Notes for Johannes Stollsteimer:

Ann Arbor the First Hundred Years, by Stephenson, Orlando Worth. Ann Arbor chamber of commerce, 1927. Page 89:

Perhaps greater solace has come to these people from the work done in connection with their churches than from any other source. The first few who came worshipped in the village with other Protestant people. But by 1832 feeling was strong for a church of their own. In that year, therefore, Jonathan Henry Mann, representing German settlers in and near Ann Arbor, sent a petition to the Evangelical Missionary Institute of Basel, Switzerland, asking that a pastor might be sent here.

In answer to that petition, the Reverend Frederick Schmid was sent to America, arriving in Ann Arbor August 20, 1833. He immediately announced that a service in the German language would be held in a little log schoolhouse in Scio Township, about four miles west of the Court House Square. When this service opened, nearly all the German people in Scio and Ann Arbor were there. This was the first religious gathering of Germans in Michigan Territory. Before the devotionals were over steps had been taken to perfect a church organization, and a date was set upon which more formal action was to be taken. During the last week in August a meeting was held in the home of Daniel F. Allmendinger, about two miles west of the village, and a religious organization created under the name of "The First German Evangelical Society of Scio." It was decided that a church building should be erected at the earliest possible moment. Mr. Allmendinger presented the society with an acre of ground, and on it, at a total cost of $265.32, a small frame building was erected. The list of members and non-members who contributed to the building fund offers accurate information as to the names of these early German settlers and at the same time it tells us who helped to perfect the organization of this pioneer society.

Among the nonmembers were David F. Allmendinger, Ludwig Mayle, John G. Koch, George Kleindop, Frederick Traver, Charles Schmid, John George Allmendinger, Emanuel Wild, Howard Eyley, Jacob Paul, Karl Hornung, George Gutekunst, Andreas Beck, Christian Auch, John Stollsteimer, Gottlieb Nordmann, Frederick Laubengayer, George Prussia, Salome Schweizer and Elizabeth Katherine Allmendinger.

The members of the church who contributed to the building fund were Daniel F. Allmendinger, Jonathan Henry Mann, George Straatmen, Jacob Markle, George Mayle, Christian Prussia, Abraham Kroman, Josiah Kroman, John Kroman, John Beck, Jacob Steffe, John M. Schneider, Jacob Stollsteimer, and the minister, Frederick Schmid. Twenty dollars were also given by the Josenhans family, who were still living in Stuttgart, and ten dollars were given by "a friend" living in Philadelphia. On the third of November, members of the "Evangelical Society" again met at Mr. Allmendinger's home and trustees of the society were chosen. The men so honored were Christian Prussia, John Beck and Abraham Kroman. They were to be known as the "Trustees of the First German Evangelical Society of Scio." After some discussion, it was decided to incorporate, so a record of the proceedings was filed in the Court of Washtenaw County under date of December 16, 1834.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens: history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas.

C. Chapman & Co., 1881. Page 356:

The following is from the pen of Emanuel Mann, whose father was one of the first German settlers in the county: It was in the autumn of 1829 that Frederick Schilling, of Weinsberg, and Jonathan Henry Mann, of Stuttgart, in the kingdom of Wurtemberg, in South Germany, crossed Lake Erie together in search of a new home in the Territory of Michigan. Schilling was accompanied by his family, consisting of wife, son and daughter. (Both son and daughter are still living at Sebewaing, Huron County. J. H. Mann left his family at Reading, Pennsylvania, with a view to move in the following spring in case he found a desirable location in Michigan. They were advised by Daniel F. Allmendinger, also a native of Wurtemberg, living near Dansville, New York, who had visited Michigan a short time before, to go to Washtenaw County, where said Allmendinger had already purchased Government land in the Township of Lodi. As there was some good Government land in the Township of Scio, Frederick Schilling purchased 80 acres on section in said township. J. H. Mann, a tanner by trade, concluded to settle in the village of Ann Arbor, and to move his family the following spring. On his return to Pennsylvania, he wrote a letter to his brother-in-law, Emanuel Josenhans, in Stuttgart, giving a very favorable account of what he saw of the new Territory and the route by which it could be reached by immigrants from Germany, from New York via Erie Canal and Lake Erie. Mr. Josenhans circulated the letter amongst the peasantry in the neighborhood of Stuttgart. The consequence was that numerous immigration was started for Michigan by a class of small farmers and mechanics who had very limited means.

J. Henry Mann with his family arrived at Ann Arbor in the first days of June, 1830, where he purchased a tannery of Harvey Austin. Said tannery was situated at or near where the present depot of the Toledo & Ann Arbor railroad is situated. During the following summer and fall the families of Jacob Paul, Jacob Stollsteimer, Carl Horning, Jacob Gross, Christian Auch and Daniel F. Allmendinger settled in Scio. George Mayle, a shoemaker, and Emanuel G. Wildt settled in Ann Arbor. In the winter of 1830 to 1831, Professor Gottlob Nordmann from Berlin, Prussia, arrived with his family. Mr. Nordmann, was Professor of Mathematics in a military academy and lost his place on account of his liberal political views. Mr. Nordmann moved in the spring of 1831 to Lima and became a farmer. During the year 1832, the following Germans arrived: William F. Osius, from the Granddutchy of Hesse, who immigrated to Pennsylvania in 1825, settled in Freedom. Mr. Osius was born March 21, 1797, served in the Germany army against the First Napoleon. He was for nine years Supervisor for the Township of Freedom and Justice of the Peace for 20 years.

John Schneeberger, John Hoberger, Thomas Roth, Jacob Haab, Jacob Haas and Martin Grauer settled in Freedom. Andrew Beck, with his sons, Jacob and Godfrey, David Luick, Frederick Staebler, Michael Kaercher, Jacob April, Frederick Laubengaier and Ulrich Laubengaier, Johannes Stollsteimer, Jacob Wild, Conrad Bissinger, were some of the first settlers in Scio.

In the summer of 1833, the Evangelical Mission Institute of Bale, Switzerland, sent Rev. Frederick Schmid as a missionary to the German Protestants in Michigan. A Church was organized and incorporated as the First German Evangelical Society of Scio. The first church building which the Germans in the Territory erected, was built by this society on an acre of land donated by Daniel F. Allmendinger for this purpose and as a burying ground. This building is still standing about two miles west of Ann Arbor, on the so-called territorial road. Rev. Frederick Schmid was for many years the only German Protestant minister in Michigan. He organized Churches in Detroit, Monroe and Waterloo in Jackson County. The foregoing were the pioneers of the German element, which now constitutes at least 30 per cent, of the population of Washtenaw County. In point of intelligence, in wealth, in all that goes to make up good citizens, those representing this nationality will compare favorably with others. In every station of life, as business or professional men, as office-holders, none bear a better reputation.

Ann Arbor - Four men were injured, three seriously, in a crash tonight Nov. 10, 1931 on the Pleasant Lake Road, nine miles southwest of Ann Arbor, when cars driven by Julius Fritz, Route 2, Saline, and Manuel Stollsteimer, of Pittsfield, collided. Fritz, 59 years old; Charles Stollsteimer, 58, a passenger in Fritz's car, and Fred Gutekunst, 55, a passenger in Manuel Stollsteimer's machine, were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, while Manuel Stollsteimer was hurried to a physician in Saline. It was said at the hospital that Gutekunst and Charles Stollsteimer are suffering from possible skull fractures and the latter has a fractured knee. Mr. Fritz sustained lacerations and chest injuries. Deputies said Manuel Stollsteimer, coming toward Ann Arbor, was on the right side of the road, but were unable to account for Fritz's being on the wrong side. Manuel and Charles Stollsteimer are unrelated.

233. Joseph⁹ Schweikert (Dorothea⁸ Graf, Agnes⁷ Stierlin, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 17 Sep 1838 in Unteraichen, Esslingen, Wurtemberg, and died 15 Oct 1923 in Byron, Shiawassee Co, Michigan. He married Anna Margaretha Bahnmueller 18 Feb 1865 in Michigan, daughter of Johannes Bahnmueller and Anna Luz. She was born 25 Aug 1845 in Kirchentellinsfurt, Tuebingen, Wurtemberg, and died 28 Jul 1913 in Byron, Shiawassee Co, Michigan.

Notes for Joseph Schweikert:

Joseph Schweikert was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, September 17, 1838. His parents died when he was about three years of age. He was reared in Germany where he received his education and such practical instruction as the German system required for its children. He learned the wagon-makers' trade in his native land. At the age of seventeen years he came to America with many others. He was especially attracted to a university town and located at Ann Arbor where he worked at his trade for a year.

The next few years were spent in service upon farms near Ann Arbor. He continued in this way until the breaking out of the Civil War when his zeal was fired by the danger in which he felt his adopted land was placed. He joined the army as a private in Company C., First Battalion, Fifteenth U.S. Infantry. He served with the regiment three years. He was in many of the principal engagements. His term of service expired in Atlanta and he was honorably discharged after which he returned to Michigan. He received a gunshot wound at the battle of Stone River and also contracted rheumatism that he suffered from more or less of the time.

After the war he purchased a farm south of Byron on which he lived until 1902 when he with his wife moved to Byron where they resided until the death of Mrs. Schweikert in 1913. All he possessed was earned by his own efforts. He was modest and retiring of nature an honest and upright in his dealings with his fellowmen. His motto was, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches". He was a member of the G.A.R. G.D. Royce Post No. 117 of Byron, and enjoyed recounting with his comrades the varied experiences of the years spent in the south.

He was married to Miss Margaret Bahnmueller of Lodi, Washtenaw County. To this union were born four children: Mary, Charles, Clara and Fred who were with him through his last illness and did all that loving hands could do. He realized he was going and told them not to feel badly. He thanked God for his eighty five years. September 17, 1923 his children and grandchildren were with him to celebrate his eighty fifth birthday. Grandpa Schweikert as so many called him will be greatly missed in Byron. He leaves to mourn their loss, four children, eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren and a host of friends. He died of pleural pneumonia October 15, 1923 at the home of his son, Charles. He was a member of the M.E. Church.

Excerpts taken from Portrait and Biographical Album of Shiawassee and Clinton County Michigan

Joseph Schweikert was born in Germany where he learned a wagon makers trade. He came to America in 1855. Owned a farm in section 26 of Burns Township, Shiawassee County Michigan. Joseph joined the army as a private in Company C, First Battalion Fifteen United States Infantry. He served with this regiment for three years, and was with the Army of Cumberland in the Fourteenth Army Corps, First Brigade and Second Division. He was in many of the principal engagements.

A man who has been through such experiences as the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Perryville, Kentucky, Stone River, Chickamauga, has a story that can be transcended in interest by but few events in any history whatsoever. The gentleman of whom we write was a participant in all these, and was also in all the battles of the Georgia campaign, even the taking of Atlanta. His term of service expired in Atlanta, and he was there honorably discharged, after which he returned to Michigan. He will ever wear an honorable badge of his army service in a wound resulting from a gun-shot at the battle of Stone River. He escaped the bitter experience of being taken prisoner, but contracted rheumatism while in the army, that he has suffered more or less from ever since. His honorable service is recognized by the Government by the payment of a pension of $12 per month.

Mrs. Leonard E. Morse passed away at her home in the village Thursday, October 14th after a short illness, aged 76 years, 8 months and 8 days. Lois Jane Lee was born in Freedom, Michigan, February 6th, 1839, and on October 27th, 1870, was united in marriage to Leonard E. Morse at Dexter, Michigan. They moved to Portland township in 1872, locating on a farm on section 9, where they resided until moving to Lyons in 1882, where they have since resided. She was a member of the Lyons M.E. church.

She is survived by a husband; her four children, Albert S. Morse of Edmore, Dr. Frederick L. Morse of Lake Odessa, Mrs. Caroline M. Cross of St. Paul, Minn., and Elizabeth I. Morse, and nine grandchildren. A loving wife and mother, who left undone no duty; she will be missed by all with whom her daily life brought her in contact.

In the latest issue of the Portland Review is a notice of the death of Mrs. Philander Riker in which is the statement that Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Riker were lifelong friends. Not only friends but they were cousins, and a strange coincidence is the fact that Mrs. Riker was born February 5, 1839, and Mrs. Morse on February 6, 1839. Mrs. Riker passed away the 13th of this month and Mrs. Morse one day later, making their span of life exactly the same.

The funeral of Mrs. Morse was held from the home here Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. D. B. Davidson officiating. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Interment in the Lyons Cemetery.

Notes for Johann Martin Gaekle:

On Thursday last August 30, 1913 the children and grandchildren of Martin Gakle took it in their heads to remind him of his eightieth birthday. The surprise was complete from start to finish. At noon his son, John, and wife of Sabatha, Kansas, walked in on him and later in the afternoon three nieces of Jackson made their appearance and before he had quite got over the surprise of their arrival, in the early evening about thirty more, including his children, grandchildren and a few intimate friends.

Of his children there were present Mrs. Lucy Snebly of Detroit, Edward of Ann Arbor, John of Sabatha, Kansas, and Mrs. George Theurer of York. The grandchildren were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schneider and Mr. White of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gakle and children of Ann Arbor and the three Theurer children. It is needless to say they came with well filled baskets of good things to eat. Each one left a token of their esteem. All had a jolly time and it will long be remembered by both host and guests.

Notes for Jakob Friedrich Ukele:

Berwick Misc. Items Dec. 22, 1893 - Ed Ukele departed from this place yesterday morning Dec. 21, 1893 for parts unknown by us. George Kohler returned from his western trip Sunday. J. R. Ford and Mr. Strahm made a business trip to Sabetha Wednesday. Mr. Ukele is shelling corn this week. Jacob Ukele, of North Dakota, is visiting his brother, Fred, at this place. Uncle Jake (as they call him) is quite taken up with this locality. Sylvan Ukele had a severe attack of the grip, but we are glad to hear he is better. T. Strahm shipped several loads of hogs during the last two weeks and is looking for more. Fred Ukele returned Monday night from a business trip to Holton.

Dec. 21, 1899 Sabetha, Kansas - Fred Ukele, of Berwick, had on the market 26 steers, four of which sold at $6.50 for the Christmas trade, and, the rest brought $5.65. These cattle were bought in Kansas City, last August and were fed 150 days five months and the lot put on a gain of 515 pounds each, weighed out of Kansas City and back at Kansas City. One of the four best steers was bought for Mr. Ukele at $4.00 per, hundred and weighed at Kansas City 1,180 pounds. He weighed back at Kansas City, 1,880, and at $6.50 brought $122.20. This bunch of cattle was bought on an order Mr. Ukele sent the commission firm of Scruggs-Hall. Charley Henry of that firm both bought and sold them. The put-on for the five months was over 100 pounds a month per animal, and the selling price was $1.30 to $2.15 above the price paid.

August 16, 1900 A Family Reunion. - A kind of a family reunion was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ukele at Berwick last week. Among those present were: Mrs. Wiltt and Mrs. Reid, of Jackson, Michigan, sisters of Mr. Ukele; Mr. and Mrs. E. Ukele, of Wallace, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Ukele, of Holton, Kansas; Mrs. P. Johnson, of Salina, and E. T. Ukele, of Vermillion. A very enjoyable time was spent together at their comfortable home. Mr. Ukele settled on the farm that he now occupies some thirty years ago and has seen the ups and downs of Kansas. He has met with reverses as well as advancements, including drought, grasshoppers and cyclones, yet he never lost faith and forged ahead until now year after year he adds to his bank account by the hundreds of hogs and cattle that go out of his fattening corrals. Mr. Ukele is an enthusiastic Republican and votes with the party that helps bring about prosperity.

'Genealogical & Biographical Record of North-Eastern Kansas' dated 1900:

Fred Ukele - Through thirty years Mr. Ukele has been identified with the agricultural interests of Nemaha County and now resides on Section 28, Berwick Township, where his fine farm indicates his careful supervision and his progressive spirit. His careful prosecution of his business affairs has brought him creditable success and he is today numbered among the substantial citizens of his community.

A native of Michigan, Mr. Ukele was born in Washtenaw County on the 12th of April, 1842. His father, Christian Ukele, was a native of Germany and on crossing the Atlantic to America, in 1817, took up his abode in Washtenaw County, where he made farming his life work. He was, however, a baker by trade, although in this land he devoted his energies to agricultural pursuits. His death occurred when he was about fifty-eight years of age. In the 1830's he went to Chicago, which was then but little more than a frog pond.

It was his intention to engage in the bakery business in the future metropolis, but death ended his labors there before he had actively become connected with business interests. In his family were eight children. Fred Ukele, the subject of this review, is the fourth in order of birth and was reared in the county of his nativity, where he remained until 1861.

In that year he went to Henry County, Illinois, where he enlisted in Company I, One Hundred and Forty-sixth Illinois Infantry, and served in 1864-5, until the war was closed, when he received an honorable discharge. He was very loyal to duty and faithfully fought to protect the cause represented by the flag.

Returning to Henry County when his services were no longer needed on the field of battle, he began to work at the blacksmith's trade, which he carried on in that locality for three and a half years. Thinking, however, to better his financial condition in the less thickly settled districts in the west, he chose Nemaha County, Kansas, as the scene of his future labors and he made his way to the Sunflower state, purchasing the farm upon which he now resides. It was then a tract of wild prairie, on which not a furrow had been turned or any improvements made, but with characteristic energy he began its development.

He is one of the oldest settlers in the township and he has made his farm one of the most valuable and attractive properties. He owns two hundred and forty acres of rich and arable land, all of which is under a high state of cultivation, and the various improvements on the place indicate the activity and enterprise which have characterized his career. In connection with general farming he is also engaged in stock raising and now has upon his farm about 150 head of cattle which he is preparing for the market.

In 1873, while Mr. Ukele was chopping wood, a tree about two feet thick fell across his right side, crippling him for life. Notwithstanding this accident, however, he has continued to superintend his farm and has through his well-directed efforts become possessor of a handsome competence. In 1864, in Geneseo, Illinois, Mr. Ukele was united in marriage to Miss Christie Oleson, a native of Sweden, who came to America in early girlhood and was reared in Henry County, Illinois. Two children have been born of their union: Edward, whose birth occurred in Henry County, Illinois, and Sylvan, who was born in Nemaha County, Kansas.

The family is well known in the community and its representatives occupy a leading position in social circles. Mr. Ukele is a man of pronounced political opinions, unswerving in his support of the Republican party and on that ticket he has been elected to a number of township offices, wherein he has discharged his duties with promptness and fidelity.

He holds membership in the Baptist Church and is one of its deacons. His life has been well spent and while his business affairs have gained him a handsome property his straight forward dealing has won him the respect and confidence of his fellow men.

History of Nemaha County, Kansas. By Ralph Tennel, Standard Publishing Company; Lawrence, Kansas; 1916. Page 408:

Fred Ukele. - The accomplishments of Fred Ukele during the forty-seven years of his residence in Kansas are truly remarkable when one considers that for the past forty-three years Mr. Ukele has been a cripple. During his period of residence in Kansas he rose to become one of the large land owners of Nemaha County, and has reared a fine family. It is a noteworthy fact that Mr. Ukele cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln on the great battlefield of Lookout Mountain. He is one of the last of the vast army of Union veterans who fought to preserve the Union. His life has been marked by a display of good citizenship and he has served his fellow citizens in various useful capacities during his long life. Pioneer settler, Union veteran, substantial citizen, Fred Ukele is one of the honored men of Sabetha and Nemaha county.

Fred Ukele was born in a log cabin located in a clearing of the dense forest of Washtenaw County, Michigan, in April, 1842. He is a son of Christian and Christina (Stohlstamear) Ukele, who were the parents of eight children, as follows: Mrs. Lena Reade, Mrs. Louise Gakle, Mrs. Mary Maley, deceased; Fred, the subject of this review; John, deceased; Mrs. Rachel Weldt, living in Michigan; Edward, Wallace County, Kansas; Jacob, residing in South Dakota. Christian Ukele was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1808, and became a baker in his native city. Not very long after he became of age in Germany, he decided to immigrate to America. He located in Detroit and worked at his trade of baker for some time and was there married. After his marriage he and his wife journeyed to the dense woods of Michigan and hewed a farm from the wilderness of Washtenaw County and reared a family of children, as before stated.

The mother of Fred Ukele was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1811, and was a daughter of John and Sarah (Sterley) Stohlstamear, who drove a team to the port of Hamburg and there set sail for America, making the long voyage by sailing vessel. They were on the ocean for seventy days. John Stohlstamear sold his team of horses in Hamburg, but was unable to sell his wagon. He accordingly had it loaded on the vessel, and upon landing at New York City, he purchased a team of oxen, which furnished the means of transportation for his family and belongings to Michigan, where he made his home.

Fred Ukele was reared amid the most primitive surroundings in the great forests of Michigan, and attended district school, held in a little log school house. When he became old enough to wield and swing an axe, he began working in the timber and continued at this occupation until 1861. At this time he moved to Henry County, Illinois, and three years later, in 1864, he enlisted for service in the Union army. He became a member of Company I, One Hundred and Forty-Sixth Illinois infantry, and took part in some severe fighting until the close of the war. He was at the battle of Columbus, Tenn., and participated in the chase after General Hood's army through Tennessee and the Carolinas. When he returned from the war, Mr. Ukele learned the blacksmith's trade and worked at that trade for three and a half years, in the employment of the Chicago & Rock Island Railway Company, at Geneseo, Illinois. In 1869, he came to Nemaha County, Kansas, and worked for one year as a farm hand at $25 per month. He then bought 160 acres of prairie land in section 27 of Berwick Township. His first move was the erection of a shanty, 16x18 feet, the boards for which were sawed from cottonwood logs and hauled from White Cloud, Kansas. Mr. Ukele paid $7 per acre for having his land broken to plow and made ready for planting his first crops. He gradually improved his land and prospered, as he deserved, and made a great success as a stockman, specializing in hogs. At one time Mr. Ukele owned 600 acres of land in Nemaha and Smith counties, which he deeded to his sons. He retired from active farm work in 1906, and moved to a nice residence property in Sabetha.

Fred Ukele has been twice married, his first marriage being with Jena Olson, in 1864. The first Mrs. Ukele was born in 1839, and died in 1908. Two children were born to this marriage, namely: Edward, farming the home place in Nemaha County, and Sylvan engaged in the insurance business at Kansas City, Missouri. Mr. Ukele reared another child named Clyde Muxworthy, who lives at Bern, Kansas. In 1910, Mr. Ukele married Sarah Bowser, born August 11, 1874, in Geary County, Maryland, a daughter of Hiram and Barbara (Brown) Bowser, the former of whom was born in 1842 and died in 1896. Mrs. Barbara Bowser was born in 1846 and, died in March, 1881. Both parents were born and reared in Maryland. Mrs. Ukele came to Kansas in 1900 and joined her brother, Emery, at that time farming near Bern, in this county, but who is now living in Dickinson County, Kansas.

Mr. Ukele is a Progressive in politics, and in former years was the Republican leader of Berwick township, and cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln at Lookout Mountain, Tenn. He has held several township offices and was a member of the school board in Berwick Township for twenty-one years, and has served as justice of the peace. He is affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic Post of Sabetha. One of the interesting heirlooms of the family which is highly prized by Mr. Ukele is an old newspaper published in New York, January 4, 1800, by Samuel Freer & Son.

Mr. Ukele has one grandson, Fred Ukele, and a granddaughter, Charsta Ukele.

March 23, 1923 - Fred Ukele, pioneer of Berwick Township and a veteran of the Civil War, died Thursday, March 2, 1923 at his home in Sabetha. Mr. Ukele came to Kansas in 1869, working as a farm hand at $25 per month. He then bought 160 acres of prairie land in Berwick Township. He had cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln at Lookout Mountain Tennessee. Mr. Ukele was twice married. To the first marriage two sons were born: Edward, farming the home place near Sabetha; and Sylvan, engaged in the insurance business at Kansas City. To his second marriage a daughter, Frances, now six years of age, was born. His widow, daughter, sons and two grandchildren survive him. Mr. Ukele's funeral was held from the Baptist church under the auspices of the G. A. R., Rev. Bolton officiating at the church services. Mr. Ukele's son, S. F. Ukele, formerly lived in Holton.

After an illness of about ten days Fred Ukele died Thursday March 8, 1923 at his home on the northside in Sabetha. And there was lost to this community one of its finest, kindest, gentlest men. People were astonished that Fred Ukele had reached 82 years of age at his death. He did not appear to be so by fifteen years or more. He was on the street almost daily a familiar and a beloved figure, whose death is deeply regretted by friends who have known him since his young manhood. Fred Ukele was a man who never grew old, because of his kindly sympathy and understanding of youth. A fine man who lived out his years consistently, and leaves as a legacy generosity to his children and appreciation of their worth to his friends.

Mr. Ukele is survived also by one grandson, Fred Ukele, a granddaughter, Charsta Ukele, and his six-year-old daughter, Frances Ukele. Fred Ukele broke his first ground for plowing in Nemaha with a team of oxen. Lou Lynch was the driver of the team. The ground broken was virgin prairie. On his first round of this eighty he killed eighteen rattlesnakes. At that time deer were plentiful in this county and venison was a staple food. From further west came buffalo meat that was peddled regularly thru this land. Fred Ukele was filled with interesting stories of the pioneer days of two states, Michigan and Kansas. Mr. Ukele was buried from the Baptist church Saturday at 2:30 p.m. The G. A. R. had charge of the services which were conducted by Reverend Bolton. Mr. Ukele's son Sylvan, from Kansas City was here for the funeral.

We wish to thank our friends and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our husband and father. Mrs. Fred Ukele and the family.

Notes for Christina Kjerta Olson:

Mrs. Christina Ukele, one of the pioneers of Berwick Township, whose fatal illness was mentioned in the Herald last week, passed away at her home in Sabetha Sunday April 5, 1908. Mrs. Ukele had been ill for several months, but her condition did not become critical until recently. It would be hard to give adequate tribute to Mrs. Ukele's kindness and helpfulness. From the early days the Berwick neighborhood leaned on her in sickness and in time of need. Beginning as a house keeper in a log house near the present site of Berwick in the early 70s, she knew the trials of the pioneer and lent a helping hand to many a new comer in the neighborhood. Mrs. Ukele was born in Silvertsburg, Sweden. The town overlooks the Baltic sea, and many were the stories Mrs. Ukele told her children of her girlhood days there; of the water dashing upon the shore and of seeing the great ships come in from other lands. The boys remembered it, and at her funeral a beautiful floral anchor was their contribution to the profusion of flowers sent.

Mrs. Ukele, whose maiden name was Christina Olson, was born May 10, 1839. She came to America when she was 14 years of age, settling in Illinois. She met Fred Ukele there On August 15, 1864 she was married to Mr. Ukele. Mr. Ukele felt it his duty to enlist in the Union cause, and the honeymoon had hardly begun when he went off to fight for freedom in company I, 10th Illinois serving until the close of the rebellion. During his absence Ed Ukele was born, and Mr. Ukele returned to find his son quite a chunk of a boy.

Mr. Ukele, who owned house in Geneseo worth perhaps $400 traded the house sight unseen with a man named Pete World for quarter section of land which he still owns near Berwick. The land is now worth $125 an acre. He started out alone, arriving at White Cloud. He crossed the Missouri River at White Cloud and walked to Albany, and from there he took look at his patch of prairie. He went to work for T. B. Collins, formerly mayor of Seneca, and John Brady, now of Pomona, California, Collins and Brady were cattle men and Mr. Ukele worked for them by the month for a couple of years. During that time he managed to erect a log house 14 feet square on his quarter section. To this place he brought his wife and son Ed Ukele, junior. Later Ed Ukele, senior his brother, now living in Wallace County, Kansas, came to this locality.

Sylvan Ukele, the second child was born here. While Mrs. Ukele left only two children, Ed Ukele, of Berwick, and Sylvan Ukele, of Holton, she reared Clyde Muxworthy, whom she took when he was only nine months old. He is now 27 years of age, and has always lived the Ukele family. When Mr. and Mrs. Ukele left Berwick two years ago they were the oldest, residents of the township, except Jacob Miller, who is soon to move to Sabetha. Fred Ukele was one of the men who induced the Rock Island to establish the station of Berwick. He gave the company a right of way across a corner of his land to get the station. He had the first, combined reaper and mower in that locality. At the funeral of Abraham Lincoln, the company with which Mr. Ukele served was an escort.

Mrs. Ukele was confirmed in the Lutheran church in childhood, but about ten years ago she with her husband joined the Baptist church in Sabetha. The funeral services were held from the Ukele home in Sabetha Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., Rev. G. W. Porter officiating. Interment was in the Sabetha cemetery.

434. Emmanuel (Manuel or Samuel)¹⁰ Ukele (Christina Barbara⁹ Stollsteimer, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 25 Sep 1848 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 08 Jun 1933 in Wallace Co, Kansas. He married Jennie (Jane) Muxworthy 12 Feb 1877 in Sabetha, Nemaha Co, Kansas, daughter of ? Muxworthy. She was born 20 Nov 1854 in Devonshire, England, and died 09 Jun 1939 in Dodge City, Ford Co, Kansas.

Notes for Emmanuel (Manuel or Samuel) Ukele:

Berwick Misc. Items Dec. 22, 1893 - Ed Ukele departed from this place yesterday morning Dec. 21, 1893 for parts unknown by us. George Kohler returned from his western trip Sunday.

July 26, 1906 - Ed. Ukele brother of Fred. Ukele who left Sabetha eighteen years ago owns 1,110 acres of land in Logan County, out in the short grass country. He makes a specialty of raising cattle. Mrs. Thomas Moore of Oneida recently spent several weeks visiting Ed. Ukele. Mrs. Ed. Ukele and Mrs. Moore are sisters. Mrs. Moore says the grasshoppers are damaging crops in Logan County She brought home a sample of alfalfa which had been denuded of all its foliage by the grasshoppers. Mrs. Moore says the grasshoppers rose in swarms wherever she walked in Logan County. She brought back some fine samples of wheat and other grains.

Jan. 30, 1908 Sabetha, Kansas - Emanuel Ukele, brother of Fred Ukele, is here from Logan County, Kansas, to visit relatives and old friends. Emanuel Ukele lived here 33 years ago. He remembers all the old timers and most of them remember him. He had a blacksmith shop in Sabetha, and was one of the town's first business men. For over twenty years he has been living in Logan County, Kansas, and his experience in the short grass country will no doubt prove interesting. Ukele is near Gill. He is only 31 miles from the Colorado state line. He is strictly in the short grass country. Ukele was well fixed when he went to Logan County. He acquired considerable land, and started in on the theory that he could get rich raising wheat and other grains. He bucked the wheat proposition hard. He got one big crop and then there were several failures, and he suddenly found himself busted and in debt after he had tried wheat and everything else.

He went to Colorado and worked in the mines at Leadville until he paid off his debts and had a little start. Then he tried cattle raising, combined with growing alfalfa and just a little kaffir corn, oats and corn. That combination was a success. He now owns 1,120 acres of land. He has 160 acres in alfalfa bottom land, but believes it can be successfully grown on up land and is trying that proposition. Aside from alfalfa, kaffir corn and corn, all his land is devoted to cattle grazing on regular old, original buffalo grass. The seed from 75 acres of alfalfa last season brought Ukele $2,500. He fattens his cattle on grass including alfalfa, and markets them. He tried all sorts of combinations and has narrowed down to the system as explained. He says last year a farmer out there made big money on wheat, but as a general proposition it is a gamble with all the chances against the farmer. Under Ukele's system a man can make money, but this story has told what happened to him when he tried straight farming. Ukele's oldest boy Arthur is making money on three quarters, and the next oldest Clarence has 160. Both were born in Sabetha. They are single, Mr. Ukele has just returned from Pamona, South Dakota, where he visited his brother, J. C. Ukele. Will Tarr, who is here on a visit, says Emanuel Ukele looks younger every time he visits Sabetha.

Notes for Arthur Emanuel Ukele:

June 19, 1930 Scott City, Kansas - Considerable excitement prevailed last Tuesday morning when it was rumored that the skeleton of a man found on the south branch of the Smoky near the Arthur Ukele ranch house south of McAllister was that of Morris Moran who disappeared from Hill City last year. Similarity in partial description of clothing, etc., gave cause to the rumor and county officials of Graham county investigated the matter. Positive identification was had however when Arthur Ukele identified the skeleton by the name stenciled on the underwear as that of E. J. Teague, who had been working for him for several months and had left the place April 21. The deceased was an epileptic and had been confined in a sanitarium in North Carolina, which accounted for the name of the clothing. He had come to the Ukele ranch wanting work and had been employed by Mr. Ukele. A team had run away with him the day before he left and it had annoyed him, and his employer was under the impression he would return but he never did.

The body was found by Mr. Ukele Monday June 16, 1930 as he was looking for some cattle in an inlet in a group of trees about a mile west from the Ukele house, face down with the hands stretched out. The deceased usually carried a small bottle of medicine which he was in the habit of taking to ward off attacks of his chronic ailment, and it is presumed his death was caused by an overdose of this medicine, as there were no discernable marks of violence to be found on the body, or the disease had caused death. The case was investigated by Acting Coroner Roy Davis, of Oakley and County Attorney C. A. Spencer and the coroner's jury gave a verdict of death from unknown cause. The remains were decomposed to the extent that nothing remained except the skeleton and had it not been for the preservation of the clothing, identification would have been impossible. Personal effects of the deceased left at the Ukele ranch were investigated and eastern relatives were notified of the death. The remains were taken to Winona.

Notes for Elizabeth Frances (Lizzie) Honegger:

April 16, 1908 Sabetha, Kansas - Mrs. Jacob Ukele, of Dakota, arrived in Sabetha last week to see her brother-in-law Fred Ukele. She did not know until she arrived that Mrs. Fred Ukele had died. Mrs. Jacob Ukele had been to Hot Springs Arkansas, for treatment of rheumatism. Mrs. Ukele visited Thomas Moore at Oneida also.

Ramona, South Dakota, April 23, 1945 - Mrs. J. C. (Elizabeth) Eukley died at Ramona Sunday evening April 22, 1945. She was born in Meersburg, Germany, on July 11, 1858, and was nearly 87 years old at the time of her death. She came to the United States with her parents when a small child, settling in New York City. In the early '80s she came to Dakota territory and homesteaded on land located about six miles from what is now Ramona. While proving up on her homestead at the land office in Mitchell, she met J. C. Eukley whom she later married. After a few years on a farm near Kimball, they moved into the Ramona district, where Mr. Eukley for years was a prominent farmer and thresher-man. About 35 years ago they moved into their present home on a small tract adjoining Ramona. In 1936 they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mrs. Eukley was a typical pioneer and bore the hardships and privations of the pioneers with a cheerfulness that never deserted her, even in her declining years. She was well known for her friendliness and hospitality.

She was preceeded in death by her husband who died in 1943 at the age of 93, and by her daughter and three brothers and three sisters.

She is survived by her granddaughter, Mrs. JeraldineMcComish of Ramona; two grandsons, Donald E. Wildt, with the army in France, and J. C. Wildt of Rutland, and by a brother, P. G. Honegger of Sioux Falls. Funeral arrangements are still pending.

A. F. Grote was fire chief, Frank Grote was assistant chief, Dad Niccum was the chemical engine. Dad Niccum was at the well pumping the water Mrs. Niccum, Mrs. Grote, Mrs. Stollsteimer, Mrs. Harter, Mrs. J. H. Strahm were in the bucket brigade. They carried the water. A. F. Grote, fire chief told the assistant, Frank Grote, where to pour the water. Now Sabetha don't need to call on the Berwick fire department unless they have a big fire, they don't go out for small fires.

The Sabetha Herald, Friday, January 20, 1893; p. 1 col. 4

George Stollsteimer and family have moved into town and will occupy the Perkins house in the east part of the city. They have met with a sad loss in the death of their little girl. Mr. and Mrs. Stollsteimer wish to express their thanks to their kind neighbors and friends who gave them help and sympathy in their late bereavement.

Friday, January 20, 1893; p. 1 col. 6

Stollsteimer. --- On Wednesday afternoon, January 11, 1893, Pearl America, only daughter of George and Caroline Stollsteimer, aged 2 years, 9 months and 23 days. The little girl had been ill but was better and, on Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Stollsteimer came to town and told the physician of her favorable symptoms. While standing talking, at that very moment, a message was handed to the telegraph operator at Berwick, summoning the doctor, as the child had been taken worse and was in spasms. For some reason unknown to anyone but the operator, the message was two hours in reaching this station and when the father returned home, happy in the thought of seeing his little one, he found her lying cold in death. Shortly after, the doctor arrived, only forty minutes after receiving the telegram, but too late. Little Pearl was a lovely, winning child and her loss leaves the parents almost heartbroken. They have the sympathy of all.

Sabetha, Kansas, Jan. 26, 1893 - We regret to chronicle the death of the little daughter of Mrs. and Mr. George Stollsteimer which occurred last week. She was apparently improving after a spell of fever, but was taken with a spasm and died within a few hours afterwards. She was two years, nine months and twenty-three days old and was the only daughter of devoted parents, there being one little son, six years of age left. We extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Notes for Johannes (John) Frey:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan : together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens : history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Northern Brewery - In 1872 George Krause built this brewery in the lower town of Ann Arbor, on Mill Street. He sold out to John and Fred Frey, and in 1873 Fred sold out his interest to his brother John, who has operated it since. Mr. Frey makes about 2,400 barrels of beer annually, and consumes about 5,000 bushels of grain and 4,000 lbs. of hops in the manufacture of this beverage. During 1880 he stored up about 1,000 tons of ice.

In 1872, George Krause bought the site for his brewery. He was attracted by its proximity to Traver Creek and to the natural springs nearby. Krause used the spring water to make his beer, and ice harvested from the creek to keep it cool. Krause sold his Northern Brewery to brothers John and Fred Frey. John bought out Fred and then sold the business to German-trained brewer Herman Hardinghaus in 1885. The next year Hardinghaus built a substantial two-story brewery - "a fine brick block," Samuel Beakes called it in his 1891 Portrait and Biographical Album. According to Beakes, in addition to beer Hardinghaus brewed "a superior quality of ale which he ships to different cities and towns."

Hardinghaus ran the brewery until it closed in 1908. Although there was no sign that heavily Germanic Ann Arbor had lost its taste for beer, many small brewers were folding then in the face of competition from regional and national brands. When Krause opened the brewery in 1872, there were five other breweries in Ann Arbor alone. By the time Hardinghaus closed it, only one other was left.

Notes for Otto Herold Haab:

Docket No. 204, Calendar No. 36,572. Submitted October 14, 1932. Decided December 6, 1932. Appeal from Washtenaw; Sample (George W.), J. Submitted October 14, 1932. (Docket No. 204, Calendar No. 36,572.) Decided December 6, 1932.

Otto H. Haab was convicted of bastardy. Reversed, and new trial granted.

Jacob F. Fahrner and Andrew J. Sawyer, for appellant.

Paul W. Voorhies, Attorney General, Albert J. Rapp, Prosecuting Attorney, and Frank B. DeVine, for the people.

WIEST, J.

Defendant was convicted of bastardy, and prosecutes review by appeal in the nature of certiorari.

At the trial Miss Brandt, the complaining witness, in answer to questions, gave details not mentioned at the examination before the magistrate, and defendant was not permitted to so show by the transcript of the evidence returned. The evidence, taken before the magistrate, is in the record, and we find nothing therein tending to impeach her testimony at the trial, and, therefore, pass the point without further comment.

Miss Brandt was 23 years of age, and her father testified, in behalf of the prosecution, in part as follows:

" Q. Did you learn that your daughter was pregnant some months ago? " A. Yes, sir.

" Q. And whom did she accuse when you found that out? Who was the father of this child?

" A. Otto Haab.

" Mr. Sawyer: I object. That's hearsay unless it was done in the presence of the respondent.

" The Court: No.

" Mr. DeVine: That's perfectly competent.

" The Court: Yes.

" Q. She accused Otto Haab? " A. Yes.

" Q. And any time you talked to her about her pregnancy did she suggest anyone else?

" Mr. Fahrner: That's leading and suggestive.

" Q. Did she mention anyone else? " A. No, sir.

" Q. Mr. Haab is the only one she accused? " A. Yes, sir."

The court instructed the jury:

"I instruct you further, that in determining the guilt or innocence of the defendant that you may take into consideration declarations of the complaining witness, Hilda Brandt, when the fact became known that she was pregnant; that she stated to her parents and attending physician that the defendant was the father of the child, in connection with all the other testimony in the case and give it such weight as you deem proper."

The testimony was not admissible and the instruction was erroneous and prejudicial. The instruction sent the incompetent testimony to the jury as substantive evidence upon a vital question.

It is true that in People v. Cole, 113 Mich. 83, it was said it was proper to ask the attending physician if the complaining witness told him who was the father of her child, but the record in that case discloses that this was on cross-examination and under the claim that she did not then accuse the defendant.

The statement to the father was made months after conception, and could not be employed in corroboration of Miss Brandt, much less as substantive evidence of defendant's guilt.

The baby was exhibited to the jury, without objection, but later the court was requested to instruct the jury that the baby was too young to constitute evidence against defendant. The court refused a request to so instruct the jury, and gave the following instruction:

"I further charge you that the child which was born upon the 21st day of February, 1932, was produced in court in the trial of this cause and that you may take into consideration the appearance of the child, in determining whether or not the defendant is guilty as charged."

At that time the baby was 39 days old. No opinion evidence of resemblance was given. The probative value of the exhibit was not dependent upon age, but upon resemblance or want of it as a fact. The age and immaturity of the child affected the weight of the evidence and not its admissibility. Anderson v. Aupperle, 51 Ore. 556 (95 P. 330); State v. Danforth, 73 N.H. 215 (60 A. 839, 111 Am. St. Rep. 600, 6 Ann. Cas. 557). We are aware of the conflict of authority on this subject. See note in 40 A.L.R. 97. But, as said in People v. White, 53 Mich. 537:

"While arguments of resemblance in so young an infant, in the absence of peculiarities, are a little preposterous, it is difficult on this record to determine that any rule of law was violated in discussing it."

Exhibition of even so young a child might in some cases furnish the most cogent evidence in favor of an accused.

On cross-examination, defendant was questioned about alleged conversations as to how and where Miss Brandt would be cared for during her confinement, and as to who was to pay for the same. It appears that at such times defendant denied his guilt, but it is claimed that he said he would pay the expenses of confinement.

Counsel for defendant contend that such testimony was inadmissible under the rule which excludes, as privileged, offers to compromise, and cite People v. Gill, 247 Mich. 479, where we held that the rule, rejecting offers of compromise as evidence of guilt, applies to a prosecution for bastardy, but in that case there was an offer of settlement made by the defendant, accepted by complainant and her parents, and rejected by the board of superintendents of the poor. In the case at bar there was no compromise, and defendant at all times asserted his innocence.

The question here presented was considered in Robb v. Hewitt, 39 Neb. 217 (58 N.W. 88). There the father of the prosecutrix told the defendant of the girl's condition and asked him what he was going to do about it. Defendant denied the implied charge. There was talk about sending the girl away, and defendant said:

"Do you mean if I would pay half that you would pay half?"

The court stated:

"This testimony was objected to, and its admission assigned as error, counsel invoking the rule which excludes, as privileged, offers to compromise. The rule referred to applies to this class of cases. (Olson v. Peterson, 33 Neb. 358 [50 N.W. 155].) It is a salutary rule and should be rigidly enforced; but this evidence did not fall within it. There was no offer to compromise, but merely a suggestion that defendant would share the expense of sending the girl away. The rule arises from the policy of the law which favors amicable settlements, but does not extend to offers made, which, if accepted, would merely baffle prosecutions or conceal evidence, without effecting a legal compromise."

It was competent for the prosecution to show what defendant said when accused by Miss Brandt and third parties.

For the error pointed out, the judgment is reversed, and a new trial granted.

CLARK, C.J., and McDONALD, POTTER, SHARPE, NORTH, FEAD, and BUTZEL, JJ., concurred.

Notes for Gottfried (Godfrey Ottmar) Ottmer:

Godfrey B. Ottmer

. Ann Arbor and Washtenaw County frequently acknowledge their indebtedness to the Teutonic race for the development and progress which have transformed the small and unimproved village to an intellectual and commercial center. A large portion of the citizens here are either of German birth or parentage and have brought from the fatherland the strong and sterling characteristics that have enabled the sons of Germany to adapt themselves to the conditions of the new world and utilize opportunities that have proven resultant factors in the acquirement of desired success. Mr. Ottmer, born in Ebhausen, Wurtemberg, Germany, on the 14th of August, 1865, is a son of John Martin and Anna Mary (Brenner) Ottmer, likewise natives of the fatherland. The father became a resident of Saline, Michigan, about forty-one years ago, and for a long period engaged in business as a shoe merchant, but is now living retired, making his home in Bridgewater, Michigan. His wife passed away on the 17th of March, 1904. In their family were eight children, of whom six are living: John Martin, a farmer of Milan; Jacob Frederick, who follows farming and makes his home in Saline; Christine, the wife of Fred Wessinger, of Saline; Mrs. D. F. Slayton, of Montana; Godfrey B.: and John Michael, of Ann Arbor. The two who have passed away are Joseph and Anna Mary, both of whom died in youth.

Godfrey B. Ottmer was a young lad when brought by his parents to the new world, and his education was acquired in the high school of Saline. He then farmed until twenty-one years of age, when in 1893 he came to Ann Arbor, seeking a broader field of labor in the business circles of this growing city. For three years he was employed as a salesman by Charles Maynard, and also spent a similar period in the store of George Stimpson. With the capital saved from his earnings he purchased a stock of groceries and engaged in business on his own account in 1902, establishing his store at No. 120 West Washington Street. He is now located at No. 305 South Main Street, where he carries a large and carefully selected line of staple and fancy groceries, having a large trade which has constantly grown. His business methods are such that when he once secures the support of a customer he is sure to retain his patronage.

In 1893 Mr. Ottmer was married to Miss Bertha Fenker, of Saline, and they have two children: Lilian Ida, eight years of age, and now in school: and Gertrude Bertha, about two years old. Mr. Ottmer owns a beautiful home at No. 500 East William Street. In politics he is a republican, keeping well informed on the questions and issues of the day, yet without political aspiration for himself. He belongs to Zion Lutheran church, and is a man of pleasing personality who readily wins friends and moreover has that worth of character that enables him to retain the kindly regard of those with whom he is brought in contact.

