

DRESSAGE IN THE SPRING
USEF/USDF LEVEL 3
JULY 22 & 23

Thank you to all of our riders, volunteers, officials, and staff for making this year's Dressage In The Spring a success. Originally scheduled for May 16 & 17, Dressage In The Spring could not have happened without the continued support of our exhibitors, and steady guidance from our dressage show manager Teresa Uddo.

We are particularly grateful for the enthusiasm and willingness of our volunteers, without which we could not have run this show. Competing in 96-98 degree weather is not particularly fun, but volunteering in these conditions calls for total selflessness. Sincerest thanks to Lisi Tibrea, Mit Corothers, Gayl Ray, Sue Bender, and Joy Atwell. These shows depend almost solely on volunteers, all of us at Bruce's Field appreciate your sense of volunteerism and commitment to Aiken's equine community.

This past week's competition featured two outstanding judges, Sara Schmitt, and Jodi Lees, Technical Delegate Beth Davidson and announcer extraordinaire Nicho Meredith!

We were also very fortunate to engage the services of Amber Lee as horse show secretary, her boundless energy and infinite knowledge kept us all on track. Our COVID-19 pre-screening station was run and organized by Christine Rhodes, providing us with confidence that we were not only in compliance with the USEF COVID-19 PROTOCOLS but that we were also safe. Rounding out this week's team is Kate Boggan our director of Marketing and Communications at Bruce's Field, who does so much more... to keep everything running smoothly.

Matt Coggan was our show farrier, and Southern Equine Service provided us with our show veterinary services. As always On Scene Medics of Aiken Inc. watched over us each day with excellent EMT and Paramedics.
