AUTHOR'S WORD:
"REASON WHY I PRAISE."

I have been a researcher, a fact-finder, an inquisitor. I have come to three conclusions: First, that, no matter how pretentious, every human being seeks for something loftier, higher and more divine than themselves. Second, implicitly or explicitly, in every human being, there are unresolved eternal questions, such as who I am and what will become of me after death. And third, and this is an objective manifestation that reveals itself subjectively, the way people live, love, hate and make decisions is informed by their pre-conceived philosophy.

As products of nature and nurture, we are influenced both by our immediate families and our surroundings. We become who we are because of who impact us – family, friends, community, environment, and even our enemies. So, we manifest this internalized nature outwardly by the decisions we make in life, big or small.

Of paramount importance, is our life philosophy. Some believe in God, some prefer to be in the middle (neither for nor against God), and others choose not to believe at all. But it does not matter whether one chooses to believe or not, what will shape their life choices is already in the inside of them.

For me, belief in God is not enough. I already know Him. But loving and praising Him everyday and throughout my mortal life is my goal. And I don't do this because He has provided to me many benefits. That is just too basic; rather, I praise Him because I am who I am because of Him. In my family, career and profession, and even hobbies and leadership style and preferences, my philosophy comes from the Bible.

I have questioned many ideations and theorising. And I have come to this answer: "There is no-one and nothing that I would bow to on earth or in heaven or under the seas that deserves my homage other than Jesus Christ." He is the only Man who has a plan, idea, past, present and future that I can emulate and be satisfied with. Other humans, and credit be to their thinking, writings and achievements, are just not worthy of my worship. In addition, they have all been vulnerable to death and decay. All other philosophical personalities have died or will die (and dead they remain) except Jesus Christ. He died and rose again.

However, even if resurrection was not possible for Jesus Christ, His life, school of thought and practices impress me the greatest. He loved people, obeyed His Father, helped the afflicted, fed the poor, healed the diseased, tolerated those who did not share in His philosophy, dined with the outcasts, forgave offenders, preached discipline and self-control, led by example, and lived and died for His cause. I don't think there is any human being who shares this pedigree of excellence on earth or in heaven. Because there is not and no-one. That is why I praise Him.

Looking back, I can testify, without a shadow of doubt, that praise saw me through every challenge. I love the Lord. And I have praised Him since I knew Him over 30 years ago. Loving and praising Him, is a part of everything I do in life.

Join me. Let us praise Him. Let us thank Him. And let us do this until the very last breath in us.

BEAUTIFUL

Fruitful Garden

For man, You provided a fruitful garden In the cool of the day, You spoke from heaven
All the plans for man and woman, You laid
And food for them to enjoy, You had made How beautiful this great scenery to behold
How glorious Your love, the taste of Your nod.

A Gem in Golden Shades

One day in Your presence is a gem in golden shades
There, my heart rests, anxiety hurriedly fades Oh, let me be here daily, Your face to admire Let me Your feet kiss, and Your beauty to desire O Lover of Loves, You are very, very
And in Your embrace, grace spreads in plentiful.

Beautiful to Behold

You are most beautiful to behold, O Divine Darling
I am love struck, that my tongue to my lips will cling Your anthem rings halleluiah in all its delicate fame
I am breathless at the aura of Your glorious name Oh, love me, kiss me, hug me, till my knees should kneel And speak Thy gentle words, till Thy charm I must feel.

Knocked Down by Your Charm

I love You O Lord, for You show me how to love
You give me life and everything I do and I have I deserve nothing for You lavish upon me grace
O Lord, how beautiful to remain in Your place
To be touched by Your ever-enlarging heart O Lord, Your charm, has knocked me down flat.

Sweet Melodies

They sing melodies, sweet, soothing and
They flock in parades, their gene is ever fruitful Oh, how I envy these carefree and worriless birds - If we could sing like them from thrones of our beds - There is nothing more important and fulfilling, Lord Than to boast in the pure praises of our Holy God.

Cuteravive

O Lord, make me like sweet, cute
Cuteravive
And a child-like heart within me dearly revive She wakes up each morning with a song to sing
And she worships Him who is her heavenly King Oh, how beautiful that her first words are praises For to You and before You her voice she raises.

I Adore, Nevertheless

When I don't feel like praising my only God, eternal,
That's when I open my mouth and adore Him, internal,
O Lord, how would I make it without saying Your name?
How will my days unfold without announcing Your fame?
Your love has broken my ability to keep silent,
And from this beautiful quest, I will not relent.

Sweeter than Honey

Your love, O Lord, is sweeter than honey in honeycomb Your glance in the side of Your eye, is as a silent bomb
I love to say again and again, “How lovely Your tabernacle,” How beautiful the train of Your glory from the crystal pinnacle, I would love to stay here, right where You view all ways, I would like to constantly look at Your shining face, always.

Primary Reason the Sun Rises

What is the primary reason the sun rises upon the earth?
Is it to showcase the power and wisdom of God's truth?
And more, to warm the world and make vegetation grow, So that the young girl can radiate the beautiful glow, So wonderful are Your excursions, O gorgeous charmer,
I would rather praise You than frown or even murmur.

Sneak Me Higher

My Lord, my Lover, take me far away,
 way further than here
Oh, my love, sneak me higher into the mountains yonder there
And in that place, show me just how beautiful You are Oh, my tender love, point me intimately to the Morning Star And in the presence of angels, hold me tightly into Your arms, There kiss me deeply, and draw me strongly in lovely palms.

Embrace of a Million Faces

Your love is better than the embrace of a million faces Your touch I crave, I fall for Your whisper in scented places You are very beautiful to behold, O my heart breaks for You And everything that You tell me is, indeed, very true;
I would not mind kissing Your countenance all day And to rave in Your splendor, and there forever to stay.

None Can Conquer

There is a line that You have set so no-one can cross
There is a Kingdom You have established none can toss
My heart will utter the most beautiful name in public
And will shower adoration openly and in oblique
For You are the Star that directs the lost sailor
The glory that illuminates my mind to know better.

Fairer than the Moon

Oh, how beautiful Thou art, O Lord, my God, how beautiful Thy countenance shines brightly, Thy grace is bountiful And fairer than the moon or the sun in their azure glory Even more attractive than the angels in all their flurry Thou art God – Father, Spirit and Son – all an intricate Triune More than medals and trophies, I own Thee only, as mine.

Pleasure of My Lips

Let me honor You with the pleasure of my lips, O Lord Let me state it most emphatic, my God, let me be bold
The flowers have spread evenly their beautiful petals
The honey has honeyed from within their pretty sepals
You must be great, greatly merciful and full of kindness O Lord, promotion and success are Yours, so is grace.

Another Beautiful Day

It's day, again, another beautiful day, a pretty day
And You are with me and mine, now and all the way
So purge me, O Lord, that my life be a testimony
And purify me, so my rhythm should bring harmony
For You never change, O Highest Crowned Father
Your dominion is ever extending, further and further.

My Redeemer is Alive

I have no idea what is in it for me this beautiful Monday
But I know that my redeemer lives
Sunday to Sunday When You lifted Your head to design my elegant destiny
When You saw that all my ways were bright, however tiny If You permit, I will come to You the next day, You to adore I'll testify for God who brings great light from the dark shadow.

Maker of the Universe

Oh, sing, sing a beautiful and melodious song, O my soul Do not waste your energy on your bed, worrying to the core,
The LORD is all-sufficient, the way He will make for you, Him only you shall praise, for all His directives are also true, In the way of conquerors, you'll walk and spoils you'll gather For the Maker of the Universe's God, and also He's your Father.

Glorious and Wonderful

There is no-one like You, glorious and wonderful,
No, no-one can compare to You, O Most Beautiful,
You are in all things, incomparable, Most Desirable Among the gods, You're matchless and dependable
The day You were born, is elegantly superlative,
You have conquered all, majestic and exquisitive.

My Dearest Love

O Father, my dearest love, even today You're utterly good The snow that fell will beautify the land and purify the wood The rains will pour and end with a lovely, beautiful rainbow
And the winds have made a pact, to sing and not to prowl Your favor has made me free; Your kindness' my daily gift, O Father, praiseful words shall not end; they'll surely crack a rift.

The World's Best Melodies

In my meditations, I considered and sank in the thoughts of my own I reasoned, "God, why don't lovely voices sing only for You alone?"

It broke my heart, O Lord, that the world's best melodies are wasted They are dedicated to mere mortals, who are doomed to be basted, I made up my mind, that I will appreciate all nature's beautiful things, But only the Lord will I praise, for He is One, and He is King of kings.

God, in the Highest

I reasoned in my heart and asked a question,
“Who on earth deserves my adoration”?
“Who among women is to be given homage”?
“Who transcends life and beauty in this age”?
“Who among the children of men is the greatest”?
Nay, there is none, serve God in the highest.

A Sunshine is Good Day

The world sees the sunshine and calls it a good day
It gazes at the moon and stars and finds its every way But I look at the heavenly elements and say, "Wow!"
I rave at the splendor and in wonder I say, "How!"
I will go to the Highest bowing down on my lowest I will glory in Him, enchanted by His beauty, always.

Beauty Instead of Ashes

I will tell of what You do to my wayward ways Yes, You hide my nakedness with Your grace
You crown me with beauty instead of ashes
You lift me up into singing from deadly mashes
Those who hope in idols are utterly fooled Halleluiah, O Lord, from heaven nations are ruled.

Let the Music Play

Let the music play, let it sound Thy hallowed honor Let it boast in elevated notes before its divine owner For Thou has placed extraordinary beauty in songs
The melody, the sweetness and power and all goings, Oh, worship Him, all His people, on stringed instruments Dance before Him, lifting holy hands with clean garments.

Flowers Him They Admire

You can't look at the flowers and Him fail to admire

You can't observe the beauty of the sunset and Him fail to desire

You can't perceive the brilliance of Heaven and to Him fail to aspire

You can't gaze at the wonder of the seas and ignore His power

O Lord, I am speechless; who is like unto
You?

Who is the only Way, the real Life, and all He says and is, is true?

Hands Raised to Heaven

O Lord, my God, when I in deep and grave contemplations Not for my needs, for others and those You share relations, I wonder I how, my head bowed, my hands raised to heaven
I will not relent to observe Your wonders, twenty-four-seven,
All the beauty around me attests to Your mighty and power, All souls, ancient and future, will testify about this holy hour.

Famous for His Beauty

Oh, praise God, He heals the brokenhearted, their wounds He binds Oh, honor His name, He defeats Leviathan, its cycloid eye He blinds O enlarge Him, for He is famous for His beauty and His great fame He decides the number of the stars and calls them each by its name Oh, great is God and mighty in power;
His understanding has no limit The LORD sustains the humble but all wicked ways, He will vomit.

LOVELY

Delighted in You

I am delighted in You, O Jehovah, my dearest lover
From all my enemies, You have given me safe cover by the end of tomorrow, my foes will be apologizing
They will not sleep well, all night they'll be agonizing For You, O Lord God, will sternly rebuke their plot
As for me, I'll be praising You, I'll dance in Your court.

Zephyr of Zambesia

I sing for You, , God who strides upon hefty winds, Oh, Petabwa Ulakuntwa I praise Your name, God who appears from nowhere, Oh, Napakakala Uletwa With songs, drums, banjos, dances, O Lord of Lusaka, together Nensombo
We lay prostrate down on the dry ground, Oh, praising You Namalumbo
You are called upon when the Rainy Season fails to yield our seasonal crops, And beseech You to open up the heavens again when a child a tear it drops.

All of Grace

It is all of grace, O Lord Jesus, God's beloved Son For in You I trust, O Lord God, let Your will be done Grace has spoken; I don't need my salvation to merit By redemption's free gift, Your geniality I will inherit You made it simple, that all I have to do is believe I give You praise, for in You I move and also live.

Golden Crown

My soul, be quiet, because the LORD is still on the throne The thorns that pricked His head turned into a golden crown The blood that oozed out of his body became a living flood And tear flow that His beloved shed, is the true cleansing blood To what can we compare the resurrected Lord, just to what?
If we even saw Him, where exactly could our eyes gaze at?

Desire to Adore

There is a restless in my bones, chill and hot
There is a desire to adore You, with all I've got You are my favorite topic, my lovely theme
You are my present charm, my future dream
And the thought of You energizes me to live Oh, the heavenly hope, it drives me all to give.

