Notes for James A. Dillman:

James A Dillman of Cocoa Beach - On October 12, 2021, after a short illness, my father passed away at 88 years of age. Dad was born on December 4, 1932 in Olney, Illinois to Virgil and Lela (Dugan) Dillman. Somehow Dad managed to graduate from high school without taking a math course. After marrying Mom he joined the Navy. Following his enlistment, he brought his family back to Illinois where he worked (briefly) at a steel mill. After a co-worker's bloody encounter with some of the machinery, Dad decided he was going to enroll in college. With some tutoring and a lot of persistence, he graduated with a degree in Physics. Following graduation, he went to work for General Electric in Pittsfield, Massachusetts and then transferred to Cape Canaveral to work on the Trident Missile Program until retiring at age 58. After becoming bored, frustrated with golf, and completing most of his "honey do list", he and a couple of others started a software company. This was followed by a few other milestones such as a tandem parachute jump in his 60's, obtaining his pilot's license in his 70's, and driving an open-wheel Indy type car in his 80's.

Dad is predeceased by his parents, Virgil and Lela Dillman, his wife of 49 years, Beverly, and his older brother, Ted. He is survived by his son, Michael, daughter-in-law, Merry Pat (Misiak) Dillman, grandchildren, Rachel (Nik) Schroth and Evan Dillman, and great grandson, Tanner Schroth along with numerous nephews and nieces. In addition, he is survived by his longtime partner, Florence Staton, her daughter Maribeth (Rick) Leaman, and their daughter Lizzie Leaman.

Dad was a wonderful father, father-in-law, husband, grandfather, great grandfather, partner and friend. His wisdom and particularly his sense of humor will be greatly missed by everyone. There will be a private celebration of life for family members.

Child of James Dillman and Beverly ? is:

+ 8823 i. Michael Lee¹⁴ Dillman.

Marriage Notes for Lew Wilson and Margaret Lee:

Jan. 6, 1959 – An announcement made today by Mr. and Mrs. Leland Lee of Fontana revealed the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Mr. L. Don Wilson of Colton. The young pair have made plans to be married Thursday night of this week, Jan. 8. The quiet evening ceremony will unite the young couple whose engagement was made official in November when Miss Lee accepted her lovely diamond ring. The token of betrothal was offered by the groom-to-be on Nov. 4, however parents of the bride-elect made not formal announcement of the engagement until now, when Margaret and Don set the date for their wedding.

Miss Lee resides with her parents at 17890 Fairfax Street, Fontana. She is a native daughter of California and attended Fontana schools from elementary through her graduation from Fontana High School. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Wilson of 1150 North Ninth Street, Colton. He is a native of Indiana but has spent the major part of his life in the Hub City. Don is a graduate of Colton Union High School and attended elementary schools here, also. The groom-elect is employed as a lab technician by Griffin Wheel Company of Colton and is also a free lance photographer.

Miss Margaret Lee of Fontana was claimed in marriage last week by Mr. L. Don Wilson of Colton. The nuptial rites was quietly conducted by Judge D.L. Schroeder in West Riverside. The single ring marriage was an event of Jan. 8, 1959 and took place at 7:30 p.m. The lovely bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Lee of 17890 Fairfax Street, Fontana. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Wilson of 1150 North 9th Street, Colton.

The young couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones of Riverside. Richard assisted the groom as best man and his wife Marsha, attended the bride as matron of honor. Witnesses included parents of the bride and groom and the honor attendants. Margaret was given in marriage by her father. The bride was a lovely sight in a ballerina length gown of white lace over glistening taffeta. The nuptial creation was sleeveless and featured a rounded neckline. Accenting the neckline Margaret wore a single strand of pearls. The gown was designed with a fitted bodice and a wide, flared skirt. The wedding gown, according to the young bride, is the same creation which was worn by her two sisters when they were wed. Margaret is the third daughter of the Lee family to be married in the gown. Soft folds of white net were incorporated into a bridal veil for the young lady and held in place with a bandeau of white blossoms. Completing her wedding ensemble, the bride carried an arrangement of large carnations with loops of bridal satin symbolizing the never-ending circle of love.

The newlyweds donned comfortable sport togs and drove to Lake Arrowhead where they enjoyed their honeymoon. They are making their new home at 1174 North 7th Street, Colton. The bride is a native of California and attended Fontana High School. Mr. Wilson is a graduate of Colton Union High School and has spent most of his life in the Hub City. He is a native of Indiana. He is employed by Griffin Wheel Company of Colton as a lab technician and also a free-lance photographer.

Vernon Brown officiated at the candlelight service before an altar decorated with vases of mixed spring flowers and potted ferns. A white unity candle and the kneeling bench were adorned with greenery. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza, featuring a Victorian neck-line and bishop sleeves. Schiffler lace accented with pearls enhanced the net yoke. Chantilly lace and pearls adorned the fitted bodice; companion lace trimmed the sleeves and outlined the natural waist. Tiers of lace and organza ruffles bordered the hemline and extended into a chapel-length train. A wide-brimmed hat of Alencon lace featured a chiffon overlay and secured the short bridal veil. The bride carried a cascade of roses, camellias, stephanotis, tiger lilies, ivy and baby's breath with lilies of the valley and lovers' knots on white ribbon of satin and lace.

Becky Buchanan was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Suzy Mowery, Pam McQuaid and Sonya Westall. The attendants were gowned in dresses of lustre-glo knit in daphne rose with spaghetti straps, featuring Empire waists and pleated skirts that flowed to floor length. Each wore a matching bolero jacket and carried a lace and ivory fan decorated with rose-colored lilies, dusty pink roses with burgundy and white baby's breath. Todd Decker was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Gary Decker, John Warren and Steve Lockhart. Ushers were the bride's brother Stacie England, Brian Selby and Ty McQuaid. Wed in Fort Wayne – The West Creighton Avenue Christian Church in Fort Wayne was the setting for the July 17, 1976 wedding of Miss Janet Kay Putt and John Edward Hurt Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Putt of 10037 Maysville Road, Fort Wayne, while the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hurt Sr. of 910 E. Harrison St. The Rev. Donald McCord read the vows for the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Suzanne Spurlock, the soloist, who was accompanied by Mrs. Leta Cook, the guitarist, sang "Make It With You" and "The Wedding Song."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, chose a full-length gown of snow white polyester fashioned with a high waistline, fitted bodice and a V-neckline featuring a standing collar. Lace and ribbon trimmed the front inset seams, the high waistline and the long sleeves which were gathered into two-inch ribbon lace cuffs. Lace trimmed the lower edge and train of the gown, while matching lace accented the finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of green, blue, apricot, yellow and pink daisies, white carnations and baby's-breath accented with a white bow.