Godfrey B. Ottmer, 63, died Friday night May 16, 1930 at his home at 1403 Cedar Bend Drive, after a brief illness. He was born October 14, 1866, in Wurttemberg, Germany, and came to this country with his parents when an infant. He spent his early life at Saline and had made his home in Ann Arbor the past 36 years. He had been connected with the grocery business for many years. Mr. Ottmer was a member of Zion Lutheran Church, Golden Rule Lodge, No. 159, F. & A. M., Washtenaw chapter, No. 6, R. A. M., Ann Arbor commandery, No. 13, Knights Templar, and Ann Arbor lodge No. 325, B. P. O. Elks.

He is survived by the widow, Bertha; two daughters, Mrs. B. W. Manwaring of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Edwin Shadford of Negaunee; three Grandchildren John and Rosemary Sandford of Negaunee and Barwise Manwanng of Ann Arbor; three brothers, Martin of Ypsilanti, Fred of Bridgewater and John of Ann Arbor; and two sisters, Mrs. D. F. Slayton of Billings, Montana, and Mrs. Christina Weissmger of Saline. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the residence. Rev. E. C. Stelhorn officiating, interment in Bethlehem Cemetery.

718. Rev. Hugo (Fenkey)¹¹ Fenker (Regina¹⁰ Stierle, Johann Jakob⁹, Johann Georg⁸, Johann Michael⁷ Stierlin, Zacharias⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 23 Apr 1877 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 03 Dec 1944 in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Elizabeth T. Borske 29 Aug 1907 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, daughter of Herman Borske and Augusta ?. She was born 23 Oct 1881 in Hamtramck, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 25 Mar 1954 in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Rev. Hugo (Fenkey) Fenker:

Emmanuel Lutheran Church - Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan

Among the congregations the Rev. Schmid established in 1859 was St. Emmanuel's Evangelische Lutherische Gemeinde (English translation Emmanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church), at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ehman. Charter members of this congregation were N. Bamor, C. Breining, G. Ehman, F. Dergler, J. Collins, G. Erich, Y. Hartman, G. Franz, C. Kohler, W. Lange, G. Otto, L. Schade, C. Siegmund, G. Schweizer, A. Thumm, and G. Warner. Census data from the 1880s suggests that many of the charter members were German immigrants from Württemberg. Descendants of these charter members are members of our congregation today.

The Rev. Hugo Fenker was called to serve our congregation in 1912, and Emmanuel for the next 32 years. He continued to hold German services for the older members, but at once introduced English worship services. He also instituted the practices of allowing families to sit together; previously the men and boys sat on the left side of the church while the women and girls sat on the right side of the church. A Ladies Aid and the Dorcas Society Circles were formed; Junior and Senior Luther Leagues and the Men's Brotherhood were established. These steps resulted in an increase in congregation membership and worship attendance.

Pastor Fenker's deep interest in the spiritual welfare and lives of people and his sincere faith inspired others to deeper loyalty and stronger faith. Every member of his family gave their time and talent to the church and community. Mrs. Fenker helped organize the young women into Deaconess Girls, later the Altar Guild. She also started a children's Mission Band, a Junior Choir, and the Mary Martha Missionary Society for women. The Fenker's son Luther became director of Emmanuel's Senior Choir; their daughter, Betty, served as Junior Choir director and as Organist for 40 years (until her passing in 1970); and their son Ted was a longstanding member of the Senior Choir.

Early in Pastor Fenker's tenure, the old facilities proved inadequate for the fast-growing congregation. A longtime member, John Engel, had given to Emmanuel a lot at 201 North River Blvd. (on the northwest corner of the intersection of River Blvd. And North Street), and in 1921 the congregation members decided to build a new church building on that site. The cornerstone of the new church was laid on August 28, 1922, and the building was completed the following year. The original building had educational space located immediately below the sanctuary, including offices for the pastor and a kitchen. The stained glass windows that decorate our sanctuary were installed at that time, as was a Moeller pipe organ. The total cost of all construction of the original building, including all the furnishings, was about $55,000. The new sanctuary was dedicated on December 23, 1923.

In 1924, our congregation shared in a happy celebration when Emmanuel member Herman Meyer was ordained into the Lutheran Ministry by Pastor Fenker in our church.

Beginning in 1940, seven interns from Trinity Lutheran Seminary in Columbus Ohio served as vicars for one year each. They were Gary Pflunger, Ernest Phillipi, William Zimpfer, Otto Emmelhainz, George Neiman and Walter Weitske. Pastor Weitzke later became Director of Theological Education for the former American Lutheran Church.

Pastor Fenker passed away suddenly at his home the first Sunday in December 1944, with his hat on his head and his Bible in his hand ready to go to church. The Rev. Harley Sipe was installed on June 24, 1945, as the 15th pastor of Emmanuel. Under Pastor Sipe's leadership Emmanuel continued to be active and grow. Among the outstanding events during Pastor Sipe's tenure was the ordination of his oldest son, Theodore H. Sipe, into Lutheran ministry at Emmanuel on June 19, 1955.

Following the influx of families after World War II, the congregation saw the need for more educational and meeting space as well as larger kitchen and restroom facilities. After considering several options (including an expansion of the sanctuary toward the Huron River on the west), the congregation purchased the two lots to the north of the original church building for the construction of an educational wing, based on designs by local architect Ralph Gerganoff. Pledges of $200,000 lead to groundbreaking in 1956; work was completed a year later and dedication of the new space was held on October 6, 1957. Although the educational wing stands two stories high, the structure is designed to support the addition of a third level housing a multipurpose area (auditorium/gymnasium) if it is needed in the future.

In 1959 Emmanuel celebrated its 100th anniversary. A centennial pageant, involving nearly 200 members, was presented at the Ypsilanti High School auditorium for the public. Luther Fenker (son of the late Pastor Fenker) staged and directed this event.

Notes for Elizabeth E. (Betty) Fenker:

The John N. Goodsman Family - Author: John Harold Goodsman

John N. Goodsman was born January 5, 1883 in Exarhos, Macedonia, Greece, the son of Nicholas and Katherine Goutziamanis. Mabel Lottie Wiles Goodsman was born September 30, 1895, on a farm on Lilley Road, Sheldon, Canton Township, Michigan, the daughter of George E. and Millie Corwin Wiles. She was the fourth of five children. Other siblings were Corwin Wiles, Emma Wiles Brown Snow, Bertha Wiles Alban, Ray E. Wiles and Roy G. Wiles.

John N. Goodsman emigrated from Greece to the United States April 20, 1907 through Ellis Island. After his arrival, he worked as a construction laborer and witnessed the death of a brother, Tony, by a falling crane in an industrial accident. John settled in Ypsilanti, Michigan where he joined a brother, George N. Goutziaman, in the Goutziaman Brothers Ice Cream Parlor and Candy Store at 106 W. Congress (now Michigan Ave). His brother, George returned to Greece and John took over the business and renamed it Candyland.

In the early 1920's, John sold Candyland and bought a small lunch room in the 600 block of W. Cross Street, near Pease Auditorium. Our family rented a house at 211 Perrin from Mr. Waidner. The house was heated by a potbellied stove situated in the living room.

In 1929, having his Cross Street lunch room taken over by Michigan State Normal College, John Goodsman built a restaurant adjacent to the home at 309 Brower Street. It was an exciting experience watching the horses pull the huge scoops as they dug the basement for the building which was built by Harvey Woodbury. The horses were supplied by our uncle, Ray Wiles, who had a farm on Cherry Hill Road.

The restaurant was an immediate success serving students from the Normal College and Roosevelt High School. However, when the college built McKenny Hall and the King and Goodison dormitories, which served meals, business began to fall off. Mabel Goodsman began to rent room to students. John Parindas, a good family friend, became a roomer who stayed with us for some 60 years.

Betty Fenker worked at our restaurant while a high school student. She took Clarence and me to witness our first basketball game after which Clarence reported to Mom and Dad that Betty got so excited that she lost her gum. Betty, her family and our family remained close friends until their deaths. Betty's father, Hugo Fenker, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, annually arranged for Dad to make candy for the church's Christmas celebration. Dad would cook the ingredients in giant copper kettles and pour the molten mass onto a marble slab to cool. The taffy was repeatedly thrown over a hook and pulled. The red, white and green batches were rolled together and formed into candy canes. Peanuts were freshly roasted and used in making peanut brittle. The sight and smells of the candy making still linger in my memory.

Notes for Sarah Ellen Little:

Sarah Ellen Little daughter of James and Addie (Root) Little. She married William A. Stierley on February 11, 1903 in Windsor, Eaton Co., Michigan. She married Claude L. Redfield on March 23, 1907 in Charlotte, Eaton Co., Michigan.

Death certificate shows Sarah B. Redfield was the daughter of James Little and Addie Root (both of Eaton Co., Mich), female, white, housewife, not indicated whether married or widow, born October 12, 1884 in Eaton Co. and died on May 8, 1916 in Eaton Twp., Eaton Co., Michigan at the age of 31 years 6 months and 26 days, cause of death Embolism. Informant Claude Redfield of Eaton Twp. Burial was on May 11, 1916 in Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

Sarah (Little) was married to my grandfather William Stierley and they had 2 children before divorcing and she married Claude Redfield. I do not know why her middle initial is listed as B. on the death certificate as all of her birth and marriage documents have it listed as E. or Ellen.

I am the granddaughter of Claude Redfield. In my experience with records, sometimes they are misread, as in the case with the Addie "B" instead of her true initial, E. A clerks visual of a signature might appear as different than actually written. With cursive letters, people's flair in signatures are often mistaken. Also, I will be by sometime to clean the grave properly with D-2 and non-abrasive brushes. (no metal) I grew up in Eaton Rapids. Thank you all for your impute.

He married Sarah Elizabeth (Mollie) Perry 09 Jul 1879 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Joseph Perry and Jane Nelson. She was born Dec 1859 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 16 Dec 1950 in Portland, Ionia Co, Michigan.

Notes for Grant Marion Morse:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Ionia and Montcalm Counties Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago - Biographical Company, 1885:

Grant M. Morse. In the career of this honorable man we read a useful life, and although in his boyhood days he quietly performed the duties of farm life to which he was reared he was also surely laying the foundation of a substantial and efficient character. In his business transactions he is affable and kind and by strict integrity and faithfulness has won and holds the esteem of all with whom he associates.

The birthplace of Grant M. Morse is Portland, Ionia County, November 18, 1854. He was the only son of Darius and Betsey M. (Perry) Morse, natives of Michigan. The Morse's came to this State from Ontario County, New York, in about 1824. Thomas J., grandfather of our subject, was then an early settler of Washtenaw County and located on what is called Morse's Plains. His father, Leonard, in turn came a year earlier than his son. The family, originally were of Holland descent, although they came directly from England to America. They are all pursuing the avocation of a farmer. The Perry's were also early settlers, coming to Michigan in 1826. Darius J. came to Ionia County in 1853 and bought a farm five miles north of Portland on section 8. On this farm he lived until 1875 when he engaged in the mercantile business at Collins. His wife died May 1, 1874. In 1884 he came to Portland where he lived with his son until the time of his death, in October, 1890.

Mr. Morse was reared to farm life until nineteen years of age and attended school in the district and also in the agricultural college at Lansing. He was with his father in the mercantile business at Collins five years, then came to Portland where he engaged in the general grocery business with C. S. Wolcott as partner two years. He soon bought his partner's interest and continued in business six years. In 1888 he sold out and since that time has been engaged in his present business, that of life and fire insurance. He was elected Justice of the Peace in 1890 and performed the duties faithfully and conscientiously.

July 9, 1879, Mr. Morse was married to Sarah E. Perry, of Washtenaw County, this State, daughter of Joseph H. Perry. One child, Leon G., blessed this union. He is a member of the Masonic order and has been Master of the lodge; he is now High Priest of Portland Chapter No. 39, and is also connected with the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Portland and is now their Grand Lodge Representative. He is a Republican in politics and was Township Superintendent of Schools three terms, was Treasurer of Portland in 1888-89, is a member of the Board of Trustees of the village of Portland. He is active in politics and attends county and State conventions, takes part in all their deliberations and is much esteemed as an efficient member of their associations.

Portland - Grant M. Morse died at Washington, D. C, early Sunday evening June 25, 1922 very suddenly. The remains will be brought to Portland and the funeral services will be held here although no date has been set. Morse has lived in Portland more than 40 years and for many years had been a prominent figure in the republican party of county and state. He was elected justice of the peace after the death of George Porter and carried on an insurance business for many years in the office now occupied by Wm. Seelick. He was game warden many years and postmaster for eight years. He was born on a farm north of Portland in 1874, attended M. A. and taught several terms of school He was a member of the Congregational church and of the Masonic lodge. He is survived by a wife and one son, Leon.

Notes for Leonard Emanuel Ginebaugh:

The Portland Observer, April 23, 1925:

Leonard Ginnebaugh Found Dead In Bed By His Wife Early Friday Morning. Leonard Ginnebaugh, aged 58 years was found dead in bed by his wife Friday morning, his death coming as a distinct shock to the entire community. Mr. Ginnebaugh retired the night before apparently in the best of health. During the night he complained to his wife of a pain in his stomach but insisted that she not get up as it was of minor importance and would soon pass away. He got up to relieve the pain and told her he would finish the night on a cot. When Mrs. Ginnebaugh arose in the morning, she discovered the dead body of her husband. Funeral services were held at the Collins church Sunday afternoon and burial was made in the Portland cemetery.

Leonard was the son of Eliza Morse and John Ginnebaugh/Ginebaugh. Len married Florence "Flora" Chipman on January 1, 1895 in Ionia, Michigan. Mr. Ginnebaugh had been a lifelong resident of Portland Township. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ginnebaugh were pioneer settlers of Collins where he had spent the greater portion of his life. For many years he had operated a threshing outfit and had become well known throughout this district. Some time ago he accepted a position at the Collins elevator which he filled up to the time of his death.

He had been married two times. His first wife's maiden name was Flora Chipman. Four children were born to this union: Fred and Margaret, of Battle Creek; Esther, of Lansing, and John, of California. After the death of his first wife he was married to Mabel Gates, who with five children from that union survive. He is also survived by one brother, Charles Ginnebaugh."

Notes for Flora Alice (Florence) Chipman:

The Portland Observer, Thursday, March 4, 1915.

Mrs. Len (Leonard) Ginnebaugh expired suddenly and very unexpectedly early Thursday evening at her home a mile east of Collins. She had been in ill health all winter but her condition was not considered serious, and the summons came as a keen shock to members of the family and many friends. The obsequies took place at the Collins church Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Skentelbury, of Portland, officiating, and the remains were brought to this place for burial.

Mrs. Ginnebaugh's maiden name was Flora Chipman. She was a daughter of the late M. J. Chipman and was born May 10, 1872, while her father was serving the government in an official capacity at Washington, D. C. The family returned to Portland when Mrs. Ginnebaugh was eight years of age and deceased had been a resident of this vicinity continuously since.

Twenty years ago deceased was married to Len Ginnebaugh, who with four children, Fred, aged 17, John, aged 9, Margaret, aged 6, and Esther, aged 4, survive. There are three sisters, Mrs. Leon Williamson, of Lansing, Mrs. Clara Starks, of Scottsville, Mich., and Miss Ethel Chipman, of Pueblo, Colorado.

Mrs. Ginnebaugh's father died in Pueblo a little more than a year ago and was brought to Portland for burial Mrs. Ginnebaugh affiliated with the Congregational church while attending school here years ago and was an active member of the society until the duties of rearing a family developed upon her. Notes for Bertha C. Sherman:

The Portland Observer, Thursday, October 31, 1912:

In the sudden death of Mrs. Charles Ginebaugh, which occurred at the family residence northwest of Portland Tuesday morning, the community loses one of its most highly esteemed residents. Apparently in perfect health until a few moments before her death, Mrs. Ginebaugh was suddenly seized with an attack of heart failure, and before medical assistance could be rendered, she had breathed her last. Dr. Allen, who was summoned, found no evidences of life when he arrived. Mrs. Ginebaugh's sudden death has cast a pall over the entire community. She has always been highly regarded in the vicinity and her death is deeply mourned by many friends.

Her maiden name was Bertha Sherman and she was born at Ithaca, Gratiot County, in December 1883, her marriage to Charles Ginebaugh occurring about eleven years ago. The couple have two children, aged seven and nine. Besides the sorrowing husband and children deceased is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sherman of Toledo, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. James McClain of Ithaca, who will all be here to attend the funeral.

Rev. Vreeland of the Baptist church will conduct services at the house at 10:00 o'clock Friday morning, and the remains will be brought to Portland for burial.

Lyons Herald, November 7, 1912

Charles Ginebaugh and his two children have the sympathy of all who know them in their sad bereavement of wife and mother. Mrs. Ginebaugh died suddenly Tuesday morning, Oct. 29, 1912, before Doctors Alton and Allen, summoned from Portland, could reach the farm near Collins where Mr. and Mrs. Ginebaugh had lived happily since coming from Grayling 11 years ago. Two hours before her death Mrs. Ginebaugh was chatting pleasantly with her husband, with no indication that the end was near. Just the evening before she had gone for an automobile ride and retired in the best of health. Tuesday morning, she was slightly indisposed and though it was hardly deemed of sufficient importance to summon a physician, two were sent for when she began growing worse. Dr. Alton drove into the yard just as she breathed her last. Heart failure was the cause.

Funeral services were held Friday at the house, Rev. W.W. Slee, of the M. E. church, officiating. Burial was in Portland. Among those present were Mrs. Wm. Tubbs, mother, and Mrs. James MacLean, sister, both of Ithaca.

Mr. and Mrs. Ginebaugh were married at Bay City 12 years ago and spent one year in Grayling, after which they moved to the farm where they have since resided. Their two children are Irma and Gilbert, aged 10 and 9 respectively. It was but a few weeks ago that Mr. Ginebaugh lost a barn from fire, the origin of which was a mystery and the loss heavy.

Notes for Ernest John (Earnst Johann) Reimold:

Fifty four members and friends of the Washtenaw Organic Farm land Garden Club met Monday evening, Dec. 16, 1957, to experience one of the most inspiring meetings of the year. Maynard Kay, president, Tipton, opened the meeting with an inspirational talk on the power of prayer. "Prayer," he said, "is one of the most important factors in our lives and a privilege of which we would all do well to avail ourselves, in fact we should "pray without ceasing."

Honored at the meeting with applause and cheers was Ernest Reimold, 3170 South State Road, who observed his 80th birthday on December 10, and is a charter member of the club. Mr. Reimold still operates his 70-acre farm and has used bio dynamic methods for many years. Lake Odessa Wave, Friday, May 4, 1923

Dr. F. L. Morse Died After Long Illness - Practice Medicine Here for 17 Years. Veteran of Two Wars. Leaves Splendid Family. Masonic Funeral.

For the past two months the serious illness of Dr. Frederick Lee Morse has been a source of great anxiety to his family and friends. Everything has been done that could be done for his care and comfort administered by both loving and trained hands. Dr. Morse's health began to fail while in service in the last World War and all efforts have been made for a mastery over the disease. He practiced until the middle of last December when he gave up work and made every effort to prolong his life that could be made. During the past two months he has been under the care of several physicians and two trained nurses. Death came Monday afternoon at 3:30, April 30th.

Frederick son of Leonard E. and Lois Jane (Lee) Morse. Dr. Morse came to Lake Odessa seventeen years ago on April 21, 1906, when he purchased the practice and home of Dr. Day. He was a graduate of Saginaw Valley Medical College finishing May 11, 1898. He practiced in Sebewa until coming to Lake Odessa in 1906. He enjoyed a wide practice and took several short courses in different lines of his work to keep in line on new phases of medical science. Dr. Morse was a veteran of the Spanish war as well as of the World War. He readily accepted the call and volunteered his services. He was prominent in the management of the American Legion and was often consulted on its problems and management. He was public spirited and ever ready to assist in any enterprise for the benefit of the community. He was kind and courteous and always proved a friend in time of need. During his last illness he gave his heart to God, manifesting an experience of saving grace to his family and friends. He was a member of the Masons, Eastern Star, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, and was actively associated with each, when his practice permitted.

He leaves besides his wife, a son, George, who is in the graduating class here this spring and a young daughter, Frances.

The funeral was held at the home Wednesday afternoon in charge of the Masonic order. Rev. E.R. Showerman of the Methodist church and Rev. Thomas Laity of Lansing, a former pastor, gave splendid talks on the life of Dr. Morse as they knew him and George Gart and Leon Gilson sang, "Just As He Wills."

The Masons conducted the service at the cemetery and Arlington Corey sounded the last Bugle Call and the remains were left of the hillside amid a bank of beautiful floral emblems and tokens of love and esteem. Many were heard to say as they viewed the form of Dr. Morse, "Too bad one in the prime of life should be taken." Dr. Morse was forty-eight years of age.

1128. John Nikolaus¹¹ Gakle (Louisa Carolina¹⁰ Ukele, Christina Barbara⁹ Stollsteimer, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 10 Apr 1857 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 22 Dec 1931 in Sabetha, Nemaha Co, Kansas. He married Martha Ellen Scoby 06 Mar 1880 in Berwick, Nemaha Co, Kansas, daughter of John Scoby and Wilhemenia Steibler. She was born 18 Nov 1858 in Hamilton, Butler Co, Ohio, and died 26 Mar 1939 in Muskogee, Muskogee Co, Oklahoma.

Notes for John Nikolaus Gakle:

July 16, 1880 Hiawatha, Kansas - The arrest and trial of John Gakle for selling "intoxicating liquors" was an event of considerable interest to the citizens of Sabetha and vicinity. Gakle was arrested and brought before police judge Fagan, on last week, on complaint sworn to by city marshal Bowman. R. C. Bassett, attorney for the defense, moved that the court should adjourn. The court recognized the motion and adjourned until Tuesday at 9 o'clock a. m. Court being called on Tuesday morning, considerable time was spent in arguing as to the jurisdiction of this court and as to validity of the ordinance under which this case was prosecuted. But Attorney Conwell, of Seneca, colleague of Messrs. Sargent and Coleman for the prosecution, presented a decision of the supreme court on a case in which a similar ordinance was held valid, and of course this court could but decide for the prosecution. A number of the witnesses were then sworn and placed upon the stand, but all were blissfully ignorant as to whether there were any "intoxicating liquors" in the lemonade which they said they had procured of Gakle. One witness from Brown County was procured who testified that he had purchased liquor in lemonade of L. R. Bingham, at Gakle's stand. The de-claimed that Bingham was not acting as agent for Gakle, and as the court did not thoroughly understand point it adjourned for half an hour in order that the prosecution might produce witnesses to enlighten it. During the adjournment L. R. Bingham hunted up the Brown County witness and attacked him, but was repulsed with loss to such an extent that when court was reopened it had to adjourn, he nor being able to testify. At 3 :30 p. m., Wednesday, court again reopened and the prosecution produced the witness who testified that he was acting as agent for Gakle. The last leg was thus knocked from under the already tottering defense and after an adjournment of half an hour Gakle was pronounced "guilty," and in spite of a motion to arrest judgement filed by R. C. Bassett the court fixed the fine at fifty dollars and costs. The necessary papers and bond were then filed and the case was appealed to the district court.

The sociable at the residence of Mrs. W. G. Sargent on Wednesday evening last was a splendid success. The grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns and all went merry as a marriage bell. The Sabetha band, under Prof. Pace, were present and enlivened the entertainment with appropriate music – The Maj. Fountain building is roofed and inclosed. The Major will "move in" in a few weeks – Corps are just too nice to mention. – Weather warm, but nice breezes. – The temperance folks are jubilant over the conviction Gakle the "lemonade slinger."

Sept. 23, 1915 Atchison, Kansas - A Sabetha man recently had an experience similar to the one passed through by Conductor Bill Gordon, of the Burlington plug. The Sabetha Herald says: John Gakle was completely knocked out Sunday by three bees. He took the count for more than an hour and it required the services of Dr. Carlyle to bring him back with a heart stimulant. Mr. Gakle went out without his hat to put a top on a beehive. The bees were angry and three of them got in his wool and stung him. Mr. Gakle brushed the bees off. In a short time he fell unconscious to the ground. Dr. Carlyle got into Will Ingham's car and made a record run of eight miles to the Gakle home. In an hour Mr. Gakle regained consciousness but he was too tired to move around much all-day Monday. Tuesday he was all right again. Sabetha physicians say they never heard of but one case like it and that time the patient died. The poison from the bees got into Gakle's blood and went to his heart. The sting on top of the head an unusual place for the poison enter. It got directly into the circulation.

His windmill got out of whack and Mr. Wildt climbed to the top of it to make repairs. While at the extreme elevation he fainted dead away. Fortunately Harvey Yinger was at the foot of the windmill, and seeing Mr. Wildt's condition hurried to his assistance, remaining with him until he had recovered sufficiently to be removed from his perilous position.

1172. Charles Herman¹¹ Stollsteimer (John George¹⁰, Johann Georg⁹, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 19 May 1887 in Berwick Twp, Nemaha Co, Kansas, and died 08 Jun 1929 in La Veta, Huerfano Co, Colorado. He married (1) Mary Reichling Bef. 1900, daughter of Peter Reichling and Mary ?. She was born 27 Oct 1872 in Wisconsin, and died 15 Aug 1969. He married (2) Dottie Ellen Heikes Bet. 29 Jan 1917 - 05 Feb 1918 in Kansas, daughter of William Heikes and Anna Naugle. She was born 04 Jan 1894 in Rulo, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 29 Feb 1940 in Pueblo, Pueblo Co, Colorado.

Notes for Charles Herman Stollsteimer:

Sabetha, Kansas, Nov. 28, 1912 – We are sorry to hear that Charles Stollsteimer had the misfortune to break his leg by being upset with a load of corn.

Sabetha, Kansas, March 29, 1917 - Herman Stollsteimer has been down seeing the sights in St. Joseph for a few months. He is now running the sheep ranch for J. D. Hartter. Between trips to Cas. Feldman's. Charles Stollsteimer is catching pocket gophers. He has caught thirty-eight.

Sabetha, Kansas, Sept. 27, 1917 - Charles Stollsteimer has taken a contract to fill all of Charles Feldman's empty bottles with catsup Charles has a large crop of tomatoes.

Jan. 9, 1919 - Two Gila monsters caused consternation in a crowd of Berwick and nearby residents Tuesday afternoon. Cas Feldman was rendered speechless, and it was some time before he recovered. It was like this. Charley Stollsteimer and George Keck chose sides for a game hunt Tuesday. The winning side was to set up an oyster supper. The game brought in was to be sold for the benefit of the Red Cross. The latitude given was from north pole to south pole. There was a schedule of points for various birds and animals. Among them the gila monster was listed at 5,000 points. Charley Stollsteimer and Cas

Feldman and Bob Ruse and the balance of Stollsteimer's crew worked all day, tramping thru the snow. They dragged themselves in at the appointed hour, 3 o'clock in the afternoon. They had done a noble work and they counted more than 12,000 points. Keck's heroes looked glum as the best they could show were 7,500 points. About this time Oscar Cave drove in from the direction of Sabetha. He flaunted out of the sleigh with a few sparrows and the victorious Stollsteimer and Feldman hosts threatened to fine him a dollar for being unable to make a better showing. Cave's sparrows were duly counted. "It's all over but the shouting," said Fehlman, "there's nothing left but to eat the oysters on the other gang."

"Wait a moment." said Cave, "I forgot something; credit our side with two gila monsters. He opened a box and cast the two gilas right down into Keck's pile. It was here that Feldman was rendered speechless. They were gila monsters all right. When Feldman and his cohorts found their voices, they could have heard a mile or two. Both sides went round and round Gus Grote who was acting as judge. Noboby could assault the claim that they were gila monsters for they were so Stollsteimer's side assaulted Cave. They accused Cave of being crooked and buying the gila monsters only to that members of their own side had attempted to do the same thing but had been beaten to it by Cave. The upshot or it all was that the gila monsters were thrown out of court and another world war was narrowly averted. The rabbits, more than 600 of them, were sold to the Marysville Poultry house at $1.50 to $1.75 a dozen.

Where did the gila monsters come from? Shed Ellington brought them from Arizona last summer. In order to keep them thru the winter be put them in a manure pile to keep them warm. The manure climate disagreed with them so they died. Then Cave got them.

Notes for Oscar Waldemar Haab:

Oscar W. Haab, 89, an Ann Arbor business leader who founded Haab's Restaurant with his brother, died Wednesday Nov. 29, 1995 in his home after a long illness. Mr. Haab founded the restaurant with his brother, Otto, in 1934. He also was an investor and founding member of the Huron Valley Bank, serving as bank chairman from 1963 to 1975. He was known for generous support of local charities. Survivors include his wife, Keturah.

Visitation will take place at Muehlig Chapel, 403 S. 4th Ave., Ann Arbor. Haab's funeral will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 420 W. Liberty, Ann Arbor. Burial will follow in Washtenong Memorial Park in Ann Arbor.

Oscar Haab

- 1934 Oscar Haab started Haab's restaurant at 14-18 W. Michigan Avenue. with Otto Haab.
- owned the entire west side of the street of homes and vacant lots along the 100blk of N. Huron and managed them as rentals until the 80s, 90s.
- One Founder of Huron Valley National Bank (now Comerica)
- Benefactor to Concordia University in Ann Arbor – Haab School of Business in the 90s and his trust gave $1.9million to Concordia in 2003

By the 1870s, James Fulton (1827-1908) had established a saloon on the current site of Haab's Restaurant. It provided fellowship—mainly to gentlemen. A dividing-wall separated the men's bar from the women's, and a portion of that wall still exists at the end of our bar.

Just as today, ownership in eating/drinking establishments changed fairly frequently. When Adam Shaner purchased the saloon from Fulton in 1894, he added tobacco to the offerings of a traditional saloon. He acquired the best tobacco leaves, and they were wrapped into cigars on the second floor. Apparently, this was Shaner's "hook" and attracted enough customers that he was able to maintain ownership till 1905.

When Charles A. Smith purchased the business from Shaner in 1905, he renamed the saloon "Smitty's Saloon and Riverside Club." He completely remodeled the space, installing a tin ceiling and a modern bar manufactured by Brunswick-Balke-Collender of Grand Rapids. Both the tin ceiling and bar remain today. Smitty held onto this successful business until his death.

Then came Prohibition (1920-1933), shuttering Smitty's and other establishments serving "spirits." Soon after its repeal, though, brothers Oscar and Otto Haab had the foresight to open a saloon that reversed the traditional focus of a saloon. The Haab Brothers' Café was the first establishment in Washtenaw County where food was the primary draw for the customer. Beer and wine complemented the meal.

In the 1940s and 50s, automotive travel on the main Detroit-to-Chicago route exploded, bringing travelers directly past the café's front door. Travelers and local residents alike discovered Haab's, "where it's fun to eat." The brothers prided themselves on providing large portions of good food. As a result, their customer base continued to increase.

To accommodate more diners, the brothers expanded in 1963, adding two additional storefronts to the original saloon space. Together, these three spaces make up Haab's Restaurant today. The rooms were decorated in an antebellum motif, with heirlooms from the original Haab Family homestead in Lodi Township scattered throughout. The hand-hewn beams, although they provide no support, were added to enhance the early-American atmosphere. We're careful to preserve that traditional atmosphere today.

Haab's Restaurant is located in downtown Ypsilanti, Michigan, at 18 West Michigan Avenue. The restaurant has a bar area with an 30-foot-long (9.1 m) African mahogany bar and overhead ceiling fans, and two dining rooms. The decor is 19th-century with a pressed tin ceiling and features Tiffany lamps and heirlooms from the Haab family. It has seating for 130. The menu entrées are mainly steaks, chops, fried chicken and seafood, with the London broil being the most popular menu item. The front entrance displays an article in Monthly Detroit about Detroit area steakhouses in which the author names Haab's as his favorite Haab's was opened in 1934 by Otto and Oscar Haab on a site which had been used for a restaurant and bar since the 1870s, on U.S. Highway 12, the main road between Detroit and Chicago. The restaurant was purchased in 1976 by Mike Kabat and Harvey Glaze. Glaze sold his interest in the restaurant in 1991 and it is now owned by Mike Kabat and his son David. Up until 2011, on the third Monday in October, Haab's celebrated the anniversary of the opening of the restaurant by featuring three items from the 1934 menu, which are still served today, at their 1934 prices such as chicken in a basket (50 cents), spaghetti (40 cents) and a barbecue sandwich (20 cents). The "chicken in a basket" menu item was formerly licensed from the now defunct Chicken in the Rough franchise. In January 2014, Haab's announced that the anniversary celebration would resume with a new format: a 34% discount off regular checks.

On July 14, 2013, Haab's was named the winner of the "June Road Trip" contest on the QVC program In the Kitchen with David. The restaurant was subsequently visited by the show's host David Venable and producer Mary DeAngeli. On July 28, it was announced that the show would do a remote broadcast from Ypsilanti on August 25.

1311. Martha Friederika¹¹ Stoll (Johanna Christiana¹⁰ Mezger, Johann Georg⁹, Christina Barbara⁸ Graf, Agnes⁷ Stierlin, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 13 Apr 1880 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Mar 1975 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Junius Jacob (James) Mayer 24 Oct 1906 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Johann Mayer and Anna Heininger. He was born 14 Nov 1882 in Dixboro, Superior Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 29 Jun 1959 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

More About Martha Friederika Stoll:

Burial: Mar 1975, Bethlehem Cemetery Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan

Notes for Junius Jacob (James) Mayer:

Junius J. Mayer married and divorced from Martha Mayer (see reported divorce case, Martha Mayer v. Junius J. Mayer (6 Mar 1934), which reports, in part:

The parties lived together contentedly for about 25 years. Their separation and divorce were caused by the relations of defendant [Junius Mayer] with a woman whom he met in Detroit about two years ago and for whom he was willing to leave his family and home. The parties have one child, a son 26 years old, underdeveloped mentally, able to do much simple farm work but needing direction and personal care. He lives with his mother.

The parties have always lived on a farm. Both are industrious and frugal and, except for defendant's lapse, bear excellent reputations. Defendant also has established a business in sale of tractors and farm implements, which he conducted from the homestead.

The family home is a farm of 150 acres, inherited by defendant. He owns also a farm of 40 acres, a half interest in 140 acres, a house and lot in Ann Arbor, and personal property. The court awarded plaintiff the homestead, some livestock, farm tools and one automobile, together worth from $15,000 to $18,000, and ordered defendant to pay her $50 per month during her lifetime, with the understanding that as long as the son makes his home with plaintiff defendant should not be liable for any additional sum for his support. The property retained by defendant is worth $24,000. He complains that he cannot conduct his tractor business anywhere else than on the homestead and offered to give plaintiff all the rest of the real estate if he could have the home.

Defendant inherited all the land or purchased it with inherited money. However, plaintiff assisted him in conserving it and in acquiring personal property. The property does not admit of ready division upon the basis of values alone. The proportion of worth of the award to the wife is rather more than is usual. But there is no rigid rule of division and the security of a living for the wife is a major consideration. It does not appear that the homestead may be divided conveniently. It does not appear that other property would be as suitable for the wife's livelihood. She ought not to be driven from her home because of defendant's misconduct. Defendant's business can be readily established elsewhere. We think the court reached an equitable result and it should not be disturbed.

Notes for Gertrude Maxine (Gertie) Williams:

Gertrude Maxine (Williams) Stierley was born June 6, 1931 to Jesse and Florence (Chapman) Williams in South Haven Michigan. When asked how she wanted to be remembered she would jokingly say, "as a grouchy old lady," but she'd go on to elaborate that family was the most important thing to her. She was the matriarch of the family and she loved them well. She is survived by her son, David Stierley (Evelyn), her daughter Pam Martin (Gary), her daughter-in-law Tanga Korte (Roy), along with numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. She loved all of them so much.

She was preceded in death by her mom, Florence from whom she inherited her resilience and strength, her sisters (Helen and Norma), her son, Donald Stierley, and her husband of 59 years, William Stierley. Reluctantly, she gave in to being set up on a blind date with a man home on furlough from the Air Force. 3 weeks later she married him and embarked on an amazing journey with the love of her life. Not only did she love her family, she loved God and served him too. Even as a child she walked to nearby churches every Sunday. Her love for God is the greatest legacy she has given her family. She worked and served in many different places throughout her lifetime. She was well loved as a bus driver for Lansing Christian, she worked in a Deli, and when she was younger she worked at St. Lawrence hospital until she contracted the measles. She served God in many roles as well, cooking dinners for large groups, and teaching Sunday school for many years, among many others. She's had many titles over the years; daughter, sister, wife, mom, niece, aunt, grandmother, and friend. But the greatest thing this incredible woman leaves behind, her legacy, is a life full of love for God and for others.

The Funeral Service will be held on Friday, July 14, 2023 at 11:00 AM at Maranatha Baptist Church, 2300 North Waverly Road, Lansing with Rev. Glenn Ray officiating. The visitation will be held on Thursday from 6:00-8:00 PM at the Palmer, Bush & Jensen Family Funeral Homes, Delta Chapel 6301 W. St. Joe Highway, Lansing. Visitation will continue Friday at the church at 10:00 AM until the time of service. Interment will take place at East Lawn Memory Garden at 4:00 PM. Memorials may be made to the Maranatha Baptist Church in memory of Gertrude.

Notes for Douglas Lee Hauser:

September 18, 1980 - Three varsity hockey candidates have been suspended by Head Coach Ross. The three suspended are Last year's scoring leader and offensive MVP Doug Hauser, Scott Baker and Gary Tudji. Hauser, Baker and Tudji were suspended one-week for cutting the distance they had to run in Monday's off-the-ice practice. Hauser also received also received a second week of no practice for allegedly-showing a lack of respect toward a member of the coaching staff," Ross said. Ross also said that he decided to go with the suspensions instead of some other form of disciplinary action because "it's a whole new ball game now that we're a varsity sport and we have to get a certain amount of respect from the players." The players are "expected to be ready for the season," Ross said, "and we can't have players putting themselves above the team." "By their actions they put themselves above the team; Ross said, "and no one is more important than the team." "This year's schedule includes some top Division I and II competition and we are looking for attitude as well as ability to know where we stand," Ross said.

Although Ross said he is aware of the ability of the three who were suspended these next two weeks of practice would "have told us (the coaches) where they were in terms of attitude. "Right now we have 35 guys shooting for 25 positions and those who follow the rules will excel," Ross said. Ross also stressed that the overall discipline policy of the coaches will be much tougher than when the sport was only a club attraction. "We are not going to let anything slide this year," Ross said. Hauser said he admitted to Ross that he was wrong. When Hauser tried to discuss the suspension with Ross Tuesday night. Ross told him he would be notified by mail. "I make mistakes off the ice," Hauser said. "All I want to do is play hockey, I can prove my leadership ability on the ice." Hauser also said he was not aware of the reason for the second week suspension, and he wasn't trying to put himself above the team by his actions. "I have gone out of my way to help the freshmen on the squad," Hauser said. "I have helped them with their schedules and getting oriented to college me."

Tudji, who spent half of last season with an injured knee, also admitted to making a mistake but feels the punishment "is quite harsh." The third member suspended. Scott Baker, was recruited for the Fall of 1979, but because of a broken leg did not start school until last January. "I just hope he (Ross) doesn't carry this over into the season," Baker said. All three players said they have been and will continue to work during their suspensions so they will be ready to mum to practice. They also said that the suspensions will not affect their attitudes because all they want to do is "play hockey."

April 5, 2011 -- Cleveland, Ohio -- I'll miss Padua hockey coach Doug Hauser. Hauser, who announced his retirement Saturday, was a cut-throat competitor who cared about kids with equal fervor. As a Padua player and coach for 31 of the past 36 years, he was the face, heart and soul of one of the area's most successful sports programs. During his 28 seasons as coach, Padua won three state finals (played in seven), three Baron Cups and 561 games. What many don't realize is his real job is sixth-grade teacher at Parma's Ridge-Brook Elementary School, and young coaches and teachers can learn from both Hauser's career arc and the reasons he hung up his whistle somewhat unexpectedly at 51.

Hauser is a part of a small fraternity of coaches who helped build Greater Cleveland high school hockey, including fellow 500-game winners Mike Bartley of Shaker Heights and Hauser's retired former rival at St. Edward, Bob Whidden. Hauser didn't like Whidden at first, and they engaged in some legendary gamesmanship and antics. The two hotheads jawed at each other during games while baiting the refs and screaming at their own players. It was Whidden who ultimately taught Hauser a valuable lesson. "Part of my young competitiveness changed a little bit when we won our first Baron Cup in '88 and we beat St. Eds, 5-4," Hauser said. "That was a great thing, and I remember thinking, 'I can go and shake Bob Whidden's hand now.'"

"He was so gracious as far as congratulating me and saying how good a job I did. That's when I started to realize that other coaches are just like me. They want to do what's best for their kids. It's not necessarily personal toward another coach." High energy was Hauser's style, from his days as an undersized Kent State forward to his relentlessness behind the bench. His teams rarely were out-skated.

Hauser always had high expectations, especially of himself. In the end, teaching sixth grade then scooting off to hockey practice in Strongsville took a toll. With the growing demands on teachers -- longer days, larger classes -- and the immense amount of time associated with running a premier hockey program, he realized something had to give. "I kinda felt my sixth graders weren't necessarily getting the best teacher they could get, and my high school kids weren't necessarily getting the best coach they could get. Where do you go with that?" he said. I asked University coach Bill Beard, a former Padua assistant, why Hauser was so successful. Beard answered in two words, "He cared." Coaches like that should be missed.

April 25, 2002 - By Renee Lapham Collins Associate Editor In its "World Fact Book," the Central Intelligence Agency defines Cambodia as a "land of paddies and forests dominated by the Mekong River and Tonle Sap," with an estimated population of more than 12 million. The Southeast Asia country grabbed headlines in the 1960s and 1970s when U.S. involvement in Vietnam was at its peak, and in 1975 when more than a million people were killed by communist Khmer Rouge forces. After a 13-year war with its Vietnamese neighbors to the east, the United Nations intervened and helped Cambodians bring some sense of order to their chaotic government. Still, Cambodia is considered a third-world nation filled with poverty, disease, and a population with a life expectancy of less than 60 years. Many families, seeking a better life for their children, abandon them at orphanages, where they are sought for international adoption. Such an orphanage currently is the home of a 7-month-old girl that has been adopted by Diane and Richard Alber of York Township. The couple, already the parents of four grown children and grandparents as well, have been waiting since December to pick up the daughter they plan to call Malaya. "We received our approval September 12, and found out that the Embassy in Cambodia had received it," says Diane. "We thought, what a blessing, soon we'd get a referral. And on September 28, we did." But allegations of baby trafficking and reports of Cambodian women having their children stolen for sale internationally shook the INS, which already was reeling from the September 11 fallout, and delayed hundreds of foreign adoptions. "We should have had our decree and been able to go and pick her up since we had our approval long before December," says Diane. "But, things were at a standstill because of the Cambodian Embassy, and December 21, the INS called for a moratorium on U.S. families adopting children from Cambodia." The country is one of the most popular for prospective parents because adoptions reportedly are completed much more quickly than in other countries.

"Since the process isn't that long, we expected to have her soon," says Diane. The Albers are concerned for the health of their adopted daughter. In Cambodia, Diane explains, "once children are 8 years old, if they aren't adopted from the orphanages, they are turned out in the streets to try and make it on their own. "Many of the children in the orphanages are sick, malnourished, and need medical attention," she adds. Diane thought at first it was a case of the "empty nest" syndrome, but, once their four children were grown and on their own, "we had time to do other things besides raising children, but we felt like something was missing in our lives." She and Richard first considered adopting another child in 1998, but found that adopting a child from the U.S. was difficult. "We made many calls to many agencies to adopt, and finally I talked with a person that I knew had adopted a U.S. child," Diane recalls. "She told me that if she considered adoption again, she would pursue an international adoption. "Most of the children in the U.S. are bounced from foster home to foster home before they are placed into adoption. The wait was very long, and the cost overwhelming." Members of Fellowship Baptist Church, the Albers had seen a brochure tacked to the church's bulleting board about a meeting in which they could get more information on adopting a child from China. At that time, they decided the cost was "more than we could afford," but after investigating the possibilities of adopting a U.S. child, they turned again to the international scene. "We decided the Lord was leading us to reconsider China," says Diane. "We searched on the Internet and made many calls, and Finally found an agency." They attended a meeting, put in an application and continued with applying for the I-600-A orphan petition for International Adoption. The process is a long one, but it went smoothly for the Albers. "We didn't know where we would get the money to pursue this, but as time went on, the Lord started to provide income," Diane says. "My son hired me to work as a secretary for his carpet cleaning business, and we gave up our yearly vacation and a new car." As part of the adoption procedure, a social worker had to conduct a home study, and the Albers had to provide proof of income, marriage, birth certificates, and be fingerprinted and investigated by the FBI. "In July 1999, we received our approval to adopt, and our petition was sent to China in August," says Diane. "Then the wait began." Eight months later, the Albers received word that they would be able to adopt a little girl, and in May 2000, they traveled to China to pick up Shiyona, who now is 4. "She runs to every baby she sees," says Diane. "She was raised with a baby in China, and she misses her.

Richard decided that the Lord was again speaking to us to adopt another child, and we asked our social worker what she thought. "She said that if we did indeed adopt another child, we needed to choose a younger child since Shiyona is doing so well." ' Richard says he balked at adopting a child at first, because he felt they had raised their children, but soon changed his mind. Says Diane with a smile, "When we talked about adopting a second child, he was the one who wanted to do it and I was the one who was hesitating. Then, when we talked Richard woke me up one night and said that the Lord told him not to worry about his age. Richard felt it would be best for Shiyona to have a sister to grow up with." Since hearing that their decree has been held up, Diane and Richard have been "faxing, e-mailing, and calling our senators and congressmen. "Some of them are members of the adoption coalition," she says. "Senator Carl Levin is one of them. Senator Debbie Stabenow's office also has been involved in trying to help the families proceed to bring their children home to the U.S." Some families are receiving their decrees, including several who were on the waiting list behind the Albers. In particular, Diane points to actress Angelina Jolie, who with, her husband, Billy Bob Thornton, picked up her adopted Cambodian child while on a location shoot for a new movie in Africa. Jolie starred in The Bone Collector and Lara Croft: Tomb Raider. According to an article published by the Associated Press, Cambodia is the ninth largest source of foreign babies adopted by Americans, with upward of 100 children each month being picked up by their new American parents. Diane, who continues to work with their son for Authentic Cleaning, was born and raised in Milan. Her father, Charles Woolcott, was a barber. Richard grew up on a farm in York Township—in fact, the Albers live on property that once belonged to Richard's parents. He graduated from Saline High School with a number of record-breaking performances in track, and now works for Russell Finch and Sons Trucking in Milan. Diane says that she and Richard have a friendly rivalry when the Big Reds and the Hornets face off in prep sports. Three of their children were in the Milan High band program, their youngest attended Saline Schools, and their granddaughters have been involved in Milan swimming. "We really have been blessed," she says. "We love each of our children and grand-children."

