AMY RUTH BORUN JOINS AIKEN HORSE PARK FOUNDATION BOARD

AIKEN, SOUTH CAROLINA, December 9, 2021 -- The Aiken Horse Park Foundation is pleased to welcome Amy Ruth Borun to its Board of Directors.

Amy has a finance and business management background in investment companies, public companies, and charitable organizations. Amy lives in Pennsylvania and winters in Aiken, SC, while managing investments for the Borun family portfolio and the Anna and Harry Borun Foundation. Before leaving full time work she was a partner at Candela Solutions (now KralUssery CPA), a public accounting company, consulting for SEC registered companies. Amy is active on numerous Boards, assisting in financial audit, budgeting, and board governance. She is Chair and manager of a family foundation. Amy moved to Unionville, PA in 2000 from Los Angeles. She is an advanced level adult amateur in Equestrian Eventing, is active in sport governance (USEF Task Force member) and competition management. She has a life-long interest in protecting public and private lands and believes engaging the public in this process is necessary for a sustainable environment.

Upon accepting her nomination to the Board, Amy acknowledged Bruce's legacy and the Foundation's mission in saying:

I was fortunate to meet Bruce a few times over the years and admired his joy of life, generosity and love for his friends and horses. His legacy is a jewel in the heart of Aiken which honors the community he cherished and its rich history in horse sports. It is a privilege to work with an organization dedicated to serving this community in so many ways.

Foundation President Jack Wetzel recognized the importance of the addition of Borun to the Board, saying:

Amy's passion for non-profit work, her background in finance, and her deep respect for our mission is another key step in the advancement of the Foundation

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR GENEROUS PARK SPONSORS

Promoting Aiken's equestrian way of life and encouraging the community's civic, educational, and charitable endeavors.