Mrs. Laurel Williams of Vincennes, the matron of honor, wore a blue Princess-style dress flocked with soft white flowers and fashioned with long lace sleeves, a lace yoke and lace ruffle. Her daisy hairpiece was trimmed with blue ribbon, and she carried a bouquet of blue and white daisies, carnations and baby's-breath. The bridesmaids were sisters of the bride, Miss Joni Putt of Fort Wayne, who wore an identical gown in apricot and a matching hair ribbon; Miss Judy Putt of Fort Wayne, whose gown was yellow as was her hair ribbon, and Miss Jean Putt of Fort Wayne, who wore an identical gown in green and a matching hair ribbon. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Veronica Ewing of Camby, a niece of the bridegroom, who wore pink with a matching hair ribbon. All carried flowers in white and the color to match their gowns. The flower girls were Valerie Ewing of Camby, a niece of the bridegroom, who was dressed in yellow; Joy Putt of Fort Wayne, a sister of the bride, who wore lime green, and April Putt of Ann Arbor, Michigan, a niece of the bride, whose gown was apricot. They wore princess-style dresses with long lace sleeves and lower ruffles. Each wore a matching ribbon in her hair, and carried a wicker basket filled with daisies to match the color of her gown.

Greg Gieseke of Florida was the ring bearer. Serving as best man was David Doswell of Fort Wayne, while the ushers were Mark Putt and Rodney Putt, both of Fort Wayne, and Sid Virgne of this city. The groomsmen were Rex, Dean and Neal Putt. David Virgne was the junior groomsman. The mother of the bride chose a navy blue dotted swiss gown, while the bridegroom's mother wore a pink, green, blue and orange flowered dress. Mrs. Putt's costume was complemented by a corsage of yellow carnations, while Mrs. Hurt's corsage was white.

At the reception in the South West Conservation Club in Fort Wayne guests were served from a table highlighted with a five-tiered wedding cake. Each tier trimmed in white was in a different color to match the bridal rainbow hues of blue, apricot, yellow, green and pink. Colored paper bells and ribbon accented the tables. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Mabel Shoup, the Misses Judy Campbell, Cathy Bauer, Vicki Remeta and Pam McNeely, all of Fort Wayne.

When the couple left for a camping-canoe trip down the Whitewater and Ohio rivers, the bride was wearing a polyester aqua knit pant suit. The couple are living at 1270 N. Indiana St., Mooresville. She attended Scadron Business College and upon completion was employed in the administrative offices at Colton High School until the birth of her first child. For 45 years she was happy to work alongside her family as the Office Manager at Pacific Glass Company in Rialto. Loleta raised 3 children, often shuffling them to and from all of their practices and attending all of their games, performances and events. She also played an active part in the lives of her 3 grandchildren.

Loleta was loved by everyone whose life she touched. She was known for her kindness, empathy and loving nature. She was blessed with a wide circle of friends with whom she shared many interests. She was an active member in her Church, Judson Baptist in San Bernardino. She was founder and "Queen" of the local chapter of Red Hats. She loved to travel and took many vacations and weekend trips with family and friends. A favorite destination was anywhere along the California Coast. She met with her sisters Bonnie and Sandra each month for lunch. She enjoyed cooking delicious holiday meals as well as barbeques or tacos to celebrate any occasions, or for no reason at all.

Almost every holiday weekend was spent at her daughter's, often with granddaughters and friends. They would shop, take day trips to places like Catalina or Disneyland, watch movies and have fun. But it was mostly shopping. Loleta was very creative and was always crafting. She would make things such as Christmas Ornaments, jewelry and even dolls. The bride wore a silk organza gown accented in Cluny lace with a high-rise neckline. The bishop sleeves featured deep lace cuffs. A modified sheath skirt was enhanced with a deep lace hemline border, and matching lace edged the long silk chapel train and formed the bandeau headpiece. She carried a cascade of daisies, yellow rosebuds and babies-breath with white streamers tied in lover's knots. In keeping with tradition, the bride wore a necklace which was a gift from the groom as something old, something borrowed, a penny for her shoe, something new, her wedding gown, and something blue, the garter.

Connie Cleveland was chosen by the bride to be maid of honor. She was attired in a long A-line. mint green gown of polyester double knit with ruffles at the neck and sleeves. Connie carried a single yellow rose and babies-breath with yellow streamers and lover's knots. Junior Bradshaw was chosen as best man. The ushers were Randy Catt and Jerry Catt, brothers of the bride. The bride's mother wore a mint green dress with white accessories as her ensemble, and Mrs. Alexander wore an orange polyester dress with white accessories for her son's wedding.

The wedding cake, which was one of the main attractions at the reception, which immediately followed the ceremony, was a two-tier dome cake decorated with two doves and a miniature bride and groom. Servers were Kelli and Sue Alexander, Pam Catt and Dawn Catt, all sisters-in-law of the bride. After a short wedding trip to Audubon State Park, the bridal couple will reside in Patoka. The bride, who will be a 1976 graduate of Princeton Community High School, is employed at Forest Del Nursing Home. The groom graduated from P.C.H.S. in 1975 and is now working at Long John Silver's. Notes for Shirley Ann Leslie:

Shirley Ann Catt (nee Leslie), January 10, 1930 to April 7, 2016 It is with great sorrow that we report our devoted mother and loving grandmother, Shirley Ann Catt, passed away peacefully in her sleep on April 7 after a brief illness. She was 86 and a "cradle-to-grave" Roman Catholic. She was born Shirley Ann Leslie on January 10, 1930, to Walter Scott Leslie, a rock Island Railroad engineer, and Magdaline Helen Leslie, a former school teacher in Valley Junction (West Des Moines) Iowa. Shirley was the fifth of six children born to the Leslies. She was baptized at Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Valley Junction in March 1930. When she was two years old, Shirley and her family moved to Manly, Iowa. The Leslies joined Sacred Heart parish and it was here that Shirley was confirmed (Mary as her Confirmation Saint). She attended Sacred Heart Catholic School from kindergarten until her junior year in high school, and then attended Manly High School. At Sacred Heart Shirley was involved in numerous parish activities and she was especially fond of her teachers, the Sisters of Charity- Blessed Virgin Mary (BVM). While at Manly High School, Shirley participated in Chorus, Y-Teen, Pep Club, lettered in varsity basketball and softball, was a member of the Lettermen's Club, and was art editor for the school yearbook and paper. According to her college roommate and lifelong friend, Vivian McAldoon, "Shirley was the epitome of the devoted nurse, often going above and beyond to ensure patient care." Shirley then joined the United States Navy and was commissioned as ensign in September 1952. After her initial training at St. Albans Naval Hospital, New York, she joined the nursing staff of the Naval Hospital at Camp Pendleton, California. It was here that she met Daniel A. Catt, the love of her life. Dan and Shirley Catt were married on October 15, 1955. Shirley left the Navy in 1955 and spent the next 25 years as a registered nurse with the Veteran's Administration. During her career with the VA, she served primarily as a chief pediatric nurse and surgical nurse. Her final duty was with the Danville VA, where she retired in 1978. Shirley spent many happy hours reading, attending mass at St. Paul's Catholic Church (she was a parishioner since 1974), traveling the world with Daniel after he retired and enjoying time with her family and friends. Her parents, Walter and Helen; husband, Daniel; brothers, Raymond, Allen, Curtis; sister, Dorothy, all preceded her in death.

