarthJustice. She also supported Pets of the Homeless, Mountain Angles Sanctuary and Rescue, Peaceful Valley Donkey Rescue, Happy Cat Sanctuary, Reservation Animal Rescue, American Red Cross, Special Olympics, United Service Organization, Law Enforcement Across America and numerous other organizations.

She is survived by her children: Daughter, Lisa Franchino Kitts, and her husband Tom Kitts; Grandchildren Derek Pynn and Jasmine (Pynn) Hall, and Jasmine's daughter Addison Reece Hall; Daughters, Gail Rossi-Anderson and Natalie Rossi-Kern; and Natalie's daughter, Nevaeh Kern.

She also leaves her brother John Houston, Sr., and his children John "Johnny" Jr. and Jessica; Johnny's daughters McKenna and Riley Houston; and sister-in-law Margaret (Sculthorpe) Kampe, and her children Deana Bartenope, and Diana and Joseph Kampe; stepsister Barbrara Frey; stepbrothers Mark and Micheal Kampe; stepsisters, Maggie and Gail Kampe; and her many nieces and nephews and great nieces. She was preceded in death by her late husband Josephus "Bud" Jenkins and her late husband Robert "Barefoot" Leslie Clarkson; stepsister Elieen Comfort (Malizia); Brother J.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made in Mary Ann Reynolds name to Stafford Animal Shelter, 3 Business Park Rd., Livingston Montana. Franzen-Davis Funeral Home and Crematory has been entrusted with arrangements.

2992. Clarence Eugene¹³ Burns (Mary Elizabeth¹², Thomas Jefferson¹¹, Nancy Ann¹⁰ Catt, John James (Boss)⁹, George W.⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 13 Feb 1930 in Troy, Johnston Co, Oklahoma, and died 21 Jun 2007 in Newcastle, McClain Co, Oklahoma. He married Ardus (Jo) Brooks 06 Aug 1951.

Notes for Clarence Eugene Burns:

Clarence E. Burns age 77 of Newcastle passed away Thursday, June 21, 2007 at Integris Baptist Hospital in OKC. He was born on February 13, 1930 in Troy, Oklahoma between Sulphur and Tishomingo. He was the 7th child of 8 children born to Willie Alfred Burns and Mary Elizabeth Burns. Clarence grew up on a farm near Troy where he learned how to work hard as a young man. He later met and married the love of his life, Ardus Jo Brooks. They were married on August 6, 1951 in Gainesville, TX. In 1952, Clarence was drafted into the U.S. Army and proudly served his country for two years during the Korean Conflict. After he was honorably discharged he and Jo made their home in the OKC area. There Clarence soon began working for Lee Way Motor Freights. Clarence was a hard-working employee and dedicated 31 loyal years to the company before retiring in 1986. In 1980 they moved from OKC to the Newcastle community, where they live today. After Clarence retired he had to stay busy and soon started driving a school bus. For several years he drove for Bridge Creek schools, and later for Blanchard schools. Clarence was an avid Gardner and enjoyed giving away vegetables to his family and friends. He also was an avid talker and enjoyed visiting with people wherever he went. His love for staying active and being around people lead him to his present job as a Security Officer at the Newcastle Gaming Center.

Clarence will be greatly missed by his family, his co-workers, his church the Newcastle United Methodist Church and his breakfast buddies at Carl's Jr. in Tri City.

He was preceded in death by: Parents, Bill and Mary Burns; 3 brothers, Theo, Thomas and Olvis Wayne Burns; 3 sisters, Willie Mae Rowe, Bennie Ruth Leonard and Deloris Adams. He is survived by: Wife, Jo Burns of the home in Newcastle; 2 sons, Rodney Burns and wife Sheri of Tuttle and Rick Burns and wife Holly of Newcastle; 1 brother, Ira Joe Burns and wife Francis of Tishomingo; 1 grandson, Charles Austin Tillman; also several nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be 1:00 P.M. Tuesday, June 26, 2007 at the First Baptist Church in Newcastle. Officiating will be Rev. Ron Perceful. Pallbearers will be; Lloyd Anthony, Gabe Burris, John Garrett, Ronnie Grover, John Thomas and Jack Wilson. Interment will be at the Fairview Cemetery in Tuttle, Oklahoma. Arrangements are by WilsonLittle Funeral Home, Newcastle, Oklahoma.

Princess M.¹³ Burns (Alonzo Patrick (Lonnie)¹², Patrick Emanuel¹¹, Nancy Ann¹⁰ Catt, John James (Boss)⁹, George W.⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 07 Feb 1923, and died 25 Apr 2017 in Brookhaven, Lincoln Co, Mississippi. She married John Benton Robertson, Jr. He was born 09 Jan 1923, and died 05 Apr 2013.

Children of Princess Burns and John Robertson are:

- 6612 i. Patricia¹⁴ Robertson, born Jul 1944. She married John Townsend Bullen Aug 1965; born 19 Nov 1944.

Marriage Notes for Patricia Robertson and John Bullen:

Mr. and Mrs. John Townsend Bullen exchanged their marriage vow in a recent August 1965 ceremony in the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Robertson Jr., in Brookhaven. The bride is the former Miss Patricia Robertson. Mr. Bullen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Morse Bullen of Fayette. The couple is now in Murray, Kentucky and after September 1 will reside in Starkville.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Robertson Jr., on Cleveland Avenue, Brookhaven, was the setting for the recent wedding of their daughter, Patricia, to John Townsend Bullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Morse Bullen of Fayette, in evening rites. The green and white decor of the living room provided the perfect background for effective placement of palms and fern above the mantel, forming an arch that reached the ceiling. Tall white tapers graced either end of the mantel before which the couple took their vows. On the newel post of the stairway was a cluster of white blossoms with tulle and cascading satin ribbons. White glads were used in the adjacent dining room. Prior to the ceremony the candles were lighted by Miss Beth Allen. The Rev. W.C Burns of Gautier, uncle of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony, in an unusually personal manner, witnessed only by members of the two immediate families. Mrs. Eric Robbins, at the piano, provided the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the petite bride was radiant in a ballerina length gown of white peau de soie. The becoming Sabrina neckline was outlined with patterned Venice lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls. Fitted sleeves, extending below the elbow, were edged with embroidered medallions. The graceful bell-shaped skirt was held full in the back and topped with a self-bow of peau de soie. Her face veil of imported illusion was attached to a crown of rolled edge rose petals embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a single white orchid backed with tulle and Chantilly lace streamers. Miss Ann Robertson, sister of the bride, was her maid-of-honor. She was attired in a beige lace sheath with beige accessories. She carried a single green Fuji mum with tulle and ribbon streamers. Willard Morse Bullen, Jr. of Shreveport, brother of the groom, served as best man. Concluding the ceremony, the Reverend Fr. Burns sang, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple left for their wedding trip and new home in Murray, Kentucky. For traveling the bride changed to a beige and brown suit with beige accessories. She wore her wedding orchid as a corsage. The bride is a graduate of Brookhaven High School and attended Mississippi State College for Women at Columbus, and Draughton's Business College, Jackson. Her maternal grandmother is Mrs. A.G. Hutto of Pascagoula. Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Robertson of Columbia are her paternal grandparents. The groom was graduated from high school in Fayette and attended Mississippi State University. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bullen of Fayette and the late Mr. and Mrs. Leon Shirley of Jackson. After September 1 the young couple will be at home in Starkville. where the groom will be a senior at Mississippi State University.

Marriage Notes for Carolyn Burris and Eddie Harden:

Magnolia, Mississippi - Miss Carolyn Burris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Burris became the bride of Mr. Nathan Hardin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Hardin, August 19, 1955 at seven o'clock in the evening at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Hardin. The ceremony was said before an altar of fern with baskets of giant gold dahlias and yellow rosebuds placed on either side. Branched candelabra with tall burning tapers were placed on each side the lights from which fell on the impressive scene. Reverend A. L. Chaffin, pastor of the Magnolia Nazarene Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Burnell Morris, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and was becomingly gowned in a summer cotton in pastel blue of street length with which she wore white accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations. The groom was attended by Paul Burris, brother of the bride, as best man. The bride's mother, Mrs. Burris, chose for her daughter's wedding a dark blue silk shantung with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations. The groom's mother was becomingly gowned in navy silk crepe with matching accessories. Her corsage was a single gardenia.

A wedding reception for the immediate families and very close friends was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Burris immediately following the wedding ceremony. Lovely arrangements of summer flowers were used artistically throughout the reception rooms. The bride's table was graced with a white linen cloth and was centered with a low bowl of roses and fern. The tired wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Fruit punch was served from the crystal service. Mr. and Mrs. Hardin left for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home at 209 East Laurel Street, Magnolia.

Children of Carolyn Burris and Eddie Harden are:

- 6645 i. Nadie Carol¹⁴ Harden, born 09 Jul 1956. She married Potts Thomas.
- 6646 ii. Eddie Norman Harden, born Mar 1960. He married (1) Jane Darolyn Bean 16 Jul 1977. He married (2) Bernice Dolores Duarte 11 Oct 2003 in Clark Co, Nevada.

Marriage Notes for Eddie Harden and Jane Bean:

Jane Darolyn Bean became the bride of Eddie Norman Harden in a candlelight ceremony July 16, 1977 in Gillsburg Baptist Church. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Al Homer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bean of Gillsburg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Harden of Magnolia.

As guests entered, they were registered by Mrs. Walter Carpenter of Gillsburg, aunt of the bride. Small wedding scrolls were presented by Susanne White of McComb, cousin of the bride. Following the seating of the guests, ribbons were used to close the guest pews by Woody Bean of Gillsburg, cousin of the bride and Alfred Mercier. A program of nuptial music was presented by Ronnie McCall prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Frank Wall, organist, accompanied Rebecca Causey, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white organza over sate-peau, with a fitted bodice of cluney lace, a Queen Anne neckline, bordered with seed pearls and motifs of cluney lace, and lantern sleeves. The skirt, with an attached chapel train, was bordered with a wide ruffle of cluney lace. Her floor-length mantilla veil of silk illusion was also bordered with cluney lace. She carried a cascading bouquet of japhet orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath with trailing fern.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Marlin Bean, sister-in-law of the bride, Osyka; Patricia Newell, McComb; Nadie Harden, sister of the bridegroom, Magnolia; Mrs. Rhonda Hemphill, cousin of the bride, McComb; Polly White, cousin of the bride, McComb; Ruthie Minton, cousin of the bridegroom, Magnolia; Gale Berry, Magnolia; Susie Kennedy, Magnolia; and Ida Cockerham, Centreville.

Robin Ann Bean, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid and Christy Lawson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Nathan Harden served his son as best man and groomsmen were Billy Bean Jr., brother of the bride; Jerry Mixon, Petal; Barry Bean, brother of the bride; Wayne Allen, Baton Rouge, La.; Greg Wall, Magnolia; Billy Joe Coon, McComb; Butch Kennedy, Magnolia; Kerwin Yates, McComb; Ricky Passman, Magnolia; and Tim Bean, brother of the bride. James Buckner Doyle Jr. of Baton Rouge, cousin of the bride, served as ringbearer. Mrs. Bean chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of beige chiffon and Mrs. Harden wore a peach chiffon dress. Both wore white orchid corsages. Mrs. James Doyle, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Seth Haney Jr., aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Edwin Lee Bean, Mrs. Seth Haney Jr., Mrs. John H. White Jr., aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Lamar Kennedy. Mr. and Mrs. Harden received guests from a gazebo entwined in ivy amidst a setting of Boston fern. The bride's table held the wedding cake which was white, trimmed in pink. The center cake was three-tiered and the layers were separated with roman columns, cherubs, Grecian pillars, kneeling cherubs in a fountain and small bells. Topping the center cake was a miniature bridal couple under a lace dome. Twin two-tiered cakes flanked the center cake. Attending the table were Mrs. Roy Newman, aunt of the bride, Debbie Cutrer, Mrs. Robin Long and Janet McDaniel. On the bridegroom's table was an ivory cupid holding an arrangement of fresh fruit, a watermelon filled with fruit and a chocolate cake topped with decorations of a football field, a player and football helmets. Mrs. Judy Kotymia and June Honea attended the table. Acting as floating hostess was Mrs. Vernon Leo Carter and tea girls were Jonell Wilson, Gretel Wall, Vivian Reynolds, Kim McDaniel and Melinda Brumfield. Others assisting were Mrs. Jim Mustin, Mrs. Betty Wilson, Mrs. Tyrone Harrell, Mrs. Olen Brumfield, Mrs. Billy Wall, Mrs. Jimmy D. Newman, Mrs. Sambo Cutrer and Mrs. Jerry Wilson. Assisting at the rice cart were Holly Wilson and Lana Causey. Mrs. Vernon Lee Carter decorated the reception room and Mrs. Roy Newman made the bride's and bridegroom's cakes. For traveling to Fort Walton Beach, Florida, the bride wore a black polyester dress trimmed in pink. The couple resides in Magnolia and both plan to continue their education this fall.

On the eve of the wedding a rehearsal party was held at the Town House in McComb. Hosts were 1r. and Mrs. Nathan Harden. The bride elect wore a white jumpsuit trimmed in red.

- 6647 iii. Christopher Casey Harden, born Sep 1976. He married Heather Leigh Johnson 24 Jun 2000; born Jan 1977.

Heather Leigh Johnson and Christopher Casey Harden married June 24, 2000, at Liberty Baptist Church with Dr. Martin Hayden officiating. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Johnson of Liberty and Mrs. Nadie Thomas of the Peoria community. A colonnade covered with red roses wrapped in garland ivy and accented by white wisteria served as the centerpiece on the church's altar. Above and behind the colonnade, a large urn holding six dozen red roses filled the church's choir loft. The piano and organ were decorated with large arrangements of green and red roses. highlighted by a single white pillar candle in each. Pews in the church's center aisle were decorated with sprays of red roses and greens tied with white shear bows. A unity candle at the front of the sanctuary was also decorated with fresh red roses and greenery. An arrangement of red roses and candles was placed at the registry table in memory of the bride's grandfather and the groom's maternal grandmother.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white satin gown featuring an off-the-shoulder neck- line with a fitted bodice and full satin skirt with a chapel-length train. The neckline, waistline and train were trimmed with simple beading. She wore a headpiece of pearl beading with tulle that fell just below her waist to complete the ensemble. She carried a handtied bouquet of 30 white roses accented by eight red roses displayed randomly throughout.

Jessica Johnson of Liberty was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mandi Miller of Gonzales, Louisiana, Elizabeth Broom of Hattiesburg, Kandace Carruth of McComb, Amy Reynolds, Kelly Cummings, Kristen Leahey and Darrah Johnson, all of Liberty, and Brooke Harden and Brittan Harden of Gillsburg. The bride's attendants wore straight, floor-length black crepe dresses with contrasting white crepe square front neckline and open V-back. They carried clutch bouquets of red roses tied with white shear ribbon. Andy McCartney of Baker, Louisiana, and Eddie Harden of Gillsburg were best men. Groomsmen were Lance Nettles of McComb, Jacob Poole of Liberty, Charles Causey of Smithdale, Joel Allen of Zachary, Louisiana, Brian Kirkland of Liberty, Josh Newman and Jake Newman, both of Smithdale, Max Lawson, Jr. of Gillsburg and Justin Baggett of Liberty. Ushers were Will Caston, Keith Pigott and Joey Johnson. Christopher Cummings, son of Glenn and Rhonda Cummings, served as ringbearer. Kamrie Baggett, daughter of Bill and Shara Baggett; Demi Revels, daughter of Greg and Faith Revels; and Kelli Terrell, daughter of Andy and Chris Terrell, were flower girls. They wore sleeveless, white, floor-length satin gowns accented with a black satin cummerbund tied at the waist into a bow in the back. They also carried clutch bouquets of red roses, tied with white shear ribbon. Judy Johnson chose a floor-length black crepe gown with scoop neckline and matching black jacket with black sheer sleeves and a single pearl and rhinestone button-front closure. She wore a strand of pearls and pearl earrings trimmed with diamonds, a gift from her husband for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Nadie Thomas, wore a two-piece ensemble with a short-sleeved lavender top with pearl beading and matching floor-length skirt.

Following the wedding, a dinner was held in the church's Family Life Center and gym, which had been converted into a large dining room to seat the guests. Each table held a large arrangement of red roses with fillers of greenery and white wisteria. Tables were covered with white linens and white votive candles. The center of the room featured five large, round tables for the wedding party with four-foot stands of red roses trimmed with greenery and wisteria and filled with pink crepe myrtles. Large white columns covered with ferns and ficus trees trimmed with white lights and white lattice bordered the room. A canopy of white icicle lights covered the area and created a soft illumination in the room. The centerpiece of the room was a large, white colonnade covered with red roses and wrapped in garland ivy, draped with white wisteria and featuring the bride's cake. The seven-tiered cake featured three center tiers raised on columns above a clear fountain. Each tier was covered with red roses. The fountain was set in a bed of red roses.

Pam Poole of Liberty directed the wedding. Soloists were Dan Glen of Fort Worth and Rachael Prewitt of Hattiesburg. Servers included Paula Jacobs Caston of McComb, Kimberly Havard of Gloster, Page M. Goff of Liberty, Shelley T. Hopkins of Starkville and Tracy S. Roberts of Ihman, South Carolina. Rice girls were Callie Causey, Kaitlyn Baggett, Andrea Revels, Brittany Lawson and Katie Terrell. The Rev. Charles Holifield was honorary minister. Jennifer Knight served at the guest registry. After a wedding trip to Walt Disney World, the couple will reside in Liberty.

She married Charles Ernest Shouse 24 Dec 1920 in Knox Co, Indiana. He was born 24 Oct 1887, and died 31 Oct 1945 in Knox Co, Indiana.

Funeral services for Charles Ernest Shouse, 58, farm tenant, who ended his life at his farm home across the highway from Brevoort chapel Wednesday afternoon Oct. 31, 1945 with a 12-gauge shotgun, will be conducted from the Emison Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. James. Wilcher will officiate, assisted by Rev. T. B. Avery. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery. At the request of the family the casket will not be opened at the church.

The suicide motive was attributed by members of the family to despondency over an incurable affliction to the leg. He had spent some time at the veterans' hospital, but could get only temporary relief. Mr. Shouse used a shotgun with an extra heavily loaded shell, and placing the muzzle of the gun against his cheek, forced the trigger with a stove poker. A few minutes previous he had sent his wife to the home of a neighbor requesting the neighbor to come and see him. Mrs. Shouse had not advanced far from the house when she heard the report of the gun. Returning she found her husband's lifeless body lying on the floor, with the smoking shotgun beside him. Mr. Shouse was a veteran of the first World War.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Della Shouse and five children Mrs. Ruby Hatfield, of Emison, Alfred Shouse of near Bruceville, Virgil Shouse of Indianapolis, Private Robert Eugene Shouse with the U.S. army of occupation in Japan, and Jennie Shouse at home. He also leaves two grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Clara Helderman of Oaktown and Mrs. Iva Fiddlar of Cass, Indiana, and a brother, Henry Shouse, of Evansville.

Notes for Charles Edward Catt:

A double shooting early yesterday July 28, 1966 left a woman dead and her male companion in fair condition. Police identified the victims as Mrs. Marilyn Faye Walker, 24, address unknown, and Charles Edward Catt, 28, 6508 W. Turney.

Police patrolman Louis Hendershot said Catt, blood streaming from a bullet wound between his eyes, staggered into the emergency room at Maryvale Hospital and pushed aside nurses who rushed to help him, saying, "There's someone outside in the car who needs help worse than I do." In the car Henderson and hospital personnel found Mrs. Walker, bleeding from a head wound. As they lifted her from the car, officers said, a .38 caliber two shot pistol dropped to the pavement. Mrs. Walker died of wound two hours later. Detectives Fran Teachout and Joe Nunez said suitcases, a trunk and cardboard boxes filled with her clothing were found in the car. Hospital attendants said Catt appeared to the responding well to treatment last night.

He married Daisy Marie Allison 05 Jul 1930. She was born 30 Mar 1909 in Oklahoma, and died 08 May 1999 in Boise City, Cimarron Co, Oklahoma.

Notes for Ora Ottis Sappenfield:

Ora Ottis Sappenfield was born March 16, 1913, in Petersburg, Indiana, and died May 4, 1959, in Yakutat, Alaska, at the age of 46 years, one month and 18 days. At an early age he moved with his family to New Mexico, later to Stratford, Texas, and at the age of ten to the Kenton community, where he grew to manhood. He had been a resident of Cimarron County since 1937.

He was married July 5, 1930, to Miss Daisy Harbert in Springfield, Colorado. To this union were born four daughters, Rose Mary, who died in infancy; Ora Marie Ellard, Donna Gay Ottinger and Beverly Jane Harvey, all of Boise City. In 1934 the family moved to Boise City where Ottis and his brothers formed a partnership for operation of the Phillips 66 retail and wholesale oil company. A heart ailment prompted him to sever his connection with the partnership last year and after a brief period in semi-retirement he purchased the Uncle Dick Wilson Ranch, known in recent years as the Rex Powelson Ranch, where he and Daisy have since made their home.

Late last month he and his son-in-law, Denton Ellard, Dr. J.L. Wheeler and Harold Baugh of Texhoma, went by plane to Alaska for a bear hunt. It was on this trip that he died after a series of three heart attacks. He was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church here, serving in official capacity and teaching in the Sunday School. He was a member of the Boise City Rotary Club until his health failed, and was considered a foremost civic worker of his community.

Besides his immediate family he is survived by six grandchildren; two brothers, Clyde and Claude, both of Boise City, and two sisters, Mrs. Tom Gillespie of Raton, New Mexico, and Mrs. L.H. Gillespie of Clayton.

Funeral services were conducted last Friday in the Baptist Church here by his pastor, Rev. Hershel Henkel. Burial was in Kenton cemetery under direction of Wilson Funeral Home.

She married (2) Royce Gene Hanes 12 Apr 1986 in Nueces Co, Texas; born 06 Apr 1932 in Texas Co, Oklahoma; died 15 Sep 2012 in Elkhart, Morton Co, Kansas.

Marriage Notes for Ora Sappenfield and Denton Ellard:

Miss Ora Marie Sappenfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ottis Sappenfield, and Denton Ralph Ellard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ellard all of Boise City, were married in a lovely home ceremony Sunday morning August 28, 1949 at 8:30. Rev. R.D. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. For the recitation of their vows, the couple stood in the living room which was decorated with white and pink carnations and asters, and phlox and verbenas which were given the bride by Mrs. Frieda Brandt.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white suit with brown accessories. She carried a white Bible which was topped by a white orchid. Placed in the Bible on a ribbon was a gold pin which belonged to her father's maternal grandmother. The bride wore a silver bracelet, a gift of the groom, a pair of silver earrings which belonged to the bridegroom's mother, and she carried a blue handkerchief belonging to her mother. The groom was attired in a brown wool sharkskin suit. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. C.E. Palmer, pianist played, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love Your Truly."

Lois Ellard, Sister of the groom, and Beverly Sappenfield, sister of the bride, dressed in dresses of pink and white, were the candlelighters. Maid-of-honor, Donna Gay Sappenfield, sister of the bride, wore a pine blue suit with accessories of white. Her corsage was gardenias. Russel Noble of Bisbee, Arizona, served his cousin as best man. The bride's mother was dressed in green crepe with brown accessories. The mother of the groom had on pink butcher linen with white accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home. Miss Chloe Ella Noble of Bisbee, the groom's cousin, served the wedding cake. The groom's mother assisted with the serving of the coffee and teas to the immediate families, Mrs. R.D. Dodd, Clyde Sappenfield, and Earl Noble of Bisbee. The couple left after the reception for a week's trip to Carlsbad, Santa Fe and Taos, New Mexico, and points in Colorado. For the past year and a half Mrs. Ellard has been employed at Coly's. Upon their return she will have a position at the First State Bank. Mrs. Ellard is employed at Sappenfield Oil Co. They will make their home at the Ferguson apartments in Boise City.

