The “Riverside University High School, 150 Years of Academic Excellence” History Book Has Now Been Published – Copies of this book are now available for the price of $30, which is a significant reduction from the price announced earlier. The book contains 240 pages of facts, stories, and pictures of the 150-year history of the very first public high school established in the City of Milwaukee. Riverside has a rich tradition of academic, extracurricular and athletic achievement as well as public service all of which are chronicled in this book. The list of distinguished Riverside alumni includes names such as Elmer Winter (Founder of Manpower, Inc.), Jack Rosenberg (Philanthropist), Gordan Zahn (Peace Activist), Terrance Evans (Federal Judge), Rudy Randa (Federal Judge), Thomas Fairchild (Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice), four current City of Milwaukee Alderpersons, Common Council President, Ashanti Hamilton, Alderperson Milele Coggs, Alderperson Nik Kovac and Alderperson Khalif Rainey, Chappie Fox (Director of the Circus World Museum), Collen Dewhurst (Actress), Lisa Summerour (Miss New Jersey USA, Actress), Garrett Droppers (Ambassador to Montenegro and Greece), Irvin Charne (Milwaukee Schools Desegregation Attorney) and many, many more. It also includes profiles on many outstanding Riverside athletes such as Alvin Kraenzlein, the only athlete to win four individual gold medals in track in the Olympics, Fritz Breidster who played football at Army, Art Krueger who played football at Marquette, Eddie Jankowski who played for the Green Bay Packers, Chuck Ortmann who played football for the University of Michigan and sisters Terry and Janet Huff who played basketball at the University of Wisconsin as well as Brandon Brooks who plays football for the reigning NFL Champion Philadelphia Eagles.
