

Opportunity • Unity • Excellence

Christopher Leinberger

Class of 1968Year Inducted 2011

An urban and suburban re-developer, teacher, strategic planner, researcher, and author, Mr. Leinberger balances business realities with social and environmental issues. A fellow at the Brookings Institute, he is a professor at the University of Michigan's Graduate Real Estate Development Program, a founding member of Arcadia Land Co., and current President of Locus. Voted one of the "Top 100 Urban Thinkers" in 2009, he also won the William Whyte Award for Urbanism in 2010.