When Bruce Duchossois purchased this land in 2000, he did so with a vision of its past, present, and future as a fixture of Aiken's equestrian tradition. While his immediate goal was to save the land from residential development, Bruce's dream was to develop South Carolina's premier equestrian facility - maintaining its historic character and paying forward the generosity of his predecessors.

Knowing he may not live to see his dream fulfilled, Bruce created a Foundation to carry on his vision that "Bruce's Field" may provide future generations with a place to hold the events that he cherished - traditional venues with character and integrity; a place where the City of Aiken's charitable and civic endeavors may be held for the benefit and enjoyment of residents and visitors, of all ages and riding abilities.

Bruce's Field is dedicated with love, warmth, and admiration to the community of Aiken whose equestrian traditions Bruce deeply cherished.

OUR MISSION

Equine Rescue of Aiken is one of the largest non-profit, equine rescues in the southeast with 45 – 65 horses in our care. We are more than just a rescue - we are a place of hope and second chances. We are committed to giving retired racehorses a new purpose, working closely with Thoroughbred trainers and owners to help Off-the-Track Thoroughbreds find fulfilling lives beyond racing. But our mission doesn't stop there. We work with horses seized by Animal Control who have suffered from neglect or abuse.

Our work is about more than just saving horses—it's about the powerful bond between humans and these incredible animals. Through rescue efforts, community outreach, and heartfelt connections, we embrace our motto: "People helping horses, horses helping people." Every horse we save changes a life, and every life they touch reminds us why this mission matters.

Aiken Equine Rescue is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit organization. Tax ID 20-5162723

The MISSION of the Aiken Horse Park Foundation is to promote Aiken's equestrian way of life and to encourage the community's civic, educational, and charitable endeavors.

Bruce's Legacy

When Bruce Duchossois acquired the field in 2000, he did so with a vision of its past, present, and future as a fixture of Aiken's equestrian tradition. While his immediate goal was to save the land from residential development, Bruce's dream was to grow it into South Carolina's premier equestrian facility—maintaining its historic character, and paying forward the generosity of his predecessors.

Knowing he may not live to see his dream realized, Bruce created a Foundation to carry on his vision that "Bruce's Field" may provide future generations with a place to hold the kinds of events that he cherished—old-fashioned venues with character and integrity; not an international horse park, but an intimate field in the center of the celebrated Horse District, where riders from the youngest lead line toddlers to the strongest Grand Prix competitors can come several times a season and compete on the best quality surfaces; not limited in its use, but a place where the City of Aiken's many charitable and civic endeavors may be held for the benefit and enjoyment of all residents and visitors.

Bruce dearly loved Aiken and was so thankful for what it gave him. He offered this gift to the people and to the city knowing that he would not be able to enjoy it himself, and asking nothing in return but that others enjoy it in his stead.

These shows seek to provide the kind of experience that Bruce cherished—old-fashioned venues with character and integrity, held on an intimate field in the center of the celebrated Horse District, where riders from the youngest lead line toddlers to the strongest Grand Prix competitors can compete on the best quality surfaces.

The Aiken Charity Horse Shows are the major fund-raising events intended to sustain the Aiken Horse Park Foundation throughout the year. Your sponsorship will allow Bruce's Field to continue to be an important asset to Aiken.

Dog owners failing to comply with this rule may be subject to penalty under Chapters 6 and 7, as well as issuance of warning cards pursuant to rule GR 301. At all times, while the horse is on the show grounds, we will provide for the continuous well-being of the horse by vigorously enforcing the rules of the USEF which pertain to the welfare of the horse. USEF rules defining policy regarding abuse and use of whips will be strictly enforced. No poling, use of bamboo off-set or excessive use of the whip will be tolerated. The well being of the horse must be considered above the demands of the breeders, trainers, riders, owners, dealers, organizers, sponsors or officials. Violators may be subject to penalties pursuant to USEF rules. In the event of an acute and serious injury to or illness of a horse on competition grounds when the owner or trainer of the horse or agent of the owner is not present, after reasonable effort to contact that individual has been made, competition management, in consultation with a licensed equine veterinarian, may authorize the provision of emergency veterinary treatment of the horse.
