[Verse 1]

Am

When we were young the future was so bright

F

The old neighborhood was so alive

C

And every kid on the whole damn street

G

Was gonna make it big and not be beat

Am

Now the neighborhood's cracked and torn

F

The kids are grown up but their lives are worn

C

How can one little street

G

Swallow so many lives

Am

Chances thrown

F

Brandon OD'd and died

C

What the hell is going on

G

The cruelest dream, reality

Am

Chances thrown

[Chorus]

F

Nothing's free

C

G

Longing for what used to be

Am

Still it's hard

F

Hard to see

C

G

Fragile lives, shattered dreams

[Solo]