Crazy in Love

If I have to be crazy in every way to love

You

Then, Lord, let me not be wise but a fool

If I have to be considered unsophisticated

Then let me love You simply, uncomplicated

My love for You is eternally in heaven secured

Your love for me is forever on earth assured.

My Great Joy

O Lord, You are my love, my great joy Away from You, there is nothing to enjoy I long to hear Your still and small voice You are my best, first, and foremost choice Without You, my world is a big wilderness
I worship You, Jesus, wholly and guiltless.

Sweet Worship

These songs of sweet worship I write only for You When I still have strength in me, this will I do
All of my faculties in words Thy power will orate
And though no more, Thee will I continue to adulate In life or in death, O Lord, Thou art forever my love Thy victories shall be heard below and high above.

Secret Revealed

You, Holy God of Heaven, You are also my friend Your secret to me You reveal from end to very end I will be careful my good word always to keep
And ensure that my love for You is always deep Because there is nothing I can hide from
You
And in this, You show You're the Great God, too.

Lovely the Sound of Your Name

How lovely, so lovely the sound of Your name
I love to hear Your triumphant and sweet fame
For You share Your goodness with children
No-one resists their end, women or men For who You are, Great God, I worship
You
As I think seriously about all that You do.

Love Thoughts of Ancient Old

How lovely Your thoughts of me of ancient old?
In this I am comforted and I am very bold
You made me in Your own image and mold
You have prepared for me streets of pure gold I am a pilgrim here on earth en route to glory
I praise You, this is my goal and ultimate story.

Breeze of Early Morning

How I love this breeze of the early morning
Of the sweetness of daisies when spawning
The sounds of little birds in trees singing And the gong of church bells soundly ringing How lovely Your sweet name to pronounce, O Worthy Lord, Your awesomeness I announce.

Best of Others

I'll believe the best of others, I'll not deny the worst of me I will not be in a hurry, the misery of others to see Everything of mankind is the good works of Your hands
The colors of nature in human bonds glitter in bands How lovely to behold as Black and White do talk Oh, praise be to God who causes us all in love to walk.

Your Delightful Face

How lovely to wake up and see Your delightful face O God, You have patterned all events upon grace You turn fears and tears into sizzling joyful rays
And our expectations are justified in Your ways
How glad to be close to Your flamboyant goodness, You alone are God, ever more, and never less.

Lovely this Great Sight

How lovely this great sight, and the environment it grows How calmly this grand night, and the firmament it glows For a million brilliant sounds, this phenomenon is divine Still, a trillion excellent rounds, this illumina it will shine You are the Master Craftsman, Your dexterity invites You are the Expert Handyman, Your alacrity enchants.

Morning Till Sunset

From morning till the sun sets soundly down

May Your goodness to all be plainly known

It rains, indeed, on the farm of a sinner And though ungrateful, his herds aren't thinner

Your love shows up like a colorful rainbow

How levelled the sum of Your thoughts to us all.

Thought of Your Love

O Lord, my God, when I think about
Your love
And the things all around me that I have It is a marvel that You think so much of me
And every day, I am surprised by what I see
I will praise You always for You are very good I will thank You in everything, in every mood.

Nature Whispers Your Pleasure

I have paid attention to nature and all things
I've observed all pleasures Your love brings I can't count all my blessings, they are many I can't complain about poverty, there isn't any I have enjoyed all things You allow me to do I praise You, for all I am is because of You.

No Complaints

It is not for me, O Lord, it's not for me to complain And from all sin-gotten ventures I will dare refrain
I have so many themes to give You praise for I want to give unadulterated appreciation for all I see excellence in all creation, unseen and seen How wonderful are Your plans, Your love will win.

The Beginning of Our Courtship

At the beginning of our courtship, O sweet Savior Your love was tougher, Your tender mercies, heavier Yet, through Your hands of instructions I found solace
And when I stood in Your presence, safe in Your place Then You hugged me and dazed me with a holy kiss Since then, Jesus, I vowed Your company not to miss.

When We Just Met

In my early days of salvation after we just met I was to You like a blushful and an arrogant pet O Savior, I daily needed to be chided, to be leashed Your gentleness guided me through all I had wished In those days, Savior, You were constantly on my mind And Your love softly killed me, Your love is of its own kind.

Pure Ice-cream

O Lord my God, You are to me like pure ice-cream
You are calm, cool and sweet, I am filled to the rim Then You warm my heart like the rising morning sun
And comfort my raging thoughts like a comforting fan
I lay down and sleep, and also wake up restful again,
For Your love waters my dreams, sure as the first rain.

Wonder that Keeps Beating

You, O Lord, are the wonder that keeps my heart beating
The energy that makes me rise up and keep breathing
I would not contemplate living without Your love
More so, existing like the future I do not have I would lose my mind if a son of man I should adore Or a daughter of the mortal I should set as my idol.

The Mission of the Cross

From age zero to Your sacrificial death of the Cross
The devil ever trailed You and in You found no dross
The master deceiver could not lay his hand upon You And could not refuse that Your love mission was true For You did not come to be served, but sinners to save The blind did see, Your dear soul You willingly gave.

Amazing Grace

That I have been saved by grace, is a sweet song
That it is not by my works, is loud and very strong That if I should boast, only that You make me know If I should be proud in God my Lord, is not a show For You loved me, a sinner, before I loved You, O amazing grace, Your love is great and true.

Good Lord

My God, do not leave my soul to perish into the graves

And do not consign my body where its utility starves

My Lord, You are my salvation and also my deliverer

You will rescue me strong, for in You, I am a believer

Your presence, my Good Lord, is all my soul desires

And You I will freely worship, Your love burns like fires.

I Just Want to Praise You

I just want to praise You, my mind can't fathom any theme The reality comes early when I wake up from a good dream
Then I see that God, You have trusted Your treasure to us You even gave mankind Yourself, You were and are Jesus, You walk among us, though we don't You closely recognize Yet, we see Your loveliness, a holy party we will organize.

I Brag of Your Precious Blood

Allow me, Lord, to brag, and I will tell of Your precious blood That there is no cleanser that overwhelms like a great flood, For my own guilt had grown wider than the earth's perimeter And though my sin might have had borders larger than Jupiter, And in this I say not to justify my own failures and willfulness, O Lord, I am amazed, Your love does leave me speechless.

More Money Than Bank Can Hold

Though there is no money in my bank account Though I have no change or I lack liquid amount Yet, I will feel like I own all riches and wealth I'm exceedingly glad You keep me in great health
You have been good, always, my all You own Your love always wins, mercies You've shown.

Praise Awaits at My Heart

Praise, O Lord, praise awaits at my heart's tent
I erect for us an altar where I lay in content
You will be on my mind when I sit to play
Your name I will call upon when I stand to pray O lover of my soul, Your aura is my shield
And to Your gentle whisper, I willingly yield.

SWEET

Joy

There is a joy brewing deep down my soul
I drown under the waves of Thy waterfall
I stand on tip-toe of my dancing heart
How sweet to my feeling Lord Thou art
The essence of Thy presence is lovely The sense of Thy gentle kiss keeps me bubbly.

No-one Like You

There is no-one like You, Self-Existing One
No-one like You, whom my heart He has won No-one, who speaks sweet soothing words None, who created everything in only six days
There is no-one who calls nothing into light
And no-one, who sees perfectly in the night.

For our strength, You give cone and whole wheat
For our enjoyment, You provide goodies that be sweet For our sustenance, Your plenteous fresh water is there For our existence, You make available quality clean air For “It is good,” You said, and I now know why For in Your powerful love, You sire grace, O Most High.

Each Morning

Each morning, let untainted sweet praises ring
Each day and night, may all voices to You sing There's none for whose this composition is worthy And no-one the direction of this worship is heavy Oh, that all creation in deep adoration to You shout
The Lord, to Who all things in nature attest about.

We Met By Chance

We met almost by chance, Sweet Savior, so I thought I was restless, unfulfilled being, not what to be I ought I had put my trust in human achievements and labor But deep within me, I longed for Thy sacred harbor Then I made a holy mistake, I tried and Thee I tested Oh, how superbly sweet to my soul Thy charms tasted.

Since I Fell in Love

Since I fell in love with You, my life is never the same
My heart has been at peace, O how I love Your name So sweet to my senses are all Your whispering nods
I have never been disgruntled, no, never at any odds
I long for You like a cold sip in a heated desert land,
I desire You every day, like the ground on which I stand.

I Still Miss You

I still miss You, O my one and only, Sweet Jesus
When I am at Your side, it is only nothing but us Your presence energizes my every faculty to praise
And down at Your feet, all my faults You gently erase I would rather be where Your inner glory dwells Than to be in public media where hopelessness hails.

Like

How shall I love You, O Victorious Sweetheart?
How shall I sing with dross governing this heart?
Like grass, we are just tiny dots in Your field Like perishable goods, we are but dust in the wild But You 're lovely, You reign in unimaginable glory
And I will gladly still tell of Your glorious story.

Sweet Escape

O Sweet Lord, You have always provided me with an escape Many times, my words are unseasoned, my reason out of shape But I will give You thanks for You always warn me ahead of time And in this You will not allow the enemy to corrupt my prime Let me be sound in mind, pure in heart and obedient to You O, keep me out of danger, Your favor upon me always renew.

Tenderly and Sweetly

Tenderly and sweetly, You grace eternity's glorious Mercy Seat Kindly and patiently, You walk among men with an exalted fleet, I will not be afraid of those who plot my downfall in the dark Or succumb to fear wherein it gapes intently into my back, For You are my defence, You see from all sides and directions And You will defend me, without saying a word or taking actions.

Pure and Unadulterated Praise

O Lord, how can I give You pure and unadulterated praise?
How should my crookēd and deceptive voice I raise?
Surely, sweet and bitterness cannot emerge from one source But You are my Maker, You are director of my course You change my life, O God, and rid my heart of dross I will praise You so long as I live, for the power of Your Cross.

Holy Spirit

It is because You prompted me to pray,
Holy Spirit
It's because You're presently here, Sweet Holy Ghost
That Christ Jesus You have in my heart magnified
That His worthy power and name, You have glorified
I gladly fall on my knee before my Heavenly Father
I stand up, my hands full, and His blessings to gather.

Unmistaken Savior

Oh, Jesus, incomparable Jesus,
unmistaken Savior
You accept all people, irrespective of their behavior
The weary soul also finds its rest in Your tender arms
The wounded spirit You won't unleash from Your palms And all the children, Your sweet memories they sing For You are the Lord of lords, and the Everlasting King.

Sweet Cute Little Baby

She walked, Cutera, my sweet cute little baby did walk this week There was no struggle, no prior training, and it we did not seek At fourteen months, the nature You put in her intricate design, And the force that You lay in her body latent, simply did shine, It reminded me of the bounty of all good things You do provide, Thank you for these baby's steps, which You do caringly guide.

Hilariously Lovely

There is an atmosphere that is hilariously lovely and humane At Christmas, the pleasure You've put in humans is germane
The lights will line the streets, from sunset until the other day, The music will calm all the rough edges, symphonies will play Ten families will gather round Christmas trees and open gifts It is because of You, Sweet Jesus, thank you for all these thrifts.

You've Sent the Money

Oh, thank you, Lord, because You've sent the money And thank you, my God, to me it's sweeter than honey
But thank you still, when in mysterious ways it will be,
And thank you most sincerely, before I look I will see Oh, Lord, You're Jehovah Jireh, the Lord my provider Oh, Lord, I am grateful, in bounty You're my divider.

Walked and Talked

You walked as I walk, O Everlasting God, O Jesus
You talked like I talk, Oh, how sweet this to all of us
You were tempted just like we are, yet without sin
You faced all trials as I do, yet without cowering in
You are the only one I can praise, my Lord and God
You are holy, set apart, incomparable, Lord of Old.

MERCIFUL

Mercy, Just Mercy

I would have perished a very long time ago
If in the hands of the mortals I did fall I would have been a subject of great shame
If it was told to men of my fear and blame But You are merciful, O Lord, You're gracious May all tongues utter Thy praise which is precious.

With Every Breath in Me

With every breath in me, I worship
 You
Every day my praise to You is ever due How You have helped me through it all And graciously, You've given me more Oh, praise Him, all who are alive, acclaim There's none like Him, in might and fame.

Lovely Sound of Your Name

This soul of mine, this mind of mine and this body These faculties of mine and all they embody To the lovely sound of Thy sacredly gracious name
This holy theme, a true and resounding fame
For who You are, God of All Wisdom, I worship Thee
And a celebrant of Thy graces I would rather be.

