A message from Pastor Keith:

A very happy Monday to you! It was good to see some visitors yesterday, some returning and some new. It was just a great day of worship, and fellowship. I am looking forward to next Sunday as we will be baptizing two individuals. One young and one well, not so young. That is exciting for me, and for our church. You are never too old or too far gone that God cannot reach you right where you are. That is what is so amazing about our God. He will meet you right where you are, and take you places you could only dream of going. I want to encourage you to continue to pray and ask God to show us those great things in which we never knew about. I believe these baptisms are just the beginning of what God wants to show us so keep praying! Don't forget our Plenty-9ners lunch tomorrow at noon. Come and enjoy the fellowship together. Also Choir will begin to meet together this Wednesday at 5pm to work on Easter music, and we will begin a new study in the book of Luke this Wednesday night at 6pm. Come and join us! Lift one another up in prayer this week, please know I love each one of you, and may God Bless you this week Bro. Keith