Notes for Nancy Lou Conrad:

After a three-year separation, Nancy C. Spear has accepted the invitation to join her husband, Robert M. Spear, in Heaven on May 5th, 2010. A fifty-six year romance that started in April 1951 is now complete. Nancy was born on September 3rd, 1930, to Beecher and Sophie Conrad of Petersburg, Indiana. After graduating from Indiana State University, Nancy and Bob dedicated their lives to raising a family in Evansville, Indiana. She cherished her time with family and friends and was known as a gracious host and mother to all. Anyone was welcome to Sunday dinners at "grandmas" for the past thirty years. Christmas was a special holiday to Nancy and the Spear family. It had no beginning or end with her year-round display of thousands of Santa Clauses.

Nancy is survived by her sons, Rob, Jim and Tom; her grandchildren, Casey, Jamey, Sally and Andrew; and great grandchildren, Rylie and Maddux. Friends are invited to join the family in celebration of Nancy's life, on May the 8th, 2010, at 9am at Holy Rosary Church. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Southwestern Behavioral Healthcare, Inc., 415 Mulberry St., Evansville, Indiana 47713. Ziemer Funeral Home East Chapel is handling arrangements.

Notes for Robert Max Spear:

Robert M. Spear, 77, passed away on Tuesday, April 10, 2007, at St. Mary's Medical Center. While the entire mental health care community in Indiana will mourn Bob's passing, none will miss him as much as Nancy Spear, his wife for more than 50 years, and his sons, Rob, Jim and Tom. Bob Spear, a native of Terre Haute, Ind., was educated at Indiana State University, where he received bachelor's degrees in English and mathematics and a master's degree in counseling. He also received advanced math training at Purdue University and training in vocational administration at Indiana State University. He attended National Graduate University to study grant negotiation and administration and Tulane University to study mental health administration.

He was granted the status of Certified Mental Health Administrator by the Association of Mental Health Administrators. Bob served as the Executive Director of the Southwestern Indiana Mental Health Center. He was actively involved in the early development of the community mental health system in Indiana where he shared his valued experience, leadership and vision. During his 20+ years of service, Bob assisted in shaping the future directions of community mental health for the state of Indiana. He served with distinction on the Governor's Council for Mental Health Planning, Commission on Community Residential Facilities and Commission on Directions in Mental Health. He was also a member of the Southern Indiana Health Systems Agency, and served as president on both the Southwestern Indiana District Council and the Indiana Council of Community Mental Health Centers. Bob was on the board of the Vanderburgh County Mental Health Association and the Southwestern Indiana Mental Health Foundation Board. He was chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Indiana Council of Community Mental Health Centers and chairman of the State of Indiana on the National Council of Community Mental Health Centers. He also served as a member of Welborn Hospital's Institutional Review Board and numerous planning committees on the state and local levels. Robert Spear's commitment to his center and the patients it serves, his staff, the local community and the state was exceptional.

Governor Orr recognized the importance of Spear's contributions and commitment by awarding him the Sagamore of the Wabash. He was also awarded the Sagamore of the Wabash by Governor Bayh. He was recognized as a Distinguished Hoosier by Governor Orr and was the recipient of a gubernatorial commendation by Governor Bowen. For his service to the state, he was presented the Charles E. Bosma Award by the State of Indiana and the Indiana Council of Community Mental Health Centers. Upon retiring, Spear was presented with the Don Kinzer Award by the Indiana Council. Bob retired from the Southwestern Indiana Mental Health Center in 1989 and enjoyed many years of fishing, traveling and spending time with his family. He returned to the workforce in December 2003 to serve as superintendent of Evansville State Hospital, a position he held until he, once again, retired in December 2006. Those in the mental health field are indebted to this man for his energy, foresight, generosity and willingness to share in guiding a better community response for the citizens of Indiana affected by mental illness.

To honor Bob's dedication and leadership, the Mental Health Center at 415 Mulberry was named the Robert M. Spear Building. Mr. Spear was also a pioneer in educational TV in Southwestern Indiana. In 1958, the public schools in Southwestern Indiana in conjunction with the Ford Foundation began an educational television program. Mr. Spear was chosen to teach geometry in this new and innovative program. After three years, he switched to ninth grade English and for the next eight years, taught English and Literature to 4000/5000 students daily via public television on Channel 7. Mr. Spear, likewise, was a pioneer in a new and innovative apprentice training program for the Evansville- Vanderburgh School Corp. In 1964, Mr. Spear was asked by the School Corporation to develop a new apprentice program which would be both academic and work-related in content. Later that year, West Heights Building Trades School opened its doors, being supported by the School Corporation, the Associated General Contractors and many Building Trades Unions: Carpenters, Roofers, Painters, Iron Workers, Millwrights and Bricklayers. This was one of the very few programs in the country to offer joint apprentice training to such a diversified group with the unprecedented support of the school system, the contractors and the labor unions.

Bob is survived by his wife of 57 years, Nancy (Conrad) Spear; sons, Robert and his wife Linda, Jim and Tom, all of Evansville; sisters, Sue Root Felbleman of Beverly Hills, California, and Rosemary Voges of Ormond Beach, Florida. Also surviving are grandchildren, Casey, Jamey, Sally and Andrew; and great-grandchild, Rylie; as well as several nieces and nephews.

Services will be at Holy Rosary Catholic Church at 11 a.m. on Monday, April 16, with Father Raymond Kuper and Father Bernard Etienne officiating. A luncheon will immediately follow the service at Holy Rosary's Fellowship Hall. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Southwestern Indiana Mental Health Center, 415 Mulberry St., Evansville, Indiana 47713.

always said, "She" as though these kids only belonged to his wife. Aldrun got a tickled look in his dancing, green eyes as he flung back his head in laughter. His whole face came alive with pure joy when he observed their confused look. The tourists multiplied $7 \times 7 = 49$, instead of adding $7 + 7 = 14$!! Being an honest man, Aldrun told them the correct answer.