- 6698 ii. Donna Gay Sappenfield, born Dec 1935 in New Mexico. She married James Fred Ottinger 18 May 1952 in Cimarron Co, Oklahoma; born 12 Dec 1934.

Marriage Notes for Donna Sappenfield and James Ottinger:

In the chapel of the First Baptist Church of Boise City, double marriage vows which united Donna Gay Sappenfield and Fred Ottinger, and Gladys Bass and Guy Ottinger, were read Sunday morning, May 18, 1952. Rev. R. D. Dodd, pastor, officiated, using the double-ring ceremony for both couples. Mrs. C.E. Palmer at the organ played the traditional wedding marches. Beverly Sappenfield sang "Because" and Clea Joy Sappenfield sang "Always." The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sappenfield of Boise City and Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Bass of Felt. The bridegrooms are the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ottinger of Boise City.

The brides, who were given in marriage by their respective fathers, wore street length dresses of white kriss-kay, with overskirts of white net. Donna Gay wore light blue accessories, and Gladys used white. Both wore corsages of white and black accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations and carried white Bibles presented them by the Baptist auxiliaries of which they are active members. Mrs. Sappenfield wore beige with white and black accessories. Mrs. Bass was attired in a green suit, with white accessories. Mrs. Ottinger wore a navy-blue suit with white.

The church was decorated for the sacred vows by huge baskets of snap dragons, daisies and gladioli. Other floral arrangements were two lovely bouquets of rose and white iris, presented by Mrs. Frieda Brandt, life-long friend of the bridegrooms, and an arrangement presented by the Rebekah lodge of Boise City. This was the first wedding in the new church, which was dedicated in February, and was the first double ceremony ever performed by Rev. Dodd during his 27 years in the ministry. Only relatives and close friends of the couples attended the ceremony.

Donna Gay has spent most of her life in Boise City. She is a talented musician, and has been church pianist and assistant organist. She completed her junior year in the Boise City High School this spring. Gladys has been outstanding in athletics, and has just completed her sophomore year in the Felt High School.

Fred and Gary were reared from childhood on the farm to which they now take their brides. Fred is a graduate of Boise High School. He attended Panhandle A. and M. College at Goodwell one semester, and has since been engaged in farming activities. The Junior Master Farmer degree was conferred on him in April. Gary is a graduate of Felt High School. He served his country three years during World War II, spending two years in the Philippines.

The couples left immediately for wedding trips. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ottinger were enroute to Colorado Springs, Denver, and other points of interest nearby, and the Guy Ottinger's left for a short trip to New Mexico and Colorado.

- 6699 iii. Beverly Jane Sappenfield, born 1938 in New Mexico. She married Jerry Dee Harvey 08 Aug 1954 in Clayton, Union Co, New Mexico; born 22 Mar 1936.

Marriage Notes for Beverly Sappenfield and Jerry Harvey:

On Sunday, August 8, 1954, at 9:00 a. m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church of Clayton, Miss Beverly Jane Sappenfield, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sappenfield, and Jerry D. Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harvey, were united in marriage. Rev. R. D. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Boise City, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Fred Ottinger, sister of the bride, played several organ selections including "Oh Promise Me." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of imported rose cotton. She carried a white Bible topped by a white gladioli bouquet with white streamers. Inside the Bible was an antique hair pin which belonged to her maternal grandmother. For something new, she wore a string of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Denton Ellard attended her sister as matron-of-honor. She wore beige with navy accessories. Her corsage was of orchid asters. John Board served as best man. Mrs. Sappenfield, mother of the bride, wore a suit of natural linen with navy and natural accessories. Mrs. Harvey, the groom's mother, wore navy faille with navy accessories. They both wore corsages of white carnations.

The bride attended Boise City High School, where she was active in music and athletics and the FHA organization. The groom is a graduate of Boise City High School with the class of 1954. He was outstanding in athletic; and FFA. The couple left immediately following the ceremony for, short trip down-state. After September 1, they will make their home at Norman. Jerry will attend the Oklahoma University school of dentistry and he will attend Norman High School.

A pre-nuptial courtesy honoring Mrs. Harvey was a lingerie shower held Friday, August 6 in the form of a slumber party in the Vernon Combes home, with Lottie Combes and Beth Board co-hostesses. A mock wedding was staged as Beverly entered the living room. Following this, the bride was taken into the dining room where the gift were arranged. Refreshments of angel food cake and ice cream were served to the honoree, and Judy Snapp, Mary Brown, Pat Turner, Mary Ann Phillips, Marvel Drake and the hostesses.

Marriage Notes for Wilma Brenton and Wilbur Stocker:

Wilma J. Brenton, daughter of Mrs. Joe Brenton, of this city, and Col. Wilbur L. Stocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Artho Stocker, of Oakland City, were united in marriage May 9, 1952, in the parsonage of the General Baptist church with the Rev. A.C. Weir officiating in the presence of the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Dorsey of Petersburg, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, were the only attendants. The bride wore an aqua blue formal with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Dorsey wore a pale blue printed gown with pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Brenton, mother of the bride, wore a purple crepe dress with white accessories and Mrs. Stocker, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black dress with white accessories. Both wore yellow carnation corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's mother. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. The couple left for a southern wedding trip. Mrs. Stocker is a senior in the Princeton high school graduating class of this year. Cpl. Stocker is a graduate of the Oakland City schools and just recently has returned from active duty in Korea.

Marriage Notes for John Stoelting and Marlys Hulen:

Sullivan – Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Marlys Ann Hulen, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Dallas Hulen, and John Michael Stoelting, son of the John Stoeltings of Edwardsport, at 2:30 on August 17, 1969 at the Church of the Nazarene in Sullivan. The Rev. Guy D. Mowery officiated before an arch decorated with white carnations and greenery. Dale Hayhurst was organist; the bride's brother Paul, sang.

In the wedding party were the bride's sister, Mrs. Janice Hayes, matron of honor, Mrs. Janice Hulen, bridesmatron, Miss Cheryl Smith, bridesmaid, and Miss Angela Hulen, junior bridesmaid. The groom's attendants were David Lee Stoelting, brother of the groom, with Philip Hulen and Jim Carr, groomsmen, and Ricki Hulen, junior groomsman. Ushers were Eddie Hayes and Farrell Hulen. Dressed as a miniature bride and groom were Edwin Hayes and Joyce Stoelting, the groom's sister. Renee Ann and Elaine Hayes were flower girls. Mrs. Marriann Hulen was at the guest book.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white organza princess gown with Alencon lace at the portrait neck and on the bodice and sleeves, and with full chapel train. Her bouffant silk was held by a pearl-trimmed lace petal head-piece. She carried white orchid and yellow roses atop a white Bible. Her attendants wore green dotted swiss with daisy trim, and each carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. The flower girls wore yellow dotted swiss.

At a reception at the home of the bride's parents, table appointments were carried out in yellow, green and white, and Mesdames Carolyn Gambill and Mary Nickols, and the Misses Janet Lindsay and Cindy Tincher served. Mrs. Stoelting, a graduate of North Central High School, is employed with Hayhurst and Hayhurst Accountants in Terre Haute. Stoelting, a graduate of North Knox High School, is serving in the armed forces. For a trip to Chattanooga, Tennessee, the bride chose a yellow dress and she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Marriage Notes for Stanley Catt and Ann Turnmeyer:

Huntsville, Alabama - Ann Louise Turnmeyer and Stanley Wallen were wed in a 10:30 a.m. ceremony Jan. 12, 1980 in the home of the bride. The wedding took place before an improvised altar in front of the fireplace which was banked by flowers. Chaplain Wesley Baasen officiated at the double ring rites. Nuptial music was presented by a trio of violin, cello and piano. The bride is the daughter of Maj. Gen. (Ret.) George R. Turnmeyer, former commander of Redstone Arsenal missile base, and Mrs. Turnmeyer of Foxfire Drive. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Catt of Decker, Indiana.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza and silk Venice lace. The empire bodice featured a split neck-line and full bishop sleeves, and the A-line skirt flowed into a chapel train. Her veil of sheerest bridal illusion was secured by a lace Juliet cap. She wore pearls, a gift of the bridegroom and carried a bouquet of gardenias and pale pink roses.

Mrs. Robert Turnmeyer, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. He wore a red gown featuring a scoop neckline, blouson bodice long full-length sleeves and a flared skirt. She carried bouquet of pale pink roses and stephanotis. Second Lt. Robert Turnmeyer, brother of the bride, served as best man.

After the ceremony a reception and brunch were held at the Redstone Officer' Club. A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bride groom at Redstone Officers' Club. After a wedding trip to St. Croix Virgin Islands the couple will make their home at 1241 Willowbrook Drive 2, Huntsville. Mrs. Wallen is a graduate of Virginia Tech. and is currently attending the University of Alabama of Huntsville. She is employed as a management analyst at Redstone Arsenal. Wallen is a graduate of Michigan State University of Chicago Divinity School Northwestern University and is currently finishing his Ph. D. from New York University. He is a dealer in select hi-fi components.

Terri Jacquelyn Arthur, daughter of James and Barbara Arthur of 1811 Washington Ave., became the bride of Bruce Wayne Reel during a 6:30 p.m. outdoor ceremony June 21, 1985 in the Arthur's yard. Parents of the bridegroom are Norma Cogswell of Oaktown and the late Arthur Reel. Officiating at the wedding was the Rev. Mike Julian. Musical selections were taped. The couple exchanged vows under a brass arch accented with greenery, ivory carnations and royal blue and gold bows. Large ferns flanked the arch. Streamers and decorations were in the bride's chosen colors of Ivory, royal blue and gold.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length ivory silk gown with a lace overlay featuring a high Victorian neckline, lace sleeves and ruffles. Her halo of ivory carnations and baby's breath secured a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of ivory carnations, dark blue bachelor buttons, greenery and gold leaves.

Bridal attendant, Cathy R. Murphy, wore a tea-length teal blue, silk taffeta gown featuring a deep neckline and gathered full sleeves. She wore a comb with bachelor buttons and ivory carnations in her hair and carried a small version of the bridal bouquet. Attending the bridegroom were groomsman Charles R. Johns and usher Michael E. Murphy.

After the ceremony, wedding cake, punch and mints were served during a reception on the patio of the Arthur's home. The new Mrs. Reel is a 1979 graduate of Lincoln High School and a 1981 graduate of Vincennes University with an associate's degree in nursing. She is employed in the Good Samaritan Hospital critical care unit. Her husband is a graduate of Central Catholic High School and served as a corpsman in the navy. He is employed at Essex Wire. Mr. and Mrs. Reel will reside at 2620 Washington Ave., Lot 13.

Notes for Waneta Elaine Krieg:

Waneta Duiser Lynch passed away peacefully on June 12, 2020 at the age of 96. She was born on December 28, 1923 in North Manchester, Indiana, to Gladys and Russell Krieg, the fourth of five children. Waneta grew up in North Manchester and Fort Wayne and lived her adult life primarily in Indianapolis and Bonita Springs, Florida. She was passionate about all things in her life and made an effort to stay close to every person in her life. Foremost, she adored her family — children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, sisters and brothers, cousins, nieces and nephews. She cherished hundreds of friendships throughout her long life, staying in touch with many friends for decades. She also loved decorating her houses, gardening, birds, stars, the Florida Everglades and seashells, and had many books on each. She loved food and was a great from-scratch cook, and loved to read (especially history and biography) and travel, always open to new experiences. Music was her lifelong passion, beginning with 50-cent piano lessons at eight years old to a life of concerts, a well-played record collection, and in her last years, singing at the piano at Hoosier Village.

Waneta was preceded in death by her first husband, Ron Duiser, with whom she created and ran an auto storage business for 30 years, and her second husband, Ralph Lynch. She is survived and dearly loved by her son, Tom Duiser (Sara) and her daughter, Nancy Hill (John), her grandchildren, Alec Hill, McKenna Duiser, Peyton Duiser, Beth Hannan and Jeni Estrada and great-grandchildren Finn and Violet. She embraced and was lovingly embraced by Ralph's children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her home and her heart were open to all.

Services are July 10 at 3:00 at Flanner Buchanan in Zionsville preceded by visitation from 1:00 to 3:00.

Marriage Notes for Emma Dunn and James Johnson:

The marriage of Miss Emma Jean Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dunn, of this city, to James R. Johnson, son of Mrs. Charlotte Johnson and the late Roy Johnson, also of this city, was solemnized Friday evening, October 28, at 8:30 o'clock in the General Baptist Church. Rev. A.C. Weir officiated in the double ring ceremony, before the altar beautifully decorated with palms, fall flowers, and candelabra. Preceding and during the ceremony, a program of wedding music was played by Mr. Eugene Smith, with Eugene Smith as soloist. The traditional wedding marches were used. Preceding the ceremony, the candles were lit by Granville Tate. Mr. and Mrs. John Tate served as matron of honor and best man. Miss Ann Louise Gentry served as bridesmaid and William Malone, cousin of the bridegroom, as groomsman.

The bride wore street length dress of light blue metallic rayon, with navy blue accessories. Her something old was a pearl ring, a gift of her parents. Her something new, rhinestone earrings, the gift of the bridegroom, something borrowed, a blue garter borrowed from Mrs. Mary Hopson and something blue, a blue handkerchief, the gift of Mrs. Johnson. She carried white rosebuds on a white Bible, the gift of Mrs. Tate, with satin streamers caught in lovers knots.

Mrs. Tate wore a street length dress of light brown rayon crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Miss Gentry wore a street length dress of plum rayon corde, with navy blue accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Both the matron of honor and bridesmaid wore rhinestone earrings, which were gifts of the bride. Mrs. Dunn chose for her daughter's wedding, a navy-blue crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Johnson wore a navy suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The men in the bridal party wore dark suits and white carnation boutonnieres.

Following the ceremony a reception for approximately fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The lace covered table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom. The bride's chosen colors of white and green were carried out in the decorations. The couple left following the reception on a short trip to Nashville, Tennessee, with the bride traveling in a black suit with green accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Princeton high school and is now employed by the Hansen Manufacturing Co. Mr. Johnson is also a graduate of Princeton high school and is employed by the Ashland Oil Co.

Marriage Notes for Elden Catt and Elsie Farrington:

Miss Elsie Christine Barrington became the bride of Elden Arthur Catt in a candlelight ceremony last night March 19, 1955 at 7:30 o'clock at Lewis Memorial Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Farrington, 914 East Cayuga St., and Mr. Catt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Catt of Washington, Indiana. The Rev. Max Stowe read the nuptial rites following a program of music by us. Mabel Deweese, organist.

Given in marriage by her father. the bride wore a ballerina length gown of lace and nylon tulle over gleaming satin. The strapless bodice was covered with a lace jacket designed with a peter pan collar. A tiara seed pearls caught her shoulder-length veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid. Miss Doris Greenway served as maid of honor in a ballerina gown of blue net over taffeta. The extremely full skirt was topped with a strapless bodice and fitted jacket. She carried a nosegay of pink pompons. Patricia Vela attended as best man and ushers were Edward D. Vogel and Wilbur Branham. Mr. and Mrs. Farrington were hosts at a reception at Ragan Park immediately following the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to Florida's East Coast, the bride chose a navy-blue linen suit and white accessories. A white orchid corsage completed her ensemble. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Catt will make their home at Avon Park.

Marriage Notes for Carol Johnson and Albert Burkhardt:

Marriage rites were read at eight o'clock Saturday night Sept. 8, 1945 in the Methodist Church, near Vincennes, for Miss Carol Lee Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Johnson, of near Decker, and Staff Sergeant Albert Burkhardt, Jr., formerly of this city, who returned a fortnight ago from a year's service overseas. Staff Sergeant Burkhardt, a brother of Charles A. Burkhardt, of this city, is a son of Mrs. Lewis a Gasser, of Decker and the late Albert Burkhardt, formerly of this city, who for a number of years was superintendent of the Vincennes Packing Company's plant Crothersville. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burkhardt and sons, John and Mark, were guests at the nuptial service, read by the Rev. Mr. Sutch, pastor of the Carlisle Methodist Church. The Rev. Mr. Sutch is former pastor at Decker and officiated at the bride's baptismal services. Banked palms and ferns and lighted candles burning from multi-branch holders formed the altar setting for the rites. Mrs. Clarence McCormick, at the piano, played a prelude of bridal airs and Miss Betty Burkhardt, the bridegroom's sister, sang, "Always"; "Because" and "O Promise Me." The traditional wedding marches were played for the processional and recessional.

The bride gave the place of honor in her attendant group to a former classmate, Miss Thelma Jordan, who wore a gown of shasta yellow and carried a colonial bouquet of asters in pastel shades. Misses June and Jean Johnson, twin sisters of the bride, and Miss Janice McCormick were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of chiffon, fashioned with silhouette basques and full flowing skirts and they carried quaint old-fashioned and nosegays of asters in pastel ones. Miss June Johnson wore dusty rose and her sister; Miss Jean Johnson's gown was aquatone. Miss McCormick wore heather pink. The bride's gown was of taffeta and net in bridal white. A deep peplum edged the taffeta bodice, cut with Romance neckline and wrist-pointed sleeves and the net skirt swept into a wide train. Her veil, also of net, was held to a rhinestone tiara and she carried a shower bouquet of white asters.

Bernard Dougherty served as best man and James McCormick, Virgil Dougherty, Jr., and Wallace Nolting ushered. Mrs. Johnson attended her daughter's wedding in a smart blue and white print, with large white picture hat. Her flowers were asters in a shoulder arrangement and Mrs. Gasser, the bridegroom's mother, also wore an aster corsage with a black and white print with black accessories.

A reception was held following the service at the lovely country home of the bride's parents. During the evening punch was served in the dining room. At one end of the table was the wedding cake, built in three tiers and at the other the crystal punch service. Mrs. William Purcell, of Farmersburg, a sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and another sister, Mrs. Earl McCormick, served the wedding cake to the guests. Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Burkhart left Saturday on a wedding trip, the bride traveling in a blue and white two-piece ensemble.

A graduate of the Decker high school Mrs. Burkhart has been employed in Indianapolis for more than a year in war work. Staff Sergeant Burkhart also is a graduate of the Decker high school and he is served with the United States Army for sixteen months, twelve of which have been spent in Germany. He wears the Good Conduct Medal, the marksmanship medal, several battle stars and the Purple Heart. After a thirty-day furlough he is to report to Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

Marriage: 08 Jun 1946, Knox Co, Indiana

Children of Jean Johnson and Billy Davis are:

- + 7123 i. Janet Jo¹⁴ Davis, born 23 Jan 1949.
- 7124 ii. Dottie Ann Davis, born 29 Aug 1951. She married (1) Bill Parten. She married (2) Wayne Stanger 12 Jul 1969 in Vincennes, Knox Co, Indiana.

Marriage Notes for Dottie Davis and Wayne Stanger:

Miss Dottie Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and Wayne Stanger, son of Mrs. Ileone Miller and Mark Stanger, both of Bloomington were married at 7:30 July 12, 1969 at Wabash United Methodist Church. The Rev. Richard Clayton performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms, ferns, blue a white pom pons and with seven-branch candelabra. Mrs. Gerald Carie as soloist, with Mrs. Jerry Blice at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride's attendants included her sister, Mrs. David Michel of Terre Haute, matron of honor with the Misses Susan Burkhart, Lynn Micky of Anderson and the groom's sister, Miss Marcia Stanger of Bloomington, bridesmaids. Larry Joe Stanger, the groom's brother, was best man. Another brother, Kevin, and Kenny Wendling of Seymour and Randy Williamson of Bloomington, were groomsmen, with David Michel of Terre Haute, John Williams of Bloomington and Benkey Williams of Bloomington, ushers.

Deanna Stanger of Bloomington and Lori Daffron were flower girls, and the bride's brother, David, was ring bearer. The matron of honor wore a floor-length mint green dotted swiss gown with fitted waist-line and long puffed sleeves and with green satin sash with floor-length streamers. A green satin bow secured her mint green tulle shoulder length veil, and she carried a white wicker basket of spring flowers. The bridesmaids were similarly attired, with Miss Burkhart in yellow, Miss Mickey in pink and Miss Stanger in blue dotted swiss. For her wedding, Mrs. Stanger chose a white pearled Chantilly lace and organza formal gown fashioned with scalloped neck- line, lace bodice, bridal point sleeves and full skirt with Chantilly lace front panel. Her three-tier silk organza and Chantilly lace train flowed from a shoulder bow. A pearl- trimmed satin bow held her elbow-length tulle veil. She carried a cascade of sweetheart roses and carnations atop a white Bible.

At a reception following, the bride's table featured a blue and white net cloths and blue and white floral centerpiece. Assisting in serving were Mes- dames Steven Burkhart, Larry Jo Stanger, Billie Williams and William Gladish. Mrs. Stanger, a member of Wabash Church, is a 1969 Lincoln High School graduate. Stanger, who attends Maple Grove Church in Bloomington, a sophomore at VU, is employed with the U.S. Department of Agriculture at Brownstown. For a honeymoon at Kentucky Lake, the bride chose for travel, white dotted swiss with yellow trim and accessories. They will reside at 615 W. Walnut Street in Brownsburg.

She married Ned Cullum Gander. He was born 03 Oct 1912 in Earlsboro, Pottawatomie Co, Oklahoma, and died 18 Jul 2012 in Austin, Travis Co, Texas.

Notes for Ned Cullum Gander:

Ned Cullum Gander passed away on July 18, 2012, at the age of 99. He was predeceased by his first wife, Martha Marie, his second wife, Mary Jane, and his son, Neil Robert Gander. Ned is survived by his four daughters, two step-children, and numerous grandchildren. He was born on October 3, 1912, on a farm near Earlsboro, Oklahoma, and lived in Marshfield, Missouri; Lebanon, Illinois; San Antonio, and Austin, Texas. A World War II veteran, Ned worked 34 years as a civilian employee at the headquarters of the Air Training Command before retiring from Randolph AFB, Texas. He received five Outstanding Performance Ratings between 1956 and 1971 and received the Meritorious Civilian Service Award in 1969 after spearheading a Manpower Division initiative to manage budget cuts by leveraging normal turn-over and controlled rehiring, saving many jobs in the process. Ned was a lifelong member of the United Methodist Church and assisted their mission program by building houses in the Texas valley. He was the author of the published novel, Wayward, and several short stories and poems. A natural sportsman he enjoyed baseball, basketball, volleyball, tennis, and golf. As an avid golfer, Ned was proud of his three holes in one. Having grown up on a farm, he challenged the Texas weather to successfully grow tomatoes, oranges, pecans, and roses.

Ned was a family man who was grateful for his two happy marriages, his children, and his grandchildren. Education was one of Ned's highest priorities. Because he never had the opportunity himself to attend college, one of his greatest accomplishments was assisting each of his five children with obtaining their Bachelor's degrees.

A private burial will take place at Mission Burial Park North. A memorial service will be held at St. Andrew's United Methodist Church on Sunday, July 22, at 1 p.m. Those who wish to make donations in Ned's honor may do so to St. Andrew's United Methodist Church or to a charity of your choice.

She married Harold Pierson McGlamery 01 Jul 1942. He was born 19 Jul 1913 in Woodward, Oklahoma, and died 24 Dec 2007.

