Advent at Calvary: More Than Words

Advent is far more than the season leading up to Christmas; it is a sacred time of preparation and holy anticipation. Marked by the color blue and the lighting of candles for Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love, Advent invites us to slow down and open our hearts to what God is doing among us.

This year, we begin Advent with a reminder of an ancient truth. Alexander John Shaia of Quadratos writes:

"Our ancestors knew something that our world today has largely forgotten. Darkness is the place from which all things are created... In ancient times... the Celts and then Celtic Christians marked this darkness as the first moment of a new cycle, a new year, literally an Advent!"

Advent begins in the deep dark, not as something to fear, but as the fertile place where God's new creation first takes shape. It is in the quiet, the waiting, and the longing that Christ meets us.

Our Theme: More Than Words

We will explore how Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love are not simply words we speak, but transformational gifts God is forming within us. Each week will invite us to live these promises more fully, trusting that Christ is already drawing near.

May this season open us to God's creative work in and through us as we wait, watch, and welcome the coming of Christ.

A MESSAGE FROM LEAD PASTOR RACHAEL PUTTBRESE

Greetings, Siblings in Christ,
I greet you having just passed the one-month milestone of my call as your Lead Pastor. In some ways, I am excitedly settling into a rhythm and routine; in other ways, I still feel a bit like a fish out of water. Either way, I remain rooted in the promises that hold us all. We are God's beloved...held in love, mercy, and forgiveness, and we are called to share those same gifts with one another and the world.

Lately, I've been watching a funny little "debate" unfold online this time of year. It usually starts with a bold opinion about when Christmas décor should go up. Some find it bothersome that people enjoy decorating in November, insisting that Christmas lights have a proper and universally understood time and place.

I've even heard the argument that listening to Christmas music or decorating too early somehow takes away from Thanksgiving or "rushes" Christmas. Really? I think we can hold more than one thing in balance. A heart full of gratitude...and a lighted tree. A table set with turkey and potatoes...and Christmas music playing in the background. These things can coexist. For me, it raises a deeper question: How do we allow external happenings to shape (or not shape) our internal world?

Because when Christmas Eve comes, you'll likely hear me remind us all that Christ is born into our everyday, not because of décor or dates on a calendar, but because God desires to be with us! Jesus was born into our world in a manger long ago and is born into our lives now by the power of the Spirit, continually shaping the posture of our hearts and guiding the work of our hands.

Advent leading into Christmas is such an interesting season, because the church calendar and our cultural calendars don't always line up.

Advent, beginning this year on November 30, is actually the Church's New Year. It is a season that begins where it ends and invites us back to the beginning again. Christ has come, Christ is with us, and Christ will come again.

A professor at Luther Seminary once described Advent as the season of Christ in history, mystery, and majesty, reminding us that as God's people, we live in a holy "both-and."

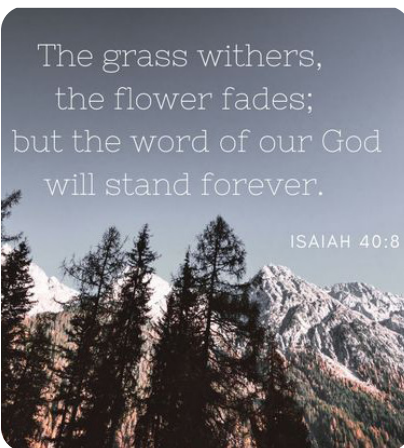

Christ has come...and will come again. We remember and we anticipate. We look inward and we look outward. We long, we hope, and we trust.

During Advent, we pause to reflect and to hear again the good news of God's faithfulness—God's desire to send the light and love of Christ into a weary world. As we light the candles each week, their glow slows us down and invites us into hope, peace, joy, and love. More than words on ornaments, these are the grounding promises for God's people. They draw us toward the manger, the cross, the grave, and the empty tomb, reminding us of who we are and whose we are.

As I continue to learn your names, hear your stories, and find my own rhythm among you, I invite you into this season, whether your decorations are up, half-up, or still in boxes. Let's walk through Advent with open hearts. Let's live into the fullness of Christmas not just on one night, but every day. And let's trust that the promises born to us in Bethlehem long ago are still being born in us, around us, and through us even now. Blessings, dear ones, as we journey this season together.

Because Advent marks the start of a new church year, we are inviting everyone to wear a name tag throughout the season. Name tags and markers will be available right outside the entrances of our worship spaces. Thank you for helping us begin the year by learning (or relearning) each other's names and help me to learn names too!

We Invite You to Worship on Christmas Eve

We are blessed by the number of you who will be gathering with us to celebrate the birth of Christ. Please remember that parking can be challenging with multiple services throughout the day. We encourage carpooling when possible and invite you to plan for parking in the neighborhood blocks around the church.

Highlights of Church Council

FINANCE - 2025 FINANCE REPORT

Calvary's giving this October was $11K lower than last year. This is due to the timing of annual gifts, with the annual gifts being received in October 2024 and not this October.

Year-to-date expenses are still lower, but October expenses were higher due to pastors overlapping.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Building & Grounds

Danny is gone November 24 through February 15.