The Albers hope to go to Cambodia and bring their new daughter, 7-month-old Malaya, home. children dearly," The Albers have been in touch with a number of other families who are in the same boat—with children awaiting them in Cambodian orphanages. Already, some of them have marched on Washington, D.C. in hopes of expediting the process. In March, the INS announced that dozens of parents who had been waiting for their adopted children could see the paperwork finalized by April. Diane and Richard are hopeful that they will be among those who will finally get their "visa appointment" in Cambodia, the last step before they receive the INS immigration visa for their daughter. A second march is being planned for May, depending on the outcome of the latest announcement. Diane says that she would be willing to go to Washington and be part of the second march because she feels that the INS and state department have not been consistent or fair in determining which children will be allowed to leave the country with new adoptive parents and which will remain behind. "We can only pray that our government is listening to the pleas of other parents and that all the families who are involved in this situation will be allowed to proceed. "The government can change the process later if it needs to be changed, but right now, these children need to be allowed to come home." Diane says she 'and Richard could have adopted another child from China, but age requirements would not allow them to receive a child younger than Shiyona. So they continue to wait. "In our hearts, we feel that these children need families, love, and homes to call their own," says Diane of the Albers' decision to adopt Shiyona and Malaya. "We feel that if we would not have been led to adopt, Shiyona might not have had this opportunity. To hear her say that she loves family and that she has said those words so many times is just awesome. "Having Shiyona has been nothing less than a blessing—we have enjoyed every moment. "The truth is, we are the ones that have received the blessing and our lives would not have seen this kind of joy if we hadn't been led to adopt Shiyona."

August 3, 2013 - PITTSFIELD TWP — A 71-year-old Freedom Township woman who was a passenger in a two-vehicle crash where both drivers died Monday morning on Michigan Avenue in Pittsfield Township is still in critical condition. Police released an update Wednesday morning, including about her current listed condition at the hospital. Pittsfield Township police have identified the deceased as Benjamin Arthur Alden, a 28-year-old Saline man, and Neil Nelson Stierle, an 81-year-old Freedom Township man.

Police say the crash occurred at about 8:29 a.m. when Alden's vehicle, heading westbound on Michigan Avenue, crashed head on into an eastbound vehicle near Textile Road driven by Stierle. Deputy Chief Gordy Schick, Pittsfield Township Police Department, said Alden's vehicle crossed the center lane on Michigan.

Alden was previously identified by police as a resident of Ypsilanti Township. Township Fire Chief Sean Gleason said in a statement following the crash Monday that firefighters dispatched to the crash had to use Jaws of Life to access the drivers who were then pronounced dead at the scene. Michigan was closed between Platt Road and US-23 for several hours while police were on scene investigating the crash. Michigan was reopened to traffic by about 12:10 p.m.

Neil Stierle left behind a legacy, 81, died July 29 as result of a car crash at Michigan Avenue and Textile Road. His wife, Christine, suffered severe injuries but is expected to make a full recovery. Their daughter, Mary (Stierle) Rebstock of Elk Grove Village, Illinois, remembers her dad for his impact on the community, especially within his church and the agriculture community. "He was a very wise man," she said.

At a mere 8-years-old, Neil Stierle starting driving tractors on his family farm in Freedom Township and worked on the farm throughout his entire life. When Neil was 27, his father, Ernest Stierle, died of farmers' lung, a form of emphysema. Neil took over the farm, which is still in existence today and is part of the Washtenaw County German Heritage Driving Tour. The tour features farms and settlements from the 19th and 20th centuries located throughout the county

Mary Rebstock lived on the farm until age 20. Her grandmother lived in a trailer behind the farm and frequently babysat Mary and her sister, Joanne. "We woke up every Saturday morning to the smell of old-fashioned German pretzels baking," Rebstock said. Neil and Christine met at Neil's best friend, Ken Escott's, wedding. Christine was at the wedding because her cousin, Audrey, was the bride. They met, fell in love and were married six months later. A few months ago, on June 8, they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. "They were so close, they did everything together," Rebstock said.

She married Phillip Roger Wanroy 23 Jun 1956 in Munith, Jackson Co, Michigan; born 15 Dec 1923 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan; died 16 Apr 1983 in Billings, Yellowstone Co, Montana.

Notes for Kathleen Janette Ford:

Kathy's prayers were answered as she was called home to be reunited with her beloved husband, parents, sister and other dear friends on May 26, 2012. Kathy Wanroy was born Jan. 6, 1926, in Munith, Michigan, to parents Harold and Ruth Hirth Ford. She was the second of four daughters born to the Fords and grew up in a loving and nurturing family. Kathy was a graduate of Stockbridge, Michigan, high school and received her teaching degree from Michigan State University. She taught elementary education for a number of years in several states. Her life changed when she met her best friend and soon-to-be husband, Phil Wanroy. They were married in 1956 and began a life of companionship, camping, love of dogs, and relishing in the beauty of nature.

Phil and Kathy built a campground from the ground up and soon joined Kampgrounds of America with a franchise in Michigan. Since Phil was a technician, KOA, Inc. soon called them to be part of the KOA, Inc. family in Billings where Phil eventually became the Vice President of Technical Services. The KOA family meant much to them and lifelong friends were formed. Phil passed away suddenly in 1983 and Kathy's heart was broken. Kathy remained in Billings and was a prayer warrior for her family, friends and church. She became a Stephen's Minister, thoroughly enjoyed her Tuesday morning Bible study, met with special friends in the Graduates, enjoyed music, studio theater, gardening, and her poodles. Kathy was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church in Billings until health issues intervened. She enjoyed living the past few years at West Park Village and the friends met there. Kathy was a loving friend and was loved.

Kathy is survived by sisters, Joan (Arthur) Gibbs and Beth Grosshans, sister-in-law Eleanor Wanroy, cousin Julia Mae Ford, and aunt Pauline Hons, all of Michigan. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews, cousins, and her "adopted family" Harry and Judy Cuff, Mandy and Katie and their families, and her very special friend Marilyn Beth Hughes Pinkerton.

She was predeceased by her parents, Harold and Ruth Ford; sister Virginia Smith; brothers-in-law Chuck Smith and Rich Grosshans; and Phil's twin Paul and Dorothy Wanroy. Special thanks go to Lynette and the West Park Village staff and Journey Hospice for their care and help.

Cremation has taken place and Kathy's memorial service will be held at West Park Village on Tuesday, June 5, at 3 p.m., with the Rev. Dave Thompson presiding. Graveside services will be held in Stockbridge, Mich. Memorial may be directed to First Presbyterian Church of Billings or the charity of your choice. Michelotti-Sawyers Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Notes for Karl Kurt Klipfel:

Karl Kurt Klipfel was born March 3, 1933, in Toledo, Ohio. This first-generation American lost his father when he was a child, and his mother raised Karl and his big brother into the highly achieving and wonderful men they were. Karl achieved a Bachelor of Engineering degree from the University of Michigan in 1955. He was Phi Delta Theta President and busboy at the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority across the street, where they called him "Cute Karl".

Karl married Shirley Ginebaugh on June 25, 1960 not long after they met on a blind date. He loved his bride of 52 years "as much as the ocean and as high as the sky." The loss of his son in 1997 had a profound effect on the whole family, but Karl steadfastly maintained his relationship with Bill's boys David and Doug, their mother and their step-dad. Karl was a proud grandfather of four. His youngest grandson Billy described his grandfather as "nice, great, and funny".

Karl tried to retire after a successful career in mainframe computer marketing at IBM and Amdahl, but found himself keeping busy with a variety of jobs. Grooming the grounds at Orchard Lake Country Club and Birmingham Country Club afforded him the chance to hit the links himself when the clubs were closed. Most recently Karl formed Wolverine Legal Services. Finding adventure in everything he did, Karl loved to travel and took his family on wonderful trips to fun locations including Walt Disney World, Boyne and a cross-country motor home trip. Karl took Shirley on many wonderful trips including Jamaica and cruises in the Baltic Sea and Alaska. He was particularly fond of London and Anna Maria Island, Florida. Karl was a lifetime learner and voracious reader. He loved the game of golf and anything related to the University of Michigan. Open-minded and respectful of differing opinions, he read both the Wall Street Journal and The New Yorker. Karl enjoyed masterfully creative entertaining. He was a past board member at Forest Lake Country Club and participated on many committees at the First United Methodist Church of Birmingham.

We will always remember favorite quotes from Karl, including:

- Super Fantastic!
- Why can't it be Christmas twelve months of the year?
- Hard work and product knowledge
- Love one another!
- Imagination is more important than knowledge
- WGCS (World's Greatest Computer Salesman)
- Ice cream and tootsie rolls cure everything

Karl maintained his humor, positive attitude and strong faith throughout his cancer battle. We are pleased to know that he is now celebrating comfortably in heaven with his son, brother and other family and friends whom he missed so dearly here on earth. Go Blue!

Karl is survived by his beloved wife of 52 years, Shirley and children, Rebecca Klipfel and Katie (Don) Kirkpatrick. He is also survived by his grandchildren, David, Douglas, Julia, and William, and many nieces, nephews, and friends. Karl is preceded in death by his son, William (Donna Klipfel-Tuka) Klipfel, and brother, Ernest Klipfel.

A Memorial Gathering will take place at Lynch & Sons Funeral Home, 1368 N. Crooks Road (between 14-15 Mile Rds.) Friday 4-7pm. A Memorial Service will be held at First United Methodist Church, 1589 W. Maple Road, Birmingham, Saturday at 1pm. Margaret Louise¹² Watson (Francis Margaret¹¹ Ukele, Jakob Friedrich¹⁰, Christina Barbara⁹ Stollsteimer, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 08 Jan 1949 in Bethany, Harrison Co, Missouri, and died 18 Feb 2020 in Kansas City, Wyandotte Co, Kansas. She married (2) Robert Dennis Shaffer. He was born Aft. 1940. She married (3) Christopher Wilson Nygren 2003. He was born 05 Dec 1945.

Notes for Margaret Louise Watson:

Margaret Louise (Watson) Nygren, 71, passed away peacefully on Feb. 18, 2020, at Kansas City Hospice House after a courageous seven-year battle with cancer. Margaret (Maggie) Watson was born on January 8, 1949, at Bethany Medical Center in Kansas City, Kansas, to Arthur Francis and Frances Margaret (Ukele) Watson. She grew up in Bonner Springs, Kansas, where she graduated from Bonner Springs High School. She studied pharmacology at the University of Colorado Boulder and English at the University of Kansas before pursuing a career in film. First working as a film editor/director at Calvin Productions, Maggie later became a video producer, director and script writer for Sprint. In addition, she freelanced as a film editor and post production assistant at Paragon Posting. As a film editor, she had the opportunity to impact both local and national films, including a number of Disney feature movies. Switching gears in her midlife, Maggie attended Rockhurst University, earning a Bachelor of Nursing degree, which launched her next career. She subsequently devoted more than seventeen years as a nurse, caring for patients at Research Medical Center, Baptist Medical Center and Menorah Medical Center. Passionate about helping others, Maggie mentored many nurses and other health care professionals at Menorah. Frequently working through lunch and breaks, Maggie provided compassionate care that made a difference in the lives of her patients. Physicians who had the opportunity to work with Maggie respected her knowledge and counsel, frequently implementing her recommended care plans.

Maggie led a full life. She married her first husband (Robert) while at the University of Colorado Boulder. While the two eventually parted ways, they were proud of their twin boys, Mark and Arthur. Life as a single mother was challenging, but Maggie approached life with a positive attitude. She introduced her boys to the joys of cooking with homemade fried chicken dinners complete with mashed potatoes and fruit pies on Sundays as a reward for behaving at church. She also instilled in them a love of adventure and curiosity. The boys experienced many adventures, to Maggie's chagrin, when she took them to work with her at Calvin, to Harper's Fabrics for sewing classes on the Country Club Plaza or to any number of stores around town. Maggie also impressed upon her twins the value of a good education by exposing them to books, books and more books.

Later in life, Maggie met and married her second husband (Charles). Together they had a son (Michael Frederick), who unfortunately died when he was only a few months old. In 1999, Charles also passed away peacefully at home, leaving Maggie with many wonderful memories. As Maggie worked to rebuild her life, immersing herself in her nursing career, she met her third husband (Christopher). The two wed and enjoyed more than 17 years together, honeymooning in Europe and frequently traveling to both coasts to visit family and friends. Maggie was an avid reader and connoisseur of movies. She loved to cook, explore new places and garden. Her creative talents were many, including her sewing and knitting creations. Always carrying around a large bag with a knitting project, Maggie's friends affectionately nicknamed her the "bag lady." Quick witted and intelligent, Maggie loved to spend time with her family and friends.

In February 2014, Maggie was initially diagnosed with Stage IV cancer. Over the following seven years, Maggie fought cancer and completed stem cell replacement therapy. While Maggie was victorious over the cancer, its toll on her body was too much. Resilient and feisty, Maggie maintained a "can do" attitude and vowed to fight until the end, which is exactly what she did. After a brief stay at the Kansas City Hospice House, Maggie passed away peacefully with family and friends nearby.

Maggie was preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Frances Watson; husband Charles Nichols; and son Michael. She is survived by her husband of more than 17 years Christopher Nygren; sons Mark Shaffer and Arthur (Linda) Shaffer; brother Fred (Mary) Watson; grandchildren Logan, Victoria and Zoey Shaffer; stepdaughters Stacy Knellinger and Laurie Nygren and step grandchildren Zachary and Timothy.

While the family plans to hold a private burial, they will host a Celebration of Life later this spring. The family would like to thank all of Maggie's caregivers, especially those at KU Medical Center, Menorah Medical Center and Kansas City Hospice House. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to Kansas City Hospice House.

He married Susan M. Petrie 09 Dec 1919 in Eaton Rapids, Eaton Co, Michigan, daughter of Neal Petrie and Pearl Harwood. She was born 15 Jun 1891 in Eaton Rapids, Eaton Co, Michigan, and died 24 Jun 1976 in Mission, Hidalgo Co, Texas.

Notes for Irving Ernest Wildt:

Loss is set at $30,000 - Fire, which for a time threatened the entire north side of this community's business district, this morning destroyed the interior of three store buildings housing four business places with a loss estimated at $30,000. Departments from five nearby communities assisted Hosier firemen in checking the blaze, but not before the Stub's Grill, the Sinclair Plumbing shop, the Blodgett Watch Repair store and the Wildt barber shop had been burned out. The fire was discovered shortly before 8:30 a.m. by George Ballentine, who turned in the alarm. It was presumed to have started from a defective electric water heater in Stub's Grill, which Wesley Zull, returned Marshall veteran, purchased only a month ago from Robert Daton. The flames quickly spread from the wooden frame building to the Sinclair and Wildt buildings, also of wooden construction.

Summons Aid Fire - Chief Robert Gregg summoned departments from Albion, Litchfield, Concord, Marshall and Sheridan Townships. The three buildings, the only wooden ones on the north side of the main street, were in the center of the business district. Herbert Sinclair, who estimated his loss at $6,000, stated he carried only $500 Insurance on the building and contents, mostly plumbing supplies. A small part of the building was rented to Leo Blodgett, watch repairman. He saved several cases of watches and said his sale, containing many more, was fire-proof. Mr. Zull's loss was covered by insurance in the amount of only $4,500. he said. Furniture owned by Vern Sweet, stored on the second floor of the building, was destroyed.

Irving Wildt, who suffered a bad fire less than a year ago, succeeded in removing his barber chairs and show cases before the flames destroyed the building's Interior. Charles Bradley was atop the roof of his grocery adjoining the Wildt building with a hose, playing water upon the flames. Fearful that the town's large water tank might run dry before the fire was extinguished, three large Pet Milk Co. trucks hauled water from the plant to the scene. Hundreds of people from Albion, Concord, Litchfield, Marshall and the surrounding countryside thronged into town as news of the fire spread. Heavy smoke blanketed the community during the morning. Only the framework of the three buildings remained after the fire was extinguished about 10:15 a.m. Officers from the Calhoun county sheriff's department directed traffic and were in charge of the crowds.

Irving E. Wildt, 77, of 421 Lake St., Homer, died Monday March 23, 1970 at his home after several months of illness. He was born in Homer Township and lived for several years in Eaton Rapids. For 30 years he had resided in Homer, where for 20 years he owned and operated a barber shop, on Main Street. He retired several years ago.

Surviving are his widow, the former Susie Petrie; a son, George L. Wildt of Charlotte; daughters, Mrs. Lyle (Pauline) Longwell of Mission, Texas, Mrs. Selah (Avis) Chapman of Jackson and Mrs. Elwood (Pearl) Potter of Homer) a brother, Earl Wildt of Homer, and a sister, Mrs. Kenneth (Louise) Gordon of Litchfield.

Notes for Casper M. Enkemann:

Ann Arbor News, March 12, 1982 - Ex-chief Enkemann dies; recalled a firm, fair, honest:

"He was firm, he was fair, He was honest." Suc wasa the laconic tribute paid to Casper (Cap) Enkemann when he retired more than two decades ago after 30 years with the Ann Arbor Police Department, 14 of them as its chief. Enkemann, whose retirement was declared a "loss for the city" in a 1960 Ann Arbor News editorial, died thursday at the Saline Evangelical Home. He was 76 years old.

Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m. Monday at the Bethlehem United Church of Christ with the Rev. Orval L. E. Willimann officiating.

While describing him as a friendly and likeable man who could be firm when occasion demanded,

The News praised Chief Enkemann as a "quiet, but determined and efficient officer," and noted that the city "should be grateful for having had his services for three decades." Enkemann came to the department in the summer of 1930 as a patrolman earning $1,800 a year. He worked his way through the ranks and acquired a reputation as a stubborn and determined investigator. He became chief of the department in 1948.

In 1980 Enkemann and two other former city police chiefs - Rolland (Barney) Gainsley and Walter Krasny - met for a special reunion and reflected on more than a century of city history and police work. Gainsley, who replaced Enkemann as chief in 1960, died last April. Krasney left the department in 1980 and still lives in Ann Arbor. He could not be reached this morning.

"Chief Enkemann has excelled in many ways as a law enforcement official," observed a News editorial writer in 1960. "He not only capable and honest himself, but he insists on high standards all through the department. "His investigations were always quick and thorough, and if there was reason for corrective measures in his department he never hesitated to act. " Ann Arbor has an outstanding Police Department." the editorial concluded, "and it is likely to continue to be one because of the firm foundation laid by Chief Enkemann."

Enkemann was born Dec. 9, 1905, in Cleveland, Ohio. He was a former member of the Ann Arbor Rotary Club; past president of the Michigan Chapter of the FBI; a past president of the Michigan Chiefs of Police; and the first person to receive the Human Relations Award from the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Survivors include Gladys Enkemann, his wife of more than 5 years, a son and four grandchildren.

1895. Doris Winifred¹² Binder (Elmer O. (A.)¹¹, Paulina¹⁰ Stollsteimer, Johann Georg⁹, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 28 May 1916 in Butte, Silver Bow Co, Montana, and died 02 Apr 2000 in Missoula, Missoula Co, Montana. She married Ralph Stoner Eudaily 27 Dec 1936 in Butte, Silver Bow Co, Montana, son of Albert Eudaily and Alma Stoner. He was born 27 Sep 1913 in Avant, Osage Co, Oklahoma, and died 18 Jun 1997 in Missoula, Missoula Co, Montana.

Notes for Doris Winifred Binder:

Missoula, Montana - Doris Winifred Binder Eudaily, our beloved "RaRa," died of natural causes on Sunday, April 2, 2000, at Village Health Care Center. She was surrounded by the members of her family - those she treasured most. Doris was born on May 27, 1916, in Butte, to Elmer O. and Mary (Mae) Theresa Dinn Binder. She attended grade school and high school in Butte, and then, at age 16, went to Dillon to Montana State Normal School, now known as Western Montana College of the University of Montana. It was there that she met Ralph S. Eudaily, who was to become both her husband and her best friend. They were married in Butte at St. Joseph's Church on Dec. 27, 1936, and remained married for more than 60 years until Ralph's death on June 18, 1997. The couple had two children, Gloria and Gary.

Doris started teaching at the age of 18 in a one-room school at Apex. Her job included building the fire in the classroom stove, getting the school ready for the day, and teaching her three students in grades one through eight! Doris taught elementary pupils for 30 years, first at Apex, then at Hall and finally at Target Range School in Missoula. She watched Target Range School grow from a two-room school to its present size. Many of her former students especially her Target Range first-graders, still keep in touch. After retiring from Target Range School, Doris joined Ralph in a second career lasting 14 years at the Montana State Legislature. She was the "Spouse of the House" and enjoyed every minute of it. Doris was able to accompany Ralph on Western Legislative Conference trips throughout the West, Alaska and Hawaii. She and Ralph made many friends on these trips and during their time with the Legislature.

Doris survived by her daughter GlanaVolland and her husband, Walter, of Bellevue, Washington; their children, Gregory Volland of Bellevue, Washington, and Kirk and Michelle Volland of Pace, Florida. She also is survived by her son Gary Eudaily and his wife, Lisa, of Missoula; grandsons Michael Eudaily of Missoula and Sean Patrick Eudaily of Laurel, Maryland.

Doris and Ralph devoted their lives to their family, to Montana, and to education, and were extremely proud of the success and progress of all four grandsons. These boys were indeed the "apples of her eyes" as well as the source of her nickname. RaRa, we will miss you so very much, but we all know how blessed we were to have you as a mother and grandmother.

Services will be held at Malletta Funeral Home, Livingston Chapel, 224 W. Spruce St. Visitation will be 5-8 p.m. Wednesday, April 5, with funeral services at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 6. Burial will follow at the Missoula City Cemetery, where Doris once again will be side by side with Ralph. Memorials may be sent to the University of Montana Foundation.

Notes for Ralph Stoner Eudaily:

Ralph S. Eudaily, 83, of Missoula, Montana passed away Wednesday, June 18, 1997, at St. Patrick's Hospital of natural causes. Ralph was born Sept. 28, 1913, in Avant, Oklahoma, the son of Albert H. and Elma Stoner Eudaily. He moved to Montana as a small child. He is a graduate of Park City High School; attended Arkansas City, Kansas, Junior College and graduated from Montana State Normal College (UM-Dillon). He lettered in basketball, football, and baseball while at Dillon. He earned his master's degree in education from the University of Montana. Ralph met Doris Binder while both were attending college in Dillon. They married on Dec. 27, 1936, in Butte. The couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last December.

Ralph is survived by his wife, Doris Eudaily of Missoula; his daughter Gloria, and her husband, Dr. Walter Volland of Bellevue, Washington; his son Dr. Gary Eudaily of Missoula; and his four grandsons, Lt. Kirk Volland, U.S. Navy, and his wife, Michelle of Barber's Point, Hawaii, Sean Patrick Eudaily of Missoula, Gregory Volland of Bellevue and Mike Eudaily of Missoula.

Ralph began his career in education as an elementary teacher and high school coach at Belmont and later at Bridger. In 1938-1941, he was superintendent at Reed Point, and from 1941-1943 at Elliston. He was principal of Granite County High School in Philipsburg from 1943-1949. He joined the staff of District 1 in Missoula in 1950, serving as principal of Whittier School until 1961 when he became the first principal of the then-new Russell School. He remained at Russell until his retirement in June of 1976. In November of 1976, Ralph was elected to the first of seven consecutive terms in the Montana House of Representatives. In his years in the legislature, he served on the Education, Judiciary, and Fish & Game committees. He was Majority Whip in 1987, and was a member of the Legislative Council for eight years, serving as chairman during his last term. He also represented Montana at the Western Legislative Conference for many years.

Ralph was an avid outdoorsman, who especially enjoyed hunting and fishing. He hunted in Montana's first ever pheasant season. His favorite fishing was always the salmon fly hatch on Upper s Rock Creek, where the family has had a cabin since 1944. He passed his love of the outdoors on to both his children and to his four grandsons. The greatest joy of his life came from his family and home. Whether it was in the summers at the family's cabin on Rock Creek or at home during Christmas, Ralph's family always came first. Ralph was active in local and state PTA; State and National Elementary Principals' Association, serving from 1956-1959 on the Executive Committee of the National Department of Elementary School Principals; he was chairman of the School District 1 Insurance Committee for 26 years; he served many years on the Elks Scholarship Committee and the Campfire Girls Council; he was a life member of the Montana Officials Association, officiating both football and basketball (including a Harlem Globetrotters game at the old men's gym at U of M); and has been a longtime member of the Western Montana Fish and Game Association and of Ducks Unlimited. He had an abiding interest in preserving Rock Creek as a blue-ribbon trout stream.

Ralph was widely recognized for his outstanding contributions to education in Montana, receiving awards from Northwest Montana Elementary and Middle School Principals, University of Montana - College of Technology, UM-Dillon, Park City High School, State Retired Teachers Association, U of M Foundation, Montana Association of Elementary School Principals, Missoula PTA Council, and AARP National Retired Teachers Association.

Visitation will be at the Livingston-Malletta & Geraghty Funeral Home Sunday, June 22, from 4 to 6 p.m. A memorial service is planned for Tuesday, June 24, at 2 p.m. at the CM. Russell School gymnasium, 3216 Russell Street in Missoula. It was Ralph's wish that in lieu of flowers memorials may be sent in his name to the University of Montana Foundation, P.O. Box 7159, Missoula, Montana, 59801-7159, or the Elks Scholarship Fund, Hell Gate Lodge 383, P.O. Box 7187, Missoula, 59807.

June 19, 1997 - His colleagues in the Legislature and in Missoula's School District 1 agree that Ralph Eudaily was a tireless public servant, who never backed away from what he believed was right. Eudaily, 83, died Wednesday June 18, 1997 afternoon after an illness. Gov. Marc Racicot remembered Eudaily from Racicot's days in the Legislature's print shop and called the longtime legislator a "highly respected, kind and thoughtful gentleman." Earl Lory, who served six sessions in Helena with Eudaily, said he was a "great guy." "The principal interest Ralph had was in education," Lory recalled. Lory said Eudaily doggedly pursued educational interests in his seven sessions at the capital, and would spend hours each night reading, rereading and underlining the bills for the next day's meetings. "I guess that showed his teaching habits," he said.

Eudaily was an educator for 40 years and was a principal in Missoula School District 1 for 26 years. In 1976, Eudaily retired from education and won election to the 1977 legislative session. "He was a gentleman," said former Gov. Ted Schwinden. "He was always courteous, always polite. You inevitably have differences party-wise, but Ralph came from the old school." Missoula County Commissioner Barbara Evans remembered Eudaily's years of service to the state Republican Party. "I always found him to be Responsive to the public and a good, dedicated and conscientious public servant," Evans said. "That all sounds very melodramatic, but he did look at his service that way."

In his years as a Missoula educator, Eudaily led the vanguard that brought law enforcement into Montana's public schools, said Sheriff Doug Chase. Chase said Eudaily was a "pioneer" in bringing police officers together with students in a learning atmosphere. "He dared to adventure," Chase said. "And you always felt welcome (in his schools). "He was just a classy, classy person. I am deeply saddened." As a legislator, Chase said, Eudaily was a man who "always advocated for excellence." He got "the best bang for the buck," Chase added. Former Missoula School District 1 Superintendent Jake Block said Eudaily's fierce advocacy for education surpassed party lines. "It never seemed to be about the party," Block said. "It was about what's best for the kids." A memorial service will be planned for a later date.

Navy in the Pacific area. He is employed at the Pontiac Garage in Ann Arbor. The young couple plan a mid-summer wedding.

Immanuel Lutheran Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Saturday evening, July 19, 1947, at 7:30 when Miss Audrey G. Schwartz, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schwartz of Ridge Road was united in marriage to Leon L. Herter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herter of Ann Arbor. Rev. Theodore Toen, pastor of the church performed the double ring ceremony before the altar of palms, baskets of pink roses and Snasia daisies and lighted candelabra. Before the ceremony, Herbert Frye of Ann Arbor sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love," He was accompanied by Mrs. Frye at the organ. As the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. Frye played the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an exquisite gown of sheer nylon marquisette with lace insertions. The tight fitted bodice buttoned down the back, and had a sweetheart neckline, shirred front fastened with seed pearls and had long tight fitting sleeves. The full skirt spread into a long train at the back. Her full length veil was caught into a tiara of glazed, orange blossoms. The bride carried a white leather Bible covered with a white orchid from which hung white satin streamers tied with white rose buds. Attendants to the bride were maid of honor, Miss Norine Schwartz, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Misses Lois Holcomb Loyola Kanitz and Mildred Alber, very close friends. Norine wore a peach crepe de chin formal with lace in sections similar to the bride's gown. Her arm bouquet was blue carnations and gypsophila. Both had corsages of white carnations, red roses and Lycoris lilies.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the basement of the church following the reception. Miss Marilyn Alber had charge of the guest book. Assisting hostesses were cousins of the bride. The basement was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Cake and ice cream were served the guests. Later all were invited to the bride's home where a social time was spent. A delicious supper was served in the decorated recreation room. The honored couple received many lovely and useful gifts.

Notes for Herbert Adolph Diuble:

Herb and Louisa Diuble began ambitiously when they married, back in 1939. They rented three farms on Waters Rd. and began the beef and dairy and crop operation that has been their living. They also built a family; four daughters and two sons. Now, looking back through the years, it must seem that they built a Diuble dynasty, based on good Washtenaw land, and good Washtenaw stock. By 1946, the couple had done well enough with their three rentals that they were able to buy the one they were living on. That spread, on Waters Rd., was the place where the young Diuble's were raised. Arlene, Ralph, Donna, and Donnie, the twins, and Nancy and Sharon. They all came up on the land, working alongside their father and mother—learning all about farming and livestock the “hands-on” way. They got their formal education in the Saline Area Schools. But they learned lots about life, and the rewards of hard work, on the farm. The Diuble's started building their beef and dairy herds at the very outset. They began with Hereford and Angus crossbred, buying calves and feeding them for market. Their dairy herd grew to 45 head of Holstein milkers. Then, in 1953, young Ralph earned Grand Champion honors with his Hereford entry in Steer Club competition at the Saline Community Fair. His animal sold at a really exciting price: 60 cents per pound! Ralph did it again in '54. Another Grand Champion Hereford, and another 60-cent bonanza for the young livestock feeder. Arlene followed in 1955. Grand Champ steer at the Fair. A few years later, in 1960, Nancy had her turn in the spotlight. Her beef entry took the winner's trophy as the best in the Steer Club Show. Donnie went the 4-H route, with the same results: A Grand Champ steer at the Washtenaw Achievement Show. A short horn Hereford cross took the trophy. Sharon followed in 1972. Another Saline Fair Grand Champ.

Donna went into sheep—and her Southdown entries were top winners or contenders on the Fair and 4-H circuits. The children's success at raising premium animals had a strong impact on the family. In 1968, the Diuble's sold off their dairy herd and moved into beef feeding all the way. Instead of going with the crossbreds, they concentrated on purebred Angus, the breed that Nancy and Sharon had scored with. They've prospered—but possibly their greatest satisfaction has come from the winning ways of their children—and now their grandchildren. This year, Ralph's son and daughter, David and Sally, mopped up top honors in beef competition at the Washtenaw 4-H Show, and then added more ribbons and trophies in the Steer Club judging at the Saline Community Fair. David had done well in 1984 with Reserve Champ at the Fair and in '85 with Reserve Champ steer and Grand Champ Market heifer at the County 4-H Show. There was one basic difference between their 1986 success story and that of their father back in the early '50s. Remember the 60-cent price that Ralph was paid? David's 4-H Grand Champ brought a cool $1.15 per pound. Sally's Saline Steer Club Grand Champion went for $3 per pound.

And the Dynasty will surely live on. Nancy, married to Steve Thelen, a businessman, in the Olivet area, has a career herself, as 4-H extension agent for Eaton County. The two of them have a two-year-old daughter, Renee. “Whenever we see her,” says Herb proudly, “she tells me, “Grandpa, I want a black cow!” Sharon and her husband, Dan Vassen, make their home on the original Diuble spread on Waters Rd. They're expecting their first child next February, and the elder Diuble's won't be too surprised if the child grows up in the family fashion, working the farm and concentrating on beef cattle. Meanwhile, Herb and Louisa have moved to another farm home on Scio Church Rd. They continue to prosper—but occasionally they're reminded that livestock farming is a gambler's business, with a dash of danger thrown into the mix for excitement. In the midst of David's and Sally's triumph at the 4-H Fair, one of David's prize animals, the Grand Champion Market heifer, broke loose. Herb, holding the trophy for his grandson, tried to stop the animals. “It knocked me down and jumped right over me,” Herb recalls. “I got a few aches and bruises, but at least I hung onto the trophy, and it didn't get a scratch.” Herb and Louisa don't push themselves quite as hard as they did when they were a little younger. For almost a quarter-century, for instance, Herb has been pretty much the judge of which animals to buy in the cattle yards at Gaylord, for Saline Steer Club members' projects each year. “I may have to give it up,” he says now. “It's getting awfully hard to choose good feeder stock.” But he's out in his fields every day. Although he turned 70 last May, he's not about to stop farming. “good exercise,” he says. “I wouldn't dare quit.” He wants to be ready, when Renee and her young cousin come around for help on their first project animals!

Herbert Diuble of Ann Arbor, 82, died August 27, 1998 at Herrick Manor in Tecumseh. Mr. Diuble was born May 14, 1916 in Lodi Township, the son of Adolph and Louise (Weurth) Diuble. On January 28, 1939, he married Louisa B. Herter and she survives. A lifelong resident of and farmer in Lodi Township, Mr. Diuble was a member of Salem Lutheran Church, the Saline Fair Board, and many Angus associations. He also had been a 4-H volunteer.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Diuble is survived by: six children, Arlene (Lloyd) Grau of Chelsea, Ralph (Debbie) Diuble of Pinckney, Donald Diuble of Bridgewater, and Donna (Jim) Guenther, Nancy (Steve) Thelen, and Sharont (Dan) Vaassen, all of Ann Arbor; 12 grandchildren, Daniel (Kathy) Grau, Steve (Sue) Grau, Matt Grau, David (Diana) Diuble, Sally (Terry) King, Lisa Jones, Brenda (Andrew) Hively, Jamie Guenther, Renee and Julie Thelen, and Rachael and Patricia Vaassen; 10 great-grandchildren; three brothers, Raymond, Elmer, and Harold (Carlene); a sister-in-law, Betty Diuble; and several nieces and nephews. Mr. Diuble was preceded in death by: two sisters, Esther Diuble and Dorothy Girbach; and one brother, Wilbert Diuble.

Funeral services were held August 30 at Salem Lutheran Church with Pastor Douglas Hartley officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the church or to the Washtenaw County 4-H Club. Arrangements were handled by the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home, Saline.

Marriage Notes for Louisa Herter and Herbert Diuble:

Herbert A. Diuble, 22 years old, of Ann Arbor, came to the County Courthouse Tuesday morning Jan. 17, 1939 to get a marriage license and immediately was given a chance to work out its cost. Attorneys trying a case had exhausted a panel of 30 jurors, with three places still to be filled. As Deputy Sheriff Erwin Klager went in search of a fresh supply of talesmen, he saw Diuble and drafted him along with five others. Conscripted into the jury box before he even had a chance to get his license, Diuble slatted earning an unexpected $4 a day. It was the first time in a year and a half, court officials said, that the regular panel had been exhausted. Diuble got his license at the jury's noon recess. He will marry Louise B. Herter, 22, of Route Four, Ann Arbor.

Miss Louisa Herter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Herter of Scio Church Road, and Herbert Diuble, of Ellsworth Road, were united in marriage by Rev. Arthur Wacker at a double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon January 28, 1939, at the Scio Lutheran Church.

Miss Herter chose a white embroidered marquisette frock with which she wore a short tulle veil and carried Johanna Hill roses. She was attended by Miss Erma Luckhardt of Lodi Township as maid of honor, wearing pink taffeta, and by two bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Diuble, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Margaret Larmee of West Liberty Road, both wearing aquamarine net. All carried harmonizing noses. Katherine Gartman of Freedom Township as flower girl wore aqua blue taffeta and carried a basket of rose petals. Elmer Diuble assisted his brother as best man and the ushers were three cousins of the bride, Walter, Paul and Erwin Herter, and a cousin of the bridegroom, Raymond Diuble.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herter after the ceremony. The couple will live on and Waters Road.

Louisa and Herbert Diuble of Ann Arbor will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at a special buffet reception this Sunday, Jan. 29, 1989 at Salem Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor. The event will be hosted by the couple's six children; Arlene and Lloyd Grau of Chelsea; Ralph Diuble of Ann Arbor; Donna and Jim Guenther of Ann Arbor; Donald Diuble of Manchester; Nancy and Steven Thelen of Olivet; and Sharon and Dan Vaassen of Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Diuble were married January 28, 1939 in Ann Arbor, where they have resided all of their lives. Mr. Diuble is a farmer and Mrs. Diuble is a homemaker. Both are members of Salem Lutheran Church and enjoy farming, livestock shows, and children. The Diubles have 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Notes for Marie Caroline Kuebler:

Marie Caroline Kuebler Herter was born January 9, 1930, in Saline Township, the daughter of Paul and Olga (Finkbeiner) Kuebler. Marie passed away on Friday, March 23, 2018, from debilitating Alzheimer's disease. Marie attended Macon's one-room school (a Henry Ford School) until eventually graduating from Saline High School in 1949. While living with three friends in their singles Ann Arbor apartment, Marie worked for a couple years as a bank teller. She then met and married Paul Herter on August 25, 1951 at Bethel United Church of Christ in Manchester, Michigan; she has remained a member of Bethel since that time. After 54 years of marriage, Paul preceded her in death in 2005.

Marie and Paul have four children: Jean (Robert) Martin, David (Kimberly) Herter, Dale (Scott Koziol) Herter, and Judy (Patrick) Laberde. Marie's pride and joy, however, were her grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Her grandchildren are: Jackelyn (Jason Smith) Martin, Joshua (Lauren McGaw) Herter, Jacob Herter, Amanda (Dean) Eisenmann, Jamie (Garron) Rorick, and Jason Laberde; and her beloved "sweetie" granddaughter Holly Martin, who welcomed her at Heaven's gate. Her great-grandchildren are Zoe and Callen Rorick. Marie gladly attended several grandchildren activities – t-ball, Sunday School programs, 4-H fairs, water polo matches, band concerts, fiddler concerts, and dance recitals. She held lambs and chased steers for her grandchildren, doing so with a smile and words of encouragement. She was also the one who spent many long days, and nights, entertaining the sick or hospitalized grandchild. Marie will also be missed by her patient four-legged companion, Sassy.

Surviving Marie are her sister-in-law Felicia Kuebler, her brother-in-law Robert Mast, and several nieces and nephews, all whom she adored. In addition to her husband and parents, Marie will be joining her sister Katherine Guenther, brother Walter Kuebler, brother-in-law William Guenther, and sister-in-law Selma Mast – all waiting to play a round or two of Euchre. Kate and Marie will keep the games lively! Marie's life was not easy, nor always fair, but she persevered. At the age of 11, Marie's mother died in an automobile accident caused by a drunk driver. Marie was a passenger in the car and suffered a severe fractured leg, leaving her with a limp and daily reminder of the accident. She farmed with her husband for many years. She could often be found at the Saline or Bridgewater grain mills, hauling in truckloads of grain. She spent many hours a day tending her chickens, gathering, cleaning, and then grading the eggs, later selling them to various downriver Detroit customers. It was not unusual to find her caring for newborn lambs or baby pigs that were brought in the house to "warm-up", often warming up in the oven! She also appreciated her many canine companions throughout the years. Although she claimed she "never really liked cats", she would nurse them with eye droppers, and cuddle them in her lap. Marie drove tractor for baling, unloaded hay and straw, cooked many meals for hungry sheep shearers, and, of course, the monthly sauerkraut and knoeple dinner. Her homemade German pretzels were regularly shared with family and friends. Many summer nights Marie found a bit of peace and quiet on the old cultivator tractor, straw hat firmly in place, slowly and cautiously running between the rows.

Marie spent many years working at the Ann Arbor News as an "insertor" – putting in the multiple loose ads and/or comics and coupon fliers in the newspaper. She enjoyed this job, making new friends and taking pride in her work. Marie's work ethic, whether at the News or on the Farm, was strong, committed, and driven, and this was passed on through the generations. Marie was a woman committed to her faith and to her church. She worked tirelessly at Bethel UCC Ice Cream Socials and church functions, usually baking an infamous hickory nut cake (or two). She was a quiet presence, but always present in the pews and behind the scenes. Keeping four children quiet and complacent during sermons was accomplished with pen and paper, and always gum (although the grandchildren got candy!).

Marie's passion and pride were her gardens; vegetable and flower gardens flourished under her care. She often shared the bounty of each summer's yield with family and friends, and canned a multitude of produce. Hoeing in the garden was routine for Marie, and her free laborers (her children and grandchildren!) provided weed control. Her beautiful flower gardens were admired by many as they passed by the family farm.

Marie and Paul enjoyed various social outings with several friends, especially summer Saturday evenings at German Park. Euchre games, Farm Bureau meetings, local fairs, and New Year's Eve celebrations were special for Marie. In Heaven, Marie now joins special friends Glen and Lucille Feldkamp. If four people could make something out of nothing, it was Paul, Marie, Glen and Lucille, enjoying short and long trips to anywhere and everywhere. Heaven will never be the same! As Marie advanced in years, her gardens were tended a little less immaculately, and sauerkraut dinners were a joint family affair, but her spirit (and sometimes stubbornness) was ever present. Even when Marie moved to Brecon Memory Center and then to EHM Senior Solutions, her one-liners brought smiles and laughter from caretakers. Special thanks to her caretakers at both locations – your concern and care of Marie was greatly appreciated.

Please join the family as they celebrate Marie's life. Visitation will be held Tuesday, March 27, 2018, between 4:00 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline, MI. The Celebration of Life Service will take place at Bethel United Church of Christ, Manchester, Michigan, on Wednesday, March 28, 2018 at 11:00 A.M., with visitation beginning at 10:00 A.M. at the Church. The Reverend David Bucholtz will officiate at the service. Memorial contributions may be made to EHM Senior Solutions for Staff Appreciation, or to Bethel United Church of Christ.

Marriage Notes for Paul Herter and Marie Kuebler:

Marie Kuebler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuebler of Manchester, became the bride of Paul Herter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Herter of Ann Arbor. The service was performed by Rev. T. W. Menzel at the Bethel Evangelical and Reformed Church of Manchester. About one hundred and fifty guests were present at the ceremony which was held at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, August 25, 1951. For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white satin, styled on princess lines and her fingertip veil fell from a sweetheart tiara of satin. She carried a white orchid atop a white prayer book. Mrs. William Guenther of Ypsilanti, the matron of honor, was attired in a gown of yellow lace and marquisette over taffeta. She wore a matching headband and her bouquet was a cascade of blue asters. Ruth Wild of Saline and Doris Searfoss, also of Saline, were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were styled identically to that of the matron of honor and they wore pastel green and lavender respectively. The bridesmaids carried cascade bouquets of yellow pompoms. Susan Guenther, the flower girl, niece of the bride wore pink organdy, and Ronald Mast, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer. Robert Mast of Dexter acted as best man and seating the guests were Walter Kuebler and Alvin Haeussler of Manchester.

A reception followed in the church basement. Miss Arlene Luckhardt of Ann Arbor poured and Mrs. Robert Mast cut the cake. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Theo Guenther of Saline and Mrs. Raymond Jacob, Jr., of Grass Lake. After a week in northern Michigan, the couple will be at home at 6405 Ellsworth Road, Ann Arbor. For traveling the bride's costume was powder blue with white accessories. The bride is a graduate of Saline High School and is a bookkeeper in Ann Arbor. The bridegroom is engaged in farming. Notes for Robert Neil Mast:

Robert and Selma Mast, Dexter: I have lived on a farm all my life. I was born in 1921 on the 100-acre farm that my grandfather had purchased in 1904. After my father married in 1920 he took over the farm and I worked with him during high school years. After graduation in 1938 I completed a one-year agricultural course at MSU. After marriage in 1945 I was in partnership with my father. In 1959 I purchased the 120-acre farm directly across the road from my dad, where we still live. We live on Mast Road, named for our family. Since my father's death, I've owned both farms. We farmed with horses until 1946 when we bought our first tractor. We milked cows, raised sheep and chickens until 1972 when we purchased more cattle and decided not to raise sheep and chicken. I was active in 4-H clubs for 10 years and was a leader for 33. I was also active in the State and Local Milk Producers Association, the County Farm Service Agency and the Township Planning Commission. My wife, Selma, helped with the farming, the cows, lawn work and gardening. She also was a 4-H leader for 25 years, with food and clothing projects. I am now semi-retired, renting the farm to a neighbor and helping when needed. I have never had time for a hobby, but have taken over the gardening and lawn work. We have enjoyed playing cards and doing some traveling over the years.

Robert Neil Mast, age 101, of Dexter, Michigan, passed away on Saturday, November 26, 2022 at his home. Bob was born on March 9, 1921 on his family's Centennial Farm in Webster Twp., the first born child of Carl and Emma (Berner) Mast. A lifelong resident of Dexter, Bob began his education at the Peatt School on Gregory Rd. until the eighth grade, then to Dexter Schools for high school, graduating in 1938.

In his youth, he showed Delaine-Merino sheep at the County Fair, State Fair, and Michigan 4-H Fair. Bob was recognized as the Outstanding County Club Member in 1938, and in 1940, he attended Michigan State College for the Ag Short Course. Beginning in 1941, Bob became a 4-H leader and continued this role for more than 30 years. Bob was active in a variety of organizations. He was a 75-year member of the Masonic Lodge, a lifetime member of St. Andrew's Church of Christ in Dexter, a Farm Bureau member since 1949, a board member of the USDA FSA, a member of the Webster Township Planning Commission, the Michigan Milk Producers, and the Washtenaw Ag Council. In 1945, Bob married Selma Herter, and they were married for 66 years until her passing in 2011.

