GENERAL RULES and GUIDANCE

1. Eligible participants are those currently enrolled in 5th or lower grade.
2. All participants shall be pre-registered on-line by March 20, 2024. On the day of the Hunt, they will receive an entrance ticket upon check-in at the field and surrender of the Participation and Consent form. Participants must have an entrance ticket and shall relinquish the ticket to the Egg Hunt Monitor before entering the search and collection area.
3. Participants shall assume all risks during this event.
4. Participants shall provide their own basket or bag to collect their eggs.
5. The boundaries of the active egg-hunt search area will be clearly marked. No eggs will be scattered outside the boundaries of the area.
6. The Hunt shall be conducted in flights of hunters of (approximately) like age. Hunts shall be limited to small groups (8-12) and participants to one hunt cycle to ensure that all attendees are included.
7. Each participant shall be limited to collecting a maximum of 20 eggs to ensure fairness to all attendees. Please respect the Honor System.
8. The Thalia Civic League emphasizes fairness and respect: participants shall be considerate of others while hunting for eggs. Aggressive actions including pushing, shoving, tripping, or snatching eggs from others will not be tolerated and shall be the basis for immediate removal.
9. All parties shall ensure we leave behind a clean and litter-free environment. Please respect the property and do not litter.

NOTE: The Thalia Civic League makes no warranty regarding the safety of the candy in the eggs as it pertains to food allergies. It is up to the parent or guardian of the participant to screen the candy for allergens.
