Introduction

At Madrasah Abu Hurairah we believe in creating a whole madrasah culture that is safe and inclusive. A Staff Code of Conduct is designed to give clear guidance on the standards of behaviour all madrasah staff are expected to observe. Madrasah staff are in a unique position of influence and must adhere to behaviour that models the highest possible standards for all the pupils within the school. As a member of a school community, each employee has an individual responsibility to maintain their reputation and the reputation of the school, whether inside or outside of working hours.

Our aims underpin the madrasah culture: to develop a happy, friendly, secure and well-disciplined atmosphere and to encourage a caring, respectful and trusting relationship between all children and adults. This code of conduct sets out the key principles for the creation and maintenance of a safe school culture. Staff failure to adhere to this policy may result in disciplinary action including dismissal.

Objectives of a safe school culture:

- To safeguard pupils and protect staff
- To make explicit expectations of performance and conduct
- To minimise opportunities for abuse
- For all staff to have confidence to report concerns with full confidentiality
- To respond promptly to concerns: we always investigate and address issues
- To exercise appropriate sanctions
- To create and maintain an ethos of mutual respect, openness and fairness

Our Code of Conduct

All staff are expected to follow the madrasah's policies: including behaviour; anti-bullying; anti-racism in all interactions in school.

Pupils and staff are expected to work together to build a madrasah whose relationships are characterised by mutual and appropriate respect. Praise and building on the positive should always come first. Where firmness/admonition is called for this should be exercised calmly, and staff should avoid shouting at pupils unless there is a Health and Safety risk. The school behaviour policy and associated documents establish expectations and approved sanctions. All new staff should be issued with a copy of these policies, and any behaviour concerns should be dealt with in line with them. Where a member of staff is having difficulties managing pupil behaviour, they should discuss this matter with the headteacher or senior leader at the earliest opportunity.

All staff should be aware of what physical contact with pupils is appropriate.

Staff should only exercise physical restraint as a last resort to prevent injury. Staff are allowed to comfort a child who is hurt/distressed in a manner appropriate to the age of the child.

Adults should not initiate any physical contact unnecessarily, and there should be clear boundaries:

- Children should not be picked up (unless medically necessary or being restrained).
- Adults should avoid being in a room alone with a child where the door is closed. If you need to talk to a child, either leave a door open and position yourself within sight of the door, or ask another adult to be present.

All staff are expected to treat each other with respect.

Relationships between staff should be characterised by fairness, openness and respect. This means valuing all contributions, acknowledging difference, and working together to build a climate of continuous improvement. Politeness and respect are essential ingredients: where differences occur they should be dealt with calmly and fairly.

All staff should treat resources responsibly, and exercise due financial care.

All staff have a responsibility to look after the resources of the madrasah. This includes: not wasting resources unnecessarily (including physical resources and those such as heat/electricity); following the principles of 'reduce, re-use, recycle' where appropriate. All money handled should be clearly labelled and sent to the madrasah office by the end of the working day.

All staff are expected to behave professionally and exercise confidentiality.

All staff are expected to behave thoughtfully and responsibly. Staff should be punctual and well-prepared, and should carry out tasks to the best of their ability, taking pride in their work. All absence should be genuine. Staff are expected to dress appropriately; all staff should set a good example in what they wear. Staff should exercise due confidentiality towards matters that are either discussed or overheard. Staff must exercise caution when using information technology and be aware of the risk to themselves and others. Staff must have no personal contact with former of pupils until they reach the age of eighteen, and they have not been a pupil at Madrasah Abu Hurairah for a minimum of seven years. Staff must not engage in inappropriate use of social network sites which may bring themselves, the madrasah, madrasah community or employer into disrepute.

Conduct Outside of Madrasah

Staff must not engage in conduct outside madrasah which could seriously damage the reputation and standing of the madrasah or the employee's own reputation or the reputation of other members of the madrasah community. Any such conduct could lead to dismissal. In particular, criminal offences that involve violence or possession or use of illegal drugs or sexual misconduct are likely to be regarded as unacceptable and could lead to dismissal. Staff must exercise caution when using information technology and be aware of the risks to themselves and others. Staff must not use social media e.g. Facebook/Twitter with pupils or former pupils unless the former pupil is aged at least eighteen and has not been a pupil at the madrasah for over seven years. Staff must not engage in inappropriate use of social network sites which may bring themselves, the madrasah, madrasah community or employer into disrepute. Staff must only use madrasah-approved accounts or madrasah learning platform account when communicating electronically with pupils, parents and colleagues. Staff may undertake work outside madrasah, either paid or voluntary, provided that it does not conflict with the interests of the madrasah and is not to a level which may contravene the working time regulations or affect an individual's work performance. All members of staff must declare any business interests outside of madrasah that may be connected either to the supply of goods / services to the madrasah or be rewarded through association with the madrasah. Where families or pupils are known to staff members in a personal capacity, it is the responsibility of the staff member to ensure that a declaration is made to the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) or the headteacher in the case of the DSL.

Confidentiality

Where staff have access to confidential information about pupils or their parents or carers, staff must not reveal such information except to those colleagues who have a professional role in relation to the pupil. All staff are likely at some point to witness actions which need to be confidential (e.g where a pupil is bullied by another pupil/member of staff), this needs to be reported and dealt with in accordance with the appropriate madrasah procedure. It must not be discussed outside the madrasah, including with the pupil's parent or carer, nor with colleagues in the madrasah except with a senior member of staff with the appropriate role and authority to deal with the matter. However, staff have an obligation to share with the senior leaders or the headteacher, any information which gives rise to concern about the safety or welfare of a pupil. Staff must never promise a pupil that they will not act on information that they are told by the pupil.

Staff should seek to establish a good and open relationship with parents.

Staff should aim to create a welcoming and open relationship with parents. All parental concerns should be treated seriously and dealt with promptly.

All staff need to be aware of the policy and procedures for Child Protection.

It is essential that all staff have regular training in Child Protection issues and know the procedures for dealing with and reporting concerns. All staff have a duty to look out for signs of physical, emotional or sexual abuse or neglect of pupils in the light of a child's behaviour. Staff must pass any concerns on to the Designated Teacher for Child Protection (the Head teacher), and in their absence the senior leaders. Avoid trying to involve yourself too closely with any issues: always pass concerns on.

All staff need to exploit the potential of the curriculum to develop a proactive approach to behaviour and child protection issues.

Staff need to take a proactive approach towards both child protection and behaviour policies, through the creation of a positive classroom environment where all children are respected, and through Islamic Curriculum lessons in particular. This includes not undermining fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. The expression of extremist views by staff will not be tolerated and should be reported to the senior leaders or headteacher, who will contact relevant authorities if necessary.

All staff need to be aware of how to record/report concerns ("whistleblowing").

Where staff have any concerns about another member of staff, these should be reported immediately to the headteacher. Where the concern is about the headteacher, it should be reported directly to another senior leader. All concerns will be investigated thoroughly and confidentially, and appropriate action taken.

All staff should take care of their physical and mental wellbeing.

All staff are encouraged to look after their physical and mental wellbeing. This includes maintaining a healthy work-life balance. We take issues of stress very seriously, and look to provide appropriate support and help in these cases.

All staff should have access to counselling and support

Staff needing support are encouraged to discuss issues and concerns with the headteacher or other senior leader in confidence. Support can be provided both internally (e.g. through the provision of a mentor), or externally.