Bob is survived by his daughters, Carol Jones and Janet (Richard) Stanfield, and son, Ronald (Marilyn) Mast; five grandchildren, Michelle (Kirk) Hedding, Kyle Jones, Courtney (Nick) Thompson, Jason (Debbie) Mast, and Dylan Stanfield; eight great-grandchildren, Emma, Isabelle, Madeline, Lilyan, Ben, Jacob, Liam, and Charlotte. Bob is also survived by two sisters, Mary Ann (Gary) Hansen, and Linda (Ron) Kociba, brother-in-law, Stanley Toney, and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Selma, his parents, and step-mother, Anne Mast, sisters, Kathryn (Wayne) Waggoner, Jean (John) Reardan, Joan Toney, and granddaughter, Lauren Stanfield. A special thanks to Danny Trinkle and Mike Koch, who kept the farm operating, and care aides, Tanya Yamnot and Cary Ketzner, who lovingly cared for and comforted Bob and the family for the last year and a half.

Alma, Michigan - The 59-year-old owner of an Alma wallpaper and paint store died Thursday Jan. 28, 1988 in a fire that destroyed the store. Earl Stollsteimer, owner of Van's Wallpaper and Paint Store, died from smoke inhalation in the blaze that was reported about 8:30 a.m., Alma Fire Chief George Blyton said. "It was simultaneously spotted by a passing police officer and a firefighter who owns a retail business in the area," Blyton said. "Heavy brown smoke was coming out of the front and back of the building. It had been burning at least 45 minutes to an hour prior to its discovery."

An autopsy on Stollsteimer, whose body was found in the store's office, will be performed today. "It is under investigation, but it was an accidental fire," Blyton said. "The actual cause has not been determined at this time, and may never be determined." Damage to the building and its contents was estimated at $150,000. The Alma Fire Department received assistance from the St. Louis, Ithaca and Breckenridge fire departments. The blaze was brought under control in an hour, but firefighters continued to extinguish smaller fires into the afternoon. No firefighters were injured, Blyton said.

He was born 02 Nov 1936 in Lincoln, Lancaster Co, Nebraska, and died 01 Jul 2020.

Notes for Joann Louise (Jo Anne) Stollsteimer:

Joann Louise Crook, 74, of Deming, went home to be with the Lord on June 29 at her summer home in Logan, New Mexico. She was born Joann Louise Stollsteimer, one of two children to Orwin and Mabel Stollsteimer of Ann Arbor, Michigan. Joann grew up in a home her parents kept for foster children, so she developed a heart for sharing and serving others at an early age. During high school, Joann was involved in sports activities and was captain of the varsity cheerleading team for the Ann Arbor High School Pioneers. Joann graduated from Western Michigan University with degrees in Physical Education and Health. She later earned her Master's degree in Guidance and Counseling from Eastern Michigan University.

Joann married high school classmate, Max Crook, in 1958 and had two children, Susan Ann and David Lee. The family moved to California in 1969. At La Reina High School in Thousand Oaks, California, Joann was a Guidance Counselor and taught P.E., Health, and coached the girls' softball, volleyball and basketball teams. Her teams won several Southern California C.I.F. Division Championships. Joann was also an award winning sales representative for Tupperware in her region while Max served as a training Captain with the Ventura County Fire Department.

Max and Joann later maintained a self-sufficient ranch in the Mojave Desert near Victorville, California. Joann ground her own wheat for baking delicious loaves of bread monthly for her family. Max and Joann raised sheep, pigs, turkeys, chickens, cattle, Nubian goats, grew vegetables, fruit trees, plus much of their food. Their ranch was a wonderful place for ministry, music, and fellowship with many church potlucks, ballgames, volleyball, and swimming.

Max, Joann, and Susan moved to Deming in 1996, while David with his wife and son moved to Frisco, Texas. The Crook family purchased a summer home in Logan, New Mexico as a retreat for family and friends. Joann worked as a volunteer at the Deming Luna County Chamber of Commerce. She was a Bridge enthusiast, church greeter at the Living Word, Assembly of God, and Calvary Chapel churches in Deming. Joann produced the "Grand Ol' Opry -- Deming Style" show which was a favorite here in Deming. Known for her giving heart and hospitality, she brought friends, National Guardsmen, and even strangers into her home for meals and fellowship for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners when they had no other place to celebrate the holidays. Joann was an excellent cook with several award-winning recipes.

Joann was preceded in death by her grandparents, mother, father, several aunts and uncles, and a cousin.

She is survived by her husband, daughter, son, grandson Isaac Crook, brother Floyd Stollsteimer, many nieces and nephews in Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, California, Texas, and New Mexico.

Notes for Maxfield Doyle (Max) Crook:

Maxfield Doyle Crook was born November 2, 1936 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He moved as a child to Ann Arbor, Michigan. He first learned to play the accordion, before taking up the piano, and by the time he was 14 he had already built his own studio. In 1957, after studying at the University of New Mexico, he enrolled at Western Michigan in Kalamazoo where he formed a rock and roll group called The White Bucks, who released a single, "Get That Fly", on Dot Records in 1959.

In the that same year he built a hybrid single-note playing synthesizer, which he called the Musitron, out of a clavioline enhanced with additional resistors, television tubes, and parts from household appliances, old amplifiers and reel-to-reel tape machines. He was unable to patent the Musitron because most of its components were already patented products. He first used it for recording at a session at Berry Gordy's studio in Detroit, on an unreleased version of "Bumble Boogie". The sound of the Musitron was influential on other musicians and producers, including Gordy, Joe Meek, Ennio Morricone, John Barry and Roy Wood.

Later in 1959, he met Charles Westover, yet to take the stage name Del Shannon, who asked him to join his band, "Charlie Johnson and the Big Little Show Band", as keyboard player. They signed a recording contract in 1960, and Crook began playing the Musitron on stage for the first time soon afterwards. During a live set one night, Crook hit an unusual chord change going from A-minor to G, and he and Del Shannon developed the lick into a song, which became "Runaway". In January 1961, Shannon and Crook recorded "runaway", which soon became an international hit. He is an American musician, a pioneer of electronic music in pop. He also recorded as Maximilian.

In the late 1960's he moved to California and worked as a burglar alarm installer and firefighter, before returning to recording with Del Shannon and Brian Hyland. Hyland's version of Curtis Mayfield's "Gypsy Woman", featuring Crook's keyboards, became a hit in 1970. He also wrote the score for James Sturgen's movie "Time and Beyond". In the 1980's he began performing gospel and spiritual music, recording an album "Good News!". He now lives in Deming, New Mexico.

On July 1, 2020, Maxfield Doyle Crook, loving husband and father, passed away at the age of 83. Maxfield (Max) was born on November 2, 1936, in Lincoln, Nebraska to Clarence and Helen (Mullikin) Crook. He was a graduate of Ann Arbor High School in Ann Arbor, Michigan and later received his degree in business from Western Michigan University. On 1958, Max married high school classmate, Joann Louise Stollsteimer and they raised a daughter, Susan Ann, and son, David Lee, in Michigan and subsequently in California. Max was an innovator and a pioneer in many facets during his life that touched millions of people. His career milestones included the co-writing of a 1961 hit called, "Runaway" which was given the BMI "Million-Air" award for over two million radio broadcast performances and later inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1999. Max's musical talents found him performing on The Midnight Special, ABC's In Concert, and the Hollywood Bowl while collaborating with many artists such as Del Shannon, Liberace, Robert Moog, Tom Petty, and more. Max's invention of the Clavioline instrument called the "Musitron", as heard in the hit song, "Runaway", has been judged by music historians as one of the early forerunners for modern synthesizers.

While in California, Max was a training captain with the Ventura County Fire Department and helped pioneer what is now known as the FIRESCOPE CA Task Force. FIRESCOPE helped shape all coordination for interdepartmental, multiagency emergency disaster, natural disaster and multiple fire alarm response that California and other states use today. Beyond his professional accomplishments, Max was known for his love of music. It was said that there was not an instrument he could not play thanks to his amazing ability to hear music. Max and his first wife, Joann, lived on a ranch in the Mojave Desert that was a delightful place for ministry, music, and fellowship. Max and his second wife, Glenda, enjoyed a Christian worship music ministry for many years. Additionally, he had a music ministry in both churches and public presentations such as retirement homes, RV parks, campgrounds, and National Day of Prayer celebrations. Max will be best remembered by all as a kind, empathetic, and wise person who would do anything for the other person without thinking about himself. From being a varsity diver in college; lifeguard and orderly soon after high school; and piano practicing teen after school for the junior high school janitors, Max was always pursuing excellence in every area of life. Max was unassumingly a gifted giver. Nothing can fill the void left behind by his departure and he will be deeply missed by family, friends, for his faith, and by millions touched by his music here on Earth. Max was preceded in death by his father, Clarence, his mother, Helen, and his beloved wife of 56 years, Joann.

He is survived by his loving wife, Glenda, of Deming, his two children, Susan Crook of Deming, David and his wife, Patricia Crook of Logan, and his grandson, Isaac Crook of Logan, New Mexico. He is also survived by his sister, Donna, and her husband, Dr. Ronald Snyder, of Petoskey, Michigan, and three nephews, five grandnephews and three grandnieces.

A special memorial tribute to the innovative musical legacy of Max Crook will be held in Deming, New Mexico, to be announced at a later date. Arrangements are with Terrazas Funeral Chapels & Crematory.

Notes for Leo Borders:

Leo Borders, Deputy Sheriff Washtenaw County Sheriff's Office 1964 to 1966. Born on September 26th 1937 in Ashland, Kentucky, Leo Borders was hired as a Deputy Sheriff with the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Office in 1964. Leo's strong sense of right and wrong lead him to a career in Law Enforcement. He was proud of his position as a Deputy Sheriff, as well as the uniform he wore. His boots were always polished and his pants creased. He enjoyed his position as a Deputy because he believed it made a difference in his community.

He lived by the philosophy of treating others as you would like to be treated yourself. The Ann Arbor Police Department had a shooting range near the corner of Maple Road and Huron River Drive. Sheriff's Deputies and Ann Arbor Police Officers would gather at the range for shooting competitions. It was easy to find Leo in the crowd of Law Enforcement Officers. He was the one with his infant daughter Sara sitting atop his shoulders. Sara went everywhere with her father, usually seated upon his shoulders, and at least once she accompanied him to court. When Leo and his partner would stop for coffee at the Border's home, he would speak to his daughter over the patrol car public address system to make her laugh. If you wanted to find Leo Borders when he was off duty, you only had to look in three places. He was either with his family, at his church, or under the hood of a car. Leo enjoyed working on cars and was excited when he and Erma bought a house on Elm Street in Chelsea, Michigan, because it had a garage and he could work on cars inside instead of outside in the elements.

Leo had to talk his wife Erma (Borders) O'Connor into their first date. It turned out to be a moment she never regretted. She was impressed with the tall red head and his kindness. She sensed he was a special person. Although an established fact that "cops like doughnuts", in Leo's case it was Erma's chocolate chip cookies. He assured that they would disappear as fast as she could bake them. Leo had a concern for others. He made people feel protected and cared for whether it was his partner, his family, or his friends. Once at a drive in root beer stand with his wife, a young driver began squealing the tires of his vehicle. Leo went over to him and "explained" that driving was a privilege and vehicle safety was important to everyone, and then returned to his family outing. Fun to be with and never heard to say a crossword, Leo had a good time, but not in a loud or boisterous way. He was content to be in the company of his family, whether it was going on picnics, doing yard work together, or just enjoying each other's company.

Always excited to learn something new, when his house needed remodeling he performed the carpentry work with his brother-in-law and was proud of what he had learned and accomplished. Leo Borders lost his life in the line-of-duty during a high speed chase on the evening of August 3rd 1966, on Dexter Pinckney Road. The suspect fled the scene on foot. Over one hundred law enforcement officers responded to the area of Stinch filed Woods in Dexter Township and succeeded in capturing the suspects. Leo Borders left behind his wife Erma, his three year old daughter, Sara, and his daughter Dawn, who was born one month after he died. Deputies helped the family by cashing in their vacation time and giving the money to Leo's family as well as the family of his seriously injured partner, Stanley McFadden. Those who knew him will not forget his smile, the pride he took in his work and his commitment to his community, family, and church.

Notes for Cheryl Marie Eisele:

Metamora, Michigan — There's always room for dessert, right? Well, there is in downtown Metamora. Room for Dessert recently opened for business serving up not only a tempting array of confections, but espresso coffees, sandwiches and paninis, salads and gelatos. Owner Cherri Eisele will serve up the edible offerings Tuesday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. On Saturdays, Room for Dessert is open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Customers can enjoy their meal, latte or gelato in the comfortable surroundings of Room for Dessert, with its giant decorative coffee cups on the tables. They can also order take-out, or sip their mocha outside at a sidewalk table.

Eisele will also be opening up an intimate open-air courtyard garden and deck at the back of the establishment. She thinks it will be the perfect spot for bridal and baby showers or birthday parties. Eisele's first love is baking. After 30 years in the automotive industry, as a parts manager at a dealership, 54-year old Eisele finally gave in to her muse. She went to school in 2007 to become a pastry chef. "I love to bake. I always did cookies, cakes, desserts," says Eisele. In the window at Room for Dessert is a sampling of Eisele's skills, with a deftly executed cake that looks like a handbag and a three-tiered confection with butterflies. A frosting bee lurks happily atop sunflower cupcake, and whimsically decorated cookies are wrapped and ready to satisfy a sweet tooth.

Custom confections for all kinds of special occasions can be ordered from Eisele through Room for Dessert. When it's lunch you're after, you may have a hard time deciding between paninis like pesto turkey, zesty ham or 'three cheese please.' Paninis are grilled sandwiches. The pesto turkey includes smoked turkey, bacon, swiss cheese, lettuce, red onion and pesto on sourdough bread. Also on the reasonably priced menu right now are several sandwiches including chicken salad croissant, 'not your mom's BLT,' and an Italian sub. Customer Helen Pinfield-Wells stopped by at lunchtime one day last week to pick up a salad to go. In addition to a garden salad and chef salad, Eisele creates one that includes dried cherries, mixed spring greens, walnuts, red onion, provolone, and raspberry vinaigrette. "I love salads," said Pinfield-Wells. She's happy to see Room for Dessert arrive in the village. "We need more regular lunchtime places." She also knowingly notes, "She does awesome cakes." Eisele has a selection of gelatos. She describes it as Italian ice cream with one third the fat. "The flavors are a lot more intense." She also serves up Zingerman coffees, including double espresso, Americano, cappuccino, latte and mocha, as well as chai. It may be hard to resist a pastry while you're ordering up your mocha. There's a changing variety of tempters like scones, muffins and pain al chocolate.

Eisele has lots of ideas cooked up for Room for Dessert. She'll be featuring an artist each month at the eatery, with displays of their work. Fiber artist Carolyn Tang's will be up first. Eisele will also be holding some kids' cookie camps about once a month. Eisele's sister, Cindy Burns, was on hand to help out with the launch last week. "I'm so happy for her," said Burns of her sister. "Now she gets to make other people happy like she's made us happy all these years with her baking." Eisele has lived in Metamora Township since 2003, the same year she married husband Aaron. He's all behind Eisele's new venture. The couple have three dogs named Licorice, Tank and Barley. Eisele's open for business right now, but look for the grand opening on July 23, 2011, when there will be doughnuts out front. Room for Dessert is located at 4024 S. Oak St., just south of Dryden Road in downtown Metamora.

Born on February 19, 1940, in Cleveland, Ohio, Nancy was a beacon of love and compassion throughout her entire life. Nancy's journey in nursing began when she moved to Ann Arbor to pursue her nursing degree, she earned her bachelor's degree and became a registered nurse-a milestone she held with immense pride. Nancy's career as an OB/GYN nurse at Michigan Medicine was marked by her unwavering dedication to her patients, building profound and caring relationships that touched many lives. Family was the center of Nancy's world. She was deeply devoted to her husband, John, and together they created a home filled with warmth and joy for their children and grandchildren. Nancy's home was always a haven for those she loved. Known for her meticulous preparation and generous hospitality, she made sure every visitor felt welcomed and cared for. Her baking skills, honed from lessons with her mother-in-law, delighted her family with delicious treats and added a special touch to every holiday. Their summers in South Haven were a highlight for Nancy, where she reveled in the simple pleasure of spending time with her family and the cherished memories made there. Whether enjoying Sherman's ice cream, having fun at the pool or beach, or getting up early to get a good spot at the Fourth of July parade, to her family, Nancy was summer.

Nancy's kindness extended beyond her family to everyone she encountered. Her warm, engaging presence was a hallmark of her interactions, whether at the grocery store or in the community. Her ability to connect with others and offer genuine care left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

Nancy is survived by her loving husband, John; her two children Tim Schenk (Barb) and Laura Baker; and her beloved grandchildren Luke and Liesel Baker, Rachel and John Schenk, and her sister Marilyn Farone who will carry forward the lessons of love, compassion, and acceptance she imparted. Her family and friends will forever remember her as a guiding light, a source of unwavering support, and a cherished soul whose legacy will continue to inspire and uplift. Notes for Ricky Lee Doering:

Rick Lee Doering, age 65 of Delano, passed away April 2, 2018 after courageously battling cancer with dignity and grace. He truly perceived his diagnosis as a "win-win" situation saying, "I win if I beat the cancer, and I win when I get to go to Heaven". Rick was born to Orlin and Orvella (Bullert) Doering on May 5, 1952 in Cokato, Minnesota. He was baptized on June 1, 1952 at St. James Lutheran Church in Howard Lake, Minnesota. He attended grade school at St. James Lutheran Church and School where he was confirmed on April 3, 1966. Rick graduated from Howard Lake High School in 1970 and Gustavus Adolphus College in 1974. He worked as a manager for Burger King for 5 years before spending 31 years at BFI/Republic Services. Here he was fortunate to hold a variety of jobs: Sales Rep, General Manager, Area Sales Manager, and assisted in Acquisitions. Since retiring from Republic Services, Rick spent several years doing part-time consulting work for Russ Schweihs in environmental services.

Rick was united in marriage to Karen Frey on July 9, 1977 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He loved her with all his heart enjoying every minute of their marriage. Their marriage was blessed with a loving companionship, three wonderful children and a commitment to the Lord. They first lived in Mound and later built their home in Delano in 1984, where they have since resided. Rick was known for his love of food/desserts, sense of humor, pragmatic attitude, and his warm smile. His children and grandchildren were the absolute delight of his life. Spending time and playing with them was always a top priority. Rick never missed an activity or sporting event and was their greatest cheerleader, supporter and advisor. He continued to be the rock of his family until the end. Hours before he passed, Rick awoke and saw his wife and children surrounding the bed. He looked at each, smiled and said repeatedly, "Wow. What a life!", "This has been real special", and "I love my family". Rick willingly gave his time in service to the church. He enjoyed positions of leadership and was honored to serve his Lord in many capacities. At Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, he served as President, Vice President among many other board positions in addition to serving as Treasurer and Chairman at West Lutheran High School. Many often sought his counsel when issues arose as he had a reputation for being fair and honest. He was truly amazing!

Rick was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his beloved wife Karen; children Scott (Lindsay), Julie (Micah) Martin and Krista (Andy) Giefer; grandchildren Chase, Olivia, Josiah, Nora, Mara, and Jonah; sisters Durene (Bob) Rogers and Sheri Doering Fenn and nephews Andrew, Eric, Nick and Michael.

Funeral Services were held at 11 am on Saturday, April 7, 2018 at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church in Delano. Visitation was Friday, 4 – 8 pm and continued Saturday, 10 – 11 am prior to the service, ALL at the church. Interment was in Mt. Olive East Cemetery in Delano. Notes for Norman Louis Grob:

Norman Louis Grob of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 97, passed away peacefully surrounded by loving family on August 30th, 2015 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Norm lived a long and amazing life as a loving husband, devoted father, and proud grandfather. He was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan on June 23, 1918 to Cora (Geyer) Grob and Edwin Grob. He attended Ann Arbor High School and graduated class of 1937. Norm was renowned as a gifted athlete, lettering in four varsity sports: football, baseball, basketball, and track. His high school yearbook said it best "a sportsman through and through." Norm began his 40 year career with King Seeley and Chrysler in 1940, working at their facilities in Ann Arbor and Grand Rapids.

In 1947, he married Helen Dieterle and she survives. He and Helen lived a happy life together for more than 67 years of marriage, filled with many travel adventures. They enjoyed driving each year between their "up north" vacation home in Houghton Lake, and their "down south" home in Winter Haven, Florida. They also enjoyed sharing in the management of the family farm in Milan. Norm's favorite hobbies included playing golf, snowmobiling, fishing, and boating. He also was known as the family "lucky charm" and no family member ever wanted to venture into a card game or casino without having Norm at their side. Norm always had plans and ongoing home improvement projects at his properties. He especially enjoyed frequent morning meetings with all of his friends at the Washtenaw Dairy, talking about his favorite teams, the Michigan Wolverines and Detroit Tigers. Even as he grew older, he looked forward to weekly visits "going to the dairy to shoot the breeze" with his buddies over coffee and donuts. Norm was a member of the Moose, a lifelong member of the Elks Lodge, and a lifelong member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ in Ann Arbor.

He is survived by his wife of 67 years Helen, his daughters Denise (Kenneth) Gregg of St. Clair, Michigan, Norma (Conrad) Foster of Plymouth, Michigan, and his grandchildren Christina Gregg of Okemos, Michigan, and Blake, Brock, and Brett Foster, of Plymouth, Michigan. Notes for Helen Ruth Dieterle:

Helen Ruth Grob, age 91, passed away peacefully surrounded by loving family on May 11, 2016 at Angela Hospice Care Center in Livonia, Michigan. Helen lived a long and amazing life as a loving wife, devoted mother, and proud grandmother. She was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan on August 14, 1924 to Ruth (Westfall) Dieterle and Ernest Dieterle, a young builder and farmer. She grew up in Ann Arbor and moved to the family farm in Milan when she was 12. She attended Milan High School and graduated in 1942. As a young adult, Helen enjoyed her clerical work at Jones Insurance Agency in Milan and at Irvin Foundaries in Ann Arbor. When World War II began, she was a secretary for a department head at the Willow Run Bomber Plant. She then became a calibrator at King Seeley in Ann Arbor where her cousin Bob Phillips introduced her to a young foreman at King Seeley, Norman Grob. He had been transferred to Grand Rapids to assist with the production of bomber fuses.

After a long courtship, Helen and Norm married at Marble Memorial Methodist Church in Milan on September 20, 1947. The young couple resided in Grand Rapids for two years for Norm's King Seeley work. While there, Helen worked for the IRS and the Federal Housing Administration. When Norm transferred back to the plant in Ann Arbor, they lived at the farm until they purchased the house on Prescott. Helen continued with her clerical career at Edwards Brothers. From that position, she worked at the City Hall in the Ann Arbor Police Department's License Bureau and then transferred to the City Clerk's office where she worked until her brother Howard was tragically killed in a train accident in 1953. After five years at the Prescott house, Helen and Norm had the house on Sanford Place built. Denise was born soon after Howard's death and Norma followed three years after that. Helen chose to be a dedicated wife, mother, and homemaker until both girls went to school. During this time, her mother passed away. Then, she went back to work at the Ann Arbor City Health Department. Her father, Ernest, moved in with the family in the early 70s, and everyone helped to make sure he was comfortable. When the city and county health departments merged, Helen worked in the County Building until she retired in 1987. Helen was a member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ. Some of her volunteer responsibilities included working at the Senior Center and at the Moose Lodge, helping out in Bethlehem United Church of Christ's nursery and office, and fulfilling the duties of coffee hour at church for many years.

With retirement came the birth of four grandchildren; Blake, Brock, and Brett Foster, and Christina Gregg. Helen loved family trips to "the greenhouse" at Houghton Lake and winter trips to the home in Winter Haven, Florida. She loved doing handiwork including sewing, knitting, crocheting, gardening, and candy making. She was very involved with the operations of the farm. Helen and Norm lived a happy life together for more than 68 years of marriage, filled with many travel adventures. Helen is preceded in death by husband Norman Grob.

She is survived by daughters Denise (Kenneth) Gregg of St. Clair, Michigan, Norma (Conrad) Foster of Plymouth, Michigan, and grandchildren Christina Gregg of Howell, Michigan, and Blake and Brock Foster of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Brett Foster of Plymouth, Michigan. She is also survived by a nephew, Bernard Dieterle and niece, Vicki Martin, and many cousins. The family appreciates the many visits from cousins Nancy King, Mary Petrillo, Pat Schleh, and Barb Wood during her extended illness.

Visitation will be Monday, May 16 from 4-8 PM at Nie Funeral Home, 3767 W. Liberty Rd., Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103. A visitation at 10 AM followed by a funeral service will take place on Tuesday, May 17, at 11:00 AM, at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, located at 423 S. Fourth Ave, Ann Arbor, MI 48104 with Pastor John Kennedy officiating. Following the service, interment will be at Bethlehem Cemetery in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Memorial contributions may be made to Bethlehem United Church of Christ, 423 S. Fourth Ave, Ann Arbor, MI 48104, or Angela Hospice Care Center, 14100 Newburgh Rd., Livonia, MI 48154.

Notes for Dorothy Marie Rentz:

Dorothy Marie Rentz Cardwell passed into heaven on October 22, 2012 after a brief bout with cancer. Dorothy was born on August 15, 1918 to Robert Walker and Ida Weathers Rentz in Rockport, Texas, where her father was employed building ships for World War I. She grew up in San Antonio and later in Edinburg, Texas. She began playing the piano for church and school functions at age 12. An excellent student, she graduated from Edinburg High School in 1936 and attended Pan American College where she worked for nine cents an hour to pay her tuition. She moved back to San Antonio where she worked for photographer E. O. Goldbeck and Fox Photo. She frequently visited her grandparents in Pilgrim, where she met Henry Mitchell Cardwell. They married in Pilgrim on December 24, 1941. They lived in Bryan until her husband entered military service in World War II. Dorothy and her infant son Paul Allen returned to Smiley to be close to her family who had moved back from the Valley. She moved to Nixon in 1944.

She and Mitchell had three more children: John Michael, Ellen Marie and Lynne Annette. Her love of learning, intelligence, work ethic and respect for others made her an exceptional mother and role model. To her children and grandchildren, she stressed doing your chosen studies and work with excellence, taking responsibility for your actions, plus being a good citizen and servant of God. Dorothy worked at the small Nixon library and gave piano lessons. She was a faithful member of the First United Methodist Church of Nixon and served the church with her musical talents for more than 50 years. She took additional college courses and began her civil service career at Brooks Air Force Base as a clerk typist. With additional training, she became a purchasing agent, supplying equipment for the fledgling space program. An astute businesswoman, she became a purchasing contractor for the Air Force and was named Outstanding Technical Woman at Brooks AFB in 1975. After retiring, she loved to travel and toured Australia, including Alice Springs, Nixon's sister city. She also visited New Zealand, Fiji, and Mexico as well as many states in the U.S. Dorothy had a lifelong love of reading and helped reorganize and expand the AphnePatillo Library in Nixon. Her love of nature was evident in her garden where she created habitat for wildflowers, butterflies and songbirds.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents; brother Stanley Rentz; husband of 53 years Mitchell; son John Michael Cardwell; and grandsons John Robert Cardwell and Jeffrey David Cardwell.

She is survived by son Paul Cardwell and wife Billie of Nixon; daughter-in-law Penny Cardwell of San Antonio; daughter Ellen Wundt and husband Jim of Belmont; and daughter Lynne McCarty and husband Charles of Westminster, Maryland. Her grandchildren are Paula and Guy Hester of New Braunfels; Patricia and Adrian McGrail of Houston; Katie and Ray Still of San Antonio; Angie and Rutty Decou of Belmont; Kyle and Sarah Wundt of Belmont; and Jonathan McCarty of Westminster, Maryland. She was known as Little Grandmother to her seven great-grandchildren: Hailey and Riley Hester; Callum McGrail; Jeffrey and Andrew Decou; and Jackson and Ainsley Wundt.

Memorials may be made to Nixon First United Methodist Church, Nixon Public Library, or the donor's choice.

Notes for Rosemary Shadford:

Rosemary Beatty, age 89, passed away on April 19, 2018 after a courageous battle with Alzheimer's. Rosemary was born in Negaunee, Michigan on July 17, 1928, the daughter of Edwin W. and Lillian (Ottmer) Shadford. Rosemary graduated from Ypsilanti High School where "Shadford Field" is named in honor of her father. She received a Bachelor's degree in social work from Michigan State Normal College (Eastern Michigan University). On June 23, 1956, Rosemary married James (Jim) R. Beatty and worked as a bank teller until Jim completed his Master's degree from the University of Michigan and began employment at State Farm Insurance. Rosemary enjoyed card games, watching the birds that flocked to her feeders, her beloved pets as well as spoiling the neighbor dogs. Babies and children always brought a smile to her face. Ever the coach's daughter, Rosemary was a fierce University of Michigan football fan and with her husband an alumni a Saturday loss rendered the household despondent.

Survivors include three daughters: Dawn H. (Robert) Lust of Marshall, Michigan; Dana L. Beatty of Ann Arbor, Michigan and Dyann L. (Brice) Schieltz of Bloomington, Illinois and one son, Robert J. (Tracey Doering) Beatty of Defiance, Ohio; five grandchildren: Rebecca Lust, DVM of Kiel, Wisconsin; Jonathon Lust and fiancé Salena Benavidez of Lansing, Michigan; Sarah Beatty of Evanston, Illinois; Katherine and Alexander Schieltz of Bloomington, Illinois. Marriage Notes for Robert Robinson and Phyllis Dean:

Milo, Dec. 30, 1953 – Mr. and Mrs. Alton Dean, 21 Garfield Avenue, Saugus, Massachusetts, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Carolyn Dean, to Robert D. Robinson U.S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robinson of Gaines, Michigan.

Miss Dean, is a graduate of Saugus High School 1950, and is currently employed in the Boston office of John Hancock Insurance Company. Robinson, with the U.S. Navy is stationed at Newport, Rhode Island. A summer wedding is planned. Miss Dean is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith of Milo.

Escorted to an altar banked with gladioli and candelabra, Miss Phyllis Carolyn Dean, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Elton A. Dean of 21 Fairchild Avenue, Saugus, was united in marriage recently to Robert D. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Robinson of Gaines, Michigan. The Dorr Memorial Methodist Church Lynnhurst, was the setting for the double ring ceremony at which the bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Irving Arnold officiated. Her full-length bridal gown of white French imported frosted eyelet organdy was fashioned with short sleeves and a Queen Anne collar. The four-tiered skirt extended over white faille taffeta, and she wore mits of matching eyelet organdy. From her Baby Queen crown of seed pearls and rhinestones, flowed a veil of imported French illusion. She carried white orchids and streamers of stephanotis atop a Rainbow Bible.

A waltz length gown of white frosted eyelet organdy over aqua taffeta, was worn by the maid of honor Miss Julia A. Dean, sister of the bride. A queen's tiara of white, scattered with sequins and rhinestones adorned her hair. She wore white gloves and also carried a Rainbow Bible, with pink roses and stephanotis. Bridesmaids Miss Marietta Dean, sister of the bride and Miss Virginia Munroe, friend of the bride, were costumed identically except for their bouquets which were of red roses and stephanotis. Brother of the bridegroom, coming from Durand, Michigan, was Richard W. Robinson, who served as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Rose from Argentine, Michigan, and Ralph Gray of Saugus, friends of the bridegroom. Mrs. Albion Dole was organist, accompanying Chandler Swenson who sang the wedding selections "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride's mother wore an iridescent orchid silk organza dress, of street length with an orchid corsage and white accessories. Gray nylon over pink taffeta was worn by the mother of the bridegroom who shoes white accessories, and accented her ensemble with a corsage of pink roses and baby's breath.

In the vestry of Dorr Memorial Church, approximately 100 guests were received. Miss Pauline Henigan of Medford, a friend of the bride, presided over the guest book. Friends and relatives came on from Maine, Michigan and Virginia for the wedding. Presently on a trip to the White Mountains in New Hampshire, the couple will live in Michigan. The bride wore a rose silk shantung dress with white accessories and a white orchid for traveling.

He married Joyce Marlene Auerbach 12 Aug 1952 in Butler Co, Ohio. She was born 09 Mar 1932 in Ohio.

Notes for Arthur Raymond Root, Jr.:

Arthur Raymond Root, Jr., age 86, died December 1, 2017 in Redding, California. He was born September 15, 1931, in Middletown, Ohio. An exposure to the greater Miami River Valley paper industries formed the basis for his life-long career in paper making. Graduating as a Chemical Engineer from the University of Cincinnati in 1954, he had already spent 5 years co-opting in various technical positions with local paper companies prior to filling his first position in paper research with the Champion Paper Company in Hamilton, Ohio. He subsequently moved into paper mill operations and was transferred to Shasta County, California, in 1964, as part of the start-up management team for Kimberly Clark's Shasta Pulp & Paper Mill in Anderson. He moved his family to nearby Redding, CA. Retiring from the now Simpson Paper Company's Shasta Mill in 1992, he completed his 42-year career in pulp and papermaking. He belonged to many paper-oriented organizations, but held his affiliation with Redding East Rotary and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity as his most prized. He greatly enjoyed playing golf with his four sons, woodworking, and adult Pinewood Derby Racing.

He is preceded in death by his parents Arthur R. Root, Sr. and Carolyn E. Eisenmenger, and a son David. He is survived by his loving wife of 65 years Joyce Auerbach, sons Michael and Steven of Oklahoma, Christopher of New Mexico, John of Nevada, 8 grandchildren, and 4 great-grandchildren. He loved his family and will be greatly missed. Burial at Woodside Cemetery, Middletown, Ohio.

Notes for Steven Arthur Root, twin:

Steven A. Root is Chief Analytics Officer, and Senior VP of Strategic Initiatives, of AccuWeather, Inc., the fastest growing private weather consulting company in the world. He resides in Edmond, Oklahoma. For more than 40-years, Steven Root, applying leadership and vision, has pioneered numerous applications of meteorology that have enhanced awareness, application, and demand for all types of weather information by both business and general consumers.

Following his primary passion, Steve has always sought to clarify meteorology for end-users, resulting in benefits for business, government and the public. His clarifications in turn resulted in greater demand for solutions through the application of meteorology, and there have been many noteworthy accomplishments; here are a few: During the mid-1970's, advances in computerization and miniaturization gave way to many new consumer devices, such as the hand-held calculator. As a graduate student during this time, Steve pioneered the idea that the same technology could be levered to generate site-specific, real-time personal weather forecasts. His research into weather patterns and identifying accurate analogs yielded a viable weather forecasting technique. However, the electronic blueprint for the device to display the weather information did not exist. Without any previous training, he worked with engineers to design and build such a device, resulting in an operational prototype. In 1980, the United States Patent and Trademark Office granted Steve a patent on this device, but, more impressively, because they considered the device and concept so unique, they created an entirely new patent class to accommodate it. During the following three years, Root met with consumer electronics fabricators, including Radio Shack, Texas Instruments and others, to build this device. Not surprising to those in this business, market studies revealed a consumer acceptance level of more than sixty percent, a metric unheard of at that time. It was only after fabricating teams at these companies failed to achieve their desired retail price levels that product development ceased. Of course, with costs continuing to decline as technology advanced, many companies today offer hand-held or small general consumer items that display local observed and forecasted weather trends.

Undeterred in the value of his efforts, Steve modified his technology from hand-held displays to colored computer images for on-air weather broadcasts. Only those of us over the age of fifty-five remember that television weathercasts then were limited to magnetic "Mr. Sun" and "Mr. Cloud" stickers and grease pens on glass panels. The first computer-generated color weathercasts had few colors, low resolution and, because of limited and expensive memory, did not animate images. In contrast, Steve presented a system that monitored local weather conditions in real-time, applied custom forecasting equations and rendered a specific forecast overlaid across a base graphic of the local metro. This capability was unheard of at the time. While others were focusing on computer hardware and software, Steve focused on the underlying base or core weather. Only during recent years have broadcast systems shifted focus onto more robust databases, longer lead-times in severe weather alerting, and better forecasting. Coincidentally, it was during the mid and late eighties at a television station in Salt Lake City that he was able to provide on-air television weathercasts using the same device that he designed, built and sold to major markets across the USA.

Around this same time, the personal computer was just beginning to gain acceptance, causing a dramatic change in the consumer's information landscape. A simple link between a PC and a modem allowed "info junkies" to download all kinds of data whenever they chose. This was especially true for weather information. Always a forward thinker, Steve adjusted his TV system software to produce a low-cost program to fuel the needs of the ever-increasing number of weather enthusiasts. Soon thereafter, a product review in a major PC magazine read: "Fire Your Local TV Weatherman!"... the revolution had started. These days it's not surprising that internet weather websites and The Weather Channel do so well!

Lessons learned from his early exposure in the broadcasting and consumer marketplaces led Steve to pursue servicing utility clients with long-range forecasts. To test his theories on using historical analogs, he required large quantities of historical data from many locations across North America. As with his earlier successes, Steve believed solutions to this complex problem might be found within the database itself. Little did he know then but soon came to realize, the raw data itself contained flaws. Weather monitoring programs then did not contain the many quality-screening attributes that networks do today. Lower quality sensors and telecommunication systems, considered adequate at the time created problems within the stored data. Steve also engaged other end-users who reported similar problems. However, these users were not meteorologists, so they were unfamiliar with weather data, its collection methods, formats and data types, etc., and they reported skewed program results after misinterpreting and incorrectly editing the raw data. Steve eventually realized that a QA/QC post-processing system was necessary, and that he and others could benefit from such a system.

Using his design, WeatherBank elected to build such a system. Today, with more than 60 man-years of support and enhancement behind it, WeatherBank has an automated procedure for ingesting, testing, correcting and archiving all publicly available weather data for North America. Containing more than 300 observed and predicted metrics this value-added database has served nearly every energy utility, transportation and retail concern in North America. To service additional demand, a forecast engine was applied to the historical data, rendering a seamless output of past, current and future weather. Countless success stories from end-users after having regressed point-of-sales, energy consumption, fuel usage or other internal, proprietary data against this database prove its benefits. End-users can mine their own solutions to their weather-related problems by extracting the solutions from inside their own data.

As other technologic platforms have emerged, including GPS systems, wireless and high-speed communications, Steve has kept pace, designing new state-of-the-art weather advisory systems that take advantage of geo-spatial location. Location-based and location-aware, an array of services constantly send individualized data and content, updating mobile communications devices, based upon the exact location of the device itself. Weather varies from mile to mile, minute to minute, and publicly available regional forecasts are too general over too large an area to be useful. "Location-based" weather services offer specificity, detail and timeliness unavailable by any other means. These products are, in effect, real-time micro-forecasts, reports targeted to the unique needs of each end-user. Matching high-value content and information with real-time location creates the potential for a vast range of consumer and business services that will force dramatic changes in the way we all live and work. While WeatherBank may not necessarily be the originating source for this micro-weather content, Steve realized that others within the enterprise could be, creating broad new opportunities for the entire industry. These systems have also been patented, with more than twenty-five USA and foreign patents granted and more than forty patents pending.

Mr. Root has earned a BS (1976) and MS (1980) degrees in meteorology from the University of Utah, and is a Certified Consulting Meteorologist, a professional designation from the American Meteorological Society (AMS). In January 2010, the AMS recognized Steve's achievements by awarding him their Award for the Outstanding Contribution to the Advance of Applied Meteorology, and in 2012, elected Steve AMS Fellow status.

Arthur had a passion for travel inspiring him in 2014 to write and publish his book, Times Traveled, about his adventures traveling throughout the United States and the world. He traveled with family and friends to 66 countries and all 50 states. His last trip abroad was to Bermuda at age 99. Despite all of his travels abroad, Arthur still calls the United States his favorite country because of its freedoms, beauty, and diversity. Peggy began her academic career as an Assistant Professor teaching dietetics and nutrition at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg (1961-1964). After arriving in El Paso in 1964 she acted as a Therapeutic and Teaching Dietitian at the old Hotel Dieu facility. 2346. Norman Wayne¹³ Ginebaugh (Gilbert John¹², Charles Chester¹¹, Katharine Elizabeth¹⁰ Morse, Christina Katharina⁹ Stollsteimer, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 09 Mar 1937 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 26 Jan 2013 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan. He married Lois E. Hoffman 20 Jun 1959 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan, daughter of Vincent Hoffman and Luella Cline. She was born 01 Jul 1937 in Michigan.

Notes for Norman Wayne Ginebaugh:

Norman Wayne Ginebaugh, 75, son of Gilbert and June Ginebaugh (deceased) and brother of Phillip (deceased), passed away Saturday, January 26th, 2013. He is survived by his loving wife, of 53 years, Lois; his children, Gregory and Kathy Ginebaugh, Charles and Sarah Ginebaugh, James and Amy Ginebaugh; his grandchildren, Deborah, Shawn and Andy Smith, David, Brian, Andrew, Collin, Jordan, Scott and Geoffrey.

Norm graduated from South High School in Grand Rapids and Western Michigan University with a degree in business. His entire career was in the financial service industry. While in his fifties, Norm retired and began his second career, following a calling to serve others, particularly children in need. In his later years, Norm focused his efforts upon benefiting Kids Food Basket, St. John's Home and local food pantries, logging thousands of hours picking up donated food and delivering it to the hungry. Norm was frequently recognized for his outstanding volunteerism and was the recipient of several awards including: Daily Points of Light, Booker T. Washington Volunteer Award, and the Humana Star Light Award. An active member of the North Grand Rapids Kiwanis Club, Norm enjoyed golf, gardening and cooking. Every Christmas, he loved dressing as Santa and delighting the children of St. John's Home. "Grandpa Norm" was a favorite of his grandchildren, both natural and "adopted". He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends for his generosity, humor and love of life.

Visitation will be held Friday, February 1 from 4 - 7 P.M. and again on Saturday, February 2 from 11 AM - 2 PM at the Heritage Life Story Funeral Home, Van Strien - Creston Chapel, 1833 Plainfield N.E. A private family service will be held. For those who wish donations may be sent to Kids Food Basket or D. A. Blodgett/St. John's Home.

Norman Ginebaugh will be remembered for his plentiful gardens and bread made from scratch, his unwavering work ethic and his complete devotion to his family, but what will be his lasting legacy is the way he selflessly gave so much of himself for the benefit of others. Whether he was delivering food to those in need, donating blood, or handing out gifts as Santa Claus, he reached so many in the community he called home throughout much of his life. Norm loved being a husband and father, but perhaps it was becoming a grandfather that was his greatest gift. A blessing in every sense of the word, he will be deeply missed while the impact he made in the lives of countless others continues to multiply in amazing ways.

Although the Great Depression covered our nation like a wet blanket throughout the 1930s, a young couple from Lyons, Michigan, was filled with unspeakable joy as they welcomed their son, Norman W., into their hearts and home on March 9, 1937, in Lansing. He was the first of two sons born to his parents, Gilbert and June (Prichard) Ginebaugh, and his father worked in the sawmill industry.

As a student Norm began his education at an elementary school in Lyons, and it continued at Sheldon Elementary School in Grand Rapids when his family moved there when he was seven years old. In school he was known as someone who was outgoing and friendly, and as a student at Grand Rapids South High School he was known as the class flirt. Right after graduating from high school in 1955, Norm went on to Grand Rapids Junior College and then transferred to Western Michigan University where earned his bachelor's degree in business.

Not to be forgotten during Norm's years in high school was his introduction to the young woman who would later steal his heart. Her name was Lois Hoffman, and although they didn't date in high school they did begin dating after he stopped in at the telephone company where she worked while he was a college student. They were married at Second Congregational Church in Grand Rapids in 1959 just a week after Norm graduated from Western Michigan University. Norm's strong work ethic began during his earliest years in the workforce when he began working in gas stations and doing other odd jobs as a young teenager. He even put himself through college selling diamonds and pots and pans. As a young newlywed Norm worked at Old Kent Bank and Trust Company before settling in at GE Financial where he remained for 13 years.

After learning the ins and out of his career in Farmington, Norm and Lois returned to Grand Rapids where they settled into a home on N. Park Lane Dr. N.E.. It was there that they raised their three sons: Gregory, Charles, and James. Norm made one final career move to a firm that was a division of Xerox Corporation. He enjoyed a successful career there as the local office manager. Norm and Lois joined Second Congregational Church where they were actively involved over the years.

Being with his family was always a priority in Norm's life. He was an active father who was involved in the Boy Scouts when his boys were in the program, and he was also there for their school activities as well. Summers often found them camping in a travel trailer as a family to places throughout Northern Michigan and also to other locations around the country like Yellowstone National Park, Mt. Rushmore, and Florida. As a family the Ginebaughs enjoyed golfing on the course at the Elks Country Club where they were members, and it was not uncommon for the family to gather around the campfire that Norm often made in the backyard.

Throughout his life Norm was a man of many interests. His family appreciated his cooking, especially his mac and cheese, and his neighbors fully appreciated his abundant vegetable garden. Norm liked fishing and took several fishing trips up North, and he also liked cross country skiing. After he retired at the age of 55 he and Lois headed to Alabama for a month during the winter in their motor home or fifth wheel. Norm also had more time for the game he loved - golf. He was an active Kiwanian and was awarded the honor of "Kiwanian of the Year". He was known for concluding the Kiwanis meetings with a bit of wisdom or encouragement called "A Notable Quotable".

Norm's life was forever changed when he heard a voice tell him to spend his time helping others while he was driving home one day. His efforts began by bringing joy to the patients at DeVos Children's Hospital where he was known as Grandpa Norm or Santa at Christmas time. Norm also worked as a volunteer at Lincoln School where he sponsored a pancake breakfast to help bring some added money into their fund for school furnishings. During this time he also began collecting surplus food to distribute to places in need such as Other Way Ministries with his fellow Kiwanian, Frank Churchill. In 1999 Norm began delivering food to St. John's Home and he also worked with the kids who lived there. Grandpa Norm is how he was usually known there as well, and as Santa during the holidays he always made sure that every child received a gift. A day of service typically found him leaving the house shortly after breakfast and heading to local grocery stores that had surplus food waiting for him. Norm then spent a good part of the day delivering the food to various pantries and ministries in the community. Norm also donated a total of more than 21 gallons of blood over the years.