The Answer is Jesus

How amazing the truth that the answer is Jesus

This understanding is in itself absolutely precious

All questions that concern us have answers in Jesus

Oh, how wonderful this revelation, Oh, how gracious

I will be quick to proclaim that He is the Final Genius

Oh, glory be to God in the highest, His Solution is with us.

I Brought You Nothing but Praise

I have brought You nothing, Most Gracious Master
Serve for these sacrifices of praise, filled with luster
You would refuse to take them, they are as dead skin
You would have closed me out, because of my sin, Yet, grace opened the eternal door for me to come Oh, be praised my God, You save with a mighty arm.

Lord, Most Gracious

O Lord, Most Gracious, lest it be said,
 "We did it"
Oh no, it is not because of us, it's all by Your Spirit
For no person, can do anything unless You do allow it No work of genius was ever done without Your permit
And I dearly thank You, Lord, in You I gladly boast I will forever praise Your power, at what or any cost.

No Human Being

No human being, however mean they may seem to be, is evil But all persons are under the temptation and lure of the devil There is only one way people can escape their bad behavior The fountains of love never cease to spring out of the Savior The LORD God Jehovah is kind, not willing any should perish Your name, LORD, I'll honor, Your compassion I will cherish.

Silent Reflections

To You I kneel in deep and silent reflection
I submit to Your will and worthy stain correction
I choose to release my foe and friend I offended
I will not hold a grudge although of me it's demanded
For You are slow to anger and You are rich in grace You alone I adore, and You only my lips shall bless.

Supreme Prime

Your promises You keep, O Keeper of Trust
Your dealings with me, are righteous and just You brought my feet to dancing, with laws degree You reordered the ways of life, with a decree
So that I could inherit the goal of a lifetime
O God, among the mortals, You're Supreme Prime.

My Honor and My Glory

You have been my honor and also my glory
I have nothing good for which to tell a
Today, O Lord, hide my indignities before the class And grant me favor before all, clear as glass
In days to come, may everyone see but You in me Oh, glory to God, let grace be there for all to see.

Delicious Meat

I said, "I will chew on every inch of this delicious meat," And, "I will invite my teeth and my tongue to meet,"
For the taste and the aroma of these Your bounty,
And how delightfully blended all these Your plenty.
O Lord, the best of Your gifts, mankind You've graced Oh, taste and smell and see what the Lord has blessed.

Your Grace, I Celebrate

I will celebrate Your amazing grace, till my last breath For I have gone through known history, depth by depth And to my astonishment, You have been slow to act And the old appreciated the importance of this fact, O Lord, I would be punished, but for Your kindness
I will give You all, for praise is lovely before Your face.

Clear and Pure Fountain

There is a fountain whose clear and pure water does not cease The Lord is to us the never-ending flood of security and ease He will provide, because His bunker is ever filled with plenty The Lord answers to our sacred prayers, His grace is handy When praise rises to His nostrils, He sends down His flurries There are no flaws in His abundance, and, indeed, no worries.

Nothing to Worry About

I almost began to worry, until I remembered the grace of my God I recall times when I had nothing and no-one to look to but the Lord I thought about the faithfulness of the Master in the distant past I brought to memory the Providence of my Maker which is just And I bowed down in adoration, for You have been there for me You have not denied me any good thing, praise be only to Thee.

My Anchor

I write hearty psalms for You, O Lord, my lover and my anchor As I walk my baby in a stroller astride a coolly morning bunker So cute, so angelic she sleeps in the quietness of the zephyr My mind starts to understand that my life, too, You chauffer I would rather be here, where my heart is flooded with praise Than snoop to mirthful sounds without God's grace to amaze.

Perfectly True

Everything that you have said, O Lord, is perfectly true
And no-one will go astray who follows Your strict rule We have a tendency, the Living God to second-guess
But the end of disobedience is absent from His grace Surely, You have been kind to me and to all humanity Even such as I offer in praise, cannot equal Your amity.

Kind and Wonderful Savior

O Kind and Wonderful Savior, be praised for Your grace O Lovely and Adorable Master, be honored in every place You're awesome, amazing how You care for the undeserved, In danger, You summon for us the angels You've reserved And when we lifted up our fears unto You, our silence You heard, O Mighty Warrior, receive our worship and all the accolade.

September 26th

It's September 26, the year of our Favorable Lord Show me Your grace, and only grace I need my God
That You will cause me to be above, and not inferior That You will not make me a tail, but only superior All shall be and go well, my integrity
You will preserve,
At the end, I'll offer You the praise that You deserve.

I Love Your Word

I love Your Word, O Lord, for there is nothing like it
And the agent who makes it alive, the Holy Spirit,
In it I found great satisfaction, and joy unspeakable
For by it my soul is gladdened with grace impeccable O Lord, be given thanks from all those who read it,
Be praised with words, now and with every heartbeat.

Delight in Mercy

You delight in mercy, O Lord, You forgive sins
And all who call upon You, You provide divine inns You grace abounds greatly where trespasses are
For You will remove faults completely and far Yet, I will praise You, redemption You've secured
I will offer adoration, my salvation You've assured.

Weakness of the Law

What the law could not do because it was weak,
O Lord, You did in that gloomy Passion Week
For my flesh could not keep all Your sanctities
And my soul would not handle all Your securities
But grace reached out to me, a foe, condemned To You my praise I raise, Savior of the damned.

Halleluiah, Halleluiah, Halleluiah

I will praise You, Halleluiah,

Halleluiah, Halleluiah!

I will bow before You, Halleluiah,

Halleluiah, Halleluiah!

I will sing for You, Halleluiah,

Halleluiah, Halleluiah!

I will magnify You, Halleluiah,

Halleluiah, Halleluiah!

For grace has saved a wretched soul as this my own

The battle I never fought in, that

Calvary Battle I won.

Broken Through

You have broken through my measly life-style, for richness You've opened the doors to business, with favor and grace There will be many gifts, when the child's birthday is feted In a week, wells will overflow, fountains will be inundated There will be so much revenue and extra, for all we require Our hope You will not disappoint, my praise I will not spare.

Three Things

Let me give You unadulterated adoration, my One and only God For today, You have done three things for me that are in gold:
You have not let Paul mention my profession before the class;
You have approved my thirty hours to Peter without any crass; You've added to me a coordination position at another college, Oh, praise His grace, for I deserved neither good nor any privilege.

Gracious Mystery

How can I even begin to tell of the mystery of Your grace, It is beyond human reason, an eternal enigma I do face, That You have obsoleted that salvation should be of law
And have given us free redemption, Heaven and more,
Oh, praise God, who's generosity's wider than the full earth, Oh, praise Him, for His love He has bequeathed from birth.

No Gone Better Days

Do not say that gone are better days, such talk lacks facts For before His birth at Jerusalem, law only dictated our acts But after resurrection, we in grace can approach His throne We have a friend in Jesus, to His spaces we've been drawn, These are the days of great feast, while the Groom is here, Let us play, drink and dance, let us worship without any fear.

Fellow Pilgrim

You who have received the mercies and grace of our God You who call upon His name, you who believe and are told, I come to you in weakness as your own fellow earth's pilgrim Oh, that you should worship our God without hypocrisy or grim Your own glory replace not for His, empty all for His highness Oh, play no tricks, give Him all, Him only fear, Him only bless.

After Us

Those coming after us will know the wonder of His might They will read about it in our works and so explore day and night They will believe in what we believed, and adore His sovereignty They will observe clearly and understand with great certainty, Oh, love, it cannot be because humanity has all the abilities within, Oh, grace, it's because He has made all things for us to revel in.

How Shall I Praise You?

How shall I praise You, who has power over the power of Satan How shall I worship You, who commands Nature itself to return The LORD, who calls the things which are not as if they actually are, Who places seeing eyes in the middle of the galaxy's giant star
The Lord God robust, immortal, eternal and full of saving grace, How can I utter Your pure loves, O Lord, You alone I shall bless.

The Lord Eternal

The Lord Eternal is the strength of my life, my glory and light He trains me to balance truth with grace, He is my true delight I will not fear death, it is a necessary rest He has for me made I will awake in glory, to hilarious celebrations of the faithful led In the dark I will see, in danger His presence shall comfort me, How blessed I am, how grateful this redemption without a plea.

Yours to Discover

It's a province so blessed it prides in,
 "Yours to discover!"
And driving in its kempt highways, all memories do recover, The real vibe is here as drivers dare each other with speed O Lord, You also made Ontario, gracefully and without greed I have been to its North, South, East and the very far West, Each gear I change, O God, it's attestation to Your very best.

End of the Year

It is end of the year, and I pause, wonderful things You've done Neither for me nor another but for You, triumphs You've won O Lord, You've delivered me from the public appraisal of men And the wonder of Your praise, with deep pleasure I did learn You, and only You alone do matter, no human tricks will count Surely, next year, Your grace I'll enjoy, Your glory, I will recount.

I Live

I live, I am alive so as to see my Lord Jesus, exalted
I follow His footsteps and pray to see holiness, promoted I brag of His grace, praise His name, to see His glory, shine I love His Word, embrace His will, and own Him, as mine
I fall on my knees, lay there prostrate, to hold His fame, firm I honor Him, think about Him, and magnify only, His name.

My Defence

You will defend me speedily from my accusers

You, O Lord, are aware of my stand against abusers

That I have not repaid evil for evil against the haters

But with words of grace I have rebuked soul-getters

For You, O Lord, do satisfy the earth with justice

And if there is chaos, You'll pacify regal armistice.

5
THE BEST

Seeing Eyes

When You save me from the trap that is set against me
And give me seeing eyes that sly dross
I can openly see My Lord and my God, I will rejoice in Your endless love, I will tell of Your wonders to generations below and above, I will intercede both for my best friend and my greatest foe And I will give You hearty praise, now, even forevermore.

God, Trust Him

I'll advise the one who is passing through trouble in God to trust I'll prepare to celebrate in the dark, for the Omnipotent is just Before there is any sign of the rains, my seeds I will also plant Before the bushes come teeming with game, even then I'll hunt, For God is the sustenance of my life, there's nothing I shall want, He makes my silos full, and the best of the earth He shall grant.

Career

O Lord, I know what You are doing in my career
You are removing all impediments and every barrier
You have positioned me to excel and to lead the best You have done this even when I am at my very worst Every time You lift me up, O Lord, deeper will I grow Each time You raise my portion, on my knees I'll fall.

Who Will Not Need You?

There is no human being who will not need You, O God Though in good health and enjoying all wealth and gold Yet, there comes a time when all people's ingenuity fails, When even the best of mankind pleats and strength wails But You remain ever steadfast, unmatched and immovable You're good forever, Your Providence is indelibly provable.

Most Exhilarating

You are most exhilarating, O Lord, and better than wine
The taste of Your brews is awesome and is gloriously fine The after-effects are fulfilling and altogether life-changing But in much beers, faculties are damaged, even estranging Though for a while the forms of the drink are entrancing, Only Your presence brings my soul to delightful dancing.

Interview

I do have an interview coming up and I thank You, Lord
Even today my resolve is strong and I am very, very bold, Yet, it is not because I am better or have all the resources, It's because, Father, You own all things, You know all sources You did decide, Lord, to elevate my name and my reputation, And I have promised to return glory at each and every station.

My Everything

My God and my everything, You have laid a table of new rewards You have given me a place of influence, full of promising awards I will sit in the council of those who make decisions of substance I will ask for better benefits, You will be my present sustenance, In Your mercies, O Lord God, from my youth I have forever relied, I will sing Your praises going to the top, for with You I have allied.

Favor Even in Betrayal

My heart was troubled as I contemplated a student's betrayal All because I did not allow her to bend or break rules' denial O Lord, I have done nothing but good to this student's cause But all she brings is malice, falsehood and even mental blows Yet, I pray for her success, may all her plans get only better For You, O Lord, shows us mercy when we deserve fetter.

Injure Me, I Will Still Praise You

Lord, I love the instrument You use to make me good Do not let me loath what will refine my mood
Surely, it is painful and spiteful when You reprimand
And overtly unpalatable when You make me a demand But whether You injure me or not, still You I will praise For I know that those You love, You also chastise.

Can't Feel Good about Another's Bad

How can I feel good about another's bad news
And still appear before You and speak out my views?
How can I praise God and deride the people You made?
Surely, I will be a hypocrite, disobedient to Your Word O Lord, may all the praise I give You be pure,
May every thought and action be lovely and sure.

