Rutherford County Home Builders Association
Scholarship Application requirements

The Rutherford County Home Builders Association is an organization which is the local chapter of the North Carolina Home Builders Association and the National Association of Home Builders. The organization is a group of building professionals and related industries working together to provide safe and affordable housing for people of North Carolina. We protect the American Dream of home ownership through advocacy, education and professional business development.

The Rutherford County Home Builders Association will honor one student at each McNair affiliated public high school in Rutherford County. The student should have an interest in and plan to study a building related field in college. Each recipient will receive $1,000.00. Applicants must meet the following requirements:

- Must have been accepted to a North Carolina Community college or 4 year university which is accredited through the State of North Carolina.
- Must be eligible for a ROPE award
- After scholarship acceptance must be willing to participate in two Rutherford County Habitat for Humanity work days
- It is not required for you to plan on majoring in any building related field but you will be given more consideration if you do