Although Norm was always a humble man, his efforts didn't go unnoticed. He was awarded with the Family Futures Booker T. Washington Volunteer Award for his service to children as well as the Humana Starlight Award for his volunteer work with Access of West Michigan, Kids food Basket, and the Salvation Army's Booth Family Services and the Daily Points of Light. Norm was a finalist in the Senior Volunteer of the Year race for the 2012 Governor's Service Awards. Life became more difficult for Norm and his loved ones when he was diagnosed with cancer just this past spring, but his faith, courage, and optimism never wavered. A generous, compassionate, and vibrant man, Norman Ginebaugh was a treasure in the lives of those too numerous to count. His family, whether through bloodlines or heart strings, was his greatest gift. The timeless legacy Norm leaves behind will be carried on by the loved ones he cherished most.

He was born 09 Oct 1916 in Anderson, Livingston Co, Michigan, and died 04 Sep 2011 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Elaine Jeanette Schmidt:

Elaine Jeanette Boyce of Ann Arbor, age 93, died Monday, February 17, 2020, at her daughter's home. She was born December 18, 1926, in Chelsea, the daughter of Norman Harold and Lenore Eva Margarita (Kalmbach) Schmidt. She was a graduate of Chelsea High School, class of 1944. She earned her RN from Deaconess Hospital. She was a nurse for both Dr. Joseph Fisher and Dr. Charles Krausse for many years. Elaine was a longtime member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Elaine married Ellis Boyce on March 11, 1961. At that time, she had a son, Charles Fredette. Ellis had two sons, Alan and Floyd Boyce. After Ellis and Elaine joined the families, they were blessed with two daughters, Kimberly Ann Boyce and Carol Lisa Boyce. Kim and Carol lovingly cared for both parents for many years. For that gift our families are eternally thankful. Thanks also to Ronen Sherman, Kim's husband, for his assistance with Ellis and Elaine. Ellis and Elaine loved spending time at their Betsie River Cottage and mushrooming. They also enjoyed traveling together. They made two trips together to Omaha Beach for D-Day anniversary events. They also attended events at the D-Day Museum in New Orleans (Ellis was a D-Day survivor). Elaine was a diehard Michigan fan (that's an understatement!)

Elaine is survived by five children, Charles (Barbara) Fredette of Chelsea, Alan Boyce of Dexter, Floyd (Mary) Boyce of Gregory, Kimberly (Ronen) Sherman of Ann Arbor, and Carol Boyce of Ann Arbor; sister, Eleanor Hall of Pinckney; 8 grandchildren, Shannon Fredette, Aaron Fredette, Lindsay Boyce, Jordan Boyce, Rachel Boyce, Samuel Boyce, Joel Boyce and Elizabeth Boyce; 4 great-grandchildren, Marissa Fredette, Brer Boyce, Cecelia Boyce, Theoan Boyce; and many nieces and nephews. Sincere thanks to her first caregiver Dayna Clayborn, the staff at Arbor Hospice and a special thank you to Jill Whyte who lovingly cared for her in her final years. The family will receive friends Friday from 4-7 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Covenant Church, 50 N Freer Road, Chelsea, MI 48118 or the National WWII Museum, 945 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana 70130.

Notes for Ellis Carlton Boyce:

Ellis Carlton Boyce of Chelsea, age 94, passed away September 4, 2011 surrounded by his family. He was born on October 9, 1916 in Anderson (just west of Pinckney), Michigan. He was the first child of Floyd and Florence (Noah) Boyce. His parents were both descendants of Washtenaw County's pioneering homesteading families; their families and homesteads both predated Michigan's 1837 statehood. His younger sisters were Dorothy (Stanley) LaSovage, Ruth (Erle) Stewart and Elizabeth (Wilber) Worden, all now deceased. As a child, Ellis plowed his grandparents' North Lake farm fields with a team of horses. He quickly realized that farming just wasn't his "cup of tea". He did, however, love the pleasure of simple visits to his grandparents farm home during the Great Depression. As World War II approached he entered Officers Candidate School. On June 6, 1944 (D-Day) Lieutenant Ellis Boyce landed at what was called the "Easy Red" Sector of Omaha Beach in Normandy, France. His Joint Assault unit sustained 80% casualties. He was wounded in battle and later received the Purple Heart. He also received the Silver Star medal due to his bravery exhibited in battle. Later in the war he was involved in the invasion of the Philippines (Luzon). There his unit sustained 90% casualties and again Ellis was a survivor. After World War II Ellis was honorably discharged at the rank of Captain.

On September 18, 1948 Ellis married Lois Hollis. Together they had two sons, Alan and Floyd Boyce. Lois died in 1953. He married Elaine Schmidt on March 11, 1961. Elaine brought a son, Charley Fredette, into the family. Ellis and Elaine then had two daughters, Kimberly and Carol Boyce. Ellis worked with his great friend and uncle, Holton Knisely, at K & E Screw Products in Dexter. He became Vice-President and part owner before retiring in 1980. Ellis and Elaine enjoyed several European trips including the 50th D-Day Anniversary. They also enjoyed vacationing at their Betsie River cottage with their children and grandchildren near Frankfort, Michigan. Especially memorable were mushrooming outings, trout fishing, tubing down the river and making apple dumplings. Ellis was known as the best fisherman along the "Old Grade Crossing" stretch of the Betsie River. Chickadees would often sit and wait on his fishing rod and even on his eyeglasses waiting for a handful of sunflower seeds, which he kept in his pocket while fishing. In 1993, Ellis completed a massive family history record which dates back to the Middle Ages. He was very proud of his ancestry, his family and his historical research. It took him years to complete the family history book. He was also proud of his correspondence with the late American author and historian Stephen Ambrose. In his twilight years his daughter, Kimberly and her husband, Ronen Sherman cared for him in their Ann Arbor home. Ellis was truly blessed in those years.

He leaves behind Elaine, his loving wife of 50 years; his children, Charley (Barbara) Fredette, Alan (Virginia) Boyce, Floyd (Mary) Boyce, Kimberly (Ronen) Sherman and Carol Boyce. He also had the joy of 11 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

The family would also like to thank Lindsay, Kathy, Rhonda and Cindy from Great Lakes Hospice and PJ from Synergy Home Care. The family will receive friends at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home on Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. A memorial service will take place on Thursday from the funeral home at 11:00 am with Tony Dickerson officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to the National World War II Museum or Covenant Church. His life was good, our memories are rich and we will miss him. We thank him for everything.

More About Kenneth Licht and Virginia Buell:

Marriage: 21 Aug 1951, Pontiac, Oakland Co, Michigan

Children of Virginia Buell and Kenneth Licht are:

- + 3265 i. Christopher Reed¹⁴ Licht, born 21 Jun 1952.
- 3266 ii. Jeffrey Licht, born 12 Mar 1954.
- 3267 iii. Cynthia Ellen (Sam) Licht, born 25 May 1957.

Notes for Cynthia Ellen (Sam) Licht:

La Crosse, Wisconsin, March 6, 1984 - When Cynthia Licht picked up a 108-pound, stuffed dummy and slung it over her shoulders La Crosse firefighters looked a little shocked. But she said they were supportive of her efforts to be the first female firefighter in the city. "What their reaction will be if I get on may be another story." Although she still is awaiting word from the fire department, she admits her chance of becoming a firefighter may not be good because she has poor, uncorrected eyesight. But the 147 pound, 5-foot 4-inch Ms. Licht had no problem passing the fire department's physical agility test because she is a weightlifter. She spends six days a week lifting barbells and working out on. Nautilus equipment working on her legs and lower body one day and her upper body the next. In addition, she plays racquetball, swims and attends exercise classes.

On a recent day at La Crosse Ironworks, a weightlifting club at 312 S Fourth St., Ms. Licht was working on her upper body. She was wearing blue sweatpants and a yellow T-shirt that said, "Women - you can't beat 'em. After loosening up a bit, she started on the bench press with 10 repetitions of lifting 85 pounds. She eventually worked up to five reps (repetitions) of 125 pounds and then finished with 10 lifts of 100 pounds. At the end of the set I can do 15 reps of 100 but it's not in my routine. The most she has cleanly lifted on a bench press is 140 pounds. She has placed in several women power weightlifting meets third at the Wisconsin State Fair, fifth in Dubuque, Iowa, and first at last year's La Crosse Oktoberfest.

Ms. Licht, 26 has been weightlifting ever since she wanted to gain strength for another favorite pastime of her's wrist wrestling. The Evanston, Illinois, native started in that sport while bartending at Poor Richard's, a tavern in suburban Chicago where wrist wrestling was popular. When she started attending the University of Wisconsin La Crosse, she began lifting weights to prepare for a national wrist wrestling tournament in Cudahy. But her training was for naught. Every match I was in, I got beat," she said. Still, she finished well in many state wrist wrestling competitions. After joining the track team at UW-L for the shot put, she continued to lift weights. She then began working out at the YMCA/YWCA and got a part time job as a weight training and Nautilus instructor at the YWCA. When La Crosse Ironworks opened last year, she joined and started working out there on a regular basis. She alternates between free weights at the Ironworks and the anchored Nautilus equipment at the YWCA. She said she enjoys weightlifting and the increased strength and flexibility that comes with it. It makes me look better and feel better." At first, some of the male weightlifters resented her for intruding on their territory, she said. But that soon changed. They realize I'm serious I'm not here to pick someone up or to look at good legs. She admits, however, she does not fit society's concept of what a woman is supposed to be "I'm kind of unorthodox, she said I like it that way."

La Crosse, Wisconsin, July 27, 1989 - Cynthia Licht is a massage therapist. Touching and healing people is what she plans to do for the rest of her life. But on Sunday, the 32-year-old Licht, who is also a weightlifter, leaves La Crosse on a flight to New York City and then on to Russia for the International Powerlifting competitions to be held in Leningrad and Krasnoyarsk. Licht, who works out at the La Crosse YWCA, is one of eight women among the 47 powerlifters and a handful of reporters making the trip. She's the only one from Wisconsin.

The trip is one of several during the year by the Association for International Cultural Exchange Programs in Quebec, Canada. Athletes are invited to attend but either have to pay their own way or find hometown sponsors. She figures the trip will cost her about $3,000. That will put quite a dent in her savings, she admits. "But I was thinking, at 32, if I'm going to compete, I should do it now." About $150 was raised in pledges and donations

Saturday during a two-hour lift-a-thon. Donations to help Licht pay her expenses on 6 I was thinking, at 32, if I'm going to compete, I should do it now. Cynthia Licht the trip will be accepted until Friday noon at the YWCA. About two months ago, Licht received a letter telling about the competition in Russia. At first, she didn't consider going. But she gives a great deal of credit to a 79-year-old Sparta woman who encouraged her. "I work in the women's Nautilus center here and she drives in from Sparta a couple of times a week," said Licht. Ruby Bacon said: "Sure I encouraged her. She's a lovely little gal and I like to see young people get ahead."

Just what is powerlifting? Licht explains. "What you see on TV is usually Olympic lifting. In many ways, powerlifting is almost exclusive to America. In some ways the Soviet Union is still exploring this kind of lifting. They had this powerlifting thing in Russia last year and the audience just went nuts." The lifter does three lifts: the squat, the bench press and the dead lift. Licht has lifted a total of 630 pounds for all three lifts. She can lift 225 pounds in the squat; 150 in the bench press and 255 in the dead lift. "That's where you try to lift the weight off the floor and stand erect with it." "That's how you win a meet... by your total," she said. Judges then use a formula that takes into account your body weight, (hers is 143 pounds), to come up with your total, she said.

"Charming name, huh?" asks Cynthia after she completes "the squat" and has lifted 135 pounds. But first there is the preparation. She wraps what looks like Ace bandages around her knees for added support. Then she buckles on a thick leather belt to support her spine. On a bar which is on a rack nearby she places a metal disc weighing 45 pounds on each end of the bar. She takes a moment or two to psyche herself up. When she's ready, she gingerly takes her place under the bar. She straightens up, lifting the bar off the rack and onto her back. She's now holding 135 pounds across her back.

She lowers herself into a squatting position. She exhales, blowing air like a blowfish. Cheeks puffed. Exhaling in short pants. Or, at other times, in one long puff. She rises, then bends and lowers herself in a squat again before replacing the bar back on the rack. She's used to remarks, like the one made the other day by a male observer. He watched her demonstration of powerlifting, then said: "Well, I guess I'd never want you to get mad at me." Her reaction to comments such as that? "A lot of it is teasing and the usual stereotype of the woman weightlifter," she said. "As a massage therapist, I'm a very gentle, caring person. Just because I lift weights doesn't make me some macho, steroid football maniac. I think that's what a lot of people think of when they think of powerlifting."

La Crosse, Wisconsin, March 24, 2003 - Cynthia "Sam" Licht is joining Sue Kolves Salon and Day Spa" as a full-time massage therapist. She brings fifteen years of experience providing massage therapy to the La Crosse area, promoting its benefits through teaching, lectures and presentations. She has been an active advocate for improved licensing and regulation both locally and at the state level. Cynthia is a graduate of the Boulder, Colorado School of Massage Therapy and is a member of the American Massage Therapy Association. She continues her education by expanding her skills through workshops in Neuromuscular Therapy, Sports Massage and Yoga, accruing close to 2,000 hours of additional training. Prior to her massage career, she was an accomplished competitive power lifter and traveled to the Soviet Union to represent the United States in team competition. Cynthia used her years of exercise experience to teach strength training, employing both free weights and Nautilus equipment. Her background also includes providing patient care as a physical therapist aide, administering hydrotherapy, range of motion and treatment modalities.

Sue Kolve says, "We're delighted to have someone with Cynthia's experience, expertise and enthusiasm joining our team. People interested in scheduling an appointment with Cynthia can call. Sue Kolve opened her first salon in a converted downtown La Crosse duplex in 1985 with 300 clients and no employees. Over the years, the business outgrew its 1800-square-foot space. South Bend - Anne FitzHenry was a journalist with a passion for words. In a long journalism career, Anne spent 12 years working for The Associated Press as a reporter in Columbus and Toledo and as news editor, overseeing news coverage for an entire state, first in Baltimore and then in Atlanta. She was the news editor in Atlanta during the 1996 Summer Olympic Games, overseeing the Associated Press staff covering host city news and participating in coverage of a terrorist bombing during the Games. One of the AP reporters she supervised in Atlanta, Joan Kirchner, now chief of staff for U.S. Sen. Johnny Isakson, once wrote that Anne was "a smart, tough editor who knows how to turn a good story into a great story." Anne later worked as a business desk editor at The Atlanta Journal-Constitution and a copy editor at the Providence Journal before joining Habitat for Humanity International as a copy editor in 2011. She was most at home in a copy editor's role, cutting excess words and polishing stories until their meaning was clear.

2410. Arthur Frederick¹³ Gakle (Edward Elmer¹², John Nikolaus¹¹, Louisa Carolina¹⁰ Ukele, Christina Barbara⁹ Stollsteimer, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 06 Jan 1925 in Sabetha, Nemaha Co, Kansas, and died 27

Sep 2005 in Greenville, Plumas Co, California. He married Loana Constance Casper 12 Dec 1957 in Quincy, Plumas Co, California. She was born 22 Jan 1932 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 19 Feb 2009 in Greenville, Plumas Co, California.

Notes for Arthur Frederick Gakle:

Arthur Frederick Gakle was born to Edward and Elsie Gakle, the youngest of three boys, which included Willis and Paul. After his father died when Arthur was 6 months old, Elsie moved her family to Chico, where she became a Registered Nurse for Enloe Hospital specializing in private care. Arthur, as well as Willis and Paul, worked from a young age to help the family make ends meet. Arthur's first job, at the age of 7, was as a paperboy in downtown Chico. While in high school, he worked at Diamond Match Company, Miller's Market and on a ranch as a wrangler.

Upon graduating from Chico High School, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He trained to be a signalman specializing in visual communication, blinker, semaphore flag and flag hoist. He was promoted continually throughout World War II and received an honorable discharge. Arthur returned to his hometown of Chico and enrolled at Chico State College to begin pre-veterinary studies. He transferred to UC Davis briefly before lack of finances forced him to reconsider his career choice. He then decided to pursue a B.S. in biological sciences while returning to Chico State College, and then finally completed his degree at San Jose State. After this, he again returned to Chico State College to earn a general secondary teaching credential and administrative credential. He would now begin what evolved into a 30-year teaching career in high school science.

His first position was at Fort Bragg for one year. He then transferred to Tamales High for the next four years. In 1956, his childhood friend and backyard neighbor, Jack Rubke, who was the Greenville High School music teacher at the time, suggested Arthur apply for the recently vacated science position at GHS. Wanting to return closer to home, and being quite familiar with Indian Valley and Lake Almanor in his youth, he applied and got the job. He had been at GHS only one year when he met his future wife, Loana, a recent Ithaca College graduate from New York and new GHS social studies and English teacher. They were married three months after their first meeting on the first day of school. So, on December 19, 1957, they became husband and wife and enjoyed a Hawaiian honeymoon which was the first of many trips the couple would take over the years, including trips to China, Portugal, Spain, England, France and Tahiti, as well as many Christmases on the Hawaiian Islands and Easters in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Twelve years later their only child, Kathleen Elizabeth Ann, was born. Arthur spent many hours as a devoted father building a strong relationship with his daughter. He often took her to Clear Creek Park, played with her, let her play beauty shop on him, chauffeured her everywhere, helped out in her classroom, taught her how to ski and golf, and took her sailing after school. He always was a strong support by effortlessly guiding her whether it be an algebra problem, choice of attire or advising her on life's inevitable lessons we all must learn. His natural teaching ability was evident not only as a father but as an educator.

During his tenure at Greenville High, teaching biology, chemistry, physics, earth and life sciences, Arthur received many honors, including being selected to attend the Mineral Industry and Society Summer Institute at the Mackay School of Mines, the National Science Foundation Award and several invitations in the summers to be a guest lecturer and professor of geology at Chico State. Also, while employed for Plumas Unified School District, Arthur earned a master's degree in geology from the University of Oregon. His master's thesis was on the geology of Keddie Ridge, a place he particularly enjoyed.

His lifetime appreciation for the outdoors was clearly evident upon his retirement from teaching in 1980. At this time he was able to embrace a life free of deadlines, commitments and time constraints. He fished, skied, golfed, camped, traveled, hiked, explored, hunted and sailed to his heart's content for the next 25 years. As well, he was an active longtime member of the Chester Lion's club, holding the office of secretary and receiving the honor of Lion of the Year. This past June he was also honored for his dedication to educational excellence at Greenville High school by being selected, along with Loana, as Alumni Emeritus.

In his later years, Arthur enjoyed reading and relaxing in his Lake Almanor home, often spending hours looking out to the lake and soaking in the serenity. He took great pleasure in getting to know his son-in-law, Robert, and was elated with the birth of his only grandchild, Chloe Spencer Copeland. He delighted in her squeals, giggles, chattering and walk, often commenting of her milestones and smiling.

Arthur has been married to his wife, Loana, for 48 years; he has a daughter, Kathleen Elizabeth Ann Copeland; a son-in-law, Robert McLeod Copeland; and a granddaughter, Chlo? Spencer Copeland. His brother Paul Spencer Gakle lives in Ohio with his wife, Ginny. His nephew David Gakle lives in the Bay Area, and his niece Sandy Farowich lives in Maui, Hawaii with her husband, Dana. Other loved members of his family include brother and sister-in-law Bill and Jane Saunders of Yorba Linda; sister-in-law Mary Ellen Rybarcyk of San Diego; niece Jacqueline Oberle and husband, Donny, of Corona; nephew Dennis Saunders and wife, Melinda, of Chino Hills; and grandnieces Priscilla, Amanda, Raelene and Taryn.

A celebration of Arthur's life was held Monday, Oct. 3, 2005, at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with burial following at the Greenville District Cemetery, in Greenville. The family requests that donations in Arthur's memory be made to the High Sierra Animal Rescue, PAWS or the Chico Cat Coalition, c/o of Fehrman Mortuary and Crematory, P.O. Box 803, Greenville, CA 95947

Marriage Notes for Kenneth Wymore and Beverly Weindorf:

Los Angeles - Two pieces of paper brought to domestic relations court by her estranged parents yesterday Feb. 27, 1947 made no difference in the life of Christine Rae Wymore, 3. Her mother, Mrs. Beverly Ruth Wymore, 36, was there with a writ of habeas corpus designed to wrest possession of the child from her father, Kenneth Arnold Wymore, 30, former Seabee. However, Wymore had a slip of paper of his own in the form of an order from San Bernardino Superior Court, where his divorce is pending. It was a temporary order restraining Mrs. Wymore from taking the child. Superior Judge Fred Miller, who reminded the couple and their attorneys that undivorced parents have equal rights in the matter of custody, denied the writ, because, the San Bernardino court has jurisdiction. Without favoritism little Christine Rae hugged her parents. She kissed her weeping mother good-by and was carried away by her father. At present she lives with him and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wymore, in Ontario.

Notes for Lee Fred Ukele:

Holton, Kansas — A Kansas man is the fourth member of his family to die from injuries suffered in a crash that happened more than a year ago as they returned home from watching the man's sons play in a state high school football championship, according to a prosecutor and funeral home. Lee Fred Ukele, 60, a farmer from Sabetha, died last Wednesday at the University of Kansas Hospital, according to Popkess Mortuaries. Funeral services are scheduled for this Wednesday.

He was critically injured in a November 2017 crash that killed his 42-year-old wife, Carmen Ukele; his 11-year-old daughter, Marlee Ukele; and his 62-year-old brother, Stephen Ukele. Jackson County Attorney Shawna Miller said Monday that Lee Ukele was placed in a rehabilitation facility after the crash because injuries to his head and other parts of his body were so severe.

The family was returning home from watching two of Lee Ukele's sons, Tanner and Carson Ukele, win the championship in Hutchinson, Kansas, with their Sabetha High School teammates when the crash occurred. Authorities have said that Maria Perez Marquez, 49, of Omaha, Nebraska, struck the family's minivan head-on while trying to pass another vehicle on U.S. 75 north of Holton, about 70 miles (112 kilometers) west of Kansas City. Coach Garrett Michael said at the time that Lee Ukele's sons were pulled off the football team bus after a celebratory dinner. A trooper later told them their father, himself a former football player, had been hurt and the others had died.

Marquez is scheduled to be sentenced in June on three misdemeanor counts of vehicular homicide and one felony count of aggravated battery. Miller said that "unfortunately" she can't file additional charges against Marquez because she already pleaded guilty in the case as part of a plea deal. She had originally been charged with three felony counts of involuntary manslaughter. But she said the judge could consider Lee Ukele's death when making a sentencing decision. "Obviously, myself and the family will ask for the jail time because of all the loss in this case," the prosecutor said.

Lee Fred Ukele, well known Sabetha farmer, age 60 passed away Wednesday, May 8, 2019 peacefully surrounded by his family at University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas. Lee was born on August 22, 1958 in Sabetha, Kansas to Marshall and Geneva (Brigham) Ukele. He attended Excelsior Country School, Sabetha Elementary School, Junior High School and High School and graduating in 1976. He participated in football, wrestling, 4-H and FFA. He attended Highland Community College and graduated in 1978. He also attended Kansas State University taking classes in agri-business. He returned to farm with his brother, Stephen on the Ukele family farm around the Berwick area. They created a diversified grain crop and commercial livestock business. He married Carmen Kay Baumgartner on March 27, 1999. To this union three children were born, Tanner Marshall, Carson Samuel and Marlee Geneva. Lee was a loving husband, father and devoted uncle. He was well known for his true business savvy and work ethics at farming operations, remarkable memory for facts and figures and ways to achieve success and having fun with family and friends. He had a sunny disposition and genuine concern for the well-being of others. Lee and family attended NorthRidge Church in Sabetha. He was on the board of directors for the United Bank and Trust, the Nemaha County FSA Community Committee, and several social committees. His family was always the top of his list. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents; his loving wife, Carmen Kay; his daughter, Marlee Geneva; his brother, Stephen Marshall; his uncles, Fred Ukele and Gerald Summers; his aunt, Dorothy Summers; and his cousins, Jim Summers and Kim Summers.

Lee is survived by his sons, Tanner Marshall and Carson Samuel both of Sabetha; his sisters, Pamela Day Ukele of Hannibal, Missouri and Paula Sue Miller (Alan) of Shawnee, Kansas; a sister-in-law, Pamela Sue Ukele of Sabetha; numerous nieces and nephews; and Lee's family extended to the Leonard Baumgartner family and cousins, Beth Mazzola Summers, Gary and Sylvia Summers, Jeri and Janice Summers, Jon and Janet Summers, Kirk and Stefni Summers, who loved Lee like a brother.

Funeral service will be Wednesday, May 15, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at the North Ridge Church in Sabetha. A visitation will be Tuesday, May 14, 2019 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the North Ridge Church in Sabetha. The interment will be made in the Sabetha Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Carmen and Marlee Memorial Scholarship Fund, sent in care of Popkess Mortuary, 823 Virginia, Sabetha, Kansas 66534.

Notes for Carmen Kay Baumgartner:

Saturday should have been a day of celebration for Sabetha, Kansas, after the high school in the town of about 2,600 residents won a state football championship. But tragedy muted the joy. Carmen Ukele was driving back to Sabetha Saturday night after watching her sons, starting offensive linemen Tanner and Carson, win the Class 3A state football championship in Hutchinson. On U.S. 75 north of Holton, Kansas, in northern Jackson County, on a stretch of road locals complain about for its frequency of accidents, Ukele crashed head-on into another vehicle that was trying to pass traffic on the two-lane highway, according to the Kansas Highway Patrol's report.

Ukele died, and so did two of her three passengers: Marlee Ukele, the football players' 11-year-old sister, and their uncle, Stephen Ukele, 62. The players' father and Ukele's husband, Lee Ukele, was seriously injured. Condolences are pouring into the town and team from neighboring communities and sports opponents alike.

Holton, Kansas — A Nebraska woman has been sentenced to more than four years in prison for a November 2017 head-on crash in northeastern Kansas that killed four members of a Sabetha family who were returning home from a state championship football game.

The Capital-Journal reports that 49-year-old Maria Perez Marquez, of Omaha, Nebraska, was sentenced Friday to four years and one month in prison. She pleaded no contest to aggravated battery and three misdemeanor counts of vehicular homicide for the crash that killed 42-year-old Carmen Ukele, her 11-year-old daughter, Marlee Ukele, and her brother-in-law, 62-year-old Stephen Ukele. Carmen Ukele's husband, 60-year-old Lee Ukele, initially survived the crash but died last month of his injuries.

Investigators say the family was returning home from watching the Sabetha High School football team win the state championship when Perez Marquez crashed into their minivan while trying to pass another vehicle. At the time, two of Lee Ukele's sons played on the team.

Carmen K. (Baumgartner) Ukele, 42, of Sabetha, Kansas passed away Saturday, November 25, 2017. She was united in marriage to Lee Fred Ukele on March 27, 1999 in Sabetha, Kansas. Carmen and Lee were blessed with three children: Tanner, Carson and Marlee. As a Christian, Carmen served her Lord and Savior in numerous ways. This was most evident in her exceptional devotion to her husband and children. Her hospitality and kindness was felt by many, and her home was always open to anyone.

Carmen attended NorthRidge Church in Sabetha where she and Marlee served in the nursery. Earlier in the day of her passing, she celebrated with her two sons the excitement of winning the 3A Kansas State Football Championship.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Nancy (Hartter) Baumgartner; and her cherished daughter, Marlee.

She is survived by her husband, Lee and two sons, Tanner and Carson of the home; her father, Leonard Baumgartner of Sabetha; and siblings, Jeff (Kim) Baumgartner, Jay (Heidi) Baumgartner both of Bern, Kansas, Heidi (Jeff) Bahler of Wolcott, Indiana, and Holly (Duane) Meyer of Bern, Kansas. Carmen was adored by her numerous nieces and nephews. She will be lovingly remembered by the countless acquaintances and friendships she cherished, always sharing a word of encouragement. Her joyful personality was contagious.

2473. Mark Robert¹³ Shaffer, twin (Margaret Louise¹² Watson, Francis Margaret¹¹ Ukele, Jakob Friedrich¹⁰, Christina Barbara⁹ Stollsteimer, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 18 Aug 1968 in Denver, Colorado, and died 08 Apr 2023 in Bellevue, Washington.

Notes for Mark Robert Shaffer, twin:

Mark Robert Shaffer, 54, arrived in this world on August 18, 1968 in Denver, Colorado. Born August 18, 1968 to Margaret Louise and Robert Dennis Shaffer, Mark was the "older" twin by four minutes with his brother Arthur following closely in his footsteps. While still a baby, Mark's parents relocated back to his mother's home state of Kansas, settling briefly in Lawrence and finally in Kansas City, Missouri. Mark and Arthur were inseparable as young children, continually going on adventures and getting into mischief. Moving on from those early years and Boone Elementary, the boys graduated from Center High School. From there, Mark attended Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg, Missouri, and earned his Baccalaureate.

Throughout Mark's youth, he was immersed in scouting. Growing up, he eagerly looked forward to his summer camp at the Bartle Reservation near Clinton, Missouri. When he was old enough, he even worked for a number of years at H. Roe Bartle Boy Scout summer camp as a swim instructor and eventually achieved Scouting's highest honor, Eagle Scout. He enjoyed summer camp and participated in the honor scouting program of Mic-O-Say. Mark embraced many of the lessons he learned on his scouting journey, including always helping others. After graduating from college, Mark spent time in Kansas City and Santa Fe, New Mexico. He learned more about his craft by working for a nationally renowned photographer and then branching out on his own as an independent photographer. Shifting gears in his late 20s, Mark decided to pursue a career in telecommunications and technology, working first at Sprint in Overland Park, Kansas, and then at HCL and Microsoft in Seattle, Washington.

A couple of years ago, Mark shifted his focus once again, this time pursuing a career in cybersecurity. Recently appointed as a principal at CliftonLarsonAllen (CLA), Mark was exuberant about his "dream job." He loved everything about his job, especially his co-workers. During his time in Seattle, Mark developed a great love for the beautiful outdoors and explored the open road on his Harley Davidson. Supporting the Seattle Mariners was also a favorite pastime although he never missed an opportunity to see his favorite hometown teams when he visited family in Kansas City, the Kansas City Royals and Kansas City Chiefs.

Above all other things in life, Mark was a devoted father to his nearly five-year-old daughter Zoey Shaffer. Although Zoey's time with her father was cut way too short, she should have no doubt about her father's love for her. He loved to spend time with her watching cartoons, going to the park, playing games or simply hanging out. She was the light of his life.

Mark never met a stranger. He exuded confidence and filled every room he entered with his larger-than-life personality and infectious laugh. Mark saw the best in everyone and was eager to help anyone in need—whether they needed a meal, a warm coat or simply a friend. His friends were many. Mark experienced the highs and lows of life. Mark valued his support and friendships, especially his long-time friend Jim who loved him like a brother. Mark always saw the good in people and never hesitated to volunteer to help others achieve their true potential. Mark was a proud member of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross in Redmond, Washington, where he sang in the choir. In addition, Mark embraced his family heritage through the Sons of the American Revolution and spent many weekends volunteering with the Kairos Prison Ministry Foundation.

Mark is preceded in death by his grandparents, Arthur and Frances Watson, and his mother Margaret Nygren. He is survived by his daughter Zoey Shaffer, father Robert Shaffer, twin brother Arthur Shaffer (Linda), Logan, Victoria, Uncle Fred (Mary) Watson.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions to Eastside Intergroup. Please indicate that your donation is in memory of Mark Shaffer.

Notes for Dana Jean Hungerford:

Dana "Jean" Wildt, 97, died Friday, September 25, 2015 in Spring Arbor, Michigan. Jean, a beloved and life-long Concord, Michigan resident was born April 28, 1918. Jean was born in Concord Township to Dana and Alberta Hungerford. She attended school in a one-room schoolhouse in Concord Township before marrying and moving to Concord where she raised a family. Prior to her passing, Jean was the oldest living member of her 1935 graduating class.

Jean lived her life devoted to her family and the town that she served. Jean was the Concord Township Clerk, serving in this position for 42 years, a record of the longest-serving township clerk in Jackson County. While serving in the clerk position, she also served as the treasurer for the village of Concord. It was not uncommon to see Jean at various Concord events, such as the Christmas Reception at the Hubbard House, or the Fireman breakfasts. A friend to all, she would often make time to chat with friends and fellow residents of Concord at the now-closed Shannon's Market, the Post Office, the Cadet or the M-60 Grill.

In addition to being a township and village servant, Jean was a mother and is survived by three sons, Bob (Sue) Beals, Tom (Penny) Beals, and Lynn (Mickie) Wildt as well as one daughter Ann (John) Novak and their families. She has 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren who will all remember her fondly as a caring, selfless, loving woman who was quick to laugh at their jokes and was always interested in what they had to share.

Jean had many hobbies throughout her life. She loved cross-stitching and knitting, and taught many of her granddaughters how to do both. Her homemade dish clothes were always a gift that members of her family looked forward to receiving. Jean also loved to do fill-in word puzzles and read romance novels. Many of the cabinets at her house were filled with her collections of both, and she would often give her books to the many friends who would stop by and visit her.

Jean was very family oriented, often holding holiday dinners at her house, especially Fourth of July picnics. Family members would shoot off fireworks every year, after Jean had notified the police to "make sure you don't patrol Union St. between 9 and 10 PM!" She made her legendary deviled eggs at family gatherings and would always have plenty of card games like Skip-Bo and Uno that she and her family members would enjoy. Jean was a loving mother and grandmother and would often have her grandchildren spend time during the summer at her house, where she would take them to downtown Concord, the cemetery, and drives in the country.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Alvin Beals, and her second husband, Harold Wildt, her parents, Dana and Alberta and her brother Frank. Not only does she leave her family behind, but several friends, including Star Clark and Rosemary Beals, neighbors, and cousins.

The family would like to thank the staff of Arbor Manor for providing such wonderful and loving care to "Jeannie" over the past 4 years. A special thank you to Toni and Amy, two her her main caregivers over the years. We would also like to thank all of the wonderful family and friends in the Concord area. Our mother would have never been able to remain as independent as she was if it had not been for all of you who elected her to office for 42 years and watched over her. All of you knew her patterns and if she wasn't out bugging all of you on a regular basis, you were checking on her! She would often say "I have to report in before I leave town, or the police will be calling you."

A memorial celebrating Jean's life and accomplishments will be held on Saturday, October 17, 2015 at the Universalist Church, 200 Hanover St., Concord. Family will receive guests starting at 1PM with the service to follow at 2PM. A luncheon will be served at the Hubbard House, 317 Hanover St., immediately following the service. All donations can be made to the Hubbard Memorial Museum Foundation. PO Box 463, Concord, Michigan, 49237.

Notes for Jason Lee Ukele:

August 6, 2018 - An employee of Showalter Fireworks was seriously burned in a flashover fire Monday morning while disposing of powder from old fireworks at the business site west of Inman. Jason Ukele, 39, of Salina, was airlifted from the scene off North Plum to the St. Francis Medical Center burn unit in Wichita, where he was listed in critical condition Monday afternoon. He suffered burns to his right leg and right hand, said business owner Steve Showalter, who is Ukele's father-in-law.

"We were destroying powder and it went wrong," said Showalter, who has operated the firework business in McPherson County, less than a mile north of the Reno County line, for 32 years. "We were just doing a few pounds of loose powder," Showalter said. "We were lighting it in small batches, of 3 to 4 ounces at a time. We do this routinely. This one flashed instead of burned. I have no idea why it did what it did." Ukele was igniting the powder with a flare attached to a four-foot pole, Showalter said. They were the only two at the burn pit and Showalter was not hurt. "This is something we'd done for 30 years -- destroying fireworks that are not serviceable," he said. "It's a safety thing for our customers, rather than put these products out to the public. This time it didn't work."

Waldo B. "Wally" Steinaway IV of Waterloo Twp., Michigan, age 35, passed away at home while holding his wife's hand on Wednesday, Dec. 31, 2014. He was born on Oct. 31, 1979, in Ypsilanti, Michigan, the son of Waldo B. and Cheryl (Manier) Steinaway III. On March 23, 2013, he married Carrie L. Harris in Grass Lake, and she survives. Wally had battled fiercely for two years with cancer. Numerous rounds of chemo, radiation, and trial drugs never kept him down. He always said that at the end of his battle he wanted to do something that would make a difference, whether that meant being a police officer, firefighter, or paramedic, but in the end he chose to donate himself to science in the hope of finding a cure for the late relapse of cancer that he experienced.

Wally graduated from Chelsea High School in 1999. He liked working on computers, trying to fix them. He loved working on cars and his favorites were Chevys. He also loved working on projects around the house. He was one who couldn't sit still. He was the biggest kid at heart and this was reflected through his love for Optimus Prime from his favorite childhood cartoon, Transformers. Wally had worked as a binder operator for Malloy, which is now Edwards Brothers Malloy. He was a very likable guy and a good friend to all he met. He was helpful and giving, never turning away anybody who asked for help. He was a jack of all trades, the handy man. He was a fighter, hero, and angel for his family. He was a good brother and son, and a loving husband and father.

He is also survived by his children: Kara M., Haile R., Alex B., and Ryleigh L. Steinaway; his parents, Waldo (Beth) Steinaway III and Cheryl Steinaway; his sisters, Susan (Joe) Martinez and Sabrina Booth; and his in-laws, Michael and Constance Harris (Carrie's parents).

Notes for Kenneth Lee Stollsteimer, twin:

Kenneth Lee Stollsteimer and his twin sister were born on April 25, 1948 in Huntington Park, California. He was the 3rd child and only son of Kenneth Leland Stollsteimer and Vera June Porterfield Stollsteimer. He grew up there, playing in the excelsior plants where his father and mother worked, until his family moved to Arizona in 1953. They built a home that Ken still lived in at the time of his death. In Phoenix, Ken attended R.E. Simpson Elementary and West High, where he met the love of his life, Susan Rae Erb in 1965. They dated until he graduated in 1966. They were engaged a few months later and were married on June 1 1968, in the same church where his funeral will be held. Ken and Susan had three daughters. Jennifer was born in 1970, Angela in 1973, and Lorie in 1979. Ken worked as a carpenter and contractor all of his life. When he wasn't at work, he was usually working on a project for a friend or family member. Later in life those skills were put to use assembling swing sets, basketball hoops, and trampolines for his grandchildren. In 2002, Ken was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and he and his wife were sealed in the Mesa Arizona Temple on September 27, 2003. Ken served as a temple ordinance worker and as Bishop of the Osborn Ward.

In August of 2016, Ken was diagnosed with lung cancer. After 8 months of treatment, Ken passed away early in the morning of Saturday, April 22, 2017. He is survived by his wife, Susan Stollsteimer, two sisters, three daughters, Jennier, Angela, and Lorie, 3 son-in-laws, Frank, Ron and Jon, 12 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his mother and father, Ken and June Stollsteimer, and his twin sister, Kay Bro.

He loved the gospel of Jesus Christ and he loved his family. A love that grew only bigger each time a new grandchild or great-grandchild was born. Funeral services for Ken will be held on Tuesday, May 2, at 10:00 AM at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 3102 N. 18th Ave, Phoenix, AZ 85015. There will be a viewing at the same location beginning at 9:00 AM. Arrangements under the direction of A.L. Moore-Grimshaw Bethany Chapel, Phoenix, Arizona.

2565. Brig. Gen. James Arthur¹³ Pocock (Leona Mary¹² Nowak, Anna Emilie Arminda (Amelia)¹¹ Kaercher, Caroline K.¹⁰ Stollsteimer, Johann Georg⁹, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 25 Oct 1934 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Gloria Ann Lippold 12 Apr 1958 in Louisville, Kentucky, daughter of Weldon Vogt Lippold. She was born 1937 in Louisville, Jefferson Co, Kentucky.

Notes for Brig. Gen. James Arthur Pocock:

Lansing, July 1, 1953 - Pocock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pocock. He is a 1952 graduate of East Lansing high school, and won a scholarship to Princeton university where he studied one year before applying for West Point. Pocock was active in high school, holding offices in student government and participated in athletics in addition to other extracurricular activities

Jan. 4, 1964 - Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pocock's return from five years in Germany with the Army made it possible for them to take in the party, too. Mrs. Pocock, the former Gloria Lippold and a '54 graduate, and her husband were here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lippold of Jeffersontown. They've gone on with sons, Jimmy and Johnny, to East Lansing, Michigan, to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bryant Pocock.

Jan. 24, 1991 - With a change of coat and tie in his Lansing office, Ingham County Friend of the Court James Pocock becomes U.S. Army Reserve Brig. Gen. James Pocock. The military Pocock, wearing a uniform bedecked with medals, said Wednesday that one of his command units arrived in Saudi Arabia this week to set up a camp for 12,000 future prisoners of war. But Pocock won't be on the firing line in this war. The 56-year-old Okemos resident and decorated Vietnam veteran will stay home. His feelings are mixed, Pocock said. "I would like to participate, particularly with my friends and fellow soldiers with whom I've worked many years." But as a combat veteran, Pocock said he knows the ordeal and sacrifice which would fall on his family if he went to war once more. In a Pentagon meeting Tuesday, Pocock learned that he and his Inkster-based, 125-member headquarters unit of the 300th Military Police Command are staying put.

Other units in Pocock's 2,400-person command are bound for the Mideast. So far, with the war largely a test of planes and missiles, only about 20 Iraqi troops have fallen into the hands of allied forces in the Persian Gulf region. But the U.S. Army is setting up several camps to handle more than 60,000 Iraqi war prisoners, Pocock said. When he's not administering military police training for thousands of U.S. Army reservists in the Midwest, Pocock enforces child custody and support orders of the Ingham County court. A West Point graduate, Pocock served in the Army from 1957 to 1969. He later worked for a life insurance company until his 1973 appointment as Friend of the Court. The biggest problem ahead in keeping thousands of Iraqi war prisoners may lay in the logistics shipping prisoners and supplies across the deserts, Pocock said. The prisoner camps may be havens for battle-shocked Iraqis. They will be fed, clothed, allowed to worship in the Islamic ways, and given some training on U.S.-style democracy, Pocock said. "I hope they live better in our camps than in their own army, which would be an indication that their army is in bad shape," Pocock said.

Jan 24, 1991 - James Pocock, age 56, home Okemos, Michigan, education: Bachelor of military science from the U.S. Military Academy, master's degree in communications from Michigan State University. Presently work at Ingham County Friend of the Court.

May 25, 2005 - James Pocock, age 70, home East Lansing, married, four grown children, 10 grandchildren; retired Ingham County friend of the court; retired major general in the U.S. Army Reserve. His education: East Lansing High School graduate, undergraduate work at Princeton University and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, master's degree in communications from Michigan State University.

May 25, 2005 - As an American soldier in the 1960s, James Pocock patrolled the barbed wire border between East and West Germany. "I always wondered what life was like on the other side," said Pocock, former Ingham County friend of the court and a retired major general in the U.S. Army Reserve. He got the chance to find out during a visit to the reunified country several years ago. "I had a lot of contact with the German people there, and the experience got me thinking," he said. The result: "Across the Barbed Wire," Pocock's self-published first novel, which came out in January and has earned high praise.

It's a fictional story of a mother and her young son who are separated while trying to escape from East Germany and the mother's 30-year quest to discover what happened to him. The story also deals with the American servicemen who help her, following them through the Vietnam War and Desert Storm and showing the sacrifices their families make. And the story illuminates life in East Germany, where the son grows up to become a communist and member of the secret service. "It has something for the military buff, it is a love story (or two), it is packed full of action, it has great characters that pull you into their lives, and it even educates the reader about the Cold War without trying to be a history book," said reviewer Jim Vahle.

Gisela Schild, a neighbor of Pocock's who shares a first name with his heroine, said the book brought back memories of growing up on the western side of the border. "I was stunned," she said. "Parts of the book were like having my life laid out in front of me. It puts you right there." Pocock said he refined the story in discussions with his wife, Gloria, during drives to see her mother in Kentucky. Pocock relied on several sources to make the book historically accurate, including his 38-year military career, information from people on both sides of the border and research. The book took four years to complete. "I had to fit all the different elements covering a 30-year span from the Cold War through Desert Storm into a sequence that made sense," he said.

Pocock said his purpose in writing the book had to do with his family. "I wanted to tell the story so my children and grandchildren understand better what I went through in the Army and Army Reserve," he said. Three of Pocock's 10 grandchildren, one in Okemos and two in Colorado, already have taken the book to school as part of history class studies of the Cold War. "I'm gratified that my grandchildren who have read it are asking questions," he said.

Marriage Notes for Gloria Eudaily and Walter Volland:

Prominent in Missoula social circles was the wedding of Gloria M. Eudaily of the Garden City and Walter V. Volland. The marriage was solemnized in St. Anthony Church August 31, 1963. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. D. P. Meade officiated at the nuptial mass and double ring ceremony. Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the altar and white satin bows marked the pews. Alfred Cipolato, vocalist, was accompanied by his daughter, Electra, on the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Eudaily, Missoula, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Elmer O. Binder, 641 S. Wyoming. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Volland, Downey, Downey.

The bride was attired in a beautiful bouquet taffeta gown, styled classically with a princess bodice, featuring a scoop neckline and bracelet-length sleeves. An embroidered design outlined with seed pearls, encircled the neckline. A similar pattern adorned the hemline of the long skirt, which fell in deep, impressed pleats over hoops. The bride's elbow-length veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of lace, embroidered with seed pearls. Children of Terry Stollsteimer and Lynne Simowski are:

- + 3651 i. Eric Daniel¹⁴ Stollsteimer, born 05 Jan 1976 in Southfield, Oakland Co, Michigan.
- 3652 ii. Jason Elliott Stollsteimer, born 22 Apr 1978 in Southfield, Oakland Co, Michigan. He married Andrea Corrin Wehenkel 16 Aug 2003 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan; born 12 Aug 1978.

Notes for Jason Elliott Stollsteimer:

1978 – Imagine the anxiety and jubilation of a new grandchild - then multiply it by three. No, it's not a set of triplets, but three grandchildren have expanded the family of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stollsteimer of Dearborn in the last month, each to a different son or daughter.