Tony reached out to Brad Thoreson and said he is willing to fill in for Danny.

Stewardship

Caring leader's social was on Sunday, November 9, and there was a good turn-out of individuals. Commitment cards have been sent to congregation members and commitment cards were handed out at church and collected during offering.

NEW BUSINESS

Server and Technology Cost

Calvary is continuing with support from Marco Technologies for one more year but looking at other options for technology support in the future, including cloud-based server options.

New Office Computers

No computers have been purchased with credit card points yet. Still planning on purchasing three computers when it is "deal season," but now plan to purchase computers for Chelsea, Julie and Nicole.

Budgeting for 2026

Heather presented the proposed 2026 budget line by line. Recommendations were made including moving Family and Social Life (Parish Fellowship) to Outreach.

Current budget for 2026 budgets for half year of pulpit supply and half year for an Associate Pastor.

Budget will continue to be updated and discussed again during December Council meeting.

Pastor Rachael's transition

Pastor Rachael's installation was held on Sunday, November 16, with Bishop Tessa as we had one combined 9:00 a.m. service and one 10:30 a.m. service.

Next Council Meeting: Dec. 9 @ 6:30 p.m.

All-Inclusive Committee Update

Thank you to all who participated in Calvary's recent welcome and inclusion survey. Your responses have been received, reviewed, and shared with the All-Inclusive Committee. We are grateful for the honesty, care, and deep investment in our congregation that came through in your feedback, including the places of enthusiasm, concern, and challenge.

The committee continues its work of reflecting on how our welcome at Calvary can be extended to all who may not realize they are welcome, especially those who have experienced harm or exclusion in faith communities. This includes, but is not limited to, people of color, Indigenous people, those living with disabilities, and people who identify as LGBTQIA+.

We remain committed to listening, learning, and discerning together as a committee. As this work continues, we will invite the congregation into ongoing opportunities for conversation and learning, always holding with care the hopes, concerns, and vast perspectives. Thank you again for engaging in this important, ongoing conversation.

A Lewis & Clark Partnership

Calvary's "It Takes a Village" partnership with our neighbor school, Lewis and Clark, is thriving in its fourth year of supporting the backpack meal program. This ministry allows us to live out our call to compassion by helping meet the nutritional needs of food-insecure children in our partner school. Each week, the program provides weekend meals for students who might otherwise go hungry.

It costs approximately $100 to support one child for an entire school year. We invite you to consider sponsoring one or more students for the 2025–2026 school year—every contribution, large or small, makes a meaningful difference.

For those who prefer to donate food items directly, collection tables are located outside each worship space. Picking up an extra item or two while you shop is an easy way to support this ministry. An Amazon Wish List is also available for anyone who would like to have items shipped straight to Calvary.

Together, we truly can make a village of care around the children at Lewis and Clark.

Backpack Program

An enthusiastic and hardworking group gathered on November 18, to pack backpack meals for Lewis and Clark. Thanks to their efforts, an impressive 792 meals were prepared for students in need. Because the team was able to work ahead, there will be no December packing session. Regular meetings will resume on the third Tuesday in January.

Volunteer Opportunity

Volunteers are needed to assist in filling bags on the third Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m. in the church narthex. Please consider taking an hour on these days to help.

Sponsoring a Child

It costs roughly $100 to sponsor one child for the entire school year. We ask that you consider sponsoring one or more so we can meet our goal of providing for all students. Your sponsorship provides food and support for a child in need. It's a simple way to make a lasting impact—one student, one life, one future changed.

Thanks to your generosity, 31 students are sponsored for the school year! Let's keep going and see how many more we can support.

Two ways to sponsor a child:
Give $100 or $100 check designated to Sponsoring a Child to our Finance Director, Heather.

Calvary Angel Tree

Create a merry Christmas for a community member in need this year with our 2025 Angel Tree. Calvary will again be partnering with several community agencies to enjoy the spirit of giving. We are partnering to provide gifts for Lewis and Clark and other families, elderly, and veterans who would go without Christmas gifts.

Trees are up so you will be able to shop til you drop! Pick a tag with gift ideas and instructions from the trees located outside each worship space or choose from our sign-up Genius, Target, or Amazon registries. Those links will go live and you can get to them either through our website, facebook page or use the qr codes below:

Amazon

Gifts are due on December 9. Once gifts come back to Calvary, we will need volunteers to shop for gifts on remaining tags, sort gifts, wrap gifts or fill gift bags.

A Special Ask

The Angel Tree is a blessing to many families in our community who wouldn't have gifts without the kindness and generosity of the people of Calvary. This year has been especially difficult in some cases, and we got a special request from one of our partnering agencies who has a family that is struggling this year. This family needs a bunk bed for their kids. We are looking for a bunk bed with mattresses to assist this family. If you have beds that you are not using and would be willing to donate, please contact Julie in the church office or at Julie.pedersen@calvarygf.org.

Thank you for sharing God's love with the people around us. Please contact Julie in the church office with any questions or let her know you'd like to help.
