

Aiken Charity Horse Shows May 2018

On behalf of Shawna Dietrich, Daniel Geitner, the Horse Show Committee, and the Board of Directors, thank you for choosing to join us in Aiken this past May. We sincerely hope you had a memorable experience as we certainly enjoyed hosting you here at Bruce's Field. Aiken was recently named the Best Small Town in the South by Southern Living Magazine and is often referred to as "A Place Like No Other" It is our wish that after your visit, you too felt Aiken's unique and friendly atmosphere.

Bruce loved his adopted town, and Aiken certainly loved him. He purchased this property in 2000 to safeguard it from potential development and to have the opportunity to run his type of horse shows! Shows that are full of hospitality, end at a decent hour each day, provide his friends with a high standard of competition, and most importantly a place where everyone feels welcome. We hope that we have come close to fulfilling his dream and that you will make the Aiken Charity Horse show a regular fixture on your spring competition calendar.

There were so many people that helped make this show a success, including countless volunteers and staff. Additionally we are very grateful to everyone who donated, sponsored and supported us. Without their tremendous efforts none of this would have been possible.

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR FRIENDS, DONORS, AND SPONSORS

York Cottage Antiques

PO Box 1951
Aiken, SC 29802

Video Highlights from 2018

Thank you A & S Photography, for capturing all of these memorable moments

Victoria Colvin aboard Brad Wolf's Private Practice (above)

Jack Wetzel, Dayle Duchossois-Fortino, Ed Fortino, and Craig Duchossois presenting the $25,000 USHJA International Hunter Derby trophy in Memory of Bruce Duchossois (below)

Harold Chopping and Fantom owned by Andrew Philbrick soaring over the Purina Mills jump (below)

Liza Towell-Boyd with her daughter Elle Boyd (below)

City of Aiken Mayor Rick Osbon, his wife Angie Osbon, and Foundation president Jack Wetzel presenting the $25,000 Aiken Charity Horse Show Grand-Prix trophy to Emanuel Andrade and his mount Bon Jovi. 30 entries traversed the Peter Grant course with 10 making it to the jump-off. Emanuel stopped the clock at 39.252 over a second faster than 2nd place Victoria Colvin on Zambia Mystic Rose owned by Harris Mistica Rose (below)

SAVE THE DATE

AIKEN CHARITY HORSE SHOWS
MAY 1 - 12, 2019

See what's happening on our social sites

Aiken Horse Park Foundation | 931 Powderhouse Road, PO Box 1951, Aiken, SC 29802

Unsubscribe {recipient's email}.

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by tara@aikenhorsepark.org powered by

Try email marketing for free today!