Cheer Up

Oh, cheer up, cheer up, cheer up my rented soul
At the breath of light, You came to the fore
And before long, He shall breathe in your last You shall then return and again become dust Oh, grant me strength, so that I may adore Thee
And length of days, in which Thy good I may see.

Highway of Heroes

On the highway of heroes, I sing songs Here the memory of God dearly belongs Oh, sing, life lived for God Almighty is good
The whistle of birds parrot in the wood
And God is very kind to all, great and small Even a tiny ant is safe under God's elbow.

Wonderful the Lord's Blessings

Oh, how wonderful the Lord's blessings to me How pleasant these shades of comfort
I see
The waves of salvation encompass me about The echoes of love massage me all throughout Oh, Lord, You make even Friday the Thirteenth
To bring favor, goodness and divine warmth.

Joseph

When Joseph was sold and left to die
And God did not seem to be any nigh He would not fathom all he went through O God, but You've not changed, have
 You?
I praise You, for You're good to us always
And I gladly remove lies from all my ways.

Before the Beginning

Before the beginning, there was a deep darkness
A state of void and utterly empty nothingness
And yet, Thy Spirit hovered over the deep Only Thee in the dark can see, promises to keep
There is no confusion in us He can't manage For His power makes all good, from age to age.

My Young Ones

I gathered my young family to house worship
Like a good shepherd gathers his flock of sheep
With the little baby attesting in every exegesis
As I opened the truth of creation in Genesis How blessed are the children who take holy notes
And who love the Bible and all that it connotes.

The Holy Trinity Nodded

When You made me from of old And when the Holy Trinity did nod Indeed, all You created is good Yet, when I find myself in holy mood And words fail me to state Thy essence O Love, invite me into Thy presence.

Maker of All Trees

Oh, bless the Lord Almighty, Maker of all trees
The Lord whose brilliance is perfected in threes Creator of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil Protector of the Tree of Life against the wiles of the devil
The Lord who prospers us as trees planted by the rivers This Lord, who through Calvary's Tree, gave us all favors.

I Do Trust You

I do trust You, O Lord, in whose hands I entrust all When I open my mouth, good things in it You'll pour I know that You answer all my requests for daily needs And Your still small voice my inner faculty heeds How grateful for Your Providence I am, deep my heart You're with me, Your presence will not be broken apart.

Moneys and Resources

I will be richly endeared in moneys and resources this week

I will posture myself to receive, because You did say and speak Surely, goodness and all favor today shall follow me fondly

I am well-served, all good things will come readily and handily

O Lord, my provider, You have caused all trends in to shift my way

O God of my redemption, free praise I will sing throughout this day.

I am for You

I am for You, Oh, dearest of the Highest of the Highest Heaven I am satisfied, with all the goodies and privileges You have given I behold the brilliant scenery at the confluence of the sunset The wrath of the sun and the billows of waters decide to date You tame the anger of the wounded buffalo, the venom of the wilds Oh, praise Him, His favor He distributes, His love He never hides.

He Will Lift Me Up

O Lord my Father, I was not betrayed by a total stranger The one who planned by downfall was not my challenger;
It was she who received good instructions from my hand, Who praised me loudly in front of the entire crowd stand; But You are faithful, You will not my repute ever forsake And You will guide my pure praise for Christ Jesus' sake.

In Your Presence

Standing here in Your presence, my heart does ponder I contemplate on all the good things and grow fonder
I am here, especially to hear again Your still, small voice For when it comes to You, there is simply no rival choice Only You, and You alone, I will forever and willingly worship And just for who You are, at Your feet I will fellowship.

Truth is Absolute

I have come to conclusion, that truth is absolute
And in these three, O Lord, I am very resolute That from eternity to eternity, love will never fail Lord, hate You hate with perfect hatred none can tell That no matter what, good will always over evil win That whatever man sows, that shall he also reap in.

I Will Boast in God

I will boast in God who causes me to prosper daily
And this week, He will nourish me and my family
He will force all doors of goodwill to open wide And shut off all evil routes and chase them in the wild
The Lord, Immortal, Terrific and Almighty is mine
I will fear no evil, His perfect light for me will shine.

I Sing

I sing, O Lord, because of Your tender kindness to me I have not done anything to deserve the good I see You will stand before the new students and me honor
You will announce my excellence from corner to corner
So that all may say, “How great Thou art, great art Thou,” I sing, O Lord Jehovah, because You’ve shown me how.

Cover Me

Cover all my shame and indignity, Oh, God, who sees all Let all men and women, boys and girls Your praise pour Do not reveal the secrets of my heart, I will not stand Let only good the people see, only You to understand For I announce the Lord Jehovah He alone is good
And for my defence and great honor He proudly stood.

In the Land of the Living

I will be named among the great in the land of the living And I will be proclaimed among heroes for all You keep giving You will reserve my legacy among those who are influential And preserve my reverence among all things that are financial, Only because of the Lord should such statements be ever true, Only because the Lord is good have the skies remained blue.

I Would Have Fainted, Unless

I would have fainted or lost heart until I reminded me of this:
The LORD is eternal, all-knowing and surely all-mighty He is,
He will not forfeit of any good because He is somewhere busy, Nor will He fail us when it matters, for His burden is also easy, Oh, LORD, You have been my refuge in times of great need, My source of true hope, and Your instructions I gladly heed.

Palatable Table

Now LORD my Lord, You have fixed for me a palatable meeting Though I'll be the last to attend, You have made it greatly fitting I receive Your tender and gentle favor which You have provided I will also rest in Your presence, for Your angels have me guided,
The LORD will also make good that which He has begun to do All power, all praise, and all dominions in all azures are His, too.

Rain, Pours, Sky is Blue

Why do we rejoice when the rain pours and the sky is blue Yet, we whine when life is painfully hard and sticks like glue, Why do we sing songs and dance when it is our expectations, Yet, frown and are embittered with a neighbor's anticipations, The Lord is good to all, and His blessings shower all lands, I will credit You, Lord, for all other people's trophies' grands.

Thank You, Good Lord

How shall I thank You, my extremely good Lord, just how?

When You cause to close a door, another is open right now

Even when a thought is formed on those who decide for me

Surely, you've studied all their plans, their secrets You see,

I have learned this because before one chance is vacated,

O Lord, to another and grandiose one You've me located.

Fountain of the Forgotten

You have been to the weary and the forgotten, their fountain To those in the dark, You shine the way to victory as a lantern Help for the needy will certainly come from Your holy mountain Love and goodness are eternally engraved into Your pattern O Lord, You're the joy of the living, and hope of the departed, You're the mender of awry minds, balm to the brokenhearted.

No Defence

I've no defence; I've not done any good, nor deserve I good But You still give me breath, strength, pleasure and daily food I fail many times over, and I still fail to do Your will constantly, Yet, You correct me, and put me on the right path consistently, What I am saying is this: "A God like You is the only sure deal," And one thing I will do, I will never stop praising You for real.

20 Mangoes

My dear friend gets up every day to collect 20 mangoes He looks everywhere Your good to behold from all angles He thanks You for the birds, maggots, snakes, cattle, insects
He is on his knees to adore You for all the imbibes he injects He won't ignore the opulence of forests and the green of flora, You are immaculate in Your kindness, loving in all Your aura.

No God Besides You

There is no God besides You, Oh, holy and righteous
There is no-one who comes an inch of You, Oh, virtuous You're Sovereign, You made both good and bad things You raise one and immediately break down all kings Even darkness is Your servant, O Lord Most Exhorted
All Your foes are devices of Your glory, Most Venerated.

Whole My Soul, Praise

Oh, praise, praise the Lord my soul, heart and mind Oh, praise Him, with words, in deeds and in kind I will praise Your name as long as I continue to live
All that is good in me, even what's flawed, You I give For You are the object of my every sensitivity
To live to praise You, O Lord, is my blessed responsibility.

Not Because of Me

It is not because I take care of myself very well

It is not because I have a job or my plans didn't fail

It is not because I have a career or have great abilities

It is not because I think well or have great mental agilities

No, none of that, it's because You are my faithful keeper

Because You're good, and Your great love runs deeper.

Wonderful Morning

The morning declares Your kindness,
O Lord Your continued goodness enables the day to unfold
In the evening, Your faithfulness shows in the sunset And Your tender love guards our night, soul to reset I will praise You now and always while I have breath
I will live to honor Your greatness, even to my death.

6
THE ESSENCE

I Bow

It is with great gratitude, O Lord, that I bow
 On my knees, I prostrate, great art Thou
 Who proclaimed the vast and mighty universe?
 And created creatures big and small in diverse?
For humanity is not vain after-thought To You be all glory, man's redemption You wrought.

Ultimate Essence

O Lord, my God, You're my ultimate essence
And I thank You for the power of conscience
For it umpires all that I need to evidently know
And causes me to seek You more and more You keep me from sin – which I earnestly hate O Lord, Your kindness has made my way great.

Utterly Awesome

All the works of Your hands are utterly awesome
And nothing is thrash, no, nothing is gruesome When I sit in contemplation of Your greatness
I fail to go any further, I am visibly speechless
For who can count the sum of all living atoms?
And who is able to deliver from raging storms?

There is a God

There is a God in Heaven greatly to be praised
He is the Balm of Gilead, the dead He's raised
He's the Rose of Sharon, flavor of ages is He He's Lilly of the Valley, loveliest scent there can be The Sun of Righteousness, bringing divine warmth
O King of kings, You are life's ultimate truth.

All Thy Creatures

I love all Thy creatures – Heaven to Earth
I love all Thy will, from salvation to faith
I would like to have been there when Thou created To behold the great mysteries unfold and executed
When the plants and animals emerged strong
And man in Thy image created Thee him along.

Mind on God

Surely a man's blessed whose mind's on God

His total outlook will be as purely refined gold

His days will be with peace, his night with safety

For God secures his inheritance in its entirety

He will awake to the joy of hearty celebrations

How great Thou art God, receive all adorations.

Hidden Details

There is a God who knows all our hidden details
He is well-spoken of and narrated in many tales Even tiny happenstances are all plain before him Every thought of His creation brings a great theme O Most Immanent God, nothing to You is too small O Transcendent One, all and everything You know.

Mid of the Night

O Lord, You woke me up at the mid of the night
You said, "Wake up my son, and these all write."
You open the faculty of my mind to revelations To truths hidden from peoples and great nations
The mysteries of life and death to me
You did explain
You, You alone, are true and in truth
You reign.

Great Designer

My God, my God, how great a designer
In small details, You make me a winner
When pain is my constant companion Your power makes me to stand as a champion
Oh, receive all worship from my being For all Your creation will lack nothing.

Of...

Of gods that are man-made, Thou art divine

Of gods that be unmade, serve Thee, there is none

Of crowns and kingdoms, Thine outshineth them all

Of glories that fadeth not, Thine gloweth ever more

Of things that be creatures, Thou art the Creator

Of powers that shaketh foundations, Thine is greater.

Two Hearts

We are like two co-joined and life-breathing hearts We have promised our union is a shadow, it never parts We are like two paths that meet across the dense forest Which find great solace in Your arms where to rest Through You, marbles, gems, and rubies acutely shine For devotion focused on You, O Love, is pleasingly fine.

My Refuge

You have been my refuge in times of great need You have saved me from raging waves of greed
And provided me with an agenda and a moral creed
When I am hungry and thirsty, my want You do feed Your commandments I read and love to heed You're praised, and adored in word and deed.

Revelation

I love You, O Lord my God, for this grand revelation You told For Israel is but Your rod and standard for nations to behold With many flaws and incipient beliefs the Jews also stumble But many of them also had great integrity and were humble I am not ashamed to put my trust in the God of all flesh There is none in heaven and on earth I would rather cherish.
Tears of Thanksgiving drip profusely in the rims of my eyes I recall those days of great distress in struggle-vested byes Times when I had no money, no means and no support But You should have been near me to provide me the rapport For how I could have survived and come out alive without it?
O Lord my God, I worship You in truth and also in spirit.

Favor and Prosperity

From now henceforth, allow Your favor and prosperity guard my feet From the rising of the sun, Monday till Sunday, let my life be neat From enemies as well as friends, may blessings be said about You And from those who love You, make Your mercies shine ever new Surely, You must be great, because You change not, ever the same I declare, "Through mercy, all is fine," and I honor Your holy name.

Repaired All Worries

I would have been gravely worried, and also greatly despaired, Oh, LORD, all my expectations this early You have repaired, A thousand troubles may approach and show up at my door
And though they may raise their fangs, LORD, You're my core, I have lifted a victory banner in anticipation of great conquest, Oh, LORD, mighty are Your wonders in many a miracle quest.

