

October 29: The Exodus

This is an Old Testament story from Exodus, the second book of the Bible. This story happened about 400 years after last month's stories about Joseph. His family grew so large that Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, made them his slaves. He was worried the Israelites (Joseph's family) would take over his country.

Old Testament stories took place before the birth of Jesus.

Exodus 12:31-36; 13:17-14:31

Moses, the Plagues, and Passover

Read the story from the Bible or Children's Bible Story Book or online.

Make a Red Sea sensory bag. Preschool families may want to revisit this page for other age-appropriate crafts.

Color the story on one of these pages.

Older students may Google images of paintings of Moses crossing the Red Sea.

Say a Prayer of thanksgiving that God loves you and is always with you, wherever you go.

