

JORDAN OAKS

NASHVILLE RECORDING ARTIST

BIO

Jordan Oaks is a singer/songwriter originally from New England. Jordan's love of country music stems from his deep southern roots. Jordan's family is originally from Houston, Texas, Jordan was exposed early on to classic country legends, such as Johnny Cash, Merle Hagard, George Strait and countless others.

In 2020, Jordan was featured on Country Rebel securing over 40,000 views and a plethora of support from his audience. Jordan has opened for notable country artists including Clay Walker, Jerrod Niemann, Rodney Atkins, Jimmie Allen, Parmalee and Travis Denning.

Jordan was recently featured live on Fox & Friends, performing his newest single "He Bleeds Blue," honoring law enforcement.

ABOUT JORDAN OAKS

"Was completely blown away by the mature tone that came from this young man. Enjoyed listening to songs from the past and present of all genre's. Looking forward to seeing him play again and again and again."

-Miranda | Connecticut

"Where do I get their CD? Where do I see them Next? Phenomenal!"

-Alex | South Carolina

"I have never been so amazed in my life. When I was eating I turned my head and actually thought it was Garth Brooks. Truly Unbelievable! Love these guys."

-Kelly | Florida