It is Well

It is well, O LORD, God my Father, it is very much well, Those who trust in Your saving hand, they shall not fail They will approach every challenge with great confidence They will also accomplish tasks with genial excellence, All due to You, dearest Lord, all because of Your kindness, Oh, bless Him, my everything and my all in me Him bless.

You were Right

You were right, Sovereign God, when You allowed to elect Trump You did not let prevail the calls for him the people to dump You're God, and You decide whom to lift up and who to drop For to You the nations will look for Providence and for hope Be praised, Your foolishness is greater than men's wisdom Your rule is permanently entrenched into many a kingdom.

Not Ashamed

I'll not be ashamed to proclaim Your great love to all, O Lord I will not hesitate to declare Your wondrous wisdom, my God I will air the obvious magnificence of Your Magnificent Space I'll brag of the Divine Mind who placed the universe in place Then I will share in the present delights and the joy to come, You, O LORD are patient, in all state of affairs, You are calm.

Science is Good

Each day, every minute, Your glory is manifested by science In disbelief we ponder, as elements in nature protest in defiance You stand above all wisdom, above all knowledge and all power We see the works of Your powerful hands each and every hour From generation to generation, one genius mind above another Will find again what went before it, the greatness of our Father.

Incomparable

You cannot compare, Jehovah God
Lord Almighty, to anything You know and possess, Mighty and Great Jehovah, everything You fear, Everlasting Father Living Jehovah, none and nobody, You were, are and will never be defeated, O LORD, by anybody, There's no intelligence that can fathom Your genesis, no, nothing, You're always creative, always loving, always up to something.

Resident of Heaven, Landlord of Earth

My Father, the resident of heaven and also landlord of the earth How You have hidden all mysteries, and yet all revealed in faith I place You above all things that have names, and those without,
And Your praises are sung out loud, even when there is no shout, You are so great, that a second-year-old new baby knows that too well, You can be so tiny that a second's ounce before death, You'll tell.

Worship an Amazing God

I worship an amazing God, who sees all my true needs I praise an incredible God, who all my prayers He heeds
The Lord, steadfast in action, prompt when He is upon called The Lord, He has heard my prayer, my wish He'll uphold O Lord, aren't You the God who answers in our urgency O Great Benefactor, aren't You there in dire emergency?

Under Control

You have put everything in nature under Your control
In the azure moments of divine time
You do them patrol Not a thought on humanity's deepest and secretive mind
Not a syllable before a word is formed,
You will not find How great You must be, how powerful in all of conception You can do anything, none dares to bring any interception.

The Spirit

You are the Spirit from which all our souls are affixed To You, our destiny and fate are intertwined and fixed When conscience beckons, it is our true nature calling I'll follow Your lead, on my knees I won't hesitate falling For You're the Greatest Spirit, Jehovah who is there O Lord Everlasting, every and any place, You're here.

Everything is Yours

My Lord, everything I have ever achieved is by You On my own, I can't, that's the thing that is very true You give me great wisdom, generous ideas to find You provide strength, and sharpen my acute mind
So that it is not of human but it's of divine approval Oh, glory, to the author of all things, I exclaim, "Bravo!"

Shenanigans

Oh, that people should stop all these shenanigans
To hide in drinks, drugs, carnality, violence and guns That sons and daughters can come to true knowledge Whether at church, club, university or even college,
That only He deserves praise, glory, honor and power Only God is truly worthy, that Great, Ancient Flower.

THE GREATEST

I am Your Perfect Design

On my own, O Lord, on my own, I am nothing But Your presence gives me all and everything You fill my mind with excellent things to write And You keep my path clear and ever bright How perfect are Your designs of which I am I love You very much, for Your power and charm.

It's Wise to Praise God

I said, "Surely, it is wise to praise God!" Anyone who worships Thee will be bold
Their life shall shine brightly to the very end
For Your presence in old age will for them fend Those who praise Thee will have no shame
And the adulation of the upright, ends in fame.

You're My Idol

You are my idol, O Lord, You are my only idol
I come into Your presence with divine claydoh
To create love replicas therein I'm enchanted
And to be near Your throne, incensely scented
For You are the object of my deep adoration
And I am wowed of You in deep admiration.

Your Presence Makes Me Strong

If You had been angry with me for long I would not live because of many a wrong But Your presence has made me
 strong
And at Your Mercy Seat, there I penitently belong O Lord, You are exhorted as Omnipotent furlong
Though highest, yet for the lowest You suffer long.

WORTHY!

God, the Creator

The Sovereign Lord has spoken loud
His voice is clear high in the cloud
The laws of nature will never bend As all attest to their certainty, end to end Be praised, O God Creator, day on days
For You have set the rules, phase by phase.

In All Seasons

You change the days' conditions in symphony
The elements align in an intricate harmony
The seasons follow a pattern to the core
The sun and moon are set forever
To God, darkness is as bright as light Oh, worship Him, to do so for it is right.

Let There be Light

I sing to You, who holds me whole, together
You speak to my faculties and they gather You said long time ago, "Let there be light,"
And daily I see everything ever so bright
I am Your little child, and Your face I see
In Your presence, I would daily rather be.

The Ways of the Lord

Who has known the ways of our God?
Who from ashes perfects as pure gold O Jehovah, praise rings up from yonder
My mind enlightens, my heart grows fonder
I will gladly lay down even my earthly crown
I tender my notice, my resolve You've won.

Excellent Treasure

You gave humankind an intricate brain So that with it, the elements they could train
To expand nature, exploit the universe Oh, look at the expanse, and its display in diverse
You must be the greatest, Lord, because You are Those who believe in You, have in them this treasure.

The Auditors

Before my auditors ever speak a word And even if I feel my light will surely fade
I will not be afraid, but will give You praise
My voice of thanksgiving I will also raise For my honor You will uphold tomorrow
And willful worship from my lips, will follow.

Days and Years

You make me wake up happily each day
And You crown me with honor each year
When I search the depth of my inner soul
There's no word to express this special call
I cannot explain why I have got this favor I'm dearly thankful to You, now and forever.

Bigger than the Universe

You're bigger than the mightily stretched universe You're revealed in Scripture, verse by verse
You see generations rise and when they fall
You choose anyone who wishes You to know
No-one resists their end when You call of men
To You be all the glory forever and ever, Amen.

Clothed with the Wind

You are clothed with the wind and with the sun
He who holds the worlds in His palms is Your Son
The mountains flatten when You do step out
The valleys fill up full when You stoop down about Who has ever said, “I have figured God out”?
Who is endless and has power he can brag about?

Mighty Waters

You flash out the waters of the mighty seas

When You blink, the raging storms cease

If You'd occupy this world, it won't be enough

If You'd lean on heavenly pillars, they wouldn't be tough

In Your laboratory, You made the elements

And at Your feet, they beg for their moments.

Praise All Seasons

I will praise You in all and every season I will utter Your praises even without a reason Because everything around me are free gifts
O Lord, Your generosity my need it lifts
You stand alone in Your only unique class No God serve God, whose power dwells in us.

Unfathomable Majesty

You are adorned in unfathomable majesty
You are El-Shaddai, God the Almighty Your fingers' thump shakes the foundations
The nod of Your eyes, changes conditions To You, power is only a whirl of a cough
The oceans to submerge You, aren't enough.

Three But One

Who has ever existed three and also but One?

Who just said the words and everything was done?

Who calls things unseen as though they were?

Who is right here and also is everywhere?

This is Him to whom my worship is due

This is the One I would rather truly bow to.

Trials and Temptations

Through trials and temptations, You hide true joy Though You may discipline me, You will not destroy O Lord of my salvation, in my weakness You're close You lift me up and re-habilitate me from all my lows How shall I praise You for all You do for thankless me?
You've declared my portion in Your eternal decree.

Foolish Young Thoughts

When I was younger, I thought foolish thoughts
I looked at life from the eyes of earthly fruits, I contemplated, “Why so much pain on earth!”
For man’s existence looked miserable from birth Until I saw the truth of what You have done Oh, praise my Master who compares to none.

Darling of Heaven

You are most awesome, O Darling of Heaven
How bountiful are the blessings You have given The seasons, each blossom in its orbit faithfully
The oceans retain their boundaries lawfully
And the elements are neither too hot nor too cold For sure in heaven above, there is a caring God.

Be Pleased

If it was not for a stop to my spiritual antic
And the divine slowing to my fragile frantic I would not have known of Your truth revealed
In my zeal I spoke of mysteries never veiled O Lord, be honored in season and out of season
And in all that I do, O Lord be pleased therein.

Mountains Rise

The mountains rise atop an azuring sky
The rivers meander tither valley springs lie
The wheels roar at propelled speeds terrific I sigh, God knows and He is overtly specific Higher than the Everest, His tenderness springs Wider than the oceans, His constant love rings.

Holy Muses

Oh, attend, attend to my senses O You
holy muses
Oh, open, open my faculty with thoughts it oozes
There is no theme lovelier than a Triumphing Savior
There is no forgiven heart yet broken and heavier
He is my Conquering General, my Expert Advisor
His Word is eternal, His instructions are wiser.

Laws of Men

I have studied the laws of men, they order all I have reviewed their motives, they each has a flaw I treasure the expositions of the common law
I am endeared to the explicated poetry's glow
Yet, no accomplishment outweighs Thy praise And nothing in time is ahead of Thy phase.

A Chase after Fantasies

The unbelievers may be lost and full of confusion
They may chase after fantasies and a fake illusion
They may indulge in their puke and do what they hate They may be hopeless, and may abhor the peace they fate For me, O Lord, I'll praise You when I'm awake
And I will write Your wisdom, many psalms I'll make.

A Thousand Adorations

O Lord, I will give You a thousand
adorations
I will speak about all Your glorious admiration
When the organization elected me as leader And unanimously endorsed that I guide her Oh, who am I that children of men should select Only You give me wisdom people to direct.

Worthy of All Worship

Oh, bless, my Creator, bless Him, indeed, bless You who read the Scriptures from verse to verse Don't you find Him worthy of all our worship?
Aren't you enchanted by His power and grip?
Who is unto the Almighty, He reigns with gravitas Oh, praise Him, three times, praise, upon the Angelus.

Thinking Souls

Oh, bless, our Living God, all thinking souls, bless For Him, may we pledge nothing any less
Who rises up early, lending the earth His sun
And from sin's death mankind He rescued by His Son How magnificent His thoughts to humanity, How excellent His works in all its unity.
If I were to live a thousand years on earth,
Still I will sing His praises and walk in faith
There is no parent who cares as He does A giver who gives freely wherever He goes The fountains open daily to soften the land Mountains tremble at the stretch of His hand.

He Lives Forever

Our God who lives forever and ever is able To the weary and the weak He is available
He is capable to cure and do the impossible What men call failure to Him it is possible
By his grace He has made every way favorable
To those who believe, their foundation is durable.

Open Yard

Now, allow me to sing to Him on an open yard
Let me announce Him to a prison's closed ward
To the fisherman on an impassable river's base
The Maker of Leviathan will break the curse
The trees will salute when He gives a command
He passes, and the sun and stars still they stand.

Majesty

Oh, majesty, O majesty, majestic Thou art Thou art exalted far, the earth is Thy mart Thou art cloth-ed with the moon and the sun Thou riddeth upon winds in their eternal span
The sum of earth's waters cannot Thee drown
There is no nation that of Thee is unknown.

Object of My Adoration

I have found the object of my adoration
The subject for which I pen my adulation
I have discovered the goal of my giving The aim that moves me to highest living O Lord, You are the season when I innovate
The reason why Your triumphs I elevate.

Wonderful, O Wonderful

Oh, wonderful, wonderful, O Lord
You are You are stationed in glorious majesty above the star Notable science has failed to discern how You came to be And astronomy has trotted galaxies Your power to see Mathematicians cannot calculate the depth of Your reason And psychology shudders at the complexity of your brain.

Most Precious

O Lord, Most Precious, the simple gladly believe The learned minds at their own frailty they grieve O Lord, You are incomparable, and immutable
You reign as Champion in universes undisputable
The armies of the mighty nations are but fearful ants Around the world, Your praises are heard as man chants.

Deep Mythologies

They exist but only in deep mythologies Their end is set, narrated in grievous eulogies
But You are God and I AM is Your
Mount Olympus is but an ideological claim But Your heavens are displayed all over You are God of gods, and You reign
forever.