Notes for Mary Alice Finch:

Mary Alice Finch McGlamery went safely home to be with Jesus on October 15, 2007. She was born September 29, 1918 in Doniphan, Missouri, to Elmer and Emma Finch. She attended Southwest Baptist College in Bolivar, Missouri, and graduated from Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, Oklahoma in 1940. After teaching in a country school for one year, she attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, and earned a degree in Religious Education. While at Southwestern, she met and fell in love with Harold McGlamery. They were married on July 1, 1942, and celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary this summer. Harold pastored many churches around Oklahoma and Alice was a constant ministry partner. After her children were grown, she taught school in Aurora, Colorado, for 14 years. She and Harold also worked together, presenting Marriage Encounter Weekends to help couples communicate better.

Alice is survived by her husband, Harold McGlamery of Edmond; daughters and sons-in-law, Judy and Bill Kennedy of Oklahoma City, Ann and Frank Davis of Edmond, and Jan and Paul Kohli of Denver, Colorado; grandchildren, Brian and Deanna Kennedy of Norman, Lorie Kennedy of Oklahoma City, Ben Davis of Edmond, Peter and Anna Davis of Oklahoma City, Emily Kohli of Denver, Colorado, and Elisa Kohli of Denver, Colorado; great-grandchildren, Ruth, Clara, Mary and Lucy Kennedy of Norman. She is also survived by her brother and his wife, Bryce and Doris Finch of Louisville, Kentucky. She is preceded in death by her parents and two sisters. Funeral Services will be 10:00 a.m., Thursday, October 18, 2007, at Henderson Hills Baptist Church with interment following at Gracelawn Cemetery in Edmond.

Notes for Harold Pierson McGlamery:

Harold Pierson McGlamery joined his beloved Alice in heaven on December 24, 2007. He was born July 19, 1913 in Woodward, Oklahoma to Irby and Lola McGlamery. He earned a B.S. from Oklahoma State in 1937 and went on to Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, earning a Th.M. While at Southwestern, he met and fell in love with Alice Finch, whom he married on July 1, 1942. He and Alice were married for 65 years. Harold loved the Lord and he loved people. He pastored churches for many decades across Oklahoma, including churches in Mannsville, Haileyville, Waurika, Atoka, Mangum, and Midwest City. He also served with the Colorado Baptist Convention. He and Alice together, continued to minister after retirement through Marriage Encounter weekend retreats and as an elder with Henderson Hills Baptist Church. He served as a minister all his life and encouraged others to faith in God until his death. He knew Jesus and was in close relationship with him. 'Pop's' life was marked by a tender spirit, fervent prayers, and joy.

Harold is survived by his daughters and sons-in law, Judy and Bill Kennedy of Oklahoma City, Ann and Frank Davis of Edmond, and Jan and Paul Kohli of Denver, Colorado; grandchildren, Brian and Deana Kennedy of Norman, Lorie Kennedy of Oklahoma City, Ben Davis of Edmond, Peter and Anna Davis of Oklahoma City, Emily Kohli of Denver, Colorado, and Elisa Kohli of Denver, Colorado; and great-grandchildren, Ruth, Clara, Mary, and Lucy Kennedy of Norman. He is also survived by his brother, Don and Pauline McGlamery of Alabama. He is preceded in death by his parents, one brother, and his wife, Alice.

Memorial services will be held on Saturday, January 5, 2008, at 10:00 am at Henderson Hills Baptist Church. Interment will be at Gracelawn Cemetery.

She married Jerry William Arburn 15 Oct 1955 in Gibson Co, Indiana. He was born 15 Aug 1931 in Francisco, Gibson Co, Indiana, and died 28 Sep 2012 in Princeton, Gibson Co, Indiana.

Notes for Mary Betty Pauley:

Mary Betty Arburn of Princeton, Indiana passed away July 1st, 2020. She was born in Hazleton, Indiana, to Waldo and Phavilla Pauley. She was a beloved Mother, Wife, Grandmother, and farm business professional. Mary Betty loved farming, loved farming with Jerry and the kids. She felt blessed to have grown up on a farm and then later to raise her family on a farm. She and Jerry cared for the land and operated a grain livestock farm business in the Princeton area for over 66 years. She was christened at Shiloh Church, graduated from Mt. Olympus High School 1954, and married Jerry on October 15th, 1955; they were married nearly 57 years. She was a member of the Hillside United Methodist Church and the Wesleyan class.

Mary Betty was active in the Cinderellas Home Ec Club. Mary Betty was a 4-H volunteer and leader for over 20 years, hosting numerous 4-H meetings in her home. She played a founding role in baking and selling apple pies on behalf of Faith United Methodist Church during the Golden Heritage Days festival. She and Jerry would pick apples at Fairview Orchard in Mt. Vernon, IN, donate them, the flour and shortening to the church, and bake as many as 700 plus some pies every year, all to raise funds for the church.

She is survived by son Dr. Gregory W. Arburn and wife Karen Arburn of Marion, Ohio daughter Mary Frances (Arburn) John and husband Bernie John, Fishers, Indiana and grandchildren Gentry Arburn, Grace Arburn, Parker W. John and Cooper W. John. Mary Betty was a cherished mother, and she was the best mom ever. We figure she was the best cook ever.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, July 7th, at Hillside United Methodist Church in Princeton, Indiana. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Alzheimers organization. Envelopes will be available at the Church. Colvin Funeral Home is honored to serve the Arburn family.

Notes for Jerry William Arburn:

Jerry W. Arburn, 81, of Princeton, Indiana passed away September 28, 2012. He was born in Francisco, Indiana to Wm. Howard and Ruth K. Arburn. He was a beloved Father, Husband, Grandfather and farm business professional. Jerry loved farming, cared for the land and operated a grain and livestock farm business in the Princeton area for over 66 years. He was christened at Hight Chapel United Methodist church, graduated Francisco High School in 1949, attended Purdue University and married the love of his life on October 15th, 1955; they were married nearly 57 years. He was a member of Hillside United Methodist church and the Wesleyan class which he taught for several years. Jerry received The Saginaw of The Wabash award in 2003 and was a member of various professional organizations including Indiana Farm Bureau, Princeton Area Chamber of Commerce and Princeton Kiwanis. In addition to serving as Vice President of Indiana Farm Bureau for 2 terms he was District Nine Director and held various elected positions in Gibson County Farm Bureau including president. He was a member and past president of Princeton Area Chamber of Commerce. He was a member and past president of Princeton Kiwanis. He attended the Presidential Inauguration in 1989 was a 4-H and Rural Youth leader.

He is survived by his wife Mary Betty Arburn (Pauley), son, Dr. Gregory W. Arburn and wife Karen Arburn, Marion, Ohio, daughter, Mary Frances John and husband Bernie John, Fishers, Indiana, and grandchildren Gentry Arburn, Grace Arburn, Parker W. John and Cooper W. John.

Jerry was a cherished family man, community leader, the best dad ever and an avid Pepsi drinker. Undoubtedly, Pepsi sales will decline substantially in the greater Princeton area. Funeral services will be held at 4:30 P.M. Monday, October 1st at Hillside United Methodist Church in Princeton, with Pastor Lisa Schubert-Nowling officiating. Burial will be at Maple Hill Cemetery in Princeton. Visitation will be from 2 - 4:30 P.M. Monday at Hillside United Methodist Church. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or Hillside United Methodist Church. Marriage Notes for Mary Pauley and Jerry Arburn:

Miss Mary Betty Pauley and Jerry W. Arburn were united in marriage, Saturday evening, October 15, 1955, at 6 o'clock at the home of Dr. L.C. Jeffrey who officiated, reading the vows of the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Pauley of Hazleton and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arburn of near Francisco.

The bride wore a street-length knit suit of charcoal brown with aqua and white accent. Her corsage was of white rosebuds. She carried a white Bible with cascading white satin streamers; white rosebuds were tied in the lover's knots. The wedding tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue was in her costume. The old was a pin belonging to her maternal grandmother; new a pair of rhinestone earrings, a gift of the bridegroom; the white Bible was borrowed from her sister, Mrs. Vaughn L. Sanders, who had carried it at her wedding; and her something blue was a satin garter with pink rosettes designed and given to her by her mother. For good luck she had an old coin in her shoe given to her by her brother, Tom.

Mrs. Sanders, was her sister's matron-of-honor, she wore a brown permasilk street length dress fashioned with high neckline and a bouffant skirt. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds. Mr. Sanders, brother-in-law of the bride was the best man.

After the ceremony a dinner was served at Romers for the member of the immediate families and included Mr. and Mrs. Pauley, the bride's parents, and Frances, Nancy and Tom of Hazleton; Frida McDevitt of Princeton; Mr. and Mrs. Arburn the bridegroom's parent of Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Sanders of Bloomington. The bride is a graduate of Mt. Olympus High School and is employed at Potter and Brumfield; the bridegroom is a graduate of Francisco High School and is engaged in farming, he also attended Purdue University. After a southern honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Arburn are residing in their new home on R.R. 2, Princeton.

David was a 1974 Graduate of Vincennes Lincoln High School and a 1978 graduate of Indiana State University School of Business. He then went on and earned a degree in Funeral Service in 1979 from Vincennes University. He began working at Dexter Gardner and Son Funeral Home, Inc. in 1979 as a seventh-generation funeral director where he held the position of Vice-President for over twenty-one years. He loved being a funeral director and provided great care for the families he served. David was also actively involved in the community and was a past president of the Vincennes

Rotary Club where he had been a Paul Harris Fellow and the Vincennes University Alumni Association. His other memberships include the Vincennes University Society, Elks Lodge, Masonic Lodge #1, Scottish Rite, Hadr Shrine, Harmony Society, and Jaycees. David was also a member of First United Methodist Church where he served as treasurer and usher. He was a member of the YMCA board for eighteen years and received The Vincennes YMCA Ray Beless Award in 2006. He also was recognized in 2001 as a Sagamore of the Wabash by Governor Frank O'Bannon and that same year was honored by the city's Spirit of '76 Award. David was also an avid reader, enjoyed reading multiple newspapers, and read many Presidential biographies. He also enjoyed Lincoln High School Homecoming activities and was a loyal supporter of the St. Louis Cardinals, Vincennes University Trailblazer basketball, and the Vincennes Lincoln Alice's. David was a friend to many and never forgot a name.

Survivors include his wife, Pamela J. Gardner of Vincennes; his father George D. Gardner and his wife Linda of Terre Haute, Indiana; nephew, Travis Satterfield of Indianapolis, Indiana; mother-in-law, Pat Summers of Vincennes; brother-in-law, Ron Thomas of Vincennes; sister-in-law's, Lynn Brauns and her husband Kevin of Plainfield, Indiana, Angie McHale and her husband Col. Ed McHale of Clarksville, Tennessee; nephews, Daniel R. Stryzinski of Denver, Colorado, Eric Stryzinski of Indianapolis, Indiana, Phillip Brauns of Plainfield, Indiana, Mitchell Brauns and his wife Hannah of Plainfield, Indiana; step-brother, Joran Scott of Terre Haute, Indiana, step-brother, John Scott of Austin, Texas and step-sister, Sheryl Scott of Decatur, Illinois. David was preceded in death by his mother, Virginia Lee Gardner, sister, Jan R. Thomas, and his father-in-law, Dr. Phillip M. Summers.

Friends may visit with David's family from 4-8 pm on Thursday, January 7, 2021, at Goodwin-Sievers Funeral Home, Gardner-Brockman Chapel, 505 Main St., Vincennes. Funeral services for David will be held at 10:00 am on Friday, January 8, 2020, at First United Methodist Church with Pastor Matt Swisher officiating. For those who will not be able to attend the funeral service, you will be able to watch the live stream of David's funeral service on our website under David's obituary. David will be laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery. The Gardner family requests memorial contributions be made to the Knox County Community Foundation David and Pam Gardner Fund, Vincennes University Foundation or the Vincennes YMCA. Goodwin-Sievers Funeral Home is honored to assist the Gardner family with arrangements.

Marriage Notes for David Gardner and Pamela Summers:

Feb. 17, 1987 - Vincennes University President and Mrs. Phillip M. Summers of 1623 Burnett Lane announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Pamela Jane Summers, to David Dexter Gardner of 505 Main Street. Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George D. Gardner of 509 Monticello Drive. The couple will exchange vows during an evening wedding ceremony on May 30 in First Christian Church, Fourth and Broadway Streets. The Rev. Dennis Landon and the Rev. Ronald Mercer will officiate.

The bride-elect, a 1982 graduate of Lincoln High School, received an associate's degree in nursing from Vincennes University in 1984. She will graduate from the University of Evansville in May with a bachelor's degree in nursing. Miss Summers is employed part-time as a registered nurse at Good Samaritan Hospital. Her fiancé, a 1974 Lincoln graduate, received a bachelor's degree in business from Indiana State University in 1978 and an associate's degree in funeral services from VU in 1979. He is employed as funeral director at Dexter Gardner and Son Funeral Home.

- 7177 ii. Jannell Ruth Gardner, born 07 Apr 1955. She married Kenneth Brett Satterfield 17 Sep 1977 in Vincennes, Knox Co, Indiana; born 17 Jun 1955 in Evansville, Vanderburgh Co, Indiana.

Marriage Notes for Jannell Gardner and Kenneth Satterfield:

Jannell Ruth Gardner, Evansville and Vincennes, and Kenneth Brett Satterfield, Poseyville, were married Saturday evening Sept. 17, 1977 in First United Methodist Church in Vincennes. The Rev. Paul Kern officiated at the double-ring service. Two vase arrangements of red roses, white carnations and pompons, with wheat, pheasant feathers and baby's breath, decorated the altar. Brass candelabra with garlands of ferns and bows were in the aisles, and greenery and candles decorated the windows. At the front of the church were two large wreaths of straw and wheat with brown bows. Greenery garlanded the balcony. George Smith was organist for the ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner, 1425 McDowell, Vincennes, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Satterfield, Poseyville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candlelight organza (which she made) with a fitted bodice with a capelet of lace, large bell three-quarter length lace-trimmed sleeves and a lace-trimmed gathered skirt. The satin slip had spaghetti straps and lace-trimmed hem. She wore an organza scarf. Her flowers were a cascade arrangement of white phalaenopsis orchids, baby's breath, natural wheat and pheasant feathers attached to a fan that is a family antique.

She was attended by Debbie Whitehouse, who was her maid of honor, Nancy Arthur, Debbie Minderman, and Darcy Akerman, Evansville. They wore gowns of sand-colored jersey with shoulder straps of ribbon in earth colors and Empire waists with A-line skirts. Organza capelets were trimmed with ribbon. Each carried a cascade arrangement of beige colored cymbidium orchids and red roses with baby's breath and natural wheat. Virgil Rasche, Bloomington, was Satterfield's best man. Groomsmen were the bride's brother, David Gardner; the bridegroom's brother, Greg Satterfield, Poseyville; and his uncle, John Jones, Owensville. Mike LaGrange, Steve McNeil and Carl Vogel, all of Evansville, seated the wedding guests. Mrs. Joseph Clausman Jr., Terre Haute, and Anne Carlton, New York, served at the reception, at Holiday Inn indoor pool. The Satterfields will be at home at 920 Douglas Drive in Evansville. Mrs. Satterfield attended University of Evansville and is a nurse at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville. Satterfield, who also attended U of E, is employed with Indiana Grain Co., Evansville.

Virginia Lee Abrams, 89, went the be with the Lord on May 17, 2024 at 5:00am Gentlecare Nursing & Rehabilitation in Vincennes. She was born on April 9, 1935, to the late Lewis and Gertrude (Johnson) Bateman in Vincennes, Indiana. Virginia married the love of her life, Thomas Eugene Abrams Sr., on October 18, 1952, and they spent 70 years together happily married before his passing. Together, they had three children, Tommy, Terri, and Tammie. Throughout her life, Virginia found joy and purpose in homemaking. She dedicated her days to baking, filling her home with the delightful aroma of freshly baked goods that brought warmth and comfort to those around her. Family was at the center of her world. She loved spending time with her family, especially with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In her leisure time, Virginia derived simple pleasures from watching game shows, finding entertainment and relaxation in those moments. Her kind and compassionate nature touched the lives of all who knew her.

Virginia is survived by her children, Tammie (Cary) Twitty of Vincennes, Indiana, and Terri (Mike) Bushta of Florida; her grandchildren, Lee VanSweringen, Heather (Joel) Machemer, Gabbie (Shane) Clack, Craig (Canda) Twitty, Sarah (Josh) Donnoe, and Ashley (Kristi) Abrams; her step-grandchildren, Jason (Susan) Petelle and family, and Brandy Petelle; her great-grandchildren, Morgan VanSweringen, Keona Donnoe, Palmer Twitty, and Wade Abrams; her special niece, Carol McRoberts; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband Thomas E. Abrams Sr.; her son, Tommy Abrams Jr.; and her siblings, Hubert Bateman, Bertha Bateman, and Ralph Bateman.

Visitation for Virginia will be held on Tuesday, May 21, 2024, from 10:00am-12:00pm at Goodwin-Sievers Funeral Home, 524 Broadway St., Vincennes, Indiana 47591. A funeral service will follow immediately following visitation at 12:00 with Pastor John Trotter officiating. Interment will follow at Memorial Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions to be made to the Vincennes Pet Port 1128 River Rd., Vincennes, IN, or Helping His Hands, 2011 Willow St suite b, Vincennes, IN 47591. Donation envelopes will be provided at the funeral home. The family would like to offer their sincere thanks and gratitude to Turnia Castle, who did such a great job giving compassionate care to Virginia over the last two years as her caretaker. Goodwin-Sievers Funeral Home is honored and privileged to be entrusted with the care of Virginia and her family.

Notes for Thomas Eugene Abrams:

Notes for Richard Carlyle Dever:

June 12, 1977 - Richard Dever and Dennis Knapczyk of Indiana University are co-directors of the nation's only undergraduate program that permits future teachers to major in education for the moderately, severely and profoundly handicapped. Of PL 94-142's first priority, Dever says, "Education in this country is just not prepared to take on the teaching job required. There are not enough qualified teachers now, and there certainly won't by next year."

This is not a very glamorous area to teaching, and it requires exceptional dedication. How does a teacher deal with deaf child who has cerebral palsy? A blind child who is profoundly retarded? Learning to cope with such children takes long hours of training and experience. Dever says a growing number of teacher training institutions are now providing programs for teachers of the severely handicapped, but only on a graduate level. This, he says, will price those teachers out of the market the market for many hard-pressed school districts.

- 7213 ii. Pamela Joy Wager, born Aug 1943 in Illinois. She married Richard Ferguson 27 Nov 1966 in Casey, Illinois.

Marriage Notes for Pamela Wager and Richard Ferguson:

The First Christian church of Casey was the setting for the Nov. 27, 1966 wedding of Miss Pamela Joy Wager and Richard Ferguson. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wanda Wager of Mount Carmel and Robert Wager of Fairbury. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson of Casey.

A floor-length gown of Alencon lace over taffeta was the bride's choice. The sabrina neckline and hemline of the sheath skirt were edged with iridescent sequins. The back of the gown was highlighted by a detachable, chapel-length train which fell from the shoulders. Mrs. Robert Sandage of Robinson was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of gold velvet. Bridesmaid Mrs. Robert Goble of Carterville, sister of the bridegroom, wore a floor-length gown of deep red velvet. James Chippendale of Decatur was best man. Groomsman was Gene Ferguson of Decatur, the bridegroom's brother. Ushers included Eldon Allison of Decatur and Robert Goble of Carterville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was given in the friendship room of the church. After a wedding trip to Chicago, the couple is residing at 1965 E. North St.

Marriage Notes for Randall Otten and Debra Helderman:

Debra Lynn Helderman and Randall Robert Otten were married at 7 p. m. Saturday August 21, 1976 in Wheatland Christian Church with the Rev. John William Overbay officiating. Mrs. Gene Kelso was organist and Mrs. Dennis Chattin and Randy Linneweber sang. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Helderman, Wheatland. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Otten, Rt. 3, Vincennes. Mrs. Bruce Helderman, Wheatland, was matron of honor, and the bride's other attendants were Mrs. John Wampler and Aline Otten. Tammy Helderman, Wheatland, was flower girl.

Mrs. Helderman's gown was of pink chiffon with embossed flowers over pink taffeta. The skirt was full. She wore a short, unlined cape with a mandarin collar over the fitted bodice. Bridesmaid's dresses were identical styles, in turquoise; and the flower girl wore white chiffon with pink rosebuds over taffeta. Her long sleeves and apron-effect were edged with lace. Her sash was pink, and she wore a wreath of pink roses and baby breath in her hair. Each of the bridal attendants wore tiny pink roses and baby breath in her hair and carried two long-stemmed pink roses. Rod Blann of Bruceville, Brad Ellerman and Jerry Otten attended the bridegroom. Aaron Helderman, Wheatland, carried the rings.

The bride's gown was of white silk organza with a fitted bodice that had a scoop neckline edged with beaded Cluny lace. Rows of the same lace accented the bishop sleeves. Tiny tucks were down the front of the A-line skirt which formed a chapel-length train and was edged with two wide ruffles of Cluny lace. She wore a mantilla edged with the lace and accented with drifting appliques. Her flowers were pink roses and baby breath arranged in a cascade bouquet.

A reception in the church hall followed the ceremony. The new Mrs. Otten graduated from South Knox High School and is employed at American National Bank. Also a South Knox graduate, Otten is a farmer. After their return from a Florida honeymoon, they will be at home on Rt. 1, Vincennes.

Marriage Notes for Olive Decker and Oliver Ambos:

Among the prominent weddings of the Thanksgiving season, was the marriage Saturday Nov. 18, 1939 of Miss Olive Decker, of Lima, daughter of T.L. Decker of Oakland City, Indiana to Oliver Ambos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ambos, Wheeler Lane, Wapakoneta. The quiet and impressive ceremony was solemnized at 2:30 Saturday afternoon at the St. Mark Lutheran church in Wapakoneta with the Rev. W.H. Sherer, pastor, performing the single ring ceremony. Tapers were lighted in candelabra at the altar and decorated were bouquets of white mums. The couple was unattended and only the immediate families were present.

The bride had chosen an attractive frock of moss green styled with a circular skirt and bustle back. The neckline was high and she wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her accessories were brown and she carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses tied with tulle.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ambos left on a short wedding trip and upon their return will reside at 9 East Benton Street in Wapakoneta. Mrs. Ambos was graduated from Oakland high school and Lockyear's college of business at Evansville, Indiana. For the last two years she has been instructor at the Northwestern School of Commerce in Lima. Mr. Ambos was graduated from Blume high school, Wapakoneta class of 1930, and for the last thirteen years has been employed at the Wapakoneta Daily News office where he is now mechanical superintendent.

Notes for Daniel Lee Myers:

Daniel (Danny) Lee Myers, of Washington, passed away at the Villages of Oak Ridge on July 15, 2024. He was born on September 11, 1937, to Frank and Camilla (Henry) Myers. He wed Judy Kay Frederick on August 1, 1969, and she preceded him in death on December 31, 2019. As a young man, he worked on the family farm, U.S. Railway, and later hauled milk with Bob Bingham. He was a family man who was always willing to help. He cared for his mother's lawn for many years and took her weekly to get her hair done, have lunch, and get groceries. With on call, he would respond to help his brothers and their families. He was the original "fun uncle" and will be greatly missed. When able, he enjoyed being outdoors and woodworking.

