

CHILD SAFE VISITS CODE OF CONDUCT CUSTODIAL PARENT

PLEASE READ AND INITIAL EACH ITEM

- Copies of all court orders will be provided to the monitor and must be followed, as well as the monitor's Code of Conduct.
- I agree to arrive on time at the agreed site and leave the area immediately after the exchange is made. *A late fee will be charged if time exceeds more than 15 minutes. If the exchange location is not defined in the court orders the monitor has the discretion to select a reasonable location.
- I agree to be responsible for the transportation of child(ren) to and from the visit site unless alternate arrangements have been made with the monitor or stipulated by the court.
- Following, harassing or gesturing to the non-custodial parent before, during or after the visit is prohibited.
- Any Attempt to record the exchanges by either parent/guardian must be reported to the Monitor. No weapons are allowed during exchanges
- I agree not to contact the child(ren) or non-custodial parent during visits. (Including phone calls, text messages, etc.) *Excludes emergencies
- Negative conversations about the non-custodial parent or pending court case, in front of child(ren), is prohibited.
- No written or verbal messages will be relayed to non-custodial parent by the child(ren) or by the monitor, unless it is pertaining to the visitation.
- Any injuries to the child(ren) that were not acquired during a visit shall be reported to the monitor prior to the commencement of the visitation with the non-custodial parent.
- Visitation Monitors are mandated by the court to report ANY circumstance that compromises the child(ren)'s health, safety or welfare. Including but not limited to sexual misconduct, abuse, or the threat of violence against the child or non-custodial parent.
- Cancellation of a visit without proper notice will be subject to a cancellation fee. In the event of illness, a doctor's note will need to be provided to the monitor.
- I understand that in the event the Primary Monitor is unavailable, I agree to a qualified Substitute Monitor in his/her place.

Any requests for reports must be done in writing and submitted 14 days prior to court hearings; reports will not be started unless payment is received in full. The party requesting a report is responsible for payment.

*An additional fee will be charged if proper notice is not given.