Marriage Notes for Ruth Smith and James Kamarek:

Miss Ruth Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. Harry Smith, Route 3, Stanley, Wisconsin, chose a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over net and satin for her wedding to James F. Kamarek of West Chicago, Illinois, on August 17th, 1957. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kamarek, Athens, Wisconsin. St. Mary's Catholic Church, Stanley, was the setting for the ten o'clock nuptial Mass with Father George Mathieu as celebrant. He also performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Ione Truse, cousin of the bride, sang "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus" and "Mother at Thy Feet I'm Kneeling," accompanied by the organist, Miss Marcella Thorpe.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. An illusion neckline accentuated by a wing collar styled the fitted lace bodice with long sleeves. A lace peplum detailed the full tulle skirt which was over net and satin. An open crown of iridescents and pearls held the imported silk illusion veil. The bride carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Miss Carolyn Smith, Stanley, was her sister's maid of honor. Miss Darlene Daniels, West Chicago, sister of the groom and Miss Carol Imhoff, Milwaukee, a friend, served as bridesmaid. The attendants wore identically styled frocks of white circle embroidered starched net over colored net and taffeta, the maid of honor in orchid, and the aides in aqua color. The molded bodice was fashioned of net and formed a bateau neckline with a V forming the back. A sheer cummerbund with streamers extended down the back of the full circular skirt. They wore open crown profile caps of loop ribbon tulle and pearls entwined in the same colors as their gowns. The maid of honor carried aqua carnations with orchid ribbon, and the bridesmaids had orchid carnations with aqua ribbons. The two flower girls, Linda Shuk and Joan Smith, nieces of the bride, wore identical styled frocks of white net over yellow taffeta with yellow cummerbunds. White daisy crowns with net styled their head pieces and each carried a basket of white daisies. Edward Daniels, West Chicago, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Andy Shuk and Ray Joswiak ushered.

A dinner was served at the American Legion Hall in Thorp with covers for 125 guests. The reception which followed was attended by 300 guests. The mother of the bride greeted the guests in a navy-blue dress with which she wore a pink orchid corsage. The mother of the groom pinned a similar corsage on her grey net over pink taffeta costume. The bride selected a light green sheath dress with white accessories, complemented by an orchid corsage, for her going away costume. After a trip to northern Wisconsin, they will make their home in Chicago, Illinois. The bride was graduated from Thorp High School and St. Mary's School of Nursing in Wausau. The groom is a graduate of the Abbotsford High School.

5210. Michael Harvey¹³ Holmes (Doris Marceil¹² Catt, Samuel Edward¹¹, Jesse Mason¹⁰, George⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 29 Apr 1941 in Wichita, Sedgwick Co, Kansas, and died 05 Apr 2024 in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake Co, Utah. He married Marian Roberts 22 Apr 1959 in Reno, Nevada.

Notes for Michael Harvey Holmes:

Michael Harvey Holmes, 82, passed away peacefully April 5th, 2024, with his sweetheart, Marian, by his side. He was born on April 29th, 1941, in Wichita, Kansas to John Harvey Holmes and Doris Marceil (Catt). His family moved to Salt Lake City, where he spent his childhood. During those years, he enjoyed playing sports with a particular love for baseball and boxing. Michael attended West High School. There, he met and courted the love of his life, Marian (Roberts). He affectionately referred to her as "My Girl." They are a few short weeks away from celebrating their 65th wedding anniversary. In every way they are a team.

They were married on April 22nd, 1959, in Reno, Nevada and later sealed with their three children in the Salt Lake Temple on September 4th, 1963. As the years passed, they welcomed nine more children, bringing the total to 12: six girls and six boys. Michael's business career began at the young age of 14. His first job was working as a laborer on his father's framing crew. From there, he continued the family legacy as a fourth-generation general contractor, building thousands of homes throughout the Salt Lake Valley.

As a dedicated disciple of Jesus Christ, Michael has a zeal for missionary work. Through the testimony of his paternal grandfather, he developed a love for the Prophet Joseph Smith and the Restoration. As a new father who came from a home with parents who were non-participating members of the Church, Michael made study of the gospel of Jesus Christ a priority. His makeshift office in their unfinished basement became a sacred place. There, he was instructed by the Holy Ghost about the truths of the restored gospel. Michael was diligent in both religious and secular studies. One of his prized possessions is his personal library. He collected thousands of books that still adorn his home. He delighted in studying from The Book of Mormon and never missed an opportunity to share what he discovered from the scriptures. He gained great satisfaction upon discovering new names and titles of the Savior. A particular favorite title was Good Shepherd. Like the Savior, Michael actively sought to serve the one – the downtrodden, the lonely, the sick, the widow, the needy. He taught his children to do the same.

Michael served in numerous church callings, including counselor in a Bishopric, Bishop, Stake President, Regional Representative, Mission President in the Missouri Independence Mission, Area Seventy, Mission President in the Salt Lake City Temple Square Mission, and Patriarch. He had the cherished privilege of giving many patriarchal blessings, including blessings to 13 of his grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Family brought him great joy and fulfillment. As a grandfather to 79 grandchildren and 62 great-grandchildren, he had a special way of making each child feel like his favorite; he had nicknames for them all. God's creations were a marvel to him. He loved animals and spending time in nature, especially hunting and fishing with his sons and grandsons. Michael loved listening to uplifting music and recognized the hand of God in musicians' talents. He humbly noted the gifts of others, the beauty of nature, and considered them divine gifts from a loving Father in Heaven.

As an incredible teacher, he taught his children: "Remember you're a Holmes." He encouraged them to be covenant makers and covenant keepers. He never missed an opportunity to share his deeply held testimony of the Savior and the restored gospel. His words pierced the hearts of all who listened. Until his final breath, Michael taught by word and example. We miss him dearly but believe in a Perfect Plan that will allow us to see him again.

Michael was preceded in death by his parents, John and Doris, and his siblings, Janice, John, Ola, Ann, Nedra. He is survived by his wife, Marian (Roberts), and his children: Elizabeth Forrest (Bart), Shauna Condas (John), Michael (Kristine), Carolyn Triptow (David), Sydney Jenkins (Jay), Patrick (Jennifer), Moe Edwards (Rich), Kimberly Arnett (Brad), Spencer (Kellie), Steven (Melody), Brian (Maggie), Bradley (Sunny), 79 grandchildren and 62 great-grandchildren.