Surviving Dan are his siblings, John (Ruth Ann) Myers, Reba Allen, Shirley (Larry) Oetzel; sister-in-law Zondra Myers, and brother-in-law Dale (Terri) Frederick. Dan is also survived by several nieces, nephews, and their families. Preceding Dan in death were his parents Frank and Camilla Myers, in-laws Carl and Connie Frederick, brother-in-law Clifford Allen, sister-in-law Rosemary Myers, and three brothers, Ralph, Dale Wayne, and Mark.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in memory of Dan to Daviess County Friends for Animals, Barr-Reeve Elementary School, Washington Conservation Club, or the non-profit organization of your choice. The family would also like to thank all of the staff at The Villages of Oak Ridge for their dedication and support over the last few years. Per Dan's request, he has chosen cremation. There will be a visitation held for Dan on Saturday, July 27, 2024, from 10:00-11:00am. Following visitation, a celebration of life will begin immediately at 11:00am with Pastor Brad Rainey officiating. Inurnment will follow in the Bethany Cemetery in Washington. Goodwin-Sievers Funeral Home is honored and privileged to be entrusted with the care of Dan and his family.

Notes for John Edward (Jack) Igleburger:

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Jack Edward Igleburger, who passed away on June 11th at the age of 87 in Bella Vista, Arkansas. Born on December 15, 1937, in Chicago, Illinois, Jack lived a life marked by love, resilience, and adventure. He was a beloved husband to Temple, a deeply loved father to his daughters, Julie and Dana, and a cherished stepfather to Gary Griffin. A passionate traveler and a gifted storyteller, Jack loved sharing tales of his adventures with family and friends.

Jack's early life in Chicago began in Catholic school, where he endured the strict regimen of the nuns and looked forward to his daily peanut butter sandwiches. After his parents divorced during his pre-teen years, he moved to his grandparents' farm. He had fond memories of playing and climbing hay bales but also learned the value of hard work by feeding animals and gathering eggs. In 1945, he moved to Dayton, Ohio, where he adjusted to suburban life, earning money through odd jobs like mowing lawns and shoveling snow. He enjoyed a bit of mischief with his large circle of friends. After high school, he took an apprenticeship in toolmaking with NCR, an experience he found dull, which ultimately taught him the importance of solid planning for a future he desired.

In his early years, Jack met and married his first love, Pattie, with whom he had two daughters, Tomi and Dana. After their marriage ended in 1963, he married Linda, and they had a daughter together, Julie. They eventually settled in Santa Barbara, California. His daughters were his compass throughout his life; even after his marriage to Linda ended in 1966 and he suffered the heartbreaking loss of his daughter Tomi in 1978, his daughters kept him grounded and were always his anchor. He remained an active part of their lives, always reminding them that he was there for them in his own special way — something they will be forever grateful for. In 1978, Jack began a career in Aerospace Engineering with Hughes Missile Systems. He worked with a group of civilian and military engineers on the AMRAAM Missile development team, focusing on tactical navigation systems.

The stars aligned for Jack in 1983 when he met Temple at a restaurant in Woodland Hills, California. From that moment on, in his own words, "The moon started to hang a little differently... I'd finally got it right... She was my great love." They built a life together in the San Fernando Valley and married in Beverly Hills in 1994. Following the catastrophic 1997 earthquake, Hughes closed its California operations due to massive damage. This led Jack and Temple to retire early and modestly, moving from California to Arkansas in 2005. It afforded them to be closer to his stepson, Gary, and his wife, Judy. Jack once wrote: "We love our new life, four seasons, our community, and our beautiful state." They enjoyed great food, friendships, and great conversations. Jack courageously battled cancer since his retirement but never let it slow down their travels and adventures. Temple's passing in 2021 was his greatest heartbreak, and he kept her memory alive for his remaining days. His love for travel and adventure remains with all of us, and Jack is now reunited in spirit with Temple for their ultimate journey.

Jack is survived by his daughters Dana Solich (Tom) and Julie Esslinger (Michael); his stepson Gary Griffin (Judy); eight grandchildren: Brent Solich, Brittany Torres, Forrest Esslinger, Brandon Esslinger, Ross Esslinger, Richard Maxwell, Jake Maxwell, and Daniel Maxwell; and ten great-grandchildren.

Notes for Earl Schwartz:

Earl Schwartz, 60, of 516 Church Street, janitor at the Y.M.C.A. for a number of years, was stricken with a fatal heart attack while at work at 8:20 a.m. Monday Dec. 15, 1952. The fire department resuscitator squad was called and administered oxygen, but resuscitation efforts were fruitless. Mr. Schwartz had gone to the boiler room to check on the furnace and when he returned to the lobby he complained of severe pains in the chest and arms. He laid down on a couch in the lobby, believing the attack would pass off, but he died a short time afterward. He had been in failing health for more than a year.

His wife was in Hazleton at the time. Dewey Shepherd, fire chief, drove there to break the news to Mrs. Schwartz and return her to Vincennes. The body was taken to the Stocker funeral home. Funeral services are being delayed pending word from two sons 'in California. Mr. Schwartz was a native of Lawrence County in the Sumner vicinity but had resided in Vincennes for a number of years.

Surviving besides the widow are two sons, Bernard of Richmond, California, and Arthur Loren Schwartz of San Tablo, California; two grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Elsie Marquat of Linton, Indiana, Mrs. Clara Moore of Lincoln, Illinois, Mrs. Fred Bell of Mt. Marriage Notes for Herbert Carie and Theresa Cardinal:

The marriage of Miss Theresa Emma Cardinal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cardinal of R.R. 3, and Herbert Carie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carie, R.R. 3, was solemnized Tuesday, May 6, 1930, in the Highlands Chapel before a large congregation of relatives and friends. Father Duffey officiated using the ring service. The altar was beautified with decorations of bridal wreaths arranged in bouquets. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played for the entrance of the bridal party.

Miss Hortense DeBuisseret attired in a dainty frock of pink georgette with a becoming hat to match and carrying an arm bouquet of pink roses entered with Robert Sievers. Then came the flower girl, Velma Carie, a sister of the groom, attired in a white georgette and wearing a wreath of flowers around her head and carrying a basket of lavender and pink sweet peas. Miss Cecelia Thais wore a pretty gown of orchid georgette trimmed with tiny ruffles and ribbon and a hat of the same color. She carried pink roses. William Cardinal, a brother of the bride, walked with Miss Thais. The bride entered with the groom and wore a frock fashioned white georgette ornamented with a satin sash and lace trimmings. She carried white roses. Her wedding veil was of filmy tulle confined with a silver band and ornamented with pearls at each side of her head.

During the ceremony, Miss Lucile Babe sang, "I Love You Truly." After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home where a wedding breakfast was served to the nearest relatives. The list included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carie and family, Willis, Robertine, Velma and Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cardinal, Vincent, Joseph and William, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reel and family, Leon Farrell, Robertine, Maxine and Rita, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thais and Lillian, James Cardinal, John Memmering, Arthur Goss, Mrs. Olivia Lane and daughter, Mary Josephine, Miss Susan Cardinal, Mrs. Garrett Holscher and Father Duffey.

The table was centered with a bride's cake, while over the table was a bell from which radiated white, pink and lavender ribbons to the four corners of the table. A large number of wedding presents were showered on the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Carie have gone to housekeeping on the Nowaskie farm.

Marriage Notes for Mary French and James Holt:

Residing on Windon Road, Shoals, R. 1, are James Allen Holt Jr., and his bride, the former Mary Ellen French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis French, Shoals, R. 2. The Rev. James Esarey, pastor of Shoals Baptist Church, performed their double ring wedding on June 20, 1975 on the Lawn of the Marvin Montgomery home in the Weisbaugh Community. Bridal music was by Miss Esther Albright and soloist, Miss Mary Potts.

The bride, gowned in a peasant style long dress of yellow chiffon and crepe, was given in marriage by her father. White lace trimmed the gown and a white picture hat and basket of yellow roses and white daisies completed the bridal attire.

Her attendants, Misses Pam Hawkins, Connie Hoffman and Jennie Albright, wore identically styled gowns in yellow and green flowered gingham, matching green picture hats and carried baskets of yellow daisies. The groom's parents are residents of Shoals. He was attended by Alan Hovis and John Abel. David Robbins carried the rings and Terry Holt and Frank Clifton were ushers.

The new Mrs. Holt graduated from Shoals Community High School in 1973 and attended Vincennes Business College. The groom, also a graduate of Shoals Community High School, graduated from Lincoln Technical Institute and is employed as a cabinet maker at Indiana Desk Company. A reception followed in the cafeteria of Shoals Community Schools.

Van Gilder performed the double ring ceremony, the bride was given In marriage by her father.

Mrs. Carl McDonald, pianist, played "Clair de Lune" and "I Love You Truly," and Miss Marilae Muessel of Chicago sang "Indian Love Call" and "Because" before the nuptials. Mrs. McDonald played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner all a processional and the Mendelssohn March as a recessional Miss Harvey wore a bridal gown of white, made with a bodice of satin and a full satin skirt, appliqued with flowers, which terminated in a train. The frock had a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the bride's hands. Her veil of tulle was of floor-length, and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from Mr. Catt. Miss Harvey carried white sweetheart roses arranged with forget-me-nots.

The bride's attendants were Miss Mildred Bauer, maid of honor, and Mrs. Owen Thornton and Miss Betty Call, sister of Mr. Catt, bridesmaids. Miss was in aqua taffeta, and Mrs. Thornton and Miss Catt appeared in blue taffeta frocks. The frocks were similarly fashioned with short sleeves, sweetheart neckline and full floor-length skirts. They wore headdresses of net and flowers, corresponding their frocks in color, and carried colonial bouquet of white carnations.

John Hamilton was best man, and Thomas Beasley and Edward Harvey, brother of the bride, were groomsmen. Otis Hamilton, brother-in-law of the groom, Joseph Baker, uncle of the bride, and Fred Bauer were ushers. Mr. Hamilton and his attendant entered the church from the study, and met Miss Harvey, her maid of honor and bridesmaids at the entrance of the chancel. Victoria Hamilton was flower girl and entered the church auditorium before the bride and her father. Victoria, niece of the groom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hamilton, wore a floor-length frock of yellow taffeta, trimmed with blue satin ribbon and styled along lines of those in the bridesmaids' dresses. She carried petals in an ornamental basket.

A reception took place at the home of the bride's parents in Rosewood Heights following the nuptials. The house was decorated with flowers, and a large cake was in the center of the refreshment table. Mrs. Eldon Farris, Mrs. Charles Leonard and Miss Marlene Taul served in the dining room.

Following the reception Mr. Catt and bride left on a honeymoon trip but did not disclose their destination. Mrs. Catt was wearing a lime green wool jersey dress, trimmed in white, and navy and white accessories when she departed. Mr. and Mrs. Catt will reside at 435 Whitelaw Avenue, Wood River. Notes for Vicki J. Ueding:

Vickie J. Glass, 74, passed away at 2:47 am on February 3, 2018 at Good Samaritan Hospital with family and friends by her side. Vickie was born in Fort Stockton, Texas on February 3, 1944 the daughter of Robert and Dorothy (Bovenschen) Ueding. Vickie married William Gene Glass on June 6, 1964 and he preceded her in death on June 2, 1993.

Vickie was a member of Old Cathedral Catholic Church and worked at Lydia's where she was affectionately known as the fudge maker. She also worked for Southwest Youth Village, where she had a heart for everyone there and loved her job. Vickie was a huge sports fan and loved the Cardinals, Colts, IU, and the Lincoln Alice's. She was very thoughtful, loved life and the people she was around to the fullest. Vickie's unwavering devotion and dedication to her family and friends were second to none. She had a heart of pure gold, and her children, husband, friends and pets were the absolute lights of her life. We are comforted in knowing she is reuniting with her husband in heaven.

Survivors include her son, Sister, brother, and many-many more that called her Aunt Vickie. Vickie was preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Dorothy Ueding, and her husband William Gene Glass.

Marriage Notes for Robert Brennan and Edna Berry:

The marriage of Miss Edna Blache Berry of Columbia to Robert Leslie Brennan of Buffalo, New York, and Columbia was solemnized in a late afternoon ceremony Saturday, October 12, 1940 at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Moore, in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Dr. W.M. Jay, pastor of the Congregational Christian church of Winston-Salem, officiated in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends, using the ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken in the living room before an improvised altar of palms, ferns, floor baskets of large white dahlias and white cathedral candles in candelabra. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Gibson Hicks, pianist, played "I Love You Truly" and "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used. The bride wore a blue velvet dress, an off-the-face hat of dubonnet velvet and dubonnet accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Brennan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Berry, formerly of Marion. Mr. Brennan is the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Brennan of Buffalo, New York. He is connected with the International Business Machine company, and has been making his home in Columbia for the past year.

Immediately after the ceremony, an informal reception was held, after which the young couple left for their wedding trip to Asheville, North Carolina, and Florida. When they return, they will make their home in the Davis Hotel apartments, Columbia.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Jones, Bristol, Tennessee; Miss Nancy Jo Williams, Miss Thelma Garvin, Clay Williamson and Tommie Hill, all of Columbia.

Children of Anna Smith and Lyman Fisher are:

- 7595 i. Michael Lee¹⁴ Fisher, born Aft. 1942. He married Susan M. Schlomer 16 Nov 1974.

Marriage Notes for Michael Fisher and Susan Schlomer:

Nov. 17, 1974 – White gladioli and fall colored chrysanthemums framed the altar in St. John the Baptist Catholic Church yesterday after for the wedding of Miss Susan M. Schlomer and Michael L. Fisher. The Rev. Earl Schmidt performed the double ring ceremony while Joyce Lane played a variety of modern songs before the Mass and the traditional wedding songs during the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Schlomer, 2007 South 16th Street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Fisher, Rt. 2, Vincennes.

Servers for the Mass were Cletus Yochum Jr., cousin of the bride, and Rick Snider, cousin of the bride. Attending the bride as her only attendant was Mrs. Thomas Fossmeier, sister of the bridegroom. Tiffany Schlomer, cousin of the bride, Holland, was flower girl. The matron of honor was attired in an orange bodice gown with a flowered gores skirt made of polyester crepe. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a bouquet of fall colored sweetheart roses and carnations. The flower girl was attired in a identical gown with a yellow bodice. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an acetate gown lavishly trimmed with cotton, nylon and rayon lace. The long-sleeved gown had a pleated, ruffled collar, cuffs and hemline accented with lace. The A-line skirt featured a full-length chapel train. An open front Camelot styled cap of cotton and nylon lace held her tree-tiered bouffant nylon tulle veil. She carried a Victorian bouquet of white roses, pompons and baby's breath.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Dave Fisher. Ushers were Robey Waldrup, Oaktown, cousin of the bride, and Lyman Fisher Jr., bridegroom's brother. Eric Newman, the bridegroom's nephew, was the ring bearer.

At the guest book was Miss Brenda Lee Lay, Rt. 5, and distributing rice bags was Miss Lisa Walker. Assisting with the reception in Flaget School Hall were Miss Sarah Sievers, cousin of the bride; Miss Annette Carie, and Miss Tammy Fisher, sister of the bridegroom.

The new Mrs. Fisher is a 1973 graduate of Lincoln High School and was employed at Willow Street Iga.

Mr. Fisher is a 1968 graduate of Lincoln High School and is employed with Petersburg Associates, Petersburg. Following a southern wedding trip the Fishers will reside Rt. 2, Vincennes.

- 7607 iv. Connie Lynn Catt, born 07 May 1962. She married Kyle Wayne Day 12 Mar 1982 in Mt. Carmel, Wabash Co, Illinois; born 14 Jul 1960 in Illinois.

Marriage Notes for Connie Catt and Kyle Day:

Miss Connie Lynn Catt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Catt, Mt. Carmel, became the bride of Kyle Wayne Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale C. Day, also of Mt. Carmel, on March 12, 1982. The couple exchanged vows in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Mt. Cannel, with Rev. J.C. Greer officiating the double-ring rites. The church was decorated with pink, white and burgundy flowers amidst a candlelight background. Mrs. Marcia Hall provided pre-nuptial musical selections. As the guests assembled, Mrs. Hall played "Longer," followed by the traditional wedding march as the bride entered on the arm of her father.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white polyester organza. The lace bodice, enhanced with seed pearls, featured an exquisite reembroidered scalloped neckline, stand-up collar, and high-rise waistline. The bishop sleeves were gathered in deep cuffs. Lace trimmed the flounced skirt and hem of the sweeping chapel-length train. The bride wore a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls that secured a chapel-length veil of nylon illusion edged in matching lace. She carried a silk arrangement of white, pink and burgundy flowers with matching streamers. The bride's sister, Mrs. Lori Kroll, was the matron of honor. She wore a dusty rose full-length sheath with a cape which was gathered at the shoulders, and carried a bouquet of white, pink and burgundy flowers with matching streamers. The groom and his best man, Kevin Williams, wore silver tuxedos with burgundy silk rose boutonnieres. Tanya Nettleton, sister of the groom, registered the guests.

A reception followed the ceremony, attended by the couple's immediate family and close friends. The bridal table, covered with white satin and a lace overlay, was centered with a white tiered wedding cake with two heart-shaped side cakes. The cake was adorned with pink and burgundy flowers and topped with a pink, white and burgundy flower arrangement. Servers were Angie Catt, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Patty Legg and Mrs. Kay White, aunts of the groom.

7608 v. Brian Everett Catt, born 07 Aug 1974 in Mt. Carmel, Wabash Co, Illinois.

Notes for Brian Everett Catt:

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Catt, RR 4, Mt. Carmel, announce the birth of a son, Brian Everett, born August 7, 1974, and weighing 5 pounds 14 ounces. He is welcomed at home by Lori Ann, Conie Lynn and James Harold. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Given, Lincoln Park, Michigan, and Mrs. Frank Catt, St. Francisville.

Brian E. Catt - The facts most favorable to the non-movant reveal that during the early morning of May 18, 1995, an abnormally heavy rainstorm occurred in Harrison Township, Knox County, Indiana. As a result of the heavy rainfall, there was severe flooding throughout Knox County and a number of culverts were washed away. One of these culverts was located on County Road 200 East.

That morning, Catt, a high school student, left his house to take a shower at his aunt's house before going to school. To get to his aunt's house, Catt utilized County Road 200 East. On route to his aunt's house, Catt crossed a bridge and traveled up a hill. As he drove down the hill, his car slid on mud into a ditch where a culvert had existed before it had been washed away by the heavy rainfall. See footnote A twelve-foot gap existed in the road where the culvert had previously existed. As a result of the accident, Catt was injured.

On November 18, 1996, Catt filed a complaint against Knox County alleging that he was injured due to Knox County's negligence. On June 24, 1999, Knox County filed a motion for summary judgment claiming that it was statutorily immune under the Indiana Tort Claims Act from Catt's claims of negligence. Following a hearing, the trial court granted summary judgment in favor of Knox County.

Marriage Notes for Dennis Ellermann and Barbara Garnett:

A double ring ceremony was read for Miss Barbara Ann Garrett and Dennis W. Ellerman on Saturday Sept. 9, 1967. Rev. Jesse Dunn officiated for the wedding held in Evangelical United Brethren Church in Casey, Illinois. The bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Garrett of Route 2, Casey, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold A. Ellerman of Route 4, Vincennes. The church was decorated with white gladioli and pink carnations. Deanne Henseik, organist, accompanied the soloist, Gretchen Gines.

Mr. Garrett gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was fashioned of silk organza and Chantilly lace. The bodice was styled with bridal point sleeves, a scalloped square neckline, and a natural waistline. The full skirt, edged with lace scallops, revealed a lace underskirt in the front panel. A chapel train fell from the shoulders. A petal headpiece secured the bouffant veil. Her flowers were crescent, white pom pons, pink sweetheart roses, and ivy.

Her attendants were Miss Marlene O'Dell, maid of honor, and Charlotte Hurt and Connie Biggs, bridesmaids. Their dresses were in shades of pink, fitted at the sides and featuring back flares. They carried cascades of white pompons. Larry Ellerman was best man. Groomsmen were Walter Ellerman and Gene Leisman. John Laue and John Buchhorn seated the guests.

A reception was held in the church basement immediately following the ceremony. The bridal colors of shades of pink were carried out in the decorations. The bride is a graduate of Lockyear's Business College. She is employed at American National Bank. The bridegroom, a graduate of Bramwell's Business College in Evansville, is employed by E. Bierhaus & Sons. The bride's traveling dress for the wedding trip to Missouri was an orange and yellow print in an A-line style. Her accessories were brown. The couple is residing on Route 4, Vincennes.

Marriage Notes for David Kutter and Marcia Bolds:

The Rev. Earl Schmidt, performing the double ring ceremony, heard the marriage vows of Miss Marcia Sue Bolds and David Lee Kutter on June 27, 1970 at 2 o'clock at St. John's Catholic Church. The altar was decorated with arrangements of white and lavender gladioli and pink carnations. Miss Joyce Lane was organist; Mrs. Robert Kaiser sang bridal airs. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William E. Felton of 1701 Mentor St. and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Kutter of 1802 Indiana Ave.

Miss Joanne Felton was her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. Kenneth Pickard of Danville, Illinois, and the groom's sister, Mrs. John Kiger, were bridesmatrons. William E. Kutter was his brother's best man. Two brothers-in-law, Claude E. Morris and John Kiger, were groomsmen, with William Surall and Tom Richardville seating the guests. Tommy Joe Morris was ring bearer. Miss Felton's lavender satin floor-length gown was fashioned with flared sleeves trimmed with lavender lace. The bridesmatrons were dressed in gowns identical to Miss Felton's, with Mrs. Kiger in medium pink and Mrs. Pickard in light pink. Each wore a matching veil and carried a nosegay of multicolor carnations and feathered white carnations.

For her wedding, the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a modified empire silhouette gown of hand dipped Chantilly lace Dulcet satin created with a lace bodice designed with scalloped high neck and long nouveau sleeves. Lace motifs enhanced the satin A-line skirt, and two bows topped the full sweep satin and lace chapel train. A floral head- piece secured her veil, and she carried a cascade of white roses, white carnations and white feathered carnations with ivy.

Assisting at the reception following in St. John's School Hall were Mesdames Claude Morris and William Kutter, and the Misses Marilyn Lane, Linda Ferguson and Cheryl Morris.

Mrs. Kutter, a member of the church in which she was married, is a Lincoln High School graduate employed with Indiana Bell. Kutter, a member of Sacred Heart parish, is a Central Catholic graduate. He served four years with the US Navy and is employed with Packaging Corporation of America. For a Western wedding trip, the bride chose a lavender traveling costume. After July 17, they will reside in Vincennes.

Marriage Notes for Paul Catt and Deborah Biddle:

Pink, yellow. and green gladioli, candelabra and palms decorated First Church of God yesterday afternoon for the three o'clock wedding of Miss Deborah June Biddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Biddle, Rt. 3, Vincennes, and Paul Eugene Catt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Catt, Rt. 1, Decker. The Rev. Jerry Brandon, assisted by the Rev. Ralph Walters, officiated at the double-ring ceremony at which the bride was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. John Spayd was organist and Mrs. Steve Siner the pianist. Conway Wilson was soloist.

Miss Delaine Biddle, Indianapolis, was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Sue Ann Ruble; the junior bridesmaids were Miss Kelley Peters and Miss Jodie Peters, Streamwood, Illinois, nieces of the bride; and the flower girl was another niece, Miss Heather Peters, also of Streamwood. The maid of honor and the flower girl wore identical princess gowns of sheer rose design over pastel pink. Miss Ruble's gown was pastel yellow, and the junior bridesmaids wore pastel green. Their flowers were pink, yellow and green feathered carnations, pompons and baby breath, and each wore in her hair some of the same flowers.