Jupiter, O Zeus

They elevate Planet Jupiter and call it Zeus

They mortify fallen creatures and worship Horus

They curve into stones and say, "Hail Athena,"

They are blind; they focus not on their retina

Even Orion and Plaiids bow before Your throne

O God, since You alone own the eternal crown.

WORTHY!

Wow

Oh, Eternal God, eternal and sustainer The wow in me rises to the brim of Your incense burner
The wonders of nature amaze me year after year
All boundaries repeat what You command them to bear We eat, drink and we breathe and these bounties remain
And to the sun You won't say, "Don't shine, you I detain!"

Death, Conquered

You have conquered death, our notorious enemy
You robbed the grave of its lethal infamy Your Words love-tongued greased into sin's thrall
The impenetrable gates of hades, You gently overthrow Oh, Jesus, there is no hero more gloriously humble
And no bomb more potent as Your resurrection rumble.

God is Real

God is real and He has been at my house recently O Lord, when I invoked Your presence currently,
You came in through Your Holy Spirit in power Your entrance shook the pillars of this heart's tower
You are very welcomed into our midst, O Glorious One
You will trump over our enemy, for the war You've already won.

One Father

I love them all, O Lord, all my fellow believers For these are my family, and my anxiety relievers
I have said, "We all have One Father in heaven,"
And our sorrows, washed, our wrongs, forgiven
Oh, halleluiah, in eternal future praise sounds
O Lord, give us unity, whence true worship abounds.

Glorious Victory

I have tarried long in the land of the mortal living I have seen trouble, and men and women grieving But I am comforted, that this world will disappear
When the Lord of Hosts in the sky will appear Then all sin, pain, sorrow and death will turn to victory And victory shall glow into a consuming bowl of glory.

May I...

May I be a musical instrument played to the King's glory

May I be a theme narrated before the King as a story

May my number be correct, my meter ready for a tune

May what oozes out of me to Thee be a divine fortune

May the sound of my instrument be perfume before Thee

May my words be aromas of joy for all to hear and see.

First Gaze

I remember that first time I gazed upon You
I could not believe that it was actually true
Your dove eyes fell on me like glorious confetti Your Words which tither I had considered graffiti Oh, how swift to their feet did they leap and dance
I was short for breath; I dropped my vindictive stance.

Glorious Captain

You are glorious, O Captain of my wondering soul, So precious, O All-sufficient, my all in every all,
And truly famous, Leader of gods and all dominion
You are victorious, Rider on a Conquering Stallion How gorgeous Your shining armor when it's brandished
You are generous, the entire creation
You have nourished.

You're Not a Man

Even today I give You worship, for You're not a man
O You who is God and You're beyond the universe's span For none deserves honor, none who is a created being Only You, unmade, uncreated, the immortal King
You formed my father, my mother and also myself
I will worship You all my life, You exist all by Yourself.

Countless Reasons to Praise

There are countless reasons why You deserve my praise
It can all be summarized in this ancient phrase:
“The LORD, eternal, immortal, and abounding in love!”
Yes, for You are set apart from all,
You reign above
If I should fail to praise You, stones will jump and sing Oh, wonderful, holy, holy, holy is the world’s true King.

Rented Breath

After this rented breath is gone and in dust I lay Just before that reality to my soul should spay My Lord, every ounce of air in my sucking lungs
And even when my glory is dissipated or hangs O Darling of the Ever-brightening
Morning,
I'll praise You, Your golly comes, even without warning.

A Lady

A lady asked me, “Does God has double standards?”
And I said, “No, my God is not like all other dads.” “But why does He allow many miseries and disasters?”
I pointed her to an attestation of nature and of pastors Then she saw how fair our God is, the Generous King,
O God, I’ll praise You always, I praise
You in everything.

Just Like Vegetation

Just like vegetation, as humans, we are also numbered As flowers will wither and dry, we may not be remembered Yet still, years come and quickly they also vanish and go Our births shoot up like stars, and down they easily fall But You remain the same, Your eyes see all these Oh, eternal and faithful is our God, and might praise is His.

We Grow Young

We count our years and say that they do increase Yet, as we grow so does our strength decrease
We are like clouds which pass away after a pour Our little achievements are but tears when they fall
You see our pride and arrogance crash and crumble
O Lord, be praised, You love the songs of the humble.

Because of You

My boast is in You, O God, my ever-capable rescuer
You are constant by my side, my pining soul pursuer I will stand aloof and watch my enemy's agenda fail But it's not for me or due to me that all is very well, It's because of Your kindness, for You're faithful It's because of You, ever generous and wonderful.

Anxious about Nothing

I will not be anxious about anything, because I believe I will not fret, or seek men's approval, worry to relieve The Lord is my Providence, my daily hope and sustainer
He won't sleep or slumber, "Care" is His steadfast banner
You have put food on my table, thirst
You have quenched Your praise is deserved; Your honor is deeply entrenched.

Great Brain

There is a brain that conceived all things, seen and unseen There is a God who planned all things, known and not known There is a mind that determines all, dreamed or unfathomable There is a God who cares and makes all of us comfortable You, Lord, You are mighty in power and honorable in deed Now and forever, my sacrifices of praise are Yours, indeed.

Fine Things of Life

I love the fine things of this life, the food and all pleasures I love the titivations, human variations and all treasures
I enjoy the order of nature, and the arrangement of time I enjoy the desire of eyes and all endeavors in their prime And to know that Lord You made all these for our enjoyment, O Lord, I give You thanks and praise in its refinement.

DNA

The DNA of the Church runs deeply into my veins
The flurries of the Last Days and the power it earns However far my mind, Your heart is always for me
Your eyes slumber not, all my dangers You see Before a weapon is fashioned, You diffuse its impact Your glorious power shakes the base when You act.

Christianity's Fairest

How accurate Your designs and plans for humanity Your wishes You have revealed through Christianity Your wisdom spreads like a curtain above the earth
No sooner You kill Spring than Summer You do birth Who is able to predict what You will do the very next?
How personable You are, so close to us as a text.

Icecap

The icecap melts steadily along the corridors of the Arctic The polar bear and seal Your air they crave at Antarctic
The mighty whale to You it responds in the Atlantic And the tasty salmons to You they swim in the Pacific If the God of all power is not for this earth's survival God be praised, no-one escapes man's wrathful arrival.

Peaceful Night

How peaceful the night when a prayer reaches Heaven
The blessed angels do visit the blameless at eleven The joys of the saints rhyme with the elders' salutes Thousands line up golden streets with drums and flutes
In this soul of mine, You have built a House of Praise Then the redeemed shall gather, Your anthem to raise.

Harvest is Us

Do harvest us, O divine planter of the earthly garden
Our hearts soften, though earthly evils do artily harden Our lips sanctify, that awesome adoration may proceed Our hands make holy, as we lift them up to Your heed, For You are worthy to receive all respect and power For You deserve glory, minute by minute, hour by hour.

From Underserved to Fame

Praise the Lord, Oh, my soul, magnify His holy name Who lifts up the undeserved and brings them to fame And who renders the victor's victory into oblivion
O Lord, You have placed the weak up on the pavilion
And in this, You show that You have infinite wisdom Because You do, and Yours also is the Kingdom.

Praise the Lord

Praise the Lord, and concede that He is the only true God Praise the Lord; He exists as One in a divine triune three-fold Praise the Lord, for He relates to us without a hidden agenda Praise the Lord, His truth is pure and without propaganda Praise the Lord, unlike men, He is faithful to what He says Praise the Lord; He is without blame in all His timeless ways.

Truth Incarnate

How I love You, O Lord, for You have been candid throughout I am tired of humanity because of its tendency to lie all about It says one thing but its heart is filled with evil machinations Its rebelliousness is spread all over all the known nations
But You have all the power, and yet
You are self-restrained Your truth, I worship, for You are whole and self-contained.

In His Care

In the embrace of Your most comfortable hands
In the solace where the true Lamb of God stands
In the palace of the Most High whence His glory reigns In the Fortress of Power, where His spotless gown trains In this Thy presence, O Lord, I'd for eternity be,
In this Thy excellence, You have set my soul free.

Put No Trust in People

They are cursed those who put their trust in the arm of flesh They are blinded and they don't see that they run into the mesh For men do not keep trust as pure as the perfect bright sky They say things with words but their heart is deviously rye But the Lord is true and faithful, all who trust Him will be saved And praise that is clean and holy is of the Lord well-deserved.

The Bible

O Lord, in no uncertain terms, let me praise You for the Bible The only source of truth, liberty, life and penned without libel You have been kind to humanity, O God, You have been kind For the blessings of the Word of God all races they bind And who is like unto You who with love bequeaths light, Who is like You who fends our hearts with eternal delight?

My Deepest for His Highest

From the rising of the sun to when men press off their switches From the exodus of the sunset until men switch off their watches My voice shall praise Your name, my mind will not cease to think I'll observe all the wonders of the night, my eyes shall never blink For no-one is able with art to craft natures which so suavely echo, In the highest heaven, there is none, on earth You have no equal.

8

NONE LIKE GOD

Sounds of Bird

I hear clearly the sounds of a bird, perhaps it cries or it sings Surely it should know that the Lord is the source of all things For He will not withhold His hand to catch a dropping tear No, neither will He be absent in times of peril, danger or fear Even in the silence of our groans, His heart hears us still I give You deepest thanks, O Lord,
You know what we feel.

Living for God

From today onwards, Heavenly Father,
I will live for only You I will always think with my heart, all my promises will be true For who has saved me from the shame of broken dreams,
And also restored my soul to the rhythms of spiritual hymns?
Only You my God who is raised on an unapproachable throne, I will search for You, find You and also claim You as my own.

Kitchener

In Kitchener, I stood at the edge of a well-kempt gravesite I saw many tombstones, grand and posh in every sight Then I shrieked, I wondered, and pondered deep inside There is no time, no moment, and no energy to lay aside
The place to praise You, Lord, is now, while I have breath The time to worship is here, wherever there is a wreath.

Far Above the Highest Heaven

My Father, whose throne is far above in the highest heaven Holy, holy, holy – Your altar is hilariously golden and brazen Tough Your glory is complete, unapproachably uppermost Yet, into it You call us to celebrate the feast of the uttermost I won't hesitate to enter in, and there give You tender kisses Oh, I am captivated by Your smile, and the tickles it teases.

Take Me Far Away

My Lord, my Lover, take me far away,
way further than here
Oh, my love, sneak me higher into the
mountains yonder there
And in that place, show me just how beautiful You are Oh, my tender love, point me intimately to the Morning Star
And in the presence of angels, hold me
tightly into Your arms,
There kiss me deeply, and draw me
strongly in lovely palms.

Tell Me You Love Me

Tell me You love me, just this once, Lord my God
Speak to me in Your voice, tender, dearer than gold Let me feel Your heartbeat, into my ears send a Word So I will dance without music and dine without bread;
Oh, my one and loveliest, let us escape into Your Shekinah In halleluiahs so dense, there I would rather be sojourner.

No More Revenge

I will not allow myself to be filled with revenge and hate My soul will remain steadfast, and I will not cower or fret Let me, my Lord, have enough to eat, drink and live well For in excess there is no contentment, integrity will fail Oh, grant each day my needs, so praise won't be disturbed And sufficient to live by, so adoration will not be perturbed.

100 Percent Right

O Lord, You have been right, one hundred percent of the time Your Word and Your deeds, from eternity to eternity, rhyme Although You do not answer to anybody, You're always just And though You have divine immunity, You master in trust You surely deserve that all the living souls pay You homage It's an honor, O Sovereign Lord, to be made in Your image.

Before There was Nothing

From before there was nothing at all, only You existed And Truth and the Spirit, the glory of You they consisted You have seen man's brain expand, innovations to explore Everything else changes, except Your holiness and Your core Surely man should not brag that he has conquered nature Be praised, O Lord, no wisdom compares to Your stature.

All the Living Should Pray

That all the living should pray to You, for You hear our calls That they should believe You're true, for only Jesus knows That it should be easier for all humanity, Your glory to pursue That, You, O Lord, Immortal, Eternal, Invisible, art our answer That all who are created in Your image, should ditch all idols That they should always spread Your honor to entire cradles.

Most High, God of Gods

You are Sovereign, Most High, God of gods, You're truly holy I am all smiles this morning because I belong to Your family When bad thoughts of threats came my way and almost won I kept silent; I looked to You and made Your peace my own O Most Transcendental God, You are aware of the big picture And my praise to You will not diminish, now or in the future.