A public viewing will be held Thursday, April 11th, from 6 to 8 p.m. Funeral services will be held Friday, April 12th, at 11 a.m. The viewing and funeral will be held at the Draper Stake Center (13085 South 300 East, Draper, Utah). A viewing will be held Friday from 9:30-10:30 a.m. prior to the funeral services. Interment at Salt Lake City Cemetery.

Notes for Richard Squire Myers:

Cheyenne, Wyoming, May 29, 1936 – Another complication appeared today in the long legal controversy between Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Myers of Cheyenne and the state board of charities and reform for the custody of three Myers children. The complication is Clyde Leonard Myers, four days old. Monday, before the newcomer is a week old, attorneys for the Myers family and for the state board will argue the board's petition in district court to retain custody of the baby's two sisters and brother.

County Attorney Robert G. Caldwell said he had no determined what action, if any might be taken regarding the newcomers out added "It complicated the situation." The state board several months ago took custody of the three older Myers children on grounds the parents were not fit guardians. After the court order had been signed, the family moved their youngsters to Nebraska where they were taken by a representative of the children's division of the board.

Later the parents brought a habeas corpus action and obtained an order for return of the three. Thus action, however, was blocked when the state board filed a new petition seeking their custody and retained guardianship pending arguments on the petition.

The Myers are parents of four other children beside the baby and the three whose guardianship is disputed.

Notes for Bert Blaine Jennings:

Bert B. Jennings passed away in the St. Elizabeth's hospital in Yakima, Washington, on them o! May 7, 1940, aged 48 years, 7 months and 24 days. Although he had not been in good health for several years past, his last illness was of a little more than a week's duration. Death was due to pneumonia and complications. He was thought to be recovering when on the morning of his death he suffered a relapse and all efforts to save his life were futile.

The funeral service, in charge of the American Legion, was held on Friday at three o'clock, in the Chapman and Poulin chapel, Rev. Orval D. Petercon of the First Christian church officiating. Pallbearers were members of the American Legion. Burial was at Terrace Heights beside his wife, whose funeral was held December 12, in the same chapel, with the same pastor in charge, five months ago.

Bert Blaine Jennings, son of Almon I. and Zella Jenninp, was born near Bartlett, Nebraska, September 13, 1891. He received most of his education in the Bartlett school and at Fremont College. During most of his life he was engaged in work of a clerical nature, doing secretarial work of different kinds. He assisted in banks at Bartlett, Raymond, Boone and Ainsworth, Nebraska, at different periods of his life. In training camp during the World War, he did secretarial work. He was at Camp Grant, Illinois, and his company was ready to sail for France when the Armistice was signed.

He was married to Amy S. Clark, January 8, 1919, at Cheyenne, Wyoming. For a time they resided at Sheridan Lake, Colorado, then came back to Nebraska, living near Bartlett for several years. Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, Rex Raymond passing away in infancy. The surviving children are Blaine, Elaine, Marilyn and Wilbert, of Yakima, and Lynn, in the U.S. Navy at San Diego, California. The family resided at Boone, Nebraska about five years, and at Ainsworth, Nebraska, about five years, prior to 1933 when they moved to the Jennings farm southeast of Bartlett. On June 15th, last year, they left here for Yakima, Washington.

He was a good husband and father, ever faithfully and conscientiously performing his home duties, and with untiring effort was always anxious and desirous to make provision for the comforts of life for the loved ones dependent upon him. Since the passing of his wife, he has been father and mother both to his children who will miss him greatly. Besides his children he is survived by his two sisters, Mrs. Lola Slone of Ericson, Nebraska and Mrs. Nona Berney, Bartlett, Nebraska; and many other relatives and friends.

Sequin embroidered lave motifs were appliqued to the contoured harem skirt gently pouffed over Chantilly lace and extending to a chapel train. A crown of tulle held her veil of silk illusion. She carried a white Bible adorned with a white orchid and lily of the valley.

Rosemary¹³ Walters (Hazel Effie¹² Reeves, Emeline¹¹ Catt, William Francis Marion¹⁰, Michael⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 31 Mar 1921 in Mooreland, Henry Co, Indiana, and died 20 Feb 2010 in Granite Bay, Placer Co, California. She married Rev. Dr. Lewis Weber Gishler 1946. He was born 08 May 1906 in Kitchener, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, and died 17 Jul 1986 in Muncie, Delaware Co, Indiana.

Notes for Rosemary Walters:

Muncie - Rosemary Walter Gishler passed away Saturday, February 20, 2010, from congestive heart failure at the age of 88. She spent her last few months of life in Granite Bay, California, living with her daughter Kim and family since mid-November 2009. She had a very loving and comfortable passing with the help of the local Hospice group, and was nursed until her death by her daughters in a loving and nurturing atmosphere in Kimberly's home.

Rosemary was born on March 31, 1921 to Hazel Wright Walter and Harry C. Walter of Mooreland, Indiana and was one of five children. Her youngest brother Leland Walter of Indianapolis is her only living sibling.

Notes for Rev. Dr. Lewis Weber Gishler:

First Presbyterian Church of Muncie, Indiana - In 1942, a young Pastor from Canada was chosen to lead the church. Dr. Lewis Weber Gishler served as Pastor from 1942 until his retirement in 1972. The ministry of Dr. Lewis Weber Gishler, who served this church over 30 years as its pastor, saw the construction of the facility in which we presently worship on Riverside Avenue. Lew had a vision, and the congregation along with him, of the growth of Muncie around the university. Our church today is situated in the premier location for ministering and reaching out to the university community. During the Gishler years, the church grew in numbers. It was truly a time of great excitement for the leadership and members of First Presbyterian Church. Taking a radical turn from the architectural style of the past, a Georgian style building was built in 1955. Our red brick colonnaded building with its steeple and church bells soon became a landmark in the neighborhood and to the nearby college community.

Unfortunately, Gishler will be unable to answer - audibly - these honors. He is suffering from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrig's disease) which has made it impossible for him to talk. "Rev. Gishler is a very strong Christian man," Naylor said. "He still has great spiritual strength, something that has inspired each one of us with whom he has come in contact."

Also attending the May 11 service will be Gishler's wife, Rosemary Walter Gishler. They are the parents of five children, all girls: twins Ann and Sue, Austin, Texas; Lori, Nevada City, California; Jean; Sacramento, California, and Kimberly, a student at University of Arizona.