The bride's gown, which she designed and made, was of white organza over polyester. Lace adorned the bodice and the slightly flared skirt that had a pink under-ruffle. The chapel length veil of silk illusion was secured by an arrangement of sweetheart roses and gardenias. She carried an arrangement of white gardenias, pink sweetheart roses, baby breath and ivy.

Neil Catt, Rt. 1, Decker, was his brother's best man. Also attending the bridegroom were John Catt and Jerry Catt, both of Evansville, who also are his brothers; and Vernon Daub, Evansville. Darryl Benefiel, Evansville, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring-bearer, and the ushers were Jim Peters, Streamwood, Illinois, and Dick Johnson, Springfield, Illinois.

A reception in the First Church of God Fellowship Hall followed the ceremony. Mrs. James Peters, the bride's sister, Mrs. Donald Siewers and Miss Gayle Buesher served at the reception, while Mrs. Vernon Daub was at the guest book. The rehearsal dinner was held Saturday evening at St. Peter's Lutheran Fellowship Hall. Following a wedding trip to St. Louis, the couple will reside on Rt. 22, Terre Haute. A graduate of South Knox High School, Vincennes University and Indiana State University from which she holds a BS degree in home economics, the bride has been employed at Johnson's Booterie. Mr. Catt, who also is a South Knox graduate, graduated from Indiana State with a BA in chemistry and is employed at TSC in Terre Haute while he works on his Master's degree.

- 7732 v. Bradley Catt, born 01 Sep 1961 in Vincennes, Knox Co, Indiana.

Notes for Bradley Catt:

Dec. 14, 1997 - Once among the most powerful men in Indiana's courts system, the former criminal prosecutor in Knox County will hear from his own deceived victims for the first time when he is sentenced at the end of this week. Bradley J. Catt, who resigned in disgrace last year, pleaded guilty this summer to 19 felony charges of theft and forgery. He has publicly admitted embezzling nearly $1.5 million from clients of his private law practice between 1992 and 1996. That amount includes $671,126 - fully two-thirds of $1 million - still missing. But until Catt arrives in the courtroom in southwestern Indiana on Friday for sentencing, he will never have been asked to listen as his victims explained how his greed has affected their lives. Among the stolen money never recovered is nearly $400,000 owed to Jean Margotte of Bicknell, paralyzed in a car accident in 1995. Her family needed the cash from the insurance settlement to buy a van with a wheelchair lift, and a house more accessible for her wheelchair. The missing money also includes $57,883 owed to a young girl attacked by a dog when she was 2 years old. Her mother had planned to use the money, also from an insurance settlement, to pay for the girl's surgeries. Until now, Catt's victims have largely been silent players in the bizarre case. The judge will hear their stories before sentencing Catt, who faces a maximum of up to 82 years in prison and a $190,000 fine. "It's entirely up to the judge's discretion," said Robert Pigman, the special prosecutor from Vanderburgh County handling the case against Catt. "In a case like this, a judge has spent a great deal of time thinking about what he or she is going to do. The basic structure of this sentence I'm sure will be pretty thoroughly thought out before." The judge also could order Catt to repay his victims. But court officials said it's unlikely he'll ever be able, and Margotte's husband has been told there's "no chance" the family ever will see its money. "It's one thing to read on a piece of paper that the Margottes got swindled out of $400,000," said Pigman. "It's another thing to see Jean Margotte sitting there in her wheelchair." Catt was a rising political star in Vincennes, elected prosecutor in 1994 on a platform of personal integrity. At one point he and other lawyers shared an office with John Gregg, currently Indiana's Speaker of the House, though the two had no business association. Legal experts have called the charges against Catt among the most serious in recent history levied against any of Indiana's 90 criminal prosecutors. At the hearing this summer when Catt pleaded guilty to the state felony charges, he said he began stealing money from clients in 1992 because "I was in a bind" financially. "I think if you examine where the money went, you'll see the majority of it went for office expenses, and I took some trips," Catt told Special Judge Elaine Elliott of Dubois County, who will sentence Catt on Friday. Police said Catt spent much of the stolen money on a visit to the exclusive Canyon Club Hotel in Palm Springs, California, and to Las Vegas, Puerto Rico and South America. Catt, who remains under house arrest at the home of his mother and stepfather in Vincennes, won't talk about the charges. But did write a letter last month to his local newspaper apologizing "to all of the victims of my crimes." "I alone am responsible for my actions, and I accept the consequences for my actions," Catt wrote. Shortly after his guilty plea to the state charges of theft and forgery, Catt also admitted to two counts of federal bank fraud. He agreed to repay two banks for cashing checks worth $41,400 and $70,480 on accounts that never contained more than a few thousand dollars. U.S. District Judge John Tinder sentenced Catt last week to 18 months in federal prison, plus five years probation. He will serve his federal term concurrent with any state prison sentence. The judge said he was outraged by Catt's crimes. "In our society, we encourage people to place trust in lawyers, to place trust in public officials, especially prosecutors," he said. "You have done everything you can to dismantle that trust, and that's a tragic, tragic thing." Lawsuits filed by those banks were among three civil lawsuits that first brought Catt's legal problems to the public's eye. Catt disappeared in August 1996 from his office - shortly after those first lawsuits were filed - and wasn't found until a week later, when he was seriously burned in a suspicious car fire near Bloomington.

- 7775 i. Regina Ann¹⁴ McCord, born 15 Feb 1960 in Indiana. She married Mark Anthony Raney 27 Jan 1979; born 11 Dec 1955.

Marriage Notes for Regina McCord and Mark Raney:

Regina Ann McCord and Mark Anthony Raney were wed in a double ring ceremony, Jan. 27, 1979 at 1:00 p.m. in the Maria Creek Chapel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce N. McCord of Vincennes. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Raney of Decker. The Rev. Donald Whitlow officiated, and music was provided by Mrs. Beverly Rusk, organist, and Melvin McCord, the bride's cousin, vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white sate peau gown featuring a Queen Anne neckline outlined with Venice lace. Lace appliques adorned the fitted bodice and encircled the arched empire-waistline. Long tapered sleeve were enhanced by a deep double flounce at the wrist. An A-line skirt swept into a chapel train with a double flounce encircling the hemline. A caplet of lace and pearls, forming a petal design, held the bride's double-tiered, silk illusion veil with scalloped embroidered edging and dainty embroidered daisies. Mr. Raney also wore a diamond necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a silk cascade of white roses, white carnations, and pink and burgundy sweetheart roses.

The bride's attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Debbie McCord, maid of honor; Miss Marilyn Raney, the bridegroom sister from Decker; Miss Tina Reitmeyer and Miss Rosalie McCord, the bride's cousin and Mrs. Stephen Andrews, the bridegroom's sister, bridesmaids. Miss Krissy Wood, the bride's cousin from Pacific, Missouri, was a junior bridesmaid, and Miss Tracy Westfall, the bride's cousin was flower girl. The bridesmaids wore alternating pink and burgundy gowns made of luster glow knit and fashioned with a shirred bodice and string traps. The arched empire waistline accented the full A-line skirt. A full-length coat with front buttons and fur-trimmed hood added a look of elegance. The bridesmaids carried single long-stemmed silk roses, alternating pink and burgundy with the opposite color of dresses. The bridegroom's attendants included: the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Steven Andrews, best man; David McCord, the bride's cousin, Joe Raney from Georgia, the bridegroom's cousin, Roger Windell from New Albany, and Lloyd McCord, the bride's cousin, groomsmen. Terry Deeley, the bride's cousin, was junior groomsman. Mitch Westfall, cousin of the bride, were ushers. The chapel was decorated with pink nap dragon pink and burgundy carnations, and ferns.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Maria Creek Chapel Social Room with Miss Anita Wilson of Wheatland, the bridegroom cousin, a registrar. Miss Sandy Crawford, Miss Rhonda Harbin and Miss Trudie Smith served at the reception. After a wedding trip to the South, the couple will reside in Decker. Mrs. Raney is a 1978 graduate of Lincoln High School. Her husband is also a 1978 graduate of LHS and is currently employed in a farming partnership with his father.

Marriage Notes for Jackie Shawhan and David Hasenour:

Holy Family Catholic Church in Jasper was arranged with white baskets of Fuji mums, carnations and cushion mums, a fireside basket in shades of blue and baskets of ferns as Jackie K. Shawhan became the bride of David L. Hasenour. The Rev. Dick Wildeman officiated at the 12:30 p.m. double ring ceremony on Saturday, June 22, 1985. White ribbons were draped across the aisle with white bows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hildebrand of Holland and the late Frank Shawhan. Mr. Hasenour's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hasenour of Jasper. Organist Carol Mullen accompanied Teri Droege and Andy Mullen as they sang "Time in a Bottle," "To Me," "Can't Help Falling in Love," "Wedding Song" and "Prayer of St. Francis." The offertory gifts were taken up by Carolyn Moore, sister of the bride, and Betty Messmer, sister of the bridegroom. Lectors were Ann Hasenour, sister of the bridegroom, and Ken Merten, a friend. Balloons were passed out by Stacy Moore of Jasper and Todd Erwin of Evansville, nephews of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Tony Shawhan. She wore a formal white gown of peauganza and Alencon lace. The gown featured a high Alencon lace, beaded neckline long leg-of-mutton sleeves with double flounces of crystal-pleated peauganza at the elbows and a molded, elongated bodice encrusted with Alencon lace, pearl scrolls and scattered iridescents. The full skirt had a scroll design of beaded Alencon lace and a double flounce of pleated peauganza, a hemline border of lace and a semi-cathedral-length train. A cavalier bat was encrusted with Alencon lace and a double ruffle of pleated fabric and held a fingertip veil of sheer silk illusion. The bride carried a white cascade bouquet of calla lilies, ivy, gypsophila and lace ribbon.

Maid of honor was Susan McCubbin of Louisville, a friend of the bride. Also attending the bride were Gaella Shawhan of Holland, sister-in-law of the bride; Nancy Baer of Jasper and Donna Roesner of Huntingburg, friends; and Ruth Helmerich of Louisville, sister of the bridegroom. Flower girls were Tara Helmerich, niece and godchild of the bridegroom, and Breanne McCubbin, friend of the bride, both of Louisville. They wore royal blue matte taffeta gowns with fitted, natural waistlines, vee necklines, pouf sleeves and elongated, tiered peplums caught up at the side waist-lines. The circular skirts were floor-length. Matching royal blue silk flowers and pearl filaments were worn in the hair. The bridesmaids carried white cascade bouquets of orchids, air fern and stephanotis. The flower girls carried red and white rose petals.

Mr. Hasenour chose a friend, Roman Bentrup Jr. of Jasper, as best man. Groomsmen were Rick Helmerich of Louisville, a brother-in-law, and Ed Sander and Tom Wilz of Jasper and Tom Voegler of Ferdinand, friends. Tab Erwin of Evansville, nephew of the bride, and Mark Messmer of Jasper, nephew of the bridegroom, seated the guests. Ring bearer was Chris Helmerich of Louisville, nephew of the bridegroom. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hildebrand wore a floor-length silver grey gown. Mrs. Hasenour wore a floor-length rose gown. They had corsages of white orchids with lace ribbon.

A reception was held at Burton's caper House in Huntingburg. Debbie Staggs, Indianapolis, and Cindy Eskew, Evansville, friends, registered guests. After a wedding trip to Hawaii and San Francisco, California, the couple is at home at 675 Giesler Road, Jasper. The bride was graduated from Southport High School and Indiana College of Business, both in Indianapolis. She is employed by Dyer Enterprises Inc., Huntingburg. Mr. Hasenour is a graduate of Jasper High School and Oakland City College Vo-Tech. He is employed by Jasper Beverage Co.

Marriage Notes for Betty Loveless and Mason Rust:

Owensville, June 25, 1955 - Before an altar banked with palms, ferns and standards of pink and white carnations, and accented with burning white with burning white cathedral tapers in two seven branched candelabras, Miss Betty Loveless became the bride of Mason Rust. The Rev. Charles Kruger, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Cynthiana, officiated at the double ring ceremony Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, June 18, 1955 in the General Baptist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Loveless and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Rust of Cynthiana. Mrs. Chester Braselton played a program of nuptial airs including: "The Desert Song," "Gypsy Love Song," "Always," "I Love You Truly," "Taumerei," "Prayer Perfect," and the traditional wedding march. Ray Winkler of Cynthiana sang "O Promise Me" "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a lace and net over taffeta gown, with fitted bodice and long sleeves which ended in bridal points over the hands. The scoop d neckline was decorated with lace flowers centered with rhinestones. The bouffant skirt ended in a chapel train. The gown was designed by Mrs. R.W. Garrett. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet Cap of lace. Her only adornment was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white orchid nested in white satin ribbon on top of a white Bible borrowed from Phyllis Holder. A shower of rose buds was tied in the streamers.

Miss Janin Garrett was the maid of honor and she wore a lime-colored ballerina length net over taffeta gown, fashioned with off the shoulder neckline edged with net ruffling, the fitted bodice was of lace and formed a pointed yoke it the very full net tiered skirt line. Her headdress was a circlet of white flowers. She carried a nosegay of pink carnation accented with lull bows. The flower girl, Brenda Lou Hill of Petersburg, cousin of the bride, wore an orchid tulle gown over taffeta and wore a floral headband and carried a basket of pink carnations. J.P. Williams was the best man and Harvey Moore, a cousin of the bride, and Kenny Scott of Cynthiana were ushers. The ring bearer was Tommy Foster of Poseyville. The bride's mother wore a printed big frock with black and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Rust, the bridegroom's mother, wore a white linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a large three-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink roses and hearts and was topped with a miniature bride and groom and was surrounded with pink carnations, flanked at either side by pink and white tapers in silver holders. The pink and white color scheme was used also in the mints, napkins and room decorations. Assisting in the serving were Misses Bonnie Lucas, Sharon Mauck and Shirley Smith. Miss Sharon Loveless, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book. For traveling, Mrs. Rust chose a printed cotton costume with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. After a short trip to the Smokies, Mr. and Mrs. Rust will be at home in their apartment in Cynthiana. Mrs. Rust graduated from Owensville High School and attended Lockyears. Mr. Rust graduated from Cynthiana High School and is employed in Evansville.

Miss Marlene Kay Butler, of Rt. 4, Vincennes, Indiana, and Charles Fred Martin, of Martinsville, were married on Sunday, Nov. 8, 1959 in St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Vincennes, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Andrew Buehner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Icel Butler, of Rt. 4, Vincennes, Indiana, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Martin, of Fort Branch, Indiana. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Betty Ellerman, vocal soloist, who was accompanied by Miss Bernice Rehwold.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore gown of white lace, featuring a Queen Anne collar sprinkled with sequins. The bodice was high, lighted by soft folds of tulle and long lace sleeves, which ended the traditional bridal points. The skirt fell in soft folds of lace, which swept into a chapel length train. Her veil pure silk illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins and formed a pill box in the back. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Maid of Honor was the bride's sister, Miss Rose Ella Butler. Other bridal attendants were Mrs. Tipton Agee, of Rt. 1, Decker, Indiana, and Miss Connie Joan Butler, of Rt. 4, Vincennes, Indiana, both sisters of the bride. Douglas McConnell, of Evansville, Indiana, was best man. Groomsmen were Charles Strong, of Evansville, Indiana, and Don Goodaker, of Henderson, Kentucky. Ushers were Ronald Butler and Ralph Butler, of Rt. 4, Vincennes, cousins of the bride. The bride's mother wore a royal blue knit dress with matching accessories and a corsage of fall flowers. The groom's mother wore a royal blue wool dress with matching accessories and a corsage of fall flowers.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church social hall. After the reception, the couple departed for Virginia. For traveling the bride wore a green and black wool dress with matching accessories. They are making their home in Martinsville. Mrs. Martin is a graduate of Decker High School, and Protestant Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing. She has been employed at the hospital since graduation. Mr. Martin is alumnus of Boonville High School and is chief photographer for the Martinsville

Bulletin.

- 7846 ii. Rose Ella Butler, born Nov 1939 in Vincennes, Knox Co, Indiana. She married Gary Gillespie 07 Jun 1964.

Marriage Notes for Rose Butler and Gary Gillespie:

Miss Rose Ella Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Icel Butler, Route 4, Vincennes, became the bride of Gary Dale Gillespie in a double ring ceremony last Sunday afternoon June 7, 1964 at 2:30 o'clock in St. Peter Lutheran Church. Rev. Paul Albers officiated. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Wanda Gillespie, 1208 Upper 11th Street, Vincennes, and Ralph Gillespie of Lawrenceville. Mrs. Bernice Schenk was organist, Mrs. Ruby Tate soloist. Mr. Butler gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Charles Martin, matron of honor, and Mrs. Joel Agee, bridesmaid, wore pink linen dresses with sheer collars and detachable sleeves. On their heads they wore clusters of flowers, matching their dresses, with nose length veils. Their flowers were cascade arrangement of red roses with sparkle tulle. The bride wore silk organza accented with Alencon lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a sabrina neckline of lace which extended into the front of the bodice and the bridal point sleeves. Hip panels of lace and lace appliques trimmed the front of the skirt. The back, highlighted with rows of ruffles, ended in a chapel sweep. The bridal bouquet carried on a white Bible held stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Georgia Gillespie, the bridegroom's sister was flower girl. The bridegroom's best man was his brother, Doug Gillespie. Joel Agee was groomsman.

A reception was held in the parish hall. On the wedding trip the bride wore a pink and white frock with white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. Mrs. Gillespie is a member of the church from which she was married and is employed at J.C.I Penney's. Her husband is employed at Robert Hall's in Evansville.

3730. Inez Lucille¹³ Butler (Rosetta¹² Catt, Martin VanBuren¹¹, Jacob Pea¹⁰, George W.⁹, George W.⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 16 Apr 1916 in Knox Co, Indiana, and died 30 Dec 2016 in Ft. Wayne, Allen Co, Indiana. She married Wilhelm Heinrich Enos Froeschke. He was born 11 Sep 1914, and died Dec 1998 in Knox Co, Indiana.

Notes for Inez Lucille Butler:

Inez Lucille Butler Froeschke, age 100, died peacefully on Friday, December 30, 2016 surrounded by family at her daughter's home in Ft. Wayne, Indiana. The seventh of nine children, Lucille was born April 16, 1916, south of Vincennes, Indiana to parents Tom and Rose Etta Catt Butler. Lucille and her husband William (Bill) Froeschke first met on the school bus, and married March 27, 1935. They raised four children and celebrated 63 years of marriage. Together, they farmed ground south of Vincennes for 45+ years, transitioning from horses to tractors in the early 1950s, and raising watermelons, cantaloupes, tomatoes, cucumbers, cabbage, and sweet potatoes. During the WWII war years, Lucille also worked at the parachute factory and Reynolds. She began school at Decker School, Decker, Indiana, and attended Freelon School and Beach Hills School near Monroe City. She moved around Knox County where her father farmed and worked the oil fields. Lucille was confirmed at St. Peters Lutheran Church, where she was a lifetime member and very active. She and two other members started the hot-lunch program at St. Peters, and took turns preparing meals for the students. She was always involved in the annual St. Peter's picnic where fricassee is cooked in outdoor kettles. She was able to attend the picnic in October to supervise just a little, and she loved visiting with everyone there, although she could no longer stir the pot. She was also an avid euchre player until failing eyesight prevented her from seeing the cards. After Bill died, she was fortunate to spend winters in Arizona, first with her sister Velma Hess in Carefree, and later with her son Joe and his family in Mesa. She continued to live in her farmhouse on Old Decker Road until age 98, when she went to Ft. Wayne to live with Dixie and Jim.

Lucille is survived by her youngest sister, Nellie McRae of Winter Haven, Florida, and children Dixie

Sue Froeschke Croxton and her husband James; Frederick Lee and wife Judy Ann; and David Joe and wife Wilma. She was preceded in death by husband William, December, 1998, and son William Thomas (spouse Judy Kay survives) in 1994, as well as her brothers Herschel, Marlin, and Icel, and sisters Flossie and Velma. Lucille is also survived by 11 grandchildren, 25 great grandchildren, 12 great-great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews with her family extending across the country from coast to coast in FL, NC, VA, TN, IN, MI, AZ, and OR. Lucille loved her family dearly, and she was an icon to her family, extended family, church, friends, and community. She was much loved. She was a wonderful wife, mother, aunt, and grandmother, and she will be sadly missed.

Visitation is Friday, January 6, from 4-8 pm at Goodwin Funeral Home, 524 Broadway, in Vincennes. Funeral services will be held at St. Peters Lutheran Church, 6990 S. Decker Road, Vincennes on Saturday, January 7, at 11:00 am with Pastor Nathan Rastl officiating. Friends may also visit with Lucille's family from 10:00 am until the hour of service time of 11:00 am on Saturday at the church. Burial at St. Peters Cemetery, followed by lunch at the St. Peters Parish Hall. Memorials may be made to St. Peters Lutheran Church or Visiting Nurse Hospice, 5910 Homestead Road, Fort Wayne, Indiana 46804-4202

Notes for Lawrence Aaron Black:

Lawrence Aaron Black, 95, of Oakland City, died at 9:50 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 28, 2004 at his home. He was born near the Claybank community, in Pike County, on July 13, 1909. He graduated from Oakland City High School in 1927 and attended Lockyear's Business College, Indiana University and Oakland City College. He received an honorary doctor of humanities degree in 1991 from Oakland City University. He married Mary Alice Penner on Aug. 31, 1932, in Paris, Ill. They lived all of their married lives in and near Oakland City. They celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary this past August and she preceded him in death nine days earlier on Nov. 19, 2004. Mr. Black was stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky, while serving in the U.S. Army from 1945-46. Together Mr. and Mrs. Black owned and managed Black's Department Store, on Main Street in Oakland City, until 1958 when Mr. Black started farming full-time. Mr. Black retired from farming in 1983.

Mr. Black was an active member of the First General Baptist Church of Oakland City since 1932. He served as deacon, Sunday school teacher and Sunday school superintendent. He also helped with many of the church's building projects and served on many boards, and committees for the local church, and the General Association of General Baptists. Mr. Black served on the East Gibson School Board from 1981-88. He also served on the Columbia Township Advisory Board and the General Baptist Nursing Home Board. He was a member of the Farm Bureau and the Oakland City Kiwanis Club. He was instrumental in the establishment of the Chapman Seminary at Oakland City University, in memory of for former pastor and college president, Onis G. Chapman and his wife.

Besides his wife he was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Eliza Black; two sisters, Minnie Corne and Dora Dyer; and two brothers, Ronald and Harry Black. He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Judy and Jerry Phillips, of Oakland City; two granddaughters and their husbands, Robin and Roger Sermersheim, of Oakland City, and Barbara and Scott Watson, of Evansville; six great-grandchildren, Ryan, Regan and Randa Sermersheim, and Nathan, Abigail and Isaac Watson; and a sister-in-law, Sadie Black, of Oakland City. Deep appreciation is expressed by the family to special caregivers Dottie Anderson, Brenda Koelling, Charlotte Riddle, Bettye Benjamin, Sue Horrell, Ruth Nimal and Bobbie Kell.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at the First General Baptist Church, in Oakland City, with burial in Montgomery Cemetery. Dr. Rodney Walls will officiate. Friends may visit with the family from 4-8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 30 at Corn-Colvin Funeral Home and from 8 a.m. until service time at the church Wednesday. Memorial contributions may be made to the First General Baptist Church of Oakland City or the OCU Chapman Seminary.