An eight pound eleven-ounce baby boy, Jason Elliott, was born to Terry and Lynne M. (Simowski) Stollsteimer of Plymouth. Jason arrived April 22 at 5:28 a.m. in Providence Hospital, and measured 20-1/2 inches.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Simowski of Dearborn Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McNeil, also of Dearborn Heights, are proud great-grandparents. Jason will be a new brother to Eric, age two-and-a-half years.

Lynn G. and Helene (Stollsteimer) DeFrance of Haslett, Michigan had their first child in the person of Jeffrey Lynn, born at 2:26 p.m. May 10 in Sparrow Hospital in Lansing. Jeffrey weighed in at eight pounds, nine ounces, and was 21 inches from top to bottom. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George DeFrance of Battle Creek.

The third Stollsteimer descendant is Jennifer, born to Michael A. and Janis (Stollsteimer) Germani of Detroit. Jennifer made her debut on May 13 at 1:56 a.m. in the Bi-County Hospital in Warren. She weighed six pounds, five ounces, measured 19-1/2 inches and is the Germani's first child. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andre Fournier of Compiegne, France.

Jason Stollsteimer (born Jason Elliott Stollsteimer on April 22, 1978 in Southfield, Michigan) is an American musician who was the vocalist and guitarist for the indie rock band The Von Bondies, which disbanded in 2011. Stollsteimer also was the main songwriter and producer of the Von Bondies. He released three studio albums with The Von Bondies and currently is working on his first full length album with The Hounds Below.

Musical career

Lack of Communication - His debut album, Lack of Communication, was released in 2001 on Sympathy for the Record Industry. Jason toured the states with the first incarnation of The Von Bondies featuring longtime friend Carrie Smith on the bass, Don Blum on drums and Marcie Bolen (Silverghost, Slumber Party) on Guitar. Over ten U.S. tours were done in order to help promote the record. The group shared the stage with The Cramps, on their 8th US tour. Jason and The Von Bondies also played several shows in the U.K. and Europe and a live performance on the Later... with Jools Holland in London.

Raw & Rare - In 2003 the Von Bondies released a live record that consisted mostly of recording from live BBC recordings from the John Peel.

Pawn Shoppe Heart - In 2004, Stollsteimer released his second studio album, Pawn Shoppe Heart, and toured extensively in the US, UK, and Europe

"C'mon C'mon" was the first single and reached the UK Top 25 for the first time (peaking at #21), and also generated some huge buzz for Stollsteimer.

One other single was released from the album. "Tell me what you see" which reached number 43 in the UK charts. Almost every track from the album has appeared in numerous commercials, Movies and TV shows. One song in particular (c'mon c'mon) was used more than all the others combined. From uses in local radio commercials/adverts to the main theme song of the hit F/X television show Rescue Me. While touring this record Stollsteimer played the Reading and Leeds Festivals, Glastonbury Festival and Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival

Love, Hate and Then There's You - Jason Stollsteimer's last release with the Von Bondies, "Love, Hate and Then There's You," has gone through a long process of discovery and change before coming to its current polished form.

In early 2006, a handful of demos were posted on the Von Bondies Myspace page. Later the band posted more songs on the MySpace page including "Shut Your Mouth," "Pale Bride," and "Only to Haunt You." Don Blum played drums on these recordings with all other instruments played by Jason. Love, Hate and Then There's You was the first time Stollsteimer ever collaborated songwriting with anyone. The songs "This is our perfect crime" and "Accidents will Happen" were co-written with Butch Walker who also produced some songs on the album. The songs "blame game" and "Earthquake" were co-written with longtime drummer Don Blum. The album was eventually released in 2009 on Majordomo Records.

The Von Bondies is an American alternative rock band. Its current members are Jason Stollsteimer on vocals and lead guitar, Christy Hunt on rhythm guitar and Leann Banks on bass guitar.

The original line-up formed at the 1997 Cramps/Guitar Wolf show by Stollsteimer and Marcie Bolen. They went through a variety of member changes and band names, including The Baby Killers, before settling on 'The Von Bondies' in 2000. Don Blum joined the band around 1999 after attending numerous Baby Killers shows, while Leann Banks was picked via an audition. The Von Bondies got their break by playing a New Year's Eve show in Detroit, MI in 2000. In attendance at the show was Long Gone John, owner of the Sympathy for the Record Industry label. This led to Sympathy releasing the band's debut album "Lack of Communication" in 2001.

In 2003, the band released the live "Raw and Rare" through Dim Mak Records, which was followed by their 2004 breakthrough release, "Pawn Shoppe Heart", on Sire Records. Met with glowing reviews, "Pawn Shoppe" was produced by Jerry Harrison of Talking Heads and co-produced by singer Jason Stollsteimer.

The album reached a peak of #36 in the UK and #8 on Billboard's Top Heatseekers chart and stayed in the chart for eight weeks. The big single from this release was "C'mon C'mon," which reached #25 on the Billboard Singles chart and garnered national radio play for the band.

A shortened version of "C'mon C'mon" is the theme song to the TV series "Rescue Me" and is performed live by the band in Michael Winterbottom's film "9 Songs". MLB Network also uses a brief clip of the song as the opening of their new show "30 Clubs in 30 Days".

In 2008, the band signed with indie label Majordomo Records, joining label mates The Airborne Toxic Event and Earlimart. Their label debut, "Love, Hate and Then There's You", was released in February 2009 featuring the single "Pale Bride."

Known as a touring act, The Von Bondies have headlined tours of the United Kingdom/Europe, Australia, and the United States, taking along supporting bands like The Kills, Kasabian, Franz Ferdinand, Modest Lemon, SSM, The Subways, The Stills, Hot Panda and The Donnas. They have also appeared on "Late Show with David Letterman", "Last Call with Carson Daly" and "CD:UK".

The Von Bondies song "C'mon C'mon" was announced to appear as a downloadable track for the music video game series "Rock Band" on March 31, 2009.

The Hounds Below - Stollsteimer is also the leader of The Hounds Below. The group's debut album is set to be recorded in early 2012.

Early life - Stollsteimer was born in Southfield, Michigan. His mother was a nurse, and his father an architect. He grew up in the Detroit suburbs of Plymouth, Michigan with his one brother, Eric. As a child, he went to school at Plymouth-Canton Educational Park. He later lived in Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti, where in 1997 he became friends with his new schoolmate at College, Marcie Bolen, who would become his band's first guitarist. A year later, while studying at Washtenaw Community College, Stollsteimer met Don Blum who would eventually become his drummer in the band The Von Bondies.

Jason Stollsteimer readies new band Ponyshow (Band made of former Von Bondies will make a Blowout debut)
By Brett Callwood

It's been a year and a half years since we put Jason Stollsteimer on the cover of MT, alongside his Hounds Below bandmates and the headline "The Von Bondies were a hit. Can Jason Stollsteimer do it again with the Hounds Below?" As the singer and guitarist prepares for his set at Blowout 17 with another band, Ponyshow (he prefers the name to be written in all-caps), the answer to that question from October '12 has to be "No."

Not that the Hounds Below (or the Von Bondies, for that matter) has necessarily broken up; Stollsteimer insists that both projects are there to be reanimated whenever he and perhaps the other members involved are feeling it. He simply became tired of a persistently shifting Hounds Below lineup, a change in sound or two, and an album that, while brilliant, he feels went to waste because the band didn't tour enough after its release.

For many musicians, the changing sound of a band is part of its evolution, part of the creative process. Not for Stollsteimer. "The first time you hear [Ponyshow], that will define us for the rest of your life," he says. "That's the way it should be. The change of sounds is where every band goes wrong. If we want to change sounds a few years from now, we'll just do a new band."

So Ponyshow is a new band, fair enough. It's interesting though, because the trio is completed by two more former Von Bondies — drummer Don Blum and later-era bassist Leann Banks. It seems entirely natural that, when forced to admit that the Hounds Below wasn't going to be making any great strides anytime soon, Stollsteimer would turn to two people that he refers to as "great friends." A Von Bondies reunion was never in the cards though, and, with Banks still a member of Amy Gore's Valentines and After Dark Amusement Park, and with Blum having removed himself from music altogether for a couple of years, this is a band that has to be content with baby steps for the time being.

We meet with Stollsteimer and Banks at the WAB in Ferndale on a quiet Wednesday afternoon. Stollsteimer is, unusually for him, sporting facial hair due to his imminent appearance in a music video for New York band the Cold Blood Club. The two of them live in Ferndale (Banks works next door at the Emory), so this is home base for them.

"Doing this band, I feel for the first time like I'm going back to the reason I started listening to music, not even just writing music," Stollsteimer says. "I grew up with the Pixies and Pavement, and I always wanted to be in a band like that. When Leann joined the Von Bondies, she was a replacement and I've always wanted to do a band with her from scratch. From Day One, it's these three people. The band will break up the first time somebody leaves. I don't want to break up, but I'm just saying. I played with Don for eight years. I missed Don and, besides music, this is a good excuse for me to see two of my best friends. Whatever comes of it comes of it."

The fascinating thing about Stollsteimer is that he will insist Ponyshow is a "band," it's an equal three-way split. But the man is so talkative, it's so in his nature to lead, that Banks struggles to get a word in. That's no slight on either of them; it's just the way things naturally lie. Back when we interviewed the Hounds Below in '12, Stollsteimer insisted that he wanted it to be a real band and not just his band, but that was never going to be the case, given the ages and personalities of those involved (the other members of that band were significantly younger than the singer). With Ponyshow, he's at least grouped himself with two people that he trusts completely, of a similar age, who have the confidence to push their thoughts forward when they need to. Stollsteimer is a big personality and he needs that. Craves it, even.

The references to Pavement and the Pixies are valid. Ponyshow has a sound that is rooted in the '90s — simple bass lines and guitar work providing the framework for dual male-female vocals and Blum's melodic drumming. "I've played with a few drummers and they were all amazing, but with Don it's the weirdest thing," says Stollsteimer. "It's different. Every kick drum hit is on. It's amazing. Leann has the ability to play very difficult bass lines without breaking a sweat, but with this band, it's not what we do. It's like the Motown thing, where they used great jazz musicians who found it easy to play the Motown songs."

Banks was in her early 20s when she joined the Von Bondies, and, in retrospect, that band was starting to wind down. Now 30, she's a lot more experienced and confident. "The only band I'd ever played with before I joined the Von Bondies was Ghost City (with Electric Six's Chris Tait)," says Banks. "It only lasted a year or so — our last show was actually our CD release party. Then I joined the Von Bondies, and I was such a newbie. It took me a minute to find my thing that was me. I'm 30 and I'm still only just coming into what I feel is me. I didn't listen to the Von Bondies before I joined. It was heavy and dark, and I was very into pop — Sloan and the Beatles. But sometimes it's fun to play a couple of notes and really just put it out there and have fun with the whole thing."

It'll be interesting to see how Ponyshow evolves, and you'll get a chance at a first glimpse when the band plays Blowout. Don't expect any Von Bondies tunes, but do expect something interesting from three musicians who are very in tune with each other.

"I always looked at the Blowout as a way to discover bands that you've heard about, and see them live," Stollsteimer says. "Leann's first show with Amy Gore was at Blowout. So if you wanted to see what Leann or Amy or Jackson [Smith] was doing next, you had to go to that show. Now, this will be Ponyshow's first show in Michigan."

Notes for Gary Alvin Weidmayer:

Farming a family tradition Weidmayers worry about future of small farms

By Alana West, Special Writer - PUBLISHED: August 2, 2007

Gary Weidmayer of Bridgewater Township is a farmer, born and bred, and almost always has been. He plants corn, winter wheat and soybeans, raises cattle, and sells hay to stable owners for their horses on a farm that his father bought in 1940. But his family ties to the Manchester area go back further than that. His relatives have lived there since at least 1840, when they helped establish and build Bethel United Church of Christ.

"My great-great-grandfather worked on that," said Weidmayer, who said the ancestors of his wife, Karen, also worked on the project. "They were the Kueblers. It was the Kueblers and Weidmayers who built the church," said Karen Weidmayer, who is a secretary at Manchester High School. Both Gary and Karen have attended Bethel church all of their life.

The family owns 380 acres and rents 750 acres more. Their large, white farmhouse sits on a slight hill amid numerous outbuildings and barns, with two silos tucked behind. He only has two exceptions to his life's work in the farming industry – a three-month stint at a factory and three weeks in the National Guard during the 1967 riots. "I know where I was 40 years ago," he said last week. "I was down there two weeks setting up communications with the 156 signal corps. There was mass confusion. ... After that, everybody needed riot control training."

Something he finds satisfying about farming is taking a tour of his fields on his tractor, especially with his loyal companion, Sparky, the couple's Border Collie, at his side. "That dog will ride the combine, a tractor, the pickup. When the pickup goes down the road, it had better have the dog in it. She will sit and wait for him, or go look for him at the neighbor's," Karen Weidmayer said. Baling hay was on the agenda last Monday, and Gary Weidmayer was a bit discouraged at lunchtime about the decreased amount of hay because of a lack of rainfall. "The last six weeks have been really dry. We don't have irrigation. "We don't have enough acres (of hay), so we can't justify digging a well," Weidmayer said, adding that irrigation would not solve the problem, since that would make the ground too wet in some circumstances to grow hay. "We were hoping for rain, but we get just enough," said Karen Weidmayer. Her husband agreed, remembering the drought of 1988, which ended in mid-July with downpours the rest of the growing year.

Their corn is growing and looks green in the field; however, if there is no rain, the ears may not develop. "The soybeans look good, but if they don't get rain when they're podding up, the pods don't grow," Karen Weidmayer said. She expected the roots of the corn would grow deeper to find water. "Corn is probably our biggest crop here," she said. "It's expensive to grow because of the cost of the fertilizer." The Weidmayers sell the corn to Global Ethanol, a new company in Riga that converts corn to diesel fuel. Weidmayer bought stock in the company because he believes in the future of it as a fuel source, and to help boost the price and demand for corn. Weidmayer said the company uses 50,000 bushels of corn a day, and was getting more efficient at making the product. It sells the by-products as livestock feed, so there is little waste, he said.

Weidmayer is concerned about the future of farming. He foresees a continual decline in the small farm because of the cost of equipment, and the money invested in livestock and crops. "What I look at is, there will be more big farms, not as many small farms," he said. "You plant corn in April or May, and you don't get your money until October or November, and maybe you don't sell it all at once. All of that money is invested. You need to borrow when you need it, and pay it back when you can."

Weidmayer tries to buy and sell cattle every month. He gets double what he pays for them, but he feeds and cares for them for a year before he sells them. It is a big investment, so it helps to have some money coming in every month. Weidmayer served for 14 years on the Farm Credit Board, a board that lends money to farmers, so he knows the bind farmers get into with credit. He knows they need a good banker who knows what they need. During his term on the board, he saw a number of farm foreclosures.

Weidmayer said he used to run a dairy farm, but he and his son, Greg, who had been helping him on the farm, needed to expand and update to make it feasible. They decided to discontinue the dairy side of the business, so Greg got a full-time job with Manchester Village. He helps his father after work, maintaining the farming equipment. The Weidmayer's said they both hope that someday, their son will take over the farm.

The Weidmayer's enjoy the close bond of both of their children living nearby. Their daughter, Amy, and her family live diagonally across the field, from them, with Gary's mother, Irma, on the same road. Greg and his wife, Melanie, are a few houses down. Melanie owns the Manchester Bakery, and Amy was recently elected to the Bridgewater Township Board.

Marriage Notes for Sara Borders and Thomas Cartwright:

Mr. and Mrs. Norman O'Connor of North Lake have announced July 1, 1987 the engagement of their daughter, Sara Borders, to Thomas Cartwright of Muskegon, son of Helen Cartwright of Stone Mountain, Georgia. Sara is a 1981 graduate of Chelsea High School and graduated in 1986 from Central Michigan University. She is a substitute teacher in Orchard View School System of Muskegon. Thomas Cartwright graduated from Orchard View High School in 1978 and Central Michigan University in 1983. He is a recreational therapist at Child and Family Services in Muskegon. An Oct. 24 wedding is being planned.

Sara Lynn Borders of Muskegon, formerly of Chelsea, and Thomas Leonard Cartwright of Muskegon were married Oct. 24, 1987 at St. Paul United Church of Christ in Chelsea. The bride is the daughter of Erma and Norm O'Connor of North Lake. The bridegroom is the son of Helen Cartwright of Stone Mountain, Georgia, and the late Thomas Cartwright. The Rev. Erwin R Koch performed the ceremony before 225 guests. Best man Terry Ireland sang, "The First Time Ever Saw Your Face," and "The Wedding Song."

The bride wore a dress of satin with a modified scoop neck, long sleeves which came to a point, and a chapel train which ended in tiers of ruffles. The bodice and sleeves were accented with lace and seed pearls. Her headpiece was designed of seed pearls with a fingertip-length veil attached. She completed her costume with an antique strand of pearls. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white roses, white carnations, and pale yellow freesias. Dawn Borders, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a tea-length, peacock blue, baroque satin dress and carried a bouquet of pale yellow miniature carnations and baby's breath. Barb Davis and Patti Sweeny, both of Chelsea, and Vikki Kirk of Muskegon were bridesmaids. Their dresses and bouquets were the same as those of the maid of honor. Flower girl Andrea Hulett of Byron, wore a dress similar to that of the bridesmaids and carried a miniature bouquet to match the bridesmaids. She wore a halo of baby's breath. Nicholas Hulett, brother of the flower girl, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow. Best man was Terry Ireland, friend of the bridegroom from Muskegon. Friends of the bridegroom, David Farrell and Jay Allen of Muskegon, and Greg Aerts of Ann Arbor served as ushers. The mother of the bride wore a raspberry tea-length dress. The bridegroom's mother chose a periwinkle blue tea-length dress. Both mothers wore white rose corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Grass Lake Lions Club. Julie Sundling attended the guest book. Michelle Clark and Nancy Heller cut the wedding cake. Hope Sieradski and Jo Thompson poured punch. After a one-week honeymoon trip to Chicago, the couple are making their home in Muskegon. The bride is a 1986 graduate of Central Michigan University and is at present a swim coach and a substitute teacher for Muskegon schools. The bridegroom graduated from Central Michigan University in 1983 and is a recreational therapist with Child and Family Services in Muskegon.

Mark Alan (Chow)¹³ Moehn (Arthur Frederick¹², Tema Louise¹¹ Eisele, Emma Katharina¹⁰ Stollsteimer, Johann Erhardt (Aaron)⁹, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 11 Mar 1960 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 28 Jan 2014. He married Dawn Marie Willard 15 Sep 1990 in Jackson, Michigan, daughter of Ronald Willard and Joyce Conlon. She was born 24 Jul 1968 in Jackson, Michigan.

Notes for Mark Alan (Chow) Moehn:

South Bend - Mark Alan "Chow" Moehn, born on March 11, 1960, to Donna and Arthur Moehn, passed away suddenly from a cardiac event on January 28th, 2014. He lived in Jackson, Michigan, most of his life and for the last fourteen years lived in South Bend, Indiana. Mark was past President of Art Moehn Chevrolet. He began working there when he was old enough to carry a broom and worked every position from scrubbing cars at 14 years old to CEO at 30 years old. He married the love of his life (Dawn Marie Willard) on September 15, 1991, and had an amazing son on March 5, 1992 (Arthur James Moehn). He was a beloved son, brother, father, uncle, and great-uncle to many members of all of his extended family. Mark attended Frost Junior High and Parkside High School in Jackson, Michigan, where he played on the tennis team. He received his B. A. from Northwood Institute in Midland, Michigan. During the years he was in school he was an avid snow skiing and water-skiing competitor. He spent most of the winter weekends at Schuss Mountain and the summers at Wampers Lake and Clark Lake in Michigan, and Diamond Lake in Michigan outside of South Bend. As CEO of Art Moehn Chevrolet, he was very involved in community activities including the Soap Box Derby, Junior Achievement and Rotary. In 1994, he was stricken with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma which he courageously defeated after 2 years at the University of Michigan Hospital. After many setbacks and downfalls caused by the brain damage, he sustained from his cancer treatments, he moved to South Bend, Indiana, to be closer to his sister and her family. He surprisingly succeeded to a new life in South Bend, Indiana; he volunteered extensively with Granger Community Church and at Walt Disney School. He worked out at Knollwood Country Club and was a frequent (and I mean frequent) visitor at Putt-Putt Golf & Games. His family will be eternally grateful for the love and support of his Putt-Putt family. He served as an inspiration to everyone that he met by being outgoing, loving, and never worrying about himself. He had a smile that could light up an entire room, possibly even a building. He was always independent and was always too proud to ask for help, even after multiple medical issues disabling him from doing what he loved to do.

Mark is survived by his ex-wife, Dawn Willard Moehn; his son, Arthur James Moehn of Traverse City, Michigan; his sisters, Deborah (David) Tuttle of Granger, Indiana, Jacqueline (John) Kudner of Clark Lake, Michigan; nieces and nephews, Elizabeth (Derek) Kruas of Boulder, Colorado, Chris (Latisse Kudner), Courtney (Joel Bennett) Scott of South Bend, Indiana, Joe (Allison Hauflaire) Tuttle of Granger, Indiana; and great-nieces, Olivia Tuttle of Granger, Indiana, and Navi Kudner of Clark Lake, Michigan.

Mark's family will be receiving visitors on Tuesday, February 4th, in the evening from 7 to 9 at the Knollwood Country Club in Granger, Indiana. The Funeral Services will be held in Jackson, Michigan. The family is especially grateful to the staff at Tanglewood Trace Assisted Living for their support and care, and to Mark's special friends, Stacey Wickham, Sharon Kaseman-Munoz, Debbie Walton, Sue Miller, Gary Sisk, John and Sue Rice, and his many friends at his favorite place, Putt Putt Golf. Welsheimer Family Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.

COURT OF APPEALS –DECISION - DATED AND FILED

October 1, 1998

Marilyn L. Graves; Clerk, Court of Appeals of

Wisconsin

No.98-0967 STATE OF WISCONSIN COURT OF APPEALS

DISTRICT IV

Fred Eisele and Martha Eisele, Plaintiffs-Appellants, v. Allstate Insurance Company, Defendant-Respondent.

APPEAL from an order of the circuit court for Rock County: Richard T. Werner, Judge. Affirmed. Before Eich, Vergeront and Deininger, JJ.

PER CURIAM. Fred and Martha Eisele appeal a summary judgment order which dismissed their declaratory judgment action for favorable construction of a comprehensive auto insurance policy issued by Allstate Insurance Company. We conclude that the trial court properly determined that the policy at issue did not cover the Eiseles' loss, and we therefore affirm.

Allstate insured the Eiseles' 1981 Corvette under a standard comprehensive coverage policy. In 1996, the Eiseles placed the Corvette with Capitol Corvette for consignment sale. On May 17, 1996, Capitol Corvette sold the vehicle and issued the Eiseles a check in the amount of $10,194.05. Shortly thereafter, however, Capitol Corvette was placed in bankruptcy by its creditors. The bankruptcy trustee eventually obtained a judgment against the Eiseles for the amount of the payment, which was determined to have been a preference. The Eiseles then submitted a claim to Allstate for the loss of the proceeds of the sale of their vehicle. Allstate denied the claim, and the Eiseles sought a judicial determination that the loss was covered by their policy. The trial court granted summary judgment in Allstate's favor.

We are now asked to determine whether the Eiseles' loss was covered. Where, as here, there are no disputed issues of fact, the interpretation of an insurance policy presents a question of law appropriate for summary judgment and de novo review. See Smith v. Atlantic Mut. Ins. Co., 155 Wis.2d 808, 810, 456 N.W.2d 597, 598 (1990). [1] The relevant clause of the insurance policy guaranteed that: Allstate will pay for loss to your insured auto or a non-owned auto not caused by collision. Loss caused by missiles, falling objects, fire, theft or larceny, explosion, earthquake, windstorm, hail, water, flood, malicious mischief or vandalism, and riot or civil commotion is covered. Glass breakage and collision with a bird or animal is covered.

We agree with the trial court that the unambiguous language of the policy limits loss coverage to the automobile itself. We further agree that the undisputed facts show that the Eiseles suffered a loss of money, not a loss to their vehicle. The vehicle had been sold, with the Eiseles' consent, a year before the bankruptcy court ordered the Eiseles to repay the Corvette dealer's estate. Contrary to the Eiseles' contention, we do not believe that a reasonable person in the position of the insured would understand the Corvette to have been an insured automobile under the policy after it was sold to a third party.

Nor are we persuaded by the Eiseles' argument that the term loss should be broadly interpreted to include the loss of proceeds from the sale of a vehicle merely because the list of included losses may have been non-exhaustive. The doctrine of ejusdem generis limits non-enumerated losses to those of the "same kind, class, character or nature" as the given examples. See State v. Ambrose, 196 Wis.2d 768, 777, 540 N.W.2d 208, 212 (Ct. App. 1995); 73 Am. Jur.2d Statutes § 214 (1974). Each of the enumerated types of loss in the Allstate policy deals with some variety of damage to the actual vehicle. The loss of proceeds from the vehicle's sale do not fall within the same category. The trial court properly granted summary judgment in Allstate's favor.

By the Court.—Order affirmed.

Local mother, Deidra Stierle, finds support with cancer battle

Jazzercise instructor says students, staff in her corner

By Alison Marable, Special Writer

PUBLISHED: August 14, 2008

Deidra Stierle's life was the envy of many. She was a healthy, 35-year-old Jazzercise instructor with a good job at a local firm and she had recently returned from a family trip to Disney World. The day Stierle got the call from the hospital, she was a parent helper at her son's preschool. James was a leader at Pooh Corner in Saline because the next day he would be turning 4 years old. Stierle has never forgotten that day in May when the voice over the telephone confirmed that her cells were indeed cancerous. As any mother would, she had to contain herself in front of her son and the other children, finish out the day and then call her husband.

Following her diagnosis of Stage 1 breast cancer, Stierle began a series of four rounds of chemotherapy, to be followed by seven weeks of radiation treatment. As a woman in her 30s, Stierle describes the experience as a "horrible emotional rollercoaster." One doctor told her that she was too young for cancer and that she was simply a "victim of technology." "She was upset by the misleading comments about being a victim of technology," said golfing partner and friend Shelly Butler.

During her first chemotherapy session at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, she looked around the room and noticed that most of the other women were seniors. She noted that some of the hospital staff seemed surprised to be treating someone of her age and were compassionate when they discovered she has such a young child. "I couldn't believe that this could happen to someone as young, active and healthy as Deidra," said close friend Tammy Miller. "It seems like more women in their 30s are being diagnosed and I think it's scary; however, it may be a reflection of better technology and doctors being trained to find it earlier," Stierle said.

Stierle has a master plan in place to keep herself motivated and positive. One step she took to be in control of her situation was to look for information on breast cancer and treatment. "She spent hours on the Internet reading legitimate sites and staying away from the blogs with the horror stories," her husband said. Miller said, "She has extensively researched information about breast cancer and her particular situation so that she is knowledgeable of all the facts, and she is managing her recovery with great fortitude." Stierle is known for her strength and can-do attitude. "She has a fire inside that she channels to help deal with the situation," said her husband. "Her personality is strong, positive and determined," said Miller.

Longtime friend Stephanie McCarthy said Stierle has handled the diagnosis with grace and strength, accepting the side effects that she likely will have from the treatment without one note of self pity. McCarthy will run the Susan G. Komen race for the Cure in Toledo in September and will place the name "Deidra Stierle" on her runner number. "The race will have a more special meaning for me this year," she said.

Stierle credits a large support system for her upbeat attitude. She considers her co-workers at the Saline Jazzercise Center to be family members. "It's more than a place to work out -- we're a sisterhood of sorts," she said. She continues to work and teach Jazzercise, altering her routine to compensate for any fatigue or having other instructors help with classes. "I want her to concentrate on her treatment, work and Jazzercise. The last two are important because it helps her to keep as normal a routine as possible," said Brian Stierle. Her friends at Jazzercise have provided gift cards for iTunes so that she will have new exercise music, items to pamper her during the tough times, comfortable clothes, nutrition cookbooks, and toys for her son. "They are a fantastic bunch and I couldn't ask for more sincere, genuine, caring people than my Jazzercise ladies," Deidra Stierle said.

Stierle has been employed at McNaughton & Gunn for nine years and finds the support at work priceless. Co-worker and friend Terri Conway said, "Here at work she doesn't let this get her down. Her professionalism is still what it has always been and she is on the ball." Stierle offers words of advice to women newly diagnosed with the disease. "Don't panic if you are faced with the word 'cancer' and listen to the doctors and experts rather than well-meaning family and friends," she said. Stierle advises friends and family not to offer unsolicited opinions on what a cancer patient should do or what kind of treatment they should receive. "I think the best thing they can do is offer support, but not advice," she said. Many friends sent cards to her home just letting her know she was in their thoughts. "It's a very simple act, but it means a lot to know people care," she said.

Stierle's parents, Denny and LeeAnne Roberts of Blissfield, her mother-in-law, Barb Stierle of Saline, as well as her 38-year-old sister, Renee Dashner of Blissfield, have been on hand to help with watching and caring for James. Stierle recalls that she and her son have always cuddled while he touched her hair. "To help ease her son into the certainty of losing her hair, she went out and had it cut real short to make the loss a bit less dramatic for James," Butler said. She and her mother also have been making scarves and pins for hats in anticipation of possible hair loss.

In 2006, Stierle's husband underwent surgery for chronic Crohn's disease so he not only had a great role model for being a supportive spouse, but he can now see what it is like to be on the other side. "I understand the worry she went through and I have a greater appreciation for all she did," he said. Their son is too young to know more than the fact that his mother is sick and sometimes won't feel well. Despite his age, he offers his own kind of support. "He is so full of energy that even if she is feeling down, he gets her laughing in an instant and takes her mind off the situation for a while," Brian Stierle said. Deidra Stierle's future plans include taking a cruise with her husband once the holidays are over and her treatment has come to an end. "I love her with all my heart and plan on growing old with her," said her husband.

Notes for Matthew Haab Miller:

Matthew Haab Miller Resident of Walnut Creek Matthew Haab Miller, age 16, died in a tragic accident on February 19, 2011. He is survived by his father Robert, his mother Julie, and his sister Hannah, as well as by grandparents, cousins, aunts and uncles. He will be greatly missed.

A memorial service will be held to celebrate his life at 3:00pm on Sunday, February 27, 2011 at St. Matthew Lutheran Church, 399 Wiget Lane, Walnut Creek, California 94598. Please note the change in time and location of the service.

February 21, 2011 - The deaths of Las Lomas juniors and best friends Matt Miller and Gavin Powell are breaking so many hearts right now. They went missing during a along Walnut Creek on Saturday afternoon — a trip that was to be a President's Day weekend adventure. Hundreds of people joined authorities in the search for the two after they didn't return home. Their bodies were found Sunday along the waterway, about five miles north of where they set out near Murwood Elementary School.

An impromptu memorial sprang up on a small bridge over the creek. Gavin and Matthew apparently launched their raft beneath the bridge on Vanderslice Avenue, near Kayser Court. The parents of both young men, despite being devastated by the worst pain a parent can suffer, took a few moments Monday to celebrate their boys' lives by talking to Walnut Creek Patch about all the ways they loved them, were proud of them and found them to be amazing human beings.

"He could do anything," Bob Miller said about his 16-year-old son, Matt, whom he also called his best friend. Matt was a straight-A student and a gifted musician, athlete and artist. He could paint like American portrait artist John Singer Sargent and discuss politics, such as the transformative events in the Middle East, his dad said. He also was gifted in science and considered studying physics in college. "He was going to be a star," Miller said. "He was going to be great. I miss him so much."

Matt and Gavin shared a love of the outdoors, running and hiking in the open space around Walnut Creek. According to Gavin's mother, Julie Powell, the two practically ran all the way up to the top of Mount Diablo. Matt was in Boy Scouts when he was younger. Miller remembers the time he and his son, in one day, scaled 14,497-foot Mount Whitney, on the eastern side of the Sierra Nevada and the highest peak in the contiguous United States. After they reached the top of the peak, "Matt ran all the way down," Miller said.

Parents of both boys said neither Matt nor Gavin hung with the "popular" crowd, but were well-liked and respected, including among adults, for their kind-hearted, easy-going demeanor. "He would just talk to people and talk to adults," Miller said. "He spoke well."

Matt and his parents, Bob and Julie, and older sister Hannah, with whom he was very close, moved to Walnut Creek when Matt was 5. He attended and Gavin attended. It was at WCI that Matt and Gavin first got to know each other. Both were good math students.

Julie Powell spoke of her only child, Gavin, as being more quiet than his best friend. "He was very sensitive, even as a little kid." Other adults who knew Gavin have said — with fondness and admiration—that he was a little different, maybe a little more dreamy and philosophical. Powell agreed that her son was a bit "eccentric." "He definitely marched to his own drummer," another father said of Gavin, whom he called a smart, thoughtful young man—the kind of boy you wouldn't mind your daughter dating.

Like Matt, Gavin was musically talented and studied piano. The two also shared an interest in world travel. While Matt traveled to various places around the world with his family and taught computer skills to residents of a small community in Nicaragua this past summer, Gavin studied Japanese at Las Lomas High and had developed a fascination with Asian culture. A few years ago, he had become a Buddhist and studied meditation at the Buddha Gate Monastery in Lafayette. Gavin, also a good student, planned to apply to a University of California campus. Beyond college, he wanted to travel, live overseas for a while, perhaps even join the Peace Corps. "He had lots of ambition," his mother said. But Gavin's career ambition didn't center on getting material things, his mother said. He was interested in environmental studies.

Terri Brohard, a neighbor of the Miller family, said many men in Walnut Creek, including Matt's former Scout leaders, are broken up by news of his death. She agreed that neither boy was in the "popular crowd," but in the "responsible" crowd, the crowd admired by staff, teachers and administrators. "Matt was the kind of kid you could talk to like an adult." "He had an adult sensibility and an adult poise and candor," said Brohard, who has two sons, 15 and 18. She and her family knew the Millers through the Indian Valley Swim Club. "He was a beautiful swimmer."

Their decision to go rafting in Walnut Creek on a rainy afternoon was a "blip" in lives that otherwise were sensible and responsible, Brohard said. Bob Miller said he knew something was wrong when he went to Gavin's house at 11 p.m. Saturday and neither boy was there. He and his wife tried calling and texting him. His failure to respond, so unlike Matt, prompted them to call police, who responded immediately and learned about the rafting trip. Bob Miller expressed gratitude at the quick response of police and of the community, even as he mourns the loss of his son. "I was so proud of him," he said.

A candlelight walk organized by students will take place Wednesday evening in the Shell Ridge Open Space, where Matt and Gavin liked to hike. A memorial service for Matthew Miller will be at 2 p.m. Sunday at Congregation B'nai Tikvah, 25 Hillcroft Way, Walnut Creek. Services for Gavin Powell are pending.

Notes for Richard C. Shoop:

Richard "Dick" C. Shoop, 87, of Sun City West, Arizona passed away on September 5, 2009. He was born February 27, 1922 in Sandusky Ohio and was raised in Michigan. He attended Lawrence Technical Institute and thereafter managed and owned Patterson Laboratories in the Detroit area. He was also a retired U.S Air Force pilot who by way of his keen flying skills was selected to train B-17 pilots during the tenure of World War II. Though Dick never flew in combat he quietly and without self-praise recalled harrowing tales of life as an instructor pilot and the sadness that came with reading of so many of their deaths in the European or Pacific theaters. He persevered with his flying and the US Air Force and honorably retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in March, 1972.

Dick was always a business man and many of his friends and associates were champions of various industries. He was an avid sportsman with many golf, handball, and speed skating triumphs over the years. He succeeded in a variety of real estate ventures in Michigan and made his way to the Valley of the Sun in the 1980's. Dick has lived in Fountain Hills, Prescott, and Sun City West, Arizona. His interests were varied but he took special care to be an excellent Rotarian (Paul Harris Fellow) with perfect attendance for forty years. He was a Mason, a supporter of many and varied benevolent and charitable agencies, and a loyal member of his church. The Shepherd of the Hills United Methodist Church has been his spiritual home through the joys, successes and trials of life and a comfort in his last days. Dick is survived by wife and friend Joan Shoop and family; daughters Dr. Sherry Gearhart of Allen Park, Michigan and Karen Brandt of Austin, Texas; step-sons John and James Colson of Glendale, Arizona and Dr. Michael Colson of Kamuela HI; and numerous grand-children and other family. In accordance with his wishes a family-centered Memorial Service celebrating his life and generosity will be conducted by Pastor Larry Gerber along with Pastor Emeritus Franklin Greene on Thursday, September 10, 2009 at 2:00 o'clock at Shepherd of the Hills United Methodist Church, 13658 W. Meeker Blvd., Sun City West, Arizona 85375.

Notes for Susan Carol (Sue) Aichele:

Susan Carol Jones (nee Aichele), beloved wife of the late Dick Jones, passed away at the age of 86 on Sunday, December 1, 2024. Sue was born in Cleveland in 1938 to Louis and Dorothy Aichele (nee Brunner) and was quite the spoiled baby sister to Louis and George. She was a proud 1956 graduate of West Tech High School and went on to have a successful career in telecommunications, retiring early from Sohio/BP. Sue loved spending summers at her parent's cottage at Geauga Lake and throughout her life enjoyed family get-togethers where her taco salad and cheesecake were legendary. As a mother of all girls, it was common, much to their chagrin, to dress them all in matching outfits insisting on only white knee socks. She loved ladybugs, feeding the critters that frequented her backyard, pretzels with cream cheese and all things red, white and blue. Being a grandmother and great-grandmother, however, was by far the thing that brought her the most happiness. She enjoyed attending the many things they were involved in and loved taking them to the zoo. As the grandkids grew up to have their own families, zoo passes were a gift of choice to keep visits going. She bragged like only a grandmother and great-grandmother could do and her family was her pride and joy.

Sue is survived by her daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Kim Wade / Bo Dunigan; Debbie & Art Neuman / Tiffeny & PJ Anderson (Emma, Clara) / Arthur & Sarah Neuman / Jaclyn & Marcus Borman (Isabella, Maxton, Grace) / Nicole & Jake Shaker (Kristina, Jacob, Jianna); Lisa Riedel / Jessica Hale & Cody Behunin (Azlynn, Landon, Addisyn, Brynlee) / Richard Hale (McKenna, Sydney); Dawn & Curtis Henderson / Ian & Olivia Bowman-Henderson (Parker) / Maggie & William Tittle / Camryn Henderson.

She was preceded in death by Lori Kelly, survived by Melissa & Tim Noel (Timmy, Matt, Andrew, Jenna) / Daina & Ian Grimaldi (Eleanore, Franklin) / Alex & Beth Kelly (Harrison, Robin).

Friends will be received at Nosek-McCreery Funeral Home, 8150 Brecksville Rd., Brecksville, Ohio 44141 on Saturday, January 11, 2025 from 11:00am-1:00 pm where a short celebration of life will begin at 1:00 pm.

She married William Upton Ruddock 22 Jun 1944 in Ft. Riley, Kansas. He was born 18 Jan 1926 in Gonzales Co, Texas, and died 12 Jul 2018 in Gonzales Co, Texas.

Notes for Esma Rae Whiddon:

Esma Rae Whiddon Ruddock, 80, of Gonzales, went to her Lord and Savior on Sunday, July 6, 2008. She was born March 8, 1928 in the Pilgrim Community of Gonzales County to Leslie W. and Bernie R. Plowman Whiddon. She married William Upton Ruddock June 22, 1944 in Ft. Riley, Kansas. She was a member of Emmanuel Fellowship Church. Rae, as she was more commonly known, was faithful to the Lord, loving to her children and as "Momo", she was equally as faithful and loving to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren who will cherish her memory hold their love for "Momo" forever in their hearts.

She is survived by her adoring husband of 64 years, Upton Ruddock of Gonzales; son and daughter-in-law, Terry Lynn and Debbie Ruddock of Gonzales; son-in-law, Tim Allen of Gonzales; brother and sister-in-law, Plowman and Mary Jane Whiddon of Gonzales; grandchildren, Wade and Angie Ruddock, Will and Jennifer Ruddock, Blake and Donna Allen, Renee and Chris Lamb and Becky Allen; great-grandchildren, Roger Beene, Reagan Ruddock, Allen Beene, Kate Ruddock, Peyton Ruddock, J.T. Allen, Weston Ruddock, Haley Lamb and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and beautiful daughter, Sherry Allen.

Notes for William Upton Ruddock:

William Upton Ruddock, 93, of Gonzales passed from this life to everlasting life in heaven on Friday, July 12, 2019. Upton was born January 18, 1926 in Gonzales County to Henry and Janie Weston Ruddock. He married Esma Rae Whiddon on June 22, 1944 in Ft. Riley, Kansas. As a young man, he joined the United States Army Calvary during WWII. Notably, this was the last equine Calvary Unit in the United States Army. Upton's unit was sent to navigate through the jungles, mountains, rivers and mangrove swamps of Burma to take the Burma Road back from the forces of Imperial Japan. After honorably serving his country, Upton returned to Gonzales and started Ruddock Vaccinating Service, Inc., a poultry vaccinating service that led him deeper into his love of agriculture. Upton started buying cattle and grew his cattle operation through hard work and a natural business sense. Upton's word and his handshake were more reliable than any contract ever written.

Upton and Rae enjoyed 64 years of marriage and had two children, Terry Lynn and Sheryl Denise. Rae passed away on July 6, 2008. Upton later married Mary Wood and together they lived happily the balance of Upton's life. Upton was a member of the First Baptist Church. Upton loved spending time with his immediate and extended family. He also loved his community and served faithfully on numerous boards and committees. He loved hunting, fishing, throwing horseshoes and washers, playing tennis and dominoes. Upton loved competition. He loved to win, but occasionally "lost" just so his playing partners would come back to play again. Upton loved his family, friends and the outdoors, but first and foremost in his life was his relationship with the Lord. He loved the Lord and lived his life in a way that showed that love to others. He would want to take this opportunity to encourage each of us to do the same and to share the love of Jesus with as many others as we can.

Upton taught his children and grandchildren many valuable lessons in the course of his life, but none more resounding than the manner in which he lived his life. He was a Christian gentleman with unquestioning faith. Certainly, Upton lived by the Word of God and one simple truth from the scripture 1 John 4:16 "God is Love, and he who abides in Love abides in God, and God in him" may well be the cornerstone of that which made Upton Ruddock the caring, conscientious and generous man he was humbly renown.

William Upton Ruddock is survived by his adoring family: wife, Mary Ruddock; son and daughter-in-law, Terry and Debbie Ruddock all of Gonzales; grandchildren, Wade Ruddock (Angie), Will Ruddock (Jennifer), Blake Allen, Renee Lamm (Chris), Becky Young (Randy); and 12 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; an infant sister; two brothers, Weston Ruddock and Mack Ruddock; daughter, Sherry Allen; and wife, Rae Ruddock.

Notes for Emma Connie Attard:

Emma "Connie" Rentz passed away unexpectedly on Friday, July 20, 2018, surrounded by her children and grandsons. Connie was born to Emmanuele and Carmela Attard on November 2, 1936 in Detroit, Michigan. She is survived by her sons, Jerry Rentz and wife Lisa and Kirk Rentz and wife Stephanie; grandsons, Bryan Fischer, Brent Fischer and wife Courtney, Austin Rentz, Reagan Rentz, Devin Rentz, and Carter Rentz; great-grandchildren, Kali Fischer and Alivia Fischer; brother, John Attard; sisters, Melita Grech and Diann Maisel; along with numerous nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her husband, Jerry Rentz; daughter, Karen Rentz; and sisters, Rita Van Zeck, Josephine Langston and Jean Warren.

Connie grew up in Detroit, Michigan in a large happy home. Her parents immigrated from Malta before she was born, and she was very proud of her Maltese heritage. Her father worked hard at Ford Motor Co. where Connie would eventually work as well. Her mother was the matriarch of the family and made sure the children and household were taken care of which is what Connie would later do for her own family. Connie met the love of her life, Jerry, on the beach in Florida where her family spent their summers. Jerry was on leave from the Navy and this is where their love story began. He would eventually ask for her hand in marriage and they later married in Dearborn, Michigan. Together, they lived a military life until Jerry finished his service. After that time, they moved to Texas where they both worked until they started their family. Connie told many stories as to the hard times they faced raising a family and working long hours just to put food on the table. In 1960, Jerry opened Rentz Electric where he and Connie would ultimately work as a team to build a business they would eventually turn over to their sons. Connie and Jerry moved their family from Canyon Lake to Boerne, TX where they remained until their retirement to Rockport, Texas in 1996.

Connie was a devoted Catholic and had a deep faith and relationship with the Lord. She loved her family unconditionally and would go to the ends of the Earth for her family and grandchildren. In her mind, they could do no wrong. Grandma was known to chase the kids down, with medicine in hand, to treat whatever bumps, bruises or scrapes they might have. She was an amazing cook and everyone looked forward to her meals, especially during Thanksgiving and Christmas. Connie was a strong, outspoken, no nonsense lady. There was never a doubt in anyone's mind where she stood on issues and she was not shy about letting you know. She loved the mountains in Colorado, hunting and fishing with Jerry, one arm bandits in Vegas, playing Mahjong, and shopping.

Connie missed her soulmate, Jerry, every day for the remainder of her life. Her family draws comfort in knowing she is in the presence of the Lord and free to enjoy eternal life in heaven. There she was met by her husband, daughter and loved ones. She will be deeply missed.

The Funeral will be held Tuesday, July 24, 2018, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church with Interment following at the Boerne Cemetery. Arrangements with Ebensberger-Fisher Funeral Home of Boerne.

Notes for Kenneth V. Tate:

Kenneth V. Tate or (Poppa Tate as most knew him) turned out the lights and locked up the ball park early Sunday morning January 8th. Poppa Tate first stepped up to the plate in Surgoinsville Tennessee on November 2, 1934. His parents Milburn and Madgie Tate made this possible. Poppa Tate had a passion for sports his whole life with a special passion for baseball and softball. In the first few innings of his life Poppa Tate served our county in the Air Force as a Staff sergeant from 1956-1976. He served an additional 10 years as a Civil Servant. While stationed in Thailand during the Vietnam War, he was the recreation director for soldiers on furloughs. Poppa Tate umpired many leagues, both on and off military bases for many years.

