

MARCH EVENTS

Book Club

WED, 03/04/26 - 2-4 PM

Welcome book lovers. We meet for appetizers/desserts and beverages at a member's home.

This month's selection, Horse by Geraldine Brooks is a historical novel that intertwines the story of a legendary 19th-century racehorse, Lexington, with modern-day characters, exploring themes of racism, art, science, and the legacy of slavery through the bond between an enslaved groom and the horse. The narrative moves between the antebellum South, the Civil War, and the present day.