In 1984, at the completion of 50 years in the ministry, Gishler was honored during a session of the White River Presbytery in Bluffton. During those ceremonies it was noted that since his retirement from the Muncie church in 1973, he had served 10 interim ministries - and he began an 11th interim pastorate shortly thereafter.

Born in Kitchener, Ontario, Gishler earned degrees from Syracuse University and Union Theological Seminary at Princeton, New Jersey, before accepting the pastorate of First Presbyterian Church in Gallipolis, Ohio.

Eight years later, he came to Muncie to begin a 30-year ministry at First Presbyterian Church. It was during his pastorate that the church moved in the 1950s from a downtown location at Charles and Mulberry streets to its present site at Riverside and New York avenues. In addition, Gishler served for moderator of Whitewater Presbytery, as on several synod committees and was a commissioner to General Assembly five times. He was a member of the board of trustees of Warren Wilson College, Asheville, North Carolina, and earned an honorary degree from Hanover College.

Gishler has traveled in every country with the exception of India and China, and he has also studied at the University of Durban in South Africa and at the University of London.

Since leaving the local pastorate, Gishler has served the following interim pastorates:

- Dundee Presbyterian Church, Omaha, Nebraska, 1973.
- Abington Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, 1974.
- Westminster Presbyterian Church, Akron, Ohio, 1975.
- Wyoming Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati, 1976.
- Westminster Church, Steubenville, Ohio, 1977.
- Allison Park Church, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, 1978.
- Park Presbyterian Church, Beaver, Pennsylvania, 1979-80.
- The Village Church, Northbrook, Illinois, 1981.
- First Presbyterian Church, Huntington, 1982.
- Church of the Palms, Sarasota, Florida, 1983
- First Presbyterian Church, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 1984.

One of Muncie's best loved and most respected ministers of the gospel will have "his day" Sunday, May 11, 1986, at First Presbyterian Church - a church he served for 30 years. Rev. Lewis Weber Gishler, pastor emeritus of the church, will receive the following accolades at the 10:30 a.m. service that day:

? He will be celebrating his 80th birthday.

? He will be recognized for his 52 years as an ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church.

? Because of his commitment and interest in young people, the Gishler scholarship is to be instituted. Each year, a deserving high school senior from the local church is to receive the scholarship.

"We at First Presbyterian Church are indebted to Lew Gishler's ministry and we hope in this way to say 'thank you' for what he has meant to Muncie and this church," senior pastor Ronald L. Naylor said.

Marriage Notes for Rosemary Walters and Lewis Gishler:

We who mourn her passing do so in admiration and respect for her stamina, courage, and resilience in the face of many adversities, some personal and familial and other stresses imposed from the outside such as the Great Depression, WWII, the Korean and Vietnam Wars and crises that perpetually follow. Born on 8 July, 1922, she saw the birth of road systems for automobiles, airline passenger service, the invention of jet aircraft, televisions, men walking on the moon, computers, the internet, and the perils of climate change.

Florence took pleasure telling stories based in her wealth of experiences. It is said that a library dies with the passing of each person, but she lives on in our memories.

Merchant Marine, US Navy Sailor, business owner, and mechanic were a few of Jim's jobs before starting his career as a police officer. Jim started out walking the beat in Havre as a new police officer, and after 20 years of service, he retired as Chief of Police. Keith Donald¹³ Crane (Leland Teddy¹², Edwin Samson¹¹, Mariah Jerusha¹⁰ Catt, Michael⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 06 Nov 1930 in Los Angeles Co, California. He married Ann Farley 08 Mar 1958 in Trinity, California. She was born 29 May 1936 in San Francisco Co, California, and died 12 May 2019 in Weaverville, California.

Notes for Ann Farley:

Ann Farley Crane, 82, of Weaverville, passed away May 12, 2019, with her husband of 61 years by her side. She was born to the late James and Agnes Farley, on May 29, 1936 in San Francisco and soon located to Trinity County where she would spend most of her life. Ann graduated from Trinity High School at the age of 16 in 1952, received a BA in Education from the University of California – Davis in 1956, and obtained a Teaching Credential from California State University Chico. She married Keith Crane in 1958, and they lived in Weaverville until her death. Ann is survived by five children: Julie Ciruli of Green Valley, Arizona; Margaret Crane of Davis; Amy Munger of Pasadena; Brian Crane of Redding; and Michael Crane of Pleasant Hill. She is also survived by 11 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Ann's Trinity County and Irish heritage was important to her. She was the great granddaughter of Eliza Todd who came to Weaverville from Ireland in 1851, impressively hiking the last Old Shasta to Weaverville stretch carrying her newborn baby and her husband's boots. In addition, Ann's Uncle Charlie (Creamer) was the stage coach driver on the stage that was held up by Black Bart on Trinity Mountain, her step Uncle Buck (Montgomery) was the Weaverville Stage Wells Fargo guard that was shot and killed by the Ruggles Brothers along Middle Creek near Old Shasta, and her Uncle Jock (Todd) tended the LaGrange Ditch from Emerald Lake to Bridge Camp along Stuarts Fork. In Ann's early years she could be seen belly up to the bar for meals at the family owned New York Hotel & Saloon, teaching swimming lessons in the Trinity River near Steel Bridge Road, or on horseback traveling to and from Morris Meadows in the Trinity Alps.

Education and Adventure were also an important part of Ann's life. Following her mother's Trinity High School teaching footsteps, Ann was a school teacher for 30 years at Weaverville Elementary School and instilled in a couple generations of Weaverville youth the importance of education including, but certainly not limited to, her five children who all graduated from four-year California universities. Ann also mixed education and adventure leading her family in a VW Bus (mostly) 8-month trip across United States and Western Europe in 1970 (not entirely what you think...), twisting her kids arms to join her on annual Ashland Shakespeare trips and plays at the Curran in San Francisco, mandating annual family pack trips all over the Trinity Alps, and immersing herself in the culture of people all over the Americas, Europe, Asia, and Australia. In her later years, Ann could be seen reading a good mystery novel on the deck of her Weaverville home, walking with good friends on the roads and trails around Weaverville, leading tours of historic downtown Weaverville, picking spring bouquets of Mountain Irises and Shooting Stars, and hounding her grandkids to pick some Trinity County blackberries so she could make her infamous blackberry jam and cobbler.

Ann was buried at Weaverville Cemetery following a family funeral mass at St. Patrick's Catholic Church on May 17th. The family will have a Celebration of Life Brunch open to the public on July 3rd at the Lewiston Hotel in Lewiston, California from 10 am to 1 pm. The family requests that people make donations to either the Trinity County Friends of the Library or the Weaverville Cemetery Association in lieu of flowers or other gifts.