Poppa Tate's love for Sports led him to over 25 years of refereeing and umpiring, High School, College, semi-pro, and professional sports. He was blessed to extensively travel the US while officiating the sports he loved. Poppa Tate was most known for calling them as he saw them. This was true behind the plate as well as in the game we call life. If he saw you walking by, whether he knew you or not, he would call out in his booming umpire voice to get your attention Hey Sis, Hey Boy, Girl, get over here. He never met a stranger, always greeted everyone with a joke and a smile. You could always hear Old Gospel, Country, or Bill Gaither flowing out of his music box, or find him reading his scriptures. These things, and family, are what he valued most with a close second being a good ball game. During the middle innings in life he would be found either working his own convenience store or running one for someone else - he was always serving the public. For that 7th inning stretch you could find Poppa Tate working with Triple D Security where he was entrusted with more money daily than most of us see in our life. Poppa Tate was loved and will forever be in the hearts of all who had the fortune to encounter him, whether at the game or in life.

Kenneth Tate was preceded in death by his wife Melva "Beeson" Tate, Parents, Sisters: Ruth Starnes, Hattie Mae Cox, Bobbie Lou Britton, and Alberta Pyle-Shelton. Brothers: Edison Tate, Milburn Tate JR, George Tate, and Joe Tate. He is survived by Carolyn Lane, Nancy Rhea, and Carlos (Chick) Tate all of Tennessee.

The game that he started goes on with his surviving children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She married William Marvin Thelan 02 Jul 1983 in Dallas Co, Texas. He was born 28 Mar 1954.

Notes for Deborah Kay Berlin:

Deborah Kay Berlin Thelen was born on February 18, 1956 in Lansing, Michigan to parents Patricia Louise and Lawrence Charles Berlin. She was a sister to David Berlin and Denise (Berlin) Ilieff. Deborah was always a protector of the people close to her. At a young age, Deborah's father passed away, forcing her mother to work long hours to support the three children. Deborah always stood up to protect Denise and David acting as a mother figure at times. Deborah, David, and Denise enjoyed golfing, tennis, bowling, and roller skating together. She had an immense love for the arts, including her love of painting and ballet. Deborah and her husband, William (Bill) Marvin Thelen met during Bill's senior year at Michigan State University. She was extremely supportive of Bill while he attended Michigan State and after his graduation. Bill moved to Texas in search of better opportunities, and Deborah remained in Lansing, Michigan. Bill and Deborah continued to communicate while Bill was in Texas which tested their relationship, but Bill and Deborah realized they did not want to be without each other. Six months later, Deborah took a leap of faith and boarded the airplane with an African violet on her lap that was given to her by Bill. While in Texas, their love for each other continued to grow. One day Bill proposed to Deborah at the top of Reunion Tower in the restaurant that revolved and overlooked Dallas, Texas. This place symbolized their future life in Dallas, Texas.

Bill and Deborah were married on July 2, 1983 at All Saints Catholic Church in Dallas, Texas. Prior to starting their family, they traveled to Hawaii, New York City, Puerto Rico, Colorado, and San Francisco, enjoying each other's company. After purchasing their first home in Carrollton, Texas, they started a family. Nicholle Lindsey Thelen was born on July, 5 1989, and William Ryan Thelen II was born on August 29, 1993. In order to raise her two children, Deborah sacrificed her career to stay at home as a full time mother. She was a selfless mother, never asking for anything, and was always concerned about the well-being of her family. She extolled her children and raised them to value education and exude confidence. She always taught them to honor their word, and she stressed the importance of responsibilities.

Deborah was never afraid to laugh and play with Nicholle and Ryan, even crawling on her knees just to entertain them. She always put her family before herself, doing whatever she could to make her family feel loved and happy. She would gently wake up her children in morning with a kiss, write notes in their lunches that she prepared, and send messages every day to tell them how much she loved them. To give her children better opportunities, she moved her family to Plano, Texas, in 1994, allowing them to enroll in a reputable school district. Always making sure her children excelled in life, she encouraged them to explore different interests and supported the pursuits they chose. Deborah was very artistic and enjoyed crafts. She used her creativity to assist Nicholle and Ryan with school projects. She encouraged faith and spread the message of the Lord through her selfless actions and love. She never valued herself over others. She genuinely cared about everyone and not just those close to her. She loved all and treated others as if they were part of her family. By her doing this, she created an even bigger family not bound by blood but love. Deborah will always be remembered for spirit. She lived a life filled with laughter and joy. Through her presence and impact on the lives of others, she will continue to live. No words here can express her exceptional role as a wife, mother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend to those she love.

Husband William Marvin Thelen, daughter Nicholle Lindsey Thelen and her fiancé David Bechtel, son William Ryan Thelen II, step-father Larry Knuth, brother David Berlin, sister Denise Ilieff and her husband Andrew, brothers-in-law Paul Thelen and his wife Ann, Luke Thelen and his wife Jane, Lawrence Thelen and his wife Ellen, Phillip Thelen, Stanley Thelen and his wife Patricia, Dennis Thelen and his wife Dianna and sister-in-law Denise Cushion. Deborah was preceded in death by her father Lawrence Charles Berlin, mother Patricia Louise Berlin Knuth, father-in-law Jerome Thelen, mother-in-law Genevieve Thelen, brother-in-law James Thelen, sister-in-law Diane Urbanik and her husband Anthony Urbanik.

Notes for Shane Matthew Stierley:

To David W. and Juanita Stierley, 1212 Alsdorf, a son, Shane Matthew, Dec. 30, 1982 at Sparrow Hospital.

Holt - On Tuesday morning Jan. 9, 2007 Army Sgt. Shane Stierley was back in the danger zone, Stierley's new wife, Jessica, was in labor with the couple's first child and Stierley's mother, Juanita Zdawczyk, was at her desk in a local doctor's office, sounding about as worried as a mother can sound. "I wish he was home," Zdawczyk said. "I was upset when they sent him back there." But, send him back they did. On Thanksgiving Day, Stierley, a graduate of Holt High School, returned to Iraq for a second tour of duty. "I can't tell you where he is exactly; I'm not even supposed to know, myself," said Zdawczyk, who lives in Delhi Township. "But it's dangerous." Meanwhile, Zdawczyk was painfully aware that President Bush, after weeks of rumors, was expected to announce a plan to beef up the U.S. presence in Iraq. This, she knew, did not bode well for a family reunion any time soon.

If Stierley's name sounds familiar, it may be because he was, for a while, the State Journal's eyes and ears on the front lines of the war in Iraq. Early in the aftermath of "Shock and Awe" we published Stierley's e-mail dispatches from the war zone under the heading "A Message From the Front." For the most part, they were the wide-eyed observations of a 21-year-old kid who had spent little time away from home before joining the Army. In one his first e-mails Stierley, who was in Kuwait and Iraq for a year starting in November 2002, wrote: "For me and my unit ... it is exhilarating. We have waited and planned for this and now we'll get to put our training into action." He wrote about sand storms and camels and his support for the war: "I know people have their doubts but I support my president, and my commander in chief," he wrote. "Not only because he is my boss, but because I believe in him. As do a lot of others out here."

Zdawczyk said her son's enthusiasm for the war as well as his faith in the overall mission has waned considerably since those days. In fact, she briefly considered forwarding me a copy of a recent e-mail in which Sgt. Stierley described the depth of his disenchantment, but she thought better of it. Zdawczyk said President Bush will have her full attention tonight when he outlines his plan for the next phase of the war. "I was all for the president sending the troops," she said, "but now I'm looking for some kind of resolution." At the end of the business day Tuesday, Jessica Stierley was still in labor.

William Leroy¹⁴ Laubengayer (LeRoy Henry¹³, Katharina Maria Dorothea¹² Hirth, Martin Heinrich (Henry)¹¹, Christine Dorothea¹⁰ Stollsteimer, Christina Katharina⁹, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born May 1934 in California. He married (1) Judith Rae Blaisdell 06 Dec 1958. She was born Aft. 1932. He married (2) Lynn Susan Halliday 01 Sep 1984 in Wood Co, Ohio. She was born 19 Feb 1940.

Notes for William Leroy Laubengayer:

Sept. 12, 1996 - He creates piece of air-mail history - Giant model plane hangs in Marshall Postal Museum - William Laubengayer would love to fly planes. He can't though, because he has epilepsy. But ever since the Battle Creek resident was 6 years old, he has gotten as close as he can to flying. Over the past 56 years, Laubengayer has made hundreds of model airplanes, the latest and biggest of which is now on display at the Marshall Postal Museum. This (model-building) is my outlet for not being able to fly," Laubengayer said.

After a trip to Smithsonian Institution's National Postal Museum in Washington, D.C., where he saw a huge model air mail plane on display, Marshall Postmaster Mike Schragg decided the Marshall museum needed one. Every year he adds something new to the museum. "My dream was to get an airplane," said Schragg, who then asked Laubengayer to build it. In April, Laubengayer began work on the model 1918 de Havilland DH4 air mail plane. A hip replacement set him back a little, but Laubengayer finished the plane last week. Overall, it took Laubengayer, who worked from design plans of the actual plane, about three months to complete. Schragg paid for the materials while Laubengayer donated his labor. The plane was hung from the museum's ceiling just in time for the 1996 Marshall Home Tour, the only time the museum is open to the public. (Other times, by appointment) The bright yellow model, which has two sets of wings and an open cockpit, is one-fourth the size of the actual plane. Its wingspan is 10.5 feet and the plane's body is 8 feet long. It weighs about 25 pounds, and could be flown by remote if Schragg wanted. It won't be, though, for fear of harming it, he said. The U.S. Postal Service bought the DH-4 planes after they were used in World War I. It marked the beginning of U.S. air-mail service. The planes, 4,800 of which were built, were flown up until the 1930s, Schragg said.

Laubengayer said building the plane was special for him because he worked for the Postal Service in Ann Arbor, spending five years as a mail carrier while attending Eastern University. The retired chemist said it that was his favorite job. "I love the post office. I should have stayed with the post office instead of going to these other jobs. They are never as satisfying as the post office."

Ironwood, Michigan - Miss Judith Rae Blaisdell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blaisdell, 320 E. Cloverland Dr., and William LeRoy Laubengayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Laubengayer, 1400 Normandy Rd., Ann Arbor, were united in marriage at lovely early winter wedding Saturday noon Dec. 6, 1958 at the Salem Lutheran Church. The Rev. Earl G. Gustafson performed the nuptial ceremony. The bride was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by father. She chose a Directoire wedding gown of lustrous silk brocade in a warm candlelight hue. The sculptured bodice was designed a band of self-fabric which defined the crescent neckline. Her fitted sleeves tapered to a graceful bracelet length where they were accented by the tiniest of covered buttons. A small bow emphasized the empire line where inverted pleats fell gently into a belled skirt, covered buttons held the patterned brocade in a chapel train that created aisle resplendent beauty mantilla of imported Belgian lace, webbed in a delicate floral pattern, fell gracefully to a length. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Jann Trethewey was the maid of honor. Colleen Blaisdell, sister, of the bride, and Miss Karen Laubengayer, sister of the groom, Ann Arbor, served as the bridesmaids. Their identically styled ballerina length gowns were an iridescent jewel green taffeta. The bodices were designed with soft folds which enhanced the scooped necklines. Their sleeves tapered to a becoming bracelet length. Pert empire bows held the contoured center princess panniers which held the waist encircling midriffs. Self-cording caught the lustrous silk in deep bouffant folds that added to their recessional charm. They wore ivy garlands in their hair.

James Johnson, Ann Arbor, Dr. A. Trethewey and LaVerne Tattersall, Owosso, were the best man and groomsmen respectively. Serving as ushers were Richard Amdahl, Eau Claire, Wisconsin, of the bride, and Dennis Gates, Big Rapids, cousin of the groom. The acolytes were James Williams and Robert Anderson.

A reception and dinner for 250 guests was served at the National Guard Armory following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. William Laubengayer will reside at 602 E. Main St., Owosso.

Notes for Madison Elswick Eger:

Our Story (told by Madison Eger Ginnebaugh)

Our story started over 10 years ago, when we met while both enrolled in the junior sailing program at the Grosse Pointe Club. We quickly became friends, bonding over the fact that I had been coached by Kevin's brothers for several summers prior. For the next few years, our paths really only crossed during the summer months. We always kept in touch though: frequently picking up the phone to vent to each other about our hectic college course loads and sharing details of our recent sailing ventures.

When I moved back to Grosse Pointe in the spring of 2016, we almost immediately started running into each other pretty regularly. Every time it happened; we would vow to meet up soon. After all, we were finally living in the same state after so many years apart. We were both so busy though; Kevin started medical school that fall and I was still easing into my first real job. The timing was never right. Before we ever got the chance to do anything together, we would be bumping into each other at Costco again, making the same plans we tried (and failed) to make a few weeks before.

This continued for nearly a year until we ended up at the same sailing regatta early in the summer of 2017. Finally! An opportunity to spend time together was laid right out in front of us and we couldn't pass it up even if we wanted to. It was during that weekend that we were reminded of all our shared interests and how much we enjoy each other's presence. Even though our friendship had been long-distance for nearly a decade, it felt like we had hardly spent a day apart. We were (and still are) completely inseparable. By the end of the event, Kevin was already joking about marriage: at one point even getting down on one knee in the Bayview Yacht Club parking lot and proposing with a Coors Light. I wasn't able to give him an answer then, but almost a year and a half later he traded in the beer for a ring and I couldn't say couldn't say yes fast enough.

4349 iii. Samuel R. (Sammy) Haun, born 15 Jun 1984.

Notes for Samuel R. (Sammy) Haun:

Samuel Haun grew up in East Texas with a very artistic family. After graduating from Longview High School, he traveled the world as a steel worker building satellite earth stations. In 2001, he joined the United States Navy and served directly in the Joint Task Force Horn of Africa campaign aboard the USS Mount Whitney. After serving in more than 25 cities and in over nine countries, he returned home with an honorable discharge and the desire to put his life experiences towards a new passion of film making.

A self-taught Texas film maker, Haun started his own video production company in early 2006, the same year his son Ayden was born. He directed and produced music videos, documentaries, television commercials and short films for festival circuits. He developed a strong knowledge of how to construct heavy visual environments with the resources around him, and often without the luxury of financial support.

Haun's music video "Firestorm", for the band The Vehicle Reason, was featured by Sennheiser USA as a worldwide premier. "Hank and Jim", his dark comedy short film, premiered at the Blood Bath Film Festival in Dallas, Texas. These projects allowed him to find his own natural style with limited resources and only a few talented crew members. He truly began developing his skills as a Director and Cinematographer by working as a photographer & camera operator on features "Boggy Creek", "Humans VS Zombies", and "Bernie" and as Director of Photography/2nd Unit Director for the independent feature, "Patient Zero". In early 2012, he directed the opening title sequence for William Kaufman's "One in the Chamber", a film starring Cuba Gooding, Jr. and Dolph Lundgren.

Haun's strong networking skills allowed him to work with many great Texas film makers including Richard Linklater and William Kaufman, experiences which inspire Haun to push himself artistically by trusting his instincts to reach his unlimited potential. The end result is ongoing but has produced a new artistic focus through the works of his most excited project and feature length directorial debut in "Project 112."

4353 ii. Seth Taccola, born 2002.

Notes for Seth Taccola:

Oak Forest senior offensive lineman Seth Taccola excels on the field and in the classroom for the Bengals. The first time Seth Taccola put on a pair of shoulder pads was his freshman season at Oak Forest. Up until that point, Taccola had only played flag football. "I was a little nervous at first," Taccola said of playing with equipment. "I wanted to see how I would stack up playing with pads."

As it turned out, Taccola, a 5-foot-11, 215-pound senior offensive lineman, had nothing to be nervous about. Flag football had prepared him well for the rigors of contact football. "Playing flag football was a big help for getting me ready for high school football," Taccola said. "It taught me to play on both sides of the line and to learn plays. I really didn't think it was a big difference playing with pads."

Taccola is part of a senior class that has won a lot of football games at Oak Forest. The class went 8-1 as freshman and 9-0 as sophomores. It hit a little bump in the road last season, finishing 6-4 as juniors. However, as seniors, they've regained their winning form, boasting a 3-0 mark heading into a Friday matchup against rival Bremen. And they don't plan on slowing down any time soon. "I think it's fair to say that," Taccola said when asked if the Bengals were on a mission this year. "There was some friction last year between the seniors and juniors. But we have the band (seniors) back together from our freshman and sophomore years. We want to go undefeated." Taccola has been a major reason for the Bengals' success, providing a steadying influence on the offensive line and in the locker room, according to Oak Forest coach Brian McDonough. "He's a great kid and a wonderful leader," McDonough said. "Seth is an outstanding lineman. He works extremely hard. He's just an all-around great kid." A kid who also cherishes giving back to his community, as he participates in events that enhance the lives of senior citizens. He also excels in the classroom, having amassed a 6.05 GPA and scored 32 on the ACT. A member of the National Honor Society, he currently ranks No. 8 in the senior class.

His older brother, Luke, a sophomore at UIC, played football for four years at Oak Forest. Younger brother Mark is on the sophomore team. "We're pretty competitive," Taccola said of his siblings. "My parents always stressed the importance of academics, ever since I was 6 years old. I've always wanted to be the best in each subject."

While football has provided Taccola with great memories, he's prepared to hang up his cleats after this season. Yes, he enjoys the game. But the combination of working toward a chemical engineering degree and the time demands of playing college football have made the decision to give the game up an easy one. "I love the game, but I don't want it to take over my life," Taccola said. "It's a big commitment at the college level. I have to set myself up for the rest of my life and football isn't going to do that. Getting a good degree and a good job will."

He isn't certain where he'll attend college, though he counts Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Northwestern as top choices. Taccola has been dealing with some injuries the past two seasons. He tore a labrum in his left shoulder last season and has incurred some aches and pains in both knees. However, it's not enough to idle him. There's too much at stake. He wants to help his teammates produce an unforgettable season. "We have a good shot to make some noise in conference and in the 6A playoffs," Taccola said. "We have to stay together and do what we need to do. This is a very unique group. We're pretty confident looking ahead."

4354 iii. Mark Taccola, born 2004.

Notes for Linda Louise Wymore:

Quincy resident Linda Louise Wymore passed from this life unexpectedly, early Wednesday morning November 5th, 2008, at the University of California Medical Center in Sacramento, California, with her loving family at her side. Born July 14th, 1951 to the late Kenneth and Hilma (Berg) Wymore in Pomona, California, the family moved from Pomona to Victorville, California in 1964 where Linda attended Victor Valley High School and graduated as a member of the "Class of 1969". Linda went on to attend Victor Valley Junior College before becoming a pre-med student at San Diego State College. She graduated from San Diego State with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Bio-Chemistry in 1976. On October 18th, 1980 in San Diego, California she married the love of her life and best friend Martin "Marty" Byrne, a handsome young man whom she met while attending Junior College. To this union three sons with hair as firey as their mothers were born. Linda has been a resident of Quincy for the past fourteen and a half years relocating here with her family from San Diego where she had resided for thirteen years prior.

Linda was a devout member of the Quincy Community United Methodist Church and was involved in multiple ministries of the church. She served as a Lay Speaker, Chair of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee and as the Secretary of the Administration Council. Linda loved to study and be a part of the political scene. She was the Plumas County representative to the California Democratic Committee and enjoyed social networking and expressing her views and that of her party. An avid reader, Linda enjoyed a wide range of books, especially those dealing with world events, politics, Native American cultures and extra-terrestrials. Above all Linda had a passion to ensure that the provision of educational services was provided to students with special needs. As the Family Empowerment Coordinator of Plumas Rural Services she was respected for her tenacity in ensuring that these services along with In Home Respite Care services were available to all those in need.

In passing Linda leaves her husband of twenty eight years; Marty Byrne, son and daughter-in-law; Kenny and Aurora Byrne of Concord, California, sons; Tim Byrne, currently attending Western Washington University and Brendan Byrne of Quincy, California, her precious two grandchildren, Anjali and Joseph Byrne along with her sisters, Carol Hanson of San Diego, California and Chris Kelly of Surprise, Arizona.

She will be greatly missed by a vast network of friends and family. Linda will be greeted in heaven by the Lord who she so dearly loves and trusts, by her parents, a brother and other family and friends who have preceded her in passing. A celebration of Linda's life will take place 2:00PM Sunday November 9th, 2008 at her beloved Community United Methodist Church of Quincy, California. An opportunity to express your condolences to the family along with signing the memorial guest register is available online at www.fehrmanmortuary.com. The family suggests any remembrances in Linda's memory be made to either Plumas Rural Services Empowerment Center or their ALIVE Program or the Kiwanis Family House of Sacramento, California, c/o Fehrman Mortuary and Crematory P.O. Box 53 Quincy, California 95971.

My name is Zana DeJong and I am a Kansas native that was transplanted into South Dakota after getting married. I graduated from Kansas State University in 2011 and started working for Goessel High School in June. During my six years at Goessel I served as the agricultural education instructor, FFA advisor, assistant high school volleyball and girls basketball coach, as well as a volunteer summer softball coach. Outside of being at school I was active in volunteering for our county 4-H fair, my local church, and traveling to my home town of Hiawatha Kansas to visit my family. My chapter focused on creating a well-rounded chapter which led us to be a top 10 National Chapter finalists for the last three of my six years. Each proficiency award I took to districts competed at state with one National qualifier. I served as the district FFA advisor for one year, have had two district officers, and multiple top five state teams, and top 10 state individuals. I love to provide unique opportunities for my students to explore what the agricultural industry has, think bigger than our own chapter, and live with a servants heart.

In June 2017, I was blessed to get married to Wyatt DeJong. Wyatt was also an agricultural education instructor in Winner South Dakota where we lived. We worked together with his chapter, local 4-H club, and his family ranch to keep us busy. Wyatt has a distinguished FFA history serving as district, state, and a national officer. He has extensively traveled the world, facilitated many conferences, and prides himself on leadership development both at chapter and state levels. We are overjoyed to be able to work in Wood River and look forward to utilizing his expertise in livestock judging, biotechnology, horse judging, Parliamentary procedure, and vet science CDE's. Wyatt will be working on expanding DeJong Ranch in Nebraska this next year. He enjoys working with show animals and the top tier of the family's herd. You will be able to find him attending many national shows showcasing what the ranch has to offer.

I enjoy being in the classroom and the challenge of finding out how each student learns best. I have developed my curriculum to be very hands-on oriented, challenging, but also very rewarding for students. I will always keep my students best interests in mind, push them to be more than they think, and support them in all of their endeavors.

If I was ever asked where I would end up living, I'm confident that Wood River, Nebraska wouldn't have made the short list. It could be because two years ago I didn't know it even existed. However, as luck, prayer, and faith intervened, Wood River has become our home away from home and I couldn't be happier about that. My name is Zana DeJong, the agricultural education instructor and FFA Advisor. I started off this adventure of life outside of Salem, Nebraska where my family lived on the state line. Due to the proximity to Kansas and my mother being a teacher in Kansas, I never attended school in Nebraska. I grew up participating in 4-H, helping on the family farm, and being watched by my grandparents' dairy where the work ethic, determination, and compassion were instilled in me by my family.

I graduated from Hiawatha High School in 2007 where I had been active in FFA, athletics, band, and many clubs and organizations. I was very thankful to go to a school that provided many opportunities even if that meant I was constantly busy going from one event to the next. After some soul searching and college visits, I landed on a major in agricultural education at The Kansas State University. I was proud to become a Wildcat and have been a proud alumnus since 2011. I am currently a student as I work on finishing my Master's in agricultural education.

From Manhappiness, I began my teaching career in Goessel, Kansas. While at Goessel, I was privileged enough to work with great students and staff that allowed me to receive a few teaching awards, have the 8th best FFA chapter in the state, be a coach of a state champion team in volleyball, and a proud supporter of state winning band and chorus programs.

Then in one crazy summer, I traveled to Maryland for some teacher training where I met Wyatt DeJong. I was the representative from Kansas and Wyatt represented South Dakota. As we bonded over inquiry based learning and our love for agricultural education, we kept in touch over a year where we served as Agricultural Education Ambassadors. After a surprise proposal on a livestock judging trip in the middle of winter, I packed up my life in Kansas and headed north. From there, we were married in June of 2017. We resided in his hometown of Winner, South Dakota for one year where Wyatt was the resident agricultural teacher and I worked on my Masters and tended to our funny farm, while being the Assistant FFA Advisor.

As differences in vision arose, Wyatt and I looked for a new school that could match our vision, and found it at Wood River. I have been the agricultural education instructor for the past two years. Wyatt and I spend most of our time in vehicles traveling to Kansas, South Dakota, and cattle shows across the nation. We love any free time we have spending it working with cattle or on the ranch in South Dakota. We have two puppies, Maisy and Lola that keep us on our toes. Together we have eleven nieces and nephews that we love to spoil and spend time with. Our nomadic life has been full of adventures and we have been blessed to travel across the nation and abroad through FFA and agriculture.

She was born Aft. 1949.

Notes for Mary Marie Wesley:

Mary Marie Wesley, a full-blooded Native American, walked on July 27, 2018. Mary was born on April 6, 1951 in Battle Creek. Her father, Joseph George Wesley was a member of the Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Tribe and mother Irene a member of the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of the Potawatomi Indians. Mary's great-grandfather was the Potawatomi Chief Stephen Pamptopee and her great-great-grandfather was Chief Phineas Pamptopee. Her paternal great-great grandfather was Chippewa Chief Buffalo (Ojibwe: Ke-che-waish-ke/Gichi-weshkiinh) "Great-renewer". Chief Buffalo is memorialized in the U.S. Capitol where two busts are on display and his profile was imaged on the buffalo nickel. Irene was Chair of the first Elders Committee which served as the Judicial Branch of Government for NHBPI. Mary's brother Joseph George Wesley Jr. was Tribal Chairman from 1979 - 1981 and had the reservation updated to a historical status, was the first to start housing and grants, and took the first steps for NHBPI to become a federally recognized tribe. Mary's sister Laura Wesley Spurr, Tribal Chair, led a ten-year campaign to establish FireKeepers Casino near Battle Creek and planned and implemented the construction of office buildings, housing, medical facilities, and tribal ceremonial grounds on the reservation.

Mary graduated from Athens High School as Valedictorian of her class in 1969, and from Kellogg Community College as a Registered Nurse. Her pride was her family and children Robert Keith Potter II, Bradley Stephen Potter, and Sarah Marie Joslyn. Mary worked at the Battle Creek V.A. Hospital for 21 years, the Regional Psychiatric Hospital in Kalamazoo, and tenderly cared for her 95-year old mother and special needs son for 48 years. Mary enjoyed participating in tribal pow-wows, Potawatomi gatherings, and special events involving Indian culture, dances and crafts such as weaving baskets from black ash and preserving and collecting native cultural artifacts. Mary attended the Athens Methodist Church and the Athens Indian Church. She formed lifelong friendships with many townspeople from Athens and the surrounding area.

Mary was well known for her kindness and compassion, and for her honesty and candor. She was not capable of deception, and would always tell you exactly what was on her mind. Mary did not hesitate to speak out against injustice, such as decisions of the tribal government and court orders threatening to evict her then 94 year-old mother Irene from her home on the reservation where she was born in 1922, refusing to acknowledge and honor Irene's legal will, and blocking the family from retrieving their personal household property and treasured relics preserved for generations.

Mary was predeceased by her parents, Joseph George and Irene Wesley, her husband Carl Joslyn, brother Joe Wesley Jr., sister Laura Wesley Spurr, and her beloved daughter Sarah Marie Joslyn. She is survived by her sons Robbie and Bradley, Aunt Millie and her cousins Sharon Kelley, Priscilla Wesley Piwowar, Maureen Kisabeth, Georgan Matthews, Brian Wesley, and Penny Honke, brother-in-law Stephen (Joy) Spurr, her friend Donald Watkins, and a large extended family.

His grandparents were Joseph (a tribal member of the Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa) and Irene Wesley (a tribal member of the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi Indians). Brad graduated from Athens High School and attended Kellogg Community College, studying to become a paralegal assistant or game warden, but instead became a Journeyman Ironworker and qualified rigger in Michigan Ironworkers Local 25. He later enrolled in Wayne County Community College in Detroit to further develop his welding skills.

Brad enjoyed crossbow hunting, stock car racing, National Geographic media events, growing medicinal plants and the music of Pink Floyd. He was an accomplished author with volumes of handwritten notebooks and had a photographic memory. He could hold his own on the TV program "Jeopardy", which he enjoyed with his aunt Joy and uncle Stephen Spurr, Brad's caregivers during the period of his treatment for pancreatic cancer. During his illness, Brad continued to enjoy family vacations, cultural events, museums, parks, and would often go fishing at the Lake St. Clair pier. He particularly enjoyed cruising the neighborhoods of Detroit, where he would occasionally spot coyotes. Most of Brad's lifelong friends lived in Battle Creek or Athens. He took great pleasure in taking their children shopping, surprising them with Christmas gifts, or teaching them outdoor skills that he had learned from his grandmother Irene. Once Brad took a carload of his friends' children to Chicago for a tour of Shedd Aquarium. Brad and his mother Mary valued nature, animals and environmental responsibility highly.

Brad was predeceased by his sister Sarah Joslyn, his mother Mary Wesley, his aunt Laura and uncle Joe, and his grandparents Joseph and Irene Wesley. He is survived by his brother Robbie.

Sarah was a member of the Nottawaseppi Band of Huron Potawatomi. She was a direct descendant through her grandmother Irene Wesley of Steven Pamptopee and his father Phineas Pamptopee, both of whom were prominent Chiefs of the Huron Potawatomi. Before federal recognition of the Huron Potawatomi was restored on December 19, 1995, Sarah was a member of the Lake Superior Band of Bad River Chippewa Indians. She was also the great-great granddaughter of Chief Buffalo, the last Chief of that Tribe, whose profile appears on the Buffalo head nickel. Sarah was proud of her Potawatomi heritage, and participated in powwows, gatherings and other Tribal and intertribal cultural events. She was a competitive traditional dancer, and was also highly proficient in Tae Kwan Do. She worked in various positions for her Tribe, and obtained the first federal grant for the Elders' Council, which is now known as the Elders' Committee. Sarah was known for her quick wit, cheerfulness and good nature.

Life is a journey and the path is different for everyone, but we all have the choice to either embrace the way marked for us or to shuffle along each path while wishing we were somewhere else. Margaret Garey was one who rejoiced in the promise of each new day, drinking in each and every moment. She lived to reach out to others and loved to prepare both savory and sweet treats for those in her life. Margaret treasured her faith and it was during the sunset of her life that it became the true melody of her life. A true gift to those around her, she leaves behind a treasure trove of memories that will be forever held near to the hearts of those who loved her.

The dawn of the fifties ushered in a generation of great change in America with an increased pace within the civil rights movement, our first taste of space exploration, and the expansion of our nation with the addition of Alaska and Hawaii near the end of the decade. It was during this unprecedented time that David and Gladys Dodson celebrated the birth of their daughter, Margaret, on August 2, 1951. Born in Albion, Michigan, Margaret was one of three girls in her family. She was raised in Albion by two women who were friends of the family, Doris and Iva. The two women basically adopted Margaret, but she visited her parents and sisters from time to time. As a young girl, she loved going to an area lake where she spent time with family. She attended local schools including Albion High School where she played the clarinet in the marching band.

It was while she was in high school that Margaret met the young man who would change the course of her life forever. He was a fellow classmate named Tadd Garey and they began dating while still in high school. Not long after graduating from high school in 1970, Margaret and Tadd were married during the early seventies, deeply in love.

The newlyweds settled in the Coloma area where they were thrilled to welcome three children into their hearts and home: Michael, Mary, and Agatha. Margaret stayed home and cared for the children, watching other neighborhood children as well. She loved cooking for her family and was a fantastic cook, too. Margaret was known for her roast beef, broccoli and cheese soup, breads, cookies, and pies, but she was most famous for her cheesecake that was second to none. She often "paid" people with food – something that was always welcomed by the recipient. As her children grew older, Margaret passed her love for cooking on to them. Margaret was actively involved in the lives of her children including serving as a Scout leader for both her son and her daughters. Their family enjoyed trips to Tennessee where they visited good friends as well as day trips to the beach.

After her marriage ended in divorce in 1993, Margaret started working at Regal Finishing in Coloma where she sorted parts. She later moved to Atlantic Automotive where she met her best friend, Aunt Dar. Aunt Dar took Margaret under her wing and because they complimented each other as total opposites, they were really good for one another. After working at Atlantic Automotive, Margaret began working for Wal-Mart, first in South Haven and when she moved in with Aunt Dar three years ago, she transferred to the Wal-Mart on Ninth Street in Oshtemo. Margaret worked there as a phone operator in customer service and truly enjoyed her work. The people she worked with always liked having Margaret around as well.

There were many things that made Margaret such an extraordinary woman who was so dearly loved. She liked country music the best, although she liked any type of music with a good beat, but dancing was never her forte. Margaret enjoyed reading romance novels, and she also liked sewing and watching Food Network. She treasured the relationship she shared with her special friend, John, over the years. Margaret had a special place in her heart for animals and rescued both a little puppy she named Taffy and a cat she named Leo. She was always around, always giving of herself to others, and she was like a mother to everyone. Faith played an important role in Margaret's life, and she was usually connected to a church wherever she was living. Over the last six months, she became more passionate about her faith through her children.

Margaret Garey was a delight to those around her in each and every way. Her kind and tender touch reached many through the years, yet no one held a more prominent place in her heart than her children and grandchildren. Margaret loved Halloween, complete with her handmade costumes, but it was cooking for others that always brought her the greatest joy. Those who knew Margaret will be forever changed for having loved such a special woman.

Margaret "Miss Daisy" Garey died on August 23, 2010 in Battle Creek. Margaret's family includes her 3 children: Michael (Shannon) Garey, Mary (Tim) Fish and Agatha (Tommy) Cottrell; 10 grandchildren:

Nicholas, Mikey, Brionna, Austin, Abigail, Leah, Faith, Tim Jr., Madilyn and Gwendolyn; her mother, Gladys Dodson; sister, Janet (Curtis) Simmons; and many nieces and nephews. Margaret was preceded in death by 2 sisters: Betty Jean and Barbara and by her father, David Dodson. Notes for Marcella Ann (Marcie) Barnes:

Muskegon, Michigan - Marcella Ann Wildt passed away unexpectedly at the age of 66 on April 17, 2020. She was a mother, daughter, nana, sister, friend, and so much more. She was born to Leola M. Barry and William P. Barnes on May 9, 1953 in Fremont, Michigan. She was youngest of their five children. William Barnes (passed away January 15, 2020), E. Michael Barnes, Mary Vander West, and John Barnes. She was "Mom" to her four children (listed in order of age): Jaime Kim Meekhof (m. to Jamie R. Baeza), Andrew Patrick Meekhof (m. to Angela Meekhof), Paige Traves Wildt, and Sagan Marie Wildt. She had five grandchildren: Brynn and London Meekhof (Andrew's daughters), Greyson and Paisley Shay Evans (Sagan's kids), and Tucker Cearley (Paige's son).

Jaime thought kids were overrated so she got a dog instead. Marcie loved hanging out with her girlfriends over the years. Whether it is was for coffee, antiquing, bonfires, or just hanging out, they all held a special place in her heart. Denise, Kathy, and Sharon were just a few of many. Marcie worked at Wayne's Deli for 14 years so many people knew her from there. You were probably greeted with a smile and a sarcastic greeting of some sort. That meant she liked you. She often complained about being on her feet for long hours but she loved that job and the interactions she had with people on a daily basis! She also worked in some of the local school cafeterias. Nelson was her favorite. She loved her co-workers and all of the children there! She was a humble woman who never asked for much and never wanted to inconvenience anyone. She put up a hard fight and struggle (go figure) up until the very end. She will be dearly missed by her siblings, children, grandchildren, friends, and everyone else's whose life she touched. There will be a memorial at a later date once this crazy world will allow it so we can share memories about this wonderful woman!

Notes for Mathew Martin Wildt:

2011- While many Homer residents are preparing for the 7th Annual Hogstravaganza Aug. 5-6, the Wildt family is preparing for the 163rd Calhoun County Fair, which gets underway a week later. Matt, 17, and his cousins, Lauren, 16, and Morgan, 11, show hogs year-round, including at the fair. They said they are looking forward to the challenge. "It's fun to do," Matt said. "When you go to fair, you show pigs with your friends and you learn a lot of life skills having to get up every day and feed, walk and wash your pigs." For the Wildt children, they said showing hogs is in their blood. "It's a big family thing for us," Lauren said. "We are out here (on the farm) every day for fair and other shows. Our dads are really into it too." Todd Wildt, Matt's father, said for those not in 4-H, it's hard to understand what the experience is like. "Every year it's a big deal for them to go over there and camp and hang out with their friends. It's a good learning experience for the kids."

Lauren said her grandfather, mother, and older sister all showed pigs as well. Matt said he has two older sisters that used to show too. "It's been in the family a long time," Lauren said. "Most of my friends show pigs or livestock." Up until three years ago, the Wildts used to run a pig farm, but they stopped due to the expense of it. "We did it from the time I was 15 until I was 44 and I'm 47 now," Todd said. "The decision to stop was purely financial. We are no different from other dairy farmers, and the fact is they aren't surviving. I still dairy farm because I've always done it. Morally, it's hard for me to say, stop." Even though they gave up pigs, Todd said they still raise dairy beef and farm 1,000 acres of hay, soybeans, wheat and corn.

For Todd, he said he feels that it's important to keep his children and nieces involved in 4-H. "4-H is very important," Todd said. "The kids have to keep records on what they feed the animals, veterinarian practices, cost of bedding - it teaches them how to pay bills. 4-H kids get a good head start on paying bills and learning life." Matt said it's helpful because they can learn if they are making money or losing money, especially with all the shows they take part in.

They have taken part in nine shows this year in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana and in November, and they will be showing at the Calhoun County Fair in August and at the North American International Livestock Festival in Kentucky in November. They participate in the Green and White in January at MSU pavilion in Lansing, the Ohio Buckeye Circuit twice in February and twice in June, the Spartan Classic in June in Lansing, Michigan Livestock Expo in July, and the Calhoun County Fair in August. They also participate in different jackpot shows throughout the year, where the top three winners earn money. "With all that, it kind of gets hard to show another animal because we are so focused on pigs," Lauren said.

Lauren said they discussed showing cows at the fair, but she says because they are only allowed to show one large animal, she doesn't think she could stray away. "If we wanted to, we could switch but we wouldn't want to," she said. "If we wanted to show steer we would have to give up pigs, and I'm like, 'No.'" They purchase 18 pigs for whole year. "We have two sets of pigs, one for the county fair and one for state shows," Lauren said. "We need two sets because of the different weight limits needed. If we used the same pigs, they would be too old or too heavy to go year-round." The Wildt's don't show all 18 pigs, but they train all 18. "We don't show them all, but you work with them all just in case," Lauren said. "You never know. We had a pig one year that just before show, stepped on something and couldn't walk. That's why we get extra and train extra just in case." Lauren and Matt have been showing for eight years, while Morgan has been showing for three. "When it comes to show pigs, how well you do depends on what you do at home," Lauren said.

The kids work with the pigs daily, walking them, washing them, feeding them and cleaning their pins. "We wash them every day or every other day because when it comes to showmanship, it's important," Lauren said. "If they are laying around all day, it can stain their skin. Washing them shows the judges that we care." The pigs are fed a blend of food that is good for building muscles and some is more fattening. "It's all about the feed," Lauren said. "We get food that they like, that tastes good to them." The Wildt's also walk each of the pigs half a mile each day. "When you walk them, they are building more muscle too," Matt said. "We walk them every day also so they learn to go long distances. It shows the judges you spend time with them when they listen to you." Lauren said when showing the pigs, they can be on their feet for 20 or 30 minutes, and if the pigs get tired they'll "get huffy and puffy" and begin to not listen as well. "You wouldn't put someone who hasn't ever ran in a marathon," Lauren said. "It's the same idea." Overall, Lauren said she thinks they spoil their pigs. "In the summer they are in the barn with fans on them and in the winter, they are in a heated barn," she said. "I think they are pretty lucky." The kids work with all the pigs, but when it comes to showmanship, they pick which pig they will work with so the pigs respond better to that person. "If you train them good enough they'll listen to anyone," Matt said. "When you go to the fair, you can tell who's worked with them and who hasn't. If the pig walks slow by your side you know they've worked with their pig."

But the kids say even though showing pigs is a lot of work, it's worth the reward, especially when it comes to being named Grand Champion. "They (Todd and his brother Doug) try to take turns giving us kids what they think is the best pig in hopes that each of us can win Grand Champion (the best pig at the fair)," Matt said. "Sometimes we don't know until a week before or a few days before who is taking the best pig because it changes." Last year, they gave the best pig to Matt in hopes that he would win Grand Champion. "But it doesn't always turn out the way our fathers want it to," Matt said. Instead, the judges picked Lauren's pig. "Matt was pretty happy for me, but I wanted him to get it," Lauren said. "Hopefully one day, Matt can know what it feels like to get Grand Champion. We don't always know what the judges will think is the best pig." Lauren said they picked a pig they felt was second-best for her and because of that she had to work extra hard with her pig during fair time. "We were in the barn every day, twice a day, because pig wasn't gaining a lot of weight," she said. "We took extra care, and it was a big deal when I won. I cried. It feels so good when you work so hard at something and are rewarded for it. I was in shock."

But that wasn't Lauren's first time winning Grand Champion. She won it in 2005 as well. She also was awarded Grand Champion at the Michigan Livestock Expo on July 17 at MSU and Grand Champion at the Spartan Classic in 2009. Lauren also won at a jackpot a couple weeks ago in showmanship in Ludington. Morgan won Grand Champion in 2009 at the County Calhoun Fair and beginner showmanship class last year. "It means a lot," she said. "It's a big deal when you work so hard." Two years ago, Matt won two of his divisions at the Michigan Livestock Expo and three years ago he got reserve at the fair. "There's a lot of people just like us that work just as hard," Lauren said. "We've been really blessed in what we do and blessed in our family and the friends that we have." After the fair, all pigs have to go to market. The kids said at first, they did grow attachments to their pigs. "For the first couple years we did it, we got really attached to the pigs, but after awhile you learn that that is the way it is and it gets easier," Matt said. Each year, they name their pigs for fair. "We have named pigs every single year, and this is the first year that we haven't named them yet," Lauren said. "Pig people name their pigs. I usually like to wait to name the pigs so I can see their personalities." Lauren said they usually have named the pigs by now, but she said they will be sure to name them before fair.

3651. Eric Daniel¹⁴ Stollsteimer (Terry¹³, Dale Wilton¹², Oscar Otto¹¹, Theodore Earhardt (Edward Theodor)¹⁰, Johann Erhardt (Aaron)⁹, Christina Barbara⁸ Stierlin, Johann Georg⁷, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 05 Jan 1976 in Southfield, Oakland Co, Michigan. He married Annette Gonzalez 17 May 2014 in San Diego, San Diego Co, California, daughter of Ricardo Gonzalez and Blanca Romo. She was born 23 Jan 1976 in Mexico.

Notes for Eric Daniel Stollsteimer:

May 28, 1997 - "Look at this!" Eric Stollsteimer, the fresh-faced proprietor of Boss Guitars is beaming. "I saw this, and I just had to have it." In his hands is an unremarkable-looking Japanese electric guitar from the 1960s. Like so many of its kind, the instrument is a topographic map of chrome and plastic with enough knobs and switches to retrofit a kitchen. His attention is directed to the small print beneath one of the toggle switches. The Japanese manufacturer has misspelled the word "rhythm," offering the player a choice between the lead and "rizm" settings. Apparently, spelling wasn't Job No. 1 on the assembly line, but the liberty taken with the word "rhythm" is what gives this particular guitar its unique charm. "I play rizm guitar," Stollsteimer grins. At 21 years old, Stollsteimer is embarking on a journey that will probably last a lifetime. Like people who are wild about old cars, vintage guitar buffs are lifers. The interest in collecting these instruments has grown steadily over the years into a worldwide phenomenon that shows no sign of waning. For the people involved, it is a passion, a whirlwind romance, which gains momentum with every new discovery.

"This isn't New York, and it's not California," says Stollsteimer, who opened his shop in Ann Arbor, Michigan, last year. "The prices on vintage gear in those places is outrageous. There's plenty of stuff here, and you can still get it for a reasonable price." Stollsteimer keeps both "budget" and "premium" guitars in stock with price tags ranging from $70 to $2,000. "There are a lot of really nice guitars in circulation in Michigan compared to other parts of the country," says Gordy Lupo, co-owner with wife Marcia of Gordy's Music in Ferndale, Michigan. Lupo credits the many musicians from Detroit's Motown era, the Gibson guitar factory and the popularity of blues and roots music for the abundance of quality instruments in Michigan. "The '50s and '60s were a great time for music in Detroit and a lot of those guitars are still around," he says. "These pieces tend to circulate within the state. I'll sell the same guitar seven or eight times in 10 years. They just keep coming back around." George Gruhn, a Nashville dealer, published a series of newsletters in the early '70s legitimizing vintage guitars as a viable commodity. Gruhn's name has since become synonymous with collecting. Through his newsletter, he assigned a price and value to the instruments, which set off a boom in collecting. This reached a peak in the early '80s when Japanese investors realized the potential for appreciation in American art and artifact. For the first time, people were buying guitars as an "investment." Japanese collectors have continued their interest in vintage guitars. In March, Paul McCartney's custom bass guitar sold for 25 million yen (approximately $200,000) at a Tokyo auction.