Notes for Mary Alice Penner:

Mary Alice Black, 91, of Oakland City, died Friday, Nov. 19, 2004, at her home. Mrs. Black was born in Oakland City, April 3, 1913, grew up and attended school in Princeton, Indiana, and attended high school in Rockford, Illinois. She was married to Lawrence A. Black of Oakland City on Aug. 31, 1932, in Paris, Illinois. Together they owned and managed Black's Department Store in Oakland City until 1958, when Mr. Black started farming full-time. For many years, Mary Alice was an active member of the First General Baptist Church of Oakland City. She was formerly a Sunday school teacher, children's choir leader and member of the Searchlight Class, the Chancel Choir and the Ella C. Wheatley Women's Missionary Society of her church. She was also a member of the Busy Oaks Home-Ec Club. She was an excellent cook and loved to sew, sing, work crossword puzzles and entertain her grandchildren.

Mrs. Black was preceded in death by her parents, Everett and Emma Penner and her two brothers, H. Paul and Jack W. Penner. She is survived by her husband of 72 years, Lawrence A. Black, and their daughter and son-in-law, Judy and Jerry Phillips of Oakland City; two granddaughters and their husbands, Robin and Roger Sermersheim of Oakland City and Barbara and Scott Watson of Evansville; and six great-grandchildren, Ryan, Regan and Randa Sermersheim, and Nathan, Abigail and Isaac Watson.

Deep appreciation is expressed by the family for special caregivers, Dottie Anderson, Brenda Koelling, Charlotte Riddle, Betty Benjamin, Sue Horrell, Ruth Nimal and Bobbie Kell, and from the care provided by the Visiting Nurse Hospice. Funeral services will be 10 a.m. CST Wednesday, Nov. 24, at the First General Baptist Church in Oakland City, with burial in Montgomery Cemetery. Dr. Rodney Walls will officiate. - 7934 ii. Benny Fred Siegle, born 09 Jan 1950. He married Brenda Jo Gray 01 Nov 1969 in St. Francisville, Lawrence Co, Illinois; born in Indiana.

Marriage Notes for Benny Siegle and Brenda Gray:

Following a short wedding trip through Northern Illinois and Indiana the couple will make their home in Daleville, Indiana. Miss Brenda Jo Gray and Bennie F. Seigle were married at 1 o'clock on Nov. 1, 1969 in a double ring ceremony at the United Methodist Church in St. Francisville. Vows were exchanged before an altar of palms and candelabra with a center arrangement of red and white roses, with Rev. Harold Holliday officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernell Gray of St. Francisville and the grooms' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Steele, Jr, also of St. Francisville. Organ selections by Miss Lois McKelfresh preceded the ceremony. Miss Sherry Howard of Decatur sang "Today" and following the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a gown of silk peau de soi and alencon lace. The bodice was of lace trimmed with seed pearls. The A-line skirt was made with an over skirt of lace in a redin gote style, the long-lifted sleeves ended in a narrow band and bow of the peau de soi. The stand-up collar was of scalloped lace. The flowing train was of lace with a wide border of peau de soi and lace applique. Her tiara headpiece of aurora borealis beads and petals of lace trimmed in seed pearls, secured the veil. She carried a cascade of white carnations and rose buds. Attending the couple were Mrs. Karen Seiler, sister of the bride as Matron of Honor and Miss Shannon Gray a cousin of the bride as bridesmaid. They wore matching dresses of Azalia pink silk organza over taffeta. They were styled with empire waist and A-line skirts. The lone lull sleeves and waistline were accented with touches of silver. The back fell into a soft train. They wore matching veils secured to a flower head piece. They carried nosegays of pink and white carnation. The grooms' attendants included Arthur Jerome Stangle as beat man and Charles Burns as groomsman. Ushers were Bernell Gray, brother of the bride and Andrew Brian her cousin. Miss Lisa Le Grand scattered rose petals and the ring bearer was Ernest Hoh. Lisa was dressed identical to the matron of honor and bridesmaid.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. The bride's table was covered with white lace over pink. The five-tier cake decorated with pink roses was placed between silver candelabra with arrangements of pink and white roses. Serving the cake and punch were Mrs. Patsy Stangle, sister of the groom, Miss Sara Jean Pinkstaff and Miss Debbie Myers of Palestine. Attending the guest book was Miss Linda Schaeckel or Mt. Comfort, Indiana.

Brenda attended St. Francisville schools and Wabash Valley college. Bennie attended the St. Francisville High School and engaged in farming. Both attend the United Methodist Church. Following a short wedding trip they will make their home on R.R. St. Francisville. For going away Brenda wore a dress offered with white trim and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white rosebuds which was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white net and lace fashioned with a lace bodice and a full skirt. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a white Bible and yellow roses. Miss Janice Wheatley, sister of tire bride, and Mrs. John Luther of Hooper, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore orchid formal gowns with matching headdress and carried bouquets of carnations.

Mrs. Gerald Strand was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a yellow formal gown with matching headdress and carried a carnation bouquet. Ronnie Strand was flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown of white taffeta and net. Terry Loftis, a cousin of the groom, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit. Donald Thiel foldt served his brother as best man. Ushers were Darrell Kuhlman and Don Anderson, both of Herman. Mrs. Wheatley and Mrs. Thiel foldt, mothers of the bride and groom, wore navy blue sheer dress with white accessories. The bride, a 1952 graduate of Uehling high school, taught school the past year at District No. 67 near Uehling. The groom, a 1947 graduate of Herman high school, served two years in the U. S. Army.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony, with Andersons of Fremont in charge of the appointments. The four-tier wedding cake, lighted candles and bouquets of yellow roses graced the serving table. Mildred Wheatley of Hooper was in charge of the guest book. Misses Norma Liston and Janet Mattson were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. Stingard of Herman, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. George Olson of Concord, aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Mahlin Stewart of Waterbury cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Raymond Baker was hostess. Waitresses were Joyce Brokaw, Janet Enger; Mrs. Sterling Plugge, and Mrs. Delwin Nelson. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Kermit Meyer, Mrs. Ernest Uehling, Mrs. Roy Daubert, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. Maynard Engdahl and Mrs. Byron Bartling. Following a trip the young couple will make their home on a farm near Herman.

Chavis 01 Jul 1991 in Princeton, Gibson Co, Indiana; born 20 Sep 1967 in Indiana.

Marriage Notes for Elaine Barnett and Robert Snider:

April 22, 1977 - Mr. and Mrs. Ronald M. Barnett, Hazleton, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Elaine Marie, to Robert Brian Snider, son of Donna Sue Snider, Rt. 1, Decker, and Robert Snider, 2806 Elberta Drive. Miss Barnett will be a 1977 graduate from Princeton Community High School. Her fiancé is a 1975 graduate of South Knox High School and employed by Riley Equipment Sales in Bruceville. All friends and relatives are invited to attend the ceremony, on Aug. 13 at 8 p.m. at the Hazleton United Methodist Church.

Elaine Barnett of Hazelton became the bride of Robert Brian Snider, Rt. 1, Decker, in a double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. Saturday in Hazleton United Methodist Church. The Rev. Thomas Dugan officiated at an altar decorated with white gladioli and pink, blue and green carnations, ferns and candelabra. Mrs. Helen Donovan was organist and Donna Sue Snider sang. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Barnett of Hazleton. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Donna Sue Snider, Rt. 1, Decker, and Robert Snider, 2806 Elberta Drive, Vincennes.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white Chantilly lace. The dress had a lace-edged square neckline and long fitted sleeves with a ruffle over the hand. Ruffles of lace formed an apron effect on the full bouffant skirt and swept into a chapel-length train. Matching lace encircled the fingertip-length veil that was attached to a Juliet cap. She carried a spring bouquet of silk flowers.

Attending the bride were Terri Hart of Princeton, who was maid of honor; her cousin, Victoria Mallory of Hazleton, and the bridegroom's sister, Karen Snider of Decker. They wore identical gowns of dotted swiss in blue, pink and mint green, made with ruffle-edged scoop neckline, short puff sleeves and a full skirt edged in a wide ruffle. Each wore a white picture hat with a ribbon to match her dress and carried a nosegay of silk spring flowers with blue, pink, green and yellow streamers. LeeAnn Jones of Newport Richey, Florida, the bride's cousin, was flower girl, and another of her cousins, Anthony Watson of Vincennes, carried the rings.

Randy Young of Decker was best man. Also attending the bridegroom were the bride's brother, Chuck Barnett of Hazleton, and Robert Catt of Decker. The bride's brother, John Barnett of Hazleton, and Tom Olds of Princeton seated the wedding guests. The bride's cousin, Jincy Mallory, registered the guests. Serving at the reception, in the Hazleton Community Center, were Gayla Eubanks of Princeton, Mrs. Terry Catt of Hazleton and Miss Ingrid Schmidt of Princeton.

After the reception the couple left on their wedding trip, to Six Flag Over St. Louis. They will reside on Rt. 1, Decker. Mrs. Snider is a 1977 graduate of Princeton Community High School. Snider graduated in 1975 from South Knox High School and is employed by Riley Equipment Sales at Bruceville.

Notes for Myrna Marlene Cates:

Myrna Marlene Kimmel, 71, of Vincennes, Ind., born Nov. 12, 1937, in Monroe City, Ind., died Tuesday, Oct. 20, 2009, at Good Samaritan Hospital. Myrna, or Marlene, as she was known to everyone, was a 1955 graduate of Wheatland High School in Indiana, and following graduation, attended Vincennes University. In 1957, she began her career in finance with a job at General Finance. She later went on to manage Credit Thrift, and Personal Finance Co., retiring in 1996. She was a member of Central Church of Christ, Red Hat Society and the ABWA. She volunteered for the American Cancer Society, worked with Relay for Life, and started the Reach for Recovery program for breast cancer patients at Good Samaritan Hospital. She loved to travel and would "shop till she dropped". Marlene never met a stranger and always had a smile, even through her illness, until she passed away. She will be sadly missed by her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Billy Bruce Kimmel, whom she married Oct. 20, 1962; parents, William and Thelma, nee Evans, Cates; a brother, Roger Cates; a brother-in-law, Michael R. Lynch; and a nephew, Steven M. Lynch.

Surviving are a sister, Carolyn Lynch of Carlyle, Illinois; a brother, Keith (Barbara) Cates of Washington, Indiana; a nephew, Robert (Jill) Cates; four nieces, Aubrey Cates, Alexandra Cates, Addison Cates and Dianne Van Coria; two aunts, Ginny Evans and Bessie Biggs; an uncle, Bob (Delores) Evans; and many nieces and nephews on the Kimmel side of the family. Also by many cousins and many friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Relay For Life, ABWA College Fund, American Heart Association, American Lung Association, American Kidney Foundation, or the charity of the donor's choice.

Notes for John Arthur Colvin:

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the Morrison Baptist Church for John A. Colvin, 72, who died Tuesday April 23, 1946 at his home in Morrison. Burial was in the Morrison cemetery. The Pawnee Masonic lodge held services at the grave.

Colvin A. Morrison merchant, was born August 14, 1873, in Missouri. He was married in 1900 at Morrison to Lillie May Hull. They lived in Morrison a number of years before moving to Stillwater, but in 1920 returned to Morrison. He first settled in Noble County in 1893 and had served several terms as mayor of Morrison. He was a member of the Baptist church and the Masonic lodge.

Survivors include the widow and two sons, Jack of Tulsa and Gut of Austin, Texas; two daughters, Mrs. E.B. Jones of Tulsa and Mrs. Inez Colvin of Stillwater; six sisters, Mrs. Guy Goffman, Mrs. Abe Kent, Mrs. Jesse James, Mrs. Rose McAinsty, all of Morrison, Mrs. Jim Cavin of Afton and Mrs. Dennis Chastain of Lewis, Colorado.

Marriage: 12 Dec 1900, Noble Co, Oklahoma

Children of Lillie Hull and John Colvin are:

- 8108 i. Inez Fern¹⁴ Colvin, born 08 Aug 1902 in Oklahoma; died 01 Feb 1998 in Oklahoma.
- 8109 ii. Jewell Imogene Colvin, born 25 Aug 1906 in Morrison, Noble Co, Oklahoma; died 10 Nov 1978 in Tulsa, Tulsa Co, Oklahoma. She married Evan Bryson Jones 03 Dec 1927 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co, Oklahoma; born 12 Jun 1905 in Carrollton, Carroll Co, Georgia; died 04 Nov 1973 in Tulsa, Tulsa Co, Oklahoma.

Notes for Jewell Imogene Colvin:

Feb. 28, 1923 - Miss Jewel Imogene Colvin is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Colvin. She was born in Morrison and with the exception of a brief stay in Colorado, and two years in Stillwater, has resided here. Miss Colvin is a titan blond, blue-eyes, has a small and determined mouth. She has an abundance of curly, bobbed hair that is very becoming. She is medium in height, slender and active. This girl would much prefer to hear flattery and is very sensitive about hearing the truth about herself. Although quick tempered and hasty with her speech, she does not lose her friends for she quick witted and ready to forget and forgive and seems incapable of holding a grudge, or seeing any but the sunny side of life.

She ranks fair in her studies, and takes an active part in school activities. She belongs to the Glee Club, the J.B. Club and represents the school in basketball, making her letter in '23 and '24. She is also good in tennis and is a fancy swimmer and diver. Jewel is plain spoken, a willing helper, and has horror of cold, snobbish persons, grouches or pessimists. She is always well dressed, neat and takes pride in her personal appearance. Her ambition is to be a teacher.

Notes for Evan Bryson Jones:

June 6, 1972 - Evan Bryson Jones, former head of four Tulsa Masonic organizations, has been awarded the Knight of the York Cross Honor, the highest honorary degree in the York Rite of Freemasonry. The award, one of about 400 presented earlier this month, was confirmed by Stanley Wakefield, grand register-general of the Convent General Knights of York Cross of Honor, Hastings-on-Hudson, New York.

Jones, of 9149 E. 37th Court, was master of Delta Masonic Lodge here in 1961; high priest of Tulsa Chapter, Royal Arch Masons in 1969; master of Tulsa Council, Royal and Select Masters in 1971 and also command of Trinity Commandery, Knights Templar last year.

Services for Evan B. Jones, 68, former head of four Tulsa Masonic organizations, are scheduled at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Stanleys Memorial Chapal. Burial will be in Floral Haven Memorial Garden. Jones, retired Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. employe, died Sunday Nov. 4, 1973 following an apparent heart attack at home 9149 E. 37th Court. A resident here since 1930, he retired in 1966 after 37 years with Bell. In 1972 he was awarded the Knight of the York Cross highest honorary degree in the York Rite of Freemasonry. He had been master of Delta Masonic Lodge No. 425 high priest of Tulsa Chapter Royal Arch Masons, master of the Tulsa Council Royal and Select Masters, and commander of Trinity Commandery of Knights Templar. He was a past president, treasurer and director of the Tulsa Bell Federal Credit Union and a director of the Oklahoma Credit Union League. He is survived by his widow, Jewell, of the home. Friends are contributing to the American Heart Association.

- 8119 vii. John Robert Hull, born 18 Jul 1929 in Morrison, Noble Co, Oklahoma; died 13 Aug 2011 in Belleville.

Notes for John Robert Hull:

May 15, 1950, St. Joseph, Missouri – Fed Golondono, 66, proprietor of a rural Buchanan County Roadhouse, was arraigned Sunday on felonious assault charges following a shooting incident at the roadhouse. John R. Hull of Troy, Kansas, an air force corporal, suffered a flesh wound in the side. Prosecutor O.R. Newcomer said the shooting climaxed an altercation over noise Hull was making with his car horn outside the roadhouse early Sunday.

John R. Hull, age 82, of Okawville, died at 9:25 a.m. Saturday, August 13, 2011 at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Belleville. He was born July 18, 1929 in Morrison, Oklahoma, the son of the late John Marion and Florence Law Hull. He is survived by one brother, Hillman (Grace) Hull of Troy, Kansas; two sisters: Mary Bell Gaul of Troy, Kansas, and Marian Karr of Portland, Texas; one niece; three nephews and his beloved dog, "Lucky". He was preceded in death by two brothers: Dean and Thomas Hull; one sister, Ruth Hull; and two brothers-in-law: Laurance Karr and Leonard Gaul.

Mr. Hull was a 22-year veteran of the United States Air Force, retiring as Master Sergeant. After his military career, he worked for the Civil Service. There will be no funeral service. According to his wishes, his remains were cremated.

- 8120 viii. Dorothy Jean Hull, born Dec 1930 in Morrison, Noble Co, Oklahoma; died 01 Jul 1931 in Morrison, Noble Co, Oklahoma.

Notes for Dorothy Jean Hull:

July 1, 1931 - Dorothy Jean Hull, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hull, died at the family home north of Morrison Saturday afternoon at the age of 7 months and 27 days. She had been ill for several weeks. She is survived by the parents, three sisters and four brothers.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church in Morrison and were in charge of the Rev. C.S. Clarke of Guthrie. Interment was made in the Morrison cemetery.

- 8121 ix. Dewey Harley Hull, born 18 Jan 1932 in Morrison, Noble Co, Oklahoma; died 08 Apr 1932 in Morrison, Noble Co, Oklahoma.

Notes for Dewey Harley Hull:

Little Dewey Harley Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hull was born January 18th, 1932 at the Stillwater hospital and passed away April 8th, 1932 at the family home in Morrison. The little babe weighed but four pounds at birth and was never very strong and when the little body was attacked by a heavy cold there was no resistance and the little spirit passed on to the Home where there is neither suffering nor sorrow.

Three brothers and a sister of the infant carried the little casket. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Clark Friday afternoon at the home with A.C. Newell in charge of the arrangements. Interment was made in the Morrison cemetery.

Catt, and the former Frances L. Butcher, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wilford D. Butcher, were married May 20, 1951, in the Woodside Presbyterian church, of Newark, Ohio. The Rev. Clarence Gee and the Rev. Harold Byers officiated for their wedding ceremony.

Dr. and Mrs. Catt are the parents of three children, including Mrs. John (Linda) Snyder, of Coshocton; David W. Catt, of Columbus, Ohio; and Cynthia L. Catt, of Coshocton. Two grandsons and one granddaughter complete their family.

Miss Frances Louise Butcher and Dr. Lester F. Catt took marriage vows at 3:30 p.m. Sunday May 20, 1951 in the Woodside Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Clarence S. Gee of Granville, assisted by the Rev. Harold H. Byers of Woodside church, performing the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford D. Burcher of 394 Granville Street, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. G.A. Catt of 368 North 11th Street. Mrs. Earl Wovries, organist, and Miss Marian Gruetter, soloist, gave a program of wedding music. White chrysanthemums and white gladioli in crystal vases were used at the altar, which was illuminated by white tapers in candelabra before a background of palms.

Miss Mary Jean Burcher of Columbus, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; and Miss Betty Lou Butcher of Belleville, Michigan, bridesmaid and cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Clyde R. Catt, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were the other attendants. Robert Parker served the bridegroom as best man, and the ushers were Clyde R. Catt, brother of the bridegroom, and Wayne Davisson, his cousin.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was wearing a long white dress of satin, made with a train. The high neckline of marquisette with Chantilly lace gave an off-shoulder effect and V-shape. The long sleeves had cuffs of Chantilly lace. The finger-tip length veil was held by a pearl-outlined headband. She carried a white prayer book topped with a pale orchid. Her only jewelry was the bridegroom's gift of pearls.

The attendants wore identically styled floor-length marquisette dresses with jewelry neckline, with Miss Mary Jean Burcher's dress in green, and the other attendant's dresses in lavender. The headbands were similar to the bride's, outlined in pearls. They carried colonial bouquets of contrasting colors.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Hull Place for 200 guests. The bride's mother wore a gown of coffee-colored lace with a natural straw hat and accessories and her flowers were red roses; the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of navy blue, and her flowers were pink roses. Those assisting were Mrs. Leland Shomaker of Kirkersville; Mrs. Charles Williams of Granville; Miss Frances Sutton of Columbus; Miss Margery Orr and Mrs. Lester Hallisy of Newark. Orchid and white candles and white flowers formed the setting for the four-tiered wedding cake on the bridal table.

Out-of-town guests were present from Huntington, Indiana; Belleville, Michigan; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Lancaster, Ashley, Columbus, Johnstown, Alexandria, Marion, Granville, Hebron, Kirkersville, Hanover, and Sugar Grove. The bride's going-away costume was a lavender linen suit with lavender and white accessories. As a corsage she wore the orchid from her wedding.

The bride is a member of Beta Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, and of the National Secretaries' Association. She is a graduate of Newark High School and Newark College of Commerce, and attended Ohio State University. She has been secretary to the business manager of Denison University. The bridegroom is a graduate of Newark High School and Palmer School of Chiropractor with offices in Coshocton. Upon return from their wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Catt will live in Coshocton.

Marriage Notes for Lula Merriel and Edward McLean:

Miss Lula Bell Merriel, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Merriel of the city, became the bride of Edward D. McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McLean of Owensville, Indiana, on Friday, August 8th, 1958 at 7:00 p.m. at the Gospel Assembly Church, 206 Main Street. The Rev. D.F. Peach officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony before an altar flanked with candelabra and ferns centered with white iron rod arch. Sharon Waddle, accompanist by Mrs. Hudson, sang "Because" and the "Wedding Prayer" while the couple were kneeling.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Leon, wore ballerina length gown of embroidered eyelet organdy and the bodice featured a scalloped sabrina neck line, short sleeves and matching mitts. The extremely full skirt was designed with an apron effect front which was caught up into a tiny bustle in the back over alternating tiers of organdy and nylon tulle. Her headpiece was a small coronet entwined with seed pearls from which fell an elbow length veil of pure silk bridal illusion. She carried a white Bible covered in lace topped with yellow rose and baby mums with streamers tied in lovers' knots. The tradition of something new, something old, borrowed and blue were carried out.

Mrs. Doris Renner, sister of the bride, a matron of honor. She wore a baby blue floor length gown of lace and net over blue taffeta with matching head dress and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations. Sherry McLonn, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a full baby blue nylon dress with a big yellow sash and carried a small bouquet of yellow carnations. Susan Porter, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed like the junior bridesmaid and carried a basket of roses petals which she dropped in the path of the bride. Max Choatie, nephew of the bride was ring bearer. He was dressed in a white coat, dark bow tie and trousers as the other male attendants. The ring was secured to a white heart-shaped satin pillow trimmed in lace.

The bridegroom has his brother, Bill McLean, as the best man. Ushers were Pat McLean and Merle Schwartz. The bride's mother wore a navy-blue dress with white and blue accessories and a yellow carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore black flowered dress with accessories and a yellow carnation corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride following the ceremony. The table was decorated in the bride's chosen colors of blue and yellow. A miniature bride and groom adorned the three-tiered cake. After the bride and groom had cut the first piece the remainder was served by Mrs. June Handley and Kathryn Schwartz. Mrs. Esta Erdman took care of the guest book. The bride is a graduate of the Mount Carmel High School with the class of 1954 and is employe at the General Telephone Company. The groom has been serving in the U.S. Navy for the past four and a half years. He is now stationed in Norfolk, Virginia on the U.S.S. Valcour.

After the first of October the happy couple will make their home in San Francisco, California where Mr. McLean will be stationed. The bride chose for her traveling costume an apricot chemise dress with white accessories and wore the rose bud corsage from her bridal bouquet. A pre-nuptial shower was given at the home of Esta Erdman by Doris Renner and Virginia Choatie on July 28th.

Notes for Harold Lee Catt:

Mr. Harold Lee Catt, 83, formerly of Gallatin, Missouri and most recently of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, passed away at 8:50 A.M. on Wednesday, March 9, 2016. Harold was born in Kansas City, Missouri on July 3, 1932 the son of Charles L. and Hazel Marie (Masters) Catt. He married June Maureen Kouns on June 14, 1953. Harold served his country as a member of the U.S. Army during the Korean War. After being honorably discharged from the military, he embarked on a 38-year career with the Sears catalog distribution center with the bulk of those years being spent as a supervisor.