Victory Song

You will turn every intimidation I face into a victory song You will speak favorably about me to the might and strong You will make me get high on the plain and have me promoted, And even when I should have been disparaged or demoted You will give me praise instead of stress and horrible trouble, For You are my emblem, my victory and You're mightily able.

Mighty Warrior

I praise You, O Mighty Warrior, God who is boss over all bosses You walk on the clouds and before and after are fresh roses, You stand in the fire, and it lays down its ferocity in defeat And You summon the snow, and it spits out all its heat,
You will not miss to hit a bull's eye,
You arrows are very sharp
And when visit the earth to tend it,
You will leave no ire gap!
Stand
Stand, O Mighty Warrior, and do not let the Society summon me Answer for me, before my accuser takes a stand or my face they see Send me a sign, that all and everything everywhere is just fine And Your peace which passes all understanding, let it be mine, For You are the light that distinguishes all darkness before me And honor and true success in the land of the living, I will see.

Hour by Hour, Flower upon Flower

The condition of the day does change, hour by hour
The vegetation in the field withers, flower upon flower Governments and nations fail, power out of power Civilizations crumble and rebuild, tower on tower Seasons come and go, and again they re-emerge slower But my praise for You'll stay, on my knees I'll go, lower.

Peace that Passes All Understanding

Indeed, the peace that passes all understanding, God's true peace, present at His altar I am standing Like a pint of oasis water, it floods my innermost soul
Oh, Lord, You've answered my prayer swift as a goal You've turned my mourning into dancing, suddenly Throughout this day, I will honor Your name openly.

Ancient of Days

You have cheered my soul, Oh,
Ancient of Days
You have made it possible for me in all my ways
You have turned my enemy far away from me
And You have set my heart and body very free,
I praise You early, because You deserve praise
I rest in You, for all my anxiety, worry You erase.

You Lifted My Burden

A boulder of pain and doubt my soul it tormented
A rock of vexation, almost in my heart fomented
A strong mound of worry slowly built around about And anxiety started nesting closer to my heart,
Then I prayed to You, and Your banner I lifted And Lord, You heard me, and my attackers rifted.

It is Well with Me

It is well with me, in the Lord my God,
it is well
In His powerful hands of victory I cannot fail
A thousand troubles stretch on both my sides
And countless more hone up their sharp studs,
But nothing shall touch me, my Lord, shall stand
In His presence He will hold me by His own hand.

Wishes Fulfilled

All my wishes from my heart the Lord will fulfill

And all my innermost longings the Lord will fill

Ten thousand dollars this a week He shall provide

And bad luck and misfortune from me,
He will hide

I'm blessed beyond size, all bills are also paid

Oh, praise God all my soul, awakened or in bed.

All About Jesus

Oh, Jesus, it should be about You, all about You
The body of flesh will perish when it is very due But You are from ancient times, from long ago
From before time began, when life was no more You oversaw creation, You created all things
In You all humanity lives and have their beings.

O' Jesus, So Humble

Oh, Jesus, humbly to this earth You willingly came As a baby, You were free from sin and all blame
You grew up tenderly as a plant shooting its limbs As the Lamb of God, You cared all for earthly lambs
You healed all the sick that believed in the Father And chased out evil demons from many the other.

O' Jesus, Gracious

Oh, Jesus, You chose sinners for Your Company
And did not forbid a prostitute You to accompany When the people cried for bread in the wilderness,
Oh, Lord, You extended Your hand them to bless When the waves raged in the middle of the sea,
Forever You shut them off; prisoners
You set free.

Thinking of Your Victories

Oh, Lord my God, early I will think of Your victories
You are written on every page of my triumphant stories You've guided me into integrity through Your direction And sustained my reputation through Your protection Do it again, Father, for my frailties are many in number And all glory I'll give; thanksgiving I'll also remember.

Between Heaven and Earth

Father, God of the wild expanse above, and earth below You have pitted me and lifted me up when I was low When I offered a prayer, You answered me with favor When shame came haunting, You rescued my endeavor In this day, again, I trust Your mercy to bring me honor And I will give You thanks, Oh, my life giver and sustainer.

You Alone Deserve Praise

I offer You praise as You deserve, O
 Lord Sovereign For in majesty and with honor in heaven You reign
The cries of the hopeless You remember and calm
And when I was fearful, to my salvation You did come Be magnified, O Lord, above the wings of the cherubim Be eminent, O God, among the angels and seraphim.

Satisfied

You have satisfied me with protection and safety
You have ensured that my coffer is not empty
I will not lack anything, because You,
O Lord, cares
And what is in Your creation, You, O Lord, shares
You will keep Your promise, till the end of the age Your Kingdom, too, is endless and it does not age.

My Father

My Lord, my God, my heavenly Father, for so You are This day, from my class activities do not be very far When the boss will come today to my secure enclosure Oh, Lord, do not announce or open hidden disclosure For You will honor me before those who are new I give You thanks because victory belongs to You.

Victory Belongs to You

I had said with certainty that “Victory belongs to You!”

This is a statement that is credible and very true

Indeed, I saw the hand of the Lord, strong and firm

O Lord, You have passed over all my guilt and shame

Now that You have honored me before the listeners

O Lord, may praise never leave me, so too for learners.

A Red Line

There is a line that You have set so no-one can cross
There is Kingdom You have established none can conquer
My heart will utter the most beautiful
name in public
And will shower adoration openly and in oblique
For You are the Star that directs the lost sailor
The glory that illuminate my mind to know excellence.

9 HOLY

I Will Still Worship

O Lord, You are burdened with my constant confession Yet, I will still bow before You, I will keep my profession O Lord, You are saddened because of the pain I bring Yet, I will still worship You, my one and trusted King
You did call me when I was not looking for You
You answered me even before I knew what was true.

Thanks, Perpetually

From long ago, O Lord, You have required my worship In times past, You have called creation to fellowship Through Law and the Prophets, You demanded correction But I will come through Christ my ultimate perfection I will claim righteousness in Him, who is my true salvation
I will give thanks perpetually without any reservation.

Hearty Thanks

My God, with all my heart, I give You hearty thanks
For the gift of teaching, more than the value of many banks The joy that it brings, and the impact on many a student Oh, Lord, aren't You master of all, aren't You brilliant?
I know You love me, and I state here and now, I love You I respect Your will and name, for You're all things true.

Admired

You will be admired, O Lord, when You strongly awake
For all the depth and details of all things You did make You know all things and are acquainted with all my ways
And I, will rest in Your promises, now and indeed, always I give You thanks, for You've given me the promotion And my enemies will see that You and I are in motion.

Sailor's Harbor

Like a fleeting cloud, my mind does sometimes wonder Like a dry leaf, I am weak; my heart seems to be under Like a broken branch, I do feel alone and also hopeless Like a forgotten soul, I am lost, dull and I am helpless
But like a bridge, You will carry me to the other side
And like an anchor, in You my sails will strongly abide.

Blessed be Your Name

My Father who art in heaven, blessed be Your holy name
I will place my faith in Your mercies, Your Word and claim At work, You elevated me when everyone was lowered
You added more money, my future You powered,
Therefore, I'll remember You, You are my Jehovah Jireh I'll deflect glory to You, without You, I have no sure way.

The People Dance

I'll celebrate the birth of a nation today, Lord be magnified
I will speak of the beauty that I see and I have identified When Your people stand to dance, O Lord, let it be justified When the music plays, Your faithfulness, it shall be testified You have given us many ways to be merry and satisfied In all things, Your copious Providence, shall be amplified.

Publish, Establish, Broadcast, Forecast

The love that bubbles in my soul for You LORD, I'll publish
This I will do for Your fame and glory both I will establish The peace I have, the gift of friends and family, I'll broadcast The promise of wealth and well-being, truly LORD I'll forecast For a thousand songs bellow in my heart, ready to be sung For You, Darling, only pure worship I reserve for my tongue.

Unapproachable Glory

Do favor me, You who dwells in unapproachable glory
The LORD, Jehovah who is above all and angers slowly
Be also for me, because no one then can be against me
Also plead my case, for You will forsake none of my plea Show Yourself strong for me, before men and all systems Your power never falters, Your triumph is sung in hymns.

More Than a Conqueror

I am a winner, yeah through Thee, more than a conqueror I will only rise, yeah ever higher to the scepter You anchor O LORD Jehovah, You are bigger than all those who hate us And it is not because of us, but because of our Lord Jesus So, I bring reasoned chat before You who watches over me Be praised LORD Yahweh, Yahweh our God You shall be.

A Fool for You

I would be a fool if I forsook my Lord in the land of the living I would be a bad investor if I overlooked all the Lord's giving For even if I was an atheist, I would be informed by my mind If I was an agnostic, I would still know that it is one of a kind It would be unfair, Lord, to carry on life like I invented it, I love You, Lord; I am filled by Your Word and Your Spirit.

Heal the Child

Yes, Lord, I have prayed and stood in the gap for my child Your arms of power, aren't they raised high and very wide?
Yet, You will not overlook even a little baby's piercing pain, A sucking babe understands, and Your trust it'll truly gain O God above all gods, I will mention You in every victory Yes, Lord, healing You've written in every human story.

Can't Live without You

O Lord, I fail to understand how one can survive without You The waves of anxiety came rushing, I could not pass through No person, no money or even sound advice would relieve O Lord, only a simple trust, how comforting for me to believe, Surely, You have placed gems in easy and convenient things, So lovely the simplicity of Your complexity to human beings.

Keeper of Secrets

You are known to be merciful, Oh, keeper of our secrets deep You will honor Your Word, You will You will always keep, How comforting the knowledge that You will not shame us out Our God, You will not spread our weaknesses way about But Your truth is with those who pray to You, who trust For You will be loved always for the sake of Christ.

Wondering Thoughts

You are always and perfectly aware of all my concern
And the things that bother me, You'll know for certain How that when I am deep in my
wondering thoughts,
And You still come early to mend all my line of faults,
Who is like unto You, LORD, secret prayers He'll hear?
Who can compare to You, when I need Him, He's there?

I Will Love You

I will love You, O Lord, every day for the rest of my life

I will nudge the edge to pray, and will kneel without strife

I will wake up early to greet my Maker and Him to adore

I will not relent to praise; I'll persist to knock at His door

Oh, sanctify the Lord, you faculties in me that He made

Do exhort His name, and do so effortlessly, without aid.

My Bread and Butter

My God, my God, You've been my bread and my butter My daily portion You prepare, ever sumptuous and fatter Before I know of my next position, You've already known Before I walk into my destiny, You've there already gone
You prepare a table for me, when I least am even aware Oh, praise God, my Provider, His glory
He cannot share.

No Hope is Gone

There are times when it seems like all hope is totally gone Those are times when days look shorter, nights wan Then morning comes, and God looks down from Heaven O Lord, I look at all that is around about me You've given,
My children, wife, jobs, friends and relatives who are dear, O Lord, all praise is Yours, for You're my shield and spear.

In My Dreams

In my dream, I sat in the Church where me You nourished
My heart was fixed only on You, I saw all,
and it flourished,
The Bishop, his members, were all happy, and we praised We danced to tunes, laughed aloud, and hands we raised,
For all the brethren are one, O Lord, You've given me a family Your praise will always be on my lips, worship's my homily.

Still Praise

Though the cash register records only zeroes, I will praise Though I am disappointed by my heroes, I'll still Him praise Though no client makes a good call, the Lord I will praise
Though waiting may on me take a toll, yet Him I will praise
Though there is no promotion in sight, Lord, You I'll praise Though days turn into nights, Jesus my Lord, I'll still praise.

Just Like Sheep

I'd have bragged about me, till I realized I am just like sheep I'm broken, shaken, stricken and a smitten and damaged hip Like a lamb, am dull, slow in thinking and overall defenseless Oh, in need of the Shepherd I am, in need of Your holy place, Do take me in, Oh, my Father, through Jesus Your holy Son, There, I may follow, daily enjoying You with praise and fun.

At Calvary

The enemy of our souls at Calvary, the Savior he whipped Not knowing in the Savior's blood, all faults would be wiped So severe the pain the devil thought would the Savior break But little did he understand children of God would this make Oh, how precious this flood of the blood, salvation it permits, Oh, how powerful this fluid, sins it forgives, debts it remits.

November 15th

It was November 15th, early in the wee hours, came demons My soul they squeezed, the night made sour as the drip of lemons I asked God strength to supply, posture to grant, mind to restore No sooner had I prayed this than my faculties the Lord did bestow Then my voice returned to me by the power of the name of Jesus, The messengers of Satan fled by the power of the blood of Jesus.