During World War 2 all four brothers served in the US Navy and sent home part of their pay to help Mabel. Glen served part of the war in Australia and was fortunate to visit there again later in life. After the war Glen moved to Los Angeles and pursued one of his dreams with photography school. Marriage Notes for Sandra Ingle and Ronald Thompson:

At 2 p.m. Sunday June 18, 1955 in St. John's Lutheran Church, the Rev. Otto H. Friedman united in marriage Miss Sandra Jean Ingle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ingle of Kokomo R.R. 4, and Ronald Morey Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wiza of Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Otto Friedman, organist, and Albert Kindig, soloist, presented nuptial music preceding the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Friedmann played "Song to the Evening Star," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," "Largo" and "Lord Who at Cana's Wedding Feast." Mr. Kindig's selections were "Oh, Perfect Love" and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" at the conclusion of the rites. Yellow tapers in seven-branch candelabra, with yellow streamers tied to the standards, and a standard of Madonna lilies, with palms in the background, formed the setting for the nuptials. Flowers and greenery were tied with yellow ribbons to the family pews.

A floor-length gown was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her father. The strapless bodice was topped with a jacket of Chantilly lace, closed down the front with self-covered buttons and designed with Queen Anne collar and long sleeves ending in bridal points. Alternating panels of lace and nylon net coned the billowy skirt. The bride's chapel-length veil of French illusion was caught to a crown of sequins and pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, belonging to Mrs. Mark Garrison, a family friend, and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. and carried a lace-covered Bible crested with a purple-throated white orchid.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Wayne Moss who was gowned in a ballerina-length dress of yellow net over taffeta. The strapless bodice was lace with a shoulder stole and the skirt was fashioned of alternating lace and net ruffles, with a pleated net inset in front. She wore a picture hat of mint green nylon with a green bow and streamers and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Hahn and Miss Joyce Condo. Their gowns, hats and bouquets were identical to the matron of honor's. Serving as best man was Kenneth Wiza Rantoul, Illinois, and ushers were Robert Fisher and Michael Corcoran, Detroit, Michigan. A navy-blue lace dress with blue and white accessories and a white carnation corsage was chosen by the mother of the bride. The bridegroom's mother selected gold princess-style dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The parlors of the church were the scene of the reception for 150 guests. The four-tier cake, iced in mint green and adorned with a small bride and bridegroom was the centerpiece for the table. The green satin cloth was topped with white tulle. Nosegays of yellow mums with green ribbon ties marked the comers and were caught in Colds of the skirt. Yellow tapers in five-branch ceramic bride and bridegroom holders flanked the cake and the rose-shaped mints also were in yellow and green. Huckleberry in which nestled yellow mums wreathed the cake and punch bowl. Assistants in serving were Mrs. Thomas Pratt, Mrs. Mark Garrison, Mrs. Ronald Rich, Mrs. Richard McCain and Miss Dolly Wiza.

After a few days stay in Chicago, the couple will be at home in Mt. Clemens, Michigan when the couple left for their honeymoon, the bride was wearing a navy-blue linen suit, pink accessories and an orchid corsage. The new Mrs. Thompson was graduated from Northwestern High School in 1953 and has been bookkeeper for Dean Motors Inc. Mr. Thompson is serving with the Air Force at Selfridge AFB, Mt. Clemens. He was graduated from Mackenzie High School, Detroit, in 1949. The following were out-of-town guests: Mrs. Mabel Fagg and Mr. and Mrs. George Carboll, Berkley, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. John Wiza and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Corcoran, Detroit; Michigan and Mrs. Martin Lucas, Baseline, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Thompson, Utica, Michigan and Leroy Hoff, Indianapolis

Marriage Notes for Marlene Catt and William Pruet:

Baskets of white delphinium and palms interspersed with four seven-branch candelabra formed an appropriate background for the wedding of Miss Marlene Joan Catt and William Lowell Pruet which was solemnized in the New Salem Methodist church Sunday afternoon June 17, 1951 at 3:30 o'clock. The Rev. R.E. Badger, district superintendent, used the double ring ceremony in confirming the vows. The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Catt of Andersonville and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Pruet of near New Salem are the parents of the bridegroom.

Miss Wilma Jo Schroeder, pianist, played "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life" and "At Dawning" to open the bridal music. Gene Clarkson of Arlington sang "Oh Promise" and "I Love You" accompanied by Miss Schroeder who used the traditional wedding marches for the entrance and recessional. At the close of the service, Mr. Clarkson sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white Chantilly lace and marquisette. The fitted lace bodice was accented by a small collar and long sleeves ending in bridal points over the hands and the bouffant marquisette skirt fell into a cathedral train. Her two-tier fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a lace half-hat adorned with seed pearls and pleated illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with a yellow throated white orchid arranged with ribbons and carnation tufts. She wore a double stand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

N=Mrs. Mary Ann Favors of Knightstown, a child classmate of the bride, wore a gown of yellow marquisette over taffeta with matching headdress and mitts. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white rose buds. Misses Ruth Stevens of Orange and Charlotte Richardson of Glenwood, senior classmates of the bride, were bridesmaids in gowns of Nile green organdie with embroidered flower motifs over taffeta. They carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations. The flower girl, Judith Kay Frazier of Greensburg, was dressed in yellow marquisette over taffeta. She carried a basket of flower petals. Stanley Allen Murphy of Greensburg, as ring bearer, wore a navy suit and carried a white satin pillow with the rings in a lily. Both were cousins of the bride.

William Switzer of New Salem was best man and ushers were Don Meyers, Darrell Brooks and Dale Kinder, classmates of the bridegroom in 1950. For the daughter's wedding, Mrs. Catt Wore navy marquisette over taffeta with accessories of navy and white and a red rose bud corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a printed sheer dress, white accessories and a corsage of red rose buds.

Following congratulations at the church, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Pruet, grandparents of the bridegroom. A three-tier wedding cake, tapers, white carnations and greenery adorned the serving table. Miss Sharon Davison, Miss Bertie Lou Bush, Mrs. Robert Long, Mrs. Dwight Griner and Mrs. Duane Wilson assisted. Guests were present from Greensburg, Knightstown, Anderson, Indianapolis, Brookville, Connersville, Metamora, Andersonville, and Rush County. Marriage Notes for Janet Williams and James Crider:

A wedding of interest to local residents took place Friday evening Sept. 1951 in the South Side Church of the Nazarene, Indianapolis where Miss Janet Williams became the bride of Private James W. Crider. Parents of the bride, Rev. and Mrs. L.S. Williams, reside on Randall Street, Indianapolis, where the Rev. Mr. Williams is pastor of the Edgewood Church of the Nazarene. Formerly he was the pastor of the West Side church of the Nazarene here. The bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Marcus Crider of Evansville. The Rev. Mr. Crider is pastor of the Nazarene at Evansville.