Having worked for so many years in Kansas City, Harold was enamored with the rural and relaxed life at Lake Viking. The 22 years he spent with his life-partner, June, in their beautiful lakeside home were among the very best. He thoroughly enjoyed fishing and relished the time sharing his passion with his two young grand-daughters when they would visit in the summer. Time playing cards or board games with friends and family could not be better spent. A kind and gentle man, Harold was beloved by all who knew him and instantly liked by those whom he had just met. He was a meek and humble man who possessed a deceptively deft sense of humor. Faithful to the Lord, Harold was also involved in the First Baptist Church of Gallatin, as both volunteer and deacon. In every way imaginable, he was a good man who is now in a far better place.

Harold is survived by his wife, Ms. June Maureen Catt, one daughter, Sherri Wilt and husband Mike of Bartlesville, one son, Jerry Catt and wife Carrie of Kansas City, Missouri, a brother, Virgil Catt of Odessa, Missouri, a sister, Dorothy Betts of Odessa, Missouri, and two granddaughters, Miranda Wilt and Olivia Wilt of Bartlesville. He was preceded in death by his parents.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to The Journey Home hospice house, 3406 S.E. Kentucky Avenue, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, 74006 or to the Gallatin First Baptist Church, 511 West Richardson Street, Gallatin, Missouri, 64640. Funeral services for Mr. Harold Catt will be held at 2:30 P.M. on Tuesday, March 15, 2016 at the First Baptist Church in Gallatin, Missouri with Pastor Garrett Trunk officiating. Interment will be at Lake Viking Cemetery in Gallatin under the direction of the Stumpff Funeral Home & Crematory.

Marriage Notes for Anna Spinner and Robert Elder:

Miss Anna Lou Spinner and Robert Eugene Elder were married in the First Methodist church of Vandalia last Friday night Jan. 28, 1949 in the presence of 500 relatives and friends. Rev. M.B. Van Leer. officiated in a setting of candelabra, white gladioli and snapdragons before a white satin draped altar. Preceding the ceremony there was an organ prelude by Miss Delia Mitchell and Curt Muelchi sang.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle C.E. Higgins, wore satin, styled with sweetheart neckline, long tight sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt with a long train edged in lace. The skirt draped in front in three places disclosed tiers of dainty lace ruffles. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliette satin cap, banded with brilliants and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses. Her only ornament was a double string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her attendant, Joye Isbell, wore aqua taffeta fashioned with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, full skirt and below the shoulder sleeves. With it she wore matching taffeta mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of pom poms which had been tinted just a shade lighter than her dress.

Little Sue Muelchi, was flower girl in a dress of yellow taffeta, also styled with fitted bodice and full skirt. Like the bride's the skirt was draped in several places disclosing the ruffled petticoat effect. She carried a yellow taffeta quilted basket. Gerald Smith was best man and ushers were Roy Lockart, J. Smith, William Conners and James Staff.

A reception followed in the church dining room given by the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klasing and the couple left for a honeymoon. Next week they will go I. Finch, Jr., the former Eleanor Wood of Decatur. Mrs. Finch plans to move back to St. Louis soon, where Mr. Finch already has returned. Miss Wood and Mrs. Schaub plan several side trips from Mexico City to points of interest.

4194. Mary Alice¹³ McCall (William Silverton (Syrel)¹², Alice E.¹¹ Fithian, Mary Ann (Polly)¹⁰ Catt, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 09 Mar 1915 in Willow Hill, Jasper Co, Illinois, and died 09 Jul 1938 in Moline, Rock Island Co, Illinois. She married Rene J. VanHulle 1934. He was born 1914, and died 09 Jul 1938 in Moline, Rock Island Co, Illinois.

Notes for Mary Alice McCall:

Rene VanHulle, 24 years old; shot and fatally wounded his wife and then ended his own life in the basement of his father-in-law's residence, 1816 Fourteenth Street, about 3 this morning. Police said apparently insane jealousy caused the tragedy. Mrs. Mary Alice VanHulle, 23 years old, died in Moline public hospital at 9:50 this morning July 9, 1938 of three bullet wounds in the abdomen and another in the right arm. Mr. and Mrs. VanHulle resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCall, and their family. VanHulle had been employed in a Moline factory until some months ago when operations were curtailed, and for the last year also worked parttime at Len's billiard hall, 1414 Fifteenth Street.

He worked until shortly after 12 last night. Mrs. VanHulle was employed at the Servua Rubber company factory in Rock Island and worked until 11:45 last night. Other members of the McCall family, which includes in addition to Mr. and Mrs. McCall, two sons, Gene and Robert, and a daughter, Geraldine, were asleep on the second floor of the residence when the shooting occurred. Police said they learned that Mrs. VanHulle was brought to her residence in an automobile about 1 this morning. They stated a lengthy and violent quarrel apparently preceded the shooting. Maurice J. DeConlnck, one of the proprietors of the billiard hall and tavern, said VanHulle was in a cheerful mood and had not been drinking when he finished his work at midnight and started to his residence. Authorities were unable to learn whether he went home immediately but believe that he did.

Officers said evidently jealousy caused the quarrel which started in the kitchen. They said VanHulle followed his wife to the basement where a lavatory is located. He had obtained a .32-caliber revolver. He fired at Mrs. VanHulle four times before turning the gun on himself. The McCall family did not hear the shot but a short time later were awakened by the screams of Mrs. VanHulle who had crawled to the top of the basement stairs. She was crying, "Mother! Mother!" Mr. McCall helped carry his daughter to a couch, summoned Dr. Leo Gamburg. Robert Elliott, 1404 Sixteenth Avenue, did hear the shots, he told police. He dressed and aided the physician in getting Mrs. VanHulle to the hospital in a private automobile.

First word of the shooting came to police from the hospital at 3:40 this morning. Officer Charles Larson Jr. hurried to the hospital. In the meantime, a neighbor telephoned officers and gave them the McCall address. Policeman Kinkead was sent to the scene. In their distress and anxiety over the condition of Mrs. VanHulle, the entire McCall family made no effort to locate her husband. They hurried to the hospital, believing Van Hulle had fled. Policeman Raymond Kinkead was told by neighbors that a man who was crazy or drunk or both was loose in the McCall house with a revolver. He circled the residence, unable to see anyone. He flashed a torch through the basement window and saw VanHulle on the floor. He was dead, a bullet wound in the temple and a .32-caliber revolver clutched in his hand.

Officer Larson talked to Mrs. VanHulle briefly before an emergency operation was performed at the hospital in an effort to stop internal bleeding. "My husband did it," she told the policeman. "He was jealous." That was all the information the officer was able to obtain. Friends of VanHulle were astounded by the tragedy. They said they could not believe the mild-mannered, normally quiet young man had shot his wife and himself. His employer said VanHulle was a cheerful, reliable worker and showed no indications last night of being in other than his usual mood. Officers stated, however, that they were informed VanHulle was extremely jealous of his wife's friends. Mr. McCall said he was unable to explain the immediate cause of the tragedy. They did not get along," was all he would tell police.

Joint funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. VanHulle will be held at 10 Monday morning in DeRoo funeral home in Moline. The Rev. J.B. Culemans, pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic church, will officiate. Mary Allee McCall was born in Jasper County, Illinois, on March 9, 1915. She was married to Rene VanHulle in Rock Island on Feb. 22, 1933. She had resided in Moline for ten years.

Surviving Mrs. VanHulle are one child, Alice Joyce, 3 years old; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.S. McCall of Moline; two brothers, Eugene and Robert, both of Moline; and four sisters, Mrs. Lowell David and Mrs. Lynetta Samuels, both of Chicago; Mrs. Kathryn Roets of East Moline and Geraldine McCall of Moline. Rene VanHulle was born at Green River on Aug. 3, 1914. He attended Moline public schools and for several years was employed by the Moline Iron works.

Survivors are the 3-year-old daughter, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice VanHulle, and three brothers, Celeste, Mitchell and Walter VanHulle, all of Moline. A sister preceded Mr. VanHulle in death in 1934. An inquest was scheduled for this afternoon by Coroner J.W. Seids.

She married Norman Ross Scott 06 Apr 1950 in Champaign, Champaign Co, Illinois. He was born 15 May 1918 in Brooklyn, Kings, New York, and died 30 Aug 2018 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Marjorie Mildred Fear:

Marjorie M. Scott - In the early morning hours of September 19th, 2012, after a long and wearying illness, Marjorie left us quietly to be with her Lord. She is profoundly missed by her adoring family and her many friends. Private memorial services will be followed by interment of her ashes in the Scott family plot at Kensico Cemetery, New York. Marjorie was born on February 22, 1918, in rural Jasper County, Illinois. She won her county's scholarship to the University of Illinois and graduated there with a major in English literature, having achieved Phi Beta Kappa status by her junior year. She taught school for a year, before joining the WAVES in 1941. She was quickly selected as one of the first group of thirty WAVES to receive officer training, becoming first an Ensign and then rising to Lieutenant JG and ultimately to Lieutenant. Upon leaving the Navy from her last post in Hawaii at the war's end, she took a staff position at General MacArthur's occupation army headquarters in Tokyo for two years. There she not only saw war devastated Japan, but met and befriended many wonderful Japanese people who remained lifelong friends. She returned to her Illinois roots via returning troop ships that stopped at Singapore and then at Port Said before dropping her off for six months of exploring war ravaged Europe. Home again in Illinois, she did further graduate studies, receiving her MA degree. There she met and married Norman in 1950 and they came together to Ann Arbor in 1951, where they lived ever since.

Besides her devoted husband, she leaves behind daughter Mari Ross Scott Miyashita, son-in-law Keiichi Miyashita, grandson Tomonari Scott Miyashita, son George Norman Scott, daughter-in-law Cynthia, grandson Andrew Brendan Scott, son Ian MacLeod Scott, and son Charles Alastair Scott. Marjorie will be remembered by the intensity she devoted to her every activity, whether it was lobbying in Lansing for farm workers' rights, pressing at home for open space preservation and against commercial development, or simply trying to stamp out the invasive garlic mustard. She was a real doer. She is remembered, too, for her knowledge of poetry and her facility at coming up with the next several lines, given only the hint of a few words. As Robbie Burns said, "Wha's lak her? Nane!"

Notes for Norman Ross Scott:

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Norman Ross Scott, 100, died peacefully at home on Thursday, August 30, 2018. Private memorial services will be followed by interment of his ashes in the Scott family plot at Kensico Cemetery, New York. Norman was born in New York City on May 15, 1918 to Scottish immigrants George Norman and Lillias B.H. (Ogg) Scott. Growing up in White Plains, New York, he showed an early interest in amateur radio and electronics, which he pursued in the attic of his grandparents' house. He attended MIT, where he received both B.S. and M.S. degrees in Electrical Engineering in 1941. During World War II, Norman spent five years in the Army working on radar countermeasures and rising to the rank of Major. He received his Doctorate in Electrical Engineering at the University of Illinois in 1950 and married his wife Marjorie in Champagne-Urbana, Illinois the same year. In 1951, Norman moved to Ann Arbor, Michigan to take up an appointment as an assistant professor of electrical engineering at the University of Michigan; he was promoted to full professor in 1957. He remained at U of M until his retirement, and was named Professor Emeritus of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science in 1987. At the University of Michigan, Norman Scott introduced the first courses in digital computer engineering in 1952. Over the course of his career he became internationally recognized for his work on digital computer logic and design, publishing three books and numerous journal articles on the subject. He was a Fellow of the IEEE. At U of M he also served as Associate Dean of the College of Engineering and Dean of the Dearborn campus. In 1958 Norman Scott was a member of the first western team to tour Soviet computing centers. He served on the Math and Computer Science Research Advisory Committee of the Atomic Energy Commission (1961-65) and did research, taught, lectured and traveled extensively in Germany, China, and Japan, where he spent two sabbatical leaves.

During his 36 years as a faculty member at the University of Michigan, Professor Scott was known for his outstanding capabilities as a teacher, mentor, and graduate advisor. He was highly regarded for his knowledge of theory and practice and fostered in his students enthusiasm, curiosity, and a desire to excel. His understanding of and willingness to communicate with students was widely recognized. On four separate occasions, Eta Kappa Nu, an honorary society for electrical engineers, selected Norman Scott as Professor of the Year for outstanding performance in teaching and student-faculty relations. With his dear wife, Marjorie, Norman led an active life, filled with travel abroad, sailing his own sailboat on the Great Lakes (and twice to the Bahamas), walks in the beautiful natural settings of Michigan, reading the works of Joseph Conrad, daily journaling, and weekly family Sunday dinners. He swam well into his 90s at the U of M North Campus Recreation Building, and continued to work out on the machines there every day until it closed for renovation. Not to be deterred, he became a regular at the Washtenaw County Recreation Center, where he was appreciated for his determined spirit and beautiful smile. His last visit to the gym was on Friday, August 24, less than a week before he passed away in the same home he and his loving wife Marjorie had built in 1960 and in which they raised their four children. Norman will be deeply missed as a pillar of the Scott family and a wise elder to his adoring clan of children, grandchildren, cousins, nieces, and nephews. He was devoted to his family and his many friends. He will be remembered for his kindness, gentleness, and optimism, as well as for his brilliant mind.

Norman leaves behind daughter Mari Ross Scott Miyashita, son-in-law Keiichi Miyashita, grandson Tomonari Scott Miyashita, son George Norman Scott, daughter-in-law Cynthia Luna Scott, grandson Andrew Brendan Scott and wife Mar Patricia, son Ian MacLeod Scott, and son Charles Alastair Scott. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Marjorie (Fear) Scott in 2012 at the age of 94. Norman often quoted these lines by Scottish writer Robert Louis Stevenson: Here he lies where he long'd to be; Home is the sailor, home from the sea... Now he is home.

4245. Donald Fredrick¹³ Catt (Lester Alvdernes¹², Homer Day¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 17 Dec 1923 in Robinson, Crawford Co, Illinois, and died 10 Oct 2025 in Vincennes, Knox Co, Indiana. He married Mary Christine Legg 01 Jun 1946. She was born 25 Dec 1925 in Port Jackson, Illinois, and died 23 Aug 2024 in Flat Rock, Illinois.

Notes for Donald Fredrick Catt:

After living a life of kindness and faith, Donald Fredrick Catt went to his heavenly home on October 10, 2025, at Good Samaritan Hospital in Vincennes, Indiana. Born December 17, 1923, west of Robinson, he was the 11th child of Lester and Emma (Fear) Catt. The family moved to the Port Jackson area, west of Oak Ridge Church, when Don was about three. His boyhood was spent taking care of chores on the family land and attending Oak Ridge Grade School, but he much preferred spending his time mushroom hunting, wading through the blackberry briars, or playing in the crick.

After graduating from Robinson High School in 1942, he worked on construction crews, including helping to build George Field, the military airfield near Lawrenceville. By 1945, he had moved back home, where he married the love of his life, a spirited Port Jackson neighbor, Mary Christine "Chris" Legg, on June 1, 1946. For their honeymoon, Don and Chris took a trip to Paris — not the one in France, but Paris, Illinois, — a lighthearted start to a lifetime of love and laughter. They built their home in 1947, and for the next 78 years, it was filled with faith, family, and warmth. It was there they raised their three children, hosted countless holidays, and carried on the cherished tradition of Sunday dinners throughout Don's life.

Retiring in 1988 after working as a caster at Briggs Pottery for 42 years, Don found the adjustment to a life of leisure more difficult than expected. Thanks to Chris's persistence, his relaxing days were short-lived, and soon he found a renewed passion for his hobbies. He enjoyed cultivating best-of-show vegetable entries in the county fair, mushroom hunting, and anything that kept him outdoors. He especially loved attending the endless sporting events for the grandkids and generally following wherever Chris led. Retirement also allowed a newfound talent to emerge: writing. Don was a man of few words, but through his writing, his friends and family learned so much more about his early life. Interest in his childhood stories grew, and eventually, people all around the community looked forward to his tales about "the good ol' days" in his weekly column, "I Remember When...", which was featured in the Argus newspaper. After reading his stories, it's amazing that he lived past 10 years old, let alone to over 100. He even tried his hand at a novel, which he titled "Willie".

To celebrate his and Chris's 50th wedding anniversary, his children presented him with a bound version of his stories titled "Life on the Ambraw". Friends and family will continue to cherish these books as a way to remember Don and the life he loved. A lifetime member of Oak Ridge Church, his faith was an essential part of his life. The church was the foundation of his servant's heart and played a central role in many family celebrations and gatherings through the years. Next to his steadfast faith, the most important person in his life was his beloved wife, Chris. They were blessed to be married for 78 loving years until her passing on August 23, 2024.

Don is survived by his three children, Michael (Anita) Catt, Kay (Raymond) Sanders, and Mark (Linda) Catt; six grandchildren; and twelve great-grandchildren, along with many special nieces, nephews, and extended family. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lester Alvernes Catt and Emma Loubrady (Fear) Catt; brothers Earnest Melvin, Ralph Emerson, Irvin Alvernes, William Day, Lester Albert, and Walter Leroy; sisters Madge Evelyn, Mary Louise, Anna Lenora, Winnifred Ellen, Audrey Lea, and Lois Irene; and his granddaughter, Gina Lynn Catt.

A time of visitation will be held from 4:00-7:00 p.m. on Monday, October 13th, at the Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson. A funeral service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, October 14th, at Oak Ridge United Methodist Church. Memorial contributions may be made to "Oak Ridge United Methodist Church", with envelopes available at both the funeral home and church. Burial will be in the Port Jackson Cemetery.

Notes for Mary Christine Legg:

Mary Christine (Legg) Catt, 98, of Flat Rock, Illinois, went to be with her Lord and Savior on August 23, 2024, at her home. She was born on Christmas Day, December 25, 1925, at her grandfather's home west of Oak Ridge Church near Port Jackson, Illinois. Named Mary Christine because it was the closest her parents could come to "Merry Christmas," she was a true Christmas gift to her parents, Pearl (Enola) Rich & Everett "Ab" Legg. Christine lost her mother at the tender age of five during childbirth. Her mother's final wish was for Ab to keep the children together, and that he did. Growing up as a farm girl, Christine helped with the wood cutting, crops, and even the detested task of raising tobacco. The values of family, hard work, and responsibility would be mainstays throughout Christine's life.

On June 1, 1946, she married the love of her life, Donald Catt, and together they recently celebrated 78 years of marriage. Chris and Don built the house that they would make a home for the rest of her life - a warm, welcoming place where kids, grandkids, friends, and strangers would be invited in and made to feel loved. Family dinners would find so many people at their table that there was barely room to sit everyone, but there was always plenty of delicious food for all. Her mashed potatoes and noodles, sweet

Her life was one of simple abundance, filled with joy right up until her last breath. One of her greatest joys was watching her grandkids and great-grandkids participate in one of their many activities. She was one of their biggest fans, and hearing her voice cheering them on from the stands will be missed. In her later years, she joined the Singing Seniors at Lincoln Trail College and entertained folks around the county. A talented quilter, she left her family numerous beautiful quilts to cherish as a memory of her love. Chris utilized her crafting skills to create Pound Puppies, Cabbage Patch dolls, and more throws and quilts than you could fit in your house. All her children and grandchildren have quilts that she cut out and pieced together, sometimes with help from Don. To say that she was the backbone of the family would be an understatement. She taught us the true meaning of love, loyalty, dependability, perseverance, and hard work. A lifelong member of Oak Ridge United Methodist Church, Christine's life was a testament to her faith. The church was her second home, where she served in many capacities: Sunday School teacher, secretary, song leader, custodian, and more. She made sure that her children were raised in the church and was there whenever the doors were open. Christine organized and hosted countless celebrations, quilting clubs, holidays, and activities at the church, making a lifetime of memories for her family and community.

Her passing leaves a huge void in our lives, but we know that on Friday, she was greeted with the words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Although the hole left in our hearts is immense, we rejoice in knowing that Christine was welcomed with open arms by her Savior, Jesus Christ, flanked by family and friends who have gone before her. Heaven likely just got a little louder, with Chris and Lizzie raising their voices, either in laughter or fussing at each other. Words like "spark plug," "force of nature," and "one in a million" best describe our beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend. She truly lived a good life and was loved by all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ab & Pearl Legg; her sister, Elizabeth; her brothers, Otis, Ray "Chubb," and Charles and their spouses; her granddaughter, Gina Catt; her nephew, Terry Legg; her niece, Connie Legg; her great-nephew, Bradley Legg, and several other cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A time of visitation will be held from 4:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 29th, at the Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson. A funeral service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, August 30th, at Oak Ridge United Methodist Church, with Rev. Nathan Jeffries officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to "Oak Ridge United Methodist Church", with envelopes available at both the funeral home and church. Burial will be in the Port Jackson Cemetery.

Notes for Connie Mae Dunlap:

Connie Mae Rich, a loving, funny, and spirited soul, passed away peacefully on April 30, 2023, in the comfort of her home, surrounded by her beloved family. Born in Crawford County, Illinois, on January 17, 1947, her 76 years with us exuded a zest for life and was filled to the brim with love for her family and friends. Connie's formative years saw her attending Oblong High School, where her irrepressible spirit and love for life began to blossom. This love for life would continue throughout her career, as she first worked at Tempco Products for many years. She left the area for a time to accompany her husband, Stephen D. Rich, who was serving in the Army, and was able to obtain employment with Marriott while he was stationed. Eventually, the Riches returned to Crawford County and Connie found work at Quail Creek Country Club before health constraints prompted an early retirement.

Possessing a warm and engaging heart, Connie was ever the social butterfly. She held membership with the Flat Rock American Post #132 Ladies Auxiliary and cherished the time she spent socializing with her fellow members. In her younger days, the great outdoors beckoned, as she reveled in searching for arrowheads, fishing, mushroom hunting, and ginseng gathering. As time marched on, her interests expanded to include shopping, playing Bingo, and trying her luck at the riverboat slot machines. Connie's love for adventure was rivaled only by her devotion to her family. With her kin firmly by her side, she explored this vast world we inhabit through trips to Mount Rushmore, the sandy shores of Florida, and cruises that whisked her away to the exotic locales of Cozumel and Jamaica. Throughout her enchanting journey through life, Connie's distinctive personality shone brightly, with ever-changing hair colors and a growing penchant for tattoos that lasted well into the twilight of her years! Her family frequently marveled at her unique spirit, often wondering, "What is she up to now?" Yet, our hearts were ever full of love for this remarkable woman who infused light and laughter wherever she tread.

In every aspect of her life, be it work, play, or family, Connie Mae Rich shone as a beacon of love and vivacity. Her legacy will forever be etched into the memories of all who were fortunate enough to know her, just as her unforgettable and irreplaceable spirit so richly deserves. And so, we bid adieu to this loving, funny, and spirited soul, a true force of nature whose presence will continue to grace our days through the echoes of laughter and love she leaves in our hearts.

While the hearts of her family ache with loss, they are comforted by the knowledge that Connie now rests with those who have gone before her, including her husband of nearly 32 years, Steve Rich; her parents, Kenneth & Marjorie Dunlap; her great-grandson, Lukas Bradberry; her brothers and sisters, Gary & wife Carol Dunlap, Larry Meeks, Lana Dunlap, Janice Stephens, and Gary Rich; and her special friend and the father of her children, Larry Baud.

Burial will be in the Shire-Prier Cemetery, rural Oblong, Illinois.

- + 8656 iii. Janice Lynn Rich, born 30 May 1954; died 07 Jan 2010.