Thy Love as Thy Goodness

You are holy, Thy garments are as snow You are merciful, Thou demands meekness as of now You hate dishonesty, Thy wrath has been tempered by grace Oh, that Thou shouldst hide me from all disgrace For in mine won strength, I fail under temptations' weight But Thy goodness, mine soul it presevereth, Thy love as high as Thy height.

In the Name of Jesus

The evil forces appeared from all corners and angles surround Their venom bristled my tender bones and sinews totally round Then I talked to Satan, I said, "Leave me alone, I want to sleep," O Lord, these pleasures have all who believe in Calvary's drip For in the name of Jesus all knees shall bow, tongues will confess It's an honor to enter Your sanctuary, there Your name to bless.

Master of All Actions

You are above all things, O Sovereign Lord, above all kings
You are Master of all Actions, O Mighty Warrior, King of kings, You're immortal, You're perfect, Glorious Savior, so You are The heavenly planet, galaxy, moon, sun and Venus the star, All bow before You when You awake, all their crown they lay You see men blossom, and quickly they go like broken clay.

In Honor of Your Name

I love You Lord, and I lift up my voice in honor of Your name I am not ashamed of anything on earth, I have none to blame, And this is what I will do when life overwhelms, "I will praise," I will kneel, I will bow, I will prostrate, and my hands I will raise Then I shall sing, and listen carefully to the message of song, For You, Lord, I will dance, I will worship, for, for You I long.

Above All Things

My God is above all things, above all nature and all wonders Even a child's tiny mind is curious, and its little faculty ponders It knows that beyond the far galaxy, and right here, God is, It smiles to the wind, and to unseen forces it beckons at ease I am totally flabbergasted, O Lord, I am amazed at Your power I bless You for all excellences and intelligences You shower.

Most Immanent God

I will praise You, Most Immanent God, my praise I liberally bring For You are Most Transcendent, O Lord,
You are the only King The majesty of Your throne, cannot compare to earthly palaces No-one can approach Your glory unless You grant divine passes I call on all creatures: Humans, animals and fowls and all insects, All, Oh, worship Him, lay down all your pride, your titles and sects.

Never a Day Like it

From creation, there has never been a day like it When the LORD Jehovah, through His Holy Spirit
And from yonder, further than the Third
Heaven
By Virgin Mary, the sounds of joy to humans given,
Oh, how holy the night, oh how divine the light
Oh, glory, glorious shall You always be, ever bright.

Death is Dead

When I received the bad news of the death of a relation I sat in quietness and contained my tears in deep reflection
I mourned for my sister who should go through this twice Then I recalled, Christ predicted His death on the Cross thrice, And all who are alive may put their trust in His salvation, Halleluiah, death is defeated; it's met its final deprivation.

Blessed Be Today

Blessed be today, when from You, Father, nice things are falling Blessed still be tomorrow, Your voice, Daddy, will come calling Blessed will be in the future, Abba, You will let Your founts pour Blessed will be my heart in this, Oh, love, I will not cease to adore Oh, blessed be God All-wise, for the glory of those who seek Him, Bless the Holy Trinity; we have nothing in them but the cream.

My Stronghold and Fortress

The Lord is my loving God and my fortress, He is my stronghold He is my deliverer; I will praise His name, His fame I will uphold My trust I will not also put in mortal humans who cannot save.
When their spirit departs, they're dead, and return to the grave On that very day their plans come to nothing, they are forgotten But my God lives forever, and eternal immortality He's begotten.

Faith's Prime Defender

Who is He who upholds the cause of the oppressed everywhere?

Who gives food to the hungry, and who provides plenty to share?

Who is He who sets prisoners free, and gives sight to the blind?

Who lifts up those who are bowed down, and is to all very kind?

It is the LORD God Almighty, the Maker of Heaven and the earth

It is the Lord who loves righteousness, prime defender of the faith.

Let Me Tell You

Let me tell you what is wonderful and full of incredible mysteries The wind simply blows; no-one knows where it lays its sanctuaries The sand of the earth is in myriad, yet He knows each of its parts, He dissects microscopic bowels, and He operates on their hearts, No single heartbeat escapes Him; He counts each of our breath Now, tell me, who likens to our God who made heaven and earth?

The Sky Has Clouds

The LORD covers the sky with clouds;
He supplies the earth with rain The LORD makes grass grow on the hills; He gives farmers the grain
The LORD provides food for the cattle, for young ravens when they call The LORD forsakes not His creation; He picks up leaves when they fall His pleasure isn't in the strength of the warheads, or in war tanks above, He delights in those who fear Him, who put their hope in His abiding love.

My Portion and My Share

My soul rejoices, for God is the portion of my share, and of my cup, The LORD Jehovah also upholds my lot, when I fall, He picks me up My lines have fallen in pleasant places; I do have a gorgeous legacy I bless Jehovah God who has counseled me; He is my holy fantasy For I have placed Jehovah before me continually, in Him I am safe, The LORD God Jehovah is at my right hand, I shall not be unsafe.

Strong Like an Eagle

I will rise up very strong like an eagle with wind in its wings

I will resist the pang not to praise just to do all other things

I will instruct nature, I will say to mountains and all the trees,

“If you see humans lax in adoration of Jehovah for who He is,”

“Do it yourselves, rise and sing halleluiah, raise up your voice,”

For Jehovah is worthy, among other gods there is no choice.

Reason I Seek

I'll seek God me to guide early, before day's issues overwhelm I'll give my sacrifices of praise in the morning; I'll rise to His realm Therefore, when the problems me surround or me take hostage, In Jehovah's pavilion, rest I, under His wings, take will I my stage, O Lord, who is like unto You, who defends those in deep trouble?
And is the source of all peace, the Holy One, lifter of the feeble.

A Journey to the LORD

When I am threatened by the many life pressures around about, I take a journey, to the LORD Jehovah I run, His truth to find out You, O Lord, You are the only one who conquers all my anxieties, You keep me in peace and wash me from all my improprieties, And life is worth living, because You align it with sparks of roses, For those who worship Him, He loves, but all pride He opposes.

Full of Special Things

Oh, life is full of special things, all things around are simply lovely As I meditate on all these, I am no longer bored, no longer lonely, The sun shines to brighten the day, and to close off the night, The moon provides comfort, and gives sleep its calmly right, The stars spark the firmament, in numbers they are in myriad, O Lord, You are well-known to all creation, You require no ad.

No Need to Test

O Lord, I do not need to test You, I know You keep Your Word You will honor faith, and You will raise up those who are dead, My soul is joyous now, because there is monetary news ahead, I know this for my heart informs me, faith's voice I have heard, O Lord, this pleasure only those who believe in You do have,
And because You've given faith, be elevated far and far above.

By His Own Power

By His own power, the Lord has enlarged my portion
By His love, He puts the fountains of wealth in motion
I've trusted in the mercies of the Lord
Most Sovereign
I have not lost faith; His answers to me aren't foreign, Even now I ask, "Lord provide this much by tomorrow," Oh, thank You Almighty God, for I'll not have to borrow.

Christmas Fun-Fair

I went with my family to a Christmas Fun-Fair at Woodbine It was the first time Cutera and I rode into many a show-fine Then I remembered how, Father, it must please You to see, How that us earthly parents can for our children there be,
But You are more than a parent, You are a caring Father, May my days be spent caring for those for me You gather.

In One Day

In one day, I was inundated by numerous work schedules
At my college, I was required to review several modules,
I rarely had time to sit and write down my daily adorations,
It pained me, my Holy Darling, it brought me frustrations,
Then within this chaotic agenda, I sneaked into my heart, How relieved I was, when You and I were no longer apart.

He Picked Me Up

He reaches into deepest pit, and stoops down me to get He travels far and wide, and comes back, me not to forget You, O Lord, are very strong, in Your presence I am bubbly You, O Lord, are the song in my night, which is very lovely You are master of all my deadlines, all my needs You meet I bring me praises from my heart, and bow me happily at Your feet.

Color's Mystery

Mine brown eyes attended Thee a feast, to sing color's mystery All blue songs, have I gladly composed for mine purple hymnary I seeth red and pink flowers, brightening the ever-green environs And orange and white sounds into mine soul ringeth deific sirens Thou hast decked black as a center guard in gowns of pure gold, These all, reveal Thy mind's splendor,
Oh, how colorful to behold.

Witness in My Heart

I have a witness in my heart that God will perfect His rule I will not despair, for though He may delay, His Word is true, The LORD is a Man of War, in His arm I completely trust
He will fulfill my earnest expectations, even at the very last Oh, rise up, O Mighty Warrior, let all Your enemies scatter Your Eternal Word will stand, it will happen what You utter.

My Hope and My Confidence

I love You, Lord my God, my hope and my confidence
My last resort, to Whom I run to seek secure audience When I am overly overwhelmed by life's severest storms
To You I report, and in time my strength swiftly blossoms
You will lead me into financial victory in just two days
Oh, how powerful Your commands, You're just in all ways.

To Your Kindness, Lord

To Your kindness, I woke up this morning, to a glorious sun Though it was so cold outside, inside the car it was all fun
To the promise of a clear and God-given, gorgeous day
For sure, O Lord, You have gone before me on my way I do sense the trees stretching up from a restful slumber
And builders whistling wisely, for You've provided lumber.

No Longer Pretend

There is a place where we all can no longer pretend A time when all that is untrue comes to their own end Then all things become as clear as a white snowy day
All You have given us soon we shall all have to repay Your steadfast love, O Lord, will never ever be ceased
And Your sympathies will each morning not be eased.

My Perfect Redeemer

Oh, my Lord, my God and my perfect redeemer, be called Be summoned upon the high blowing sea, Oh, be bold My offenders have fallen, and all their plans are thwarted
You will turn their threats into blessings, all ploys halted
And I will perpetually worship before Your glorious throne I'll give You lasting praise for wonders
You have shown.

Daddy, Daddy, Daddy, Daddy

Oh, Daddy, Daddy, Daddy, Daddy, I love
 You so much
The pleasure to be Your son, there is no other catch
The peace of burdens drowned, and of hopes raised,
 And the experience of seeing fears completely erased
What more can I seek out from You, other than You?
Who else deserves my purest worship, but only You?

Ides of March, My Dearest

O Lord my dearest One, on these Ides of March
It is Thee that I seek, in me Thy love to hatch
One thing which I dearly want of only Thee
To be a love dispenser, conduit this to my plea Oh, let these mine faculties Thy glories doth excel
That in actions or words, Thy praise doeth prevail.

Little and Major Thing

You give me every little and major thing that I need You listen to me when I call, my request
You heed
I sometimes take for granted the benefits
I enjoy
You heal my body, save my soul, and provide joy For my being's details, You've answered all my why O Lord, I will praise You always, till the day I die.

Holy Conference

A mound of interrogations upon me have they heaped Unrelenting, they gather evidence, a restless night they have reaped But You are my source of real and lasting confidence
My favored breakthrough You discuss at Your Holy Conference,
What they meant to bring me down, You made it my gateway to success, O LORD, my Father, I praise You, for You're my never ending progress.

Since Birth

Since the day, I opened my eyes on this earth
And when it was said, "It's a boy," at my birth
Since when I knew not who I was, I was a child
And even when I began to be aware, and to abide You have been my anchor, holding me at life's sea
You, O Lord, and only You, my strength You'll be.

Father, I Love You

I love You, Father, and I don't have a reason Just loving You, O Lord, in and out of season
My life is not mine, am nothing without
You
Each day I owe You praise, which is my due
If I should fail to worship, Nature will spite me
And a cast away among Your creation I will be.

Dear Heart

I have absorbed myself of my own and
dear heart

I have engaged my mind in a genuine lifetime chat

I have again and again come to the same conclusion

That man's own intrigues are nothing but a delusion

That a man, apart from God, is only but a performer

My God is the real thing, the Almighty Redeemer.

Can't Hide My Affection for You, Jesus

I have vowed not to hide my affection for You, Jesus
I've informed myself of what matters, is really Jesus For You never changes, You remain the same, Jesus Your words are as credible as Your actions, O Jesus
I can't pretend anymore; I've found rare gem in Jesus In You, I've no boring moment, no regrets, O Jesus.

Part of Your Grand Master Plan

I was restless, always worried, and very traumatized

I was tortured, always wondering and very surprised

O God, my soul taunted me, my thoughts haunted me

Then like from a dream I awoke and clearly now I see

That I am just a small part of Your Grand Master Plan

I can't be without You, but You can be all without man.