Elderly Instruments, in business since 1973 in Lansing, Michigan, publishes a monthly newsletter listing the prices of its extensive collection of used instruments. Anthony Marsala, an appraiser with Elderly for 17 years, cites the late 1930s Martin D-28s as the most collectible acoustic guitars. In mint condition, they can sell for $50,000 and up. Old Fender Telecasters and Gibson Les Pauls from the '50s remain the most sought-after electrics, with mint-condition guitars fetching up to $150,000. This is a far cry from the $200 price tag that swung from their tuners 40-plus years ago. "The stories and mystique behind guitars is part of what drives the vintage market," says longtime collector Brian Delaney. "It's what a personality brings to a specific instrument that makes one guitar more valuable than another. I mean, a Strat (the Fender "Stratocaster") wouldn't be a Strat if it wasn't for Jimi Hendrix. You couldn't give those things away in '66, but after '68 everybody had to have a Strat." (The 1969 Strat that Hendrix played at Woodstock fetched $320,000 at an auction seven years ago. New, the guitar would have cost $200 to $300.) Delaney owns and operates Specialized Guitar Services in Ann Arbor, and has been collecting vintage amps and guitars (as well as repairing them) for more than 20 years. "Guys like Eric (Stollsteimer), have their work, cut out for them," he says. "The days of finding a great guitar in somebody's attic are over." Stollsteimer might indeed have a long road ahead, but that suits him fine. He's worked hard on Boss Guitars and, though just starting out, he is clearly a hopeless guitar nut.

She married Christopher James Garner 09 Sep 1995 in Alachua Co, Florida. He was born 1972.

Notes for Lisa Michelle Panzironi:

Lisa Panzironi is ready for first taste of International Competition

December 11, 1987 - Thousands - perhaps millions - of children are uprooted every year as adults move from one section of the country to another to pursue their careers. But in the case of Lisa Panzironi and her family, the reason for relocating was reversed. At the age of 12, Lisa, the dream of possible Olympic gold very much in her mind, left her roots in Columbus, Ohio, and moved to Allentown to begin training with the nationally recognized Parkettes. A year and a half later, her mother, Nancy, moved to the Lehigh Valley; and just recently, her dad, Richard, completed the transition.

With that kind of family support, and with the coaches at the Parkette National Training Center working with her to hone her skills, Panzironi, who only recently turned 15, is beginning to feel better all the time about her chances of competing for the United States team in the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul. The 5-foot-1, 97-pound Central Catholic High School sophomore will get her first official taste of international competition Dec. 19 and 20 when she competes against gymnasts from 12 other countries in the Kraft Invitational Meet in London. "I'm feeling really strong about it," Panzironi said yesterday about the international meet. She and one male gymnast will represent the United States in the event, and she'll be leaving for London Tuesday with her coach, John Holman. "This is going to be a good experience for me."

Panzironi finished 10th all-around last year in the Championships of the USA - she was sixth until she inadvertently over-rotated a somersault during her floor exercise routine and sat down. She was an alternate on the American team that competed in the world championships in Holland, and while she did not get to compete in the meet itself, just being part of the team was important to her. "I got a chance to see what I was up against for international meets," she said. She worked out with the American team, and during the trip, she discovered that "I needed to work a lot harder. I need to work more on mental preparation and get more strength on the (uneven parallel) bars. It's getting better." Back in the gym, she went at the conditioning program with renewed vigor - handstand push-ups, sit-ups, pull-ups, leg lifts, etc. "I'm getting a lot stronger," she said. Donna Strauss, founder and coach of the Parkettes, agrees.

"Lisa is just coming into her own," Strauss said. "She has an awful lot of the excellent attributes you need to be an Olympic gymnast. Nothing is lacking. She's strong, flexible, has a lot of power. "The thing we're working on now is the self-confidence factor and getting her to put it all together. I think she has an excellent chance of earning medals in this meet, and we're hoping she'll bring back some medals for the USA." Panzironi said her favorite routines are the balance beam and the floor exercise. Her most difficult tumbling skill at the present time is a full-and- back-out which she performs on her first pass and which is necessary for an Olympian. "Almost everybody is doing them now," she said. She is aiming for the 1988

Games, and the road has been a long one. She began in a pee wee program when she was just five years of age. When she was 10, she came to summer camp at the Parkette center - Tracy Butler, another Parkette bidding for the 1988 Olympic team, got her interested.

As soon as they got a look at her, the Parkette coaches saw the potential. She went tonationals for the first time as a Class I gymnast, and, she said, Holman began trying to interest her in the Parkettes. Finally, believing she had reached a plateau at her club in Ohio, she made the move. She has never tired of the rigorous training schedule required of the elite gymnasts. "If I get sick, I get really tired, but I feel fine right now," she said. As for the pressures of competing in an international meet, she said, "I get nervous, but not to a great extent." Donna Strauss classified Panzironi as "a definite contender" for honors in the upcoming year. "She has a realistic shot at the '88 (Olympic) team," she said.

Airman First Class Jill Renee LaRocque, 22, of Manchester and Tecumseh, died suddenly on June 27, 2005 in Great Falls, Montana. She was born on February 13, 1983 in Ann Arbor, the daughter of Jacques LaRocque and Debra Klumpp LaRock. Jill graduated from Manchester High School, Class of 2001 and joined the U.S. Air Force in November of 2004. She was trained by the Air Force in Security Forces and was looking forward to a future in law enforcement and serving her country. Jill attended Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene.

Jill is survived by her father, Jacques (Sue) LaRocque of Manchester; mother, Debra LaRock of Tecumseh; brother, Seth LaRocque of Manchester; sister, Emily LaRocque of Tecumseh; step-brothers, Justin Tinkle, Joshua and Jordan Guest all of Manchester; paternal grandmother, Marilyn La Rock of Manchester; maternal grandparents, John and Shirley Klumpp of Saline; grandparents, Loren and Carole Hansen of Saline; and very special friends, Sid and Debbie Barrow.

Visitation will be on Friday, July 1, 2005 from 2-4 and 6-8:00 p.m. at the Tecumseh Chapel of Couture-Handler Funeral Homes. The Funeral Service will be on Saturday, July 2 at 11:00 a.m. at the Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene with Pastor Rob Lewis officiating. Interment will follow at Oak Grove Cemetery in Manchester. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Lenawee County Humane Society, Oak Grove Cemetery of Manchester, or Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene.

Feb 2, 2014 - For the past seven years, Jill LaRocque's family has commemorated her life by sponsoring a blood drive for the American Red Cross close to the date of LaRocque's death, June 26. Those drives collected a total of 1,016 units of blood, enough to potentially save 3,048 lives. LaRocque, who was an airman first class in the Air Force, was murdered by her ex-fiancé in 2005 when she was 22 years old. This year, instead of a blood drive, LaRocque's family decided to honor her love of animals by organizing a drive for money or in-kind donations to the Lenawee Humane Society.

"The girl loved animals," said LaRocque's mother, Deb Werner, who is advertising manager at The Daily Telegram. Her daughter especially loved cats, Werner said. The family decided to seek the donations leading up to what would have been LaRocque's 31st birthday Feb. 13, and they have named the effort "31 for Jill." They are asking for donations in quantities of 31 — $31, 31 cans of pet food, 31 volunteer hours — Werner said. The donations should be sent or taken directly to the Humane Society, she said.

Her daughter had just finished basic training and technical school and was assigned to Malmstrom Air Force Base, Great Falls, Montana, Werner said. LaRocque planned to make a career in the Air Force as a military police officer, she said. LaRocque's former fiancé, who also was assigned to Malmstrom, killed LaRocque after she broke off their engagement, Werner said. He was sentenced to 90 years in prison for the crime, Werner said.

Along with their fundraiser for the Humane Society, LaRocque's family is collecting money for the Catherine Cobb Domestic Violence Shelter in Adrian and the Safehouse Center in Ann Arbor. LaRocque's family include her stepfather, Will Werner, brother Seth LaRocque and his wife, Elise LaRocque, of Saline, sister Emily LaRocque of Livonia, and Emily LaRocque's fiancé, Chris Oz.

On June 26 this year, LaRocque's family, along with any friends who care to join them, plans to donate blood at the Washtenaw-Lenawee Chapter of the American Red Cross in Ann Arbor and then use the money they have collected to buy items needed by the domestic violence shelters. Because her daughter's murder was "something so horrible," she wants to do something good, Werner said. "I think people just need to look past their own hurts and do something for somebody else," she said.

She married Kevin Mitchell Arnold 19 Jan 2002, son of Victor H. Arnold. He was born 05 Mar 1962 in Victoria, Texas, and died 27 Apr 2019.

Notes for Kevin Mitchell Arnold:

Our world became a lot quieter on April 27, 2019 as Kevin Mitchell Arnold, in the comfort of his home with his family by his side, went to be with his Lord after a valiant battle with Leukemia. While he left us too soon, he never wasted time and made the most of each day. Kevin was born on March 5, 1962 in Victoria, Texas and his parents were Victor H. and Mary Ann Arnold. He was a proud member of the VHS Class of 1980. He was a loving son, husband, brother, father, Papa and friend. Kevin found the love of his life in Tammy Tate; they were married on January 19, 2002. Kevin never met a stranger and used his outgoing personality in a life of sales beginning at Arnold TV and Appliance Center. His most recent career with Jaco Industrial Supply had him traveling throughout the nation. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus Council 1329 and could be found heading up the bar-b-que teams every March and August. He donated unlimited amounts of time cooking bar-b-que for the OLV Fall Festival and school bar-b-que, frying fish for the youth group fundraisers and still found time to help family and friends with any job that required a "handy man." He gave a lot! Kevin was most proud of his family with a special place in his heart for his grandchildren. He always looked forward to September for the opening of dove and football seasons. When he did find time to relax, it was in the most impressive mancave in Shenandoah where he entertained friends and watched his favorite teams, the Texas Longhorns and Houston Texans. He was the life of the party many times over.

Kevin is survived by his wife and parents; sons, Travis Arnold (Katie), Trevor Arnold (Michelle), Chaz Logan (Lauren) and Kennon Logan; sister, Vicki Pyatt (Ned) and brothers, Michael Arnold (Sarah), David Arnold (Erin), Dan Arnold and Robert Arnold (Nancy); grandsons, Haylen Mitchell Arnold, Oliver and Caston Logan; nieces and nephews, Jordan and Jacob Pyatt, Star Stimmel, Hugh and Alena Arnold; and cousins that he adored more like sisters, Sallie Ann Sullivan, Kellye Sullivan, Mary Sullivan and Amy (Sullivan) Lara; Jarrod Sullivan (Godson), Ethan and Braeden (Goddaughter) Lara. He loved all his many friends that were more of an extended family.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Frank and Hulda Arnold, Frazier and Edith Treadaway.

Honorary pallbearers will be John Hall, Dale Matula, Brad Kraatz, Jeff Tigrett, Carl (Coco) Hubenak, James (Bubba) Wagner and all his Brother Knights. A Rosary will be recited on Thursday, May 2, 2019 at 9:30 am at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Victory. A Christian Funeral Mass will be held at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Victory on Thursday, May 2, 2019 at 10 am with The Very Rev. Gary Janak officiating. Family and friends are invited to gather for a celebration of Kevin's life at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Airline and Ben Jordan following the funeral mass. Come share stories of his life. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations to be made to the Leukemia Foundation, the OLV Scholarship Fund or the Kevin Arnold GoFundMe.

Jason Garrick¹⁴ Collins (Doris Patricia¹³ Herron, Robbie¹² Rentz, Elbert Houston¹¹, Jakob Friedrich (Rentz)¹⁰ Rentz, Anna Maria⁹ Burkhardt, Dorothea⁸ Graf, Agnes⁷ Stierlin, Jacob⁶, Johann Adam⁵, Hans⁴, Michel³, Jacob², Jacob¹) was born 11 Nov 1966 in Brazos Co, Texas, and died 07 Jun 2017 in Waco, Texas. He married Lori Leigh Joyner 17 Feb 1989 in McLennan Co, Texas. She was born Aft. 1965.

Notes for Jason Garrick Collins:

Jason Collins passed away Wednesday, June 7, 2017. A memorial service will be at 3 pm, Sat., June 10, doors will open an hour prior to service, at Calvary Chapel Church in Waco, Texas 702 N. 18th St. 76707. Jason was born in Bryan, Texas on Nov. 11, 1966 to Patricia and Bubber Collins. He is survived by his siblings, Jennifer Cowan and Heath Collins; his in-laws, Kris Cowan and Kristina Collins; his children, Tre Fuentes, John and Kelsey Collins, Mallory Campos, and Haylee Iddings; his grandchildren, Sophia Campos, Rachel Delacruz and Elias Jones; and his wife of 15 years, Tina Collins.

Jason was a rockstar in every sense of the word, both on stage and off. He was a staple of the local music community since 1981 when he started his first band Z-Bec in middle school. He played in many other bands over the years the most well-known of which was Flashback. Many will remember them from their nights playing at the Chelsea St. Pub. He once turned down David Koresh for a spot in his band for "not having enough charisma or stage presence." Although he loved being on stage he would chose his family over music every time. He lived for his children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews and treated any child as if they were his own. He touched everyone he knew and never met a stranger. Everyone he met spoke about how sincere and genuinely excited he was to meet you. He was a special soul that naturally drew people to him and brightened the lives of those around him. His sense of humor was also legendary, he was known to call the local rock station on a Saturday night (in the late nineties) and request "Mr. Roboto" over and over with different voices, once actually getting them to play it. Another time he called up the Jerry's Kids telethon and asked how much it was for one of the kids. He will be dearly missed, never replaced and will never be forgotten. Special thanks to Becky, who was his aid of three and a half years. Goodbye Jason, you will be remembered fondly.

There's been an emotional ripple across my Facebook page this morning as news of Jason Collins' death spread to family, friends and the Waco music community. Collins, 50, died Wednesday morning in hospice care at his home, ending a 12-year fight with multiple sclerosis. Collins was known for his involvement with several rock bands over the years, most notably the band Flashback, which he fronted in the 1980s and '90s. The energy and enthusiasm he brought to his music was contagious and more than a few Waco musicians, such as Brian Brown, lead singer for the band Sloppy Joe and a partner in The Backyard, consider him an influence. He's remembered, too, as someone unflinching positive, with a healthy sense of humor and deep love for his wife Tina, their five kids and two grandkids.

I met Jason back in the late '80s when I first took over the arts and entertainment beat. Flashback was one of the top local bands and a regular at Chelsea Street Pub, the bar and restaurant chain with a Richland Mall location that hosted a healthy amount of the live rock, rhythm-and-blues and pop played in town. He was always upbeat about whatever was at hand — a band gig, a benefit, a reunion show — and I never heard him backbite any Waco band or venue. I did hear a story, however, where he turned down an aspiring rock guitarist because of a lack of charisma. The guitarist? Vernon Howell, better known as David Koresh.

Jason's love for rock and performing started early. He and classmate Jeff Masiongale won their Tennyson Junior High talent show with their band Zbec and created other bands in the years that followed: Paradox, Mad Hatter and then Flashback with Jay Fletcher on lead guitar. When several of Flashback's players moved on, Jason sat in with bands like Whirling Dervish and Third Street Chaos. Then he and Fletcher reunited in Catdaddy-O (sorry, but I can't remember exactly how that was spelled), with Jason later bringing back Flashback with a new lineup. Longtime friend Todd Gibson joined Jason in an acoustic duo that played places like Cricket's and Casa de Castillo.

In 2005 came the news that changed his life: a diagnosis of MS and the start of 12 years of declining health. Jason took it in stride, even as the disease slowly eroded his ability to perform. Typically, he put his experience into a song, "24 Hour Alamo," with the idea that it might help others facing the disease. He was quick to praise those who helped him through this time, friends, support organizations and, most of all, Tina. The two married in 2003, bringing her two kids and his three into a blended family of their own. She was always with him and, when his health kept him largely at home, took him out every Friday night to places where he could either hear live music or eat Mexican food — two things far more enjoyable than the doctor visits and hospital stays that tended to dominate Jason's last months. Jason was in hospice care when he died from complications from MS, with family, friends and music gracing his final hours.

Our pop culture tends to glorify the famous simply because they're famous and not necessarily because they're generous, compassionate, friendly or encouraging. I found myself thinking today of Waco rock guitarist David Zyck, who died a little more than a year ago and was remembered for his personal qualities as well as his considerable musical talent. Jason wasn't famous, but he brightened the lives of those around him, both with his music and himself. "He wanted to be remembered fondly," Tina told me. I think he will.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, June 10, at Calvary Chapel Waco, 702 N. 18th St.

Notes for Douglas Alan Welshans:

April 12, 2012 - Lima Township (AP) -- Authorities say a fire destroyed a 150-year-old wooden barn on a family farm near Ann Arbor, killing about 300 animals. The fire broke out Wednesday at the farm in Lima Township, about 12 miles west of Ann Arbor. Owner Douglas Welshans says the dead animals include a horse, a steer, about 200 rabbits, 50 hens and 50 chicks. He says his daughters planned to show some of the rabbits and chickens and the steer at the Washtenaw County 4-H show this summer. The horse was a mare named Tina and was a gift to the girls from another family. Authorities say about 40 firefighters from Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester, Saline and Scio Township battled the blaze for about an hour. Smoke billows from a red-hot barn fire in Lima Township as cattle stand outside Wednesday.

Robin Welshans and other family members huddled together in the driveway Wednesday afternoon wiping away tears and ash from their faces as firefighters unrolled caution tape around the smoldering remnants of their centennial barn. Lying heavily on their hearts was the knowledge that more than 300 animals, including rabbits, chicks, a horse and a steer, had perished in the fast-burning blaze, which reduced the barn and everything in it to a pile of rubble.

The family took comfort in the fact that at least no one was inside the barn, at Scio Church and Parker roads in Lima Township, when the fire broke out. But the loss still hurt deeply. Douglas Welshans said his wife met his daughters, ages 10 and 12, at school to tell them about the fire so they did not discover it when they came home on the bus. They cried, he said. "That's their life. We don't do sports and stuff," Welshans said.

The loss is compounded by the fact that he doesn't have insurance to cover it, Welshans said. The animals and equipment alone were probably worth $50,000, he said. Besides the steer and the horse, the fire killed about 200 rabbits, about 50 hens and 50 young chicks, Welshans said. His daughters had planned to show some of the rabbits and chickens and the steer at the Washtenaw County 4-H show this summer. The horse, a mare named Tina, was a gift to the girls from another family. Besides the animals and barn, which was family-owned for 150 years, Welshans said he lost hay equipment as well as cages and other equipment used to show the rabbits.

The fire was reported, apparently by a neighbor, around 11 a.m. About 40 firefighters from Chelsea, Dexter, Scio Township, Manchester and Saline battled the blaze, which took about an hour to get under control, said Chelsea Fire Chief Jim Payeur. Firefighters were at the scene for about five hours, Payeur said. "With that heavy timber construction ... it's very dense material so it takes a tremendous amount of water to penetrate," he said. The cause of the fire still is under investigation, he said Wednesday evening. He didn't have a damage estimate. As Douglas Welshans pondered the future Wednesday evening, he wasn't sure whether the family would replace the animals. "Possibly," he said. "We haven't really got to that stage yet."

April 16, 2012 - Sisters Madison and Bailey Welshans are back at home and have a new pet show rabbit just days after a fast-moving fire destroyed a large barn on the Lima Township family farm last Wednesday. The girls stayed with friends in the days following the fire, which killed more than 300 animals, as parents Douglas and Robin Welshans began the long process of cleaning up. The girls arrived home Saturday afternoon to find a group of about 16 volunteers - family, friends and strangers - clearing rubble from the site of the fire. In fact, the girls said, they pitched in, moving rocks and other debris as part of the group.

The girls also were surprised over the weekend by the arrival of Carly, a black Mini Rex show rabbit, a gift from an American Rabbit Breeders Association judge. They also have three new fish in a tank in the living room. The girls lost all of their show rabbits and chickens, about 300 small animals in total, as well as a steer, and a horse in the fire. The family farm is about 150 years old. And although the new little bunny can never replace Pumpkin, Frosty, or Skittles, a few of the bunnies that perished in the blaze, Carly's arrival did put a smile on the girls' faces. Plus, the girls said they are excited about the impending arrival of a pair of lambs, which they plan to show, along with new rabbits and chickens at the 4-H Youth Show in July.

Madison, a fourth-grade student at Wylie School in Dexter, said she'd already picked out a name for her lamb: Lucy. Bailey, a sixth-grader at Creekside, said she hadn't thought about a name for her new pet lamb, but she is looking forward to the arrival of some new chickens and rabbits next month. The girls are getting Speckled Sussex and Columbian Wyandotte chickens, which were ordered before the fire, their father said. The family was joined Saturday by the volunteers who helped them clean up the area where once a 40' X 80' white barn stood. Once the area is cleaned of debris, the family plans to replace the barn, but in the meantime, there is still a lot of work to do. "It's all so overwhelming, the offers of help and the donations," said Douglas Welshans. "We want people to know, family, friends, people from out of town, people we didn't even know, how much we appreciated their help."

In addition to the large barn, several out buildings caught fire, and a small portion of the Welshans' home was charred. "In one day," Robin Welshans said, "Thanks to everyone's help, we got almost one building completely cleaned up." She said about 16 people worked most of the day as part of the cleanup efforts. The family plans two more work days the next two Saturdays beginning at 9 a.m. In addition to the small animals, the family raises cattle, and seven cows and one calf survived the blaze because they were outside in pastures. The family arrived home from church Sunday to find several rabbit cages and chicken laying nests, feeders, bowls and other rabbit and chicken equipment had been dropped off at the farm at the corner of Scio Church and Parker roads while they were gone. The family was worried that more potential sorrow would hit them Sunday after their beloved 8-year-old yellow Labrador retriever Daisy ran away from home. But the family received good news Monday when a Saline resident saw the dog running scared on Scio Church Road. Daisy was "very upset" with all the commotion, the storms that blew through the area Sunday and the fire, Robin Welshans said.

In addition to 4-H competitions, Madison and Bailey show four breeds of rabbits as junior exhibitors at American Rabbit Breeders' Association shows. The sisters raise Californians, Holland lops, Mini Rex and Havana rabbits and said they are looking forward to working with their new bunnies — whenever they arrive and there's a place to house them. Their 4-H leader, Cathie Mason, is working with the rabbit community to find the girls more rabbits in time for upcoming 4-H competitions.

A fund has been set up at Chelsea State Bank to assist the family in rebuilding the barn, which could not be insured because of its age, and to help replace the estimated $50,000 worth of animals and equipment lost in the fire. In addition, a bank account has been set up in Robin Welshans' name at the University of Michigan Credit Union, 4440 Jackson Road, in Ann Arbor or donations can be sent to the Welshans Family, P.O. Box 276, Dexter, Michigan 48130.

"Thank you, Scot Graden! We wish you the very best retirement. You certainly deserve to enjoy yourself and know you have served your community well."

Graden was hired in 2008 after serving as interim superintendent following the resignation of Superintendent Beverley Geltner. "You need somebody who can flat out work hard for the district," Graden told the Board of Education during a round of interviews with the board in 2008, according to The Ann Arbor News. The Saline Area Schools district has consistently ranked as one of the top school districts in Michigan and is widely cited as the top reason why people choose to live in the Saline area.

He married Nancy Ann Melvin. She was born 25 Jun 1964 in Syracuse, Onondaga Co, New York, and died 18 Nov 2003.

Notes for Kip Paul Taylor:

Major Kip Taylor was excited about the coming months for two reasons very dear to him: the birth of his second child in late October and a promotion in November. Now, his wife, Nancy, and family are gathered in his McLean, Virginia, home waiting to receive word that Taylor's remains have been recovered. Taylor, among those missing at the Pentagon, had been stationed there for about three years, said his brother, U.S. Army Lt. Col. Dean Taylor. "He was the poster boy for the U.S. Army,"

Taylor said. The son of a career Army officer, Kip Taylor enlisted after graduating in 1985 from Northern Michigan University. At the time of the attack, Taylor, 38, worked in the adjutant general's corps and was a key aide to Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, who is also missing. Taylor was soon to become Lt. Col. Taylor, his brother said, but delayed the ceremony until late November so relatives could attend. They also would see his new baby. "It was going to be a meaningful thing," his brother said.

Lieutenant Colonel Kip Paul Taylor's 16-year ascent through the Army ranks began when he received his commission from the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Northern Michigan University, a unit run by his father, Don. A few months after graduation, Taylor was shipped to a base in Nuremberg, Germany, where he served for 3 1/2 years. The Michigan native returned stateside at the end of 1989 for a 15-month stint as an instructor at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. He was again sent on a foreign tour in 1991, this time as an adjutant for a task force in Honduras. After that five-month assignment, he rose to commander of a troop brigade back in Indiana, where he remained until the summer of 1994.

Taylor moved from base to base for four years before arriving at the Pentagon as executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel in July 1998. The 38-year-old career serviceman -- who enjoyed running, basketball and golf in his free time -- was serving as a military assistant in that office when he was killed September 11, 2001. "His office was on the outside ring and took a direct hit," Taylor's sister, Ann Zaenglein, was quoted as saying in USA Today. "There was nothing left of his office." A Major at the time of his death, Taylor was posthumously promoted to Lieutenant Colonel. He is survived by his wife and son.

The joys and trials of new fatherhood were on Kip Taylor's mind. At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, 2001, he e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon about how his life had changed since the birth of his son, Dean, almost two years earlier. He was happily anticipating the birth of his second son in a month. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home' wrote the U.S. Army Major. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

At about 9:40 a.m., Taylor, 38, was killed when American Flight 77 hit the Pentagon. "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," said his wife, Nancy. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." The Taylors were happy because they had achieved something that earlier seemed impossible. After their attempts to conceive had failed, the couple turned to medical science to help them have children. Dean was the result of in vitro fertilization, as was Luke, born October 25.

The babies are a great source of comfort. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband," Nancy Taylor said. So, when her husband's friends and admirers started asking where they could donate money in his memory, the answer seemed obvious. Nancy Taylor started a charity for infertile military couples and called it the Kip P. Taylor Fund. She explained that there are only two military facilities worldwide where in vitro fertilizations are performed, one in Washington, D.C., and one in Texas, making it difficult for military couples stationed abroad or elsewhere in this country to receive the subsidized treatment.

The fund will help couples offset the cost of traveling to the clinics and paying for lodging and food. Its Web site, www.kiptaylorfund.com, estimates that couples pay up to $5,100 out of pocket for treatments. Donations from family, friends and neighbors have brought the fund to $40,000 to date. "It's a lot," Nancy Taylor said. "But it's not enough to sustain this."

Having children is a challenge for military couples, she said, with being stationed in various places, long absences and combat service. But children play just as important a role in military families as they do in any other community, she said. "The military community does really rally around its children." To Taylor, balancing his work with a home life was essential. Though the 6-foot-5 Major cut an imposing figure in uniform, he was just as happy in jeans, cooking on his outdoor grill, building a deck on the couple's McLean, Virginia, home or tending to the lawn. But most of all, his wife said, he loved fatherhood and couldn't wait to someday coach his sons' Little League teams and attend their music recitals. Without him, his wife said, she tries to enjoy the "blessing" of her sons. But it's hard. She has not yet felt ready to return to her job as the editor of a medical newsletter. "At first I was getting by hour to hour," she said. "Then it was day to day. Now it's week to week. I hope some day it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

Six weeks after losing her husband Sept. 11, their second son was born

As Nancy Taylor endured the physical pain of childbirth October 25, 2001, at Bethesda Naval Medical Center, Maryland, she also struggled with powerful emotions and memories. Just six weeks earlier, her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip Taylor, was killed in the September 11 attack on the Pentagon. "It was hard," Taylor said. "I had been there at Bethesda less than two years before, when I had Dean. I kept recalling what it was like when Kip was there." Kip's sister and sister-in-law were with her during the delivery, which was a comfort. But still, "It didn't seem right that Kip wasn't there," she said. "It was horrible."

The approaching anniversary of the attacks has been an emotional time. She often thinks about what she, Kip and Dean were doing a year ago, including a trip to the beach a few weeks before September 11. When she looks at Dean, who turns 3 on December 28, 2003, she sees his resemblance to Kip. Baby Luke, who just started crawling, looks more like her. "The kids are my saving grace," she said. "They keep me busy. It's not that I don't think of Kip every day, because I do."

Kip Taylor was the military assistant to the Army deputy chief of staff for personnel, Lieutenant General Timothy Maude, who also was killed in the attack. Taylor decided the best way to honor her husband's memory was to help military families like hers who need fertility treatments to conceive. Both her boys were conceived through in vitro fertilization at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington.

She has established a fund to help military couples with travel and lodging expenses while they receive fertility treatments at Walter Reed or at Wilford Hall Medical Center in Texas. The Web address is <http://www.kiptaylorfund.com>. The fund has paid the expenses for five couples so far, she said. At least one of the five has been successful in getting pregnant. The Kip Taylor Memorial Fund covers some expenses for ROTC students at Northern Michigan University in Marquette, which Kip attended on ROTC and basketball scholarships.

Taylor collects letters, pictures and other memorabilia from generals, drill sergeants and others who worked with Kip and from schoolchildren who wrote to her after September 11. She has been overwhelmed by the generosity of those who wrote and sent gifts, many of them strangers. She has tried to respond to everyone. She points to a picture of President Bush embracing her September 17, 2001, at the Pentagon as he toured the rubble. It was a chance encounter - she was there only to pick up Kip's car from the parking lot. As her escort officer walked her through the building, Bush, who was there for a memorial service that had just concluded, appeared in the hallway with his large security entourage.

"We were told to move to the side of the hallway," Taylor said. "Everyone lined up started applauding, and he stopped and began shaking hands." Taylor approached, holding a picture of her husband that she was carrying, and told Bush that Kip had been at the Pentagon on September 11 and was still missing. Bush talked to Taylor for "a good two minutes," then embraced her and urged her to take good care of herself and her baby. Now, almost a year later, she finds that the biggest changes in her life are "the littlest things."

"Kip's absence is constantly evident," she said. "It's so different, not having him here to call and talk to during the day. Not seeing him in the house, not hearing his voice is just a huge void. It's an unspeakable loss." It has changed her perception of time. "I think time passes quickly when you have something to look forward to. Not that I don't have something to look forward to, but I guess my life is just not normal," she said. "Having no contact with Kip for a year, I feel like I haven't talked to him in years." Looking ahead, she focuses on her boys and their view of their father. She talks to her children about him often, showing them his picture. "I hope they think about their dad in a happy, positive way, and not let the sadness overcome his memory," she said. "I'm trying to overcome that myself. At night, we pray for daddy, mommy and the whole family."

In the first year of Dean's life, she put together a time capsule for him that includes audiotapes with messages from Kip and other family members. She hasn't listened to Kip's tape. When he was recording it, he asked, "You're not going to listen to this, are you?" she said. She knows he would want his children to be aware of how much he loved them: "He wanted them to be happy and have a good life." Now she's gathering items for a time capsule for Luke. But that effort is moving slowly. "I find it hard to ask people," she said. "There has been so much sadness in the family." That sadness lingers. These days, Taylor can think of Kip and find herself smiling. "But more times, I'm crying."

Notes for Nancy Ann Melvin:

Washington - When Nancy Melvin Taylor died of cancer last week (18 November 2003) at the age of 39, it was the final act of a family tragedy that began on the morning of September 11, 2001. When they bury her at Arlington National Cemetery, she will rest in the same grave with her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip P. Taylor, 38, who was killed in the terrorist attack on the Pentagon. Husband and wife will share a simple white marble marker in Section 64.

Two years ago, Kip and Nancy Taylor were living a dream. They'd struggled for years to have a child, and finally through in-vitro fertilization Nancy had given birth to a son, Dean Ross Taylor. She was eight months' pregnant, and their second child was due in October.

At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, in his office in the Pentagon, Kip sent this e-mail to friends about the joy of fatherhood: "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say: Hi honey, I'm home! ... What we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day." At 9:40, terrorists steered American Airlines Flight 77 into the offices of the Chief of Personnel of the Army, killing many of those who worked there, including Kip Taylor. Nancy said: "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life. I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." Six weeks later, on October 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to their second son, John Luke Taylor. While she was in the hospital, bringing a new life to this world, the doctors discovered that Nancy had cancer. Terminal cancer.

Nancy packed as much living as she could into the precious months that were left to her. She established a charity for infertile military couples, helping to pay their way to the only two military facilities where in-vitro fertilizations can be performed. The Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund helps offset travel, lodging and food for military couples traveling to the hospitals. (Donations to: Kip P. Taylor Fund, P.O. Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101.)

She loved and cherished her babies full-time, even as she wrestled with her grief over the loss of Kip Taylor, a 6-foot-5 Michigan native who came into the Army with an ROTC commission at Northern Michigan University in a program run by his father, Don. Nancy said her husband had loved fatherhood and couldn't wait for the day he could coach his sons' Little League baseball teams and attend their band concerts. On October 10 of this year, Nancy was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame. She'd been a regional All-American in field hockey while attending the Nursing School at the university. She was, her coach said, "by far the best offensive player in school history."

What will happen to two little boys, orphaned at ages 4 and 2? Kip's brother Dean and his wife will care for them - and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation will ensure that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations, everything included, in token of the fact that their father served a tour as adjutant of the Army's top-secret Delta Force.

If you're looking for a worthy charity this holiday season, you might consider the Warrior Foundation (www.specialops.org), which was created in 1980 as the Colonel Bull Simons Scholarship Fund (named for Colonel Arthur D. Simons, a legendary special-ops officer who died in 1979) to provide college educations for 17 children of nine American soldiers who were killed or disabled in the Desert One mission to rescue American hostages in Iran. That fund and others supporting Special Ops troops and families merged and became the Warrior Foundation in 1995. Its purpose is "to provide a college education to every child who has lost a parent while serving in the Special Operations Command during an operational or training mission." The Warrior Foundation provides grants, not loans. It covers tuition, books, and room and board. To date, 48 children of Special Ops soldiers have graduated with this help. More than 400 children of 380 Special Ops personnel who have died in service to our country are guaranteed the assistance. That will cost $25 million through 2010. The Warrior Foundation has $3.8 million in the bank.

Nancy Ann Melvin Taylor died on November 18, 2003 at the National Naval Medical Center. She was born in Syracuse, New York on June 25, 1964. She was a graduate of Fayetteville-Manlius High School, University of Rochester Nursing School with B.S. and received an MBA from Syracuse University. Nancy worked as a nurse in Richmond, VA and then in Syracuse, NY while she worked on her MBA. She then moved to Washington where she continued working in the health field. She was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame on October 10, 2003. Her field hockey coach referred to her as "by far the best offensive player in the school's history". She was selected for the first team, All-Mid East Regional All-American. Nancy also enjoyed skiing and more recently golfing. She was predeceased by her husband Lt. Col. Kip P. Taylor, who was killed at the Pentagon on September 11, 2001.

She is survived by her two sons, Dean Ross, 4 and John Luke 2; her parents, Merle and Ann Melvin of Manlius, New York; two brothers, Ross D. of Syracuse and John W. of Cazenovia; an aunt and uncle, May and William Legg of LaFayette, New York; and several cousins.

Calling hours are 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, November 23, at the Arlington Funeral Home, 3901 N. Fairfax Dr., Arlington, Virginia. There will be a memorial service at the Dewitt Community Church in Dewitt, New York on December 5 at 11 a.m. Interment and private graveside services at Arlington Cemetery will take place at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund, PO Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101; or the University of Rochester, New York 14627; or the charity of your choice.

After being diagnosed with terminal breast cancer in 2002, Nancy Melvin-Taylor compiled a "to-do" list:

- Potty train her son, Dean.
- See her infant son walk and talk.
- Get her will in order.
- And return to the University of Rochester, the place of so much glory, for her induction into the Athletic Hall of Fame.

"It wasn't easy for her," says her former coach, Jane Possee. "She wasn't well enough to come in 2002 (when she was first selected), but she came back the next year. She made it." Weeks later, she was gone, a 9/11 widow leaving behind two young sons and a story so tragic it resonates more than a decade later. On Saturday, 12 of her teammates will return to UR for homecoming on Meliora Weekend. They will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the field hockey team's first state and ECAC championships — a team powered by Melvin-Taylor. And they will celebrate having known Nancy.

"Nancy was a phenomenal athlete," says former teammate Christine Mitchell, her close friend since middle school. "But you'd never know it to be around her. She was just this happy-go-lucky person." Possee recruited her along with two teammates from Syracuse's Fayetteville-Manlius High — Mitchell (the former Chris Joor) and Dorie Gostin Massie. But make no mistake. "Nancy was the star," Possee says. "She was the best offensive player I'd ever seen."

The Syracuse native was UR's field hockey All-American and graduated in 1986 as the program's record-holder for game-winning goals in one season (7) and career (19), career goals (50) and career points (114). The four-year starting forward was named to three all-state Division III teams and helped UR repeat as state champs in 1985. Not bad for someone who didn't play the game seriously until high school. "I credit her mom with that," says Nancy's dad, Merle, now 86. "When Nancy was in high school, everyone was playing soccer. Ann thought field hockey would be good for Nancy. And she excelled." She was a star in the classroom, too. She graduated from UR with high honors with a bachelor's degree in nursing and went on to earn an MBA from Syracuse University.

Life in D.C.

Melvin-Taylor met her husband, Kip Taylor, when she was working in medical marketing research in Washington, D.C. They married in 1996, and two years later Kip — the son of a career Army officer — began working at the Pentagon as an executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel. The two struggled to conceive but finally welcomed their first child, Dean, on Dec. 28, 1999, through in vitro fertilization. Two years later, Nancy became pregnant again via IVF. It was, the Taylors said, a miracle. They lived in McLean, Virginia, and loved grilling on their deck and working in their yard. The 6-foot-5 Kip enjoyed running, and playing basketball and golf. He said he dreamed of one day coaching his son's Little League team or attending dance recitals.

Their second child was due in October 2001, and Kip had another reason to be excited: That November, he would be promoted from major to lieutenant colonel. He had asked the Army to delay the promotion so that his family, who would be in town to see the baby, could be there. It was a big deal. The Taylors were on top of the world, but that world was about to be turned upside down. At 8:26 a.m. on Sept. 11, 2001, Kip e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon and poignantly discussed how his life had changed since becoming a dad. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home,'" he wrote. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

Seventy-four minutes later, the 38-year-old Taylor was killed when American Airlines Flight 77 struck the Pentagon during the terrorist attacks on America. His office took a direct hit. Also killed was Kip's boss, Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, with whom Kip was meeting. Maude was the highest-ranking U.S. military officer killed in the Sept. 11 attacks and the most senior U.S. officer killed by hostile action since Lt. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner in 1945. "We knew early on that Kip was missing," says Mitchell, a marketing consultant in Boston at the time. "But Nancy thought he might be in a hospital. So many people had been severely injured and hospitalized. But someone from the military came to her house two days later and said he had been in a meeting with Kip just before the plane hit. He said there was no way Kip could have survived based on where he was."

Nancy scheduled a memorial service for her husband at Arlington National Cemetery, less than two weeks before her due date. The Army posthumously promoted Kip to lieutenant colonel. "For a long time, she didn't accept that he was gone," Mitchell says. "They didn't find his body until two days before the service. And that service was something. The place was packed to the gills with all sorts of military personnel, and you could see the Pentagon from the (burial) site. It was still charred." Nancy recounted her feelings in an interview with ArlingtonCemetery.net after the memorial service.

"We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," she said. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." On Oct. 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to another son, Luke. "The babies are a great source of comfort," she said afterward. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband."

A 37-year-old widow with two children, Nancy courageously trudged on and started a charity in her husband's name for infertile military couples. The Kip P. Taylor Fund assisted with travel and lodging expenses for couples who received fertility treatments. Nancy found it impossible to think about returning to her job as editor of a medical newsletter. There were no other family members in Washington. A part-time nanny helped, and friends like Mitchell did their part when they visited. It was a lonely, painful time. "At first, I was getting by hour to hour," she told ArlingtonCemetery.net. "Now it's week to week. I hope someday it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

But time was not on Nancy's side. While nursing 3-month-old Luke in February 2002, she felt pain in her breasts. Doctors assumed it was mastitis, an infection of the breast tissue, and put her on antibiotics. When that didn't work, they did further tests and discovered Nancy had Stage 4 inflammatory breast cancer. She was given two months to live. She initially refused chemotherapy, wanting to maximize her time left with her children. But after being diagnosed with HER2-positive breast cancer, she began taking herceptin, which blocks cancer cells from growing.

"It basically buys time," Mitchell says. Melvin-Taylor packed as much life as she could into her remaining time. She worked on the fund named after her husband. She dealt with the endless paperwork that comes from being a 9/11 widow, even the chore of selling Kip's car. And she ran a gamut of emotions. "I'd go down and we'd have gloom and doom weekends," Mitchell says. "She was very angry. But there were other weekends when she was upbeat, and we'd go apple picking with the kids."

Memory lives on

Nancy died on Nov. 18, 2003, leaving behind her 4- and 2-year-old boys. She was 39. She is buried next to her husband in Arlington National Cemetery, beneath simple white markers. Dean and Luke, who soon will turn 15 and 13, have been raised in Colorado the past 11 years by Kip's brother and sister-in-law, Dean and Donna Taylor. Dean was a lieutenant colonel in the Army, and he retired to raise his brother's children. Dean and Donna did not have any children of their own. The Special Operations Warrior Foundation ensured that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations. "You get through it," Merle Melvin, Nancy's father, says of the tragedy. "You take things as they come." Merle and Ann are divorced. They have four grandsons in all — Nancy's twin, John, lives in Cazenovia and has two boys. But they don't often see Dean and Luke. "It has been a while," Merle says. "I know Luke plays baseball. That much I know."

Nancy held the UR points record for 28 years until junior Michelle Relin broke it last month. UR coach Wendy Andreatta told Relin about Melvin-Taylor's life and death the day before the record fell. "It's humbling," Relin says. "I had no idea she had such a compelling story, and such a moving story. I wish I could have met her this weekend."

Melvin-Taylor remains first in career game-winning goals and third in goals scored. But again, those are just numbers. Her legacy is more about the person she was, the wife and mom she became. "She was an incredibly strong woman," says Possee, now an associate director for athletics at UR who oversees recreation programs. "She wasn't just a great athlete, she was a great person. The story is so very sad."

She married Dennis L. Huey. He was born 25 Nov 1967.

Children of Cynthia Brown and Dennis Huey are:

- 5221 i. Jeremiah Dennis¹⁶ Huey, born 07 Apr 1992 in Pennsylvania; died 14 Jan 2016 in Commodore, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Jeremiah Dennis Huey:

March 10, 2018 - "He was just an overall good kid." So Cindy Huey recalls her son Jeremiah Dennis Huey, 23, of Clymer. "He worked in the coal mines, worked in the gas wells," she said. "He excelled at baseball and football and track. He loved to ride his quad. He just enjoyed life and lived life to the fullest." However, Jeremiah Huey, a 2010 Purchase Line High School graduate, had his share of misfortunes, right up until his fatal heroin overdose on Jan. 14, 2016. "I was in a real bad car accident the day before my son passed away," Cindy Huey said. She was in UPMC Presbyterian at the time, seriously injured in a crash that left her pelvis broken in two places, as well as her tailbone.

"Brad knew that he was so upset because his mom had wrecked her car," Jeremiah's mother said. She was referring to Brad Troup, age 39, of Northern Cambria. On Friday in Pittsburgh, United States District Judge Cathy Bissoon imposed a sentence of 10 years in prison and three years of supervised release on Troup, who pleaded guilty on Dec. 2, 2017, to charges that he provided the heroin that killed Jeremiah Huey. Cindy Huey said it wasn't enough of a punishment but, "we had to settle for that." Prosecutors told the family Troup could have walked if the case had gone to trial and just one juror voted for acquittal. "Will that ever bring my son back?" Cindy Huey asked. "No." However, referring to Troup, she said, "we could be in that same boat that his parents were in." Not that Cindy and her husband, Dennis, are in much better shape.

"My husband goes to the cemetery every day," Cindy Huey said. "There isn't a day he hasn't missed." Assistant U.S. Attorney Katherine A. King prosecuted the case against Troup. A spokeswoman for Pittsburgh U.S. Attorney Scott W. Brady said federal sentencing guidelines provided for a maximum sentence of up to 20 years in prison, and/or fines of up to $1 million. "It was rough," Cindy Huey said in the hours after the sentencing. "We had impact letters read. There was a lot of emotion, a lot of crying going. It was hard for our attorney to read my letter."

On Oct. 10, 2011, Jeremiah Huey and his brother Joshua were going to the hospital to visit a friend who had been suffering from seizures — when their car struck a woman walking on Route 286. Then-Indiana County Coroner Michael Baker suspected that the victim, Jammie Lee Locke, 32, of Meadville, Crawford County, was under the influence of alcohol or drugs, though there was no evidence that she was impaired. Still, several drivers said they nearly hit her before Jeremiah Huey's car came along.

Jeremiah Huey was not charged in that crash, but as his mother recalled Baker telling him, "Unfortunately, you have to live with this." In 2012 he totaled his pickup truck in a case of underage driving under the influence. "He went for the ARD (Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition) program," his mother said. "He went to The Open Door," a rehabilitation program, and Jeremiah Huey met and began liking a girl who had been addicted to heroin for eight years. That started him on heroin, and likely got him in touch with Troup.

"You meet a lot of people there," Jeremiah's mother said. "Was he his friend? I would say they were friends at one time. It's just a sad all-around thing. Did Jeremiah want any of this to happen? No. He was just weak." He tried to get clean and stay clean. "We told him, 'You have to do something about this. He went ahead and told his boss in the mine, who told him, 'Get fixed up and your job will be here when you get back,'" Cindy Huey said. "He was in rehab for 43 days and got out, and was clean for 11 months."

Then he totaled his father's car in early in 2014 and broke his back. "He had surgery," his mother said. "They gave him fentanyl and morphine. We told them, 'You don't do that to an addict,' but the doctor said, 'He'll be fine.'" That was Jan. 18, 2014, two years to the day before Jeremiah Huey was laid to rest. "He was a big inspiration to everyone," his mother recalled. "Fifteen hundred people came to that funeral home to give respects to Jeremiah. It was snowing out."

Jeremiah's survivors include his brothers Jordan and Joshua. "Joshua was actually the one who found him," their mother said. "My sons have been struggling." Another survivor is his son, Tanner, born Feb. 13, 2016. Cindy and Dennis Huey have custody of their grandson. There also is the support of the family's church, Christ Bible Fellowship Church. "They have been so supportive to us," Cindy Huey said. "They have been there since day one." Cindy Huey's advice? "Hug your kids," she said. "Never say it's not going to be my kids, because it's going to come back. It is a struggle out there every single day for these addicts." Brady credited state police, Pittsburgh city police, the Drug Enforcement Administration and district attorneys in Allegheny and Indiana counties for their work investigating Huey's death and Troup's prosecution.