4248. Lois Irene¹³ Catt (Lester Alvdernes¹², Homer Day¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 26 Mar 1932 in Crawford Co, Illinois, and died 27 May 2018 in Robinson, Crawford Co, Illinois. She married Rev. Chester William Hout 17 Oct 1952. He was born 26 Apr 1932 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, California, and died 09 Nov 1989 in Keensburg, Wabash Co, Illinois.

Notes for Lois Irene Catt:

Lois Irene Hout, 86, of Robinson, Illinois, died at 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 27, 2018 in the comfort of her home surrounded by her family. She was born Saturday, March 26, 1932 in rural Flat Rock, the daughter of Lester Catt & Emma (Fear) Catt. Lois was a 1970 Graduate of American School, (which she accomplished over mail). She dedicated much of her life to being a homemaker. She also worked for L.S. Heath for 13 years before moving to Fairfield, where she worked for 11 years. For over 20 years, Lois volunteered at the United Methodist Village in Lawrenceville. She was a longtime and active member of the Otterbein United Methodist Church in Robinson.

She was, by all accounts, an avid quilter, and longingly fashioned countless pieces for her friends and family. Following the passing of Chester in 1989, she made a point to have family dinners at her house every Friday night. This brought the family closer together and provided her with a new name: "Good Food Grandma", a title she wore proudly for the rest of her life. Lois will forever be remembered for her heart of service and for the love she gave to her family and church family. She will sadly be missed, but we celebrate her homegoing.

Lois married Chester Hout on Friday, October 17, 1952, and he preceded her in death on Thursday, November 9, 1989. She was also preceded in death by her parents; by her son, Bill Hout; by her brothers, Ernest Catt, Irvin Catt, Ralph Catt, LeRoy Catt; by her sisters, Madge York, Louise Sharon, Winifred Waggoner, and Audrey Rich; as well as two brothers and a sister in infancy.

She is survived by her children, Randy Hout (Chatham, Virginia), Cheryl & Keith Hankins (Sumner, Illinois), and Jeff & Angie Hout (Fairfield, Illinois); by her daughters-in-law, Judy Hout (Robinson, Illinois) and Barb Hout (Oblong, Illinois); by 15 grandchildren; by 19 great-grandchildren; by a great-great grandchild; by her brother & sister-in-law, Donald & Christine Catt (Flat Rock, Illinois); by her sister-in-law, Doreen Parker (Robinson, Illinois); as well as several nieces and nephews.

A time of visitation will be held from 4:00-7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, May 30th at the Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson. Services will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, May 31st at the funeral home with Pastor Judy Williams officiating. Burial will follow in the Jones Cemetery in rural Flat Rock. Memorials may be made to the Otterbein United Methodist Church in Robinson.

4254. Edward Lee¹³ Catt (Albert William¹², Homer Day¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 20 Apr 1927 in Crawford Co, Illinois, and died 12 Sep 2018 in Olney, Richland Co, Illinois. He married (1) Norma Jean VanWinkle.

She was born 07 Mar 1933 in Flat Rock, Crawford Co, Illinois, and died 21 Jun 2021 in Oblong, Crawford Co, Illinois. He married (2) Francis Elizabeth Morrison 10 Dec 1945 in Crawford Co, Illinois. She was born 10 Dec 1927 in Milwaukee, Milwaukee Co, Wisconsin, and died 12 Aug 1993 in Oblong, Crawford Co, Illinois.

Notes for Edward Lee Catt:

Edward L. "Ed" Catt, 91, Oblong, Illinois went to be with his Lord and Savior on Wednesday September 12, 2018 at his daughter Lisa Tarpley home in Olney, Illinois. He was born on April 20, 1927 in Martin Township Crawford County, Illinois. He was the son of Albert William "A.W." Catt and Edna (Ferguson) Catt. On December 10, 1945 he married Francis Morrison who preceded him in death on August 12, 1993. He later married Norma Jean Van Winkle who survives.

Ed was a heavy equipment operator and worked for the Illinois Department of Transportation retiring in 1991. He was a member of the Robinson High School Class of 1945, Oblong Wesleyan Church which is now known as the Cornerstone Wesleyan Church of Oblong. Ed enjoyed working in his flower and rose gardens. He loved to tinker with anything and was an avid Chicago Cubs fan. He enjoyed reading westerns and riding around Oblong in his golf cart with Jean. Ed loved his Lord and Savior, reading the bible and spreading the word of the Lord.

A Celebration of Ed's Life will be Monday September 17, 2018 at 1:00 PM at Pulliam Funeral Home Oblong, Illinois with Bro. Mike Root officiating. Burial will follow in the Oblong Cemetery. A time of visitation will be held from 11:00 AM until the time of Service. The family requests that an expression of sympathy may take the form of a contribution to the Cornerstone Wesleyan Church of Oblong. Envelopes will be available at or may be mailed to the Pulliam Funeral Home P.O. Box 121 Oblong, Illinois 62449.

Notes for Norma Jean VanWinkle:

Mrs. Jean Sprague Catt, 88, of Oblong, Illinois, died June 21, 2021, at Crawford Memorial Hospital in Robinson, Illinois, after several months of declining health. She was born March 7, 1933, in Flat Rock, Illinois, the daughter of Arthur & Eva (Brashear) VanWinkle. She married William Sprague of Robinson, and they had three children. Bill was killed in a semi-truck accident in 1973. At that time, Jean had been attending nursing school but had to give up her dream of becoming a nurse to support her family. However, this didn't stop her from taking care of people. She worked at the hospital and nursing homes as a nurse's aide and then became a sitter for the elderly in their homes. Jean was never afraid of hard work and always kept busy doing the things she loved: hunting mushrooms, fishing, camping, sewing, and crocheting. Her family was important to her, and she loved being with them. She married Dale "Dick" Siverly from Oblong, and they enjoyed many good years together fishing at the river, spending time at the cabin, and gardening. After his death, Jean began to help serve and deliver meals at the Senior Citizens Center in Oblong. There, she met and eventually married Edward Catt of Oblong. She and Ed were involved in their church and met many people camping for years until his death.

In addition to her parents (Arthur & Eva VanWinkle) and her husbands (Bill Sprague, Dick Siverly, and Ed Catt), she was also preceded in death by her brothers & sisters-in-law, John & Mary VanWinkle, Frank VanWinkle, and Bill & Rita VanWinkle, and by her sisters & brothers-in-law, Juanita Shipman, Irene & Tom Newlin, and Shirley Pippin.

She is survived by her children, Doug & Dana (Twigg) Sprague (Robinson, Illinois), Mike & Terri (Hoadley) Sprague (Gosport, Indiana), and Diane Sprague (Olney, Illinois); by her step-daughter & step-son-in-law, Lisa (Catt) & Rick Tarpley (Olney, Illinois); by her grandchildren, Laycie (Sprague) & Steve Eskoz (Wauconda, Illinois), Dustin & Toni (Barnes) Sprague (Robinson, Illinois), Mindy (Sprague) & Raymond Richards (Oblong, Illinois) and Keegan Tarpley (Olney, Illinois); by her great-grandchildren, Calvin Eskoz, Fitz Eskoz, Elsie Eskoz, Kensley Sprague, Maylee Robb, Eli Robb, and Carter Robb; as well as several nieces and nephews.

A time of visitation will be held from 1:00-2:00 p.m. on Friday, June 25th, at the Goodwine Funeral Home in Robinson. Following the visitation, family and friends are invited to join in procession to the Macedonia Cemetery (rural Cumberland County, Illinois), where a graveside service will be officiated by Pastor Mike Root. Memorial contributions may be made to "Cornerstone Church", with envelopes available at the funeral home.

4264. Larry Alton¹³ Catt (Forest Dean¹², Walter Leroy¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 03 May 1932 in Longview, Cowlitz Co, Washington, and died 01 Apr 2021 in Oregon. He married Joyce Marie Swanson 14 Jun 1958. She was born 27 Dec 1935.

Notes for Larry Alton Catt:

Larry Catt peacefully passed away April 1, 2021, after a short illness with pancreatic cancer. Larry was surrounded by his wife of nearly 63 years, Joyce Catt, and his daughter, Lisa Marshall, when he passed. He was born in Longview, Washington, May 3, 1932, and is also survived by his brother, Art Catt; his sister, Donna Cox; and his son-in-law and Lisa's husband, Elliott Marshall. Larry's oldest daughter Karla passed away in 2007.

After Larry graduated from high school in 1951, he joined the US Naval Reserve and travelled to Hawaii on a Destroyer, but he was seasick the entire trip to Hawaii and back. Deciding a life at sea was not in the cards for Larry, he enrolled in Lower Columbia Community College and graduated in 1953. Larry thereafter transferred to the University of Washington (go Huskies!!) and graduated in 1961 with a degree in Business Administration. Larry began working for the Boeing company as a draftsman in 1957 and continued his employment with Boeing after graduating from the University of Washington. Larry was promoted to Materiel Manager for the AWACS (Airborne Warning and Control System) and was able to travel the world until he retired from Boeing in 1990.

The defining themes in Larry's life were his love of his family and cars. Larry married Joyce June 14, 1958, and Larry's oldest daughter Karla was born in 1960. Karla was born with Downs Syndrome, and at that time people with Downs Syndrome were not expected to live long. Larry and Joyce made the courageous and loving decision to raise Karla at home in as normal an environment as possible. Larry and Joyce welcomed their second daughter, Lisa, in November 1962. Karla's role in the family was pivotal because she created a family unit of unconditional love, patience, and a reverence for all life. Through Karla's life, Larry and Joyce became outspoken advocates for people with physical and intellectual challenges. Lisa, an attorney, credits Karla for teaching Lisa about empathy and devotion to children who come into the world with challenges.

Larry's love of cars began in high school when Larry and friends participated in legally sanctioned drag races on abandoned air strips. Larry's racing career continued into college and he happily repaired and restored a 1940 Mercury; a 1946 Ford; 1941 Buick; a 1929 Lincoln; and a 1965 Mustang. Larry and his restoration partner Lauren Matley (pictured at right, below) were invited to showcase their 1929 Lincoln at the 1996 Pebble Beach Concours D'Elegance. Larry and Lauren were honored to receive an award at that event for an impeccable restoration of the Lincoln, and were invited to drive the Lincoln over the awards stage.

Larry died as he lived; his sense of humor is widely known and was present and intact until the day he died. He taught his family the importance of hard work, honesty, humor, responsibility, and integrity. He would want all of his loved ones to know he is at peace.

Marriage Notes for Larry Catt and Joyce Swanson:

Battle Ground - Miss Joyce Marie Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swanson, of Battle Ground became the bride of Larry A. Catt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Catt, wedding ceremony afternoon, June 14, 1958 at Battle Ground Community Church. The Rev. George Schu officiated the double ring ceremony. Tall white baskets of yellow gladioli, yellow daisies, white chrysanthemums, and pin stock formed the setting for the candle light ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length sheath gown of white lace, with short taffeta half over skirt. Her short illusion veil was held in place by a crown orange blossoms. Carried a crescent shaped bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations. Mrs. Darrell Brandenburg was matron of honor. She wore street length gown of aqua cotton satin with a white cummerbund and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and pink carnations. Arthur Catt was best man for his brother. Jim Sainsbury, and Duane Lund served as ushers and also lighted the candles. Patty Swanson of Fairfield, California, was flower girl. Mrs. W.D. Clark and Mrs. Bill Johnson, served the wedding cake at a reception in the church. Mrs. Floyd Mackey poured, and Mrs. Burgess Shockley was in charge of the punch bowl.

Shirley Willowby was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Swanson of Fairfield, California, Mrs. Gene Swanson of Beaverton, Oregon, and Mrs. Peter Swanson of Los Angeles, California, received gifts. The bride is graduate of Battle Ground High School and Central Washington College of Education. She has been teaching school at Bothell, near Seattle. The bridegroom attended the University of Washington. He is at present employed in Seattle. The young couple took a honeymoon trip to San Francisco, and will make their home in Seattle.

She was born 31 May 1936 in Hallock, Kittson Co, Minnesota, and died 06 Jun 2004 in Longview, Cowlitz Co, Washington.

Marriage Notes for Arthur Catt and Darlene Larson:

Spring Blossoms and calla lilies made an attractive setting for the wedding April 17, 1953 of Miss Darlene Ann Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Larson and Arthur Catt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Catt. Vows were said in the Trinity Lutheran Church, Longview. Altar cases held hyacinths and narcissus and satin bows in pastel shades marked the processional aisle. The Rev. H. Stanley Holman officiated at the candle light ceremony.

The bride's gown was a pale yellow, flock dot voile, with satin ribbon trim, and she had a head-piece of white rosebuds and stephanotis. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow and white roses tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Jean Isaacson, the maid of honor, wore a pastel green frock of flock dot voile styled like that of the bride. She carried a nosegay of sweet peas in pastel shades. Vickie Lamb, the flower girl, was in pale blue frosted organdy and the candle lighters, Myrna and Marcia Larson, cousins of the bride, wore orchid frocks with matching headpieces. George Larson, brother of the bride, served as ring bearer. The bride's mother, Mrs. Larson, was attired in a navy-blue polka dot dress with red bolero jacket and navy accessories. Her corsage was of white rosebuds and red carnations. Mrs. Catt, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dusty pink floral pint frock with white accessories, and had a corsage of white carnations and pink sweet peas.

Larry Catt served as best man for his brother and ushering the guests were Jim Higgins and Brian Price. Bob Jacobson sang "Because" and "You Belong To Me," accompanied by Mrs. T.A. Wahlstrom at

The lace-covered tables held yellow tapers and bowls of floating tulips at the reception which followed in the church parlors. A trellis covered with spring blossoms was behind the bride's table and bouquets of hyacinths and other spring flowers were about the rooms. Mrs. A.D. Melton, an aunt of the bride, cut the cake assisted by Marilyn Bergquist; another aunt, Mrs. W.M. Laron, presided at the coffee service; Miss Mary Pat Patton served punch, assisted by Donna Catt, a sister of the bridegroom, and Lenore Estey; Shirley Nelson was in charge of the guest book and Lois Larson and Helen Lund were in charge of gifts. A short honeymoon trip to Central Washington, the couple will be at home in the Columbia Apartments, Longview.

Marriage Notes for Donna Catt and Milon Cox:

In a candlelight setting with a tar vases of pink dahlias and white gladioli and baskets of white gladioli and blue hydrangea. Miss Donna Lynette Catt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean F. Catt of Longview, became the bride of Milon Leon Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tandy Johnson of Bellevue. The double ring ceremonies were read at the Trinity Lutheran Church at 8 p.m. on Saturday August 16, 1958 with the Rev. Arthur E. Wulf officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor length gown fashioned of rose patterned net with an overskirt of nylon chiffon. The full skirt was gathered to a snug bodice with bateau neckline and brief sleeves. Scallops of Chantilly lace edged the neck, sleeves and hemline of the skirt. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Mrs. Jerry Merly of Kelso, was the matron of honor and wore a street length dress of the same design as that of the bride in pale blue polished cotton. She wore a matching picture hat of nylon net with a crown of blue ribbons and carried a nosegay of yellow gladioli and miniature dahlias. Bridesmaids were Miss Sue Karnoski of Portland, and Mrs. Arthur Catt. Their dresses were the same as the honor attendant but in shades of pink with white accessories. Their nosegays were also the same.

Candlelighters were Miss Donna Hogg and Miss Karla Moyer of Longview. They were dressed in gowns the same as other attendants but in coral shade. Their flowers were also gladioli. Sandra Lee Catt was the flower girl and she wore a frock of soft blue with a matching crown of white rosebuds and carried a nosegay centered with pink Sweetheart roses. Rocky Dean Catt was the ring bearer. Mrs. Catt selected a sheath dress of floral pattern with navy bolero and white accessories. Mrs. Johnston was wearing a gray lace over rose satin dress. Both mothers had pink rosebud and white carnation corsages.

Mrs. T. A. Wahlstrom was the organist and accompanied Miss Donna Johnson who sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love." Darrell Cox was the best man for his brother. Ushers were Harvey good, and Arthur Catt.

The reception followed the ceremonies in the church social rooms. The tables were covered with white net over pink satin and held bouquets of pink and white asters. Mrs. Darrell Cox and Mrs. Larry Catt cut and served the cake. Mrs. Otto Bauer and Mrs. J.H. Bauer poured and Miss Shirley Fleckenstein served punch. For a honeymoon trip to southern California the new Mrs. Cox changed to a two-piece dress of turquoise and brown check with brown accessories. The bride was graduated from R.A. Long High School. The benedict was graduated from Phoenix Union High School and recently was discharged from the Air Force. The couple will reside at 1959 Larch Street, in Longview.

Donald Floyd¹³ Catt (Floyd Kirk¹², Walter Leroy¹¹, John B.¹⁰, Job⁹, Michael⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 16 Dec 1935 in Park Grove, Miles City, Valley Co, Montana, and died 18 Jul 2008 in Benton Co, Washington. He married Patricia Jean Karcher 03 Jul 1958 in Valley Co, Montana. She was born 31 Oct 1938.

Notes for Donald Floyd Catt:

Donald Floyd Catt, 72, of Kennewick, Washington, passed away peacefully on July 18, 2008, after a courageous battle with cancer. He was born in Park Grove, Montana on December 16, 1935, and spent many of his childhood years in Montana. Don served in the U.S. Army from January 1954 to May 1957 and in the Korean War. After leaving the service, Don became an Arc Welder and was a member of the Boilermakers Union. He retired in Newport, OR, in 1987. Several moves later, Don and Pat settled in Kennewick, WA, where they have resided for the last 11 years.

He is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Patricia J. Catt and his 5 children, Kerry (Kristin) Catt, Donna (Duane) Marchand, Duane Catt, Cheryl Lackey, Randy Catt and his younger brother Dennis (C.J.) Catt. Also surviving are his stepsisters Kaye, Linda and Geraldine and his stepbrother, Ross Patty.

Don was very blessed with many wonderful grandchildren and great-grandchildren and loved spending time with them. Don was preceded in death by his mother, Viola Catt Patty, his father, Floyd

Catt, his stepfather, Bill Patty and his older brother Gary Catt.

A small graveside service will be held for family and friends at Desert Lawn Cemetery on Wednesday, July 23 at 10 a.m. We would like to extend a thank-you to all our family and friends for their thoughts and prayers and a special thank-you to Dennis and C.J. Catt, Wes and Sue Wheatley, Gary and Burna Birdsell, the staff at Kennewick Cancer Center and Dr. Burrup for all their love and support.

Marriage Notes for Adam Skowronski and Henrietta Nowak:

Adams - Miss Henrietta L. Nowak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nowak of Adams, was married this morning Sept. 1949 at 9 to Adam Joseph Skowronski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casimer Skowronski of 72 Lyman Street, Pittsfield, at St. Stanislaus' Church. Rev. John Skowronski, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated and was assisted by Rev. Carmen Russo of Ludlow, brother of the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Skowronski, and Rev. Joseph Sitowski. The church was decorated with gladioli. Felician Sister Adelbert was organist for the soloists, Mrs. Francis Gospodarek, Thaddeus Kieltyka and Mrs. Francis. Duda.

The bride had as her honor attendant her sister, Mrs. Francis A. Stavaski. Another sister, Mrs. John Biros, and Miss Daisy Meczywor were bridesmaids; Miss Daisy Ann Gale, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Francis Skowronski was best man for his brother. Anthony Gilou, his cousin, and Joseph Nowak, cousin of the bride, ushered. The bride was gowned in an ivory slipper satin, designed with a mandarin neckline and a Venice lace V-shaped bodice, long pointed sleeves, full skirt with a peplum back falling in a long train. Her imported illusion finger-tip veil was attached to a matching satin halo which was trimmed with lilies of the valley and orange blossoms. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley on a prayer book.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids were dressed in gowns styled similarly to the brides with the exception of cap sleeves, matching gauntlets and head-crowns of green ruffled taffeta and yellow pompons. They carried Colonial bouquets of matching yellow pompon ruffle of green maline and green streamers. The flower girl wore a yellow satin gown with a square neckline, puffed sleeves and full skirt, matching tin crown with yellow pompon and carried a small Colonial bouquet of green pompons trimmed with yellow maline. and streamers.

Following a reception for 200 at the ZPRK Hall, Summer Street, the couple left on a motor trip through the New England states. For traveling, Mrs. Skowronski wore a dark green gabardine suit, black and white accessories and corsage of white roses. They will make their home temporarily with the bride's parents when they return Sept. 24.

The bride, a graduate of Adams High School, was formerly employed in the distribution office of the GE east plant. Mr. Skowronski, a veteran of four years' service in the Navy in the Pacific and European theatres, attended Pittsfield High School. He is employed in the GE east plant shipping section.

Marriage Notes for Alan Rainwater and Geraldine Nelson:

Miss Geraldine Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Nelson of Bigford, and Alan Rainwater of Torrance, California, formerly of Kalispell, were united in marriage at the Assembly of God Church in Meiners Oaks, California, on April 6, 1957 at 3 p.m., by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. A. E. Rainwater. The church was decorated with white and pink carnations in front of the altar for the ceremony. Music for the nuptial rite was provided by the Rev. and Mrs. Landers.

The bride carried a nosegay of white camellias set in pink carnations. She wore a lace sheath over taffeta with a white lace matching duster. Miss Jan Owen of Missoula, maid of honor, wore white with blue polka dots, and blue accessories. Her nosegay was made of pink carnations. Best man was Billy Ray Meacham of Torrance. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Rainwater wore blue and white taffeta with white accessories, and corsage of pink carnations. In the absence of her family, the bride carried a small gold compact containing pictures of her mother, father, brother, and sister, all of Bigfork.

The reception for the newlyweds was at the Rainwater home in Meiner's Oaks. Mrs. Glenn Rogers and Sharon Buchanan, aunt and cousin of the bridegroom, were in charge of serving, and Mrs. Earl Nelson, aunt of the bride, was in charge of gifts. The cake, baked by the bridegroom's mother, was a four-tiered cake in clover-leaf shape. For going away, the bride wore a white sheath dress and white accessories. After a honeymoon at the Panorama Inn, in San Fernando Valley, the couple will be at home at 5221 Milne Drive in Torrance.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Flathead County High School. The bride is a graduate of Bigfork High School. They both attended Montan State University. Rainwater is employed at Douglas Aircraft, and the bride at Swett and Crawford, underwriters to Pacific Indemnity. Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were the maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Roy MacDonald, of Humboldt, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gilcrease of Elmonte, California; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson of North Hollywood, paternal grandparents of the bride: Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Nelson of North Hollywood; and Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Rainwater of Torrance.

Notes for Connie Faye Catt:

Connie Catt Bucknam, 73, born in Columbia, South Carolina, wife to A. Herbert Bucknam for 53 years, passed away on June 25, 2020. Connie was the daughter of Lila C. Catt and the late George M. Catt of West Columbia. She attended Lexington County schools, graduating from Lexington High School, and attending the University of South Carolina. She worked for the SC Tax Commission, later the SC Dept. of Revenue for more than 30 years. She and Herbert met there, quite by accident, and from there a life of LOVE began. She enjoyed family and friends. She supported her children as they played sports at the Pineview ball complex. After a few years of this she found a need and founded the Pineview Girls Softball League. She continued as commissioner of that league until it was established enough for it to operate with elected officers. She enjoyed the LHS class of '65 get togethers. She enjoyed playing different games of cards with her lady friends. After a while they began calling themselves the LAFF ladies (Life After Forty is Fun). She loved those ladies and her card games with them. She enjoyed the best of times, laughing and just having fun as well as going to the beach with them. She, over the years, enjoyed many pets, German shepherd's, Pekingese, Shih Tzu, Golden Retrievers but spoke very fondly of Farina.