Fathers of the bridal couple officiated at the marriage rites in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. Background for the candelabra, holding tall white lighted tapers, were potted palms and ferns. Bouquets of white gladioli were arranged at the altar for the pretty candlelight wedding. Marking the family pews were bows of white satin ribbons. Nuptial music was presented before and during the ceremony by Miss Ruth Gates of Evansville, organist, and James Smith of Clarksville, Mississippi, vocalist. Their program included a number of traditional bridal selections and the processional and recessional marches.

Miss Ruth Harter of Richmond attended the bride as maid of honor. Her sister, Miss Sara Williams was bridesmaid. Private Cecil Hollis of Indianapolis, who is stationed at Fort Custer, Michigan, served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Robert Stout of Richmond and James Hayden of Evansville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and Chantilly lace. Insets of lace from the neckline to the hemline, accented Princess lines of the gown. Tiny covered buttons fastened the front of the bodice and the long-tapered sleeves. The skirt fell in a cathedral length train. Holding a lace-edged fingertip tiered illusion veil in place as a crown of seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a wrist watch, the bridegroom's gift. She carried a cascade arrangement of white pompons and gladioli with white satin ribbons.

Miss Harter was gowned in a floor length yellow satin dress. A sheer net yoke accented the high neckline and the sleeves were bracelet length. She wore a bandeau of yellow satin with a shoulder length yellow net veil. Miss William's gown, similarly styled, was in pale blue. She wore a blue headband with a shoulder length veil. Each carried a cascade bouquet of yellow pompons.

Eighty guests were entertained at a reception in the central Youngs Women's Christian association immediately after the wedding. A miniature bridal couple, with the bridegroom in military uniform, ornamented the two-tiered wedding cake. The couple plans a live at Augusta, Georgia, where the bridegroom is stationed at Camp Gordon with the U.S. Army. For travel the bride wore a blue crepe dress with black velvet accessories.

Mrs. Crider graduated from Richmond high school in 1949. While she lived here she was a dental assistant for Dr. E. A. Wysong. The bridegroom is a graduate of Trevecca Nazarene college high school at Nashville Tennessee.

6129. Keith Lynn¹³ Stanton (Mabel¹² Thomas, Samuel Henry¹¹, Sarah Melintha¹⁰ Catt, Samuel⁹, Johannes (John)⁸, Michael⁷ Katz, Stephen⁶ Kaz, Martin⁵, Michael⁴, Sebastian³ Katz, Hans², Hans¹) was born 25 Jul 1942 in Valparaiso, Porter Co, Indiana. He married Linda Rae Jones 03 Nov 1962 in Oak Park, Illinois. She was born 16 May 1944 in Illinois.

Notes for Keith Lynn Stanton:

August 4, 2007 – LaGrange - "Please don't shoot us!" These words from an assistant bank manager are etched in the mind of LaGrange banker Keith Stanton, who early in his career was the lone survivor of a bank robbery in 1967 in Valparaiso. Stanton, then age 25, heard assistant bank manager Doug Parry, 27, of Valparaiso plead with the bank robber before he was fatally shot in an attempted armed robbery at Northern Indiana Bank and Trust at Burns Harbor, near Portage. Stanton was in his first month of management training at the branch on that fateful day, Monday, June 26, 1967.

That day bank manager Anthony Gregory, 57, was shot and also lost his life. The bank robber, Howard Rekau, a 41-year-old former Chicago police officer, was killed by police trying to escape from the scene. Stanton was also shot, but he survived. There's a scar on the back of his head at the base of his skull where the gunman's bullet entered, and a scar just below his left ear where the bullet exited. Stanton's injuries required four to five days of recovery in the Michigan City hospital.

The robbery is easily the most memorable event in Stanton's 40 years in banking. He retired Friday from Farmers State Bank in LaGrange as senior vice president. He worked 33 years at Farmers State Bank, accepting a position in 1974. "Keith really had a guardian angel that day," his wife, Linda, said. "He really could have died several times. He was shot by the robber. He fought the robber for his life. He ran out of the bank and the police fired shots over his head. He ran across four lanes of traffic and collapsed where an attendant recognized him as a bank employee or the police could have shot him there." Stanton remembers that day clearly, and even has spoken at police and bank training sessions about it.

"The robber first entered the branch bank at about 11 a.m. and conferred with the bank manager, Tony Gregory, for an hour about opening an account, then left," Stanton recalled. "The robber returned again at 1 p.m. and had to wait about 30 minutes before talking to Tony Gregory again. "The robber burst through the door with his arms full of bills and ran to his parked car. He ignored a call by police to stop, then got out of his car and held up his hands when a warning shot was fired. Then he suddenly lunged at the officer and was dropped with a bullet in the chest," Stanton recounted. The incident made the headlines in several newspapers, including the Chicago Tribune and Chicago Sun-Times.

Stanton's wife learned about the robbery when the vice president of the bank called and told her that there had been a situation at the bank. He met her at her house and drove her to the hospital as he explained the situation. She was traumatized. "I was a young mother with two small children," she said. Stanton said the incident left some emotional scars. "It took a while before I said anything to the doctor," Stanton said. "He said I was experiencing something similar to shell-shock. I had recurring nightmares. I took some counseling with a pastor who had been a Vietnam chaplain. It took some time. I spent four to five weeks in the Michigan City hospital and took a week off from work. I was moved to manage the bookkeeping department and out of the public eye and finally headed the special services offices and collection departments. It was easy to come to Farmers State Bank in 1974. By that time I was ready for a managerial position but at that time none existed at Northern Indiana Bank and Trust. "I still get a weird feeling sometimes. Especially when I see a little thing that resembles something that jogs the memory, like someone in a suit and cowboy boots."

Stanton said the experience has made him what he is today. "I am more aware of my surroundings and what's going on around me now, which the experience created, and which is probably healthy. I tend to look at things from a different point of view than other managers, in that I am more concerned about customers and employee safety and not just money. Not just to catch robbers, but to discourage it (the robbery) in the first place. Stanton is grateful that in his 33 years at Farmers State Bank in LaGrange, the bank has not been robbed. However, he has investigated robberies at branch banks at Topeka, Stroh and Wolcottville. No one was injured in any of those robberies. During his retirement, Keith and Linda plan continue serving in the LaGrange community and do some traveling abroad.

Marriage Notes for Keith Stanton and Linda Jones:
